ACCUSES THE VATICAN OF DEMANDING A BRIBE.

Sensational Attack Published
in Germany -- In France
There Has Not as Yet Been Any Serious
Trouble -- Many Messages
Received by the Pope

ROME, Dec. 13.—Enormous numbers of telegrams expressing sympathy arriving at the Vatican, and the Vatican officials are beginning to turn them over to the Observatore Romano for publication.

Tonight's paper publishes two such messages. One is from Archbishop Ireland to Papal Secretary of State Merry Del Val, begging him and the Pope to accept his deepest sympathy in the great trials emanating from France, and expressing the sender's wish for the ultimate triumph of the church.

The second message is from the Catholic Church Extension Society of the United States, and is signed by Archbishops Quigley, Bourgade and Messmer.

Commenting upon the two messages
the Pontiff is reported to have said:
"Far distant America is always the first to respond when religion, sentiment and patriotism are concerned."

The Pope was gratified to learn from today's despatches that the incidents of the day in Paris had not been serious, but he expressed the deepest concern over the situation of thousands of parish priests, "innocent and humble victims of the revolution who had been despoiled and turned out."

Monsieur Montagnini was engaged with the Secretary of State the entire day. He saw the Pope again today.
It had been learned that Monsiegnor Montagnini was able to save and bring away with him a considerable number of important documents. This was accomplished through the assistance of a friend, Dr. Froja, who was staying with him at Paris. As soon as Dr.
Froja learned that the Montagnini was being searched he escaped from the building with a handbag crammed full of papers. Dr. Froja is the mysterious friend of Mgr. Montagnini whom the French newspapers tried in vain to identify.

BERLIN, Dec. 13.—The National Zeitung publishes an extract from a certain unpublished portion of the Von Hohenlohe memoirs which declares that Pope Leo XIII. at one time expressed the desire of a gift of $100,000 from the Emperor of Germany in connection with a bill which was before the Reichstag in 1887 for the increase of the peace footing of the army. Prince Von Hohenlohe, whose opinion in this matter was asked, agreed thereto, but advised withholding the money until the bill had been passed, but to at once inform the Pope that it would be given.
In the meantime the Pope was to be presented with a jewel of value.

The explanation of this reported incident is that the clerical party was opposed to the passage of the bill in question and the $100,000 presumably was intended to secure its favorable votes.

PARIS, Dec. 14.—The first day of the regime of the separation of Church and State having passed without grave disorders, public interest in the details already is flagging. It is now apparent that the resistance of the clergy will be purely passive and that there is no prospect of religious passions being aroused unless the churches are closed.
The government therefore is resting on its laurels and will continue to do so until parliament authorizes the drastic measures which the cabinet is preparing. In the meantime in churches where legal applications were filed, the police again took note of infractions of the law at the morning masses. Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris, is awaiting expulsion from the Episcopal mansion in regard to the payment for religious instructions. Holds that the city council is bound to pay for the whole, religious as well as secular. The lords
thus uphold the original interpretation
of the act of 1892, under which the
"passive registers" headed by Dr.
Clifford were fined and imprisoned.

JAPAN SAID TO BE ACTING UNFAIRLY WITH RUSSIA

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 13.—The relations of the Russian and Japanese diplomats who are negotiating the treaty of commerce between their respective countries have been seriously strained by the publication of an actively inspired from Nagasaki, of a dispatch reflecting upon the good faith of Russia regarding the institution of the "open door" and insinuating that she is getting her troops out of Manchuria.

This Japanese statement is characterized here as an issue of inexactitudes, designed to influence the public opinion of the world, while Japan is taking advantage of Russia's weakness to obtain profit never contemplated by the Treaty of Portsmouth.

GENERAL NOGI WAS THROWN FROM HIS HORSE

TOKIO, Dec. 13.—General Nogi, the Japanese commander who captured Port Arthur, was thrown from his horse today while returning home from the palace. He fell on his head and became unconscious.

His condition caused apprehension.

FIREMEN WORKED WITH MERCURY 15 BELOW

The Cottage Occupied by Thomas King at Sussex Was Destroyed This Morning.

SUSSEX, N. B., Dec. 14.—The pretty cottage owned by Mrs. William Wallace of Campbellton, and occupied by Thomas King, was destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. The firemen fought the fire for three hours in a temperature 15 below zero. Mr.
King saved a small part of his furniture. The house was insured for $500 in the Sun; furniture $100 in the Anglo-American.

MADE A DESPERATE EFFORT TO CATCH THE LEADERS

Biddell and Walthour Spurred for Sixteen Minutes but Failed to Make A Bail.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—The contestants in the six-day bicycle race were grinding out laps in a mechanical manner this morning after an eventful night. The positions, however, were unchanged, according to the riders, although the spectators believe that Stoll and George had been lapped by a sensational sprint. The spurt was started when a split second before the finish. Walthour and Biddell, smarting under a decision rendered an hour earlier, when a split second before the finish, they had nearly won, started at a mad pace that kept all the riders bent over their handle bars to do their best and kept the spectators in a continual roar of cheers and excitement. Resulting as another very few laps, Walthour and Biddell kept going at their best pace and forced the other riders to call on their partners for help and relief. George and Stoll, whose partners had been hurt in the spill at 2 a. m. were the only riders who could not get relief and they had to bear the brunt of the fight for their team. It was killing work and they finally lagged to such an extent that it was thought they had lost a lap when the spurt was made and they finally lagged minutes, was suspended.

The score, however, when it was being kept at four o'clock showed no change.

Biddell and Walthour are in good shape and they have promised to make the race interesting before the day is over. They protested earnestly early today when they were asked to be about to gain a lap. Fogler fell causing a spill. They claimed that the fall occurred purposely and for a time they refused to ride again until something was done. They were appeased and the race which had been delayed an hour was resumed.

8 a. m.—Score: The nine leaders,
1,736 miles; Walthour-Biddell,
1,736 miles; Biddell-Samuelson, one lap less,
and Galvin and Wiley, 1,736 miles flat.
Record, 2,014-3.

PASSIVE RESISTERS ARE SUBJECT TO FINES

LONDON, Dec. 14.—The house of lords has reversed the decision of the appellate court in the West Riding case in regard to the payment for religious instructions. Holds that the city council is bound to pay for the whole, religious as well as secular. The lords
thus uphold the original interpretation
of the act of 1892, under which the
"passive registers" headed by Dr.
Clifford were fined and imprisoned.

crease of phlegm in the lungs. The satisfactory.

THE DEATH LIST ON THE GREAT LAKES

One Hundred and Twenty Six Lives Lost This Season.

Of this Number Fifty Two Were Due to Wrecks or Other Marine Disasters
—Thirty Eight Fell Overboard

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—One hundred and twenty-six lives were lost in navigating the Great Lakes this season. Compared with the loss of 215 in 1905 the season's death list appears small and yet with but two exceptions, it was the largest in the decade. During the year 38 persons were lost overboard, 15 fell into the holds of vessels and were killed and 11 met their death by machine accidents on shipboard, two committed suicide and three died from natural causes. Fifty-two were lost when their ships founders and five were drowned in collisions.

SOME ORIGINAL EXCUSES MADE BY DOG OWNERS

There was an unusual scene in the police court this morning when the play was made of a dog which had been taken to the police station with hands full of unserved summonses and dog licenses.

