DAMAGED LINENS

A Special Offering on Wednesday and Thursday

Months ago we placed an order with one of the Belfast Linen Manufacturers for Seconds—in Damask Table Cloths and Table Napkins. These seconds are not made to order, you have to wait until the manufacturer has accumulated them—sorted them out, here a cloth, there a few napkins—and it takes a long time before there is enough for a shipment. Our order has just come to hand, and a more worthy lot we never offered. In some instances we can't locate the damage at all, it is so slight. There is not a large lot, and they will sell rapidly, so to get first choice, be on hand Wednesday morning.

Damask Cloths
2 yds. by 2 1/2 yds. in good designs at $1.65, $1.70 and $2.15.

ESCAPE OF A MURDERER

Chartrand's Daring and Cunning Exit From Prison

GETS AWAY IN A YAWL

Kingston, May 9.—At 7 o'clock yesterday morning the discovery was made that Joseph Chalabran, alias Chartrand, the Sault Ste. Marie murderer, whose sentence of death was commuted to life imprisonment, because of alleged insanity, had escaped from the insane ward in the penitentiary.

The alarm was at once sounded and the country side is being searched for him. He had been in the prison two years. His mode of escape was cutting the iron bars in his cell, and also those of a window across the corridor.

A rope was available and he scaled the wall. The manner of his escape will be investigated, as it is thought he had confederates. The methods employed, too, were extremely cunning.

Chalabran cut two bars of his cell, also two bars on the window of the ward, three storeys above the ground level. Each cut is a clean one. Where he secured the steel-saw, the instrument used, is a mystery.

Put Dummy in Bed.
He secured the window sash cords and made his rope from them. So that his hands would not be blistered in sliding in the ropes, he tied it in sailor knots. The hook he used to throw to the coping of the wall, he made from the handle of the pall in his cell. This he covered with a piece of bed clothing in order to deaden the sound of "the clink" when the hook came in contact with the stone.

The west gate was the spot he selected for climbing over to freedom.

The guard on duty was James Peck. In the cell was found a dummy made of flower pots and other articles. The make up was sufficient to deceive any official. The watch clock was wound regularly, an indication that the guard was awake and alert. His rounds were made regularly.

"At 5 o'clock," said the warden, "the guard says he spoke to Chalabran. He means that he addressed the form in the bed in the cell. That was quite natural."

Takes to the Water.
It seems that after hopping from the wall on the west side, the convict cut loose the yawl of the schooner Marshall, loading stone at the prison wharf, and used it to propel himself over to Portsmouth. The yawl was not further used. It is thought that the convict has escaped by way of the water.

It is six years since a prisoner successfully got away. That convict hid in a building while the gang were marched back from the farm. He was never caught. It is a score or more of years since a convict got away from the inside. To get out generally requires aid. Chalabran left in his prison garb, a red and grey check.

Chalabran was found guilty of murdering Constable Irwin, who went to arrest him on a bank standing at Webbwood Station, not far from the Soo. He escaped, and had his liberty for several days, but in the man hunt that followed he was caught in a swamp.

The convicts were not allowed out of the cells yesterday. Deputy Warden O'Leary is dangerously ill with pneumonia.

Half French, Half Indian.
Chalabran, the escaped man, is half French and Indian. His original home was in Montreal, and then he drifted to Ottawa. After that he went up to the Soo. He found employment there as a trapper and combined that life with the one of a rough sailor.

One hundred dollars is offered as reward for his capture. Many men have been out all day looking for him, but no trace of him can be found. It is supposed that he is hiding in the woods in the vicinity, but he is so desperate a character that the greatest care is exercised, lest he may have fire arms, in which case he would use them without hesitation, as he did, with deadly effect, before.

The Italian Booth of the Fair of Nations are grateful to the Italian Consul at Montreal for the donation of $5 and to the Italian Emigration Society of that city for the gift of a similar sum.

SITE IS PURCHASED

New Isolation Hospital on Pine St. Will be Called "The Elms"—An Ideal Spot

The site for the new isolation hospital on Pine street was purchased yesterday and the necessary papers signed. The new hospital will be known as "The Elms" from now on.

The buildings which will be used for isolation purposes are situated on what was formerly known as the McDonald property. It was purchased from Mrs. Agnes Elizabeth Wemp, the recent proprietor of the estate, for the sum of $2,500.

