City Will Have to Show Hand in Railway Matter. Issue Regarding Traction Company's Line Reaches an Interesting Stage.

“In our charter,” said Mr. Welch, “we were granted the right to be given power to cross any street or roadway in any municipality without the consent of the municipality. Thus we would like to have no official notice of what was done. But at any rate for the reasons I have already given you, we could not be kept out of any line built and operated by the city company. We intend to work our hand with the London street railway at all possible points, and we intend to get both companies to work together. We do not desire to make trouble for either ourselves or the other company, but we must look after our own interests.”

“You intend to enter the city over Richmond street?”

“Not at all. We know what we are doing. There is nothing in the street railway company's agreement with the city which prevents us or any other company entering the city over private property, and this is what we intend to do.”

“We find that it is impossible for us to enter the city over the lines of the London Street Railway. Our electric equipment is altogether different, and further, our cars will not run on the rails of the city company. They are made to run on the regular ‘T’ rails. These two points alone should settle the matter, but there is still a most important one to consider.”

“Under its charter the London Street Railway cannot operate cars to carry freight in the city. Now, to live we must carry freight. We do not mean to say that we want to carry coal, or

START OF ANOTHER NEW RAILROAD

First Sod Turned for the Ontario and Temagami Line—a Notable Event.

Sturgeon Falls, Aug. 2.—A notable event in the history of Sturgeon Falls took place Monday when the ceremony of turning the first sod for the Ontario Northern and Temagami Railway was performed.

The Ontario Northern and Temagami Railway Company hold a charter for the construction of a railway northward from Sturgeon Falls, through the rich valley of the Sturgeon River to the southwest arm of Lake Temagami and southerly from Sturgeon Falls to the mouth of the French River or Big Lake.

The construction of this railway means much to Sturgeon Falls, and will be of advantage to the Province as a whole.

The new railway will provide excellent connection with Eastern Ontario in its southern portion, where it will form junctions with the Toronto and Sudbury branch of the C. P. R., the Mackenzie and Mann road, and a possible branch of the Ontario Northern and Temagami Railway, John Craig, who called upon O. Aubin, M. P., in behalf of the Province of Ontario, to turn the first sod.

The ceremony began by a few remarks from the president of the Ontario Northern and Temagami Railway, John Craig, who called upon O. Aubin, M. P., in behalf of the Province of Ontario, to turn the first sod.

Many settlers have already gone into the region south of Lake Nipissing and the Valley of the Sturgeon River is dotted with growing settlements, so that the route of the railway will take in a district already settled.

The ceremony began by a few remarks from the president of the Ontario Northern and Temagami Railway, John Craig, who called upon O. Aubin, M. P., in behalf of the Province of Ontario, to turn the first sod.

HEAVY INDEMNITY PRICE OF DEFEAT

What Conquered Nations Have Had to Pay—France Gave Germany $1,000,000,000.

London, Aug. 2.—Baron Selys-Longchamps, writing to the Outlook, declares that his country will never enter into a peace agreement with Russia the terms of which do not stipulate the payment by the conqueror of an indemnity. He "thinks" this should amount to at least $500,000,000.

When, in 1896, the Graeco-Turkish war ended the Sultan demanded an indemnity of $50,000,000. The powers promptly interposed; said that the sum was excessive, and Abdul Hamid II. cut it down to four millions. In the nine years that have since intervened he has received something more than of this $10,000,000.

The same amount—$10,000,000—was the payment which China made England at the close of the Taiping rebellion (1850-1864), but this was nominal merely, and insisted on more, because of the effect it would have upon the Orientals than for the actual repayment of Britain's fighting expenses, for she had paid out fully $25,000,000 to win.

Earlier than this (1840-1842), when the red-coated warriors of "The Widow of Windsor" had won their brief struggle with the Chinese, called the opium war, the Emperor agreed to pay $2,000,000. A goodly portion of this indemnity, however, went to British merchants as compensation for the destruction of their property by the natives, and as the war had cost the home government all of $10,000,000, the victors made no money.

