ORDE.S BY LETTER PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

Mer. tile Summary.

O. G. RACKMAN, Yonge St., Toronto, dry goods jobber, has assigned to Mr. John Kerr.

A TELEGRAM from Quebec says: "We are passing through a summer of public holidays. Thursday and Saturday next will make the sixth holiday in June. It is very injurious to the shipping trade, on account of the absence of laborers, who insist on keeping them. The last but not least is the ship laborers' anniversary in July, which affects the work of the port as much as Sunday." Six holidays and four Sundays in June would make one-third of the month devoted to recreation and rest. This is, overdoing the "holiday" business altogether. Such a multiplicity of "idle days" serve no good object, but seriously interrupt trade. The six holidays of June mentioned above ought to be sufficient for the whole year, barring, of course, the respected and hallowed weekly day of rest,

Some excellent advice appears in the columns of a contemporary, relating to the importance of attending; promptly to the matter of fire insu-

"Having taken possession of your premises, let your first care be to insure them, as well as your stock in trade, against fire. This, is one of the duties most incumbent upon a young tradesman. If the house which he inhabits, as well as all the goods in his shop, were positively his own (that is to say, were actually paid for), it would be one of the most absurd things upon earth to neglect the means of providing a remedy against the overwhelming consequences of fire, more es-pecially when such remedy is attainable without the slightest difficulty or trouble. But in the other and more common case, where the goods are not morally his own, inasmuch as his creditors have not been paid for them, the neglect of this precaution becomes absolutely criminal. If a tradesman who has obtained goods on credit, hesitates or neglects to insure them against fire, and they should afterwards be consumed, and he be unable to pay for them in consequence, however much others may mince the matter, the simple fact will be, that he has negatively robbed those who confided in him.

This is a matter that creditors should look after much more strictly than they are accustomed to do, and they would benefit largely by their trouble. They often pay smartly for their neglect, and many houses, without being aware of it, are their own insurers on large amounts of goods in the hands of customers. There are very few of what are supposed to be substantial firms through the country that could stand a fire and pay up, owing to insufficient insurance. A case has just occurred in a western village, in which a part of a factory was burned, on which there was no insurance. This ought to have been a warning but soon after the whole establishment was consumed, and the creditors of the concern are asked to take ten shillings for their claims, which is

MOSES SKINNER, ESQ., ON "DRUMMERS."

In his correspondence to the Boston True Flag,

he commences as follows

Mr. Editor,—My Chain Lightning Tonic is such a success, that I concluded to start off on a professional tour, not as a travelling physician, exactly (though I do not object to save a life occasionally, when I can make it pay), but as a regular commercial traveler. In short, I have joined the noble corps of Boston drummers, that ravenous swarm of summer-locusts, who go broadcast over the land, devouring every green thing, and waylaying innocent storekeepers with samples and wayraying and and impudence.

I have long pined to be a drummer, but I was afraid I hadn't intellect enough, and lacked the necessary refinement, and in this I am not alone. Daniel Webster was smart, but he couldn't sell goods on the road worth a copper. Napoleon Bonaparte undoubtedly had abilities, but he wasted 'em in the military business. What he might have attained if apprenticed early in life to a jobbing-house in Boston, must now be a har-drummers from Boston. Occasionally, a few of these rioters are arrested, but the next train brings a reinforcement, who leave their simples at a hotel, and go round seeking whom they may devour, after which they drink each other blind, and write home how dull business is

It would take volumes to describe a genuine drummer; none of your wishy-washy kind, but a regular howler, who knows a thing or two, and is up to snuff. At the hotel where I stopped there were fifty guests, forty-nine of whom were drum-The other one informed me privately that he used to be, but, seeing that it was slowly bringing his mother's gray hairs in sorrow to the grave, he altered his dissolute course, and he is now an honored shoemaker in Lynn, where he has risen to the proud distinction of Assistant

I have taken a lively interest in Portland since the great fire, from the fact of my donation, which immediately followed. In the list of names, mine appears for the sum of thirty cents. I gave it freely, because I thought, at that time, of going into the philanthropy business, but, on being informed by a phrendiogist that I never would make an eminent philanthropist, I abandadal the idea. doned the idea. He informed me, however, that,

I went into the hotel last night with the inten-tion of retiring early, but I paused as my eye took the scene. Around the stove was seated seventeen as beautiful drummers as you could wish to feast your eye on. They represented everything, from a gutta-percha hymn-book to a rubber doll that a gutta-percha hymn-book to a rubber doll that would squeak. They were all smoking pipes, varying in size from a water-pail to a butter-firkin, and each one was trying, with Christian fortitude that was simply heroic, to come as near the spittoon as possible without going in—distance, seven feet. They were beguiling the time in pleasant anecdotes of the day's experience.

'The last time I was down to Lewiston," said another, "I asked Slammer to come up to the hotel and look at my samples, and he said he would, but he tried to sneak by without my seeing him. Of course I wasn't going to stand no such nonsense as that, you know, so I goes out and collars him! He swere he didn't want any goods, but I knew better; so I got another fellow to help me, and we just gagged him and carried him up the back way. I locked him in, and kept him the back way. I locked him in, and kept him there two days before he came to his oats, but I fetched him finally. He may think I'm a flat, but I wasn't born yesterday.

