Our Inventory Sale has been moving along very successfully. This month beyond all others is a bargain month with us. All odd ends, all broken lines, and all lines in which we are overstocked are cut in price beyond recognition. You may put it down to poor judgment, but the fact is we are overstocked in many lines this year, and herein is the advantage to you. The advantage shows in these prices:—

Carpets

Our carpet stock is recognized as the largest and best assorted in the city. That our values are right is indicated by the fact that our carpet trade has more than doubled in the last four years. We have many clearing lines to offer you in carpets, in Brussels, tapestry, velvets, wools and unions. Bring in your measurements and get quotations.

Dress Goods

Dress Goods bargains are strongly in evidence from one end of the department to the other—amongst them this:—

Ladies' Jackets

No need to again describe them. You know they must be right or they would not be here. The beauty of the jackets now in stock is that they are not too heavy for spring wear. You will therefore get double use out of them; and, look at the prices: Jackets up to $10.00 for $4.85. Jackets up to $15.00 for $7.50. Jackets up to $18.00 for $10.00. LET US HAVE A PROVINCIAL HOUSE-CLEANING

NED CLARK WILL SPEAK

Popular Labor Leader To Visit Kent in Interests of James Clancy and People's Cause.

Magnificent Meeting to Be Held Next Thursday Evening—T. W. Carothers Will Also Speak.

The other day The Planet took occasion to reproduce for the benefit of the electorate from official Hansard the strong and vigorous stand James Clancy had taken in the Dominion parliament on the labor question and for the protection and encouragement of the laboring interests.

Following that, the happy announcement is made that at the Grand Opera House on Thursday evening that E. F. Clarke, M. P., the popular labor leader best known as Ned Clarke, who rose from the position of a day worker in a printing shop to be member of parliament and recognized leader of the labor interests—will be present and speak in Mr. Clancy's interests, and a splendid address from him may be counted upon.

Mr. Clarke will also be accompanied by T. W. Carothers, ex-M. P. of St. Thomas, one of the ablest and most forceful platform orators in the west, who will also address the electors.

This will be another great gathering of the people, following the great Whiskey triumph, and it will be well for all desiring to hear these splendid speakers to be on hand early and thus secure seats.

As in the past the balcony will be reserved for the ladies and their escorts, all of whom are again cordially invited to be present. Every elector of Kent county will be extended a warm welcome to this great meeting. It is one that will deeply interest the people at this time. Make it a point to be present.

TEN YEARS

Tremblay, Boyd's Pal, Secures a long Term—His Record and Frequent Burglaries the Reason For the Long Sentence.

Louis Tremblay has reaped the reward of his burglaries. To-day he was sentenced to ten years in Kingston Penitentiary. He pleaded guilty to the many counts against him and took the heavy sentence with a smile. The young fellow has a record of burglaries that is probably unequalled in the time. Tremblay is a pleasant spoken young fellow and easy going. He is very easily led and the master mind can be blamed for any trouble he gets into. Tremblay gave evidence against Wm. Wood. The latter pleaded not guilty. His pal, however, implicated him in the robbery of J. H. Rogers' store when some $14 in coupons were secured. Wood was remanded for a week.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Miss Eleanor Miller, conducted special services in the Methodist church yesterday and gave two excellent addresses. A very large crowd was present in the evening when the speaker took as her theme "The Expulsive Son," and in a vivid manner pictured his leaving home and his return. She made a deep impression on her hearers. A duet entitled "Saving Grace" was given by Misses Hill and Peate, and a solo by Mr. Miller. To-night Miss Miller gives a talk to young people. The services begin at 7.45. All are invited.

GREAT RECEPTION TO CLANCY

AT B. M. E. HALL SATURDAY

Enthusiastic Gathering Listen to Splendid Addresses from Wm. Shadd, James Clancy and J. M. Pike—

Opposition, Although Specially Invited, Fails to Materialize.

A splendid meeting was tendered the people's candidate, James Clancy, at the B. M. E. Hall Saturday night.

Though the notice was short and the night bitterly cold, the hall was packed to the doors, and the tremendous ovation which the candidate received, and the frequent applause which punctuated his splendid address, left no doubt that he was assured of the united support of his hearers.

Perhaps it was the prospect of an unfriendly audience which deterred the promised opposition from putting in an appearance; perhaps it was the memory of Mitchell's Bay North Buxton; certainly neither Mr. McCoig nor any of his supporters materialized. The entry of James Clancy, just as the proceedings commenced, was the signal for a splendid ovation.

The chairman of the evening was Rev. R. L. Holden, whose splendid tact and generous fund of good stories never showed to better advantage. Rev. Mr. Holden, in a brief but pointed address, eulogized the candidate, and urged invited any opposition and urged them to support the candidate. He was forthwith, however, so Mr. Holden concluded by calling on Wm. Shadd, who received a hearty welcome.

MR. WM. SHADD SPEAKS.

Mr. Shadd spoke as one who had no special politics. It was the habit of many speakers, especially the Liberals, to consider the colored people as a race apart. This was not so. All stood on an equal footing before the law, and what concerned the colored voters just as much. He protested against the raising of any race or religious cry against a candidate, in order to draw attention away from the straight issue, before the people.

He instanced the case of his brother, Dr. Shadd, in the N. W. T. elections, where the race cry had been raised by his opponents, who thus succeeded in barely accomplishing his defeat.

He was sorry Mr. McCoig was not present. He opposed him, not as Mr. McCoig, but as Mr. Ross, because he ran in Mr. Ross' interests.—Cheers. If he had no more backbone than to run in Ross' interests, after declaring the administration to be corrupt and rotten, he was just as certain, if elected, to do any act Ross asked of him.—Cheers.

Proceeding, Mr. Shadd eulogized Mr. Whitney, Kent, he said, owed Mr. McCoig nothing. If he was in business all over the county, the men in the county had paid their share. Mr. Clancy was an agriculturist. He owned land in the country.

Mr. Shadd proceeded to deal with Rev. Donald G. Ross' letter, and something arranged the Ross Government, concluding a splendid and telling address amid round after round of applause.

CHEERS FOR CLANCY.

The chairman briefly introduced Mr. James Clancy.

At the mention of the name of the people's candidate, the audience rose en masse and welcomed him with cheer after cheer. It was many moments before the applause subsided sufficiently for Mr. Clancy to be heard. He expressed pleasure at seeing such a splendid audience. Had he been of a jealous nature he would be inclined to be jealous of Mr. Shadd, to whose eloquence and uncommon abilities he paid a deserved tribute. Like Mr. Shadd, he deprecated sectional appeals and sectional legislation. All classes should be treated alike, and political questions should be fought out on the great questions of the day. He had never in his life appealed to any class or creed, or acted solely for one, and he hoped he had never acted against one. He deprecated petty politics, the idle tittle-tattle of small men.—Laughter. An able man need never descend to low grounds of criticism. There were always high grounds. Some of his opponents had been advertised as honest men. He had thought it was the duty of everyone in public life to be honest.

"It has been said," continued Mr. Clancy, "that I have a mortgage on my farm.—Laughter. It is true.—Revered laughter. If they want any witnesses, let them call me. If it is a crime to be poor, let me plead guilty. But let me give some of the reasons. I have been not working for myself for many years. I have endeavored to serve the people. Other people could lift their mortgages, rake off their savings. If they are rich, you can account for it, and for my being poor.—Laughter. If it is a crime to be poor, there are a lot of criminals in the country. Laughter. What of the poor laborer bringing up a family, trying to make their good citizens? He has just as good a right to look forward to the advancement of his son, to give him an education—the more of such men we have the better for the nation. What does he think? If a poor man has a mortgage on his house, is his vote to be no good? Has he no place in the country, no interest, no right? If no man ever cast a vote who was not a wealthy man I am afraid it would lower the vote a good deal. I thought you wanted brains in parliament, not houses without mortgages.—Laughter and cheers. I thought we wanted legislation to prevent mortgages.

A voice.—That's right!—Cheers. I respect the man who has succeeded in business. I respect equally as much the man who has struggled as bravely but who has not been so fortunate.

Who are we to send to parliament? Mr. Shadd said, "Let us

OUR ADVERTISEMENTS PAY

THE ROSS GOVERNMENT AND THE MAN WHO SUPPORTS IT

(As amended from the platform by Mr. McCoig himself at his meeting in the Grand Opera House December 30.)

"Definitely and positively I will not be the candidate. I couldn't if I would and I wouldn't if I could."

"What use would it be to me to go down to the Legislature and sit in some back bench in opposition? And what use would it be to my constituents to have me there?"

"I think the Ross government is a goner. They've been there altogether too long."

"The whole thing is corrupt and rotten, and I believe they should be turned out."

"No; I tell you honestly, I wouldn't be their candidate if I could."—A. B. McCOIG, November, 19, 1904.

