FORMING NEW LINE OF THREE HUNDRED MILES FOR WINTER

New York Herald Correspondent Looks for Long Winter Siege Between the Two Armies - Situation is Sized Up Concisely.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] (By courtesy of The New York Herald.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The Herald's military critic to-day gives the following review of the war situation in Europe:

"Under conditions which obtain in warfare to-day, the chances of a Napoleonic improvisation growing out of such an impersonal syndicate as a modern general staff are small indeed. It is even doubtful if the master mind of Napoleon could have changed the conditions of stalemate which now appear to be inevitable in the western theatre of operations.

"With the reduction of the fortress of Antwerp, giving to the Germans control of the major portion of Belgian territory, it would appear that the catapulsive drive by heavy massed flanking columns, reinforced by the forces that were engaged in the investment of the garrison, might again be instituted by the Germans. Undoubtedly such a manoeuvre is included in the immediate scheme of campaign of the German general staff. Although it is within the realm of possibility the success of such a movement is doubtful. The battle-hardened troops led by experience-taught officers, whom the military machine of the Kaiser will encounter in Belgium now, are an entirely different organization from the numerically inferior body pushed hurriedly from the concentration camps into Belgium more than two months ago.

"In the first place, it is likely that every soldier of the Franco-British forces has acquired strength with the German troops, and while they must have the highest respect for the prowess of their adversaries as fighting men in mass, they have not yet learned that the Germans can do more than hold their own in the face of numbers approximating their own in strength.

"Thus the German forces before Antwerp were not of sufficient strength to maintain a complete offensive is evident from the twofold fact that several of the forts appear still to be holding out and that the Belgian army was able to retreat under cover of the fire of forts and retire upon Ostend. Should the projected junction between this force and the allies extreme left be effected, the entire allied force should be enabled to hold the channel coast inviolate, establishing the extreme left of their battle line of between 250 and 300 miles in the vicinity of the Belgo-Netherlands frontier.

With the British reinforcements which are reported to be pouring into Ostend, King Albert should now be at the head of some 200,000 men. Acting in conjunction with the Franco-British column moving northward, the Belgo-British force with Ostend as its base is undoubtedly endeavoring to crush the German wedge which has been partly driven between the two forces above Paris. If the Germans are defeated the line of the allies will be completed almost to the Dutch frontier.

Behind such a line is a system of excellent railway lines and highways, which should endure through any conditions of weather. If then the two opposing forces will occupy this attenuated series of positions from the Belgian frontier to that of the Netherlands, indications are that there will be comparatively small change in the whole situation during the long winter months. Each side will maintain a front of carefully sited and great works. Meanwhile the operations in the western and eastern theatres of the great conflict are veiled in official obscurity. It is known, however, that the Russians have abandoned the siege of the Przemyel fortress in Galicia, which should postpone the decisive battle before Cracow, thus lessening the tension upon the Austro-German frontier in the east.

Slight gains by the French along the general line in the west are of comparative unimportance until the outcome of the battle which has been raging along the Belgian frontier beyond Lille has become decisive. Upon that result rests the fate of the Belgo-British force at Ostend.

A DESERTED BATTLEFIELD AFTER GERMANS FLED LEAVING THEIR GUNS FAR EAST

GERMAN GUNS ABANDONED ON MONTREUIL-AUX-LIONS BATTLEFIELD. The rolling back of the German forces from the Marne left in its trail a litter of damaged guns, timbers and used and unused shells. A special correspondent describes this scene of a battlefield deserted by the Germans as follows:—"In the valley along the marsh land beside the river troops are being moved from place to place, the ground is strewn with dead, dead men of three nations and dead horses mingled in inextricable confusion. There are broken machine guns, foundered cannon that it has been impossible to rescue from the enemy's advance, a thousand different accoutrements scattered on every side. Further up on the heights on the north bank of the river are the trenches of the Allies, little separate pits in each of which a soldier lies hidden, but not so completely hidden that his whereabouts cannot be discovered from the air. Over the trenches the shells are bursting fitfully."

SOUTH AFRICA LOOMS UP ON THE HORIZON OF TROUBLE TO THE EMPIRE OF GREAT BRITAIN

Martial Law Declared, Following Rebellion of Colonel Maritz - His Insolent Conduct Called for His Dismissal and He Refused to Give Up His Command - Stern Measure Being Taken to Suppress the Traitors.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] CAPE TOWN, Union of South Africa, via London 11:27 a. m., Oct. 13.—It has been officially announced here that a command under Col. Maritz has rebelled in the Northwest of the Cape provinces.

