You Can Make Better Foods For The Children With "Beaver" Flour Than You Can Buy

Next to a returning Arctic Explorer, the hungriest mortal on earth is a growing boy. He is always ravenous. "He will eat anything". But why should he?

Right now is the time when his parent should be most particular about his food—to prevent injudicious eating and to protect him against unsuitable food.

Good, home-made bread, made of "Beaver" Flour—light, flaky biscuits made of "Beaver" Flour—these are real foods for growing children. "Beaver" Flour is a blended flour. That is, it is made of exact proportions of nutritious, beautifully flavored Ontario Fall Wheat and a smaller proportion of the stronger Western Spring Wheat.

It is both a bread flour and a pastry flour—and makes the real nutty flavored home-made bread and delicious pastry such as cannot be made with any purely Western Wheat Flour.

Just try "Beaver" Flour—and see for yourself how thoroughly satisfactory and dependable it is for all kinds of baking. Your grocer sells "Beaver" Flour or can get it for you. Dealers—Write us for prices on Feed, Coarse Grains and Cereals.

A Millionaire; or, Countess Westerleigh.

"Right," said Vane, with a ghastly attempt at cheerfulness and ease. "I'll get up at once. Oh, by the way," he went on carelessly, "that young gentleman who turned up last night is a cousin—a distant cousin—of mine."

"Yes, sir," said Porter, unsuspectingly; and yet Vane, with the guilty conscience, fancied that the man looked at him queerly.

"Yes; the young beggar has been getting into a scrape, and—or—well, has got to keep out of the way for a time. Understand?"

"Yes, sir," said Porter, blandly. He was quite accustomed to young gentlemen who found it necessary to keep out of the way for long or short periods. "Oh, yes, sir."

"Just so," said Vane. "So you need not say anything about his being here."

"Is he here, sir?" asked Porter, with faint surprise.

The World's Confidence in BEECHAM'S PILLS

because they have proved to be the best corrective and preventive of disordered conditions of stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. The first dose gives quick relief and permanent improvement follows their systematic use. A trial will show why, in all homes, the use of Beecham's Pills

Continues To Increase

Sold everywhere. In boxes, 25 cents. The largest sale of any medicine. No one should neglect to read the directions with every box.

Vane nodded carelessly, and simulated a yawn. "Yes; in the other room. Don't wake him. I'll call him presently. He was tired out last night, and dead beat."

"Very good, sir," said Porter. "He did look rather knocked up. I was taken quite aback to see him standing there at that time of night and asking for you."

"Yes," said Vane. "He's a—nice boy; quiet and gentlemanly, and won't give you or Mrs. Porter any trouble; in fact, he's rather—er—nervous and timid for a boy."

"He isn't a Tempest, I suppose, sir?" remarked Porter, quite respectfully, but as if the question followed naturally upon Vane's description of his course.

"No," said poor Vane. "Oh, no; he's a Mortimer."

Porter thought a moment. He knew all the ramifications of the Westleigh and Tempest families, and could not for the moment recall the Mortimer branch.

"My great-aunt Emilia married the second cousin of a Mortimer," said Vane, desperately.

"Quite so, sir," said Porter, perfectly satisfied. "I see, sir."

"I'm very glad you do," thought Vane; "and I only hope every one else will." Great Heaven! what a life of deception, suspicion, doubt and anxiety lay before him!

He had his bath and dressed as quickly as possible; and if Porter thought him rather more absent-minded and silent than usual, no doubt that experienced servant attributed it to the cigars and champagne.

"Shall I serve breakfast for two, or wait, sir?" said Porter, as he was about to leave the room.

"Two. Look here, Porter, I dare say my cousin will be rather nervous this morning, so you'd better put the breakfast in and leave us. He may want to talk to me. Understand?"

"Quite so, sir," assented Porter, and departed.

Feeling like a conspirator in a modern French comedy, Vane went to Nora's door and knocked.

No answer came, and a wild idea shot through him that perhaps she had, in the still watches of the night, realized what she had done and taken flight.

The thought ought, under the circumstances, to have been almost a welcome one; but somehow it was not, and it sent an unpleasant thrill through him. He knocked again, and he was conscious of a distinct sense of relief as her low, clear voice answered the summons.

"Are you quite rested?" he asked. "If so, you might get up; but do as you please."

He made his voice as light and careless as he could; but he might have spared himself any anxiety for there was no feeling of fear or any sort of embarrassment in her mind.

She woke from the deep sleep with the exquisite refreshment of youth and perfect health; and when she entered the sitting room there were no traces of last night's weariness in her face, and her eyes met his with the serenity of a mind at peace and full of quiet happiness.

Vane took her hand and shook it in a manly fashion; he must learn at once to treat her as a boy.

"Slept well?" he asked, with an encouraging smile.

She smiled back at him. "I don't know; I don't remember did not wake until you called."

"That's all right," he said, cheerfully. "And now sit down and make a good breakfast. I'm afraid you won't find the fish as good as that you have been used to; but then, it's a long way to the sea, you know."

She sat down and glanced—but not with the stare of vulgaritv—at the silver dishes and pretty china, and Vane helped her to some fish, and filled her coffee cup. Then he looked

Nurse's Years of Experience

Proves Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills Best Treatment for Kidney and Stomach Troubles.

The trained nurse has even greater opportunities than the doctor himself to watch the action of medicine in specific cases.

For years the writer of this letter has been recommending the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills among her patients, and is firmly convinced that no treatment is so prompt and effective.

This is the most valuable evidence obtainable, and we believe that all who know Mrs. Duffy will appreciate it to the full, knowing that she would not recommend anything in which she had not the fullest confidence.

Mrs. Duffy, nurse, 35 Lewis street, Toronto, writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for years, and recommend them to my patients for all disorders of the kidneys, liver and stomach. In all my professional experience I have found nothing better." Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers or Edmanuch, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

ed at her with veiled curiosity, and trying to forget her sex, asked himself what chance of success attended their deception.

For a certainty, a brunette is more likely to pass for a boy than is a blonde; and Nora's dark hair, colorless face, black eyebrows, and long lashes, helped her. But the clear-cut features, the delicately curved lips, and small, well-shaped nose, were against her.

She looked the prettiest boy that ever was seen; but still he thought she might pass. And he reminded himself that indeed she had already passed unsuspected, or at least undetected, for some time.

"Now, look here, Nora," he began; then he stopped, with a laugh that was nearly a groan. "There you are! To commence with, I mustn't call you 'Nora'; in fact, I must—we must both—forget that you are, or ever were, 'Nora.'"

"Yes," she said, easily. "It is not so very difficult. I had almost forgotten it. So will you;" and she nodded encouragingly.

"Oh, Lord! I hope so!" he said, under his breath. Then he went on aloud: "Well, I've thought it all out, and here is our plan of operations. Last night, you know, when those fellows came in and found you, I said that you were my cousin—cousin. Can you remember?"

"Yes," she said, dutifully—"your cousin."

"Right. And your name, I told them, was Ernest—Edmund—Good heavens! Which was it I told them, do you remember?"

She shook her head. "No," she replied, placidly. "I don't think I heard; I was so tired and—and confused, you see."

Vane cudgeled his brains, but could not remember. "Which name would you prefer?" and he laughed; but there was not much merriment in the laugh.

