Mrs. Montagu's Case May Come Up Again in a Twelvemonth—The Rainhill Murders—Ulster Tories Stirring Up Trouble—England's Latest Warship to be a 'Crusher."

A Crusher.

LONDON, April 12.—The new warship, Royal Sovereign, is to be armed with ten 6-inch Elswick 100-pounders, the first guns of the class ever mounted in the British navy. The Admiralty experts estimate that they are capable of crushing the armor-plates of most of the ironclads afloat. Cordite cartridges are to be used.

Canadian Emigration.

LONDON, April 12.—Davitt's article on the Canadian Northwest in the Nineteenth Century is attracting a good deal of attention. His scheme for the advance of £10,000,000 for Canadian colonizing is generally condemned as impossible. The Chronicle urges that Canada's policy is not to embark in elaborate schemes, but to make the country the cheapest land for people to live in.

A Groundless Scare.

LONDON, April 12.—The scare respecting arsenic in Canadian apples is still fostered in certain quarters, but is generally ridiculed by impartial authorities. The Times to-day publishes a letter from Mr. Shutt, of Ottawa, showing that the alarm is wholly groundless. This will do good if widely circulated, but should receive independent support.

The Murderer Deeming.

LONDON, April 12.—The British authorities have applied for a warrant against Deeming, the murderer, so that he may be brought to England and prosecuted for the Rainhill crimes, in case the prosecution in Australia should result in failure to convict. The application has been made at Widnes, Lancashire, within the magisterial jurisdiction where the Rainhill murders were perpetrated.

Twice a Murderer.

LONDON, April 12.—A man named Hamilton residing at Melkinspaw, in Wiltshire-on-Avon, was engaged to be married to a young lady of that place. He, however, became convinced that the uncle of his fiance was seeking to influence her to break the engagement. Hamilton brooded over the matter and finally shot and killed the uncle. Hamilton fled to Warminster, where the police found him to-day. A sergeant attempted to take him into custody, when Hamilton drew his revolver and shot the officer dead. Other officers seized and overpowered him before he could fire again.

The Rule-or-Ruin Loyalists.

BELFAST, April 12.—In accordance with the resolutions of the Ulster Loyalist Convention, held on Saturday last at Belfast, committees are being formed in every parish or other district of Ulster, the members of which are pledged as follows: First, to unswerving loyalty to the throne; second, to protest against any measure that would either cut them off from or interfere with their inheritance in the Imperial Legislature; third, to declare their utter and unchangeable distrust of, and hostility to, an Irish Legislative Assembly, their determination to take no part in its organization or proceedings, and passively to resist its laws and its taxation as having no binding force on them; fourth, to appeal to the Nationalist leaders to desist from pressing a proposal which, it is claimed, must inevitably produce disturbance and arrest the progress of the country, and to the English and Scotch electorate to pause before committing the two islands to a struggle certain to be disastrous to the best interests of both.

Great Fire in Tokio, Japan.

LONDON, April 12.—A dispatch from Tokio says the conflagration that broke out there on Sunday last did enormous damage. Six thousand houses were destroyed. The loss of life was heavy. It is known that 50 natives lost their lives, and a number are still missing. Tokio, the chief city of Japan, is noted for its fires. The whole business portion of the city is studded with clay fireproof storehouses, into which all the chief valuables are hastily thrust immediately on the breaking out of a fire in the neighborhood. The massive iron doors and shutters of these fireproof "Dovas" are, as soon as the interior is filled, cemented airtight, lighted candles having been placed inside before closing the last door, in order to exhaust the inflammable oxygen of the inclosed air. The structure may be left to be raged around by the fire, and may even be raised to a red-hot state without danger of combustion inside. The houses that afford fuel for these fires are of light bamboo or of wooden structure and built rapidly. The city of Tokio covers an area of about 28 square miles, and is in point of extent, after London, the largest city in the world. The population is between 900,000 and 1,000,000.

Only Four Out of Eighty Returned.

LONDON, April 12.—Four weavers, who formed part of a company which went from Burnley to Brazil, appeared before a Southampton magistrate yesterday. They asked for help to enable them to reach their homes in Lancashire. They are the sole survivors of the party, which numbered 80 souls when setting out last August. All their companions died of yellow fever or the hardships incident to the journey and the sojourn in an inhospitable clime and amid unsuitable surroundings. The British residents in Rio Janeiro subscribed the fund to send the poor fellows back home. All the applicants have excellent characters, and the magistrate was reluctant to announce that all he could do for them was to refer them to the poorhouse, pending an appeal for public subscriptions. He regretted that such cases as those of the men before him were so frequent, and he intimated that the people responsible for the exodus to Brazil, which had resulted so disastrously to numbers of worthy workingmen and their families, ought to be punished. It is a fact that every steamer from Brazil touching at Southampton brings back some of these destitute emigrants, often as stowaways. A lawyer from Burnley who was in court protested against honest unfortunates being treated as paupers, and promised to find lodgings for them outside of the poorhouse.

Mrs. Montagu's Case.

LONDON, April 12.—Women all over England have shown quite as deep an interest in the trial of Mrs. Montagu for punishing her baby to death as they did in the Osborne case. Mrs. Montagu is described by those who know her as charming rather to men than to women. She is a horsey woman, rejoiced in her dogs and in her Irish home. When entertaining ladies, they usually looked after themselves, while she was the center of the men's circle. She is extremely good looking, and has most pleasant manners. Severe reflections are passed upon her husband for his toleration of excessive punishment. Capt. Montagu is noted for his domesticity, for the love that his children bear him. He will neglect any guest to play with his family. It is natural that his children should look to him to give them some compensation for the harshness of their mother, who is more puritanical in her notions of discipline than even the severe Convenanters. Meanwhile it was admitted in Parliament this week that Mrs. Montagu's troubles may not be over when her year's imprisonment is up. The Treasury have the right to prosecute her, if they choose, on the indictments which the Irish judge quashed. One of Mrs. Montagu's sisters has for several years been well known in London, having married, in the first instance, the late Richard Denman. Her son by this union is heir presumptive to the barony of Denman

TERSE TELEGRAMS.

Mrs. (President) Harrison Out of Danger—A Chief of Police Poisoned.

Mrs. (President) Harrison, who has been unwell, is now very much better. The fever has broken and her cough is easier.

The Liverpool Grain and Provision Exchange will be closed April 15, 16 and 18 for the Easter holidays.

Local elections were held in various parts of New York and New Jersey yesterday. Buffalo, from present indications, elects a Republican mayor.

It has just leaked out that Gamble Werr, superintendent of the Pittsburg police, who died suddenly three months ago, was poisoned, but so far is no clue to the culprit.

IS IT BOODLE-PROOF?

Alleged Success of a New York Voting Machine.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., April 12.—The town of Lockport used the Myers voting machine in holding its annual election to-day. There were three tickets in the field besides ballots for and against several appropriations. The novelty of voting by machine brought out a very large number of voters, but notwithstanding the severity of the test the result was most remarkable. The early voting was done rapidly, the time occupied by each voter ranging from 8 to 12 seconds, while the general average throughout the day was probably 20 seconds. There were 440 votes polled. Polls opened at 8:30 and closed at 6:38.

After the polls closed the actual record of votes cast and the number which each candidate received were instantly exposed by opening the locked and sealed sliding doors, and five minutes later the result was transcribed to the return tally sheets. Among the demonstrated advantages of the machine are its economy, as it requires only two inspectors—one acting as door keeper of the machine, and the other keeping the record or poll list. Those who tested it to-day are satisfied that it affords absolute secrecy, and that it is practically impossible to falsify the returns.

Among the incidents of the day was the success of a crippled voter who had not voted for several years, but who went through the machine and voted without assistance. The machine used here to-day has recorded over 132,000 votes and has not yet been broken or made an error.

The Instinct of the Seal.

Hon. A. W. Harvey, of Newfoundland, made this interesting statement of the habits of the Atlantic seal at the last meeting of the Royal Colonial Institute:

On the Atlantic side, the seals do not go to the islands for the purpose of bringing forth their young, but, on the contrary, with an extraordinary amount of intelligence—almost inspiration, for it is more than instinct—the old mother seals pick out the most inaccessible parts of the ice floes, and there the young are all born within a few days of each other—always about the end of February. After suckling their young, they take to the water and go away fishing, while the ice on which the young lie is drifted about by wind and wave, sometimes as much as 15 or 20 or even 50 miles in the 24 hours. In the meantime, as I have said, the mother seal is away fishing; but every night she returns, and it is certain that in the 12 or 14 hours she is away she cannot go further than 50 miles, and to do this she must swim continuously in one direction at the rate of at least 10 knots an hour, and by the most singular instinct—far transcending anything in man—she returns, and unguided by compass or chronometer, she discoveres and suckles her offspring. The most extraordinary thing is that every one of the 300,000 seals—formerly there was double that number on our side—is able to pick out her own baby, never, so far as is known, making a mistake. Suppose that in London 300,000 babies were born in one week, and that for a certain time their mothers were taken away from them. On their return how many of the mothers, do you think, would be able to pick out their own babies, especially if the babies wore no particular dress or mark? Yet this is what the seals do.

A Wedding Present

Of practical importance would be a bottle of the only sure pop-corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—which can be had at any drug store. A continuation of the honeymoon and the removal of corns both assured by its use. Beware of imitations.

Shook the State.

A Number of New York Towns Rattled

By Distinct and Severe Shocks of Earthquake.

The People Rush Wildly From Their Houses, but No Serious Damage Is Reported.

FONDA, N. Y., April 12.—The people of the Mohawk Valley were startled at about noon to-day by a shock of earthquake. The vibration lasted but a second or two. It was felt throughout the valley and Montgomery county.

TWO DISTINCT SHOCKS.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 12.—Two distinct earthquake shocks were felt throughout Montgomery, Warren and Otsego counties this morning. The first occurred at 11:23 o'clock, and lasted 30 seconds. The second occurred too minutes later. In Johnstown and Gloversville people thoroughly frightened. The rattling of dishes, falling of plaster, trembling of buildings and vibrating of lamps appear to be the only result. A half-column of type in the Warranburgh News office was pied.

A NOISE LIKE THUNDER.

UTICA, N.Y., April 12.—Two distinct and quite severe shocks of earthquake were felt in this city to-day. The shocks were about four minutes apart, and the first one was felt at 11:50. The shocks were accompanied by a rumbling noise as of distant thunder.

Reports from Holland, Patent, Westernville, Alder Creek, and a number of other places in this county, say that both shocks were felt in this country, and in some instances were severe. In this city in some instances pendulum clocks were stopped and articles on shelves and in cupboards were shaken.

Dominion Parliament.

The McGreevy Scandal Investigation Recalled.

Opposition Leaders Solve a Troublesome Question—The London Election Case May Come Up To-Day

[Special to the ADVERTISER.]

OTTAWA, Ont., April 12—There has been a great deal of talk in the House to-day. The afternoon was occupied by a discussion of the resolution of the Minister of Justice giving permission for the use of the evidence taken in the McGreevy scandal investigations last session for the purpose of the prosecution being conducted against the Connollys, McGreevys and others. The Government's position is that there are particular reasons that this permission be given because the Connollys, by abuse of the process of law, had obtained possession of their books and papers which had been before the Privileges and Elections Committee, and the prosecution in the case was handicapped by their sharp legal practice. The immunity of witnesses giving evidence before Parliament was a privilege of the House, Sir John Thompson said, which was intended for the protection of the House and not for the benefit of the witnesses. It was quite competent for the House to permit the use of the evidence, and this was a case where the ends of justice required it.

The Opposition, represented by Messrs. Laurier, Mills, and Davies contended against the use of admissions extracted from witnesses by the authority of Parliament to incriminate them in criminal and civil suits in the courts. They urged, too, that the evidence should only be used so far as it would make up for the absence of the Connollys' books and papers. The resolution was adopted.

In the evening Col. Denison made an explanation with regard to the charges made in the affidavits read to the House last Friday night by Mr. Somerville. He gave a categorical denial, and showed from official documents their falsity. There was a warm debate on the subject of Mr. Somerville's conduct in bringing before the House such charges.

After a couple of hours' debate Mr. Somerville calmed down the troubled waters by saying he had no intention of impeaching the honor of Col. Denison, and accepting his explanation.

The House then went into supply and took up the militia estimates, adjourning at a late hour.

The London election case may be taken up to-morrow, but as it has been agreed to adjourn the House at 6 o'clock, it can only occupy the afternoon if the Government oppose it.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The Anti-Combine Law Called Into Operation—A Lady Medical Student's Suit.

TORONTO, April 12.—Summonses were issued to-day against M. C. Ellis, T. H. Lee, Walter Barr and Edgar A. Wills, all of this city, members of the Canadian Association of Jobbers in American watches at the instance of Frank S. Taggart. They are charged with breaking the Dominion Act to prevent illegal combines in refusing to sell watches to Taggart. It appears that by the agreement entered into before the members of the association they may not sell retailers who refuse to put on an advance of 25 per cent. This they claim Mr. Taggart has refused to do and they refused to supply him with more goods.

Miss Mary E. Tyndall, the young lady who is sueing the Woman's Medical College for damages, and to compel the examiner to give her a diploma to practice, opposed a motion at Osgoode Hall to-day on behalf of the defendants, who have set up that no court has power to compel medical examiners to give a certificate. They say Miss Tyndall did not pass the examination.

