GERMAN CRUISER SUNK BY BRITISH SUBMARINE; FRENCH AND SERBS JOIN FORCES IN BALKAN FIGHT

BRITISH "U" BOAT SINKS A GERMAN CRUISER

Enemy Warship Torpedoed in Baltic Carried Crew of Over 500.

RUSSIAN CRUISER LED ATTACK ON PORT LAGOS

Military Stations at Bulgarian Port Bombarded by Detachment of Allied Warships.

Petrograd, via London, Oct. 24.—A British submarine, operating near Libau, attacked and sank a German cruiser of the Prinz Adalbert class,
according to official announcement
made tonight.

The Prinz Adalbert is an armored cruiser, 293 feet in length and with a displacement of 3,858 tons. She carries a crew of 557 men.

Russian Cruiser Aids British and French Ships.

Petrograd, Oct. 24, via London, Oct.
25.—The Russian naval department has issued the following communication:

"On the afternoon of October 21 a squadron of British and French warships, and Russian cruiser Askold, bombarded the Bulgarian coast, directing their fire on observation posts for batteries that had recently been erected, and the port of Dedeagatch.
Their fire appears to have caused great destruction in the ammunition stores, military magazines and other buildings. The station and railway bridge were also bombarded. The enemy did not reply.

"On the same day a detachment of the allied fleet, led by the Askold,
bombarded the military establishments
at Porto Lagos."

Allied Warship Damaged?

Constantinople, Oct. 24.—An official communication issued today says:
"Turkish gunners hit an enemy torpedo boat off Djoug Bar. The vessel was towed to Imbros Island in a damaged condition.

"There have been artillery combats near Avburnu and Seddul Bahr."

British Submarines Render German Naval Forces Useless as Aid to Baltic Army.

London, Oct. 25.—The Russian forces which landed on the northern coast of Courland proved stronger and more numerous than the Germans supposed, and they have been pushing forward since Saturday morning, according to advices received at Copenhagen, says a despatch from the Danish
capital to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The Germans are reported to have retired from several important points.

Owing to the presence of British submarines German naval co-operation with the land forces in the Baltic is said to be impossible.

DENIES GREECE WAS THREATENED WITH BLOCKADE

London, Oct. 24.—A semi-official statement issued at Athens and telegraphed to Reuter's Telegram Company here emphatically denies "the German report that Greece representative at Petrograd had a long conversation with the head of the Balkan Affairs Department, and that the latter used threatening language and spoke of a blockade of the coasts of Greece by the Entente Powers."

ENEMY FAILS FOR EIGHTH TIME IN GIVENCHY WOOD

HURLED BACK WITH SEVERE LOSSES AFTER ANOTHER
ATTACK ON FRENCH LINE — BULGARIAN PORTS
BOMBARDED AND ALLIES LANDING MORE TROOPS AT SALONIKI—FRENCH AND SERBIANS JOIN FORCES TO CHECK INVADERS.

Paris, Oct. 24, (2.55 p. m.)—The eighth German attack in five days on the strong French positions in the wood of Givenchy, north of Arras, was repulsed yesterday with sanguinary losses to the Germans, according to the official statement issued today by the French war office. In the other sections on the western front lively artillery duels are in progress.

The text of the statement follows:
"The Germans again attempted last night an attack on our positions in the wood of Givenchy and on our advanced positions in the neighborhood of Hill 140. Many of the Germans were even cut down the moment they left their trenches and the survivors were compelled to return to their positions.

"During the past five days we have checked the enemy eight times in this region alone.

"The artillery struggle remains very active, and is almost uninterrupted to the south of the Somme, in the region of Lihona, Canny and Beuvraignes.

"Moreover, our batteries, by their efficacious fire, have succeeded in destroying some of the enemy's trenches and works in the Champagne, to the southeast of Tahure, between the Meuse and the Moselle, to the north of Reginville, and in Lorraine near Embarmenil and Domevre."

SIR JOHN FRENCH'S REPORT.
London, Oct. 24.—In a report issued officially today Field Marshal Sir John French describes briefly the progress of the campaign in France:

"During the last three days," says the report, "there has been considerable artillery action south of Labasse Canal, but no infantry action, other than grenade fighting in the trenches.

"On the 22nd four of our airmen had engagements in the air, and each case the enemy's machines were either forced to descend or were driven away. One of the German aeroplanes dived head first from a height of seven thousand feet into a wood just behind the enemy's lines.

"On the remainder of the front there was intermittent artillery action, and a certain amount of mining and counter-mining without any important results."

BULGARINAS TAKE USKUP.
Sofia, Oct. 23, via London, Oct. 24.—The Bulgarian troops have completely conquered Uskup, according to an official communication issued today.

ALLIES TO LAND TROOPS AT PORTO LAQOS IN AEGEAN SEA.
Paris, Oct. 24.—A despatch from Athens to the Havas News Agency says it is understood at Saloniki that the Entente Allies plan to make a landing on the Bulgarian coast in the Aegean Sea at Porto Lagos.

Paris, Oct. 23.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight says:

"Army of the east: The embarkation of French troops at Saloniki continues and under the best conditions. The French troops who crossed Greek frontier have formed a junction with the Serbian troops."

London, Oct. 24.—The Bulgarians, according to their official report issued today, have reached Uskup, an important junction on the Saloniki-Nish railway, and have thus placed themselves across the route by which the Allies' reinforcements for the Serbs would travel. The Austro-Germans, in the north, have begun a more vigorous offensive, and have crossed the Danube near Orsova. This brings much nearer the linking up of the armies of the German allies and those of Bulgaria, and the opening of the way through Bulgaria to Constantinople.

Success is not being achieved without heavy losses, as the Serbian veterans well entrenched in their mountains, are offering stubborn resistance and are making the invaders pay a big price for every mile of country invaded.

French troops are fighting with the Serbs in the southeastern section, and reports from Athens say that other steps are being taken by the Allies to help their small partners. Additional troops are being landed at Saloniki; Bulgarian ports in the Aegean and Black Sea are being bombarded, and it is believed that men and munitions
will be sent to Serbia by still another route. Without the active co-operation of Greece and Roumania, however, the Allies, it is feared here, will not be able to do much for some weeks.