In 1866 Prussia closed a war with Austria much more advantageously. All told, the fighting had not lasted two months, nor was warfare then the expensive thing it has come to be today. Yet Austria, with her five lesser allies, was forced to agree to an indemnity of $22,500,000.

Eleven years later, in 1877, Russia, having beaten the Turks, kept her financial demands to the actual cost of the war. She asked $160,000,000, and Turkey agreed. The greatest indemnity ever asked was the $1,000,000,000 which the new-born Empire of Germany demanded from the French in 1871. To obtain it she had to calculate the amount, Bismarck telegraphed to Berlin for Herr von Bleichroeder, the Rothschild of Prussia, and this financier first fixed the damages at $1,200,000,000. M. Thiers objected to this, and after several pleadings cut it to $200,000,000. He went back home declaring so colossal a debt could never be liquidated. But paid it was, long before the time appointed.

What Germany had spent upon her war was less by many millions than this indemnity, and tradition has it that the First William at Prince Bismarck never ceased to regret that they did not ask double.

"WAYS THAT ARE DARK"
Michigan Minister Cashed a Bogus Check and Disappeared.

Hastings, Mich., Aug. 2.—Rev. W. D. Clarke, pastor of the Congregational Church at Freeport, has created quite a sensation in that section. A week ago Clarke received a check through the mail, the envelope addressed in writing, "He cashed this check, which was made out for $300 and signed 'Hetta Hilton' on a Dayton, O. bank, at Freeport bank. About an hour later he disappeared, and has not been seen in Freeport since.

Thursday the bank grew suspicious and wired the Dayton bank, which knew no such person. A warrant was issued for his arrest, but so far his whereabouts have not been discovered.

Clarke is about 40 years old and is married. About eighteen months ago he came to Freeport from Dayton, O. He was well liked in Freeport until a short time ago, when financial matters began to press him and he borrowed from anybody he could.

He was seen in Grand Rapids last week, and he is reported to have been in Belding last Friday. The officers have gone to look for him there.

SLAVERY IN ALASKA
Teacher in Aleutian Islands Village Finds Girls in Bondage.

St. Louis, Aug. 2.—In a letter to St. Louis friends Prof. William A. Davis, of the United States public schools at Unalaska, Alaska, declares human slavery exists in the Aleutian Islands, and that he has been unable to get the United States authorities interested in the matter.

"At the beginning of the school year of 1903 I canvassed the village of Unalaska for scholars," he says, "and I found eight little girls ranging in age from 6 to 12 years in slavery as domestic servants."

"I called the attention of the authorities to the fact, but up to the present time nothing has been done officially. By individual effort, however, I have secured the release of two of the girls, who were returned to the island from whence they came, and in all probability were sent away again at the first opportunity in some other direction."

"Their bondage is as servile as that of the blacks before their emancipation, and it is safe to assume that the same conditions prevail all over Alaska."

FRUIT As a Medicine.

Fruit has been used as a medicine for thousands of years. Every one knows its value as a laxative. The pure juice of apples acts on the kidneys and makes more urinary excretion than any other remedy in the world—but the patient must take half a pint three or four times a day. Apple juice is most curative in kidney disease. The juice of four large oranges taken before each meal and on retiring at night has more curative action on the skin than any remedy ever discovered. Orange juice clears and beautifies the complexion. Again, fruit acts on the bowels and makes them move—acts on the liver and makes more bile flow, which is the natural purgative of the body—and thus cures constipation. In Ottawa a physician after years of labor has discovered a process of combining and concentrating the juices of apples, oranges, prunes and figs—and by forcing into the united juices one more atom of bitter from the orange peels, a new fruit is obtained which has all the valuable medicinal qualities of fresh ripe fruit and in a more marked degree. The new and strong fruit is condensed into a medicinal tonic, and the addition of tonic, and sold under the name of "Fruit-a-tives" or "Fruit Liver Tablets." It has been proven in hundreds of cases that "Fruit-a-tives" are a positive cure for constipation, biliousness, headache, kidney and liver diseases, and all blood impurities. "Fruit-a-tives" are fruit, concentrated and made stronger than ordinary fruit. For sale at Druggists, 50c a box or 6 boxes for $2.50, or sent by mail for $3.00, by FRUIT-A-TIVES LIMITED, Ottawa.

