FACE CHARGE OF LIBEL

EDITORS ARRESTED FOR THEIR ACCUSATIONS AGAINST GOV. SMITH

New York, June 26.—A bold attack of religious bigotry against Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, a Catholic and candidate for the Democratic nomination for President, was counteracted here early Wednesday at Madison Square Garden, where the Democratic convention is being held. The editor of The American Standard, a semimonthly publication which exists by reason of its attacks on Catholics and Jews; his son, and another man were arrested and charged with criminal libel. The arrests, however, were made at the instance of two veterans of the World War, and so far as is known, were without the knowledge of the Governor.

Those arrested were Charles Louis Fowler, forty-six, of 28 West Eighty-Third Street, former Baptist minister and editor of the publication; Louis Hunter Fowler, nineteen, his son, and Lester Douglas Wise, thirty-five, of West Eighty-Seventh Street. Wise later was discharged Although it was Seventh Street. Wise later was discharged. Although it was testified he had a bundle of copies of the American Standard under his arm, he denied having any connection with the publication and said he was only visiting Fowler.

SERVICE MEN BROUGHT CHARGE

The two service men, Jacob Altschuler, twenty-five, and James Montgomery, twenty-five, early Wednesday encountered boys in the neighborhood of Madison Square Garden selling copies of The American Standard which contained virulent attacks on Governor Smith, Cardinal Hayes, the motion picture industry and the Knights of Columbus. Incensed, the men forced one of the boys to tell them the source of the publication. They found the Fowlers and Wise in an old office building at 1204 Broadway, and immediately caused their arrest on charges of disorderly conduct. Shortly afterward, the magazine was withdrawn from sale on the streets.

When Magistrate George W Simpson, of the Night Court, heard the complaints, viewed the publica-tion and questioned the defendants, ne decided the offense warranted the more serious charge, and accordingly charged the men with criminal libel. They were paroled in custody of their attorney, Walter Fairchild, and ordered to be in Yorkville court Thursday for a preliminary hearing.

When the men were arrested, they were hurried to the police were directed at any man per-sonally. He also denied his periodi-

Magistrate Sweetser in the York-ville court Thursday after Wise had been discharged, Fowler and his son were ordered held under $1,000 bail each for the Court of Special Sessions, on the charge of criminal Magistrate Sweetser twice re fused the plea of the attorney for the men that the complaints be de- for the Holy Father. missed on the ground that a case had not been made out.

consider that one has been made out." the magistrate de-"The article takes a man and holds him up to ridicule a judicial bigot, nor am I editor of the Standard. It was a malicious distribution of this article, and a crime has been committed.

When the court asked Capt. James J. Gegan of the bomb squad if the elder Fowler had a record, he replied that Fowler was a dangerous disturber of the peace and a member of the Ku Klux Klan. He said his office had had Fowler under observation for three years, and added that the man was an intimate of Col. W. J. Simmons when the latter was imperial wizard of the Klan, and later transferred his allegiance to Dr. Evans, the present wizard. He also testified that Fowler was responsible, through his writings, for recent serious disturbances at Bayonne, N. J.

OFFENDING ARTICLE

The article attacking Governor Smith, which purported to have been written by a twelve-year-old boy and was entitled "A Patriot Aged Twelve," said in part :

Men say that Al Smith, New York's wet papal Governor, may be the next President of the United potentate hypnotize making him the next occupant of the Executive Mansion. No, this devout subject of the e the Chief Executive of the mightiest nation in the world if all true Americans do their part in defeating Smith.

"There are several reasons why this Irish Roman Catholic should not be the next President of the United States:

United States:

"First: He is a member of the Knights of Columbus who give their first allegiance to the Church of Rome and the Pope. They denounce the heretics' (Protestants) who founded and saved this mighty nation and do their best to bring destruction to the nation under the Protestant Church and to resurrect it under the folds of lying, hypo-critical, and deceiving Church of Rome. In short, they seek to destroy our mighty Constitution and

"Secondly, he is a graduate of a parochial school. These are merely dens of hatred, malice, and decep-

The introduction to this " letter " says it was "sent to The American Standard by a boy of twelve years, living in New York State. "It was written in twenty minutes while the boy was travelling alone in a rail-road train," the introduction con-tinues. "A Roman Catholic priest had taken the seat beside him, and the boy tipped up his tablet, as he wrote, to prevent the priest from spying upon him." The name of this remarkable boy is not given.

Elsewhere in this and other issues The American Standard has carried articles with such titles as: "'Al Smith' Threat Is Arousing America. Protestantism is Determined to Drive Popery Out of the United States," "Jew Movies Urging Sex Vice Rome and Judah at Work to Pollute Young America," "Romanists Not U. S. America," "Romanists Not U. S. Citizens," "No Presidency for 'Al Smith'" and "Our Language Corrupted by Jews."

Governor Smith reads: Walsh, like Al Smith, is true to his boss, the Pope of Rome. And both of them in their presidential antics are being urged on and financed by their boss on the Tiber.

PAPAL NUNCIO TO LEAGUE?

London, June 21 .- The question of Papal representation on the Council of the League of Nations was actually being discussed by the British Government last year, according to a statement by Mr. F. F. Urquhart, M. A., of Balliol College, Oxford, at a meeting of the Westminster Federation

Foreign nations were to be approached, he said, in order to secure their cooperation. But the movement came to nothing when the League received a big set-back owing to the attitude it adopted toward the Italo-Greek trouble

Mr. Urquhart says the League station as a precaution against is crying out for some connection violence. Fowler later complained with the Catholic Church, because that his freedom of speech and the the League wants moral force, and freedom of the press had been the Catholic Church is necessarily invaded, and denied his attacks a great moral force working in the direction of peace.

The difficulty of the Pope's member of the League, because one of the obligations of members was to use aggressive means to enforce the fulfilment of promises made by the nations. The Pope could use

If the Pope became a member he yould be merely a unit, representing, as it were, one nation. would not be an honorable position

The best arrangement to bring bout the desired union, said Mr. Urquhart, might be for the Pope to send a Nuncio who would act much in the same way as the Americans, who, though their country was not represented in the League, became members of certain committees as friends of the League, and as people interested in the subject under discussion. In that way a link between the Papacy and the League could be sonal connection between the established, raising the prestige of teacher and their children, he said. the League in the eyes of Catholics declared Mr. Urquhart.

CAUSE OF ENGLISH MARTYRS

London, June 23. - The special cclesiastical court named by the Pope to examine the causes of fifty-Holiness has directed that Cardinal Bourne preside.

Those whose lives are under con and include several priests, some women and a peer, Viscount Stafford. They were executed improved the discipline." because they remained loyal to the "Awake, sleeping Protestants, do Pope as the successor of St. Peter, not let this vassal of a foreign and Spiritual Head of the Church, was established. The cases have been in process of preparation for ten years, and a tion and "to the traditional procehuge mass of evidence has been dure in vogue in Catholic councollected. The work was held up tries," than a mere leaning to the for a time, then resumed with vigor about 1920.

C. E. A. CONVENTION

THE SOUL AS WELL AS THE MIND MUST BE CONSIDERED IN EDUCATION

Milwaukee, Wis., June 27.-With 1,500 delegates attending, the twenty-first annual convention of the Catholic Education Association opened here Monday and concluded yesterday.

The reorganization and improvement of the parochial school system was earnestly advocated and the laxness of discipline in present-day secular schools condemned. The Association voted to urge the teaching of religion as a part of every school curriculum in the country. It also passed resolutions advocating measurements in Catho-licelementary and secondary schools, and favoring vocational training.

any denomination whose rights are the ideal to the students of every

GREAT EDUCATION EXHIBIT

In addition to the numerous addresses on every phase of educa-tion, the delegates viewed a complete series of educational exhibits that formed a feature of the convention. This series included a display of books, pamphlets, charts, and other literature on such subjects as health education, Americanization and high school education issued by the National Catholic Welfare Conference Education Department for use in its promotion of Catholic education. The Catholic School Defense League and civic education literature in this exhibit upted by Jews." attracted special attention. In One of the statements concerning addition, thirty-one publishers and school supply houses provided ex-

PROFESSOR CUNNINGHAM'S ADDRESS "Change is the law of life," was the introduction the Rev. William Cunningham, C.S.C., Ph.D., Professor of Education at the University of Notre Dame, gave his keynote address at the opening session Tuesday, on "Rebuilding the Educational Ladder." In conformity with that thought, Father Cunningham held, Catholic educators must look to the condition of life about them and adjust Catholic schools accordingly. He declared that the arrangement of the rungs in the educational "ladder" in America has been disjointed since

America has been disjointed since the ladder was first erected, that it is now in process of readjustment, and that Catholic parochial schools must reorganize accordingly for greater efficiency and to provide for a more logical and useful progress for the pupil through the stages of 'The history of education in this country presents us with the signifi-cant fact that all the various educational institutions developed to carry on elementary, secondary and higher education were independent sonally. He also denied his periodical was a Ku Klux Klan official organ.

When the trio appeared before

The difficulty of the Pope's position was shown by Mr. Urquhart. The Pope could not be a member of the League, because one Cunningham declared, in his contraction of peace.

The difficulty of the Pope's in origin and throughout a great dependent in operation," Father Cunningham declared, in his contraction of peace. tention that the steps in education today are disjointed. "Little wonder then that when we try to fit them together into a coordinated system, we have a gap here and an overlapping there. The country has elementary schools, high schools, colleges and universities, and now is 'junior high schools' 'junior colleges," and yet it has no eal educational system, he holds, and adds, "we can never hope to reach the same degree of efficiency (as in Europe) spreading our efforts over such a vast amount material."

'mechanization' of educa-The tion and the flocking of enormous numbers to the high schools, he also declared, is bringing the private secondary school into its own. Parents prefer to retain the personal connection between the

WOULD SHORTEN THE COURSE

Father Cunningham would organize the present eighth-grade Catholic parochial school into a ninth-grade school of six elementary grades and three junior high school grades, or an intermediate school. "Few will question that there is two English martyrs proposed for beatification and subsequent canonization has begun its sittings at Westminster Cathedral here. One bishop, one abbot and several and the lower two years of high priests are members of the court. and the upper two years of high school and the lower two of college into another cycle of three years. sideration suffered martyrdom in the This will mean a saving of two years. reigns of Henry VIII. and Elizabeth, I am convinced it can be done, and

Father Cunningham said he realized he left himself open to the and Spiritual Head of the Church, accusation of "secularizing Cathowhen the State Church of England lic education," but contended the plan he advances is rather a return State school system. have been led away from this traditional adjusting our schools to the State school system," he said.

Regarding the following of the State plan, he added: "I believe most of us are agreed that we are practically compelled to parallel the State systems. * * * For my own part I am firmly convinced that a positive good will come from our paralleling the State systems. We are being accused in increasing above of feetings of the state in the state of the state systems. chorus of fostering a divided nation by separating our children from those who attend the public schools. We must do everything in our power to make it clear that our schools are the same in every way as the public plays therein, keeping in mind that religious influence, and not merely religious instruction, is the matter of primary importance, and this is possible only in our own distinctly Catholic schools. * * This material identity will help to empha-size the formal difference, namely, One of the high points of the meeting came when J. L. O'Connor, of Milwaukee, demanded that the Association champion the cause of life that is day after day held up as

> The readjustment of the educational pyramid "is of such pressing importance that no longer can it be delayed,"was Father Cunningham's concluding warning. "In the accomplishment of this task every possible agency must be used to its utmost. We are not so ironbound by standardizing agencies as the State systems, and hence more free to go ahead and put in practice ideas which we are convinced have a sound philosophical basis. In doing this, we will be in very truth assuming leadership, and not be content to follow."

IRELAND'S FOREIGN TRADE LAGGING

Dublin, Ireland.—Statistics giving details of the foreign trade of the twenty-six counties of Southern Ireland for the first quarter of this

The United States supplied goods value of her purchases from Ireland was a trifling $325,000. The returns do not indicate any development in the export trade with foreign countries, such as America, France, Germany, Spain. Belgium to the value of $2,950,000, but the value of her purchases from Ireland was a trifling $325,000. The returns do not indicate any development of the value of her purchases from Ireland was a trifling $325,000. The girls a vacat

This industry is at present ture. in bad condition. A bill purporting to give relief to the farmers has been introduced, but it is based on the principle of feeding the dog taxation on agricultural land this makes a family of nine. The way they are expected to do this is by borrowing an equiv-

The net effect of the proposal is community will ultimately pay $8,750,000. In reality, the proposal puts a burden upon agriculture. It calls upon every farmer provide loans for public purposes. It is felt that relief should be given by the State as a whole, instead of getting local bodies to meet their public expenditure by loans which can only be repaid by much heavier taxation later on.

NO RACE SUICIDE IN THIS CATHOLIC FAMILY

On the Monday after Pentecost at Santes, a village near Lille, France, three hundred and seventyseven people attended an open air luncheon. The remarkable feature of this luncheon consisted in the fact that the guests all belonged to the same family. They were Monsieur and Madame Michael Bernard, their children, grand-children and great-grand-children. Among the grand-children was Albert Bernard, who is the father of nineteen sons and daughters.

These three hundred and seventy seven representatives of the Bernard family began the day by attending a solemn High Mass celebrated for deceased members of family who sleep in the little cemetery of Santes. There are two hundred and fifty-eight in that cemetery who bear the same name, children with parents, it has failed.

An ancestor of the Bernards, Claude Bernard Lagache, who was married one hundred and sixty-nine years ago (five generations back) would have nine hundred and fifty-displays of affection. one descendants today. Of these twenty-one are priests and thirty-three members of religious orders. TEMPERANCE ISSUE IN

THE CHRIST CHILD'S GREAT WORK

Washington, D. C., June 27.— Twenty-five little girls with their tongues in their cheeks—bright-eyed but thin-bodied little girls twenty-live little girls with their cheeks—brighteyed but thin-bodied little girls—left here Monday for two weeks of delirious fraternizing with cows and grass and birds and trees.
They were fortunate and knew it.
Two days before Washington had sections of the capital, and their playgrounds had been streets where feeble breeze

of the Society's surgeon, because they were infected. Twenty-five shampoos had been administered an hour before, and there had been bath-tub furnishings and hair-cuttings, and a lunch.

So when the Rotary Club's big year, just published, are not as encouraging as might have been expected. The adverse balance was nearly $25,000,000. Great Britain and the six counties of North-east Ireland were the principal customers; and the great vitality to withstand the rest of the bulk of the imports came these two areas.

The total value of all imports was $90,000,000. The value of imports from countries outside Great Britain and the six counties was $12,500,000. These imports came from no fewer than twenty-two more countries took

This g...

Christ Child Society win prehabilitate this summer from Washington's under-privileged youngsters. And the process will be so thorough it will give the one hundred and fifty little girls lucky enough to go to the farm a health shove, as it were, that will carry and the six countries took sters. And the process will be so thorough to go to the farm a health shove, as it were, that will carry as normal, healthy American weeks are spent. While they are gone, it is going down deep to the basic reasons for the thin bodies The statistics emphasize the dependence of the twenty-six mean to find just a repetition of those signs a year

Take the example of three of the little girls who left Monday for the farm. They are sisters, aged five, nine and eleven. They have four with a piece of its own tail. little brothers and sisters at home, County Councils are empowered to forego two-thirds of the local monthsold. With the parents, that Society found out about it, this family of nine was living in two alent amount to make up the rooms, and the father was paying deficit. This borrowed money is the rent and supporting it on $40 to be repaid with interest within a month, plus scraps and charity. The society got him a job at $5 but it was reduced to $50 because that for an immediate relief of his physical condition didn't make $7,715,000, the local agricultural him worth more. The Society's him worth more. The Society's surgeon, in one of the best hospitals Washington, took him in hand, and now he's making $100 a month. and earning it, and will make more. to mortgage his land so as to mortgage his land so as to provide loans for public purposes.

More rooms even now are being provided for the family, and there will be further improvements before the three little girls return to their home.

That is just one case the Society is working on in Washington, and Washington is only one of the many fields it is working in. Reports equally as inspiring, of families saved and youngsters rehabilitated by the score, come into the Washgton headquarters of the Christ Child Society every day.

PLAN TO KILL CHILDREN'S LOVE FOR PARENTS

Moscow, June 6.—A decree by the Soviet Commissar of Education virtually outlawing parental affec-tion for children has worked out

It was the hope of the Commissar that by putting the children in Soviet homes in the colonies, the tie of the family could be broken down and the children reared in communes where they would grow up as ideal communists, placing the State first and dropping the family idea altogether.

The plan did not work out badly with the orphans, the Commissar has reported, but in the case of the procedure by the necessity of twenty-one of whom were killed in The parents, he says, call and bring presents and caress their children Accordingly, visits of parents have been limited to two a month, all

IRISH POLITICS

Dublin, June 22.-The Pioneer Total Abstinence Association has made a notable demonstration of its strength. The occasion was the celebration of the Silver Jubilee of

Two days before, Washington had simmered with a thermometer at over one hundred and three persons had been prostrated. And the twenty-five little girls came from the most torrid of the sweltering sections of the cenital and their characteristics. The Association and the Catholic Total Abstinence Federation with which it is affiliated do not regard the Licensing Bill introduced in the Free State Dail as an adequate reform. One of the main planks in the Licensing Bill introduced in the Free State Dail as an adequate reform. One of the main planks in the platform of the Association and the Federation is that the number playgrounds had been streets where a fiery sun darts back heat that is almost lurid.

The twenty-five were destined for the Christ Child Fresh Air Farm, with its roomy quarters, in the open where it catches even the most the Federation is that the number of licensed saloons in the country should be reduced by half. This aspect of the question is ignored in the bill. Rev. J. Flinn, S. J., spiritual director of the Pioneer Association says:

If the Government or the drink There had been preparations. For instance, the reason for the twenty-five tongues in cheeks was that the Society's dentist had found work to do in the mouths of all twenty-five mortality had been twenty-eight decayed and misplaced teeth, for the group Only a few days of the group Only a few days and misplaced teeth, a few days and misplaced teeth, a group Only a few days are least to take a time or the drink trade thinks that the public are matched with the prosent licensing bill they are greatly mistaken. Should there be any delay in dealing with the problem of reduction of licensed saloons a referendum will be insisted on. If the Government for the group. Only a few days neglects to take action we are de-before, ten sets of tonsils had been termined that there shall be a lost by the twenty five at the hands | referendum so that the people may pronounce a decision on a matter of such vital concern for them all.

A public meeting comprising 11,000 persons was held at the conclusion of the procession. Among the speakers was Most Rev. Dr. Gaughran, Bishop of Meath. Bishop's commentary upon the won-derful spectacle witnessed in the Dublin streets was that it was the had been preached in Ireland since the days of Father Mathew—the

There seems but one great ideal which can unite us all whatever be our creed, political, social, economic or religious, and that is the ideal of a sober Ireland. It may help to check the moral disintegration we see around us, and heal some of the grievous wounds inflicted by civil

The celebration coincided with the publication of the Life of Father Cullen, S. J., the founder of the Association Father Culler, S. J., the founder of the case of the control of the case of the cas Association. Father Cullen's biographer is Rev. Father McKenna, a quarter of a million. sion in the Free State Cabinet in the German National People's Party ment attitude toward the probable opening of the famous old Bens-berger Castle, near Cologne, the former Prussian Cadet School, as an educational institution under the direction of the Society of Jesus.

THE REOPENING OF GERMAN CASTLE AS JESUIT SCHOOL

The deputies claim that the chapel of the castle has long been used by the evangelical community divine service, and that the transfer of the castle to the Jesuits would therefore be detrimental to the religious life of the community by destroying "denominational equilibrium.

As a matter of fact, the Bens-berger Castle was, before the socalled Reformation, Catholic property, and the chapel was therefore a Catholic chapel until it was appropriated by the evangelical community. Furthermore, the question raised by the members of the German National People's Party entire-ly overlooks the fact that the transfer of the chapel could, in no way, disturb what they term "denominational equilibrium" since the Rhineland has always been a Catholic province, despite the efforts of the former Prussian Government to "assimilate" it by importing an army of Protestant Government officials and employees.

