Spring Styles

Are in bloom and our store is a garden of newness in Men's attire. We wish every man would come in and see the new things. We think he would decide that this is a good store at which to do his trading. If he is a particular sort of man he will be especially impressed with the splendid showing of 20th Century Suits, Raincoats, Covert Overcoats, or Toppers, and Fancy Vests, made by The Lowndes Company, of Toronto. He would recognize an elegance of style and perfection of fit, and an excellence of tailoring that he has never before met except in expensive Made-to-Order garments. We expect great success with this clothing this season. We certainly shall if merit counts for anything. Sales already are satisfactory.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

There were five entertainments last night in different parts of the city in honor of St. Patrick's Day.

The Opera House has seldom seen such a large crowd as that which taxed its capacity last night to witness the performance of More Sinned Ag-ainst than Sinning. The play was ad-mirably put on and proved a success in every sense of the word.
St. Peter's Hall, Elm street, was filled last night to see the drama, Irish Honor Vindicated, rendered under the auspices of St. Peter's Young Men's Association.

At St. Patrick's Hall, West End, last night an Irish minstrel entertainment was given. Those who took part were:
T. Kelliher, J. Kelliher, T. Foley, Misses M. Kelliher, Vera McDonald, Anna Cormier, May Murphy, Loretta Fitzgerald, Mary McCaffrey. In Fairville an entertainment was held under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of the Fairville Presbyterian

The only artist between Nordica and the top has been Patti, and now that wonderful singer is admittedly out of the race. Nordica is conceded the Diva's successor, and no artist male or female has secured a reputation that stands for more worth than the great prima donna who will appear in the opera house Monday evening, April 11th. The plan of seats will open at the Opera House box office Saturday morning, April 2nd, and not the 11th, as announced in this morning's papers.
