F. W. SMITH, M.L.A. ADDRESSES HOUSE

Makes a Very Creditable Speech Touching all the Issues of the Day

Mr. Smith (Carleton) on the evening of the day being called, resumed the debate on the budget. After extending congratulations to the hon. member and supporter of the Address, he said that there were some questions on which he felt he should make himself clear before the House and country. There had been some criticism in regard to the Farmers' Party in politics, but he felt that Party had already justified its existence. Its advent in Carleton County had demonstrated that elections could be run in accordance with the Election Act. A few years ago elections in Carleton County had been bought up by the donors, but the entrance of the Farmer in politics had put a stop to that. They had contested an election in that county a few months ago, and the successful Farmer candidate had afterwards published a statement showing from whom every dollar had been received and how it had been paid out. His hon. friend, the Minister of Health, had cast some reflections on the hon. member of the Farmers' Party because of the pessimistic tone of his address. He (Smith) could say that the half had not been told. He knew of farmers who had to dispose of some of their equipment to keep from going to jail, and he knew of able bodied men who were working for $1.15 a day. If the hon. Minister of Health had to support a family on that amount perhaps he would not look and feel so cheerful. He also knew of business men who had many accounts on their books not more than ten per cent of which were collectible. He did not blame the government for the depression that existed but considered it an aftermath of the great War. Similar conditions had prevailed after the American Civil War, when the dollar across the line went fifty cents below par. In that War not more than half a million men were involved, while in the late European War twenty-eight nations had taken part and seven million five hundred thousand lives were lost. While the government was not to blame for the war the people expected it to economize and cut down expenses. Previous speakers had intimated that the government was to be congratulated on having reduced estimates. They had also received congratulations last year but there had been a deficit of half a million dollars. He could promise the government that if they could keep within the estimates during the coming year, that he would be first to extend to them the glad hand. He wanted a government that would make an estimate and live up to it. He did not feel like criticizing the Health Act as he considered it a big proposition, but there are some things about it that might be remedied. He considered the Act rather expensive. In the good old days when he was a member of the county council they used to get by with a Health expenditure of from $400 to $500, but now it cost five or six times that much. He was not in a position to say that the health of the average individual was any better than it used to be.

With reference to Public Works it was not his intention to indulge in criticism, but it seemed to him that a very large amount was expended for miscellaneous purposes. He noticed that the government garage had auto service that was maintained had last year cost $29,000. Having had some experience in the auto business he felt that branch was costing the province altogether too much, and if all other branches were in proportion to it he did not wonder that the government had a deficit. The hon. minister had asked for the co-operation of hon. members in keeping down expenditures. If he secured the co-operation of Mr. (Smith) he would have to assume a different attitude towards him. In the county of Carleton the patronage system was still in vogue, and was handled by Mr. H. L. Jones. Mr. Jones had been a candidate in the government interests at the late election and had secured 523 votes while the highest candidate had polled 3421. While he now handled the patronage it was quite evident that he was not the choice of the people. He (Smith) was in favor of increasing the tax rate for roads to forty or fifty cents, as he felt that if the people wanted roads they should be willing to pay for them. The road tax was now twenty-five cents and on an average assessment of $1200 it meant that a sum of $5.00 was paid. He knew of men who mailed heavy loads to market and received value for their taxes in a single trip. He was in favor of changing the rule of the road from left to right, and believed that the Act already on the Statute Books should be put in force. As he lived near the American border he knew from experience that the present rule of the road was a source of danger, and in the interest of safety the change should be made.

He believed that the hon. Minister of Agriculture was doing the best he could under the conditions that prevailed. What the farmers of the province needed was better markets, and if they had them they could deliver the goods. He would urge the government to do all in its power to extend the markets, particularly with the West Indies.

He considered that the Department of Lands and Mines had been grossly mismanaged in that past, and at the present time its administration was costing too much. He felt that a mistake had been made in lowering the rate of stampage. It was his opinion that the rate should be $5 during present depression and when that was over it should be increased to $7. He felt that the three would come when the province would be able to fix its own agency price on spruce lumber. Already there were signs of a building boom, and it would not be long before conditions got back to normal. He had been doing some figuring and found that it cost at the present time $12 per thousand to cut and manufacture lumber and had the same on the cars. When lumber was placed on the cars it was worth $30 a thousand, and that gave the lumberman a profit of four dollars a thousand. On an operation of ten million feet that would mean $40,000. He did not think they should make millionaires out of the people of the country, but they should have neither poverty nor riches. All wanted to have a comfortable people, but they did not wish to have a class so rich that they forgot God and another so poor that they were compelled to steal. The lumbermen should be kept in the same class with the farmers and fishermen. He believed there was $5 in the lumbering business for every dollar that could be cut out of farming, and as he had been engaged in both he was in a position to speak with some authority.