The health authorities speak of the new site as an ideal one for the purpose. The property consists of seven acres of well-drained land, having the advantage of a city sewer which runs through it. The buildings are sound and adequate for the purpose for which they are required. The house consists of twelve rooms, and has a good barn in connection. The grounds are planted with plenty of shade trees, and can be beautified, and put in such shape as to make the surroundings most pleasant and cheerful. Altogether, the deal is looked upon as one that should be quite satisfactory to the city, and it reflects credit on those in whose hands was placed the charge of picking out the site.

HE WAS VERY THIN

Train Runs Over Geo. Burns But He Is Not Injured in the Least

Geo. Burns, of Ingersoll, formerly baggage master at London, was run over by the C. P. R. train at night, and only received a slight bruise on the hip.

The train, in charge of Conductor Stewart, left St. Thomas at five o'clock and passed through Ingersoll at about 5.50. Shortly after 6 o'clock, the engineer noticed a man lying in the middle of the track in a helpless condition and evidently asleep. The engineer did all possible to stop the train, but too late.

The entire train passed over the man, and as soon as the engine could be brought to a standstill, the crew went back and found the man walking toward them. The conductor put him in charge of a person who was to take him back home.

Out of curiosity the distance between the engine pilot and the ground was measured, and found to be eight and a half inches. Burns is a comparatively thin man, weighing about 135 pounds.

HAD A QUIET DAY

Minister Oliver Complains That It Would Take Years to Hunt Up Information Asked by Opposition.

Ottawa, May 9.—Hon. Frank Oliver in the House yesterday afternoon, computed that it would require at least ten years to bring down all the returns and information required from his department by members of the Opposition.

Mr. Monk (Jacques Cartier) said he was not surprised to hear it, as the papers were huddled together pell-mell, and in inconceivable disorder. The Department needed a new system.

Several Conservative members suggested "a new minister."

The House passed two Government bills introduced by Mr. Oliver. One extends the time preserving our few surviving buffalo from 1907 to 1912. Another enfranchises Jameson Webster Lewis, an Indian, of the Moravian band of the Thames, in the Province of Ontario.

Forest Reserves.
The House in committee discussed Mr. Oliver's bill, entitled "an act respecting forest reserves." The act sets apart certain Dominion lands in the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and British Columbia as Dominion forest reserves, under the control and management of the superintendent of forestry, for the maintenance and protection of the timber growing, or which may hereafter grow, therein, and for the protection, so far as the Parliament of Canada has jurisdiction, of the animals and birds therein, and the fish in the waters therein. No lands within the boundaries of the said reserves are to be sold, or otherwise disposed of, or be located or settled upon, and no person shall use or occupy any part of such lands, except under regulations prescribed by the Dominion Government. The lands reserved will aggregate 6,350 square miles.

Ottawa, May 9.—In the Senate yesterday, Hon. Mr. MacDonald of British Columbia, moved for a return of the business done in Canada by the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. The return was ordered.

GLIMPSE AT THE BOOTHS

Fair of Nations Promised to be an Unqualified Success

PICTURESQUE EXHIBITS

At the annual meetings of the Hospital Board, President Hugh Malcolmson, with characteristic modesty, invariably attributes the high standing of that noble institution to the energetic Ladies of the Assisting Society. There is no doubt that much of this credit belongs to these self-sacrificing women, who at all times have never missed an opportunity to enter into any scheme whereby the Hospital would be aided. Their present undertaking, The Fair of Nations, is the largest they have ever entered upon, and it promises to be by far the most successful.

The fitting up of the booths at the Rink is proceeding apace, and everything will be in readiness for the opening on Monday next.

THE ITALIAN BOOTH.
The first thing that will strike the eye on entering the Fair of Nations will be the welcome "Salve" above the entrance and the warm, "cave cavern" in the tiled vestibule of the Pompeian Villa, in which the Ladies of the Italian Booth will hold their exhibit. The booth will be a reproduction of the famous Villa of Caracalla at Rome in Rome, which was destroyed by the great eruption of Vesuvius in A. D. 79. White marble pillars, Greek vases, costly statuary and beautiful flowers will make the booth "a thing of beauty and a joy forever."

The ladies of the booth will sell refreshing grape juice, which aided so materially in invigorating the tired visitors to the Agricultural building at the St. Louis Exhibition two years ago. They will also have for sale Italian mosaics and jewelry, high class alabaster statuary and china, imported direct from Italy, in addition to confection, olive oil, olives, spaghetti, macaroni, etc.

