

IMAGE EVALUATION TEST TARGET (MT-3)

Photographic
Sciences
Corporation

23 WEST MAIN STREET
WEBSTER, N.Y. 14580
(716) 872-4303

CIHM/ICMH
Microfiche Series.

CIHM/ICMH Collection de
microfiches.

Canadian Institute for Historical Microreproductions / Institut canadien de microreproductions historiques

© 1982

Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

- ☐ Coloured covers/Couverture de couleur
- ☐ Covers damaged/Couverture endommagée
- ☐ Covers restored and/or laminated/Couverture restaurée et/ou pelliculée
- ☐ Cover title missing/Le titre de couverture manque
- ☐ Coloured maps/
Cartes géographiques en couleur
- ☐ Coloured ink (i.e. other than blue or black)/ Encre de couleur (i.e. autre que bleue ou noire)
- ☐ Coloured plates and/or illustrations/Planches et/ou illustrations en couleur
- ☐ Bound with other material/Relié avec d'autres documents
- ☐ Tight binding may cause shadows or distortion along interior margin/La reliure serrée peut causer de l'ombre ou de la distortion le long de la marge intérieure
- ☐ Blank leaves added during restoration may appear within the text. Whenever possible, these have been omitted from filming/Il se peut que certaines pages blanches ajoutées lors d'une restauration apparaissent dans le texte, mais, lorsque cela était possible, ces pages n'ont pas été filmées.
- ☐ Additional comments:/ Commentaires supplémentaires:

L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

- ☐ Coloured pages/
Pages de couleur
- ☐ Pages damaged/
Pages endommagées
- ☐ Pages restored and/or laminated/Pages restaurées et/ou pelliculées
- ☒ Pages discoloured, stained or foxed/Pages décolorées, tachetées ou piquées
- ☐ Pages detached/Pages détachées
- ☒ Showthrough/
Transparence
- ☐ Quality of print varies/Qualité inégale de l'impression
- ☐ Includes supplementary material/Comprend du matériel supplémentaire
- ☐ Only edition available/Seule édition disponible
- ☐ Pages wholly or partially obscured by errata slips, tissues, etc., have been refilmed to ensure the best possible image/Les pages totalement ou partiellement obscurcies par un feuillet d'errata, une pelure, etc., ont été filmées à nouveau de façon à obtenir la meilleure image possible.

This item is filmed at the reduction ratio checked below/Ce document est filmé au taux de réduction indiqué ci-dessous.

10X	14X	18X	22X	26X	30X
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
12X	16X	20X	24X	28X	32X

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

John D.

M.

B

LAT

EXTI
SE RA

From

112. P

7

M^r. John Baird A. Greenock

BRIEF ACCOUNT

OF THE

LATE REVIVALS OF RELIGION

IN A NUMBER OF TOWNS IN THE

New-England States,

AND ALSO IN

N O V A - S C O T I A.

EXTRACTED CHIEFLY FROM LETTERS WRITTEN BY SEVERAL GENTLEMEN OF UNQUESTIONABLE VE-RACITY.

To which is added,

A VERY INTERESTING LETTER,

From a MINISTER in London to his FRIEND in Massachusetts.

BOSTON :

PRINTED BY MANNING & LORING.

Sept. 1799.

EX

ba

Y

friend
this i
cold
try."
in th
about
soon
A fe
the l
of th
flood
derfu
a tim
conve
it beg
rapid lately
ety,
the f
Rev. lately

D
show ed o
tion,
ing c
grace
mark
in th

A BRIEF ACCOUNT, &c.

EXTRACT 1. Mr. S—— W——, of Windham, in Connecticut, thus writes to his friend in Boston.

Windham, Oct. 2, 1798.

Rev. and dear Sir,

YOU will pardon me for using the freedom to trouble you with a line from so unworthy, though sincere friend. It is a time of general health in these parts; but this is not the best news I shall acquaint you with: for "as cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country."—God is carrying on a glorious work in several towns in these parts. The work began in Mansfield, first society, about five or six months ago, in a very gradual manner; but soon took a very rapid spread in the west part of the town. A sermon preached in that neighbourhood at a funeral, by the Rev. Mr. Shearman, was greatly blessed. The Spirit of the Lord seemed to sweep all before it like an overflowing flood, though with very little noise or crying out. It is wonderful to see the surprising alteration in that people in so short a time. I conclude there are not less than an hundred souls converted in that town since the work began. Soon after, it began in Hampton, but did not spread with that degree of rapidity as it did in Mansfield. The same happy work has lately taken place in Ashford, in the Rev. Mr. Pond's society, with a good degree of power. It has also spread into the second society in Mansfield, under the pastoral care of Rev. Mr. Welsh; also in the upper part of Canterbury, and lately in Abington society in Pomfret.

Dear sir, we may say, in the midst of judgment God is showing himself marvellously good and kind; and as it seemed our land, a few months ago, was fully ripe for destruction, and the hot thunderbolts of divine wrath were hanging over our heads, yet God has made a rich display of his grace, in the conversion of so many souls. One thing is remarkable in this reformation, there is such evidence carried in the work, that none, or but very few dare to oppose it.

Bigotry, which was so common between the Standing Order (Congregationalists) and the Dissenters, is done away.— This work is chiefly among the Standing Order.

EXTRACT 2. Containing a further account of the same work, in a letter from the Rev. E—— P—— to his Parents, dated Ashford, September 24, 1798.

Honored Parents,

I MUST inform you of the work of God, which is going on in these parts. Early in May, an attention began in the first society in Mansfield, which increased to a great degree, so as to become general. It then began in Hampton, and is as general as in Mansfield. About four weeks since, it began here, and, for the time, has spread very fast; so that about eighty have been under great concern: Of this number, nearly twenty have a hope that they have been "born again." The work seems to be spreading. In one family of my people who have only three little daughters, the eldest fifteen years old, they all give evidence that they have been born again! The work has also begun in Mr. Welsh's society in Mansfield; and the prospects are very favourable in Westford.——Do unite in prayer to God; if only two or three, don't omit it, that God would pour out his Spirit upon you. This seems to have been the beginning of the work in Mansfield.