Some hon. Members who had spoken had expressed themselves as favorable to the government controlling the sale of liquor. He (Smith) did not favor such a policy in any shape or form. He was a believer in the present Act and wanted to see it properly enforced. There was much less drunkenness in evidence now than had been the case under the old order of things. There had been close to 22,000 at the Woodstock Exhibition in a single day last year, and not a single case of drunkenness had been noticed. He did not believe the government would be justified in engaging in the liquor business. King Solomon was the wisest and richest man that ever lived, and had tried everything out on a large scale. He had given himself over and had afterwards declared that there was nothing in it. His advice was not to look upon the wine when it was red, as it with like a serpent and slither like an adder. He was confident that if the government passed a law to collect the revenues for intoxicating liquor sooner or later it would come to grief.

The debate was continued by Messrs. Robinson, Dillie and Robichaud. The latter speaking up to six o'clock.

Mr. Smith (Carleton) rose to a question of privilege. He said that in the course of his remarks in the afternoon he had mentioned the name of Mrs. Dr. Roberts in connection with a small case whereas it was the District Medical Officer, Dr. Wade, whom he had intended to refer to.

MRS. PUTMAN SHAW

Mrs. Putnam Shaw, formerly of Simsbury, died at Ludlow, Me., on Sunday. The remains were brought here Monday and the funeral, conducted by Rev. J. M. Mallory, was held at Simsbury.

TOWN COUNCIL MONTHLY SESSION

Many Important Matters Under Discussion—J. F. Murdoch is Police Officer

Regular meeting of the Town Council Monday evening convened in the Town Hall with a full board. The report of the treasurer showed an overdraft of $1591.97, due to the citizens of the Town not paying their taxes which are in arrears and are sufficient to meet our obligations. This also adds to interest charges and causes more taxes. It has practically been decided to cut off all water users whose taxes are in arrears, this is in conformity with the by-law.

A large number of things of vital importance to the general welfare of the Town were taken up and discussed such as board of trade, electric power for the town, sanitation, town dump, etc. The meeting was full of pep.

John F. Murdoch was employed under contract for one year as a public utility man to take charge of town pump, act as policeman, supervise work on roads, sidewalks and water systems under the jurisdiction of the chairman of the different committees. The office of Secy-Treas. will have to be filled on May 1, as this is the date on which the year is up. This may not necessitate a change.

The chairman of the road committee reported a very bad washout on Main street by the recent flood, which will necessitate several hundred dollars to repair.

The chairman of the by-law committee reported that two meetings had been held and a general survey had been made with a view to revising and adding to our by-laws. The question of inspection of milk and herbs is under active investigation at the present time and definite action will be taken as soon as the information is forthcoming. Section three to by-law fourteen has been changed by adding a rate of $10 per annum to all water takers outside of the protected area. An inspection of all taps and hoses, etc. will be made immediately as there is a great waste of water in the town on account of carelessness. A meter system is the only remedy, when people will be compelled to pay for what they waste.

The Mayor has the lighting of the bridge in hand and will call a special meeting, if necessary, in order to have the matter cleared up.

The chairman of the fire and water committee reported the Town pumping station was thrown out of commission for 24 hours on account of the main shaft breaking. A watchman was placed on that night in order to sound alarm if fire should occur. The question of having a general clean up of the town was referred to and it is hoped that our local paper will not overlook having the public conscience stirred to action. Official Report.

NEWS FROM THE OTHER SIDE

Interesting Letter From Woman in South Africa

Johannesburg, South Africa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and because I felt run down. I tried a lot of medicines before I tried yours. One day I was standing on my stoop when a boy came up to me and handed me one of your little books. I read the book and the next day my husband went to the chemist's and bought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken the medicine ever since and I feel quite strong and well now as I am on the sixth bottle. I have written to my sister and told her all about the wonders it has done for me, and I am quite willing for you to use my name as I can not thank you enough for what it has done for me."—Mrs. W. F. Rusin, 128 6th Ave., Mayfair, Johannesburg, Johannesburg, South Africa.

It is this sort of praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, given by letter or verbally, one woman to another, that ought to commend this splendid medicine to you. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women's ailments (in use nearly fifty years), and the fact that it has helped thousands of other women, should cause you to give it a trial now. It can be safely taken by any woman—young or old.