Martial law has been proclaimed throughout the union.

The proclamation imposing martial law follows:

"Whereas a state of war exists between the British Empire on the one hand, and the German Empire on the other, and whereas the government of the protectorate of German Southwest Africa has through a widespread propaganda endeavored to seduce citizens of the Union from their allegiance and to cause rebellion and civil war within the Union and whereas these efforts have so far succeeded that Lieutenant Maritz, together with a number of his officers and a portion of the forces under his command has shamefully and traitorously gone over to the enemy and is now raising all his arms against the government and the people of the Union and is, in conjunction with forces of the enemy, invading the northern portion of the Cape province, and whereas, there is grave reason to think that the government of German Southwest Africa has through its numerous spies and agents communicated with and corrupted also other citizens of the Union under the false and treacherous pretext of favoring the establishment of a republic in South Africa and whereas, the government of the Union considers it necessary to take effective measures to protect and defend the interests of the Union and its loyal and law abiding citizens against the insidious and traitorous attacks from within and without and to that end to declare martial law.

Continuing the proclamation declares that the whole Union of South Africa is under martial law as understood and administered in time of war and dating as from to-day.

The proclamation is signed by Lord Buxton, governor-general of the Union and counter signed by General Smuts, minister of defence.

IT WAS EXPECTED The rebellion among the forces of the north-west cape province, has been brewing since the resignation of General Beyers as commander-in-chief of the Union forces.

As soon as the government realized this situation, it sent Colonel Maritz to relieve Maritz of his command. Colonel Maritz then discovered that Maritz was commanding German troops as well as his own, and that he had German guns in his possession. Maritz had been given the German rank of general had arrested those of his officers and men who were unwilling to join the Germans and had sent them as prisoners of war to German Southwest Africa.

According to an official statement an agreement was drawn up between Maritz and the governor of German Southwest Africa, guaranteeing the independence of the Union as a republic, ceding Walvis Bay in other parts of the Union to the Germans and undertaking that the Germans should join the Union only if Maritz asked them to do so.

Maritz boasted that he possessed large supplies of guns, rifles, ammunition and money obtained from the Germans and that he would over-run the whole of South Africa.

"In view of this state of affairs," concludes the official statement, "the government is taking the most drastic steps to stop this rebellion and punish all rebels and traitors according to their deserts."

CHEEKEY WORK LONDON, Oct. 13, 1 p. m.—The official press bureau to-day issued the text of a telegram received by the secretary of the colonies from the Governor-General of South Africa, which was as follows:

"Ever since the resignation of General Beyers as commandant-general of the citizens' force, there have been indications that something was wrong with the force in the north-west Cape province which were placed under command of Lieut.-Colonel S. G. Maritz. The Government at once arranged to send Colonel Maritz to take over the command from Lieut.-Colonel Maritz. On the eighth instant, Colonel Maritz came in and report to him. To this message Colonel Maritz replied in a most insolent manner that he was not going to report to anybody. All he wanted was his discharge, and Colonel Maritz must come himself and take over his command. Colonel Maritz then sent Major Ben Brouwer to take the command. On his arrival at Colonel Maritz's camp, Major Brouwer was taken prisoner with his companions, but personally he was subsequently released and sent back with an ultimatum from Colonel Maritz to the Union Government to the effect that unless the government guaranteed to him before 10 o'clock Sunday a. m., 12th of Oct. that they should allow DeWet, Beyers Kemp and Mulder to meet him, where he was in order that he might receive instructions from them, he would forthwith make an attack on Colonel Maritz's forces and proceed further to invade the Union. Major Brouwer reported that Colonel Maritz was in possession of some guns belonging to the Germans and that he held the rank of General Commanding the German army in the north-west Cape province.

He had a force of Germans under him in addition to his own rebel command. He had arrested all those of his officers and men who were unwilling to join the Germans and had sent them as prisoners to German Southwest Africa.

Major Brouwer saw an agreement between Colonel Maritz and the Governor of German Southwest Africa guaranteeing the independence of the Union as a republic, ceding Walvis Bay and certain other portions of the Union of Germans and undertaking that the Germans would only invade the union on the invitation of Colonel Maritz.

