

ADVERTISER PICNIC BEST IN HISTORY

Annual Outing at Orchard Beach, Port Stanley, Is Attended by 300.

Ideal weather, a jolly crowd of 300 employees, and friends and typical Advertiser good fellowship made the annual picnic of The Advertiser Printing Company and the Advertiser Job Printing Company, Limited, held on the grounds of T. J. Orchard, K.C., Orchard Beach, Port Stanley, on Saturday, the most successful in the history of The Advertiser.

From the standpoint of interest, attendance and sociability, the outing eclipsed anything ever attempted by The Advertiser family. From the time the first special car left the Horton street station of the London and Lake Erie Railway and Transportation Company, shortly after 11 o'clock in the morning until the last picnicker had left the grounds, it was one continual round of merriment.

Interesting New Features.

A toast list that followed the picnic luncheon in the afternoon, and a special musical program in which the Ernest Cornejo Orchestra, Miss Luta Laymon, Arthur Gorman and M. J. McKough participated, were new features of the annual picnic that proved themselves winners. Miss Laymon's and Mr. Gorman's songs and Mr. McKough's comic songs scored with the audience, who applauded enthusiastically.

The speeches were marked with that spirit of co-operation which has made The Advertiser what it is today. The co-operation between the different departments and the cordial feeling that exists between employer and employee was exhibited in no uncertain manner through the medium of the speeches.

Those Who Responded.

Those who responded to the toasts, proposed by Chairman James D. Purdom, were: "The Advertiser," President T. H. Purdom and Vice-President John Purdom; "The Editorial Rooms," A. A. Macintosh; "The News Room," J. D. White; "The Circulation Department," R. D. M. Decker and Miss Upshall; "Advertiser Job Printing Company, Limited," Messrs. A. J. McKough, Davies and William Hunter; "The Office," Mr. Barrie and Berrie Smith; "The Veteran," James Wilkins.

Preceding the luncheon was an interesting baseball game between the composing-room staff of The Advertiser and the men of the job department. James Fitzgerald, executive of the East End League, was official umpire, and had a strenuous time during the four innings of the game. The newspaper printers defeated their fellow craftsmen from the job department by a score of 5 to 3.

RECORD TRACTION TRAFFIC

Saturday's traffic on the London and Lake Erie Railway was the largest in the history of the road. A number of big picnics served to increase the number of passengers. Port Stanley was the mecca of the Saturday excursionists, and the traction line carried a big proportion of the number visiting the lakeside.

GARRISON PAYS LAST TRIBUTE TO COMRADES

Impressive Military Funeral Accorded to Two Sergeants of Engineers Drowned at Port Stanley

London's militia paid a wonderful tribute to two dead comrades in arms on Sunday, when every local branch of the service turned out in the big military funeral accorded to Irving Penny and Jack McPhail, the young sergeants of the Seventh Field Company, Canadian Engineers, who lost their lives the week previously in a double drowning accident at Port Stanley.

Seldom, possibly never has London seen such an impressive sight as the double funeral. Full military honors were accorded the young soldiers, who were taken to the shore in a double funeral. Draped in Union Jacks, their caskets were borne by the members of the Sixth Field Battery. Their service caps and belts, carried on top of the caskets, were mute reminders that intensified the solemnity of the occasion.

Streets Were Crowded.

With its firing squads, its big representations of the militia units and its line of mourners in carriages, the funeral cortege passed for blocks along the streets, both sides of which were packed by vast crowds of citizens, who turned out to add their tribute to the general feeling of sorrow occasioned by the sad tragedy.

Militia's Wonderful Showing.

But even the respect of the citizens came second to that of the militia. Despite the heat and every other handicap, there was a representative turnout of every militia unit of the city. The soldiers made a splendid showing from the thousands who lined the streets.

Detachments of the Engineers, the Seventh Regiment, the First Hussars, the Sixteenth Field Company of the Army Service Corps, the Army Medical Corps and the garrison sergeants escorted the caskets to their last resting place.

Unit at Armories.

Following private services at the Penny home and Egerton Street Baptist Church respectively, the remains of Sergeants Penny and McPhail were taken to the armories where the two processions met and were united, the military contingent joining them for the parade to Woodland Cemetery, where interment took place.

The parade was in charge of Major Farncomb, of the Engineers, Capt. E. V. Buchanan, also of the Engineers, and a great number of other officers. The gun carriages were under the direction of Sgt.-Major McKay, of the Battery.

Preceded by a squad of police and the officiating clergy, the procession was headed by a firing squad of the Seventh Regiment, the rifles being carried at the shoulder, with muzzles downwards. The squad was followed by the Hussars' Band, which had volunteered its services for the occasion, with drums muffled, and carrying black crepe, playing the "Dead March in Saut," to the impressive strains of which the cortege wound its way in slow time by way of Dundas street, Richmond street, York street and the Pipe Line road.

Reversal of Rank.

Behind the band came the gun carriage bearing Sgt. McPhail's body, he preceding Sgt. Penny's as the latter's rank, according to the usual procedure at a military funeral, when all rank is reversed. The near relatives of the dead boys came next, then came the firing party for Sgt. Penny followed by the second gun carriage with its pathetic burden, the remains of the Engineers as chief mourners, the Army Service Corps, the Army Medical Corps, the non-commissioned officers and privates, and bringing up the rear, Lieut.-Col. Becher, Major Farncomb and other commanding officers, again carrying out the rule of reversal of ordinary procedure.

