GLOBE EDITOR MAY ACCEPT NOMINATION

Says He Hasn't Been Approached, But Is Non-Commital on Subject.

N. MIDDLESEX VACANCY signed.

Nominations Will Be Held on Tuesday -Rev. Mr. Macdonald Much Talked of as Likely Candi ate.

The Liberal convention for North Middlesex will be held in Ailsa Craig on Tuesday at 1 o'clock. Already a great deal of interest is be ing shown in the nomination and rumors are rife as to who the man will be.

had appeared in the newspapers.

He had not been approached by any elector from the riding, and consequently he did not know what was going on, "Of course that is my old home." said Mr. Macdonald. "I would be interested in the riding on that account and still more because I still own property there. "However, no person has spoken to me about it from there, and I do not know what is transpiring in the riding.
"I have been urged by some of the boys in Toronto, but I have nothing to say as to what I will do."

A Question.

"Would you refuse the nomination if it were tendered you?" was asked. "I could not say what I would do." he answered. "I have nothing to say on that subject."

There are many other names mentioned in connection with the nomination, and it is quite certain that a strong candidate will be named.

CITY AND ELECTRIC CO. MAY AGREE TO DISAGREE

Row Over Erection of Niagara Power Poles Seems Ready for Picking.

It is rumored that there is likelihood to be considerable trouble between the city and the London Electric Company regarding the poles throughout the city.

As can be readily seen ,all the poles are in a line, and the wires of the city system will have to be strung on each side of the London Electric poles. As this will prevent ready access to he London Electric poles, considerable difficulty and expense will be suffered by the company, it was stated, to make

BUILDING PERMITS FOR SMALL JOBS

Many Are in Demand at this Season of the Year.

Ruilding permits are still in de mand, although the majority of them ere for repairs and small jobs. For the first half of the month 28 permits have been taken out for a total of $26,665, a very favorable show-

Among the latest permits are those of R. Dickinson for a story and a quarter brick veneer residence on Ingle-ide street, to cost $1,400; C. E. Anderaddition to 664 Dundas street, to $500; J. H. Baker, a one-story frame on Johnston avenue, to cost $1,brick on Thornton avenue, to cost $1,-

NO CONTRACT SIGNED FOR POWER STATION

Matter Has Been in the Hands of the Solicitors for Some Time.

The contract between Hon, Adam Beck and the city for the construction of the power station has not yet been Some two months ago the motion was passed accepting the proposition of Mr. Beck, but so far no contract has been executed. The matter has been in the hands of the solicitors of both parties, and from what can be learned there has been nothing done.

"They have had my offer, and they accepted it," said Mr. Beck. "I have signed no agreement, nor do I know when it is going to be signed." Work on the foundation is ahead, but rather slowly, it is stated. A lot of water was struck, and this is delaying matters considerably.

Part of the big scheme the company have in view in connection with the extension of its radial line from Oakville to Toronto, is unfolded in applications to Parliament for charters, published in the Canada Gazette. One of these applications is for an act to incorporate the Toronto Terminal Company, with power to construct and maintain passenger and freight stations, warehouses and other terminal facilities in and about the city of Toronto. It is understood that this will become one of the panies of the Dominion Company. The Hamilton, Waterloo and Guelph Railway Company asks for an extension of time for the completion of its authorized line, and for power to build from Hamilton to Toronto; also for power to enter into an agreement for a lease or running rights over the lines of the Hamilton Radial Company from Burlington to Toronto, and "for special powers relatin gto terminals in the city of Toronto."