Major Brouwer was shown numerous telegrams and hello messages dating back to the beginning of September. Colonel Maritz boasted that he had ample guns, rifles, ammunition and money from the Germans and that he would over-run the whole of South Africa.

"In view of this state of affairs, the government is taking the most vigorous steps to stamp out the rebellion, and to inflict condign punishment on all rebels and traitors."

A proclamation declaring martial law throughout the Union will appear in a gazette extraordinary to-day, Monday, the 12th of October, 1914. (Signed) BUKTON, Governor-general of S. Africa. UNSPEAKABLE TRAITORISM LONDON, Oct. 13.—A Cape Town despatch to The Exchange Telegraph, says that Col. Maritz, whose command rebelled, proposed to establish a republic in the north-west cape province. (Continued on Page Four.)

RUSSIAN SUCCESSES LONDON, Oct. 13.—A despatch to the Central News from Rome says a telegram from Petrograd to The Tribuna states that no Germans remain in the province of Suwalki and Lomza, Russian Poland, that the Russian army continues to advance in East Prussia and that the entire district of Lyck is now occupied by the forces of Emperor Nicholas. In addition, the despatch says that the Russians are maintaining their positions in Hungary, Bukowina and Transylvania. (Continued on Page Four.)

OVER 20,000 ARE TIED UP TILL WAR'S END

Churchill is Criticized For Sending Marines to Antwerp.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] THE HAGUE, Oct. 13, 7.30 a. m.—The total number of interned Belgian and English soldiers en route to northern Holland is estimated at 20,000, exclusive of the wounded who are being treated in cities near the Belgian border. The number of wounded has not yet been ascertained. Other soldiers have been interned but their number is still unreported. The English soldiers have been provided with a special depot at Groningen.

CHURCHILL CRITICIZED LONDON, Oct. 13, 2.0 a. m.—The Morning Post in an editorial to-day severely attacks Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the Admiralty, for what it describes as a costly blunder in sending a small force of marines to Antwerp. The newspaper expresses the belief that the British losses are greater than admitted and contends that if it was impossible to send a large military force to Antwerp, none at all should have been sent and the Belgians been permitted to surrender without bombardment, "as they would have done, but for British advice, which only resulted in loss of life and hampering the retirement of the Belgian army."

PRINCE INJURED LONDON, Oct. 13.—The Star's Copenhagen correspondent says the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin reports that Crown Prince Alexander of Serbia has been slightly wounded and that his brother, Prince George of Serbia has been mortally hurt in the fighting against the Austrians.

AUSTRIA IS WATCHING ALL THE ITALIANS

Those in Austrian Provinces Will be Made Prisoners of War.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] ROME, via Paris, Oct. 13, 6.35 a. m.—The Messagero to-day publishes what it claims is a private circular sent by Prince Von Hohenlohe-Schillingfurst, governor of Trieste, to all the heads of the police in the Italian provinces under Austria. The circular says that in case of war with Italy all male Italian subjects between the ages of 18 and 40 years shall be arrested and sent under close escort to fortresses; that those above 40 and also women and children shall be ordered to leave the country within 22 hours and that those suspected of espionage or of carrying on anti-Austrian propaganda shall be summarily tried, and, if found guilty, shot.

Italians, subjects of Austria, are also included in the list of prescribed persons. They will be at once arrested and sent to fortresses. Those from 18 to 40 will be enlisted and sent to the regiments serving in Bohemia.

SUPPLIES FROM U. S. CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Negotiations for the purchase of several thousand army wagons, one million blankets, two hundred thousand saddles and bridles, and a large supply of cartridges for the use of the English and French armies were opened here to-day by representatives of those governments. Representatives of the army purchasing departments asked for immediate bids on the wagon contract as a large number are wanted for quick delivery in Canada, it was said.

Many destitute Germans in Winnipeg can neither obtain work nor charity.

FAR EAST SCENE OF STRUGGLE

Huge Armies Are About to Meet in Great Battle.

Russian Success is Considered Much In Doubt.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] LONDON, Oct. 13, 10.15 a. m.—All eyes to-day are turned to the eastward here, under conditions of the utmost secrecy the Teutonic allies and the Russians are preparing to engage in what may prove one of the most decisive combats of the war.

And now it is accumulating to show that this gigantic conflict will be determined in Russian Poland and the only question disturbing the British experts is as to which side has chosen the battle ground.

Berlin admits having withdrawn from Niemen River and at the same time discounts the whole movement in that region as being of no strategic importance.