INSPIRING SENTIMENT IN THE KENTS

The inspiring sentiment that permeates the whole Province—a sentiment that affects all true Canadians, no matter what their party affiliations; that, in the best interests of Ontario, they must procure a thorough and business-like house-cleaning—is rapidly developing to its full effectiveness in the two Kents.

Everything possible has been done by the exponents of the discredited Ross administration to blind the public to the real issue. They have secured, after much anxious effort, two hitherto personally popular gentlemen to be their candidates. They are seeking to make the campaign one of petty and silly personal issues, introducing tales and imaginary incidents to belittle the great and serious problem before the people.

Is there sometimes a great temptation to reply in kind, but the man—or the party—that dabbles in that kind of warfare eventually suffers thereby, frequently in the loss of his cause, always in the respect of those whose esteem is most worth having.

The people of Kent cannot be misled by this style of campaign. They realize that the great problem before them is, Does the Ross administration in view of the discreditable doings of the past deserve our further confidence? And, would it not be best at this juncture to inaugurate a thorough and efficient Provincial house-cleaning?

These are the questions which are prominent in the minds of the electors who have the good name of their Province at heart. And the great, inspiring sentiment is sweeping all Ontario.

We doubt not that the men of Kent will do their part on January 25th by voting almost solidly for James Clancy and Philip H. Bowyer.

BROKEN PLEDGES

Ultra partisan Archie Campbell, who is to-day gushing over the real or imagined virtues of the Hon. G. W. Ross, remind us of by-gone Liberals of a better day and school, and attempt comparisons favorable to Mr. Ross, and for such purpose cite such names as Mowat, Mackenzie, Brown, Baldwin and others.

Let us see what the Hon. Geo. Brown has to say of pledge breakers. Speaking in the parliament of Canada session of 1884, he said:

"There is no principle in the theory of responsible government more vital to its right working than that parties shall take their stand on the prominent questions of the day and mount to office or resign it through the success or failure of principles to which they are attached. This is the great safeguard for the public against clap-trap professions, and when strictly enforced it makes men seriously consider ere they commit themselves on leading questions. If a public man can hold one set of principles out of office and another set in office responsible government is a farce."

What do the Temperance people of the Province think of Mr. Ross and his professions and temperance pledges?

Mr. W. E. Raney, a prominent Liberal and temperance man, in a letter to the Toronto News on the 4th of January, 1905, puts the matter truly and concisely; this is what he says:—

"We have these outstanding facts:

"(1) Acting on the advice of his friends in convention assembled, who in turn were acting on the advice of the active young blood in Mr. Ross' Cabinet, Mr. Ross deliberately broke his deliberate and often renewed promise; and (2) the substitutes which Mr. Ross now offers for his broken promise were not asked for and whatever their practical value, might have been had at any time during the 25 years for the asking."

We think that Mr. Ross falls well within the late Hon. George Brown's definition of a pledge breaker.

SATCHEL OF THE SATELLITE

Hurray for James Clancy and P. H. Bowyer. They are both winners.

And still Clancy goes on his way rolling up a big majority for Clancy.

It was a chilly day for Go Past the truth Graham when he came to Chatham.

And still the popgun organette pursues its campaign of slander without policy.

From the wobbly nature of the popgun's fire I judge its "informing spirit" to be hot Scotch.

If you're a friend of Archie McCoig's you can safely vote for James Clancy and do Archie a kindness.

They tell me that Archie has run out of salt and soft soap and therefore can't visit the same place twice.

Last Saturday's organette, in the course of a disjointed volley of blank cartridge, refers feelingly to the "informing spirit."

Archie McCoig is a nice young fellow all right but it won't do for Chatham to send all her nice young men away from home.

Ross wants the past sealed with seven seals. On the 25th the people are going to seal Mr. Ross' political coffin with all the seals he wants.

The Newsweek had an attack of yellow journalism on Saturday. That fake interview with the Hon. J. P. Whitney was about their size.

Ross says, "I did it, but I didn't know." He doesn't know the people if he thinks they'll swallow that, or perhaps it is designed for his Chatham popgun.

At least Archie can safely appeal to the jail birds to support him on the ground that our own Jim Clancy's election would menace their best interests.

Ross says "I didn't know." I move that J. P. Whitney be engaged as a substitute whilst the chief hostler of the 32 year war horse goes to school and studies his A. B. C.

Archie McCoig is quite young and there is lots of time for him to go to Parliament after a while. He has a good business here and it would be too bad to take him away from it.

When I get from the personal enemy by a direct route that the Editor and Satellite ought to be fired from their jobs and that these two celebrities are killing The Planet, then I know that the thunder bolts are striking home and I feel good all over.

The popgun is loading itself with heavier charges now. If it is not careful it will damage itself in its maddest efforts to excel all others as the supreme organette of the campaign of slander without policy.

When my enemies praise then I am frightened. Old Homer was a pretty wise old guy. He said beware of the hostile one who comes and cloaks his evil intent with honeyed words.

For over a week now I haven't heard from my war wagon. I am afraid it went up in the East End and the Grits up there seduced the driver from his post with some of that booze.

Is it true that in the back woods Archie is trying to get support by passing himself off as the Conservative candidate? He must think the electors are as green as the noble 13 who regard Hon. Go Past Graham as statesman or the organette as a newspaper.

And "Hon." Mr. Evanturel, whom the people of Prescott and West Nipissing wouldn't have, said the Fair Court farmers hadn't any right to speak in his presence. He had less right to speak in theirs.

AN EXPLANATION. Probably my friends have noticed that I have been walking in the middle of the road of late. This is not because the sidewalks are not wide enough but because they are very slippery and only the wicked can stand in such places.

NOW THE FESTIVE SEASON IS OVER

Tune up your Stomach with Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and Get in Good Working Order Again.

Has the New Year's turkey left its traces in your stomach? Do you get up in the morning with a dark brown taste in your mouth? Is your head muddled and sort of half-achy? Is your day's work a burden? Do trifles worry you?

If you have any of these symptoms it is time to pay attention to your stomach. It has been overworked and needs help. Attend to it at once or you will drift into indigestion and from that to Dyspepsia. Help your stomach with Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. They never fail to tone up the stomach and bring it back to a healthy condition.

Marie Ann Bajard, of Marie Cap. Bonaventure Co., Que., says: "For two years my life was a burden. I could not take the simplest food without having a pain across my stomach. One box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cured me and I have had no return of the trouble."

Satisfaction with conditions make a firm foundation upon which to build contentment.

The Croup.

It's a terrible thing, isn't it? Somehow, that awful cough, that hard struggle for air, can never be forgotten. Be a little forehanded and prevent it. Keep Vapo-Cresolene in the house, and when the children take cold let them breathe in the vapor during the evening. It goes right to the throat, just where the croup lies. All irritation subsides the cough quiets down and serious trouble is prevented. It never fails to cure whooping-cough.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by Druggists, or sent express prepaid on receipt of price. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including booklet of Croup and Whooping-Cough, is sent for 50c. Write to Geo. H. K. Loring, Ltd., Agents, 201 St. James St., Montreal.

Capt. George Stringer was 90 years old to-day. The great old lake sailor was born in the year 1814 in Selby, Yorkshire, England. He has been a prominent figure in the history of Chatham almost from the beginning.

Lost! On Tuesday last, between Thos. Stone & Son's store, Aberdeen Hotel and Rev. T. E. Higley's residence on Josephine St., a hand-satchel containing about ten dollars. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning it to this office.

Roy Glassford and Willie Hoig two of the little choir boys in Christ Church sang a duet, "Almost persuaded," at both services yesterday. This was one of the finest numbers which has been put on since the vestal choir was established. Willie Hoig has a reputation as a boy singer, but Roy Glassford sang for the first time as a soloist. Roy has a high sweet and clear soprano voice and sings remarkably well. The duet made a decided hit, and it was upon request that it was sung in the evening.

A LOST GOLD MINE.

Fabulous stories about the world's buried millions have cropped up from time to time, but a writer in this week's A. T. describes in an article, "Where to Find Buried Treasure," the story of that famous gold mine known as Adams' Diggins. He says:—

"The mystery of the Adams Diggins seems to deepen as the years go by. A fabulously rich mine was discovered and lost in 1859 on the boundary of New Mexico and Arizona. Twenty-two men in 1858 penetrated the unknown desert to the Southwest of California. At Yuma, on the Rocky Mountain ridge they met a Mexican, who piloted the party up the Gila River for a distance of over three hundred miles. When the point was reached where three mountain peaks stood out in the form of a triangle a halt was called. A camp was made, and the next day the prospectors discovered lumps of pure gold at the base of the nearest peak.

"Six weeks' work enabled the party to accumulate an amount of gold estimated in value at $50,000. As supplies were running low, and tools for the work were badly needed, it was decided that twelve of their number should take the gold to San Francisco.

