Judge Lynch

The pastime indulged m by the Citizens of the United States, particularly of the South, of lynching any one against whom there is any charge of crime, is still carried on. California has escaped for several years these exhibitions of mob violence, and her people had come to the conclusion that the reign of Judge Lynch has ceased withia her borders, but the recent lynching of five men and that for petty theft, will cause the blush of shame to mantle the check of California's proud citizens and convince them that mob violence is not confined entirely to the South Lynching can rarely if ever be justified under the most exasperating causes of provocation. But in the case of the se five men, no cause what The pastime indulged in by the Insurance company of Hauftax, spent fied under the most exapperating factures of provocation. "I am an old woman, nearly eighty years of age. Sometime ago I fell and injured my hip. I was after-wards troubled with Sciatica; at times my sufferings were intense; I could not get about my room without the aid of a pair of crutches. I tried many remedies; none did me any good; some of them made me worse. At last I read ot Egyptian Rheuma-tic Oil and tried that. I am happy to say that it has given me great re-Sovereign Howdy V Your gray LimeJuice morning.
