the lands remained a witness against the usurpers; and to remove these witnesses out of the wey, a partial escheat was thought of, which my obstinacy prevented.

It is twenty years since I gave my opinion publicly, that the tenantry ought to have been settled in the same manner as the like persons have been settled by the Crown; and my opinion was well known when I took my seat in the House of Assembly. It was then I was invited to a private meeting, which had for its object a partial Escheat. It was unde to appear at that meeting, that there were several townships without any land agent to represent them, and squatters were taking the land, without any authority, and consequently setting a very bad example to the tenantry and others who bought their lands. That there were many of the most respectable people well entitled to a grant of land, but the government had caracely any crown lands at their disposal; and if I would give up my own views, be guided by them, and go for a partial Escheat, I would come in for a share of the land.

To obtain this partial Escheat, it became, necessary to enact a law for that express purpose: the enactment was to make new conditions of forfeiture, which were not meant in the grants to be a forfeiture; and to overlook those conditions, which the grants themselves declared to be a forfeiture, and in the re-granting of the lands, the government were not to be limited as to the quantity of land to be granted to one person; nor were they to be fattered with any conditions for settlement or improvement. The parties who were expecting new grants, were men who were not likely to improve the land themselves, but they expected large tracts of land to let on lease, or to sell to the agricultural people at the lighost price which could be obtained; and thereby to sanction by she anactment of the Legislature and the Government the impositions of the neurpers upon the agricultural inhabitants. And instead of being a boon to the colony, it was intended as a bribe, to stop the mouth of those wh

I have never sought for any Eacheat but this, that a court should be appointed to try the grants by their own conditions. I could not have had the rents reduced to six-pence an acre by any arrangement with Gov. Fitzroy, any such arrangement would have been compromising a crime. It is now in the hands of a Responsible Government, and it is to be hoped they will not disappoint the

Company.

The Third Annual General Meeting of the above Company took place at the Town Hall, in Charlottetown, on Friday evening, the 23d inst., at Seven o'clock, pursuant to notice published in the several newspapers.

The President having taken the Chair, called on the Secretary to read the notice convening the meeting.

The Secretary having read the advertisement which gave notice that the meeting was the Annual General Meeting of the Company, for the appointment of Officers for the current year, and other purposes,

The President then requested the Secretary to read the Report, which is as follows:

The Annual General Meeting of this Company affords the Directors the pleasure of meeting the Proprietors for the Third time since its institution. Three years have passed over since the formation of this Society, and the kind hand of Providence has protected it against any loss whatever.

The Capital of the Company, therefore, continues to increase it Amount, as it increases in years, stendily stretching forth its protection over house after house. And the Directors look firward, in hopes of yet seeing, the owner of every house in Town protected from the effects of that direful element, that has so frequently, in other countries, in the course of a few short hours, deprived hundreds and thousands of all they possioned. The Directors, however, cannot help expressing their surprise and regret, that in a comparatively wooden Town like this, there should exist such a degree of apathy among its inhibitants generally with regard to Fire Insurance; the Directors believing that at this day there is five over on-chird of the buildings in Town Insured in any amount! The Directors relieves the surprise and regret, because they feel well assured that it is not the want of means of paying the trilling sum of three or four pounds yearly, as Premiums, that prevent the owners of property from Insuring, but a degree of carelessness and want of thought, stributable in consequence of Fires havin or proprietors of property, but could afford, say, from Three to Four Pounds a year? Consider then, that sum would keep from Three to Four Hundred Pounds, that sum would keep from Three to four Hundred Pounds, that the Funds of the Company continue steadily to increase, and that they have already saved some few hundred Pounds, that would otherwise have been sent out of the country. Yet the Directors regret that this Institution is not still more encouraged. Had even two thirds of the owners of property in Charlottetown united, and joined this Company, at its commencement, it would already be in a position that would justify the Directors in reducing the future premiums to one-half what is charged by all other Companies. Consider then the advantage that might, by this time, have been derived in this Company over others. To those careful persons, who keep large sums insured, the Directors would say: Insure rate in this Company, and the remainder in another, until you are satisfied the Capital accumulated is sufficient to justify your Insuring the whole.