Catholics are anxiously awaiting deputies waited until three days after the elections to demand an explanation of the Government atti-tude on the subject.

CATHOLIC NOTES

2387

London, Eng., June 20.—Mrs. Constance Hornung, widow of Ernest William Hornung, well known novelist, and a sister of Sir Conan Doyle, was buried this week from the Catholic Church at West Grinstead.

Rome, May 7.—Reports have reached here that ten Catholic priests and fifteen novices of the Wcmen's Franciscan Order Moscow have been imprisoned. is said the priests are charged with political activity against the Soviet, but that no charges have been filed against the novices, who have working among the poor of Moscow.

Rome, June 24.-Pope Pius yesterday named two American priests bishops of dioceses in the United States. The Right Rev. Mgr. Francis C. Kelly of Chicago, founder of the Catholic Church Extension Society, is made Bishop of Oklander homa, and the Rev O'Gerow, rector of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at Mobile, Ala., is made Bishop of Natchez

Milwaukee, Wis., June 20.— Announcement has been made by the Rev. Albert C. Fox, S. J., president of Marquette University, that Franciscan Sisters motherhouse is at Little Falls, motherhouse is at Little Falls, Minn., will assume the management of the Marquette University Hospital here late next month. They also will manage the Marquette training school for nurses

Pasadena, Calif., May 17.-A fund for the establishment of an observa-tory at Santa Clara University for the use of the Rev. J. S. Ricard, "Padre of the Rains," is to be raised by the California State Council of the Knights of Columbus. The resolution authorizing such action was adopted unanimously at the State Convention of the order here. London, May 10.—A sum of $500,000 has been obtained toward the building of a Cathedral at greatest sermon on temperance that Liverpool, as the result of two had been preached in Ireland since years effort, the Archbishop reports in a pastoral letter. Half of that sum has been banked and the other Apostle of Temperance who roused the country in the middle of the last century.

Rev. P. J. Gannon, S. J., having referred to the eclipse of idealism, DeKalb, Ill.—The word "hell" was stricken from the Apostles' Creed and "Hades" substituted, in referring to Christ after the Crucifixion, at the sixty-fifth annual convention here of the Lutheran Augustana Synod. The sect retains, however, its belief in the existence of hell, it was made plain. The Paris, France.-Two ex-voto have S. J. The membership of the Pioneer Association today is about Carmel of Lisieux in honor of the Blessed Teresa of the Infant It is recognized that temperance by the Catholic Union of Railroad reform is arousing a conflict of in- Employees and by the Catholic Union terests, and there is a degree of ten- of Postal and Telegraph Employees. The placing of these memorials was this connection which may involve the occasion of a touching manifestation, 167 groups from these two unions having sent delegates to Lisieux with their banners.

London, June 20 .- "We have CASTLE AS JESUIT SCHOOL CRITICIZED

Berlin. — Deputies Stuhrmann,
Berlin. — Deputies Stuhrmann, Frau von Tiling, Janssen, Kich-hoffel, Oelze and other members of Catholic Guilds. The procession, which is rich in pageantry in the Prussian Landtag have appealed to the Ministry of State to make a statement of the Govern-parishes of the city taking part. The route, this year, was four miles long.

London, May 10 .- A thousand years is but a day in the sight of the Catholic Church, says the Morning Post, commenting on the policy of the Vatican. "The Vatican is under no necessity to be in a hurry. It is the one power on earth today which is continuous, irresponsible, impersonal—owing account to none, dependent for its existence and policy on the cleverness of no single man, or the caprices of no mob of men. A one day. It can afford in a world of thousand years, in its sight, is unproven democracies, to bide its

New York, June 23.-The Very Rev. Mgr. Luke J. Evers, the "workers' priest," one of the most widely-known members of the Catholic clergy in New York, was found dead sitting in a chair in his study here today. He was sixty-three here today. years old. Acute indigestion, with which he had suffered recently and years old. of which he had had an attack only Wednesday, was the cause of death However, it was thought Monsignor Evers had recovered completely from the latest attack. He told friends he was feeling fine, and the reply of the Government. It is considered significant that the usual. He went to his study this morning after breakfast, and when his first assistant called to him, then entered the study, he found him dead in his chair.

By permission of H. L. Kilner & Co.,

GERTRUDE MANNERING

A TALE OF SACRIFICE

BY FRANCES NOBLE CHAPTER XVIII.

Stanley, before you go out, I want to speak to you—to say something. Can you come into the library for a few minutes?" And Gerty tried to smile brightly, to hide her agitation, as she made her request to Stanley as soon as breakfast was over next

He was going to ride with Sir Robert into the town, on business upon which he had often accompanied him before in his visits to Nethercotes, and upon which he had promised to accompany him again before Gerty had arrived. Gerty had arrived. baronet had now wished to excuse him, knowing that they should be detained all day, only to return in time for dinner; but Gerty had insisted that he must not lose Stanley's company and advice just

"I am not quite so selfish, Sir Robert," she had said, "and I am not going to fly away in Stanley's absence, you know." And she had so requested Stanley to go that, much as he now grudged every hour not spent in her company, he could not be selfish when she was so generous. he and Sir Robert were to start about an hour after breakfast, and Gerty knew that she must get through her task before they left, if she wished her letter to her father to be ready for that day's had deepened to one of terrible pain the tone was of almost passionate remonstrance and entreaty. start about an hour after breakfast, it were profaned by being spoken and Gerty knew that she must get in those infidel ears.

you, Gerty? Do you think any-thing should prevent me, after that invitation?" And Stanley laughed with that gentle tenderness which so softened the beautiful features, stern as they were.

Gerty led the way to the library, where she knelt in her favorite attitude on the hearthrug, gazing stood into the fire, while Stanley stood leaning against the mantlepiece, looking down at her, little guessing how the heart was beating in that

"Well, and what is it, Gerty? No very dreadful secret, I hope, my She looked up with a merry

"Are you afraid I am going to tell you I have committed a murder in my life, or done something else very dreadful, like a sensation payed?" Do you know Stepley it is Are you afraid I am going to dreadful, like a sensation ? Do you know, Stanley, it is messages for you, may I not, Stanley? I may tell papa you will take me ome, and get to know him and the dear old Grange Nay, you must dear; for I mean to take you home, whether you ask me or not; you might be stolen on the way, otherwise, Gerty. And I am impatient to know your father, darling," he added earnestly.

"And how impatient he will be to know you, Stanley!" And Gerty rose from her lowly position and stood up by Stanley's side, placing one little hand gently on his arm. "Stanley," and her voice trembled audibly as her heart beat very fast, "it works and her work and her works and her work and her works are the stanley." 'it won't-annoy you, it will not be a trouble to you—to have—a—Catholic for—your wife, will it?"

She was looking into the fire again now, and so did not see the painful expression which contracted Stanley's features ere he replied, gently, taking both the little hands into his strong grasp:

"Why should I let it trouble me, Gerty? You cannot help it; you were born a Catholic; you did not become one of yourself."

The tone was gentle and tender, but correcting in the words chilled

but something in the words chilled the beating heart strangely.

"Because, Stanley, I have—so much—to—ask you about it before —I write, you know, to papa; so—much to say to you." And as the sweet eyes looked up now with a half-frightened pleading, something made proud Stanley draw her still closer and hold the trembling hands still tighter in his own, though he said nothing.

"First of all, Stanley (and it may seem a strange, unreasonable thing to you,) when we are to be married, I cannot go at all to—a Protestant church for—the ceremony; I can — only be married by a priest in our own; and it may seem unreasonable to ask you—to consent."

to ask you—to consent."
But Stanley only smiled.
"Don't look so frightened, my precious Gerty! There is no need. I think you know, my darling," he added seriously, "that I have pretty much the same opinion of all forms of religion, though naturally, perhaps, the most exacting—which is yours—is the most displeasing to me." And for the first time Gerty listened to for the first time Gerty listened to his sentiments openly expressed to herself. "I will not conceal from you, Gerty, that the less of religious ceremony there is the better I shall like it; but as merely a civil one would not satisfy you, then I would as soon be married according to work the included." would as soon be married according to your rite (it being legal now) as any other." And though the haughty lips curled slightly, perhaps unconsciously, and though the godless words shocked, without surprising, the religious heart of the trembling little listener at little listen haughty lips curled slightly, perhaps unconsciously, and though the godless words shocked, without surprising, the religious heart of the trembling little listener, still Stanley's gray eyes smiled kindly, and a sigh of relief escaped Gerty as he paused.

"My darling owe anything to—to a practice like that! Want me to believe that I could ever have known her and not loved her! You are what you are, Gerty, in spite of the same pattern belonged to her said Rory Daly sixteen years later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening have been as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to his mother, one August evening as they sat at dinner in the dining-room of "The Revels." "The later to

Was the dreaded task going to mother of my children, perhaps, prac

Was the dreaded task going to prove so easy, so much lighter than she had thought?

"And, Stanley," she continued, looking up again with her own sweet, earnest expression, "afterwards, when I am—your wife, you will always—let me be just as I am now, a strict Catholic? You will not try to prevent me from—press. now, a strict Catholic? For will not try to prevent me from—practising my religion, though—you—dislike it so, because you do not know and understand what it is, what faith is, Stanley?'

But even ere she paused, the pale face, as she looked at it, contracted with a strange expression, half stern, half painful, while the grasp which held her hands almost hurt them with its tightened pressure, though it helped her to stand firm in her agitation.

"Gerty," he said, in a low tone,
"by practising your religion, tell me what you mean, what you

An unspoken prayer rose from the poor little heart ere she the poor answered:

"I mean, Stanley, that—before I become your wife, I shall have to ask you to promise me solemnly that you will never prevent me from going to Mass; never ask me to go to service in any church which is not a Catholic church; that you will never prevent me keeping the holy-days and fast-days; that you will always let me go, as I do now, to Confession and Communion." A she trembled even still more on that last sweet, sacred word, as though sionate remonstrance and entreaty. "Thinking, feeling as I do, knowing as I do, the wretched system of superstition (forgive me, my darling, when I say to you now at last) which has implanted all these ideas in your heart, which would could I promise not to try to save you from it, to lead you by the gentlest influence to see it as I do? Gerty, could I see my wife, my one treasure, continue to frequent that —detested Confession, for instance, knowing each time I saw her go that she was seeking guidance and natural protector-from one who who would tell her that novel? Do you know, Stanley, it is a good thing you are going out, or I should never get my letter written to papa, such a long one as it will be. I may invent all sorts of messages for you, may I not, Stanley? I may tell napa you will take me! strife and care, of daily, hourly en-durance, which might be her lot as a wife. That he, her heart's idol, would persist in refusing what she asked, she would not believe; and his word of honor once given, all she would have to fear then would be his occasional estrangement and displeasure; and this she was ready to bear for his love, hoping to win him one day by her patient example, not only to continue grudgingly to allow her to practise her religious but were to be in the second of t religion, but even to love it himself. But she tried to smile, as she looked into his face with that sweet

"O Stanley, how little you know How terrible you are mistaken about it all — about God's holy Church altogether—to fancy that preparation, you know, Stanley, for receiving the still holier, greater Sacrament of—the—Holy Euchar-ist—to think that Confession could make a wife wish to alienate her-self from her husband, or that in it she could be told to defy him!
The only thing upon which I should be interrogated, in regard to which I should be obliged to disobey you, Stanley, would be what I am asking you about now beforehand, if you should refuse to allow me to continue to practise my religion. In everything else I should be advised, nay, bound to defer to you; and though you might not know it, I should be a better wife to you. Stanley for going to Continue to you. to you, Stanley, for going to Con-fession; better a thousand times than if I gave it up to please you for the time, knowing as I do that I should be offending God and risking should be offending God and risking my soul by doing so. And I need never let it trouble or inconvenience you, my religion; I can practise it quietly, so that outwardly you shall hardly notice it. Why, Stanley," and she tried to smile playfully, "I have always been to Confession, all my life since I was seven years old, and it has not made me so years old, and it has not made me so very dreadful, you see. Perhaps, but for it, you might never have loved me, Stanley; I might not have been tising a form of religion which you would know to be hateful to me, and in which they could have no part?'

TO BE CONTINUED

ELLESORA

The great Italian circus had come to Dublin to gladden the hearts of young and old. The first time it had arrived, sixteen years ago, all the world was at peace, and hearts were gay and the majority of the Irish had adopted for their motto:

"Come day, go day, God send Sunday."

As every man, woman and child in Erin loves horses, dogs and nearly everything that walks on four legs, the excitement was great at the advent of the famous circus.
The traffic was held up, the windows and balconies were filled with admiring ladies, seated on the gaily caparisoned, curveting horses, stepping daintily past to the accompaniment of a fine band; for Signor Cheretti's circus was of world-wide fame. The first performance was wonderful. Hundreds had to be refused admission. Among the fortunate folk who got past the barriers in the front place near the ring, a pretty young mother sat among a group of boys.

"Look! Mother, here are the wonderful dogs," exclaimed a dark faced lad, with a reckless, open counterpance and reven event bear countenance and raven curly hair. The lady nodded and fixed her attention. She was as youthful as

After the dogs their attention was fixed on lovely horses and the fair riders, waltzing, dancing, flying through rings of fire, and holding the audience spellbound by their

Last came a tiny little milk-white pony ridden by a cherubic girl of four. She stood on his back and danced with fairy-like grace. On enslave you still, glienating you the bills her name figured as "The from all independence and freedom, Marvellous Child Rider, Ellesora."

With a wild pirouette, she gracefully rode off blowing kisses. The circus was over. 'Come on boys," exclaimed Mrs.

Daly. "Mother, I'll buy a doll with the enthusiastically.
"Very well," observed his mother So the next day he appeared at the hotel where the circus folk were located, armed with a lifesized doll, and asked to see Ellesora. Ushered into the presence of Signor Cheretti, Rory Daly, awed to silence, bashfully presented the doll. The Signor's eyes twinkled.

"Very kind of you. Is this bam-bin for Ellesora?" he inquired. holding it admiringly at arm's

Yes, sir," stammered Rory. The Signor rang the bell, and told the maid to send for the child. A few minutes afterwards, she entered the room at a gallop, followed by a brown-faced nurse. Her rapture was boundless, when she beheld the golden haired doll. She sprang into Rory's arms, pour-ing out her gratitude in fluent

if you would allow Ellesora to

"Certainly I shall conduct her to had married her riding master. Thrown over by her family she had to take the roads of the world with her husband. He had eventually joined the celebrated circus, and he and his bride had not fared badly However he had been fatally injured riding, shortly after Ellesora's birth, and after his death. his wife pined away. She had written to her mother, a grim old lady, asking her to adopt Ellesora, as she was dying. No reply had been vouchsafed to her pathetic appeal, so the kind hearted and childless Signor and Signora Cheretti took the lovely little infant to their hearts and she had been

me tell you a story."

He opened an arched door, and Ellesora, and the mystified Rory followed him into the Priory reception room.

This belonged to the child's mother and, in accordance with her dying wish, her child wears it on her peek. wish, her child wears it on her neck. We are God-fearing folk, and she me, Stanley; I might not have been as pleasing to you as I am; I might not have had even as much good about me as I do possess, if it had not been for its holy influence, though you may not understand it yet, Stanley."

Moved to the depths of his proud heart, but unyielding still, nay, more inflexible than ever in his hatred of the religion which shared his darling's heart with him, Stanley, still holding her hands in one of his, with the other drew her

Mrs. Daly looked up. Years had dealt lightly with her, and Rory at twenty-eight was the beau ideal of young manhood.

"Is it possible?" she exclaimed. "I often wondered what had become of them. They wrote for a year or two and then somehow they dropped out of our lives. However, you will, I dare say, patronize the circus tonight and renew old sequaintance."

acquaintance."
"I mean to Mother. I want to see what sort of a girl Ellesora has grown into," he answered with a Queues awaited for admission Queues awaited for admission, and while waiting Rory studied the posters. Yes surely there was Ellesora, fairylike and graceful as of yore, dancing on the back of her picture-steed. Later he beheld her in the flesh, poised literally in midair, as she lightly sprang from back to back on the lovely team of Arabian steeds, which seemed to live but for her. live but for her.

Then a magnificent coal-black steed came into the ring, ridden by a splendid type of young manhood.
"Avelardo, the World-famed Italian Cavalryman." He and Ellesora performed wonderful feats horsemanship, the finale literally taking the audience's breath away.
As they flew round the enclosure
Ellesora stood on Avelardo's hand, while riding at full gallop, and thus the marvelous performance was brought to a close amid rounds of applause.

Mrs. Daly left cards at the hotel, and the next afternoon, as Rory entered his mother's drawing, room. he beheld beautiful Ellesora seated there, as charming as of old. The circus had gone round the world several time since they had met, she told them, and it was at her request, that they were now in

"I had a hazy remembrance of you all," she told them. "What about the dogs?" Rory asked her. "Those I saw last night surely were not the company of our childhood.

"Oh, no!" le "Oh, no!" laughed the girl. Those are all dead." She had a sweet voice in keeping with her beautiful personality.

"I see you still wear your quaint rosary, Ellesora," Mrs. Daly said. "Oh, yes," she answered fingering lovingly. "Neverhave I neglected silver I have in my money-box, for that lovely little girl," said Rory to offer daily my crown of roses to the Madonna. But my grand-mother has never written and, although my mother tried to see her in Italy, she refused."

"Pray on dearest!" said Mrs. Daly encouragingly. "Your prayer will surely be answered." "While I am in Dublin, I must visit all our Lady's shrines," the girl continued. "This is such a delightful Catholic country; I feel quite at home here. I am rich, as Signor Cheretti has means. But nothing contents me. I often think, Signora, that I shall enter a convent. I would not delay only that I could not leave him alone."

Rory glanced at her glowing face in dismay. Ellesora had ever been his dream maiden.

"Shall I conduct you to the churches, Signora?" he inquired. "I have my favourite shrines," he went on, ingratiatingly, "and you may be sure, you will get your heart's desire in Dublin. Our Lady never refuses her clients.'

spend this evening with us. It's Sunday and she won't be required at the circus, sir," Rory said diffidently to the Signor.

She thanked him and next afternoon sailed forth, under his escort. As she knell in a dim old church on the mosaic pavement, Rory watched the reput expression. The light She thanked him and next afterher rapt expression. The from myraid lamps and candles shone on her lovely face. Forgetgratefully.

In less than no time, the delighted Ellesora was led dancing into the hall of "The Revels" the Daly domicile. Mrs Daly learned that Ellesora was an orphan. Her mother, an Italian of high birth, had married her riding master.

The course over by her family she had stood up and then followed her to the porch.

"Pardon me, madam," he said,
"but might I ask you to tell me the history of that old-fashioned rosary of yours? I speak not out of idle curiosity as I am on a quest."

Ellesora was surprised. "This rosary was left me by my mother," she told him simply. "It was a family heirloom." She handed it to him. The priest examined it minutely.

"Come inside, my dear, and let me tell you a story.'

"Yes, it is the same," he muring in the Castle of Varaduova, several miles from Pavia. Her beloved and only daughter had married against her wishes years ago, and news of her death had reached the Contessa. There was word that a baby girl had been left. All search for this child had proved useless; so the old lady concluded she was dead. She is filled with remorse for her harsh treatment of her daughter, and longs, hoping against hope, for some news of the child.

This old lady possesses a pair of beads, the exact counterpart of yours, and the only one of

Which Plan of Saving Will Suit You Best

Current Account Plan—Interest (4%) is added every three months. You may pay all of your bills by cheque. Entire amount may be with-

Special Savings Plan for terms of 1 year and longer. Interest (5%) is added every six months. Any amount, small or large, can be deposited at any time. Not subject to cheque.