"Whichever you like best," she responded, with a complete abnegation of her will to his which touched him. "They are both pretty."

"Well, we'll say 'Ernest,' and stick to it," he said—"Ernest Mortimer. You won't forget that: Ernest Mortimer! You are a distant cousin of mine, and you have got into a scrape. Oh! look here; it won't do to say that you were in the navy, because people could make inquiries and put awkward questions. You must have been in the mercantile marine. See, Nora—I mean, Ernest?"

She inclined her head and smiled. "Yes, I see," her beautiful eyes fixed on him with rapt intentness.

"If any one asks you any questions—as to the name of your ship and so on—why—oh, well, you can put them off. We'll call the ship 'the Neptune.' There must be at least a hundred vessels called by that name."

"Yes," she assented, sipping her coffee; and as she did so, he noticed that she sat at table and eat and drank with the unexpected refinement of manner and gesture which had so surprised him at the cottage on the cliff.

Her every movement was unconsciously and naturally graceful. Anyhow, he would have no difficulty in passing her off as a gentleman.

"As to your parents," he went on, "you can say that they are dead."

"They are," she put in, gravely. "And if any one asks you what the exact relationship is between us, you must say you don't know."

A Unique Discovery.
By RUTH CAMERON.
Young people of a certain age are always making interesting discoveries about themselves, and fancying that they have found something altogether new and unique.
"It's a queer thing," I've noticed about myself," confided one of them to me, "that I'm chock full of contradictions. I have a streak of economy; and yet there is a good bit of the spendthrift in me too. I'm tremendously energetic at times and then, again, I'll be as lazy as the deuce. You know my father and mother weren't a bit alike, so I suppose that's why I'm not more consistent."
It was so evident that youngster considered that he had found a point in which he was different from the common herd that I couldn't bear to prick his bubble. And yet I suspect that ever since human beings have had two parents they have also had contradictory streaks in their natures.
To a greater or lesser degree we are all "Doctor Jekylls and Mr. Hydes." The good and the bad are inextricably mixed up in our characters. "Sometimes one gets the upper hand and dominates the other and thus we become at various times entirely different people. And not only are the good and the bad presents in each of us, but many other kinds of opposite tendencies, thrift and spendthrifts, courage and fear, pride and humility."
That may not be as interesting an explanation of the phenomenon, but it has the merit of being true.
Ruth Cameron

Household Notes
A lemon which has become hardened can be made soft by soaking in hot water.
If a little salt is put on the dishes in which eggs are served the egg will wash off easily.
A good black ink mixed with white egg will restore the color of black ink shoes or gloves.
A little alum added to the water in which children's clothes are washed will render them fireproof.
To whiten clothes which have become yellow, soak in hot water for one week, then wash in the usual way.
To sweeten gooseberries or cranberries with less sugar, put a small pinch of baking soda in while cooking.
To preserve fruit can rubbers, cover with dry flour. Any rubber goods may be preserved for years in this way.
To prevent carpet from raveling when cut, run two rows of machine stitching with the machine where it is to be cut.
A few drops of ammonia in the water in which silver is washed will keep it bright for a long time without cleaning.
Rice may be substituted for macaroni as a dinner dish. Prepare it with grated cheese and bake it in the oven.
Thinly sliced bananas moistened with mayonnaise and placed between buttered slices of bread make excellent school sandwiches.
When a window is difficult to raise, pour a little melted lard between the frame and the casing and put a little alkali on the cord.
Grind a handful of sunflower seeds and give them to the canary.
The birds relish the little tender pieces that are found among the seeds.
Milk or milk foods cooked in milk will not scorch if the stew pan is rinsed out in cold water and rubbed with a little fresh butter or lard.
When bread is left from a meal, do not put it into the bread box to be forgotten, but cover over in a dish and use for toast at the next meal.
To prevent a skirt placket from tearing out at the bottom, sew a hook and eye at the extreme end of the placket, and then crush them flat.
An excellent household remedy for burns is olive oil or vaseline. The great thing is to exclude the air from

Your Duty.
Nothing to do with the Custom House, good friend. Its only reference just now is to yourself. Let us suppose that you are a man of family with sufficient of the world's goods to keep them in comfort. Very well, you did not reach this satisfactory state of affairs without care and labour—few men do. Suppose you are awakened some night with shouts of alarm ringing in your ears. Too late then to talk of prudence; too late then to say: "If I had only, etc., etc." That "if" means too much for many forgetful people. Is it not always the duty of a self-respecting citizen to protect his home and thus provide for those within it. Is it any more than his duty to those depending on him to protect them as far as possible? Can you call your property your own when it is not insured? The answer to this argument is to carry insurance with Percie Johnson's agency, the most popular office in Newfoundland and the least expensive.
Strength to Hold On.
They went to Colorado, for there the physician had sent him, but it was too late. The inevitable result was hardly even delayed. At midnight he died; the word went out among the few neighbors, and they came in the night to comfort her.
The girl wife walked the floor in a helpless and bewildered agony, saying over and over again, with a pitiful wonder in her voice, "He has gone away and left me!"
Few are the people that can speak words of healing at such a time. It is better for the rest to stand a little apart in sympathetic silence, or draw near only to mingle their tears with those whose hearts are breaking.
One woman, with more zeal than wisdom, tried to act the comforter.

There are plenty of substitutes (avoid them), but no real rival for "You mustn't think of your own loss," she said. "You must think how happy he is."

The poor girl turned to her, and asked:
"Without me?"
How could he be happy without her, who she was so broken-hearted without him? Who could answer a question like that in such an hour?
Then to the group of would-be comforters, sitting in silence, she pleaded, "Oh, pray for me! Pray that I may understand it!"
One of the women threw her arms round her, and said:
"No, dear, let us not pray to understand it; let's just pray for strength to hold on; for faith to help us until we see the light!"
Sorrows are often so swift and terrible that all the stereotyped words of comfort, all our familiar explanations of the workings of Providence suddenly seem meaningless. What shall we pray for, then, for ourselves or others, but for strength to hold on—for faith that will sustain us until the light breaks?—Youth's Companion.

Movies Actors Hurt.
One May Lose His Sight, and John Bunny and Others Have Narrow Escapes.
New York, Sept. 18.—Wilfred North, a prominent member of the Atlantic Yacht Club and stage manager for the Vitagraph Company, and "Wally" Van Nostrand, also a member of the Atlantic Yacht Club and well known as a moving picture actor and driver of Commodore J. Stuart Blackton's "Baby Reliance" and other speedy motor boats, were badly injured by the premature explosion of a cannon during the taking of a moving picture on the Atlantic Yacht Club float at Sea Gate today.
The picture was to have been the start of a yacht race. John Bunny, the famous comedian of the Vitagraph Company and ex-king of the Coney Island Mardi Gras, his "Queen," Miss Lillian Walker, and a dozen other well-known "movie" actors had addressed were engaged in the production of a film to be called "Miss Tom-boy," were standing on the float near them at the time, and narrowly escaped injury.
North was the more seriously injured of the two. He was badly burned about the face, eyes and head, and doctors at the Coney Island Hospital, where he was removed, declared that he would probably lose his eyesight.
Van Nostrand was not taken to the hospital, and aside from painful burns on the face and arms is expected to recover.
When the explosion occurred North was bending over the touch-hole of a three-foot brass cannon, pouring flour in the gun in order to make a bigger smoke effect in the picture. There was a sharp explosion and a great cloud of smoke and powder temporarily hid the two actors from their companions, but when the wind had blown it away, North was seen rolling in agony on the float, while Van Nostrand, his face seared and blackened by the blast, was bending over him.
Despite his own injuries, Van Nostrand insisted on helping Bunny, and the others carry North into the clubhouse, where a call was sent to the Coney Island Hospital for an ambulance.