O, the storekeepers are getting meaner than dirt," said another: "The last time I sold old Borax, down to Bangor, there were twenty-three of us waiting for him to come back from dinner. He saw us, and tried to hide in the basement. We put after him, and opened our samples. gave a yell, and rushed up-stairs. Just as he was going through the scuttle, a fellow bawled out that he was selling half-cost twenty per cent. off, but Borax stopped up his ears and got on the roof. But your humble servant was enough for him," he continued. "I went up the lightning rod with my samples strapped on my back, and if I didn't sell him up there on the roof," said he, turning to me, "you can eat my liver."
"I thank you, sir," said I, "but my physician warns me against late suppers.

"Then name your poison," said he, hauling me up to the bar. To-morrow I go hence.

OIL MATTERS AT PETROLIA.

From our Own Correspondent)

· PETROLIA, June 26, 1871. We have had quite a lively time in new strikes this week. 1st. Messrs. Kimball, Coreyll & Langheed have a splendid well on the Shoemaker lot, producing 75 to 100 barrels per day. Messis. Clement, Noble & Co., on lot 12, 12th concession of Enniskillen, have a well that filled a 100 barrel tank in two hours ; how long this may last is questionable. 3rd. Messrs. Craise & Mc-Kenzie, lot 14, 12th concession of Enniskillen, have a well that, although not tested, keeps them dipping up the oil from around it, as it flows up the drill-hole. It promises to eclipse their late purchase of the Penton well.

There is not much change in the crude market. The production, until the late strikes, has been the same as the previous week, and the shipments rather less. Refiners are complaining that they cannot get crude, as the Combination sell lots until they are placed in their hands. Export is still going on All oil business is improving, and there has been a steady rise in the price of refined. Oil lands are in better demand, but there is no excitement.

WITH WHICH HAS BEEN INCORPORATED

THE MONTREAL TRADE REVIEW.

TORONTO, CAN., FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1871.

BANKING AND COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

We hardly anticipated that the remonstrance we uttered in the last Review against the inflation of stocks through speculative "bulling" operations, would have been so quickly followed by the effect aimed at. The collapse was as sudden as that of a soap bubble on being touched, yet on this fragile structure many were hoping to float themselves to fortune, and on its continuance not a few have risked, not fortune only, but more, reputation and honor. Experience teaches best; and we doubt not that buyers of Montreal stock at 300; and others, have learnt a lesson for life. We knew that a very large amount of this and other stocks were placed in the hands of brokers for sale at a certain figure, quite enough to drown the market, and that of Montreal at 300. &c. ; enough were on hand to absorb ten times the available funds in use for these speculations. We cannot permit this occasion to pass without protesting against the practice of Banks advancing funds on the security of their own stocks, or of others, unless for some sudden emergency strictly trading in character, and for a very brief period. To advance on its own stock is utterly vicious in principle, a stockholder is a partner, and has no right to ask from the firm he is in for a loan of his share in the capital. In any private well conducted enterprise, a man would quickly be told that if he could not spare his contribution to the joint funds of the concern, he must sell out to some one who could, and in any Bank where there is the requisite intelligence for managing such institutions, a proposal for advance on stock held by the borrower would be met with the same answer, "sell out."

There have been occasions in which timid boards have sought to strengthen the market by keeping needy stockholders from selling, or by buying stock in themselves, but the policy is dangerous and futile. Such tampering soon becomes known, it is quickly judged to be a sign of weakness in the Bank and distrust of its prospects by the directors, and the invariable consequences are general suspicion, forced sales, and instances could be quoted in which this policy has been the ruin of the institution. It should be the policy of a Bank to strengthen its proprietary, to weed out, whenever possible, weak and merely speculative holders. The public notice the list of stock proprietors, and discern pretty shrewdly what its record and variations tell, and a systematic conservative policy, such as is here indicated, makes itself manifest in the growth of public confidence, and in that which justifies and sustains it, increased growth and stability.

In presenting the official bank return which follows, we have to express regret at the errors which are too frequent in the Gazette statistics. In the column "total liabilities" 31st May, the figures for Banque du Peuple are wrong by $20,000; and in "total assets" the figures for Union Bank of L. C., are in excess $27,000 of the correct ones. Yet the grand total is put as though these errors did not exist | Such errors having passed unnoticed through the audit office suggests a doubt as to the degree of confidence with which other statistics may be quoted beyond detection, by a careful observer, and we must ask Mr. Langton to see that these matters are more carefully revised for his own credit and for the protection of the press and public from error.

The drain of gold still continues, the reserve being now $5.200, and less than at corresponding date in 1870, or about 35 per cent. diminuition, and is now lower than at any date since October, 1869. At that last date the circulation was ten and a half millions; specie held, eleven and a quarter millions, and in November 1869, the specie reserve exceeded the circulation by $2,000,000. The extraordinary change in the financial state of the country is very strikingly shown by comparing this fact with the present proportion existing between Bank issues and specie on hand, the former being five and a half million in excess of the latter; that is specie has gone from 20 per cent. above circulation to 35 per cent. below it since the fall of 1869. The reports coming in from all parts of the country are favorable, grass is not very heavy generally, but a fair average, and the wheat, &c., is looking promising, so that we shall ere long, we trust, have something else to export for our creditors over the water than gold.

