DRESS AND MANTLE MAKING

The Fashionable West End.
To the Ladies:
We have during the past two years completed the establishment of a Dress MAKING DEPARTMENT, in connection with our other branches. The difficulty of obtaining a suitable person to take charge, has, up to the present time, only prevented us from doing so.
We have now great pleasure in informing you that we have secured the services of Miss MORRISON, of Toronto, a lady of first-class abilities, highly recommended to us, and we believe eminently qualified to give complete satisfaction in every respect. Miss Morrison has for the past ten years occupied the position of cutter and finisher in one of the leading Fashionable Dress-making Establishments in the City of Toronto.
Miss Morrison is also an experienced Mantle maker, and all orders entrusted to her will be executed in a style equal to anything that can be obtained in the largest cities.
Orders for these departments will be received and after Monday next, the 4th of May.
A. O. BUCHANAN,
Fashionable West End Dress, Mantle and Millinery Establishment.

Guelph Evening Mercury
WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 21, 1873

Town and County News.
SALE.—It will be seen by previous advertisements that the sale of the Agricultural Implement Works and other property of Thain, Elliott & Co. takes place tomorrow.
BASE BALL CLUB.—Mr. John Anderson has for sale photographs—carte de visite and cabinet size—of the Maple Leaf Base Ball Champions. Both sizes for sale cheap.
The people of Acton have taken the necessary steps to have their village incorporated. In the matter of sidewalks alone they expect that its incorporation will be a great benefit to them.
SERMON THIS EVENING.—The Rev. Dr.
Wilkes, of Montreal, will preach this evening in the Congregational Church, in the interest of the Congregational College, in Montreal. Service at half-past 7 p.m. The public are cordially invited.
CANNED FISHERY BODIES.—Mr. Hugh Walker has received a lot of Finnan Hal-dies put up in hermetically sealed cans.
They are put up by Mr. McEwan, celebrated for canning this favorite fish.
These Haddies put up in cans are in all respects as good as those sold whole.
The only different program repeats them the lover of Finnan Haddies can now have them all the year round.
RETURN OF THE FAVORITES.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Case will make their final appearance in Guelph this Wednesday evening, May 21st, when they will present an entirely different program, and repeat with the choicest impersonations in Grace Egerton's repertoire. Since visiting Guelph last month the artists have made an extended tour through the West, and a bumper house will accept the final ovation of the favorite. The Toronto Globe of Friday, April 12th, speaks thus on their last appearance in that city:—
"Mr. and Mrs. Case gave their last entertainment of their present visit last night.
Notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather a large audience was present.
The programme was one of great attraction, containing all the latest and most popular pieces of the gifted original, and her "Sairy Gamp" was all our fancy pointed here. Mr. Case supplied several well-executed solos on the violin and concertina. The couple signified their intention of re-appearing before long."

POLICE COURT.
Before T. W. Saunders, Esq., P. M.
Wednesday, May 21.
Henry Miller, charged by Constable Kelly with being drunk on Quebec street, in being the first offence, and being a stranger in town, he was discharged.
Non delivery of Letters between Elora and Guelph.
To the Editor of the Guelph Mercury.
Sir,—No part of Her Majesty's service requires careful and discreet officials more than the Post Office Department, in order to secure safe transit, and delivery of mail matter.
Unfortunately there is either carelessness, or something worse, either in Guelph or Elora, as several letters have failed to reach their destinations.
For instance, some time ago a young man addressed a letter to the undersigned, enclosing eighteen dollars, to pay a doctor's bill. On his way to his work in the morning, he dropped the letter into the Post Office, not registered as the office was not open. I thought there could be no danger, as there was no office in town. The letter, however, never came to hand.
A neighbor of mine, sometime since, sent a letter from Elora to Guelph, containing a few dollars. That also failed to reach its destination.
Several other letters that I have written have likewise failed in reaching their destination.
One young man in Guelph in order to secure his letters, is obliged to leave them at the Post Office, and in the hands of the ministers of the Town, or his employer.
Wherever the fault is, it should be remedied. Perhaps a word in your paper may have some effect on the delinquents.
I am Sir, yours, &c., SARCEL ACOEN,
Fikington, May 20, 1873.
SUICIDE EXTRAORDINARY.—The London Advertiser says:—A correspondent writes a very pathetic letter to the effect that a worthless dog stuck its head under the wheel of a railway car on Saturday last, and was crushed all to smash.
New York city has 8,403 places where liquor is sold, or one to 119 of the population.

Queen's Birthday in Guelph.