THE CARON SCANDAL.

Disgraceful Shirk of the Abbott Cabinet.

What the Government Course Is Leading To—Political Points.

OTTAWA, April 12.—The renewal of the debate on Mr. Edgar's charges against Sir Adolphe P. Caron is eagerly anticipated. The scandal of the Government refusing an inquiry almost eclipses the accusation, and is the prevailing topic for discussion everywhere. It will require more than Sir John Thompson's quibbling or Mr. Foster's sophistry to relieve the public of the belief that Parliament is the proper place to investigate the misapplication of moneys voted by Parliament. The fact is now known that the refusal to inquire into the scandalous charges against the Postmaster-General is but the first expression of not to give the Opposition opportunity, either before the Committee on Privileges and Elections or on Public Accounts to repeat the performances of last session. This determination is dictated by the stern necessity of shutting down on investigating committees in order that the Government should not

SINK IN ITS OWN ROTTENNESS.

To carry it out they rely, of course, on a partisan majority, but it is dangerous work to ask supporters to record their votes simply to save corrupt members of a weak Administration. For every such favor each Ministerial member will consider the Government under an obligation to him, and demand many favors in return. Already Sir John Thompson has experienced in the Pereira business the difficulty of coercing such men as Messrs Adams, Dickey and O'Brien into voting through scandalous items in supply, and advantage has been taken of the Caron scandal by others to bring pressure to bear and compel the Government to reconstruct itself. The resignation of Mr. Rufus Pope, the member for Compton, as Conservative whip, and his desertion of his seat for the balance of the session, are to occur when an important division is pending. Mr. Pope left word that he would return and see the Government through the Caron mess, if he received a pledge that the reconstruction of the Cabinet would take place in dead earnest, including the reception of a representative from the Eastern Townships. Mr. Ives is thoroughly in sympathy with Mr. Pope. Mr. Mackintosh has never had any confidence in the Abbott Administration, and may resign at any moment. Mr. Macdonald, of Winnipeg, has announced his intention of retiring, and a New Brunswick member is only kept from going home for the balance of the session by the efforts of the Minister of Finance. As noted above, the Ministry must pay to the recalcitrant and opportunist members of the party if they agree to condone and cover up the corrupt transactions of members of the Ministry. Then the slippery supporters have to be held in line either by pledge or performances, so that no one knows better than Sir John Thompson that the Government may at any time receive a check from that very majority of which he boasted.

A HANDSOME PRICE

NOTES.

The Toronto Reform convention has been called for April 19.

Judgment has been delivered in the Supreme Court in the election case of Hon. Angus McGillivray vs. Sir John Thompson. The court granted the motion and fixed July 12 as the day for hearing the motion. The Shelburne election case will be heard to-day (Wednesday).

REDUCED TO ASHES.

Fires That Cause a Loss of Nearly Half a Million Dollars.

MANITOWOC, Wis., April 12.—The Manitowoc Manufacturing Company here was burned out to-night. The company manufactured opera chairs, and were making the chairs for the Minneapolis convention. Loss, $200,000.

BUTTE, Mont., April 12.—The smelter of the Butte and Boston Company was burned no-day. Loss, $250,000.

ALONG THE RAILWAY LINES.

G. T. R. earnings for the week ending April 9, 1892, $384,563; in 1891, $358,914; increase for 1892, $25,649.

Canada Pacific Railway earnings from April 1 to 7, 1892, $416,000; 1891, $391,000; increase for 1892, $25,000.

Milwaukee advices are that at the West Milwaukee shops of the St. Paul work has been commenced on several new express cars for the American Express Company's service. Each of these cars will be a small fortress, and robbers will find it about as easy to rifle them as to burglarize a battle ship. The cars will be uniform in design with others that are being built in the East for use on the company's routes there. They will be 50 feet long and 8 feet wide, and will be constructed of steel sufficiently thick to deflect a bullet if fired from anything smaller than a Gatling gun. Even should access to the car be gained by blowing down the doors with dynamite or otherwise, the robbers could not get at the more valuable express packages, for these will be placed in a steel room, itself strong enough to offer as much resistance to cracksmen as the ordinary bank vault, and within this room, and built solidly into its wall, will be a safe, in which all money consigned to the messenger's care will be locked up. It is calculated that even with every mechanical appliance at hand, it would be a matter of eight or ten hours' work to burglarize such a car. The use of dynamite by the men who robbed the express car at Western Union Junction, and afterward at Glendale, Mo., set the express people to thinking, and in order to obtain suggestions as to the best method of building a robber-proof car, the American Express Company offered a prize for the best design offered. Some wonderful plans were evolved by the people who competed for this prize, but the steel car, which represents Manager Antisdel's ideas on the subject, was adopted. One man proposed to build a car that would look very much like a whaleback steamship on wheels. It was to be armor-plated and surmounted by a turret, designed to contain four cannon, equal in calibre to an ordinary field gun. A guard of four men was to be stationed in the turret at all times, ready to open with the artillery on any malefactor who might show himself.

"STRONGER AND BRIGHTER."

Hon. Alex. Mackenzie's Condition Again Improved.

TORONTO, April 12.—Hon. Mr. Mackenzie, whose condition was very low last night, is stronger and brighter to-day.

PRINCE MIKE.

A Charge That May Send the Impostor to Prison for Life.

DETROIT, April 12.—Prince Michael and Lizzie Court were brought before the recorder this morning. Ellen Rowlinson had just arrived from Toronto.

Miss Rowlinson told her story to Justice Sheahan who issued warrants for the arrest of Prince Michael and Lizzie Court.

The complaint charges both the prince and Lizzie with indecent assault, alleging that Lizzie assisted Michael in his crime. Miss Rowlinson says her age is 19.

The extreme penalty of the law for such an assault as the Toronto girl charges is life imprisonment.

DISASTROUS FLOODS.

From Fifty to Two Hundred Lives Lost in Louisiana—Dakota Bottom Lands Flooded.

NEW ORLEANS, April 12.—The reported loss of life and property by the floods on the Tombigbee River has been confirmed. Loss of life is variously estimated at from 50 to 200. Losses of live stock and crops are enormous.

PEMBINA, N. D., April 12.—The Red River has raised one foot in two days. The water is over the streets at Emerson, but there has been no serious damage yet.

At Aberdeen, S. D., rain has been steadily falling since early morning. Thousands of acres of bottom lands are under a foot of water.

CROSS-FERTILIZATION.

Interesting Results of Practical Experiments—New Varieties of Wheat—The Best Peas—"Daisy" Potatoes—Oats and Tares Combined.

OTTAWA, April 12.—Before the Committee on Agriculture and Colonization this morning Professor Saunders, of the Dominion Experimental Farm, gave a history of the process of cross-fertilization. He produced samples of wheat obtained by crossing Ladoga and red Fyfe (two samples) and Ladoga and white Fyfe, named "Abundance" and "Alpha," which promise to be most successful, and will shortly be distributed to farmers.

Touching on peas, he advocated the cultivation of the largest varieties, especially the black-eyed marrowfat and running peas, as these produced over 39 bushels to the acre, and sold well for export.

Sugar beets had produced about 39 tons an acre, and proved of value as articles of nutriment or for manufacture, while carrots made an excellent crop and possessed feeding qualities ahead of mangolds.

The largest yield of potatoes obtained was from the "Daisy," which yielded 534 bushels to the acre, while the "Beauty of Hebron" gave 347 bushels to the acre. He advocated selecting seed potatoes of large size.

There had been a large demand for forest trees from the Northwest territories, 2,500 applications being received in one week, and numerous packages being sent as well as tree seeds. He alluded to experiments in plowing and seeding at Brandon. Oats and tares grown together and cut green had given five tons of hay an acre at Brandon.

LABOR MATTERS.

Engineers and Firemen Will Oppose Reduction of Wages.

A Boston dispatch says it is said a general tieup of the New York and New England Railroad will follow any attempt to apply to the engineers and firemen the 70 per cent. reduction in salaries, which goes into effect next Monday for most of the men.

The employes of the window glass works of the Cumberland Glass Company at Bridgeton, N. Y., have struck.

The workmen of the Monitor Iron Works at Sing Sing, N. Y., have again struck.

Printing Office Burned.

SPRINGFIELD, O., April 12.—The Winters Printing and Lithographing Company's building has been destroyed. Loss, $75,000. The company has the contract for all the World's Fair lithographing.

Large Sales of Northwestern Land.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 12.—The rush for lands caused by the reduction in prices by the Canadian Pacific Company, and the large arrivals of settlers is growing daily. Last week's sales were the largest in the history of the company, and this week opened with sales of 9,500 acres on Monday.

An Exception in Canada's Favor.

OTTAWA, April 12.—The Minister of Agriculture has received the following cablegram from the High Commissioner for Canada: "Owing to the hoof and mouth disease Cheshire is declared an infected county. The order, however, exempts the landing place of Canadian cattle, so that such may be carried through the country to uninfected markets. If the extension of the disease leads to further precautionary measures being taken, Canada is sure to receive the most favorable consideration from the authorities. I recommend that only the best cattle—that is, those whose value would not be materially affected by compulsory slaughter—be shipped for the present. Dairy cows had better not be shipped while the outbreak lasts."

Whisky Kills a Child.

LINDSAY, April 13.—A few mornings ago, at Corson's Siding, Bexley, Frank Corson, the well-known dealer in lime and railway timber, who had been suffering from la grippe for some time past, and had procured some good rye whisky to help him shake off the ailment, arose and partook of some of the liquor, and after recorking the flask proceeded down stairs. His little 3-year-old son, who slept with him, evidently witnessed the action, and slipping out of bed after his father had left, he managed to uncork the flask and drank a portion of the fiery contents. When discovered a short time after the little fellow was in convulsions, and though medical aid was summoned by the distracted parents, it proved unavailing, the poor little fellow dying from the effects of the drug about an hour after taking it. Mr. Corson feels very deeply over the sad affair.

The prostration after the Grip is entirely overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It really does make the weak strong.

EXCELLENT EXHIBITS.

The Ontario Spring Shows—Great Display of Superior Stock.

EXETER, April 12.—The Stephen and Usborne spring fair held at Exeter on Tuesday turned out very successfully. There was a splendid lot of first-class animals shown and a large crowd of people present.

PALMERSTON, Ont., April 12.—The spring show of entire stock held here to-day was a great success, there being 26 entries in the different classes and great interest manifested in the show, which was attended by a large number of farmers from the surrounding country.

WOODSTOCK, April 12.—The annual spring fair of the North Oxford, Blandford and East Oxford Union Agricultural Society was held in the fair grounds here to-day. The attendance was good. The principal exhibitors were: S. B. Fuller, W. H. Millman, E. Bugess, Dr. McLure and S. P. Thompson.

GUELPH, April 12.—The annual entire horse show was held here to-day, the horses that were shown were good, but not as numerous as expected considering the number of stallions owned in this vicinity. The attendance of spectators was fair.

THOSE TROUBLESOME METERS

Cause Customers to Kick—Complaints of Excessive Water Rates.

The meter is a fruitful source of trouble to the water commissioners. As usual, there were several complaints made at last night's meeting regarding alleged excessive water rates. Mr. Frank Bernard, of the Bernard House, said his bill for the quarter, $75, was remarkable. Before he put in the meter he paid only $100 a year. Martin O'Meara, who had a livery stable, only paid $10 a quarter.

Commissioner Jones—Let us put Martin O'Meara's meter in Mr. Bernard's Hotel, and vice versa. It would be well to change these meters around to try them.

Mr. Bernard—Will I pay my bill in the meantime?

Chairman Davis—Yes; and if we find the meter defective we will refund you a reasonable sum.

The engineer will test Mr. Bernard's meter.

Mr. Dan Dewar, of the Criterion restaurant, also said his bill was too big. He could not possibly have used so much water.

Commissioner Jones—I must say, Dan, that your whisky won't bear any more water. (Laughter.)

The engineer will test Mr. Dewar's meter.

Mr. R. Hueston, livery keeper, was another who took exception to his rate this quarter. The meter will be tested.

Jerry McDonald was the next to complain. He will be attended to in the same way.

Then a letter was read from Messrs. Griffith, Montague and Wilkinson, trustees of school section No. 5, Westminster, pointing out that as no school rate could be levied on the waterworks property there, the city ought to grant No. 5 section a rate on a fair assessment or make allowance for the children attending that school from such property. The letter was deferred for the solicitor's advice.

The result of the recent trip to Springbank was made evident by a long list of suggested repairs. Tenders will be called for the necessary work, the largest item being the erection of fences around the newly-acquired property.

The question of a main on Cheapside, from Richmond to Wellington street, was referred to the engineer and inspector.

Mrs. J. C. Lockhart's petition for service on Louisa street was left with the same officials. The pipe will have to be laid through another lot.

Chairman Davis, Commissioner Jones, Mayor Spencer, Engineer Moore, Inspectors Platt and Plastow and Secretary Ellwood were present.

CANADIAN PINE CONSUMERS.

Saginaw Lumbermen Close Two Deals for Over 1,000,000,000 Feet of It.