We gave some explanation in a previous issue of the mode of operating short loans in the New York market, by which the Bank of Montreal had made large profits. A strange development in connection with this business has come to light. Loans on the pledge of gold are thought to be secured by that gold being held, but on Monday, the 12th, a large bank was called upon by a firm of brokers to return them a heavy amount of gold which it held subject to delivery on demand. The bank lent out this gold for a charge of an eighth per cent., and was compelled to pay a half per cent. in order to produce the gold demanded. So the operation brought considerable loss and no small discredit. It would seem as though the dishonorable recklessness characterizing the cliques of gold speculators infected all who came into contact with them, and even the purest are $71,289,654 defiled by the touch of pitch.

SECOND ARTICLE.

One of the principal sources of trade and wealth in British Columbia is in her timber forests. The Douglas pine grows to an enormous size, extending sometimes to a diameter of twelve feet and a height of 250 to 300 feet, as ascertained by actual measurement. The best spars in the world are obtained from this pine. Sound timber is obtained from these trees 150 feet in length, and squaring forty-five inches for a length of ninety feet. These proportions are not nearly attained by any Canadian timber. It is asserted, too, that the Douglas pine is the commonest tree on all the north-west coast from Columbia River to far north of Vancouver Island. Lumber sawn from this pine is shipped to San Francisco, the Sandwich Islands, down the South American coast, and in considerable quantities to Australia.

Besides forming one of the principal articles of export, lumber gives employment to a good deal of capital and labor in its manufacture. At New Westminster there are two saw-mills, one of which can cut 70,000 and the other 80,000 feet per day. At Yale and Lytton there are two of less capacity; one at Clinton has 12,000 feet capacity; one in Cariboo of 10,000 feet; two in Quesnel of 10,000 feet, and two water mills beside of 3,000 feet each per day. This branch of trade is capable of immense expansion as the country progresses and the demand for timber'and lumber increases.

It is a little remarkable that a country with such large districts of good farming land should be so extensive an importer of breadstuffs. In 1870 no less than 13,740 barrels of flour and 266,667 bushels of wheat were imported for home consumption, while neither of these articles appears in the list of exports at all. This circumstance is no doubt chiefly attributable to the fact that a large proportion of the population is engaged in mining, hunting, &c., and are, therefore, consumers of breadstuffs, and not producers. The country is, however, pretty well supplied with flour mills. In New Westminster there is one of 10 barrels per day capacity; in Yale and Lytton there are three, one of 25 barrels and the other two of 10 barrels per day each; and in the Lillooet District there are five of 100 to 150 barrels per day capacity.

While making reference to the manufactures of British Columbia, we ought to mention that the people are not all teetotallers ; they seem to have got far beyond that point. This is evidenced by the fact that in Victoria there are no less than five breweries and one distillery; at New Westminster there is a distillery capable of producing 300 gallons and discounts. He dwelt upon the imporper month; in the Lillooet district another, producing 160 gallons per month; and there are, besides, four breweries in Quesnel. The product of all these establishments, added to the 24,000 gallons of spirits, and the quantities of wine, ale and porter annually imported, ought to maintain the population in a sufficiently hilamous mood.

Besides the manufactories mentioned, there are at Victoria a number of establishments devoted to various industries. These include gas works, two tanneries, one sash factory, one foundry, three harness and saddlery shops, and some fish-curing establishments.

The Fisheries of the Province are productive and valuable, and fish forms a considerable article of export. Salmon are canned and shipped abroad ; cod is found ; halibut, sturgeon, herring, and dogfish are abundant, and several other varieties are caught to a greater or less extent. This branch is being steadily developed, and is growing in importance.

We append a price list of farm produce, showing the quotations of the articles named in the town of Yale in March last :- Wheat, per cental (100 lbs.) $3; barley, do., $3.50; oats, do., $3.50; beaus, do., $7; potatoes, do., $2; flour, per brl., $12.50; pork, per 100 lbs., $20; beef, do., $18; butter, per lb., 62½c. to [75c.; eggs, per doz., 50c. these prices, farming should be a profitable There are, however, some occupation. serious drawbacks to the country when viewed from the stand-point of an agriculturist. Prominent among these is the denseness of the forest, causing great labor and expense in its removal, and leaving behind it immense stumps, which are extremely difficult and expensive to up-turn, and each of which, with its wide-extending roots, monopolizes a large patch of earth. But the difficulties and opportunities of the country as a field for immigration and settlement will have to be discussed in a future issue.

We are largely indebted for the foregoing facts to Mr. J. Herbert Mason, who, with characteristic industry, collected much information relating to British Columbia during his recent visit to that Province. He reports it difficult to obtain facts of a statistical character that are anything like comprehensive. We are confident, therefore, that the data we are enabled to furnish will be appreciated, as adding to our present meagre stock of knowledge respecting the character and resources of this western wing of the Dominion.

BANK OF TORONTO.