Russian Attacks Hinder Enemy From Digging in For Winter

The Russian troops who have landed at Domeneza, Courland, have, according to Berlin, re-embarked.

If this is so, it is probable that the landing was intended as a diversion
in the hope of drawing German troops
from the Riga and Dvinsk regions, where very heavy fighting is still in progress.

3 GERMAN DIVISIONS CUT TO PIECES IN GALICIA.

Situation Along Whole Front of 647 Miles Regarded by Military Authorities as Highly Satisfactory.

Petrograd, via London, Oct. 23.—Russian military authorities regard the situation along the entire front of approximately 675 miles as favorable from their point of view. Three days ago the German efforts between Mita
and the Gulf of Riga presented a serious problem. At the present time the status of affairs in that sector is considered by the Russian as satisfactory.

"From that vicinity south to the
The Germans have been checked and their sphere of action is being narrowed constantly.

"Eastward along the line, to points
beyond Dvinsk, the Russians are successfully pressing the Germans, gaining ground in many places. Their most considerable success recently has been at Postavy. This town was taken and the Germans were driven westward through Duka in a fierce battle.

"On the 22nd four of our airmen had engagements in the air, and each case
the enemy's machines were either forced to descend or were driven away. One of the German aeroplanes dived head
first from a height of seven thousand

emy's lines.

was intermittent artillery action, and

ALLIES SHELL BULGARIAN TOWN, 1000 SOLDIERS KILLED

BARRACKS AT DEDEAGATCH BOMBARDED AND WHOLE REGIMENT BURIED IN RUINS—SERBIANS LOSE US-KUP—ALLIED ARMY IN BALKANS SUFFICIENT TO ENSURE SAFETY OF ROUMANIA AND GREECE BE-FORE THEIR HELP CAN BE WON.

London, Oct. 25, (3.25 a. m.)—The bombardment of Dedeagatch caused the death of ten civilians and over a thousand soldiers, and there also were a large number of soldiers wounded, says a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Athens.

A large portion of the military casualties, the correspondent adds, were in the barracks which housed the 40th Bulgarian regiment. The barracks was crowded with soldiers, who were preparing for their meal when the bombardment was opened at 1 o'clock with accurately aimed shells, which demolished the barracks, burying the occupants in the rubble.

Troops engaged in digging trenches around the town also sustained very heavy losses.

Fires caused by the exploding shells destroyed the railway station and surrounding buildings, doing enormous damage. It is stated the entire loss from the bombardment, which lasted four hours will be several million pounds.

The correspondent says the bombardment was directed by aeroplanes, which flew over the town throughout the afternoon. Twenty warships participated. The Bulgarians are now engaged in preparing defensive works on the surrounding mountains.

Porto Lagos was fiercely bombarded by eight warships Thursday and again on Friday.

ALLIED FORCES IN BALKANS NOT SUFFICIENT TO SATISFY ROUMANIA.

London, Oct. 24.—What progress the British and French troops are making in their advance northward to the relief of Serbia is still withheld, and there are misgivings in many quarters that Serbia never will be saved in this way. Greece's apparently authentic demand that allied soldiers to insure her safety, rather than allied concessions to expend her dominions, constituted her price for aligning herself against the central powers and Turkey, carries the implication that she regards the forces landed at Saloniki as far from adequate for the purpose.

"Roumania's stipulation governing her entry into the war in behalf of the Entente Powers has, according to reports, narrowed to a similar though more specific, demand for 400,000 allied troops, to insure her against invasion.

London, Oct. 23.—Commenting upon Greece's continued unresponsiveness to Entente Allied proposals and the possibility of the allied cause being again circumvented, as it was in Bulgaria, the Pall Mall Gazette today says:

"If Greece's sovereign remains convinced that Germany and her allies have the upper hand, what is there in his past conduct to ensure that he will not make a treacherous attack on our forces at the first sign of their sustaining a check elsewhere. There is every need for the allies to place their relations with Greece on a footing which will give further surprises."

NO BULGARIAN TROOPS ON GREEK FRONTIER.

Paris, Oct. 23.—The Saloniki correspondent of the Havas Agency sends the following despatch, dated Oct. 22, regarding the situation in the Balkan war theatre:

"Notwithstanding the crop of alarmist rumors the report as gathered from authoritative sources is as follows:

"The railway between Givgelli and Nish is open except at Troinegrad, a point just below Vranja where the line has been cut by two regiments of light Bulgarian cavalry. The Austro-Germans who have put into the field against the Serbians only twelve divisions of which three are Slav, comprising men from seventeen to fifty years of age being held in check along the Danube. The Bulgarians are attacking the Serbians with only two hundred thousand men, leaving the Greek frontier unfurnished with troops."

Sofia, Oct. 22, via Amsterdam, Oct. 23.—Bulgarian troops in Macedonia have captured, after a violent battle, the greater part of Uskup,
and Roglyevo.

Bulletin—Athens, Greece, Oct. 24, via London.—The Bulgarian attack on the Serbian town of Veleze (Koprali),
on the river Vardar, 23 miles southwest of Uskup, has been completely arrested as the result of a heavy flank attack on the Krivolak-Strumitza front made by French troops, according to advices received here from Saloniki.

Turks Replace Bulgars
On Aegean Shore
London, Oct. 24.—Bulgarian forces on the Aegean shore have left for the northern Serbian front, says a message to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Athens. These troops have been replaced by five Turkish divisions, which are now charged with the defence of the Bulgarian coast.

Reliable information, the despatch adds, places the strength of the Bulgarian forces on the Serbian front at seven divisions, of which four are operating in the region of Piro and Kalazava.

Greece and Bulgaria
Have No Agreement.
Paris, Oct. 24.—An authorized statement made public in Athens today, says the Havas News Agency, denies categorically the reports current in the Balkan capitals that an understanding exists between Greece and Bulgaria.

