

KRAFCHENKO IS CAPTURED BY THE WINNIPEG POLICE SUNDAY

Desperado Found in a Respectable Apartment House

He Was Suffering From Injury Received in Escape.

Arrest Proved a Tame Affair to the Police.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] WINNIPEG, Jan. 19.—The Royal Commission Saturday put Constable Reid through a grueling cross-examination before the royal commission. Charge complicity in escape.

Reid had been Krafcchenko's guard practically the whole time he had been in the city jail, and he was found to have visited Hagel's office at least four times and had been intimate with Hagel, who, of course, as the prisoner's lawyer had been in daily touch with Krafcchenko. What part Buxton played in the affair has not yet been ascertained.

John Westlake, arrested with Krafcchenko, was clerk of the Security Storage Company, while the suite at No. 4, Buxton Court, was leased by Patrick Garity and Frank Holt, for the latter of whom the police are now looking.

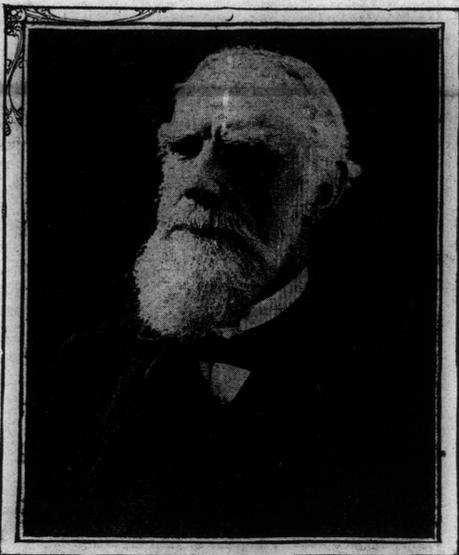

How Krafcchenko made his break for liberty was told by the gunman himself to the chief of police after his arrest, but by no manner of persuasion could he be got to implicate any confederate or say where he got his gun, rope and key. After gaining the photographer's room, he threw up the sash, tied the rope and climbed through the window. He was only a third of the way down when the rope broke and he fell to the ground badly hurting his leg. He struggled to his feet and limped along a lane behind the station until he gained the Main street where he caught the police signal lights already flickering. He crossed to William avenue, where he got a bad scare, a big touring car pulling up beside him and the driver offering him "a lift." It was not the police car, however, the driver being a stranger, who seeing a man limping painfully along had offered him a ride out of charity. The man took him along William avenue for some distance and set him down not far from Toronto street, where he made his way to the Burris block where he remained in hiding all the time save for some days when he found refuge in the Security Storage warehouse. As to his friends in the Burris block or the storage warehouse he would say nothing.

By a quaint irony, Percy Hagel, Krafcchenko's counsel, is now himself a prisoner in the "old kitchen." He has not yet been informed of his client's re-arrest.

Krafcchenko's counsel, Percy Hagel, Constable Reid, one of his guards, and John H. Buxton, a friend of Hagel's were all previously arrested. All are charged with complicity. The $11,000 reward will probably go to the city police who effected the capture. It is reported that the first "tip" came from Buxton, but as he is under arrest for complicity, all he is likely to get is some concession or immunity for turning "King's evidence."

JESSE COLLINGS PARCELS POST OF RETIRES FROM POLITICS ADVANTAGE TO CITY

An Outstanding Figure in Britain is Following Chamberlain.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] LONDON, Jan. 19.—The Right Hon. Jessie Collings, who from the laborers cottage of his father in Devonshire rose to be a member of the King's Privy Council, has decided to follow into retirement his leader, Joseph Chamberlain, who a few days ago announced that he was about to give up political life. Mr. Collings said to-day he would not at the next election renew his candidacy for the Bordesley division of Birmingham which he has represented in parliament since 1886. The aged statesman, who is 82 years old, has always been greatly interested in popular education and his study of the school system led him in 1868 to publish a remarkable pamphlet which did much toward the introduction of compulsory free education for all in England in 1870. Mr. Collings' political career has been principally occupied with the welfare of the agricultural laborer. His act for the provision of small allotments of land for farm workers, passed through parliament after repeated defeats, has been of great benefit to the British rural workman. Mr. Collings' policy in securing this enactment was popularly nicknamed "Three acres and a cow."

Always a strong radical in politics, Mr. Collings followed Joseph Chamberlain into the Unionist ranks on the introduction of the first Home Rule bill for Ireland by the late William E. Gladstone. At one time Mr. Collings was under secretary of state for the home department.

AN OYSTER SUPPER
An oyster supper and concert was held in St. James' Hall, Terrace Hill, on Friday evening last. Jan 16th in aid of the choir who are buying a new organ for the church. After the dinner man had been satisfied, Mr. A. T. Pickles took the chair in the absence of Ref. H. Wright, who was unable to attend. The programme consisted of songs and recitations by the following: Miss Wilson, piano solo; Master R. Ramsbottom, solo; Mr. Goldstraw, solo; Miss Della Riley, recitation; Mr. Blacker, solo; Mr. T. Pickles, recitation; Mr. C. Ramsbottom, solo; Mrs. A. T. Pickles, solo; speeches were made by Ald. English, Councillor W. B. Scafe and Mr. Simmonds, after which the National Anthem was sung, and brought to a close a very pleasant evening.

Quick Work in Arresting Of Western Desperado

[By Special Wire to The Courier] WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 19.—Since Saturday things have moved quickly in the Krafcchenko case. There have been five arrests namely: Saturday 11 p.m.: Constable Reid, one of Krafcchenko's guards arrested following a grueling cross-examination before the royal commission. Charge complicity in escape. Sunday 1 a.m.: J. Buxton, ex-secretary Winnipeg Builders' Exchange and friend of Percy Hagel, arrested. Charge complicity. Sunday 10 p.m.: Percy Hagel, counsel for Krafcchenko, enquiring at city hall about Buxton, is also arrested. Charge complicity. Sunday 11.08 p.m.: John Krafcchenko, escaped prisoner committed for trial on murder charge, re-arrested. Sunday 11.10 p. m.: John Westlake, a clerk of Security Storage Company, found in Krafcchenko's company, arrested for aiding, abetting and comforting. Frank Holt, Jessce of the room where Krafcchenko found now being sought by the police.

KING'S LIBELLER CLAMOR NOW SPEAKS IN FOR THE REAL HYDRO

English Agitator Addresses a Meeting of Socialists Sunday.

Violence Favored Instead of the Regular Procedure of Parliament.

TORONTO, Jan. 19.—Edward F. Mylius, the famous English agitator, addressed a meeting of the Young People's Socialist League yesterday at the Finch Hall, the nature of his remarks being gutted with such precision as to be well inside the legal limit of inflammability. Seemingly, however, the holding of the meeting was regarded as a very daring thing, indeed, by the "comrades" present, who numbered about 25, including a good proportion of young girls, but few native born of either sex. According to Matthew Wayman, social democrat candidate or school trustee, who delivered two orations during the afternoon, Mr. Mylius is "ostracized by society" because he has been in prison, and no newspaper will refer to him without tagging to his name the descriptive phrase, "Libeller of King George." The "comrades" in Mr. Wayman's estimation, were endorsing Mr. Mylius and snapping their fingers "society" in their presence at the meeting and their applause of the speaker.