EXTRACT 3. Containing an account of the beginning of the reformation in Hartford, in a letter from the Rev. S—— S. N——, of that City, to his friend in Boston, dated January 14, 1799.

Rev. and dear Sir,

— A GLORIOUS revival of religion has lately taken place among us. Two of my brothers-in-law, the youngest about 12 years old, and the other fourteen, had been under deep conviction at times, for several weeks before our last Thanksgiving; and on that day, whilst I was preaching, the youngest was brought out clear in his mind, and went home with his little soul overflowing with joy. This affected the whole family; several of whom we trust, ed, a

shall
house
who I
ed;
still
amo
and
V
Her
us."

EX

T fern

refe
bot
in
in
the
bro
in

te ar
af

C
P P
e
e
f

ng Order
away.—

ount of
— to

h is go-
tion be-ed to a
egan in out four ead ve-
ncern:
ey have
ng. In daugh-
ce that
in Mr.
re very
o God;
d pour
the be-

f the om the n Bof-

lately
thers-
four-
everal
whilst in his
with n we trust, could rejoice with him ; all the rest were much alarmed, and led to cry out under pungent conviction, " What shall we do to be saved ?" From this it has spread from house to house, and from heart to heart, till almost the whole City has got alarmed.

I think as many as 15 or 20 have been hopefully converted ; many more are under painful convictions, and the work still spreading. It has also extended its happy influence among the other denominations, and they open conferences, and welcome its approach.

We have meetings almost every evening in the week.
Here is surely a Macedonian cry, " Do come over and help us."

EXTRACT 4. Containing a further account of the same work, in a letter from the Rev. J— B—, dated at Trumbull, February 6, 1799, to his friend at Newbury-Port.

My dear friend and brother,

THROUGH the kind hand of God, I arrived here yesterday. I stopped at Hartford, and preached five sermons.

The spirit of hearing at Hartford is greater than any representations which have been made. Young people of both sexes flock by hundreds, and the prospect is flattering in the extreme. Conference meetings are held every night in different private houses. In Mr. Strong's society, 60 are thought to be under conviction, and 20 have been hopefully brought into gospel liberty. In Mr. Nelson's 30, and some in Mr. Flint's.

The youth hold correspondence one with another by letter, and with those of the neighbouring towns. Hundreds are under some serious concern, while hundreds more stand astonished, and are ready to cry, "What meaneth all this ?"

The Lord seems to have stepped out of the usual path of Ordinances, to effect this work more immediately in the displays of his almighty power and out-pouring of his Spirit ; probably to show that the work is his own. It is not attended with noise and confusion, but with solemnity and reverence. No fire ; no rushing wind ; no earthquake : but a still small voice goes before this wonderful work ; no doubt, to hide pride from man. The ministers are stirred up to uncommon diligence and labour, so that they have scarcely time to prepare for public exercises.

The sacred flame has spread into many neighboring towns,* and the pious are flocking into Hartford to be eye-witnesses of this glorious work. I have felt myself so much engaged in preaching, visiting and conversing with old and young, that my attention has been literally taken off from Wife, Children, Flock, and bodily infirmities. O that my past time had been better employed and filled than it has been. Should my health be continued, I hope, by the grace of God, to spend my strength wholly in the Lord's cause, which carries its own reward with it.

Two hundred miles N. W. of Hartford, on the border of the Indian nations, I am informed that the Lord is pouring out his spirit plentifully. The Aborigines flock to hear the gospel, and fall under the word like Dagon before the Ark. I have seen a preacher from those parts, who gives the most flattering accounts, and informs, that very large numbers have been added to the churches in that vicinity the last year.

After sermon was finished upon a late occasion in the woods, an Indian stood up with tears in his eyes, and thus addressed the audience: "I desire to bless God, that white people ever came into this country. White people brought the bible, and the religion of Jesus with them. White people prayed for the conversion of the heathen, and I stand up this day as a living witness of the power of God's converting grace in answer to their prayers. Continue to pray for the conversion of more heathens, that they also may be brought to the knowledge of Jesus."

EXTRACT 5. Rev. C—— B——, of Shaftsbury, in Vermont, gives the following particulars of the reformation in that town.

Rev. Sir,

Feb. 21, 1799.

I AM sensible that under too great a degree of animation, even Christians too often exaggerate their accounts of revivals of religion. But I will attempt a simple, but short narrative of the late wonderful work of God in this place.

* It is mentioned in a letter from a respectable character in Hartford, of April 25, that it has spread into nearly one hundred towns.

In the month of April last, there appeared nothing among this people but the most rapid increase of every species of vice and immorality ; and even professors had grown cold as to religious exercises.

Towards the last of that month, it pleased God to visit my poor soul with some sense of my own vileness and short comings, and how little I had done for God and the good of souls. At this time I think I had a glimpse of the infinite character of Jehovah, which made me shrink into nothing in my own esteem ; then, to my astonishment, my soul was strangely drawn forth, at particular times, in secret prayer, for the salvation of sinners. Repeated exercises of this kind gave me a strong confidence, that the Lord would soon work salvation in this place. There were, however, no favourable symptoms among the people until the month of July ; then a young woman, who had been converted some years before, was stirred up, and came forward in baptism. Her conversion was made the mean of the awakening of a number of young people. Thus the work began. In August, four persons more were baptized. In September, I baptized seventeen. Many were awakened by the solemnity of this ordinance. (Indeed I think there was no one mean more blessed for the conviction of sinners, through the whole course of this work, than the administration of baptism.) But to return ; we as yet held our church conferences, to hear the relations of candidates, but once a month. At the close of October, we were obliged to attend two days, and then were not able to hear all that wished to relate. The next Lord's-day was a severe storm ; baptism was omitted : The church attended two days of that week also, to hear the young converts declare what the Lord had done for them. I was then under the necessity to call for assistance in administering baptism. Accordingly, brother Samuel Rogers attended the next Sabbath, and we baptized 46 that day. We then found it necessary to hold our church conferences to hear relations once a week. The next Sabbath I baptized 21 ; the next 16 ; the next 13 ; the next 9 ; and there have been but a few weeks since, that I have not been called to the precious work of baptizing. Zion's gates were truly then thronged with converts !