A GREAT SHARK VISITS PRESIDENT

An Eight-Foot Man-Eater Killed Off Roosevelt Dock, Oyster Bay.

New York, Aug. 2.—While fishing for bass within a short distance of President Roosevelt's private landing in Oyster Bay Dr. James S. Hall saw protruding from the water the fin of a shark. The doctor and Edward Leich, who was with him, immediately put off from his launch in a rowboat to the shore, where they procured a harpoon. As the shark approached they found the shark still sunning itself in the warm, shallow water near the bathing beach. They attached a long line to the harpoon and rowed toward the dangerous fish. It lay motionless until the rowboat was almost directly over it.

Dr. Hall, who is one of the most powerful men in the New York Athletic Club, stood in the bow with the harpoon poised in the air. As the shark started rapidly away the doctor plunged the harpoon with full force into the water and caught the monster just behind the head. In the next instant to get away it towed the rowboat for some distance, leaving behind a trail of blood.

Lashing the sea, it was dragged by the doctor and Mr. Leich to the beach, where it was found to be a dangerous species. It measured eight feet in length—the largest shark ever killed in the vicinity of Oyster Bay. While returning to the launch the doctor saw and killed another shark, which was not full grown.

The doctor's exciting experience and the fact that the sharks were killed in the presence of President Roosevelt, has attracted the attention of several newspaper editors, including the one used by President Roosevelt and his family, have caused him to make preparations for a shark-hunting expedition upon which he will be accompanied by several friends, all armed with harpoons and an inter upon riding the bay of these monsters.

The sharks have not only frightened the bathers, but have destroyed the life of George Fletcher, a summer resident, is likewise organizing a party for the purpose of driving away the unwelcome visitors.

JUDGE FINED HIMSELF
Forced Money On a Vagrant By Threat of Imprisonment.

New York, Aug. 2.—In the Jefferson market police court Magistrate Walsh handed a $50 fine to a vagrant, who was arrested on a charge of vagrancy. The prisoner raised his hands in protest and asked the judge, "No, judge, I cannot take that money. I could not think of such a thing."

"Well," said Magistrate Wahle, "you take that money or you go to jail. You have your choice." The prisoner then accepted the money, providing the magistrate would consider it a loan.

Albert Crowell, 39 years old, a to-be-placed in the "New York" Carolina was the man arraigned. Crowell was arraigned by Detective Walsh, who was accosted by him in front of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel on Friday night. Crowell asked him for car fare to the pier, where the Old Dominion Line steamships dock, and said if he could not get it he would go to the Old Dominion Line pier he could get transportation to his home.

FOUND IN DIXIE
Last Bullet of U. S. Civil War Taken From a Soldier's Jaw.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 2.—A very singular relic has been received here and placed in the state's historical collection in the Confederate section, being a bullet which was shot into the right jaw of John Lindsey Shearman of the Thirtieth North Carolina Regiment, in the brigade of General William R. Cox and the division of General Bryan Grimes. Shearman was thus wounded after the surrender at Appomattox, and the bullet was extracted by a federal surgeon in the field hospital three days after the surrender.

He was thus the last Confederate soldier wounded, having been struck while his command was in a field at Appomattox, falling back to take position after the surrender had been announced. The bullet yet bears blood stains.

NECESSITY FOR HIGHER LIFE RATE. Increase by Royal Arcanum Strongly Defended. NEEDS OF FRATERNAL ORDER. Commissioner Cutting Declares that a Sliding Scale of Expenses is Essential.

Boston, Aug. 2. - "The Royal Arcanum, like other orders less strong and illustrious, was started on an inadequate basis of rates for furnishing whole life insurance, which its members seemed to think they were getting."