SAGINAW, April 13.—Saginaw lumbermen are going into Canadian pine heavily. Merrell, Ring, Fordney & Co. are reported to have closed a deal with the Dodge estate for the purchase of pine lumber on eleven townships on the Meganatawan River, Georgian Bay district, Ontario, estimated to cut nearly 500,000,000 feet of standing timber, 19,000,000 of logs afloat, and a sawmill of 12,000,000 feet capacity. The consideration is reported at $750,000. The bulk of this timber will come to the Saginaw River to be manufactured.

A syndicate, headed by the Arthur Hill Company, of this city, has closed a deal with Pattee & Perley, of Ottawa, for 500,000,000 feet of pine on Ottawa River, at a reported price of $800,000.

RIFLES AT LONG RANGE.

United States Soldiers Ordered Out in Wyoming—Fifty Men Already Killed.

CASPER, Wyo., April 13.—Fighting between cattlemen and sheriff's officers on one side and rustlers on the other has been going on for a day or two, and according to reports at least 50 men have been killed so far. The most sanguinary combat is said to have taken place not far from Riverside, between the posse of Sheriff Angus, of Jones county, numbering 150, and a large party of rustlers, during which the latter are said to have lost 28 and the former 18 men killed. Many were wounded on both sides, but the number is not known. The fighting was altogether with rifles at long range. Sheriff Angus went to the aid of Fred Hesse and Charles Ford, who with 100 men had 50 rustlers under command of "Nat" Champion surrounded. Champion was killed in the fight. All the Platte River towns are filled with ranchmen, who have been driven in by the rustlers.

Gen. Barbor last night received a telegram from President Harrison, stating that he had ordered the Secretary of War to concentrate a sufficient number of the soldiers from Fort McKinney, Wyo., to co-operate with the authorities in effecting a settlement of the present difficulties between the cattlemen and rustlers. The troops will lose no time in going to the scene of action.

"German Syrup"

Asthma.

"I have been a great sufferer from Asthma and severe Colds every Winter, and last Fall my friends as well as myself thought because of my feeble condition, and great distress from constant coughing, and inability to raise any of the accumulated matter from my lungs, that my time was close at hand. When nearly worn out for want of sleep and rest, a friend recommended me to try thy valuable medicine, Gentle, Refreshing Sleep.

Boschee's German Syrup. I am confident it saved my life. Almost the first dose gave me great relief and a gentle refreshing sleep, such as I had not had for weeks. My cough began immediately to loosen and pass away, and I found myself rapidly gaining in health and weight. I am pleased to inform thee—unsolicited—that I am in excellent health and do certainly attribute it to thy Boschee's German Syrup. C. B. STICKNEY, Picton, Ontario." 62

That Tired Feeling.

Is often the forerunner of serious illness, which may be broken up if a good tonic like Hood's Sarsaparilla is taken in season. This medicine Invigorates the kidneys and liver to remove the waste from the system, purifies the blood and builds up the strength.

Constipation is caused by loss of the peristaltic action of the bowels. Hood's Pills restore this action and invigorate the liver. f

"The World Gone Mad!" Wanted—the world to regain its reason and dyspeptics the use of their stomachs by the use of K D. C.

A Word to the Wise is Sufficient.

A considerable number of objections have been raised against life insurance, but as yet none have proved sufficiently effectual to induce the large number of people to drop the policies they hold in the different life companies.

Any person who has taken an interest in the theme will come to the conclusion that during the past few years, the life insurance companies operating in Canada have made rapid strides in regard to their financial standing, and it can be truly said to-day that most of the old-time prejudices against it are gradually disappearing.

The Rev. Dr. Talmage, of Brooklyn, whose name is known over the whole American continent, uses the following language expressive of his views on the subject: "Life insurance companies help most of us to provide for our families after we are gone; but if we have money to pay the premiums, and do not pay them, we have no right to expect mercy at the hand of God in the judgment.

"We are worse than Tom Paine, worse than Voltaire, and worse than Shaftesbury. The Bible declares it we are worse than an infidel.

"But, says some man, I mean in the next ten or twenty years to make a great fortune, and so I shall leave my family when I get out of this world very comfortable.

"How do you know you are going to live ten or twenty years? If we could look up the highway of the future we would see it crossed by pneumonias, and pleurisies, and consumptions, and colliding railway trains, and runaway horses, and breaking bridges and funeral processions.

"Are you so certain you are going to live ten or twenty years you can warrant your household any comfort after you go away from them? Besides that, the vast majority of men die poor.

"But, says another, I am a man of small means, and I cannot afford to pay the premium. That is sometimes a lawful and a genuine excuse, and there is no answer to it; but in nine cases out of ten, when a man says that, he smokes up in cigars, and drinks down in wine, and expends in luxuries enough money to have paid the premium on a life insurance policy which would have kept his family from beggary when he is dead. A man ought to put himself on the strictest economy until he can meet this Christian necessity. You have no right to the luxuries of life until you have made such provision.

"The utter indifference of many people on this important subject accounts for much of the crime and pauperism of the day.

"If there be anything more pitiable than a woman delicately brought up, and on her marriage day, by an indulgent father, given to a man to whom she is the chief joy and pride of life until the moment of death, and then that same woman going out with helpless children at her back to struggle for bread in a world where brawny muscle and rugged soul are necessary—I say if there be anything more pitiable than that I do not know of it."

After perusing the above you should act at once, by communicating with the agents of some responsible life insurance company, and endeavor, if it lies in your power, to place some insurance on your life. A life company that has a record for the prompt payment of its death claims and liberal treatment to its members is the one in which you should insure your life.

The North American Life Assurance Company of Toronto has justly earned for itself a splendid reputation for the promptness with which it has paid its losses, for the unexcelled success which has attended its financial operations, and should be patronized by all classes of Canadian insurers, as it has plans of insurance combining protection for your family in case of your death and a desirable investment for yourself if you live a certain number of years.

BRANT.

Rev. Mr. Russ has given a statement of the recent evangelistic services in the Wellington Street Methodist Church in Brantford. There had been 200 names handed in as converts. Of these, 86 had joined the Wellington Street Church, while the remainder had gone to one or other of the city churches.

Thomas Beresford Burrowes, who served in the rebellion of 1837 as captain of the Third Gore Militia, died on Monday in Toronto at the age of 74. He was born at Lisbon, and was the eldest son of the late Col. Arnold Robinson Burrowes, of Strathmore, near Paris, Ont., and Benarth, county Carnarvon, North Wales, captain of the Third Footguards, and A. D. C. to Field Marshal Lord Beresford in the war of the Peninsula, and colonel commanding the Brantford (Ont.) Light Infantry. Capt. Burrowes passed his examination at Woolwich for the Royal Engineers at the age of 14, and came to Canada in 1834, taking up his residence on the Grand River between Brantford and Paris. He was loyal to his country and a member of the Church of England.

At the annual meeting of the Port Elgin Reform Association, held lately, the following officers were elected: President, R. Munro; first vice-president, H. Brigden; second vice-president, Wm. Martin; secretary, J. Nicoll.

A vote of the qualified electors of Port Elgin will be taken Friday, April 22, on the advisability of canceling a share of the corporation loan of $5,000 to the roller mill. If the bylaw is carried the mill will be moved to a new site nearer the center of the town this summer.

At Osgoode Hall, in the case of Murray vs. Wesley, H. P. O'Connor, Q.C., for the plaintiff in a libel case, moved to set aside an order for security for costs made by the junior judge of the county of Bruce. The libel complained of contained an imputation of a criminal offense, and the defendant published a retraction, which the plaintiff objected to as insufficient. Aylesworth, Q.C., for the defendant, opposed the appeal. Order made setting aside the order for security with costs to the plaintiff in the cause.

The Windsor corner's jury who failed to agree in the case of Leo Marentette, who was killed by an electric car, appeared before Judge Street there this week. They again tried to reach a verdict but could not, standing seven to six against the company. They were then discharged.

At Osgoode Hall in the case of Mailleux vs. Mailleux judgment has been given on motion for judgment on pleadings in an action to determine the rights of the parties under a deed made in 1859, conveying certain lands to Joseph and Olive Mailleux for life, with remainder to their children. Olive Mailleux died in 1872; Joseph Mailleux married again, and died in 1887, leaving issue by both marriages. The learned chief justice holds that by the true construction of the deed, which was in reality made by way of marriage portion for Olive Mailleux, the issue of the first marriage only can share in the proceeds of the lands. Judgment accordingly for sale of the lands, the proceeds to be distributed in accordance with the rights of the plaintiffs and of the infant defendant, Angele Mailleux, as set out in the statement of claim. Costs out of the estate.

Writing to the Philadelphia Record about the proposition to start trotters with a flag instead of by the word John Splan says: "I agree with the Record that the word 'go' is what the drivers want. It would be thoroughly impracticable for drivers to sight a flag. What chance would a driver have, in driving a high-strung horse, scoring in a field of ten or fifteen horses? As a rule he would have plenty to do to watch his horse and see that he did not run into some one or some one run into him. I think if we had a little more of the old-fashioned horse sense, such as used to be displayed in the judging and management of horses and races in my younger days with Dan Mace, brought to bear on the present era of trotting we would have less trouble and better satisfaction for all concerned. The men who write the most and are in the judges' stand the most seem to me to be the men who have had the very least practical experience about a horse or how he should be trotted."

The 90-foot tank in which horses are given swimming exercise that is a feature of a California stock farm is being written up very extensively just now by the San Francisco daily papers, and to read what they have to say regarding the results obtained by giving horses plenty of swimming every day instead of working them on the track one would imagine that the millennium in training trotters had arrived and that all that was necessary to fit a horse for a race was plenty of exercise in the water. The truth is that the animals which will be benefited by swimming instead of being handled in the ordinary manner are few and far between, because one of the requisites for success with the swimming scheme is that the patient shall have plenty of natural speed and always have it with him. A good deal has been said about how certain famous horses when too sore for track work have been put in condition by swimming, but in such cases it should be remembered that the animals were already good examples of developed speed and that their only weakness lay in the direction of having bad feet or being muscle-sore. Of course with trotters or pacers of that class the swimming-tank in a good scheme but that it will ever be particularly valuable in handling young colts that are expected to make trotters is deemed very doubtful by trainers. On the California farm where the swimming-tank is a feature a number of young trotters are being given daily exercise in the tank, the water in which is artificially heated to a particular temperature and also made to resemble the ocean as much as possible in its medical properties by being liberally salted. The swimming-tank is doubtless a good institution for a particular class of cases which need a specific form of treatment, but the chances are that it will never come into general use as a practical adjunct to the average training establishment.

THE BROOD MARE AND FOAL.

Youatt said in his famous book on the horse, the first edition of which was published in 1831: "From the time of covering to within a few days of the expected period of foaling the cart mare may be kept at moderate labor not only without injury, but with decided advantage." Youatt's doctrine is just about as sound to-day as it was 60 years ago. The practice followed by many of giving the brood mare a rest from work for two or three weeks before foaling and keeping her in a box-stall or turning her in the pasture has very little to commend it. If there is any time during the period of pregnancy when exercise is essential and vigorous health is absolutely necessary for the well-being of both colt and mare it is at foaling time, and what is intended to be a kindness really works injury.

It is certainly a foolish and cruel policy to compel a mare heavy with foal to work as hard and as long as when in her normal condition, but moderate work on the plow or cultivator or drag is beneficial almost invariably, and with possibly very rare exceptions this work can be continued up to the day and hour of foaling without the slightest danger to either mare or foal. Experience has shown that the mares regularly and moderately worked throughout the period of pregnancy and up to the day of foaling invariably produce the strongest and healthiest colts, and suffer no inconvenience themselves during this trying period.

The time when rest is essential to the good health of the brood mare is during the two weeks immediately after foaling. This is the critical period and her future usefulness is frequently determined by the care she receives at this time. Time and rest are necessary that the vital organs may assume their conditions. A large proportion of the barren mares have surely been made so by a deceased condition of these organs brought about by carelessness in handling the mare during the first week or two after parturition. The safest way is to leave the mare and foal in a box-stall for several days after foaling, then turn into a lot or pasture where there are no other horses or animals to cause uneasiness or worry on the part of the mare. A large number of young foals that are lost during the first week or so die from simple bowel troubles, usually constipation. May have great difficulty in effecting the first movement of the bowels and the inflammation set up by this retention causes death. Every horse-owner should have a syringe of some kind; a metal one, holding half a pint, can be bought for 50 cents and will answer any purpose. If the bowels of the foal are not moved freely within a few hours after it sucks, an injection of warm soapsuds water will usually accomplish the purpose. There are three things that should be in every stable, ready for use at any moment—a syringe, a twitch and a bottle of carbolized sweet oil for wire cuts.

—[BROWNING.

London, Wednesday, April 13.

Sir John Thompson has tried hard to prevent the petition against his election from coming to trial, but he will have to face the music. After much legal quibbling, the Supreme Court has decided that his case must go to trial on July 12.

An important amendment just made to the Ontario License Law is that which stipulates that a dealer who sells to an habitual drunkard, after proper notice not to do so, will be imprisoned. The unfortunate victims must be protected against their own folly.

