BURGESS IS BROUGHT FROM VANCOUVER FOR TRIAL

Charged With Robbing Express Agency at Truro of $15,000.

EXAMINATION IS GOING ON Marked Change in Appearance of the Prisoner Since He Was Last in Town of Truro.

Truro, N. S., Nov. 2—W. H. Walsh, General Superintendent of the Canadian Detective Bureau, arrived in Truro this afternoon on the Maritime Express, having in charge Burgess the man accused of holding up and robbing the safe and cash drawer of a large amount of booty. There was but a small crowd present to get a view of the prisoner. Those who know him when he was last in Truro had difficulty in recognizing him, as his facial appearance had changed considerably. He is a medium sized man, weighing probably 145 pounds.

HIS APPEARANCE CHANGED.

When in Truro last June he wore a fair sized down mustache. This has been removed. His eyes had an unmistakable squint at the time of the robbery and now are straight. The straightening was accomplished, according to the Detective in some part of the United States, prior to his reappearance in Vancouver, where he was known to many persons. The changes here noted account of course for the difficulty of ready recognition. As soon as Detective Walsh appeared with his prisoner there was a rush of sight-seers, but he was quickly transferred to the care of the local police and conveyed in a cab to the County Jail. Detective Walsh, when interviewed stated that he had a somewhat eventful trip since leaving Vancouver. The train on which he travelled from the Coast was derailed after a run of several hundred miles.

WOMAN'S SACRIFICE FAILS TO SAVE HER SISTER

Mrs. Rumble Confesses to Having Attempted to Blow Up Her Husband's Home--No Others Were Implicated.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 30. In Montreal in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Mrs. T. R. Carnoy, of Kingston, gave a quart of her life blood to her sister, Mrs. E. Williamson, of London, in hope of prolonging her life after an operation.

She was laid on a table and had her radial artery opened and attached to a vein in her sister's right arm. For two hours, her blood minutes she remained in that position allowing her blood to pass to her sister. She did not take any anaesthetic. The new blood resisted. Mrs. Williamson to such an extent that she was able to undergo a second operation three days later, but although she came through the operation all right she died of shock yesterday.

CAPTAIN NEWMAN'S BODY RECOVERED

Bodies of Eighteen Victims of Hestia Disaster Now Recovered—The Investigation.

Pilfering from the cargo of the wrecked steamer Hestia has become so common that the government cruiser Curlew has been ordered to stand by the wreck to prevent any more of the cargo being taken. It has been expected that part of the cargo could be removed on Saturday, but on that day the sea was so rough that no attempt at salvage was made. An effort will be made to-day to get part of the cargo ashore. The six men who are the survivors of the Hestia's crew and passengers are still at Seal Cove, Grand Manan, and will aid in salvaging the cargo. They are not expected to reach St. John until Wednesday or Thursday.

The tug Kitchener left Yarmouth yesterday afternoon and reached St. John last night. Nothing new is reported from the vicinity of Yarmouth but the recovery of another body, that of Captain Newman.

Nothing is yet known concerning the date of the investigation which will be held by the Department of Marine and Fisheries. It is thought that the officials of the department are waiting for more information.

No better tonic could be devised than Ferronin which consists of fresh lean beef, Citrate of Iron and pure old Spanish Sherry Wine. Just enough of the latter to stimulate the digestion and enable a weakened stomach to assimilate the beef and iron. Try this invigorating tonic if you are thin, weak and generally run down. 81.00 per bottle.

MANY VICTIMS OF BIG FIRE

Blaze at Johnsbury, Vt., Has Awful Results.

THE DEAD & INJURED

The Property Loss is Estimated At About 50,000.

St. Johnsbury, Vt., Oct. 31—When the ruins of the Citizen's Savings bank had been wet down to a temperature which made possible thorough search, it was definitely learned that nine lives were lost in the fire which practically destroyed the principal business building of this town early to-day. Two other persons were probably fatally burned and two were taken to a hospital suffering from severe, but not dangerous burns. The property loss is estimated at $50,000, partly covered by insurance. Of the nine persons killed two fell from the upper stories of the building in an attempt to reach safety by means of rope ladders, while seven were burned to death, their bodies not being recovered until several hours after.

The block, a four story building was a combination of stores, offices and assembly halls. A restaurant and the town police station were located in the basement, the Citizen's Savings Bank and a number of stores were on the first floor, several offices were on the second floor, the third floor was given up to tenements, and there were two assembly halls on the fourth floor. All of the persons killed or injured were tenants who occupied apartments on the third floor.