"Lots were drawn, and the twelve men selected set out with their golden burden. Twelve miles away they were murdered to a man by Apache Indians. Two days later all but one of those left behind at the camp were also butchered by the savages. The man to escape was one named Adams, and after terrible privations he reached Fort Bliss laden with nuggets. The civil war breaking out prevented an expedition setting out in search of the placer mountains many years but in 1883, Adams led a party up the Gila River, but so altered had the landscape become that he failed to locate the mine.

"Since then thousands of men have searched for the treasure, large sums of money have been spent and many lives have been lost in the quest. Today, after forty-five years of fruitless effort, the interest taken in the recovery of the mine is greater than ever, and less than a month ago an expedition of twenty-four men, consisting of mining experts, engineers, and geographical students, started to wrest the secret from the vast and rugged region bearing Adams' name."

It is hard to keep the door closed when vanity demands an entrance.

"The greatest triumph of my life!" The singer softly said, "Twas in a city hospital, Beside a fair girl's bed."

"They called her 'Sister Madeline,' An orphan and alone, And 'Mother sing! oh, Mother sing!' Was her unending moan."

"The cruel flame had spared her face, 'Twas heavenly to see, I took her ice-cold hand in mine, And sang, to old 'Dundee'."

"Father, whatever of earthly brave Thy sovereign will denies, Accepted at Thy throne of grace Let this petition rise."

"The moaning ceased, up into mine She lifted eyes, that shone With something more than mortal love."

"I sang of Heaven's perfect rest, Of Christ, 'the dying Lamb,' And 'Rest thy soul and stretch thy wings.'"

"To dear old 'Amsterdam,' 'Then 'Jesus, lover of my soul'— The fluttering fingers led The tender cadence of the song— 'O singer sweet,' she said."

"Then, kneeling there, I chanted low, 'The Gloria'—my eyes Were closed, and as a dreamer seas, So I saw Paradise."

"I knew that death was coming fast, And kissed her tenderly, The smile her lagging spirit gave, Was Triumph's height to me."

THE FISCAL QUESTION.

Austin Chamberlain's Latest Speech Makes It Plain That It Will Be Paramount Election Issue.

London, Jan. 14.—(C.A.P.)—That the fiscal question will be paramount at next general election is made perfectly plain by a speech of Austin Chamberlain of the Exchequer. In refusing the request of a deputation to remit the sugar tax, he said they were well aware of the intention of the Government to make a change in the fiscal policy. This question would settle the issue at the next general election, but the Government could not anticipate any fundamental changes in the fiscal question during the present Parliament.

Herbert Gladstone, addressing the farmers of Hawarden, told them they would not find salvation in a two-shilling duty on corn. It was madness on the part of the British Government to propose measures which would have the effect of diminishing the world's wheat market, to which we had rapid access. The limitation of foreign markets exposed ourselves to the great danger of fluctuations in the wheat trade and a possible shortage.

Leonard Courtney, unveiling the bust of Charles Buller at Liskeard, referred specially to his work in the Durham report as an illustration that he always went forward.

Prophecies Free Trade Wins.

Lord George Hamilton, M.P., Unionist free trader, addressing a meeting of two thousand citizens at Blackburn said the reason for his leaving the Government was because he saw that Mr. Chamberlain's motive unless given a check would degenerate into pure protection. They had been told to think imperially. He had been an Imperialist all his life. He learnt Imperialism from Lord Beaconsfield and Salisbury, who taught that though Imperialism in the abstract might be admirable in the concrete it must be regulated by the burden which it entailed. There had been, in his judgment, too much Imperial "high falutin" on public platforms lately. His complaint against the tariff reformers was that they had made no wide general survey of the industrial position or of the complexity of the imperial connections abroad, before embarking on this unhappy agitation. With regard to the colonial offer he thought the tariff reformers did not deal fairly with their audiences. The measure of benefit we could derive from such an offer was simply the extent to which we could displace foreign goods now going to the colonies. He expressed his strong belief that free trade would win "hands down."

COLONIES' BEST FRIEND.

Lord Strathcona Accords the Honor to Mr. Chamberlain.

London, Jan. 14.—(C. A. P.)—Speaking at the Colonial Exhibition at Liverpool, Lord Strathcona said the colonies even now possessed resources which made up a very great Empire. Speaking for Canada, he could say that it was ready to go with the mother country in everything that could be of advantage to the whole Empire. Whatever their political views, all must admit that Mr. Chamberlain had been the colonies' best friend and had done more than any other man to knit the different parts of the Empire together. Lord Strathcona has consented to receive the thousand guests invited to an international ball promoted by the City of London Colonial Association, of which he is president. The Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress and the sheriffs will attend in state, while the French, German and American Ambassadors will be represented officially.

English Cotton Trade.

London, Jan. 14.—Commenting on Mr. Chamberlain's Preston speech, the president of the Federation of Master Cotton Spinners says: "Mr. Chamberlain does not understand the cotton industry at all." Sir William Holland, M. P., says: "Mr. Chamberlain has thrown up the sponge, so far as the cotton trade is concerned." Alfred Emmett, M. P., thinks Mr. Chamberlain utterly failed to disprove the statement that the cotton trade must be injured under his scheme by the increased cost of manufacture. D. J. Shackleton, M. P., thinks Mr. Chamberlain's speech will not help the protectionist cause.

Dr. Fackin Back Again.

Montreal, Que., Jan. 14.—"We have a splendid lot of young fellows at Oxford and the eight Canadians are a credit to their country," is what Dr. George R. Parker has to say of the Rhodes scholarships men now at Oxford. The doctor, who has returned from London, states that there will be 40 colonials next year, and about 200 in all. He dined the other day with the Canadian eight, and he adds that a finer lot of students he has never met.

Five of Crew Lost.

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 14.—A despatch received here from Gloucester, N.S., states that the Gloucester schooner Lanseer, which was sunk in a collision in Bay of Islands, Newfoundland, last Sunday, lost five of her crew. Previous despatches indicated that all the crew escaped. The men lost are said to have been Norwegians.

PUTTING IT STRONG.

But Doesn't It Look Reasonable?

This may read as though we were putting it a little strong, because it is generally thought by the majority of people that Dyspepsia in its chronic form is incurable or practically so. But we have long since shown that Dyspepsia is curable, and it is such a difficult matter as at first appears.

The trouble with Dyspepsia is that they are continually dieting, starving themselves or going to the opposite extreme of eating deluging the already overburdened stomach with "bitters," "after dinner pills," etc., which invariably increase the difficulty even if in some cases they do give a slight temporary relief. Such treatment of the stomach simply makes matters worse. What the stomach wants is a rest. Now how can the stomach become rested, re-energized and at the same time the body nourished and sustained?

This is a great secret and this is also the secret of the uniform success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. This is a comparatively new remedy but its success and popularity leave no doubt as to its merit.

The Tablets will digest the food anyway, regardless of condition of stomach. The sufferer from Dyspepsia, according to directions, is to eat an abundance of good, wholesome food and use the tablets before and after each meal and the result will be that the food will be digested no matter how bad your Dyspepsia may be, because, as before stated, the tablets will digest the food even if the stomach is wholly inactive. To illustrate our meaning plainly, if you take 1,800 grains of meat, eggs or ordinary food and place it in a temperature of 98 degrees, and put with it one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets it will digest the meat or eggs almost as perfectly as if the meat was enclosed within the stomach.

The stomach may be ever so weak, yet these tablets will perform the work of digestion and the body and brain will be properly nourished and at the same time a radical, lasting cure of Dyspepsia will be made because the much abused stomach will be given, to some extent, a much needed rest. You need not tell you that of all the many remedies advertised to cure Dyspepsia none of them have given so complete and general satisfaction as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not least in importance in these hard times is the fact that they are also the cheapest and give the most good for the least money.

DISTRICT DOINGS.

DRESDEN

Jan. 16.—Miss Daisy McDonald, formerly of Dresden, now of the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, is the guest of Miss Eliza Rudd, Brown street.

Rev. Mr. Armstrong, of Tupperville, conducted services in the Methodist church here yesterday both morning and evening. Rev. Mr. Langford, who is in the book, conducted services in Victoria avenue Methodist church, Chatham, and Rev. Mr. Malott, of Chatham, had charge of the anniversary services at Zion church, Tupperville.

Miss Norton, of Georgetown, who was engaged to fill the vacancy on the Public school staff, resigned her position last week, having obtained a better situation much nearer her home. A special meeting of the School Board was held Friday night to take immediate steps to procure a substitute.

The popular play, "Away Down in Old Virginia," will be the attraction at the Grand Wednesday evening, Jan. 18th. This is one of the successful plays of the season, put on by a first class company, and in every respect deserving of the patronage of theatre-goers in our town.

