Horse Races Wednesday, March 8th.
(ICE PERMITTING.)
The Third Regular Meet under the auspices of The Newfoundland Horsemen's Association will take place on this coming Wednesday—ice and weather permitting. Last year's efforts of the Committee apparently were appreciated, as the Watchword of "Keep to the North of the Race Track" was well carried out by the citizens who seemed eager to help the Committee in every possible way. The same Watchword is in force again this year, so the citizens generally are asked to kindly comply with the Committee's request and keep on the North Bank, where a splendid view can be obtained of the whole outfit. The Committee is anxious to make a complete success of the Horse Races this year, therefore, keep on the North Bank.
The following Races have been decided upon, viz:—
1st. Fastest Trotter under three years by Howard Mann.
2nd. Championship Trotting Race.
3rd. Championship Pacing Race.
4th. Farmers' Race.
5th. Cabmen's Race.
The winners to be decided upon by first three out of five heats.
The following are the Committee in charge, viz:—
Captains of the Course—Mr. W. J. Higgins.
Starters—Messrs. Thos. Volsey, Dr. J. B. Lynch.
Finish Judges—Messrs. R. Dowden, Bro. O'Regan, Geo. R. Williams.
Judges of the Course—Messrs. Hon. Dr. Campbell, Sir John Crosbie, Lt. Col. Carly, A. H. Salter, M. Taylor, Thos. Curran.
Roping Committee—Bro. O'Regan, Timekeepers—Messrs. Chas. Ellis, Chas. Hunt.
Entrance Fee for the different Races other than under three year old $5.00, and Mr. A. E. Parkins is particularly anxious to close out all entries at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning, so those intending entering for the various Races will please govern themselves accordingly.
The various Committees in charge of the Races have left no stone unturned to make this Third Meet of The Horsemen's Association a day to be remembered in St. John's, and, as already mentioned above, the citizens, who so loyally helped out the Committees last year, are again requested to do their best to see the track kept clear, so as to give the horses and those taking charge of the event a chance to carry out the day successfully.
Remember the Watchword, "Keep on the North Bank."
First Race starts at 2 p.m. in order named.

Sweet Eva!

CHAPTER XLII.

"You'd better sit down a minute and get cool," he said, breathlessly. Peter dropped into a chair and hid his face. He had gone through a great deal since parting with his sister that morning, and he was shaken with hysterical emotion.

Philip went out into the hall. He stood at the foot of the stairs and called to his wife.

"Eva! There was no answer, and he went up the stairs two at a time and knocked at her door.

The maid to whom he had spoken downstairs came to him.

"Mrs. Winterdick is not in her room, sir—she's not in the drawing-room, either—I've looked everywhere."

Philip frowned. He opened the door of his wife's room and switched on the light. The room was empty, but the bed was disordered a little where she had been lying, and the frock she had worn at dinner that night lay in a heap by the dressing-table just as it had fallen from her.

"She must be in the house somewhere—ask—no, wait; I'll go myself."

He went downstairs with a faint sense of apprehension at his heart. She must be somewhere about, of course—he went straight to his mother.

"I can't find Eva—isn't she with you?"

"I haven't seen her since dinner—she went to her room, she looked ill, but she insisted that there was nothing the matter," Mrs. Winterdick rose. "Is anything wrong, Philip?"

"No, but Peter Dennison is here and wants her."

He went out again. He stood for a moment in the hall, not knowing what to do; the maid came down the stairs to him.

"I think Mrs. Winterdick must have gone out, sir—her hat and coat are not in her room."

"Of course!" He drew a breath of relief. "I forgot! She said she should go home this evening. I'll walk over and meet her."

He rejoined Peter.

"Eva's gone over to your place, I'll walk back with you and meet her." He looked at his brother-in-law for a moment in silence; then he said impulsively: "Look here, Peter, if there's anything—well, I'd much rather have it now and done with it. All this has been a shock to you; I'm sorry—I'd give a great deal to be able to undo my share in it. . . . But it's no use getting things all mixed up, you know—Eva knew—there wasn't any—dirty trick played on her as you say there was, though—though I suppose that's not my fault," he added bitterly.

Peter looked up; his face was distorted with grief and passion.