The Directors have to observe, that at the close of the first year, the Capital of this Company, in Bonds, Treasury Warrants, Cash and Interest, amounted to the sum of £453 6s. 2d.; that at the close of the second year, the Capital of the Company, consisting as above, amounted to the sum of £453 fs. 2d.; that at the close of the third year, that is to say, on the 31st day of December last, the Capital amounted to £774 3s. 9d., as appearing by the Auditors' report, shewing, as before observed, that the Funds of the Company continue steadily increasing. The Proprietors are aware that all outstanding risks cease with the year. The Directors howeve, that since the close of the premay have a subject to she received for renewals, which, of course, will form part of the prement years' funds, but which added to the above makes £854 9s. 9d. capital now available; and the Directors observe, that several New Policies have been issued, and inducental persons joined the compa useful an institution.

The Secretary then observed, that if there was any member of the Company present who wished for any further information regarding the operations of the Institution, he would be most happy to afford it. No member having put any question:

On motion of Mr. John Rider, seconded by Mr. Wm. C.

On motion of Mr. John Rider, seconded by Mr. Wm. C. Trowss—

Resolved, That the Report be adopted and published.

The President having then informed the meeting that agreeably to the Act of Incorporation, they had to elect thirteen Directors, five of whom were first to be elected out of the present Board of Directors, the meeting immediately proceeded to do so, when

E. L. Lydiard, Esq. P. Macgowan, Esq.

Henry Hazzard, Esq. Mr. George Beer, jun.

Daniel Brennan, Esq. were duly re-elected.

The Company then proceeded to the election of eight other persons from among themselves, when the following were duly elected, viz:

Benj. Davies, Esq. John Trenaman,

Mr. William Heard,

Mr. FLYNN in the Chair.

Mr. SPEAKER. If he understood Mr. Davies aright, he merely proposed the forfeiture of lands for which there were no titles at all.

Mr. Mr. COLES. Well, but he had not chosen the proper time and place even for that. If that was what he desired, he ought to bring in a Bill to effect it. The amendment, if adopted, would amount to a vote of want of confidence in the Government. And for what? Merely because they had not been able to accomplish all their objects in the course of a few menths.

Hon. Mr. WHELAN observed that, in a young Colony like this, and where Responsible Government had only just been established, it was not to be expected that the Governore's Speech should specify all the measures of which his Government contemplated the introduction. Their ideas, with respect to many questions might not be yet clearly developed, and there was no necessity for having every thing they proposed est forth in the Speech. Besides, he was not prepared to admit, that the Speech of the Government. If with respect to the subject of Mr. Davies's amendment, or any other question of vital importance, the Government had been negligant of their duties, they would have merited such onsure as was implied in that amendment, but as they had not, it was unwise in any friend of the Government tool taxes that the Government could take them for any other purpose than that for which they were reserved? It would be quite as reasonable to suppose, that because in the original grants, reservations are made for roads, the whole of the lands might be taken by that it was not proper, and the proper of the third the proper of the third the propess that the Government could take them for any purpose, that because in the original grants, reservations are made for roads, the whole of the lands might be taken by that it was a the propess of the propess of the suppose of the third that any purpose, it was most anreasonable to take away the shores from Europe.

May it please your Excellency;
We Her Majesty's faithful subjects, the House of Assembly of Prince Edward Island, respectfully tender to your Excellency our thanks for your Speech at the opening of the present Session, and desire at the same time to convey our acknowledgments to your Excellency, for having called the Legislature togother at a season of the year more convenient to us than that at which your Excellency was necessarily obliged to summon us at the opening of the last Session.

Session.

It affords us sincere gratification to learn that your Excellency's visit to the different localities of this Island, after the prorogation of the last Session, was characterised by great kindness towards your Excellency on the part of the Inhabitants of the Colony, and by the expressions of loyalty and attachment to Her Majesty's person and throne, which all classes of Her subjects in this Island seemed anxious to impress uncounter.

of Her subjects in this Island seemed anxious to impress upon you.

It is the sincere regret of the House of Assembly, that the inestimable blessings of Education are not more widely diffused throughout this Island, and the necessity for a more efficient system has long been apparent to us. We are glad, therefore, to learn that this subject has occupied the anxious attention of your Excellency's Government; and we beg to assure you, that any measure submitted to us in relation to it shall receive at our hands that impartial and serious deliberation which its great importance demands.

We are gratified to learn that the Loan of £10,000, which the Legislature, last year, authorised the Government to borrow, has been easily effected at 5 per cent., and that all obligations which the Treasury has now to discharge are subject to no higher rate of Interest than 5 per cent.—thus effecting an important saving to the Colony.

The accidental omission of a clause in the Civil era of the facility along that he may need parent that so important a measure may receive the Royal allowance.