Militia Drops Out.

At the Pipe Line road, the band and all the militia, with the exception of the engineers and the two firing parties, fell out and returned to the city. The graveside services were conducted by Rev. R. W. Norwood in the case of Sgt. Penny and Rev. W. C. Riddiford in the case of Sgt. McPhail. In each case, this was followed by the firing of a salute consisting of three volleys, and the sounding by a bugler of the "Last Post," the members of the firing squad meanwhile presenting arms with bayonets fixed.

Tribute to Popularity.

A remarkable tribute to the popularity of the two dead boys was the size of the crowd, which lined each side of Dundas street as the procession passed. From the armories to Richmond street, the parade was through double unbroken ranks of men and women come to pay their last respects to the dead. A great many friends also followed the bodies in automobiles, rigs and on foot.

The funeral service at the Penny home, 642 Waterloo street, was conducted by Rev. R. W. Norwood, of Cronyn Memorial Church, assisted by Rev. Percy N. Harding, of Windsor, a friend of the family, who is visiting the city for a few days.

Mr. Norwood, in a short address, paid a glowing tribute to Irving Penny's memory. He referred to the fact that a card attached to a beautiful wreath of roses, and bearing Mrs. Penny's name, was inscribed with the text "Blessed are the pure in heart."

Purity of Heart.

Purity of heart, he said, was the same thing as simplicity of heart. A man or woman who lived a simple, single life might be said to have led a pure life, and this, he was sure, was true of the dead boy.

A man's life, Mr. Norwood said, was like a sheet of water. When it was unruffled it reflected a clear image, but the least breath of wind across its surface produced distortion of the reflection. In the same way, a simple soul was able to see God as He really is, whereas if ripples of doubt were allowed to arise the vision became indistinct.

It was the preacher continued, the singleness, the simpleness, and the directness of one's life which enabled one to see God, and who went on to say that, although many people did not realize it, it was necessary to see God in order to be like him; conversely, it was necessary to be like God in order to see him.

Now See God.

His friend, he said, now saw God; he knew at last the meaning and the object of his life, and those who mourned his loss might take comfort in the thought that the short struggle of the drowning man had been followed by the peace that passeth all understanding.

A splendid evidence of the bereaved parents' loyalty to their God, he said, was the fact that they had been able to say with simple earnestness, "The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord forever." Mr. Norwood thanked the friends of the bereaved family for the Christ-like display of sympathy they had shown in this time of sorrow. Lawyers, he said, had dropped their political religious and civic differences and had united in offering to those who had lost a dear one the gift of their sympathy.

LONDON DOPE FIEND NUISANCE TO OXFORD

Sentenced to Prison Farm, Is Refused—Now on County's Hands.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WOODSTOCK, July 26.—The officials at the county jail are in a quandary to know what to do with George Pearce, of London, who has been an inmate of the jail here since the end of March.

Pearce, who is a dope fiend, was picked up on the streets of this city and was in a serious condition. He had a complete dopers' outfit in his possession when taken in, and the magistrate thought it would be a blessing if he sent the man down for a term in Central, and was of the opinion that he would be sent to the prison farm at Guelph.

Accordingly he sentenced him indefinitely for not less than three months and not more than three years.

The magistrate thought that a term at the prison farm, where he would get plenty of outdoor exercise, would build him up and he would be able to break the habit.

The Central prison authorities have refused to accept him, owing to the fact that Pearce is slightly lame, and now he is thrust on to the county, and the officials here have not the facilities to give the man the amount of outdoor work that is necessary, and are at a loss to know what to do with him.

The officials here want to know who is responsible for the rejection of men of this type. The county has to pay for the upkeep of prisoners, the town or village at present, and that should be looked after by the province, and the officials here think they have good reason to complain.

DARING ESCAPE FROM DURHAM TOWN JAIL

Handcuffed Youth, Helped by Outsider, Climbs Through Bars.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

DURHAM, July 26.—A daring escape from the town jail was made Sunday morning. Arrested on Thursday evening on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and using obscene language on Main street, Reg Pinkerton, a youth of eighteen, was brought before Magistrate Telford, Friday, and sentenced to three months' hard labor in Owen Sound jail.

Pinkerton had a previous bad record, and at noon Friday he made a dash for liberty from the local lock-up when the constable was transferring him to a new cell. He was nabbed before he got a hundred feet away. On examining his former cell, the constable found a hole almost cut through the floor, he had the iron bar removed from the door also.

He was then handcuffed for the night, before being taken to the Owen Sound next morning, but when Constable Pettigrew came to take him in charge Pinkerton had flown. The window was smashed and someone outside had bent down one of the iron bars with an 18-inch scantling, leaving an opening of six inches between the bars through which Pinkerton wiggled through. He had left his boots in the cell and climbed handcuffed up to the opening and escaped. Two sets of foot marks, one boots and the other, without were traced to the bridge over McGowen's dam, but no further.

It is suspected he is in hiding in the town or vicinity at present, and may soon be discovered, when a much more severe sentence will be imposed.

CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE TO BE DECLARED ELECTED

CHATHAM, July 26.—The decision in the recent in the West Kent election has been pending the outcome of the appeal made in the East London recount before Chief Justice Meredith. In view of the fact that the chief justice has rendered decision, The Advertiser interviewed Judge Bell, who had charge of recent West Kent recount, and judge stated that he would have been guided by the judgment of chief justice in rendering his decision relative to the ballots found in West Kent with the counterfoils attached.

This means that the recount will elect George W. Sulman, Conservative candidate, by a small majority.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letters can be answered privately.]

ANSWER FOR PERPLEXED.

Ans.—Of course, it's always difficult, and even dangerous, for one person to advise another in such an important matter, and I hesitate to do so. Since you are so sincere in your attachment for the young woman, why not give some evidence of it, then if she appears to reciprocate, continue your attentions. If you have steady work, and are at all ambitious, is it not probable that the next five years may bring you advancement to warrant your marrying? There are surely great possibilities open to bright, young men in your line of work. If the young woman cares for you, or should grow into a special liking for you, she will doubtless be willing to wait a few years. If it is only a fear that you might not be able to finance a home that prevents you from trying to win the girl, I should bid you to banish the fear, and hope for a brighter future. Opportunity may even now be knocking at your door. Write again if it helps any.

PHYLLIS' EFFUSION.

Dear Miss Grey.—For the first time I am going to bother you. I always read your column and have found it a great help.

1. Can you tell me what to do to get rid of ants, as we are greatly bothered with them?

2. I am fifteen years of age; have been all through public school. Do you think I am sufficiently advanced to take a course in shorthand and book-keeping?

3. I am five feet two inches in height, and weigh 106 pounds. Do you think that pretty good for my age?

OUR FOLKS' CORNER

It is surprising how careless of their outer appearance many famous men have been. It is said of Turner, the great landscape painter, that his hands were the "smallest and dirtiest on record." Perhaps that is an exaggeration, but he was certainly very slovenly in his dress. He wore a black swallowtail dress coat, and much in need of a clothes brush vigorously used, and in the warmest as well as in the coldest of weather he wore round his throat a sort of wrap or muffler, which he would unloose, letting the ends dangle down in front and dip into the colors of his palette. He always worked with his old hat on his head, or with the same large muffler over his head. His appearance was more that of an old-time coachman than a famous royal academician, for he was short and stout, with a red and blotchy face.

LOVES THE CULM.

Dear Miss Grey.—Having seen one of your readers asking for the song, "The Wee Wee Mang The Heather," I am sending you this one hoping it's the same. I love your column very much. I remain, yours truly,

J. A. G.

Ans.—Once more, thanks, J. A. G., for the song. I am sure your queries will be glad to see it appear today.

CANNING VEGETABLES.

Dear Miss Grey.—I will you please tell me how to do down corn and tomatoes, beans (green beans), I mean for the winter?

2. A good recipe to make marsh-mallows candy. My recipe does not set hard like marsh-mallows should get.

3. Could you tell me on what day 13th of May fell on 1886?

Thanking you for your kind help,

YOU'ND MOTHER

ANS.—I AM GLAD TO HELP YOU WITH THESE RECIPES.

Ans.—I am glad to help you with these recipes.—Canned corn.—Boil the corn on the cob for about five minutes to set the milk; then cut off the cob, pack in sterilized glass jars, and loosely, set into cold water, bring it to a boil, and boil three hours; then loosen the covers an instant, seal again and cook one hour. Remove the covers and the jars, and tighten the covers as the jars cool. It is a somewhat tedious process, but it almost sure to keep. A thick pad, or wooden rock should be in the bottom of the pan or the jars will crack.

STRING BEANS.—BUT OFF BOTH ENDS OF BEANS, STRING CAREFULLY AND CUT INTO ANY DESIRED SIZE.

Boil in water with salt. Boil in proportion to one teaspoon to each quart of water. When boiling thoroughly drain and again pour salt water in same proportion and cook until tender, but not soft.

PACK BEANS.—STERILIZED JARS. FILL WITH BOILING WATER, IN WHICH THEY WERE BOILED.

Screw on tops and screw down tight. Put in dark paper bag and store for winter.

Tomatoes.—Select tomatoes of even size and not too large to go into the cans without cutting. The bright red variety look prettiest. Select tomatoes by dipping into boiling water. Remove peel and put in sterilized kettles. When bottom of kettle is covered add (for twenty tomatoes) one even tablespoon each, of salt and sugar.

BOIL THIRTY MINUTES WITH COVERING.

Take up each tomato and carefully put in can until can is full. Turn over enough juice to fill can to top. Adjust rubber and top. Screw as tight as possible and wrap in dark paper bag.

2. Perhaps you will have better luck with this method, but it is rather hot weather to have very good success with marsh-mallows. Take for six ounces best white gum arabic, dissolve in one cup water and strain; then add a full half cup powdered sugar, set on the stove and continually stir until the mixture is about as thick as honey and sugar well dissolved. Add gradually the well beaten whites of two eggs and stir well; flavor with marsh-mallows and pour into a tin pan dusted with corn starch. Cut into cubes when cold and dust each with powdered sugar. Keeps best in tin boxes.

3. THURSDAY.

CAKES AND CALLS.

Dear Miss Grey.—Being a constant reader of your column in The Morning Advertiser, I again appeal to you for help.