It must strike readers of the debates in the Legislature that Mr. Meredith "flies off the handle" far too often. He cannot brook criticism or even vigorous opposition. Toronto associations must have a bad effect on our former townsman. He should take an example from Mr. Mowat, who has lived long and prospered by strict attention to business and the cultivation of an amiable temperament.

The Woodstock Sentinel-Review pertinently remarks: "A few weeks ago the Free Press had an article on the London election case, under the caption, 'Honest men would not seek to deceive.' This could have had no reference to the regular or the judicial editor, who now appear in their true character since Mr. Lister made his charges. It is quite true that honest men will not seek to deceive, but there appears to be some editors and judges who will."

The following table gives statistics regarding the average attendance at the common public schools in all the cities of the Province, with the aggregate pay and the amount paid for salaries per pupil:

Cities.	Av. attendance.	Salaries.	Per pupil.
Belleville	1,023	$ 9,478 40	$ 9 22
Brantford	1,485	10,773 30	7 25
Guelph	1,215	9,864 47	8 12
Hamilton	6,103	63,470 57	10 40
Kingston	1,885	15,864 97	8 42
London	3,191	25,623 08	8 03
Ottawa	2,413	27,294 31	11 31
St. Catharines	1,023	10,586 82	10 35
St. Thomas	1,433	10,566 70	7 37
Stratford	1,104	8,582 50	7 77
Toronto	17,694	194,155 22	10 97

The average paid for salaries per pupil is $10 01. The salaries paid in London are considerably below that average.

Secretary Blaine, in again asserting that he has no intention to allow himself to be put into nomination for the United States Presidency, says: "The Presidency is an office without sleep." It seems that the President cannot even sleep with one eye open, because he has no deputy on whose shoulders he can unload his constantly growing responsibilities. If this is the case, is it not about time that the burdens of the office were lightened? It may be that no change will take place for some time yet, owing to the fact that, hard though the work may be, there are always plenty of aspirants for the post of Chief Magistrate of the great Republic.

The Toronto News' Ottawa correspondent says that "such stalwarts as Dickey, Adams, Cleveland, Earle, Gordon, Prior and Macdonald, of Cape Breton," refused to be whipped in to vote for the Periera back-pay item. "George Taylor did his little utmost to drive them into the chamber. Mr. Patterson and Mr. Kirkpatrick were called out and tried to bring them to reason. Finally Sir John himself left the chamber. He went no further than to the door of the assembly room, whence he moved in upon them sadly, and whence after a moment he returned sadly to the chamber. It was as if, in the rejection of the resolution for the investigation of Mr. Edgar's charges against Sir Adolphe Caron, they had swallowed enough of Sir John for one day."

Periera, who once lived in London, and had to leave suddenly, drew extra money by fraudulent means, and was suspended when the investigations of last year took place. The Government now decrees that he be paid full pay for the five months during which his suspension lasted, though he did not do a hand's turn for the money. He had previously been reinstated. Periera must have someone in authority in his power.

A dispatch from Montreal this afternoon brings the melancholy intelligence of the death of Mr. Wm. Edgar, general passenger agent of the Grand Trunk Railway. Deceased was one of the best known railway men in Canada, and very many people in the West will hear with regret of his untimely death. Mr. Edgar was a native of Birkenhead, England, and was in his 51st year. For 35 years he was connected with Canadian railways. He was probably best known as a Great Western Railway official. A self-made man, he had held the position of general passenger agent of that system for a number of years prior to the amalgamation with the Grand Trunk. When Sir Joseph Hickson resigned the presidency of the G.T.R., he succeeded Mr. Wainwright, who became general manager. Mr. Edgar was a prominent member of the Sons of England and other fraternal societies. Much sympathy will be expressed for his widow. He had been married but little over a year.

FRANCHISE ACT AMENDMENT.

A bill is to be introduced to amend the Dominion Franchise Act. No one in this neighborhood can deny that it needs amendment in more ways than one. A proper way would be to abolish the measure altogether and revert to the annually revised lists compiled by the municipal officers. If that is not done, then should there be established the one man one vote system with a simple method of registration immediately before an election, and strong, no-getting-over penalties for officers or voters who in any way transgress its provisions.

The present system of revising the lists once every few years, and sometimes holding general elections as well as bye-elections on grossly defective lists can be defended by no one. It gives non-residents the opportunity to turn an election, while it leaves hundreds of properly qualified residents without a vote. In some districts, indeed, fugitives from justice have been brought back from the States, smuggled into the polling booth while the constable's back was turned, and hustled across the border again before action could be taken against them! An experience of this kind was witnessed in one of the famous Colter-Montague contests in Haldimand, to the discomfiture of the friends of Mr. Colter. The act now in force is unfair in many other respects, because it gives too much power to revising officers and to county judges, who, as we have seen in London, may be active partisans, and therefore not proper persons to sit in judgment on cases that may imperil the success of the man whose election they are working, by mouth and by pen, to secure. In so far as the amending measure remedies these grave injustices will it give satisfaction to honest men. Of its provisions the public have as yet no information.

A SMUGGLING EXPERIENCE.

We have been told again and again that there is no market in the States for Canadian produce because the people over the border also grow potatoes, turnips, carrots, parsnips, beans, barley, and kindred farm articles which our soil is so well adapted to raise. A St. George, Ont., farmer apparently puts no faith in this plea, for he has just shipped 600 bushels of turnips to New York, paying the duty to get them in to compete with the native turnip over the border. The duty on potatoes entering the States is almost prohibitive, being 25 cents a bushel, and this enterprising farmer, despairing of making a profitable trade above board attempted to smuggle in 515 bushels at the lower turnip duty. He was discovered, and will pay the penalty.

The moral of the experience is that if the duties were thrown off the Ontario farmer and every farmer living further east would be immensely benefited by finding a ready market over the border for all ordinary farm products, exclusive of wheat. The nearness of the market is in their favor. They would have all the great cities of the East, with their many millions of consumers at their doors, where as their competitors in the Western States are handicapped by the cost of freight to the consuming market.

Why should our farmers be deprived of this near market? The enjoyment of a free market in Great Britain for all that they can sell at greater profit than in the United States would not be denied Canadian producers if they had also a free market in the neighboring Republic. That the trade would immensely increase if not artificially restricted by taxes at the border is demonstrated by the fact that even now we sell many millions of dollars worth in a year.

Some people assert, very foolishly, that free exchange would not be profitable. Of a surety it would be profitable or it would not take place. Men do not buy and sell to injure themselves, but to mutually profit, and they do mutually profit, or transactions would soon cease.

THE HEGIRA OF YOUNG MEN.

The departure of Mr. Jack Hargraft for the United States must assure the electors of West Northumberland of the wisdom of their action in electing Mr. Guillet a few weeks ago. Men whose interest in this country is so mild that the tossing of a coin may weigh with them whether they will stay here or not are not the class of citizens whom we would like to see in Parliament. A man's choice of country should be like his choice of a wife—for richer, for poorer; for better, for worse.—[Toronto World.

Our sprightly contemporary does not exhibit wisdom in its references to Mr. Hargraft. The United States and Canada are so intimately connected, in matters of trade and social relationship, that it seems impossible to prevent the departure of such men as Mr. Hargraft from the Dominion when a wider sphere of influence is opened up to them. The most of us are attached to Canada, whether we were born in it or have adopted it as an abiding place. If we are natives of the Dominion, we cannot be said to have had that choice in the matter which our Toronto contemporary asserts should be as tightly drawn as the matrimonial noose. And, despite all our professed patriotism, no one in private life has ever suggested that a man should be so very much tied up to the destinies of the land in which, for the time, he receives his daily bread, as to refuse to look with favor on a better opportunity to obtain a living for himself and for the sustenance of those domestic relationships that are the necessities of a prosperous nation.

Mr. Hargraft and those who agree with him that better opportunities to make a living could be opened up to young Canadians in their own country cannot be blamed for the present state of affairs. They have worked for the removal of trade restrictions, and for providing means to invest capital profitably in their native land. But, by causes that need not here be dilated upon, they have, for the time being, failed. It is the country's misfortune rather than theirs that they are induced to look for those opportunities denied them here in an adjoining republic. But the exodus is confined to no class or condition of citizens, though it is sometimes assumed by the trade restrictionist that his friends are far too patriotic to change their place of abode for a paltry monetary advantage. The actual facts show how fallacious is this assumption. Question a man who poses as a trade restrictionist and a patriot combined, and in nine cases out of ten you will find that he has one, two, and in many cases three, sons doing well in the unrestricted trade zone to the south of us. We have hundreds of illustrations of this kind in this city. One Government official, earning a living out of public money, has no fewer than four of his sons in business in the United States. He could have preached patriotism to them till Doomsday, but he could not keep them here when they saw better jobs in Detroit.

The situation may as well be faced. If you do not give the young men the opportunity to make as good a living in Canada as they can make elsewhere, you cannot keep them here, no matter how high the ideal of patriotic attachment to the country may be placed. The present managers of public affairs are apparently not able to provide the Dominion with a remedy for the exodus, and it is to be regretted that the country will suffer by their failure. With our natural resources and equal opportunity to buy and sell with our neighbors over the border the exodus of young men would be from the United States to Canada instead of from Canada to the United States.

KISSES WERE CHEAP.

Dr. Metcalf Did Not Love His Wife When He Married Her.

WINDSOR, April 12.—The libel case of Dr. Metcalf and Mrs. Tiffany, of Detroit, against the Windsor Record, for publishing the story of Dr. Metcalf's separation from his wife and her return to her father's home near Belleville, was taken up yesterday at Sandwich, the court room being filled. Many ladies were present from Detroit, the friends of Mrs. Tiffany and Mrs. Metcalf each occupying the separate divisions in one of the jury boxes. W. Knox, father of Mrs. Metcalf, was present with his attorney, W. Cluthe, of Belleville, preparing their guns for their case that will likely come on to-morrow. Mrs. Metcalf took a deep interest in the proceedings and during the giving of her husband's testimony never took her eyes off the witness box, while he carefully avoided looking in the direction of where she sat. After the jury had been sworn in, B. B. Osler for the plaintiff addressed the jury at some length and severely commented upon the rights of a newspaper to publish the private affairs of any citizen. He said that as the defendants had admitted publication the plaintiff would offer no evidence. He was followed by Geo. T. Blackstock who said that they would prove the truthfulness of the article that the intimacy existing between the defendant and Dr. Metcalf was improper and that it was through the manner in which they carried on and the conduct of Dr. Metcalf to his wife, that the latter was forced to return to her father's home. The first witness called was Mrs. Tiffany and it was after 2 o'clock before she left the box, and it was conceded by the legal profession that a sharper witness never before entered that witness box. She admitted being kissed by Dr. Metcalf, and said that she had also received a letter from him from Mackinaw written in German, a language that she and the doctor had just lately acquired. Mrs. Metcalf was present when the kissing was done, and upraided her husband for it, but he laughed it off. She had always advised peace between the doctor and his wife, and attributed the trouble to Mrs. Metcalf's jealousy. She had made the doctor a present of a watch, but it was because he had attended her during her long illness and refused to accept remuneration. For nearly two hours Lawyer Blackstock cross-examined her, but failed to rattle her in the least, while her answers were so sharp as to nettle the Toronto lawyer. The next witness called was Harry Richard, who was last summer engaged by the doctor. He testified that he saw Mrs. Tiffany kiss the doctor. The evidence of Tiffany that was given at the examination was then read by Lawyer Bartlett, and it was after 4 o'clock when it was concluded. Metcalf was then placed in the box, and his bearing was strongly in contrast to that given by Mrs. Tiffany. He seemed to evade every answer, and Judge Street had to warn him to give the proper answers. He said he did not love his wife before he married her, but hoped to afterwards. He did not remember anything that was in the marriage ceremony, but intended to do the right thing by her. He admitted that a friend of his had taken a number of letters out of his wife's trunk and burned them. Asked about kissing Mrs. Tiffany he admitted it, but said that he did not know why he had done it. He did not love her, but was in that mood that he would have kissed any lady, no matter who she saw. This brought forth a warning from Blackstock to be careful when he had these fits. The Mackinaw letter he wrote to Mrs. Tiffany but denied it started off with "My Dear Bell." He did not consider his wife a helpmate, although she was a good housekeeper. He was as much in the company of Mrs. Tiffany as with his wife, and often took the latter out driving when he was calling on patients. The manner in which the witness persisted in evading the answers so aggravated the judge that he postponed the case until to-day, expressing a hope that Metcalf's memory would be in better condition. He discharged the jury with a caution to not converse with anybody about the case.

Palestine had a big cholera scare and a few cases of the disease last year. The chief sufferers were the unfortunates who were locked up in quarantine, though they had not been near the only infected district, which was Damascus and its environs. The United States vice-consul at Jerusalem was among the victims, and when he was released and desired to pay his dues, the officials had him place his silver on a rock and threw water on the coin to wash away possible infection. A physician of Jerusalem who visited the quarantine station and shook hands with one of the inmates, was drafted into the establishment and compelled to serve out his time; all of what moves Consul Merrill to write that for patient endurance of oppression the people of Palestine beat the world.

WORST FORM ECZEMA.

Baffled Best Medical Skill for Eight Months. Cured in Two Months by Cuticura Remedies.