On the occasion of the annual meeting of this prosperous Bank last week, Mr. J. G. Worts took occasion to remark the large increase of its business, and the thorough excrease of its business, and the thorough ex-amination which had been given to its loans line will be completed at an early date.

tant fact that the bad debts of the year were so small that they were more than covered by sums received on account of debts formerly written off. He also stated that it was not the desire of the Directors to increase the stock unless it was absolutely necessary, since the increase might disturb the proportion between the rest and the capital, and ipostpone for some years any prospect of an increased dividend. The Directors were convinced of the importance of having a large rest, and did not intend proposing an increased dividend until the amount was equal to half the capital. It was evident that an increase of capital must have the effect of postponing an increase of dividend; whereas, if the capital remained as at present, and should the incoming year be as prosperous as the last, an increased dividend might follow soon. The Directors. desire to ask the stockholders for discretionary power to increase the stock whenever the circumstances called for it; but they had legal advice to the effect that they had had no power to do this until the new banking Act comes into force-after the 1st July. If it became advisable to increase the capital, the stockholders would be called together specially for the purpose during the year. This is a wise course, and will no doubt meet with the approval of the stockholders, who ought to be in extremely good humor, since those of them who held the stock from last year have, by the two additions to the capital, at a low rate of premium, had a bonus of over 60 per cent.

QUEBEC BANK.

The net profits for the past year were $190,350.46, out of which two dividends, one of 3 and the other of 4 per cent., were declared, leaving, with a balance from the previous year, a disposable surplus of $90,095. Out of this, $70,009 was taken to increase the rest, which now stands at $100,000. Power was taken to issue $500,000 of new stock, which, we learn, is being rapidly subscribed for. This Bank is making steady and satisfactory progress, not only by increasing its business, but by strengthening its position.

-The county of L'Assomption has voted $100, 000 to the Northern Colonization Railway.

BANK OF TORONTO.

The Annual General Meeting of the Bank of Toronto (being the lifteenth since the commence-ment of Business) was held, in pursuance of the terms of the charter, at the Banking House of the Institution, on 21st June, 1871.

William Gooderham, Esq., President, being called to the chair, the Cashier then at his request, read the following.

The Directors of the Bank of Toronto beg to sent to the Stockholders the following Report of their proceedings during the year just closed.

At the annual meeting last year, the stockholders resolved upon an increase of the capital to the extent of $200,000, making the total amount $1,000,000. This was alloted accordingly, and in nearly every instance the allotment was taken by the stockholders and payment made in due season. After this was done there remained seventy-six shares, which were disposed of at public auction, and realized 734 premium.

A large increase in the circulation of the Bank having taken place during the year, it was deemed desirable, in view of the limitation imposed by the new Banking Act, to increase the capital accordingly.

A special meeting of the Stockholders was held on the 1st of March, 1871, and an increase $500,000 resolved upon, the amount to be allotted pro rata as before. This allotment has been taken pro rata as before. This allotment has been taken up to the extent of $465,600. and $400,700 has been paid in to capital account thereon. The time for payment on account of this allotment expires on 1st December next, after which date any broken amounts or shares not paid for, will be offered for sale to the public by auction.

The premium on this increased stock having been placed to the Rest, as provided by the Act in that behalf, there has been added thereto the sum of $38,486 on this account.

sum of $38,486 on this account.

The capital now paid up amounts in all to $1, 400,700, and the average capital for the year has being 252. The year just closed has been one of great activity and progress in the country generally, and the business of the Bank in every department has been largely augmented.

The net profits of the Bank, after making full provision for bad and doubtful debts, and deducting interest due to Depositors, and rebate on notes discounted, have amounted to $231,959 03 Add balance brought forward.....

The "Rest" now amounts to $500,000, being 374 per cent. on the increased capital.

The loans and discounts of the Bank were The loans and discounts of the Bank were thoroughly examined at all points before the end of the year, and full appropriation made to cover everything of a bad or doubtful character. The total sum necessary to be written off was small as compared with former years, and the Directors are happy to report that the amount was more than covered by sums received on account of debts formerly dealt with as bad of doubtful. The amount at the debit of Bank Premises has been augmented by $4,000, on account of alteration and improvements at the Head Office. The

'ation and improvements at the Head Office. value of the property has so largely increased of late years, that the increased amount will be less in proportion to the total value then the sum at which it stood some years ago, When the renewal of the Charter of the Bank When the renewal of the Charter of the Bank came up for consideration, under provisions of the Act of last year, the Government found it desirable to introduce an Act embodying in one general law the whole banking legislation of the country. The measure was fully considered by the Legislature, and various important practical amendments embodied therein. The Charters of various Banks were renewed by this Act until the year 1871, and that of the Bank of Toronto was in cluded in the number. The settlement of the question of renewal of the Charter is calculated to give increased stability to the business of Banking, and the Directors congratulate the Stockholders that in most of its essential features the Bill embodies the views and principels for the Bill embodies the views and principels for which they have long contended.

The subject of a future increase of stock has re-ceived the careful consideration of the Board for some time back, and they have decided to ask power from the Shareholders to issue $500,000 power from the Shareholders to issue $500,000 additional stock whenever circumstances may seem to call for it. The Board would observe that there is no present necessity for an increase, but in view of a possible extension of business requirements, and especially of a demand for circulation beyond the amount of the present capital, they wish to be placed in a position to capital, they wish to be placed in a position to meet any circumstance that may arise.