Saturday, the 24th inst., will be celebrated by the inhabitants of Guelph and vicinity with all the usual eclat and loyalty. Every preparation has been made to make this, in all respects, the most successful celebration which Guelph has ever witnessed, and we are confident, weather permitting, the general verdict will be in accordance with the above intimated intention of the "officials." Quite a large sum has been subscribed and collected for prizes while the Town Council has voted $100 for the purpose of furnishing the school children with refreshments. The auspicious events of the day will be ushered in by a salute of 21 guns at 7 o'clock a.m.
At 9 precisely the school children are expected to meet at their respective schools, when buns and oranges will be distributed, after which they will march in procession to the band stand on the Market Square, and sing the National Anthem and other pieces selected for the occasion. It is desirable that strict punctuality be observed in this portion of the day's events.
At 9 also the annual matches of the Guelph Rifle Association will take place at the Rifle Range. There are three matches, which it is expected will afford some good sport.
At 10 a.m. a Regatta, under the auspices of the Guelph Boating Club, will take place on Allan's Dam, when about $50 dollars will be given in prizes. There are six distinct races, open to all comers.
It is anticipated that this will be one of the greatest attractions of the day.
The County Temple of the I. O. of G.
T., is to meet in the Good Templars' hall at 10 a.m., for the transaction of business connected with the temperance cause in the County of Wellington.
The next event upon the programme is the Games and Races which begin at about 11 o'clock. A large sum will be given as prizes at these sports which comprise the usual jumping, running, &c., and last, but not least, catching the greased pig, for which the prize is the pig itself.
At 3 o'clock a match game of Base Ball will be played on the Maple Leaf Base Ball ground, near the Great Western Station, between the Dantless Club of Toronto, and the champions of Canada.
It is now proposed to the evening entertainment which of necessity will take place at or near the same time.
Mr. H. K. Matfield will give a Grand Vocal and Instrumental Entertainment in the Town Hall, when he will be assisted by several well known ladies and gentlemen of acknowledged talent among whom are Mrs. Oiler of Fergus, and Miss Nelsons of Brantford.
A Grand Promenade Concert will be given in the Drill Shed by the Ventil Horn Band conducted by Mr. Valo.
Programme to consist of duets, solos, and various instrumental pieces by both brass and string bands.
A Public Temperance Meeting will be held in the Good Templars' Hall at 8 p. m. to which all are cordially invited.
Speeches, Music, and recitations will form the programme.
The Market buildings and Town Hall will be illuminated and the day's proceedings will conclude with a bonfire and grand display of fireworks.
An excellent Brass Band will furnish music during the day.
It will be seen by the above programme that Guelph is really determined to outstrip all her neighbours in honoring the natal day of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria and make it so attractive that people from all quarters will "come and see." Remember the reduced fares on the Great Western both ways.
THE DAY IN HESPELER.
As will be seen by our correspondence elsewhere the 24th will be celebrated in Hesperel with the greatest enthusiasm.

The Children and the Queen's Birthday.
To the Editor of the Mercury.
SIR.—Being present at the Drill Shed last 24th May, where the pupils of the public schools had congregated to sing and receive refreshments, as is customary for them to do on that day, and notwithstanding the disgraceful conduct of a number of rough boys who, instead of waiting till they were served by their teachers, surrounded him like a pack of famished wolves, and in spite of his remonstrance and efforts to keep them at bay, completely gained the mastery over him, and succeeded in helping himself. I would suggest that some means be adopted on such occasions whereby each would receive their due share in a quiet and orderly manner, and not allow the rude and unmannerly to get a double portion, while the retiring and better behaved get little or nothing.
Yours, &c.,

Guelph, May 21, 1873.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.—The Acadia Lumber Works at Waverley, exploded on Saturday night. The report was heard in the city, but the cause was not known until Sunday evening. The effect of the explosion is terrific. Trees surrounding the buildings are uprooted, and the ground and stones overturned within a radius of three hundred feet. The machinery is scathed in places, and the debris of the ruined buildings and the manager's residence in the vicinity of the works were more or less damaged. The explosion was caused by the drying house, where four tons of powder were stored, catching fire from the furnace, where ashes were left smoldering when the workmen left the mill.
This is the second explosion within two years. Fortunately, there was no loss of life.
ASSESSORS FRAUDS.—The charge against the Assessors, in Brantford, which has been pending before the Police Magistrate, was dismissed by the advice of the County Attorney, on the ground that the magistrate had no jurisdiction in the matter. The papers were ordered to be sent up, and it is intended to prosecute the case at the Quarter Sessions.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

