THE DUBLIN TRIALS!

A VERY WILLING GRAND JURY!

Third Trial of Kelly!

DUBLIN, May 1.—Fitzharris, commonly known as "Skin the Goat," charged with being one of the principals in the Phoenix Park murders, has been acquitted. No witnesses were called by the defence. The only evidence against Fitzharris was that given by the informers. He was, besides, identified by independent witnesses who swore they saw him in the Park on May 8th. Molloy made an eloquent address for the defence. He stated that the accusation that the prisoner was in the Park with the knowledge of the errand of informers alone. He said that though Peter Carey swore that the prisoner recounted the circumstances of the murders to him, his narrative of the assassination differed from the ascertained facts. He closed with a pathetic appeal to the jury to restore the poor man to his starving family with a good name, which was his sole possession. The judge, in charging the jury, said no evidence had been adduced to show that the prisoner was aware of the plot against Burke before May 8th. Earlier meetings which he attended were held to plot against the life of Forster, and had no connection with the present charge. It was clear that Fitzharris was in the Park when the murder occurred, but if the jury doubted that he was guilty of knowledge of the mission of the men he drove they were bound to acquit him. After the verdict was rendered Fitzharris was taken to jail to await his trial on a charge of conspiracy to murder, the penalty for which is ten years' penal servitude.

TRAPS SET FOR MR. PARNELL.

DUBLIN, May 2.—Patrick Delaney and Thomas Caffrey, charged with participation in the murders of Lord Cavendish and Mr. Burke, were arraigned this morning. They created a sensation by pleading guilty. Both were sentenced to be hanged on June 2nd. When Delaney was called upon to plead he said: "I am guilty of being in the Park when Cavendish and Burke were killed, but I did not commit the murder. I plead guilty." It was explained that this really amounted to pleading innocence. Delaney then formally pleaded guilty. He said: "I was brought into this at first foolishly, not knowing what it was. I was forced from my work to go to the Park, and had to obey the orders of the societies or take the consequences. When I was in the Park, I could not get away. I saw the murders committed but took no part in them. I went to the Park on Kavanagh's car. He speaks the truth, and does Carey. The murders were committed by Joe Brady and Timothy Kelly, and by nobody else. I saved Judge Lawson's life at the risk of my own. I was put on to shoot him by Mullett and Brady. The only way to escape the tax was by calling the guards' attention."

Judge O'Brien when sentencing Delaney said he had a duty to perform. He had at the previous trial of a prisoner for attempting to shoot Judge Lawson, pitied him because he showed some feeling for his wife and family. The prisoner would see to what misery they had been brought by the wicked system of conspiracy.

When Caffrey was placed in the dock his face wore a smile. In consequence of pleading guilty it was again fully explained to him in open court, but he persisted to plead. Being asked whether he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him, he replied in a loud, clear voice: "All I have got to say, standing on the brink of the grave, is, I did not know what was going to happen until 20 minutes before the murder was committed. I was bound to go to the Park under pain of death."

The Judge, in passing sentence, said there were no means of judging the truth of the prisoners' statements. He did not decide it was necessarily wholly untrue. The Grand Jury have been summoned to meet to-morrow to find bills against the men charged with conspiracy to murder.

DUBLIN, May 3.—The Grand Jury have returned true bills against Tynan, "No. 1," John Walsh and P. J. Sheridan for murder, and against Fitzharris as accessory after the fact. It is understood the Government will demand the extradition of Walsh, Sheridan and Tynan from America. The Grand Jury have found true bills against Lawrence Hanlon, Jas. and Joseph Mullett, and Daniel Delaney on the charge of attempting to murder Juror Field. They also found true bills for conspiracy to murder against the two Mulletts, Hanlon, Edward McCaffrey, Edward O'Brien, George Smith, Peter Doyle, Thomas Doyle, Wm. Moroney and Dan. Delaney. The bill against Thomas Martin, charged with the same offence, was rejected. James Mullett was arraigned this morning on the charge of conspiracy to murder, and several others charged with the same offence are expected to plead guilty. Hanlon was next arraigned, on the charge to murder Field, and pleaded not guilty. The trial then began.

The Grand Jury were sent back to reconsider the case of Martin, the bill against whom they rejected, and, after again deliberating, returned a true bill. DUBLIN, May 4.—George Smith, charged with being implicated in the conspiracy to murder Government officials, has been discharged, he having agreed to emigrate. DUBLIN, May 4.—Lawrence Hanlon, this morning, was convicted of the attempt to murder Juror Field and was sentenced to penal servitude for life. Fitzharris, in-

The Defeat of the Government

EXTRADITION!

