Articles of Association of the Terminal City Club, Limited

(Consolidated for convenience only, to March 31st, 1915).

Entrance Fee.

1. Every person elected to membership of the Club shall forthwith subscribe and pay for one $25.00 non-assessable share in the Terminal City Club, Limited, such share not to be transferable and to be forfeited if and whenever the holder ceases to be a member of the Club. Every person elected to membership shall pay forthwith, by way of further entrance fee, a sum of $175.00, or such other sum as the Club in General Meeting may prescribe; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything hereinbefore set out, a manager or officer of a bank, corporation or firm may apply for membership in the Club as such manager or officer, and in case of his election to membership, shall be entered on the list of members and on the share register as such manager or officer, and any such membership and share may from time to time (if it should be proven to the satisfaction of the Directors that the holder thereof is not indebted to the Club and is in good standing as a member thereof, and has ceased, or is about to cease, to be such officer or manager) be transferred without further payment for entrance fee or share to another manager or officer of such bank, corporation or firm, who has been duly balloted for and elected as a member of the Club, and such other manager or officer shall thereupon be entered as such upon such list of members and share register; provided further, however, that any such last-mentioned membership shall cease and any such last-mentioned share shall revert to the Club at the expiration of eight years from the date when the original applicant for same shall have been elected a member, but in computing such period of eight years, there shall not be reckoned any period of time during which there shall be no use made of such membership by reason of any proposed transferee of same not having been duly elected as a member and the holder of same having ceased to avail and continuously refrained from availing himself of the rights and privileges of such membership and of the Club.

Election to Membership.

2. Candidates for membership shall be balloted for on Saturdays. Every such candidate must be nominated by one member and seconded by another, and must have lived within the province at least four months. The name, address and calling of the candidate and the names of the proposer and seconder must be submitted to the Directors, and by them be posted upon the Notice Board for at least seven days before the ballot. The ballot box shall be kept open from 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., and the Directors shall make such regulations as may be necessary for the protection and management of the ballot. If any candidate has less than twenty-five votes in his favor, the ballot shall (but as to such candidate only) be null. One black ball in seven shall exclude. The result, election or non-election, shall be immediately declared, but no other particular shall be given except in case of deficiency of number of votes.

Age Limit.

3. No candidate shall be eligible for election to membership unless he shall have attained the age of twenty-five years.

Ballot.

4. The minutæ of the mode of balloting shall be at the discretion of the Directors.

Unsuccessful Candidates.

5. An unsuccessful candidate, excepting one who may have failed to receive twenty-five votes in his favor, shall not be proposed a second time until six months shall have elapsed from the date of the first ballot, nor shall he be proposed a third time until six months from the date of the second ballot.

Notification.

6. On the election of a new member, the Secretary shall notify him and furnish him with a printed copy of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Terminal City Club, Limited, and of the House Rules of the Club, and he shall be required to remit the amount of the entrance fee and subscription to the Secretary before he shall enjoy the privileges of the Club, and such fees shall be paid within thirty days from election, otherwise his election shall be null and void.

Cancellation of Membership.

7. The Directors may cancel the election of any member at any time within twelve months of the day when the member pays the entrance fee as hereinbefore provided, without assigning to such member the reasons for such cancellation, and the non-assessable share held by such member shall thereupon be forfeited to the Club, but all sums paid by such member by way of further entrance fee or for subscription, shall be refunded to him.

Resident and Non-Resident Members.

8. Members shall be divided into three classes, viz.: Resident, Country, and Non-Resident Members. Resident Members shall be those who reside, or have a place of business, within the limits of the City of Vancouver, or within a radius of fifteen miles from the Club premises. Country Members shall be all other members who reside within the Province of British Columbia. Non-Resident Members shall be those who reside outside of the Province of British Columbia.

Subscription.

9. The annual subscription payable by the members shall be:

- 1st—Resident Members, $60.00, payable in equal instalments quarterly in advance, on the first day of January, April, July and October.
- 2nd—Country Members, $20.00, payable in advance, on the first day of January in each year.
- 3rd—Non-Resident Members, $10.00, payable in advance, on the first day of January in each year.