Amongst the matters regulated by the recent Act was the power of the stockholders with regard to the making of By-laws. The Directors have deemed the present a favourable opportunity for revising the existing By-laws, and will lay on the table, for consideration, a new code, covering all the necessary points to be regulated.

The Cashier, Assistant Cashier, Managers, and other officers of the Bank, have discharged their duties during the year in a manner which has given the greatest satisfaction to the Board.

The whole respectfully submitted.

(Signed),

WM. GOODERHAM, President.

Insurance.

INSURANCE MATTERS IN MONTREAL.

(From our own Correspondent.) MONTREAL, 27th June, 1871.

Circumstances of one kind or other beyond your correspondents control would appear to have conspired, since his last advices, to interrupt the regularity which he would fain maintain in his communications.

The principal losses by the fire on the 15th May in St. Antoine and Cemetery streets, were djusted and settled as follows :

British America—G. R. McNamee..$550 M. O'Reilly....... 350 T. J. Quinn 355

$1,256 Royal-F. B. McNamee ... 1,116 North British and Mercantile-G. Morris 150 but the principal sufferers were those poor people who had no insurance on their property, and the same observation applies to those, affected by the fire which occurred on the following morning between Bleury and Anderson streets.

May 20. A fire broke out in the char house of Messrs. Molson's sugar refining works, occasioned as is supposed by some of the workmen smoking, as the operations therein had become suspended for a fortnight. By energetic exections the fire was confined almost entirely to where it originated, and a large quantity of sugar in store saved from damage by water. The loss in the whole reaches damage by water. The loss in the whole about $5,000 and is covered by insurance.

In recognition of the services of the Fire Brigade on the occasion, the Messis. Molson sent their cheque for $100 to the treasurer of the Firemen's Benevolent Association in aid of its funds.

May 23. The vigil of Her Majesty's Birthday was celebrated by a fire occasioned by boys letting off fire crackers, which destroyed a block of houses from 661 to 673 St. Joseph Street with the greater part of their contents and the out-buildings onging, besides those who were uninsured, the following ascertained losses were sustained.

British America-Repentiguy, on build-

-83, 428 Citizens—N. Laurier, Shoe Shop ... 636 June 3.—Advice received here that the Steamer "Huron" was burned to the water's edge in the Beauharnois Canal. Insured with the "Western" for $19,000, re-insured for one half with "Provincial Loss total.

June 6. -Intelligence received of a fire among a number of hay stacks in the vicinity of Irwin's Hotel, St. Lamberts, on the south side of the river, opposite the City. The hotel being considered endangered, assistance was asked from our Fire Brigade, and the engine "Union" from No. 5 Station was despatched to the scene; the supply of water being unlimited the conflagration was speedily subdued, and the fear of further danger at an end. Cause of the Fire unknown.

June 9.—About half an hour before midnight a fire broke out in the Carpenter's shop of Mr. J. Bourgoin, Ontario Street, between St. Urbain and St. Charles Barromie Streets. The wind was high at the time and the flames spread with fearful travillity communicating to some viles of lumber. rapidity, communicating to some piles of lumber in the yard and to the sidewalk in front. By the the time the brigade arrived, the aspect of affairs was somewhat formidable, but in about 20 minutes after the men got fairly at work the fire was suppressed. The shop and its entire contents—including the workmens' tools—were destroyed, together with much of the lumber in the yard. Loss estimated at some $4,000, no insurance.

June 16.—At about 7.30 this morning as the Tug boat "Reindeer" was towing a barge with lumber up the current, an alarm of Fire aboard was given by one of the hands, and almost at the same moment the flames suddenly burst forth in front of the smoke-stack. As the vessel was utterly destitute of appliances for subduing a fire, the intense heat speedily reduced the officers and crew to the necessity of abandoning her to her fate, and to take to the boats to save their own lives. All control over her being lost, she floated helplessly a blazing mass down the stream, to the imminent peril of all the shipping and craft in the vicinity, followed on shore by thousands of excited, and in many cases deeply interested spectators.

By the prompt and well directed efforts of Mr. Belair, agent of the Harbour Tug-boat Company, who hastened to the rescue in another tug-boat, and who himself boarded the blazing vessel, and attached a tow-line to a post on her deck, and by that means was enabled to tow her to the wharf of the Longuenil Ferry, where the hose reels of the City Fire Brigade were in attendance ready for action, after a hard struggle, the flames were eventually extinguished.

The "Reinder" is owned by Mr. Wilson of Quebee, and is believed to be insured there, but but as she lies a mere wreck at the Longueuil wharf, it must necessarily be large.

June 21.—At precisely 10 p.m. this day, a sudden illumination in the western atmosphere bet; kened an extensive conflagration, in the neighbourhood of the manufactories on the Lachine Canal, about the St Gabriel Locks, it proved to be the Saw and Planing Mill of J. W. McGauvran & Co., on St. Gabriels Island, between the main line of the Canal, and the head race which feeds the factories on its north bank. How the fire originated has not been explained, but is believed to have been occasioned by the explosion or oversetting of a Coal oil Lamp, the fire raged with scarcely abated fury from 10 p.m., until 2 a.m. the next day, having during the entire interval taxed the energies of the brigade, of the employee of the owners and of the surrounding establishments to the very utmost. The loss which is total, is estimated at from $25,000 to $30,000 of which $21,000 is covered by insurance, viz., Royal

London 3,000 Western

The proprietors, who are men of energy and enterprise speak confidently of having the establishment at work again in six weeks.