This is to certify that a child of mine had Eczema in its worst form, and which baffled the best medical skill that could be employed here. The little sufferer was wrapped in agony for at least eight months. Six months of that time its suffering was simply untold, then I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. In two months the awful disease had ceased its vengeance, and my darling boy had rest, and to all appearance the disease had yielded, but I continued the medicine for several months after no trace could be seen of it on any part of his body. The doctors here watched the disease with much interest, and could only say "Well done!" The case was known far and wide, and everybody was much surprised. But thanks to CUTICURA REMEDIES, could there be anything on earth that would cause a father to rejoice it surely would be when the little innocent one could have such a remedy at hand. (See portrait herewith.) J. A. NICOLES, Bunker Hill, Ind.

A child was brought to me with chronic eczema that had defied splendid treatment from many good doctors. As a regular M. D., should have continued similar treatment, but thought it useless. So put it on CUTICURAS. The child is well.

HUNDREDS BEING RESCUED

MRS. OWENS STILL LIVES,

Looks and feels like a "new woman." A splendid example of what the forward march of science is accomplishing for the "gentler sex," even where all hope seems gone, and in its place only despair. If you would avoid the rocks which will surely wreck, and the deep waters which will surely sink your now frail craft, listen to the warning: "Suffering ladies of Toronto and elsewhere, I advise you to try the Histogenetic System of Medicine. It has done more for me in three weeks than I can tell you here. The remedies are unlike any I ever saw. It does not seem like taking medicine. No horrible, nauseating bad taste, and yet the curative power is wonderful. Two years ago I had typhoid fever, from which I have never thoroughly recovered. About four months ago my condition was such that I decided to undergo an operation, which I did, but have been still worse since. This was followed by inflammation and all kinds of bad results. My friends have all been much alarmed and very anxious about me. My husband's hard-earned money seemed worse than wasted on me. I was six months in the hospital at one time, and suffered dreadfully also with a diseased ear. Three months ago a complicated female weakness made my case still more hopeless. At last, and I believe just in time, I heard of the Histogenetic System and consulted Dr. Rear, of Toronto. He assured me there was one hope of ultimate and complete recovery. I took the treatment, and in a few days was some better. I continued to gain, and now in three weeks my ear has completely healed up, my system perfectly regular, organs all restored to natural position and condition. I am sound and well. I have walked nearly two miles to-day and feel none the worse for it. It is a grand treatment. Try it; you will not regret it.
"MRS. OWENS,
"98 Bond street, Toronto."

Free books; free examination. Just the actual cost of the medicine supplied. Experienced physicians prescribe for you free. Remember, all chronic and acute diseases treated, and you have only the medicine to pay for. Question sheets sent to outside patients, who are treated successfully at their homes. Will you believe the statements of your neighbors? Do you wish to get well? Try once more. If this fails all else will, for it is the latest and greatest achievement of medical science.

We cure these also—
If you have Nervous Debility, Consumption, Paralysis, Epilepsy, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Kidney Disease, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Blood Diseases, Female Weakness, Histogenetic Medicines will positively cure you if cure is possible. Sarsaparilla

All Run Down With Dyspepsia

The peculiar combination of stomach tonics and alterative remedies in Hood's Sarsaparilla cannot be equalled, and this superiority explains the wonderful success of in cases of Dyspepsia, Indigestion and similar troubles. Mr. T. A. Wheelock, a well known citizen of Burlington, Vt., writes:

"Six months ago I was badly run down and unable to attend to business. The principal trouble seemed to be due to indigestion and aggravated dyspepsia. I had no appetite,

Nothing Tasted Good

and what I did eat distressed me. Added to this was a nervous disturbance. Physicians that I employed failed to reach my case. I grew worse, lost flesh and almost hope. One day I ran across a testimonial for Hood's Sarsaparilla stating what it had done in what seemed to be a case similar to mine. I got a bottle and in three or four days saw that I felt better. Before I had finished the first bottle, was greatly improved. Rested better, felt better, and knew I was

Better All Over

I continued with the medicine, and have taken two bottles and now feel better than at any time for the past five years. Feel as hearty as when a boy. Have regained my flesh, have good appetite, can sleep well, and my nerves are in excellent condition. I would not value a thousand dollars for what it did for me." T. A. WHEELOCK, Burlington, Vt.

Fully Indorsed

"We have sold Mr. T. A. Wheelock several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and have heard him tell in high terms of commendation what it has done for him. I know that he has recommended to many others here. Our customers generally speak well of it." F. L. TAFT & Co., Pharmacists, Burlington, Vt.

Callaghan, the baseball pitcher, is now in St. Louis, having gone there to see what can be done towards carrying out his contract with the Browns, and which had been canceled by Von der Ahe.

The Columbia College (N. Y.) baseball team disbanded on Friday, and Columbia will be without a 'Varsity team this year. The cause of this act was the fact that the committee of the Alumni Association, which has in charge the Columbia athletic field, has refused to let any public games be held there before next fall, when the grounds will be formally opened. As the Columbia Athletic Union has been depending upon the use of the athletic field for the games it has arranged with the other colleges, and if at present unable to furnish money to hire other grounds, nothing was possible but to disband the team.

Murphy, the Yale shortstop, is a brother of Mike Murphy, the noted trainer of the Detroit Athletic Club.

The Western Ball League as now constituted includes eight clubs: Rock Island, Rockford, Joliet, Peoria, Quincy, Jacksonville, Terre Haute and Evansville. The season opens April 28.

THE WHEEL.

Clarence Shadbolt, of the Brooklyn Bicycle Club, has lowered the long-distance bicycle record, made by Albert Beers, of Boston, who rode 12,580 miles in twelve months. Since May last Shadbolt has covered 12,585 miles, and anticipates riding 13,000 miles before his twelve months are up. He has rolled up this big milage in rides taken around New York, Brooklyn and Long Island.

Miss Johanne Jorgensen, the plucky little Dane, is training for the approaching Danish inter-club 24-hour record contest.

Nearly every Canadian racing man of note has declared in favor of Sarnia for the C. W. A. meet.

The wheelmen of Savannah, Ga., are awaiting with much curiosity the final test of a steam bicycle. The machine is to be run by a boiler 18-6 inches, suspended from the upper frame rod of an Ormonde Model B. Gasoline is to be the fuel. The boiler has a regular steam gauge, and the boiler has stood a pressure of 50 pounds to the square inch. The cylinders are two inches, and the piston rod is to work on gearing in the crank shaft. The gearing is arranged five to one for crank axle, and for rear wheel one and one-quarter. This gives about a 60-inch gearing.

A bicyclist who is attempting a ride across the continent has come to the conclusion that it is very hard work and does not pay. He made the distance between Los Angeles and Albuquerque, N. M., in 24 days, suffered a great deal from hunger, thirst, and exposure, and met with adventures that were not always desirable. For instance, the Navajo Indians exhibited a rude and annoying curiosity concerning the reason for the existence of his machine and their ability to ride it themselves. Popping up out of the sand hills, they chased him for miles, and if they overtook him insisted on having a mount, which, under the circumstances, it was hard to refuse. Several nights he was stranded in the desert, and was obliged to sleep on the sands, where his teeth chattered with cold, till daylight. On one occasion he broke his canteen, and racked with thirst, dared to stop an express train and ask for a drink. He reports that the engineer showed a good deal of indignation, but relieved his sufferings. When the bicyclist arrived at Albuquerque many of the spokes of his machine were broken and twisted, and he himself presented a sorry spectacle.

THE TURF.

The Buffalo police on Monday on special warrants issued under grand jury indictment arrested 50 keepers and employes of turf commission houses, seized the entire paraphernalia of the rooms, and didn't give the frequenters a show to cash in on the third Guttenburg race, which was in progress when the raid was made. Many of those in the room were badly scared, but the police did not arrest or attempt to arrest other than those indicated by the grand jury.

The managers of the Old Orchard (Me.) kite track now in progress of construction have made a schedule of races to be trotted on the track at the dedication meet July 4, 5, 6 and 7. They will offer $10,000 in prizes. If this opening meet proves successful a $10,000 stallion race will be given in September, with $10,000 extra to stallion that lowers the world's record.

PEDESTRIANISM.

A Lynn (Mass.) dispatch says: Ex-Ald. George O. Fall, who has been confined at the Danvers Insane Asylum, escaped from that institution soon after midnight Sunday morning, and, clad only in his night shirt, walked through the woods and unfrequented roads, through Peabody, Lynnfield and Saugus to this city, a distance of fully 25 miles. He reached Lynn two hours before sunrise.

ATHLETICS.

Mervine Thompson, well known to London citizens, is traveling through the country giving street exhibitions of his great strength. At the close of these performances he passes his hat, and on the receipts manages to eke out an existence. Thompson is evidently on the downward course, and may yet be reduced to the necessity of working for a living.

Ted Pritchard, champion of England, and Jack O'Brien, the Welsh champion, have been matched to fight for £200 a side and the championship of England. The National Sporting Club has also agreed to give a purse of £500 to have the fight take place under its auspices. The contest is dated for June 16.

Jim Hall and Bob Fitzsimmons have agreed to fight to a finish for $12,000 and a side bet of $100 each at the clubhouse offering the largest prize—either the California or Pacific of San Fancisco, or the Olympic of New Orleans.

CRICKET.

The Amherstburg Cricket Club reorganized for the season of 1892 and elected F. E. Elliott, president; W. A. Costa, honorary president; F. M. Falls, secretary-treasurer; Mayor McEvoy, captain. The club intend having the waterworks system of the town put into the ground, and claim they will have the best grounds of any town club in Western Canada.

The Ontario Cricket Association held a special general meeting on Tuesday at Toronto. Dr. Stevenson, of Aurora, and Kirwan Martin, of Hamilton, were elected to the executive. The international match was fixed to take place in Hamilton. The following were appointed representatives of the C. C. A.: A. H. Collins, Toronto; A. F. R. Martin, Hamilton and Trinity College, and Dr. N. H. Beemer, London.

LACROSSE.

A general meeting of the Meaford Lacrosse Club took place Monday. The club have decided to enter into the C. L. A. The following officers were appointed: Honorary president, Jas. Cleland, M.P.P.; honorary vice-president, W. J. McCracken; president, H. R. Badgerow; vice-president, W. Brown; captain, C. Stewart; treasurer, T. Law; secretary, C. B. Marsland.

CURLING.

The Ontario branch of the Royal Caledonian Curling Club held its annual meeting at the Walker House, Toronto, yesterday afternoon. Secretary Russell read the report of the primary and final tankard competition in which the Toronto Granites came out victorious. The report was adopted. A handsome banner was presented by the president to the club. The executive committee reported that the Governor-General's prize be no longer considered as a practicable contest. This is in view of the difficulty experienced in carrying out the rules of the same. A resolution of regret was passed at the death of the late Dr. Ross. The Granites and winners of the tankard were presented with the banner and gold medal, and the Peterboros, the last to be defeated in the tankard contest, received the silver medal.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

The Last Session in the Old Building.

Sharp Exchange of Shots on Both Sides,

But Good-Humor and Jollity Characterize the Finale.

[Special to the ADVERTISER.]

TORONTO, April 12.—In the Assembly to-day the bill to amend the Liquor License Act was amended by providing that the minimum quantity to be sold by brewers is four gallons for lager and ten gallons for ale and beer in all electoral districts except that in which the brewer carries on his business, and five gallons for ale and other beer than lager in districts where brewers carry on business, but this is to stand for only two years from the passing of the act.

It was decided that the full sessional indemnity should be paid Messrs. Fraser, Bronson, Porter, Smith (York), Smith (Frontenac) and Miscampbell, who were absent during part of the session on account of ill health, and to Messrs. Barr (Renfrew) and Harty, elected since the session began and to the widow of the late H. E. Clarke.

During discussion on the bill to consolidate the acts respecting the election of members to the Legislature, several of the Opposition claimed that the oath of allegiance was not sufficiently explicit, as there were many who had gone to the United States and forsworn their right to vote here, but they could still claim to be British subjects by birth. It was suggested that the words "birth or naturalization" be struck out, leaving the oath simply "I am a British subject."

Mr. O'Connor said it was rather strange that the other side of the House took this position, because in the recent Dominion bye-elections in East Bruce and West Huron Government candidates were elected by the votes of American citizens. The honorable member for London ought not to take this stand, since he had made such a record for himself.

Mr. Meredith became very angry and said that the remarks of Mr. O'Connor were beneath contempt. He denied that there was anything in his record to be ashamed of.

Mr. O'Connor remarked that the member for London ought not to get so excited or indignant when any matter that seemed to affect him was brought up. His record was too vulnerable for him to take such a lofty stand.

Mr. Meredith replied that the man who dared to make such a remark was sheltering himself behind the privileges of the House to do a cowardly thing. There the matter dropped.

At a later stage Mr. Meredith moved that there be added to the election law a clause to declare it a corrupt practice to receive subscriptions for elections from contractors or holders of liquor licenses.

Mr. Hardy said that if the honorable gentleman could induce his friends at Ottawa to enact similar legislation regarding distillers, railway contractors, the Red Parlor and manufacturers, the Government might accept the proposal. The Ontario Government was accused of sweating liquor license holders. From whom do distillers and brewers get their licenses? They carry on their business under licenses from the Dominion. There must be a reasonable amount of equality in these matters before the amendment can be accepted.

This amendment and several others were voted down.

