AT THE THEATRE.

HI HENRY'S FAMOUS MINSTRELS TO-NIGHT.

Hi Henry, whose name as a minstrel manager has been known to the theatre-goers for the past 30 years or more is making his first visit in this section in ten years with his big city minstrels, which is said to be the largest in the world. They will appear at the Grand this evening.

The premier comedians, C. Jack Harrington and Frank Mitchell are top liners and strong features. The dancing wonders, Corrigan and Dove, are without equals; the human song bird, Herr Probst, is one of the greatest of imported features. First appearance, the lightning play modeler, T. Harry Belknap, presents one of the most interesting as well as comical specialties known to the vaudeville stage.

Marion and Mitchell's burlesque brings down the house. The wonderful costumes are especially engaged to complete rousing olio, Hi Henry and his superb band, the star saxophone quartette and the big double orchestra are additional features.

To say that "Finnigan's Ball" is coming soon, recalls to the average theatre-goer, pleasant recollections of cleverly eccentric comedians, pretty girls and a wealth of songs and dances in the latest and most up to date fashion. The "Ball" belongs to that class of theatrical entertainments, called, for lack of a better name, farce comedy, and whatever short-comings they possess, they have at least one great advantage. Their story is never so intricate or essential to the success of the entertainment that liberties cannot be taken with it to almost any extent, so long as they result in improvement. The company is larger than last season, and the costumes are entirely new and improved for the production of 1900. The old "Finnigan's Ball" in its brand new guise will be seen at the Grand to-morrow evening.

FIRE CHIEF TO BE HEARD IN HIS OWN DEFENCE.

REPORT OF THE CIVIC PROPERTY COMMITTEE PEREMPTORILY DISMISSING HIM REFERRED BACK FOR FURTHER CONSIDERATION.

Fitting Memorial of Our Late Queen Adopted by the City Council—
A New Committee Formed—Other Important Business at Last Night's Session.

Mayor Sulman has one admirable quality and that is punctuality. He opened the council meeting sharp on time with all the members in their places.

The Mayor added a new committee to the council last evening. He calls it the Industrial Committee and its purpose is to take charge of all communications and do all work in connection with the securing new industries for Chatham.

The report of the property committee, recommending the dismissal of Chief Jacques, was referred back. Probably the fact that the reporters were excluded from the committee deliberations had nothing to do with this.

A committee was appointed to visit Lyons, N. Y., and inspect the plants in that place that manufacture sugar from beets.

F. F. Quinn formally applied for the position of humane officer, and omitted to ask for a uniform or salary grant of $250.

The picture of the Queen, which hangs above the Mayor's chair, had been draped in black.

Before the business of the city was taken up the following motion was unanimously passed amid silence on a standing vote:—

Moved by Ald. E. W. Scane, seconded by Ald. G. W. Cowan, that the following expression of sorrow and sympathy signed by the Mayor be forwarded to the Governor-General for transmission to the proper person:—

"The corporation and citizens of the City of Chatham desire to express through Your Excellency their deep sorrow at the death of our beloved Sovereign the Queen and their heartfelt sympathy with His Majesty, King Edward VII., and the Royal Family."

The council did a lot of business last evening. Ex-Mayor T. A. Smith was present and addressed the body. He said that the Best Root Sugar Association of Ontario would meet the Ontario Legislature in Toronto on Feb. 7, and Mr. Smith asked the city council to join the county council in memorializing the Government to grant a bonus for the manufacture of sugar from beets.

COMMUNICATIONS.
The account of R. Cooper, amounting to $13.10, was referred to the finance committee with power.
The report of fees from the registry office for 1900 was referred to the finance committee.

Thos. Frawley wrote, asking remission of taxes on his house on Harvey St. for 1901. Referred to committee of revision.
James Milner wrote, calling attention to an error in assessment of his house on Emma St. Referred to finance committee.

A petition was received for a crossing on Wellington St. from the east of Sixth to Centre St. Referred to board of works.

A request from Mrs. W. A. Norton to trim trees on Raleigh St. was referred to the chief of police.

A number of residents in the vicinity of Joseph St. petitioned the council to purchase the triangular corner on Head St. and to make a park of it. Referred to board of works.

Rev. Robert Sims, rector of Holy Trinity Church, wrote, asking for a light in front of the edifice. Referred to the property committee.

Supt. Jones' request for an increased salary was referred to the property committee.

J. M. Houston wrote, asking remission of taxes. Referred to finance committee.
Chief Jacques' annual report from the fire department was received.
An account for carbons caused Ald. McCole to remark that these accounts were coming up every meeting. The fireman wanted to know if they couldn't be purchased cheaper in large quantities.

Ald. Cowan said that in 1898 and 1899, when he was chairman of the property committee, they had purchased carbons cheaper by taking 50,000 at a time.

The matter was referred to the property committee to look into.

W. E. Hamilton wrote, suggesting that the Ontario Legislature be petitioned to cut a canal through to Lake Erie, so as to obviate danger to Chatham from a flood. Received.

E. B. Northwood, Calumet, Mich., wrote in reference to a cold storage plant. Referred to the industrial committee.

The Canadian Engineer wrote, soliciting an advertisement. Received.
FOR HUMANE OFFICER.

F. F. Quinn made application for the position of humane officer. He said he would faithfully perform the duties of the position to the best of his ability and would ask no compensation. He was prompted to this action by the present state of the city finances, since he felt that the city could not afford to pay an officer.

Harry Graham, aide-de-camp to Lord Minto, wrote inviting the Mayor to a convention in regard to tuberculosis, to be held in Ottawa on Feb. 14th. Received.

The city engineer certified that the Massillon Brick Co. were entitled to the balance of contract price. Referred to the Board of Works.

Philip Volmer's grievance in regard to frontage tax was referred to the finance committee.

John B. Noth's application for a position as a carpenter was filed.
J. B. Rankin, K. C., solicitor for the proprietors of the Montana House, wrote claiming damages caused by the sewer being blocked. The amount claimed is $87.07. Referred to Finance.

T. B. Dowdsley and Sons, Collingwood, wrote in regard to locating their spring and axle works here. Referred to industrial committee.

FINANCE.

Chairman Scane of the Finance Committee reported as follows:—

1. On the communications re Pan American Exposition your committee recommended that the parties enquiring be notified that no action is being taken by the corporation with a view of having a civic exhibit.

2. Upon the application of C. J. Moore, the council may pass a by-law on which the court of revision could in such cases grant relief, but the application in any event, must be to the court of revision and cannot be granted by the council.

3. Your committee on finance have examined the administration of justice accounts and find the total, $1,108.82, of which the city pays one-sixth, or $178.13; registry office repairs, $10.40, of which the city is charged one-seventh, or $1.50; and conveying prisoners to Provincial institutions $85.21; one-fourth of that, $21.55; criminal witnesses, $190.00, the city pays one-sixth of this, $31.67; criminal justice, $267.40, the city pays half of this, $133.70; wood and coal, $272.33, half of this, $136.16; in all the city's share is $602.48. We also examined the county account for jail improvements and find the same amount to $174.96, of which the city pays one-fifth, or $34.99; Harrison Hall account, $119.63, quarter of this, $29.91; water account, Harrison Hall, $49.46, one-third of this, $16.48; gas account, Harrison Hall, $13.80, half of this $6.90; special account $376.84, in all, $480.32 or a grand total of $1,082.71, to be paid by the city.

4. We find the account of the Banner-News correct, $15.36; also the account of Geo. Jameson, $4.

5. The item in the account of Sawyer & Massey Co., not paid for repairs to rollers, which according to a former report of the finance committee, should be furnished by the company, of which they were notified. We therefore recommend no action.

6. Re assessment inches avenue sewer and letter of Edwin Bell, we understand the assessment is made under the advice of the City Solicitor and recommend that it stand.

7. Re notices of Rachael Freeman and Agnes May Slocum we recommend no action.

8. We find that the amount paid into the city treasury from prosecutions by the Humane Officer to be $9.33, remainder proceeded against.

BOARD OF WORKS.

Ald. Marshall, for the board of works committee, reported as follows:—

1. That the account of John Waddell against the corporation for flanking, laying walks on Water and Seventh streets, be paid, the amount of bill rendered being $7. The work was done under supervision of city engineer and board of works, and is exactly as per arrangement between Mr. Waddell and board of works of 1899. S. T. Martin, chairman.