Woman's Auxiliary

The Woman's Auxiliary Missionary Society of Holy Trinity Church, held their annual meeting in the parlour of the Sunday school building on Dec. 15th, 1904. The Rev. Rev. Beverly Smith presided. The secretary reported a membership of 18 active members. During the year just closed there had been thirty-four regular meetings, with an aggregate attendance of 328. The work included a winter outfit of wearing apparel, bedding, etc., for an Indian lad named Fred Getting-last-gone, of St. Paul's mission, Fort McLeod, Alberta. The bales with this outfit also contained bedding, new clothing, groceries, drugs and other articles for the mission. The bales reached their destination about the first of November and we were well repaid for our work when we heard from the mission that the contents of the bales were suitable and had given so much satisfaction. Their great need is for clothing for Indian boys. In August this society also sent several knitted articles of woolen goods to the Rev. Shields Boyd, of the Leger Mission in China. In order to always have on hand sufficient money to pay the freight on our bales sent to the Northwest, and upon which the government grants a rebate, Rev. Beverly Smith gave a generous donation, which will be known as the "Beverly Smith permanent fund." It is to be used only for paying freight on our bales. On the 3rd of Dec. Miss Thomas, of Toronto, returned missionary from Temuco, Chili, visited our society and gave an interesting account of the Mapuche Indians, among whom she works as teacher. She reports them as bright and intelligent, eager to learn the Spanish language in preference to their own, Spanish being the language of the Chilians. Among them the missionaries have more discomforts and hardships than they would have in this country, and life is just as safe.

The familiar presence of Mrs. A. Richardson, who in September moved to Windsor, and who for years has been a willing and faithful member of our society, acting as secretary for a number of years, is greatly missed.

The Treasurer, Mr. Kerr, reported: General fund cash in bank, $9.66. Cash in hand, $4.98. Beverly Smith Permanent Fund, $10.00.

The following officers were then appointed: President—Mrs. Stegman.

1st Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Brunker.

The Happy Home.

Happiness must be founded on health. Where there is ill-health there will surely be unhappiness. The happiness of many a home has received its downfall at the table, spread with rich and dainty foods. The first symptoms of disease of the stomach are ignored as being disagreeable but not dangerous. Presently dyspepsia or some other form of disease fastens on the stomach, my food is disagreeable but not dangerous. At any stage Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. But the cure is quicker if the "Discovery" is used in the earlier stages of disease. If you have any symptoms of diseased stomach use "Golden Medical Discovery" and be cured.

I feel that I would be doing an injustice to you if I did not send you a statement of my case. I write Mrs. David W. Guice, of Hamburg, N. Y. I had liver complaint and indigestion. Everything that I ate disagreed with me. I suffered all the time with swelling in my head; heart beat too fast; my feet and hands were cold all the time. Did not sleep at all. I was able to get about but very little. I commenced to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and "Pleasant Pellets" in May, 1897, and by December I could begin to get about very well. Have been doing my work ever since. Feel better than I have for several years.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

2nd Vice-Pres.—Mrs. T. Richardson. Recording Secretaries—Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. J. L. Bray. Treasurer—Mrs. Kerr. Deacons Secretaries—Mrs. Marx, Sears and Mrs. Tackaberry. Leaflet Secretary—Miss Carrie Brunker.

Delegates to London Annual W. A. M., Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Kerr and Mrs. Brunker.

CARRIED SAMPLES.

During a meeting of the Louisville presbytery a delegate told this story of pioneer days and vouched for its accuracy. One of the circuit riders in my part of the state was extremely fond of pepper sauce, and as he could seldom find any strong enough at places where he stopped he always carried a bottle with him. He happened to be at a hotel one night, though he usually stopped at the home of a friend. A man sat across the table from him and, seeing the sauce, asked if the minister would share it with him. The request was granted, and the stranger poured out a liberal allowance of the sauce into his soup. At the first swallow he made a very wry face and blurted out, "Minister, do you preach hades?" "Yes, brother," was the reply. "Why do you ask?" "Because you are the first preacher I ever saw who carried samples," was the answer.

GOD'S FAITH IN US.

When I think how long a little child is helpless, absolutely dependent on another's love; when I think of the slow stages of our growth up the steep slope to moral and spiritual manhood; when I remember that every vision that beckons us and every hope that fires us, and truth that illuminates and saves us was won out of the riches of God, through the discipline and the chastisement of ages, I feel that the belief of God in man is wonderful: he hath believed in us, and therefore hath made no haste. We speak a great deal about our faith in God. Never forget God's glorious faith in us.—G. H. Morrison.

of a quarrel, but it is a sorry substitute for no quarrel at all. We like to soothe ourselves into thinking that a handsome apology and expressed penitence leave things as they were before the unloving words were spoken. They do not; every expression of unlove leaves a scar that no words or future love can entirely do away with. The strongest love of husband and wife, parent and child, is not proof against such scars; only God and the one wounded know of the suffering that may last beyond the assurance of forgiveness spoken through smiling tear-filled eyes.

THE KHEDIVE A LINGUIST.

His Highness Abbas II, Khedive of Egypt, is one of the best-educated young rulers of the time. He speaks six languages fluently—English, French, German, Italian, Arabic and Turkish—and has visited every capital in Europe. His linguistic attainments are due to the variety of the tutors and preceptors of his youth. An English governess began his education, which was carried on at the Hoxian School at Geneva, and later at the Theresianum in Vienna. Abbas II. dresses like an ordinary young society man when not in uniform, with the exception that he always wears the red tarboosh, or turban, of his fathers.

Take a man at his word when it is hastily uttered and he wonders at your lack of sense and judgment.

Minard's Liniment Cures Burns, etc.

One Million Dollars Have Been Spent to Give Ligozone Free to the Sick.

When we purchased the rights to Ligozone, we decided to buy the first bottle and give it free to each sick person who would accept the offer in nearly every newspaper in America, and 1,800,000 people have accepted it. In one year it has cost us over one million dollars to announce and fulfill the offer.

Don't you realize that a product must have wonderful merit to make such an offer possible? We have never asked a soul to buy Ligozone. We have published no testimonials, no physician's endorsement. We have simply asked the sick to try it at our expense. And that is all we ask you, if you need it.

Kills Inside Germs.

Ligozone is not made by compounding drugs, nor is there alcohol in it. Its virtues are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time. This process has, for more than 20 years, been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research.

The result is a liquid that does what oxygen does. It is a nerve food and blood food—the most helpful thing in the world to you. Its effects are exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying. Yet it is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill. The reason is that germs are vegetables; and Ligozone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetable matter.

There lies the great value of Ligozone. It is the only way known to kill germs in the body without killing the tissues, too. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. Medicine is almost helpless in any germ disease. It is this fact that gives Ligozone its worth to humanity. And that worth is so great that, after testing the product for two years, through physicians and hospitals, we paid $100,000 for the American rights.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Ligozone attacks the germs, wherever they are. And when the germs which cause a disease are destroyed, the disease must end, and forever. That is inevitable.

THE LOCAL BUDGET

Regiment Band in attendance at the Skating Rink to-night.

There will be a meeting of the Conservatives of Ward No. 5, at Mrs. Ingalls' Store, St. Clair street, at 8 o'clock.

City Engineer E. B. Jones has been busy having the waterworks plot overhauled and refitted. The work will be completed now in about a week.

Rev. Beverly Smith, the new rector of St. John's Church, Toronto Junction, took charge of the services yesterday for the first time. Large congregations were at both services.—Toronto Globe.

H. D. Smith, County Crown Attorney, was one of the many who had the misfortune to fall on the icy sidewalks. Mr. Smith sustained a nasty injury to his knee cap. His many friends will be pleased to learn that he was able to get to-day.

While the men were engaged putting a service pipe into a house on Ursaline avenue, at a depth of two feet, they discovered an iron spear. Apparently this is a relic of other days when the aborigines traversed the wilderness of woods in this vicinity, but how it came to be of iron is a mystery. Stone spears are frequently found, but iron ones are practically unknown in this vicinity. E. B. Jones has the relic.

HAWKES CUT GLASS

A yellow diamond makes a good show until compared with a white one, and Hawkes glass shows up the yellow in other cut glass when placed side by side. We can show you five other makes, Canadian and American, but Hawkes stands out in a class by itself. Come in and let us show you the difference, and it won't take long either. There is comparatively very little difference in the cost but oh what a difference in quality.

BUNCO GAME ON HUMPHREY

Jovial Members of the Library Board Get off a Good Joke on Ambitious Colleague

At the Last Meeting of the Old Board they Elected him Chairman for the Balance of the Year—Took It Seriously

The Library Board certainly enjoys a joke and they played one on J. W. Humphrey last Monday. This was the last meeting of the Board for the year in reality, but some of the members chose to consider it the first meeting of the year. The mere fact that neither had the Council appointed their representatives nor had the Public School Board urged any body to represent them for the year 1905, made but little difference. The further and additional fact that the statute, sub-section of section nine, says that the Public Library Board shall at its first meeting, in February, elect one of their number as chairman was not of the slightest consideration. When there was a chance to have a little fun.