1. Could you publish a good plain recipe for cream puffs?

2. What will remove ink stains from a linen tablecloth?

3. Recipe for chocolate cake?

4. How long should a girl of 16 years wear her clothes, she being five feet four inches in height?

5. After moving to a strange town, and people call on you, when returning the call, besides leaving your own card should you leave any of your husband's cards, if so, how many?

6. How long should it be before you return the call?

7. What will remove spots from a blue serge suit?

"INQUISITIVE."

Ans.—1. Three cups flour, one cup butter; pinch salt, two cups boiling water; five eggs. Mix flour, butter, and salt, pour in boiling water, beat lightly, and put on the stove in a double boiler; cook until it becomes thick, stirring constantly; then take from stove, let cool, and break in the eggs one at a time; drop in buttered gem pans and bake. When cool, split and fill with whipped cream or a custard.

2. Wet the spot with clear water and sprinkle with salts of lemon; place in the sun for ten minutes; then rinse out thoroughly, and hang in the air, and bleach. A second treatment may be needed.

3. QUARTER CUP CHOCOLATE, YOLKS OF TWO EGGS, HALF CUP OF MILK; COOK UNTIL SMOOTH AND THICK. TAKE FROM STOVE AND ADD A PIECE OF BUTTER, THE SIZE OF AN EGG, A CUP OF SUGAR, HALF CUP OF MILK, TEASPOONFUL OF VANILLA, TEASPOONFUL OF SODA, TWO TEASPOONFULS OF CREAM OF TARTAR, AND TWO CUPS OF FLOUR. BEAT INTO A HEAVY OVEN, AND COOK BETWEEN HALF AND THREE-QUARTERS OF AN HOUR.

FROSTING—TWO CUPS OF SUGAR, BOIL UNTIL IT WILL HAIR; WHITES OF TWO EGGS, BEATEN STIFF. BEAT WELL UNTIL COOL AND SPREAD ON THE CAKES.

4. TO HER SHOE-TOPS OR AN INCH BELOW.

5. IF YOU ARE CALLING ON A MARRIED LADY LEAVE ONE OF YOUR OWN CARDS AND TWO OF YOUR HUSBAND'S. IF ON TWO EPHEMERAL SISTERS OR A WIDOW AND HER UNMARRIED SISTER, OR ON MOTHER AND DAUGHTER, LEAVE TWO CARDS EACH OF HUSBAND AND WIFE. AFTER THE FIRST CALL IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO LEAVE SO MANY UNLESS YOU SO DESIRE.

6. WITHIN A FORTNIGHT OR THREE WEEKS.

7. SPONGING WITH GASOLINE IS GOOD, OR TRY TO MAKE A TEA OUT OF SOAP BARK (USE ABOUT HALF OF FIVE CENTS) WORTH TO A QUART OF WATER) AND SPONGE THE SPOTS WITH THE CLEAR LIQUID; RINSE AFTERWARDS WITH CLEAR WATER.

8. I AM FIVE FEET TWO INCHES IN HEIGHT, AND WEIGH 106 POUNDS. DO YOU THINK THAT PRETTY GOOD FOR MY AGE?

ANS.—1. ONE OF OUR READERS A SHORT TIME AGO ADVOCATED THE PLACING OF A BIT OF GUM CAMPHOR IN THE SHELVES AND PLACES FREQUENTED BY ANTS. A GOOD METHOD, TOO, IS TO REMOVE ALL FOOD FROM THE CUPBOARDS AND TO WASH THE SHELVES WITH HOT WATER CONTAINING CARBOLIC, AND TO SET SAUCERS OF DILUTED CARBOLIC AROUND WHERE THEY RUN.

2. I THINK IT IS BETTER IF A GIRL HAS AT LEAST ONE YEAR AT COLLEGE BEFORE TAKING UP BUSINESS STUDY. ESPECIALLY IN STENOGRAPHY A GIRL CANNOT HAVE TOO MUCH GENERAL EDUCATION.

3. YES.

LOVES THE CULM.

DEAR MISS GREY.—HAVING SEEN ONE OF YOUR READERS ASKING FOR THE SONG, "THE WEE WEE MANG THE HEATHER," I AM SENDING YOU THIS ONE HOPING IT'S THE SAME. I LOVE YOUR COLUMN VERY MUCH. I REMAIN, YOURS TRULY,

DEAR MISS GREY.—I WILL YOU PLEASE TELL ME HOW TO DO DOWN CORN AND TOMATOES, BEANS (GREEN BEANS), I MEAN FOR THE WINTER?

2. A GOOD RECIPE TO MAKE MARSH-MALLOW CANDY. MY RECIPE DOES NOT SET HARD LIKE MARSH-MALLOW SHOULD GET.

3. COULD YOU TELL ME ON WHAT DAY 13TH OF MAY FELL ON 1886?

THANKING YOU FOR YOUR KIND HELP,

YOU'ND MOTHER

ANS.—I AM GLAD TO HELP YOU WITH THESE RECIPES.—CANNED CORN.—BOIL THE CORN ON THE COB FOR ABOUT FIVE MINUTES TO SET THE MILK; THEN CUT OFF THE COB, PACK IN STERILIZED GLASS JARS, AND LOOSELY, SET INTO COLD WATER, BRING IT TO A BOIL, AND BOIL THREE HOURS; THEN LOOSEN THE COVERS AN INSTANT, SEAL AGAIN AND COOK ONE HOUR. REMOVE THE COVERS AND THE JARS, AND TIGHTEN THE COVERS AS THE JARS COOL. IT IS A SOMEWHAT TEDIOUS PROCESS, BUT IT ALMOST SURE TO KEEP. A THICK PAD, OR WOODEN ROCK SHOULD BE IN THE BOTTOM OF THE PAN OR THE JARS WILL CRACK.