2. Re account of Ger. Stephens & Co. for pick handles, 400, and charged to the corporation Oct. 5, 90. R. R. Bell interviewed declares he paid for said handles when he got them, therefore we recommend no further action.

3. Re account of H. Eichen, for cutting down and removing a tree from Grey St. After a careful investigation of the matter we find that Eichen's account is a just and reasonable one and we recommend payment for same.

4. Re account of James Cornhill, amounting to $4.50, for 1,000 circle brick. As the bill is correct and

The Planet.

S. STEPHENSON, Proprietor.

A LIBERAL PAPER'S INSULT TO THE RELIGIOUSLY INCLINED.

A correspondent of the Mail and Empire asks:

"What became of the 'Scripture lessons' selected for teaching in the public schools, about twenty years ago? At that time a committee from various denominations was appointed and among them Archbishop Lynch was consulted—to select extracts from the Bible that would be suitable for teaching religious and moral truths, without entrenching on denominational theology. Whether the work was ever completed and used—and if not, why not—I do not know, but should like to find out."

To this the Hamilton Times replies as follows:

"He refers to the excellent compilation of Bible passages, approved by the committee of the various denominations, and afterwards called in derision the 'Ross Bible.' It is a matter of history that in a moment of weakness, Mr. Ross yielded to the clamor of the school-smashers and admitted the book agreed upon by the representatives of the various religious bodies as a text-book. The result was a 'holy war,' in which he was showered with abuse and the book was soon withdrawn. And it was not 'skeptical scientists,' as the Mail writer sagaciously remarks, that caused the row; it was the churchmen. There's a hint in the incident for Mr. Harcourt. If he would fool with a hornet's nest on business bent, just let him give way to the religion-in-the-schools cranks."

While The Planet does not believe in combining secular and religious education, still it recognizes the right of other people to think differently. But the Times being "liberal" calls those who don't agree on the subject with it, cranks.

THE ONLY ENGLISH POPE.

At last the only Englishman who ever sat on the papal throne seems to be about to receive honor from his own countrymen, if not in his own country. A project is now on foot to erect a monument in St. Peter's to Nicholas Breakspore, Adrian IV., which will be worthy of him and England.

Nicholas Breakspore was a most interesting man. He was born of poor parents in 1100, at Langley, near St. Albans, and although he wished to enter an English monastery, the request was refused. He then went abroad and rose from honor to honor until, at the age of 54, he was elected to the chair of St. Peter. It was he who conferred the sovereignty of Ireland upon England, and it was he who procured the execution of the celebrated Arnold of Brescia. To his account must be laid the beginning of the long and bitter feud of the papacy with the house of Hohenstaufen. He had a personal struggle with Frederick Barbarossa—who refused to hold his stirrup for him to mount his horse—which resulted in a complete victory for the English pope.

In 1159, the quarrel having gathered volume, he was about to excommunicate Frederick, when he died, and Frederick thus escaped what, at that time, was almost a matter of life and death.

And this man, to whom emperors bowed, has had to wait 800 years for his monument—Rome correspondence of the Pall Mall Gazette.

OUR RANK SCHOOL SYSTEM.

Although Premier Ross does not make a boast of it, the educational system of Ontario is one of the features in his cap. He had the conduct of that department for many years, and when Mr. Hircourt took it over he came into a well-ordered inheritance.

The above amusing and ridiculous quotation is the way the Binner-News commences an eulogy of Hon. G. W. Ross' dissipated old school system. Can anybody imagine a sane newspaper publishing such twaddle? Isn't the B-N. aware that for the last ten or fifteen years that the Ontario school system has simply been a laughing-stock among the people who had children to educate? Doesn't it know that it is an exorcism on the province, maintained by the Ontario Government for the purpose of filching money out of the pockets of the people by means of the school book monopolies?

Doesn't it know that where the public schools of Ontario twenty-five years ago turned out scholars with a good common school education the system of to-day turns them out with a smattering of many subjects but without proficiency in any? This collegiate institute finishing fake has been introduced to induce juveniles, little past the kindergarten, to hurry along by learning their lessons like parrots. If ever there was a school system that was a blot on the intelligence of a civilized people, we think Ontario has it. Its various remodelings and tinkering seem to have been conceived in iniquity, while the amended system appears only to have been perpetuated for the purpose of permitting partisan friends of the Government to rob the public in the price of school books on condition that the plunder was shared up at election time.

But even this was not sufficient. When new books were issued alleged authors were paid for very inferior left by the grippe is dangerous; it irritates and weakens the throat and lungs. It opens the door for consumption.

work, while much better material was floating around uncopied. New text books were authorized and ordered that were not recognized in the least. Whenever more money was wanted a book could be changed and parents generally ordered to pay up another 75 cents or $1.

Then, again, the department was extremely useful as a political machine. It had a good deal of patronage in a small way to bestow and made the most of it. The result is that nine-tenths of the male teachers in the province are Liberals.

The citizens of the province, Conservative and Liberal alike, with the exception of the Binner-News, know all these things to be true. Hon. G. W. Ross realized that if there was one unpopular department in the Government it was that of education. When he became premier he was sharp enough to get out from under the impending avalanche and leave one of his colleagues to answer for the deplorable mess he had got our school system into.

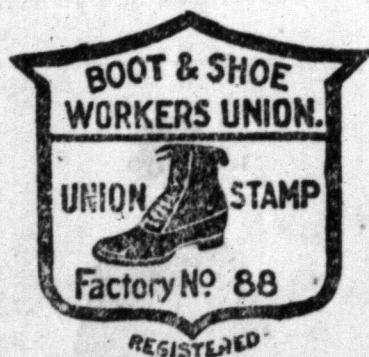

Then, in the face of all this, the Binner works off nearly a column of the same kind of slush as the paragraph quoted at the head of this column.

An importance conference will be held shortly at Ottawa under the auspices of the Governor-General to discuss the subject of the white plague, and the best means of checking it. This will be one of the most important and representative gatherings pertaining to health ever held in Canada. Even the railroads have recognized the usefulness of the work to be done, and have offered to carry delegates to the capital and back at half fare. The Chatham board of health should be represented. Consumption is as deadly around here as elsewhere.

The return of strikes and lockouts in 1899, issued by the board of trade of London, England, shows that the aggregate duration of disputes was 2,516,400 days, against 15,289,500 in 1893, 10,345,800 in 1897, and 8,927,000, the average for the last five years. Thus 1899 was 70 per cent. below the average, and the figures for the current year are also keeping well within bounds. In 1899 there were 719 disputes concerning 180,217 persons. The textile trades furnished the biggest section of the list—61,499. Last year mining topped the list, and the year before, engineering. More than half of the total disputes concerning less than 100 people and only 39 included more than 1,000 participants.

BLIND, OH, SO BLIND!

Isn't it strange how people gaze with enraptured faces On the cunning work of the painter Lining sweet nature's grace, And yet with eyes that see not Nor souls that busy find, Live in the world the painter paints, Blind, oh, so blind?

Isn't it strange how people Thrill in the kindest way To the stories of life and its living Told in books or to play, And yet, with darkened vision, To naught of their charm inclined, Live in the world where the stories live, Blind, oh, so blind?

—Ripley D. Saunders in St. Louis Republic.

THE BOSS DREW THE LINE.

Trading With a Corpse Was Not Allowed in His Camp.

The boss of the lumber camp refilled his pipe and lighted it. "Yes," said he, "I drew the line on that."

"We had a man die in camp this winter. He lived just over the boundary. Nice fellow he was too—thrifty and all that. Every one liked him. Sorry to have him die. But after he was gone we did the best we knew how. Fixed the body up and sent two of the men out with it."

"He had bought a new pair of boots at the wagon camp two weeks before he died, and we thought it would be only right to put those boots on. So we did. The men started away and came back in three days. One of the men was wearing them new boots. The other fellow gave it away. Said that just before they got to the house with the deceased the critter pulled them boots off the corpse and swapped. Other fellow didn't like it, and said so. But the critter allowed that he had had some talk with the corpse about swapping a few days before he died. Corpse had allowed that the new boots hurt his corns and said that a pair that had been broken in would do better. Critter said that he couldn't bear to think of deceased being buried in a pair of boots that hurt his feet. He said that he should wake up in the night, stut, and think about the thing."