NO PARALLEL FOR SHOOTING OF MISS CAVELL

Even When Proved Spy England Does Not Execute a Woman.

BRITISH AND GERMAN METHODS CONTRASTED

Germany by the Latest Outrage
Has Made Herself Even More Loathsome in Eyes of Nations.

London, Oct. 24.—Sir John A. Simon, British home secretary and former attorney-general, in the course of an interview today, declared that the fate of Edith Cavell, executed by the German authorities at Brussels, had, and could have, no parallel in the records of Great Britain's treatment of persons accused of military offenses.

Even in cases of clearly proven espionage, Great Britain has according to the home secretary, meted out to women no sentence of death.

"No woman," said he, "who has been tried for any military offense in this country has suffered the death penalty since the war began, or has even been sentenced to death. In this country, a woman, whatever her nationality, is always tried by a civil court."

"The secretary explained that evidence differences existed in conditions
in Belgium and in conditions in England, and in occupied territory like Belgium the administration of the law
was expected to be slightly different.

"But," he continued, "the Cavell case was not some sudden discovery,
calling for a drumhead court martial
on the field of battle. This was Brussels, where the Germans claim to have established an orderly government, comparable with their government at home, and have appointed there a civil governor."

The British Method

Questioned regarding the methods
of dealing with military accusations against women in England, the home
secretary replied:

"In the first place, the accused person is brought before a tribunal which holds a preliminary inquiry, taking a summary of the evidence. The accused is always assisted by a lawyer,
and a complete record of the evidence, oral and documentary, is given of the accused, who is then allowed an interval to prepare for defense.

"If the accused is a woman the trial always takes place before a civil tribunal, if a man, he has the right to claim trial before a civil court, instead of by court martial, if he is a British subject. At the trial, whether military or civil, the lawyers for the defense have the same opportunities given the accused in the ordinary course of peace times."

"The secretary said that there had been no cases in England precisely similar to that of Miss Cavell, but in cases of espionage, where the proof of guilt was indubitable and overwhelming, the same traditional privileges were allowed the accused.

"In the last case involving a woman
in this country," said he, "the offender was of German birth, though technically the subject of another country owing to marriage. She was acting in association with a male spy, and was detected travelling to various points in order to collect information about the navy's defenses. The evidence against her was overwhelming, and did not depend solely on witnesses, but also on documents in her possession and letters written by her and her associates.

"Going through the preliminary procedure, as previously described, she was tried in September by three civil judges of our high court and a jury,
and was convicted, not of harboring
German soldiers, but of deliberate, persistent spying for the purpose of providing the enemy with important information. Her male companion was condemned to death. She was sentenced to ten years imprisonment."

SECOND STAGE OF AUSTRO-ITALIAN CAMPAIGN

Italian Army on The Offensive Along The Whole Front From Switzerland to The Baltic

Safety Against Danger of Invasion and Occupation of Strategic Positions Accomplished, Italian Forces Have Begun General Attack Along Whole Line—King Climbs Snow Covered Mountain Crest to Congratulate His Army.

Udine, Italy, Oct. 23, via Paris.—The Italian army is making a general attack along the whole line from Switzerland to the Adriatic. In the preceding five months of the Austro-Italian war the Italians have been directing efforts against the penetrating of the Austrian territory, and capture of strategic points for the purpose of securing Italy against the possibility of Austrian invasion. In the opinion of the Italian general staff, this has been accomplished, and the war is now entering its second phase. It is estimated here that the Italians have taken 25,000 prisoners during the war and have put out of action upward of 100,000 men in all. Italian losses, including killed, wounded and prisoners, amount to about 45,000, according to official figures, which is the lowest percentage of any of the belligerent nations.

STEFANSSON PLANS FURTHER EXPLORATIONS

Writes he intends to Establish Base 250 Miles North of one he had last winter.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Oct. 23.—Mail just received from the far north by G. J. Desbarette, Deputy Minister of Naval Service, contains a report from Stefansson the explorer dated from Herschell Island and confirming the telegrams which were received from him recently.

He states that he has discovered land about 300 miles east of Prince Patrick Land in Beaufort Sea and spent three days on it. There was no musk ox but lots of bear and caribou and great flocks of birds. Away to the north were mountains as far as he could see and the birds were flying north showing that there was land far beyond.

Stefansson states that he came out this year fatter and in better condition than he went in. He is planning to establish his next base this winter about 250 miles north of the base he had last winter on Bank's Island. He is going to explore the new land in the Beaufort Sea.

Reports from Dr. Anderson of the southern party are that they have been conducting useful exploration work and studies.

SWEDISH STEAMER, GERMAN WAR PRIZE, HIT MINE AND SANK

London, Oct. 23, (10.10 p. m.).—A despatch to Reuters' Telegram Company from Wisby, Sweden, says that the Swedish steamer Rumina, of 1485 tons, has struck a mine off the east Granton Lighthouse. The force of the explosion broke her in half, the forward part sinking immediately. Six of the crew who were asleep in the forecastle at the time of the explosion were drowned.

The Rumina had been captured by a German submarine, and a German officer was in charge. The rest of the crew and the German officer escaped in boats and landed on the island of Gotland.

OFFICER OF PATRICIAS WINS MILITARY CROSS

Capt. Niven, all Senior Officers disabled, took command of Battalion and led men gallantly—French President honors Brig-Gen. Curry with Croix de Commandeur.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Oct. 23.—A war office communication to the government states that Brigadier-General A. W. Curry, C. B., has been awarded the "Croix de Commandeur" by the President of the French Republic, and Col. James H. Mitchell the "Croix De Officier."

The British Military Cross has been awarded to Capt. H. W. Niven, Princess Patricia's. The notice regarding Captain Niven says: "For conspicuous gallantry and coolness during a very heavy bombardment on the 8th of May, 1915, at Bellegarde Lake, east of Ypres, when his battalion suffered very heavy casualties. All the senior officers being disabled he found himself in charge and took command of the battalion with great ability till the 15th of May. He had previously been brought to notice for consistent good work as transport officer and as adjutant has done good service and was only wounded."