The gentlemen of the booth, under the direction of Mr. Walter Seane, have about completed plans for the installation of a complete system of wireless telegraphy, the celebrated Marconi having graciously consented to permit of the same, and visitors to the Fair will be able for the first time in Chatham to communicate with their distant friends by means of this marvellous invention.

The Mandolin Club will furnish delightful Italian music each evening during the fair.

Mrs. W. E. McKeough is the convener and she is being assisted by Mrs. Robert Gray, Mrs. Bert Malcolmson, the Misses Rankin, Fleming, Dolven, Northwood, McLean, Brady, McLaren, Scott and Marjory and Muriel Massey, also by Messrs. Walter Seane, Harry Northwood, W. T. Shannon, Geo. Massey, Bert Malcolmson, Fred Stone, Alex. Chaplin, Herbert London and Willie Gray.

CANADIAN BOOTH.
Truly Canadian in its aspect, soberly decorated with appropriate bunting and flags, and divided into sections representing its different provinces, Canada's booth at the Fair will prove an irresistible attraction for the visitor.

The ladies will be attired in costumes characteristic of the provinces they represent, and they will occupy their time in serving the patrons with all classes of Canadian goods.

Donations to this booth have been plentiful, among the largest being a great basket of embroidery, lace, faces, trapperies, home-spuns and fancy goods, from the Canadian Handicraft Guild. The Wm. Gray & Sons Co. will give the ladies an opportunity to test their ability to sell a first-class buggy, allowing them a generous commission if they affect a sale, and the Deane Iron Works and McKeough & Trotter's will follow the same plan by supplying them with a motor launch from each factory to sell, while the Manson Campbell Co. will do the same with a Manson Campbell scale.

The Ladies of the "Maple Leaf" will be to the fore at the Fair with unusual vim and no visitor to the rink next week can afford to miss paying a long and liberal visit to the Canadian booth.

The enterprising ladies connected with the booth are, Mrs. W. J. Taylor, the convener, and the following assistants:—

Mrs. Joseph Hadley.
Miss Canada — Mrs. M. D. Purdue.
Ontario — Miss Alice Richards, Miss Fanny McKee.
Quebec — Mrs. W. W. Seane, Miss Garrett.

Manitoba — Miss M. J. O'Neil.
Miss Irene O'Neil.
Northwest — Miss M. J. O'Neil.

THE NEW FEATURE

Daily Pattern Service of Special Interest to Ladies—Has Been Established in The Planet

The Planet is publishing a special daily pattern service, which should be of particular interest to all lady readers of the Great Home Journal. The great objection to the usual weekly fashions appearing in most newspapers of this day is that they too often deal with dress and millinery that is altogether too expensive for the average newspaper reader. It may be pleasant to read about the creations of Paris modistes and milliners, but it is much more practical to know something about wearing apparel that is both up-to-date and not too expensive for the average purse. The daily pattern service, which is appearing in the columns of this paper, is a service of that sort. It should prove a winner with the ladies everywhere.

grown and the towers surmounted by flags. Its exterior appearance is as dignified and solid as its interior is inviting. The booth will be divided into two distinct sections, one part being a lunch-room and the other part the business portion.

The decorations of the booth will consist of old English paintings and engravings, which will be hung on the walls beneath a beautiful rose-patterned top border.

Pretty tables will be arranged in the lunch room at which dainty refreshments will be served, such as coffee and biscuits, tea and cake, hot English punch and sandwiches of an English nature.

The goods handled at the booth have nearly all been obtained from England and will include china, cutlery, mustard, starch, sauces, spices and a host of typical small wares, while the ladies have made a very large number of artistic and serviceable clothespin bags, aprons, towels and dusters, and they will offer these handy articles for sale at most reasonable rates.

No effort has been spared to make the booth a worthy representative of the leading nation of the world, and English visitors to the Fair will find the claims of the Motherland worthily upheld by this magnificent booth. The zealous ladies who have charge of the booth are: Mrs. S. F. Gardner, convener, and the following assistants, Messdames Shackleton, Robert Fleming, Hugh McDonald, O. L. Lewis, Steinhoff, Rutledge, Drader, John Piggott, N. Massey, A. W. Thornton, Bogart, Wm. Ball, Mounteer, H. King, Morley, Witherspoon, Hennessey, and Miss Scott.