"Well, course there was something in what he said, but as there wasn't no way of getting at the deceased's side of the matter, I concluded that I wouldn't let that trade stand. There's a good many things that go in this camp all right, but dickerin with dead men ain't one of 'em. I draw the line right there, and draw it sharp. I made that fellow send them boots back. The deceased has still got the critter's old ones. The fellow had to go to the wagon and get some new ones. And that's so much more for the company and a commission for me. 'Twarn't bad all round. When the fellow got to town about the thing I told him he could still have the comfort of knowin that deceased wasn't wearin tight boots."

FAT THE Foe OF CONSUMPTION.

Consumption is most prevalent among those who are stunted or who stint themselves in the use of fat foods. Everybody has learned and employed the knowledge, usually when it is too late, that cod liver oil is good for consumption. Few seem to have learned that food of the same character suitable for the table is preventive of consumption. In the whole course of my professional observation, covering a period of nearly 60 years, I have known but rarely a family or an individual that was brought up on a liberal supply of butter and bacon who became tuberculous. Moreover, such food fortifies the system against other diseases as well as consumption. It establishes stamina.—Dr. Bell in the Sanitarium.

Remembered Too Late.

Speaking of the queer doings of absentminded people, the following anecdote is related by the London Globe: "A very irritable man left his house one morning to attend a race meeting some distance off. In order that he might have enough money to pay his hotel bill he tied a sovereign in the corner of his handkerchief. In the train he drew his handkerchief from his pocket, and noticed the knot in the corner. 'Now,' he said to himself, 'what was it I wished to remember? Much thought failed to enlighten him upon the point, and at last, in a fit of passion he hurled the handkerchief out of the window. Then he remembered.'

Applying the Rule.

After Sunday school little Ned and his younger cousin, Horton, were permitted to play in the yard on condition that they would be very good and quiet. They had not been out long when Ned's mother heard loud screams. Upon investigating the cause she found her small son sitting on his cousin, pounding him vigorously in spite of Horton's pitiful wails. "Well, mamma," Ned exclaimed, "I wanted to teach him the golden rule, and he said he wouldn't learn it."

It is said that the reason why there are no snakes in New Zealand is that it is at the direct antipodes of Ireland, and that when St. Patrick banished the snakes from Ireland his blessing went right through the earth and banished the snakes from New Zealand also.

Something About Binder Twine

Farmers who intend placing their orders for Binder Twine should not take any Twine unless they know some-thing about its brand. There will be a great deal of cheap, rough Twine on the market this coming year, and farmers should bear in mind that they have no way of discovering this until they come to use it, when they are really too busy to have any mistakes rectified.

We are selling the well-known brand "Our Superior" that we have sold here for 3 years and which has given universal satisfaction. We guarantee that the twine will be the same this year as last, hence, farmers will be perfectly safe in ordering it.

Last year some dealers sold a so-called Superior Twine, but it was not the genuine article, as Our Superior Twine is made by the Plymouth Cordage Co., and every ticket on the ball bears their trade-mark on the back, viz., a sheaf of grain. No twine that has not this trade mark on the back of the ticket is genuine "Our Superior Twine."

Farmers, remember this and do not allow yourselves to be imposed on. We are now taking orders for Binder Twine and are guaranteeing the price against any decline or advance up till the time you take your twine home. Our aim has always been to give the farmers a good working twine, and we think that considering the quantity we sell, there is no firm in Canada who receive fewer complaints.

JOBSON GREW BALD.

AND HE DIDN'T AT ALL LIKE THAT STATE OF THINGS.

But He Afterward Admitted That He Preferred It to the Condition Resulting From the Injudicious Use of a So Called Hair Restorer.

The increasing bald spot on the top of Mr. Jobson's head has been worrying him a great deal during the past six months or so. When he bought his first bottle of hair restorer, he used it fur-tively, but Mrs. Jobson came upon him finally and caught him in the act of applying the queer looking liquid to the bald spot.

"Why, what in the world are you doing?" she asked him.

"Does it look to you as if I am trying to cure chills?" growled Mr. Jobson in reply, angry because she had found him out.

"Why," said Mrs. Jobson, seeing the label on the bottle standing on the bureau, "it's hair restorer."

"What did you think it was—Joban-berger of the vintage of '33?" inquired Mr. Jobson sarcastically, "or maybe you thought it was a tawny old Madeira? Your pretension, Mrs. Jobson, is occasion-ally so."

"But," interrupted Mrs. Jobson, "aren't you afraid that the stuff will be injur-ious? I have often heard that those so called hair restorers affect the minds of some people who use them, and—"

"Oh, you heard that, did you?" mumbled Mr. Jobson. "Well, why don't you take time by the forelock and ring up a coroner on that respect. There's a good deal of poppycock about this leaving things to nature at that. I think I have observed you apply a certain white pow-dery substance to your nose with a piece of cambric on different occasions, haven't I? Well, if this nature that you appear to be such chums with intended you to walk through the world with a shiny nose, why do you?"

"Oh," said Mr. Jobson, "I was only thinking that I never heard of one of these hair restorers really causing the lost hair to grow out again, and—"

"Didn't, hey?" broke in Mr. Jobson. "Well, that's just one more of these lit-tle things that you haven't heard of. The man who recommended this hair restorer to me was as bald as an orange, he told me, when he started in to use the stuff, and he looked exactly like Father-wald to be the piano thumper's twin brother, so far as his mane is concerned, I mean. I'll bet you a nice new tumbler that in-side of a week I'll have a thriving growth of hair on my head—bustling to main-tain the same length. I don't!"

"Was the man who recommended it to you the man who was selling it?" inquired Mrs. Jobson.

"That's neither here nor there," re-plied Mr. Jobson, turning red. "It doesn't make any difference whether he was selling fine watches or turkeys."

Mr. Jobson used the hair restorer religiously for two or three weeks, at the end of which period his bald spot was a trifle larger, if anything, and there wasn't even the sign of going plenteous to com-pensate for the loss of the hair.

So he abandoned that particular brand of hair restorer and brought home two bottles of another kind. He didn't show these to Mrs. Jobson, nor, in fact, did he make any further reference to the subject of hair restorers. He seemed to have a mania for trying different kinds of hair restorers. He sent for pamphlets on "The Cause and Cure of Baldness" and devoured them eagerly, and on the following day he would send for a couple of trial bottles of the preparation for the restoration of hirsute manufactured by the publisher of the pamphlet.

One night last week he brought home two bottles of a pale pink fluid.

"Well, I've got the real thing at last," he said to Mrs. Jobson. "It's recom-mended by about 50,000 formerly bald men throughout this country and Cana-da, and the testimonials are the most convincing literature I ever read in my life."

Mrs. Jobson made no reply, but she could not help regarding Mr. Jobson with a commiserating glance, which he caught and resented.

"Oh, you can grin all you're in a mind to be said. 'If you think there are 50,000 formerly bald men in this coun-try who are deliberately writing them-selves down liars over their own signa-tures, then I'd hate to have your opinion of human nature, that's all.'"

When Mr. Jobson was ready for bed that night, he uncorked one of the bottles and rubbed the stuff well into his bald spot for about 15 minutes. Then he turned out the gas and went to bed. Mrs. Jobson shook him awake with a cry of dismay along toward 7 o'clock on the following morning. She was pointing with a horrified expression to the top of his head.

"What the dickens is the matter?" asked Mr. Jobson, feeling of his bald spot.

"Look at the color of it!" gasped Mrs. Jobson.

Mr. Jobson hopped out of bed and raced over to his dressing room looking glass, where he saw that his bald spot was of a rich russet brown in color, as if it had been heavily painted with iodine. He growled something and rushed to the washbasin. In the spring apply 50 pounds of nitrate of soda, 100 pounds sulphate of potash and 200 pounds acidulated phosphate rock. This should be done in April, the bare places to be seeded with seeds of a variety of grasses. Keep the cattle off until the grass makes con-siderable growth.

A Pointer About Sheep.