An Invisible Government.

What the Country is Suffering From.

That Great Imperial statesman, Mr. Balfour, recently stated at a public meeting in England that what Great Britain is suffering from to-day is the tyranny of an invisible government. The Asquith Government, he said, can only do just what John Redmond permits it to do, and it has to do what he directs shall be done. Newfoundland has been, and still is, in precisely the same position. There is an invisible compelling power behind the Executive Council, and its name is Reid. P. T. McGrath of the Herald in describing a similar condition of things in 1898 said the Government and its followers were mere "pawns which Reid moved at will." Morris, Gibbs, Cashin, Robinson, Mott, were then as they are to-day mere pawns to be moved at the will of Reid, and to give expression to his will and pleasure.

In the Free Press of October 4th, 1904, John Alexander Robinson declared "the connection of the Reids with political matters has always been most unfortunate for the country however fortunate for themselves. It has long been a matter of notoriety that through Mr. W. D. Reid's friend and Solicitor, Sir E. P. Morris, control of both Government and Government organs has been secured by them." The latter part of the foregoing assertion was a very serious charge against Sir Edward Morris, for at that date, October 1904, and for the three years following that date he was Minister of Justice in Sir Robert Bond's Cabinet.

If the editorial declaration in J. Alexander Robinson's paper was true, then during the years that Sir Edward Morris sat at Sir Robert Bond's council board the Reids had him retained as their Solicitor. Sir Edward Morris never publicly denied that charge, and J. Alexander Robinson has never withdrawn it, but to-day he approves and supports Sir Edward Morris in the position of Premier. If the Reids could control the Government of 1904 by virtue of having Sir Edward Morris, then Minister of Justice, in their pay as Solicitor, how much greater must the Reid control be when the same Sir Edward Morris is Prime Minister. J. Alexander Robinson poses as a truthful man and a honourable journalist. If he desires the public to regard him in that light, then it is up to him to indicate how he can reconcile his present support of the Reid control of the Government with his former condemnation of the same.

Story of the Grabs.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Permit me to make public some of the "grabs" made by some of the "Graballs," during the year ending 30th June, 1912, as shown by General Contingency Account tabled in the House of Assembly during last session:

Nfld. Produce Co., for Coal, etc.; Hon. J. C. Crosbie, President . . . . .	11,682.59
Bishop & Sons, Ltd., supplies to Public Institutions, etc.; Hon. R. K. Bishop, senior partner . . . . .	3,174.16
M. & E. Kennedy on account of contracts, etc.; M. Kennedy, colleague of the Premier . . . . .	23,595.45
Moore & Co.; Mr. Phil. Moore, colleague of Hon. M. P. Cashin; plumbing contracts, etc., etc. . . . .	9,687.92
Jesse Whiteway, colleague of Hon. J. C. Crosbie; supplies to Public Institutions . . . . .	10,407.51
Jack J. Spratt for masonry jobs, and superintending work at Hospital . . . . .	4,900.85

These are only some of the payments made during the year above mentioned—the sums paid since then will not be made public until the next session of the Legislature. The public will be "staggered," to use the historic words of Governor Williams, when the "sops" paid out since then are revealed.

The thinking public will please notice that all the above payments with one exception, are made to members of the Legislature. The exception being Mr. Spratt a well-known heeler and supporter of Morris. Never before in the history of the Government have party supporters in the House of Assembly been so amply rewarded for their services. The following list show the particular lines in which each participated: When the Bond Government is returned to power all the "Grabs" will be carefully shown up and the actual amount paid to each will be made known. The people will then be able to judge for themselves, how each of the People's Party supporters in the House were taken care of and kept sweet.

1—SIR EDWARD MORRIS, (Premier, &c., &c.) The Hague and other arbitration fees. Several trips to England and United States. No regular salary.
2—HON. M. P. CASHIN. 4½ years salary at $2,000 a year; a trip to England and West Indies; other sops and picnics
3—HON. R. WATSON, (Colonial Secretary). 4½ years salary at $2,000 a year; fees of office, trips to England, etc., etc., etc.
4—HON. S. D. BLANDFORD, (Min. Agriculture & Mines). 4½ years salary at $2,000 a year; trip to England, etc. Trips about the country instructing the ignorant in the science of Agriculture, etc.
5—HON. D. MORISON, K.C. (Minister of Justice). 4½ years salary at $2,000; arbitration fees at Hague; Special Retainers in cases for and against the Government; Land grabs; concessions to companies in which he was a shareholder; picnics, etc., etc.; "Forget-me-not" bouquets, etc.
6—HON. CHAS. EMERSON, K.C. Special Retainers; arbitrations, examining titles, etc., etc.; trips, picnics, etc. Charlie, like Morris, has been "making good."
7—HON. J. C. CROSBIE, (Bay de Verde). Profits on Spars and other saleable goods; concessions to companies in which he was shareholder; land and other grabs, picnics, etc., etc.; also steamer subsidies.
8—J. WHITEWATY, (Bay de Verde). Supplies to Public Institutions and other grabs. Jesse has had more than his share.

9—W. C. WINNOR, (Bonavista).
Salary for valuable services at Labrador and other grabs, too numerous to mention. Billy was kicking a few times and required constant attention.

10—R. MOULTON.
Only a few small sops, but now has a firm promise of a big job if party is again returned. Poor Bob.

11—J. R. GOODISON.
Many arbitrations and large money for fees. John's was a very tidy grab.

12—P. F. MOORE.
Many plumbing contracts and more fat paying jobs without contract. Phil is said to have "made good."

13—A. W. PICCOTT.
More "picnics" than any other member; indeed he was the "pioneer picnicer"; 4½ years salary at $2,000 a year, and other perquisites; was celebrated for Clapping the "Grips" on everything in sight.

14—E. PARSONS.
Chairman of Committees at $400 a session besides much patronage and many small sops. Ned was well cared for.

15—W. WOODFORD, (Min. Public Works).
4½ years salary at $2,000 a year; many trips to his district at the Government expense; picnics galore. Gaffney didn't do badly.

16—R. J. DEVEREAUX.
4 years salary at $1,600 as Agricultural Expert; many excursions around the country teaching the people how to grow potatoes, etc. A soft snap for Dick.

17—W. R. HOWLEY.
Many Retainers and more arbitration fees. Willie stowed away many thousands.

18—F. J. MORRIS, K.C.
Poor Frank—only got a few Retainers and a few arbitrations. His reward comes hereafter.

19—W. R. WARREN.
4½ years at $900. Retainers, etc., etc.—Little Billie did very well and made the most of his opportunities.