Mr. Mylius is a rotund little man with an almost cherubic countenance clean-shaven and partly bald. He speaks with a miming precision which serves to carry his voice across a hall, despite his lack of sonority. His language, if his speech yesterday is an example, is moderate and well-chosen. His address was characterized by Mr. Wayman as "more or less collected and collected." The first part of Mr. Mylius' speech consisted of a history, from his point of view, of the libel suit brought against him by the British Crown, in connection with the publication in his paper, the Liberator, in 1910 of the well-known story of a marriage alleged to have taken place at Malta in the year 1890 between the King, then a commander in the navy, and Mary Culme Seymour, daughter of an admiral, and the wife of a Captain Napier.

Mr. Mylius pointed out that the story did not originate with him and recited the previous career of the rumor, culminating with a declaration by the late W. T. Stead, 18 years ago, that he had investigated the story and found it to be preposterous.

THE FAMOUS STORY
Shortly after the accession of King George in 1910, Mylius learned of the story and decided to use it in his newspaper campaign against the institution of monarchy. The story at that time was rife in England, he declared, but owing to the "terrible deadly British hush," it was one of those things that it is all right to talk about in secrecy, but which mustn't be said openly. He notified the editor of his paper, one Edward Halton James, a nephew of Henry and the late William James, and the yarn was printed in the Liberator.

"Mylius" was a question of honor. It was not a question of a man having two wives or twenty wives. Personally, I consider that I have nothing to do with the number of wives a man has, which is his own affair. But this was a question of a man's honor, and a woman, which was an altogether different thing. I thought that this was a good weapon with which to strike at the monarchy. We oppose the monarchy as an institution, and we attack the monarch not as individual, but as a symbol of that institution. I had no desire to hurt King George; I merely desired to dislocate the King's halo."

Mr. Mylius appeared, satisfied, in a sense, with the sequel of his publication. "My trial," he declared, "was a stupid, bungling piece of hypocrisy, and has done more to discredit the monarchy than anything else."

SIR JAMES WHITNEY IS BACK IN TORONTO

Will Keep Out Everyone From The Execution

According to instructions received from Toronto, strict precautions must be taken to keep the morbidly curious from, by any manner or means, attendance at the execution to take place on Friday morning next. Even reporters from the daily papers, it is announced, will be barred, and the greatest secrecy will be maintained in regard to the execution. The jury will not be permitted to be present. In the meantime strict precautions are being taken to keep secret anything in regard to the prisoner at the jail. Although there is little that can be said in this regard, outside of the fact that Taylor's health has failed, and he is in a state of utter dejection.

Ontario's Premier Arrived in Private Car To-day.

Conveyed to Private Suite at General Hospital.

He Stood Journey From New York Fairly Well.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 19.—At 9.10 this morning the C. P. R. train from Buffalo with New York passengers, arrived in the Union depot. On the end of the long train of sleepers was attached the private car of officials of the Temiscaming and Northern Railway "Sir James" named after the Premier of Ontario, whose stricken body the car conveyed back to this city after a two months absence.

Sir James was accompanied by Hon. Dr. Pyne, Minister of Education and his personal physician, by his wife, Lady Whitney, who has been constantly at his bedside and his private secretary Mr. Horace Wallis with two of the best trained nurses available in New York. Mr. F. A. Phillips and Mr. F. F. Baldwin. When the train pulled in, the special car was immediately taken from track six and shunted to track "one" at the foot of Simcoe street. At this point Dr. Alexander McPhedran, and Dr. Greer, hospital physician at the General Hospital, were in waiting with the ambulance.

A window of the private car was opened and the stretcher passed out in this way. There were only a few boys and one or two newspapermen present, the sudden decision to bring the distinguished patient home and the report that he had left on the 8 o'clock train and would not arrive before 11 p.m., prevented the assembling of a crowd of spectators which would have been very distasteful to the patient. He was immediately conveyed to a suite of rooms in what is known as the private pavilion at the General Hospital.

Hon. Dr. Pyne said: "Sir James Whitney had a fairly restful night and slept most of the time. He had a period of delirium and rambled some. His condition is all that could be expected. He is very weak, though stronger this morning than he has been at many times since his illness. His condition of course is still serious. "It was not arranged until 5.30 last night after a consultation with Dr. Briggs that we should bring Sir James home to Toronto. When Dr. Briggs saw him yesterday about noon he said he would return at 5.30 in the afternoon and we found his condition so favorable that it was decided to make the journey at once. "Everything had been arranged so that no inconvenience was likely and we left the Manhattan Hotel and went to the private car without any interruption of the plan. "Sir James has frequently expressed the wish to be taken home. As a matter of fact he seemed contented in the Manhattan Hotel in his convalescent moments, but in his delirium he would call out "take me home." The fact that he is home will have some cheering influence on the Premier. When he recognized that he was still in the Manhattan Hotel, it seemed to effect him. "We are home," continued the doctor, as a saddened expression overspread his face, "and it is a relief."

Lady Whitney, who left the train immediately on its arrival went to her residence on St. George street. She is on the verge of collapse by reason of her long voyage. Bulletins will be issued from the parliament buildings as to the condition of Sir James Whitney, whose physicians have expected his collapse for more than a year.

CADERS AT MANHATTAN.
NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Among the callers at the Manhattan Hotel yesterday before Sir James Whitney was moved to Toronto, was Newton W. Rowell, K. C., leader of the Liberal Opposition in the Ontario Legislature. Mr. Dowell expressed his gladness at the news that the Premier was a little better and asked to have his congratulations extended to Sir James. Other callers at the hotel were W. K. McLaughlin, M.L.A., Toronto, and J. W. Flavell, Toronto.

VICTIMS OF THE ALPS

HYDRO'S GLARE IS PLEASING TO ALL

Ornamental Lights Saturday Night Made Great White-way

Entire Plant to be in Operation by February First.

Without any fuss or ceremony the Hydro-Electric plant was partially turned on in Brantford on Saturday night.

The streets illuminated were Colborne, Market, Dalhousie, George and Queen. In all 147 lamps of the single pillar variety were used and they averaged one thousand candle power apiece. The effect was a transformation scene almost equal to one from fairyland. Citizens were out in full force to note the changing of dark Brantford into a "White City" and all who came within the zone of the lighted area were loud in their expressions of satisfaction and delight. "They are some lights," and "Gee but they are dandy," were some of the expressions heard among the crowd.

The effect on Market street was perhaps more pronounced than on Colborne, for the reason that there were brilliantly lighted shops on both sides of the latter for the Saturday night trade. The flame proved to be soft and steady and so penetrating that in buildings faced by them it was quite possible to read a newspaper or magazine without any artificial aid within.

At present the illuminations which will take place between 7 and 10 p.m. are just to show what the system can do. Soon after the first of next month it is expected to have the entire plant in operation, domestic and otherwise. In the latter regard there are already many requests for installation.

The direct power at the main station is at present 110,000 volts "stepped down" for city use to 26,000 volts.

Five Years Given to Lawyer Luscombe of London in Court Today.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] LONDON, Ont., Jan. 19.—Five years in Kingston penitentiary was the sentence handed Thomas Luscombe this morning by Judge Elliott on charges of theft and misappropriation of funds entrusted to his care. Luscombe for years was one of the best known barristers in this city. In passing sentence Judge Elliott said he would like to be lenient, but felt that a severe punishment was necessary because of the high standing of the members of the legal profession in London and throughout the province.