June 23.—A fire broke out between 9 and 10 this evening in the window of the millinery shop. of Mrs. Stewart St. Mary Street, caused either by crackers or matches pushed through the bolt holes of the shutters by some of the vagabond boys who infest the neighbourhood. Extinguished without the aid of the brigade. Loss about $150.

FIRE RECORD .- London, June .- R. Stevens tannery was consumed with contents, loss stated at $5,000 to $6,000. Insured in the Western for $3,500. Cause unknown.

Barrie, June 24.—A fire broke out in Thos. E.

Rawson's stable and rapidly spread to other buildings, destroying a large amount of property be-fore it was got under. Were it not for a heavy shower of rain which opportunely fell during the progress of the fire, it is thought the business por-tion of the town must be consumed. In the same night a stable in the rear of the Bank of Commerce, on Colborne street, took fire, the hames were subdued before much damage was done. A third fire occurred in the stables of Mr. Thos. Campton, corner of York and Adelaide streets, and consumed them, the contents were saved. MONTREAL MARKET.

MONTREAL, June 27. The wholesale trade has not been very active, basiness having to some extent been interfered with by the election contests and a holiday on Saturday. Breadstuffs dull and rather unsettled. Provisions in rather better demand. Ashes moderately active. Dry Goods quiet.

Freights are dull and declining, very few engagements are reported here, and the low rate of freight from New York has caused vessels here to be more moderate in their demands. Some of our largest shippers are chartering vessels for themselves at home, and are thus saved from the exhorbitant demands made here as soon as it is known that any extra quantity of grain has arrived from the

TORONTO MARKET.

Business has generally been quiet during the past week, but not more so than is usual at this midsummer season. The weather continues for the most part fine and seasonable, though not any means too warm, and sufficient rain has fallen for all purposes. Crop reports to date confirm in the main the estimates published last week, al-though in some sections of the country, where more than an average amount of rain fell, the results will be rather more favorable than was stated. It is to be hoped the probable deficiency in yield may to some extent be compensated for by higher prices, and in the article of barley, a very important one to Canada, there is every appearance that some considerable gain will be ob-tained in this respect. Since last week, a further advance of 5c. has occurred, and should the fears entertained of a light yield prove well founded, very much higher figures will undoubtedly be reached. Operators here, however, will need to be careful not to pay more at the commencement of the season than an average price, for a subsequent decline would be very likely to take place, and this market would to a great extent be spoiled by a temporary withdrawal of American buyers after holders had all they could well carry. The best way by far is for dealers to wait for orders from the other side; and the experience dearly bought in the season of 1870, will undoubtedly help many to a due appreciation of the wisdom of following the advice now offered.

Boots and Shoes. -Trade has continued until recently very fair for summer goods, but is now about at an end, and samples of fall stocks will shortly be offered to the trade. Prices will open higher than last fall, the advance being from 5 to 71 per cent., according to the class of goods, in consequence of a corresponding advance in leading descriptions of leather, especially Spanish Sole and Payments in this trade, on papers French Calf. maturing, have been, as a rule, satisfactory, and quite equal to the average of previous years.

DRY Goods.—The business of the past week has consisted principally of a light sorting-up character, with no change in prices to note, although some manufacturers are nominally asking more money for cotton yarns and warp. Any sales made have been at previous prices.

FREIGHTS .- There is very little doing. Prices of produce are too high here as compared with other markets, and consequently little is going forward, except some parcels of flour to the lower provinces by Grand Trunk. I ake freights for grain remain at 2½ U.S. currency to Oswego, and 2e gold to Kingston. Lumber, $1 37½ U.S. currency to Oswego. Steamer freights for flour are to Kington 124c; to Brockville or Prescott, 15c; Montreal, 20c. Grain in bags taken at 10c to Kingston; 12tc to Brockville or Prescott; and 15c to Montreal. By Grand Trunk the rates now in force are as follows:—To Halifax, 85c for flour, and 43c for grain; to St. John, 80c for flour and 40c for grain; to Kingston, 25c and 13c for flour and grain; to Prescott, 30c and 15c; to Montreal, 35c and 18c; to Point Levis, 55c and 28c; to Portland or New York, 75c and 88c; and to Boston, 80c and 40c.