An amendment by Mr. Ross was added making it a corrupt practice to furnish railway tickets at reduced rates. The bill was then read a third time.

On the motion to go into supply, Mr. Meredith moved a resolution censuring the Government for spending money on new buildings at the Central Prison without the authority of the Legislature.

Mr. Gibson pointed out that the Government had not spent any money, but had incurred an indebtedness on the building. The brick-making industry on which prisoners were formerly occupied gave out, and unless the labor of the prisoners had been occupied in erecting this new building intended for a new industry, the Government would have had to support them in idleness.

Mr. Meredith's resolution was rejected by 28 to 50.

In committee on supply on the proposition to increase the salary of the Attorney-General by $2,000, making it $7,000, Mr. Meredith said that he could not allow this opportunity to pass without expressing his satisfaction at the proposed increase. He understood that it was a delicate thing for a gentleman charged with the administration of the affairs of the Province to propose an increase to his own salary, but the increase was one that met with the hearty approval of the members of the Oppositition, as he felt sure it would meet with the approval of the country generally. The vote then passed.

Mr. Clancy took exception to a vote of $2,000 for defraying the cost of the commission on the dehorning of cattle, and said that the whole thing rose out of a newspaper discussion.

Mr. Dryden said that it was a question in which the entire farming community was interested. Several farmers had been prosecuted in the courts for dehorning their cattle, and a strong deputation had urged that a commission should be appointed. The item then passed.

When the order paper was cleared there was a lull in the proceedings, when Mr. Gibson rose and startled the House by singing in lusty tones, "Auld Lang Syne." As soon as the members had recovered from their surprise they also rose, including the Speaker, and joined in the verses, clasping their hands in the orthodox manner.

Then Mr. Hudson said: "I move that the Attorney-General give us a song." The motion created uproarious laughter, in the midst of which Mr. Mowat rose and moved in amendment that Mr. Meredith sing.

The Speaker put the motion and the amendment met with a chorus of "ayes" that nearly raised the roof—there was not a dissenting voice.

Mr. Meredith was endeavoring to persuade Mr. McCleary to sing, when Mr. Hardy entered the chamber and handed the Attorney-General a series of resolutions.

Mr. Mowat said that the county of Prescott was in an exceptional position as regards railways, and that it was almost the only county in the Province without one. He there moved that there be granted the Vaudreuil and Ottawa Railway a cash bonus of $2,000 per mile for 50 miles, not exceeding in the whole $100,000, to extend its line through the county of Prescott.

Mr. Balfour spoke strongly against the subsidy and claimed that the county of Essex had not been fairly treated.

The resolution passed through its various stages.

The House then adjourned until Thursday at 3 o'clock, when prorogation will take place. The last session in the old building was brought to a close by the members singing "God Save the Queen."

Not Always Rich.

[From the Jewish Messenger.]

The popular saying. "As rich as a Jew," ought to be modified nowdays, although it was alway untrue. It may have risen from the fact that Jewish paupers were never seen, and hence it was supposed that wealth and Judaism were synonymous. The fact is there are no Jews who can at all begin to compare with the Rockefellers, Jay Gould, the Vanderbilts, Astors and men of their immense fortunes; and the number of Jewish millionaires is much less than popularity imagined. We have a good proportion of moderate means, but the great mass of Jews are wage-earners, who are fortunately frugal and a temperate and soon acquire a competence. Of late years the general public has realized the fact that there can be poor Jews, the host of needy emigrants despoiled of their possessions coming for a time under that category.

War in the Future.

Commandant of Fortress (A. D. 1902)—is the horizon clear?

Sentinel (at the telescope)—Yes, but our friends on the planet Mars have signalled us that a fleet of balloons has just started in this direction from a point about 98 miles to the northeast.

"How long has it taken the message to reach us?'

"At Mar's present distance from the earth, sir, it requires about seven minutes for the light to travel from there to our planet."

"Then those balloons have been on the way fourteen minutes already! They ought to be in sight! (Shouting through the electro-multisonous speaking-tube.) What ho! Within, there! All hands! Turn the 40,000,000 candle-power electric burning-glass toward the northeast! Bring out the aluminum aerial rams and have the flying torpedoes in readiness on the elevated platform! Lively, now! Is it all done?"

A Thousand Voices (through the electro-multisonous tube)—"It is, sir!"

"Then the balloon-proof hood up over the fortifications. Is that done"

"It is!"

"Then everything is ready. Let the enemy come on." [Yawns.]

The Great Tenor "Lloyd" May 13.

Speaking of Mr. Edward Lloyd the New York Press says as follows: "In his line, Mr. Lloyd is a singer of exquisite gifts and lovely accomplishments. There is not a flaw in his mechanism; his phrasing is delicious, his enunciation a delight, his emission of tones a lesson to all our singers, and his voice very beautiful indeed. His singing of 'Be thou faithful unto death' brought out his highest qualities and created an unbounded sensation. The tenderness of its sentiment brought tears to eyes unused to the melting mood, and with it he conquered the house."

The New York Times published a dispatch from its Cincinnati correspondent, who wrote: "At the matinee performance a mixed programme was rendered, in which the orchestra and organ were brought into use. The hall was crowded. Mr. Lloyd and Mdme. Valda sang with fine effect. The applause following one of Mr. Lloyd's renderings was so exuberant and prolonged to such a length that Mr. Thomas took a seat in evident despair to wait for quiet and a chance to resume. The storm did not abate till the great tenor had five times stepped to the front and bowed his acknowledgments."

SHREWD SUGGESTIONS

Brought Out by the Drainage Commissioners.

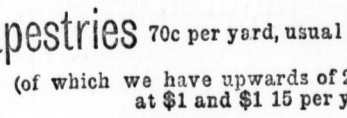

The Reeves of London and Delaware, Bridge Commissioner Talbot and the Clerk of McGillivray Heard From.

H. C. Garnett, reeve of Delaware, appeared yesterday afternoon before the Drainage Commission in session in the County Council chambers and stated that he was in favor of making every farmer through whose land a ditch or watercourse ran keep the same in a good state of repair. The cost of maintenance after original construction should be borne by the interested parties. He thought it would be a judicious measure to have an inspector appointed to prevent, through carelessness or otherwise, obstructions from being placed in ditches. He was of opinion that all parties receiving benefits from a drain should be assessed therefor.

F. B. Talbot, bridge commissioner of Middlesex, thought that when a drain was to be constructed under a petition from a majority of the owners of a prescribed area of land, the assessment should be spread over the area benefited, and also the outlet assessment on all lands outside the prescribed area that will necessarily be users at the time the drain is constructed, and all other lands should only be assessed for outlet when they begin to use the drain after construction. He was in favor of the County Council appointing a commission with authority to construct drains wherever required, whose report in these matters should be final and binding. He thought that only experienced men should be appointed as commissioners, whose term of office should continue as long at their duties were faithfully discharged.

Wm. Fraser, who during the past quarter of a century has acted as clerk in the township of McGillivray, said the residents of McGillivray were well pleased with the Ditches and Watercourse Act as a whole, but he was in favor of a change being made so as to compel owners through whose lands drains were constructed to maintain and keep the same in a good state of repair. He thought that power should be given to township engineers to divert water, if necessary, for the purpose of carrying it to a proper outlet, and that the engineer should have power to determine the course the water should take. The township of McGillivray, he said, had employed a farmer as its engineer, who had given good satisfaction and whose awards had been sustained by the courts.

T. E. Robson, of London township, who has filled the various officers of councilor, reeve and warden, said he had had only a limited experience in drainage matters, London township having been blessed with excellent drainage facilities. He did not believe that it would be right to compel people in all cases to maintain drains passing through their lands, as instances might arise where this plan would be injudicious. He thought all parties benefited by the construction of a drain should contribute towards the cost. The commission will continue their labors to-day.

LOCAL MARKET

Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son.

LONDON, Wednesday, April 13.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

With moderately good receipts during the past week, markets have been steady in nearly all lines. Wheat continues firm at $1 35 per 100 lbs.

Receipts of oats were good, and prices a shade easy; 85c to 86c per 100 lbs was the ruling price at close of week.

Barley has been steady; there was a good demand for bright lots; $1 per 100 lbs was freely paid; the inquiry for colored samples was also good, and sales principally made from 82c to 85c.

Corn has been scarce on this market, but price did not alter any owing to low prices; county of Kent corn is offering at; 85c to 87c were the figures paid.

Peas were active at the beginning of the week, but towards the close prices fell off considerable, owing to lack of demand; 95c was the price paid for ordinary shipping stock; seed lots sold higher.

Hand picked beans sold at 75c per bu.

Butter was firm and in good demand, at 17c to 18c for lb rolls by the basket, other kinds selling in proportion.

Eggs sold rather dull at opening; the supply was good and the demand only moderate early in the week, but towards the close inquiry was better and sales easier made; 10c was about the run in quantities.

Potatoes kept low, selling sometimes down to 25c per bag by the load and at 35c to 40c by the single bag.

Dressed hogs recovered a bit during the cool spell, and sold at $6 for choice.

There was nothing new in beef and other meats.

Hay was lower, at $11 for best quality.

British Grain Trade.

LONDON, April 11.—The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British Grain trade, says: "British wheats have steadied at 32s. Holders are not willing to sell at this low price; foreign wheats are a shade firmer on improved German inquiry, but there is small prospect of values advancing owing to the enormous stocks and the influx of arrivals. The weekly imports of wheat and flour since September have averaged 437,000 qrs, against 352,000 qrs weekly during the preceeding cereal year. The chief increase was from Atlantic ports, amounting to 221,000 qrs this year, against 79,-792 qrs last season. Corn is a turn dearer; barley and oats are dull; beans and peas are a third cheaper. Linseed and rape seed have each risen 6d; cotton seed has advanced 2s 6d per ton. At to-day's market free buying for the continent stiffened values; English wheats were in good demand and prices advanced 1s for all sorts; foreign wheats were 6d better; holders of American flour ask 1s more, but the asked price was not often obtained. Holders of English flour did a good business at a rise of 6d; flat corn was 6d dearer; round corn was dull; barley was firmer; all oats were 6d dearer.

CHICAGO, April 12.

The market was exceedingly quiet on the reaction from last week's excitement. All the news seemed unfavorable for the friends of wheat. Cables were heavy and lower; domestic markets were tending downward; the export business was meagre, and the amount of wheat and flour showed an increase during last week of 808,000 bushels; the exports from India were nearly 50 per cent. larger than the week previous, or 920,000 bushels against 680,000 bushels, and the shipments from all parts of the world to Europe were 5,640,000 bushels last week, against 4,730,000 bushels the week previous. Long wheat came out freely, and for a short time there was very little demand, and though early deals of May were at some advance over last night's close, with sales as high as 80½c, it did not take long to get the price down to 79½c for May, and 79⅜c for July. A slight reaction followed, but the market again went off, closing ⅝c under final figures.

PETROLEA, April 13.—Oil opened and closed to-day at $1 25¼.

CATTLE AND PRODUCE.

The Outlook for Export Trade This Year.

Supplies of Animals Still in Excess of the Demand—Eggs Must Fall in Price Before Shipments Are Made to Britain—Other Grain and Produce Gossip.

[Special to the ADVERTISER.]

MONTREAL, April 11.—Although it will be four weeks yet before the live stock export season actually opens, preparations for the first shipment to the old country are practically completed. Usually at this season of the year many thousand head of cattle have been purchased, and all the space secured for May and June. The restrictions on the other side, however, necessitated by the prevalence of the foot and mouth disease, have so frightened our Canadian exporters that they have absolutely refused to do much business ahead. Therefore only about 3,000 head of cattle have so far been purchased in the country, and very little space has been taken. Prices have ranged from 5 cents to 5½ cents per pound in the country, but 5¾ cents was paid for the cattle of the Guelph Agricultural College. Steamship freights have ranged from 55 to 60 shillings on the outside boats, but 45 shillings is now the utmost the exporters will offer, and no doubt boats will be secured at this figure. Any of your readers who are interested in the live stock will be glad to hear that the Canadian shippers have now practically nothing to fear on account of the restrictions which have been so rigidly enforced in England and Scotland owing to the prevalence of the foot and mouth disease during the past few months. A special cable from Liverpool to-day says: "There is no improvement to notice in the market, States steers and maiden heifers selling at 5½ cents, with no prospects of a further advance, while the arrivals from the States continue so heavy. The restrictions are not likely to affect Canadian shipments." There has evidently been some order issued during the past few days, as this order confirms the cablegram sent by Sir Charles Tupper to the Minister of Agriculture already published.

The shippers here are very much pleased about this turn of affairs and will no doubt operate with more confidence from this time forward. No further business is reported in the country, however, and the freight market is dull and unchanged at 55 to 60 shillings, but brokers are dickering for some outside space at 45 shillings.

The local market is in a bad state, the supplies being still greatly in excess of the demand. The arrivals for to-day's market were very heavy, and as there were a couple of hundred held over from last week the drovers very wisely came to the conclusion to ship only one-half of their stock to the butchers' market so that there are still between 300 and 400 head here unsold to-night. As this was practically the Easter market the position of affairs was all the more serious. The Easter cattle are not so showy as last year, but far more serviceable. Good butchers' stock sold at 4¼ cents to 4½ cents, but extra Easter cattle sold at 4¾ cents to 5½ cents, some few head of extra choice stock being held for 6 cents. The supply of hogs was large, but the market was strong at $5 50 to $5 65 per 100 pounds. Sheep sold at 4½ cents to 5 cents, and yearling lambs at 5 cents to 6 cents per pound.