Brant Ave. is Without it And E. Colborne St. Wants It.

On account of the Brantford Street Railway refusing to allow a joint use of its poles for Hydro-Electric on Brant avenue that thoroughfare which is one of the main approaches to the city will be cut off from "juice" indefinitely. There is one way out of it, however. Brant avenue residents can secure the beautiful lights which made the thoroughfares of the business section great white ways on Saturday night under the local improvement plan with good effect. Merely reducing the cost considerably more. Colborne street east another main approach, it is felt should be a great white way, and could get the ornamental lights the same as Brant Ave.

NO MORE SULPHUR WITHIN PRESENT WEEK

So Say Officials of Gas Company - In Dark About Price.

Soon a most dreadful nuisance will have vanished; soon will the wallings be over. Why so? The Brantford Gas Co. has promised that within a few days, yes, within the present week to supply purified gas to the hundreds of the tormented users of the commodity. This welcome news was learned when enquiry was made of Mr. Fair, the manager.

When asked as to whether the purifying of the gas will increase the cost to the consumer, the manager could not say, and Mr. Sweet, solicitor of the Gas Co., when asked said: "Nobody here has any instructions that the price will be raised."

As to whether the supply will be sufficient because of the smallness of the plant, Mr. Fair could not say. It is a case of waiting to see how things work out.

Had a Smile At His Death

[By Special Wire to The Courier] OSSING, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Frank Muehfeld, alias the Kid, went smilingly to his death in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison to-day, the second man to die in the chair for the murder of Patrick Burns in New York two years ago. "Big Bill" Lindley was executed on May 26th last. Both Lindley and Muehfeld left statements absolving Ralph Furcolo of any connection with the crime. Furcolo is serving a twenty years sentence. Burns was robbed and shot down in his saloon in the Bronx early on the morning of Feb. 11, 1912.

GUNBOAT MATCHED.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—Gunboat Smith, champion heavyweight and Jesse Willard were matched yesterday to fight a twenty round contest in this city on July 4. Willard's manager is said to have guaranteed $5,000 to Smith win, lose or draw.

The men met here last May when Smith won a decision from Willard. Miss Pearl Wardell of Woodstock spent the week end, with Miss L. Smith, of Cayuga street.

Hospital Auxiliary Had A Very Splendid Year

Annual Meeting Was Held on Friday Last—Reports of the Various Officers Prove Most Encouraging.

The annual meeting of the W. H. A. was held on Friday afternoon in the Library, with a good attendance of interested members present. Some business, mostly routine was transacted before the annual business was taken up. Fees were received from Mrs. Taylor of Scotland $3.25; from Miss McEwen, Mt. Pleasant, $4.00; and a donation from the Ontario Women's Institute of $11.50, sent by Mrs. Chas. Edwards, was received with hearty thanks.

The Annual minutes were read and approved and the President and the W. H. A. for although the general meetings, the usual ten in number, with only two special gatherings, yet the executive and other committee meetings have been too numerous to record accurately, but suffice it to say that the weeks when one or more such meetings was not called, were few and far between.

The largest attendance at any general meeting was on January 9th, there being 24 present; the smallest on March 7th, when but a dozen attended. The average attendance during the year was 16.

The membership in city and county is approximately 1200, of which 15 are life members.

The annual reunion was held on Feb'y 27th at the Conservatory of Music. This function grows in popularity each year. Tag day in aid of the nurses' home furnishing fund, was held on June 7th, and though earlier than other years, proved quite as successful as heretofore.

The annual rummage sale on Oct. 30th and 31st, in Victoria Hall, was also financially profitable.

On Sept. 10th and two following days, the nurses' home was formally opened, at which tea and light refreshments were served. The graduating nurses were presented by the W. H. A. with silver thermometer cases and flowers. On Oct. 8th, the united hospital aids association met in Stratford and was attended by Mesdames Livingston Reville, Schell, Mitchell and Wade, and from the juniors by Mrs. Agnew and Miss Raymond. It is of interest to note that our Mrs. Waterous was made honorary president on this occasion.

On Sept. 12th, a letter was read from the Board of Governors, em-

Re-elected President W.H.A.

other officers read their annual reports for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1913. The officers of the Junior Aid were present and Miss Gladys Schultz, Secretary and Miss E. Spence, Treasurer, also gave their annual report, which showed great activity on the part of the young ladies.

It was resolved that the annual reports be adopted.

The chair was then taken by Mrs. Schell, who, in a neat address, recalling the fact that she had presided at the inaugural meeting of the society in 1903 presented the report of the nominating committee, which was unanimously adopted by a standing vote, re-electing all the officers for another year and empowering the Secretary to name an assistant as her duties were sometimes arduous, and Mrs. Carl Smith has consented to act in this capacity. The President returned thanks for herself and the other officers. The executive committee was also re-appointed with the exception of Mrs. M. H. Robertson, who wished to be relieved for a time, and Mrs. E. Henwood consented to take her place.

The officers are: Mrs. J. E. Waterous, President; Mrs. W. C. Livingston, 1st. Vice-Pres. Mrs. F. D. Reville 2nd. Vice Pres; Mrs. T. S. Wade, Secretary and Mrs. G. Watt, Treas. and the executive are Mesdames Nelles Schell, Cockshutt, Digby and Henwood.

Mr. Bunnell the W. H. A. representative on the Board of Governors was present and addressing them in terms of commendation regarding their business and executive ability and for what they had accomplished urging them not to relax in their efforts for the good of the hospital as the new wards in process of building would require all the help available.

The ladies according him a hearty vote of thanks for his arduous work in their behalf, especially during the building of the Nurses' Home, for which he returned thanks. A resolution of regret at the retirement of Mrs. Robertson and appreciation of her faithful services on the executive board was passed.

Mesdames Hurley and E. Brooks were appointed visitors during January. Appropriations for the Secretary-Treasurer and visiting committee were made. A resolution that the senior and junior officers meet and confer together as to plans for the year was passed and the meeting then adjourned.

Secretary's Report for 1913. The year just closed has been one of continuous activity on the part of powering the ladies to install a bronze tablet in the nurses' home, which offer was gratefully accepted.

Weekly visiting at the hospital has been carried on during the year, but was committed at times by request.

Flowers, fruits, magazines, etc. have been distributed at each visit. At Easter an individual offering of a few flowers and an Easter card was made to every patient in both hospitals, both public and private wards.

At Thanksgiving, dinners were provided for the nurses and extra dainties for the patients. At Christmas, the auxiliary presented gifts to all public ward patients, to the women a cup and saucer and ties to the men. The same to maids and orderlies (each with Christmas card and holly) and a scarf to Dennis Corcoran. Christmas cards were sent to all private patients, a cyclamen to Miss Carson and fern to Miss McCullough. The nurses received subscriptions for two magazines and the daily papers.

The children's aid remembered each child patient with hankkerchiefs and cards and the junior aid presented a crate of oranges and a plant to the superintendent.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ELIZABETH WADE, Secretary. The President's and Treasurer's reports will appear to-morrow.

P.S.A. BROTHERHOOD HOLDS INAUGURAL

Pres. Elect Crooker Takes Chair -- Interesting Proceedings.