THE ICELAND BOOTH.
Although the Iceland Booth at the Fair of all Nations will be the coldest corner of the rink, the visitor will be given a warm refreshment there. The booth will be the ice cream stall of the Fair and the ladies will serve all kinds of iced drinks, sundaes, sodas and fancy ices. The decorations of the booth will be thoroughly representative of the "land of snow," which it will typify. Realistic ices, specially manufactured for the booth by the Wallaceburg glass factory, will hang from the ceiling and, in company with unlimited quantities of glistening snow, will impart a delicious coolness to the air of this alluring refreshment room.

No goods, other than cake, ices, drinks and similar refreshments, will be offered for sale by the ladies, who will, no doubt, be kept very busy catering for the wants of their patrons.

All the ladies of the booth will wear simple, white costumes and the booth will appeal to all by reason of its inviting quiet and coolness. There is not the least doubt that the air of this alluring refreshment room.

The ladies of the booth will be of the busiest and successful of the whole Fair, and great praise is due to Mrs. Kingsmill and the following ladies for the way in which they have worked to make their exhibit a complete success. Assistants—Messdames E. B. Northwood and A. White, and Misses L. Northwood, Edith Northwood, Pearl White, Rutledge, Lamont, Irwin, Annie Carson, G. King, M. King, and Norma Shillington.

CABINET CHANGES.

Announcement is made of the retirement of Chief Justice Sir E. Taschereau on a pension equal to his full salary. It is expected that Mr. Fitzpatrick, Minister of Justice, will succeed him, and that Mr. Aylesworth will leave the Post Office Department to become Minister of Justice. This change will remove from the Cabinet the strongest colleague of the Premier, and the one has been of the greatest assistance to Sir Wilfrid in Parliament. Mr. Fitzpatrick easily commands the attention of the House and has helped the Premier out of many difficulties. He will be succeeded in the Justice Department by Mr. Aylesworth, who has helped the Premier into many difficulties.

THE THIN RED LINE.

A committee of the Commons, with Mr. Aylesworth in the chair, is revising the election and franchise laws. Bills amending existing Acts have been referred to this committee, which includes some of the leading lawyers in Parliament. It was thought that in order to find a remedy for election frauds the character of the offences should be understood. For that purpose witnesses and papers concerning the Red Line case were brought to the committee room. Here is the story as partly presented to the committee:

Previous to the general election of 1901 the printed list of voters for Selkirk constituency, Manitoba, was forwarded to the riding by the King's Printer. This list was posted in post offices and other public places, and was the only one seen by most of the electors before polling day. But when the polls opened it was found that the returning officers had been supplied with an official list, in which many names in the original document had been crossed out with a red line. At the Beauséjour poll 41 names had been marked off and transferred to other polls in the district. This red line list had been prepared and marked in the local Liberal committee room. Private notice was given to Liberals transferred to other polls, while Conservatives had no public or private information and went to the polls assigned them in the posted list. Ballots were refused them, but no one could tell them where they had a right to vote, even if there had been time to get to the place. At Beauséjour, according to Henry Gibson, who testified, the polling officer accepted the ballots conditionally, placing them in a separate envelope. When this envelope was opened it was found to contain sixteen Conservative and two Liberal ballots. The witness said that one Liberal had arrived from Ontario too late to be sent to the poll against him. The other vote was cast by a Conservative who made a mistake in marking his ballot. The twenty-three Liberals who had been transferred knew where to go and got in their votes at the proper place. Such was the information given to the elections laws committee. The attempt to follow up the inquiry was discreetly headed off by the Government supporters in the committee and by the Minister in the chair. They did not think it relevant.

Genuine and hearty expressions of sorrow came from both sides of the House when word arrived of the death of Hon. Peter White, the Conservative member for North Kennew, and former speaker of the Commons. It was the fortune of Mr. White to occupy the chair during a time of considerable stress, and members who were in the seventh parliament with him did not wait until their Speaker's death to say that he was a model presiding officer. He sat in six parliaments and was one of the old guard who surrounded Sir John A. Macdonald when he was in the Opposition. In his last parliament he was in the House of Commons.

GEORGIA MINSTRELS.