It is now clear that Russia has abandoned the narrow point in Galicia between Przemyel and Cracow, Russian forces having virtually occupied all of Galicia with the exception of these two places. Petrograd claims this operation is due to strategic reasons, while Vienna maintains that rejuvenated Austrian armies have relieved the Przemyel fortress and driven the invaders out. It is unquestioned that the more or less damaged Austrian forces, stiffened by German reinforcements, have resumed the offensive, but there is no information here to indicate that the Russian retreatment is anything in the nature of a rout resulting from vigorous fighting.

Whatever may be the intention of the armies operating on the river, it is clear that these movements have pale into insignificance beside the tremendous forward advance in the west. Broadly speaking this is now the position of the antagonists awaiting the word to open the engagement. The main German armies in Russian Poland are moving toward the Vistula River on a north and south front extending through Piotrkow, 90 miles southwest of Warsaw, Kielce and Busk, on the right, or 30 miles east of Lemberg. To the left of this army between Lodz and Kalisz, is another German force, and on the right of the main German army is an Austrian force.

The bulk of the Russian troops are on the east bank of the Vistula, but a portion of their forces are still on the west side of the river. The nature of the country makes it probable that the center of the battle line will be between Sandomir and Ivangorod, both on the Vistula river and about sixty miles apart.

In order to take up these positions, the Germans have been compelled to abandon strong positions along the River Warta and several of the transportation facilities of Russian railroads, which are incomparably poorer than they are accustomed to. The Russians are described as keen to engage the enemy in a country of their own choosing and near the base of their supplies.

The Germans are still retiring in the direction of East Prussia, and in Petrograd there is a re-

GERMANS LOOKING FOR WEAK SPOT IN ALLIES' BATTLE LINE

[By Special Wire to the Courier] PARIS, Oct. 13.—The efforts of the Germans who are fighting hard to effect a turning movement to the north of the long battle line in France, continue to hold the interest of the observers of the war. According to an official announcement, German cavalry some days ago had advanced in the west as far as Cassel (27 miles northwest of Lille). These German forces are now, however, said to extend only to Hazebrouck (5 miles south of Cassel).

If this should be true, it is considered that it will make somewhat greater the difficulties of the Germans in bringing success to their efforts. This section of the war zone continues the scene of particularly violent actions, the opposing squadrons fighting desperately to gain the slightest advantage on which so much may depend.

The German at the same time are not lessening their attempts to find at other points on the battle line weak spots in the allies' front. All their efforts, it is said, are being met successfully by their French and English opponents.

The latest German flag captured by the French belonged to an active regiment, which was part of the corps stationed at Stettin. This fact, according to the French indicated that the Germans have concentrated on the French frontier forces which ordinarily would be assigned to guard the Russian border.

IN LESSER SPHERES

Recounting the Time When Leading Men Took to Minor Occupations

Now when everyone is doing what he or she can to help the country in her fight against oppression, a few stories of well known men who have turned to at unaccustomed tasks will be of interest, says a writer in "Answers."

For instance, when King George is the Duke of Cornwall and York was crossing the Atlantic on the return from his world tour he donned a stoker's dress and went down into the stokehold. He had seen the men come up, like seals to their blow-holes, for a breath of fresh air, and he was anxious to try for himself what the work was like. Not content with looking on, the King seized a shovel, and, for a considerable time, worked hard at feeding the boilers with fuel. When he had had enough he did not wonder that the men should seek a brief respite in the upper regions.

Some time ago Prince Alexander of Teck found that owing to the withdrawal of a large number of men from the barracks at Hampton Court many horses would go unfed and unattended unless the officers themselves did the work. He at once took off his coat, and set the example by carrying buckets after buckets of water, and working as hard all the mornings as any trooper in the ranks.

When Lord Denman, Governor-General of the Commonwealth, was turning the first sod of the Australian Continental Railway, he did it in such a workmanlike way, tossing the sod into a barrow, wheeling it across a narrow plank, and returning with the barrow behind him in proper natty style, that a real navy cadet would be told a story of the duke starting one day from Dunrobin Station, when an admiring navy exclaimed: "There, that's what I call a real duke! Why, there he is, a-driving of his own engine on his own coals!" King Albert, of Belgium, too, can drive a railway engine in true workmanlike style.