The whole number added to this church, since last May, is 175 ; 25 by letter and other ways ; and 150 by baptism. Our whole number is 346. Many of this number are removed into different parts of the country ; there are, however, nearly 300 that live in this vicinity, the remotest of them not more than six miles from our meeting-house.

There have also been 70 added to the West church in this town since the work began ; and 13 to the East church.

As to the principal means by which this work has been carried on, I must say, that no one's little or great preaching can justly lay any claim to the honours of it. Several brethren in the ministry have visited us in the time, and all of them were blessed in their labours. A brother Jones, from England, was an instrument for the awakening of several.

I have been filled with wonder and astonishment, to see how the Lord has been pleased to preserve some of almost all the preaching that has been in this town since I have been here. Even when I had mourned and thought I had laboured in vain, and that my preaching was as water spilt upon a rock ; the Lord has now made known that he designed it for the good of souls. O my brother, let us never be discouraged ; we cannot always tell when our labours are blessed. I cannot say how many, but the Lord has made my poor weak efforts the means of awakening a considerable number. But the greatest part of the people have been awakened by attending the solemnity of baptism, and by conversation one with another.—Indeed, the most that I can say is, It is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

There has not in years past been the most cordial fellowship between the three churches in this town ; but the Lord has now effected a happy union between us. On the last Lord's-day in January, we all met at one communion table. That happy day my soul had desired for years. Nothing but experience could have made me believe it possible, that I could have felt so much solid delight, anticipated so much trouble, and rejoiced with so much trembling, at one and the same time. That day I trust will never be forgotten by me.

The north part of Bennington, which lies south of us, has shared considerably in this grace, and have joined with the churches in this town, and some few members from the town north of us ; but the greatest part that have been wrought upon are within this town, which is six miles square.

In about two months after the work began, the whole town seemed to be affected. Conference meetings were attended two or three times in a week in almost every neighbourhood ; and it was surprising to me, that scarcely a single

instan
sion
brou
meet
time
peop
their
them
Sinn
imm
So
ken
vilef
bow
falift
In
ed to years
main
ers ;
ump
ages
tized
W
in th
who
God
tren
nun
to c
is b sev
and
ma
tur
wi
m
th
th
e

e, however,
of them not

church in this church.

rk has been
at preaching
veral breth-
and all of
ones, from
f several.

ent, to see
f almost all
have been
t I had lar-
r spilt upon
designed it
ver be diffs are bless-
made my nsiderable
been away conver-
can say
r eyes.

al fellow-
the Lord
the last
on table.
Nothing
ble, that so much
and the n by me.
us, has
with the
he town
wrought

whole
were at-y neigh-
a single instance appeared of any over-heated zeal, or slight of passion ! Both sinners under conviction, and those newly brought into the liberty of the gospel, conversed in their meetings with the greatest freedom ; they spake one at a time a few words, in the most solemn manner I ever heard people in my life. And in general they spake so low, that their assemblies must be perfectly still, or they could not hear them : Yet a remarkable power attended their conversation. Sinners would tremble as though they felt themselves in the immediate presence of the great Jehovah.

Some of all ranks and characters among us have been taken ; from the most respectable members of society, to the vilest in the place. Some of our most noted Deists have bowed the knee to King Jesus. And a number of Universalists have forsaken their delusions, and embraced the truth.

In the revival four years ago last summer, we then received ten children into the church, aged from nine to thirteen years, with a number of other young people ; all of them remain in good standing with us, and are now able to help others ; excepting one, who, I trust, is gone to the church triumphant. In this revival we have received sixteen whose ages are from nine to fifteen years. From nine, I have baptized some of almost every age to upwards of seventy !

We have now upwards of one hundred unmarried persons in this church. There are also a large number of youths who have joined the other churches in this town. O my God ! keep them in the love of the truth ! My very soul trembles when I think of them. There is not a sufficient number of young people now left in the town (who can unite) to carry on their merry meetings. Every company of them is broken up.

I lately enjoyed the happiness of having upwards of seventy youths and children, that were professors, to visit and hold a conference at my house in one evening. You may guess, but it would be difficult to tell, with what a mixture of joy and trembling I was then filled.

The severest cold, snow and ice we have had this tedious winter, I have not heard once mentioned as any terror to the most delicate ladies, young or old, we have in the place ; but they have cheerfully followed their Divine Redeemer into the liquid grave, without the least intimidation.

As to myself, I think if ever I knew what it was to have extraordinary strength, it has been within a few months past.

My lungs, which I had thought were on the decay, now seemed to renew their youth. Preaching three and four times a week, besides attending other meetings almost every day for months together, seemed very little if any to exhaust my strength. I think, of all men in the world, I have the greatest cause to be humble before God, for his abundant goodness bestowed upon a most unworthy wretch.

When I think of my own weakness and insufficiency, and the great number of young, inexperienced Christians committed to my charge, my heart shrinks within me; and I am ready to wish they had a more able and pious watchman to go before them. But all the hope I have is, that He who leadeth Joseph like a flock will gather the lambs in his arms, and gently lead his flock into the flowery fields of gospel truth, and beside the still waters of eternal life.

I sometimes anticipate so much trouble, that it quite absorbs my spirits, and drowns my joy. Then I think it best to rejoice while I can, and let to-morrow take thought for itself.