A most successful inaugural meeting of the P. S. A. Brotherhood was held in the Congregational church on Sunday afternoon. This is really the first meeting of the brotherhood as an organization, the first election of officers having been held last Tuesday evening. The president-elect, Mr. Crooker, was in the chair. A pleasing feature of this, the opening meeting for the year was that the other two P.S.A. brotherhoods in this district, namely those of Hamilton and Paris, were represented on the platform. Mr. Adams, president of Paris P. S. A. in a short address, conveyed the greetings and good wishes for the coming year from Paris, and gave some useful hints on the working of their organization. Then Mr. Gilroy of Hamilton, who was the former pastor of the Congregational Church in this city, said that he also brought greetings from the brothers in Hamilton. Mr. Gilroy has had considerable experience in brotherhood work in this country, and the hints which he gave were valuable ones for they were drawn from his actual experiences. At the conclusion of his address he declared the officers duly installed, and expressed the hope that the brotherhood would meet with every success and become an efficient

KRAFCHENKO IS CAPTURED

to the injuries sustained in getting away. His leg is badly hurt from the fall he received when the rope on which he was going down to freedom broke, and his back is believed to be injured. The Barris block on Toronto street, where the arrest took place is a small, perfectly respectable apartment building in a good residential district. Constable Heid held his own remarkably well throughout the long hours of the cross examination Saturday night, until the question of what he was talking about to Percy Hagel on the occasion of an early call to his room was put. Here he floundered like a bull dog, but could not get any further.

"I wish you would give a definite answer to that conversation was about," quietly interposed Chief Justice Mathers.

"Of this—that," said the witness, "I can't remember. I don't know. I have forgotten."

Again Justice Mathers interjected, "I may as well frankly tell you that I do not believe a word of your story. I do not believe a word that you are saying."

From this moment the witness' brain seemed to be sluggish. His answers came slowly and hesitatingly from this on. His eyes roved the court room like a hunted animal looking for some avenue of escape.

Inch by inch the questions closed in on him. The insistence of the barrister worried him. He could no longer look him squarely in the face. His nerve appeared to go and he became muddled to a certain degree. A tremendous heave of his chest was noticeable as he was told "That was all."

Then came his arrest. Reid was a member of the Toronto police force from 1908 to 1910.

Percy Elden Hagel, who is under arrest in connection with the escape of Krafchenko, his client, has been a resident of Winnipeg since 1884, and is widely known about town. He has handled a large number of criminal cases and is one of the best of the denizens of the underworld when they clashed with the police. Hagel was born in Toronto in 1881 and came to Winnipeg with his parents when a baby. He was educated at the Winnipeg public schools and St. John's College, and afterwards went to the Yukon. He is a son of N. F. Hagel, K.C., of Winnipeg. A couple of years ago P. E. Hagel was suspended from the Manitoba bar for six months on the charge of taking an excessive fee from a client.

All those under arrest appeared in the police court this morning, probably to be remanded. The Royal Commission continues the inquiry today.

Personal Notes

The members of the "I Will Trust Club" of the Y. W. C. A. met on Saturday and discussed Ambition. The meeting was led by Miss Dacia Peirce and Mrs. W. S. Bates rendered a pleasing solo.

A very pleasing event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Denby, Cathcart, on Thursday evening January 15th it being Mr. Danby's birthday. A number of their relatives and friends of Burford, gathered to wish him many happy returns of the day. An address was read by Mr. Clark Jackson and a very handsome arm-chair was presented to Mr. Denby, by Mr. William Farrell. The address read was as follows:

Jan. 15, 1914.
Dear Mr. Denby:—We wish you on this your 40th birthday to accept this token of love from this happy assemblage and we hope that you will think of us every hour you sit in your chair.

Signed on behalf of your relatives and friends now present: Clark Jackson, William Farrell.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-Time Recipe That Anybody Can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant. Agent T. George Bowles.

GUELPH'S COSTLY LESSON

Brantford has spent large sums of money in the past in the work of flood prevention and that the same was fully warranted, and more expended in the future if necessary should be the opinion of citizens generally.

Those who may not think so would do well to consider the experience of Guelph. That place has a river called the Speed, which, like the noble Grand, is harmless looking enough during most of the year, but in springtime, when the ice breaks and the snows melt, becomes a raging and devastating torrent.

For thirty years the people of the Royal City had a bridge over the stream of fifty feet in width, and the entire floor over seven feet above low water mark. A new structure was decided upon, and to make it more artistic the two spans were narrowed by ten feet and built in the form of arches, with the result that the head room above low water mark was reduced to about four inches at the ends and four feet nine inches at the crowns.

After the change the flood waters commenced to overflow and the Guelph Worst and Spinning Company, whose premises have been devastated for two years, brought suit for $25,000 damages occasioned to goods and property in the one case, and $15,000 in the other. The Guelph Carpet Mills Company entered similar action for last year only to the amount of $8,000. The complaint in each instance was that the new bridge with lowered headway for the water, was the cause of all the trouble. The city authorities decided to fight the demands. There were two trials. Expert engineers, costing hundreds of dollars a day, were hired by the municipality leading counsel were secured, and in all some thousands of dollars spent on the defence.

Mr. Justice Middleton has now rendered his decision. He finds that there was neglect in the construction and the maintenance of the bridge, having regard to flood periods, and makes these awards: Worst Co's (one year) $15,000 Worst Co's (second year) 6,000 Carpet Co's 5,500

The entire costs are also allowed which it is expected will swell the total to $40,000 or more. Guelph has thirty days in which to appeal or pay up. Many citizens there feel that the former course would only end in still more costs. Moreover in addition to all of the above, the municipality will of course, if they want to avoid further suits, have to make the bridge right at the cost of still another large outlay.

The incident should be taken to heart by Brantford. As already related, we have done much, and successfully done much, by dykes and otherwise, to curb the Grand when it gets on a rampage, but it would seem to be the part of wisdom to have an authoritative announcement as to whether still further safeguards are not also desirable. If flood water ever got into the large factories near the canal, and in most instances the big lumber yards—The Radiator Company, the Massey-Harris Co's, The Waterous Company, the Adams Wagon Works, Cockshutt, Plow Company and Verity Plow Company—the damage would not only be enormous, but hundreds of men would be out of work. Guelph's fall in such a case, would be like a mere bagatelle. This is not in any sense intended by the Courier as an alarmist article, but one which does seek to emphasize the high importance of every precautionary measure which it is possible to take. If desirable, it would be far better to spend a few hundreds of dollars now than perhaps tens of thousands later on, not alone in the interests of large factories and those who earn a livelihood thereon, but also on account of the residences and the families who would suffer financially and physically.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC

The first demonstration of Hydro Electric in this city has most decidedly made good. From the mighty power generated at the foot of one of the world's greatest wonders Niagara Falls, citizens were afforded an illustration of that other great marvel of modern times, an unseen current of many thousands of volts coming over wires and making the mighty cataraact a servant of this and other communities in this section of Ontario.

Local residents in favor of this modern boon had to put up more than one fight against influence and money in order to secure the same. A private monopoly hitherto existing, naturally fought hard, and strange to say secured the active backing of some, whom it might have been easily thought, would have placed the interests of the community first. However, they did not succeed, and the result is to-day that citizens own their own lighting and power plant, and that prices have already been practically cut in two.