Another important link in the scheme is believed to be the application which the London and Lake Eric Railway Company, capitalized at $2,000,000, is Erie Railway making for a charter to operate a line between Brantford and London, running through Paris, Ingersoll and Woodstock, and with running rights over the London Electric Company are watching matters closely, and there is way. The company is asking for nower to acquire or operate a line between Brantford and London, running through Paris, Ingersoll and Woodstock, and with running rights over the Brantford and Hamilton Railway. After considerable discussion the lirectors of the Western Fair, at a pecial meeting held on Saturday afternoon, decided, on motion of Mr. William McNeill, seconded by Col. W. M. Gartshore, to do nothing in the matter of purchasing new grounds or moving the fair at the present time. It was pointed out that it would cost FOR THE WEST all of $200,000 to secure new grounds and buildings, and it was thought aball of $200,000 to secure new grounds solutely impracticable to undertake the matter just now, and it was left over indefinitely, although the directors were of the opinion that sooner or ater the change must be made.

Sites Offered. A number of offers of sites for the proposed new grounds were received, and apparently sites are to be had in every direction. The Chadwick farm on the second concession of London Township, near the asylum, was the ccation which met with most genral favor.

INQUEST INTO M'VICAR'S DEATH

Jury Viewed the Remains at the Asylum for Insane on Saturday.

AGAIN TONIGHT MEET

When the Inquiry Will Be Continued

Three Jurors Were Late and Were Taken to Task by the Coroner.

The inquest into the death of J. R. McVicar, the chef at the asylum, who came to his death under rather peculiar circumstances early Saturday morning, was opened at the asylum at 4 o'clock on Saturday. Coroner McLaren was in charge of the inquest. After viewing the remains the juncars were taken over the route the deceased followed in going to his room, and were then shown the place where he was found. The inquest was then adjourned, the jurymen to meet at the asylum tonight at 8 o'clock. The county constables are at present busily engaged in subpoening all those who are likely to be able to throw any light on the circumstances.

The Jury. The jurors are as follows: T. Lash-brook, foreman; Wm. J. Kitchen, Mark Garrett, T. J. Neely, C. W. Reynolds, John McClurg, Thos. Hayes, E. Courtin, Wm. Duffin, E. Givin, S. W. Mills, W. Bennett, James Byers and

Wm. Evans. Three of the jurors were late in arriving, and the coroner spoke to them very forcibly on the importance of a coroner's court. Jurors, he said, seemed to have the opinion that they could neglect this court with impunity. The doctor, however, pointed out that the Heroic Act of Foreman Who Gives as binding as that for the assizes court summons for a coroner's jury was just and neglecting to obey it promptly laid the juryman open to commitment for contempt of court.

DR. THOMAS ON THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

Address Delivered at Men's Meeting in Auditorium on Sunday.

The Auditorium was crowded to its capacity at the men's mass meeting vesterday afternoon when the Rev. Dr. Thomas, of Toronto, spoke. The music was contributed by the Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir and the service was of an unusually attractive character. Dr. Thomas chose as his subject, "The Joy of the Christian Life."

"There are many people," he said, who have a false conception of the Christian life. They believe that it is the right life, and that heaven is worth striving for, but they do not believe that the Christian life is the way of happiness and cheer. Some men be-lieve that the exquisite enjoyments of ife are to be found in the paths of sin, but this is a false conception—they are rather to be found in the sense of duty well done and victory magnificently attained.

"I tell you that the paths of sin grow narrower and narrower at every step, till the sinner reaches a place where he is hedged in by a wall of adamant over which he cannot leap. "The religious life is super-eminent in the effect it has upon character and usefulness. Religion is not a glorified 'Thou shalt not,' but an unparalelled liberty, because the light within enables you to break with things that have hitherto enthralled. "Religion is a thing of joy, and the true Christian should not come from the sepulchre, but with his garments flowing from the land that is ex-quisitely sweet and beautiful. It is its destination that makes the journey beautiful. What would earth be if heaven were not above it? Heaven sometimes seems far away, but it is there all the same, and by-and-bye the Christian will find that avenue of resplendance which leads to the city of the great King."

LONDON, ONT., Canada, Sept. 14, 1909

Supt. The Prudential Insurance Co., Bank of Commerce Chambers, City.