"It is inevitable that the rate of insurance just adequate to pay the cost of current age will be inadequate for the same person ten years or five years later," says Commissioner Cutting.

"This is only another way of saying that the liability of death increases as age advances, and as long as that is the fact a sum which suffices to meet the cost of insurance for age 40 is not sufficient for age 50. It has taken good many funerals to convince some of this fact, and others are not even now convinced."

"The fraternal does not exist, nor in view of the inexorable law of nature, with or without any kind of insurance company ever exist, which can continue to pay death claims indefinitely if it merely collects the cost of insurance for a limited term."

"The criticism of the older members of the Royal Arcanum because they are put upon the rate at attained age, thus requiring the older ones to pay for their insurance themselves, instead of having the younger members pay part of it for them, is met by the commissioner thus:

"The morale of the troops inspires me with complete confidence that the army is ready for any task."

"The morale of the troops inspires me with complete confidence that the army is ready for any task."

"The morale of the troops inspires me with complete confidence that the army is ready for any task."

Ontario's New Wealth. There is a solid basis of fact in the tales of the wonderful mineral wealth discovered in a section of New Ontario traversed by the new Temiskaming Railroad, about 100 miles north of North Bay. A mining camp of 700 men has sprung up in the wilderness within the past few months, and a village of 75 houses is in existence before the site has been surveyed. The village and the camp have been named Cobalt, cobalt being one of the metals in which the district abounds, but the main reliance is upon the silver deposits, which are believed to be among the richest in the world.

The Toronto Globe has shown enterprise in placing the facts fully before the public, by sending a special commissioner, Mr. Wallace Maclean, over the field. Mr. Maclean reports upon each of the thirteen producing mines in detail, showing that to date their production has been $2,237,500, nearly half of it within the past three months. The first actual work dates less than a year back. Eighty-one veins have been opened by these thirteen mines, containing silver, cobalt and arsenic in various proportions, but the future of the camp will depend upon silver, the market for arsenic and cobalt being limited, or yielding no great profits. The manager of one company would not be surprised if his mine produced $50,000,000 or $100,000,000. Prospectors are pouring in and new mines will begin operation before long.

The creation of a great silver mining industry in that section of Ontario will bring serious social and administrative problems. Many disputes over property rights are already in the courts. A difficulty that has already presented itself is the exclusion of mining prospectors from timber lands, or lease by lumbermen. The question arises whether timber licenses are to be allowed to prospect on their limits for minerals, and pre-empt valuable claims. The Ontario mines department is summarily called upon to deal with these matters, and frame regulations to meet new conditions and immediate needs.

The development promises to be a great factor in the future of this province and justifies the public men who pinned their faith to New Ontario when the little Ontarians were decrying it a hopeless stretch of muskeg and stunted poplar. We are only beginning to realize the possibilities of a country which not many years ago was believed to be dedicated exclusively to the lumberman and the summer tourist.

Why Rojstevsky Was Beaten. Mr. Kennan, the war correspondent of the New York Outlook, a high-class publication, secured interviews with the officers of the Russian battleship Orel in the battle of the Sea of Japan. He asked them to explain Rojstevsky's crushing defeat, and this they did willingly and candidly. The most decisive factor, in their opinion, was the surprising and extraordinary accuracy of the Japanese gun-fire at long range. Through four miles off, they got the range with great accuracy, and struck the leading battleships of the two Russian columns with almost every shot. In marksmanship the Russians were hopelessly outclassed.

Mr. Kennan went to the naval station of Maizuru, where the Orel in dry-dock, and saw for himself the destruction of the Japanese fire and the destructiveness of the shells loaded with Shimose powder. The Russian officers largely attributed the disabling of their ships to these projectiles. The shells burst into hundreds of small pieces - some of them so small that they entered the tiniest cracks and cut to pieces not only iron partition walls and decks, but speaking tubes, electric wires and every other medium of transmitting power covering the ship that had not a heavy covering of steel. Another cause of the defeat was the superior speed of the Japanese vessels, which enabled them to fight at range of their own choosing. The officers of the Orel tried to crowd Togo's ships up toward the land so as to get near him, but "they were too fast for us. They circled around ahead of us and knocked us to pieces at such long ranges that we were barely able to see them through the mist."