All members hereafter elected shall commence paying their subscriptions for the unexpired period of the current quarter or year, from the day they are elected. Provided that if a member change his residence so that instead of being a Non-Resident Member, he becomes either a Resident Member or a Country Member, or instead of being a Country Member, he becomes a Resident Member, then such member shall only be entitled to continue membership of the Club on his paying such additional sum for entrance fee as will, with the sums already paid by him on account of entrance fees, make the amount he would have paid had his residence at the date of his election been that which he has now taken.

Mercantile Marine Members.

10. Any officer of the mercantile marine trading to foreign ports, who has been balloted for and elected in accordance with Article 2 (save that it shall be unnecessary to post his name as a candidate for more than three days), shall be entitled to the privileges hereinafter defined of a Mercantile Marine Member. The subscription payable by such member shall be $3.00 a quarter, payable in advance on the first day of January, April, July and October in each year.

Privileged Members.

11. Any officer of the regular Army or Navy of any recognized country, being on active service or on temporary leave of absence from his corps or ship, or any person holding military or civil appointment under the Imperial or Dominion Governments, residing temporarily within the province, and who has been duly proposed and seconded by two members, and whose name has been posted on the Notice Board for at least three days previous to his admission as a Privileged Member, may be admitted by the Directors as a Privileged Member. During such membership he shall pay a subscription of $5.00 a month, payable in advance on the first day of each month.

Temporary Members.

12. The Directors shall have the power of admitting as a Temporary Member any person not residing within a radius of fifteen miles from the Club premises in Vancouver, who has been duly proposed and seconded by two members, and whose name shall have been placed on the Notice Board for at least three days previous to his admission as a Temporary Member, for a period of one month and not exceeding three months, and such Temporary Member shall pay in advance a subscription at the rate of $10.00 a month; provided, however, that at the discretion of the Directors, the said period of three months may be extended to six months.

Visitors.

13. Members may bring visitors to the Strangers' Room only, at any time without registering them. The privileges hereinafter defined may be extended on the introduction by a member or members of the Club, to any resident of the City of Vancouver for a period not exceeding seven days in any one year. The said privileges may be extended, on the introduction by any member or members of the Club, to a person not residing within the City of Vancouver, for a period not exceeding fourteen days in any one year. Provided that when the said privileges have been extended to a visitor for seven or fourteen days, as the case may be, such visitor shall not be entitled to the said privileges as a visitor on the introduction of the same or any other member until one year shall have elapsed from the date when such seven or fourteen days, as the case may be, shall have expired. Every member introducing a visitor under this Article shall be responsible for any debt incurred by him to the Club. No member may introduce as a visitor to the Club any resident of the City of Vancouver on Civic, Dominion and Provincial election days, or on any Saturday after 10 o'clock in the evening.

Privileges of Certain Members and Visitors.

14. Mercantile Marine Members, Privileged Members, Temporary Members and Visitors shall have and enjoy all the privileges and advantages of the Club except those of voting or taking part in any ballot, holding office or introducing candidates for membership or visitors. No such member or visitors shall be entitled to have his cheque cashed, nor will his I. O. U.'s be received.

Retirement.

15. Any member, Resident or Non-Resident, Mercantile Marine, Privileged, Temporary, or otherwise, whose subscriptions and dues are all paid, may resign his membership of the Club by letter addressed to the Secretary, and thereupon such member shall cease to be a member of the Club, but he may be re-admitted by the Directors upon his assigning to them such reasons as they consider satisfactory and upon his fulfilling such conditions as they may impose.

Default.

16. If any member fails to pay his dues other indebtedness to the Club within fifteen days after the same become due, his name shall be posted forthwith on the Notice Board. If the indebtedness remain unpaid for thirty days longer, the member in arrears shall be suspended until all indebtedness is paid, and he shall be notified forthwith, by post, of his suspension. Should he fail to pay all moneys due within thirty days after such notice is sent, the Secretary shall report the fact to the Directors, who may cause his name to be erased from the list of members, and thereupon he shall cease to be a member of the Club; but he may be re-admitted by the Directors upon his assigning to them such reasons as they consider satisfactory for his failure in payment, and upon his fulfilling such conditions as they may impose.