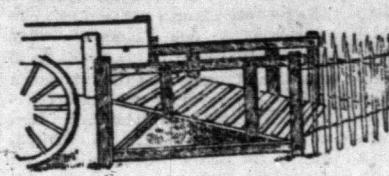

Sheep will not thrive on all kinds of soil. Some breeds are very active and will thrive in large flocks, but the large mutton breeds require good pasturage, and will not give satis-factory results if compelled to work over large areas for all they get. All sheep should have dry soils. Foot rot will always occur in a flock that is kept constantly on wet lands.

LOADING HOGS

How the Work in the Lot May Be Made Easier.

Loading hogs is usually a disagree-able task. This job is greatly sim-plified where an elevated pen with a floor on a level with the wagon bed is available, but there are few farmers whose feed lots are thus ar-ranged. The only way to load the porkers is with an improvised chute, which is always more or less of a nuisance.

A substantial chute with an in-clined floor—the longer the floor the better, as the ascent will be less steep—is made of 4-inch fencing spiked to a frame of 2x4 inches with posts of 4x4 stuff. To add to the solidity of the affair, the 2x4 and

CHUTE FOR LOADING HOGS.

4x4 should be bolted together. The floor can be made of plank or rough lumber of any kind. It is necessary to nail cleats upon the floor to pre-vent the hogs from slipping. One end of the chute rests on the ground, while the other is on a level with the wagon bed floor. This chute should be made of as light material as stability will allow, for it is often convenient to change its loca-tion. The rest of the arrangement is two sections of slat fencing, to be used as wings. One end of each sec-tion is fastened to a side of the chute and unrolled. When set up the two wings will make a large V, of which the point is the chute. The hogs can be easily driven inside the V, then the two ends of the slat-ting can be brought together. The hogs will thus be confined in a small pen to be loaded.

Keeping Up Soil Fertility.

The first thing in keeping up fer-tility is the saving and proper ap-plication of manure. Thousands of farm-ers are letting the manure waste in their barnyards, and are using com-mercial fertilizers. Fertility can be kept up in this way, but a lack of humus will soon follow. Soil deficient in humus will dry out in dry weather and a seeding of clover will be next to impossible. Do not flatter your-selves with the idea that you can keep up your fertility on commercial manures alone. You must save and use all your farm manure. Spread the manure on the higher portions of the field. Save everything. Do not let a thing go to waste, but put it on the land. It makes little difference when you put it on, only see that it goes on.

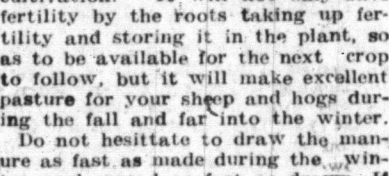

Plow under all the clover you can. Rye will do to plow under very well. Any green crop will answer. Do not let the ground lie bare during fall and winter. Save your corn stubble to plow under. This can be done at the last cultivation. It will not only save fertility by the roots taking up fer-tility and storing it in the plant, so as to be available for the next crop, but it will make excellent pasture for your sheep and hogs dur-ing the fall and far into the winter.

Do not hesitate to draw the man-ure as fast as made during the win-ter, and spread as fast as drawn. If your land is too hilly this may not be the best plan provided you have a good way to save the manure at the barn. But as the manure is usu-ally kept around barns, the loss from washing down the hills will be no greater than the loss around the barns. Manure drawn out in winter saves that much from the spring's work. Often in the spring the ground is soft, and I have seen ground injured as much by the tramping and cutting up by the wheels as the manure did good.

A wise rotation of crops is also necessary in keeping up fertility. No rotation should be longer than four years. Three years will be better. But four-year rotation will do very well provided clover is given an im-portant place.

A Two-Story House.

Hens could often be kept in the second floor of a building, if access to the ground could be secured. The cut shows an easy grade up to an runway to second story.

elevated door. The top and bottom floors are shown in place, but the entire front should be covered with slats. These can extend from the top board down to the bottom board. The grade is so easy that fowls will readily pass up or down. By this plan a building can often be made to hold two flocks instead of one.

To Improve Meadows.

Where meadows show indications of failing give an application of manure this winter, leaving it on the surface. In the spring apply 50 pounds of nitrate of soda, 100 pounds sulphate of potash and 200 pounds acidulated phosphate rock. This should be done in April, the bare places to be seeded with seeds of a variety of grasses. Keep the cattle off until the grass makes con-siderable growth.

A Pointer About Sheep.

Sheep will not thrive on all kinds of soil. Some breeds are very active and will thrive in large flocks, but the large mutton breeds require good pasturage, and will not give satis-factory results if compelled to work over large areas for all they get. All sheep should have dry soils. Foot rot will always occur in a flock that is kept constantly on wet lands.

Dizziness

Is a very common consequence of in-digestion and torpid liver. Sometimes there are spots before the eyes and hot flashes. At other times a sensation as of vertigo occurs, at once suffocating and blinding. It is a waste of time to at-tempt to cure this condition by or-dinary means or medicines. The stomach and organs of diges-tion must be restored to healthy ac-tivity, the blood must be purified, the liver cleansed and strengthened, before a cure can be hoped for. This is the work done by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a medicine specially beneficial in dis-eases of the stom-ach, blood and liver. It strength-ens the stomach, purifies the blood, cleanses the clogged liver, and pro-motes the health of every organ of the body.

"My wife was greatly troubled with indiges-tion, torpid liver, dizziness, and also irregular periods," writes Mr. W. A. Preston, of Shuqua-h, Nantuxes Co., Minn. "We tried many dis-eased remedies, but none of them gave per-fect relief until we were induced by a lady to try your Golden Medical Discovery. 'Favorite Prescrip-tion,' and 'Pleasant Pellets.' These medicines did more good than anything we ever tried for these complaints. We have used four bottles of your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' one of 'Fav-orable Prescription,' and two vials of your 'Pleas-ant Pellets.' These medicines have done the work we de-sired, and I do heartily recommend them to all similar sufferers."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assist the action of the "Discovery."

CURTAIN RAISERS.

Prolific Harry B. Smith is said to be writing a play for Sam Bernard.

It is the intention of Richard Golden to publish "Old Jed Prouty" in novel form this fall.

Isadore Rask's young daughter, it is said, is shortly to make her debut upon the stage.

William Gill has written a romantic comedy which he calls "The Loves of David Garrick."

Edward H. Sothorn is having two plays written for himself by Justin Huntley McCarthy. One has Francois Valton, the French poet, for its hero, and will be ready for production in November. The other is called "It Might Have Been."

"Plays that are wholesome," says the New York Sun, "thrive better and live longer than those that are not. These facts are plain, simple and easy to find out. Nevertheless carpenter set them aside, and go right on with fallacies about a supposititious degeneracy of the drama."

THE TRICKY TURK.

The sultan of Turkey has reigned 25 years and has just had to arrest a large number of his subjects, who think that is long enough.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The sultan has conferred another decoration on F. Diodate Thompson of Pike Island. It is clear that his majesty is not very angry with us because he has not paid us that little bill.—New York Evening Sun.

Turkey is increasing her navy and like-wise her debts. Colonel Ab Hamid prob-ably anticipates that the time is ap-proaching when it will be necessary to employ first class battleships to stand off his dues.—Kansas City Times.

EXCITED CHARLIE.

Charlie Wah stood in front of his laundry on King St. The Hi Henry automobile had just whirled by. Charlie's eyes were almost as wide as they were long and his breath came in gasps. He seized a passer-by by the coat and exclaimed, "Look! Look! No pusher, no puller. Run like all hell!"

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

A meeting of the city ministers was held last evening in City Clerk's office, Harrison Hall, to arrange the program for the memorial service to be held in the Grand Opera House on Saturday next. Mr. Sims, and Rev. Dr. Hannon will then deliver 10 minute addresses.

A meeting of the different choir leaders in the city will be held this afternoon to decide on the musical program.

LADIES' ASSISTING SOCIETY.

The Ladies' Assisting Society of the Public General Hospital held their regular monthly meeting at the residence of Mrs. Alister McKay, Centre street yesterday afternoon. Measures were brought forward of interest to the nurses and the working of the Hospital generally, and, judging from the Ottawa paper, the discussion of the ladies had the work fully at heart. After the regular business was completed, arrangements were made for the annual evening, which will be held in Harrison Hall, on Monday, 25th of February, of which due notice will be given. Refreshments were then served and the meeting adjourned till February.