Investment Plan for terms of 1 to 5 years. $5\frac{1}{2}\%$ Interest is paid by cheque on 1st of June and 1st of December in each year on any sum of \$100.00 or more.

Capital Trust Corporation

Temple Building

Randolph 7887 WE CAN SERVE YOU WITH GILT-EDGED INVESTMENTS

Government. Municipal Industrial

List of offerings on request

Phone or write for it Jones, Easton

McCallum Co.

Investment Brokers Richmond St. London, Ont.

Phones 213 and 294 Private Wires — New York, Chicago Montreal, Toronto and Winniper

Provisions

We install a First Class Heating System

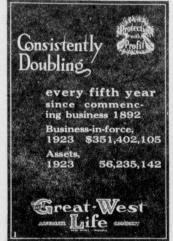

At a price that will prove our ability to be of service to you. The work we do in Heating System Work is first class and satisfaction with it is assured, as well as satisfaction with

Let Us Look at Your House and Give You a Figure

BENNETT & WRIGHT CO., Limited

77-81 King St.

London, Ont.

Clean to handle. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and General Stores

ARCHITECTS

J. M. COWAN Architect

WATT & BLACKWELL ARCHITECTS Sixth Floor, Bank of Toronto Chambers LONDON ONT.

W. G. MURRAY ARCHITECT

Churches and Schools a Specialty DOMINION SAVINGS BUILDING LONDON, ONT. ELEPHONE 1557 - W

JOHN M. MOORE & CO. ARCHITECTS 489 RICHMOND STREET LONDON, ONT.

Members Ontario Association of Archi J. C. Pennington John R. Boyde John W. Leighton

BARTLET BLDG. WINDSOR, ONT.

London Diocesan Architects Specialists in Ecclesiastical and Educational Buildings Benjamin Blonde

General Contractor CHURCHES and Educational Institutions a Specialty

Estimates furnished on request CHATHAM, ONT. Stained Glass Memorial Windows

We make a specialty of Catholic Church Windows. B. Leonard 5351 John St. Quebec. Que

Casavant Freres CHURCH LIMITEE Organ Builders

ST. HYACINTHE

Where Do You Go When You Wish to "Say it With" The West Floral Co.

249 Dundas St. London, Ont. UPHOLSTERING

OF ALL KINDS Chesterfields Made to Order OHAS. M. QUICK Richmond St. London, Ont.
Opposite St. Peter's Parish Hall

CLINGER London's Rubber Man 846 Dundas St., London, Ont. TIRES and VULCANIZING We repair anything in Rubber. Galoshes and Rubber Boots a specialty.

MANUFACTURED

Coats and Jackets Scarfs and Chokers

GOURDIER'S KINGSTON -

CHURCH WINDOWS MADE IN CANADA BY COMPETENT ARTISTS J.P.O'SHEA&Co. 15. 19 PERREAULT LINE MONTREAL, QUE

DR. REBECCA HARKINS DR. MARIE H. HARKINS

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIANS

orams Method of Diagnosis and Treatm The St. George LONDON, ONT. Wellington St. Phone 1560 LONDON, ONT. Phone 1560 PHONE 7308

DR. LE ROY V. HILES Foot Specialist 202 DUNDAS STREET

9 to 12 a.m. daily Tuesday, Thurs, and Sat Evenings 7 to 9

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS MURPHY, GUNN & MURPHY BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES

Solicitors for the Roman Catholic Episcopal Corporation Suite 53, Bank of Toronto Chambers LONDON, CANADA Phone 172 Telephone 7224

J. M. DONAHUE, B. A. BARRISTER, SOLICITOR

and NOTARY PUBLIC 1691/2 Dundas St. LONDON, ONT. FOY, KNOX & MONAHAN BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, Mice

leton T. Louis Monahess Cable Address: "Foy" Telephones { Main 461 Main 462 Offices: Continental Life Buildin CORNER BAY AND RICHMOND STREETS

Austin M. Latchford, LL., B. BARRISTER & SOLICITOR

Federal Building Richmond St., West TORONTO

DAY, FERGUSON & CO. James E. Day John M. Forguson Joseph P. Walsh 26 Adelaide St. West TORONTO, CANADA LUNNEY & LANNAN BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIBE

Harry W. Lunney, K.C., B.A., B.C.L., Alphonsus Lannan, LL. B. CALGARY, ALBERTA JOHN H. McELDERRY BARRISTER, SOLICITOR NOTARY PUBLIC

UNION BANK BUILDING GUELPH, ONTARIO

Res. Lakeside 1395. Uable Address "Leedon" " Hillcrest 1097 Main 1583 Lee, O'Donoghue & Harkins Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, Eto. W. T. J. Lee, B.C.L. J. G. O'Donoghue, K.C. Hugh Harkins

Offices 241-242 Confederation Life Chambers S. W. Corner Queen and Victoria Sts. TORONTO, CANADA KELLY, PORTER & KELLY BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS

NOTARIES W. E. Kelly, K. C. J. Porter David E. Kelly Crown Attorney County Treasurer Solicitors For Norfolk County Council SIMCOE, ONT., CANADA.

DENTAL MICHAEL J. MULVIHILL L. D. S., D. D. S. 25 PEMBROKE STREET W. PEMBROKE, ONT.

PHONE 175 OPEN EVENINGS DR. VINCENT KELLY DENTAL SURGEON Clinic Building, 241 - 243 Queen's Ave.

LONDON, ONT Phone 1400 Res. Phone 5193 R. I. WATSON Government and Industrial BONDS

Phone 1537W 213 Dom. Savings Bldg LONDON, ONT.

BEDDOME, BROWN CRONYN and 392 RICHMOND ST.
LONDON, CANADA
MONEY TO LOAN

James R. Haslett Sanitary and Heating Engineer

Agent for Fess Oil Burners 821 Richmond St. London, Ont. F. E. LUKE OPTOMETRIST AND OPTICIAN YONGE ST. TORONTO

(Upstairs Opp. Simpson's

Eyes Examined and Glass Eyes Fitted PHONE 529W

Westlake PHOTOGRAPHER Opposite the Armouries

MULLEN 14 May St. LONDON, CANADA

Phone 6714M Painting and Paper Hanging Samples on reques

the lonely old Contessa.

"I shall visit her," Ellesora said to the poor Signor, broken-hearted at the thought of losing forever the child of his neart, to whom he had

The troupe of dogs, to say nothing of the horses, seemed to know by intuition that something wonderby intuition that something wonderful was on the horizon for Ellesora. But the old lady was dying, and only begged that her grandchild would come and remain with her to the end. This she did, enrapturing the Contessa with her goodness and therm and when the goodness and therm and when the goodness and the contessa with her goodness and the goodness are goodness charm, and when the grim dame was laid in the family vault, Ellesora found herself sole possessor of her wealth and mediaeval castle.

Faithful to her word, she returned to the world-famous circus, knowing that poor Signor Cheretti's heart would break if she left. With the tried and faithful friends of her childhood, the good hearted Bohemian, the horses, dogs, and all that made the circus, she remained until Rory Daly persuaded her to become his bride, and their marriage vows were made in the dim old church where, from the venerated shrine, the sweet face of our Lady smiled down a blessing on their union.-Catholic Fireside.

THE STORY OF CHRIST

BY GIOVANNI PAPINI Copyright, 1923, by Harcourt, Brace & Com

Jesus was born in a stable, a real stable, not the bright, airy portico which Christian painters have created for the Son of David, as if ashamed that their God should be resident. Son of David, as it ashamed that their God should have lain down in poverty and dirt. And not the modern Christmas-eve "Holy Stable" either, made of plaster of Paris, with little candy-like statuettes, the Holy Stable; clean and prettily painted, with a neat, tidy manger, an eastatic has a contribe Ox and an ecstatic Ass, a contrite Ox, and Angels fluttering their wreaths on the roof—this is not the stable where Jesus was born.

A real stable is the house, the prison of the animals who work for man. The poor, old stable of Christ's old, poor country is only four rough walls, a dirty pave-ment, a roof of beams and slate. It is dark, reeking. The only clean thing in it is the manger where the owner piles the hay and fodder.

Fresh in the clear morning, waying in the wind, sunny, lush, sweet-scented, the spring meadow was The green grass, the long, slim blades were cut down by the scythe; and with the grass the beautiful flowers in full bloom— white, red, yellow, blue. They withered and dried and took on the one dull color of hay. Oxen dragged back to the barn the dead plunder of May and June. And now that grass has become dry hay and those flowers, still smelling sweet, are there in the Manger to feed the slaves of man. The animals take it slowly with their great black lips, and later the flowering fields, changed into moist dung, return to light on the litter which serves as bedding.

This is the real stable where Jesus was born. The filthiest place in the world was the first room of the only Pure Man ever born of woman. The Son of Man, who was to be devoured by wild beasts calling themselves men, had at His first cradle the manger where the animals chewed the cud of the miraculous flowers of Spring.

It was not by chance that Christ was born in a stable. What is the world but an immense stable where men produce filth and wallow in it? Do they not daily change the most beautiful, the purest, the most divine things into excrements? Then, stretching themselves at full length on the piles of manure, they say they are "enjoying life." Upon this earthly pig-sty, where no decorations or perfumes can hide the odor of filth, Jesus appeared one night, born of a stainless Virgin armed, only with innocence.

THE OX AND THE ASS

First to worship Jesus were animals, not men. Among men He sought 'out the simple hearted : among the simple-hearted He sought out the simple hearted He sought out the sought of the so out children. Simpler than children, and milder, the beasts of burden welcomed Him.

Though humble, though servants of beings weaker and fiercer than they, the ass and the ox had seen they, the ass and the ox had seen multitudes kneeling before them. Christ's own people, the people of Jehovah, the chosen people whom Jehovah had freed from Egyptian slavery, when their leader left them alone in the desert to go up and talk with the Eternal, did they not force Aaron to make them a Golden Calf to worship? In Greece the

Before night Father Brendan had earned all, and sent a dispatch to he lonely old Contessa.

"I shall visit her," Ellesora said the poor Signor, broken-hearted to the poor Signor, broken-hearted the beautiful murder Him, but in the breakt of Between the beautiful to reight over the earth, nor to love material things. He was to bring to an end the bowing down before beasts, the weakness of Aaron, the superstition of Augustus. The beasts of the beautiful murder Him, but in the meantime the beasts of Bethle-hem warm Him with their breath. In later years, when Jesus went up to the city of death for the Feast of child of his neart, to whom he had been more than a father.

"But with you I stay till we die," she concluded, kissing the old man she concluded, kissing the old man ass. But he was a greater and the passover, the was mounted on an ass. But he was a greater and the passover is the passover in the passover. prophet than Balaam, coming not to save the Jews alone but all men and He did not turn back from His path, no, not though all the mules of Jerusalem brayed against him.

After the animals came those who care for animals. Even if the Angel had not announced the great birth, they would have gone to the stable to see the son of the stranger woman. Shepherds live almost always alone and far away. They know nothing of the distant world, nor of the feast-days of the earth. They are moved by whatever happens near to them, even if it is but for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy. Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to men of good will." In the dim light of the stable they saw a beautiful tiful young woman gazing silently at her son. And as they saw the baby with His eyes just open. His delicate rosy flesh, His mouth which had not yet eaten, their hearts softened. The birth of a new man, a soul just become incorporate taking soul just become incarnate taking upon itself to suffer with other souls, is always a miracle so deep as to move to pity even the simple-hearted who do not understand it. For the shepherds forewarned, this new-born child was not just a baby, but He for whom their suffering race had been waiting, for a thousand years.

The shepherds offered what little they had, that little which is so great when offered with love. They carried the white offerings of their craft, milk, cheese, wool, the lamb, Even today in our mountains, where one finds the last dying where one finds the last dying traces of hospitality and fraternal feeling, as soon as a wife is deliv-ered of a child, the sisters, wives and daughters of the shepherds come hurrying to her; and not one of them empty-handed. One has three or four eggs still warm from the nest, another a cup of freshly drawn milk, another a little cheese, another a pullet to make broth for the new mother. A new being has begun his suffering: the neighbors hasten to carry their offerings almost as though to console the mother. shepherds did not look down on the poor. Simple as children they loved children. They came of a race born of the Shepherd of Ur, saved by the Shepherd of Madian. Their first kings had been shepherds -Saul and David-shepherds of herds before being shepherds of boy, born of poor people in poverty, born of common people in the midst of common people, was to be the redeemer of the humble, of those men of good will, on whom the Angel had called down peace.

Some days after this, three wise men came from Chaldea and knelt before Jesus. They came perhaps from Echatana, perhaps from the shores of the Caspian Sea. Mounted on their camels with their full-stuffed saddle-bags, they had forded the Tigris and the Euphrates, crossed the great desert of the nomad tribes, followed along the Dead Sea. They were guided to Judea by a new star like the comet which appears every so often in the which appears every so often in the sky to announce the birth of a prophet or the death of a Casar. They had come to adore a King, and they found a nursing baby, poorly swaddled, hidden within a stable. Almost a thousand years before this, a Queen of the East had come this, a Queen of the East had come on a pilgrimage to Judea. and she, too, had carried gifts, gold, fragrant perfumes and precious stones; but she had found on the throne the greatest king who had ever reigned in Jerusalem and from him had learned what no one else had been able to teach her. able to teach her.

The wise men found no king. They found a new-born baby, a tiny boy, who could neither ask nor answer questions, a boy who in His maturity was to disdain material treasures, and the learning which is based on material things. They were not kings, these wise men, but in Media and Persia they were the masters of kings. The kings ruled over the people, but the wise men directed the kings. They alone could communicate with Alma Mardet the great Cod They alone the great Co force Aaron to make them s Golden Calf to worship? In Greece the ass was sacred to Ares, to Dionysius, to Hyperborean Apollo, Balaam's ass, wiser than the prophet, saved him by speaking. Oxus, King of Persia, put an ass in the temple of Ptha, and had it worshiped. And Augustus, Christ's temporal sovereign, had set up in the temple the brazen statue of an ass, to commemorate the good omen resemble the family. Is it possible you are the girl we seek?"

"I think so," murmured Ellesora with quivering lips. "Come with me, Padre, to the hotel to see Signor Cheretti. He has papers that will tell you all you want to the world to reign over the cent to the world to reign over the cent to the world to reign over the material things had bowed before that will tell you all you want to the world to reign over the secrets of heaven and earth. In the name of science and religion they held first rank in the come into the world to reign over the secrets of heaven and earth. In the name of science and religion they held first rank in the come into the world to reign over the secrets of heaven and earth. In the midst of a people were the secrets of heaven and earth. In the name of science and religion they held first rank in the nation. In the midst of a people sunk in material things they represented the Spirit. It was fitting that they should come to kneel before Jesus. After the animals which are Nature, after the Shepherds which are the common people, this third power which is knowledge, knelt at the manger in Bethlehem. knelt at the manger in Bethlehem. The old priestly caste of the Orient made its act of submission before the new Lord, who was to send His Gospel to the west. The learned men knelt before Him who was to set above the learning of words and numbers the new wisdom of love.

Symbolizing the old theology bowing before the final revelation, the wise men at Bethlehem knelt before Innocence. Wealth prostrated itself at the feet of Poverty.

They offered gold to Jesus: gold which He was to tread under foot. which He was to tread under foot. They offered it not because Mary in her poverty might need it for the journey, but in anticipation of the command, "Sell all that thou hast and give it to the poor." They offered Him frankincense, not to drown the stench of the stable, but as a token that their own ritual was ended; that their altars would need But as they were watching their flocks in the long winter night, they were shaken by the light and by the words of the Angel. "Fear not, for hehold I bring you good tidings to head to head the words of the Angel." They offered Him myrrh knowing that this boy would die young, and His mother, smiling now, would need spices to embalm the dead

Kneeling in their pontifical robes upon the bedding of straw, they, the mighty, the learned, the soothsayers offered themselves as pledges of the obedience of the world.

Jesus now had received all His rightful investitures. The wise men had scarcely gone when perse-cutions were begun by those who were to hate Him to the day of His

OCTAVIUS AUGUSTUS

When Christ appeared upon the earth, criminals ruled the world unopposed. He was born subject to two sovereigns, the stronger far away at Rome, the weaker and wickeder close at hand in Judea.

One lucky adventurer after wholesale slaughter had seized the empire, another had murdered his way to the throne of David and Solomon. Each rose to high position through trickery, through civil wars, be-trayals, cruelty, massacres. They were born to understand one another, were, as a matter of fact, friends and accomplices, as far as was possible between a subordinate rascal and his rascal chief.

Son of the usurer of Velletri, Augustus showed himself cowardly in war and vindictive in victory, false to his friends, cruel in reprisals. To a condemned man who begged only for burial he answered, "That is the business of the vultures." To the Perugians begging for mercy during the massacre he cried, "Moriendum esse!" On a mere suspicion he wanted to tear out the eyes of the Praetor Quintus Gallius before ordering his throat Mother, since He was a child—but cut. Possessed of the empire, with now thou hast a claim upon Him, his enemies crushed and scattered, with the power all in his own hands, he put on a mask of mildness and of his youthful vices kept only his lust. herds before being shepherds of tribes. But these shepherds of Bethlehem "unknown to the hard world," were not proud. A poor man was born among them and they looked on Him with affection and lovingly brought Him their poor riches. They knew that this how hern of poor people in poverty. restorer of morality.

This filthy, sickly man was sovereign of the western world when Jesus was born, nor did he ever know that One had been born who would bring the dissolution of all that he had founded. The facile philosophy of the plump little plagiarist Horace was enough for him, "Today let us enjoy wine and love: hopeless death awaits us: there is not a day to be lost!" In vain Virgil, the man of the country-side friend of words of quiet deckers. side, friend of woods, of quiet flocks and golden bees, he who had gone down with Eneas to see the sufferers in Avernus and poured his restless melancholy into the music of poetry; in vain Virgil, the loving pious Virgil, had foretold a new era, a new order and a new race, a kingdom of heaven less spiritual, less brilliant than that which Jesus was to announce, but infinitely nobler and purer than the kingdom of Hell which was then making ready. In vain, because Augustus saw in these words only a pastoral fancy and perhaps believed that he, the cor-rupt master of the corrupt, was the proclaimed Saviour and restorer of the reign of Saturn.

But his vassal of Judea, his great Oriental client, may have had a presentiment of the birth of Jesus, of the true King, who was coming to supplant the king of evil. TO BE CONTINUED

> St. Jerome's College KITCHENER, ONT.

Commercial, High School, College and Philosophical

Large Gymnasium, Swimming Pool. Comfortable Sleeping Rooms. Good Board.

REV. W. A. BENINGER, C. R., President.

Crimean Veteran Praises "Fruit-a-tives'

MAJOR GEO. WALKER Major George Walker, now a familiar gure in Chatham, Ontario, is one of figure in Chatham, Ontario, is one of the men who went through the terrible Indian Mutiny. As he says: "I am a veteran of the Crimean War and the Indian Mutiny, serving under Lord Roberts. Fierce hand-to-hand fighting and continual exposure left me a great sufferer from Rheumatism, so much so that my legs swelled up, making it impossible for me to walk. My bowels were so constipated that I was in terrible shape until I began to use 'Fruit-atives.' They relieved me both of the Rheumatism and the Constipation. Today, I enjoy perfect health—no more Rheumatism or Constipation."

And in another letter, written December 1st, 1923 (eleven years after), Major Walker says: "'Fruit-a-tives' are keeping me in the best of health and I shall never be without them."