Colonel Seely, a former Minister of War, has been a member of the lifeboat crew at Totland Bay, in the Isle of Wight, for many years, and only last winter he went out in a raging storm as an ordinary member of the lifeboat crew and basing in saving several lives. Indeed, he is a very efficient member of the crew, and has often been in the boat in circumstances of great risk.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK, THICK, GLOSSY

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Weych's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, our hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

ive display of activity by German fleet. The chief alteration in this line, however, seems to be the disposition to stretch to the shores of the channel. The most interesting bit of news from the western front is found in several of the forts around Arras are still occupied by the Germans. If this is true, it is here that possibly the reinforcements for the Ger- right wing may not be sent in time. Reports also continue to reach that the great activity of German cavalry near Lille is being movement to cover the Kluck. Such a retreat is said to be under way to the and to the northeast.

INTERESTING LIQUOR CASE

Mr. Littlefield of the Kerby House, has appealed against the fine of $50 imposed upon one of his bartenders for supplying an Indian with liquor. The case was tried last week, the defendants pleading not guilty, but the magistrate held the evidence sufficient to convict. Mr. Littlefield appealed on the ground that the prosecutor, P. C. Cox, had sufficient time, knowing the man supplied was an Indian, to have prevented him securing the liquor. The case, which promises to be very interesting, will come before Judge Herby on November 2nd.

COLLEGIATE TO CLOSE.

The Collegiate Institute will close for the annual teachers' convention this week. At the meeting of the trustees last Friday evening the principal reported that all the public school teachers were required to attend, but that high schools could keep open. The Minister of Education, however, recommended that the latter should close. It was further reported that some of the Collegiate teachers preferred to continue their work, but it was impossible to arrange this, as the classes changed teachers during the day. The trustees decided that the Institute should close and the teachers attend the convention.

CAMPAIGN PROVED VERY SUCCESSFUL

Some 854 New Members Have Joined the Y. M. C. A.

The returns of the Y. M. C. A. campaign, given approximately, show a very satisfactory roll of membership. It is not up to the total of last year, when eleven hundred names were found on the Y. M. C. A. list, but it numbers now eight hundred and fifty-four.

At first glance, comparing it with last year's figures, this seems a big falling off, but under the circumstances, it may be pointed out that a large number of young men, last year members, are now in an unusual and inactive condition. As their source of income is unreliable, they are clinging to every cent, and therefore did not feel like expending any amount whatever upon membership. They promised to enlist their names should they be satisfied with the stability of their employment.

Seventy-five per cent of the new list is composed of renewals, and this percentage is held to be excellent, as with the roving disposition of young men, and with the changes of life, they sought new homes, a much smaller return is considered good. In fact in the States, a thirty per cent renewal membership, is held to be highly satisfactory. The war has affected the Y. M. C. A. membership directly and more so indirectly.

In the present campaign, the reds came out winners upon points, although they were far behind in memberships obtained. The reds secured 409 members, while the greens tagged 445, of these 183 were new memberships, 92 the greens and 91 the reds.

There are now 71 bath members, 12 social, 35 social and bath, 34 physical, 27 limited, 93 men's club, 41 older boys, 113 boys, 116 preparatory members, and 310 full privilege members. Many interesting stories of hard times were revealed by the campaign workers, perhaps the most touching being that of a little fellow who most earnestly desired to rejoin. His father had gone to the front and his mother was toiling in order to support the family. He had only five cents, with doubtful expression he asked if he could join with that. He was told he could, and the little fellow handed in his nickel, promising to pay the rest of his subscription when his father returned from the front.

WELLINGTON ST. THANKSGIVING

Enjoyable Event Was Held in the Church Yesterday.

The Day of Thanksgiving was well and fittingly celebrated in Wellington St. Methodist church yesterday afternoon. The day was a social supper and concert in the evening formed for the congregation one of the best days of the year.

Many flocked to the church which was well attended. The evening programme commenced. To all the pastor extended a most hearty welcome and excellent during the morning many trippers and picnickers were to be found in the surrounding dale and woods. The Bell Homestead received many callers and the Waterworks and O. I. B. grounds are also the scenes of congenial little parties.

In the afternoon there were many attractions and the theatres felt the full force of the holiday crowds. Not one of them but did not suffer from an overflow. Indeed, the Brant broke were also watched with interest. Thanksgiving services during the morning in local churches were well attended. The day was happily ended in a variety of ways. There were some church concerts and good programmes were universal and filled the evening in an appropriate and fitting manner.