We regret to learn that Her Majesty's Government have not yet seen the necessity of leaving the One-ninth Bill to its operation, inasmuch as further cases have since arisen calling for Legislative interference on the subject of that Bill, and clearly demonstrating the equity and utility of the principle it sought to establish. The inconvenience and difficulty arising from that uncertainty, which cannot fail to be felt in the absence of such a Bill as the One-ninth, might, indeed, have been obviated, had the other Branch of the Legislature, on passing so important a Bill as one to regulate the Currency, also defined, by Statute, the just and equitable provisions so necessary on such an occasion for all the existing contracts and obligations according to the established practice, custom and usage of the Colony, as the House of Assembly were anxious they should de, when the Currency Bill passed this Branch of the Legislature in 1849. The assurance that your Excellency will afford to Her Majesty's Government proof of the necessity for legislating on the principle of the One-ninth Bill, is to us a gratifying guarantee of your Excellency's desire to promote the interests of the Inhabitants of this Colony, and we confidently anticipate that such proof will be the means of the Royal allowance being yet extended to the Bill.

When the Public Accounts shall be laid before us, we make no doubt that the state of the Revenue will afford us much satisfaction, and this satisfaction would, we are sure, have been greatly enhanced, had it not been for the unusually early setting in of the Winter, and closing of the navigation, by which several vessels, laden with dutiable cargoes, were prevented from reaching their places of destination in this Island.

We will cheerfully make suitable provision for the maintenance of the Public Service; and, in doing so,

sels, laden with dutiable cargoes, were prevented from reaching their places of destination in this Island.

We will cheerfully make suitable provision for the maintenance of the Public Service; and, in doing so, it will be our earnest endeavour to keep the expenditure within the limits of the Public Revenue, so that the Government may be enabled to place its financial operations on a firmer basis than that which has hitherto prevailed.

Our best attention will be given to the consideration of any Bill which your Excellency's Government may submit, having a tendency to improve the operation of the Courts for the recovery of Small Debts.

Fully sensible of the immense advantages which would result to this Colony from Reciprocal Trade with the United States, we feel grateful for the interest which your Excellency evinces on that subject; and we are rejoiced to learn that the correspondence has been renewed, under your Excellency's administration, with Her Majesty's Government, in Britain, with the view of abrogating the Treaty of 1818, which prohibits others than British subjects from prosecuting the Fisheries of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, at a less distance from the Shore than three miles, in order that the citizens of the United States, who are fully alive to the value and importance of our Fisheries, may enjoy the unchecked privilege of prosecuting, in common with our own people, that great branch of trade and industry. But whilst thus desirous of strengthening the bonds of amity and friendship between Her Majesty's subjects in this Island and the citizens of the United States, we have a right to expect concessions from the Government of that Country, in respect to a removal of restrictions upon Trade between this Colony and the United States, fully equivalent to the advantages we are disposed to surrender. But should the policy of the American Government be opposed to the granting of any such concessions, and our just and reasonable expectations left unsatisfied, it will then become our duty—and one which we s

(REPLY:)

Mr. Speaker, and Genllemen of the House of Assembly;
I thank you for the Address, and feel gratified that you concur with me generally in the views which I considered it necessary to submit for your consideration, at the opening of the Session, on topics of great public importance. It will, I assure you, be no less my inclination, than it is my duty, cordially to cooperate with you in bringing to a favourable termination such measures as may tend to promote the prosperity of the Colony, and the happiness of all classes.

Mr. Mothers's motion was accordingly withdrawn. The question being then put on the motion of the Hoa. Coles, that the Report of the Committee be agreed to, it was carried. Mr. HAVILAND then moved.—The solved, That the powers of the Committee be continued and extended with the view of enabling them to engage an Assistant Reporter. Motion agreed to without continuance.

Thursday, 29th.

The House having gone into Committee of Privileges of Election, after some time spent therein, the House was resumed, and the following Resolution proposed and moved in the Committee by Br. Palmer, was reported and unanimously adopted.

"Resolved, That it is the opinion of the Committee, that the Presiding Officer at the Pell held on the ninth day of December last, for the election of a Member of Assembly for Georgetown, having omitted to take the Oath prescribed by the 39th section of the Election Law, in verification of the correctness of the Poll Books; and therefore, that the return made by the Sheriif of King's County, upon the Writ, issued for the said Election, whereby Roderick McAlay, Eaquire, was declared duly elected, is not valid in law, and that a new Writ should issue for the return of a Member of Assembly for Georgetown, aforesaid, in p'ace of the said Roderick McAlaby, I:aquire."