"Fruit-a-tives" are the famous Fruit Treatment—intensified fruit juices combined with tonics—that make you well and keep you well. 25c and 50c—at all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa, Ont. the men who went through the terrible

JESUS AND HIS MOTHER

There is no part of the history of Jesus but Mary has her part in it. There are those who profess to be His servants who think that her work was ended when she bore Him, and after that she had nothing to do but disappear and be forgotten. But we, O Lord, Thy children of the Catholic Church, do not so think of Mary. She brought the tender infant into the Temple, she lifted Him up in her arms when the wise men came to adore Him. She fled with Him to Egypt, she took Him up to Jerusalem when He was twelve years old. He lived with her at Nazareth for thirty years. She was with Him at the marriage feast. Even when He had left her to preach, she hovered about Him. She shows herself as He toils along the Sacred Way with His Cross on

He is thy property once again, O Virgin Mother, once again, for He and the world have met and parted. He went out from thee to do His Father's work—and He has done and suffered it. Satan and bad men have now no longer any claim upon Him—too long has He been on a aloft to the high mountain; evil man lifted Him upon the Cross. He has not been in thy arms, O Mother, since He was a child-but are the newest sport togsbut can they be washed— safely? Rest assured, they can-with Lux.

Smart, Indeed

Lux will not shrink or fade your sport clothes. The rich Lux suds clean gently, without the rubbing that is so injurious to any fabric.

> Sold only in sealed packets-dust proof!

Loretto Academy HAMILTON Residential and Day School For Young Ladies

PREPARATORY, LOWER SCHOOL, MATRICULATION AND COMMERCIAL COURSES

when the world has done its worst.
For thou art the all-favoured, all-blessed, all-gracious Mother of the Highest. He has been hidden in thy womb, He has lain in thy bosom, He has been suckled at thy breasts, He has been carried in thy arms—and now that He is dead, He is placed upon thy lap.

Sweet Mother, let us ever think of thee when we think of Jesus, and when we pray to Him, ever aid us by thy powerful intercession.—

Cardinal Newman.

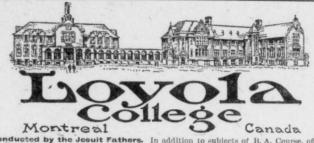

Music Course leading to A. T. C. M. and Bachelor of Music. For further information address MOTHER SUPERIOR.

St. Joseph's on the Lake

Residence School FOR BOYS OF SCHOOL AGE UNDER TEN

For particulars, apply to: SISTER SUPERIOR.

St. Joseph's on the Lake, SCARBORO, ONTARIO

Boyola College Matriculation officially recognized by High School Association of Universities of Ontario

PARTICULARS ON APPLICATION

College and Academy of St. Joseph

ST. ALBAN STREET

RESIDENCE and DAY SCHOOL For Young Ladies and Little Girls

St. Joseph's College is affiliated to the University of Toronto through the Federated College of St. Michael.

College Course of Four Years, leading to Degrees. Also Academic, Collegiate, Commercial and Preparatory Course.

For Prospectus, apply to THE MOTHER SUPERIOR.

St. Michael's College

TORONTO, CANADA

The Catholic College of the University of Toronto

All Courses Leading to Degrees in Arts

REV. H. CARR, C. S. B.,

REV. E. J. McCORKELL, C. S. B.

St. Michael's College School HIGH SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT

For Calendar write: - REV. H. S. BELLISLE, C. S. B.

Assumption College SANDWICH, ONT.

AFFILIATED WITH THE WESTERN UNIVERSITY

CONDUCTED BY THE BASILIAN FATHERS

Boarding School for Young Men and Boys

College Course leading to the degree of BACHELOR OF ARTS, and offering a complete foundation for the study of the professions, and especially designed for students preparing for the Priesthood. High School Course complying with the requirements of the Ontario

Commercial Course equipping students for a business career. Preparatory Department for boys in Junior and Senior Fourth

Well Qualified Staff; Good Buildings and Equipment; Gymnasium; Running Track; Swimming Pool; Handball Alleys; Tennis Courts; Football and Baseball Grounds; Acres of Campus.

Private Room accommodations for one hundred students.

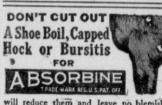

The 55th Year Begins Monday, Sept. 8th For catalogue and particulars, address:

REV. D. L. DILLON, C. S. B. SUPERIOR

DR. BELL'S Veterinary Medical Wonder

50,000 one dollar bottles free to horse and cattle owners. Cannot be given wrong to sick animals. Small doses, very effective; ask any of its host of users. Send 25c. for mailing, packing, etc will reduce them and leave no blemishes. Stops lameness promptly. Does not blister or remove the hair, and horse can be sworked. $2.50 a bottle delivered. Book 6 R free.

DR. BELL, Kingston, Ont.

ABSORBINE, JR., for mankind, the antiseptid liniment for Boils, Bruises. Sores, Swellings, Various Velan. Aliays Pain and Inflammation. Price $1.25 a bottle at drugs flus or delivered. Will tell you more if you write.

W. F. TOUNG, Inc., 190 Lymans Bldg., Montreal, Can. Absorbine and Absorbine, Jr., are made in Canada.

Central Commercial College

725 ST. CATHERINE W. MONTREAL

The ideal course in Pitman's Shorthand

"Touch" Typewriting for ambitious students

Phone Up 7363

P. O'NEILL

Poultry & Eggs Wanted

Top Prices Paid C. A. MANN & CO.

78 King St. London, Ont. TAIT-BROWN OPTICAL CO.

Physical Eye Specialists 48 JAMES ST. N, HAMILTON PHONE REGENT 1414

BROWN OPTICAL CO.

223 DUNDAS ST. LONDON LONDON

OPTICAL Co. Have Your Eyes Examined

OPTOMETRIST and OPTICIAN

Dundas St., Opposite Loew's and Allen's Theatres FUNERAL DIRECTORS

John Ferguson & Sees 180 KING ST

Leading Undertakers & Embal Open Night and Day

Talephone House 373 Factory 548 E. C. Killingsworth FUNERAL DIRECTOR

Open Day and Night

889 Burwell St. Phone 897 J. SUTTON & SON

G. M. MURRAY 65 KING ST. LONDON

Funeral Directors

Expert Radiator and Auto Sheet Metal Worker BRAZING OF ALL KINDS PHONES - NIGHTS 5448. DAY 2827

87 YONGE ST., TORONTG PHONE MAIN 4030

Hennessey

CUT FLOWERS

The Catholic Record

Price of subscription—$2.00 per annum. United States and Europe—$2.50. ublisher & Proprietor, Thomas Coffey, LL. D. Editors { Rev. James T. Foley, D. D. Thomas Coffey, LL. D.

Associate Editor—H. F. Mackintosh.
Manager—Robert M. Burns.
Address business letters to the Manager.
Classified Advertising 15 cents per line, temittance must accompany the order, where Catholio Record Box address is equired send 10 cents to prepay expense of ostage upon replies.
Obituary and marriage notices cannot be serted except in the usual condensed form. ach insertion 50 cents.

samped addressed envelopes are enclosed.

The CATHOLIC RECORD has been approved and recommended by Archbishops falconic and Sbaretti, late Apostolic Delegates to Canada, the Archbishops of Toronto, Kingston, Itawa, and St. Boniface, the Bishops of London, Hamilton, Peterborough and Ogdensourg, N. Y., and the clergy throughout the hombitor.

LONDON, SATURDAY, JULY 12, 1924

NOT A RELIGIOUS ISSUE

The spirited debate in the Democratic Convention in New York over the plank in the platform denouncing the Klan revealed the lack of moral courage-so often deplored in politicians-but it also revealed the fact that all politicians are not infected with this disease. Many leading Protestant Democrats were courageous and outspoken. Senator Underwood of Alabama, a candialong insisted that the Democratic party repudiate the Klan, its principles and its methods, by name. This fact the delegate who put published in your paper. Senator Underwood in nomination proclaimed outspokenly. That ended had to be fought out to a finish. majority of them, were willing to ject. denounce the Klan, its principles, its methods, its aims and its objects but were not willing to name the Ku Klux Klan! The event gave one, later increased to four, in a and friendly nation. delegation with 1,098 votes.

Amongst the protagonists of the Klan-for such those who opposed the naming of this intolerant William Jennings Bryan who took the ground that to name the Klan listen in, are an antidote to Mr. of the Mass assumed a new beauty thus answered Mr. Bryan whom, years in Spain. with good reason, it considers the evil genius of the Democratic

"The hostile reception which Mr. Bryan's speech on the Klangot from large numbers of the delegates and the audience on Saturday night was not due solely to disagreement with the position which he was taking. There was in it a feeling that he was grossly inconsistent. He deplored introducing a religious question into politics. But what has he been doing himself for the past two or three years except just that thing? He has gone before Legislatures to advocate the enactment of laws forbidding the employment in the Public schools political. It goes to the very roots spiritual factor is the greatest of American political ideas. Relig- factor in the growth of communiion enters into it only because a ties and nations." fanatic and domineering band. to proscribe one form of religion in that seeks to force a religious issue. But this has been done in a way inevitably to thrust it into our its founders and practiced by its off, by pretending that he is The attack is because he shows himself an enemy of American institutions.

politics will interest our readers.

failure of the Convention to recognize the real question in issue. But many will hazard a guess that the pussy-footers have effectively defeated their avowed object-that is preventing a split in the party.

> "THE TRUTH ABOUT SPAIN"

In the English papers for some time past Spain has been a live topic. Mr. Arnold Bennett has been writing from Spain to Lord Beaverbrook's paper, The Express, weekly letters which the Catholic Times describes as "tirades against Spain, the Spanish people and the religion they profess.'

But Mr. Bennett, who gives no evidence of even knowing the Spanish language, did not have it all his own way. For instance, the following letter from Mrs. Austen Chamberlain appeared in the Daily Express, and the editor had the decency to give it prominence on the first page.

Sir.-As one who lived for five years in Gibraltar and has travelled much in Spain, and counts many date for the Presidency, has all Spaniards amongst her friends, I should like to protest against the articles entitled "The Truth About Spain," by Mr. Arnold Bennett,

What object can be served by this superficial criticism, unsupported the pussy-footing. The question by facts or knowledge, save such as could be acquired in the few weeks The artificers of the Platform, or a Mr. Bennett gave to this great sub-

> If Mr. Bennett had spent as many years as he has weeks in Spain I venture to think that he would write with more courtesy and a

Yours faithfully, IVY CHAMBERLAIN. 2, Morpeth Mansions, S. W. I.

And from Manchester is broad-

Mr. Bennett applies the "literary test" to Spain and, of course, finds 'education' in a parlous state. Mr. Bletcher says:

"The poorer classes may be, relatively speaking, what we call 'ignorant'; but morally and spiritually they are more than our equals. They are the best friends creature? in the world, affectionate, sincere, and unselfish to a degree."

And here we may very pertinently quote from a letter addressed to college men in America a little less than a year ago by Roger W. Babson, the famous statistician.

"Education," he said, "is a mere tool which can be used either for of teachers who did not agree with good or for evil. Two men gradhim about the Bible and about evo- uate from the same law school—one views. But as soon as he was faced and the other uses his education to with the danger that a question help men evade the law. Two having religious implications might chemists graduate from the same split his party wide open, he pro- technical school in the same classtested with all his power that such one uses his training to make foods matters should never be brought pure, the other uses the same training to adulterate foods. If statis-"Strictly speaking, the issue in- tics have taught us one thing in the volved is not religious. It is last twenty years it is that the

This aspect of education might secret and oath-bound, undertakes well escape Mr. Arnold Bennett's invitation of the New York delega- men would hate them for His sake. the United States. It is the Klan avail himself only of "liberal" funeral of Charles F. Murphy in Church for His sake were to be earth whether consciously or unconpublic life and make it predomin- he omits any reference to the individual liberty demanded an the bar of moral theology for their for teaching religion to boys and antly political. The Klan fights national Education Congress held explanation. Mr. Upshaw replied acts. From the beginning of the girls before they reach the age of with political weapons and must be recently at Madrid. This was com- that as a Baptist he was strong history of Christianity, such men eighteen years, and the Canadian fought with them. What the men posed of delegates from all parts for individualism himself and have fought against the authority bigot, splitting hairs to prove that and women who oppose the Klan of Spain, mostly men and women that while he had accepted the of the Church. are determined to do is, not to force actively engaged in educational a religious issue into politics, but work of every grade from Universito take it out, once and for all. ties to the elementary schools-pro-They are simply maintaining a fessors, school teachers, members beneath the flag should be allowed take the lead of men who are deepfundamental American principle, of religious teaching Orders, and a to worship God according to the ly concerned for worldly things written into the Constitution, considerable number of provincial dictates of his own conscience. enshrined in our best traditions, and municipal councils who have become one of the instincts of interested themselves in the develop- ard, under the heading "Congress- pression in ambition to rule and American democracy, preached by ment of schools. In his inaugural man Upshaw and the Jesuits, address the Cardinal Primate dwelt | proceeded to tell Mr. Upshaw a few | place where the worldling will find generation to generation. No one which the Congress met, for the bracing adders and to supply him are dear to his heart-power, pride, who lays a rude hand upon it need Government had announced as a with extracts from an Encyclical money, fame? Yes, the worldlings hope to escape, when he is beaten main point of its policy the multi- of Pope Leo XIII. which must have will not neglect the seats of the plication of schools throughout the surprised the Congressman as much mighty; they never have done so attacked on religious grounds. kingdom, the improvement of the as they will astound others. position of the teachers, and meas-This lucid, logical and forceful highly useful that those practically enemies of America because one of influence of a Christian home life." literally."

We may fittingly close with an extract from an article written for quotation: the Universe by Mr. D. B. Express.

words the memory of that Mass?

"The Easter sun was already flood- America." ing the little square, the trees were green, the air was like wine. Ten minutes before Mass the nave was arrival of the men.

that lusty singing.

was to inject a religious issue into Bennett's weekly letter. The and a sweeter homeliness. Here dently disobeyed orders. reason of the contrast is that Mr. the Age of Faith had never ended. the place like incense.

> of unforgetable things, and went at their malevolence, but when may be involved. back presently to breakfast, and malignancy resorts to forgery it found an Englishman there full of might be expected that at least a Shelley and his religion.

God than that bright, beautiful unbalanced would produce a docuwrinkled, gnarled and patched, hobbled past.

ant; and at least a thousand times | they profitably pander. nearer than Shelley." So to the eyes of understanding sympathy things Spanish present a beauty to which ingrained prejudice - whether honest or not - is

We shall deal with this next week.

ARE THEY INSANE?

consideration as he appears to tion in Congress to attend the The men who were to hate the to those who act as his agents on sources of information. But he can St. Patrick's Cathedral, he forgot those men who lived for the world sciously, is, to suppress God. In hardly be excused from gross bias to ask permission from Dr. Gilbert and did not want to be bothered by this task there are degrees. The when, in dealing with education, O. Nations. That champion of a power which would call them to Russian Socialist, jailing priests invitation as an act of courtesy, he new conviction that every soul of the world. For, who should say what will be the effect of the Eminence closed with this sane-if the Roman Catholic enemies of which they are legitimately the not "liberal"-view of education: America. And are they enemies of rulers; they have never been able Catholic schools. Why? Because degradation. Luther was the "The hopes of the future of Spain America? Read the answer in to keep their fingers out of the the State, that is, the people of the glorious sun which, bursting from depend on the religious teaching in their own words as uttered by affairs of religion, and they have State by a majority, want to take behind these clouds, ushered in the the schools supplemented by the Pope Leo XIII., which I quote meddled not to help but to hinder. the whole matter of common school reign of righteousness and freedom

"If," says the Rev. Dr. C. Lewis

Here is a part of the "literal"

"Moreover, we proclaim the Wyndham Lewis, until recently one people of the United States to have of the contributing editors of The forfeited all right to rule said republic . . . and on or about "I went to Mass early next morn- the Feast of Ignatius Loyola, in the ing in St. Jean-Pied-de-Port, in the year of Our Lord 1898, it will be from the Catacombs, those vast ex- and are beginning now slowly to old church within the citadel. How the duty of the faithful to exter- cavations under the City of Rome is it possible to resume in a few minate all heretics found within the and the vicinity in which she had jurisdiction of the United States of

Now what will doubtless puzzle Representative Upshaw about this that because they ruled the State remarkable docum nt, which is they were entitled to rule the full of women, blackclad, with their declared by the learned doctor of Church. And from that day to this, black veils; and five minutes before divinity to have been published on the Church has never been free for a tremendous clatter up the wooden | Christmas Day, 1891, as a contribu- one year from similar trouble with stairs into the gallery, running half tion to peace on earth, is why it some ruler or set of rulers. In than the re-casting of judgment in round the church, announced the was not obeyed. The feast of more modern times the plan of in- regard to the Reformation of the Ignatius Loyola-July 31-came terference is somewhat different, "The Mass-the second of the day; and went in 1898, yet of the many but the main idea is exactly the there was another before the High millions of those whom Dr. Fowler same. A few hundred years ago, a that the old infatuation has ceased Mass-was said by a tall, old priest, likes to talk of as "the slaves of ruler who found the Church in his to hold sway with the great mass, deliberate and sonorous, with a Rome," not one remembered his way would have put a score or so of magnificent head, as so many old obligation to the extent even of her bishops and priests to death; men among the Basques have; and braining a Protestant baseball nowadays, in the absence of such for music there were Basque Easter umpire with a pop bottle. Instead, arbitrary power, a parliament or a hymns, joyous, jaunty, almost they busied themselves with pre- council merely takes their property sprightly, led by a young priest who parations for the celebration three away from them, as in France or in mounted into the men's gallery; his months later of the silver jubilee the Balkans, exiles them as in ringing baritone dominated even of the episcopacy of Cardinal Mexico, and to some extent in the leaders of the great revolt fail Gibbons, who, hailed on that France, or imprisons them as in Por-"I had heard sad droning Basque occasion by Archbishop Ireland as tugal; or, if the country be a bit ascribed to them. hymns in Holy week; their Easter one "who joins hands with the more democratic, as in the United hymns go to quick, swinging tunes, laborer and the capitalist, with the States, the constitution is amended and they sing them in their incom- white man and the black man, with so as to close all Catholic schools as prehensible tongue with a great the Catholic, the Protestant and in Oregon. In Canada, the interroar of devotion. The air of the the Jew . . . the most loyal co- ference of the State in the affairs of church was tremulous with joy; the laborer of the Pope of Rome, an the Church takes the course of an candle-flames and the steady voice American of Americans," received extreme insistence on certain theorthem a majority first announced as better understanding of this great of the priest at the altar seemed to the blessing of this very same Leo ies as to the control of schools and quiver with it; and at the Domine, who, according to Dr. Fowler, had of an unreasonable opposition to non sum dignus the shrill, little incited him to slay rather than join and dislike of what is called "cleribell summoned almost the entire hands with Protestants and the cal interference" in public affairs, congregation to the Feast. In such | congratulations of the President of | and is passive and indirect rather a church, whose walls are drenched the United States who seemed bliss than active and direct; but it is organization are considered-was cast Mr. W. F. Bletcher's "Spanish in continuous prayer since the time fully ignorant of the fact that he there just the same. On several Talks" which, to those at least who of Charlemagne, the familiar words had escaped slaughter only because historic occasions in this country the "the slaves of Rome" had impufoist them on educated fellow "I went out into the sunlight, full citizens insane? One may marvel "Who (he said) could be nearer to to be advanced. Only the mentally ment which in itself would disprove know well the extent of the superfrom heaven, 'Why, that old peas- unscrupulously foster and to which

> THE GREED FOR POWER By THE OBSERVER

In reading the history of nations, one is struck with the constant Upshaw of Georgia accepted an when He warned His disciples that forget it and be untrue to it.

Now, it is natural to find such in that pursuit of worldly things Whereupon, The American Stand- which finds its most complete ex- difference between them. they are not doing so today.

Power is a thing of which world ures for increasing the efficiency of Fowler, the editor of The Standard, lings can never get enough; the

It is in the realms of prophecy to future of the schools. And His then you must be classified with to confine themselves to the field in not satisfied with the power that rightfully belonged to him, but always more power; and the preceding. sought to be the director of the field of religion besides.