At Toronto the feeling continues decidedly weak owing to the very large supply. Among the sales were one load averaging 1,025 pounds, at $3 50; a load averaging 1,100 pounds at $42 each; a lot of 13, averaging 1,115 pounds, at $3 62½; a lot of 17, averaging 1,000 pounds, at $3 50. Sheep and lambs sold well, yearlings bringing 5½ cents to 6 cents per pound. Hogs were in demand, and steady at $4 50 to $5 25 for light fat, and $4 to $4 25 for heavy.

Produce.

New butter is coming in more freely, and all really fine goods are picked up quickly on arrival; new creamery was placed at 24 cents, and new townships at 20 cents to 22 cents. Old butter is moving better, and sales of fall creamery are reported at 20 cents to 21 cents, while Eastern Townships dairy is selling at 19 cents to 20 cents, good Brockville at 18 cents to 19 cents, and western at 17 cents to 18 cents. The general opinion seems to be that the stocks of butter will be pretty well exhausted by the time new butter comes on the market in sufficient quantities to fill consumptive requirements.

There is practically no market here for cheese, as there is practically nothing here to sell beyond a few lots held in reserve for the local trade. A Montreal house is said to have offered 10 cents for May make.

The egg market is firm and dealers say their endeavors to keep prices down in the country are not meeting with much success. All arrivals of nice stock are moved readily at 13 cents to 13½ cents. There will have to be a marked decline in these figures before any English shipments can be made.

The honey market is quiet, extracted selling at 6 cents to 7 cents per pound. A lot of white clover in combs was sold for shipment, the quotation being from 10 cents to 12 cents.

The reports now are that the run of syrup is very small and that the output of maple products will not be as large as expected. Syrup is selling at 5 cents to 5½ cents per pound, from the wood, and at 60 cents to 90 cents per can, according to size. Very little sugar is coming in owing to the low prices ruling, 6 cents to 7 cents being the idea.

The hop market is quiet but firm, in sympathy with outside advices. Canadian is quoted at 21 cents to 25 cents, as to quality, and yearlings at 17 cent to 19 cents.

Flour and Grain.

The flour market is dull and weak in sympathy with English advices, which report a drop of 1s. 6d. per quarter in wheat during the past few days, and a decline of 1s. 6d. per sack in flour. The full effect of this foreign declension has not been felt here yet, however. The demand is slow and prices nominal.

The demand for oatmeal is slow; rolled and granulated is quoted at $3 95 to $4 per barrel, and $1 92½ to $1 95 per sack; and standard at $3 85 to $3 90 per barrel, and $1 85 to $1 90 per bag.

Bran is quiet at $15 to $15 50 per ton for Manitoba and Ontario. Shorts sell at $16 to $16 50 per ton; middlings at $17 50 to $18 per ton, and moullie at $20 to $23 per ton.

There is practically nothing doing in wheat, and it is in consequence hard, in fact, almost impossible, to give quotations.

Corn is in slow demand at 59 cents to 60 cents, duty paid, in car lots. Peas are quoted at 77 cents to 78 cents per 66 pounds for May delivery, and 73 cents to 75 cents for spot. Feed barley is selling at 42 cents to 43 cents, and malting at 55 cents to 63 cents. Oats are moving slowly at 33 cents for No. 2.

The return of American red clover seed from England has had a tendency to advance prices in England and lower them in the States. Red clover and alsike are quoted at $7 50 to $7 75, and timothy at $2 for Canadian, and $1 85 for American.

He was a promising young fellow of good business ability, and was always a great favorite among the young men of the city, who deeply mourn the sad and sudden event.

Aristocracy in Town.

There are some "aristocrats" in the city to-day. They arrived this morning and put up at the Tecumseh House, bringing with them a big load of baggage, including guns, fishing rods, lawn tennis rackets, etc. Four of them are from sunny France: Count Loubens de Verdal, Paul de Pazzis, F. David and Henri Fouer. The other two—G. N. N. Bellairs and D. Cameron—are from England and Scotland respectively. They are all young men stylishly dressed, and have come to this country to learn farming. They are under the care of Rev. Dr. Armstrong, of Moore, the well-known immigration agent, who will leave with them for their new homes.

Wants to Find His Family.

Patrick Fogarty, an elderly workingman, called at the ADVERTISER office today to solicit the aid of the paper to find his family of eight—four boys and four girls—of whom he has lost track. He says that through a domestic difficulty his family and he got apart some years since. They were then living in the States. The family came to Canada, and he has not seen them since. The names of the boys are John, Thomas, Pat and William, and Mr. Fogarty thinks if he could find either of these he would soon find the girls. The last heard of them was when they were at Freelton, near Hamilton, but it is believed the boys are living in the West, and Mr. Fogarty has heard that one or more of them is working on the G. T. R. Mr. Fogarty tarries at the Royal Hotel, near the G. T. R. station, and will fee grateful to anyone who will aid him in finding a clue to his lost family.

The Little Minister.

By J. M Barrie,
AUTHOR OF "WINDOW IN THRUMS," "WHEN A MAN'S SINGLE," "MY LADY NICOTINE," ETC.

Her voice had altered, and she was speaking passionately.

"Sometimes," she continued more gently, "I try to think that my mother did come back for me, and then went away because she heard I was in better hands than hers. It was Lord Rintoul who found me, and I owe everything to him. You will say that he has no need to be proud of me. He took me home on his horse, and paid his gardener's wife to rear me. She was Scotch, and that is how I can speak two languages. It was he, too, who sent me to school in Edinburgh."

"He has been very kind to you," said Gavin, who would have preferred to dislike the earl.

"So kind," answered Babbed, "that now he is to marry me. But do you know why he has done all this?"

Now again she was agitated, and spoke indignantly.

"It is all because I have a pretty face," she said, her bosom rising and falling. "Men think of nothing else. He had no pity for the deserted child. I knew that even while I was on his horse. When he came to the gardener's afterwards it was notto give me someone to love, it was only to look upon what was called my beauty; I was merely a picture to him, and even the gardener's children knew it and sought to terrify me by saying, 'You are losing your looks; the earl will not care for you any more.' Sometimes he brought his friends to see me, 'because I was such a lovely child,' and if they did not agree with him on that point he left without kissing me. Throughout my whole girlhood I was taught nothing but to please him, and the one way to do that was to be pretty. Prettiness was the only virtue worth striving for; the others were never thought of when he asked how I was getting on. Once I had fever and nearly died, yet this knowledge that my face was everything was implanted in me, so that my fear lest he should think me ugly when I recovered terrified me into hysterics. I dream still that I am in that fever, and all my fears return. He did think me ugly when he saw me next. I remember the incident so well still. I had to run to him, and he was lifting me up to kiss me when he saw that my face had changed. 'What a cruel disappointment,' he said, and turned his back on me. I had given him a child's love until then, but from that day I was hard and callous."

"And when was it you became beautiful again?" Gavin asked, by no means in the mood to pay compliments.

"A year passed," she continued, "before I saw him again. In that time he had not asked for me once, and the gardener had kept me out of charity. It was by an accident that we met, and he did not know me. Then he said, 'Why, Babbie, I believe you are to be a beauty after all!' I hated him for that, and stalked away from him, but he called after me, 'Bravo! she walks like a queen,' and it was because I walked like a queen that he sent me to an Edinburgh school. He used to come to see me every year, and as I grew up the girls used to call me Lady Rintoul. He was not fond of me; he is not fond of me now. He would as soon think of looking at the back of a picture as at what I am apart from my face, but he dotes on it, and is to marry it. Is that love? Long before I left school, which was shortly before you came to Thrums, he had told his sister that he was determined to marry me, and she hated me for it, making me as uncomfortable as she could, so that I almost looked forward to the marriage because it would be such a humiliation to her."

In admitting this she looked shamefacedly at Gavin, and then went on—

"It is humiliating to me too. I understand him. He would like not to want to marry me, for he is ashamed of my origin, but he cannot help it. It is this feeling that has brought him to the Spittal, so that the marriage may take place where my history is unknown."

"The secret has been well kept," Gavin said, "for they have failed to discover it even in Thrums."

"Some of the Spittal servants suspect it, nevertheless," Babbie answered, "though how much they know I cannot say. He has not a servant now, either here or in England, who knew me as a child. The gardener who befriended me was sent away long ago. Lord Rintoul looks upon me as a disgrace to him that he cannot live without."

"I dare say he cares for you more than you think," Gavin said gravely.

"He is infatuated about my face, or the pose of my head, or something of that sort," Babbie said bitterly, "or he would not have endured me so long. I have twice had the wedding postponed, chiefly, I believe, to enrage my natural enemy, his sister, who is as much aggravated by my reluctance to marry him as by his desire to marry me. However, I also felt that imprisonment for life was approaching as the day drew near, and I told him that if he did not defer the wedding I would run away. He knows I am capable of that, for twice I have run away from school. If his sister only knew that!"

For a moment it was the old Babbie Gavin saw; but her glee was short-lived, and she resumed sedately:

"They were kind to me at school, but the life was so dull and prim that I ran off in a gypsy dress of my own making. That is what it is to have gypsy blood in one. I was away for a week the first time, wandering the country alone, telling fortunes, dancing and singing in woods and sleeping in barns. I am the only woman in the world well brought up who is not afraid of mice and rats. That is my gipsy blood again. After that wild week I went back, of my own will to the school, and no one knows of the escapade but my school-mistress and Lord Rintoul. The second time, however, I was detected singing in the street, and then my future husband was asked to take me away. Yet Miss Feversham cried when I left, and told me that I was the nicest girl she knew, as well as the most dreadful. She said she would love me as soon as I was not one of her boarders."

"And then you came to the Spittal?"

"Yes; and Lord Rintoul wanted me to say I was sorry for what I had done, but I told him I need not say that, for I was sure to do it again. As you know, I have done it several times since then; and though I am a different woman since I knew you, I dare say I shall go on doing it at times all my life. You shake your head because you do not understand. It is not that I make up my mind to break out in that way; I may not have had the least desire to do it for weeks, and then suddenly when I am out riding, or at dinner, or at a dance, the craving to be a gypsy again is so strong that I never think of resisting it; I would risk my life to gratify it. Yes, whatever my life in the future must be, I know that must be part of it. I used to pretend at the Spittal that I had gone to bed, and then escape by the window. I was mad with glee at these times, but I always returned before morning, except once, the last time I saw you, when I was away for nearly twenty-four hours. Lord Rintoul was so glad to see me come back then, that he almost forgave me for going away. There is nothing more to tell except that on the night of the riot it was not my gypsy nature that brought me to Thrums, but a desire to save the poor weavers. I had heard Lord Rintoul and the sheriff discussing the contemplated raid. I have hidden nothing from you. In time, perhaps, I shall have suffered sufficiently for all my wickedness.

Gavin rose wearily, and walked through the mudhouse looking at her.

"This is the end of it all," he said harshly, coming to a standstill. "I loved you, Babbie."

"No," she answered, shaking her head. "You never knew me until now, and so it was not me you loved. I know what you thought I was, and I will try to be it now."

"If you had only told me this before," the minister said sadly, "it might not have been too late."

"I thought you like all other men I knew," she replied, "until that night I came to the manse. It was only my face you admired at first."

"No, it was never that," Gavin said with such conviction that her mouth opened in alarm to ask him if he did not think her pretty. She did not speak however," and he continued, "you must have known that I loved you from that first night."

*Because no such trivial idea crossed her mind. Mr. Ogilvy had the most mistaken conviction that, however unhappy she may be, a woman can always think of her face. I wanted him to let me strike out this passage, as conveying a false impression of Babbie's character, but he would not.—[M.

A Cure for Constipation and Headache

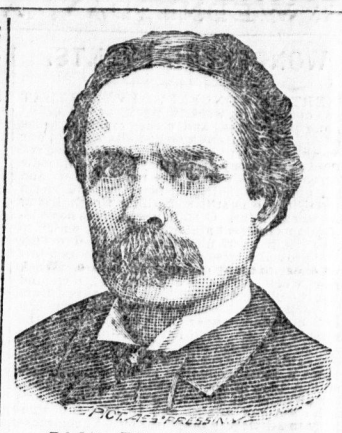

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion, it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50 cents a package. zxv

BACK TO JOURNALISM.

Return to New York of the Diplomat-Editor.