CLAIMED HE QUALIFIED.

This morning a rough looking citizen wandered into the office of Lieut. Col. Rankin. Posing himself fairly in front of the officer he asked:

"Are you the existing officer for Baden-Powell's South African police?"

The Lieut. Col. said he was not, but that he was forwarding the names of would-be recruits and their recommendations.

"I want to recruit and I want to go to South Africa at once," said the visitor. "My only recommendation is that I am the toughest son of a gun in Chatham and I can prove it."

The Lieut. Col. asked him if he could shoot, swim and ride.

"Yes, I can do any damn thing and I don't care who knows it."

The name of this desirable candidate should be forwarded to Ottawa.

MILITARY MATTERS.

A meeting of the officers of the 24th Battalion was held last evening with a full attendance. The samples for the suits were discussed and that of a brownish gray was decided on, subject to the decision of the D. O. C.

Three guide books were ordered for rifle exercise, infantry drill and Col. Otter's Manual. It was found that the prices for these books were 30 to 40 per cent. cheaper in the Old Country than in Canada.

It was decided to have the drill shed marked off in 30-inch paces in order that the recruits might get the right length of step.

Col. Rankin was much pleased at the progress made and so expressed himself.

CAPT. FRASER'S TEAM WON.

Maple City Hockey Club Add Another Victory to Their Record.

Wallaceburg Played a Plucky Game
—London Receives Heavy Punishment From the Ontario Association.

After a hard-earned game the Chatham boys succeeded in trimming the 'Burgers at hockey last night. The teams lined up as follows:

Wallaceburg.
Goal—Reynolds.
Point—Nera.
Cover point—Leycock.
Forwards—Labatt, Trotter, Mitchell and Bourassa.

Chatham.
Goal—Cook.
Point—Courtney.
Cover point—Fraser.
Forwards—Paterson, Elliot, Larmour and Hicklin.

As soon as the puck left the centre Chatham took the aggressive while the 'Burgers remained on the defensive playing rather cautiously and skrimishing on the wing.

A quarter of an hour elapsed before anything serious took place when Paterson slid the puck in but without a great deal of opposition on the part of the opposing team. Five minutes later Fraser scored another which seemed to animate the Wallaceburg boys with a desire to take revenge.

In the second half of the game the 'Burgers determined to carry out their intentions without delay. Labatt by skilful maneuvering carried the puck in front of the Chatham goal when Trotter in spite of the violent opposition of Courtney scored. After the break in the centre, Elliot took hold of the matter and made a dash down the line clear to the 'Burgers' point, who got in a scrum with him in which Elliot fell with a gash in his forehead. This was soon attended to and he still continued to play with great vigor.

After a desperate struggle Fraser scored and a few minutes later Reynolds left the goal open by skating out to shoot the puck which Larmour reached before him and scored.

The referee a short time after declared the time up and everybody agreed that both teams played an excellent game all through. They are not at all discouraged by their defeat and hope to have another try at Chatham at an early date. The official score was 4-1 in favor of Chatham.

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 28.—The hand of the Ontario hockey executive has fallen heavily on the London club. The executive to-day found that the charge made by Stratford that London had played Frank Winn, of Montreal, under the name of Campbell Lindsay, at a recent match, was sustained, and found also that to hide the original fraud, the officers of the London club, or some of them, had consented to the production of false affidavits.

The attention of the crown authorities will be directed to the perjury committed. The following penalties were meted out: W. A. Herne, Frank Winn and the other members of the London team; Lang, Ashplant, Peel, Johns and Little were declared professionals; Frank Hobbs, captain of the team and a member of the O. H. A. executive, was declared a professional and expelled. Upon Campbell Lindsay and W. A. place, secretary of the London club, the executive put the extreme penalty of disqualification forever from playing or taking or taking any part in the game of hockey.

The London club is reported that the juniors will be re-admitted if they cut loose from the present officers.

WILL LOSE A LIMB.

P. C. Dezella received word yesterday that his brother Hector had been removed to the hospital. Mr. Dezella was down to Windsor Saturday to see his brother, who is suffering from a diseased leg. The doctors say that the only hope of life is to remove the leg and Mr. Dezella was taken to the hospital in Windsor yesterday to undergo the operation.

CANADIANS GAIN HONOR.

In the recent final examination on gynecology at St. Vincent's Hospital, conducted by Prof. S. C. Smith, two Canadian nurses-in-training established a record for the institution by taking 100 per cent. in their standing.

The successful young ladies were Miss Lillian Grace Weldon, of this city, and Miss Margaret Keble, of Senfort.

SAYS THERE'S NO GRIEVANCE.

Speaking of the complaint that cars were left standing on Couzens' spur, submitted to the city council last night, Gen. Agt. Tillson, of the Lake Erie, states that two cars laden with ashes were left in front of Mr. Couzens' ashery for a short time and that these were the only cars that have been upon that spur for months.

Chairman Taylor for the property committee reported as follows:

1. In our investigation of the sad drowning of Patrick Kennedy in the River Thames on the evening of Dec 23rd last at the rear of the Riverside Terrace, we find that the fire department was called to the scene as soon as possible, after the man was discovered in the water; and we also find that the man was still above water and calling for help when the fire wagon arrived in charge of Chief Jacques, accompanied by Firemen Side and Crump. We also find that the wagon returned to the fire hall by the chief's orders while the man was still calling for help, without having made the slightest effort to save him. So, under the circumstances, your committee have come to the conclusion that Alex Jacques is not a fit and proper man to have charge of the fire department and recommend that he be dismissed as such.

2. That in the case of Fireman Crump for using profane language to certain citizens on the evening of the drowning your committee should recommend that he be suspended from the fire department for one month.

3. That your committee recommend that the annual report of Superintendent Jones be received and put on file in the clerk's office for future reference.

REFERRED BACK.

The property committee's report excited some discussion and the first two clauses were not adopted.

When Ald. Cowan rose and said: "I don't think the committee treated the chief fairly. (They never even gave him a hearing before the committee. Under the circumstances I think that the report should be referred back. I believe in British fair play."

Ald. Taylor—We had the Chief's evidence as given before the coroner and I don't think that evidence was improved on. As far as British fair play is concerned I think that most every citizen considers that he stands convicted on his own evidence. It was a very inhuman thing, and if my own brother had acted as the Chief did, I would feel the same towards him as I do towards the Chief.

Ald. Scane—I agree with Ald. Cowan that the committee should have heard both sides of the case. As a rule, the alderman favored supporting committee reports but, under the circumstances, he couldn't support this one.

Ald. Taylor—The evidence at the inquest was sworn to, but as far as I am concerned I am quite willing to have the report referred back.

Mayor Sulman thought that the evidence at the inquest was sufficient and it was too late to refer it back.

The council, however, refused to adopt the report.

On motion of Ald. Taylor, seconded by Ald. McColl, Ald. Mounter, Scane and Cowan were added to the committee.

Ald. Scane called the attention of the property committee to cars standing on Colborne St. in front of Mr. Cowan's residence.

On motion of Ald. Scane, the Mayor and Clerk, on behalf of the city council, were instructed to petition the Legislature for bonus beet-root sugar factories.

On motion of Ald. Pritchard the Industrial committee was appointed as follows: Aldermen Cowan, Mounter, Pritchard, Fleming and Edmondson.

Moved by Alderman Cowan, seconded by Ald. Scane, that in view of the fact that the Chatham and Suburban Electric Railway intend applying to the Ontario Legislature for a three year extension in which to begin the construction of their proposed road, that this council appoint a committee to act with the city solicitor for the purpose of opposing any such extensions unless the said company can show satisfactory evidence of their ability and intention to proceed with the work at once.—Carried.

The matter of securing a gate over the C. P. R. track at Wellington street, was referred to the property committee.

Ald. Mounter called attention to the blocking of William and Wellington streets by trains.

Ald. Cowan said that in '98 and '99, when he was chairman of the property committee, that the Company had asked that the number of the engine of the offending train be secured. This was done and there were no more complaints during those years.

The Mayor said that the Reeve of Harwich had called on him in reference to an appropriation made by the township for the purpose of fixing up of the main township roads leading into the city. The Reeve desired the city to co-operate.