LONDON, May 2.—At a banquet of the National Liberal Club to-night Gladstone said the Government had met the dangers from the unseen agency of secret societies successfully. NEW YORK, May 2.—Sullivan, President of the Irish National League, waited upon Cardinal McCloskey to-day. The Cardinal warmly endorsed the action of the Philadelphia Convention. LONDON, May 3.—In the House of Commons this afternoon the Affirmation Bill was refused a second reading by a vote of 292 to 289. Owing to this rejection it is stated that Bradlaugh intends to administer the oath to himself. The News says that in the rejection of the bill the forces of bigotry and intolerance triumphed. Fifty Irish members voted against the Affirmation Bill. The Times says it is to be regretted that the prudent and conclusive solution offered in the Affirmation Bill was not supported by a majority of the House. Thirteen persons have been arraigned at Galway charged with being implicated in the Letterfrank murders. Informers proved a meeting and the adoption of a plan to murder Constable Kavanagh. LONDON, May 4.—The Law Journal, after discussing the legal phases of the extradition question draws the conclusion that if the United States holds that Tynan, Walsh and Sheridan cannot be extradited under the existing treaty, and if they do not voluntarily surrender, they may, after various formal writs of arrest have been made out and returned unsatisfied, be adjudged outlaws and their property confiscated to the Crown. NEW YORK, May 4.—Sheridan and Walsh, whom the Dublin Grand Jury indicted for murder, are still un molested. They say they are quietly awaiting any attempt to arrest them. LONDON, May 4.—In the House of Commons this afternoon, the Speaker stated that he had received a letter from Mr. Bradlaugh which announced his intention, at the beginning of business to-day, to ask to be permitted to take the oath. The Speaker asked the guidance of the House. Loud cries were raised for Mr. Gladstone, but he did not rise. Sir Stafford Northcote stated that he would propose Bradlaugh be precluded from going through such form. Mr. Gladstone said he could raise no objection to the motion, which under the circumstances, Sir Stafford Northcote was the proper person to make. On motion of Mr. Labouchere, it was decided to hear Mr. Bradlaugh in his own behalf. Mr. Bradlaugh then said that the House last evening had rejected the Affirmation Bill, which would have enabled him to take his seat. It was now his duty to take the oath. The law gave him a seat in the House, and in the name of the law he demanded it. His exclusion was an act of flagrant indignity. No action of his justified the action of the House, which should declare the seat vacant or pass a bill disqualifying him; so long as he was not disqualified he would claim his seat. Mr. Labouchere opposed the motion of Sir Stafford Northcote. Mr. Gladstone, moving the previous question, announced that he would vote with Mr. Labouchere against the motion. The motion was carried by 271 to 165. Mr. Bradlaugh again addressed the House, arguing in favor of his claim to the seat. After speaking half an hour he returned to his usual seat below the bar, and the subject dropped. LONDON, May 5.—The Cabinet held a special session yesterday to consider the question of the extradition of Sheridan and Walsh. It is stated that the meeting was divided upon the question as to whether the Government had cause sufficient to request the United States to give the men up. Lord Granville takes the ground that the Government is far from prepared to ask the extradition, and says correspondence he has had with Washington, as well as the information he derived from the American Minister, convinced him that unless the Government is better equipped with evidence, extradition will be refused. He advised withholding the demand for extradition until the Government case is strengthened by further evidence. It is understood he informed the British Minister at Washington that all the evidence will be sent him, and that he should submit the case to American counsel, and if they advise it, to thereupon ask the United States to deliver up the men.

SHERIDAN, WALSH AND TYNAN.

THE QUESTION OF THEIR EXTRADITION IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Your correspondent has authority to state that in any demands which the British Government may make for the extradition of persons charged with criminal offenses, that if the evidence shows simply a conspiracy in this country to murder some one in England, the parties demanded will not be surrendered on any such evidence. As to what evidence may be presented by the British Government in support of the demand for the extradition of alleged criminals on other grounds the British will not determine until the whole subject is before him.

ATTITUDE OF THE UNITED STATES.

The United States Government will now, as an earnest student, refuse to enlarge the intent of article 10 on the Assentment treaty. If a demand is made by the British Minister for warrants for the arrest of Tynan and Walsh on the ground that they are within the United States, in order to the warrant already issued by the State Department under our extradition laws for the arrest of Mr. Sheridan, they will be issued. Such a preliminary act cannot be avoided. But your correspondent is authorized to say that in all demands for the extradition of persons charged with the crime of murder, as in the case of Sheridan, Tynan and Walsh, after the alleged denial of a grand jury, that our Government will demand that a certified copy of the indictment shall not only be the basis for extradition, but it must be supported by attested depositions on which such indictment is founded. If the evidence required by our extradition treaty with great care is not conclusive, there is the highest authority for saying that not one of the parties demanded now or hereafter will be surrendered.

PLANS OF THE NEW LEAGUE.

President Sullivan expresses his views about them—A Literary Propaganda to be begun, so that the entire Civilized World may know the Extent of English Wrong-doing.

NEW YORK, May 4.—Mr. Alexander Sullivan, of Chicago, also President of the new Irish National League, organized at Philadelphia last week, in conversation with a reporter for the N. Y. Star gave a succinct and graphic description of the future objects and plans of action proposed by the organization in the interest of Ireland.

"One of the plans of action which will differ from those of the past," said Mr. Sullivan, "is to rely more upon literature than upon public meetings. We intend to issue addresses and have more frequent communications with the other side and ascertain the condition of things there from Mr. Parnell and his Association. We shall issue statements of the various views of the Irish question in order to familiarize the people more with it with a view of eliciting more extensive sympathy from Irish-Americans, as well as Americans, and from other nations."

"In what form chiefly do you propose to distribute literature on the various questions pertaining to Ireland?"

"In the form of addresses, pamphlets and tracts, showing more closely the wrongs inflicted on the people, and showing the condition and capacity of Ireland, her industrial, manufacturing and material resources, how these could be developed and would thrive under self-government and fair treatment. It is intended to show how Ireland could support herself under a regime of her own as compared with the way she has been supported under English rule. We want to establish a more thorough and closer connection between this country and Ireland than there has been in the past."