STRING BEANS.—BUT OFF BOTH ENDS OF BEANS, STRING CAREFULLY AND CUT INTO ANY DESIRED SIZE.

BOIL IN WATER WITH SALT. BOIL IN PROPORTION TO ONE TEASPOON TO EACH QUART OF WATER. WHEN BOILING THOROUGHLY DRAIN AND AGAIN POUR SALT WATER IN SAME PROPORTION AND COOK UNTIL TENDER, BUT NOT SOFT.

PACK BEANS.—STERILIZED JARS. FILL WITH BOILING WATER, IN WHICH THEY WERE BOILED.

SCREW ON TOPS AND SCREW DOWN TIGHT. PUT IN DARK PAPER BAG AND STORE FOR WINTER.

TOMATOES.—SELECT TOMATOES OF EVEN SIZE AND NOT TOO LARGE TO GO INTO THE CANS WITHOUT CUTTING. THE BRIGHT RED VARIETY LOOK PRETTIEST. SELECT TOMATOES BY DIPPING INTO BOILING WATER. REMOVE PEEL AND PUT IN STERILIZED KETTLES. WHEN BOTTOM OF KETTLE IS COVERED ADD (FOR TWENTY TOMATOES) ONE EVEN TABLESPOON EACH, OF SALT AND SUGAR.

BOIL THIRTY MINUTES WITH COVERING.

TAKE UP EACH TOMATO AND CAREFULLY PUT IN CAN UNTIL CAN IS FULL. TURN OVER ENOUGH JUICE TO FILL CAN TO TOP. ADJUST RUBBER AND TOP. SCREW AS TIGHT AS POSSIBLE AND WRAP IN DARK PAPER BAG.

2. PERHAPS YOU WILL HAVE BETTER LUCK WITH THIS METHOD, BUT IT IS RATHER HOT WEATHER TO HAVE VERY GOOD SUCCESS WITH MARSH-MALLOW. TAKE FOR SIX OUNCES BEST WHITE GUM ARABIC, DISSOLVE IN ONE CUP WATER AND STRAIN; THEN ADD A FULL HALF CUP POWDERED SUGAR, SET ON THE STOVE AND CONTINUALLY STIR UNTIL THE MIXTURE IS ABOUT AS THICK AS HONEY AND SUGAR WELL DISSOLVED. ADD GRADUALLY THE WELL BEATEN WHITES OF TWO EGGS AND STIR WELL; FLAVOR WITH MARSH-MALLOW AND POUR INTO A TIN PAN DUSTED WITH CORN STARCH. CUT INTO CUBES WHEN COLD AND DUST EACH WITH POWDERED SUGAR. KEEPS BEST IN TIN BOXES.

3. THURSDAY.

5. AFTER MOVING TO A STRANGE TOWN, AND PEOPLE CALL ON YOU, WHEN RETURNING THE CALL, BESIDES LEAVING YOUR OWN CARD SHOULD YOU LEAVE ANY OF YOUR HUSBAND'S CARDS, IF SO, HOW MANY?

6. HOW LONG SHOULD IT BE BEFORE YOU RETURN THE CALL?

7. WHAT WILL REMOVE SPOTS FROM A BLUE SERGE SUIT?

HOPE TO BE BENEFITED SOON THROUGH YOUR VALUABLE COLUMN, AND THANKING YOU IN ADVANCE, I REMAIN,

ANS.—1. THREE CUPS FLOUR, ONE CUP BUTTER; PINCH SALT, TWO CUPS BOILING WATER; FIVE EGGS. MIX FLOUR, BUTTER, AND SALT, POUR IN BOILING WATER, BEAT LIGHTLY, AND PUT ON THE STOVE IN A DOUBLE BOILER; COOK UNTIL IT BECOMES THICK, STIRRING CONSTANTLY; THEN TAKE FROM STOVE, LET COOL, AND BREAK IN THE EGGS ONE AT A TIME; DROP IN BUTTERED GEM PANS AND BAKE. WHEN COOL, SPLIT AND FILL WITH WHIPPED CREAM OR A CUSTARD.

THE ORDEALS OF A BASHFUL MAN

(His first appearance in a bathing suit.)

Truly "man's life is short and full of trouble," especially at the bathing beach.

Man proposes that his first appearance on the sands shall be a grand triumph. Conscious of his fine physique he strides forth to conquer until he enters the zone of fair woman's eyes and then—

His feet swell to the size of apple barrels—his hands dangle like huge, knotted clubs at his knees and his limbs dwindle into red and spindled tubes.

His teeth chatter and his eyes blink, while the red (not caused by the summer sun) mounts over the neck of his bathing suit.

Tomorrow's Meals

BREAKFAST.

FLAKES WITH CREAM, CRISPED BACON, FRENCH TOAST, COFFEE.

DINNER.

CREAM OF SPINACH SOUP, NEW POTATOES, CREAMED CARROTS, CHERRY BREAD PUDDING.