Khiva Not Fallen.
Arrival of the Shah of Persia.
London, May 20. — A despatch from St. Petersburg says there is no truth in the report that Khiva has been taken and the Khan has fallen into the hands of the Russian troops.
St. Petersburg, May 20.—The Shah of Persia arrived at Moscow yesterday.
Upon entering the city he was met by an immense concourse of people, who welcomed him with the greatest enthusiasm.
The statement that the Shah was companied on his European tour by three of his wives, is not true.
Pittsburg, Pa., May 21.—Yesterday afternoon, the Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Railway turned over to the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railway Co., the entire control of the Mount Pleasant and Bradford Road, as ordered by the decision of the Supreme Court.

Immigration Report.
—The Immigration Committee of the House of Commons have presented their report. They report that during the past eighteen months the Department have circulated 1,850,000 copies of pamphlets on the subject of immigration besides about 1,000,000 supplements of newspapers in Germany, and a large number of posters in the United Kingdom. Six thousand copies of a large map of the Dominion had also been distributed in Great Britain and the Continent of Europe; and a copy on a smaller scale is being republished in England. The number of immigrants who settled in the Dominion in 1872 was 36,578, showing an increase of 8,805, or 25 per cent, over the preceding year. The increase promises to be greater this year. From the 1st January to the 1st May, 1873, the number of immigrants who have arrived to settle in Canada is 8,340, compared with 4,619 for a corresponding period of 1872, and information received by the Department from its agents would seem to indicate that this increase will be maintained throughout the year. That there would be no difficulty in finding employment for this increased emigration was evident from the fact that the returns to the circular issued by the Department gave 168,298 as the number of persons who can find employment this year in Canada.
The Department has offered inducements to passenger brokers to send immigrants to Canada in preference to the Western States by neutralizing the interest they have hitherto had in selling tickets to the farthest point, whereby a commission was secured to the land transport of immigrants as well as on the ocean voyage.
The Committee recommend the enlargement of the accommodation for immigrants at Quebec, and suggest that some better site than the present one, and not so near the railway station, should be secured. They also recommend that free transport be granted to indigent immigrants going to Manitoba, and that the lands in the North-west be sold only to actual settlers. The appointment of an immigration agent at Fort Garry to look after immigrants on their arrival is suggested.

fore, going to celebrate Her Majesty's

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Ottawa, Tuesday 20.
As soon as the House had assembled Sir John Macdonald rose, and amid the deepest silence of the House read a telegram from Sir John Rose to the effect that Sir George Cartier had died in London this morning at six o'clock. He had suffered a relapse since Tuesday last. The telegram further announced that the remains of the deceased baronet would be forwarded to Quebec.
Hon. Mr. Langevin then rose, and speaking in French, paid a warm tribute to Sir George Cartier's memory.
Messrs. Mackenzie, Dorion and Cauchon having said a few words—the House proceeded to the orders of the day.
On the third reading of the Inspection Bill a discussion took place, with respect to the compulsory inspection of butter.
As the measure now stands, any city, town, or village that applies to the Government may have a Butter Inspector appointed, and in that case the inspection of all packages over 50 lbs. in weight is compulsory.
The second reading of the Bill for the re-adjustment of the Public Debt was then moved.
Mr. Wood called attention to the fact that the charge upon the Treasury of the country arising out of this proposal would be some $699,349. He estimated the total liabilities of Canada, present and prospective, as follows:—Present net amount of debt, $82,187,072; railways and canals, $6,000,000; subsidies, representing a capitalized sum of $58,602,262; Provincial debt about to be assumed, $13,886,988; new allowance to New Brunswick, capitalized, $3,000,000; charges of Prince Edward's Island, capitalized, $7,705,686; total, $224,881,706.
Mr. Mackenzie said it really amounted to neither more nor less than putting a dollar into a man's pocket and taking it out of the other with the expenses of collection added. It must raise the taxation of the whole country. In Ontario at the present time the Municipal and Federal taxation amounted to $8 or $9 per head.
After recess, Mr. McKeenzie concluded his remarks, after which the Bill was read a second time.
On the motion to receive the report of the Committee of the W. ole on the increased salaries of judges and others.
Mr. Mercier moved an amendment to Death of Sir Geo. E. Cartier.