Mr. 5PEAKER was then instructed to notify His Excellency of the result of the investigation, that a new Writ might be issued forthwith.

It seemed, in was particular, to contemplate a positive abundity—the Shoriff extuliarizing his own acts. The hon, and learned member for Georgetown had said that the House had no original jurisdiction in the matter of a scrutiny,—but he (Hon, Mr. P.) would observe that the constitution had thrown around the elective franchice safe guards, which were independent of the mere legal interpretation of a law,—and, in a case like that under consideration, it was the duty of the House to judge with due regard to all the circumstances connected with it. If a doubt areas, it ought to be given in favour of the party entitled to vote. If the allegations set forth in the Petition should not be substantiated, the petitioner would be liable to be mulcted in the amount of the expenses consequent upon the enquiry. It might, therefore, be inferred that he at least, is fully persuaded they are true,—and he (Mr. P.) would never consent that a party who felt himself aggrieved, should be debarred a hearing and hopes of redress, on account of any drubt arising out of any ambiguity in the law.

Mr. HAVILAND agreed that it would be very unjust for the House to debar the complaining candidate from a fair hearing, and to deny him the means of redress, if these means had been withheld from him through the misconduct of the Returning Officer,—and he admitted that the allegations against that officer, contained in the Petition, were quite sufficient, if true, to set saide the Election.

Correspondence between the Governments of England and France—Explanations required by the British Cabinet.

Soon after the coup d'etat of the 3d inst., a communication was made in the anme of the British Cabinet to the French Government, in which, while any irritating expression or comment appeared to be avoided, explanations were asked as to whether it was contemplated to completely abandon the liberal and constitutional policy which had previously formed the bond of alliance between the two countries. The President of the Republic was reminded, that England and France, connected as they had so long been, by the similarity—so far as the difference of character of the two people permitted—of their respective institutions, were at the head of European civilization; that both still enjoyed with the necessary modifications, the advantages of representative government, freedom of the tighous, and liberty of the press; that a suspension or a cosmition of such grantees for public liberty would necessarily imply an abandonment on the part of France, of those political advantages, and would necessarily diminish, in a considerable degrace, the sympathies entertained in England for a system like the present, so widely different from its own; that a coup d'etat which abrogated the Constitution, annihilated the Legislature, and destroyed the liberty of the press, was, and must be, distanteful to the people of England, so remarkable for its enthusiastic attachment to all those institutions; and the French-Government was carnestly called upon to give some explanation of its intentions, or of what it proposed doing, so soon as the embarrassement of the present; situation had disappeared, or been materially diminished.—The note was at considerable length; and its tone was, though not irritating, at all events decided and energetic. The answer is stated to be what, perhaps, might be guessed under the circumstances. It purported to repudiate all intentions of abandoning a liberal policy—it appoke of th is the situation of affairs.

STATE OF EUROPE—PROBABILITY OF WAR!

The state of Europe, just now, presents great cause for uncasiness and disquietude. That we are on the eve of a mighty convalsion between despote on the one side, and the spirit of Republicanism, animating the millions of that quarter of the earth, no man can scarcely doubt. The Coup d'etat of Louis Napoleon may have been successful, backed up, as he no doubt is, by the secret influences of the Emperors of Austria and is, by the secret influences of the Emperors of Austria and is, by the secret influences of the Emperors of Austria and is, by the secret influences of the Continent, which will be ready to show itself at the first outbreak; and insumeth as that spirit of Liberty is reflected back from England and the United States, so will the men panting for freedom look to those nations for help, and so will the Despote arm themselves against those Asylumes of freedom.

France, Russia, and Austria, against England and the United States! The storm is browing; but if the Emperors know when they are well off, they will pause and well consider. They will not only have against them the two mightiest nations on earth, whose relations have been of the most fraterial kind during the past few years, and whose people speak the same language; but they also have in their own bowels the spirit of insurrection, republicanism, laid broad and deep, and the issue, though bloody, cannot but result in the triumph and extension of human liberty. The embers of an outbreak are sumbering, and may burst into flame sooner than we may imagine.

This world is a wide one, for sorrow or joy;

And where in this world is my lost sailor boy,
With his loud ringing laugh, and his long sanny hair?
Do they swell on the breeze yet, or float through the air?
Is there any bright land, 'mid the lands of the ourth,
That holds the lost child of my heart and my hearth?