SUPPER.

PICKLED BEETS, BROWN BREAD AND BUTTER, BLUEBERRIES, POOR MAN'S CAKE, TEA.

Cherry Bread Pudding.—Slices of dry bread, butter. Stewed cherries, custard sauce. Butter the slices of bread and place them in a pudding dish in layers with the stewed cherries between. Let this stand for half an hour, and then serve with a plain custard sauce.

Orange and Coconut Delight.—Use very sweet oranges for this dish, and do try dried coconut. Boil the fresh fruit and grate it. In the bottom of a glass bowl put a layer of sliced and seeded oranges, sprinkle with granulated sugar and then a layer of the grated coconut. On this put a generous spoonful of sweetened and whipped cream. Now another layer of the sugared oranges, more coconut and whipped cream, and so on until the dish is full. The top layer must be of whipped cream, heaped high in the centre.

Poor Man's Cake.—One tablespoon of butter, one cup sugar, two cups flour, one cup raisins, one teaspoon soda, one cup sour milk. Flavor the cake as desired, with lemon, nutmeg or vanilla, or add a dessertspoonful of mixed pastry spices. Bake in a moderate oven.

OLD SONGS AND POEMS

Words of this song are sent by J. A. G.

THE WEE WEE MANG THE HEATHER.

There's a wee hee on the hillside that I havi seen for years, I've an awfu' longin' feelin', and my eyes whies dim wi' tears.

When I think on o' the happy days I spent beside that spot, And the games we played up laddies there, will ne'er be forgot.

CHORUS.

There's a wee hee mang the heather, There's a wee hee o'er the sea, There's a lassie in that wee hee, Waitin' patiently for me.

She's the picture of perfection, She's a wee lassie, and she's a wee lassie, If ye see her ye wud loove her, Just the same, as me.

Tho' I'm far awa' frae Scotland, and the scenes I love sae weel, There's a beat for the auld country that in every pulse I feel.

For there's a wee lassie in that wee hee, and other folks are kind, There's an auld scene, and one only, that is ever in my mind.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National Woman's Suffrage Association, and herself a "maiden aunt," would add a "Maiden Aunt Day" to "Father's Day" and "Mother's Day." "Maiden aunts are the greatest blessing in the world, next to mothers," says Dr. Shaw. "They are the mothers of the motherless. I don't know one who isn't helping to bring up or educate relatives—nieces or nephews or young cousins. And it has always been so. They have always done all the hard work of the world and get no credit for it."

CHAPTER XII.

The Game of Goosip.

During the concluding days of the voyage Eliza had been served on deck. She kept Martha with her continually, promenaded early in the morning and at night, while the other passengers were at dinner. This left her clear deck. She walked quickly, her arm in Martha's, literally propelling her along, never spoke unless spoken to, and then answered in monosyllables. Her thoughts flew to a thousand and one things—home, her father, episodes from school life, toward anything and everywhere, like a land-bird lost at sea. Puttily and vainly in the endeavor to shut out the portrait of the broken man. In the midst of some imaginary journey to the Sabine Hills she would find herself asking: "What was he doing of what was he thinking when would he go, and what would he do? She hated night, when no longer offering sleep, provided nothing in lieu of it, and compelled her to remain in the stuffy cabin. She was after him at close range.

Early Wednesday morning she passed Craig and Mallow, but the two had not enough to step aside for her and to speak only with their eyes. She flared Craig with undiluted fear. Never had he felt so alone and so alone. He warned Mallow at the beginning, without explaining in detail, that she was dangerous and dangerous. And, of course, Mallow laughed and dragged the gambler along whenever he found a chance to see Eliza at close range.

"There's a woman! That beach-comber has taste."

"I tell you to look out for her," Craig warned again. "I know what I'm talking about."

She was after him at close range.

"That kind of woman doesn't slap. Damn it, Mallow, she rammed a hair-pin into me, if you will know! Keep out of her way!"

Craig nodded affirmatively.

"Thought so. Even a Yokohama barmaid will fight any of a boomer. I'm going to meet her, when we get to Singapore, or my name's not Mallow."

The Horoscope

TUESDAY, JULY 28, 1914.

Good and ill mingle in the planetary rule for today, according to astrology. In the morning Uranus and Venus are in benefic aspect, but later Mercury is adverse. Jupiter is in a place strongly favorable in the evening.

It is a day in which to ward off petty worries and small anxieties. The way may tend to cause irritation and a tense state of the nerves. Hasty speech, over-sensitiveness and discontent may cause domestic difficulties.

Under this configuration it is wise not to sign any contracts. Letters may prove measures of trouble.

The sign is not a fortunate one for important journeys. Delays and accidents are more common than usual, while Mercury is unfriendly.

Jupiter gives encouragement to all who engage in new business enterprises today. It is an auspicious time for opening shops or taking new positions.

Bankers, merchants and brokers are subject to a lucky guidance. They should profit greatly. The stars predict a revival of business activity which will benefit them. It is a good day for making investments.

Conditions are favorable for judges, lawyers of every rank, educators and philosophers.

The forces make for resourcefulness, honesty and success in whatever vocation depends on calm judgment and nice discrimination.

Piracy in the Pacific Ocean is one of the evils predicted for the autumn.