THREE WEEKS OF DESPERATE BATTLE AND NOTHING WON

[By Special Wire to the Courier] LONDON, Oct. 13.—The Daily Mail's correspondent sends a dispatch dated Sunday behind the French left wing. He gives interesting news of the conditions prevailing in this field of operation and says that since Thursday the fighting around Arras, the worse, then again for the better, and that their position at the time of sending the despatch was stronger than ever. "The fighting around Arras," says the correspondent, "has been exceedingly severe since last Tuesday, and Lens, has changed hands at least three times in as many weeks. If the Germans could succeed in bursting the ring at some part their desperate programme might prevail but so far they have failed and got their forces hopelessly scattered. "It would be absurd, however, for that reason to say they are negligible. On the contrary they are still capable of giving great trouble. Their cavalry lines in considerable numbers on the eastern flank of Hazebrouck (32 miles northeast of Lille), and in the country surrounding Orchies (16 miles southeast of Lille). All their scattered forces in this region, however, are being slowly but surely shepherded in the right direction northwards while the forces threatening Hazebrouck are being driven northward. "In short, after weeks of furious fighting they have accomplished nothing worth recording."

Three Armenians, Simpat Garabidian, Charlie Sachisian and Mike Malgodian, came to blows over an argument on Saturday night in the Victoria Park, and as a result they were taken to the lockup by P.C. Dowling. They pleaded not guilty this morning, and the case was adjourned for witnesses until to-morrow. Jacob Kasner accepted a pair of shoes from Charles Williams, and the result he had to pay costs of $9.85 at the court this morning. The shoes had been stolen, and therefore Kasner rendered himself liable to law. He admitted receiving the shoes, but pleaded that he did not know they were stolen. He was told to be more circumspect with regard to this sort of dealing in the future. Charles Williams, a colored man, received a sentence of six months for stealing a pair of shoes from the Market Shoe Store last week. The articles were found upon him and he had no excuse. Three holiday drunks completed the list. Wm. McGonigle, who was marking for the soldiers at Newcastle rifle ranges, was shot in the arm. Miss Jean McLeod of Bradford, who teaches at the Nowar school, was injured in a runaway accident.

COLLEGIATE WAS BEATEN AT RUGBY

Game on Saturday Was Played Under Sloppy Conditions.

What was supposed to be a rugby game but was really more like a water polo game, was staged at Agricultural Park on Saturday afternoon last between the Guelph Collegiate and the local bunch that represented the collegiate on the gridiron.

To begin with, it started to rain just at the kick off, but only lasted a few moments, and it began to brighten up but not for long as the clouds began to gather and it was quite evident that a storm was brewing. Meanwhile the game was under way. The ground was not in very good condition after the early rain in the morning. The game started out as if it was going to be fast, and for the first ten minutes play went up and down the field.

Guelph was the first to get the ball, and was caught by Guelph and it looked like the Brantford player had lots of time to get his man, but he did not, and the result was a touch down being scored by Nunan after a 25 yard run with almost a clear field.

Second Quarter
The opening of the second quarter in a drizzle made the play much slower with heavy downfalls threatened any minute. Both teams kicked on almost every down with Guelph having the best of the argument. With the half time nearly up, Guelph kicked and Waterloo failed to run it out and was forced to rouse, making the score 6-0. Half time was called with the rain descending in torrents, making the field one sea of mud.

Third Quarter
After resting for 15 minutes, both teams went back to fight it out. Though the heavy fog seemed to tell through on both sides. In the second half, Brantford seemed to be more able to hold their own, and at once began to press every play. Brantford secured their first point on a kick by Slemm which Guelph failed to run out. Score 6-1.

Fourth Quarter
The fourth quarter was played nearly all the time on Brantford territory. Guelph kicked time after time, but the ball was either run out by Slemm or Waterloo, but having worked in close the local boys were forced to rouse twice in a short time for the final score. The line-ups were:

Brantford—Quarter back, Wood; halves, Slemm, McDougall and Waterous; flying wing, Weir; middle wings, Brantford and Jones; outside wings, van Someren and Kelly; scrimmage, Buskard, Moffatt and Vaughan.
Guelph—Quarter back, Hamilton; halves, Nunan, Mann and Baines; flying wings, Carroll; inside wings, Armstrong and Mitchell; middle wing, Younger and Phillips; outside wing, Fairley and Drome; scrimmage, Drome, Holland and Knight.
Umpire—Dryden, Guelph.