Twenty-eight years ago is a long time for one company to be on the road, and making nearly the same territory season after season, this is the record of Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels, who appear at the Grand to-night. The managers of Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels endeavor to advertise nothing but what they can show. They are in a class by themselves, being the only recognized negro minstrels that play the first class theatres and cannot afford to mislead their patrons. Some show people are careless in their statements. They become so used to writing biggest, grandest, greatest, best, and world's largest, that they can only think in superlatives. They mean to be honest, probably are. They are merely careless, and failure is the price of carelessness.

DESIGNED BY MARTHA DEAN.

LADIES' PLAIN SHIRT WAIST.

There have been so many requests for a new style shirt waist that is perfectly plain, and yet has all of the new lines and ideas, that we are showing one especially for our readers. The blouse is made with a few gathers at the neck which insure a good round bust outline. This style has been used by one house in New York as their staple for many years and although other houses have arranged the fulness of the moment, this particular house has always maintained that the fulness of a blouse should come from the neck and not from the yoke or shoulders. The sleeve is the new shirt waist style in modified French style with a very little fulness at the waist. The very little fulness at the waist, closing in under the broad box pleat in front, and may be effected by buttons, hooks, or fancy pins. Any material, whether of cotton or the finest silk, will be smart and effective if patterned after this model. 6265—sizes, 32 to 42 in bust measure.

WASTED LIVES IN CHATHAM

Men and Women Who Are in Need of a Helping Hand.

It is hard for those who are never ill or who have simply a sick day or week occasionally, to realize the wretched existence and wasted lives of those beset with chronic indigestion.

There is no more irritating or nerve-racking condition than that caused by a weak stomach. It gnaws and wears upon every nerve fibre in the body and results in sleeplessness, headache, backaches, rheumatic pains, furred tongue, distress after eating, poor appetite and general weakness and debility.

As we may look to a weakened stomach for most of the chronic or lingering ills that weaken and rack our lives, it is of the greatest importance to know that a remedy for stomach troubles is at last offered by the reliable drug firms in Chatham.

Knowing the formula of Mi-o-na, we feel that it will be successful in every case where it is used in accordance with directions, that is, one tablet before each meal.

A large box of Mi-o-na tablets costs but 10 cents, if it helps you; nothing unless it restores health.

If you cannot obtain Mi-o-na of your druggist, it will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. Write us for advice on your case from a leading stomach specialist which will be sent free. The R. T. Booth Company, Ithaca, N. Y.

DELAYED COMMISSION

Union Life Practically Refused to Produce Books.

Ridiculous Spectacle of Lawyer's Chronic "Kicking" Before Royal Insurance Commission—Dominion Counsel Had to Ask Commission to Demand That Books Be Produced and Judge MacTavish So Ordered.

Toronto, May 8.—At yesterday afternoon's session the royal commission on insurance was treated to a ridiculous spectacle when Mr. McLaughlin, counsel for the Union Life Assurance Co., the investigation of which has just commenced, and Pollman Evans, general manager of the company, practically refused to hand over certain books destined to throw light on the relation of the National Agency Co. to the Union Life.

Mr. McLaughlin, who has developed into a chronic "kicker" since the opening of the investigation in the morning, had objected to every move on the part of Mr. Shepley to obtain evidence from Evans.

It had reached the stage when the Dominion counsel asked the commission to demand that the books be produced.

Judge MacTavish ordered this to be done.

The books were sent for, which occasioned a delay of an hour.

Companies One and the Same.

The main point in the evidence was the fact that the Union Life Insurance Co. and the National Agency Co. were one and the same. Just before the commission rose, the tariff relation between the two companies was shown to be as follows:

The Union Life, incorporated in 1902, with the same directors as the National Agency Co., were to pay the National 50 per cent. on the weekly payments branch, 100 per cent. for the first year, and 30 per cent. for subsequent years on the general branch. In return, the National was to do all the canvassing for insurance, pay all the agency expenses, the repayment was to be made by the agency company that would have the effect of impairing the original capital ($100,000) of the Union Life Co.

Startling revelations may be forthcoming to-day, when the minutes of the promoters' meetings in connection with organization expenses will be investigated.

Burial of Hon. Peter White.

Pembroke, May 8.—Business was suspended, flags were flying at half-mast and the whole town turned out to do honor to the memory of Hon. Peter White, whose funeral took place yesterday afternoon. Friends from all over the country and the whole countryside paid a last tribute. Hon. William Patterson represented the Cabinet, N. W. Bowie, deputy sergeant-at-arms, the House of Commons' staff, and among others present were Senator Percy, W. J. Ingram, M. P., Dr. Daniel, M. P., and other prominent people of both political parties. Messages of sympathy and floral offerings were received from all over Canada.