Vienna is likely to suffer from an increase of sickness and mortality in the autumn. Foreign troubles are foretold.

Science and art will be greatly advanced in the autumn by one or two projects, it is predicted.

The autumn probably will be a critical time for Japan. The war spirit will be strong, the seers declare.

Panama is subject to a leading that bodes much discussion, revelations concerning governmental matters and continued agitation relating to revenues.

Persons whose birthdate it is are counseled to guard the health during the coming year. Parents may have anxieties concerning their children. The autumn is a time of encouragement, and promises fair fortune.

Children born on this day may be too fond of pleasure. They are likely to be exceedingly loyal and truthful. A girl who marries rather an unfortunate marriage.

GIANTS BEAT PIRATES WITH MATTY PITCHING

Babe Adams Lasted But Three Innings.

CUBS DEFEATED BRAVES

On Latter's Return to Their Ball Park Umpires Were Bawled Out.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The Giants celebrated the homecoming from their western trip by winning their sixth straight victory, Pittsburgh being the victim, by a score of 4 to 2. Babe Adams, who recently lost a 21-inning game to the champions in Pittsburgh, was knocked out of the box in three innings, after New York made six hits and scored four runs.

The champions scored two runs in the first inning on Beecher's single. Burns' double. Robertson's sacrifice fly and Fletcher's single. They added two more in the third, on doubles by Beecher and Burns and Robertson's single. Mathewson held the Pirates to six scattered hits and was seldom in danger.

Pittsburgh got one in the second on Wagner's single, his first hit on the Polo grounds this year. Kelly's single and McCarthy's grounder to Fletcher. Ketchy's drive into the left-field bleachers gave them their other run in the seventh.

CHRISTIAN BIBLEBEYOND OTHERS

No Comparison Possible With Other Books, Says Dr. Johnston.

Rev. Hugh Johnston, M.A., D.D., of Baltimore, who has been conducting services in the First Methodist Church during the vacation of the pastor, Rev. Dr. C. R. Flanders, preached farewell services yesterday morning and evening. His moving sermon was based on the text Matthew xxiv, 25, "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away."

The Holy Scriptures, said Dr. Johnston, are the rich words of Christ, because they are given by inspired prophets before and after Him. The Bible, said Dr. Johnston, was the oldest book in the world, older even than the Vedas of India, and the sacred books of the Chinese. The psalms of David are much older than the ode of Pindar and the Pentateuch is a thousand years older than the writings of Herodotus. The classics of the heathen races could not compare, he said, with the writings of the Old and New Testament. The laws of Lycurgus and Solon could not be compared with the laws of Moses, and no other book ever written had so impregnated art, architecture and literature with its influence.

Dr. Johnston dwelt upon the organic unity of the Bible, notwithstanding that it had been written by more than forty writers. It was inspired because everywhere it was pervaded by the breath of God. The Bible was the same Bible as brought to the front the human element in the Bible. The Bible had gained more than it had lost by Biblical criticism.

Christ is a divine human savior, so the Bible is a divine human book. Manuscripts and papers verifying the New Testament are available to scholars. References and quotations in other writings amply testify to the accuracy of the New Testament. Before 325 A.D., 1200 pages, written by Christian writers, show by their quotations that they had the same Bible as the Christian world has today. In contrast to this fact, there are no manuscripts of Herodotus existing, which go back further than the tenth century. Explorations have confirmed the truth of the Old Testament. Buried temples, tables of laws and monumental works of art of great nations, which have been dug up by explorers.

The Bible had defied the criticism of ages. And not all the fires of Smithfield could destroy it. Twenty copies of every volume of every working day are being printed. To destroy the Bible one would have to destroy whole libraries, and the songs, poems and works of art of great nations.

Dr. Johnston made a strong plea for a greater study of the Bible. Nearly every one reads the latest books, he said, but how few read through a book of the Bible. "It has been said that we read the Times, but neglect the eternities," said Dr. Johnston. How the Bible has effected the character of the British and American people, who are the most civilized of the world, he said.

Dr. Johnston closed his sermon by declaring that faith in Christ was the only way to salvation. Character or good works would not do. For the consolation of death, sublime certainty in the future and assurance of everlasting life, only faith in Christ would avail.

Rev. A. W. Lohead Preaches in Absence of Pastor, Rev. W. J. Knox.

Rev. A. W. Lohead, former missionary to Weihaiwei, China, occupied the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church, Park avenue, Sunday morning, in the absence of Rev. W. J. Knox, who is on vacation.

A short address was first delivered by Rev. Lohead for the Sunday school children present. His theme for the children was: "Anything that is worth doing at all is worth doing well." He cited a number of instances to the children where men had risen from the bowels of the earth.

To Banish Wrinkles and Freshen Up Quickly

After a strenuous day outdoors, when winds, heat and exhaustion have combined to take away one's freshness and caused the skin to become dry and cracked after a tedious or fretful day indoors—one often has urgent need for some quick rejuvenator. Maybe there's a tango party on for the evening, or some other social event. How in the world can one make herself presentable, looking as she does? It's quite easy.

Just get an ounce of powdered azo-lite and a half pint with hazel at the nearest drug store, mix the two and bathe in the solution for two or three minutes. Then look into your mirror and behold the wonderful transformation. Your wrinkles have vanished, your tired muscles have been rested and "firmed up," marks of fatigue have disappeared, and you look so much brighter and younger you can hardly believe your eyes. No one need hesitate to try this. It is a hygienic and harmless skin so perfectly harmless.—Advt.