A FINE INSTITUTION

The annual report of the Women's Hospital Aid Association makes splendid reading, not alone for the members of that excellent organization, but also for the residents of the city and county generally. There is no need to amplify the work of the institution, for the reports tell of that in a most cogent manner. The central and most gratifying fact is that the roll now totals some twelve hundred of the fair sex. The entire membership is undenominational and thoroughly representative of all walks of life, and from the juveniles up to a period when it is not considered good taste to ask for ages, there is active, efficient and cooperative work, and the one steady purpose of unostentatiously helping to relieve the sick and the afflicted.

What this band of busy and self-sacrificing women means as an assistance to the hospital itself cannot be overestimated, and they are incidentally the establishment of an all round purpose and comradeship which is in itself most valuable. The Ladies' Aid has done a great work in the past, and will doubtless continue to do so in the future. All honor and help to them for it. Mrs. J. E. Waterous, the President, and her busy band of helpers have every reason to feel proud of their achievements and in return the residents of the city and county are rightly proud of them.

BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA

The Bank of Nova Scotia's eighty-second Annual Statement appeared in Saturday's issue and it may be noted that the total assets have increased from $71,279,298.95 to $80,751,829.99 during the year. The liabilities to the public (deposits, notes outstanding, etc.), total $62,686,436.27. The holdings of coin and legal tender amount to $7,885,463.07, and other and cheques on other banks, balances due by banks and banking correspondents, including Sterling Exchange, amount to $7,885,463.07, and other readily available assets such as call loans and investments are held to the extent of $20,746,796.20.

Net profits for the year, after losses by bad debts are estimated and provided for amount to $1,210,774.39 as compared with $970,544.38 a year ago. These profits are distributed in the payment of dividends at the rate of 14 per cent, amounting to $814,504.60; contribution to the Officers' Pension fund $50,000; written off Bank premises $150,000. Premium paid Bank of New Brunswick on purchase $100,000; and transferred to the Reserve fund $110,000, leaving a balance of $11,124.27 to carry forward.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Those initials W.H.A. stand for Working Hard Always. Is sticking to the mast. He says: "Not one step do I move. Though Uncle Sam has asked." Because Guelph didn't have a bridge of size over its pocket edition of the Grand River, the place is now bridged with sighs.

Hydro-Electric is another of the municipal kids which the Courier helped to foster. Now for the addition of the Street Railway, to the family. It is announced that Roosevelt will accept the next Republican nomination for President if the same is offered him. He and Winston Churchill ought to write a joint book on how to General Blanquet is the cognomen of the gent who will have charge of the defence of Mexico City if the rebels attack the place. If his men don't hold out he will probably live up to his name.

Ex-President Mellen of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railway announces that no man in any position is worth more than $30,000 a year. Let's have a try at it, with the chance to report ten years later. Huerta on the burning deck.

The Guelph Mercury (Liberal) thinks the speech from the throne "poor comfort." Quite so—for the Grit wind-jammers. They hoped, with the aid of the Senate, to further humiliate Canada in the eyes of the Empire with reference to the Navy Bill, and now won't have the chance.

CANADIAN BIRTHDAYS

MONDAY, JANUARY NINETEENTH

Sir William Mulock, now chief justice of the Exchequer Division of the High Court of Justice of Ontario, formerly Postmaster-General of Canada, celebrates his seventy-first birthday to-day. It was during his term as head of the post office department that penny postage was introduced and under him the labor department was established. For both these services he merits the thanks of his fellow Canadians. When in the political arena few were better known or more popular than he. In North York which he represented for fourteen years, he was known practically to every family throughout the riding and took a warm personal interest in the progress of the people irrespective of their political leanings. It is quite safe to state that he could have represented North York indefinitely. His hobby is farming and he owns a splendid farm near Newmarket, where he frequently entertains prominent guests.

Uncle Walt

The Poet Philosopher

SOME VEHICLES

I've seen the circus wagon pass, with stately horses hitched in line, all bright with shining paint and brass—it sent a thrill clear up my spine. I've seen the rich man's motor car, that cost him many thousand bones; it burned the road up near and far, and honked in loud Caruso tones. I've seen all things that go on wheels, whatever be the motive power; and viewing them, a fellow feels he's living in a modern hour. Of all the vehicles that roll along the pike from sun to sun, of all that stir me to the soul, the water wagon takes the bun. The water wagon has no gilt, nor is it hauled by circus span, and all its seats and springs are built upon a stern, old-fashioned plan; methinks its wheels are needing grease, and one can hear them squeak and grind; but those upon it ride to Peace, and leave the Land of Grief behind. Hang on, hang on, O thirsty boys, be not dismayed by jests or sneers, you're headed now for water, and you have known it in many a year.

King's Libeller

Speaks Out

(Continued from Page 1) monarchy than any event in recent years." He then told what happened at the trial, and recited various parts of the evidence in support of a contention that the marriage story had not been satisfactorily disproved. His chief complaint was that he was not permitted to have the King subpoenaed as a witness for the defence. He could not call any other witnesses of the alleged marriage, as such persons would be liable to confinement and imprisonment under the terms of the Royal Marriage Act. Mr. Myllys took direct issue with Lord Alverstone and Sir Rufus Isaacs, who maintained that the summoning of the King to court would be unconstitutional. "But I realized from the first," he said, "that the process of law was to be a hollow mockery, and that despotism, not justice, was to reign on the bench."

Myllys was sentenced to a year's imprisonment, and his conviction on the charge of defamatory libel was hailed by the "capitalistic press" as a vindication of the King's honor. With the names of Myllys and James was compiled that of Krishnavanar, the Hindu revolutionary "cause," he said, "I had some correspondence with him in connection with the paper. Of course the mere mention of his name was enough to send shivers down their backs."

His Prison Term

The speaker next described his prison term, and his release. "The released convict," he said, "has to contend with the ostracism of bourgeois society. You cannot reform a prisoner, because society does not allow him to reform. He carries the prison taint wherever he goes. Justice does not demand of us that we should be punished; punishment is only a confession of weakness, it shows that the State lacks moral power." Mr. Myllys was not have peace at the cost of starvation, slavery, and degradation of so many. We simply have to be indifferent to all forms of violence. The only way to seize the means of production from the capitalistic class is by force; a majority in parliament would be useless, because we are not governed by parliament, but by the armed force. I hate force, myself, but I realize that it is a necessity. It is a kind of beast which we have to keep chained up, for use when we need it."

The awakening of the British working classes to a realization of their position, Mr. Myllys added, was his intention in printing the story about the King. "I wished," he said, "to disturb the degrading respect for Royalty, the flunkeyism and subservience which makes the English working class economically so backward."

The Manager of the Gloves and Embroideries Offers Great Values

The close of the holiday rush found many odd and broken lots of twos, threes, fours, and so on, of a kind—all fresh, new goods, but not enough of a kind to carry in regular stock. These are going out at a rush. I have priced them to insure this. To these lines I have added a number of special purchases that I know will appeal to my customers.

Paris News

PARIS, Jan. 19.—A horse attached to a delivery sleigh of Mr. Causlands made a dash for liberty on Grand River Street hill and came dashing through the business section just at 6 o'clock last evening. Two young lads were in the sleigh, one was pitched out in front of the Bank of Hamilton and the other, when the sleigh struck the Neth River bridge, Luckily both boys escaped serious injury.