As soon as the Church was released been confined for about three hundred years, she had to contend with the Roman emperors who imagined claim has been made quite boldly by statesmen that the Church has Are the Dr. Fowlers who manu- no right to offer guidance to her Editorially the New York Times Bletcher spent the last thirty-five The devotion of the centuries filled facture encyclicals and seek to children in any matter that affects politics, no matter how grave a question of moral right or wrong

> We have said that the main idea has been, in all State encroachments, windy and damnable nonsense about forgery would be submitted which of the past as well as of more recent would prove the allegation sought times always the same, namely, that the people of a country are to be ruled by laymen in as many matters as those laymen can pos-"And then a very old peasant, their main contention.-N. C. W. C. sibly bring under their control. No they are not insane. They That is just the same idea that has lain at the root of all the troubles "I said, seizing this palpable gift stitious ignorance which they between the Church and the nations North Cadbury, and Examining Reformation idea of the seat of in all ages; it is part of the endless spirit, the world and heaven, the > devil and Jesus Christ. But why does the State feel so ambitious to control the family, It was a page of seething indigna- inroads, the continual aggressions, the greatest power exercised in this tion against "reactionary" Spain attempted, sometimes with success, world is not exercised in cabinets culled by the Literary Digest that sometimes without it, of the civil or in parliaments or about the impelled us to summarize this power, the power of the State, on steps of a throne. The greatest English discussion of things Span- and against the authority of the power in this world is the power of former," however, in such company thus the Old Testament history, ish. The particular occasion for Church and the family. With all religion; and this is true in spite of is not only untrue to history but and even the life of our Lord Jesus the familiar outburst was the its show of power, the State has all the difficulties that are put in libellous in fact. expulsion of Professor Unamuno. never been able to followits own its way; and that authority is evil ways except by paralyzing or exercised most effectively in the crippling, temporarily, the power of family circle and in the school in the Church and the family. The which the training is given to the aggression is not accidental; it was child which will move and control When Representative William D. foreseen and predicted by Christ him all his life, often as he may

The endless task set by the devil the Catholics ought to be deprived of reasonable aid to train their own had come from the funeral with a men in the forefront of the rulers children in their own religion, are both engaged in the suppression of God; the Russian being more courageous and more logical about it. which is the only essential

There are forty million people in control others? Is not that the very the United States today who never enter a church of any sort; Luther. Those old enough to exponents, a precious heritage from on the opportuneness of the time at things about the dangers of emabout by theorists who refused to allow the State to aid in the teaching of religion, as long as all the people of the country were not characterized it throughout. There agreed on one religion. We have copied that situation in Canada. adorn, and no conceivable blessing The State thus interferes negatively which as a result of his "break existing schools. He considered it "you weep with the Roman Catholic desire for it is a craying that grows with the Church; insisting on the with Rome" did not accrue to amend his life; the elect will have with what it feeds on. From the suppression of God in all the public mankind. Up to the sixteenth theirs amended for them; the nonexposition of the Klan issue in engaged in education should at this their heads has been struck off by first days of the Church, rulers of schools because all men do not century it was emphatically protime formulate their views as to the the two-edged sword of Christ, countries have never been content agree in their religious views.

Church must get out of the way. The non-Catholic churches have usually acquiesced in the main ; realize that they have made a gigantic mistake.

NOTES AND COMMENTS To THOSE who keep in touch with the development of ideas among the sects and to the decay in belief which invariably accompanies it there is nothing more remarkable sixteenth century and the character of the so-called Reformers. Not but that those with the necessary equipment in scholarship, and the courage to look facts in the face, who have gone behind the tradition of the intervening centuries have had a great awakening, and found themselves obliged to admit that to measure up to the standard

This is particularly true of the Church of England, However tenaciously the mass of its adherents may cling to the longcherished conviction that the Reformation was in design and in fact an emancipation of the human intellect, the truth has, nevertheless, slowly forced itself upon them that the means by which it was effected were not only iniquitous in themselves, and disastrous in their results, but that its chief instruments were in the main men of questionable character and actuated by the lowest of human motives. In other words, that Littledale's celebrated characterization of them as a "set of thoroughly unredeemed ruffians,' cannot be set aside as a mere rhetorical flourish.

This comes out very strongly in the Hulsean Lectures for 1921-22 delivered before the University of Cambridge, and now published of his work form a curious comunder the title "Erasmus the Reformer: a Study in Restatement." The author is Rev. L. Elliott Binns, B. D., Rector of Chaplain to the Bishop of Coventry. authority is that of Dr. Liddon's, fight between the flesh and the It is a very interesting book, and the celebrated Dean of St. Paul's, while perfectly loyal to Anglican quoted by Dr. Binns: "Its intertraditions and censoriously critical pretation of the New Testament as to the state of the Church in the was guided by a traditional assumpsixteenth century it is no less out- tion as arbitrary and as groundless marriage, the child, the school, and spoken in regard to the "Reform- as any which it ever denounced. early education? Simply because ers." Erasmus himself is the real The real source of its 'Gospel' reformer, and the character of was limited to a few chapters of Luther as contrasted therewith St. Paul's Epistles, understood in unlovable in the extreme. To class a manner which left much else in the great humanist as a "Re- Holy Scripture out of account; and > to the evils of the times as any consequence, those entire departman, and quite frank in his ments of the Christian revelation criticism of those in high places which deals with the corporate who fell short of their high calling, union of Christians with Christ not excepting even the occupants of in His Church and with the Sacra-Peter's Chair. But he was too ments, which by His appointment good a Christian, and too profound are the channels of His grace to the a scholar to be misled by the end of time, were not so much specious pleas of those who were forgotten as unrecognized." "The ready to shatter the unity of the charge of thrusting the Gospels Church and break utterly with the into the background," adds Dr. See of Peter as a prelude to the Binns, "may seem to some unfair realization of their own vile ambi- as applied to the Evangelicals; it tions. All sorts of inducements were made to him to throw in his who deliberately states that 'St. lot with the "Reformers," but he remained faithful in his allegiance than Matthew, Mark and Luke.' to the end and died as he had lived a Catholic.

> It is not, however, with Erasmus that we have here to do much to foster, even when it did nor with the " lesser lights of the not originate, some of the worst Reformation," but with the person evils of the times." What those of its chief exponent, Martin evils were does not remain in doubt. ago of the fourth centenary of his of moral standards which almost birth will not have forgotten the amounted to a collapse." The two avalanche of panegyric which doctrines which were especially was no virtue which Luther did not emphasis laid on faith, and the claimed Europe had for more than As a consequence Erasmus tells us

Now we see a movement in a a thousand years languished under dozen American States to abelish the shadows of superstition and Country after country and people education into the hands of the for mankind. All this and more after people were lost to the Church State, and out of the hands of the was the unvarying note of the because the ruler of the State was | Church. Power: The State wants | celebration of his birth, as it had power, and more and more and been for the four hundred years

> THE WORLD has travelled a long way since then, and while the cult of Luther still holds sway over the rank and file, scholars are not wanting to expose the truth. The Hulsean Lectures of 1921-1922 are in this respect but a summing-up of the researches of the past twenty-five years. They contain nothing really new, but it is something that a leader of thought among Reformation adherents has the courage to tell the truth. That in spite of his conclusions as to the character of Luther he should still adjudge him a hero is, however incomprehensible to us, his own affair, and we would not presume to doubt his sincerity.

WE HAVE but space here for a few excerpts. Luther rejected the authority of the Church and professed to set up the Scriptures as the final seat of authority instead. "Until the Liepzig dispute of 1519," says Dr. Binns, "he held to the Pope; after that to a general council: at the Diet of Worms. 1521, this authority was abandoned, and the Scriptures alone held worthy of obedience. But even the Scriptures had to be censored and part rejected, as inconsistent with his chosen doctrines: so that it is the inner consciousness of Luther himself which remains as the final court of appeal." Or, in the words of the historian (Armstrong) of Charles V. whom Dr. Binns quotes: "Luther and his associates lost all reverence for authority except that of the lord from whom they drew their stipends,' on which dictum Dr. Binns remarks: "Luther had to travel a long way before he reached this last state of degradation, and on the way from time to time he exhibited true nobility of character; his fatal habit of allowing expediency to control principle is the obvious explanation of his decline." The general estimate of the man in other passages and of the results mentary on this assumed "nobility of character."

ANOTHER ESTIMATE as to the Christ, as recorded by the Evangelists were thrown comparatively Erasmus, it is true, was as alive into the background. . . As a certainly holds true of Luther Paul's epistles are more of a gospel

> "THIS INCOMPLETE presentation of the gospel together with the preaching up of private judgment did "Protestantism in its early days blameworthy were the excessive denial of human responsibility. "No one," said Luther, "will that his own experience may have been unfortunate, but that he never met anvone who was not changed for the worse by the new teaching."

Of the attitude of the Reformers to learning and of their understanding of freedom of conscience we shall have something to say in next issue.

AMERICAN PILGRIMS

BRING POPE'S LOVE TO NATION

By Monsignor Enrico Pucci ome Correspondent, N. C. W. C.)

Rome Correspondent, N. C. W. C.)

Rome June 10.—The American pilgrimage to Palestine and Rome has been one of the most important that the Pope has received for some time. There were about one hundred pilgrims, under the guidance of the Archbishop of Santa Fe, New Mexico, the Most Rev. Mgr. Daeger, who is a member of the Franciscan Order. The pilgrimage was organized by Mr. Philip Beccari of New York, whom the Pope, while the pilgrims were Pope, while the pilgrims were in Rome, nominated a knight of the Order of St. Gregory the Great.

The pilgrimage proceeded in perfect order and with great and edifying piety. During the voyage a large number of the pilgrims received Holy Communion daily.

Sailing March 19 from New York, the pilgrims after the state of the pilgrims after the state of the pilgrims after the state of the pilgrims after the pilgrims.

the pilgrims, after a short stop at the Azores, touched at Algiers, then at Naples, Palermo and then at Naples, Palermo and Athens, and April 8 arrived at Haifa, whence they left for Jerusalem in a special train. In the Holy City, the pilgrims had the good fortune to spend the whole of Holy Week, and Archbishop Daeger on Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Saturday celebrated the solemn ceremonies in the Basilica of the Holy Sepulchre.

INTERFERENCE OF COPTS

It was during Holy Week that It was during Holy Week that incidents twice occurred between Catholics and the Copts. At the time, the press spoke of these incidents very fully, and they seemed rather serious, but as I have already cabled you, Archbishop Daeger declared that they were far less serious than the papers

The incident of Palm Sunday happened during the Pontifical Mass which the Archbishop himself was celebrating. The Catholics, as is the custom, were making the procession three times round the Chapel of the Holy Sepulchre, and the Copt priests were preparing for their ceremonies and wanted to cross the procession to place a few benches. The Catholics, who were within their right, objected, and a conflict occurred. At the beginning, there was some fright, and the procession was thrown into disorder, but the police at once intervened, the Copts were dispersed and the ceremony was permitted to continue tranquilly.

A similar incident—a little more serious but at once settled by the police — happened the day after Easter at the Pontifical Mass of the Patriarch of Jerusalem, Monsignor Barlassina, who publicly protested against the disturbance. But even then, order was soon re-established and the Catholics were have not yet been able to agree about the formation of this commission. The English Government, however, in the absence of such a general agreement, has decided that everything should be maintained exactly as it was under the Turkish rule, and it is in consequence of this decision that clashes such as frequently occurred under the Ottoman dominion are again taking

ARCHBISHOP LAMENTS JERUSALEM

Archbishop Daeger told me that the conditions at the Holy Places at Jerusalem are very sad. He did not refer alone to these incidents and to the present unsettled state of affairs, which is transitory. He spoke also more feelingly of the promiscuity of religions and cults about the Holy Places where the divine Redeemer suffered and died. It is painful for Catholics, he said, to see the various religious confessions—the various churches separated from the true fold—take their turns in the same chapels, at the same altars, while Catholics are even entirely excluded from some of the most sacred and

'It is at Bethlehem," he said, "where one really breaths a con-soling and perfumed atmosphere of the dearest and sweetest Christian memories, which ought not to be ruined by the bitterness of relig-ious struggles and differences."

The pilgrims afterward visited the principal cities in Palestine-Nazareth, Tiberius, Cana, Caphar naum—and April 27, Whitsunday, they were in the new Basilica of the Transfiguration, recently erected on Mount Tabor. This basilica, as is known, was erected at the same time as was the Basilica of the Transfiguration, under the "Cus-todia of the Holy Land," with ceremony in the Basilica of Mount Tabor should be reserved for an Archbishop from the United States accompanied by a chosen group of his fellow countrymen.

Archbishop Daeger celebrated the first Mass in the Basilica of the Transfiguration on April 27 and gave Holy Communion to his pilgrims. The solemn consecration Order of St. Francis.

Returning to Rome, the pilgrims visited the principal sacred places and monuments, and on Sunday, May 25, early in the morning assisted at the Pope's Mass and received Communion from his hands. AUDIENCE WITH POPE

The same day, at 1 o'clock, all were received in solemn audience in the Consistorial Salon.

the Consistorial Salon.

The pilgrims were placed around the salon, and near the throne were Archbishop Daeger, Monsignor Ryan of Pittsburgh, Father Claude Mindorff, a Franciscan, Cavalier Beccari and several more ecclessions at the end of the salon, in iastics. At the end of the salon, in front of the throne, were three Indian girls of the Osage tribe of Oklahoma, in their native costumes with eagle feathers in their hair, and three Knights of the Holy Sepulchre, of Washington, D. C., in their white uniforms. The Pope gave his hand to all the pilgrims to kiss, speaking personally to nearly every one with paternal affection. When asked about their organization.
After ascending the throne, His Holiness listened to a short address in Italian by Archbishop Daeger, then replied as follows:

THE POPE'S ADDRESS Welcome, most beloved children, welcome to your Father's house! You, as good children, did not wish to close your pilgrimage without coming to see your common Father, without visiting him and asking him for his blessing. You wished to let him share, so to speak, in those holy joys with which the Lord We say "holy visits" because there were two visits, two pilgrimages, two series of Holy Places—the visit to the Holy Land and the visit to Rome, the Holy Places of Palestine and the Holy Places o

With the happy intuition of faith, our Lord Jesus Christ: In the Holy Places of Palestine, with all those monuments still drenched, as it were, with His Precious Blood, that He would found His Church, in the presence of the ever-living successor of the first Vicar of Jesus Christ—St. Peter, the first Pope;

the last Pope, the last Peter. All this you have seen and felt in your hearts. And now, after these glorious visions and experiafter you yourselves traveled the same roads which our beloved Saviour chose to travel, after you yourselves have made that journey which the faith and the blessing of the Gospel first made in the person of Peter, when he came from Jerusalem to Rome and laid in Rome, the corner-stone and the immortal center of the Church of Jesus Christ—after all this, we say, you will now return to your homes, you will again scatter throughout the vast terri-tory of your United States.

Go back, then, to your country as apostles of the love of Jesus Christ our Redeemer, full of gratitude which has been quickened to which has been quickened to greater life by seeing, as it were, His Precious Blood still flowing in the places which witnessed His mortal life. Return to your country as apostles of love of our holy Mother, the Catholic, Apostolic, Roman Church, of love toward the vicar of Jesus Christ, the successor of St. Peter, of that love which has led you to Rome, to the dwelling place of your common Father.

Father. We bless you, with all our heart. We thank you for the holy resolu-tions which this pilgrimage has inspired in your hearts. We bless you, and desire that this blessing descend not only upon you your-selves, but also upon your homes and your families, your relatives and friends, your children, your parents, your sick and invalids. For we desire that our benediction carry everywhere the graces and the blessing of God, and especially where it is most needed, comfort money collected in America. It was where it is most needed, comfort fitting, therefore, that the first and Christian patience in affliction. MESSAGE TO AMERICA

Returning to your homes, bring to all the blessings of your Father, and tell them what I have told you. Tell them all that the common Father has wished to bless, in your persons, all those near and dear to you have a large to your persons. you, and also your whole country. Repeat everywhere in those United pilgrims. The solemn consecration of the basilica took place June 8, with Cardinal Georgi, Legate a latere, as the consecrator.

The day after the American pilgrims left Palestine, they visited Egypt, and May 16 they were in Rome. The next day they made a flying trip to Assisi by special train. Archbishop Daeger celebrated Mass in the Basilica of the Seraphic Patriarch, and afterward in the small Church of the Portiuncula, Thirty-five pilgrims enrolled in the Order of St. Francis.

Repeat everywhere in those United States, which you so well represent, that the Pope loves that great country with particular affection, and that he not only loves it in words, but has also sought to show his love in deeds of which the whole world has understood the meaning, and that, as he loves your country, so he loves also its citizens as his dearly beloved children.

With our blessing, may also the blessing of heaven descend upon all of you and upon the whole United States.

PILGRIMS LEAVE ROME

Father Mindorff repeated the Holy Father's words immediately after him in English. When the pilgrims descended into the Cortile of Dan Damaso, they were photographed in a large group by the pontifical photographer, Cavalier Felice. They remained in Rome a few days longer, and May 29 left Naples for the United States.

LOURDES

DOCTOR ADMITS CURE OF MAN

WITH SHORTENED LEG London, Eng.-Tom Hoy's doctor told him he was incurable. And yet when Tom set out for Lourdes with the National pilgrimage he refused to have his high medical boot repaired, remarking "I shall Hoy's case has evoked much inone with paternal affection. When he came to the Indian girls, he observed them with interest and When he was fifteen years of age he dasked about their tribe and the Catholics it contains. It was the first time American Indians had deprived of all movement in the hip, appeared in the presence of the Pope in the costume of their race. The Pope also expressed interest in the Knights from Washington, and asked about their organization.

After ascending the throne History appears a present in the hip, and one leg was shortened by nearly two inches. Three operations and treatment by specialists did no good, and for eleven years Tom Hoy could not even lace his own shoes.

He went to Lourdes as a helpless cripple. On the way back he looked after his own baggage and even

His medical man, Dr. W. P. of the neck of the femur on the right side.

'When the patient came under my care fifteen months ago," he says, "I concluded, in view of the history of the case, that nothing could be done, medically or surgicalhas filled your hearts and souls in your holy visits to the Holy Places. parture, and found nothing in his condition to lead me to alter my stretcher cases," he says, "when a thought flashed through my mind you felt that in both holy places that I was cured. From that there still survives the presence of moment everything went well and I was able to assist in carrying stretcher and chair cases and luggage aboard."

cal point of view to be called a cure. However, I came to the conclusion that the hip joint was completely

LOSING GROUND

New York. -" Diagnosing the Rural Church, a report of exhaustive investigations carried out by the Institute of Social and Religious Research here presents the con-clusion that the Protestant churches are losing ground in rural communities, long supposed to be their strong hold. The report declares that most of the methods used by denomi-national leaders in attempts to ascertain the influence and strength of the various churches are unreliable and inaccurate. It is recommended that either the Federa Council of Churches or the Federa Government, in connection with its Right Rev. Sir: next religious census, call a confernext religious census, call a conference for the purpose of attempting a standardization of local church records.

Windsor County, Vermont, was selected by the investigators as a field for intensive research into the problems of membership and attendance figures. It was found that the proportion of Protestant church members had remained constant in relation to the total population since 88. During that same period, however, the average attendance at Sunday services had dropped from

B.456 to 1,843, or a loss of 47% "But," says the report, figure does not take into considera-tion the increase in the Protestant ance over the last thirty-three years (1913), is 52%. In other words, attendance (1919), at Church is only half that of a truths generation ago.

"No matter how much one may explain away the decline in attendance as a result of the new age in which we live, certainly it is important for abused learning and the Holy See important for church leaders to ow that even though the proportion of members throughout the country is increasing, people may be growing more and more apathetic to the church's services. Should the decline continue in Windsor county at its present rate, it is only a question of a few decades before the church will become a deserted institution." institution.