Corporal J. S. Pym, of the Royal Canadian Dragoons has been awarded the distinguished Conduct Medal. The report says: "For conspicuous gallantry at Festubert, on 26th May, 1915. He went out 100 yards to a wounded man between 6 and 7 a. m. and, having reached him, called for assistance. A sergeant went to his aid but was shot through the thigh and unable to move. Corporal Pym returned to the trench about 5 p. m. and with the assistance of two men went out again and brought the wounded man into safety. The shrapnel and rifle fire was continuous."

OUTSIDE THE LARGE CENTRES.

The following resolution was adopted by the United Baptists in convention at Truro, October 15-21:

"Whereas the quartering of Canadian troops in the larger centres means that temptations to intemperance and immorality are greater; and whereas many anxious parents, unwilling to have their sons exposed to such dangers, are holding them back from enlistment; and whereas many men composing Canada's fine volunteer army have already shown that they do give way to such temptations;

"Therefore, be it resolved that we petition the military authorities and most earnestly request as follows:

"1. That our troops be not quartered in the large centres.

"2. That wherever the troops may be quartered there may be prohibition for an area of at least ten miles in each direction from the encampment.

"3. That the military authorities cooperate with the civil authorities in the suppression of all kinds of vice.

"4. That in the selection of military officers, much emphasis be placed on the moral qualifications of applicants."

Copies of this resolution were ordered sent to the leading papers of the Maritime Provinces as well as to the Premier of Canada and the Minister of Militia.

MACE DONIA BULGARIA'S OBJECTIVE

Premier says Half Task already accomplished—Speaks on negotiations with Allies.

Sofia, Oct. 20, via London, Oct. 24. (Delayed in transmission)—Bulgaria's future military actions were outlined today by Premier Vassil Radoslavoff to an Associated Press correspondent. The premier said: "Our future military actions depend upon the conduct of the Entente Powers toward Bulgaria. The limit of our operations, according to present plans, will be reached when Macedonia is occupied, which task already is half completed. Should the troops of the Entente Powers invade Macedonia or Bulgaria they will find us ready and able to defend ourselves. I am satisfied to see that the campaign against the Serbians is progressing most satisfactorily. Our troops are doing duty with their old time dash, and are not far from a point where Serbian resistance must collapse."

Premier Radoslavoff said the Entente Powers failed to win the Bulgarians' support because they proved incapable of understanding Bulgaria's position, and insisted that Bulgaria attack Turkey, which nation had just ceded to Bulgaria the Marza Valley. The premier declared that Bulgaria had no interest in attacking Turkey, since Macedonia was no longer Turkish territory and, moreover, that Bulgaria was entitled to Macedonia upon ethical grounds.

The course adopted by the Entente Powers, and the attitude of their newspapers, alienated the sympathies of the Bulgarians," Premier Radoslavoff said in conclusion, "and I can only say that our relations with Roumania and Greece are the best possible, and I have no reason to believe that a change is likely."

FUNERALS.

His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc gave the final absolution, and interment took place in the new Catholic cemetery. Many beautiful floral tributes gave testimony of the esteem in which Mrs. Glynn was held.

THE BALKAN CAMPAIGN.

Last night's despatches indicated that the Bulgarians had succeeded in capturing Uskup in Serbia, and had also crossed the railway line between the Serbian army and the Allied forces advancing to relieve them. This development will not only add to the difficulties of the task confronting the British and French troops which have gone to the relief of the sorely beset Serbians but, if followed by other Bulgarian successes, may greatly complicate the situation in the Balkans.

It is felt that unless the Allies make speedy advances in the Near East the attitude of Greece and Roumania may be affected just as that of Bulgaria was undoubtedly influenced by recent German successes in Russia. If the past summer had seen a Russian invasion in Hungary, instead of an invasion of Russia by Germany, and if the British operation in the Dardanelles had been as successful as had been hoped for, the story of Bulgarian participation would have been written on a different page. So it may be with Greece and Roumania; if their assistance is to be assured for the Allies it is necessary that the German-Bulgarian movement should be speedily checked.

Assuredly the Germans will bring all possible power to bear to make certain the success of the Bulgarian campaign. Success in that direction is essential to the German plan to open communication with the Turks across Serbia and Bulgaria. Whether the Allied attack on the Dardanelles under present plans will succeed or fail it is certain the German war experts realize that the resistance of the Turks cannot continue indefinitely, but that, sooner or later, the famous waterway must be forced and Constantinople captured. To avert that is Germany's first plan, for the defeat of the Turks would bring immense advantages to Russia and possibly mean the forced abandonment of the German advance on the line from Galicia northward.

But the history of the war has shown that German strategy is like that of a skilled chess player who looks far ahead and sees evidently calculates that if a connection with Turkey can be linked up by the assistance of the Bulgarians she will eventually bring Roumania to her side and that would mean a heavy weight added her part of the scale.

If such a calculation is to be defeated it is necessary that the Allies should at once bring powerful assistance to Serbia. As reported several days ago British and French troops have already been landed at Saloniki and are proceeding with all possible speed. Should they fail to reach the Serbians in time to save them from the weight of the formidable German-Bulgarian attack, it would make it certain that the Balkan States, at present neutral, would be even more reluctant about hazarding their future on the promise of assistance from the Entente Allies. Thus, the war operations of the next two or three weeks may have a mighty effect in deciding the issue of the campaign in that area of conflict at any rate.

It should be remembered that in the Serbian, as in the Russian campaign, time fights on the side of the Allies. Although the Bulgarians have had successes, yet they are now in the mountainous portion of Serbia where the defending armies will have an immense advantage. In another month the Serbian mountains will be snowed and the invaders forced to meet conditions almost as severe as in Russia. To carry on an operation such as the Germans and Bulgarians have undertaken will involve a great number of men and the Germans have no infinite reserves for that or other tasks. The British Empire is already feeling the pinch for men and, knowing our own difficulties in this respect, we may be inclined to overlook the fact that Germany must be finding it even a greater problem.