Annual Meeting.

17. An Annual General Meeting shall be held once in every year on the fourth Saturday in January in each year, at the Club premises, and at such time of the day as may be determined by the Directors.

Extraordinary General Meeting.

18. The above-mentioned General Meeting shall be called the Ordinary General Meeting; all other General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, and they shall, whenever requisitioned in the manner prescribed by Section 2 of the Companies Act Amendment Act, 1904, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company.

Notices of General Meeting.

19. Ten clear days' written notice at the least, specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting, and the general nature of the business to be transacted, shall be given in manner hereinbefore mentioned, or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Club in General Meeting, to members holding shares of the Terminal City Club, Limited, and such notices to be posted on the Notice Board. The non-receipt of the notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings or any resolution passed at any General Meeting.

Service of Notices.

20. The notice may be served by the Club upon any member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid envelope or wrapper addressed to such member at his registered place of address. Any notice sent by post shall be deemed to have been served on the day following that on which the envelope or wrapper containing the same is posted, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope or wrapper containing the notice is correctly addressed and put into the post office.

Notice of Motion.

21. All motions to be made and all propositions to be considered at a General Meeting of the Club, either emanating from the Directors or from individual members, shall be posted on the Notice Board for a week previous to such meeting, and shall be duly signed by the proposer and seconder, and such posting shall be sufficient notice that they are to be so moved or considered.

Quorum.

22. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting except a quorum of twenty members be present in person. If within one hour from the time appointed for a meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place; and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, it shall be adjourned sine die.

Chairman at General Meetings.

23. The President, and, in his absence, the Vice-President, shall preside as Chairman at every General Meeting of the Club. If neither the President or Vice-President be present within fifteen minutes after the time for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose some one of their number to be Chairman of such meeting.

Adjournment.

24. The Chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

Votes.

25. Every member holding a share in the Terminal City Club, Limited, shall have one vote at General Meetings of the Club, but no member shall be entitled to vote unless all subscriptions and dues owing to the Club by him have been paid.

Voting at Meetings.

26. At all General Meetings of the Club all questions shall be decided by a majority of votes cast by the members present in person. All voting shall be open and by a show of hands, except for the election of President, Vice-President and Directors, which shall be taken by ballot or in such other way as the Club in General Meeting shall prescribe.

Casting Votes.

27. The Chairman of the meetings shall have a casting vote in addition to his own vote.

Board of Directors.

28. The Board of Directors of the Club shall consist of twelve members (ten elective and two ex-officio) holding shares in the Terminal City Club, Limited, or such other member as the Club in General Meeting shall determine.

Election of Directors.

29. The Directors shall be elected in the following manner:—

Written nominations shall be handed to the Secretary not later than ten o'clock p.m. on the Saturday next preceding the Ordinary General Meeting held in January in each year; such nominations shall be posted on the Notice Boards of the Club and a printed list of the names in ballot form shall be furnished to each member present at the Annual Meeting, who shall use the same as a ballot paper by marking a cross opposite the names of each of the ten members whom he desires elected. Such ballot papers shall then be collected and the votes counted by two scrutineers appointed by the Chairman of the meeting. The ten members having the highest number of votes shall be Directors for the ensuing year.

President and Vice-President.

30. The President and Vice-President shall be nominated and elected in the same manner as Directors are nominated and elected, and shall be ex-officio Directors.

Board Meetings.

31. The Directors shall meet together for the dispatch of business the first and third Wednesday in each month, or more frequently if they shall think fit, and at such place and hour as they shall think advisable, and they may adjourn at pleasure. Five shall be a quorum for the transaction of business, and all questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes, and in case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote in addition to his own vote as Director. A Director may at any time summon a meeting of the Directors.

Chairman of Board Meetings.

32. The President of the Club, and, in his absence, the Vice-President, shall be the Chairman at all Board meetings. In the event of neither the President nor the Vice-President being present, the Directors shall elect someone of their number present to be Chairman of such meeting.

Retirement of Directors.