GROCERIES .- Trade has been moderately brisk GROCERIES.—Trade has been moderately brisk during the past week, with a good enquiry for staple goods, but with few large sales making. Coffee—is in moderate demand, with stocks in reasonable compass and prices firm. Fruit.—Raisins are not much enquired for, but Valentias continue firm at late quotations; Currants meet an ordinary demand, and stocks not being large, prices are firmly maintained. Rice, -Arraean sells in a retail way at quotations; Rangoon continues to be wauted, and prices are firm, but without further change. Spices—are in light request, and generally unchanged. Sugars—have sold freely during the week, for both raws and refined, holders growing less anxious to sell, as stocks become reduced; Barbadoes has sold in hogsheads and tierces at 93c. to 10c., and in barrels at 104c.; tierces at 9½c. to 10c., and in barrels at 10½c.; Havana box Sugars have sold at 9½c. to 10½c. for medium to bright; and Porto Rico, in hogsheads, has realized 10½c. to 10½c. Sales of refined have been principally of grades of Yellows at 10c. to 10½c. Teas—have been in fair request, the aggregate of sales footing up to a respectable amount. The demand continues to be principally for fine and low grade Young Hysons, the latter at stiffening prices. There is also enquiry for Blacks, and a good many small parcels have been sold. Tobacco—is quiet, and without change.

HARDWARE—Trade is less active than for some weeks past, and goods ordered are now all shipreeks past, and goods ordered are now all ship-red. Prices are, for the most part, unchanged; but nails, however, continue scarce, the supply being quite insufficient for the unusually large being quite insufficient for the unusually large existing demand. Manufacturers have, therefore, advanced their lists 25c per keg, the trade, of course, willingly following suit. Present Toronto quotations are $3.50 for ordinary assortment; $3,75 for shingle, and $4 for lathe.

HIDES AND SKINS.—There is no change to note either in damand, supply, or prices, the market being rather duller than for some time past.

LEATHER .- The Market is very quiet for nearly all descriptions of stock. Spanish Sole still forms an exception, its scarcity leading to considerable enquiry and steadiness of price.

Lumber.—Shipping is rather dull, the bulk of the dry lumber being shipped; two million feet left last week. Freight to Oswego, $1.374 per M. The bulk of the lumber leaving now for the American market is coarse, principally, shipping calls. ican market is coarse principally shipping culls, the clear lumber of last winter's cutting being now all shipped. Shipping will be light until this season's cutting accumulates. Good stock bds, that will pick thirty out of the hundred clear, command a ready sale at Albany. Prices: clear, $24; common, $9 to $11; culls, $6 to $8; flooring, $1 in., $10 to $12; shingles, No. 1, 18 inch, $3; dc. No. 2, 16 inch, $2 to $2.25; lath, $1.70 per M.

PAINTS AND OUS.—The trade of the control of the co now all shipped. Shipping will be light until PAINTS AND OILS.—The trade of the season is low pretty well over; but there is still the or-inary demand. Prices are steady and quotadinary demand. tiors unaltered.

Perrolety. - Business is just commencing to revive, rather more activity being noticed during the past week. Prices have been again advanced by the refiners, quotations reading from 1c to 2c by the refiners, quotations reading from 1c to 2c higher than previously.

PRODUCE.—The market has been inactive throughout the week; and, although holders have been generally firm in their views, buyers, for the most part, held aloof, and, except in the article of barley, prices remain much as last quoted. Flour—An advance of 6d per barrel in Liverpool, last Friday, gave holders here more confidence in the value of their stocks, and disposed them to ask more money. Buyers, howconfidence in the value of their stocks, and disposed them to ask more money. Buyers, however, were quite indifferent about meeting their views, and no advance on previously current rates was obtained. Reported sales have been of a most limited character, and all on p.t., except one lot of choice Superfine, last Saturday, at $5.32\frac{1}{2}$. Ordinary is held at $5.25 to $5,30, with buyers at $5.10 to $5.20. Fancy offered during the week at $5.50, with $5.40 bid and refused. Extra is nominal at $5.60 to $5.75. Wheat-A trifling advance in the Liverpoo Wheat—A trifling advance in the Liverpool market in the fore part of the week imparted rather more business to this market, and, for a time, some little activity prevailed. 1,000 bushels Spring and two cars Treadwell changed hands at $1.25 f.o.c., and one car Treadwell at $1.28, all f.o.c. Subsequently the demand fell off, except for small lots, and there are now no buyers over the subsequence of the contractions. quotations, a Barley - Under the influence of un-favorable cop reports, there has been increasing enquiry for this grain, and advancing rates have been demanded by holders and conceded by buyers until, at the close, No. 1 may be quoted sale-able at 68: to 70, with holders looking for a fur-ther advance. Oats—Have had a limited demand during the week, and sales of single cars on the track have been made at 48c to 49c, the latest reported sale being at 48c. Small lots delivered betonght 50c. Peas—Continue inactive and nominally lower, at about 70c to 75c. Hay—Has been in light supply, and improving prices have been obtained; now selling at $15 to $18. Strate—Has also been scarce and sold at $10 to Provisions.—There has been little doing in shipping lots, but from the local country and city trade there has been a tolerable, active enquiry.

Butter—Receipts have been very trivial, hardly sufficient to supply the city trade, and these have been taken with a of decirable available and these have been taken, when of desirable quality, at high prices. Round lots through the country are now held at 15c to 18c for fair to choice dairy, with buyers not offering over 16c. Even this is an out-side figure, according to the present state of the English and United States markets, and does not English and United States markets, and does not seem to be in any way warranted. The competition between buyers, representing Montreal and other points, has been the principal cause of an advance for which no good reason is to be found. Cheese—Continues in good demand, selling at 11 to 12 to 12 to, according to quality. Eggs—The few coming in find ready sale at 13 to 14c, the present conversatively coal weather embling shippers to comparatively cool weather enabling shippers to forward them to markets in the United States. Pork-Only small sales making at about quotations, and stocks not being large, holders are not pressing to sell, nor could they probably find buyers except at a reduction from current quotations. Bacon and Hams—Continue to sell for the local trade, with however no large lots now changing hands.