"What are your ideas about further organization for carrying out these plans?"

"Well, there has been nothing yet put into practical shape. The Council have that matter in hand, and will each communicate their views before any general action is taken."

"You intend to consolidate the present organization upon the Chicago platform?"

"Not only that, we intend to enlarge its scope very much. We believe that the Chicago platform is broad enough to accommodate all Irishmen who have the good of their country at heart, and indeed we are hopeful that even men of other nations may find standing room upon it. We think our cause is one that, when properly presented, will enlist universal sympathy. We expect to organize a body on the principles of that platform that will be potential to render moral and material aid to Ireland. We intend by such publications as I have referred to, and others, to remove many wrong impressions and prejudices concerning the Irish people in relation to their capacity for self-government, and other matters, politically and socially, in which they have been misrepresented. I believe we live in an age when the enlightened sympathy of the world can be gained against the methods of such an unscrupulous power as that of England. One great object of our propaganda will be secure the sympathy of the enlightened and civilized world."

"Theoretically, will this not include England?"

"Yes," said Mr. Sullivan, with a candid smile, "it will have the effect of exposing the hypocrisy of the Government which professes to be solicitous for the welfare of mankind. There is no denying that England possesses a kind of solicitude for a large portion of the human family, but her methods of demonstrating it are sometimes peculiar."

"Do you tacitly imply the kind of solicitude she manifested with her fleet recently in Egypt?"

"Yes, that is one example, and I might refer to the tender care which she has shown toward her Eastern subjects, and those in general over whom she has imposed her guardianship."

"If the plan of propaganda you propose should fall, what then?"

This question imposed a momentary silence on Mr. Sullivan. He sat reflectively, and then in a firm tone of voice he fitted the language of Richelieu to the occasion, and answered: "In the Irishmen's lexicon there is no such word as fall," and then added still more emphatically:

"We have organized for success, and not for failure."

"What do you think of the prospects of warfare?"

"Our organization has no connection with any movement for warfare at present. Anything of that kind is outside the present purposes of the organization. The hope of this organization is that liberty may be achieved without such extreme measures."

"How do you think the Irish people feel at heart on this subject?"

"I presume it is not unreasonable to say that the great bulk of the Irish people think they would have a right to resort to warfare if the opportunity presented itself. A much greater right than the American colonies had when the War of Independence broke out; but our organization will not encourage, but oppose, and endeavor to prevent any foolish outbreak that would only tend to weaken the cause and give the British Government a stronger hold on the Irish people."

"How do you feel personally on the subject of war?"

"I think it would be perfectly justifiable if there were such an opportunity presented as would make a warlike movement sanctioned by reason—that is, if had a reasonable probability of success. But I think to make war without a fair probability of success would be a crime against the Irish people and against civilization."

"You cannot say at present then what the organization will do?"

"I am not able to state exactly what they will do. I believe they are ready to go as far as the people at home want them to go at any time; but they are not prepared to dictate a policy to the people at home. I think the League represents the sentiments of the Irish people in general."

"Do you think the sentiments of the Philadelphia platform represent those of the large majority?"

"I do think they represent the sentiments of the majority, leaving out a very small minority. The organization will do all in its power to discourage crime, and will appeal to remove the causes of crime for which it is responsible."

"In what way will the new League suggest that the British Government can do that?"

"By treating the Irish people fairly, by giving them self government, by ceasing to enact every demand of the Irish people for fair legislation, by ceasing to treat Ireland as a hostile camp, by ceasing to thrust upon the people foreign officials who have no interest in the country except to draw from it all the wealth they can, and who have no sympathy with the people. We believe that no Government has ever existed, or ever will exist, entitled to the fealty of those whom it calls its subjects, under such treatment as that which Ireland has received at the hands of England. We believe that in the march of liberty and liberality which characterizes this age, no Government is strong enough to be invulnerable against the persistent, united, intelligent, justifiable hostility of a large portion of those whom it calls subjects, especially when those subjects, or alleged subjects, so conduct their hostile discussion against the Government as to win the sympathy of the civilized world."

Mr. Sullivan then made some reference to the proposed scheme of encouraging Irish commerce to the detriment of the English merchant marine, and the reporter asked him what he thought of the sneer of the London Times at this proposition.

"The fact that the Times, as the organ of the Government, showed that it was irritated, is a proof in itself that there is probably something in it that would be damaging to the English interests," he replied.

"Then you think there will be some beneficial outcome in agitation and moral suasion?"

"I believe the cause that is so sacred as to justify revolution when revolution is sanctioned by reason, is a cause which cannot fail to be advanced by discussion, agitation and moral suasion. We believe in the beneficial effects of agitation, and that it is our duty to invoke the just judgment of mankind in the cause of our oppressed nationality."

SOABE AT HALIFAX.

WARNING LETTERS—THE "VENIAN NAVY" CRAWLING ABOUT—DOUBLING THE GUARDS.