Ald. Marshall, chairman of the Board of Works, said that the Reeve had called on him to do anything, however, owing to the frontage tax system. The legislature had been petitioned in reference to this matter, but had not as yet taken any notice of the petition.

Ald. Marshall asked authority to advertise for supplies for the Board of Works for 1901.

The Ladies' Assisting Society asked for the use of the council chamber on the last Tuesday in February.—Granted.

Mayor Sulman asked the council to authorize the sending of a deputation to Lyons, New York State.

On motion of Ald. Pritchard, a deputation, consisting of ex-Mayor S. T. Martin, J. J. Ross and F. P. Quinn, was appointed to go to New York State.

After two readings of the by-laws to appoint a poll-tax collector and to pass a by-law for the borrowing of money for the current expenditures, the council adjourned.

A CAUSE OF HEADACHE.

One Very Common Cause, Generally Over-looked.

Headache is a symptom, an indication of derangement or disease in some organ, and the cause of the headache is difficult to locate because so many diseases have headache as a prominent symptom; derangement of the stomach and liver, heart trouble and kidney disease, lung trouble, eye strain or ill fitting glasses all produce headache and if we could always locate the organ which is at fault the cure of obstinate headaches would be a much simpler matter.

However, for the form of headache called frontal headache, pain back of the eyes and in forehead, the cause is now known to be catarrh of the head and throat, where the headache is located in back of head and neck it is often caused from catarrh of the stomach or liver.

At any rate catarrh is the most common cause of such headaches and the cure of the catarrh causes a prompt disappearance of the headaches.

There is at present no treatment for catarrh so convenient and effective as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, a new internal remedy in tablet form composed of antiseptic like eucalyptol, guaiac, and blood root which act upon the blood and cause the elimination of the catarrhal poison from the system through the natural channels.

Mrs. Cora Ainsley, a prominent school teacher in one of our normal schools, speaks of her experience with catarrh of the head and catarrh of the stomach. She says: "I suffered daily from severe frontal headaches and pain in the back of the eyes, at times so intensely so that I was unable to do my daily duties. I had suffered from catarrh more or less for years, but never thought it was the cause of my headaches, but finally became convinced that such was the case because the headaches were always worse whenever I had a cold or fresh attack of catarrh."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets were highly recommended to me as a safe and pleasant catarrh cure and after using a few fifty cent boxes I procured from my druggists I was surprised and delighted to find that both the catarrh and headaches had gone for good."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at fifty cents per package, under the guarantee of the proprietors that they contain absolutely no cocaine (found in so many catarrh cures) no opium (so common in cheap cures) nor any harmful drug. They contain simply the wholesome antiseptics necessary to destroy and drive from the system the germs of catarrhal disease.

SOME NEW PUBLICATIONS.

"Picturesque Views" is the title of the latest publication issued for the Grand Trunk Railway. It is in the shape of a souvenir of the entire system, comprising over 100 half-tone views of what is claimed to be the finest scenery on the American continent, extending from Portland, Me., to Chicago. The chief attractions are the scenes of hunting, fishing and camp life, and the views of some of the aristocratic summer resorts of the country which are shown in detail. Other features are the telescopic views. The book is handsomely bound and well worth the retail price, which is fifty a copy.

RAPID RAILWAY TRAVEL.

Representatives of the Grand Trunk Railway Company had in their charge the other day two children, who, probably made the quickest trip ever recorded, between Truro, N.S., and Council Bluffs, Ia., covering the 2,033 miles in exactly sixty-six hours and thirteen minutes. The little tota were alone and made the trip to join their parents, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. J. Simpson, in the city on the banks of the Missouri River. They left Truro at 3.45 o'clock in the afternoon on the Maritime express, arriving at the Bonaventure station at 5.30 o'clock the following afternoon. While here they were entertained by representatives of the company, and at 10.30 o'clock in the evening they boarded the "Fast Flyer," arriving in Des Moines station, Chicago, at 8.45 o'clock the following evening. They continued their journey the same evening, leaving for Council Bluffs at 10.30 o'clock, and reached their destination at 3.45 o'clock the next afternoon. Their journey was uneventful, but they seemed to enjoy every minute of the time they were on the trains, as the men in charge as well as the passengers showed them every centre of the system, and they were shown one of the possibilities of modern railroading.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, E. J. ## Jess and Johnny.

A LOVE STORY.

By Annie Hamilton Donnell.

COPYRIGHT, 1900, BY ANNIE HAMILTON DONNELL.

been. The girl stood about, wringing her hands hysterically. "He wasn't worth it—such a little humphacked thing," somebody said shrilly.

"Sh. can't you? Do you want Jess to hear?" cried some one else. But there was no danger. Jess was wiping the blood from Johnny's face. She had only heard Tim Bradley. With a sudden movement she stood before him.

"Carry Johnny to my house, Tim," she said quietly. "He belongs to me. I'm going to marry him."

The girl's voice rang out distinctly. There was no quiver of doubt or of shame in it. She faced them all splendidly. One of the girls uttered a nervous sound that might have been a sob or a laugh. Jess caught the look on her face.

"I am going to marry Johnny," she repeated sharply. "Oh, you needn't look that way, Moll Dixey! Johnny ain't dead. He belongs to me, and I tell you I'm going to marry him. Won't somebody carry him to my house? Has anybody gone for a doctor?"

"Yes, yes, two of the boys," volunteered many voices. "He'd ought to be here inside of the 'art' our. Stiddy, boys—easy!"

If Johnny had been a baby instead of a brawny, crushed giant, they could not have carried him more tenderly down the straight road outlined in crimson and gold. Relays followed, and the poor, unconscious load was shifted occasionally with the gentleness of mothers handling their babies.

Jess and the little un went on ahead. The child was sobbing still under his breath, and his little feet trailed, unnoticed, behind him. The horror of the terrible minute before Johnny sprang to his rescue was over for his unbalanced little mind.

"I'm killed! I'm killed!" he moaned with patient reiteration. "You'd just as lieves I'd be killed, Jess; yes, you would too! You ain't sorry."

And Jess was not even thinking of the little un. She had forgotten him for once.

When Johnny woke out of his stupor, he thought he had gone to heaven and one of the angels was bending over him. She was very sweet and gentle.

Why, it is Jess! Then Jess had gone to heaven too? Johnny experienced a sense of relief at the thought. It wouldn't be real heaven without Jess.

"Jess, little girl," he whispered, "when'd you come?"

"Sh! Johnny, don't talk. Yes, it's me. It's Jess. I'm taking care of you. You've had a kind o'-o' sickness. Sh!"

And Johnny closed his eyes again, with a great joy mastering his pain. Slowly, very slowly, his awful bruises yielded to the gentle ministry of nature—and Jess. Very slowly Johnny lumbered back to life. The little settlement of Liberty had been under snow a month or more before he saw it again.

At first Jess had staid away from the works to nurse him; then she had gradually trusted him more and more to granny. She could not lose the money she earned at the looms.

One day Johnny sat up in bed and demanded a looking glass. Jess was at the factory. The little un sat on the foot of the bed playing with a bit of bright string.

"Say, little un, you know what a lookin' glass is, hey? Well, you run and fetch me one," said Johnny.

"I know!" the little un cried delightedly. "I've got one myself. It came out o' a window, and you can look through it and see the trees and the snow."

"No, not Ask granny. Granny'll know, the sick man said fretfully.

Granny came in with the looking glass, as a last resort, behind her, for Jess had said no. She looked frightened.

"There, there, Johnny! There, there! You go right to sleep and get rested up, or, if you'd ruther, I'll fetch you in some beautiful porridge. Jess made it," she added anxiously.

"Fetch me a lookin' glass!" roared Johnny. "I've been feelin' over my face—there's somethin' wrong with it."

Poor Johnny! It was all wrong. He had hazarded and lost all his rough manly beauty. The thin face on the pillow was wasted and marred.

"Granny, I'll get out o' bed if you don't fetch it," he persisted, and grumpy yielded weakly. The little un peered over Johnny's shoulder as he looked.

"Ain't you homely, Johnny?" he piped shrilly. "My, your face is all cross-ways!"

When Jess came home, Johnny's face was turned away. He covered it with his great lean hands.