"It's not true," he said vehemently. "She didn't know! She may have told you so, but it's not the truth. . . . and I've been so rotten to her—only this morning—and last night. . . . and she's always been such a brick to me. . . ." he added brokenly.

Philip took a step forward laying his hand on Peter's shoulder.

"What do you mean—that she didn't know?" he asked in a queer voice. "Why do you insist that she didn't know?"

"I ought not to tell you—she made me promise—but I must now—I must! It was the day you were married—after we came back from church, I went upstairs to hurry her—you were waiting. . . ."

Peter broke down for a moment, then struggled on again.

"Something had happened—something dreadful—I don't know what it was, and she wouldn't tell me. . . . but she looked as if someone had stabbed her—she clung to me and cried. . . . I shall never forget her face as long as I live," added poor Peter brokenly.

Philip swallowed hard; he walked away and came back again.

"Yes, but—but that's nothing," he said with an effort. "If that's all. . . ."

"But it isn't! It isn't! . . . Afterwards, when you'd both gone, we found her veil—her wedding veil—she'd torn it in two—it looked as if it had been trampled on; and her flowers—the flowers you gave her—she'd thrown them across the room; they were all broken and bruised." Peter rose to his feet, his hands clenched, as if he hardly knew what to do with himself. "I believe it was only then that she knew—she insisted wretchedly. 'I don't know why I think so, but I'm sure—I'm sure! She's hidden it ever since; she's never let anyone know—she's laughed and pretended—that's so like Bonnie. . . . She wouldn't even tell me—and I've asked her ever so many times. Then—last night—I told her I was ashamed of her because of Calligan."

"Calligan!" said Philip savagely. Peter rounded on him.

"It's been decent to her, anyway," he said hotly. "And that's more than we have—you and I!"

There was a little silence; then Philip took Peter's hat from the chair where he had thrown it down and handed it to him.

"Come along—we'll go and find her," he said.

They went out into the darkness together; they walked fast and neither of them spoke till as they reached the Dennisons' house. Philip said in a strangled voice—

"Supposing she isn't here?" The fear had been growing in his heart all the way, the words seemed forced from him.

"Of course she's here," said Peter irritably. He opened the door with his key, and Philip followed him in.

The house was very quiet; Peter looked into two of the rooms.

"I know the gov'nor's in, anyway," he said brusquely. "I only left him to come to you."

Peter went upstairs and found Mr. Dennison in his wife's boudoir listening with an air of boredom to her complaints because she chose to think that the vicar's wife had deliberately cut her that afternoon.

"Well, what's it matter if she did?" he was saying tartly as Peter opened the door. "I'll stop my subscription to the church; I'll—" He broke off.

Peter spoke—

"Where's Bonnie? Philip's downstairs He wants her."

Mrs. Dennison answered him frostily—

"She hasn't been here—hasn't even troubled to come and see her own mother, after all these weeks. You would have thought that my only daughter—"

Peter went out again.

"We must have missed her on the road," he told Philip. "She hasn't been here. What are you going to do? Wait, or—"

"I'm going back," Philip was already at the door. Peter followed.

Philip walked at such a rate it was all Peter could do to keep pace with him. Presently he asked a breathless question—

"What's the hurry? Here, that's not the way."

"I'm going to the station first."

"Station! But—"

He asked no more questions. He felt instinctively that something was desperately wrong. He stood by anxiously while Philip questioned a porter—

"Has the first train gone to town?"

"Yes, sir."

Philip glanced at his watch.

"When's the first one in the morning?"

"Nothing till the nine-five, sir."

Philip turned away. Peter caught a glimpse of his face in the yellow lamp outside, and a sudden nameless fear shot through him; but nothing was said till they were in the road again; then Philip broke out hoarsely—

"Look here—I'm going to run. I've got to get up to town to-night. There's no train, so I shall take the car. You can come if you like, but make up your mind quickly." Peter's mind was made up already.

"I'll come he said briefly.

They raced back through the dark lanes; they were panting and breathless when they reached the Highway House; Philip paused a moment; he was sick with fear and dread; Peter glanced at him and broke out—

"She may be here—let me go and see first."

"Very well—but I know she isn't—I'll get the car."

He went off round to the garage; a moment later Peter rejoined him.

"Well—well?" Philip asked.