Another man said that last spring
he gave his dog away to a base ball player after he had licensed it, and that the dog returned, but had been again given away.

NOT $7,000 IN DIAMONDS, BUT 50c. IN GLASS BEADS

ing that a box of diamonds, valued at gram, Thomas Maloney, head checker that no box of diamond necklaces had been placed in the shed.

Gans started up with an angry scowl, but Manager Riley interposed, locked arms with Herman and carried him off, while Gans' friends cooled off the Baltimore fighter.

AMEMBASSADOR AT WASHINGTON.
(Toronto News.)
The Vancouver province names Earl Grey for the office of British ambassador at Washington. The British government could hardly make a better appointment. But there is no reason to think that his name has been considered by the home authorities, and certainly he is in Canada greatly desired that he should complete his term as Governor General. There is, however, much to be said in favor of appointing to Washington British diplomats who have served as governors general of this country. They know Canadian sentiments and understand Canadian interests, and the bearing of our relationships with the United States is not known. "Dianta or Eifinn" meaning made in Ireland. It is applicable to anything produced or manufactured in the country.

VIC. TICKETS FOR CHRISTMAS.
Judging from the manner in which the Victoria Rink telephone is ringing these days Santa Claus has decided to give away the usual number of season tickets for Christmas boxes; indeed he will give more than ever before. In a Vic. ticket there's a whole season crammed full of the happiest times, of good healthful skating, of innumerable band concerts, Happy is the boy or girl who finds the necessary pasteboards dangling on the tree the morning of the 25th.

AMEMBASSADOR AT WASHINGTON.
(Toronto News.)
The Vancouver province names Earl Grey for the office of British ambassador at Washington. The British government could hardly make a better appointment. But there is no reason to think that his name has been considered by the home authorities, and certainly he is in Canada greatly desired that he should complete his term as Governor General. There is, however, much to be said in favor of appointing to Washington British diplomats who have served as governors general of this country. They know Canadian sentiments and understand Canadian interests, and the bearing of our relationships with the United States is not known. "Dianta or Eifinn" meaning made in Ireland. It is applicable to anything produced or manufactured in the country.

THEIR CHILD DIED AS STEAMER DOCKED
To two of the immigrants who reached St. John yesterday by the steamer Casandra the happiness and delight which marks the happy entry into the land of opportunity was turned to the deepest sorrow. During the voyage to St. John their eight-week-old child had caught a cold and despite the care of the doctor pneumonia set in. Yesterday, after the ship docked and during the cheerful bustle of a crowd of passengers the baby died. Arrangements were made by the steamship agents for its burial, and an undertaker was summoned to take charge of the remains. The parents, who are Belgians, could speak no English, and their grief was more keenly felt as they had no one to sympathize with them. They were destined for western Canada, and as they had to go forward by the special train yesterday afternoon they could not even wait to see the child interred. After one last look at the tiny form which had in the few short weeks of its life become so dear to them the parents sadly left the steamer probably wondering whether the golden opportunities of the new country were worth the sacrifice of the young life which their voyage had already cost them.

NUBIAN TEXT FOUND BY SAVANT
Discovery of Great Importance to History
By Its Aid Inscriptions in Egypt May Now Be Deciphered.
BERLIN, Dec. 13.—A discovery of great importance to philology and history has just been made at Cairo by Carl Schmidt, a German savant, who is an authority on Coptic and the early Christian archeology of Upper Egypt. Some insignificant sheets of parchment, supposed to be late Coptic manuscripts of small value, were offered to him for sale. He at once noticed that the language was not Coptic. He concluded from the recurrence of the word nubi, which among modern Nubians means King, that the text was written in Nubian. This was a great discovery, since Nubian, although still spoken has long ceased to be a written language. As soon, therefore, as the documents can be fully ciphered philological science will be richer by knowledge of the language spoken by the inhabitants of Nubia before the invasion of the Semitic tribes. A further consequence is that it will probably now be possible to read the inscriptions on a large number of ancient monuments in Egypt, which heretofore have been a mystery. There will doubtless be light thrown on the history of the earliest races. Herz Schmidt has ascertained already that two of the Nubian fragments are translations of Christian works. The first consists of a collection of extracts from the New Testament, and the second a hymn to the Cross. There are frequent references to St. Paul. Unfortunately, the Greek original of the fragments is not known. The manuscripts date from the eighth century, A. D.

ST. JOHN STAR.
ST. JOHN, N. B., DEC. 14, 1906.

DELAY OF THE EMPRESS.

In the House of Commons yesterday, replying to a question by Mr. Roche of Halifax, Hon. Mr. Lemaux said the mail steamer Empress of Britain on the last voyage from England anchored in the stream at Halifax on the 7th December, at 12.35 a. m. The mail train from Montreal left Halifax at 5.3 a. m. on the 8th December. The steamer arrived at the entrance to St. John harbor on the evening of the 7th of December about 5 minutes after 10. On account of thick fog and waiting for tide, there being insufficient water to float her, she did not reach dock until about 4.30 p. m. on 8th December. This answer was, no doubt, very gratifying to the representative of Halifax, but Mr. Lemaux, ordinarily well enough posted, evidently did not in this case succeed in obtaining the true facts. For the benefit of the worthy constituents of Mr. Roche, who are, no doubt, rejoicing over the reply made by the minister, the Star begs to present the true circumstances. On December seventh the Bay of Fundy and the entrance to St. John harbor were entirely free from fog or vapor, and had the Empress of Britain been permitted to come here direct she could have docked without one moment's delay. The changing temperatures had such an effect, however, that when the steamer did arrive here a thick vapor overspread the bay, and no doubt was equally dense in Halifax. There was no fog at that time the wind was blowing at from thirty-three to thirty-five miles an hour from the north and northwest, and under such conditions the existence of fog was impossible.

HAVE NO MORE NONSENSE.

The common council will meet in adjourned session this evening for the purpose of reappointing the various heads of departments. Since this farce was last gone through numerous incidents have occurred any one of which would fully justify the removal of the employes responsible, but the aldermen have been inclined to pass almost without notice the shortcomings of civic officials. The men who have been careless in performing their duty or who have shown that they are either incompetent, have been most generously dealt with. The city should not, however, stretch this sentiment too far, but the aldermen ought rather to aim at the introduction of business methods and keep in service only those men who are conscientious and capable. There have been opportunities of dispensing with the services of several heads of departments but these of course have not been accepted.

THE TRIBUTE OF THE SEA.

A few weeks ago the London Illustrated published an illustrated article dealing with the loss of life and of ships at sea during the year 1905. The naval and mercantile fleets of the British empire only were dealt with. In the December number of the National Magazine a writer following the same lines, presents striking figures of the loss by all nations. It is a noteworthy fact that considerably more than one-half of the vessels lost carried the British flag. The tribute to the sea during the year consisted of three hundred and eighty-nine steamships and six hundred and forty-nine registered sailing vessels, a total of one thousand and thirty-eight. Out of this number no less than six hundred and twenty-three were British. The total loss of life is not given, but it was smaller than for any of the half dozen years from 1898 until 1904. On seven hundred and twenty-two, by far the greater number being from the crews.

REFINEMENT OF CRUELTY.