There is no cause for despondency as to the situation in the Balkans, rather should it afford another reason why every Canadian of fighting age should flock to the colors for the campaign which has been forced on the Allies by the entry of Bulgaria is not a task to be undertaken or left alone, but a grim, serious, costly business which is likely to have a very important bearing upon the result of the whole war.

THE RETURNED SOLDIER

In securing accurate and detailed information as to the opportunities Canada can offer to her returned soldiers after the war, the Borden Government has acted wisely and well, and a feature of the present plan which gives it particular value is the fact that, so far as possible, the soldiers who return will be settled in the district from which they enlisted. It is also worthy of note that the Government will work scientifically and to the greatest possible degree will eliminate the element of chance in fitting the opportunities to the man.

One suggestion made which will be regarded as distinctly broadminded, is that whenever it can be done without sacrificing efficiency, vacancies occurring in the Dominion, Provincial or municipal services should be given to returned soldiers. This is an excellent plan and should do more than anything else to prove that the Canadian people do not forget the men who, when the need was great, had sufficient bravery and patriotism to exchange positions in civilian life for duty in the trenches.

The various provinces will work in harmony with the Dominion and by the means of carefully selected commissions will secure the information sought. It is believed the plan will work out well, and if so, will furnish but one more evidence of the desire of the Borden Government to administer the affairs of this country in a manner that will bring satisfaction to all Canadians.

THE LIVING AND THE DEAD

One of the members of a German Zeppelin crew has contributed to an American syndicate an article dealing with the experiences of German aviators in the recent raid over London and, in the course of his recital, declares that when the Zeppelin hovered over Trafalgar Square the "brave" commander of the craft shouted to his men "Give old Nelson a bomb." The reply was to drop an explosive "straight on the head" of the Nelson monument.

Aside from the fact that the article is probably untrue and decidedly beautiful in tone, its only value is to show that the Germans, while unwilling to meet Nelson's descendants on the North Sea, did not hesitate to attempt acts of vandalism on a memorial erected by the grateful people of England to England's mightiest sea warrior. They would wreck the statue of Nelson dead, but would shrink from encounter with the men who today stand for the same principles which actuated those who fought under the hero of Trafalgar.

Such deeds of "courage" are quite of a part with Germany's other notable achievements, the murder of women and children, the slaughter of innocent non-combatants and with a conception of naval warfare that bestows Iron Crosses on commanders who sink unarmed passenger liners, or fire on Red Cross or hospital ships. Germany is very welcome to all the "credit" for that sort of thing.

MR. HAZEN IN BATHURST.

The village of Bathurst, on Friday, did especial honor to Hon. J. D. Hazen, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, and thus illustrated that they have a keen appreciation of the good work he has done for them. Some days ago The Standard announced that arrangements had been made for the resumption of dredging work in Bathurst harbor, a development greatly desired by the people of that prosperous and enterprising portion of the province. That their harbor is to be deepened and made available for the increasing business which must come to it through the establishment of large industries on that part of the North Shore is in great measure due to the efforts of the Minister of Marine.

St. John has already benefited to a marked degree by having as its representative in the Borden cabinet a gentleman of the ability and energy of Mr. Hazen who is doing excellent service in the practical development of this port. Formerly St. John was forced to be content with promises usually given in the heat of an election campaign and forgotten as soon as the emergency which called them forth had passed. That condition, however, was happily changed on September 21st, 1911.

The Last Call.

(By Harold Begbie in The London Chronicle.)
Fight it out in your heart, my lad, it's time for the final wrench; Home has its arms about your neck, But Conscience points to the trench. Your brothers fought thro' that self-same fight. Ere they rallied to face the Hun; And where would your home be now, my lad, If Conscience had not won?

It isn't an easy choice to make. But it can be made, and must: Shirk, and you bring the finest thing in your soul, and ours, to the dust. Your brothers wrestled with God, and cried.

That God should leave them alone; And where would your soul seek heaven today Had God been overthrown?
The eyes of our women search your face, Our children look as you pass; How does it feel to meet those eyes, And your own eyes, in the glass? Hard, hard for you now to meet those eyes.

With their challenge, How can you wait? But where will you hide from your "brothers' eyes" if you should come too late?
This is the last, the last free call To go as your brothers went, To go as heroic Britons should, Not wait till they're fetched and sent, Win your first fight, the fight with self, Be swift with that gallant blow, Then on to your second fight, good lad, And crush God's other foe.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat also take glass of Salts before eating breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clear clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Making Home More Cheerful

When Mother feels good the family is happy, but when Mother is tired, cross and nervous nothing seems quite right in the home.

Eye-strain is responsible for many headaches, much nervousness and exhaustion women suffer from and usually by the eyes are not suspected as the cause of the drain on general health. Often there is severe eye-strain when apparently the sight is good.

Correctly fitted glasses will end the eye-strain and many a home would be more cheerful if Mother wore glasses made especially for her.

Sharp's optometrists can detect eye-strain if it exists and prescribe the right glasses to correct it. If you squint, frown, have headaches or are nervous, consult Sharp's optometrists.

SACRED CONCERT WELL ATTENDED

The sacred concert in the Opera House last evening under the auspices of Postmaster Sears and members of the post office staff and letter carriers, was an unqualified success. The large auditorium was crowded and the collection netted $155.00, which will be devoted to the patriotic funds. Mayor Frink presided, assisted by Postmaster Sears.

All the numbers were heartily appreciated. Those taking part were: Miss Blenda Thompson, Miss Knight, Miss Amdur, Master Nell Gorham, (of the Partello Stock Company), Fred Joyce, A. W. Baird, C. B. Skelton, Norman Houston, (of the Partello Stock Company), Mrs. Geo. K. Bell, D. Arnold Fox and Mr. Ford acted as accompanists.

The Opera House orchestra and the Carleton Cornet Band assisted in the programme.

The Opera House was given over for the concert through W. C. McKay, the manager.