Suicide on Wife's Grave.

It is now found that the body is that of Michael Willet, 73 years of age, who lived with a married daughter in this city. Willet's wife died twenty years ago and was buried in a Detroit cemetery. He visited her grave regularly, and it is believed that he shot himself while overcome with grief after spending several hours at his wife's grave.

Geo. Brown, which occurred in this city in 1880, Mrs. Brown, with her three children, returned to Edinburgh, her native city, where she has since resided. She was about 80 years of age.

"GOOD FAIRY OF THE HOME."

STORY OF A GREAT DISCOVERY.

A rich find was made in the land of the Pharaohs recently which throws light on the customs of the Egyptians of a very early period and reveals the fact that the people of that ancient era possessed many things strangely resembling those of modern times. In the valley of the excavations in the sacred tomb of the kings a tomb was found which proved to have a curious history. From the hieroglyphics on the mummy cases the archaeologists made out that the burial place was that of "Ioua, hereditary prince, chief friend and adviser of the king, the sovereign."

The tomb was in a state of much confusion. Mummy cases were broken open, coffin covers were left standing against the wall and the floor was covered with debris. The tomb was filled with vases, furniture and adornments scattered about in a haphazard way. It was the tomb of the father and mother of Tili, a queen of the eighteenth dynasty, about 1700 B. C., whose changing of the national religion caused upheaval.

BOTH FOOD AND MEDICINE.

We like best to call Scott's Emulsion a food-medicine. It is a term that aptly describes the character and action of our Emulsion. More than a medicine—more than a food, yet combining the vital principles of both. It is for this reason that Scott's Emulsion has a distinct and special value in all wasting diseases. There is nothing better to remedy the troubles of imperfect growth and delicate health in children. The action of Scott's Emulsion is just as effective in treating weakness and wasting in adults.

STREET SPRINKLING

Some of the people who live in flats in the vicinity of King St., are complaining vigorously of the manner in which King St. is sprinkled lately. They claim that the cart goes down one side of the street and the dust flies on the other side. When the cart comes down the other side the first side is dry, and as a result, dust is flying all the time. Complaints are coming in quite freely, as the tenants say they cannot hang anything out of their windows at all without having them covered with dust. The attention of the man who sprinkles the street should be brought to the matter.

CLEARED OFF THE PAPER

Legislature Accomplishes
a Vast Amount of Work

MR. BOWYER'S POSITION

Toronto, May 9.—A vast amount of work was accomplished in the Legislature yesterday. Hon. Mr. Hendrie's two railway bills, the Toronto General Hospital bill, the veterans land grants bill, Mr. Monteth's bill for the inspection of cheese factories, the Municipal Amendment Act, and the Soo guarantee bill were cleared off the paper and progress was made with several other important measures.

The Beck power bill was given a second reading without discussion, at the request of the Premier, who desired to get it to the committee stage. Mr. Ross asked that it be "carried on division." At the night session the anti-automobile legislators renewed their efforts to secure more stringent legislation in respect to the operation of motor vehicles. On the clause prohibiting the use of searchlights, the promoters of the bill sought to restrict the power of the headlights carried, and Mr. Hanna met the objections by inserting a provision prohibiting the use of what is known to the trade as searchlights.

Morning Sittings.
The Premier announced in the Legislature yesterday that on and after Thursday there would be morning sittings beginning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Ross agreed. It is hoped to finish the session this week.

Mr. McColl called attention to an article in a Chatham paper dealing with the ravages of the San Jose scale in the Kent district. If something was not done many orchards might be killed outright.

Hon. Mr. Monteth replied that inspectors of the department had been through the district and found that the people there had not been as active as they might have been. The question was simple, and it was their own fault if they did not take advantage of it.

Favors Sunday Cars.
On the third reading of Mr. Hendrie's bill respecting steam, electric and steam railways being referred back to committee, Mr. Bowyer raised the question of Sunday cars. This Government refused to grant charters to companies operating on Sunday, but they could go to Ottawa, and he did not see what was to be gained by withholding the privilege here. He did not care to divide the House, but he knew that many members would support a resolution in favor of Sunday cars. He also thought a clause should be inserted empowering the province to take over electric roads at the expiration of their charters. He quoted from the Globe on this line, which he said, were the identical words he had used some time ago. A clause giving such power could not possibly do any harm.