It is a matter of history that the American Indians subjected their prisoners to inhuman tortures before ending their miserable lives; among almost all uncivilized peoples the same horrible custom prevailed; but it has remained for the so-called Christian Russians to devise treatment for prisoners more fiendish than could ever have been dreamed of by savages even had they at hand later day devices.

The idea of destroying the intellects and rendering blind unfortunate men and women by subjecting them to the never-ending scraping and rasping of a phonograph playing the same air over and over again, hour after hour and day after day, and by making them live in a strong glare of colored light, could have originated only in the minds of such creatures as are now vainly endeavoring to keep the car on its throne. There is nothing in the world like a badly regulated phonograph.

THE OPTIMIST.

There was an optimist who owned a horse that thieves drove off one night. He saw the open stable door, and said with ill-concealed delight: "The thief that took it has happened to me play golf! I never tried it in my life. Why I wouldn't know which end of the caddy to take hold of!" But in London Opinion, despite the fact that "Jock o' Hazeldean" is a prominent character in "Crammond Bridge" there is a delightful sketch by Tom Day, showing a lady golfer, with a sniggering caddy behind her, speaking to a tall old gentleman who is holding his right hand at the side of a large lump on his bald head, Lady—"Oh, Colonel Fozzle, I drove a ball over in this direction. Did you see where it landed?" Colonel—"No—but I can put my hand on the spot."

WATCHED THE TRAINS.

Patrolman Holmes boarded the St. John train and rode over to the eastern station, and then did the same turn with the later B. & A. train. When he reached the western station, a Maine Central switchman told him that the man was hiding in Woodman's coal shed, and although Patrolman Holmes looked carefully about the premises he did not see anything of the fugitive. It might in time have run away and hid in a place in one of the many cheap lodging houses on Front street or in the back of a police expect to capture the man soon.

THE CAMERA'S DIAGNOSIS.

That the camera reveals much that the eye fails to discover is indicated by the case of a Chicago woman who recently sent for her photograph. On receiving the proof she took it back to the photographer and complained of a number of small spots on the face which marred an otherwise perfect picture. The photographer was at a loss to account for this, an examination of the negative revealed the cause. It might in time have run away and hid in a place in one of the many cheap lodging houses on Front street or in the back of a police expect to capture the man soon.

A MODERN PHORMANCE.

"We had a woman whistler and a performer on the musical glasses at our church last Sunday."
"Any thing else?"
"Nothing, save the usual xenologues by the parson."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE DAY BEFORE HIM.

"Gladiators used to recommend the chewing of each mouthful of food twenty-seven times."
"Evidently he wasn't a commuter."
"Or, if he was, breakfast with him probably comprised only one mouthful."—Hittsburg Post.

KING OSCAR OF SWEDEN IS REPORTED ILL

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 13.—Considerable alarm was occasioned among the people this morning over the statement that the health of King Oscar was causing much anxiety, that all the members of the Royal family had assembled at the palace and that the Crown Prince, Gustavus Adolphus had been hurriedly summoned from Berlin. It appears that King Oscar has been ailing for some days. His indisposition was not regarded as serious until Wednesday, when he developed symptoms of serious heart weakness. His Majesty's heart has been more or less affected for the past three years, and in the fear that because of his great age, the present attack might prove fatal, four doctors have been in attendance upon the king.

His Majesty slept fairly well last night and was better this morning, but towards afternoon his condition again became alarming. At 9 o'clock, however, the public learned that the king had had some further sleep and that his doctors were hopeful of a rally, but there is considerable phlegm in the bronchial tubes.

WAS A COOL THIEF.

Unknown Man Stole Fur Coat From Express Car Thursday.

Two Negligé Shirts Besides the Coat—Car Was Unlocked When it Reached Bangor.

(Bangor Commercial.) One of the coolest thefts that has come under the eye of the police force some time ago was perpetrated early Thursday morning, when an unknown man entered the express and mail car attached to the early morning express from Portland and Bangor, tried on two fur coats, took one of them and also two white negligé shirts, and when the expressman entered the car, the thief calmly passed the time of day with him and then departed. The police were set on the trail but at the time this account was written had not found the much wanted man. It is not known just what time the man entered the car. It is a combination mail and express car and is supposed to come through to this city from Portland. The car is attached to train 71 which arrives here at 3 a. m., and there is no man in the car from the time it leaves Portland until the Bangor expressman goes to unlock it preparatory to unloading it. Whether the thief boarded the car at Portland or not is a question, but that does not specially concern the story.

WHEN BABY CAME A Springhill Official Who Acted Too Quickly—The Smallpox Situation.

SPRINGHILL, Dec. 12.—The town council, which also constitutes the board of health, held a special meeting on Saturday. Dr. Wardrobe was in connection with the prevailing epidemic of smallpox, the meeting being convened for the purpose of discussing a question which arose out of the action of a number of townsmen on the previous day. It should be explained that the council acting on the recommendations of Dr. Reed, the government representative, secured two houses in the other part of the town and at once proceeded to fit them up as emergency hospitals for males and females, respectively. The buildings in question are in close proximity to other buildings. These plans of the council did not meet with the approval of the inhabitants, which was proven in an unmistakable manner on Friday, when they waited on the mayor in force with blood in their eyes. They protested against the scheme for the reason that it was considered highly dangerous to the surrounding homes, and one of our doctors supported the promoters in their views. The general attitude was so strong against the plan as to leave the council in an awkward position and they saw no help for it but to devise another scheme, despite the expense and delay involved. The proposal consisted of the whole business were discussed, and it was finally resolved that Councilors Hopkins, Fieser and Turner form a committee to procure a suitable building elsewhere and report as early as possible.

Assault suggests that Mr. Ross furnish the moose with the schedule of the trains run by the road, so that the animals may take their constitutional on the Washington County railroad have been delayed by moose on the track. In several instances trails on the Washington County railroad have been delayed by moose on the track, the engineers not caring to risk bumping the animals. The latter seem to know that the risk was not especially great, and they ambled along just in front of the train to the great annoyance of the crew.—St. Croix Courier.

A large pane of glass was broken in James Smith's dry goods store, Brunsels street, last evening. The break caused considerable excitement, but the party who broke the window escaped. It is thought that a small boy did the trick.

Theatre patrons will be pleased to know that the Robinson Opera Company play a return engagement at the Opera House commencing Christmas Day. The company have just returned from St. Johns, Newfoundland, where they have had the phenomenal run of forty performances. Many changes have been made in the personnel of the company since it was last here which have improved it greatly. Chief among these is the addition of the popular comedian Jack Henderson who became such a great favorite when here with the New York Opera Company last season. The dainty little soprano Daisy Howard of "Princess Chickie" fame, is another new number that is destined to become very popular here. The old favorites, Frank D. Nelson, Max Killovne, Father Wallace, Frank French, Essie Barton, and John Moore are still in the cast and appear to splendid advantage in the new operas and musical comedies that have been added to the repertoire of the company. The management have recently made large expenditures for additional wardrobe and the costumes now carried by this company are the most valuable owned by any opera company in America.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec 13—The crew of the La Have schooner Atlanta, wrecked on Monday, arrived here last evening from the vessel's crew. The steamer Strathcona, the captain remaining behind to see what could be done towards saving the vessel's crew. The Atlanta was from P. E. Island for Halifax with a cargo of potatoes and oats, and she struck on Goose Island, Flying Point, off Isaac's Harbor, Monday during a thick snow storm. As she filled the captain and crew left in a single dory and after rowing for several hours reached Isaac's Harbor. Owing to the thick snow storm and heavy wind they met great difficulty in landing, having two or three narrow escapes from being upset and being thrown into the water. They remained at the harbor until yesterday and then boarded the Strathcona. The men saved nothing from the wreck. Captain Reid, of the Strathcona, says that when he came out of Isaac's Harbor yesterday the Atlanta's spar was still standing, but because of the snow squall he could not see the hull very distinctly.