It is, however, a very interesting crisis with us; if we are faithful, and make a right improvement of the great mercies bestowed upon us, we may continue to be a happy people; if not, a series of trouble and sorrow await us. Dear brother, pray for us that we may be kept in the love of the truth; that the God of love and peace may ever dwell with us.

I must not indulge my feelings, I shall intrude upon your patience.

EXTRACT 6. A gentleman in Pembroke thus writes to his friend in Boston.

Pembroke, April 2, 1799.

Dear Sir,

GOD has been pleased to begin a glorious work in the first parish in Marshfield, and a few scattering drops in towns adjoining, although but a few as yet. O may we all be enabled to wrestle like Jacob and prevail like Israel. We need the prayers of all that have an interest at the throne of grace, that we may be kept from error and delusion. O may the time soon come, when the knowledge of God shall cover the earth, as the waters do the seas.

Asto the present state of the reformation among us, there are between 30 and 40, in a judgment of charity, brought to the

know
to be

EXT

1/2

Da

I N

desire

In

Defe

not a

when

the I

ed, a

to the

had

went

admi

in th

power

the

Eber

ing r

own

ther

ther

to t

I

win

tor

not

sift

cou

litt

inf

yo

Cl

th

hi

af

knowledge of the truth ; and more than that number appear to be under serious impressions of mind.

EXTRACT 7. The Rev. Peter Power of Deer-Isle, writes thus in a letter to his friend in Newbury-Port.

Deer-Isle, March 20, 1799.

Dear Brother,

IN your last letter to me, you wrote you had heard there was a revival of religion somewhere in these parts ; and desired me to give you an account of it.

In the beginning of June last, I was called to Mount-Desert to administer sacraments to a church who have not a stated Pastor, and tarried with them about nine days ; when, in the preaching of my second Sermon, the glory of the Lord came down in a wonderful manner. One convicted, and hopefully converted under that Sermon was added to the Church about two days after, and three others who had before obtained a hope. Three months after this, I went again to administer the Lord's Supper, at which time I admitted twenty-eight who had hopefully been brought home in the interval. The work of conviction was then going on powerfully in that town and spreading into those adjoining on the same island. Our association had licensed dear Mr. Ebenezer Eaton to preach, who improved his talent, labouring night and day among them, whom the Lord remarkably owned. How many have been brought out since I was there, I am not informed ; but, according to the best accounts, there are many. The Lord multiply the number and add to the Church of such as shall be saved.

I now come a little nearer home. In the beginning of winter, this glorious work began in Sedgwick, under the pastoral care of the Rev. Daniel Merrill. Perhaps there hath not been a work so powerful, and so much like the work fifty-eight years ago. In a time of such extraordinaries, it could not reasonably be expected but some things would be a little wild and incoherent, considering the various tempers, infirmities and dispositions of mankind : But I believe my young and dear brother Merrill, together with experienced Christians were very careful to distinguish the precious from the vile—to correct errors, “to set the people in the way of his steps,” so that there appears to be no prevalence of enthusiasm among them, according to the best information. How great the number is of those who have been brought to hope, I am not able to give any tolerable good account : Some say there are about an hundred, others about double that number : I believe, they are all very uncertain. Blessed be God, the work is yet going on there, though not with equal rapidity.

And now, dear Sir, let your imagination paint to your view the striking scene, of an hundred souls, men, women, and children, at the same time under the work of the law. The tears, sobs, groans and cries issuing from scores at a time ! All the terrors of the law crowding and pressing in upon them ; their sins, in infinite numbers and aggravations, staring them in the face ; all their old vain hopes gone, and cut off, and every refuge failing ! Hear them freely confessing their old abominations, their former enmity to the great doctrines of original sin, election, the sovereignty of divine, free grace, the power of God displayed in effectual vocation ; above all, the justice of God in their damnation ! How often are souls brought out into the peace and comfort of the love of God, and the sweet consolations of the Holy Spirit. The dead hear the voice of the Son of God, and live. Children are brought to cry, " Hosanna to the Son of David." Indeed this glorious work has been wonderful among children ; and God has made instruments of them to perfect his praise in carrying on his work.

This blessed work of God has begun in Blue-Hill ; but as yet has not gained the ascendancy. I shall therefore come to my own dear people of Deer-Isle. And here, perhaps the work is as remarkable as at Sedgwick, but not so rapid. Not more than eight months ago it appeared to me that religion was near expiring among us, except in a very handful of professors. Deism had taken an unaccountable stride, and spread itself over a great number of the inhabitants. And now, no Bible, no Christ, but the Christian religion, and Christians, were the song of the drunkard ; and every drunkard, and every vice was deemed harmless, and inoffensive to God. I had no reason to think but by the next annual meeting of the town, they would vote the Gospel out from them. When the aforementioned work at Penobscot and Mount Desert was going on, it seemed to have no influence on our people. This, you may be sure, was very grievous to me. However, I think I was enabled to bear witness to the truth with great freedom. In October, I perceived a more

Afte
pear
meet
ited
whe
had
own
child
unde
May
brou
agai
ed t quer
his T
you
be mea

EX

V
dec der
ma
G
ev
wi
wi

ne
m
he
ab
tu

more close attention to the word, but nothing special as yet. After I was confined to my house, the work began to appear ; and though I could not go abroad, nor preach at the meeting-house, there was seldom a day but more or less visited me under their trouble, and I preached in my own house when I was not able to stand on my feet. At length we had the assistance of Mr. E. Eaton, whom God remarkably owns. I believe there are about forty, men, women, and children, who have obtained a hope ; and great numbers are under pressing conviction. The work is now on the increase. May the Lord continue and still increase it till they are all brought in. The mouth of deism is at present stopped, and against the children of Israel not so much as a dog is suffered to move his tongue. O may the Lord go on from conquering to conquer, till the whole earth shall be filled with his glory.