J. W. Humphrey was anxious for the job and there was a splendid opportunity afforded of giving him that little honor without doing any harm. So Mr. Humphrey's anxiety for the moment was set at rest and he was duly appointed chairman. He apparently took it quite seriously and only took the seat of honor, not realizing the job the humorists had put up upon him.

Of course Albert Sheldrick is still the real and legal chairman, but Mr. Humphrey claims the honor. Of course there may be some internal reasons why the change of chairman was made, but the public do not consider this insinuation as having any foundation.

FAUBERT ACQUITTED

Wm. Faubert, of Dover, came up this morning for trial before Judge Dowlin in the County Criminal Court, charged with stealing 75 cents from Patrick Decourcy. Decourcy said he bought a load of soft maple from Faubert, paying him $4 for it, and that he bought a second load, and that soft maple of the same quantity and price. He claimed that Faubert had brought a mixed load of soft maple and white ash, and that it wasn't the same quantity and was about one eighth of a cord. He stated that when the man unloaded it he handed him a five dollar bill and instead of giving him back one dollar he gave him only 25 cents, saying that was all he would give him. Faubert said that the price was to be $4.75 a cord and he gave the right change. Decourcy claimed that Faubert in driving out of the place broke his fence and gate and refused to take the wood away when requested. Faubert denied this. The Judge held that although he did not approve of Faubert's conduct, he felt that there was an element of doubt in the case and accordingly found him not guilty. W. F. Smith appeared for the prisoner, H. D. Smith, prosecuted.

Four Hands Come.

Paris, Jan. 16.—Maude Gonne MacBride arrived in Paris Saturday with the unhappy story of her divorce suit against the major, which is coming before the London courts in a few days. Mrs. MacBride desired for the sake of her child, which is one year old, to ask only a separation, and not an absolute divorce, but finding Major MacBride's terms too hard, a divorce was decided on. Mrs. MacBride charges drunkenness, infidelity and cruelty. The major keeps the $14,000 which Maude Gonne settled on him when they were married. He also wants the child for six months of the year, letting its mother keep it the rest of the time. To this she objected on the ground that the major's mother keeps a barroom in Paris.

Principal Sincere Dead.

Regina, N.W.T., Jan. 16.—Rev. J. A. Sincere, principal of the Indian Industrial School here, died at Victoria Hospital yesterday afternoon. Deceased had been suffering from appendicitis, and was operated on Saturday. He had been for a number of years in charge of the Indian institution here, and was well known in the east. His sudden demise will prove an irreparable loss to the Indian population, among whom he was an ardent and successful worker. Before receiving his appointment as school here, Mr. Sincere was a Presbyterian missionary in the Yukon.

Five Fire At Fensom's.

Toronto, Jan. 16.—While Toronto was going to church yesterday morning the downtown firemen were on their way to a nasty blaze which ended in gutting the wood-working shops in connection with the Fensom Elevator Works on Duke street. The fire department officials estimate the total loss at about $20,000.

PRESENTATION

Chalmers' Presbyterian Church Remembers Mr. Urquhart and Miss Mackness

Last Wednesday evening was the occasion of the annual congregational meeting of Chalmers' Church. Owing to the inclemency of the weather there were not as many present as there would have been had the evening been pleasant; nevertheless those who did attend had a very pleasant time. In the absence of the pastor, Mr. Neilly, Mr. Bellamy was appointed chairman.

After the minutes of the last congregational meeting were read and adopted, the treasurer's report was read, showing that the church is in good financial standing, and that after the minister's salary and the expenses of the church were paid there was quite a substantial surplus.

When the remainder of the business was transacted, the chairman called on the choir for a selection of music.
One of the Elders then asked Mr.
Urquhart and Miss Mackness to come forward, and made a few brief remarks in behalf of the congregation, while Mr. Neil Cummings and James McKay presented Mr. Urquhart with a handsome quivered oak and leather rocking chair. Mrs.
Goodridge then presented Miss Mack-ness with a beautiful gold ring set with pearls. Mr. Urquhart responded in a very appropriate and feeling manner. He also, at her request, thanked the congregation in behalf of Miss Mackness.

After a vote of thanks to the chairman, the congregation partook of a sumptuous lunch served by the ladies.

The written addresses were as follows:—

To Mr. John Urquhart,—

We the members and adherents of Chalmers' Presbyterian church, embrace this opportunity of manifesting to the great appreciation we have of the services you have rendered as leader of our choir. We do not forget the faithful and efficient services rendered by you in our choir. During the many years you have acted as leader you have shown faithfulness and untiring energy. But while we, as a church cannot offer any adequate reward, we do not forget your work and labor of love. We desire, at least, in some small and tangible manner to show you our respect and esteem. Permit us, therefore, to present you this chair, as a slight token of our appreciation and high regard and trust that you may be long spared to enjoy it.

We ask you still to continue to lead our choir and we will give you our heartiest support.

Signed on behalf of the congregation:

MRS. W. G. STARK.
MRS. NEIL CUMMINGS.
MRS. GEO. GOODRIDGE.
MISS K. McKAY.

To Miss Annie Mackness,
Your friends and members of Chalmers' church have felt that at least a slight expression of the appreciation of your services as organist, ought to be acknowledged and presented to you. You have been faithful and diligent and always at your post, ready to help in the work of the Master. You have always been faithful in your duties not only as organist in the church, but in the Sabbath school as well. As a very sincere token of our affection for the services rendered and as a mark of esteem, we ask you to accept this ring.

Signed on behalf of the congregation:

MRS. W. G. STARK.
MRS. NEIL CUMMINGS.
MRS. GEO. GOODRIDGE.
MISS K. McKAY.

Kindness is a quality which belongs to the human family, but often is strangled through too much thought.

MERELY AN ADVT.

Some amusing interest was taken in the fact that on Saturday last the Mail and Empire, in accordance with the other Toronto papers, published an advertisement for Mr. Blain, one of the Ross candidates in the Queen City.

The disturbance among the Rossites is the proverbial tempest in a teapot. Unlike the local Rossite organ, which even refused a paid advertisement of the recent great Whitney meeting, the people's papers have nothing to conceal or be afraid of,
and consequently all legitimate ad-nothing more, or nothing less, in the solid campaign reasoning, it seems necessary for the Rossites to make

TOOK A SEVERE COLD.

It Settled In The Kidneys.

Pain In The Back The Result.

Catching cold and having it settle in the back is often the cause of Backache—the primary cause of kidney trouble. When the back aches it is a warning that the kidneys are liable to become affected. Head the warning—check the Backache, and dispose of any chance of further trouble.

If you don't, serious complications are very apt to arise. Mrs. E. Williams, Hamilton, Ont., caught cold, and it settled in her kidneys. She used DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, and is thankful for the immediate relief they gave her. She writes us as follows: "It is with pleasure that I add my testimony in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills. Some time ago I took a severe cold, which settled in my kidneys. The soreness and pain in the small of my back bothered me greatly. After suffering for some months, and finding numerous remedies fail, I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, and received immediate relief from my sufferings."

Doan's Kidney Pills may be procured at all dealers, or will be sent direct by mail on receipt of price—

50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25.

The Simple Life

By CHARLES WAGNER

Translated from the French by Mary Louise Hendon. Copyright, 1901, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

"Go next to the faubourgs, to the factories, especially the smaller ones, where the children or the employers labor with the men. Watch the army of workers marching to their tasks. How ready and willing these young girls seem as they come gayly down from their distant quarters to the shops and stores and offices of the city! Then visit the homes from which they come. See the women of the people at her work. Her husband's wages are modest, their dwelling is cramped, the children are many, the father is often harsh. Make a collection of the biographies of lowly people, budgets of modest family life; look at them attentively and long."

"After that go see the students. Those who have scandalized you in the streets are numerous, but those who labor hard and are not talked about. If you know the toil and dig of the Latin quarter! You find the papers full of the rumpus made by a certain set of youths who call themselves students. The papers say enough of those who break windows, but why do they make no mention of those who spend their nights toiling over problems? Because it wouldn't interest the public. Yes, when now and then one of them, a medical student perhaps, dies a victim to professional duty the matter has two lines in the dailies. A drunken brawl gets half a column, with every detail elaborated. Nothing is lacking but the portraits of the heroes, and not always that."

"I should never end were I to try to point out to you all that you must go to see if you would see all. You would needs make the tour of society at large, rich and poor, wise and ignorant. And certainly you would not judge so severely then. Paris is a world, and here, as in the world in general, the good hides away while the evil flaunts itself. Observing only the surface, you sometimes ask how there can possibly be so much ruffian. When, on the contrary, you look into the depths you are astonished that in this troublous, obscure and sometimes frightful life there can be so much virtue."