Dear Sir: --

I wish to thank you heartily for the very prempt and generous way you paid my claim under policy in your Company on the life of my late husband, Frank Taylor.

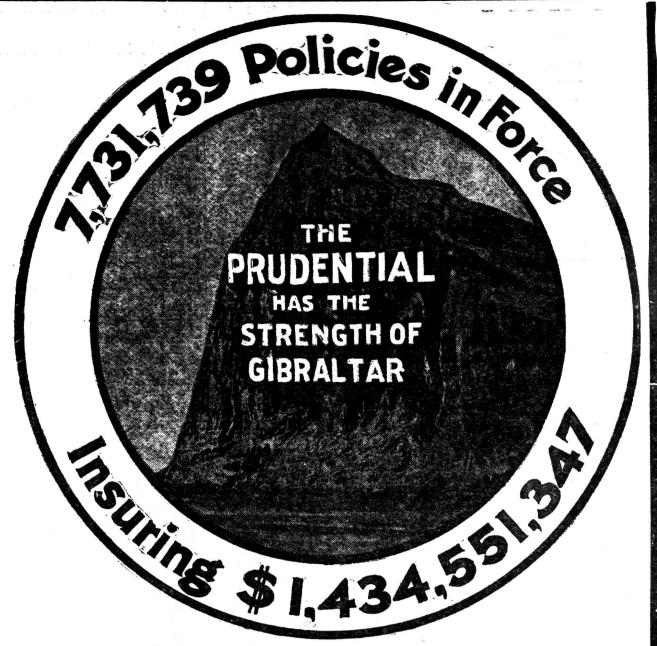

The policy had only been delivered to him the day before his death, and I received your check, for the full amount due, within eighteen hours after his death, and within one hour of your first call to adjust the claim. I, therefore, desire to make this acknowledgment of the satisfactory treatment received from you.

You are at liberty to use this letter in any way you see fit. I shall be glad if it may be of service to you in your great work in Lendon.

> Again thanking you, I am Gratefully yours,

LONDON MAY NOT PROTEST PETROLEA'S

PETROLEA WINS DISTRICT HONORS

Take Deciding Game From London at Strathroy By Score 7 to 0.

FIELD NOT SUITABLE

Puzzled Locals-All Tallying Done in Last Five Minutes of Play.

It now appears that London will not protest the win of Petrolea at Strathroy Saturday, when the locals lost in the play-off for the western district championship of the O. R. F. U. by 7 to 0, although the officials of the team notified Referee Livingstone, of Toronto, that they would object to Dawson, who they claim played on Queen's Intermediates.

The teams were too evenly matched to make the game more than ordinarily interesting, and a peculiar feature of the contest was that no scoring was done until the last five minutes, when two rouges and a try, not converted, put the Oil Towners into the champion class.

Game Was Rough.

The game was rough in spots, and the action of a Petrolea man in deliberately kicking Sage in the abdomen could scarcely be more unsportsman-like. Had the offender been mobbed few spectators would have cared what the outcome would be.

London had a small following, while the green and white was in evidence everywhere. A large number of boys were brought down by the Petrolea backers for the purpose of making all possible noise.

The losers played a slower game than that of a week ago at Tecumseh "Oily Lemons," as Park, while the they chose to call themselves, were in much better form. The following up Sage was one of the features of the play, while Jack McCall was in it every minute. Field Was Not Suitable.

It cannot be said that the O. R. F. U. displayed good judgment in ordering the play-off to take place in under fifteen hands two inches. Nala, Strathroy, as the grounds were far of the Avondale farms, was adjudged from satisfactory. There were no dead the best single harness horse over 15 lines, and the crowd swarmed in onto hands two. the field for yards. There was no po-lice protection, and as the play changed from one side of the gridiror to the other dozens of spectators would chase across the field and interfere with the combatants. The officials, Referee Livingstone and Umpire DeGruchy, of Toronto, handled the game to the entire satisfaction of both teams. Play was confined to the centre of the field in the first part of the opening period, but at the finish London worked up to the ten-yard line, where Hurley was given the ball to kick. He sent it into his own scrimmage, however, and the whistle blew as the men lower and the whistle blew as the men worked up to the ten-yard line, where ever, and the whistle blew as the men a sudden death match. lined up on the fifteen-yard line, The Final Quarter.