Thus, dear Sir, I have complied with your desire. If you think proper, you may cause the foregoing Narrative to be printed in the newspapers. Such accounts may be a mean of putting a careless people under consideration.

EXTRACT 8. A Letter from a person in Deer-Isle, to a Society with which he is connected in Newbury-Port, dated March 15, 1799.

Dear Friends and Brethren,

WHILE I am partaking a rich repast, I heartily desire my friends may have a share of a feast indeed. It is in vain for me to attempt to describe the wonders of the love and grace of God manifested in a marvellous manner among us, and in the adjacent parts. It has pleased God to visit us by the out-pouring of his blessed Spirit, so that even opposers acknowledge it to be the work of God, of whom some of the greatest have been (I hope) savingly wrought upon.

This blessed and glorious work first began in a small neighbourhood that have lived in a careless and negligent manner as to the attendance on the means of grace : The head of the first family that was wrought upon, is a man of about sixty years of age : I never saw him at meeting but twice since I lived on the island, before this winter : God has been pleased to visit him and his wife, and they both appear to be humble Christians, with several others of that family. The work is daily increasing and spreading through the town; there were 4 or 5 brought into the light under one sermon this week; there have 19 persons come forward and made a public profession of religion, and joined the Church already, and nearly as many more profess to have a hope.

This work has been more extensive in Sedgwick: I am credibly informed it has visited every house for 14 miles, and about one hundred souls are hopefully converted. What shall we say to these things? Let us adore the free grace of our blessed God and Saviour. I think there is great encouragement for all that love our Lord, and have an interest at the throne of grace, to plead with God to spread this glorious work. Let us all adore and praise his name for his wonderful works to the sons of men. I bless God that he has given me to see such glorious days of the Son of Man. It has been a Sabbath to me all this winter; I have enjoyed a continual feast, and find it good to wait on God. I had rather be a door-keeper in his house, than to dwell in the tents of sin.

O that it would please God to cause a glorious shower of divine grace to descend upon you. My soul longs for your salvation, that every member of your little society may be a partaker of the heavenly grace; may this be a mean of stirring you up, and engaging your hearts in the things of God. Let not worldly cares turn your attention from this most important concern: Not only our present but everlasting happiness lies here.

EXTRACT o. A letter written by Mrs.

A—Stirling, in the District of Maine, to the Rev. I—B—, at Middleborough.

Litchfield, April 6, 1799.

Dear Sir,

THERE has been a wonderful out-pouring of God's Spirit in these parts this winter; especially among the youth. As many as 25 have joined this church this winter, who are not more than 20 years old; and one lad who was but nine. I believe there is not one house missed for seven or eight miles, but what the Lord has taken some out of ev-

They both
s of that g through ght under
e forward
oined the o have a

: I am 4 miles,
nverted.
the free
there is id have
God to raise his
I bless
s of the winter ;
wait on
than to

power of or your ay be a
of stir-
f God. s most flasting

Mrs.
I—

99.

God's
ng the
winter,
o was
seven
of every family. And one family, who but a few years ago were in open opposition to this cause, 7 out of 11 have now professed to know Jesus Christ and the power of his resurrection ; one of whom was baptized last Lord's day. And while we were by the water side, the power of the Lord came down like the rushing of a mighty wind. One young woman was so struck with a sense of her duty, that she could not stand on her feet. The people seeing her falter, thought she was faint ; but she said, No, no ; her friends were in such opposition to the Baptists, that she had never said any thing openly about religion.—In the afternoon instead of a sermon she told her exercises, and two more, who were baptized the same day. We thought the reformation was almost over in this place ; but we find the Lord has not forsaken us ; blessed be his name, he is still giving us a taste of his love.

EXTRACT 10. Another letter, dated Bowdoinham, April 29, 1799, from the Rev. John M. Deurn to the same, contains the following.

SINCE our last association, elder William Stinson, who is ordained over the first church in Litchfield, has baptized 118. The greatest part of them belong to that town. The winter before last there was the most powerful work in Bowdoin that I ever saw since I came into these parts. It prevailed through the town. Elder Potter baptized 22 in one day. And it was as powerful in Litchfield last winter ; Elder Stinson baptized 13 there in one day. These were two as cold winters as were ever known here. The work has now begun in this town. Six persons have lately manifested a change of heart ; two of them are my children. The work still prevails.

EXTRACT 11. A young Lady from the same place, writes as follows.

THE 6th day of last February, I was taken as it were out of the belly of hell, and my feet set upon a rock, and a new song put into my mouth, even praise to the Most High. The heavens, which I before thought wore a gloomy aspect, now seemed to glitter with the glory of God. And the animal creation seemed jointly to whisper praises to their Creator. This new scene reminded me of man in his first happy state. In this frame I had a view of the justice of God, and of Christ's sufferings, which I can describe to none but those who have drank of the same fountain. February 9th, I was enabled to follow my blessed Saviour into the water ; but I have since been brought to feel that I am nothing, and to abhor myself.*

EXTRACT 12. From the Rev. J—— D——, in Nova-Scotia, to his friend in Boston, dated Halifax, May 25, 1799.

Dear Brother,

NOTWITHSTANDING many complaints as to the state of religion in some parts ; yet God is marvelously visiting several townships with the showers of his grace. In Annapolis County the following places have shared largely, viz. Granville, Willmouth, Nictau, and Aylesford. In King's County, Horton and Cornwallis have been wonderfully visited. Sinners have been converted to God, and Christians to their duty. Two Peco-baptist Ministers have been baptized, and a great many young converts. The three last sacramental occasions, I think there were baptized, the 1st. thirteen—the 2d. twenty-seven—the 3d. twenty-eight.

There are also some favourable symptoms among the Dutch people at Lunenburg. Many of them that had been violent opposers of religion, having spent all their arrows, say they will fight no more. Some are under very serious impressions, and a few hopefully converted.