HARRY PIKE IS VERY BUSY ON FIRING LINE

Carleton boy with Heavy Artillery tells of work of Canadians.

A letter has been received from Harry Pike, who since last writing has been with Major Magee's heavy artillery fighting in France. Gunner Pike says that all the boys are well but are working day and night at the fighting. When writing the heavy guns had been stationed in pits dug seven feet in the ground and they are being fired both night and day. A few days before writing Gunner Pike said that they gave the Hunns all that was coming to them and quite a large number of Germans were made prisoners.

He states that many of the prisoners while being brought in passed quite close to the gun pit in which he was working and they all presented a sorry sight.

Gunner Pike further states that the stories circulated in St. John that he and other members of the heavy artillery had been in England were false. He said some of the boys had obtained passes but they were taken away from them and they were not allowed to go to England. As for himself he did not have a pass and had been at the front ever since leaving England. He was not going to England until the war was over or unless something happened to him and he was sent away. He says that there is not very much chance of any passes being issued for soldiers to leave the front and spend a vacation in England as all the men that can be secured are needed at the front and this is certainly no time for any vacations.

THE AGRICULTURAL INSTRUCTION ACT

Good work has been done as a result of Department's efforts.

There has been issued at Ottawa the first report of the work accomplished by the provinces under the provisions of the Agricultural Instruction Act. It is entitled "Report of Agricultural Instruction Act, 1914" and embodies a full statement of the scope and nature of the measure followed by a review, in nine sections, of the work done in each province.

A section also is devoted to the veterinary colleges of Canada, toward which $20,000 a year is granted. Another section covers the subjects of "Agricultural Education in Manitoba," "Agricultural Instruction in Belgium," "School Consolidation" and other matters including a list, briefly explained, of the United States federal appropriations for agricultural instruction. The report shows, among other things, that one hundred and fifty-five permanent instructors, professors, supervisors, directors, demonstrators and many assistants, have been appointed by the various provinces and are being provided for through the Agricultural Instruction Act. In addition, a large number of magnificent buildings have been erected from these funds throughout Canada.

The report embodies one hundred and forty-five pages of text in addition to sixteen pages illustrating the buildings constructed. The report shows that the work done by each province is varied according to local needs and conditions. Much of it, however, is common to all the provinces and varies only in the method by which it is carried out. It is being distributed to applicants by the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

Tea and Sale in Knights of Columbus Hall Tuesday Evening

On Tuesday night, October 26th, there will be a tea and sale in the Knights of Columbus rooms, Coburg street, by the ladies of the Cathedral parish. The proceeds will be given in aid of the Foundling's Home. Games and music will be held in the amusement line and a good sized crowd is expected. This is for a worthy cause and should be patronized by all who are able to attend. Energetic committees have been at work and an excellent programme has been arranged for the evening. A delicious tea will be served and fancy work sold. As the tea and sale will last only one night it is hoped that a large patronage will help accept the good work.

BRITISH NAVY HAS EVER BEEN AN INSTRUMENT FOR LIBERTY

Rev. Alfred Hall, Strathcona Commissioner, spoke in Congregational Church, on "Britain's Sea Power, The Gift of God"—One recruit offered.

do you think God is going to leave our navy in the lurch in the present crisis? Remember the Lusitania, and say what you think of the German navy? What do you think is likely to happen? Some of our big ships have so far as we know, not yet fired a gun. Yet there rides the navy ready, eye ready, and if it were not for this force the Empire would before now have gone to pieces.

"I believe this beautiful Canada to be the supreme prize which Germany seeks but there is our fleet and the genius of the sea is in our people as is the chivalry of the sea." Towards the close of the address Rev. Mr. Hall spoke, as an example of the general incident amongst the jack tars, of an incident that occurred recently when one of them, before proceeding to the North Sea, expressed the hope that the "fleet's prayer" would continue to be read whilst he was in those waters.

On being asked what this prayer was he seemed surprised that the question should be asked and replied: "It's this: 'O Lord do give 'em courage to come out, even if it's only for five minutes.'"

The pastor, Rev. Ralph J. Haubert, took part in the service and spoke in terms of appreciation of the work of Rev. Mr. Hall in connection with the British and Foreign Sailors' Society. The national anthem was sung at the close of the service after which one of the men present, Napoleon J. Landry of Gardiner, Maine, of Canadian parentage, applied for enlistment to one of the two recruiting officers in attendance. He will be medically examined today.

STIRRING APPEAL FOR MEN OF ST. JOHN TO DO THEIR SHARE

Judge Carleton and W. S. Fisher heard in fine addresses at the Imperial last night—Seven recruits Secured Saturday.

the rest of the Empire and decide with unfaltering determination to carry this war to a successful conclusion, so that we may enjoy forever those rights and liberty bequeathed us by our forefathers.

"From Lord Kitchener and those in authority the call goes forth for men and still more men. We must not temper our devotion until the need is past.

"To the fathers I say, do not keep the boys back. Now is the accepted day. There are three kinds of fathers. First, the father who grasps his boy's hand and wishes him God speed. Second, the father who is opposed to his boy enlisting, but who, when the boy does enlist without the paternal sanction, is as proud as a peacock. Then there is the father who has been fortunate enough to accumulate some money and would have another boy enlist but would not sacrifice his own and still more men. We must not let us appeal to the mothers to let their sons go to save the country, if they don't there will be no country to save.

"To the men at home I appeal. Your comrades in the trenches are calling. What are you going to answer? If there no inspiration for you in their gallant stand at Langemarck? If there is, it is time to come and help support them.

Mr. Fisher

W. S. Fisher spoke interestingly of his trip to England. He told of the splendid organization of the hospital service for Canadian troops. He said that at first it was the ideal to keep all the Canadian wounded in one hospital, but as the number of casualties increased this was not found to be feasible and at present you can find Canadians in most of the hospitals in England.

He visited Sporncliffe, where there are about twenty thousand Canadian troops and spoke highly of their appearance and said they were well thought of by the British people.