HALIFAX, N.S., May 7.—An alarming rumor was current today, finding circulation first in military circles, that a startling letter had been received by Lt. Governor Archibald, warning him of the expected visit to Halifax of two suspicious American vessels and cautioning him to have precautions taken for the safety of life and property in and about the city. It was stated that communication had come from Sir John A. Macdonald and contained information which at once started the military and naval authorities into action, steps being taken to have everything in readiness should resort to severe measures be required. The Lieutenant-Governor, on being called on, said a letter of warning had been received by him from most reliable authority, containing statements which it was necessary for officials here to act on at once. He did not wish to give the name of the writer, but asserted his belief that no hoax had been practised on him, though, perhaps, anxious information had been given to its author by other parties. He also declined to state its contents, either in detail or in part, or to comment on the nature of the measures which had been taken by the military or naval authorities. Enquiries were pursued further, and an inkling was obtained of the contents of the letter. Col. Clerk, on Sunday, communicated to the officers information that two suspicious vessels, manned, it was believed, by Fenians, and carrying a quantity of torpedoes and other dangerous explosives, had sailed from Boston a few days ago, and intended to make Halifax their destination. On arriving here it was asserted the torpedoes would be laid as opportunity offered beneath the water of the harbor with the intention of blowing up shipping entering or leaving. Particular mention was made of an extraordinary watch to be kept on the 14th instant, the day on which Brady, one of the Phoenix Park murderers, is to be executed, and it was recommended that the guards at the various barracks, powder magazines, dockyards and warships in port be strengthened. On H.M.S. "Tenedos" this has been done, and sentries stationed at various points in the city have been instructed to be careful whom they allow to enter the gates at which the watch.

CAPTAIN O'BRIEN ON EXTRADITION.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Captain O'Mearha Gordon of this city, one of the Fenians concerned in the Manchester murders, speaking this evening of the probable extradition proceedings against Sheridan, Tynan and Walsh, said: "I cannot make myself believe that this free American Government can so far prostitute itself as to yield to the demands of England for the blood of some of our best officers. Mr. Sheridan and the other parties whose extradition is demanded, we all know are entirely innocent of having any connection with plots to assassinate English officials. England naturally hates such editors as Sheridan, whose caustic pen has done as much to show up the wickedness of that country, and I do not doubt that this Government turns him over to those bloodthirsty British officials they will make up sufficient perjured evidence to consign him to the gallows."

WEDNESDAY, 16.—Of the Octave. Ember Day. Fast.

The United States have some difficulty in keeping their little standing army together. About four thousand men out of a total of twenty-five thousand deserted last year.

Our covetous M. P.'s want another increase in their salaries to the extent of $100,000, or an additional $500 each to their present indemnity of $1,000.

The following despatch is a perfect reflection of the way in which justice is administered in a portion of the British Empire:—"The Grand Jury, at Dublin, have been summoned to meet tomorrow to find bills against the men charged with conspiracy to murder."

A press despatch informs us that some of the members of the recent Convention were authorized agents of the English Government. What, if they were? The Government is very foolish in spending its money on "authorized agents," when the press of the country has been to such expense in sending hundreds of correspondents and reporters to criticize and take note of the proceedings at the Convention, to be afterwards given world-wide circulation.

Ma. Gladstone seems to be coming to grief between two stools—Affirmation and Coercion. By his coercive policy he has irrevocably alienated the sympathies of a large number of Irish representatives and English Radicals, while by the extreme liberality of his Affirmation bill he has forfeited the support of the more Conservative members of the Whig party.

he would vote against Sir Stafford's motion. These are two heavy knock-downs for the Premier, and it will be no surprise to soon see him knocked clean out of the ring.

One of the best acts of the New York Legislature, which has just adjourned, was the passage of a bill for the preservation and security of the natural beauty surrounding the Niagara Falls.

The London Universe, which is one of the most sober and serious journals in Great Britain, has the following weighty and significant remarks on the political situation as it affects England and Ireland. It says:—"England cannot now afford to treat Ireland with contempt."

Justice in the Dublin trials is becoming inconsistent. "Skin the goat," alias Fitzharris, charged with being one of the principals in the Phoenix Park tragedy, has been acquitted. The very same evidence of the informers, which justified a verdict of guilty in the cases of Brady and Curley, was given against Fitzharris, and it was, moreover, corroborated by independent witnesses, who swore they saw him in the Park on the 8th of May.

The following cablegram from Dublin is very suggestive, and throws considerable light upon the tactics of the Government. It reads:—"Dublin, May 1.—Nevin, arrested on Saturday, charged with conspiracy to murder, and who turned informer, has been released. It is believed he knows nothing of any conspiracy."

United States, although the Dublin Judge and Juries were undivided, were unanimous in declaring that there was cause sufficient to hang the alleged subordinates of Sheridan and Walsh and Tynan. This inconsistency, if its significance is not misleading, tells the tale of a most horrible outrage on justice and on the lives of the men sentenced to death.

The new President of the Irish National League of America, Mr. Alexander Sullivan, waited upon Cardinal McCloskey yesterday and was warmly greeted by this holy and venerable dignitary of the Church.

IMMIGRANTS REFUSING TO EAT MEAT.

Yesterday Mr. Daley, Dominion Immigration Agent, with his assistants, had their hands unusually full, as they had to care for no less than 2,450 immigrants who arrived via Quebec at the Tanneries depot outside the city.

HANGING AND EXTRADITING.