EXTRACT 13. Containing a further account of the same work, in a Letter from the Rev. T—— H. C——, to his friend in Boston, dated Annapolis, July 15, 1799.

Dear Sir,

I AM confident you will be glad to hear of the advancement of Christ's kingdom, though by an unskilful hand. Therefore shall attempt to give you some account of what God has done among us. The Fall after I was last at Bos-

* The first church in the Bowdoinham association was constituted in May, 1784, and now they have 29 churches and 1353 members.

first happy
God, and
but those
ph, I was r ; but I
g, and to

Halifax,

as to the s marvel-
his grace.
ed large-
ord. In wonder-
od, and ers have
s. The baptized,
twenty-

the Dutch een vio-
ows, say
ious im-

account
. C—, 1799.

dvance-
l hand.
of what
at Bos-

constitu-3 mem-

ton, it pleased God to visit our Society, at the lower part of Granville ; it was a blessed time of God's power, and additions were made to the Church. A year ago last January, God began to visit us here, and in our Society at Willmouth, where I preach a third part of my time. It has been a most astonishing time of God's power, such as I never knew before. I cannot give you a full description of it. I have been frequently called out of my bed at night to visit distressed souls. They have sometimes been brought from the deepest distress to shout the praises of the living God. My four eldest children, I doubt not are made partakers of grace divine. Two of them are baptized. Since the work began, I have baptized 173 persons (in about thirteen months) but not all in our church. Cornwallis and Horton have shared largely with us. I have baptized two of our Ministers * last summer, and am to baptize another as soon as I can go where he lives.

Our Congregations have increased greatly. Last year we built a new Meeting-House at the upper end of Granville, where I preach a third part of my time, and this summer we have enlarged it twenty feet. O that we may never be high-minded, but fear.

EXTRACT 14. From a Minister in Connecticut, to his friend in Boston.

Lyne, June 30, 1799.

Dear Brother in Christ,

ACCORDING to your desire, I will endeavour to describe some of the effects of the glorious work of God in this place, the preceeding Fall and Winter. Previous to which, I must inform you, there was a great stupidity on the minds of our brethren, who appeared to dwell in their ceiled houses while the house of God lay waste. There were a few drops in the month of August ; but on the first Lord's-day in September, many began to be alarmed ; we therefore thought it our duty to appoint a day of fasting and prayer, which was on the seventh day of the same month.—There was an universal solemnity, and profound attention observed on the face of the assembly, which exceeded any thing I ever saw before.—It was a fast day indeed. The saints arose by confession of the infinite evil of sin,—with fixed resolution to live a new life.—And in the close of the day (like St. Paul) they thanked God, and took courage. After this our meetings increased, and the blessed effusions of the Holy Spirit were distilled upon us. It was affecting to behold the saints exhorting ; backsliders returning ; and poor sinners crying for mercy. On the first Lord's-day in October we attended on the ordinance of baptism. My poor soul was warmed with the love of God, which made me speak from the heart, and it reached the hearts of my brethren, and the dear assembly ; and we felt the union of the Trinity surrounding us, when approaching the Lord's table.

* This Connexion or Association was formed of Pede and Anti-pedo-baptists.

After this, conferences increased. My brethren were much engaged in prayer to God for the out-pouring of his Spirit. At some of our conferences there was a great solemnity upon the youth and children ; one of whom mourned that she had lived in sin twelve years, till she thought she was become an old sinner ; but it pleased God at this time to reveal Christ to her and many others, and to give them the hope of glory.

On the first Lord's-day in November, I baptized two.—It was a good season. The ninth of this month, was a memorable night ! The Lord gloriously manifested his power and love in bringing three persons into the clear liberty of the Gospel ; one of whom was my fifth child, who I trust is brought into the kingdom of Christ, and who in her experience relates, (like Mary) that she had a discovery of him in the garden, and cried out, Rabboni ! Another in agony of soul, also cried out, “ If I do go to hell, I will go begging for mercy ! ” and her distress rolled on to such a degree, that she left her chamber the latter part of the night, and passed into a burying yard, and fell on her knees in sharp distress, till the kind Lord revealed himself to her in a wonderful manner. The third was a woman, near forty years of age, who gave a clear relation of the love of God in her soul from day to day. We now saw, both in the house of God and in our own houses, the sweet whispers of the blessed Dove ; and stout-hearted sinners bowing to the sceptre of the great Emanuel.

The first of December, was our Covenant Meeting preceding the Lord's-day, and which was taken up in hearing the relations of candidates. A number more related their

exerc
very whor
saints
were unite
powe
is all
order
the d ings
and tedio
at th T
love
it gra
the d deter
of v
less
with T
it ha
than
and wate V
my
me
My
und
dear
T
hun
J
bee
in M atic
viz
ish,

saints arose
ed resolu-
day (like
After this
the Ho-
to behold
poor sin-
a October
poor soul
me speak
brethren,
the Trini-
ble.

ren were
ng of his
eat solem-
mourned
at she was
me to re-
them the

at two.—

n, was a
his power
ty of the I trust is er expe-
y of him
in agony
o begging
gree, that nd passed
o distress,
wonderful
years of her soul
of God
e blessed eapture of

ting pre-
a hearing
ted their

exercises the day following ; and notwithstanding it was a very severe snow-storm, twelve were baptized, a number of whom were youths from ten to fifteen years of age. The saints in general were animated with the love of God, and were mighty in prayer for precious souls, triumphing over the united powers of darkness. Indeed it is almost beyond my power to give a full description of this wonderful scene. It is also to be remarked that our brethren of the Presbyterian order and other denominations joined with us in promoting the cause of our blessed Redeemer. About this time, meetings on week-days were attended to, for receiving candidates, and attending to baptism ; and through the severity of this tedious winter, I have not heard any one complain or shrink at the frosts, on account of the coldness of the weather.