Peter shook his head. They took the car round to the front door; Philip went in for a moment to find his mother; he explained hurriedly.

"I'm going up to town—with Eva." He dared not tell her the truth; he gripped her hand for a moment. "It's all right—don't ask any questions, there's a dear, and don't worry." He kissed her and was gone; a moment later he and Peter were racing towards London.

The little car seemed to fly over the road; Philip was driving recklessly without being in the least conscious of it; they had gone some miles before Peter spoke—

"Where are you going—to the flat?"

"No."

Presently Peter tried again.

CHOCOLATE BLANC MANGE.

1/4 teaspoonful salt, 2 cups Carnation Milk, 2 ounces unsweetened chocolate, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 teaspoonful vanilla, 2 1/2 cups water, 1/2 cup cornstarch. Combine 2 cups of water and the Carnation Milk; pour into the double boiler and bring to the boiling point. Mix the cornstarch, sugar and salt; dilute with the remaining 1/2 cup of water. Add to the first mixture, stirring constantly. Add the melted chocolate, stirring occasionally until mixture thickens. Cook fifteen minutes. Add flavoring; mold, chill and serve with whipped Carnation Milk.

Headaches Gone

Perhaps you can imagine what this means to one who has suffered terribly with headaches for ten years.

Read about it in this letter.

Mrs. Tena A. Smith, Country Harbor Cross Roads, N. S., writes:

"I feel that if anyone can recommend Dr. Chase's medicines I certainly can. I suffered for ten years from severe headaches, and although I took all kinds of headache powders they just relieved me at the time. I became very nervous and run-down, and everything seemed to trouble me. I have taken eighteen boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and it has made an entirely new person of me. I felt that I could not have lived without it. I do not have one headache now for every hundred I used to have, and my nerves are good and strong. I just weighed 109 pounds, when I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and now I weigh 121. Knowing what this treatment has done for me, I cannot too highly recommend it to others."

THE OLD MAID AND HER CAT.

Do you think there is anything funny about an old maid who is devoted to her cat?

Or anything that would arouse criticism? I don't. I think the criticism belongs to the people who think there is something funny about that devotion.

There was a time when insane people were thought ideal butts for jokes. We don't think so now. Some day we will realize that the suppressed desire represented by the unmarried woman's devotion to a cat or dog or a cause is touching rather than amusing or objectionable.

Of course someone is always ready to say that the unmarried woman should do something for humanity instead of lavishing her love on a cat. I have known very few unmarried women who were not devoted to their nieces and nephews, if they had any, and who did not give generously of their time and strength and money to the Church or some other institution for humanity's benefit. But doing that does not prevent one's wanting

WHY SHOULD SHE BE BITTER?

Why is it that the mother who has, as she would be the first to admit, the greatest blessing that the world can bring a woman, so often feels a kind of bitterness for the woman who has no children?

Why doesn't she feel pity and sympathy instead? It is they who are losing the beautiful things of life, not she.

Furthermore, why does she always assume that the barrenness is a matter of choice. And even when it is, why does she not pity them for the dreadful mistake they are making—these women who are afraid of life.

They Should Know.

Just this morning a letter came to me from a married woman, mother of several children, in which the finest spirit was shown on everything except this one subject. When she touched on it she became almost venomous. And I have often heard mothers talk in this critical, almost bitter vein of the childless wives of their acquaintance.

Of course there are plenty of women who have deliberately preferred a life of greater ease and luxury to the joys of motherhood. But surely you who know these joys are the ones who know best the folly of their mistake and therefore should know best how to pity them.

Treaty Acceptance Campaign Opens in Dublin

Crowds Assemble in Vast Numbers--- Cabal Against Lloyd George---All Eyes Focused on Fiume---Exciting Week End in Belfast.

CAMPAIGN FOR TREATY OPENS.

DUBLIN, March 5. The crowds gathered to-day for the opening of the campaign for acceptance of the Anglo Irish treaty were not only because of their enthusiasm but also because of the high degree of interest in the people's choice of an umbrella to shelter them from the rain. The Free State Tricolor perfect was maintained by the Republican police. The crowd jeered and whistled the women for the flag affair. Collins asserted that once the State was established the north-east Ulster was certain to be determined to establish a police force notwithstanding the warnings of De Valera. It would be a political force to protect any man but would be for the protection of every citizen in Ireland. Arthur Griffith, who was suffering from influenza, pointed to British troops in Ireland as proof that Ireland had been betrayed.