In the estimation of all intelligent people who will give the subject a minute's consideration, it should require much less evidence to justify a demand for the extradition of an accused party than it would to justify a sentence of death against him.

religion toleration called to the mast. This declaration, to all intents and purposes, is equivalent to an avowal that the defeat of the measure in the House of Commons would be regarded as a vote of less confidence, and, if so, will the present rejection of the measure, by a clear majority of Parliament, be met by an appeal to the electors?

TREE CULTURE.

The Provincial Government have done a wise thing in setting apart a special day to be devoted to the planting of trees in the cities, towns and rural districts of the country.

DEFEAT OF GLADSTONE'S GOVERNMENT.

A test vote was reached yesterday in the House of Commons on the Affirmation bill, by which the Liberal Government had undertaken to extend to avowed atheists, or agnostics, the same political rights and privileges which are enjoyed by all the rest of her Majesty's subjects.

running of trains. Sir Charles Tupper concluded his able statement by recapitulating the many advantages which would accrue to the country at large from the building of this great national highway.

PROTECTION FOR THE WORKING CLASSES.

The Factory Bill, introduced into the House by Sir Leonard Tilley, is a piece of legislation which should have been enacted long ago. The working classes have received but very light protection from the law, and far-far treatment had to depend upon the good will and kindness of their employers.

The proposed law for the Dominion, in its several provisions, tends to the protection of life and health to a certain extent. The measure contains in the first place a lengthy list of the different classes of factories to which it will apply, and declares that it includes any premises, room or place in which steam water or other mechanical power is used to move or work any machinery employed in preparing or manufacturing or finishing any article, substance, material, fabric or compound, or in which any manual labor is exercised by way of trade or for purposes of gain on the making, altering, repairing, ornamenting, or furnishing of any article, or adopting it for sale.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY.

Sir Charles Tupper delivered his annual statement on the Canadian Pacific Railway in the House of Commons last Friday evening. In spite of the feeble state of his health, the Hon. Minister of Railways held the attention of the House for over three hours, and was listened to with deep and general interest.

MEETING OF PARNELLITES. LONDON, May 8.—At a meeting of Parnellite members of Parliament last night, at which Mr. Parnell presided, a motion was passed in favor of the formation of a sub-committee on "Immigrants from foreign and colonial affairs, and local affairs; the committee to be composed of five members."

TRAPPING BRITISH LIES.

Desperate efforts have been made in high quarters in England to turn Rome against Ireland and to create a quarrel between His Holiness Leo XIII. and the Irish people.

These absurd canards are cabled to America by the British agency in London, but we never hear or see any contradiction of them coming by the same route.

United Ireland says that "the complicity will be unspcakably grateful to Irish feeling, both as a tribute to the greatest of Irish prelates and as a triumphant refutation of the stupid slanders of which Mr. Errington, M. P., has been the busybody talebearer in Rome."

THE IRISH RELIEF FUND.

The Treasurer of the Irish Relief Committee begs to acknowledge the receipt of the following contributions for the relief of Irish distress:-

- Bryan Shea, Montreal, $5.
Collected by Thos. Gallagher, $1; Martin Connell, Oudington, 1; David Mallen, Seymour, 50c; P. Gallagher, Oudington, 50c; Wm. Kennedy 50c, John Leonard 25c, Jas. Loran 50c, M. Tierney 75c, Phillip Moran 50c, J. Conroy $1, Thos. Halloran 1, Lawrence Synan 1, John Moran 1, James Tate 1, P. McGuire 50c, A. Friend 50c.

PAPERS ON REASON AND FAITH.

To some it may appear that all that we have said in condemnation of private inspiration is nothing more than a proof, a priori, or a proof founded on abstraction, and consequently little better than mere assertions.

The numerous swarms of religious enthusiasts, froliced fanatics, which appeared during the middle ages, and whose work of zeal was to destroy the Catholic Church, differed in nothing from the Montanists, rave in name. A full description of their heresies may be obtained from Piquet's Dictionary of Heresies.

We find in Mostein's history of the times and proceedings of the Reformers an account of thrilling events, in which, with many others, David George acted a conspicuous part. He maintained that he was the true Son of God, that the Bible was very imperfect and liable to lead Christians into error, while his doctrine alone was perfect.

FEAST OF THE REV. FATHER HOGAN, AT ST. ANN'S ACADEMY.

The reverend pastor of St. Ann's was, no doubt, yesterday highly gratified at the grand entertainment given in his honor by the pupils of the St. Ann's Academy, on Monday, the 7th inst. The occasion was the Rev. Father Hogan's Feast, also as the feast of the academy was the scene of the most pleasing nature, and was a particularly delectable affair.

SCOTCH NEWS.

On Friday week a distressing case of suicide took place in the parish of Boharra, a farmer named John Cameron, residing at Knowhead, having hanged himself in his own stable.

Mr. Robert Nichol, one of the oldest inhabitants of Larkhall, has just passed away in his 93rd year. The deceased had nine children, and at the time of his death he was the fortunate proprietor of 68 grandchildren and 128 great-grandchildren—205 in all—of whom 42 are dead.

CATHOLIC EDUCATION IN DUNDEE.

Last month the foundation stone of new schools and hall in connection with St. Mary's, Forebank, was laid by the Right Rev. Dr. Riggs, Bishop of the diocese. The present accommodation having been found quite inadequate for the large number of children attending school, it was resolved to erect a new building worthy of the parish and the Catholic population of the town.

OBITUARY.