He bled and a handkerchief around his arm and rowed ashore landing at the Marine slip. He managed to get as far as the residence of Sam Tanner, where staggering from loss of blood he stumbled against a pile of rocks and fell. In falling he struck one of the windows in front of Mr. Tanner's furthering injuring himself with broken glass. Mr. Tanner came to town and secured the services of Policeman Smith and Dr. Macaulay. The wounded man was attended to and taken aboard his vessel. He is reported now as doing fairly well.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 31.—S. M. Bentley, of Truro, one of the leading business men of that town, accidentally shot himself on Saturday afternoon as the result of which he died this morning. Saturday was the last of the open season for partridges and Mr. Bentley, whose house is near the Victoria Park went into the woods with his gun to seek some game. He had been out an hour when he stumbled, the gun was discharged, its contents entering his body. Mr. Bentley fired the second barrel to attract help, some boys responded and gave the alarm. ROBERTSON IS GIVEN TWENTY-EIGHT YEARS

Man Convicted of Criminally Assaulting Daughters is Giving Long Term After Being Freed of Murder Charge.

Sudbury, Ont., Oct. 29. At five minutes past five o'clock to-night the jury in the Robertson case returned a verdict of not guilty on the charge of murder.

Two hours later, however, through Mr. Creswick, the Crown Counsel, Robertson requested and was granted the right to change his plea in the other charges against him. The man then stood quietly and admitted that he had criminally assaulted his daughters. Upon this the Crown dropped the other six charges which had been preferred against him.

Robertson was subsequently sentenced to serve twenty-eight years in the penitentiary.

West Point Cadet Dies as Result of the Injuries Received.

INDIANA PLAYER INJURED

Byrnes' Neck Twisted and Broken in Game With Harvard--May Mean Curtailing of Game.

Kokomo, Ind., Oct. 31—In a football game between teams representative Kokomo and Noblesville to-day, Ogle Seagraves of Kokomo was probably fatally injured. He was kicked in the back of the head and suffered concussion of the brain, superinducing convulsions. His skull probably was fractured.

BYRNE FATALLY INJURED.

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 31—Cadet Eugene A. Byrne, of Buffalo, N. Y., a fourth year man at the United States Military Academy, died in the Cadet Hospital at 6:30 o'clock this morning, a sacrifice to football. The Army is accustomed to death, but not in this form; and this tragedy of the gridiron has brought such poignant grief to officers and cadets alike that the end of football at West Point and Annapolis is predicted by many.

Young Byrne expired just as the sun was rising over the hills along the Hudson, with his grief-stricken father John Byrne, a civil war veteran, at his bedside. Brave as was the young soldier's fight against death, it was hopeless from the start. Beneath a mass of struggling players in the Harvard-Army game yesterday, his neck was twisted and broken by the weight of the crushing pile above him, and he was pinned up with every nerve of his body except those of his head and face, helpless to perform their function.

ST. JOHN VESSEL TOWED IN PORT

Laonia has Large Hole in Her Bottom.

STRIKES ON A ROCK

Tug Picks Her Up As She is About To Go To Bottom.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 31—With a large hole in her bottom and making water very rapidly, the British schooner Laonia, Captain Atkinson, was picked up by the tug Togo off Devil's Island, to-day, and towed into the Mill Cove, Dartmouth, where she is now beached. The Laonia was bound from New York for Halifax with a cargo of hard coal and was making in the Dartmouth Cove, and although past Sambre this morning about four o'clock, when she struck the Three Sisters, and received serious damage. She came off almost immediately and the schooner ashore. The Togo Captain Atkinson headed right up the harbor. As soon as she came off the ledge she began to leak very badly and pumps were manned. As the water was gaining rapidly it was thought the vessel might founder, and signals of distress were run up. Word was sent to the city, and the towboat Togo was sent to her assistance.

The Togo picked her up off Devil's Island and she was then in danger of going to the bottom.

The towboat ran alongside and got her pumps going and started up the harbor. The Laonia was taken into the Dartmouth Cove, and although the Togo was pumping a five inch steam the water kept gaining, and during the afternoon it was decided to run the schooner ashore. The Togo stayed by her and kept the pumps going so that she would not settle too much. The Laonia is a tern schooner and pumps were manned. As the water was gaining rapidly it was thought the vessel might founder, and signals of distress were run up. Word was sent to the city, and the towboat Togo was sent to her assistance.

Ask Her This Question

"Do you know of any woman who ever received any benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"

If any woman who is suffering with any ailment peculiar to her sex will ask her neighbors this question, she will be surprised at the result. There is hardly a community in this country where women cannot be found who have been restored to health by this famous old remedy, made exclusively from a simple formula of roots and herbs.

During the past 30 years we have published thousands of letters from these grateful women who have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and never in all that time have we published a testimonial without the writer's special permission.

Camifon, Ont. "I had been a great sufferer for five years. One doctor told me it was cancer of the uterus, and another told me it was a fibroid tumor. No one knows what I suffered. I would always be worse at certain periods, and never was regular, and the bearing-down pains were terrible. I was very ill in bed, and the doctor told me I would have to have an operation, and that I might die during the operation. I wrote to my sister about it, and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Through personal experience I have found it the best medicine in the world for female troubles, for it has cured me, and I did not have to have the operation after all. The Compound also helped me while passing through Change of Life." Mrs. Letitia Blair, Camifon, Ontario.