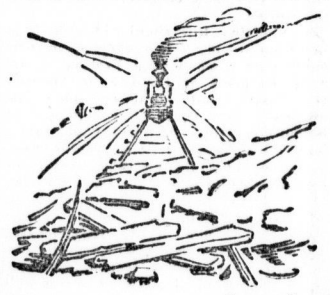

A rising candidate for the Republican Vice-Presidential nomination is Whitelaw Reid, who has just returned from France, and will doubtless re-embark in journalism and resume the active management of the newspaper with which his name has become as strongly identified as that of Horace Greeley. Mr. Reid was born at Xenia, Ohio, in October, 1387. His parents gave him a good education. In 1857 he bought the Xenia News, and did such good work on that journal as to give it a reputation wide as the State. This led to his engagement by the Times and Gazette of Cincinnati and the Herald of Cleveland as their Columbus correspondent. The war gave him an opportunity of distinguishing himself as a correspondent at the front. He served the Cincinnati Gazette in this capacity, and in 1862 became a stockholder of that journal, the publication of which he subsequently assisted in the capacity of associate editor. His connection with the New York Tribune began with his being the editor in charge of its Washington bureau. He ventured upon the publication of a volume in the year 1865. It was entitled, "After the War—A Southern Tour," and recorded observations made in company with Chief Justice Chase on an extensive range of travel. Reid published another book in 1868, "Ohio in the War," a work of considerable length and value. He became permanently an editor on the staff of the Tribune in 1870, and when Horace Greeley was a candidate for the Presidency assumed the position of managing editor. Mr. Reid is a wealthy man. He married the daughter of a millionaire, and has two children.

HIS SPIRITS FELL.

The Little Incident That Made a Kansas Senator Blush.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—There was an amusing unreported incident in the Senate the other day, at about the time that Representative Funston, of Kansas, was making his exhibition in the House in respect to charges of tippling at the Capitol restaurant. A distinguished Senator (one of those, by the way, enumerated in the list complained of by Mr. Funston) was making for the clerk's desk to ask a question. His nearest route led between the seats of Senators Morgan and Butler. Mr. Morgan's desk was overhung with books and documents relating to his silver speech, and the Senator, in order not a disarrange them, lifted his coattails, so as to cut as narrow a swath as possible. As he did so a pint flask, filled with some brown liquid, fell to the floor and broke with a resounding crash. The Senator colored up, but, without turning his head to survey the damages or to assume responsibility for the incident, went straight on. A nimble page sprang to the rescue, picked up the pieces, and mopped the floor.

The recently discovered deposits of asphaltum in California are said to be the most extensive in the world.

St. Clair, by a vote of 348 to 46, has decided to borrow $15,000 for an electric light plant.

To replace the dock burned at Marquette one has been constructed that is 482 long on one side, 740 on the other and 100 feet wide.

Chief Simon Pokagon, of the Pottawatomie tribe, has been notified that the tribe's claim has been allowed and that he will receive in a short time about $250,000. The claimants now number 244.

There are some awful bad boys and girls at Fenton. A bashful beau and his best girl were going up to Holly to a party the other evening, and the "real mean" boys and girls went to the depot and showered the couple with rice as they crossed the platform to the train, and everybody looking, too.

Capt. Chris Rath, who hanged Mrs. Surrate and the other Lincoln conspirators in Washington, was suddenly bereft of reason on Tuesday night on the run to Jackson with the mail train. He has been mail agent for twenty years between Grand Rapids and Jackson, and made the latter place his headquarters. On Tuesday night it was noticed he did not throw the mail off, and an investigation found him in the car, surrounded by the bags, staring wildly at vacancy.

Drawing to a Close.

First three months free of charge. On account of the large number of invalids who have been unable owing to the rush to consult the staff of eminent physicians and surgeons located at No. 456 Talbot street, (near Queen's avenue), London, before May 1st will receive services for the first three months free of charge. The only favor desired is a recommendation from those whom they cure. The object in pursuing this course is to become rapidly and personally acquainted with the sick and afflicted.

The doctors treat every variety of disease and deformity and will perform all surgical operations free this month, viz.: The removal of cancers, tumors, cataract, polypi, etc. All diseases of the eye, ear, throat, lungs, heart, stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder, and all female difficulties arising from whatever cause, all nervous prostrations, failing vitality, and diseases originating from impure blood, treated with the greatest success.

Catarrh in all its various forms cured by their new method, which consists in breaking up the cold-catching tendency, to which every person suffering from catarrh is susceptible.

Invalids will please not take offense if they are rejected as incurable. The physicians will examine you thoroughly, free of charge, and if incurable, they will positively tell you so. Also caution you against spending more money for useless medicine.

Hours from 9 a.m. to 5, and from 7 to 8 p.m. Sundays, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Invalids outside the city can write, and be treated by express.

FOR GRESHAM AND POLK.

Knights of Labor Leaders Decide to Support a Presidential Ticket.

CINCINNATI, April 13.—Deputy Supreme Master Workman Cavanaugh says that the conference of Knights of Labor leaders in Philadelphia resulted in a determination to support Judge Gresham for President and Polk, of North Carolina, for Vice-President.

It is stated that Judge Gresham strongly intimated that if a modified platform was adopted he would accept the Third party nomination.

There's Magic in It.

What must be the satisfaction and gratification, at so small a cost, of one who writes like this? Mr. W. Mason, editor of the Retford and Gainsborough News, Retford, Eng., says: "I had suffered from a sprained knee for twelve months, without being able to obtain relief from the pain, when I rubbed the knee thoroughly for twenty minutes with St. Jacobs Oil. That night I traveled 200 miles by railway, the next day I walked 25 miles, and the pain had entirely disappeared. I have never had the slighest return of it since."

To take ink spots out of white goods wet the spot with oxalic acid or muriatic acid, then wash in warm water.

M. of the Toronto district, and Wor. Bro. W. E. Bennett, of Ottawa. The work was illustrated in a most satisfactory manner by Wor. Bro. John Smith and his officers, and hearty congratulations were tendered the members on the excellent standing of their lodge. At the close an hour or two was spent in a social way, toast and song following in rapid succession.

Talbot Street School to Cost $4,247.

Messrs. Dewar (chairman), Jeffery, Stephenson, Dr. Wilson, Love, Cook, D. W. Blackwell, R. J. Blackwell, Allaster, Tanton, Turner, McElheran, Dr. Campbell, Craig and Brady, and Secretary Abbott, of the Board of Education, met last evening to consider the tenders received for the rebuilding of Talbot street school. No. 2 Committee recommended the acceptance of the tender of Tambling & Jones for $4,247. The other tenders were F. J. Reid, $4,678; Wright & Durand, $4,410; Jones Bros., $4,517; J. Purdom, $4,450, and W. Scott, $4,300. The building is to be ready for occupation by June 1, and for every day after that date a penalty of $15 a day will be imposed. R. J. Blackwell moved that the inspector, Solomon Perry, receive $2 50 for each working day. Carried. Mr. McElheran moved that the engineer call for tenders for the proposed cloak rooms on the ground floor of the Collegiate Institute, and that No. 2 Committee be empowered to award the contract. Carried.

Police Court Items.

John Drummond, of Nissouri, pleaded guilty at the Police Court this morning on a charge of having stolen an overcoat from the Grigg House last month. He furnished his own recognizances to appear when called upon, and was let go on suspended sentence. The magistrate warned him that if he appeared again he would be severely dealt with.

The case of Elson McKay for non-payment of dray license was enlarged for a week.

John Andrews is a laboring man, and has a wife and four children to support, and yet last night he got drunk and was arrested for disorderly conduct. Somebody had struck him in the eye and closed it. He promised the magistrate never to drink any more, and was discharged.

BASEBALL

AN UNWARRANTED ATTACK.

Sporting Life: Donovan's engagement by somebody in the Washington club recalls the great expense the Boston club went to in securing this overrated player. Wally Fessenden was commissioned to secure him, and the London (Ont.) club released him for $2,000. Fessenden, of course, got a little fee. Then, when it came to playing, Donovan was a rank failure, and was being paid a good salary. Brooklyn didn't keep Donovan long, and neither did Louisville. Manager Chapman considers him a rank disorganizer.

The Sporting Life should look back to the splendid criticisms they gave this young player when with Boston. Until he injured his knee, Donovan led Boston both in batting and fielding, and the Boston papers could not print praise enough for his superior work. Such songs as "Slide, Kelly, Slide," were written "Slide, Donovan, Slide," etc. Boston released him on account of his knee, and after a few weeks rest he signed with Brooklyn, but he had no chance to retrieve his laurels before the season closed. Last season, Chapman, of Louisville, who, when with Buffalo, tried his best to secure him from London, signed him for Louisville; and his record there, until sickness, was that he led Louisville in batting and run getting and the American Association in the most times at bat. The reason of his release from Louisville was because Chapman wished Donovan to sign a paper claiming that there was no dissatisfaction in the team. Donovan would not do so and Chapman released him. He finished the season with Washington, and it is certain that he pleased them, or he would not have been signed this year. Such an item emanating from the Sporting Life can arise from nothing but personal spite on somebody's part.

CRICKET.

The D. A. C. board of directors have been requested by the cricket club to engage Mr. Hall, late of London, as coach for the team. Mr. Hall is said to be a grand bowler, and is badly needed, as the M. A. A. have both Tom Dale and Causton this year. Among the fixtures at the D. A. C. park this year will be games with the Philadelphias and Pullmans, besides several Canadian teams.—[Detroit Free Press.

THE WHEEL.

The Forest City Bicycle Club will enjoy a run to Dalaware and return Friday morning, leaving the city at 9 o'clock.

THE KENNEL.

T. G. Davey, of this city, president of the Canadian Kennel Club, and J. F. Kirk, of Toronto, have consented to act as judges at the Toronto Kennel Club's bench show next month. Mr. Davey will take the sporting dogs and Mr. Kirk the non-sporting classes.

Mr. Job Scales, of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney Complaint and Dyspepsia, sour stomach and lame back; in fact, I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try abottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude.

WONDERFUL EVENTS.

CERTAIN WONDERFUL EVENTS THAT occur from week to week, are recorded in our daily press, and create much surprise and call for comment amongst all classes of our population. Our people are quick to discern grand and worthy deeds; they feel that in some degree men and women are made better; and that notwithstanding the fact that the world is evil, there is still something worth living and working for. Certain newspapers have informed us of great and mighty cures, which to one class in particular these recorded events have proved a blessing, and brought comfort and cheer to many despondent hearts. Week after week we have had proof of men and women—old and young—who were saved from the dark tomb through the power of a remedy that not one paper in Canada had the generosity to mention the name, save the ADVERTISER, simply because they were not paid for advertising this remedy. This shows a most wonderful pecuniary principle on the part of an otherwise generous press. The principle of the ADVERTISER is to deplore such a state of affairs, and to give fair publicity to all worthy preparations. It therefore is a pleasure for us to give the honorable name of this wonderful medicine, known as the ROYAL CROWN BITTERS. It seems to be able to take hold of the worst cases—those for whom physicians held out no hope; who were pronounced beyond all earthly help. The weak, nervous, sleepless, despondent, morose, dyspepsic and rheumatic, are given new life, and anxious parents and relatives are filled with joy. All this has been accomplished by ROYAL CROWN BITTERS; and truly such grand and noble works benefit us as a nation, and future generations will bless the name of the great discoverer of the grandest remedy ever given to suffering humanity. tx

JUDGES' SALARIES.

A Raise of $1,000 to Each of the Superior Court Judges.

OTTAWA, April 13.—The Dominion Government has decided to increase by $1,000 the salary of each of the judges of the Provincial courts. Sir John Thompson last night gave notice of a motion which will increase the salary of Chief Justice Hagarty, Chief Justice Armour, Chancellor Boyd and Chief Justice Sir Thomas Galt each from $6,000 to $7,000, and the salary of Justices Burton, Osler, Maclennan, Falconbridge, Street, Meredith, Ferguson, Robertson, Rose and MacMahon each from $5,000 to $6,000. The salaries of the judges of the Court of Queen's Bench and of the Superior Court in Quebec will be raised to the same figures. The salaries of the chief justices and justices of the Supreme Courts of the other Provinces will be also increased by $1,000, and will be, as before, $1,000 less respectively than those of the judges in Ontario and Quebec, except in Prince Edward Island, where the salary of the chief justice will be $6,000 instead of $4,000, and that of the assistant judges $4,500 instead of $3,200.

Briggs Badly Beaten.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The anti-Briggs party has carried every point in New York Presbytery's election of delegates to the General Assembly, which meets in Portland, Ore., May 19. Six out of seven clerical and all seven lay delegates opposed to the Union Seminary theologian were chosen after much electioneering and bickering. This General Assembly will decide the appeal made by Dr. Briggs' friends from the action of New York Presbytery in disapproving of his election to the chair of Biblical theology at Union Seminary. Dr. Briggs and his party rallied all their forces in order to send their men to Portland, but the anti-Briggs party checkmated them by handing type-written ballots to a majority of the delegates.

"Love and smoke are unable to conceal themselves," and so it is with catarrh. No man suffering from this loathsome disease, can conceal the fact from the world. No matter how cultured, learned, social or brilliant he is—while his friends may be polite enough to dissemble their real feelings—his very company is loathsome. What a blessing it would be to humanity, if every person afflicted with catarrh in the head, could only know that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will positively and permanently cure the worst case. The manufacturers guarantee to cure every case or forfeit $500. The remedy is pleasant to use, and costs only 50 cents.

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating." K. D. C. has been tried and tested, and has proved itself to be the king of medicines, the greatest cure of the age, and the only perfect dyspepsia remedy on the market.

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhœa, cholera and all summer complaints, sea sickness, etc. It promptly gives relief and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething.

The great lung healer is found in the excellent medicine sold as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane of the throat and air passages and is a sovereign remdy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness in the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.