20—J. F. DOWNEY.
4½ years salary as a Specialist on Agriculture at $1,600 per annum; picnics and special consideration for expert on everything, especially dredges. Joe did remarkably well. His nest ought to be downy for many days to come.

21—J. R. BENNETT.
Arbitration fees in very large quantities. John was treated badly at first but quickly made up for lost time when once he got an innings.

22—M. E. KENNEDY.
Many fat contracts and small jobs. Mike was kept in good humor all the time.

23—R. A. SQUIRES.
Retainers; Arbitration work and other jobs. A very tidy grabber was Anderson.

24—E. G. GRANT.
Does not appear to have had his share. Is promised something good.

26—J. J. MURPHY.
Water powers and other concessions and elevation to the House of Lords for faithful services to his King and Country.

27—T. LEFEUVER.
Was too late to get much, but succeeded in getting a few small grabs and promises for the future.

ELECTORS: What do you think of the men who you returned four years ago to serve you? Have they done their duty by you, or have they looked after their own individual interests? Look 'em over, one by one, and cull them out. See how many you will have left in your merchantable pile. You will then surely make up your minds that MORRIS MUST GO.
Yours truly,
ON THE WATCH.

Minimise The Loss.

Practically farmers may easily minimise the loss, due to a backward and cold season, by the judicious use of Sulphate of Ammonia as a fertilizer.

Sulphate of Ammonia contains over 20 per cent of nitrogen, as against 15 per cent in Nitrate of Soda, and is therefore more than 25 per cent better than nitrate of soda as a means of quickening and increasing the growth of crops.

The use of Sulphate of Ammonia has increased enormously of late years and it is recognized to be the most valuable fertilizer obtainable. By its judicious use the production of root crops per acre may be doubled, and the growth of late crops stimulated.

We invite the attention of Farmers to our special pamphlet on the best methods of using Sulphate, copies of which will be forwarded free to any address on application.

The price of Sulphate is moderate, and our terms are accommodating.

Baseball Dinner.

The Baseball League held its initial banquet at Wood's hostelry last night and it was as good a success as could be wished for. Covers were laid for seventy persons including the players of the Baseball teams and guests from Grand Falls, Bell Island and the City. The principal guest present was His Honour Mayor Ellis, who did the honours of presenting the trophies won during the season. The menu was bountiful and the speeches, which were interspersed by appropriate songs, though brief, were fluent and interesting. Mr. J. O. Havermale, President of the League, presided during the banquet with gracefulness and tact. The toast list and presentations were as follows:—

"The King"—Prop., Chairman; Resp., "God Save The King."
"The Land We Live In"—Prop., Mr. J. W. Morris; Resp., Mr. W. J. Higgins.
Song—Mr. C. E. Hunt.

Recitation—Mr. P. E. Outerbridge.
"Winners Inter-Town League"—Prop., Mr. F. Brien; Resp., Mr. A. Hilt.

Song—Mr. Gus Summers.
Presentation of R. G. Reid Cup to Capt. A. Hilt of St. John's team, by Mayor Ellis.

"Winners St. John's League"—Prop., Mr. A. Doyle; Resp., Mr. J. W. Wallace.
Recitation—Mr. H. A. Brown.

Presentation of Allen Cup to Capt. J. W. Wallace, of Wanderers Club; presentation of Gold Watch Fobs, on behalf of the League, to Messrs. Dench and McManus, umpires, and P. E. Outerbridge, scorer, and Chaplin Vest for home run to Mr. Hartant by Mayor Ellis.

"The Fans"—Prop., Mr. J. L. Slatery; Resp., Mr. C. E. Hunt.
Song—Mr. W. Colley.

"Our Guests"—Prop., Dr. L. S. Pritchard; Resp., Mr. F. E. Dench.
Recitation—Mr. H. A. Brown.
"The Press"—Prop., Mr. H. A. Brown; Resp., Representatives.

Song—Mr. J. L. Slatery.
"The Ladies"—Prop., Mr. T. V. Hartnett; Resp., Mr. P. E. Outerbridge.
"The Chairman"—Prop., Mayor Ellis; Resp., The Chairman, Mr. J. O. Havermale.

"The Secretary"—Prop., Dr. L. S. Pritchard; Resp., The Secretary, Mr. Grace.
Auld Lang Syne.

Indigestion Ended, Stomach Feels Fine

Time "Pape's Diapepsin!" In five minutes all Soreness, Gas, Heartburn and Dyspepsia is gone.

Sour, gassy, upset stomach, indigestion, heartburn, dyspepsia; when the food you eat ferments into gases and stubborn lumps; your head aches and you feel sick and miserable, that's when you realize the magic in Pape's Diapepsin. It makes all stomach misery vanish in five minutes.

Revolt—if you can't get it regulated, please, for your sake, try Pape's Diapepsin. It's so needless to have a bad stomach—make your next meal a favorite food meal, then take a little Diapepsin. There will not be any distress—eat without fear. It's because Pape's Diapepsin "really does" regulate weak, out-of-order stomachs that gives it its millions of sales annually.

Get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. It is the quickest, surest, stomach relief and cure known. It acts almost like magic—it is a scientific, harmless and pleasant stomach preparation which truly belongs in every home.

"Watchman" Speaks.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—After four years experience of Sir E. P. Morris's Government, it is plain to the whole country, that the so-called People's Party is really nothing more than the old Tory Party of former days, with this difference that the Tories of a few years ago were true to their friends and supporters, while those of to-day are noted for their political ingratitude! Yes, sir, it is the same old Tory Party even down to the little cynical Canada House spy, of whom we heard so much not many years ago.

To bide with our friends, let us conciliate our enemies, in undoubtably the watchword of the present Picnic Party. But sir, the friends whom they have alienated, combined with the forces of the enraged fishermen and life-long Liberals, will hurl from power the men that have made everything subservient to political expediency. What care they for the maintenance of law, and order, and right and truth, and justice, provided they can be returned to power to continue the picnic which they have inaugurated with the monies wrung from the poor hard-working fishermen.

Yours truly,

Parafornic Throat Lozenges are designed as a powerful antiseptic and germicide lozenge for laryngeal and throat troubles generally. For irritation of the mucous membrane, tonsillitis, catarrh, and slight coughs, a Parafornic Throat Lozenge sucked every hour, will quickly subdue the inflammation. These lozenges are good to prevent colds and coughs, and are suitable for children as well as adults, as they contain nothing harmful. Price 20 cts. a bottle.
Massatta and Field Violets Talcum Powders are winners. They far surpass the average Talcum Powder in smoothness and perfect freedom from any irritating properties. They do not clog the pores, as cheap Talcums do. They are exquisitely perfumed. They cost you no more than the cheap ones. Price 25 cents a tin.

A Peking telegraph despatch says: "Russia having finally requested China to restore order in towns along the caravan routes of West Mongolia, finally occupied Klobe and Teloughout-Tchak with a battalion of Cossacks."

QUEBEC, To-Day.
The result of a midnight blaze which broke out in a three storey wooden building at an early hour this morning, indications pointed to the cremation of eight children of a family named Trudel, the proprietor, together with five other families who lived in the house.