The Institution of Social and Religious Research is organized for the purpose of applying scientific methods to the study of social and religious problems. Its governing board is composed of: Dr. John R. Mott, chairman; Ernest T. Burton, secretary; Raymond B. Fosdick, treasurer; James L. Barton, W. H. P. Faunce, and Kenyon L. Butterfield, Galen M. Fisher is Executive Secretary.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday, July 13.—St. Eugenius, Bishop of Carthage, refused to obey the order of King Huneric that he exclude the Vandals, some of whom were Catholics, from the Church. led to a persecution of the Catholics. Eugenius was banished but was recalled by Huneric's successor. Later, he was again banished and died in exile in 505.

Monday, July 14.—St. Bonaven-ture, known as the "Seraphic Gregory X. appointed him Cardinal Bishop of Albano. He died during the Council of Lyons after his eloquence had won the Greeks to the Catholic Union.

Tuesday, July 15 .- St. Henry, Emperor, moved by a vision, prepared for death at the end of six years. When that period had elapsed, Henry, then Duke of Bavaria, was elected Emperor. He after his own baggage and even helped to carry a sick pilgrim on a devoted the resources of his Empire to the honor of God and the service securely invested, and only the of the Church. In 1022 Henry lay on his bed of death. He gave back Fogarty, confirms the shortening of to her parents his wife St. Cune-the limb, as the result of a fracture gunda, who had lived in a state of virginity.

Wednesday, July 16.—St. Simon Stock, was born in the county of Kent, England. He lived as a hermit in a hollow tree for twenty years. Later, entering the order of Our Lady of Mount Carmel he was chosen Prior-General. He died at Bordeaux in 1265.

Thursday, July 17.—St. Alexius, the son of noble Roman parents, lived as a mendicant in his father's house for seventeen years, having returned to Rome as a beggar unrecognized by relatives or friends. Only after his death was his identity revealed. He died early in the fifth century.
Friday, July 18.—St. Camillus of Lellis, at the age of nineteen took service with his father, an Italian "I met him at the station on his return," says Dr. Fogarty, "and was very much surprised to see him walking in the normal fashion and bending to pick up his own luggers."

service with his father, an Italian noble, against the Turks and after four years campaigning found himself, through his violent temper, reckless habits, and inveterate passion for gambling a discrete that sky and in that atmosphere which still seem to vibrate with His voice; and again, in the Holy Places of Rome, in the presence of the Holy Places. The interested powers, because of their rivalry, about the formation of yet been able to agree the state of the st and formed the community of the Servants of the Sick which was confirmed in 1586 by the Pope. He died in 1614.

Saturday, July 19.-St. Vincent de Paul, who was born in 1576, devoted his life to the care of the his renegade master and with him escaped to France. The Saint was made Chaplain-General of the galleys of France where his charity brought hope into those prisons where only despair had reigned before.

BISHOP MACDONALD

It is known that certain charges were laid before the S. Consistorial Congregation in Rome against the former Bishop of Victoria. Recent-ly he applied to and obtained from the Congregation in question the following declaration:

Sacra Congregatio Consistorialis, Rome, May 2nd, 1924.

nothing can be inferred from your relations with this S. Congregation against your orthodoxy, piety or moral rectitude; and that therefore you are free to accept invitations of Bishops to perform any episcopal functions.

Fraternally yours,

C. CARDINAL DE LAI,

Secretary.

The books published by Bishop MacDonald had meanwhile been ex-amined by two Consultors of the Sacred Consistorial Congregation, who brought in the following report

"this upon them:
upon them:
"The Symbol in Sermons" (1903). "The Symbol in Sermons (1903), "The Symbol of the Apostles" (1903), "The Sacrifice of the Mass" (1905), three volumes of "Religious Questions of the Day" (1905)-(1906) defend and explain many of the faith to cultured people in a clear, elegant, and wholly accurate fashion. The the Church and the Holy See (especially in sermons 16 to 21 on the tenth article of the Creed, pp. 142-188), much learning and a tendency altogether conservative. This appears especially where Mgr. MacDonald maintains, against modern writers, that the Apostles were the real authors of the Creed, and sets forth, against votaries of and sets forth, against votaries of the higher criticism, the true con-ception of the divine inspiration of Scripture, its immunity from error, and the authenticity of the Holy House of Loreto. These books must undoubtedly have done much good in America."

BISHOP TO SAY MASS AT BOY SCOUTS' CAMP

London Free Press, July 2 R. M. Burns, chairman of the London Roman Catholic Boy Scouts' camp, at Davenport Heights, Port

Bruce, is arranging a great program for the lads who will go under canvas there this month. On Sunday, July 18, Bishop Fallon will attend, and at 9.30 in the morning will say Mass, at which all the scouts will receive Communion.

The clergy of the diocese have been invited to visit the camp between July 10 and 19. The camp committee comprises.
St. Peter's—Rev. Monsignor P. J.
St. Peter's—Rev. M. Pocock, R. M.

McKeon, Philip Pocock, R. M. Burns, T. Quigley. St. Michael's—Rev. Father E. L. Tierney, C. Griffin, F. Walsh, T. Hayes.
St. Martin's—Rev. Father D. Forster, J. J. McHale, Col. W. G. Coles, A. Orendorff.

BURSES

FOR EDUCATION OF PRIESTS FOR CHINESE MISSIONS

What is a Burse?. A Burse or Free Scholarship is the amount of $5,000, the annual interest of which will perpetually support a student, till he becomes a Priest and Missionannual interest is spent for the training and education of a candidate for the priesthood. When one student has reached his goal, another takes his place, and thus all who are contributing towards the Burse Fund will be helping to make Missionery Priest long after. make Missionary Priests long after they have been laid to rest. Imagine how much good can be done by one priest and missionary! Let everyone, therefore, according to his means contribute to such a meritorious work. Send your contri-butions to Father Fraser care of the CATHOLIC RECORD. QUEEN OF APOSILES BURSM Previously acknowledged $3,056 13 Joseph Lennon, Montreal, 10 00 C. A. S. McGuire, B. C Friend from Newcastle

ST. ANTHONY'S BURSE Previously acknowledged $1.697 45

1 00

C. A. S. McGuire, B. C ...

BLESSED SACRAMENT BURSE Previously acknowledged $514 80

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER BUESE Previously acknowledged $405 80 MOLY NAME OF JESUS BURSE

Previously acknowledged $881 25 HOLY BOULS BURSE Previously acknowledged $1,832 89

LITTLE FLOWER BURSE Previously acknowledged $1,239 19 Friend, Perth.....

SACRED HEART LEAGUE BURSE Previously acknowledged $3,299 70 C. A. S. McGuire, B. C.... 50 00 Mary A. Sullivan, St. 5 00 M. L. Maher, Blenheim... 1 00

INTOLERANCE SIGN OF BARBARISM

Philadelphia, Pa.—Persistent in-tolerance toward a race, a color or a creed is essentially barbaric, and the activities of the Ku Klux Klan are both unpatriotic and cowardly, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, declared in a letter to the Negro National Educational Congress, which held its sessions here.

Dr. Butler condemned all those who oppose racial, color or religious groups simply because they them-selves do not believe in them. He wrote:

'Those who would advance civilization must labor in season and out of season to resist and check that persecuting tendency, which is a mark of barbarism, and which manifests itself now in population over the last generation, which was 11%. In proportion, therefore, to the Protestant population the decline in church attendlynching, now in prohibition and now in the cowardly and unpatriotic

Become A Bondholder

Ontario Loan Accumulative Debentures

afford to those of small means a splendid opportunity to become Bondholders and obtain the good rate of 5½% instead of receiving only 3% or 31/2% on their savings.

$76.24 Invested in these high-class attractive bonds at 51/2% Will Yield $100 in 5 Years' Time (Interest Compounded on Interest, as well as Principal) Other Amounts so Invested Will Give Proportionate Yields.

Ask for our Folder giving full particulars, or write us and it will be mailed to you.

The Ontario Loan & Debenture Co.

Dundas Street and Market Lane 54 Years of Service

FORMER SWISS PREMIER SEES LOURDES CURES FORMALLY ATTESTED

Paris, France.—A dispatch from Lourdes announces that M. Motta, former president of the Swiss Republic, who came to Lourdes with the pilgrimage from Fribourg, was present at the Bureau of Medical Constations when five miraculous cures which took place during the past few weeks were proclaimed by the physicians.

Four of the beneficiaries of these cures were afflicted with Potts disease. They are: Mademoiselle Angele Ducroit, of Lons-le Saunier in the Lurren proposition. the Jura mountains; Madame in the Jura mountains; Madame Marie Hamon, twenty-seven years old, of Baulon, department of Ille et Vilaine, the mother of three children; Paul Merat, fourteen years of age, from Clermont-Ferrand and Mademoiselle Eugene Dufeil, twentyone years old, a seamstress from Lambelin (Ille et Vilaine.) The The fifth cure was that of a member of the Belgian pilgrimage, Albert Gerard, thirty-one years old, from Frasnes-les-Couvain. He had been ill since 1917 as the result of being struck with the butt of a rifle, he was paralysed, and the X-ray showed a tubercular deterioration of the ver the movement of the vertebral column has been supple and free from pain. His extraordinary cure has been certified by three Belgian doctors.

This series of cures is one of the most remarkable which has ever taken place.

GERMAN CHRISTIAN ART IS REVIVED

By Rev. Dr. Wilhelm Faron von Capitan (Cologne Correspondent, N. C. W. C.) Cologne, May 26.-The German ciety for Christian Art, almost stifled during the War and the troublous times immediately after the War, has just issued a report showing that it is rapidly regaining its strength and actively continuing its pious work. Established in Munich a dozen years or so before the War, the Society took for its object the acquainting of the common people with the masterpieces of the great Christian painters and sculptors. To make the work thoroughly popular, it undertook to publish biographies of famous German and foreign painters and sculptors in editions scientifically accurate but written in plain language and priced very moderately. The War and the money inflation

"Every liberal will wage war on this spirit of persecution until a hard blow to the endeavor. But sound and truly liberal education drives it from the human heart." and depreciation afterward were a hard blow to the endeavor. But the report just issued shows that while in January, 1923, the Society had a membership of only 5,883, in January, 1924, the membership was 7,874, and in April, 1924, it was 8,000. Recently the thirty-second publication of masterpieces of old and modern masters at moderate price was made.

> THE CATHOLIC CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

Previously acknowledged $7,908 37 Joseph Lennon, Montreal

Pupils of the Congrega-tion of Notre Dame, Hampton .. 10 00 MASS INTENTIONS se of soul of Mrs. A. McD., Glendale...... F. Newell, Los 2 00 P

F. Angeles.. 5 00 Mary de la Plante, Montreal. 2 00 Contributions through this office should be addressed:

EXTENSION CATHOLIC RECORD OFFICE,

June - July Investments

For those desiring to build up securities, we suggest the fol-lowing selections from our cur-ent investment list : market Ontario . Saskatchewan 5.20% Alberta 5.20% British Columbia 5.35% Sault Ste. Marie 5.40% Fort William Victoria.... 5.50% Edmonton 6.10% Howard Smith Paper Mills Ltd.

We invite your orders or inquir ies by telephone or telegraph in connection with any stocks, bonds or other sec

Copy of June - July list on request

A-E-AMES & CO MONTREAL TORONTO NEW YORK VICTORIA, B.C. CHICAGO, ILL

Even in the British Isles, critical as the public is from long association with the best instruments and artists of the world, Sherlock-Manning Pianos have won approval and are to be found in many homes throughout the countryside.

SHERLOCK-MANNING

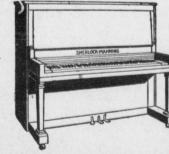

20* Century Piano

The Piano worthy of your Home* is primarily a Canadian Piano for Canadian homes. That it has won such universal fame is but one reason why it should be your piano.

Sherlock-Manning Piano Company

LONDON CANADA

FIVE MINUTE SERMON

BY REV. WILLIAM DEMOUY, D. D. FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER

PENTECOST LOVE OF OUR NEIGHBOR

Among the commandments given us by God, that of loving Himself and our neighbor is the greatest. It is easy to fulfill the first part of this commandment, since God is so good and confers only favors upon us; but the second part is not so easy of fulfillment. Our neighbor is not always our brother in the pure sense of the word A brother loves a brother, cares for him, and loves a brother, cares for him, and helps him willingly when needed. A neighbor does not always so act. He remains our neighbor, but it is often contrary to our feelings and persuasions to consider him a brother. It would seem that quite the opposite is true. However, God's law is that we consider every man our brother, as God considers every one His child. And as God's children are often rebellious and show Him no love, yet He does not deprive them of their relationship to Him, so when our neighbor acts in a manner unbecoming a brother, in a manner unbecoming a brother. we should not, for that reason, alienate him. He is constituted our brother before God by very creation, and nothing can loosen the tie that binds us together.

But it may seem strange that God requires that we love our neighbor on all occasions, and, even when he renders himself unworthy, that we treat him as a brother. If we become angry with him, we are placed thereby in danger of the judgment. It appears even more contrary to reason's dictates, when we take into consideration the fact we take into consideration the fact that if our neighbor dies deprived of God's grace, he is banished from His sight forever. The heavenly Father can not fail to be angry, in a certain sense, with the obstinate sinner, and with him who constantly defies God even to the extent of denying His existence. It would seem impossible that His attitude toward such could be otherwise. We feel inclined to consider it contrary to the laws of justice, if God does not show anger toward a sinful, defiant man.

However, when we look into things from a lofty standpoint and judge according to higher justice than we know to exist among men, then we see the eternal Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. God does not show His anger on earth. If He did, contemplate what would be the fate of many a pros-perous sinner today. The blas-phemer would not be standing on the platform uttering his threats, neither would the robber of the poor be enjoying the luxuries of his mansion and basking in the sunshine of his pleasures. The earth long ago would have swallowed up the defamer, the caluminator, the podler of wishedness in its rest. pedler of wickedness in its worst forms. God still calls these sinners forms. God still calls these sinhers. His sons and is treating them as such. They may be placed far from our class, far below us in virtue, absolutely bereft of all honor—yet they are our brothers, and God says we must ever consider and treat them as such. We are asked to do much less than God does Him-self. The injuries to us are far less than His own. And we must imitate God in this as in other strange command, and see a reason for it. God wishes us to aim at Certainly it is more perfect to treat every man as a brother than otherwise. It is also more according to reason that we should do so. We must realize that, if a punishment is to be meted out to the unjust, it is God who will render it to them, Should we at every turn wish to give man what may be due him at the moment, we would be like the ferocious beasts. In order to satisfy their appetites, these animals leap upon man, tear him to pieces, and devour him. They also instinctively consider man their enemy, and make an effort to disable him so as to guard their own safety. When we pounce upon our enemies or upon sinners, we do it in order to satisfy a disordered spiritual appetite within us. When we try by unjust means to silence them or disable them, then to a great extent we are acting from selfish motives, and inflicting injuries upon people over whom we have no authority. Reason itself should guide us to act differently. Even though these unfortunate men might deserve the punishment we could inflict upon them, it is not our duty even to judge them, much less to punish them. As long as they live, they are our brothers, and as such we are bound to treat them.

But why, we may ask again, has God planned that our behavior toward all other men be as brothers toward brothers? He has done it, we may say, because this earth is a place in which man is to be purified. Justice is not to be done here.

can not expect God to transform us.

Love for our neighbor must occupy our whole heart, no matter if our neighbor be unworthy of it. If God finds him unworthy, then he will suffer, not we; and we will not have our neighbor before our eyes forever. He will be placed far from us, so that we may love and be loved by others who are like ourselves. This will happen when God will render to every man according to his works, which will be not now, but on the judgment day. So our duty is to render our hearts so that they will love all, and fit them to be loved by all who are rightly to be loved by all who are rightly disposed. Some will not love us. It is particularly regarding these that God warns us. We must be careful lest we be ang with this class among our brothers, espec-

The second part of this commandment is difficult because it is opposed to our feelings, and because of the repulsiveness of him who makes himself our enemy, with no blame on our side. However, because it is difficult, it has great power to perfect us if we observe it. Our disordered nature, of which our hearts are a part, needs this our hearts are a part, needs this discipline. We do not condone evil by loving our neighbor who commits it, more than does God when He allows a man to live on in sin. We must learn not to consider another's must learn not to consider another's demerits, but to pay attention to the merits that we should on all occasions and at all times gain for ourselves. To beautify our souls should be our principal aim. This is done by elevating ourselves above everything lowly—in a word, to love what God loves and commendates. what God loves and commands us to love, no matter how many reasons may appear to persuade us to the contrary.

UNCHRISTIAN TACTICS

A captious critic of things Caththat he never experienced any such colic, who for present purposes shall be nameless, is reported to have taken the Church to task for her treatment of the Catholics of Mexico. If he was correctly quoted in the papers have considered that the sentiments while in the papers, he was guilty of making the same amazing and ridiculous error that has been a thousand times disproved and a million times rejected by thinking men. For according to printed reports he virtually accused the Catholic Church of keeping people in ignor-His charge is that the priests in Mexico are keeping the Bible from the common people, with the result that in his overdrawn statement, a "Bibleless cross" is pressing that people into superstition and darkness, and that "civilization has declined and disappeared right under the shadow of the vast church that lifts the Cross high against the sky.'

This smacks very much of an attempt to resurrect the exploded calumnies about the so-called 'Dark Ages" and apply them to Mexico. Poor Mexico has had her troubles. Religious persecution and confiscation of Church property have made her a distressful country. Late news from Mexico is anything but encouraging. Propagandists and proselytizers are spreading reports that the "Church" is being protected that the "Church" is being protected and encouraged. But by the "Church" they do not mean the Church of the Mexican people but the non-Catholic missions, which the non-Catholic missions. But we can go further into this the non-Catholic missions. have entered Mexico to rob Catholic peons of their faith.

They must have some excuse to offer for their present activity; hence this absurd charge from one returned proselytizer that the Catholic Church is keeping the Mexicans in darkness, The Catholic Church never kept any people in darkness, never prohibited the reading of the Bible, never retarded the progress of civilization. Instead the Catholic Church has been the enlightener of nations, has encouraged the reading of the Bible, and has been the greatest civilizing force that the world has ever known.

The Church, which this critic condemns in Mexico, is the same Church which Gladstone, non-Catholic though he was, was fair enough to admit, "has marched for fifteen hundred years at the head of human civilization and behavior fifteen hundred years at the head of human civilization, and has driven harnessed to its chariot, as the horses of a triumphal car, the chief intellectual and material forces of the world. Its learning has been the learning of the world, its art the art of the world, its genius the genius of the world, its greatness, glory, grandeur, and majesty have been almost all in these respects the world has had to boast of."

The French historian Guizot.

The French historian Guizot, another non-Catholic observer, who wrote the History of Civilization, was not afraid to admit that the influence of the Catholic Church "on modern civilization has been imtoward all other men be as brothers toward brothers? He has done it, we may say, because this earth is a place in which man is to be purified. Justice is not to be done here. Were it to be, its course would have been started long ago. On earth every man is given sufficient chance to save his soul. He must be allowed this chance unmolested, even to save his soul. He must be allowed this chance unmolested, even though during a certain period or even during his whole life, he lives in sin. Why any man is a sinner for a time or always, we do not know. God alone sees the cause; and only He can fix the sinner's punishment and set the time for its infliction. Now, heaven will be the reward of the just, and in heaven can be only the purest love of brother for brother. If we have not loved our brethren while on earth, even though in other respects our lives may have been just, we can not expect God to transform us.

Love for our neighbor must occupy of that country, they will learn of the work the Catholic Church has our whole heart no matter if our does no evilving and educating a but they are not of the Church's making. Such ill advised attacks on the faith of the Mexican people will do nothing to cure them. But perhaps it will open the eyes of many in this country to the unfair. many in this country to the unfair tactics resorted to by some overzealous proselytizers to advance their cause, tactics that are as un-Christian as they are unAmerican.