RACING CIRCUIT IS IN VIEW

Good Prospect of Racing the Coming Season—Work Soon to Start on a Track

(Edmundston Observer)

There is talk about forming a racing circuit with Rivière du Loup, and Clair's. Local sporting men are enthusiastic about the new company which has been launched to encourage not only the racing of horses, but the breeding of better horses upon the farms of our province, and the bettering of farming conditions generally. It is hoped that the annual exhibition will be arranged. The capital stock of the Racecourse Co. is authorized at $10,000. The president is our popular citizen, J. F. Rice; vice-president, J. B. Michaud; secretary-treasurer, J. W. Hall. The land for the race course has been purchased, and as soon as the weather permits workmen will be set at the task of putting it in shape and building the stands, etc. It is hoped to schedule a race here on Dominion Day, when it is believed the new bridge will be formally opened. Local sportsmen have a good stock of fast horses on hand.

NEW INDUSTRIES FOR EDMUNDSTON

Lively Board of Trade Encourages Several New Industries—The C. N. R. Matter

(Edmundston Observer)

The Edmundston Board of Trade met on Friday evening with the president, J. W. Hall in the chair. A number of things of interest came before the meeting. In the election of committees, after the ballots were counted, the following were declared elected:

Transportation—J. M. Stevens, K. C., Major C. M. Rideout and W. C. Albert.

Publicity—The Hon. J. E. Michaud, T. J. Scott and Dr. E. Simard, Mayor of Edmundston.

Retailers—J. J. Daigle, Alderman J. P. Rice and R. W. Hammond.

The members of these committees, together with the following officers—J. J. Hall, president, Hon. L. A. Dugal, vice-pres., F. H. Burgoyne, treasurer and W. R. Belyea, secretary, comprise the executive.

The secretary suggested that the retailers committee take immediate steps to call all the retailers of the town together early in April to discuss questions of importance.

A delegation appeared from a firm of foundry and brass moulders from the province of Quebec, asking for information and encouragement, looking to the establishment of a machine and iron and brass foundry here, to employ upwards of forty men. The Board listened to their statement and offered to be at their disposal in any assistance they could render. Dr. Simard, speaking as Mayor of the Town, also promised that he would do his best to see them well located, and assured them that the town would welcome their firm here as an industry calculated to help in the development of Edmundston.

Considerable discussion and many suggestions were made in connection with the cancellation of the fast freight trains through Edmundston from Monk to Moncton. J. W. Hall reported that when in Montreal last week he had had an interview with S. S. Brown, assistant general manager of the eastern lines of the C. N. R. and that he was assured that there was no thought in the minds of the railway authorities of taking away from Edmundston the divisional yards and offices. Mr. Brown gave Mr. Hall a letter denying this rumor, and authorized Mr. Hall to so inform the Board of Trade. In regard to the fast freight trains recently cancelled Mr. Hall was encouraged to believe that the order would be withdrawn and that soon the trains would be running on the old schedule.

Copies of telegrams sent and received from Pius Michaud, M. P., in connection with this matter were also reviewed. It was finally decided that a deputation should be sent to Ottawa to emphasize the importance of the matter before the authorities there, inasmuch as a number of our townspeople have been thrown out of work because of the lack of shipping facilities in regard thereto. J. M. Stevens, K. C., and J. E. Michaud, M. P., were elected as a delegation to interview the Minister of Railways and D. B. Hanna, Pres. C. N. R. The suggestion to send delegates and the mover of the motion that it be done was Hon. L. A. Dugal. It was reported that a Nova Scotia firm manufacturing oil tan footwear had written the secretary, asking for information regarding the town and the shipping and other facilities. Mr. Belyea reported replying to them and encour-

SO MANY PEOPLE ARE NERVOUS

"Fruit-a-lives" the Greatest of all Nerve Remedies

This Fruit Medicine Restores Health

The increase in the number of persons suffering from Nervousness is world-wide; due, in a measure, to the reaction following the war. Sleeplessness, Headaches, Mental Depression, Rheumatism, Nervous Dyspepsia, Bad Heart Action, are the results of a disturbed condition of the Nervous System.

The nerves and the blood are so intimately, so vitally, connected that the condition of one is bound to affect the condition of the other. If the blood is laden with impurities, it is impossible to have strong, steady nerves.

The first essential in treating nervous troubles is to purify and enrich the blood. This "FRUIT-A-LIVES" will do.

"FRUIT-A-LIVES" stimulates the bowels, kidneys and skin and purifies the blood. "Fruit-a-lives" improves appetite and digestion and insures food being properly digested, thus enabling the blood to carry wholesome nourishment to build up the body, particularly the nerves.

Men and women who take "Fruit-a-lives" for some form of nervousness—because they cannot eat or sleep or work or enjoy life—say that this fruit medicine is simply marvellous in its action.

aging their location here. A Nova Scotia canoe firm is also asking in regard to the town.