Herr Schultz, of Potsdam, founder of the asylum of Friendly Societies, is dead.

Dr. Robert Estuace, of Canby, Guyborough, N.S., died very suddenly at his home in that place under mysterious circumstances. He was sick but a little over 24 hours, and during that time suffered great agony, showing every symptom of cholera.

PAUPER IMMIGRATION.

Boston, May 7.—The Governor has written Secretary Folger concerning the landing of English and Irish paupers at this port. The Governor says the matter is one of considerable importance to this Commonwealth.

THE STORY WITHOUT AN END.

Again, in great monetary value seems almost monotonous. The 156th Grand Monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery at New Orleans, on April 10th, has this record: Ticket No. 62,887 drew the first grand prize of $75,000, of which Henry M. Kisselink, of No. 188 Danforth st., Chicago, Ill., and A. Gardner, Tricot, Vermillionville, La., held each one-fifth. Ticket No. 72,692 won the second capital of $25,000—collected in one whole lump by the Manufacture National Bank of Troy, for M. Connelly, of Troy, N. Y. Ticket No. 62,980 won the third capital, $10,000, and was sold in fifth—one to Edwin T. Eisenberg, Jr. (collected through The Central National Bank of Philadelphia); another to H. H. Harper, of St. George's Colleton Co., S. C.; another to Wm. H. Hampton, of Tracy City, Franklin Co., Tenn.; another to B. F. Kruger, No. 241 Fourth st., Milwaukee, Wis. The two fourth capital prizes of $5,000 each were sold to holders of tickets No. 68,507 and 26,502—two fifths were sold to James B. Day, Malta, Bermuda, O. Mo., and to parties in Fort Wayne, Ind., New Haven, Conn. For further information apply to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., before the next drawing on June 12th, when the grand capital prize will be $150,000.

CATHOLIC NEWS.

A pastoral letter from the Roman Catholic Bishop of the province was read on Sunday at the Basilica, Quebec, establishing an annual collection on Pentecost Day for the Catholic Schools of the Northwest.

Rev. Dr. Clary, Bishop of Kingston, has laid the foundation of the New Roman Catholic Church at Sharbot Lake. A very large excursion went from Kingston to witness the ceremony. The church will be a credit to the Roman Catholics of the village.

The Duchess of Norfolk is about to found a convent of Poor Clares at Arundel, of which Order her Grace's first cousin, the Misses Kitwar, are novices. To the conventual institutions in Sussex may now be added the community of Carmelites at Chichester, where a number of valuable memorials of a Mademoiselle de France, of Louis Quinze, are preserved. The Carthusian monks of Owlford have now also completed their magnificent church, which will be consecrated on the 10th of May with great ceremony. In the presence of a large gathering of the Catholic aristocracy. The Premonstratensian monks at Storrington are also about to build a great monastery, aided by the Duke of Norfolk.—London Univers.

A Catholic reaction is making itself felt in the upper classes of Germany, just as much as in those of England. Dr. Welcker, a professor in the University of Leipzig, has lately published a paper entitled "A Statistical Proof of the Growth of Catholicity among the nobility of Germany." The author, himself a Protestant, shows that in the course of the present century as many as forty four members of families possessing sovereign rank have become converts to Catholicity; three of these were princes, viz.: Prince Solms-Braunfels, Prince Isenburg-Birstein, and Prince Lowenstein-Wertheim; then there are eleven counts and twelve countesses. One of them was the Countess of Brandenburg, a daughter of King William II. of Prussia, and aunt to the present Emperor. As a set-off against these forty-four conversions, Protestantism can only claim nine proselytes from Catholicity, all of them persons of minor note. The author holds that these figures are not to be looked upon as implying a victory of Catholicity over Protestantism; but that there are few people likely to share his optimism.

In Prussia Poland a struggle between two nationalities—the German and the Polish—has been going on for well-nigh a hundred years. Most of the former are Protestants and most of the latter Catholics. The ordinary of the diocese of Posen, which contains the greater part of Prussian Poland, is the much-reverenced Cardinal Archbishop Ledochowski, whose very existence is now ignored by the Prussian Government, who have superseded him, as they term it, nine years ago. Since then, it has been impossible for any priest to be appointed, and only in one place, called Garbstadt the Government have allowed a new priest, in the person of Father Pieper, to minister, simply because the people of the district were all Poles, and Father Pieper, who is a German, knew no Polish. But in this instance, the priest stole a march on the Prussian Government; he applied himself to the study of the Polish language, which is about as difficult to acquire for a German as Welsh is for an Englishman, and now he ministers to his flock in their own vernacular. His church is a barn and his school is a stable, yet he goes on preaching to and teaching some 500 souls who would otherwise remain destitute of all religion.

THE SUPPLEMENTARY ESTIMATES.

Ottawa, May 5.—The supplementary estimates for the fiscal year 1882-3 were presented this afternoon. The amount required for the public service in addition to that voted last session is $3,300,893, of which $1,092,353 is chargeable to capital, $1,535,547 chargeable to income, $512,992 for unprovided items, and $130,000 authorized by statute. THE FITZHARRIS ACCIDENT SCENE IN THE COURT-HOUSE.

McInerney, the prisoner's counsel—He is an old American's counsel—Ismsy of the Crown Prosecutors. On May 3.—The tables have been suddenly and I must say unexpectedly, turned on the Crown in the matter of the Phoenix Park murder trials.