The officers agree that their ships were overwhelmed and defeated by gun-fire long before a torpedo boat was brought into action. It was only after night came, and the Russian formation had been broken, that the torpedo boats did good service. But it is admitted that Rojstevsky would have been defeated even if Togo had had no torpedo boats. The Japanese torpedo practice, as a rule, was not good, hits being made only when the Japanese were close up to the disabled ships.

The lessons of the engagement are that the battleship is still king; that the torpedo boat, while it has its special uses, must occupy a subordinate position; that other things being equal the best marksmanship will win. It was the man behind the gun that won the battle of the Sea of Japan.

will carry a hundred miles on one charge, and will last eight or ten years. It is predicted that the storage system will give a great impetus to the manufacture of motor carriages, and the demand for them, and will bring the price within reach of multitudes, in the same way as the bicycle, at first a luxury, came into popular use.

The uses of the storage battery can be indefinitely extended. It is safe, of small bulk, and portable, so that every person, so to speak, can carry his own motive power. It is not improbable that it may become a household convenience for lighting, heating, or even cooking. On the farm it could be put to work churning butter, chopping feed, and performing other necessary services. As a labor-saving device, the Edison storage battery opens up a new prospect.

Ontario has greater natural resources than any other two provinces of the Dominion put together. The czar is putting up a magnificent bluff on the eve of peace negotiations. But he did the same thing on the eve of the war.

Germany will have to possess a bigger navy than Britain's if she means to establish a Monroe doctrine for the Baltic Sea.

The development of New Ontario will help to give this country what it needs next to population, namely, thickness and depth.

Some ungenerous people are still dubious whether the canceling of liquor licenses in various parts of the Province is inspired by temperance or political motives.

The Soo Company has turned out 100,000 tons of steel rails to date, and is projecting a great coke plant. The Soo guarantee bill wasn't such a crime as Mr. Whitney and his supporters would have had the public believe.

The Temiskaming Railroad is to be surveyed to James Bay. Only seven months ago some politicians and newspaper were telling the people that a railroad through New Ontario was a physical impossibility.

The Hold-Up Game. [St. Thomas Journal.] Can an M. P. meet all $2,500 a year? He ought to be able to do so on a good deal less if the people would only leave him alone, but the trouble with the average Canadian elector is that he imagines the member for parliament should be touched up for five or ten dollars for every sporting organization, picnic, new church, in fact should be a contributor to everything. Many a man who has ended public life has been ruined by the People with the Begging Cry. We know of one man who sat for a western constituency for four years and in that time used all his income and a mortgage on all his property in paying election expenses and meeting the demands of electors for gifts—simply bribes—for this thing and that.

DEPORT 1,000 IMMIGRANTS. Ellis Island Trying Hard to Keep Riff-Raff Out. New York, Aug. 2.—Undesirable immigrants from all parts of Europe, are pouring into this country, according to United States Commissioner Watchorn's latest report. The commissioner has been noting the increase in the undesirable element, and is considerably exercised over the existing condition in New York harbor. "Europe is sending her riff-raff to this country," says the commissioner. In rough figures 48,000 immigrants arrived during the month of July, against 36,000 in July of last year. The undesirable element is shown by the increased number of deportations. More than 1,000 were deported during July, as against 645 in July, 1904. The deportation now average about 250 a week. The special boards of inquiry are working particularly hard, in order to prevent the undesirable immigrants from landing.