The announcement of the death of Sir George E. Cartier, in London, on Tuesday morning, at two o'clock, will be read with surprise, for the word lately received in Canada in regard to his health was of a reassuring character, and led to the hope that he would soon return to his native land with restored health and vigour. But it was not to be, and throughout this vast Dominion the news of his death will be received with regret. It appears, from a despatch received from Sir John Rose, on Tuesday, after his death, that he took a relapse on Tuesday last, and gradually grew worse until at last the disease from which he was suffering--dropsy--gained the mastery, and death relieved him from his sufferings. As soon as the news was received in Montreal every demonstration of respect for the deceased, and regret at the news of his death, was manifested, and preparations are at once to be commenced for his funeral. The body will leave England in charge of his brother-in-law, Mr. Cuvillier, by the steamer on the 29th inst., and will be honoured by a public burial in Montreal, where he resided for so many years.

The deceased has been so long and so closely identified with the politics of Canada as to claim a prominent place among our memorials of the dead. He himself, often referred with justifiable pride to the fact that he was lineally descended from the illustrious Jacques Cartier, who discovered Canada. Sir George was born at St. Antoine, in the County of Vercheres, on the 6th September, 1814. He received his education at the College of St. Sulpice, in Montreal, entered upon the study of law at the office of Mr. Rodier, and in 1835, having been called to the bar, commenced to practice law in that city. He soon succeeded in establishing an extensive and lucrative practice, which through all the years of his public life he and his partners retained. He began early to take an interest in politics, and in common with most of the young men of promise in Lower Canada, he sympathized with Mr. Papineau, the great champion of constitutional liberty. These ardent young politicians were also at that time deeply imbued with republican principles, and when the rebellion broke out in 1837, in Lower Canada, Cartier espoused the popular side, and joined the rebels. He was soon proscribed, and a price set on his head. The rebellion was soon crushed. Lord Durham was sent out to make full inquiry into the causes which led to it, and his report dealt the death blow to oligarchy in Lower Canada, as well as to the iniquities of the Family Compact in Upper Canada. The union of the two Provinces followed, responsible Government firmly established, and the country from that time--1841--commenced its career of prosperity.

Mr. Cartier first took his seat in Parliament in 1848, having been elected for his native County, Vercheres. He continued to represent that constituency till the general election in 1851, when he contested Montreal with Mr. Dorion, and defeated him. He first took office in 1852 as a special Secretary, in the Hon. Mr. Mackenzie's Administration. In May of the same year, when Sir John A. Macdonald, and the Hon. Mr. Mackenzie's government was formed, Mr. Cartier became Attorney General of Lower Canada. In November, 1857, the Macdonald-Cartier Administration was formed, with John A. Macdonald as Premier, Cartier leading the Lower Canada section of the Government. In 1858, when the infamous "double-shuffle" took place--to which Cartier was as much a name as his colleague, John A. Macdonald--a slight change was made, and he was then known as the Cartier-Macdonald Government, which remained in power till 1861, when it was defeated, and was succeeded by the Macdonald (John A. Macdonald) Scott Government, which was soon after changed to the Macdonald-Dorion Government, and retained power till 1863. In that year the Conservatives came back to power, the Macdonald-Cartier Administration was formed, with Cartier as one of its leading members, and they held office till 1863, when the Coalition was formed, which carried Confederation. Until that time he continued to hold the position of Attorney-General for Lower Canada, and after Confederation he became Minister of Militia, which office he held till the time of his death. He sat for Montreal till the general election in 1872, when he was defeated by an overwhelming majority, and was afterwards elected for one of the constituencies in Manitoba. He was made a Baronet shortly after Confederation, in recognition of the services he had rendered in bringing about this union.

The deceased Baronet was essentially a party man. He soon saw the folly of the hot-headed revolutionists of 1837, and when he entered Parliament he espoused the Conservative side, and soon became the recognized leader of that party in Lower Canada. During the troublous times from 1837 till 1841, he sternly opposed every concession to Upper Canada in regard to representation by population, and by the hold which he had on his followers--by keeping them ever united in a firm phalanx--he obtained a power and a ascendancy over his colleagues, and in Parliament, which destroyed all opposition, and secured for his Province whatever legislation he desired. The Rouge party, led by Mr. Dorion, manfully opposed him, but they were much inferior in point of numbers, and fought at a great disadvantage, from the fact that the Catholic hierarchy and priests invariably threw their influence in favor of Cartier, and thus in every contest insured his success.

While a loyal adherent to the British Crown, he was at all times a staunch advocate for the rights and claims of his French-Canadian countrymen. Right or wrong he stood up for them at all times. He opposed representation by population, and fought the battle of the 10th of 11th of 12th of 13th of 14th of 15th of 16th of 17th of 18th of 19th of 20th of 21st of 22nd of 23rd of 24th of 25th of