"Johnny, Johnny," quavered Jess, but she knew the mischief was done. It had to come. All her tenderness and foresight could not ward it off.

public avowal before the men and girls the day of Johnny's sacrifice. Every word of it stood out like clear handwriting on the wall. They had all heard—all but Johnny. What would he think when he heard of it, too, outside, as he would be sure to do? He was getting stronger all the time. Soon he would be out again, and some of the boys would let the secret out.

But that trouble settled itself while Jess stood and looked down at Johnny's hidden face. The pity and the love in her soul crowded out everything else. She kept soothing the big white hands with her fingers over and over, and then she leaned down and blessed them. Johnny quivered from head to foot. "Johnny!" Jess cried.

"Johnny, look up, look up! Please, dear!"

She forced away his hands with gentle firmness. She was looking down at him, laughing a little, shyly. A wave of crimson crept up across her sweet face. "What I've got to say is that I—love you, Johnny. The Lord Almighty knows I do. I want you to let me marry you. Johnny, you've got to! I said I was going to. I told them all I was that day you saved the little un."

The rest she whispered with her face in his. "What was she knelt beside the bed. "Johnny, answer me straight out," she breathed. "Haven't I got a right to be answered same as other women?"

She was laughing softly under her breath, but he could feel the hot blood in her face.

"I'm going to marry you, Johnny," whispered Jess. "I love you, dear."

The little un stooped stealthily out to granny. His unsteady, strange child's face was full of awe, and he prodded granny's arm excitedly with a little sharp forefinger.

"My, Jess is kissin' Johnny!" he shrilled. "An Johnny's kissin' Jess!"

AMERICAN COAL ABROAD.

If our commercial organizations are alive to their opportunities, the recent 100,000 ton contract for coal to be shipped abroad will surely be the first of many similar and even greater sales of coal for export from this port.—Philadelphia Times.

Inasmuch as the coal supply of this continent, though great, is not inexhaustible, it is likely that the demand from abroad for American coal will serve as an incentive to invention to devise, if possible, means to utilize other sources of heat and power than those which are utilized at present.—Boston Globe.

British North America and Mexico are the largest outside purchasers of our coal, only 278,572 tons having so far this year been shipped to Europe. But there is a prospect of a largely increased demand upon the part of the European consumers. The present scarcity of coal carrying vessels, however, is operating to temporarily limit the extension of the trade.

THIS IS A MAN'S METHOD.

His Way of Making a Carpet Bargain While His Wife Was Away.

"I want both my upper and lower halls recarpeted," was the remark Charles J. Jones of East Walnut Hills made to a well known carpet man. "And I'm going to move out of the house until you finish the work! I'll leave the choice and color to you! My wife is out of town, you see, and I want to surprise her upon her return. There is only one condition to this bargain—I must ask you, as we are old friends, to give me a small figure in the carpet."

"All right!" said the carpet man. And Charles Jones staid away from home for two days, while the carpet man's hirelings banged away with their hammers, and he hugged himself as he thought of the surprise that was in store for his wife when she returned.

Last Thursday the carpet man called Jones up by telephone and announced that the carpet was laid.

"It's a dark green!" said the carpet man.

"I'm glad of that!" answered Jones. "And as small a figure as is consistent with the carpet!" roared the carpet man.

"I'm gladder than ever!" said Jones. "That evening he visited his home and was satisfied that the carpet was a peach. The next morning he met the carpet man."

"How much do I owe you?" inquired Jones.

"It is $98.65," said the carpet dealer. "What?" yelled Jones. "There's the small figure you and I agreed on?"

"Why, on the border of the carpet!" said the amazed dealer. "It's a morning glory vine with pink and white flowers! You've got a bargain at that figure!"

HOME LIFE ON THE WANE.

English Hostesses Accused of Being Perpetual Goodbodies.

Slowly, but surely, the pride the English hostesses took in their home, in their reputation for hospitality and in their ability to plan pleasant little entertainments for their friends is passing away. The smart young hostess no longer cares to welcome her guests among her Lures and Penates; it is no longer her earnest desire to display her housewifely genius; no longer her ambition to shine as a "clever little woman who so thoroughly understands just what every one likes."

There are too many irons in society's fire to look after nowadays for her to fritter away time in this fashion. Moreover, people want incessant novelty; they are bored with even good menus, they tire of certain surroundings, they must have everything a little in advance, and as little as possible like any thing that obtained a decade ago. Thus it is we rush with our friends in unhome-like fashion from restaurant to restaurant, like bona fide travelers; thus it is we inhospitably, one might almost venture to say meanly, ask our friends to share expenses with us in the little pleasures we should once have offered them. The commercial spirit is indeed rampant in us in this advanced age. One almost dreads to think what next must be sacrificed to it and what will be the home life and the English house-mother of the next generation.

diction in matters of reports, by-laws and assessments, and all other matters relating to drainage, be entirely removed from the jurisdiction of the courts and so prevent cases ever reaching the Supreme Court. We are

Paine's Celery Compound
Has Never Disappointed
the Sick.

It Ever Retains the Con- fidence of the People.

Wherever once used, the sick and suffering of all classes of our country people are made to realize that Paine's Celery Compound does not belong to the ordinary patent medicine ranks, such as nervines, bitters and sarsaparilla. Paine's Celery Compound is made from the very best preparations as the diamond is superior to cheap glass.

Paine's Celery Compound possesses extraordinary virtues and powers peculiar to itself for health-giving and lengthening life. It has saved men and women—young and old—after other medicines failed to cure much distressed physicians by its curative powers that they now prescribe and recommend it.

Professor Edward E. Phelps, M.D., gave Paine's Celery Compound to the world as a positive cure for sleeplessness, nervousness, liver and kidney troubles, neuralgia and rheumatism.
"Thousands of thankful letters from people of every rank, give proof of the fact that Paine's Celery Compound
"makes sick people well."

If you sigh and long for new health, a better life is your sure reward if you use the medicine that has cured others. The use of one bottle will vince you that there is power and virtue in each drop. Beware of substitutes; see that your druggist gives you
"PAINE'S" the kind that cures.

The sea of matrimony is usually navigated by court-ships.

A lamp cannot be much good unless it's wick-end.

The profit of a gold mine depends,
not on the amount of rock crushed under the stamps but upon the amount of gold which can be extracted from the rock. In a similar way the value of the food which is eaten does not depend on the quantity which is taken into the stomach but upon the amount of nutriment which is extracted from it by the organs of nutrition and digestion. When these organs are diseased they fail to extract the nutriment in sufficient quantities to supply the needs of the several organs of the body, and these organs cannot work without nutriment. The result is heart trouble, liver "trouble," and many other ailments. Dr.
Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,
acting on every organ of the digestive and nutritive system, restores it to health and vigor. It cures diseases remote from the stomach through the stomach in which they originated.
"Golden Medical Discovery" contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

It is truly a wonderful medicine.

A Substitute For the News Sheet With a Number of Advantages.

An engineer of Agrani, Hungary, has invented a new material which,
he claims, will absolutely dispense with the paper for newspaper purposes. He intends to print them on his new material, which is said to have the great advantages of being much thinner, almost untearable, plainer, and much better adapted for impression. The inventor also states that by means of a special chemical preparation the print can be washed off and the sheets may be reprinted.
The new material is not made from fibers, but is a chemical production,
"the composition of which I cannot say," said the inventor, "give away as yet. As soon as I shall have secured a patent in Austria-Hungary and in all other industrial countries, I shall make my process public. I can produce this material in any designed shape and size, and this at a surprisingly low cost. It will bring about a revolution throughout the civilized world."

The newspaper readers, instead of throwing the papers away after they are through with them, may return them, weekly or monthly, to the printing house where they will be chemically washed off and printed over again. Rotation print will, of course, have to be dispensed with, but I am absolutely convinced that the world will be a better place for the most of the dailies of the world to take to my material. A most reliable Hamburg paper, from which these notes are taken (the Hamburger Nachrichten) adds that the inventor went with samples of his new material to London, and that he succeeded in interesting a powerful financial syndicate in the matter.
As soon as the patents have been taken out a large factory for the manufacture of the new material will be erected in the neighborhood of Agrani.

How to Handle a Gun.
Forest and Stream: In picking up your gun from lying flat, standing against anything, from a companion or a boat, do not take hold of the muzzle and drag it towards you;
take hold of it by the forestock and barrel if you are only using one hand; if two, in the regular way you grasp it when you go to shoot.