The Olivia, Robinson master, for Boston, will give up the voyage, leaving anchorage here, and lay up at her home port, Clementsport, for the winter.
Tern sch. Louis V. Chappells, F. L. Robinson master, for New York, is in the Stream yet, wanting a seaman.
The sch. Glenora, Starratt master, which sailed from St. John for Bridge-town, N. S., with coal, lost an anchor in Annapolis River and had to run down to Digby in the heavy gale of last week, anchored in stream and had to slip chain and run into dock. The cargo was sold here to W. E. Vanclercom and discharged. The vessel will lay up at Digby for the winter.

M. R. A.'s announcements tonight are the latest news from St. Nicholas. They tell just what would be nice for the men folks, the mothers, sisters and lady friends, not by any means forgetting the children. FALL UPON EVIL DAYS

Two Barnstorming Aggregations Forced to Disband

Nannary and Rennie's Players Wind up Career at Fredericton and the Ellis Company at Amherst

The Maritime Provinces do not seem to be an Eldorado for show people at the present time, as within a few days two stock companies have gone to smash within their borders.

Besides the Nannary and Rennie Co., which met its fate at Fredericton, the Ellis Stock Co., which recently closed an engagement here and had several dates arranged throughout the province, disbanded at Amherst.

Messrs. Green and Koechler spent yesterday at the Park Hotel, and left on the train last night for New York. Lee Koechler was especially incensed at the action of Mr. Ellis as regards the matter of something coming for Mr. Ellis when next they meet.

Concerning the Nannary and Rennie company the Fredericton Gleaner says in part: "Contrary to the expectations of some, the city Opera House was dark last night. The Nannary & Rennie players were to have appeared in one of their repertoire plays, but several incidents interfered with the performance taking place."

The members of Hanlon's orchestra went to the Opera House as usual and got their instruments in tune and ready for the overture while the audience assembled, but the audience did not come. It was then announced that the performance would not take place.

About eight-thirty o'clock Police Officer George R. Rideout arrested Messrs. Nannary and Rennie on six bailable writs issued by Harry F. McLeod on behalf of many members of the company.

This morning Mr. McLeod said that yesterday afternoon Messrs. Nannary and Rennie had told their players that they were unable to continue to pay them their salaries, and that they had no money with which to pay their bills, claiming that they were, to use a slang expression, dead broke.

The members of the company who had writs issued against Messrs. Nannary and Rennie are: Miss Franklyn Gale, the leading lady; Miss Laura Stone and Miss Helen Judson, Ralph Mensing, Guy Hedlund, and Ralph Webster.

The amount of the claims of the actors and actresses is $265.41, which includes costs. The members of the company when leaving New York were given signed contracts for engagements of six weeks at salaries ranging from $25 to $40 per week. They had worked for two weeks and three days, including a two weeks' engagement at St. John, and had received advances from $10 to $25 each. The six actors' union managers had claims of about $40 each.

Mr. Nannary felt his position very deeply and his many friends in the city will regret the hard luck which has befallen him. Mr. Rennie did not seem to feel his position as keenly as did Mr. Nannary, contending that he was almost penniless and was sorry for it.

The players contend that the cause of the company's troubles is the fact that instead of putting on catchy plays, of which they have a number on their repertoire, Mr. Rennie insisted on playing heavy pieces in which he wanted to star.

While the proprietors, who are staying at the York Hotel, claim that they are penniless, the players, who are staying at Windsor Hall, claim that they are also without funds. Most of the members of the company live in New York. It is not likely that they will continue their proposed tour, but instead some arrangements will be made for them to get to their homes.

Mr. Lancaster moved the second reading of his bill to force railroad companies to protect level crossings in communities. He would give the companies until 1908 to make necessary changes. If protection is not given these crossings railways could not run trains through thickly settled portions of cities, towns and villages at more than ten miles an hour.

The house then took up Mr. MacLean's bill respecting the sale of tickets by railways. It proposes to legalize the sale of a ticket by any one, whether authorized or not by a railway. Mr. MacLean said anyone could sell a milk ticket or any other kind of a ticket, and he saw no reason for declaring it a crime to sell a railroad ticket. There was no such restrictive law in the United States.

The bill had been made a government measure last session. The bill was put through committee, read the third time and forwarded to the senate again.

FIRE SALE OF FURNITURE!

This is the greatest money-saving event in Furniture ever inaugurated by us. In last Friday's Fire but few pieces of furniture were badly damaged; dust and smoke have only depreciated the value of most of the goods offered. We have hundreds of new pieces arriving, all of which will be at once thrown into the sale. It is necessary that our stock be greatly reduced in order to make room for repairs, therefore every article in this store is included in the Fire Sale Reduction.

We cordially invite you to come and look around. Everything is marked in large figures. Stroll through and see the amazing opportunities on every side. Whether you buy or not the money-doubling possibilities will interest you.

WOULD HAVE LAW ALLOW ANYONE TO SELL RAILWAY TICKETS; CROSSINGS DISCUSSED

OTTAWA, Dec. 12.—The house had a lot of railroad talk this afternoon from two enthusiastic idealists, E. A. Lancaster and W. F. MacLean. One wants the trains to run slowly at crossings, the other wants restrictions on ticket scalpers removed. Both are likely to succeed. In answer to questions by Mr. Roche of Halifax, Hon. Mr. Lemieux said the mail train for Montreal left Halifax on the last voyage from England anchored in the stream at Halifax on the seventh December at 12.35 a. m. The mail train for Montreal left Halifax at 5.33 a. m. This train arrived in Montreal at 1.45 a. m. on the eighth December. The steamer arrived at the Dr. Sproule reported Mr. MacLean's bill. Col. Tisdale thought the Grand Trunk and C. P. R. were run by pretty decent people. He did not endorse Mr. MacLean's animadversions against them. Leighton McCarthy of North Simcoe said the legislation Mr. MacLean attacked had been passed 20 years ago to protect railway companies from ticket scalpers. It has on the whole worked well for the benefit of the people. The bill was given a second reading. A bill to incorporate the Masonic Protective Association of Canada was introduced. The house adjourned at six p. m.

RE-ORGANIZATION OF S. S. DEPARTMENT

MONTREAL, Dec. 13.—Persistent reports are current with regard to the reorganization of the steamship department of the Canadian Pacific more particularly at the Liverpool end, where the strengthening of the managerial supervision will be the not unnatural result of the expansion of the fleet and the introduction of the Empress liners. It is understood in this connection that Arthur Piers, manager of the steamship service will visit England next month. The return of N. E. Brown, the company's representative at Hong Kong has caused much speculation as to the office he will fill. One report says he will be located at Liverpool, another that he will be established in Montreal, while a third awards him the office of executive chancery of the Pacific coast.