Any woman who is sick and suffering is foolish surely not to give such a medicine as this a trial. Why should it not do her as much good as it did Mrs. Blair.

DISTRICT DIVISION SONS OF TEMPERANCE

In Session in Newcastle Friday of Last Week---Have 505 Active Members in Kent and 242 in Northumberland.

PLAIN TALKS ON TEMPERANCE AT EVENING MEETING

The sixteenth session of the Kent and Northumberland District Division, Sons of Temperance, met here on the 29th ult. Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, Harcourt, District Worthy Patriarch, was chairman; Frank Curran, Richibucto, Worthy Associate; H. H. Stuart, Newcastle, District Scribe, Newcastle, Harcourt, Rexton and Richibucto Divisions were represented. The chairman reported a recent great temperance victory in Harcourt, where after several years' effort a vote of three to one had been secured against license, the majority in the French sections being four to one. The vote was taken on the 19th and resulted as follows:

For license—Adamsville, 11; Harcourt, 27; Lakestream, 6. Total 44. Against license—Adamsville, 49; Harcourt, 77; Lakestream, 10; total 136. The people were much enthused and the prospects were good for winning local option in other parishes of Kent. Trouble was reported from some divisions resulting from dancing and games being introduced. A bye-law should be passed re this matter. He had tried to arrange a meeting last night to resuscitate Millerton Division.

The District Scribe's report showed the following membership in divisions on September 29th:

Kent County—Richibucto, 115; Rexton, 71; Bass River, 12; Harcourt, 62; Grangeville, 19; Coal Branch, 20; South Branch, 23.

Northumberland County—Bay du Vin, 28; Douglstown, 69; Newcastle, 45; Burnt Church, 26. Total, 177.

Divisions at Millerton and Doaktown were dormant. Newcastle Division did not meet regularly.

The financial report showed a surplus of $21.31. Messrs. Frank Curran and H. H. Stuart gave notice of motion at next session of a bye-law dealing with dancing in Divisions.

The District Division unanimously expressed hearty appreciation of the noble and effective temperance work recently done by Rev. R. Hensley Stavert in Harcourt, and also the support given him by Harcourt, Grangeville and Coal Branch Divisions and others. It was recommended that Richibucto and Rexton Divisions initiate a local option campaign in Richibucto parish. The next meeting was arranged for Harcourt on the third Friday in January. A forward temperance movement was planned for Newcastle. A public meeting was held at St. James' Hall in the evening. Rev. R. H. Stavert in the chair. Excellent music was provided including delightful solos by Miss Bulmer of Moncton and Mrs. Parly Russell, Miss Williamson accompanist.

REV. DR. H. T. COUSINS.

The first speaker was Rev. Dr. Cousins, who regretted that young men here had no place to spend their evenings. A social club with a constructive policy was needed. Evil could only be overcome by installing good. He was glad the law was on the side of right. He hoped that at next civic election Newcastle would return no Councillors who will not back to the very uttermost the local prohibiting Act. He hoped the casting vote of the chairman would not have the power to block the enforcement of law.

REV. W. J. DEAN.

Rev. W. J. Dean said the people had power to put down the liquor traffic. He had lately seen three sailors going into a store in town, evidently for liquor. Liquor was sold within a stone's throw of the municipal office. He would be glad to cooperate in Dr. Cousins' plan. If nominal Christians the town could be kept straight. He hoped they would do something next election day.

REV. S. J. MACARTHUR.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur doubted if, with so much denominationalism, a union social club could be made to work. In a town in which he had been was there so much drinking as in Newcastle. The people did not seem to want Scott Act enforced. Trouble lay in the churches, in which much hard to hand work needs to be done. It was little less than an outrage to have our prohibiting law used as the commonest kind of a license. The whole life and meaning had been cut out of the Scott Act. A liquor seller pays so much every three months or so and goes right on. Temperance people should find a common platform and get to work.

H. H. STUART.

H. H. Stuart said that in many towns the authorities did not want a sober voting population, as sober voters were more intelligent than drinkers, and the more intelligent the voter the less chance some officials would have of re-election. The use of alcohol as a beverage should be done away with.

REV. R. H. STAVERT.

Rev. Mr. Stavert, who after years of persistent work has secured the overthrow of license in Harcourt, urged the making of the carrying of Newcastle election next spring for temperance the goal of the local workers. There was no man in the liquor business but was too good for it. Don't leave them in it. Destroy the liquor business. He urged the keeping pure of the home, and severely scored the women who neglect home to play bridge. Temperance orders were for saving souls, but some divisions were becoming places of merely selfish amusement.

STERLING WOOD.

Sterling Wood of Douglstown Division, enquired why Newcastle Division had gone down and what steps were being taken for its resuscitation. The need was urgent and the matter should not be further delayed. In response to the appeal and further speeches by Messrs. Stavert, Stuart and Curran, a number of the audience pledged themselves to join Newcastle Division.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur, on behalf of the Trustees, offered the new Division the use of St. James' Hall until the Temperance Hall should be free.