In carrying your gun do not keep the muzzle directly behind you;
throw the butt to the right or left, whichever shoulder you are carrying it on. This will bring the muzzle toward the opposite shoulder, thus rendering it easy to carry, and be resting on your neck and shoulder instead of on the small part of your shoulder, and with the muzzle upward will also lighten it a little.

I think there are more men shot with their own guns by the muzzle than by any other means. When you run your gun or canoe to the bank your gun is likely to be in the bow, which I think is the best place for it. Take hold of it by the forestock and step out. Put it in a safe place where you are sure it will not fall down. Then draw up your boat or do anything else you may want to do; but do not let your gun stay in the boat until you have shouldered your pack and then catch the muzzle, drag it up over the gun-wale, hook the hammers and have it explode. It is likely to blow out your brains.

Great Men's Love Letters.

Napoleon's letters to Josephine were remarkable for their ardour, and for a man who was said to have no heart he expressed an extraordinary degree of love and devotion.

Swift's letters to Stella are the complete autobiography, and at the same time his greatest power, when he was courted by rich and great, when Ministers of State consulted him on every question, he took time to write her daily. And no man ever sent a more loving letter than he commenced another, thus, as Thackeray says, never letting go her dear hand. "He told her everything that was going on in the great world, and what was said and done, he even person worth knowing from the Queen down."

But there was a case connected with everything that Swift did. After wooing his Stella for years and years, and breaking the heart of Miss Vanhomrigh as well as the usually married ladies, he finally refused to live with her. They parted at the altar, never to meet again.

Little Vendors of Liverpool.

Nearly twelve hundred boys and girls are licensed by the City Council of Liverpool to sell newspapers, matches, bootlaces, etc., upon the streets. Before the licenses are granted consent must be obtained of parents and guardians, as well as of the local school officials. The age limit for girls is from eleven to sixteen years, and for boys from eleven to fourteen years. No child is allowed to peddle in the streets after 9 o'clock in the evening. All must be decently clad and free from physical defects. No business must be done during school hours, and on no account must one of the children enter a public house or place of amusement for trading purposes. Every licensee wears a badge to indicate whether he is obliged or not to attend school.

A Look Into the Future.

When all freight traffic has been banished to underground railways and the automobile has displaced the horse for surface travel, nearly the entire street between the pavements can be devoted to green turf. Cities of the twentieth and following centuries may be free from dust and the vile odors arising from animal traffic. The automobile moving machine may be substituted for the sweeping machines, to the great improvement of health and increase of enjoyment of citizens.

What Clover Will Do.

Why should one go to the expense of subsoiling mechanically and fertilizing his land artificially when clover will do both at a minimum of cost?

Doctors Order It.

Doctors see at once the advantage of taking a medicine right to the part that is sick. You see the doctor orders his own medicines for the disease, and has the same time. It destroys all germs of diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles, and other contagious diseases; and there is no remedy its equal for croup, sore throat and hoarse colds.
You now see why it cures whooping-cough in a few days.

SCROFULA THE CAUSE.

Eczema, catarrh, hip disease, white-swelling, and even consumption have their origin in scrofulous conditions.

With the slightest taint of scrofula in the blood, there is no safety. The remedy for this disease in all its forms is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which goes to the root of the trouble and expels all impurities and disease germs from the blood.

The best family cathartic is Hood's Pills.

NEW YORK TELEGRAPH.

"There is certainly no publication that attracts readers more easily than The New York Sunday Telegraph, and this agreeable state of affairs is due to its clever knack of giving the reader just the kind of news he wants and presenting it in the manner
he likes to read it. The Sunday Telegraph's popularity is enhanced by its features not to be found in any other newspaper, and by a supplement printed in colors on fine book-paper, the illustrations of which are equal to those of the best magazines."

Such is the opinion of the Cleveland Plaindealer, and of every right thinking person, capable of discerning the merits of a publication, who has ever subscribed to the Telegraph. Fulsome commendation is all right in its way and perfectly justifiable in cases of magazines, successful books and high literary efforts, but when a contemporary work, of its own accord, gives such a flattering testimonial to a rival sheet, then that paper, both in point of its literature and in the quality of the news it presents, must be above the ordinary daily journal.

The Morning and Sunday Telegraph will be sent to any one desiring a special copy, by addressing The Morning
Telegraph, 140 West Forty-second St., New York City. Newsdealers, if they wish a saleable commodity, should include the Telegraph in their stock in trade, and if the paper is given a good display and brought to the attention of their patrons, they will find the investment a profitable one.

HITS THE BOARD HARD.

"Citizen" Believes the Authorities Should Investigate Complaints Without Formal Petition.

Thanks the Authorities Are Too Much Exercised About Matters of Routine and Neglect more Important Subjects.

To the Editor of The Planet:
Sir,—Some time ago one of your correspondents asked the question—of what use is the C. C. I. Board of Trustees? And in yesterday's issue of The Planet the question is answered by the chairman in a manner which says conclusively, of no use at all. In my ignorance, I always thought it was the duty of a Board of Trustees to attend to the duties and responsibilities committed to its charge. My conclusion has evidently been wrong, as by the statement of the chairman of the board any grievance must be placed before that august body in the form of a petition. What utter nonsense for a sensible man to give utterance to. Just listen—

"The board cannot exercise themselves upon a matter not before them, and, as a board, we do not yet know anything regarding the matters complained of."

Well might the question be asked—What is the board for? Is it just to simply meet and pass a few accounts and say a few complimentary words about each other, and never mind such an unimportant matter as the way in which arithmetic, or any other subject, is being taught in the C. C. I. I suppose, Mr. Editor, if the C. C. I. Institute was to burn down it would be necessary to get up a petition stating that the building was in ashes, and asking that steps be taken to secure a proper place for the classes to meet in, and not forgetting to state in the petition that a new building would be necessary. This is the only way, apparently that the board, as a board, could know anything about the matter. Surely the chairman must have been joking when he expressed himself as stated in The Planet. He may know all about banking, but if he is in earnest in his remarks, there are a great many things about school matters for him to learn, that even the veriest novice in school matters should know.

Let the board waken up and ascertain if the proper books are being used in the school and if the subjects are being taught in a manner that can be understood by the pupils. Let the trustees show that they have a higher duty than merely seeing that no account has been overcharged and that the janitor has not been coming in his duty. Wake up! Wake up! is the cry of the citizens, and investigate the methods of teaching in vogue in the C. C. I. and never mind petitions. Do your duty, let the consequences be what they may, and never mind who suffers.

CITIZEN.

When You Buy Dollies.
A father was commissioned by his small daughter to buy a dozen little bisque dolls. Her instructions were so many and so detailed that the father found himself hesitating to perform the commission.
"See here, Ethel," he said at last, "I'm afraid I'll make some awful mistake. Don't you think you'd better wait until your cold is better, and then you can go into town some day with mamma and pick out the doll babies for yourself?"
"Oh, no, papa," cried Ethel, "I do so want them right off. And, papa, I'll tell you how to choose them. Just pick each one up and look straight into its eyes, and if it looks at you as if it really and truly loved you, why, you buy it."

No Files in Skyscrapers.
"If I was a baldheaded man I would get me an office on one of the upper floors of the tallest skyscraper in town," remarked an attorney. "Why? Because I'd never have to brush a fly from my hairless pate. Files stay near the ground, seldom getting more than 30 or 40 feet above it. The only flies you get in a skyscraper are the ones that stray up through the interior of the building, and they are mighty few. You will find them on the lower floors, but just keep your eyes open when you are in high buildings, you'll see mighty few of the little pests above the third or fourth floors."

Hired by the Hour.
When Remenyi, the famous violinist, was a young man, he was engaged by a parvenu to play at a dinner, the agreement stating that he was to furnish music from 8 o'clock to 11. He began with an andante movement from Mozart, a composition which opens very low and soft.
The host turned to his guests, "That's just like those musicians," he said. "I hired him by the hour, and see how slow he plays."

Didn't Work Well.
"We couldn't get along with two office boys."
"Not enough work?"
"That wasn't it; each was afraid he'd get there in the morning before the other."

Old Friends.
Snarley—Old friends are the best.
Yow—They are if they don't get rich before you do.