WILL ERECT NEW GUN SHED, BARRACK GREEN

Extensive Alterations to be Made to Stores Building. Common Council May Recommend Shamrock Grounds as Site for New Drill Hall. It is understood that the $12,500 which was included in the estimates for the stores building in St. John will be expended in the spring for adding a seventy foot extension to the rear of the stores building, to be used as a gun shed. The guns are at present kept in the drill hall, where they occupy considerable room and interfere with the drilling. It is this extension which would run into the space occupied by the kitchen in the left wing of the main exhibition building and which has caused the recent action of the militia department. Then on the present stores building the slanting roof will be squared, thus giving much additional space for the second floor. Steam heating will also be put in, making the quarters of the various companies, at present only heated by stoves, much more convenient. The expenditure on the stores building is not thought to mean that the new drill hall proposition is held up indefinitely, but the gun shed would probably be useful anyway. The effect it is felt will probably be, more or less, to wed the authorities to the Barrack Green as the site of the new drill hall while the majority of the officers here are opposed to the spot, and the Shamrock grounds are favorably mentioned. It is understood that an effort will be made to get the Common Council to recommend this site to the government and perhaps to effect some exchange by which the Barrack Green will belong to the city, and thus be preserved for exhibition purposes.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—The owners composing the American baseball league concluded their annual meeting tonight and adjourned to meet in New York on February 25, when the playing schedule for next season will come up for consideration.

BAPTISTS DO NOT THINK ORGANIC UNION PRACTICABLE

TORONTO, Dec. 12.—The report of the sub-committee on church polity elicited considerable discussion at the session of the joint committee on church union today. The chief objection raised to the report as submitted was that it was too indefinite. It was felt that a definite, clear, business-like system of church government should be proposed, as the governing bodies of the churches interested would wish to have a very clear understanding of what the proposal involves. The report was, therefore, after discussion of the first two clauses, referred back to the sub-committee to prepare a more detailed statement, and report at a later stage in this conference or at a future meeting, as may be convenient. The clause as submitted and discussed read as follows: "(1) That the local affairs of the individual church, circuit or congregation be managed by the congregation directly or by local boards, sessions or committees, subject to the general legislation, principles and discipline of the united church, and that such a board, session or committee be constituted and elected or appointed as at present, on election at the option of such a church, circuit or congregation."

Several sub-committees met from 2 o'clock till 4, when a joint committee resumed session, except the sub-committee on law, which has reported that it has done all it can do now until the next of the project takes more definite shape. The sub-committee on ministry reported in the afternoon and considerable discussion took place upon the length and character of the course of study. The proposal is to make it three years in arts, followed by three years in theology. Some paragraphs were dropped and the order of others was changed. "The friendly spirit shown by the Anglican Church and the Baptist Church of Canada is most cordially appreciated," said Principal Shaw of the Wesley College, Montreal, "and is fully reciprocated by Methodists, Presbyterians and Congregational churches now negotiating for church union. It is probable that a committee will be appointed to go further into the matter, and if possible arrange a satisfactory basis of union for the five Canadian evangelical churches."

Society

The most notable event of the week, though strangely enough one in which the ladies were not directly interested, was the luncheon given on board the C. P. R. steamer Empress of Britain on Wednesday afternoon. Covers were laid for one hundred and twenty-five guests, and the affair was in every way enjoyable. Mr. Arthur Piers, Gen. Supt. Downie, and Captain Murray, proved to be admirable hosts, and with the facilities at their command, were in a position to entertain on a magnificent scale. The luncheon which was called at one o'clock, ended about six. The week had also been marked by the opening of the skating and curling season, and by the first of the series of assembly dances. Skating parties are already being organized, the ladies curling clubs are making plans, and various whist clubs are settling down for the season's enjoyment.

Mrs. Charlotte B. Dunn, of North End, returned home on Saturday after a visit of seven weeks with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Hawker, Centreville. Miss Laura Gleason is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. S. McCart, of Eastport, Me. Miss Leslie Smith entertained a number of young ladies and gentlemen on Tuesday afternoon at a five o'clock tea in honor of Miss Creelman, of Montreal. Miss Maud Stockton leaves tomorrow evening for Vancouver. Mr. W. Brodie, of Calgary, was a guest at the Dufferin on Wednesday. Mrs. Stratton, Wellington Row, was the hostess at a large "At Home" on Tuesday afternoon, to introduce into society her daughter, Miss Phyllis Stratton. In the dining room Mrs. B. Holt White and Mrs. Lawson presided. They were assisted by Miss H. Smith, Miss Mabel Smith, Miss Harrison, Mrs. Stanley Ritchie, Mrs. Eileen Taylor, Miss Elsie Jardine, Miss Constance Inches, Miss Mary Trueman, Miss Iona Kerr and Miss Katie Hazen. In the evening Mrs. Stratton was also hostess at a bridge party and on Wednesday evening Miss Phyllis Stratton gave an enjoyable dance.

Mrs. Geo. Hallett, of Sussex, spent this week with friends here. Miss Whitehead, of Fredericton, is visiting here the guest of Miss Armstrong, Wellington Row. Mrs. M. L. Ritchie, of Fredericton, was the guest of her sister Mrs. Stratton, this week. Mrs. Nicholls, of Boston, who has been the guest of Mrs. J. W. Daniel for the last two weeks, left for her home on Thursday afternoon. Aid. F. A. Ryan and Mrs. Ryan, of Sackville, were in town on Monday on their way home from a trip to Boston and New York. J. Gardner Taylor, manager of the Bank of Commerce, is on a trip to Toronto and Ottawa. Mr. and Mrs. George McAvity spent Sunday in Montreal. Mr. L. C. Jack, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has been transferred to Digby for a few weeks. Percy W. Thomson and R. S. Ewing were in Toronto on a business trip this week. Mrs. Chas. Grant and Miss Marshall, of Weymouth, N. S., are visiting here, the guests of their sister Mrs. A. B. Burns. Rev. Dr. Buckley, editor of the Christian Advocate, New York, spent Sunday here with Dr. and Mrs. Anzlin, Lancaster. Dr. Buckley occupied the pulpit of Centenary church on Sunday evening. The first of the Assembly dances for the season was held last night in the York assembly room. A very large number were present, the occasion being of unusual brilliancy. The color scheme of the supper room was red and white. Following is the list of chaperones: Mrs. George West Jones, Mrs. Fred Sayre, Mrs. Simon Jones, Mrs. Walter Foster, Mrs. Walter Harrison and Mrs. W. E. Earle. The debutantes were Miss Katie Hazen, Miss Phyllis Stratton, Miss Eileen Taylor, Miss Elsie Jardine, Miss Kathleen Gillis, Miss Beattie Foster and Miss Beatrice Skinner.

ROOSEVELT ABANDONS HIS SPELLING REFORM

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—President Roosevelt will withdraw his simplified spelling order to the public printer, and hereafter all documents from the executive departments will again be printed in the old fashioned style. Representative Landis, of the joint congressional committee on spelling, had a conference with the president today, who said that he did not wish to have spelling overshadow matters of great importance and expressed a willingness to revoke his order for the new spelling in case the House of Representatives should go on record as opposed to the system. Accordingly late this afternoon Mr. Landis introduced the following resolution in the house: Resolved, That it is the sense of the House of Representatives that hereafter in printing records, documents or other publications authorized by law, ordered by Congress or other branch thereof, or emanating from executive departments, their branches or bureaus, and independent officers of the government, the government printer's office should observe and not alter the standard of orthography prescribed in generally accepted dictionaries of the English language."