Not to That Point Yet.
The Premier said in reply that the Government had not yet got to the point when it desired to take over the roads indicated.
Mr. Bowyer: Just that you may.
Mr. Whitney: We don't propose to take the power.
There was no doubt that as time went on events might occur which would make it wise to do it. The Government might take the power and find that it was an unwise action. There was no use trying to settle the future of the world.

On the question of Sunday cars there was no doubt that a large majority of the public were not ready to take the position outlined by Mr. Bowyer.

Mr. Ross said it was wise to strike out the Sunday clause.
The Premier said the clause was inserted on the advice of a gentleman prominently connected with the Sunday Observance Association, but it was found that public opinion was against the privilege.

The bill was read a third time after some verbal changes were made, and Mr. Hendrie's second bill to appoint a railway and municipal board was also passed.

Hospital Bill Passes.
On the third reading of the Toronto General Hospital bill, Dr. Currie again registered his objection to the clause which prevents students receiving instruction in surgery from their own professors. The bill passed.
Dr. Payne's Public Schools bill amendments number three. Farmers' sons are to have the right to vote only if they have lived in the section for six months prior to the school election. In the territories, after a section has been organized an election may be held in a month and trustees will hold office for that part of the term and the next full term. Disputes as to alterations of boundaries of sections are to be settled by the county or district judge, and there may be no appeal except by leave of the high court judge, and then upon questions of law alone.

After several of the Opposition had complained that the Minister of Education had not supplied detailed information, showing how the sections would be affected by the bill, Dr. Payne went to his own defence, and said he believed that the bill would be found to be a move forward.

The bill will be read a third time on Thursday.

Third Readings.
Other bills read a third time were: To amend the act to provide for the appropriation of certain lands for the volunteers who served in South Africa, and the volunteer militia who served on the frontier in 1886 (Cochrane); to amend the Municipal Waterworks Act (Carroll); to amend the Town of Petrolia Manhood Suffrage Act (McGarry); to amend the act to prevent fraud in the sale of cheese and butter (providing for the exemption from taxation (Downing).

Amendment to the Municipal Act (providing for the exemption from taxation (Downing).

lunatic asylums. The second bill regulates the warrant system in respect to sending lunatics to jail. It is felt that under the present system it is altogether too easy to confine lunatics in jails.

What Is a Searchlight.
The strength of search lights led to a discussion of the motor bill. After discussion on the meaning of the term "searchlight," Mr. Hanna finally amended the clause that no motor vehicle shall carry what is known to the trade as a searchlight. "That will leave it to the justices of the peace to decide."

The second reading of Mr. Beck's power transmission bill was "carried on division." The Premier said it would facilitate business, and it could be discussed in committee.

The Assessment Amendment Act was further amended in committee.
The clause in the bill providing for the assessment of mineral rights severed from surface rights was struck out. It was too late to redraft the clause. Next year, Mr. Hanna said, the mining taxation bill would be put through.

LETTERS

WORKING HOURS.

To the Editor of The Daily Planet:
Sir,—In your issue of the 4th inst. I notice a letter from one signing himself "Pro Bono Publico," in which Pro Bono, etc., apparently wishes to advocate the system of holidays in vogue in England. That's it—an Englishman no sooner lands in our country than he starts in to tell us how they do things in England—of telling us how much better they do things in England. An Canada we are a law unto ourselves in these matters, and the sooner the Englishman learns to adapt himself to that law, the better he will get along. Mr. Pro Bono is a fellow who takes a little of this as to himself, sleep on it, and see if it isn't pretty nearly the truth.
Now, Mr. Editor, we have no desire to inaugurate any such wretched system of holidays as they have in England, where week-ends and public holidays are the bane of the working man who wants to make a little money. Why don't he lay off once in awhile and take a easy? No one will object to this, but they will strenuously object to any efforts on his part to agitate for more holidays than we have at the present time.
Thanking you for your space, Mr. Editor, I am,
Yours respectfully,
A. HARD WORKINGMAN.