The Penman mills are very slack at present and many are out of employment. Eleven of the twenty-two sets of cards are temporarily idle.

WITHIN THE LAW

By MARVIN DANA FROM THE PLAY OF BAYARD VEILLER

Copyright, 1914, by the H. K. Fry Company.

"They sent her to prison for three years."

"Three years?" The salesgirl had repeated the words in a tone that was indefinable, yet a tone emblem in its incredulous questioning. "Three years," she said again, as one refusing to believe.

"Yes, three years." "Good God!" There was no irreverence in the exclamation that broke from the girl's lips. Instead only a tense horror that touched to the roots of emotion.

"Say," Sarah demanded, with the directness habitual to her, "why are you so anxious about it? This is the third time you have asked me about Mary Turner. What's it to you, I'd like to know?"

"The salesgirl started violently, and a deep flush drove the accustomed pallor from her cheeks. She was obviously much disturbed by the question. "What is it to me?" she repeated in an effort to gain time. "Why, nothing—nothing at all, only—she's a friend of mine, a great friend of mine. Oh, yes!"

There was a monotone of desolation as she went on speaking in a whisper meant for the ears of no other. "It's awful—three years! Oh, I didn't understand! It's awful—awful! With the final word she hurried off, her attitude one of wondering grief.

Sarah was thinking intently of Mary Turner after her return to the office. As she glanced up at the opening of the door she did not at first recognize the figure outlined there. She remembered Mary Turner as a tall, slender girl, who showed an underlying vitality in every movement, a girl with a face of regular features, in which was a complexion of blended milk and roses, with a radiant joy of life shining through all her arduous and vulgar conditions. Instead of this, now she saw a frail form that stood swaying in the doorway, that bent in a sinister fashion which told of bodily impotence, while the face was quite bloodless.

A man stood beside her, one of his hands clasped around the girl's wrist. It was Cassidy, from headquarters, who spoke in a rough, indifferent voice.

"The district attorney told me to bring this girl here on my way to the Grand Central station with her."

"Mr. Glider will be right back. Come in and wait."

"The girl did not look up. She stood still, swaying a little, as if from weakness.

"Are you?" she said. "I did not know. Nobody has been near me the whole time I have been in the Tombs."

"Why," Sarah exclaimed, "there was Helen Morris today! She has been asking about you again and again. She's all broken up over your trouble."

"Who is Helen Morris?" the lifeless voice demanded. There was no interest in the question.

Glider entered the office with the quick, bustling activity that was ordinarily expressed in his every movement. He paused as he beheld the two visitors, then he spoke curtly to the secretary.

"You may go, Sarah. I will ring when I wish you again."

There followed an interval of silence while the secretary was leaving the office and the girl with her wanderer stood waiting on his pleasure. Glider cleared his throat twice in an embarrassed foreboding to him before finally he spoke to the girl.

Woodstock Plans Hockey League

WOODSTOCK, Jan. 19.—Providing that old King Winter provides plenty of good ice in February, Woodstock hockey fans will be given the opportunity of seeing some real classic city league hockey, plans as their object the running-off of a three team schedule now being formulated by Mr. W. H. Martin, the veteran amateur sport promoter of Woodstock.

Mr. Martin has already donated a handsome silver trophy which he intends shall be owned by the winners and kept by them for all time. Teams from Woodstock College, the Collegiate and the Y.M.C.A. will be eligible to take part in the series, and it is expected that the rivalry between these institutions will be sufficient to warrant good, fast hockey. Although Mr. Martin has not yet finally drafted his rules and regulations, it is understood that no team will be given the advantage over the other in regard to O. H. A. players. For instance the Collegiate O. H. A. team will not be allowed to represent the college in the competition but each team will be allowed to draft two O. H. A. men.

The schedule will begin about February 2nd, and will occupy two or three weeks before completed.

"Bad Man" Joe Hall to Sue Newspapers.

QUEBEC, Jan. 19.—Joe Hall of the Quebec Hockey Club stated last night that he was about to institute action for damages against several of the papers, especially those in Montreal on account of their reports of his encounter with Lalonde in Wednesday's match, when the Canadian player was injured and had to be carried from the ice. Joe says that he gave Lalonde a fair body check in front and that the stories that he deliberately charged from behind are utterly false. He had promised Manager Quinn before the match that there would be no trouble between himself and Lalonde and did not want to lessen his team's chances of victory by incurring any risk of getting ruled off. From the fact that he was on the defense and Lalonde was continually coming in on the attack they were bound to come in contact some time or another. It was his duty, he says to defend the Quebec goal, and he did it. The defective rink did the rest.

SOUTHAMPTON JUNIORS WIN.

SOUTHAMPTON, Jan. 19.—The junior hockey team, locally known as the "Uptivabics" have gained fame for themselves. With scarcely any practice owing to the unreadiness of the rink, they played Port Elgin junior seven on their (Port Elgin) own ice, defeating them to the tune of 7 to 3. It was a rattling good game, and although our boys showed the need of practice they showed their superiority over the southerners.

From the drop of the hat all the boys started with a rush and at half time the score was 3 to 1. "Biscuit" Knowles refereed satisfactorily.

A.A.U. Refuses Women's Entries

Mail Vote, After Strong Agitation. Results in an Overwhelming Veto Vote.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—As a result of the recent agitation to permit enrollment of women athletes in the ranks of the Amateur Athletic Union a mail vote has been taken on the subject, with the result that the union has decided by an overwhelming majority to refuse registration to women athletes in all sports and competitions controlled by the A. A. U. This effectively bars women from competing or giving athletic exhibitions in open games or meets where men or boys are entered to appear in any part of the programme.

It is reported that, notwithstanding the rule prohibiting such mixed competitions, one association of the A. A. U. permitted the union laws to be violated.

Of all those voting only one was cast against the resolution. Another voted in favor of the resolution, but requested that they be registered in a group by themselves.

GIRLS! THICKEN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Bring back its glow, lustre, charm and get rid of dandruff.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fullness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

Sporting Comment

Guelph being out of organized ball and on the Fat Stock circuit will now proceed to be forgotten.

Resolved by Brantford hockey interests: "We would rather win a game than take Quebec."

Our advice to the editor of the Guelph Mercury "Hang on to the Fat Stock Show and you are lucky."

Miracle of Miracles to be recorded in the book of Chironimicles: That is when Brantford wins a hockey game.

Why shouldn't T. J. Nelson and Roy Brown be happy that Guelph is no longer in the Canadian League when Brantford has had to contribute to pay Guelph's way.

Well, after all the tippy-turvy work in the Canadian League this winter, Brantford retains its franchise and we will have ball, real, old ball here next year. Bring on the manager!

The Editor of the Guelph Mercury before going into a spasm should look over the Canadian League books regarding finances and assure himself just how big a barnacle Guelph proved to the other clubs in the Canadian League.

The sporting editor of this paper is entirely "hep" to the position as regards a manager for the Brantford Ball Club. There are several applicants and all we can say at present is that fans need not worry; we will have a manager and a real boss of the job.

When Mahoney lost the Guelph franchise by O'Neil of London calling a bluff, the Canadian League conference in Toronto is said to have taken on an atmosphere resembling that around the islands in Japan where volcanoes have recently disgorged themselves.