The measure was passed without a dissenting vote, although Mr. Gillette of Massachusetts, who made a fight for simplified spelling before the house committee on appropriations, has been regarded as the champion of the president's attitude, explained that he did not wish to give the impression that he had changed his mind. Mr. Gillette said that he saw the house was against the innovation and consequently he bowed to its will. The system of reformed spelling put into effect by the president during the recess of congress and all public documents supplied to the executive departments have been printed in the simplified way. These documents have been pouring in on congress ever since the opening day, much to the dissatisfaction of a large majority of the members of the house. As a result the government printer's office has used two forms of spelling in public printing, the old method for congress, and the reformed method in the executive documents. This caused confusion and comment unfavorable to the reform and finally was made an issue between the legislative and executive departments, the judicial department having frowned upon the president's order.

COMMISSION WILL INVESTIGATE LATEST CHARGE AGAINST CHARLES MCGILL

TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 13.—Crown Attorney Corley was successful this morning in securing an order from Judge Winchester empowering the commission to proceed to New York City to secure evidence from brokers there with respect to the latest charge against Charles McGill, that of the theft of $1,250,000 from the Ontario Bank. The application for a commission in the case of George R. B. Cockburn was dismissed. There was no evidence taken in the Ontario Bank investigation this morning. Crown Attorney Corley stated that the commission appointed in connection with the case would go to New York between Christmas and New Years. No witnesses will be called until the commission's return.

ITALIAN BOY STOLEN FROM HIS SISTER

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The Italian colony in the lower east side was thrown into a state of great excitement today over the abduction of Geo. Brucata, a five-year-old Italian boy. The boy was walking with his little sister when a man stepped up and told the little girl to go home and led the little boy away. Subsequently the boy's father received a letter written in Italian, instructing him to give $2,000 to "two of your best friends" if he wanted his son. The letter added: "Do not give this letter to the police. If you do you and your son will be killed. Brucata is a poor man with a very large family. The police are searching for the boy."

CRIMSON SNOW IN MOUNTAINS

C. P. R. Agent at Glacier Reports Curious Phenomenon Which Causes Much Foreboding (Montreal Herald.) The Canadian Pacific agent at Glacier, in the Rocky Mountains, reports the unusual phenomenon of crimson snow having fallen in that region of the lofty ranges. This is not the first time such an occurrence has been observed in the Rockies, but the manifestation is apparently very early. No satisfactory explanation has been advanced as to its cause. The snow coloring the mountains with a pronounced red hue over the mantle of white has an extraordinary, weird effect. The Indians and half-breeds and others, susceptible to superstitious forebodings, are regarding the visitation as a portent of dire calamity, and are devoting themselves with unusual fervor to devotions. Amongst the explanations put forward to account for the visitation is the theory that it is caused by red volcanic dust from the mountains having been caught up by high winds and held in suspension until brought down by a craft may designate the navies of the world, excepting submarine boats, to the scrap-heap. Experiments are also being made with air machines for military purposes, investigation is being made of every machine of proved utility, including foreign machines, with the view to securing command of the air in the next generation. An airship is being tested at Aldershot, which, according to the Standard, affords ready evidence that such a craft may designate the navies of the world, excepting submarine boats, to the scrap-heap. Experiments are also being made with air machines for military purposes, investigation is being made of every machine of proved utility, including foreign machines, with the view to securing command of the air in the next generation.

WOMEN HOLD THEIR OWN.

British Female Art Students Carried Off Many Prizes. LONDON, Dec. 13.—The Royal Academy meeting last night to greet the winners of the prizes in the schools was a notable triumph for the women students, who this year much more than hold their own against the men. The Creswick landscape prize, the prizes for figure composition, etching and drawing, the first and second medals for painting from the nude and the first medal for modeling a bust from life all fell to women. We have never seen so many advertisements—always kept at it steadily, and therefore have never experienced revisions. —Murray Ferris, Ferris Bros, Co., N. Y.

THE SUN

CHRISTMAS WILLOW-TOP

The whole design in miniature.

WHEN peacock feathers spring into such tremendous popularity last spring perhaps no one realized the great value they would be to decorative needlework, for most of the peacock ideas were confined to the feathers dyed every color of the rainbow (or bleached out to a dull, natural color) and made to perch jauntily upon the hat; or printed in glowing colors upon cretonne and the pretty upholstery stuffs used for every purpose under the sun, from hangings to wall coverings.

In a number of designs which seem almost Egyptian in their treatment. But more often it is a flower or vine, the stems twisted in art nouveau fashion, that is done in the beautiful coloring of the peacock—it is the coloring, not the feather, that is in fashion for embroidery.

The design shown is a particularly good example of the vogue of peacock coloring. Although the theme itself is a lotus, it has been developed along conventional lines, the stems bent into graceful curves, and the flower laid beside one of its own shapely leaves.

As to the working, that may be as simple and as quickly done or as elaborate a bit of needle painting as you please. The fine silk floss may be used for the stems and leaves, and done in satin stitch, the shading of each petal, made with the exquisite care. Or it may be done in fine of a fairly, and the kind that works up quickly and done, some design indicates, in a long and short stitch, with a sort of fagot-stitching used upon stems and the gold thread outlining the whole design.

CHOOSING WALLPAPER

WHEN about to have a room re-papered take into consideration the size of the room, the height of the ceiling and the number and arrangement of windows, when in-laboring machines were unknown and unobscured, every girl, long before she reached womanhood, could put together at least one patchwork quilt which was to be used in that late-entitled home where she was to reign in the old year's dream.

INTERFERENCE

JUST so long as meddling is not made a capital offense, meddlers will continue to run riot; yet there are few wrong-doers outside the penal code who cause more unhappiness.

We are all familiar with the woman who interferes with the way her relatives bring up their children. Probably she never had a child of her own; possibly she never wanted one; but all the same she is thoroughly convinced that no one was ever better fitted to rear children than herself.

With the suggestion that she might try to please the parents a little better. There isn't any vital harm done, perhaps, but Miss A. will have an uncomfortable half hour, and there really wasn't any reason why any of it should have happened.

THE NEW CROCHETED BEDSPREADS

BACK in the days when our grandmothers were young; when all housewifely arts were held in high esteem; when merriment was every woman's bounded duty; when labor-saving machines were unknown and unobscured, every girl, long before she reached womanhood, could put together at least one patchwork quilt which was to be used in that late-entitled home where she was to reign in the old year's dream.

Two Lost Arts

WE are a race of skimmers. Possibly because of "climate conditions, probably because of a social system which exacts a continual straining after things we have not got; but certain it is that the quality of security and concentration may be counted among our lost arts.

One effective way of working the stems

WHEN I find myself in need of a nerve rest," said a Frenchwoman, not long since, "I leave America and go back to my own country. We French people are called volatile and excitable, but we possess elements of self-control that are utterly unknown among the natives of this side of the water.

A berry design.