But why linger over these things? Am I not blowing trumpets for those who hold trumpet blowing in horror? Do not understand me so. My aim is this: To make men think about unostentatious goodness—above all, to make them love it and practice it. The man who finds his satisfaction in things which glitter and hold his eyes is lost, first, because he will thus see evil before all else, then because he gets accustomed to the sight of only such good as seeks for notice, and therefore easily succumbs to the temptation to live himself for appearances. Not only must one be resigned to obscurity; he must love it if he does not wish to slip insensibly into the ranks of figurants, who preserve their parts only while under the eyes of the spectators and put off in the wings the restraints imposed on the stage.

Here we are in the presence of one of the essential elements of the moral life. And this which we say is true not only for those who are called humble and whose lot it is to pass unmarked; it is just as true, and more so, for the chief actors. If you would not be a brilliant inutility, a man of gold lace and plumes, but empty inside.

you must play the star role in the simple spirit of the most obscure of your collaborators. He who is nothing worth except on hours of parade is worth less than nothing. Have we the perilous honor of being always in view, of marching in the front ranks? Let us take so much the greater care of the sanctuary of silent good within us; let us give to the structure whose facade is seen of our fellow men a wide foundation of simplicity, of humble fidelity, and then, out of sympathy, out of gratitude, let us stay near our brothers who are unknown to fame. We owe everything to them, do we not? I call to witness every one who has found in life this encouraging experience—that stoned hidden in the soil hold up the whole edifice. All those who arrive at having a public and recognized value owe it to some humble spiritual ancestors, to some forgotten inspirers. A small number of the good, among them simple women, peasants, vanquished heroes, parents as modest as they are revered, personality for us beautiful and noble living; their example inspires us and gives us strength. The remembrance of them is forever inseparable from that conscience before which we arraign ourselves. In our hours of trial we think of them, courageous and serene, and our burdens lighten. In clouds they compass us about, these witnesses invisible and beloved who keep us from stumbling and our feet from falling in the battle, and day by day do they prove to us that the treasure of humanity is its hidden goodness.

CHAPTER X.

THE WORLD AND THE LIFE OF THE HOME. IN the time of the second empire, in one of our pleasantest subprefectures of the provinces, a little way from some baths frequented by the emperor, there was a mayor, a very worthy man and intelligent, too, whose head was suddenly turned by the thought that his sovereign might one day descend upon his home. Up to this time he had lived in the house of his fathers, a son respectful of the slightest family traditions. But when once the all absorbing idea of receiving the emperor had taken possession of his brain he became another man. In this new light what had before seemed sufficient for his needs, even enjoyable, all this simplicity that his ancestors loved, appeared poor, ugly, ridiculous. Out of the question to ask an emperor to climb this wooden staircase, sit in these old armchairs, walk over such superannuated carpets. So the mayor called architect and masons; pickaxes attacked walls and demolished partitions, and a drawing room was made out of all proportion to the rest of the house in size and splendor. He and his family retired into close quarters, where people and furniture incommoded each other generally. Then, having emptied his purse and upset his household by this stroke of genius, he awaited the royal guest. Alas, he soon saw the end of the empire arrive, but the emperor never.

The folly of this poor man is not so rare. As bad as he are all those who sacrifice their home life to the demands of the world. And the danger in such a sacrifice is most menacing in times of unrest. Our contemporaries are constantly exposed to it and constantly succumbing. How many family treasures have they literally thrown away to satisfy worldly ambitions and conventions, but the happiness upon which they thor- it to come through these impious immolations always eludes them.

To give up if a ancestral hearth, to let the family traditions fall into desuetude, to abandon the simple domestic customs, for whatever return is to make a fool's bargain, and such is the place in society of family life that if this impoverished the trouble is felt throughout the whole social organism. To enjoy a normal development this organism has need of well tried individuals, each having his own value, his own hall mark. Otherwise society becomes a flock, and sometimes a flock without a shepherd. But whence does the individual draw his originality, this unique something which, joined to the distinctive qualities of others, constitutes the wealth and strength of a community? He can draw it only from his own family. Destroy the assemblage of memories and practices whence emanates for each home an atmosphere in miniature, and you dry up the sources of character, sap the strength of public spirit.

It concerns the country that each home be a world, profound, respected, communicating to its members an ineffaceable moral imprint. But before pursuing the subject further let us rid ourselves of a misunderstanding. Family feeling, like all beautiful things, has its caricature, which is family egoism. Some families are like barred and bolted citadels, their members organized for the exploitation of the whole world. Everything that does not directly concern them is indifferent to them. They live like colonists—I have almost said intruders—in the society around them. Their particularism is pushed to such an excess that they make enemies of the whole human race. In their small way they resemble those powerful societies formed from time to time through the ages which possess themselves of universal rule and for which no one outside their own community counts. This is the spirit that has sometimes made the family seem a retreat of egoism which, it was necessary to destroy for the public safety. But as patriotism and jingoism are as far apart as the east from the west, so are family feeling and clanliness.

Here we are talking of right family feeling, and nothing else in the world can take its place, for in it lie in germ all those fine and simple virtues which assure the strength and duration of social institutions. And the very base of family feeling is respect for the past, for the best possessions of a family are its common memories. An intangible, indivisible and inalienable capital, these souvenirs constitute a sacred fund that each member of a family ought to consider more precious than anything else he possesses. They exist in a dual form, in idea and in fact. They show themselves in language, habits of thought, sentiments, even instincts, and one sees them materialized in portraits, furniture, buildings, dress, songs. To profane eyes they are nothing; to the eyes of those who know how to appreciate the things of the family they are relics with which one should not part at any price.

But what generally happens in our day? Worldliness wars upon the sentiment of family, and I know of no strife more impassioned. By great means and small, by all sorts of new customs, requirements and pretensions, the spirit of the world breaks into the domestic sanctuary. What are this stranger's rights, its titles? Upon what does it rest its presumptuous claims? This is what people too often neglect to inquire. They make a mistake. We treat the invader as very poor and simple people do a pompous visitor. For this incommensurate guest of a day they pillage their garden, bully their children and servants and neglect their work. Such conduct is not only wrong; it is impolitic. One should have the courage to remain what he is in the face of all comers.

The worldly spirit is full of imperfections. Here is a home which has formed characters of mark and is forming them yet. The people, the furnishings, the customs are all in harmony. By marriage or through relations of business or pleasure the worldly spirit enters. It finds everything out of date, awkward, too simple, lacking the modern touch. At first it restricts itself to criticism and light raillery. But this is the dangerous moment. Look out for yourself—here is a enemy! If you so much as listen to his reasonings, tomorrow you will sacrifice a piece of furniture, the next day a good old tradition, and so on by one the family heirlooms dear to the heart will go to the bric-a-brac dealer—and dilapidated with them.

You May Pay When You are Cured. A Detroit Specialist who has 14 diplomas and certificates from medical colleges and state boards of medical examiners, and who has a vast experience in doctoring diseases of men, is now curing a great many so called incurable cases.

DR. S. GOLDBERGER. The possessor of 14 diplomas and certificates, who wants no money that he does not earn. In order to convince patients that he has the ability to do as he says, Dr. Goldberger will accept your case for treatment, and you need not pay one penny until a complete cure has been made. He wants to hear from patients who have been unable to get cured, so he guarantees a positive cure for all chronic, nervous, blood and skin diseases, which he accepts for treatment. He not only cures the condition itself, but likewise all the complications, such as rheumatism, bladder or kidney troubles, blood poison, physical and nervous debility, lack of vitality, stomach troubles, etc. The doctor realizes that it is one thing to make claims and another thing to back them up; so he has made it a rule not to ask for money unless he cures you, and when you are cured, he feels sure that you will willingly pay him a small fee. It seems, therefore, that it is to the best interest of everyone who suffers to write the doctor confidentially and lay your case before him, and he will receive careful attention, and a correct diagnosis to gain and nothing to lose; you must remember not one penny need be paid until you are cured. All medicines for patients are prepared in his own laboratory to meet the requirements of each individual case. He will send a booklet on the subject, which contains the 14 diplomas and certificates, entirely free. Address him simply Dr. S. Goldberger, 308 Woodward Ave., Room 200, Detroit, Michigan. Medicines for Canadian patients sent from Windsor, Ont., consequently there is no duty to be paid.

CANADA'S SLAIN.

Canada's Graves in South Africa—List of Graves Which Have Memorial—General Monument in Toronto.

Toronto will have probably the largest and finest monument in Canada when the obelisk to be erected to the memory of the fallen heroes of Canada in the South African War shall have been put in place. At a recent meeting of the general committee of the South African Memorial Association the report of the Plans and Designs Committee, recommending the design of Mr. Walter S. Alward, of Toronto, was accepted. There were fourteen designs submitted.

The chosen monument will consist of a grey granite base and shaft, decorated with and surmounted by bronze figures. The figures at the base represent Canadian soldiers, sending her troops to the war. That which surmounts the obelisk impersonates the Glorification of Peace.