I have sat by the fire when the old men have said,
There be eyes of the living that look on the dead.
Of tell me, ye seers in search of the temb,
Do ye find my fair son in its valley of gloom?
It there any pale bey with a look of the sea
'Mid that people of shades, who is waiting for me?

O, that morn when he left us! Mine eyes have grown dim, And seen little that's bright since they looked upon him; And my heart, in its duliness, hath learned to forget But the light of that morning shines clear to it yet: No record is lost of the bright sunny day, When passed my fair boy like a spirit away.

We waited—how long! but we waited in vain!
And we looked over land and we looked over main,
And ships, O! how many came home from the sea,
That brought comfort to others, but sorrow to me.
In all those gay, ships, O! there answer was none
To the mother who asks, if she yet have a seq!

They tell me of countries beyond the broad sea,
Where stars look on others that look not on me;
Where the flowers are more sweet, and the waters mor
And they hint that he dwells in these valleys of light—
That he rests in a home with some fair foreign bride,
This world is a wide one,—why is it so wide?

But they surely forget—which my sailor does not— That I'm sitting whole years is my lone little cot. He knows, O! he knows, If I may, I shall wait Till I hear his clear shout at the low garden gate; He is sure his sad mether will strive not to die Till the latch has been raised by her lost sailor boy.

I believe that he lives. Were he laid in the mould,
There's a pulse in my heart would be silent and cold:
Which awoke at his birth, and, through good and through ill,
Has played in its depths, and is playing there still.
When its star shall have set, then that tide will be dry,
And the widow be sure where to look for her boy!

Shut the door! The winds are blowing—freezing-ners talking—talking—why don't you shut the door? "Though you, my friend, may boast a gifted mind, A soul of honor, and a taste refined, These bitter times, we seek for something more, The first of virtues is—to shut the door?

Darieties.

New use for Ice.—The Scientific men of France are at present speculating on a recent instance of a young man brought to life after being frozen up eleven months on the Alps. It has given rise to a revived belief in the theory, that life can be suspended at pleasure and criminals are about to be demanded of the Government to be frozen on experiment. The reader will already have inferred what a relief this offers to such unhappy ladies as find themselves not contemporary with the hearts they sigh to win.—They have only to be leed till overtaken. We should add, however, that the above is by no means a jeke. The blood of a living man was infused into the veins of a frozen youth and he moved and spoke. The experiment was afterwards tried on a hare, frozen for the purpose, with complete success.

complete success.

The Home Journal suggests the idea of putting the discovery into practical use, that is, put out $500 at interest, and have yourself packed in ice, and stay frozen, with suspended life, till it amounts to a fortune.

TEN DAYS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

TEN DAYS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

The steamer Daniel Webster arrived at New York on the 11th Jan., bringing over 300 passengers, and advices from San Francisco to the 18th Dec. She brought $589,000 in freight and in the hands of passengers, but no mail came by this steamer. Francisco to the 18th Dec. She brought $589,000 in freight and in the hands of passengers, but no mail came by this steamer. Francisco the sailing of the last steamer, there has been considerable nows interesting to the United States. Rain has fallen sufficiently to enable miners in the dry diggings to prosecute their labors with energy and effect. Many who had large piles of dirt accumulated, have commenced washing with great success, so that, although operations in the rivers have nearly ceased, there will be little dimination of the amount produced during the winter. Large sums have been refused for piles of dirt, which a short time since could have been purchased for a triling amount comparatively.

Great excitement has been produced in the Southern mines, by the discovery of richer diggings than ever before opened. In one week, and in a hole a few feet square, between $200,000 and $300,000 were extracted. The news getting abrond, in another week could be seen at the new diggings a town of several thousand inhabitants, and the country for miles around was staked out in mining claims.

The flourishing town of Flacorville has nearly doubled its population, owing to recent discoveries of rich diggings in its vicinity.

Extensive operations are being entered into by quartz miners. Leads of the most surprising richness are almost daily being discovered, and companies almost as frequently formed to work them. The most ponderous machinery is being conveyed to the most rugged portions of mountain country; so we may safely calculate on hearing the crash of the mighty engine and the din of the thrifty towns and villages, where a few short months since our ears would have been regaled only by the howling of the wolf and the grisly bear. When the mou gad portions of mountain country; so we may sately calculate on hearing the crash of the mighty engine and the din of the thrifty towns and villages, where a few short months since our cars would have been regaled only by the howling of the wolf and the grisly bear. When the mountains, which are now covered with anow, shall cast aside their ley garnessts, and the sun of spring again greet us, then shall all these wonderful changes be accomplished, and the world be again stricken with wonder at the almost incalculable productions of our golden mountains.