STRICTURE CURED. YOU CAN PAY WHEN CURED. NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT. STRICTURE AND KIDNEY DISEASE CURED. "I had stricture for eleven years. It finally brought on Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. I had an uncomfortable shooting pain in the groin and feeling as though something was in the urethra. My back was weak and I could scarcely stoop over. Urine was full of sediment. Had a desire to urinate frequently. Family doctors, so-called specialists, patent medicines, electric belts, all failed. I was consulted by Dr. Kennedy & Kergan as the last resort. I had heard a great deal about them and concluded from the fact that they had been established over 25 years that they understood their business. I am delighted with the result. In one week I was free from my trouble. My weight was entirely cured. Have gained sixteen pounds in weight." G. E. WRIGHT, Lansing.

The higher the market goes the better for producers, but it is by no means

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

In considering telephone problems it is universally conceded that "service" is the matter of first importance. Every other consideration, even rates, is subordinate to this feature—"good service". The telephone is no longer a luxury but a necessity in every industry of the country. An inefficient telephone service would practically paralyze at least every commercial community.

No branch of public service on this Continent has shown steadier or more rapid progress in the direction of efficiency than has the telephone, and, in this progressive movement, Canada has kept well in the vanguard.

Barring one or two isolated cases, based on very indefinite information, the most searching inquiry by the Parliamentary Committee has failed to bring forth any substantial complaint against the Bell Telephone Company's service, local or long distance. We are therefore justified in assuming that the Company has in this respect fully discharged its obligations towards the public. The Company has, in what is conceded to be the most important feature of its obligations, justified its continued existence and its claim to public support.

We may be pardoned for digressing so far as to say that service superior to all competitors has been the foundation of success to this Company.

cities varying from 7 to 14 years. They are now making their third tour of America, but this will be their first appearance in eastern Canada. They have performed in every city in sequence in the Orient, South Africa, China, Japan and the Philippines. The late Cecil Rhodes was such an admirer of the Pallards that he had his own graph taken in the midst of the talented youngsters.

The clever youngsters who present their performance with such grace and go with veteran professionals, will make their opening appearance here on Monday, Aug. 7, and will present the following: "The Belt of New York," "A Runaway Girl," "The Geisha," "Pinafore," "A Gaily Girl," and "The Lady Slavey."

Explosion Causes Panic On a Gasoline Launch

Frightened Men and Women Leap Into the Water—No Lives Lost.

Gananoque, Aug. 2.—Two men were severely burned, 25 passengers were thrown into a panic, women fainted, and several threw themselves overboard in an explosion on a gasoline launch about 300 yards from shore near this place yesterday. Launches and skiffs hurried to the rescue, but some of the women and children refused to be taken in, and were seized along with the women and children. The launch was towed to her wharf. The Rathbun Company's fire apparatus was handed over to the citizens and the flames were extinguished in a few minutes after the launch was docked.

The launch "I'll See," in command of Capt. Wessley left Toronto at 10:30 in the morning with 25 passengers, mostly women and children, for Kingston. She had proceeded about 300 yards when leaking gas caught fire. At a moment later there was a terrific explosion. Two men rushed from the engine-room badly burned and with their clothes in flames. Other men sprang to their relief, and the fire was beaten down so that they probably will not suffer permanent injury. Immediately after the explosion several women in the party fainted. One or two leaped overboard and hung on, while still others, quited by the men on board, waited until boats hurriedly put out from shore went to their relief.

But the flames were gaining headway and the panic spread again, the women and children one after another slipping into the water to cling fearfully to the gunwales until rescued. Launches and skiffs speedily ranged alongside and the women and children were first taken from the water and from the burning boat. In the excitement, one skiff was overloaded and upset and children were thrown overboard. Some of the women refused to be taken into the skiffs and clung to the burning launch while she was towed to the wharf.

VICTIMS OF REAL "YELLOW PERIL"

Increase in Number of Deaths From Plague at New Orleans.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 2.—Yesterday witnessed an increase in the number of deaths from yellow fever. There was the usual preponderance of Italian names in the list, both of new cases and deaths. In seven days it is twenty days it will become evident whether or not there is to be a spread from any of the outlying centers. On the results of the observations, the health authorities will be able to determine whether, as they now hope, they can control the disease and ultimately subdue it.