From the ground level to the top of the Peace figure the height will be 70 feet. The shaft itself will be ten feet high. The shaft will be mounted on a base which at the ground level will be 32 feet square. The obelisk will weigh 120 tons.
The cost of the monument will be $30,000. Of this sum the Ontario Government has promised $5,000 and the City of Toronto, as soon as it can obtain the power from the Legislature, will give a like amount. It is hoped that the Dominion Government will donate a similar sum, and it is thought that the County Councils throughout Ontario will also contribute. There was some objection to going to the Dominion Government for fear that other Provinces might expect a like donation, but the general feeling was that if $5,000 were available from that source, the gift should not be ignored.

The committee did not commit themselves to any site, as it will be two years before the monument will be complete. Several sites were discussed, among them being Queen's Park and the intersection of Spadina avenue and Queen street, but no decision has been arrived at.

HIS DIABETES IS ALL GONE NOW

Donat Lallamme Found a Cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

They Always Cure all Forms of Kidney Disease from Backache to Bright's Disease.

St. Marguerite, Dorchester County, Que., Jan. 16.—(Special).—That the most serious forms of Kidney Disease cannot stand before Dodd's Kidney Pills is being daily proved in Quebec, and one of the most convincing proofs is given right here in St.
Marguerite. Donat Lallamme, whom everybody knows had Diabetes. This is one of the extreme stages of Kidney Disease and it baffles ordinary medical skill. Consequently it is not surprising that the doctor who attended Donat Lallamme could not help him. But let Mr. Lallamme tell the most wonderful part of his story himself.

"Two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me," he says. "My Diabetes is all gone and I recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all my friends and to all those who suffer."

Donat Lallamme cured all Kidney Disease from Backache to

Port Arthur to Winnipeg.
Montreal, Jan. 14.—Wm. Whyte, second vice-president of the C. P. R., arrived here yesterday to confer with the president anent giving out contracts for the present year's work.
He says that the main line from Montreal to Winnipeg is now laid with standard 80-lb. rail and will be completed to Vancouver before the end of the year. Mr. Whyte further states that the contract for laying an additional track from Port Arthur to Winnipeg will be given out in a few days. He says that there is 6-100,000 bushels of wheat in elevators west of Winnipeg and 7,000,000 in farmers' hands.

THE GREATEST FAMILY REMEDY

And one well known in most Canadian homes is Nerviline, a perfect panacea for all internal and external pain. Mrs. M. E. Cartwright, of Morris, says:—I couldn't think of living without Nerviline. When I get toothache Nerviline stops it. If I get a sick headache, have a trouble with my stomach or bowels I can rely on Nerviline to cure me. It is reliable for rheumatism or neuralgia. Nerviline has no equal. It's priceless in any family. Nerviline is king over all pain and casts 25c.

There is no use arguing with the "Cleanliness is next to godliness."

Dirt and depravity go hand in hand.
This is just as true of the inside of the body as the outside. Constipation clogs the body and clouds the mind.
Constipation means that corruption is breeding in the body, poisoning the blood with its foul emanations, be-fogging the brain with its tainted exhalations. Constipation is the beginning of more diseases than perhaps any other single disorder. The consequences of constipation are legion. Headache, pain in the side, shortness of breath, undue fullness after eating, soreness of the extremities, nervousness, indigestion, lassitude, dizziness, malice, flatulence, and a score of other ailments are directly caused by constipation. Cure constipation and you cure its consequences. The quickest cure of this evil is obtained by the use of Dr. Pierce's injurious ingredients. The use of them does not breed the "pill habit."

JAPS' DISASTROUS DAY

January 10 a Whole Regiment Was Annihilated.

Manchuan, Jan. 13.—(Via Mukden.)—Jan. 10.—There has been no serious fighting for several days, though night skirmishes occur in the south. The most important action recently was that in which Captains Kuroki and Troitzki, with 75 Manchus, drove the Japanese out of the villages of Mizu and Tchangay and captured a large amount of forage at both places. Gen. Linewitch has been inspecting the whole front, finding that the men and supplies were in excellent condition.

On Jan. 10 a Japanese regiment advanced in the face of a furious fire from batteries and drove back the Russian outposts, who drew on the Japanese to a masked battery and later allowed them to come on suddenly, when the Russians opened a murderous fire, the infantry at the same time falling on the Japanese flanks. The Japanese regiment was almost completely annihilated and the remainder fled in wild disorder, leaving heaps of dead and wounded on the field. The Russians pressed the pursuit and took the Japanese positions at noon. At noon the Japanese bombarded Liaofentun and Liao-yatun and also Line Tree and Mogotod Hills, which they appear to be extremely anxious to capture.

COMBES WINS OUT BY 10

But He Has Decided to Resign With His Ministry.

After Rousing Debating in the French Chamber of Deputies the Crisis Ends in Sustained Ministry On Promise of Separation of Church and State, and Income Tax, Workingmen's Pensions, Etc.—Vote Was 280 to 270.

Paris, Jan. 16.—Premier Combes' Cabinet, weathered another storm after a session of the Chamber of Deputies, lasting until 1 o'clock yesterday morning, and secured a majority of ten on a motion supporting the declaration of the Ministry and approving the policy of the Government. The result was reached after a debate in which there were frequent violent altercations which threatened a free fight and, during the course of which an Opposition Deputy flourished a saucypan in the face of the Premier.

The majority, although not large, is considered sufficient to insure the retention of the Ministry. It was generally expected that the session of the Chamber of Deputies yesterday would culminate in the overthrow of the Ministry of Premier Combes and the floors and galleries were packed by persons who desired to witness the final struggle. The contest against the Ministry has been slowly gaining ground. The principal elements of opposition were first, those contesting the policy of Premier Combes for separation of church and State; second, those denouncing the Government's collection of secret reports regarding the lives of army officers, and third, those complaining of the tardiness of the Ministry in passing a law creating an income tax.

These various elements sapped the strength of the majority until Premier Combes on Saturday found himself confronted by rebellion in his own ranks. His speech in closing the three days' debate on the policy of the Government was a vehement defence of his Ministry and a denunciation of his detractors.

"They are the same men who sought to protect Esterhazy, who glorified Col. Henry, and who now seek to arouse the country on the pitch of attempting a 'coup d'etat,'" said M. Combes.

The Premier referred to the calumnies which had not spared his white hairs. He wished time to complete the work against the religious associations, he said it would proceed to consider the income tax, workingmen's pensions and the separation of church and State, but that the latter would be modified so as to avoid any spirit of intolerance. In closing, Premier Combes said:

"I hope the majority will be maintained in order to carry out this policy. If there is to be another Ministry, it will be one of reaction. The Chamber must choose between marching forward or lending itself to reaction."

The speech was interrupted by noisy demonstrations of applause and disapproval.

MM. Ribot and Bos attacked the Ministry, the latter declaring that M. Combes' policy was one of falsehood and disintegration. The Socialists endeavored to scale the benches to attack members on the opposite side of the Chamber, and amid cries of "Traitor," "Coward," "Assassin," the Premier temporarily suspended the session.

The violent scenes were renewed when the session resumed its sitting, and a preliminary vote showed the Government had a majority of fourteen. The decisive vote was given by MM. Ribot and Bos, who were attacking the Ministry, and the Government, and was adopted by a vote of 280 to 270.

Premier Combes Will Resign.

The Ministry of M. Combes, after emerging successfully from its bitter midnight struggle in the Chamber of Deputies, has decided to abandon the field while some portion of its prestige still remains, and has signified its intention of resigning. Official announcement of the resignation has not yet been made, but M. Combes has definitely stated his colleagues, and the termination of the Ministry after a tempestuous career of three years, only awaits the formal submission of the letters of resignation.

M. Combes considers that his departure will facilitate the realization of the program instead of interrupting it, since his successor will be able to unite the discordant elements which have become personally hostile to him.

It is considered that M. Combes' voluntary withdrawal will permit him to exercise a powerful and probably a decisive influence in the choice of his successor.

Owing to the death of Mme. Loubet the presentation of the resignation of the Ministers has been deferred until Wednesday morning. President Loubet will begin on the same afternoon consultations for the formation of a new Ministry.

M. Rouvier appears to be practically decided upon as the future chief of the Ministry, and it is understood that he has asked M. Delcasse and M. Berteaux to retain the Foreign and War portfolios respectively.

Mother of the President Dead.

Paris, Jan. 16.—Mme. Loubet, mother of the President, died at Marbois yesterday from congestion of the lungs, aged 92. The President's son, Paul, and other members of the family were at her bedside when she expired. President Loubet had expected to leave last evening for Marbois, but the announcement of the death of his mother came before he was able to depart. Mme. Loubet contributed much to the President's prestige, as she was a type of the simple, country class. The funeral will take place on Tuesday, and President Loubet will leave Paris today in order to attend. Many off-dials and members of the diplomatic corps have called at the Elysee Palace to express sympathy with the President.