At the opening of court this morning there was great excitement, not only in the neighborhood of Green street, but all over the city. Some people, but I must say the fewest in number, formed opinion that the jury would be glad of any failure of positive testimony as an excuse for mercy...

The court was crowded, and when the case for the prosecution had closed, some astonishment was manifested by the announcement of the prisoner's counsel that no witnesses would be produced for the defence.

Mr. McInerney, a young lawyer, is to be credited with this prudential policy. It may be interesting to learn that this promising advocate was for some time a lawyer in New York, and a journalist, too, in connection with the N. Y. Star under its original management.

Judge O'Brien's charge to the jury was characterized by more fairness and impartiality than any of his preceding efforts. The jury retired for consideration of their verdict. Their return to court was watched with painful interest.

REFRESHING FRAGRANCE!

Neither the French, English nor German perfumes possess any refreshing or invigorating properties, their heavy, sweet smell quickly becoming oppressive and disagreeable; not so with the fresh floral fragrance of Monray & Lashman's Florida Water, which, after years of constant use, is found more refreshing than at the first trial.

LOSS OF THE STEAMER "GRAPPLER."

LETTER FROM MEMBER OF CONGRESS HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 19th, 1882. Gentlemen—Enclosed find one dollar, and will you send me some of N. H. Down's Vegetable Balm Elixir, by express. I have a bad cold, as has almost everyone else here, but cannot find the Elixir, which I use frequently at home, and consider a most valuable medicine; in fact, the very best remedy for a cough that I ever used.

From the easy expectation, increased respiratory power of the Lungs, and the removal of irritation, manifest from cessation of Cough and other alarming symptoms, after using Felle's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it is clear that the formation of tuberculous matter is not only stopped, but that malady deposited is being carried away.

THE LITTLE RIDGEAU MURDER.

TRIAL OF THE PRISONER POSTPONED UNTIL NEXT MONDAY. The prisoner in the Little Ridgeau murder case, Frederick Mann, was arraigned before the Assize Court yesterday and a true bill was returned against him.

Mr. J. Maxwell, of the Original, who has undertaken to defend the prisoner, to-day made application for a postponement of the trial till the next Assizes. His grounds were the absence of two material witnesses for the defence, Amelia Hale, eldest sister of the prisoner, who lives in Tewkesbury, England, and Wm. Cooke, who was almost fatally assaulted by Mann with an axe at the time of the murder.

When two years ago he was attacked with smallpox, from the effects of which disease he has since suffered severely in the head. At the age of eleven he was apprenticed to a baker at Tewkesbury, and on the 30th of March, 1877, while delivering bread, the horse ran away and he was thrown violently to the ground from the cart, sustaining a severe fracture of the skull.

Mr. H. S. Macdonald, Crown Prosecutor, objected to a postponement, contending that the plea of insanity was intended to be set up at the outset by the defendant's counsel, and it was the latter's duty to prepare for that line of defence.

ASTONISHMENT IN DUBLIN.

Tactics of the Crown Prosecutors to fix the Crime of Assassination on Brady and Kelly. DUBLIN, May 3.—The city is in the ferment of excitement today. A new act in the terrible tragedy of the Phoenix Park a year ago was presented in Green Street Court-House this morning.

The condemned men Brady, Curley and Egan are kept in rigorous solitary confinement at Kilmalham. They are not communicative, and though there is no bravado, there are certainly no signs of a breakdown in spirits.

The news from Clare to-day indicates that the Crown is making no satisfactory headway in the Ormshead and Miltown-Malbay conspiracy cases.

Professor Mearns, who has resumed work in his laboratory again, after his return from Europe, was visited by a reporter last evening.

What did you think of the Philadelphia Convention? "The best answer I can give to that question is to refer you to the article in the London Times, the organ of the British Government, published in the cable despatches of this evening."

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows.

A LETTER FROM BISHOP NULTY.

WORDS OF INSTRUCTION AND ADVICE FROM THE DISTINGUISHED PATRIOT PRELATE. Mr. J. O'Neill Barragh, the Corresponding Secretary of the Irish Confederation of America, has recently transmitted to Bishop Nulty, the patriotic dignitary who presides over the Irish Diocese of Meath, a draft for money raised by the Confederation to relieve distress in Ireland.

MULLINGAR, April 9, 1883.

MY DEAR SIR: In reply to your letter I beg to assure you that I have already duly acknowledged through the Ulster Banking Co. the draft which the Irish Confederation of America have so kindly and generously forwarded to me for the relief of their distressed brethren in this country, and that the money has been distributed in strict and scrupulous compliance with the instructions that accompanied it.

I have often arraigned the British Government here as being morally responsible for the terrible outrages which it so vehemently condemns, and which every good man deplores. But one cheering result of these terrible famines is found in the fact that the sympathy felt for us by our countrymen abroad and the generosity with which they come to our relief clearly prove that the Irish race in every land under heaven are firmly and closely united in one vast brotherhood.

I wish and pray for your Consideration a long and prosperous and a successful career. Reciprocating again, with all the fervor of an Irish heart the feelings of sympathy and generosity which you have so nobly displayed for the remnant of your race in this old land, I remain, my dear sir, ever respectfully yours,

J. O'NEILL BARRAGH, Cor. Sec'y, etc.

ARBOR DAY

The Ceremony This Morning

How the Inaugural Day was Kept—The Hon. W. W. Lynch, Mayor, presided over the ceremony...