This work has been gloriously carried on in the spirit of love. In the first part of it, there was great outcrying, but it gradually subsided into a free deliberate conversation on the dreadful situation they were in by nature ; and their full determination to continue seeking till they should find him of whom Moses and the prophets did write. I never saw less opposition in any work of God I ever was acquainted with.

The principal part of this work, was in this society ; but it has spread into others in the neighbouring towns. More than a hundred we hope have received the grace of God ; and more than eighty have joined with the Church under my watch care.

When I consider the great number of souls committed to my charge and my own insufficiency, my heart shrinks within me ; but all my hope is in the great Head of the Church. My daily prayer is that he would grant me his grace as an under Shepherd, to discharge my duty towards God and my dear Flock, during the few remains of life.

The number of members under my care at present, is three hundred and thirty-six.

INFORMATION, though not very correct, has also been received from a number of towns in Cheshire County, in New-Hampshire, of a very pleasing and extensive reformation there.

The following towns are said to have shared largely in it, viz. Unity, Marlow, Lemster, Alstead, Ackworth, Cornish, and Plainfield, with some others in that neighbourhood.

The towns of Stratham and New-market, in New-Hampshire, are favoured at this time with like revivals ; but for want of accurate documents, a particular account cannot be given.

If the repentance of one sinner causes joy in heaven among the angels of God, what shouts of immortal praise must have echoed through all the realms of bliss, upon the accession of such numbers to the Redeemer's kingdom !

O Lord, may thy kingdom come, and thy will be done, on earth as in heaven, for Christ's sake. Amen.

A Letter to a Gentleman in New-England.

London, April 3, 1799.

DEAR SIR,

I AM concerned at the length of time which has elapsed since I wrote you last ; but the truth of the matter is, I have been waiting from day to day, and from month to month, to obtain intelligence that might be worth the postage, as I have long expected the publication of the Missionary Journal, which would have furnished me with many interesting anecdotes. It has not yet come out, and therefore I have only written you now as a sort of promissory note, to assure you that you shall soon have a long, and I am sure I may venture to say, very acceptable letter, which I hope will cause the thanksgiving of many to abound.

I sincerely thank you, Sir, for exerting yourself to obtain a missionary prayer meeting at Vassalborough ; the news of it, as well as your other communications, has rejoiced several pious friends to whom I have mentioned it, and it will shortly be announced to the public through the medium of the Evangelical Magazine.

I hope it will not be long before I write to the ministers you mentioned, as I shall feel it a peculiar privilege to correspond with such men as you describe them to be. You cannot imagine what pleasure it afforded me to hear of their going into the wilderness to win souls to Christ. Pray give my love to them, and tell them I know no party distinctions ; every one who loves Jesus, and pities poor sinners, is my friend and my brother. O Sir, the time is coming, it is near, when every partition wall will be pulled down, and all Israel's watchmen will see eye to eye. In this respect, things go on gloriously with us. We now see half a dozen ministers, of as many different denominations, engaging in the same je

each ot
regarde Scotlan
spiritua
poor S
many a

You
at Edit
doors Metho
good-n
and go
door-k
somuch
where engage
to hold
the Ta
of " T
are op
acquai
always ministe
occasio
hiblts

Dis
and ot
ment.
ous yo
may th

You
When
had re
out of him to life o
pointe tion a
appear
man i quiere
they f

same service, with expressions of the most cordial affection to each other; men who, a few years ago, through bigotry, regarded each other as stern foes. The flame has reached Scotland also. Warm affection, lively zeal, and increasing spirituality have succeeded the frigid orthodoxy for which poor Scotland has of late years been too famous. There are many adversaries, but that must be expected.

Your favourite, dear Rowland Hill, has been preaching at Edinburgh, Glasgow, &c. but you may suppose the Kirk doors were soon closed against him; so he took the right Methodist way of street and field preaching; and in his odd, good-natured way, he says, "Scotland has good churches and good persons, but the worst of all is, the devil is their door-keeper." His labours have been eminently blessed, inasmuch that many thousands in Edinburgh desired a place where such preaching might be continued to them. They engaged a spacious theatre, called the Circus, which is said to hold above seven thousand people; have constituted it on the Tabernacle plan, and have given it the new good name of "The Edinburgh Tabernacle;" and indeed Tabernacles are opening throughout Scotland. It may be necessary to acquaint you what is meant by the "Tabernacle plan"—It always supposes a regular minister, and a variety of visiting ministers, with a hearty welcome to every minister who may occasionally be upon the spot. This plan affords variety, exhibits love, and destroys petty distinctions and party spirit.

Distracted Ireland has likewise had a call. In Dublin and other places, evangelical preachers meet with encouragement. Mr. Hill has been there; and Mr. Cooper, a zealous young man who is uncommonly popular, is now going; may the Lord go with him, and make him a blessing to many.

You love anecdotes, I know; shall I give you another? When Rowland Hill was in Ireland last year, the Papists had resolved to murder him the next time he should preach out of doors. He was apprized of it, and his friends wished him to decline preaching. It was all to no purpose; come life or death, he declared he would preach. At the appointed time, thousands were assembled, vowing his destruction as soon as he should begin. They waited—no preacher appeared—their patience was almost exhausted. At last a man in a large coachman's coat mixed with the crowd—inquired what they were waiting for—told them he was sorry they should be disappointed—would try if he could preach; but perhaps they would kill him? They applauded him—affured him of protection—and he began.—It was Rowland Hill himself! and it is believed many were converted at that time. Methinks I hear you say to this, Hallelujah, Praise the Lord.

Our Bishops too are growing like good Bishop Burnet, and are charging their clergy to outlive, outpray, and outpreach us. To this I add my hearty Amen.