THE REAL PRESENCE IN OUR CHURCHES

That at the real, living, breathing influence of the Divine Presence is strongly felt by those not of the Faith, is given abundant proof in the following examples, and thousands of other examples, which could be quoted from all over the world: The late Father Mason, a world: The late Fatner mason, a holy devout priest, was in former years a great Methodist preacher. Once, in a sermon before his congregation, he told how he was drawn to the Catholic faith. Every time he entered a Catholic Church or chapel, he was made to feel that mysterious something that filled him with deep emotion and respect, nor did he know the reason therefor. Something impelled him to kneel with quiet and respectful demeanor, while he tried to imagine why it was that he never experienced any such convinced that the sentiments while in churches of that faith, were inspired by the actual presence of God. Therefore he embraced the Catholic Faith.

HOW A BARONESS WAS CONVERTED The Baroness K., well known for her great talents, piety, and exten-sive and valuable writings, was a Protestant, very strongly prejudiced against the Catholic Faith. During a visit to Rome, she entered a Cathchurch, where the Blessed Sacrament was exposed all day for the veneration of the Faithful. She saw a multitude of people quietly kneeling, with eyes devoutly fixed upon the monstrance, but could not understand what it was that so drew their attention. Many candles were burning upon the altar, and the Baroness wondered if the people were praying to them, which she thought very foolish indeed. How-ever, against her will, it seemed, she was impelled to kneel and pray, she hardly knew to what or whom. Thereafter, as if some unseen power drove her on, she was drawn to visit the church again and again, without being able to undertail went to a priest and told him her story, shedding tears at the thought of the whole year wasted, during which she might have been enjoying the fruits of the Blessed Sacrament, had she known of It.

She was received into the Catho woman, she was changed into a devout servant of God. When in church, if she could not communicate herself, she strove to kneel near someone who had received the Divine Bread, feeling great joy and sweet-ness in her soul that she was permitted to be so near Him.—(Leo, No. 31, 1885.)

HOW THE BISHOP UNCONSCIOUSLY CONVERTED A WOMAN

Bishop Mermillod relates how, during his vicariate at Geneva, he unknowingly converted a Protestant lady by an act of adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. It was his custom, each evening, to perform his devotions in the church, before the tabernacle; he also tended the sanctuary lamp, saw the doors were safely locked, and made sure that no one was hidden in the church, for no one was hidden in the church, for it was a time when many robbers were abroad. Having attended to all these tasks, he would kneel upon the altar steps, and remain awhile with bowed head, deeply absorbed in prayer. Having finished, he would kiss the ground in token of deepest respect to the most Holy Sacrament, and then go home. One night as he was leaving the church, the Blessed Sacrament, as before the people, so made a resolution, that if your actions coincided with your words, I would become a Catholic. So I came here tonight, hid in the confessional, and watched you. I believe. Please receive me into your Faith."

She became one of the most

She became one of the most fervent Catholics of Geneva.—(Frbg. Kirchenbl. No. 18, 1879.)

and promote hair growth.

Sample Each Free by Mail. Address Car Depot: "Cuticura, P. O. Box 2616, Mon

Try our new Shaving Stick.

capacity for taking pains, so charity calls for infinite patience. 200 Note Sheets

As genius consists in an infinite

100 ENVELOPES TO MATCH, PRINTED for $ and MAILED POSTPAID TO YOU.

Parker's Printing Press 622-6 Gerrard St. East, Toronto

Manufactured

London Marble & Granite Co.

493-495 Richmond St

London, Ont.

Better Cooks use Bourit

STAMPED LITURGICAL CANDLES

663% 60% 51% 331/3% 100% PURA CERA APIS

Those stamped Candles are manufactured with 100% pure analyzed swax. We hold ourselves morally responsible of the quality of these

Sold by all dealers of Church Ornaments in Ontario Also sold Directly from Montreal

F. Baillargeon Limited 865 Craig St. East

Interlocking Tile

Large Hollow Brick of patented design equivalent in size to six common Bricks. Laid like a Brick on horizontal Beds of mortar yielding maximum economy and thirty per cent. more insulation than any other type of masonry wall.

Used with eminent saving to back up the face Brick and for interior partitions in St. Mary's Hospital, Kitchener.

"At your Service"

Interlocking Tile Co. 32 Toronto St. Toronto

Kitchen Equipment

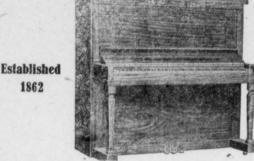

FOR HOSPITALS, INSTITUTIONS, HOTELS CLUBS and RESTAURANTS

ICE CREAM MACHINERY, BAKERS and Confectioners' Supplies.

Laundry Stoves and Dryers Send for Illustrated Catalogue No. 4

Geo. Sparrow & Co. 119 CHURCH ST.

WEBER

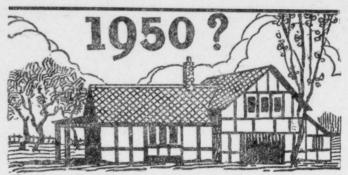

Pianos AND Player

Pianos

Write for Descriptive Booklet

The Weber Piano Company, Limited KINGSTON, ONT.

Che Test of Time

What will your roof look in 1950?

Will it be as attractive as when it was laid? How much will it have cost you to keep it in repair?

¶ If it is ASBESTOSLATE—Rigid Asbestos Shingles—your repair bill will have been "NIL" and it will still be artistic and absolutely weather proof.

ASBESTOSLATE Rigid Shingles are made from Nature's indestructible materials-Cement and Asbestos-bonded together under immense hydraulic pressure. Time only serves to toughen and harden them. Roof with ASBESTOSLATE—and forget your roof.

¶ You'll find a pleasing variety of shades, styles and sizes to choose from. They'll harmonize with all types of buildings.

Use LINABESTOS—the fireproof wall board—for interiors. Samples of both and descriptive matter on request.

Sole Canadian Manufacturers

ASBESTOS MANUFACTURING CO.

Samples and quotations sent promptly upon application. Special attention given to requirements of institutions.

Kearney Brothers, Limited TEA - COFFEE. IMPORTERS and SPECIALISTS

33 St. Peter Street Established 1874

Toronto Brick Company

60 VICTORIA ST., TORONTO

Telephone Main 3067 PLANTS - SWANSEA, YORK, MILTON, COBOCONK GREENWOOD AVE., TORONTO

Manufacturers of

The Famous John Price Stock Brick and Pressed and Rough Textured Bricks In all Colors for Every Purpose

Samples forwarded on request

CHATS WITH YOUNG MEN

JESUS

Jesus, to Thee from ways of sin and sadness, Trusting we turn for rest amid the strife;

Thou, Thou, alone canst give true peace and gladness, Thou art alone the Way, the Truth, the Life.

Thou art the Truth, dear Lord, Thy teaching only True light and wisdom can to us impart; Thou, only Thou, canst keep the mind from error, Strengthening the will, and gently sway the heart.

Lord, be to us all that Thou hast promised; Be Thou our guide to shun the paths of sin;
Sow in our souls Thy sweet and accorded him.—Le Couteulx Leader.

Fill us with strength eternal life -J. G. HACKER, S. J.

EASY TO BARK

Fault finding is an easy job and thousands of people are working at it without pay. It takes an effort to accomplish things worth while. One writer illustrates it this way:

'A dog hitched to a lawn-mo stopped to bark at a passerby. The boy who was guiding the lawn-mower said. "Don't mind the dog; he is just barking for an excuse to It is easier to bark than to pull the machine

It is easier to be critical than It is easier to hinder than to help. Easier to destroy reputa-tion than to construct character. Anybody can gamble, criticize or censure, but it takes a big man to go on working faithfully at a constructive task.—The Tablet.

There is a word which cannot be said too often to every Christian whom God has destined to live, converse, and labor in the society of his fellow-creatures: he induly of his fellow-creatures: be indul-gent. Yes be indulgent; it is necessary for others, and it is necessary for your own sake. Forget the little troubles that others may cause you; keep up no resentment for the inconsiderate or unfavorable words that may be said about you; excuse the mistakes and awkward blunders of which you are the victim; always make out good intentions for those who have done you any wrong by imprudent acts or speeches; in a word, smile at everything, show a pleasant face on all occasions, maintain an iron all occasions, maintain an inex-haustible fund of goodness, pati-ence, and gentleness. Thus ence, and gentleness. Thus you will be at peace with all your are long. brethren; your love for them will suffer on alteration, and their love for you will increase day by day. But, above all, you will practise in an excellent manner Christian charity, which is impossible without this toleration and indulgence at every instant.—Russell, "The Art of Being Happy.'

FABRE'S ONLY LESSON

When the great entomologist Jean Henri Fabre was a young man he earned his living as an instructor physics and chemistry at the College of Ajaccio. But not yet had he found his true calling, as Mr. Percy F. Bicknell relates in to honor the Most Precious Blood of the Human Side of Fabre, nor was the God-man, Jesus Christ. Ninethe further that it until after he was teen hundred years have passed thirty years old.

visiting Corsica for the purpose of cataloging the plants of the island, fired him with added zeal for botanical research, and the ento-hastily thrusting two needles each into a bit of vine shoot, he showed his breathlessly-attentive young host the anatomy of a snail; he dissected the mollusk in a deep plate filled with water. One by the explained the express that dispersion which pierced that sacred brain; or the explained the express that dispersion was to wait the was the filled was the filled forgotten lesson in natural history

I ever received in all my life."
—Youth's Companion.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Abraham Lincoln is looked upon by all Americans as one of the greatest men our country has produced. He was born in a rude log cabin in the midst of the woods of the woods of the midst of the woods of the woods of the midst of the salvation of the human race. That Blood which once the midst of the woods of the midst of the woods of the midst of the midst of the woods of the midst of the m

He studied by fire light; he used a shovel and charred stick in place of mot measure the love of God by his a shovel and charred stick in place of paper and pencil. Often he had to walk miles to secure a book. Infinite, Eternal. He empties Himself of His love by draining the last time studying and reading. During does the picture above represent? This is really too easy to be a puzzle, so I'll ask another question. There are many fish in the picture, but can you find a shark?

famous in a small locality. He grew strong and energetic, his brain keeping pace with his body.

An admirable trait of Lincoln was his innate honesty. He once walked three miles to return a penny which belonged to a poor woman and another time walked several miles to return four-pence which he over-charged while clerk

the Life.

Thou art the Way, dear Lord, to Thee for guidance
From ways of sorrow and of death we flee;
Seeking the Father, vainly shall we seek Him,
Unless our steps are guided on by Thee.

Which he over-charged while clerk in a country store.

He was appointed postmaster and proved so reliable and honest that he was soon promoted. He became a lawyer and attained great success. The next step toward fame was a position as Senator of his State. At last he was made President of the United States, the greatest honor the people can greatest honor the people can bestow. Almost his first act was to free the slaves and down south, every year, Emancipation Day is celebrated with great rejoicings and clamorous praises of Lincoln.

As a mighty true and steadfast man, who clung with a firm, unweakening clasp to his ideals and bore on his shoulders the sorrow of a Civil War, Abraham Lincoln stands out as a great hero, worthy

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS SHOWING RESPECT TO OLD

PEOPLE

For, oh, it meant so much to her to

This smiling boy so thoughtful of her years, And ere I passed her eyes were filled with tears.

I know how overjoyed she must have been, I thought as she thought—that our coming men, To fill life's higher stations, shall some day

Be found to be such as had passed our wav.

I followed after him with hurried

he was proud for something he had won, Some little feat that he had tried and done.

when his swinging arms were Tablet.

Now, little children, when you chance to meet

Some poor old man or woman on the street, Bow gently to them-prove to them you know

What makes their steps unsteady and so slow; Then they'll be happy and shall bless the day They met you children trooping down the way.

THE PRECIOUS BLOOD

thirty years old.

A French botanist from Avignon, on Olivet, in the prætorium of the mologist Moquin-Tandon, professor to Corsica at the same time, kindled his enthusiasm for the study of insects. On the eve of his departure the professor remarked:

"Year resistance of the ento-blood nas been daily on our altars purifying and sanctifying mankind in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The mind travels back with tenderness to that day when there was offered, not the blood of goats or of calves, but the immaculate Blood of Him Who here our information and "You are interested in shells; of Him Who bore our infirmities and this is something, but it is not enough. You must study animal for the sins of the world. Soaking life. I will show you how to go about it." for the sins of the world. Soaking the very earth of Olivet on that Taking a pair of scissors from Madame Fabre's sewing basket and the knots and leashes and covering the post to which He was tied in the one he explained the organs thus displayed.

"And that," says Fabre, "was the one and only and never-to-beforgotten lesson in natural history I ever received in all my life."

Which pierced that sacred brain, dropping to the pavement in front of Pilate's palace and brightening each stone in the way that leads to Calvary; turning to a crimson hue that Cross and the Body of the Victim Who hung half-dead upon it; Jesus Christ, the Son of the Most High God, shed His Blood and shed

"Why all?" one may ask. In those days all schooling had to be paid for, and Abraham's father was poor in worldly things. Young Lincoln had a keen desire for knowledge and a sharp quick mind.

"Why all?" one may ask. "Was not one drop sufficient to satisfy for a thousand worlds a thousand times more guilty than ours?" The Heart of Christ was not content to offer the day he chopped trees, split rails and performed other chores with such zeal and rapidity that he became famous in a small locality. He grew strong and energetic, his included in the strong and energetic, his constant in the limitless boundaries of His love. Man's love is a puny thing which he gives partly to God and retains partly for himself. A complete gift of one's affection is heroism, and man will not even practice heroism with God. It is quite easy to understand how a teaching, false though it be, which made the shedding of the Precious Blood a cloak to cover the sins of men, would gain adherents. Less arduous is it in a world of pleasure to place all the load of sin on the shoulders of another and to feel free of its consequences, than to struggle in a world where each action has its merit or demerit.

The shedding of the Blood of Christ was not to leave the human soul without responsibility for the evil it may do. Salvation is not simply the belief in an Omnipotent Reing and His teaching. "Faith simply the belief in an Omnipotent Being and His teachings. "Faith without good works is dead." Faith has to be actuated by love, and love increased by service. God demands the soul of man which has been purified by His Blood and kept holy by sacramental graces. That Blood by sacramental graces. That Blood washes away all iniquity and sanctifies the heart and its affections. But to accomplish this, no barrier is to be placed in the way to block the impourings of God's graces. His Blood falls upon all, the just and the unjust, for their own ultimate salvation or perdition.

During the few weeks of the present month, the Christian will do well to honor the Precious Blood of the Saviour. Just a prayer from fervent hearts will prove to Him Who gave every drop of His Blood for man's redemption, that there are those in this forgetful world unforgetful of the infinite love and mercy of the world's Redeemer.

—Catholic Union and Times.

A GIRL'S CHARACTER

A girl cannot be too careful about her character, for like a snowy lily, the least blemish tarnishes its beauty. Some girls do not really mean any harm, but they seem to lack a delicate sense of propriety and frequently invite criticism of an unkind nature. They laugh loudly, make acquaintances too freely and consider reticence a requisite best suited for our grandmother's day.

The girl who is slow to make acquaintances is generally speaking, the best sort of girl. When you get to know her, you feel her worth and place her on the list of your friends with a feeling of pleasure. A little dignity is an excellent thing. It checks the familiarity of others and affords the superior attitude of mind. The girl who is truly up-todate in her ideals follows the dictates of good form. Thus she proves herself to be well bred and smart, shielding herself from the unpleasantness that is sure to come om a careless demeanor. - The

REAL LIBERTY

It seems to me that real liberty consists in obeying God in all things, and in following the light which points out our duty, and the grace which guides us; taking as our rule of life the intention to please God in all things; not only always to do what is most acceptable; not tri-fling with petty distinctions between sins great and small, imperfections and faults,—for although it may be very true that there are such dis-tinctions, they should have no weight with a soul which is deter-mined to refuse nothing it possesses o God. It is, in this sense that the Apostle says, "The law is not made some, hard, threatening law, one might almost say a tyrannical enslaving law; but there is a higher law which rises above all this, and leads him into the true " liberty of sons,"-the law which makes him always strive to do that which is most pleasing to his Heavenly Father, in the spirit of those beautiful words of St. Augustine: Love and do what thou wilt."-

All that time is lost that might be better employed.-Rosseau.

The figures in last week's Puzzle Picture are our Lady, St. Joseph and their cousins St. Elizabeth and St. Zachary (parents of St. John the Baptist.) The song was Our Lady's "Magnificat" beginning "My soul doth magnify" (always sung at

What part of last Sunday's Mass does the picture above represent Virol increases the power of resistance.

Have never been ill

thanks to Virol. Here are three children of a famous Author. They have all had Virol ever since they were born, and have never been ill.

Virol is composed of just those precious food substances which growing children need. Give your

Sole Importers: BOVRIL, Ltd., 2725 Park Avenue, Montreal.

RELIGIOUS ARTICLES

For Church, School and Home

ORDER FROM

Canada Church Goods Company, 149 Church St., Toronto

The Foundation

EVERY fortune has had a foundation. Every foundation, in the first instance, is laid with the first few dollars saved.

Start to save now and lay your foundation. Save seriously—save consistently. For money in the Bank is the buffer against misfortune and the barometer of future prosperity.

MINION BANK

ESTABLISHED 1871

· · · TORONTO.

HEAD OFFICE,

TAYLOR-FORBES HEATING SYSTEMS

Efficiency

It has been established by repeated

and conclusive

tests that a Taylor-

Forbes Sovereign

BEFORE putting money into a house look into the heating system. A passable looking boiler or furnace may entail in the expense of operation an unlooked for outlay of 2% to 5% upon your original investment. Our heating engineers are at your service. Submit your problems to us. Call or write to our nearest office.

Hot Water Boiler. under ordinary management, will give the same results of heat. per pound of coal burned, as may be obtained from the most efficient type The Sovereign of tubular steam will burn any boiler operated kind of fuel by an expert perfectly.

A booklet on heating mailed on request TAYLOR-FORBES

COMPANY, LIMITED - GUELPH, CANADA Heating Systems and Radiators Fifteen Branches, from Coast to Coast, in Canada

DISTRICT AGENTS

W. B. PENNOCK Murray Building 70 Pitt St. West Phone Seneca 2967

T. M. HAYES London, Ont. This Summer, spend your vacation at Jasper National Park. Motor, Hike, Camp or Climb, Golf, Tennis, Dance or Rest amid the gorgeous grandeur of the Canadian Rockies. Jasper Park Lodge (under management of Canadian National Railways) provides every comfort for 350 guests. Rates as low as $6.00 per day American Plan

TRIANGLE TOUR

Your journey to the West would Your journey to the West would not be complete without enjoying the incomparable Triangle Tour. Through the valley of the Skeena to Prince Rupert down the coast by boat to Vancouver and back along the Fraser and Thompson to Jasper National Park. This is undoubtedly one of the finest scenic Trips in the World.

LOW TOURIST FARES NOW IN EFFECT.

Wonderful Egyptian Remedy "Samaria" Prescription for drunkenness, which science has proved is a disease and not a habit and must be treated as such. Prohibition legislation does not help the unfortunates. "Samaria" may be given in Tea, Coffee, or any liquid food. Send stamp for trial treatment.

SAMARIA REMEDY CO.

142 MUTUAL STREET, TORONTO, ONT.

Silverwoods

Ice Cream

ENJOYED BY EVERYONE SOLD EVERYWHERE

FOR SERVICE PHONE 6100

SILVERWOODS LIMITED LONDON ONTARIO

Branches-Chatham, Windsor, St. Catharines, Brantford, Sarnia, Lucknow

See How Easy It Is To Learn Music This New Way

LEARN TO PLAY ANY INSTRUMENT

melodies on the mandolin, piar o or violin is simply a matter of putting the notes together correctly.

The first note shown above is F. Whether you are singing from notes playing the plano or banjo or any other musical instrument, that note in the first space is always F. The four notes indicated are F, A. C. E, easy to remember because they spell the word "face." Certain stings on the plato in represent these same notes — and once you learn them, playing melodies on the instrument is largely a matter of following the notes.