By being defeated, the local team has only a slight chance to win the championship again this year. To do so they will have to win all their remaining games, while Galt will have to lose two and that will mean a tie, that is if Brantford wins in Guelph. The standing now is:

Galt	1	0	3

Football

The heavy rain of Saturday upset all football calculations in the city and the games of the day between Paris and Holmdel and also between the Sons and the Duffs were postponed. They will be rearranged at the next meeting of the Brantford and Paris League executive. The Paris and Holmdel fixture was for the Courier cup medals.

Duffs vs. Scots 1.
The Scots and Duffs got the grips yesterday afternoon at the Agricultural Park when after a desperately hard fought game the Duffs pulled through, scoring the winning point just before the whistle blew for the final. Owing to the Duffs sham fight at Blue Lake, many of their followers imagined no match would be played, but the Duffs scraped a team together and the Scots were strengthened likewise. The match was for the benefit of the Tuberculosis hospital and the proceeds of the game will be handed over to the cause.

Brantford 3, Simcoe Rangers 1.
Quite a fast snappy game was served up at the Agricultural park yesterday morning when the Brantford team composed under the direction of the S. O. E. met and defeated the Rangers of Simcoe. It was a game of good forward work, clean, passing

NEURALGIA SETTLED IN HER LUNGS

No Relief From The Pain Until She Took "Fruit-a-Lives"

CAMPBELLVILLE, ONT., MAY 5th, 1913.
"I cannot speak too highly of 'Fruit-a-Lives'. For over thirty years, I have suffered from chronic Neuralgia and Constipation, experiencing untold agony. The Neuralgia settled in my lungs and I took bottles of medicine without relief. The doctor told me I would not get better but 'Fruit-a-Lives' proved that the doctor was wrong by giving me quick relief and finally and completely curing me."

"I would not have my present health if it were not for 'Fruit-a-Lives' and I am glad of this opportunity of giving you this letter about such a splendid remedy as 'Fruit-a-Lives'."

and tricky football. In these matters the locals had a slightly over-the-top lead by 2-1 in the interval. Starting before an increased crowd the locals increased their lead but they were afterwards held by the stubborn defence and could not add to their early lead. The Brants carried out some daring raids and but for the good work of the opposition could not have failed to have loaded up the score. The Ontario Ladies' Hospital Ship fund will benefit financially from the result of the game.

"TOMMY ATKINS" IS STILL AN OPTIMIST

Says Kaiser is the Worst Captain to Lead on Any Team.

It is a habit with "Tommy Atkins" that even with death staring him in the face he can always see the bright side of things and have his little joke. Many of his pals may have bit the dust, but still he is the cheery optimist, and his letters from the fighting line show this better than any other. Hope, a gunner of the Royal Field Artillery, who must be a football enthusiast, in writing to his parents could not conceal his ruling passion—that is next to fighting—for he wrote:

"The great match for the European Cup is still being played out, and I dare say there's a record gate, though you can see the spectators on the field. That's one of the rules of the game when this match is on."

"In spite of all their swank the Germans haven't scored a goal yet, and they're still kicking at the ball any way in their blind rage at not being able to score. Our team is about as fit as you could have them, and they're all good men, though some of them are amateurs—and the Germans are all 'pros'."

"The German forwards are a rotten pack. They have no dash worth talking about, and they come up the field as though they were going to the funeral of their nearest and dearest."

"When they are charged they nearly always fall away onto their backs. The goalkeeper's about the easiestest thing you ever set eyes on. I wouldn't give a brass farthing for their chances of lifting the cup, and if you have brass to spare you can put it on the Franco-British team, who are scoring goals so fast that we haven't time to stop and count them."

"The Kaiser makes a rotten captain for any team and it's little wonder they are losing. Most of our side would like to tell him what they think of him and his team."

A private in the trenches contracted neuralgia in a form a degree worse than Robbie Burns' 'Hell O' A' Diseases,' and of a wonderful cure a comrade wrote to his mother as follows:

"There's one chap in our company has got a ripping cure for neuralgia, but he isn't going to take out a patent, because it's too risky and might kill the patient. Good luck is one of the ingredients and you can't always be sure of that."