SALT-The manufacturers at Goderich, Seaforth, &c., have, it is reported, come to an under-standing among themselves to put an end to the unprofitable competition which has lowered prices so greatly, and city agents have generally with-drawn from the market. Sales of several hundred barrels of Goderich are reported at $1.20 to 1.30, but it is expected that the price will be advanced to $1.10 at the wells, equal to about $1.50 here.

Wool.—Receipts have been large, but the demand has fully kept pace with it, and all offering has been taken at rather better than last week's prices, buyers at the close paying 37c for small and 374c for round lots.

1870 $6,690,562 18. $2,827,638 16.

Within the past five years the Assets of the Company have increased more than five million dollars, not-withstanding nearly a million dollars have been returned to Policy-holders in Dividends, and one and a quarter million dollars paid is losses by death during that period.

That this is a progressive Company is demonstrated by the following comparative statement of business in 1865 and 1870, respectively:—

	No. of Policies Issued.	Sum Assured.
1865.	4,302	8 6,779,425

That the business of the Company is managed with strictest economy, is indicated by the fact that notwith-standing the large increase in business, the expenses have been in inverse propertien, as will be seen by the follow-

As evidence of the special care taken by the Company in the selection of risks, it is sufficient to state that its ratio of losses paid to amount at risk, is smaller than that of any other Company of equal age, namely, 0.91.

Its convenience for business men is everything that can be desired, as it is in the runnediate vicinity of the leading Wholesale Houses. The rooms being well appointed and ventilated, are cheerful for families, while the mesage will be unexceptionable, and no pains will be spared in simistaring to the comfort of guests. The proprietors, having leased the adjoining premises, are prepared to offer every inducement to the Spring and Fall Trade; and as their tariff is unexceptionably reasonable, they hope to obtain a large share of public patronage.

The Equitable Life.

From the New York Insurance Times.

Some companies, as well as individuals, seem destined to take the lead. All the elements of their nature are so full of progressive vitality that to surpass and excel appears to be their inherent attribute.

Take the case in point, of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, of this city, perhaps the most progressive company of this country and age. We admit that its business has been conducted with unexampled vigor and enterprise but this official devotion, although a powerful auxiliary to its success, is not the main cause of it. The proud position the company now holds-at the head of all the life institutions of the world-was and is the gift of the American people. It gained their suffrages, given in honestly and dearly carned sold cash, because it served them best and met their wants most completely.

If the Equitable Life had not demonstrated its utility, soundness, and liberality by paying promptly, since its organization nearly twenty years ago, over six million dollars to the widows and orphans of members and to its living policy-holders in equitably proportioned dividends; if its dividends were not really, instead of being only ostensibly paid, as in other companies, at the end of the first and of every succeeding year ; if its policies were not absolutely non-forfeitable beyond " the shot of accident or dart of chance," good on surrender for their equitable value in eash or a fully paid-up policy; if the ident or dart of chance," good on surrender for their equitable value in each or a fully paid-up policy: if the company's affairs were not conducted with judicious economy, and its risks selected with great discrimination, so as to keep its mortality considerably in the rear of the estimated expectation and its total outgo for losses by death, and other expenses far below the average; if, in a word, it were not in the highest sense a purely mutual company, managed entirely in the interest of its members or policy-holders, so as to satisfactorily meet the requirements of al, it would not have received as it did lost year, more patronage from the public in the form of new business than any other company in the world by seven million Dollars.

Ten years ago the Equitable had 769 policies in force, but on the first of January last it had 36,340. Ten years ago its annual income was $79,070.76, and its assets to the engrnous sum of $13,236,024.56. Twenty-one-years ago all the life companies doing business in this State had only 23,278 policies outstanding, or 13,062 less than the Equitable had in force last year. Twenty-one years ago all these companies had an annual income of $2,722,185, or $4,468,929 less than the Equitable in 1870, and a total of insurance of $70,652,036—or $73,318,048 less than that of the Equitable, which last year amounted to $143,970.984.

We see, therefore, that had the maintenance of the progress of life insurance in America depended on the Equitable alone its growth would have been very great, beneficent, and honorable to the country. Its busin-ss last year forms of itself a most important page in the current history of the institution. It added no less then 10,063 to the number of the insured, and $4,255.799 to the amounted to the Equitable as a leading life company of the period.

The policy-holders of the Equitable Life enjoy the satisfactory consciousness that the company increased as assets during the year 1870 by additions to its previous accumulations of $2,725,201; that its living m year so great and beneacent a work, and, in distributing its timely relief, has thus consoled and ennabled, instead of humiliating its recipients? Life insurance as, administered by such officers as stand at the head of this grand corporation, who know no pause, no imit to their exertions or their success in diffusing the blessings they are simultaneously engaged in garthering and distributing, must result in untable benefits to the human family.