The great Bear River and Auburn Canal will be completed by the first of January next, a period of little more than five months from its commencement. This great work of private enterprise gives employment to 10,000 laborers, and will add millions to the present products of our state.

The news from the southern portion of the state is less cheering. The indians, from the Gila to the settlements near the Pacific are reported to be combined to drive away the entire white population. Attacks were made on unoffending citizens, some of whom have been killed. Cattle and horses have been driven off; in short, a general system of marder and plunder seems to have been adopted by the savages. On hearing of this combination, expresses were forwarded to the military commanders in California and the Governor, praying for aid, which was promptly responded to. Gen. Hitchcock has sent all his disposable force, and such supplies of arms and ammunition as the case required. The Governor also ordered out a brigade, and has commissioned the far-famed Col. Hays as its commander. Should the Indians show themselves to the gallant Rangers, they will be summarily dealt with.

There is a knitting machine in operation in Philadelphiai, which knits three hundred and eighty stickes at each turn of a small crank, which crank may be easily turned by hand from one hundred to one hundred and fifty revolutions per minute, making from forty to sixty thousand stitches per minute, or at the rate of about three millions per hour.

URTING.—Here is a specimen of the good, old fashioned of coarting, as it was done in Connecticut. Deacon Marvin, a landbolder and most exemplary man, accomplished his in this salike way. Having one day mounted his horse, with a skin for a saddle, he rode in front of the bouse Betty Lee livand without dismounting, requested Betty to come to him. ning, he told her, that the Lord had sent him to marry her; Eord's will be fear.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. J. H. Miday, 209, High Street, Cheltenham, dated the 22d of January, 1850.

To Professor Holloway.

Sin,—My eldest son, when about three years of age, was afflicted with a Ghandular Swelling in the neck, which after a short time bruke out into an Ulcer. An eminent medical man pronounced it a very had case of Scrofula, and prescribed for a considerable time without effect.—The disease then for four years went on gradually increasing in virule see, when, he idea the ulcer in the neck, another formed below the left knee, and a third under the eye, he idea seets others on the left arm, with a tunnor between the eyes which was expected to break. During the whole of the time my suffering boy had received the constant advice of the most celebrated medical gentlemen at Cheltenham, besides being for several months at the General Hospital, where one of the surgeous said that he would amputate the left arm, but that the blood was so impure, that if that limb were taken off it would be then even impossible to subdue the disease. In this desperate state I determined to give your Pills and Ointmeet a trial, and after two months' perseverance in their ase, the tumor gradually began to disappear, and the discharge from all the ulcers perceptibly decreased, and at the expiration of eight months they were perfectly healed, and the boy throughly reviewed to the blessings of health, to the astosiehment of a large circle of acquaintances, who could testify to the truth of this miraculous case. Three, years have now clapped without any recurrence of the malady, and the buy is now adhealthy as heart can wish. Under these circumstances, who could testify to the truth of this miraculous case. Sir,—It is with the greatest pleasure that I write to thank you for the beactif I have received from your Pills and Ontment, which have completely cured me of the Rheumatism, under which I suffered for this last four years, at time I was so bud as hardly to be able to wilk. I had tried every kind of medicine that was recommended without receiving any benefit. I at has thought I would give your medicines a trial and purchased from Mr. clothin, Chemist of this Town. I was boxes of Fill and two of Ontment, and in three weeks through them and the labesing of God. I was restored to beath and strength, and am now fa well able to walk as ever I was in my life. STANDING.

Mr. Barker, of No. 5. Graham's Place, Drypool, near Hull, had ulcers on his leg from the age of eighteen until upwards of eighty, and although for many years he had sought the first advice in the country, nothing was found to cure them. He very often suffered most excrucitating pain for long periods together, which incapacitated him from stateming to his business. He had given up all hupes of getting a cure when at last he was permaded to try Holloway's Pills and Ohannent, which be did, and however wonderful it may "uppear, the leg was thoroughly headed by their means, and by continuing to use the Pills alone after his leg was well, be has become in health so halo and hearty as now to be more active than most men of fifty.

One of the most eminent Surgeons is Lima (the Capital of Peru) had a child covered with Ringworm for more than six years; in vain he exhausted all his art in his endeavours to effect a care.