Peanuckle Cancellia says he cannot make pine or oak trees bear oranges even in Mohawk Park; therefore, his deal for the park as a home for the Federal League is off. Pete has not explained before going to press how he got fired as trainer of the Intermediate Hockey Club.

Victor Levitt of the Ferrari Shows wants to come back to Brantford this year. After the knock from the Cupola Corner after Levitt "excited" last summer there may be some trouble about securing a license. The Cupola, however, knocked after the bird had flown and not before. A funny Cupola, indeed!

"I'd rather be fired than work for nothing," said Cancellia. "I gave oranges, lemons and time to make our O. H. A. intermediates into champions. The oranges failed, the lemons failed, I failed. Bruce Gordon failed and they failed themselves. For the glory of Brantford what am I going to do. They fired me! Bing! Bing! expletives and then some !!!"

"LEFTY" ROGERS LEAVES OTTAWA; QUILTS BASEBALL

OTTAWA, Jan. 19.—"Lefty" Rogers, outfielder and pitcher of the Ottawa Baseball Club, Canadian League champions, left last night for Decatur, Ill., where he has accepted a position with a commercial firm. It is far more profitable than playing baseball. He declares that the diamond has seen the last of him. Manager Shaughnessy and other officers of the Ottawas interviewed Rogers yesterday with a view to having him change his mind and remain, but the sensational outfielder packed his grips and hit the trail. Before going he took occasion to wish the Ottawas continued success in the Canadian League. MANY PLAYERS AT ONEILL'S DISPOSAL

Owner George H. O'Neil, of the Guelph team, has several new players who want to join his team.
One is Ramsay, a pitcher, with the Pittsburgh Federals last year. He hails from Anderson, South Carolina, and is said to be a real comer.
A new one was springing up, Mr. O-Neil. A player who last year played with the Wilkesbarre club and later with Greensboro, in the Carolina League sent an application for a place but forgot to sign his name.
He lives in Hazelton, Pa., and last year his 397. A scout will probably be sent out to discover the identity of the stranger, as he might be a good one.
He has already had an application for the position of manager. "Curly" Blount, who handled the Jamestown team in the Interstate League last year, to which Erie belonged, has written Mr. O'Neil will keep in touch with him.
"There are plenty of players to be had," said the Guelph manager, "if it is Erie, owner."

Courier Sport Editor
Replies to Double Attack

"The Guelph Mercury contained the following in its editorial columns on Thursday.
"President Nelson and Roy Brown the owners of the Red Sox, are greatly pleased that the Canadian League this year will be without Guelph and Berlin."
The above was written by some youth on The Brantford Courier, who hedges behind the name "Free Lance." As a general thing, the editor of The Mercury leaves sporting matters to be attended to on the sporting page, but the above extract will bear a little investigating. If The Courier would come out and explain that "Free Lance" was an apprentice, or some one working for experience the incident might not be worth noticing. Guelph deserves no such treatment from a Brantford paper. Its part in the Canadian League requires no apology. It has always had a team that could play a good brand of ball. It never had an aggregation that looked as utterly hopeless and as ridiculous as the Brantford team of 1913. If Brantford is to stay in the Canadian League it will be necessary to have some supporters of larger calibre than the little fellow who styles himself "Free Lance" in The Brantford Courier.
The above appeared in the columns of the Expositor Saturday, copied as will be seen from the Guelph Mercury.
The heading of the Expositor read "This ought to hold him for an indefinite period," referring, of course to Free Lance of this paper.
Free Lance replies to-day as follows, both to the Mercury and the Expositor.
Despite the fact that Brantford had a tail-end team in 1913, the other clubs in the league did not have to contribute towards Brantford's expenses either in 1912, 1913 or 1914.
Brantford paid its own money, a positive gift to keep Mahoney and Guelph on their feet in 1912 and the league books bear it out.
The Courier comment was not written by any novice, but by the real Free Lance, for three years Secretary of the Brantford Baseball club, one who knows more about baseball attendance in Guelph than the editor of the Guelph Mercury himself. Not only that, the real Free Lance, above referred to, secured the guarantee from Brantford people which first placed Brantford in the Canadian League. Free Lance knows that in 1912, certain sums out of league funds were set aside to pay Guelph's and Berlin's deficit, and Brantford, good town as it was paid its share. Brantford, tail-end in 1913 paid its own way and there was no wrench from President Nelson and Roy Brown, owners of the club. These gentlemen do not know how to welch, as the art is known in Guelph and as has been duly exemplified heretofore.
The Mercury says Guelph's part in the Canadian League requires no apology. We differ there. Any club, and Guelph seemed at frequent intervals to have had good players, which would not give the visiting team a bigger percentage than it did wherewith to pay salaries, certainly does owe an apology. Guelph, in the point of attendance was a joke, so was Berlin. With a tail-end team, and a rank one at that, Brantford, in point of attendance was fourth in the league last year, beating not only Guelph, but Hamilton St. Thomas and Berlin.
The editor of the Mercury of Guelph should content himself on hanging on to the Fat Stock Show. That is Guelph's only hope. As a city on an organized baseball circuit the editor's city, which he naturally boasts, proved a dismal and rank failure. If such failure was not due to the city, but to a parsimonious mismanagement, said editor ought to be honest enough to explain.
At any rate Brantford has paid its way in the Canadian League every cent of it, and that is more than Guelph can boast of.
The sporting editor of the Expositor who faked on the heading to the Mercury stuff "This ought to hold him for an indefinite period" applied for the job of official scorer last summer and was turned down.
Oh, you Expositor!

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 19.—The signed contracts of Catcher Geo. Gibson and Outfielder Mike Mitchell with the Pittsburgh Nationals were an-

However, Hendrix, who has received accept the Pittsburgh contract or jump to the outlaws.

Gibson, the London boy, is now
out of the reach of the Feds, as well

AT LEAST SIX FEDERAL TEAMS

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—The Federal League of Baseball Clubs will remain intact as recently organized, it is said as a result of a long secret meeting of the club owners. During the day many rumors were afloat that the new league was about to break up in dissolution, but harmony eventually prevailed.
The rumor that caused most discussion was that Charles Weeghman, of Chicago, had announced his intention to withdraw from the Federal League and buy the St. Louis Club, of the American League. This threat was

WOODSTOCK JUNIORS OUT TO BEAT PARIS TEAM

WOODSTOCK, Jan. 19.—Woodstock juniors with two wins and no losses to their credit, are expecting one of the hardest games of the season to-night when they tackle the speedy Paris youngsters at the headquarters of the "Frenchmen" on the banks of the River Grand. The same line-up which has represented the red and white so far this season will go on the ice for Woodstock, and a large delegation of rooters will be there to cheer their favorites to victory. Woodstock needs the game in order to avoid a play off for the group honors and a strenuous effort will be made to decide the championship of Section B of group 8 by a Woodstock victory and a Paris defeat. The visitors will line up as follows:
Goal, Childs; left defence, Skelley;
right defence, Palmer; rover, Hiller;
centre, McTague; right wing, Smith;
left wing, Ball.

COMPANY HAD SPLENDID YEAR

The annual meeting of the Goodf. Shapley and Muir Company, the 21st in the history of the business, was held Saturday afternoon in the board room at the factory, a large number of the shareholders being present.