VIENNA, To-Day.
The belief prevails that Serbia is merely seeking an excuse to upset the decisions of the ambassadors' conference by seizing points not included in territory allotted to Athens. Many believe Greece is on the verge of another war with Turkey. The whole Albanian trouble seems to be due chiefly to arbitrary disregard for ambassadors' conference on nationalization of territories concerned.

LONDON, To-Day.
Under Secretary of the Board of Trade Robertson, speaking at Newcastle last night, says Sir Edward Carson's Provisional Government was an economic blunder and a practical impossibility, which could be ended by the British Post Office cutting it off from the rest of the world. The Under Secretary was not prosecuted for the reason that the "King" government did not wish to make "King" Carson "Saint" Carson.

LONDON, To-Day.
The Balkan crisis is becoming more acute and is being aggravated by the apparent determination of the Young Turk military party to profit by dissensions among former allies. Turkey is reported to have again called to the colors Asia Minor conscripts, whom an officer lately returning from Tripoli said the effort to subdue the rebellious Albanians was likely to prove a severe strain on the exhausted army exchequer of Serbia, especially if the story of the uprising of Serbo Macedonians was true.

DUBLIN, To-Day.
A further conference of the newly formed Provisional Government to take over the administration of affairs in Ulster, if necessary, has been checked by the illness of Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Ulster Unionists, who has been ordered to bed by his physicians to prevent complete breakdown. Extensive plans are being made for a great review of volunteers on Saturday, but that war preparation is not the chief absorption of the people is shown by the request that promoters advance the hour of an important football game so as not to interfere with the review.

Drives Rheumatic Pains Away, Few Doses Relieve Backache and Bladder Disorders

Sleep disturbing bladder weaknesses, backache rheumatism, and the many other kindred ailments which so commonly come with declining years, need no longer be a source of dread and misery to those who are past the middle age of life.

Croxone relieves all such disorders because it reaches the very cause of the trouble. It soaks right into the kidneys, through the walls and linings; cleans out the little filtering glands and cells and gives the kidneys new strength to do their work properly. It neutralizes and dissolves the

LONDON, To-Day.
An acrobatic French aviator, Alphonse Pegoud, gave the citizens of London an exhibition of his aerial somersaults in tummy flying at Hinton Aerodrome yesterday. Pegoud's remarkable manoeuvres began when he had reached a height of 1200 feet from the ground, when he tilted his aeroplane so it was right angles to the earth. He then permitted one of his wings, did several dives with the nose of his machine downward for 100 feet before he regained equilibrium. The aviator then rose to a height of 3,000 feet and accomplished the most sensational exploit by an aviator ever witnessed here. With a sudden swoop downward he threw the aeroplane onto his back, flew in this manner some seconds, righted machine and repeated performance before reaching the ground, when he was given an ovation by an enormous throng.

Rossley Star Theatre.

At Rossley theatre last night the Marcus Stock Co. were seen in "Fun in a Bowling School." The house was absolutely packed, many not being able to gain admission. Tommy Levene as the Schoolmaster, was one of the stars. The Ladies present at the play were Mrs. Harris as Little Mary, brought the house down every time she "looked." Baby Queen sung a pretty little song which merited the applause it won. As a matter of fact the whole show was fun from beginning to end. It was announced from the stage that there would be a special matinee on Saturday for the children who would each be presented with a bag of candy. The Ladies present at the above matinee will be presented with a P.P.C. of the whole company.

W. J. HERDER, Proprietor --- W. F. LLOYD, Editor

ST. JOHN'S, N.F.L.D., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1913.

A Devil, and an Ostrich, and an Orphan Child in One.

That popular tribune of the East End, Mr. J. M. Kent, K.C., in a speech last winter likened four sections of the Branch Railway Construction Contract to Kipling's "Commissariat Camel," which was "A Devil and an Ostrich and an Orphan Child in One." There is no telling what they will eat up.

Section 34 sets forth that the Contractor shall erect all stations, piers, wharves, fences and snow fences along these branches and perform other works so that the lines may be completely and effectively equipped. These are to be paid for as extras under Section 37.

In addition to this the Contractor is to supply all rolling stock, tools, machinery, coa sheds, engine sheds, workshop and turntables as the Government may require. But the Government cannot unreasonably withhold consent to anything the Contractors deem necessary for the complete and effective equipment of the branch lines.

The means of finding who is to pay for this class of equipment is somewhat complicated. In the first place it is governed by Section 35, which provides that this class of equipment shall be provided as part of the work to be done for the $15,000 a mile to a certain amount, i.e., in quantity and capacity in such proportions as the mileage of the 1893 contract bears to the 1910 contract, and of the same general character and description; or instead of doing this, the Contractor may charge the cost of this class of equipment actually provided and deduct from it the cost of what would have been provided under the terms of the '93 contract, in proportion to the two mileages, and claim the difference.

That difference will be mighty big. This has already been shown by Mr. Kent in the speech to which reference has already been made.

"I have asked for the correspondence which was kindly supplied by the Hon. Colonial Secretary in connection with the Railway Construction and the correspondence supplied up to the date of the last session of the Legislature shows that for the Bonavista line there have been provided and equipped five first class cars, eight second class cars, two mail and baggage cars, ten box cars, four engines, and two snow ploughs. The '93 Contract calls for four locomotives that is the same as on the Bonavista line now. In other words any other locomotives that may be put on the Bonavista line and all the locomotives that may be put on the other Branch lines are extras. Under the 1893 Contract it is provided that three first class baggage cars shall be supplied. Well there are five already on the Bonavista line. In other words two first class passenger cars for the Bonavista line now are extras and all that may be supplied for the other branches will be extras. The '93 Contract calls for two mail and baggage cars. That number went on the Bonavista line this time twelve months. Of second class cars there were two called for in the 1893 Contract and one first and second class combined. There are eight second class cars on the Bonavista line now, double as many on the Bonavista line to-day as there were for all the lines under the '93 Contract. All these additional cars and all that may be provided for the other lines are extras and have to be paid for in cash over and above the mileage. Again, sir, there are 10 box cars now on the Bonavista line; 10 box cars were called for under the Contract of 1893; which means that all others that may be supplied will be regarded as extras. The position that that places before the country is this: that in addition to the $15,000 per mile you have to provide by borrowing on the public account for money to pay for rolling stock and equipment of all the other branches. You take the cost of the mileage, the valuation of the equipment under the Railway Contract of 1893 and reduce it to cash basis. Then you take the five Branch lines. The mileage is practically the same, roundly about 350 miles. If you take these and allow the cost of equipment under the '93 Contract it will take the full valuation under the '93 Contract to pay for part of the equipment of the Bonavista line alone, and all the equipment on the rest of the lines is extra and payment for those extras is provided for in Section 37 of the Contract. The position that we have at present is that $6,000,000 have been borrowed. We were told that at the outside these lines could be built for $4,000,000. You have in sight for monies already spent on equipment and cost of mileage the need of $500,000 more than has been borrowed. In addition to that you must borrow money to provide right of way for other lines; and you have to borrow money for the full and efficient equipment for other lines before this contract is completed and each line must come up to that indefinite point of being completed and effectively equipped by the Reid Co., and any application for road construction by the Company must be granted by the Government unless the circumstances are shown to be unreasonable. Does not this, Mr. Chairman, point to an onerous legacy to those who are to come after the present Government?"