The business interests continue by every effort to secure some modification of the quarantine regulations which have bottled up the city commercially. With that object in view, President Souther, of the state board of health has issued a proclamation on behalf of the board of health, to all the parishes and municipal health officers. He announces he has accepted and recommends the acceptance of subordinate officers of the marine hospital health certificates to through passengers from northern points transferred in screened coaches at New Orleans. He declares passengers from New Orleans after a detention of five days in marine hospitals service camps, who are given certificates, should be admitted to the rest of the Old Boys' parishes and towns of Louisiana.

Hay Fever Abolished

Medical Science Discovers a Cure for This Malady by Breathing Hyomel.

Among the important additions made to medical science in recent years, none is more notable than the positive announcement of a cure for hay fever. Exhaustive experiments with Hyomel have proved that this treatment will prevent the attacks of hay fever if used for two or three weeks before the annual appearance of the disease, and it may be relied upon, if used faithfully after the sneezing and other annoying symptoms have appeared, to relieve at once and afford permanent cure.

The Arzyle Wreck.

Toronto, Aug. 2.—An investigation into the cause of the wrecking of the steamer Arzyle, near Oswego, will be personally conducted by Commander Spain, wreck commissioner of the Dominion Government. This information was received from Ottawa. The Arzyle was pulled off the rocks yesterday, but her stern settled down and filled with water again. The wreckers are removing the coal and ballast to lighten her. It will be some time before she is floated.

TEMISKAMING RAILWAY

Is Likely to Have a Terminal at James Bay.

Toronto, Aug. 2.—It is probable the Ontario Government will extend the Temiskaming Railway as far north as James Bay.

The fact that an exploration party, headed by Engineer Sutherland and Geologist Wilson, has been sent out by the Temiskaming railway commission to hunt a harbor on the shores of that inland sea is sufficient ground for the inference that the harbor chosen is of unusual size and the terminal of the Government line.

Mr. Thomas Treleven, master car builder of the G. T. R. here, who rescued the life of Mr. G. L. Sterling, of Chicago, while bathing at Port Stanley, has received the following letter from Mr. Sterling:

"Dear Mr. Treleven—I cannot start to express my gratitude to you, much less attempt to tell you how much I appreciate about an act one man has done for her son, and I feel I did not half thank you for what you did for me. I have overlooked that I did not thank you for the condition I was in at the time you were so very serious about my life, and I wonder when I called to you, and it seems queer to me now, but I never had a single fear after I caught you. You are a hero, and I am not any danger at all. My friends told me you had come to Port Stanley for the first time in two years. It must have been an act of Providence to send you down to the water at such an opportune time. Who can tell but him who reigns supreme? May we thank you for your great money and kindness? God bless you and keep you in peace and happiness all your life. I am, Sir, remain, your affectionate debtor, G. L. Sterling, 7445 Madison avenue, Chicago."

Houston's Star Livery, Richmond St. DOZEN SHEEP KILLED Struck a Pere Marquette Train Near St. Thomas. Twelve sheep were slaughtered near St. Thomas by a Pere Marquette train yesterday.

Just west of the Kettle Creek bridge a number of the animals slipped down to sleep between the railway tracks. The train due here from Walkerville at noon hove in sight, and Engineer Grubb, noticing the sheep, blew his whistle loudly. Probably the bell-wether was not wide awake, for he did not take the flock out of the road, but started to lead them along the track.

Since there is more danger of an animal getting under the wheels when the train is going slowly, there was nothing for the engineer to do but to go full steam ahead. The result was that a dozen sheep were turned to mutton very quickly.

I. O. F. GOLDEN JUBILEE London Lodges To Be Represented at Brock's Ice Next Week. The Grand Lodge of Ontario, I. O. F., will celebrate its golden jubilee in Brockville on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. The Supreme Order of Humility and Perfection and the Grand Encampment also meet next week.

The city of Brockville, as is well known, is the center of Oddfellows in Canada. The oldest lodge in Canada today is Brock Lodge, organized in 1849. It was due to the work of the charter members of this lodge that the Grand Lodge of British North America was established, the order in Canada at that time consisting of not more than twelve lodges.