WHEN the ceiling is unusually high and a plain paper has been used, a dash of a contrasting or harmonizing color runs about the top, just under the ceiling molding, improves matters.

Pretty to mount over color.

Pig Pincushions

AN ADDITION to the silver furnishings for the dressing table comes in the shape of a silver pig, who carries upon his back a pin cushion. This is one of the novelties we have borrowed from England, and they, so far as our English cousins, is sure to bring his possessor good luck!

Buying a Hat

WHEN choosing a hat, don't be content with a glance into a hand-mirror and a satisfactory head-and-shoulder effect. If we only took our heads and shoulders on the street with us this would be all right, but since the entire body must go along, buy the hat with consideration for that entire body.

About Starch

STICKY starch is an abomination, but you need not have it if you make your starch this way. First dissolve it in cold water, then pour boiling water over it until it clears. Next set this aside until a scum forms on the top, and then remove this scum. Starch made this way will not stick. Some laundresses add a tiny pinch of salt.

Leather Presents

LEATHER mounted in silver seems to be very popular for Christmas and wedding presents just now. Among the articles shown are jewel boxes of dark leather, heavily mounted in silver, and lined with satin; glove boxes on the same order and cases for bridge-whist sets.

SERIOUS FIRE AT LONDON DERRY

Damage Done to Extent of $25,000 or $30,000

Several Firms Burned Out—Town Had Narrow Escape—One Street Practically Swept Out

LONDON DERRY, Dec. 13.—At an early hour this morning London Derry was visited by the most destructive fire in its history. At 2:30 o'clock men at work in connection with the blast furnace noticed that the large building at the corner of France and Foreman streets was on fire and raised an alarm, which was quickly responded to by citizens, but owing to the lack of fire fighting apparatus the flames rapidly gained headway, and at four o'clock, when the fire was got under control, five buildings had been destroyed, five firms and two families burned out. But one building is left standing on Foreman street, the residence of Mr. Patiquin. It was saved by most heroic efforts on the part of the fire fighters.

The firms burned out are John McLean, grocer; Munroe, hardware; McLean, boots and shoes; James Harrison, confectionery, and Alexander Gough. Much sympathy is expressed for John McLean, who lost his entire stock and may lose his books, as it is feared they are burning in the safe. Munroe also lost part of his stock. McLean and Harrison saved the greater part of their property. The fire is said to have started in the upper part of the building occupied by John McLean. They lost all their property. The fire said to have started in that part of the building. Fortunately the night was clear and the wind was strong and the greater part of the town would have been destroyed. As it was it looked bad for the southwestern part of the place, so much so that Truro was telephoned for help, when a contingent of that brigade with the chemical started for London Derry, but on arrival at the station two miles distant from here found that the fire was under control and they turned back. The loss is estimated at from $25,000 to $30,000. Cases partially covered by insurance.

BOY CLAIMED BY STEP-MOTHER HE DID NOT KNOW HE HAD

Among the passengers who arrived by one of the steamers yesterday was a bright-eyed little boy only four years old. He was travelling alone and on the voyage received considerable attention from the passengers who knew of the sad circumstances which led to his pathetic condition. The boy's parents came out from Scotland a few years ago and settled in Western Canada. About three months ago the mother of the child went home to Scotland to visit her relatives, taking her son with her. While in Scotland she took sick and died. The grief-stricken father sent instructions to have the boy brought out to him. The steamer was put on board the vessel at Glasgow and the captain was told that he would be met by his father in St. John. When the vessel docked the bereaved parent did not appear. Instead a lady came on board asking for the child. She was met by one of the ship's officers, who explained that he had instructions to deliver the boy to his father.

"I will take charge of him," said the lady. "I am his mother." The officer, who had heard of the death of the boy's mother, was too astonished to reply. Thinking he had not heard her, the lady repeated: "I am his mother," and then evidently noting the bewildered expression on the face of the officer, added: "His step-mother." She got the boy and he went off quite contentedly with his newly found mother.

DREAMED HE WAS WORTH $460,000

MONTREAL, Dec. 13.—Carl Creamer, who recently dreamed that he was the possessor of $460,000 and on the strength of his dream procured $30,000 worth of goods from Montreal merchants was this morning discharged by Judge Lafontaine. The charge preferred against him was that of obtaining goods by false pretences. On the opening of the case today the prosecution intimated that they did not consider the case of sufficient importance to warrant the expense of getting witnesses from Germany, and on the ground of insufficient evidence Creamer was discharged.

"Twenty dollars' fine or two months' imprisonment was the sentence imposed on H. Fessler by Judge Scott this morning for smoking on a street car and insulting the conductor."

PROTESTANT ORPHANS' HOME RECEPTION

Splendid Work is Being Done But More Money is Needed—Large Number Visited the Institution

The citizens of St. John were given an opportunity last night to inspect the Protestant Orphan Asylum and judge of the work that is being done by this institution. A large number availed themselves of the privilege and the public reception given by the ladies' committee was very well attended.

A short programme was given by the children consisting of an anthem, a dialogue and a recitation by Edith Stewart, aged 10, in recognition of the financial condition of the institution. The children were given by Mayor Sears and Rev. Thomas Marshall.

W. S. Fisher presided and presented a report showing the work done by the institution to be very encouraging, but the financial condition not so encouraging. The management of the asylum is in the hands of the ladies' committee. The children are in charge of Miss Frest, the matron, who is assisted by her sister.

The children are very well taken care of and appear happy and contented. The economy with which the institution is conducted is shown by the fact that the total cost for each child, including all expenses, is only eighty dollars per year. In spite of this there was a deficit last year of $183. The total expenditures were $3,773 and the income only $3,590.

There are now in the home sixteen boys and twenty-three girls, which is about the limit of the building's capacity. The children are in charge of Miss Frest, the matron, who is assisted by her sister.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN LEA OF MONCTON

Was Only 25 Years of Age—Information Concerning Frank Burth

MONCTON, N. B., Dec. 13.—In connection with the death of Frank Burth, who was killed on Wednesday morning by the I. C. R. train, near Sackville, Detective Dingley of the I. C. R. today received a reply to a message which he forwarded to Wingham, Ont., asking for particulars of the victim of the accident. The telegram stated that Burth had two uncles at Oakleaf, Ont., and other relatives at North Augusta, and that he was educated in the Belleville Deaf and Dumb Institute. On receipt of the telegram, it was decided not to inter the remains here, but to hold them until possible word from relatives, requesting some other disposition of the body, might be received.

The death of Mrs. John Lea, which occurred at an early hour this morning, came as a decided shock to her many friends, as she had been ill only a few days. She became afflicted with tonsillitis, and died last night after passing away this afternoon. The deceased lady was only twenty-five years of age, and was a daughter of the late John W. Hildeman, an Ambrose law firm. She was survived by her husband, who is a well known member of the Paul Lee Building Co., her mother and a little daughter.

AND NOW OPERATE PRIVATE FREIGHT CARS.

The Mooney Biscuit and Candy Company, Limited, Stratford, Canada, is the fastest growing business in the Dominion.

Started in 1903, more ovens were necessary in nine months. In eighteen months, another wing was added to the original building, increasing the floor space by 18,000 square feet.

Building operations now under way will double the size of the Mooney Bakeries and Candy Manufactories, and give a total floor space of from 150,000 to 200,000 square feet. The illustration in the upper left corner shows the enlarged works when the addition is completed.