33. The Board of Directors shall go out of office at the Annual General Meeting held in January of each year, or when their successors are appointed. Any retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election. If the President, Vice-President or any member elected to serve on the Board, shall resign, or should a vacancy occur by death or otherwise, or should any member of the Committee have ceased to attend the regular meetings of the Board for a period of three months consecutively, the Board shall have power to choose a qualified member to act in his stead until the Annual Meeting next ensuing.

Removal of Director.

34. The Club may, by extraordinary resolution, remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office.

Powers of Directors.

35. The government and administration of the affairs of the Club shall be vested in the Directors, and the said Directors shall have full power to make such rules and regulations, from time to time, as they think fit, not inconsistent with these Articles. The Directors may, from time to time, appoint committees consisting of one or more members of their body, as they think fit, and may delegate any of their powers to such committees, and may, from time to time, revoke the same, and may discharge any of such committees wholly or in part. Any committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may be imposed upon it by the Board. The President shall be an ex-officio member of all committees. Any committee so formed may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Questions arising at any meeting of such committee shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

Employees.

36. All officers, employees and servants of the Club shall be appointed and discharged by the Directors, who shall also fix their duties and remuneration, if any. No paid officer or servant of the Club shall be a member of the Club.

Accounts.

37. The Directors shall cause true accounts to be kept:

- (a) Of all the transactions of the Club;
- (b) Of all sums of money received and expended by the Club, and the matter in respect of which such receipt and expenditure takes place;

(c) And of the credits and liabilities of the Club.

The Directors shall lay before the Club, at the Ordinary General Meeting held in January in each year, a statement made up to the previous 31st of December, showing the income and expenditure of the Club in the past year, and showing under the most convenient headings, the state of the Club's accounts, its assets and its liabilities.

Audit.

38. Once at least in every year the accounts and books of the Club shall be examined, and their correctness ascertained, by one or more Auditor or Auditors. Such Auditor or Auditors shall be appointed annually by the Club at its Annual General Meeting held in January in each year. The Auditors must not be members of the Club. Any Auditor shall be re-eligible on his quitting office. If any casual vacancy occurs in the office of any Auditor, the Directors shall forthwith appoint an Auditor to hold office until the next Annual General Meeting. The Directors and Secretary and other officers of the Club shall offer every facility to the Auditors in their inspection of the accounts and books of the Club. The Auditor or Auditors shall make a report to the Club at the Annual General Meeting, held in January of each year, upon the books and accounts and the general state of finances of the Club.

Increase of Capital.

39. The Directors may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Club previously given in General Meeting, increase its capital by the issue of new shares, such aggregate increase to be of such amount, and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts, as the Club in General Meeting directs, or, if no direction is given, as the Directors think expedient.

Members Trading with Club.

40. Any Director, either individually or as a member of a partnership, or as a shareholder or director of a company or corporation, may, notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary, contract with the Club, either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, or act as agent for the company or be interested in any operation, undertaking or business undertaken or assisted by the company, or in which the Club is interested, and no such contract or arrangement shall be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Club for any profit realized by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such Director holding that office or of the fiduciary relation thereby established, but it is declared that the nature and extent of his interest must be disclosed by him at the meeting of the Directors at which the contract, arrangement or undertaking is determined, if his interest then exists, or, in any other case, at the first meeting of Directors after the acquisition of his interest, and that no Director shall, as a Director, vote in respect of any such contract or arrangement in which he is so interested as aforesaid, but this declaration may at any time or times be suspended or relaxed to any extent by a General Meeting. No member shall, on any pretence, receive any salary or other emolument from the funds of the Club.

Receipts.

41. Receipts signed by the Secretary shall be a sufficient discharge for all moneys due and paid to the Club.

Complaints.

42. Any complaint or suggestion must be made in writing in the Suggestion Book and signed by the complainant, or by letter to the Secretary, and any such complaint must be specially noticed by the Directors at their next meeting. The Directors shall not be called upon to take notice of any verbal suggestion or complaint.

Misconduct.