When our reporter reached Fletcher's Field on Monday the only thing which could be distinguished to denote that the inaugural ceremony of Arbor Day was about to take place there...

The trees to be planted were maple saplings, and gave every indication of being good specimens. Park Ranger McGibbon marked off the ground and at the suggestion of Ald. Holland the site for the trees was chosen.

The Mayor, as he dug a bran new spade into the earth and brought out a good sized sod. Ald. Holland followed his example, after which the Hon. Mr. Joly took out a big one.

Mayor Bandy then made a speech. He said that he had just planted a maple tree in honor of Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise, upon which her initials were engraved.

Mr. Joly, Ald. Stevenson, Miss Louise Gregory, Mrs. Gregory and several others, the job being eventually finished by the workmen.

Mr. Lynch, in a neat speech, then said that as long as the trees they had just planted would live and flourish he hoped that the illustrious persons in whose honor they had been raised would live in happiness and prosperity...

Ald. Stevenson said admiringly that it took "an Irishman to make a speech, anyhow" (hear, hear).

Mr. Bandy moved that his Worship the Mayor take the chair, as a witness of the solemnity of the occasion...

The whole party, however, moved to the steps of the City Hall, which were ascended by His Worship. He said he was happy to a means of promoting in any way in his power such a good cause as the planting of trees.

Mr. White heartily congratulated the Minister of Crown Lands, to whom the greatest credit was due for the movement they were inaugurating.

The trees planted around the Exhibition ground were ornamented with colored ribbons and dedicated to the following: Hon. D. B. Masson, J. M. Browning, Hon. E. Dionne, Hon. G. Ouellet, Hon. Mervin, Hon. L. Beaudin, Hon. J. B. L. Poirer, Hon. J. B. L. Poirer, Hon. J. B. L. Poirer...

Since Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has become celebrated, a number of unprincipled persons have been endeavoring to palm off these similar named articles. If their originators had any faith in the healing properties of their own medicines they would, like honest men, give them a name of their own...

Finance and Commerce

FINANCIAL. TRUE WITNESS OFFICE. TUESDAY, May 7, 1883. In New York to day money loaned at 4 per cent. In the same city Canada Pacific Railway stock opened at 63 and fell to 62 1/2...

The money market keeps quiet. Rates are unchanged as follows:—Call loans on stocks are made at 6 to 6 1/2 per cent. Sterling is dull and unaltered. Rates are as follows:—Sixty day bills between banks, 9 to 9 1/2; commercial, 9; demand, 8 1/2; premium, 8 1/2.

COMMERCIAL

WEEKLY REVIEW—WHOLESALE MARKETS. With the opening of navigation, reduced summer freight rates have come into force all over the country with beneficial results.

Wool.—The market is steady at last week's prices. Stocks of foreign are light, and some parties are waiting for fresh arrivals. No large lots were reported during the week. We quote prices as follows:—Great Cape, 1 1/2 to 2; Australian, 2 1/2 to 3; as to quality; Canadian pulled, super, 3 to 3 1/2.

Wheat.—Reported sales were 100,000 bushels of about 1,000 tons on the basis here of $21.50 for Garbarric and $19.00 for Ontario. There have also been made about 500,000 bushels of Canada No. 1, 2, and 3, at prices ranging from $22.00 to $24.50.

At the Grand Truck Yards, Point St. Charles, Messrs. O. A. Auer & Co. received since Saturday 39 carloads of cattle and carloads of hogs. There was quite a call and all offerings were taken at from 5 1/2 to 6 1/2 per lb. live weight for good to choice steers and heifers.

There was a brisk demand for desirable animals, and as the supply was light, prices were very firm. Several American buyers arrived in the city with orders for both light roasters and heavy draught horses.

THE EXTRADITION QUESTION

New York, May 7.—The Herald's Washington special says: It is understood Minister West has fully represented to the British Government the embarrassing position in which he is placed by the failure to bring forward evidence necessary for the preliminary hearing of Sheridan's case.

COMPENSATION BILL FOR SCOTLAND

THE SCOTTISH TENANTS TO GET BETTER TERMS THAN THE IRISH. LONDON, May 8.—The agricultural laborers of Scotland have finally succeeded in forcing ministerial action in their behalf, and a Tenant Farmers' Compensation Bill has been prepared by the Government.

THE EXTRADITION QUESTION

New York, May 7.—The Herald's Washington special says: It is understood Minister West has fully represented to the British Government the embarrassing position in which he is placed by the failure to bring forward evidence necessary for the preliminary hearing of Sheridan's case.

Under the treaty fixed by a series of unbroken precedents. The evidence must establish the commission of murder or assault with intent to commit murder, or evidence of premeditation and evidence should appear on the presentation to establish their guilt, still the United States would demand that they should have a fair trial before a jury of their peers according to common law. In the case of assassination of murder, now it is well understood our Government does not recognize such a crime as a political offense.

A tourist leaning out of a nook fell on his head near a brook. The hurt he received. St. Jacobs Oil relieved. And he says it cured "like a book."

Great cures from Little's corns spring. Great cures from Little's toe-corns bring; But for every corn, That ever was born, St. Jacobs Oil is just the thing.