Mr. Fisher dealt with the submarine situation and told of the precautions that were taken to insure the safe transportation of men and supplies from England to France. He had been on board a submarine and told

NEW POSTER TO ASSIST RECRUITING

These have been posted in conspicuous places about the city.

The large number of posters and cards displayed about the city for the encouragement of recruiting have excited much interest. On telegraph poles, and in the windows of a large number of stores and business houses, as well as in some private residences, the call to the ranks is earnestly made in various ways. Conspicuous is the large poster on the boarding in King square which depicts soldiers in action, and in large letters underneath are the words: "Don't stand looking at this, go and help!" Smaller posters and cards bear the following appealing words:

How old are you?
Don't hold back—the other fellow may be waiting for you.
There are gaps in the ranks today; will you fill one of them?
Getting to be a frequent question—"How old is he?"
The boys you meet are wondering if you are 15.
You have been waiting, waiting, waiting, hoping you would not be needed. Can you wait any longer? Surely the need now is very great.
Your lover is very dear to you—but will you be ashamed of him when the war is over?
If you are between 18 and 45 your conscience is troubling you; or is it dead?
A mother said: "My boy can go, I can't allow anyone to say he hid behind my skirts."
Would to God everyone could feel how serious is the job we have in hand.
The government has set 18 to 45 as the age limits of real men. Are you one?
If England falls you fall. Every man of you must go, as we too must go.
Your boy has chums who are going; he cannot hang his and stay behind. There are boys of 18 in the trenches; they have the right to be called men—are you a man?
The day you enlist will be the proudest in your life. The ones you love most may be in tears, but in their hearts they will be prouder of you than ever before.

of his impressors of the underwater craft. Speaking of aeroplanes, Mr. Fisher said the officer on board had told him that the air craft were of great assistance in discovering the presence of hostile submarines. He had been told that at some places it was possible for the pilot of one of these aeroplanes to see forty to sixty feet into the water.

He told of the determination of the British people to carry this war to a successful end. The people of Britain bore the burden of taxation without demur and in some cases the taxes amounted to from twenty-five to fifty per cent. of their incomes.

After the addresses the meeting closed with the national anthem.

Saturday Meeting
There was a good attendance on Saturday night at the recruiting hall at the corner of Mill and Union streets. Clear were provided and musical selections were given by a nine-piece orchestra under the leadership of Leonard Dunlop. The proceedings were in charge of Walter C. Allison, Lieutenant, Peters being chairman. Speeches pointing out the urgent need for a continuous stream of recruits and the serious conditions confronting the Empire were given by A. M. Belding, Miles E. Asar and A. H. Wetmore. It was announced that another smoker would be held tonight at 8.30. Six recruits were signed on during the day and passed the medical examination.

WINTER STREET AND ST. MALACHI'S BOYS WIN.

Two games were played in the School Boys' football league on the Shamrock grounds Saturday morning. The first was between Winter Street and King Edward and resulted in a victory for the former, 9 to 3. The feature was the playing of Anderson of the winners. He made a sensational run and, after covering nearly the entire distance from one goal to the other, scored a touchdown. The second game between St. Malachi's boys and the Centennial was one-sided, as the latter team did not have a complete line-up. The score was 39 to 0. The winners have a good team, and with a little more knowledge of the game, should make formidable contenders for the championship.

ANOTHER ST. JOHN BOY GIVES HIS LIFE FOR HIS COUNTRY

Robert E. Knowles dies as result of wounds—William Warnock and Alfred Henderson mentioned among the injured—Word came yesterday.

Among the casualties reported yesterday were three St. John boys, all members of the 26th Battalion. Private Robert E. Knowles died of wounds received about two weeks ago. William Warnock and Alfred Henderson, of West St. John, were reported wounded.

A telegram received at the home of Joseph S. Knowles, of 134 Orange street, yesterday morning brought the sad news of the death of his son, Pte. Robert E. Knowles. It read as follows: "Deeply regret to inform you No. 69489, Pte. Robert E. Knowles, 26th Battalion, officially reported died of wounds, October 14th." There were no particulars but it is believed the boy was wounded in the great drive reported nearly two weeks ago. He was in the company commanded by Major Brown and in the platoon under Lieut. Fairweather both of whom were reported injured during the last week.

The last news received from him was on September 27th and then he told of celebrating his eighteenth birthday on Sept. 17th in France by walking over country in a pair of new boots. He was then in the trenches. Shortly after the war broke out he had enlisted in the 28th Dragoons who were later transferred to the 6th Mounted Rifles, but young Knowles had transferred before this to the 26th Battalion. He remained in the city last winter and spring with his company and left with them early in the summer. His parents and sisters were deeply shocked at the news of his death as no other word was received of his injuries before this.

The two boys wounded are William C. Warnock and Alfred Henderson. The former is the son of James Warnock, of 156 Market Place, West St. John, and the latter is the son of James S. Henderson, 104 Duke street, West.

The telegram to Mr. Warnock read as follows: "Sincerely regret to inform you that No. 70965, Private William C. Warnock, has been admitted to the Australian Hospital, Vimereaux, wounded in left leg. Will send further particulars as soon as received."

(Signed) "ADJUTANT GENERAL."

Warnock had been employed with the C. P. R. for some time previous to his enlistment, as a checker, but about a month before he enlisted he was made shed foreman. He was about twenty-one years old, and was well known and liked around the city, and all his friends will hear of his injuries with regret.

The telegram to Mr. Henderson was worded much the same, except that no particulars were given as to the nature of the wound. Alfred Henderson was eighteen years of age, and was a general favorite around the West End.

Both young men have been heard from quite frequently since they have left here, and the last word from each stated that they had been in the trenches, but at the time of writing, they were well.

BIBLE SOCIETY SUNDAY AND THE WORK DONE

Scripture distribution to soldiers has been generally appreciated—What the society means

Bible Society Sunday was pretty generally observed yesterday by the church generally throughout the Maritime Provinces. Many churches in the city heard sermons on this particular day. Rev. H. R. Boyer, M. S. T., secretary of Bible Society, spoke at St. John's Presbyterian church in the morning, and in Main street Baptist in the evening. Rev. Dr. Morrison also spoke of the Bible Society in the First Presbyterian church, West End, in the morning.