POLITICS IN KINGSTON.

Mr. Pense Asks Queen's Students' Support On Strength of Government Grant.

Kingston, Jan. 16.—Seven hundred students of Queen's University were addressed on Saturday night in Convocation Hall by the candidates for the Provincial Legislature, E. J. B. Pense (Liberal member), and D. N. McIntyre (Conservative nominee). Mr. Pense based his claims for the suffrages of Queen's students primarily on the ground that, the yearly grant to Queen's University from the Ontario Government exceeded $30,000. He upheld the conduct of Premier Ross and his administration, adding that the alleged corruption within the party did not necessarily prove the Ross Government incapable of carrying on the affairs of the Province.

Mr. McIntyre was loudly cheered as he arose, and appealed to his audience as fellow members of his old time alma mater. Mr. McIntyre asked them to rise above the plea of Mr. Pense. A $30,000 grant should not be placed on a par with the well-known corruption and dissipated conditions by which Mr. Ross kept in power. The applause which at times forced Mr. McIntyre to stop speaking proved conclusively the course which the political feeling of the University is following.

Big Meeting in City Hall.

Crowded to the doors, the City Hall was the scene of one of the greatest political rallies ever held in this city. Dr. Ryan, president of the Conservative Association, presided. Rigney, J. H. Metcalfe, Donald McIntyre, the Conservative candidate, and J. J. Foy, K.C., and E. F. Clarke, M.P., of Toronto. Mr. Foy emphasized the immense importance of the present campaign, and said that the Conservatives were not one of the Conservative against Liberal, because the Ross party was not the Liberal party.

Mr. Clarke dwelt particularly on the moral side of the present contest, and compared the two parties with a fairness that left no doubt as to their comparative worth.

Mr. Henry Campbell-Bannerman Favors Freedom For Canadian Cattle.

London, Jan. 16.—A deputation convened by Mr. Pattullo, secretary of the Canadian Cattle Importation Association, has interviewed Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, M.P., Opposition leader, as to his attitude regarding the re-opening of British ports to Canadian cattle, which they would benefit both the agricultural and shipping interests. Replying, Sir Henry said as for himself he was in favor of Canadian cattle being admitted into this country, and had no idea the case for free trade was so strong. He hoped the public would understand the question, and he would do what he could to get the ports re-opened.

RECEPTION TO CLANCY

send men big enough. There is no position of trust so responsible. You cannot recover from the representative who breaks his pledge. There is no obligation so great.

I never said anything against any man personally. I never will. Perhaps I have been unfortunate in public life. If a mortgage is to keep men from running, only the man with debts paid and money in the bank has a right to the franchise. I leave these gentlemen who oppose me in undisputed possession of arguments of that kind. In going to ask the people for their support, I admit I have been unfortunate in public life.

I regret it. If I had it to do all over again I would be willing to make the sacrifice just as I have done in the past. Loud and prolonged cheers.

Mr. Ross had said of the corruption, "I didn't know it was done." There is no more dangerous doctrine than for a man not to know what was done in his interest. Laughter. How easy it is to make this excuse. Suppose a man is acting for a commercial concern in a position where a trustworthy man is required. The director finds the business getting down, the goods fitted away and stolen, but he is allowed to accumulate. It's no excuse to say "I have been bad" just as Mr. Ross confessed, "but I didn't know anything about it." How long would the directors keep such a man?

The very foundation of our system of Government is such that no man can plead, "I didn't know." If it were not so, responsible Government would be destroyed. Did Mr. Ross know such a man as Gammy? Did Stratton? Mr. Stratton made a bargain with Mr. Gammy. Mr. Stratton crystallized it into a contract. It was taken to Mr. Aylesworth, who looked into it. Mr. Gammy signed it. Mr. Aylesworth said, "You can sign

Our Suits and Overcoats are cut on the lines approved by fashion. They are made up with the greatest care by skillful artists, and are in every way, as perfect as we know how to make them. At present the chance to save several dollars on the price of an overcoat may appeal to you.

That chance is here with the coldest half of the winter yet to come. You have to see the coats to appreciate the reductions.

it, but I drop it." Gammy got his money, and the document was found—where? Not in Mr. Gammy's pocket, nor on the street, but in the private drawer of Mr. Ross—Cheer. But Mr. Ross says he didn't know. He could account for it in no other way than that it was a wicked Tory conspiracy. Some designing Tories got the key to the drawer, unlocked it, put the paper in the drawer, locked it, and put the key in Mr. Ross' vest.—Laughter. The poor man was victimized by the conspiracies of the Tories.

Mr. Ross now proposes to plead guilty. What does he hope for now? He says, "There will be not one ballot spoiled, as was the case in 1902." He hopes, after fifty per cent. of the Liberals have gone back on him, as Mr. McCoig said—51 per cent. since Mr. McCoig was also one of them.—Laughter.

Mr. Ross hopes these things will not happen again. "Not one ballot box will be tampered with, as in 1902." Did you ever hear such a confession? And he asks the electors to trust him under such conditions. Ross has forfeited public confidence. He has been living on his cheek for two years. What would a high minded man do? He would have said: "that a majority of over 7000 of the people were against him, and would have got out, instead of waiting to be kicked out—as Ross was on the 25th of January."

A high minded man would have handed over the seals of office. I came to make your acquaintance. If I did not, it would be impossible for me to serve you as I ought to. I may not have the honor of representing you in the Legislature (cries of "You will" and cheers) but I will have the good fortune of knowing many of you better than in the past. I hope to have the power to serve you in the future—and, if we are so fortunate as to put an end to the Ross regime, you can jubilate, whether you are Liberals or Conservatives. Liberals will have a greater reason even for exultation than Conservatives. They will have a more lasting and enduring reward in the consciousness that they have come forth and protected the name of a great party—Loud and prolonged applause.

"Three cheers for Clancy," cried several at once, and the audience united as one man to give Mr. Clancy, as he resumed his seat, three cheers and a hurrah.

The genial chairman delighted his hearers with another story to illustrate the imminent and unregretted departure of Ross. He concluded by calling on J. Milton Pike. "What's the matter with Pike?" was strenuously answered with "He's all right" and a storm of cheers.

MR. PIKE SPEAKS.

Mr. Pike delivered an able and telling address. He regretted the absence of opposition—especially the absence of Mr. McCoig and the Pulverizer.—Laughter. The Conservatives were arranging the Government on its record. It was not a matter of Mr. McCoig, but of the Government. It was a campaign where all ought to cast aside party prejudice and look to the straight issue. It was an important time for the good name of the country.

"The decision is with the people," the matter out. The more you reason the more willing you will be to vote for James Clancy—Cheer. We don't need to juggle with facts like the great magician, Hon. G. W. Ross. In the face of all that has been proven against him Ross dares the audacity to say that "Righteousness exalteth a nation." He asks us to "Remember Ross." Certainly, we'll remember Ross. I can see by the expression of your faces that you want honest government.

On one occasion Pulverizer Kerr himself said, in the last campaign, that the Ross Government ought to be turned out. (A voice: "Quite right!") When Mr. Shadd asked him about it at North Buxton, he dodged the question. Mr. McCoig had declined to meet Mr. Clancy on the platform. Mr. McCoig had never denied his statement that the Ross Government was a goner. At Quinn Dr. Sharr had stated publicly that before the Toronto convention he had thought they ought to be turned out. What took place at that gathering of officials and officers ought to be fought to a finish. That sounded all right, but a few days afterward they dissolved the house two years before its time, in order that the trial of Hon. A. G. MacKay, one of their ministers, which involved serious charges, might not be brought to a finish. The insincerity of the resolutions was manifest. There were acts against corruption already on the statute book—but when one man bought witnesses at $375 a time, he was rewarded with a job in England at $3,000 per annum. Then there was the McNeill confession. The government had sent down a criminal lawyer to speak for them—presumably because they were criminals.

The "Hon." Mr. Graham is able to tell a fish story that beats all the local fish stories of the fishing out of the drowned ballot boxes.—Laughter.

Mr. Pike proceeded to deal in scathing terms with the ballot box frauds, the cruises of the Minnie M., the government—which said they didn't condone corruption—condoning that on behalf of C. N. Smith by re-conviction. The Conservative government at Ottawa had punished the race, instead of punishing them off in an old country at $3,000 a year. He proceeded to discuss the school book question, and concluded by an earnest and eloquent appeal on behalf of Clancy and clean government.

The meeting closed with hearty and prolonged cheers for Clancy. What say the speakers, the chairman and the King? The splendid enthusiasm with which Mr. Clancy and his supporters were welcomed, and the many assurances of support which he received were a very gratifying evidence of the unanimity of those present in his cause and that of good government.

We often refer to the doctors. Why?

Because we make medicines for them. We give them the formula for Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and they prescribe it for coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption. We trust them; they trust us. Ask your own doctor about taking this medicine.