At a late hour the meeting adjourned. The executive committee met again on Saturday morning.

RANDOM NOTES

(Edmundston Observer)

Every town, no matter how small, has its places of interest. Our own town with its comparatively large and cosmopolitan population, its wide awake business interests, and its prosperous citizens is especially rich in interesting things, people and places.

Week by week then, D. E. Scribe, will tell of something, or somebody he has seen during the week, of interest to our readers.

About a mile away from the centre of the town, on the Canada Road to St. Jacques, are located the cow barns of the Fraser Companies, Ltd. Here with every comfort are housed over thirty happy, contented, registered Holstein cows. To walk down through the barns, so scrupulously clean, is to see bovine life at its best, trimmed and manicured, combed and brushed, washed and shiny, and lodged in an artificially heated barn. It is no wonder they give quantities of milk, pure and wholesome, to supply many of the households of Edmundston.

To observe the modern equipment for watering and feeding, and to talk with Mr. Ghorvath Peterson in charge of the barns is an education in "cow culture."

Perhaps the most interesting creature around the barns is "Cleveland Posch," a six-year-old registered bull weighing about a ton and a quarter. He stands in a box stall by himself, a truly noble looking beast. But although he looks so benign and harmless the writer felt more comfortable because of the stout iron bars which separated them.

Mr. Peterson said that upwards of 270 quarts of milk are distributed every day in glass sterilized bottles, and the demand nearly always exceeds the supply. After such a visit one can only wish that such barns, and such cattle, and such modern ways of doing things were possible to a far greater number of our New Brunswick farmers.

FIRE

(Edmundston Observer)

At half past five on Wednesday morning a fire, probably caused by friction, broke out at the conveyance of the three conveyors carrying the mill waste to the boiler room of the Fraser Company's Pulp Mill. A motor and starter were burned and some other slight damage done, but the quick action of the employees, and the prompt discovery of the fire confined the conflagration to very small limits.

SAD DEATH

(Edmundston Observer)

The many friends in Edmundston of Miss Blanche Tremblay will hear with sorrow of her death March 16, at her home in Portland, Me. On her many visits to this town she endeared herself to a great many people, and her sad death at the early age of 25 accentuated the brevity of life. Mrs. L. Vanier, who left to attend the funeral, has not yet come back.

Buy at Home

A great war has always been followed by a period of business depression which seems more acute than an ordinary depression as it comes after the war period of intense activity. It was expected this change would be more marked than that following any previous war on account of it involving many more countries and many more people.

With past experience before it the Canadian Reconstruction Association immediately at the close of the war started a "Buy at Home" Campaign. The purpose of this was to stop the stream of money sent out of the country to buy imported goods and to turn it back to keep the factories here working and the men employed. The events of the past two years prove that this was to be no exception and while this slowing up in business did not come as soon as was expected and was not apparent until a year or more after it was thought to be due, it finally came in full force in the fall and winter of 1920 and has continued to the present. The Reconstruction Association has made a complete analysis of the amount of money spent by various countries on imported goods. These statistics, when gathered together and compiled, brought out the fact that this country imported more goods in comparison to its population than any other country in the world and indeed almost twice as much as any other country. These figures also show that nearly 80 per cent. of all the goods imported came from the United States and that they amounted in a year to over $800,000,000 or over $2,000,000 a day. A further analysis of the actual imports showed that of the imported goods large numbers of similar goods were made in Canada and probably the buyer need not have imported them if he had wanted to buy at home.

It is no doubt true that many things are imported which cannot be bought from home manufacturers at as good advantage. There are frequently local conditions that make it impossible to compete with goods manufactured in large quantities under more favorable conditions. Other goods are imported because not being made here at all due in some cases to the demand for them not being enough to justify a Canadian plant for their production.

It frequently happens however that none of these conditions happen but there is a certain spell in the word "imported" both for the buyer and seller and a sale is made of foreign goods. At the same time just as good a purchase could be made as to quality and price on a home-made article if either the buyer asked for it or if the seller offered it. This is the purpose of the "Buy at Home" Campaign.

Not only here have past war conditions so adversely affected industry but in all other countries unemployment is more serious and most of them have adopted measures to protect their own working men and to keep out imported goods as far as possible. This has been done by the raising of import duties and other measures to encourage the use of home made goods and to keep out imported goods. This has had the effect of shutting off the market to manufacturers in different countries and this has especially affected the farmers and stock raisers in Canada who have been practically shut out of the market of the United States. While it is true that Canada buys a large quantity of goods in the United States it on the other hand exports a large quantity more especially farm products into the United States. However, by the tariff passed something like a year ago the shipment of Canadian farm products has been practically shut out of the United States market. A tariff of about 70c a barrel has prevented the shipment of large quantities of potatoes by the New Brunswick farmers to Boston, New York and other points which were formerly almost the best market for these potatoes. A duty of from 15c to 30c a lb on wool has reduced the exports of wool to the U. S. 95 per cent. during a six months period, and the past week a bill proposing a duty of 15 per cent. on hides has been reported in the U. S. Senate which if adopted, will entirely close the U. S. market for hides which now consumes a great quantity of the Canadian production.