43. If any member be guilty of conduct, either inside the Club or elsewhere, which, in the opinion of the Directors or of any ten members who shall certify the same in writing, is detrimental to the character or interests of the Club, the Directors shall summon such member to appear before them to explain his conduct, and if he neglects to appear before the Directors, or, having appeared, shall fail to satisfy the Directors, they may suspend such member from the privileges of the Club for a period not exceeding two months, or the Directors may call an Extraordinary Meeting of the Club to consider the matter; and it shall be competent at such meeting, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present thereat, to suspend or expel such member from the Club.

Affiliation with Other Clubs.

44. The Directors shall have power to affiliate with other Clubs upon such terms and conditions, and may grant such privileges to members of such other Clubs as they think in the best interests of the Terminal City Club; provided, however, that they shall not grant the privilege to a member of such Club of introducing any person either as visitor or member of the Terminal City Club.

Dividend.

45. The Directors may, with the sanction of the Club in General Meeting, declare a dividend to be paid to the members holding shares in the Terminal City Club, Limited. The Directors may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Club such sum as they think proper as a reserve fund to meet contingencies or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining the property of the Club; and the Directors may invest the sum so set apart as a reserve fund, upon such securities as they may select. The Directors may deduct from the dividends, payable to any member, all such sums of money as may be due from him to the Club on account of entrance fee, subscription and other dues.

Borrowing Powers.

46. The Directors may, from time to time, at their discretion, raise or borrow any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, and may secure the payment or repayment of such moneys in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as they think fit, but so that the amount at any one time owing in respect of moneys so raised, borrowed or secured, shall not, without the sanction by a resolution passed by the said Terminal City Club, Limited, in General Meeting, exceed the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00); nevertheless, no lender or other person dealing with the Company shall be concerned to see or inquire whether this limit is observed.

HOUSE RULES

1. The Club shall be open every day from 7:30 a.m. until 1:00 a.m., and the lights shall be turned off at 1:00 a.m., except on Sundays, when the hours shall be from 8:30 a.m. until 12:00 p.m., and the lights shall be turned off at 12:00 p. m.

2. No dogs shall be permitted on any part of the premises.

3. No games of chance shall be permitted in the Club, except such as are authorized and approved by the Directors, who are also to have power to fix the limits of all stakes at any game played in the Club.

4. No letter or communication for any newspaper shall be dated from the Club, nor shall the address of the Club be used for any advertisement.

5. No notice or advertisement shall be posted up or published in the Club, except such as are countersigned by the Secretary and sanctioned by the Directors.

6. All communications are to be addressed to the Secretary.

7. No member is to chide or in any way find fault with a servant, but any member may report any servant to the House Committee, through the Secretary, who shall deal with the case and announce the result.

8. No member shall give any gratuity to any servant of the Club, and the receipt of any such gratuity shall render the servant liable to immediate dismissal without notice.

9. Any member breaking or damaging any article shall replace the same or pay the cost thereof to the Club.

10. No member shall, under any pretext, remove from the Club premises any book, paper or other article belonging to the Club, except in accordance with the House Rules.

11. No one but a member, or an introduced or temporary member, shall, on any pretext, be admitted into the Club rooms, or supplied with any refreshments, or allowed to use or enjoy any of the privileges of the Club; provided, that any member may bring a friend or friends into the visitors' room, but such friend or friends may not buy any refreshments, or use any other room unless registered as a visiting member or members. If any member shall procure the admission of any stranger contrary to the above rule, the Steward or other servants are strictly ordered to draw the attention of such member to this rule, and to report the same forthwith to the Secretary or to one of the Directors. Should a member infringe this rule a second time, he shall, at the discretion of the Directors, be liable to expulsion from the Club.

12. No member, being in arrears of any payment to the Club, shall be allowed to retire from membership without the sanction of the Directors.

13. No sectarian or political discussion or demonstration shall be permitted in the Club.

14. No person in the service of His Majesty's Army or Navy or Diplomatic Service, or in the Army or Navy or Diplomatic Service of any foreign power, or in the Militia of Canada or any other country, or in the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, under the rank of a commissioned officer, nor any member of any band or other organization or service, while in uniform, may be introduced as a visitor to the Club.

15. No liquors or refreshments of any description are to be served to members or guests in the Reading Room.

16. The Secretary shall have general control and superintendency of the Club under the Directors.