The following are the chief points brought out in Rev. H. R. Boyer's address:

The Canadian Bible Society. Eleven years ago the various Bible Society Auxiliaries were consolidated into the Canadian Bible Society and incorporated by the government at Ottawa to do Bible work in Canada. Since its formation Bible distribution in Canada has more than tripled. During the years re-organization and re-construction have been effected with a view to economy and efficiency. It initiated the movement of meeting the immigrants at the ports of entry. It gives to each free, in his own language, a portion of the Scriptures. There are 110 languages spoken in Canada, and the Bible Society is the only branch of the Christian church that works among all these strangers. In doing this work the society is performing a great national service. It employs 70 colporteurs and Bible women who labor in every province of the Dominion circulating the Bible in the various languages spoken in our country. Its expenditure alone in this work in 1915 was more than $30,000.

District Number One, which embraces New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland, is under the supervision of Rev. Henry R. Boyer, M. S. T. During the past year this district has been re-organized.

The office of travelling secretary of Nova Scotia has been done away with and all the work of the district has been consolidated and centered in St. John, which is the district secretary's headquarters.

The purpose of this consolidation was economy. Because the district secretary could not reach all parts of his extensive district, and in view of the inter-relationship of the society and the denominations on the one hand, and the dependence of the denomination for Scriptures in foreign languages on the other, the Bible Society suggested that the fourth Sunday of October be observed as the Bible Society Sunday. That this was a popular move was evidenced by the number of clergymen of various faiths who wrote to the head office for literature containing data to assist in the preparation of their sermons, and by the hearty endorsement of the Presbyterian Synod and the Baptist convention of the Maritime Provinces which have held their maritime conventions since this scheme was proposed.

The Mother Society. The Canadian Bible Society is auxiliary to the British and Foreign Bible Society, which was founded in 1804. Its purpose was the publication of the Bible in the various languages spoken by the peoples among whom Christian denominations labored. For 111 years it has been the clearing house for the Scriptures. It has published the Bible in 487 languages and placed it in the hands of over 162,000,000 people. It furnishes Scriptures to the various denominations as follows:—To the Church of England in 172 languages; to the Presbyterian in 132; to the Methodists in 92; to the Baptists in 70, and to the Congregationalists in 57. It spends in this work $100 for every $1,000 raised by these denominations for home and foreign missionary work.

Its 1,800 Colporteurs last year circulated over 4 1/4 million copies, while its total circulation in 1914 passed the ten million mark. Of these over 2,000,000 went to China; 1,600,000 to India; 1,800,000 to Continental Europe and some 244,000 to Canada.

The Bible Society in the War. The Bible society is filling a large place in the war. It has presented free of cost 80,000 copies of the New Testament to Canadian overseas troops. To the soldiers of the empire and of other belligerent nations the free distribution had passed the 2,000,000 mark two months ago. It places Scripture free in hospitals in the war zone that are under Red Cross organization, and is giving largely to prisoners of war. It sent 675 Gospels in German to the German prisoners interned in Amherst, and has presented many Scriptures to refugees that have come within the Empire.

BAD RAIL TIED UP STREET CARS

Market square the scene of much trouble for street railway.

The street car service was much hindered on Saturday night and all day yesterday by a piece of the rail at the curve at the foot of King street breaking off. Every car that went by had to go carefully to avoid going off the track, and even then several cars left the track, and about ten o'clock Saturday night, and after that about one car out of every four that came along left the track.

The worst tie-up occurred yesterday afternoon about three o'clock when one car came along at a good rate of speed and jumped clear of the track, and kept on going till it stopped on the other pair of rails, thus blocking traffic going both ways for quite a while. Before the car was got back to the rails and started on its way again, fourteen cars were held up at the foot of King street and along Prince William street. Workmen were engaged on the track last night and early this morning, and the track will be probably all right for the regular service this morning.

The trolley wire near the foot of Dock street parted sometime during the evening and caused more inconvenience.

SIX TRAVELLERS OFFER SERVICES

Will Join Platoon in the 104th Battalion—Many more going in, too.

The commercial travellers are out to do their bit for the Empire. Recently they made large contributions to the funds and now they are determined to give their personal services. A meeting of travellers was held Saturday night in the Board of Trade rooms and six men offered themselves as members of the travellers' platoon of the 104th Battalion. Those offering were:

James Turnbull, A. C. Turner, J. V. Kierstead, W. R. Wilson, J. F. Whitley, M. Maloney.

Arrangements have been made with Colonel Fowler for these men to join their battalion on December 1. This will give all a chance to get their affairs in shape.

There were about forty present Saturday night and speeches were made by the following: J. V. Kierstead, A. Kirkpatrick, J. LeLacheur, J. Kulight, F. W. Coombs and James Turnbull.

MEMORIAL WINDOW AT ST. DAVID'S CHURCH

Unveiled yesterday in memory of Mr. and Mrs. John P. C. Burpee.

A beautiful memorial window, which has been placed in St. David's church, in memory of the late John P. C. Burpee and Anne, his wife, was unveiled at the morning service yesterday.

In presenting the window to the church, on behalf of his sister, Mrs. H. A. McKeown, his brother, Bruce Burpee, and himself, Francis F. Burpee, son of the honored dead, mentioned the fact that his father had been a member of the committee which had in hand the building of the present St. David's church.

In accepting the window on behalf of the congregation, Rev. J. A. MacKeigan said that, though he only knew of the noble life and good works of the late Mr. Burpee by the testimony of others, he accounted it among the greatest privileges and the tenderest memories of his ministry to have known Mr. Burpee.

The window, which is executed in soft oriental colorings, depicts the Good Samaritan in the act of ministering to the man who "fell among thieves" and was left by the wayside "half dead," and Rev. Mr. MacKeigan preached a most excellent sermon on the same subject.