With so large a part of the foreign market shut out the "Buy at Home" campaign becomes more important and it is only by supporting those who do business here that there will be a further market for farm products as well as manufactured goods.

In our previous advertisements we have called the attention to the fact that whatever reasons there may be for buying imported goods of various kinds none of these apply to fertilizer. Our prices compare favorably with the prices on imported goods. All the "Made at Windsor, N. S." brands are made of the best raw materials, properly mixed, dry and in good drilling condition and have given for ten years as good a yield of crops in all sections of the Maritime Provinces as any other imported fertilizer made.

We have agents in most sections and we are glad to quote prices and terms to anyone who uses fertilizer and would like to act as agent in any unoccupied territory.

MISS JANE WATSON

Died in Houlton, Monday, March 27. Jane, daughter of the late Robert and Lenora Watson of Grand Falls, in the seventy-fifth year of her age.

Miss Watson who had made her home in Houlton for the past forty years or longer, had for the past decade been a member of the Niles family on North Street, living with Mrs. J. J. Niles until Mrs. Niles' death and remaining with Mr. and Mrs. George B. Niles in the same house until she was called to another sphere. Thorough and painstaking in the duties she was called to perform, Miss Watson was among friends who saw to it that she had the best of attention. Two years ago she met with an accident which resulted in a fracture of the hip and since that time she has been in a more or less helpless condition.

Miss Watson is survived by four brothers and two sisters all of whom live in Victoria, B. C., and her brother Lewis whose residence is in Lime-stone. Her sister, Mrs. Rachel Sullivan, with her son Pius Sullivan and Mr. Lewis Watson before mentioned were in town to attend her funeral, which was held at the Niles Home-stead on Tuesday afternoon with Henry C. Speed of the First Baptist Church officiating.—Pioneer.

ANOTHER OLD SOLDIER MUSTERED OUT

(Star-Herald)

Many friends in this vicinity will learn with regret of the death of S. S.
Rideout, which occurred at Los Angeles, California, Feb. 27.

Mr. Rideout was born at East Florenceville, N. B., on Dec. 23, 1844. He was the son of Jacob and Mary Kearney Rideout, and came to Aroostook in October, 1860. In Dec. 1861, he enlisted at Presque Isle in the 15th Maine Regiment. He served through the war returning home in the winter of 1865.
He was badly wounded in the battle of Cedar Creek. During the greater part of the war he was tentmate with the late H. H. Robinson and William Sutter of this town. Shortly after the war he went to Spring Lake, Mich., where he married and lived for about forty years. He made frequent visits to this town, his last being four years ago at Fair time.

Five years ago he went to California where he married again, his first wife having died several years ago. He then sold his old home in Michigan, and went to California to live. He leaves besides his wife, a brother, Mr.
N. N. Rideout of Mapleton, Me., and a sister, Mrs. D. S. Craig of Presque Isle. He also leaves a half sister, Mrs.
Hattie Burill of Oregon, and many nephews and nieces and grand nephews and grand nieces who were always glad to see Uncle Vess.

Mr. Rideout was a worthy man, a kind brother and friend and a devoted member of the G. A. R.

A HISTORY OF CARLETON CO.

The bibliography of the province has been greatly enriched by the recent publication of "A Short Story of Carleton County" by T. Carleton L.
Ketchum, LL. B., of Woodstock. The book, attractively printed, is from the press of The Sentinel Publishing Co., and it is one that everyone native of Carleton county should own. Its 80 odd pages are crammed with a condensation of facts and figures chronicling the history of the county from the earliest records to the present year; and all is so cleverly written that one opening it to read is not likely to lay it down unfinished. Every town, village and settlement is quite fully covered and the reader notes with interest the many names of people and places and of incidents that in years gone by we have heard discussed by our parents at the fireside.

An historical record of real worth, the book, although a small volume, is certainly worth the two dollars at which it is offered for sale.

The Observer heartily commends the book to its readers and suggests that whereas the edition is limited, those desiring to secure a copy should not delay in sending the price for one—$2.00—direct to T. C. L.
Ketchum, Woodstock.

LOCAL MILITARY MATTERS

Course in signalling will be held at the Armory for the instruction of the local Cadet Corps and members of each receive $5.00.