10-CENT "CASCARETS"

IS YOUR LAXATIVE

Best Liver and Bowel Cleanser and Stomach Regulator Known.

Get a 10-cent box. Put aside—just once—the salts, Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters which merely force a passage way through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your "insides" pure and fresh with Cascarets which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never grip, sicken, and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headaches, Billousness, Coated Tongue, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated Bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

LABATT EMPLOYEES' ENJOYABLE PICNIC

Go to Fallon's Grove For Their Annual Sports and Outing.

The employees of the Labatt Brewery held their annual outing to Fallon's Grove on Saturday afternoon, a hundred or more, including many of the farmers from the district, taking in the affair.

It was one of the most enjoyable affairs held in a number of years. A feature of the picnic was getting there, and this year it was accomplished in hay racks, fitted up for the occasion, and accompanying each rig was a fiddle or the pipes, which had been secured for the day.

At the grove a splendid program of sports and an inviting prize list made the afternoon an interesting one for the employees of the firm. During the afternoon a four-inning ball game was played between the brewers and the farmers, which was won by the latter.

Highland dancing, Irish jigs and hornpipes succeeded the program of sports in the evening, after a buffet luncheon had been served, concluding a most successful day.

The results of the sports program were as follows:

100 yards dash—single men—Harvey Dismah, A. Clair.

100 yards dash, married men—Peter Duckworth, Len Clair.

Foot and shoe race, 50 yards—Sam Short, Jack Jenkins.

200 yards dash—A. McIntyre, H. Dismah.

Jockey race—S. Short and J. McNeill, Charles Baker and Ted Bishop.

Wheelbarrow race—George and Chas. Baker, Peter Duckworth and John Clair.

Four-legged race—Ed Morkin, Roy Comber, T. Mearse; Charles Baker, Geo. Baker, W. Goldsmith.

Fat men's race, 75 yards—George Leslie, L. Kinders.

Relay race, 175 yards—George Baker and Jack Steele, A. Clair and H. Haverly.

Committeemen's race—P. Duckworth, L. Clair.

Throwing stone—H. Gerstiz, G. Leslie.

Tug-of-war, farmers vs. brewers—Won by former.

Race for men over 60 years—Joe Gooderham, John Nutkins.

POLICE LOOKING FOR WOULD-BE BURGLARS

Search For Trio That Made Attempt To Enter Ticket Office.

Police are today on the hunt for three young men who nearly succeeded last night in forcing an entrance to the store of F. B. Clarke, ticket agent, 416 Richmond street.

The mysterious three had been hanging around the front of the store for some time. About 10 o'clock, one of them was seen to tamper with the lock of the door, with something shiny which he held in one hand.

The presence of a neighbor, scared the would-be burglars, who disappeared.

What the police cannot understand is why the attempt was made so early. At 10 o'clock there were hundreds of persons on the streets, and a large crowd waiting for northbound cars.

Within a few feet of the store, Mr. Clarke was called to his store, and found everything in good order, except the lock, which was scratched by the instrument used in attempting to open the door.

HYDRO PROPOSITION IS TOO EXPENSIVE

[Special to The Advertiser.]

ST. THOMAS, July 26.—At a meeting of mayors, reeves and municipal solicitors from St. Thomas, Aylmer, Yarmouth and Malahide, held in Aylmer, to discuss with the London and Lake Erie Transportation Company officials the proposition to extend the radial road from St. Thomas to Aylmer and Port Burwell, Mr. Warburton stated that owing to the absence from the country of many of the directors of the Company, he was unable to give a definite proposition to the meeting, but expected to be in a position in a couple of weeks to do so.

A general discussion on radials took place, and it was elicited that the proposition from the hydro was prohibitive, as it would cost each municipality $40,000 per mile, and furthermore the route of the hydro would not be conducive of convenience.

TORONTO WINS FROM CARTWRIGHT ESTATE

[Canadian Press.]

TORONTO, July 26.—Toronto has finally won its long legal battle with the Sir Richard Cartwright estate, which has successfully engaged the attention of the supreme courts of Ontario and the Dominion.

The suit was over the ownership of lands on Shaw and Givens streets and Ossington avenue, near Bloor street. These properties were possessed by Sir Richard on a foreclosure for mortgage in 1901 to secure the sum of $42,000. Later the city and city council, where the appellants were refused their appeal last week.

VISITORS ARE COMING—HENCE THIS TIMELY SUGGESTION.

The local storekeepers and tradesmen have an opportunity to extend a more hearty greeting to the Old Boys by wearing white coats during the visitors' stay, besides making London compare with other leading cities. It is not necessary to buy a coat, pants or aprons, as you can rent them for the nominal cost of washing, from The London Coat and Apron Supply, 98 Carling street, Phone 2488.

If our merchants will co-operate by having white coats on the drivers of their delivery rigs during Old Boys' Week it will make a big hit.

The Governor Says--

"Cut out tea and coffee, my boy. They contain an irritant—caffeine—and you can't have a fluttery heart or sour stomach or a grouchy headache and do big business."

It's a mighty good plan, if tea or coffee puts you "off color," to quit it, and for a delicious table beverage, use