ADJOURNED MEETING
The adjourned meeting of the Vestry of Holy Trinity Church was held in the school room on Monday night. The financial statement of the wardens was presented, showing the receipts for the year to be $2,550 and an increase of $370 over the preceding year. There has also been an increase in expenditure, the salaries of the organist and choir leader have been raised, the rectory fitted with electric light and granite walk, and other improvements made. The total floating debt against the church is now only about $400.

The reports of the work done by the several organizations of the church were also presented, showing that each one has raised a considerable amount of money by their respective work, making a total of nearly $3,000 raised for church purposes in the parish during the year. It was unanimously decided to increase the pew rents and to make repairs to the church rectory.

The new year starts the new year under most favorable prospects.

IT MAY END IN DIASTER

St. Petersburg, May 9.—The danger of an early conflict between the Government and Parliament has been greatly increased by what has happened within the last twenty-four hours. The good impression produced by the official intimation of the new Premier that the Emperor and the Government were sincerely desirous of working in harmony with Parliament, which was accepted in good faith by the leaders of the Constitutional Democrats, enabling them to counsel moderation has largely been dissipated, and in its place the old feeling of mistrust has been revived. The Liberals are utterly stunned in view of the semi-official assurances on the subject, by the unexpected promulgation late Monday night of the obnoxious fundamental law in a slightly modified form. An article exempting crown lands from taxation and expropriation, and another reserving the power of amnesty for political prisoners to the Emperor, run counter to the already expressed will of the majority and are now bound to produce a clash.

Meeting Dispersed By Police.
The indignation aroused by the Emperor's attempt to build an artificial dyke around the prerogatives of the crown has been intensified by the astounding action of the police Monday night in dispersing a meeting of some members of the lower house of Parliament and of the upper house, or new council of the empire, at the hall of the Economical Society.

Another Outrage.
As if these incidents were not sufficient to excite the members of Parliament, the local authorities with a false genius for blundering, inflamed the working classes Monday. Without warning they ordered many of the leaders of the workmen to leave the city. They were not even given time to remove their families. This is denounced as an attempt on the part of the Government to bring about a strike on the eve of the assembling of Parliament for the purpose of provoking a struggle and under cover of the disorder to dissolve Parliament.

Safeguarding the Czar.
In order to safeguard the Emperor in his passage up the river on Thursday, the time of his arrival and departure is being kept a dead secret. The Nicholas Palace, bridges, through draws of which the imperial yacht must pass, will be closed to traffic from daylight of Thursday until the departure of the Emperor.

The general public will not even be admitted to a long distance view of the yacht. Admission to points along the river front will be by ticket only.

Nearly Bayoneted.
Troops and the police dispersed another meeting of the Economical Society last night. Several members of the national assembly, who protested against the disposal of the meeting, narrowly escaped being bayoneted.

May Extradite Gorky.
Moscow, May 9.—In addition to the accusation against Maxim Gorky of engaging in a political propaganda, the procurator has charged him with participating in the December uprising here, and it is rumored that his extradition from the United States will be asked for.

Jewish Exodus.
Odessa, May 9.—Although Jewish emigration to South Russia decreased during the last two months, it still averages upwards of a hundred daily from Odessa alone.

Another Fish Seizure.
Niagara Falls, Ont., May 9.—At an early hour yesterday morning Overseer of Fisheries Shelley made another seizure of fish on arrival of M. C. R. train, 14. One box was seized.

BLOODLESS GIRLS

Can Obtain New Health Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Anemia means bloodlessness. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new, rich, red blood and thus cure anemia. When the blood is poor the nerves are starved and irritable. Then comes hysteria, neuralgia, sleeplessness and other nerve disorders. Headaches, backaches and side-aches wear out and depress the poor victim. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills bring ruddy health and lively vigor. They soothe the nerves and give new strength to every organ. Miss Winnie Allen, Montreal, says: "I was so weak and run down that my friends thought I was going into consumption. I was as pale as a corpse, had no appetite and did not sleep well. The least exertion tired me out, and if I walked a few blocks I would be almost breathless. My sister advised me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after using them for a few weeks I am again enjoying good health, and have good color. I think every weak girl should take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure any case of bloodlessness just as surely as they cured Miss Allen. The pale anemic needs only one thing—new blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make new, rich blood with every dose. That is why they cure all common diseases, like anemia, indigestion, neuralgia, palpitation of the heart, headaches and backaches. St. Vitus' dance, partial paralysis and the secret troubles that make the lives of thousands of women miserable. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