A BIG COLLECTION $132 Taken at Gates of Victoria Park Last Night. Probably the biggest crowd of the season gathered in Victoria Park last evening on the occasion of the Twenty-sixth Regiment Band concert in aid of the Old Boys' fund. The handsome sum of $132.63 was collected at the gates. The fact that Barney McCann himself stood at the southeast gate, and would not let anyone in until he or she had paid over something, probably accounts for the large offering.

All who intend doing so should send their names in at once to Mr. Walter Bartlett, the grand marshal.

All pony owners who intend taking part in Monday's procession should call before Friday next on Mr. W. T. Strong. The pony show will prove very interesting, and owners of the little animals should join hands to make the show a great success.

The entertainment committee of the Old Boys meets tonight. This committee has its work cut out for it, but it is made up of the class of men who are equal to the occasion and who are leaving no stone unturned to make things pleasant for the visitors when they arrive from all parts of the continent.

Secretary McCann announces the arrival of the Old Boys from different parts as follows: Toronto, Saturday, 5 p.m., C. P. R. Montreal, Sunday, 12 a.m., G. T. R. Oshawa, Saturday, 5 p.m., C. P. R. BADGE IS A BEAUTY Members of I. B. S. Will Have New Decoration for Picnic. President Pocock has received a sample of the members' badges of the Benevolent Society. They are beautiful, and are composed of a green ribbon, with a gold bar, and a circular pendant, upon which is inscribed the motto of the I. B. S.

President Pocock speaks highly of the manner in which President Agnew, of the Pere Marquette, is making ready for the big picnic. Three extra trains will be put on, and everything possible will be done by the railway company to handle the crowds satisfactorily. The Pere Marquette is also erecting a large number of seats on the beach, where the people can rest while the sports are being carried out.

WORK HAS COMMENCED Asphalt Pavement Being Repaired, and Other Streets Cleaned Up. They're off! The city of London has at last decided to get a wiggle on and have the asphalt pavement repaired before the arrival of the Old Boys. All summer long the streets have presented a deplorable condition, and now they are to be put in proper repair before the snow flies. Today the Warren Paving Company began the repairs, commencing work on Richmond street in front of the Tecumseh House.

Drivers of all sorts of vehicles, riders of bicycles and owners of automobiles, will now join in a "Pere Deum." The holes are to be filled! Hurray! A spasm of cleanliness has also taken hold of the city. Today the city engineers issued orders to all foremen to gather all stones and rubbish from the streets, and as far as possible to make the city presentable by the time the Old Boys arrive.

No more streets are to be torn up until after the big reunion. Everything is on the mend. It is the constructive, not the destructive, period.

go from Hamilton, A number will go from Ottawa. Dr. King, astronomer in charge of the observations in Ottawa, is head of the expedition. The party will proceed to the head of Hamilton Inlet, 1,000 miles from Quebec, and 100 miles inland. Here the total eclipse can be seen, and the observations will not be interfered with by fogs. The total eclipse at that place will last 21 minutes, 38 seconds, and all the observations, photographs, etc., have to be taken in that time.

Here the eclipse will be seen as a partial one, commencing at 5:39 a.m., maximum 6:34 a.m., and ending 7:34 a.m. It will embrace somewhat more than three-fourths of the sun's surface.

No furnace drudgery in the Bison The most exasperating mystery a man can have is a cranking furnace. The dirt and soot, the ash sifting and draft worry of many heaters, make life a burden. With the new "Bison" hot water heater, there are no worries. It drafts as simple as a child can understand them, the shaking down apparatus is operated with the slightest effort, shaking down and sifting in one operation. It is a clean, simple, economical heater, perfectly safe as it burns its own gas no matter how the drafts are set. Write to H. R. Ives Co., Limited, Montreal, for an interesting book which tells all about it.

When a girl tells a young man that she doesn't eat any more than a bird, he should remember before inviting her to eat that an ostrich is a bird.