Though I can give you but an imperfect account of Missionary Concerns at present, it will gratify you to present you with an outline of their proceedings. You anxiously wait for an account of their voyage, and wish to know how they were received at Otaheite. Believe me, dear Sir, all has exceeded our most sanguine expectations. Their voyage was one unbroken chain of mercies! No sickness—no death—no discontent. The remarkable providences they witnessed were so many and so great, that I know not what to record or what to omit. The elements were controlled for their sakes; they experienced no storms! When under a vertical sun, they were screened from its scorching rays by intervening clouds, such as the sailors declared they had never before witnessed. And when the ship returned home, her sails and rigging were in the best condition imaginable. One danger (and that a serious one) they encountered near one of the South Sea Islands. The ship struck upon a coral reef, which caused serious apprehensions; but she was got off without any injury, as they then supposed, though the bottom being examined after she came home, it was discovered to be so torn by the rocks, that, had they met with a storm on their homeward passage, she certainly must have foundered at sea.

You will easily recollect that we thought their chief difficulty would be in acquiring a knowledge of the Otaheitan language; but that Jehovah Jesus who sent them forth had provided interpreters beforehand. There were, on the different islands where Missions were to be established, several European men, who had been shipwrecked at different times, and some others, who, when ships touched at the islands, had left the vessels, and concealed themselves among the natives: These men were highly serviceable.

Another difficulty we supposed would arise from the want of a dwelling-place; for the females especially. Will it be called enthusiasm if I say, God had also built them a house?

Truly it
some few
the Nat
they ol
them at
they set
long an
ship arr
was situ
best par
the Mis
sooner I
upon th
preters,
the hou
attention
them ex pects fl
The
male ch
(King)
have it
Child.
he is to teach t
the bes
first sen
ple, att
well do
but cor
Native
speak
the int
human
that ba
are set
own c
they w
of the nearly
many alphab
I have

Truly it cannot—will not. Capt. Bligh visited these islands some few years since ; when he left them, so attached were the Natives to him, that they would not part with him till they obtained an intimation that he might perhaps re-visit them at a future period. Encouraged to expect him again, they set about building a house for his reception, 100 feet long and 40 wide. It was just completed when the Mission ship arrived, and had been named, The English House. It was situated in a district called Matavia, unquestionably the best part of the Island, and which the Society had enjoined the Missionaries to obtain a formal grant of, if possible. No sooner had they landed, and made their intentions of settling upon the Island known, through the medium of these interpreters, than his Otaheitan Majesty made them a present of the house, and the whole district ; and such was the care and attention of the Natives to the Missionaries, that they brought them every day a sufficient supply of provisions, and in all respects studied their inclinations and necessities.

The wife of one of the Missionaries was delivered of a female child just before their arrival. When Pomatu (the King) saw the child, he was so delighted with it, he would have it called, My Deedee Taheite, which is, The Otaheitan Child. The High Priest, who is cordially their friend, says he is too old to learn himself, but is glad they are come to teach the people better ; for that Pretanes (Britain's) God is the best in the world. My friend Mr. Cover preached the first sermon. Pomatu and his chiefs, with many of the people, attended ; he took care to make his subjects behave well during service, and afterwards said it was good---good—but could not learn all at once—might he come again ? The Natives ask when they will throw away Pretanes tongue, and speak like them. The Missionaries have been honoured as the instruments of saving several lives which were devoted as human sacrifices, and have obtained a solemn promise that that barbarous practice shall forever cease. Ten Missionaries are settled at Tongatoboo, and one at the Marquesas, by his own consent ; indeed the Natives were so fond of him that they would not part with him. Capt. Wilson re-visited each of the Missions previous to his return to England, I think nearly 5 months afterwards. Schools were then formed, and many children had acquired a complete knowledge of the alphabet, and every thing wore the most pleasing appearance. I have now to tell you that other Missions are prepared. The Duff is again on her way to the South Seas. Miss Wilks is married to a Missionary, and they are gone in her for Otaheite. The liberality of the British Christians suffers no decay. I have seen a letter from one of the Missionaries, dated, I believe, from Plymouth, and he says, "if we stay here much longer, the Society had better fit out a second ship to carry our stores."

Dr. Vanderkempt, a Dutch Physician of great erudition and piety, came from Holland to offer himself as a Missionary, though in the decline of life. He brought a young Dutchman with him on the same errand: they, with two Englishmen, form a Mission to the Chaffree Country in Africa; and are, if possible, to sketch to Madagascar also. These went out in a Convict ship from choice, hoping to be serviceable to the poor wretches on their voyage, and took with them a great number of Bibles. These Missions sailed in company with a great number of other ships under convoy. At first they had tolerable weather, but met with a terrible storm off the Madeiras. The ship in which Dr. Vanderkempt was, suffered prodigiously; the night was dreadful indeed; all the pumps were at work, and yet the water gained upon them. At last, the Captain came to the Missionaries, and told them it was in vain to dissemble—all hope was over—and he every moment expected the ship would go down. The Missionaries were happy in God, and the young Dutchman came to Dr. Vanderkempt, and said with great pleasure, "well Sir, the ship may go down, but our foundation cannot sink." They went to prayer and committed one another to God—it was then discovered that one of the port-holes was open, and was the only cause of the ship's filling: as soon as it was shut, they applied to the pumps with double alacrity, and by morning-light were out of danger: and judge what must have been their pleasure, to see the little Duff close to them uninjured. This is the last intelligence we have received from them. I have now given you all the intelligence my paper will allow.

May grace, mercy and peace rest upon you, with every new covenant mercy—so prays yours affectionately,

E. J. J.

fs Wilks is
er for Ota-
suffers no
issionaries,
if we stay
t a second

erudition
a Mission-
t a young
with two
try in Af-
uscar also.
ping to be
and took ions sailed
er convoy.
a terrible
. Vander-
dreadful
ter gained
issionaries,
hope was
would go
the young
with great
r founda-
mitted one
of the port-
's filling :
th double
ger : and the little telligence
a you all

th every

. J. J.