Anyone can now learn to play a musical instrument at home, without a teacher. A new simplified method of teaching reduces all music to its simplest possible form. You can now master singing, piano -playing, or any musical instrument you wish right at home, quickly, easily, without endless study and practice.

Practice is essential, of course—but its function strument you wish right at home, quickly, easily, without endless study and practice.

Practice is essential, of course—but its function the start. The "print and picture" method of self-teaching is fascinating; it's simply a matter of following one interesting step after another. You learn that the note in the first space is F, and that a certain key on the plano is F. Thereafter you will always be able to read F, and play it whenever you see it. Just as you are able to recognize and play the notes that make a melody. It's easy, interesting.

You don't have to know anything my whatever about music to learn to play a musical instrument this new way. You don't have to pin yourself down to regular hours, to regul

YOU CAN PLAY YOUR FAVORITE INSTRUMENT THREE MONTHS FROM TODAY

If you are dissatisfied with your present ork, let music act as a stepping-stone into a play, the mandolin, the the saxaphone? Do you to learn how to sing notes? Are you eager able to play "jazz" o clarinet, the banjo?

-SEND TODAY

Send for our free book called "Mn Lessans in Your Own Home." Everyone w is interested in music should send at once this valuable book. It not only explains it wonderful, new simplified method of fearin music, but tells about a special short-time of now being made to music-loyers. With it w est others in this good work.

TAM Causland

CANCELLED STAMPS

In response to an emphasized appeal from Father Westropp for his Cancelled Stamp Apostolate, the Catholic Women's League, of the Catholic Women's League, of Wetaskiwin, Alberta, recently sent him about fifteen pounds of cancelled stamps and old picture post cards, and in acknowledging the same this good priest has sent the donors some interesting literature pertaining to the missions in India, and has particularly requested the members to do all possible to interest others in this good work.

The missions in India have suffered severely through war, famine and disease. The distress and poverty existing in some of the places is very, very great. As ash is hard to procure under these circumstances, charitable persons are requested to gather and send all the cancelled stamps possible. all the cancelled stamps possible. It is a proved fact that the stamps thrown away daily in one large city would keep a mission in India for a whole year. They are sold to collectors and decorators all over the world, and secure great help for the missions, and Father Westropp earnestly appeals to people to discontinue throwing those stamps away, when we can thus save souls. The best stamps are old issues, higher values, that is from six cents up; colonial or of small cannot be sides four sons and four daughters: Rev. John J. Sammon, of North Onslow, Theodore and Edwin Sammon of Detroit, William of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. M. J. Whelan of Minneapolis, Minn., Mrs. Thos. McHale of Edmonton, Alta...

Opportunities after graduation There is a growing demand for thoroughly trained men in this immense field of work among boys. The compensation offered for graduates in Boy Guidance is commensurates in Boy Guidance is commensurate.

away, when we can thus save souls. The best stamps are old issues, higher values, that is from six cents up; colonial or of small countries and islands; but all are good. Avoid injuring the stamps. Any stamp skinned on the back, faded, or with even the tiniest perforation cut or torn off is practically worthless. Therefore it is well to cut a little paper with the stamp, say a quarter of an the stamp, say a quarter of an inch all around. Do not separate stamps that are put on the same envelope but cut around the outside of them all.

Of course money is better than stamps are old picture post cards or Christmas cards; and these are to be sent in the same way. The all social and church affairs was best way to said stamps or acada is stamps are old picture post cards or Christmas cards; and these are best way to send stamps or cards is in three to eleven pound packages sewn in cloth bags. Send by parcel post. A good way is in a cardboard box sewn in unbleached cotton. Eleven pounds is the most that cardboard box sewn in unbleached cotton. that can be sent by parcel post; and it is cheaper to send by way of Vancouver and Hong Kong. It is and it is cheaper to send by way of Vancouver and Hong Kong. It is requested that name and address be enclosed so that a card of acknowledgment may be sent. It is suggested by Father Westropp that this particular kind of assistance and be given by children and ance can be given by children and invalids as well as others as it is so very simple a means of carrying on God's work among the pagans in foreign lands. We are reminded that the vast Orient is still outside the fold; and to speed up the work, more money is needed, or failing this more stamp workers.

Other articles most acceptable are rosaries, medals, pictures, Catholic literature, etc., etc. In fact Father Westropp says that almost anything that is sent can be put to good use. Catholic books or pamphlets, old or new, are most useful. There is a vital need of devotional literature in the Orient where the majority of Catholics where the majority of Catholics are too poor to start and keep up Catholic periodicals. Father Westropp earnestly begs of those who will, to remail Catholic literature after being read; and if it is sent soon after its date, when still fresh, it can be re-sold and a little money obtained in that way. The literature most beneficial is magazines or papers similar to the Sacred Heart Messenger, the are also acceptable.

missionaries, and for this reason particularly he asks that every one pegin at once to do their best and forward stamps, etc., as soon as Benefactors are remembered in the Masses of Father Westropp and in the prayers of those under his care. Address Rev. Father Henry I. Westropp, S. J., P. O. Chainpatia, Dist. Chappenga. India.

K. OF C. GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Graduate scholarships established by the Knights of Columbus are offered for the two (2) years course in Boy Guidance at the University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana.

ELIGIBLE CANDIDATES These Scholarships are open to graduates of recognized colleges who are between the ages of twentyone and thirty years. Applicants must be men of exceptional character, ability, personality and leadership, and must have a real enthusiasm for work with boys.

ates in Boy Guidance is commensurate with that received by other

The whole community was shocked to hear of the sudden of course money is better than anything, and unused stamps of any country are much more valuable than the cancelled ones. Father Westropp says that no donation is too small; and he particularly mentions that he would be glad of offerings for Masses.

Also still better than cancelled stamps are old picture post cards

The whole community was shocked to hear of the sudden and sad death of Mrs. Bernard Bhastorah who died at her home on Church Street in Fort Frances on Saturday, June 14. Mrs. Bhastorah, nee Ettie Garvey, was the daughter of Mr. and Mr. Denis Garvey, and was married in Lakefield in 1917.

The deceased was a lady of re-prompt and always ready to assist. She was gifted with a sweet soprano parcel voice, and from childhood had been card- a faithful member of St. Paul's choir on Sundays, and also sang the Requiem Masses. Many and beautiful were the spiritual and floral offerings.

Mrs. Bhastorah was the fond mother of six children, the youngest being infant twin boys. Also to mourn her sad loss is her sorrowing husband, her parents Mr. and Mrs. Denis Garvey, five sisters, Mrs. P. Collins, Peterboro; Mrs. Allen of Lakefield; Mrs. A. Legrander, Lakefield; Mrs. A. Legrander, Toronto; Misses Laura and Martha, Lakefield; also five brothers, Timothy, Lakefield; Jos. and James of Peterboro; Leo of Bath, and Fred of Toronto. Rev. Father J. J. Garvey of Lakefield, Sister Barbara of Peterboro, and Sister Camilla of Pembroke are first cousins. The funeral was held on Friday morning from her father's residence to St. Paul's Church and was largely attended. Requiem Mass was sung by Father Garvey. May her sweet spirit rest in peace.

In the passing of Mr. James Sam-Sacred Heart Messenger, the Truth Magazine, etc. Weekly papers are not quite so good, but interest in all that concerned public affairs, but notably in school Father Westropp makes particular mention of the fact that opportune times for mission work opportunity opportun several times represented on the local Councils where he always took a cooling off as it were. The present happens to be a most excellent time for the work of the missionaries, and for this reserved. Among many things which stand greatly to his credit, was the fact that with comparatively limited means in the beginning, he found a way to offer a senior education to every member of his family. To that end he was prepared to make un-limited sacrifices. A man of remarkable intelligence himself, he was from the outset a champion of standard facilities for education, and to him almost entirely goes the credit of having maintained the standard of the schools in his community. A man of indifferent health, but blessed with a character like oak, absolutely unyielding in what he clearly saw to be right, a man of mind, he hewed his way through all obstacles, and overcame all opposi-tion alike, without relaxing till his death, until at length his achieve ments were such that he may fairly be quoted, for a memorial, as an ex-cellent example of a self-made man, who trusted nevertheless more in God than in himself. The funeral, which was held at Mt. St. Patrick on Wednesday, the 11th, was very largely attended from far and near, throngs joining together to express their admiration and appreciation of one who had so decidedly made his mark in the community. Grand High Mass was celebrated by a son of the deceased, Rev. John J. Sam-mon of North Onslow, Que., assisted by Rev. T. P. Holly of the Cathedral as deacon, and Rev. Thos. Hunt of Wylie as sub-deacon. An eloof Wylie as sub-deacon. An eloquent sermon was preached by the Rev. Patrick Harrington, of Camrose, Alta. Among the visiting clergy were Right Rev. Mgr. F. L. French, D. S. O., A. P., P. P. of Renfrew; Rev. P. S. Dowdall and Rev. W. P. Breen of the Cathedral, Pembroke; Rev. Isaiah French, P. P., of Eganville, Rev. John Harrington, P. P., of Mt. St. Patrick; Rev. M. Doyle, P. P., of Douglas; Rev. Jos. McElligott of Renfrew and Rev. Patrick Dwyer of Douglas. The pallbearers were: Mr. P. H. Murphy of Ottawa, James Neville, John Gorman, John Fitz-Neville, John Gorman, John Fitz-gerald, John Mhusk and William Lynch. The numerous spiritual offerings testified to the great

The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Sammon, esteem in which the deceased was CHARLEBOIS.—At Dunrobin, Ont., on Wednesday, June 18, 1924, Mr. Francis Charlebois, aged sixty-two years. May his soul rest in peace. Sheehan.—At Douglas, Ont., on professional specialists.

Applicants may write to Brother Barnabas, F. S. C., Executive Secretary, Knights of Columbus Boy Life Bureau, 575 Jarvis Street, Toronto, Canada.

OBITUARY

MRS. BERNARD BHASTORAH

Whole community was

The whole community was

Francis Charlebois, aged sixty-two years. May his soul rest in peace.

SHEEHAN.—At Douglas, Ont., on Saturday, June 8th, 1924, Mr. Jeremiah Sheehan, aged seventy-eight years. May his soul rest in peace.

MCNARISH.—At the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. A. McIsaac, 218 Park St., Sydney, N. S., June 10, 1924, Mr. George McNarish, aged seventy-two. May his soul rest in peace.

DUNPHY. -At his home Neville St., Donphy.—At his home Neville St., Dominion, N. S., April 8, 1924, Mr. George Dunphy, aged thirty-nine years, leaving a wife and seven children. May his soul rest in

FRIEDMAN.—At Bruce Co. Hospi, tal, Walkerton, Ont., on June 26-1924, Mr. William Stephen Fried-man, son of the late Joseph and Mrs. Friedman, of Chepstow, aged thirty-five years. May his

POSITION WAS asset CATHOLIC music teacher desires position as choir director or church organist in any part of Ontario. For full particulars kindly write Box 448, CATHOLIC RECORD, London, Ont. POSITION WANTED

Canada Radio Stores 2671/2 PRINCESS ST. KINGSTON, ONTARIO
All Mail Orders Prepaid.
Sold on a Money - Back Guarantee.

The Camp of the Little Flower

A summer camp, approved by His Grace Archbishop McNeil, for girls of all ages will be open during July and

AT ROCHE'S POINT on Lake Simcoe

For particulars write Miss Mary Breen, Camp of Little Flower, Roche's Point, Ont.

Hotel New Southern

Michigan Blvd. at 13th St. CHICAGO

A Hotel that is more than a Hotel_A Home

ABSOLUTELY FIREPROOF 300 Light, Large, Airy Rooms

> One block from Ill. Cent., Mich. Cent. and "Big 4" R. R. Station. Walking distance from theatre and shopping district. Excellent Cuisine.

EUROPEAN PLAN $2.00 and $2.50 without private

$3.00 and up with private bath. Write or wire for Reservations W. H. DELANEY, MGR.

Mindows Church Painting and

Derorating. Designs and Estimates on request ROBERT · M. CAUSLAND · LIMITED

PRIEST'S SUMMER SHIRTS VESTS

Stocks or Rabbis$1.50 to $3.50 Cassocks and Surplices

J. J. M. LANDY 16 Dundas St. W. Toronto

MISSION SUPPLIES

A SPECIALTY

TEACHERS WANTED

TEACHER wanted for St. John's Separate chool, hilice, 2½ miles from Stratford Salary $700. Apply to Wm. Lennon. Sec Treas., R. R. 1, Sebringville, Ont. 2386-2

TEACHER wanted for C. S. S. No. 9 Kearney, holding 2nd class professional certificate experienced and capable of teaching Fifth or Centiouation class. Apply stating experience and salary expected to J. W. Brown. Sec. Treas. Kearney, Ont. 2887-6

Treas., Kearney, Ont.

WANTED teacher holding second class professional certificate for 8. parate school, section No. Sydenham, Grey Co. Duties to common Sydenham, Grey Co. Duties to common Sydenham, Grey Co. Duties to common Sept. 2nd, 1924. Apply stating qualifications, especially a superior and salary to Michael J. Dugkan, Annan, Ont.

TEACHER wanted for Separate school, Section No. 5, Sombra Township, with second class certificate. Apply stating experience and salary to Edward Moran, Sec. Treas., R. R. I., Pt. Lambton, Ont.

TEACHER wanted for C. S. S. No. 1 Osgoode, holding second class professional certificate with experience. Duties to commence Sept. let. Apply stating salary expected to Thos. P. Doyle, Sec. Treas., Osgoode Station, Ont.

PARTRIDGE

TIRES

Regular Full Balloon Cords

The F. E. Partridge Rubber Co. Ltd.

GUELPH, CANADA

No More Worry Over Coal Bills

SYSTEM OF CIRCULATING HEAT

Interchangeable Balloon Cords

Major Cords Used and preferred by the largest Taxi Companies. Trump Junior Cords and Light Car Fabrics

Tires for Every Need - Including beautifully finished. The proper ratio of the warm air outlet to the return air section has been carefully determined after years of tests.

The return air pipe can be-adjusted to any basement height of 6 feet or more.

Insulating air chamber acts as a positive division between bodies of warm and return air.

This special construction prevents radiation of heat to outside casing.

QUALIFIED teacher wanted for S. S. No. 9 Percy, holding second class certificate Duties to commence Sept. 2nd. Apply stating experi-ence and salary expected to Thos. Collins. Sec., Hastings, Ont. R. R. No. 1. 288-2.

THIRTEEN English-French teachers holding second class certificates. Applicants to state number of years they have been teaching. Minimum salary $500, maximum $500. Apply to M. J. Powell, Sec., Box 1063, Sudbury, 234-1

WANTED a Normal trained teacher for S. S. S. No. 10 and 17 Richmond, State salary and experience. Address John Donovan, Sec., Sharps Corners, Ont. 2386-2

WANTED for P. S. Markstay, 2nd class certificate teacher. Church, P. O., boarding house etc., in village, School 10 minutes from station. Apply stating salary wanted and experience to J. Brown, Markstay, Ont. 9384 9

TEACHER wanted holding second class certifi-cate for S. S. S. No. 4 N. Burgess. Apply stating experience and salary expected to J. A. White, Sec., Stanleyville, Ont. R. R. 1. 2387-3

SECOND class teacher Normal trained with five years experience for C. S. S. No. 4 Osgoode. Salary $1,000 or less according to experience. Apply to Thomas Grant, Sec., Osgoode Station, R. R. I. Ont. 2387-3

SECOND class experienced teacher wanted for third book for Galt Separate school. Salary $890 Apply with recommendations before July 14th to Rev. E. A. Doyle, Secretary, Galt, Ont. 2387-1

JULY 12, 1924 AGENTS AND AGENCIES OF THE

In St. John, N. B., single copies may be purchased from Mrs. M. A. McGuire, 249 Main St., John J. Dwyer, 171 Union St. and Miss R. G. Gleeson, 19 Prince Edward St.
In Montreal single copies may be purchased from J. Milloy, 241 St. Catherine St. West.

BOYS and young men who have a religious vocation, and who are desirous to devote themselves to the service of God and the education of youth in the Presentation Brothers' Order, can now be admitted. For further particulars apply to the Rev. Brother Provincial, Presentation Brothers, Longueuil P. Q. 288-12

CHILDREN FOR ADOPTION CHILDREN FOR ADOPTION
THE following children are available for placement in good Catholic homes. Several boys, ages 5, 6, 7, 9, and 10 years; girls, ages 4, 6, 6, and 9 years; bables, ages 1, 2, and 3 years. These children are wards of Children's Aid Societies who are at different Orphanages and Shelters throughout the province and need homes where they will be taken chiefly for their own sake. Applications received by Wm. O'Connor, Children's Branch, 110 University Avenue, Toronto.

BUY your Pianes and Phonographs from this reliable Catholic firm, High grade. Low price, Shipped to all parts of Canada. Special terms to Clergy and Institutions. Write for particu-lars, 786 St. Catherine West, Montreal, Que, Phone up 347.

GRADUATE NURSE WANTED

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NAMES
MERCY Hospital training School for Nurses offers exceptional educational opportunities for competent and ambitious young women.
Applicants must be eighteen years of age, and have one year of High school or its equivalent.
Pupils may enter at the present time. Applications may be sent to the Directress of Nurses, Mercy Hospital, Toledo, Ohio.

2110-tf

1

De La Salle College, Aurora, Ont.

OF ONTARIO
(TRAINING COLLEGE AND NOVITIATE)
Students are prepared to become qualified teachers and members of the Institute of the Brothers of the Christian Schools. The course of studies is that of the High Schools of Ontario leading to the Normal Schools and the College of Education. It includes Music, Art and Manual Training. For particulars apply to Rev. Brother Director.

Empire Exhibition Visitors Convenient and comfortable accommodation.
In the Heart of London, near Trafalgar
Square. Liewellyn Chambers, 1-5 Pall Mall
Place, London, S. W. I., England. Mrs. M.
Barne, Prop.

Clergy on Sick Calls

Gold Filled Clip $2.00 No. 2. Gold Filled Band and Clip $3.00

No. 3. Sterling Silver Mounting and Clip $5.00

No. 4. Gold Filled Mounting and Clip $5.00

A traveling convenience. For general use.
An appreciated and unusual gift.

The Catholic Record

London Canada

MEMORIAL ASS WINDOWS CLASS ENGLISH ANTIQUE MED LYON STAINE GLASS CO.

Would You Buy Coal at Half-Price? Our Proposition Is That Good!

We will install a CALORIC Pipeless Furnace in your house which we guarantee will heat your building 70 degrees in the coldest weather - a furnace that will cut your fuel consumption one-third to onehalf-a furnace that must give you complete satisfaction or your money back. You are tired of ever-increasing coal bills. You want to save money on your winter fuel. Our proposition offers a clean-cut definite way to do it. Producing more heat with half the fuel is equivalent to buying coal at half price. CALORIC construction is practical and scientific. Heating engineers have proven that the capacity of this furnace is increased as much as 62 per cent. because the heat generated is taken directly off the top through one large channel.

The large, scientifically proportioned air passage of the CALORIC gives it a greater heating capacity than any other warm air furnace.

Large, straight channel insures a adequate supply of return air, a essential to great capacity and Patented CALORIC division plate makes possible straight flush-front construction.

This exclusive feature insures a cool cellar. Imitators dare not copy this design.

The CALORIC radiator is placed directly in the center, of furnace where the greatest volume of heat is generated and distributed through the center of the register.

This extra large opening permits use of large chunks of coal or wood. Tight fitting feed door prevents escape of smoke or gas.

Air resistance is overcome and warmth circulated through every room. It is in exact accord with the laws of physics.

Cuts Fuel Bills 1/3 to 1/2 More Heat From Less Fuel London

Caloric Furnace Co.

Burns Hard Coal Soft Coal, Coke Wood, Oil, and other fuels successfully