There was nothing doing till final quarter in the scoring line. Petrolea was urged on by the rooters, who swarmed onto the field, and made it impossible for the locals to hear own signals. A futile effort was made by the officials to put them back to the touch line, and play continued. Petrolea secured the ball on an offside, 25 yards from London's goal, and Dawson tried a drop kick. The pigskin struck the bar and fell back into the field, where the winners again took possession. They kicked over to Sneath, who was compelled to rouge. A minute later Petrolea kicked behind London's line, and Hurley in returning it struck a spectator. Referee Living-stone allowed one point.

Petrolea Secured Try. The teams scrimmage at midfield, and as the whistle blew, Deacon started off for and end run, after London had stopped play. The distance was allowed by the officials, and shortly after Petrolea bucked over for a try. which Dawson failed to convert, There was but three-quarters of a minute left to play, but London went onto the field again, and was within a few yards of the winners' goal at the Killing the Budget Will Mean the Placing of Giant Loan.

LIBERALS NOT IN FEAR

Will Not Cling to Office, as Did Balfour, Declares Mr. Winston Churchill.

London, Nov. 15 .- Speaking at Liberal dinner at Bristol Saturday night, Winston Churchill, president of the board of trade, said that his own information confirmed the Times' and the Telegraph's assertion that the House of Lords would reject the budget, which action would be unprecedented in the annals of the British Parliament. It would be an act of vioence against the constitution.

He ridiculed the objection against the budget, and recalled how the Conservatives, "under Mr. Balfour, clung to office to the last possible moment, ong after all honor and power had departed from them." Mr. Churchill declared that the Liberals would not cling to office. They did not fear the English people or nation.

Should the House of Lords reject the budget he could not measure "how much the headstrong freak" of the Lords would cost, but certainly many millions of pounds, and a loan to meet the deficit would drain the market and debase the national credit. Mr. Churchill added, "There is nothng irrevocable in the budget; nothing which could not be changed in an-

EGG SANDWICH MEN CANNOT GET TOGETHER

But Prices Will Be Boosted Just as Soon as It's Possible to Do So.

Many of the local restaurants have already raised the prices of fried and scrambled eggs from 10 cents to 15 cents, and as soon as it is practicable they intend to raise the price of egg sandwiches from 5 cents to 10 cents. The only reason that this has not been done before is that all the restaurant proprietors will not agree to do it, notwithstanding that all are agreed that there is no money in the sandwiches at the present prices of eggs. Some of the proprietors, however, contend that most of their customers buy either a cup of coffee or a piece of pie, and while they make nothing at all on the sandwiches clear a little or he other articles.

wards in Dundas Centre Church. Rev. Edwin W. Edwards, of Essex, to-date automobile establishment vho occupied the pulpit at the Dundas Centre Methodist Church yesterday, spoke in the evening on "The Life of Jacob." Jacob's life divided itself into four periods, the first that of the young man leaving everything behind and going out into the world, not knowing whither he went. And then came God's disclosure of himself to the young man in his famous vision. The trials and disappointments of Jacob's life mellowed the man into a train of thought that brought him to an understanding that his agreement with God meant something more than the mere worldly matter of his flocks

As he returned homeward the shadow of the memory of the brother he had wronged swept down upon him and brought him to one of the crucial hours of his life. And it was the assertion of his better self that urged him to send a most generous gift to The kind that "fly to pieces" his brother. In his closing remarks the speaker said that the time comes in every life when the enchantments when everyone must realize that there side the pursuit of passion.