Now that R. W. Strong is again in the city, it is up to the Hon. Donald Forget Morrison to answer those few questions Strong put to him some time ago. Will he? Wait and see.

Oh, how I love you, St. John's West. But I love my "shiners" more.—
—E. P. to Forgetful Don.

"Bandle and Co." is the title of the new song Morris and his "man Friday" (P.F. McG.) are now rehearsing for the great exit on the 30th October.

October 30th is the day of the battle of the ballots—and the result is a foregone conclusion—a straight win for the Liberal Party, and an end to the most corrupt Government this country has ever known.

Howley is again going to try his political fortunes in St. John's East, and after October 20th, Willie will go to—roost.

Higgins may be a good judge of football; but the sturdy electors of St. John's East are not going to give him the chance of making a football of that important district, in the interest of the Reid combination.

Higgins says he never rattled. Oh, Willie, Willie! How can you say such a naughty thing! Don't you know it is a sin to tell a lie?

E. P. will need a good stiff collar to "keep up" his chin during the next few weeks. His spirits are drooping also, and will likely be at the vanishing point when the St. John's-West stalwarts are through with him in October.

BOND CAN'T LOSE because he stands for clean government! Morris Must Go because his Government is rotten to the core!

Bond Can't Lose.

Morris will be put in the cullage heap on Election Day.

Capt. Dick Fowlow may be all right as a fish killer, but as a voter-catcher—well, that is another matter. We are convinced, however, that Skipper Dick will not warm a seat in the Assembly during the next four years.

Clean Government the next four years! That's what the people want, and that's what the people are going to have. Exit Morris!

The "Workman" says: "Every one must admit people can't live on $1 a day." So thought J. C. Crosbie when he charged the Government $2,200 for a pair of spars!

Now that R. W. Strong is again in the city, it is up to the Hon. Donald Forget Morrison to answer those few questions Strong put to him some time ago. Will he? Wait and see.

Oh, how I love you, St. John's West. But I love my "shiners" more.—

Cable News.

Special to The Evening Telegram. PARIS, Sept. 25. It is estimated that 90,000 tons of rice were destroyed by recent floods in French Indo-China.

VIENNA, Sept. 25. No quarter is being given in the Albanian and Servian fighting. All prisoners taken by either side are instantly shot. The Albanians, beside taking Dibre, have stormed and captured the towns of Struga, Jakova and Jokovetz, but failed in their attack on the important town of Pristrend.

LONDON, Sept. 25. The Times understands that an association has been formed with the object of consolidating the resources of employers of labor in this country, and maintaining their rights of freedom to bargain individually with trade unions. It bears the title of the United Kingdom Employers' Defense Union, and will be registered as a Trade Union. An idea of the strength of the movement may be gathered from the fact that at the last meeting last week two large manufacturers promised $250,000 towards a guarantee fund. There were other guarantees of $50,000 and small sums. Each member of the union will be expected to guarantee a sum commensurate with the firm's position in the commercial world, the intention being to create a fund of $250,000,000. One of the stipulations is that individual guarantees will become operative only when this sum is secured. Great importance is attached to the operation of the guarantee fund, in the dealing with small strikes in the interest alike of employers and employees, and of the commerce of the United Kingdom, and it has been arranged that all calls on the funds, which will be pro rata, shall not exceed 7 1/2 per cent. in any one year. Much less than that proportion will, it is believed, be sufficient to secure adequate protection for men willing to work, and employers willing to employ.

Sad Drowning. Mr. H. W. LeMessurier, Deputy Minister of Customs, received a message last evening from Catalina saying that an eight-year-old boy named Sheppard, son of Joseph Sheppard, was drowned by falling over a stage head. No further particulars were received.

Large Fish. Yesterday a fisherman named Stevenson caught an unusually large cod fish on the Blackhead grounds. It was over five feet long and weighed 85 pounds. The fish was on exhibition yesterday afternoon in Power's Cove and later sold to the steward of the warship Sirius.

Season 1913-1914.

We have always been noted for the exclusive style and finish of all our Ready-mades, but our advance fashions in Ladies' Coats for Fall and Winter wear surpass any of our previous showings.

These Coats are built on the newest lines, many are of the modish two-toned tweeds and blanket cloths; large, roomy and mannish looking. The popular style for coming fall—they have large shawl, sailor and storm collars, deep cuffs, trimmed, buttons, etc.

Then there is an exquisite selection of handsome wraps, in Brocaded Velvets, Seal Plush Broche, etc., lined with Brocaded Satin—but these must be seen to be appreciated. In and look over these beautiful Coats. You'll be delighted.

MORRIS'S IMMIGRATION POLICY!

Proposal to bring waifs, strays and paupers from the slums of London and other great English cities and settle them in Newfoundland.

The record of the Morris Government is made up of broken promises, or of wild-cat schemes in an attempt to fulfil them. The only promise that has been faithfully kept is that by which Six Million Dollars have been poured into the pockets of the Reid Company. No fear of Morris, the friend of capitalists, forgetting that! Not satisfied with the method of payment for Railway construction adopted by all preceding Governments, Morris paid the Reids in Gold, thereby bringing a loss to the Colony of Half a Million Dollars.

His wild-cat scheme of cold storage is also well in the mind of the people, but that which calls for most condemnation is the crazy, ill-advised scheme of immigration the Government proposed to put into effect. Thank God, the country has been spared the introduction of the paupers of Great Britain, the denizens of the slums of the big cities. It deserves to rank with his Agricultural policy, which as all the country knows, consisted mainly in providing jobs for Devgreux and Downey at $1,500 per year and expenses (elastic word) and other supporters and heelers of the People's (?) Party, and to furnish an easy medium for distributing spoils to the victors. The duties of these Agricultural experts (?) was to distribute a trifling full of seed and a couple of pounds of potatoes. Sometimes the potatoes were purchased locally and palmed off as specially selected imported seed. Cancer came simultaneously with the seed distribution, and has rendered large sections of cultivated areas unfit for a potato crop for seven years!

Immigration policy, we cannot do better than quote the scathing denunciation given this policy by Sir Robert Bond in the Assembly on Feb. 22, 1912. Here is what Sir Robert had to say of Morris's Immigration scheme:—