If Hartland will organize a military rifle club, and get a good range established (with the usual Government cash assistance) Col. Sparling of Military Headquarters has given assurance that qualified musketry instructors will be sent here and a two weeks course in musketry be given the members of the club.

Local parties passing their examinations at the close of the infantry school finished recently at the St.
John armories for the non-permanent force of militia are as follows: For ers, Prov. Lieut., H. N. Bassett, Prov.

WHO IS THIS?

The Observer has on hand a great number of photographs of soldier boys, but in most cases the names of them have become detached and they can no longer be identified by the office staff. Here is one of them. Surely some one can write and tell who this is, when and where and with what unit he enlisted, and give a brief story of his subsequent career.
Let us have the story right away, please, and we will be able to print it next week. Each week we will print a different picture and ask our readers to supply the description for the following issue.

Watch this page. Your own boy's picture may appear next.
The picture of the soldier appearing in last week's issue is of Signaler Leigh H. Anderson, who before his enlistment lived near Centreville. He enlisted in 1916 in the 65th Field Battery at Woodstock and went overseas that same summer. After a brief period of training in England, in which time he qualified as signaller, he was sent to France, and there drafted into the 12th Battery, C. F. A., in which unit he served through several engagements until killed in action at Cambrai in October, 1918.

Among the inspiring pictures which are now being shown at the Neighborhood Theatre "Lavender and Old Lace" shown on Saturday evening, was one of the most charming in a long time. The depiction of the story was as clean and as chaste as a Sunday school book, and the pathos of the piece would have been overwhelming without the veil of irrepressible droilery running through it. The miniature orchestra that plays at the Neighborhood Theatre, Miss Carr at the piano, Vincent Boyne with the traps, does remarkably fine service in spite of its limited instrumentation. Their accompaniment Saturday night was highly commendable.

Ralph Holyoke spent Sunday in Woodstock.

Never in the world hath mortal eye seen the streets in Hartland in such good condition at the first of April. Of course weather conditions has much to do with this, but the really excellent work expended on the streets last summer has been entitled to most of the praise. Wherever in the town the streets were gravelled and proper drainage arranged the road bed was dry as soon as the snow disappeared. The new sidewalk has stood its entire length without a crack and is spoken of appreciatively, not only by the town people, but by strangers.

Appetite Good, Gained 20 lbs. Could Not Feel Better

From a nervous wreck this man was restored to health, strength and happiness.

He tells his own story in this letter.

Mr. Ralph A. Roberts,
Loverna, Sask., writes:

"In 1917 I had lost all appetite, failed 25 pounds in weight, became very nervous and shaky and in fact given up all hope of recovery. For some time I had suffered from constipation, which kept getting worse, until I was fast becoming a total wreck. Doctors and their drugs were sending me to my grave at the age of 39.

"Then I read about people being restored by Dr. Chase's Medicine and after three months' use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills I found that my bowels were restored to normal movement each day and the constipation was no more. I had a good appetite, had gained 20 pounds and could not feel better. I shall always be grateful for these benefits."

WILL RE-ORGANIZE U.F. CO-OP., LIMITED

Members Given Hearing by Corporation Committee—Lenses of New Brunswick Branches Shown—Other Bills

Fredericton, March 21.—The corporation committee met this morning with Mr. Robinson in the chair and took up consideration of a bill to amend the act relating to the Victoria Order of Nurses which was reported with amendments.

A bill to provide the reorganization of the Maritime United Farmers Co-operative Limited, was considered. J. G. Kilpatrick, of Fredericton, author of the business organization, W. P. Jones, E. C., of Woodstock, appeared also.

It was explained that the object of the bill was to reorganize the various branches of the organization and make each an independent business. Twenty-six branches existed in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Of the capital stock there had been $400,000 subscribed out of a total authorized of one million. The amount paid up had been $200,000. Liabilities were valued at $200,000, of which $100,000 had been paid up. Assets were valued at $200,000. The branches had refused to pay the balance on the subscribed stock when head office called for it and as a result a reorganization was to be attempted.

Mrs. M. J. Cronkite asked a number of questions which were answered by Mr. Kilpatrick and Mr. Jones.

Mr. Kilpatrick explained that the business of last year had been a success and dividends had been paid in proportion to the amount of stock paid up. There were no profits last year but a loss of $200,000. Some branches had made money and had paid in to head office during the last year. The work branch had been carried along.

Mr. Foster said he presumed that some of the profits went to meet expenses of an election.