Mr. E. L. Goodf., the president, occupied the chair and read the annual report of the directors, which was of a very satisfactory character. No-withstanding the depression so general throughout Canada in the manufacturing business the Goodf. Shapley and Muir Co. did a larger turnover by nearly $40,000 than the year before. The usual satisfactory cash dividend was declared; also a ten per cent stock dividend. During the year the factory staff was kept well employed a pleasing contrast to many other manufacturing concerns throughout the country.

The capable general manager, Mr. John Muir in a lucid address touched upon many points of interest in connection with the year's work. A pleasing new feature of the firm's output is the manufacture of an engine which will use coal oil instead of the more expensive gasoline. A greatly improved windmill has also been evolved. Mr. Muir thinks the business outlook for 1914 is most encouraging. In the west the firm has recently completed a very handsome warehouse in Regina.

Speeches of a eulogistic character were made by Mr. W. H. Shapley, Mr. H. Yeigh, Mr. W. H. Whitaker, Mr. C. Cook, Mr. F. Leeming, Mr. A. Burnley, Dr. E. Hart, Mr. R. H. Reville and others. The old board of directors was unanimously re-elected.

The new curate of Grace Church is regarded as one of the most promising young men of the diocese. He is a son of Ven. Archdeacon Paterson-Smyth of St. George's Church, Dominion Square, Montreal and has had a distinguished career in arts and theology. At present Rev. Paterson-Smyth is curate at St. Alban's Cathedral, Toronto. He will not be able to come to Brantford until June 1, next.

A general feeling of congratulation is felt by the rector and people of Grace Church in securing such an able and promising young man for the ever-increasing work of the parish.

SUNDAY IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES

Inspiring Services Throughout City—Helpful Sermons.

ALEXANDRA CHURCH

The Rev. D. T. McClintock's morning subject was founded on the text "Remember, Lot's Wife." A day of judgment is coming and when it comes, people will need to act promptly. We must not hesitate, loiter or linger. Let our decision be complete. If we have not responded to the call of God, the sin lies at our door. The warning of the text may apply to much sin in our church and in our individual life. We loiter and linger too near the border of sin; because we look back instead of looking steadily forward.

In the anthem, "Seek ye the Lord," the solo parts were sung by Miss Marlette and Mr. Cullen the obligato solo, and the obligato part was pleasingly rendered by Miss Marlette.

The usual bright song service was held in the evening. The pastor requested the congregation to sing "I am so glad that Jesus Loves Me," to the tune of the "Glorious Song" and the audience responded heartily. In the anthem "Still, Still with Thee," the solo parts were admirably sung by Miss Josephine Waldron. Mr. Harold Ross was present and delighted all with his splendid rendition of "Consider and Help Me." "Spiritual Outlook" was the pastor's theme.

The Rev. Llewellyn Brown of the First Baptist Church will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning.

WELLINGTON STREET

All the services were well attended. The pastor, Rev. R. D. Hamilton preached two excellent sermons. His morning theme was "Preparing for War," thus appropriately inaugurating a series of special meetings for evangelistic work. Mr. Hamilton's evening subject was "Modern Development in Theology," being a review of Winston Churchill's book, "The Inside of the Cup." Many beautiful and helpful thoughts were brought out.

Owing to a burst pipe in the heating system the morning service was held in the Lecture Hall. The break was soon repaired and the evening service was held in the auditorium.

Mrs. J. Limburg and Miss Mabel Limburg sang a duet at Sunday school with piano and organ accompaniment by Miss Graham and Mr. Darwin.

The choir music was well rendered. The evening anthem, "Hearken unto Me, My People" (Sullivan) was particularly pleasing. The assisting soloists for the day were Misses Corinne Chave and Mabel Limburg and Mrs. Robert Thompson.

Sunday School Institutes

A series of Sunday school institutes in connection with the Brantford Methodist district are in progress this week. The first is taking place at Paris to-day. To-morrow the services will be at Colborne St. Church in this city, and on Wednesday in the Methodist church at Lynden. At the Colborne St. evening services, addresses will be given by Rev. Farewell, Field Secretary, and a resident of Toronto, and by Rev. Geo. H. Williams, Centenary Church, Hamilton.

Hos. ses in Hole

Becoming frightened at an engine in operation on a Lake Erie and Northern contract at the head of the canal, a team owned by Mr. Walker, a Dalhousie street liveryman, and hitched to a sleigh backed off a thirty foot embankment in spite of the efforts of Dan Welsh, the driver to keep the frightened team in the road. The sleigh fell on top of the team and it was necessary to cut the harness to free the team, which was but slightly injured. The driver jumped and in landing received injuries to his knee, but they were not of a very serious nature.

Local News

A very pleasant and enjoyable time was spent on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Walker, in honor of Mr. W. Walker, 281 West street, birthday. After a dainty supper was served, music, songs and dancing were the order of the evening, the party breaking up about midnight, all expressing themselves as having spent a most enjoyable evening.

Has Assigned

Chas. F. Nicholls, bicycle repairer, Dalhousie street, has made an assignment to his creditors, who will meet January 27.

Historical Society Meeting

A meeting of the Brant Historical Society will be held to-morrow afternoon at the Judge's chambers in the Court House.

Nothing In It

Canadian League Meeting

A meeting of the Canadian League is taking place in Toronto this afternoon. The territory is being laid out and the schedule drawn up. Messrs. Roy Brown and G. J. Nelson, owners of the Red Sox are in attendance.

Copy of Resolution Received

A copy of the resolution approving of the principal involved in the establishing of a prison farm, passed at the last meeting of the Board of Trade, has been received at the office of City Clerk Leonard.

Applications for Garbage Route

Applications to be given a garbage route have been made to the city by Holder, 264 Wellington Street. Both gentlemen promise to provide a proper outfit.

Talk of New Rink

The statement came from a reliable source this morning that a company would be formed for the purpose of establishing a new rink here next season. The company would provide artificial ice. The names of the parties contemplating the forming of the company could not be learned.

Play in "Gay Parade"

Should the rink management decide to allow the local junior team to play the game with Paris scheduled for a week from Friday at the arena, the team would be very glad to do so. Should permission not be granted, the game will be played in "Gay Parade."

Church Union

For the purpose of demonstrating that union already prevails in the use of hymns in church union song service will be held on Sunday evening next at Colborne St. Methodist Church. Hymns common to the hymn book of the Roman Catholic Church, will be sung.

Evening Classes at Collegiate

Evening classes at the Collegiate Institute are now in full swing for the second part of the session. It is hoped that the attendance will equal that of the first part over 75 per cent. The students are enthusiastic and the work done is of a high order. There are vacancies in the classes for sheet metal drafting and electricity.

Civic Authorities Object

Civic authorities to-day communicated with the Attorney General in regard to the burial of James Taylor, who will be buried on Friday next at the local jail. For sanitary reasons the request is being made that interment be not made in the court yard, as is usual in such cases, but that the remains be removed from the city to be disposed of as is deemed fit and proper.

Dufferin Woz

The officers of the Dufferin Rifles triumphed over the officers of the 91st Regiment, Hamilton, on Saturday evening in an indoor baseball game played in the Ambitious City. The score was 20 to 16, which demonstrated that the teams were quite evenly matched. The battery for the local's was: Second, Newman and Jones and for the 91st team Ewel and Dickson.