True to their policy, of adopting latest methods, the Mooney Biscuit and Candy Company, Limited, have had built and now operate, their own private freight cars. This company is the first in Canada to adopt this economical and rapid system of shipments.

Mooney's "Perfection Cream Sodas"

are now known all over Canada—and this new line of freight cars will still further keep the name constantly before the public.

J. RUPERT ELLIOTT DIED AT HOSPITAL

The death of J. Rupert Elliott, a well known Nova Scotia business man and writer, took place at the General Public Hospital here yesterday morning. Mr. Elliott was a passenger from the Nova Scotia government, and was taken ill on shipboard.

After landing here he grew worse, and was cared for at the home of Edward Manning until it was deemed wise to take him to the hospital, the malady from which he was suffering having reached an acute stage. Mr. Elliott was a man of culture and considerable literary attainments. For many years he was engaged in the apple exporting business, but of late he had devoted most of his time to writing about the resources of his native province. He had just made arrangements to take up this work permanently in the Nova Scotia government, and was to make his headquarters at Halifax. His death coming at a time when he had attained the position for which he was eminently fitted and which he had striven for so long, is particularly sad.

Mrs. Elliott was apprised of the sad event by telegram yesterday morning, and reached the city yesterday. The remains will be taken across the bay in the Yarmouth today, and the funeral will take place at Lawrencetown on Saturday.

The deceased is survived by a widow, one son and one daughter, Mrs. Edward Manning of this city is a sister of Mrs. Elliott, and Dr. Manning, dentist, a nephew.

THE JURY DISAGREED

WOODBSTOCK, N. B., Dec. 13.—The Shannon assault case resulted in a disagreement, the jury standing 11 to 1 in favor of conviction. After a hopeless effort to secure an agreement the judge dismissed the jury and adjourned the case until the 17th of January.

The soldier general prosecuted and A. B. Connell, K. C., defended the three Shannons. There being no further business the court adjourned.

LECTURE ON BURMAH

An interesting address on Burmah brought to a close the series of non-incident talks which have been given lately under the auspices of the Natural History Society. Mrs. Grogan, who has spent four years in Burmah, told of the customs of the people and their manner of living. A very pretty costume such as is worn by the ladies of Burmah was shown, and a number of interesting curios were also on exhibition. The religious customs of the people were referred to and a description given of the pagoda at Burmah. In this connection the speaker made reference to the images of Buddha on exhibition in the society's rooms.

There was a good attendance. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bullcock, Mrs. Geo. F. Smith, Mrs. Sydney Emerson, Mrs. McAvity and Miss Christian.

THOUGHT HE WAS AHEAD OF THE CITY.

An amusing incident occurred at City Hall this morning. A young man went to Clerk Ward to secure a dog license. The clerk gave him a permit which it is to go to Chamberlain Sandall and the license is issued. Instead of taking the permit to the Chamberlain the man ran out of the building. He did not leave his dollar and thought that the clerk had forgotten to ask for it. The police office was rung up and an officer sent after the man. He returned to City Hall shortly after and paid his dollar. When told that the permit he had run off with was no good he felt pretty cheap.

THE ENGLISHMAN AS A TRUE SPORT

A King Street Parade Which Caused Lots of Fun—A Swan Formed the Bag This Time

The Englishman who has been parading the streets here for some weeks, creating impressions—not perhaps the kind he thinks—caused considerable amusement on King street yesterday afternoon. He walked up the principal thoroughfare of the city with a pair of fur gloves, a rifle and a cane in one hand and a large swan, hanging by the neck, in the other. Just where our friend from the old country procured the bird is not known, but some persons who watched his amusing tactics claimed that it came from Rockwood Park. The Englishman evidently has a mania for thinking he is fond of shooting, as a few days ago he walked about with a brace of partridge slung over the barrel of his rifle. It might be stated that the partridges were purchased in the country market.

MANY CANADIAN TURKEYS FOR BRITISH CHRISTMAS DINNERS.

Rush of Parcels Through the Post Office is Now On—Collector Dunn Will Arrange to Accommodate the Public—A New Idea from the Express Company

In order to accommodate St. John people who may be desirous of getting their Christmas presents out of mails, Collector Dunn has arranged that the parcel post office, in the post office building, will be kept open Saturday afternoon and evening, Dec. 22nd and 24th, until nine o'clock, and an officer will be on hand to give out any parcels which may be called for.

The Christmas rush in the mails is now on, the bulk of the extra matter of course, being sent to or received from England. Today's main outward traffic is exceptionally heavy, and Mr. Dunn states that all the members of his staff are rushed, though, of course, the local traffic has scarcely begun.

Changes in the tariff this year are of some interest to people who are sending gifts through the mails. A number of different lines of articles are effected, the principal one being jewelry, which has come up five per cent. A duty of 25 per cent. is now charged on all such articles. However, at a Christmas season, the customs officials are very generous in their treatment of packages, and when it is known that articles sent or received are merely Christmas gifts and are not commercial orders the valuation is as a rule placed at such a low figure as to be almost nominal. This plan will of course be followed this year.

As the west side comes the interesting statement that shipments of Canadian turkeys to England this year after a more than double those for last year. In December, 1905, there were 1,200,000 turkeys sent to England. This year the number is 2,400,000. The turkeys come almost exclusively from Ontario, the Ingersoll district being the principal point of shipment. They are put up in crates, just as they are killed, feathers, heads, legs and interior economies all going together. A large lot of poultry is sent through Boston and New York.

This year the American Express company has adopted a little label which is expected to work wonders and do away with much of this difficulty in handling the Christmas business. This label bears the words:

printed in large red letters on a white ground. The labels are gummed on the back and can be stuck on any part of a package. They are furnished free to every sender of a package at any of the offices of the company. By sending his gift early and using these labels a person can be sure his gift will reach its destination in time to be opened Christmas day, and still be practically certain that it will not be opened before Christmas. By starting his gift early on its way before the Christmas rush has fairly set in, the sender knows his package is not going to be mixed up with a thousand others and delayed so that it will not be received until after Christmas, and at the same time he is assured that the label will keep the contents of the package secret until it is time to open it, unless the curiosity of his friend is too great.

MAN WITH ONE FOOT TELLS DIFFERENT STORIES

Salvation Army People Dealing With an Individual Who Put Up a Tale of Woe at City Hall

A number of undeserving persons are seeking charity in St. John. One case came to light in City Hall this morning.

A few days ago a man entered the Mayor's office and put up a pitiful story, after which he asked for the price of a meal. He stated that he had only been discharged from the Montreal hospital a few days ago. He had his foot amputated there. The hospital authorities, he said, had issued him transportation only to this city, and he wished to go to Halifax where he belonged. The man was a cripple, his right foot being missing, and his story was taken in good faith. The Mayor saw that he got something to eat, and then directed him to the Salvation Army Metropole, where he was given a bed. He stayed there until today.

An officer of the army called at City Hall this morning and stated that the man had told a different story to him. One of the officers happened to know the impostor, and says that he was crippled over a year ago. To the Salvation Army officers the man said that he lost his foot in Quebec.

This is not the only case which has happened here lately, and the army officials are experiencing much trouble being imposed upon by undeserving people.