Mr. Kilpatrick read the following list of branches which had made profits during 1922, and the amounts:

Blawie, $1,222; Woodstock, $2,246; Windsor, $225; Tatamagouche, $1,846; Point de Bute, $1,822; Albert, $402; Sussex, $1,802; Millville, $1,711; Lower Southampton, $1,223; Plaster Rock, $5,200; Centerville, $253.

A list of branches which had shown losses on the same year and amounts is:

Grand Falls, $6,506; Amherst, $1,394; Springhill, N. S., $1,262; Antigonish, $835; Sackville, $1,600; Kennebec, $2,122; Dartmouth, $2,351; St. John's, $4,398; Durham Bridge, $1,785; Antigonish, $1,301; Fredericton, $8,689; River Chaudiere, $1,519; Peterborough, $2,726; Grand Falls, $290; Hartland, $2,139; Bath, $4,955; Annapolis, $1,194; St. Stephen, $7,407; Miramichi, $462.

It was explained that Miramichi was a recently established branch and the loss was really depreciation. Total profits had been $23,227, and total losses $51,520, leaving a net loss of some $28,293. Loss at head office had been $264,000. A better year was expected in 1922. The losses in general had been sustained through depreciation and falling prices.

Mr. Foster asked how the head office lost, and the reply of Mr. Kilpatrick was that business was centralized there and there had been depreciation because of falling prices, the head office so meeting with loss. The branches were being assessed under this bill to meet that loss.

A. Chase Rowett explained that the present bill was for the purpose of imposing that assessment on the branches.

Mrs. M. J. Cronkite said that in other words the organization had found by experience that the profits of the individual branches were not so great as they had thought.

Mr. Kilpatrick in response to Mrs. M. J. Cronkite, said that in addition to paying a dividend of seven per cent each year before last the Grand Falls branch also declared a dividend on a percentage basis. Some other branches had done the same.

Slight amendments were made with regard to the Miramichi branch and the Fredericton branch was added.

The bill was reported and amended.

MACHINE GUN BRIGADE

(Edmundston Observer)

F. Battery No. 3 Company, 7th Canadian Machine Gun Brigade finished the Military Drill for season 1921-1922 on Monday night, and the men were given their allowance for the number of nights they had drilled.

Capt. M. E. Amos was taken completely by surprise when on behalf of the men Corporal M. T. St. Pierre in a few well chosen words presented him with a handsome safety fountain pen and a large box of chocolates as a token of the men's appreciation of their officer in command. Capt. Amos thanked the men for their consideration and for the earnest way in which they had performed the winter's drill. Both Captain Amos and Lieutenant Gordon Dunbar associated with him are returned men and are justly popular not only with the soldiers of the battery but with all classes of our citizens.

"My health began to fail five years ago and I grew gradually worse right along. To make bad matters worse I was stricken with influenza and that it was certainly a lucky day for me when my husband persuaded me to try Tanlac and it was no easy task, either, for I was so thoroughly discouraged that I didn't believe anything could help me. BURGOYNE VERSUS FRASER COMPANIES LTD.

(Edmundston Observer)

A great many witnesses and experts were brought here in connection with the suit brought by Mrs. Burgoyne against the Fraser Companies Ltd.

This action was for $29,000 alleged damages to the Victoria Hotel owned by Mrs. Burgoyne, caused by water in turn caused by the building of a dam by the Fraser Companies across the Madawaska river.

The scene was all set for a legal battle of wits. Witnesses and experts, surveyors and lawyers had been waiting for days for the case to be called in this sitting of the Madawaska Circuit Court before Judge Crockett. But the scene was never enacted, for ten minutes before the case was to be called a friendly settlement was reached out of court.

This hotel was unfortunate, for after water had done its part in the damage, fire had its turn and destroyed it in October of last year. It is not known yet whether Mrs. Burgoyne will rebuild.

negative side were Ted Miller, Donald Matheson and Marion Trafton.

Various aspects of the changes in the political, educational and industrial situation which would be brought about, and the advantages and disadvantages of same were discussed from various angles by both sides.

The decision was given to the affirmative side. The two visitors congratulated both the debaters and the school principal for the good showing made by the speakers and the evident care which had been given to the subject in hand. If we mistake not some of those boys will be found in the political arena before a great many years. Regina Morin presided over the debate and introduced the speakers, in true chairwoman style.