"While on this subject of Agriculture, there is, I would remark, another very grave omission in the speech under review. There is no reference whatever to the Government's immigration policy. They had such a policy in view, for, in the opening Speech of the Second Session of this Parliament we were told that measures were 'being devised for the settlement of unoccupied lands along the line of railway by the establishing there of farming colonies composed of suitable agricultural emigrants from the British Isles.' Two years have passed away since then but we have no 'farming colonies' established along the line of railway, and this House and the public have been left entirely in the dark as to the measures that were 'being devised' to bring about the immigration referred to. What were the measures that two years ago were 'being devised'? What class of emigrants did the Government propose to bring in here? For two years this House and the public have been living in a state of expectancy, wondering what the scheme could be that was taking so long time to 'devise,' and what class of people we were to have added to the population of the Colony. Last year fifty-eight thousand persons emigrated from the rural districts of Scotland owing to the increasing burden of rates or taxes. Was any attempt made by the Government to induce these 'people or any of them, to settle in this Colony? It will be admitted, I think, that no more desirable emigrants could possibly be found than those brawny, brainy, thrifty Scotch folk. Was that stream of emigration permitted to flow past our doors without any effort being made to turn at least a portion of it this way? The Government have admitted that 'the burden of taxation borne by the fishermen and working classes is too great.' Then, if that is true, why do they not endeavor to induce suitable emigrants to come here and share that burden of taxation with our people? In this matter they have been exhibiting less common sense than in their conduct of the financial affairs of the Colony, and that 'is saying a good deal. Are you unaware, sir, that instead of inducing a thrifty people to come here and help bear the burden of taxation, they have been actually aiding a scheme to bring pauper children here and which would entail increased burdens on this Colony? Such is the truth. Let me draw aside the curtain and let in the light on this matter. Shortly before this Immigration policy was announced by the Government through the lips of His Excellency the Governor, some philanthropic gentlemen in England had inaugurated a scheme to procure the emigration to the colonies of the Empire, of pauper children, or the waifs and strays of the large cities of Great Britain. They laid their scheme before the Premier of this Colony. It was approved by the Government, and the Premier, Sir Edward Morris, on behalf of the Government, pledged this Colony to most extraordinary liberality in the furtherance of the scheme. He undertook to give the promoters 'A FREE GRANT OF FIFTY THOUSAND ACRES of the best land in the Colony,' 'with exemption from taxes,' to give them 'a bonus on all areas cleared of timber'; to give them 'an annual grant of money for teachers' salaries'; and to give them 'a grant for school buildings.' I notice, sir, an appearance of incredulity on the faces of some honorable members and I am not surprised at this, for it is difficult to conceive that such a scheme could have met with the approval of the 'People's Party.' Yet, sir, the facts as I have given them are vouched for in a pamphlet published by the promoters of the scheme. We have no waifs or strays or pauper children, such as exist in the great cities of the world, in this country, I am thankful to say, but we have hundreds of bright, healthy boys to whose parents their future in life is a very serious problem. With advantage to themselves and to the country these boys could be instructed in the noble work of Agriculture which is the financial backbone of all nations, and the origin of all national wealth. The late Government recognizing this, as I have previously said, made provision to grant the boys of this country a scientific and practical knowledge of Agriculture. But, upon the recommendation of three Government supporters in this House, who profited at the rate of Eighteen hundred dollars per year by the Government accepting and acting upon their recommendation, the advantage of an Agricultural training has been refused to the boys of this country. And yet, sir, what has been denied to them, has been lavishly proffered to the waifs and strays and paupers of Great Britain by this self-designated People's Party.

Popular Rule.

The people rule in Mexico, and there our eyes are best, to see the country thrive and grow beneath good government. When old man Diaz had the helm, we called him Satan's too! 'there'll be no progress in that realm until the people rule!' And now the people have full sway, they exercise their might; they burn down villages by day, and butcher folks by night. They're spreading freedom o'er the seas, with musket, sword and dirk, and nevermore, in coming days, will they get down to work. The flag of license they have held too long to let it go; when one uprising has been quelled, another one will grow. Dead men are lying, stark and cool, beneath the Aztec skies; but why complain? The people rule—we know that rule is wise. 'O'er Mexico we should go—her destiny is clear, some say that government by mob is what we're needing here.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.
Dear Sirs.—While in the country last summer I was badly bitten by mosquitoes, so badly that I thought I would be disfigured for a couple of weeks. I was advised to try your Liniment to allay the irritation, and did so. The effect was more than I expected, a few applications completely curing the irritation, and preventing the bites from becoming sore. MINARD'S LINIMENT is also a good article to keep off the mosquitoes.

Yours truly,

HAY BARN BURNED TO THE GROUND.—Laurence Connolly, farmer, Heavy Tree Road, met with a heavy loss on Tuesday afternoon. A large and new barn which contained six tons of hay caught fire in some unaccountable manner, and was burnt to the ground in less than a half an hour. Poor Connolly had not a cent of insurance on the barn or hay. He was second to this morning seeking donations from the generous public to help him in his loss.

Crinkley and tempting!

You'll never know how delightful a pie crust can be until you've made some with Rainbow Flour.

It blends deliciously with the filling—proves for all time that a pie crust wasn't designed merely to protect the goody inside.

You'll gladly let them judge your pie by its crust when you begin the use of Rainbow Flour.

Why not tomorrow?

In using Rainbow Flour for pastry, more water (added slowly) is required and less flour.

Special to Evening Telegram. CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 25. A great fire occurred at Ordwport in Asia Minor, a Black Sea market place. A thousand houses have been destroyed.

CHATHAM, Mass., Sept. 25. The three-masted schooner Nellie F. Sawyer, of Portland, slid into deep water and sunk, after striking a shoal in the Pollock Rip Channel today. She was bound from New York to Calais with coal. The crew is safe.

LONDON, Sept. 25. Lord Alverstone has recovered from his long illness, and unless a relapse occurs it is certain that he will resume his position as Lord Chief Justice on October 12th.

QUEENSTOWN, Sept. 25. The White Star liner Olympic today followed the example of the Canadian steamers, and shunned Queenstown harbor, where she had been accustomed to anchor. She sailed from here at 6 p.m. without taking on 200 passengers and 1,500 sacks of mail for New York.

LONDON, Sept. 25. Messrs. J. and G. White, British Harbor Engineers, have secured a contract, involving some $30,000,000 for the Harbor extension scheme in Vancouver, where the Provincial Government recently granted shore rights to the Vancouver Harbor and Dock Extension Co.

DUBLIN, Sept. 25. Sir George R. Askwith has issued a memorandum, outlining a plan whereby a conciliation committee comprising six members nominated by employers and six by transport workers, with himself as chairman, will meet on Monday and sit till the present strikes and lockouts are terminated.

PARIS, Sept. 25. Wreckage, supposed to be the remains of the Bonsoie, the vessel of the French explorer La Perouse, which sailed on a voyage of discovery in the Pacific in 1788, and never returned, has been found buried in the sand of the Island of Vanikoro in the Pacific.

LONDON, Sept. 25. All strikes in Britain were settled today when the Manchester Ship Canal directors agreed to consider the claims of their dock laborers for better wages, and when the coal miners at South Wales returned to the work which they left on Sept. 17th, owing to the employment of non-unionists.

A Child's Laxative Is "Syrup Of Figs"

They love to take it and it doesn't harm the tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

If your little one's tongue is coated, it is a sure sign the stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When your child is cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, system full of cold, throat sore, or if feverish, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a very happy child again.

Stick children aren't to be coaxied to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!

Varicose Veins and Itching Piles

Usually Arise From Same Cause—Relief and Cure Effected by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Nearly everybody knows of Dr. Chase's Ointment as the most effective treatment for piles or hemorrhoids that medical science has been able to compound. So much suffering and misery arises from this ailment that one is not long in telling his friends when he has found an actual cure.

This letter tells of relief from the suffering of varicose veins by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Many suffer from this trouble not knowing the comfort to be obtained by the use of this great soothing ointment.

Ragtime.

Ragtime is a form of peg-legged music which has seized the American people by the feet and caused the music critics to throw off bright brimstone sparks. It is a cross between ball on a tin roof and a buck and wig artist with the St. Vitus dance.