"He was lying in the trenches the other day, nearly mad with pain in his face, when a German shell burst close by. He wasn't hit, but the explosion knocked him senseless for a bit. 'Me neuralgia's gone,' says he, when he came around. 'And so's six of your mates,' says we. 'Oh, crickey!' says he. His name is Palmer, and that's why we call the German shells now 'Palmer's Neuralgia Cure.'"

"They say here that you can always tell the Germans who have never been in action against us before. The ones who know what to expect come up very gingerly, like men sneaking into the vestry of a church to rob the collection boxes. The new hands come across in a fine, jaunty way, until they get a volley into them, and then they start up at they key, to see who's throwing things at them. That is the ones who are able to look up, for some of them are done, for we have looked at the sky for the last time."

Robt. Thompson, a Grand Trunk fireman, was knocked down and seriously injured by a motor car in Barrie.

WAR OFFICE ACCEPTS SECOND CONTINGENT

Officer Coming From England to Purchase the Equipment.

OTTAWA, Oct. 9.—Canada's offer of a second contingent for overseas service has been accepted by the War Office. It is expected that plans for the raising of the force will be acted upon as soon as certain details now under consideration are decided upon. Officers of enlistment are already pouring into Ottawa from all parts of Canada.

The British Government is sending to Canada a special officer to superintend the purchase of equipment. This officer sails to-day. It is understood that he comes at the suggestion of the Canadian government, the idea being that in the purchase of such supplies as clothing, boots, shoes, etc., the presence of a representative thoroughly familiar with the War Office needs will serve to expedite the purchasing. The necessity of forwarding samples to London will be obviated and time will be saved. Purchases of ammunition, etc., will be made as hitherto through the Department of Militia and Defence.

The Government issued a memorandum yesterday calling the attention of shippers to the system of risks insurance and the provision under which ships must conform to the Admiralty rules as to routes, stoppages, ports of call, etc. This provision, it is pointed out, is a protection for cargoes as well as ships, and the shipowners' obligation to comply with the Admiralty requirements should be fully recognized in contracts of carriage.

A cable to H. R. H. the Duchess of Connaught from the War Office announces that the Army Council most gratefully accept gift of twenty thousand pounds from the women of Canada and ask that a warm expression of thanks be conveyed to the donors.

The Army Council proposes to spend the whole amount in the purchase of motor ambulance cars half to be used in England and half in France. Each car will be inscribed "Canadian Women's Motor Ambulance." The money expended is estimated to be sufficient to purchase forty cars.

Sir Richard McBride has concluded the business of his visit to Ottawa and is returning to the British Columbia. Premier McBride while here has discussed railway and military matters affecting his province.

LORD CURZON ON THE WAR

Regarding the duration of the war, Lord Curzon expressed the opinion that "more than one Christmas would pass before the soldiers returned home." He said: "Germany has taken Antwerp to fortify it, to keep it, to make a great naval port of it, to use it as a great jumping off place for her future attempts upon this country. It is no temporary occupation unless we make it so." In closing, Lord Curzon advised his hearers to begin to divide up the German Empire "before you have got hold of it."

SHAM FIGHT WAS A DRAW

The annual Thanksgiving Day manoeuvres of the 38th Dufferin Rifles were held yesterday at Blue Lake, they attacking a position held by a "flag" force of the Brantford Collegiate Institute, under command of Lieut.-Col. Ashton. The attack was twice successful, but the defenders took up a very strong position on their second withdrawal, and, as ammunition was running short on both sides, the fight was called a draw. A field dinner was served to the men, and with good weather the day proved very pleasant and profitable.

DOUBLE PAY
With regard to the double payment of some of the dependents of the volunteers at the front, Treasurer A. K. Bunnell received a letter from Premier R. Borden this morning. He says in the haste in getting the September checks out several overpayments had been made. It could not be helped, but a list might be made of the names of double pay so that it might not occur in the future. Those who were fortunate enough to profit by the error will not be asked to make any return of the amount.

AT THE COLONIAL
The scene at the Colonial theatre yesterday was one that must have gladdened the heart of Manager Symons and given the patrons of that popular theatre a wave of enthusiasm. There is always life in crowds, and there was much of it in the vast audiences which yesterday crowded to the theatre. "Standing Room Only" was the sign exhibited, and even it had to be taken down. The pictures secured a high-class order and full of thrills. More and more has the Colonial increased in popularity since vaudeville was cut out, and with its new improve orchestra that this year has come forward as one of the foremost in film depiction in the city.