BOOST FOR THE BOARD OF TRADE

(Edmundston Observer)

It is only necessary to look at the list of the members of the Board of Trade here to know that it is a live organization. The present organization has only been in existence a few months, and yet it has accomplished a great deal. New industries have been interested in the location and industrial possibilities of the town. Problems peculiar to business interests have been faced fearlessly, and it is producing day by day a better community spirit. Among the members are to be found the most enterprising of the French and English business citizens, and in all cases they have, and are, working not for themselves but for the interests of the town. Their action in appointing a delegation to proceed to Ottawa, and the still later action of the Town Council to supplement that delegation with other members; to lay before the authorities there the importance of playing fair with the town in the matter of railway accommodation is a most commendable one. The Board of Trade deserves not only praise for their work and attitude to civic progress and well being, but it should receive the support of all of our townspeople, and furthermore every eligible person should become associated with it, and align himself with its activities.

says: "I found Zam-Buk a grand remedy for piles. I had suffered for years, and the burning, smarting pains were so intense that at times I could scarcely walk, and I was severely weakened by loss of blood. I underwent a surgical operation in the Sacred Heart Hospital, Spokane, but within twelve months the piles grew again, as painful as ever."

"Laxatives, hot poulticing and so-called 'pile cures,' did no good, but I found Zam-Buk immediately soothing. It gave wonderful relief! When, as I kept on the treatment, the piles began to disappear, I became a happier and different woman. I used six boxes of this herbal Zam-Buk in all, but the obstinate and painful disease was thoroughly overcome. MY PILES WENT 3 YEARS AGO and I haven't had the trouble since!"

Use Zam-Buk for soothing away any soreness, irritation or smarting pain. It is instantly effective. Whether the trouble be piles, itching eczema, or an obstinate wound, sore, ulcer, burn or scald, Zam-Buk kills disease germs, and grows new healthy skin in a wonderful way.

Zam-Buk's refined herbal essences act on the inner as well as the outer tissues. They soothe, purify and heal the skin, and clear away Spring pimples, blotches and sores, as by magic. 50c. box, 8 for $1.25, all chemists and stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. On Wednesday evening, owing to some breaks in the film, "Riders of the Dawn," was postponed and "East Lynne" substituted. THAT HORSE RACE AGAIN

Eric Brown of Centreville writes as follows:

"If Willie W. Perkins considered the exhibition given by his horse, Bobby Lee, and himself at Centreville on the ice of sufficient public importance to publish in a paper (most persons under the circumstances would not care to refer to it) he should have felt it necessary to relate all the facts."

"Bobby Lee finished first in the first heat."

"In the second heat a few rods from the start the clip got too fast for Bobby and he broke into the run, and ran the rest of the distance most of the time under a liberal use of the whip."

A short distance from the finish one of his hoppers broke from running."

"Antelle G. in the second heat soon took the lead and was trotting well within himself until within a few rods of the finish where he threw a hind shoe (it flew 10 or 15 feet in the air) causing him to slip and break, and I pulled him to a log."

"The three judges decided to call the second heat 'no heat' as Bobby Lee had broken his hoppers and Antelle G. had thrown a shoe."

"If they had applied strict racing rules Bobby Lee was distanced."

"I took Antelle G. to the blacksmith had his shoe nailed on, and returned in about twenty minutes."

"Willie Perkins (who was accompanied by his father) was asked to send his hoppers to the harness maker to be fixed as it could have been done in a few minutes. He would not do it. He was offered the loan of hoppers by different men, one a new set, but in no way could they be induced to race another heat or finish the race."

"It was a clear exhibition of 'cold feet'."

"Last Saturday evening, April 1, after reading the article in the Observer, I called his father to a phone and offered to race Antelle G. against Bobby Lee on Tuesday morning, April 4, on the ice at Lakeville for $25 a side or as much more as he cared to put up, best three heats out of five."

"He would not take it up, giving as an excuse that the hind shoes were off his horse. I told him that the shoes could be put on in a few minutes but he would not come."

"It is not difficult to see what sports this young man and his father are, and how much they wish to race horses when it comes to a show down."

MISS PAGE AT SACKVILLE

Beethoven Hall was crowded, Tuesday evening, with students and townspeople, when a very enjoyable graduating recital was given by Miss Grace Henrietta Page (of Centreville, N.B.) reader. Miss Page manifested a very easy manner, with delicate and graceful poise, and her clear enunciation made it very pleasant for her hearers, from whom she evoked hearty and spontaneous applause. Her different numbers were well rendered, displaying careful and efficient training. The Birds Christmas Carol, Act 2 (Katie Douglas Wiggin) was particularly enjoyed, and cleverly presented.—Sackville Tribune.

PRICE OF TEA HIGHEST IN YEARS

During 1920 so much more tea was produced than was required throughout the world that the market dropped to a comparatively low point. So serious was the position of the growers in India, Ceylon and Java that they agreed to produce 20 per cent less tea during 1921. The result was that less tea was produced than was required, and now all surplus stocks have pretty well been exhausted to fill the deficiency. Prices in the last four months have steadily advanced, until the market to-day is at a level as high as was ever reached even during war years.