Ragtime is a series of musical characters, no two of which hit the ground at the same time. It is played with a hop, skip and a jump, averaging about twelve hops to the measure, and is about as easy to dance to as a kettle drum solo.

Ragtime was invented about ten years ago by somebody who discovered that by taking an old Italian aria and running it through a feed chopper a very weird effect could be produced. Some of these effects are so weird that people who are fond of classical music would just as soon listen to a duet between an accordion and a bagpipe.

Probably nobody has made more money out of ragtime than a French acrobat named Debussy, who gathered most of his material by attending negro cakewalks. Nobody pretends to understand what Debussy is trying to say, as he writes mostly for the black keys and breaks out in a new kind of tempo every few minutes. No one but the critics for the New York, Boston and Chicago papers can listen to a program of Debussy music without wincing up in a padded cell or calling feebly for ice water.

Ragtime music is made in several different styles of body, on one chassis, and is sold in carload lots to dealers per copy to throbbing customers who are passionately fond of music. No one who has ever heard the stately stamping of a ragtime march, torn from the paraded throat of a discouraged phonograph, will confuse it with the knee action of the Kneisel Quartet.

People stick up their noses at ragtime in public, but have to give up when it attacks them in the soles of their feet, where musical faculty is located in most of us.

Confesses to Murder of Young Girl

Philadelphia, Sept. 22.—The identity of the perpetrator of the brutal murder of Anna Catherine Schumann in Holy Sepulcher cemetery in Rochester, N. Y., on Aug. 7, 1909, was established here early today, it is believed, when Jacob Wolfsohn, arrested for larceny, confessed to having committed the deed.

After his arrest here on the charge of larceny and forcible entry guards notified that he seemed to have something on his mind, but refused to talk. Finally the prisoner asked for pencil and paper and wrote a note addressed to the District Attorney containing the simple statement that he had killed a girl in a cemetery at Rochester and that her name was Schumann.

His alleged confession, as repeated by detectives, was substantially as follows: "Wolfsohn worked in a suburb of Rochester and had to pass the cemetery on his way home each day. Several times he saw the girl at a grave laying flowers upon it."

"I flirted with her and she smiled back at me," Wolfsohn confessed, "then next day I saw her bending over her father's grave and went up and spoke to her. I walked up to her and held her hand. I tried to kiss her, but she resented this and tried to run away. I grabbed her by the arm and began choking her." She screamed but no one heard her, and then I grabbed her around the throat and strangled her. She then died." Continuing his story Wolfsohn said: "I then attacked her and after that dragged the body to the woods of the cemetery. I dug a hole large enough to place the body in it, and covered it with dirt and leaves. No one knows how I suffered for doing this. I could keep it secret no longer."

The Public and the Police.

Editor Evening Telegram. Sir.—At the foot of Theatre Hill last evening a most disgusting scene occurred—a drunken brawl well aided by the most vile and filthy language ever listened to; this keeping up for one solid hour, much to the joy of the inquisitive crowd and very much to the disgust of respectable people and residents of the place.

During this most disgraceful scene absolutely no police of any kind appeared—it being up to the residents on all such occasions to find the policeman—which I have very seldom seen even passing my door.

New Mr. Sullivan and the public who have to witness these most lowering and objectionable exhibitions, do we pay for police protection? If we do—well, let us have it, and let us have it without further delay.

The whole community along this section of the town—weekly, and very often daily—are compelled to witness such absolutely vile and objectionable scenes, which most assuredly are aggravated by the fact that there is no fear of interference from His Majesty's police, and they may hang away at one another and let their filthy tongues work as will.

Now why should this continue? Give us a smart capable man to patrol this thoroughfare, which is very badly in need of the strictest attention, particularly after 6 o'clock. Only those living here know what it is and what goes on continually. And when a young lad appeared last evening and attempted to arrest this man, which was evidently impossible, why then he with a smiling face handed him over to his friends to take him home. But anyhow this is one of the performances we are always witnessing, and I am about sick of them, having on these occasions to procure the policeman more than once.

Thanking you very much for space, which I trust may be turned into good account, believe me, Yours, etc. A DISGUSTED WOMAN.

Special to Evening Telegram

CATALINA, To-Day.

The Opposition candidates were given a grand reception here last night, the whole town turning out to welcome them. Four hundred people with 150 lit torches gave a big demonstration, which passed under a magnificent illuminated arch, with band playing lively airs, Dr. McKay in a carriage heading the procession to the hall, which was packed to overflowing, while hundreds were unable to get in. Mr. White was Chairman. The coalition under Sir Robert Bond was enthusiastically endorsed. Mr. Stone spoke eloquently for half an hour, receiving much applause. Mr. Coaker, who had an enthusiastic welcome, dwelt much on the value of the coalition and the eminent services being rendered by Sir Robert Bond. His glowing speech was punctuated by much applause. At the close he asked all who intended to vote straight ticket for Lloyd, Stone and Targett to stand. It is said only one remained in his seat. Dr. Lloyd was given a great welcome. He spoke for an hour and a half on Liberalism and Unionism, Sir Robert Bond and Mr. Coaker, and remarked on the wholehearted endorsement of the coalition and the leadership of Sir Robert Bond. The meeting closed at midnight amid ringing cheers for Coalition Candidates. The Government is down and out here, their candidates will get but a score or so votes. Catalina is solid for the Opposition.

With their usual thoroughness and their aim to reach perfection, Fairbanks Morse have been experimenting for the past few years with the object of successfully changing their gasoline engines into kerosene, and now beg to announce their success.

A few years ago Fairbanks Morse Stationary engines were operated on gasoline, when suddenly they changed to kerosene, the success of which can be verified by any light-house keeper in NEWFOUNDLAND.

Whilst other concerns were vying with one another to be the first to announce that their engines would use kerosene, Fairbanks were carefully experimenting, as they required their attachment to be up to the FAIRBANKS STANDARD OF QUALITY. Their great reputation of quality is fully sustained by their new kero invention.

Whilst not making any extravagant claims that it is better than gasoline, they guarantee that their engines will use kerosene with almost as good results, and certainly at much lower cost.

We are not selling gasoline engines this fall but rather FAIRBANKS MORSE QUICK START KEROSENE which will be found to live up to their reputation sustained in NEWFOUNDLAND this year.

Yesterday a resident of Pleasant Street purchased a pair of ducks from a country woman, giving her a five dollar bill. The new owner of the birds went and placed the ducks in her backyard but on returning for her change was surprised to find that the vendor had disappeared. The matter was reported to the police and Detective Byrne lost no time in rounding up the man who had made off with the greenback, and returned the change to the rightful owner.

The R. M. S. Sardinian, Capt. Henderson, reached port at 3.30 this morning from Philadelphia. The passage took six days during which boisterous weather was experienced. S. L. C. brought 300 tons of cargo. The ship sails for Glasgow this midnight taking in saloon as passengers:—Mr. and Hon. Mrs. Eustace Hills, Hon. Catherine Kay-Shuttleworth, Bernard Ayre, J. E. Fox, Mrs. Skroch, Miss Fennell and four in steerage.

According to advices received by Deputy Minister of Customs LeMessurier, the following vessels have left the Labrador Coast with fish cargoes, so far this season:—