BRITISH POLITICAL SITUATION UNCHANGED.

LONDON, March 5. According to an apparently inspired statement to-night the British political situation was unchanged. Lloyd George's offer to resign has been held in abeyance but not withdrawn. He is still awaiting assurances of the continued loyalty of Unionists to the Coalition Government. The Premier has pointed out that candidates are being chosen for a general election who openly disclaim his leadership yet receive approval of the Unionist members of the Government who are urging Lloyd George to resign. Coalition Liberals are almost as anxious that he should resign. They suggest there is little hope for the Coalition in a general election and many want to seek a union with Asquith Liberals under the leadership of Lloyd George.

SITUATION IN FIUME GRAVE.

ROME, March 5. The situation in Fiume is considered most grave. The Italian Government feels the delicacy of the situation in which Premier Facta and Foreign Minister Schanzer have been placed, but is determined to respect loyalty to the treaty of Rapallo. The first object of the Cabinet is to restore order in Fiume and armed forces are being despatched for that purpose.

A WARNING TO CANADA.

NEW YORK, March 5. Arguing that a continuance of Government control of railway may affect Canada's borrowing powers, the Wall Street Journal deals with the railway question and the rumours that Canada will soon be in the market for a loan of $400,000,000, of which $100,000,000 is to be raised in New York. If the borrowing country has embarked on extravagant project, the lender may well hesitate, this paper says. Canada has not inflated her currency and exchange with United States is now nearly at par, but after deducting active assets of $276,000,000 Canada's net debt is $7,388,000,000, an enormous sum for a small population.

THE COAL MINERS' DISPUTE.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 5. The Opposition of the United Mine Workers to negotiation of single state wage agreements was regarded by union officials here to-day as leaving only a conference between the Union and Companies in the entire central competitive fields as a possibility for averting the threatened coal miners' strike in April. The International aspect of the situation was emphasized by messages from Calgary reporting that Western Canadian Coal Companies refused to negotiate new agreements except on their own basis.

NATIVE OF ST. JOHN'S DIES AT 104.

ZION, ILLS., March 5. Mrs. Della King, 104 years old, a native of St. John's Nfld., died here from influenza. More than forty years ago she was said to have contracted an incurable disease and was told she could only live a few months. She leaves nine children, seventeen grand children and fifteen great grand children.

A DEADLOCK.

CALGARY, ALBERTA, March 5. The Coal Companies in District 18, Western Canada, declare that unless the miners accept a wage reduction of 35 per cent. they will close the mines. The miners' representatives reply that if any reduction is attempted a general strike will be called.

PRINCE IN NORTHERN INDIA.

PESHAWAR, March 5. The Prince of Wales arrived here to-day after a delightful journey in the Hill country. He received a warm welcome. From here, the extreme northern point of the India tour, the Prince will motor up the Khyber Pass and inspect troops to-morrow.

LABOR LEADER SPEAKS.

OTTAWA, March 5. People who did not heed the mutterings of workers who are not satisfied with constitutional methods to secure a just place in the world were living in a fool's paradise, President Tom Moore of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, told the Canadian Club here last night. This did not apply only to European countries, but to North American countries, where masses of the workers were still waiting the attainment of those ideals outlined in the Versailles Treaty after the Great War when the hero the nation worshipped was the common man.

FIRING IN BELFAST.

BELFAST, March 5. Firing which took place during a greater portion of Saturday night continued to-day and as the evening advanced became incessant at some points. Only a few casualties were reported. The firing seemed to be more for intimidation than for destruction. Workmen returning from morning service in Townsend Street Presbyterian Church were fired on. They scurried for shelter while the police hurried to the spot and engaged in a duel with the gunmen. There were no casualties, aside from the wounding of two men of a party of troops passing at the time. Owen Hughes was shot and killed, while riding in a York St. car Saturday night. A bomb was thrown into the home of John Press, Lanark Street, wounding one son and two daughters. Saturday night in York Street District, was one of the worst since last August. Attacks were made on three police patrols, in which one policeman was wounded. Woman shoppers wildly rushed to places of safety. After eleven o'clock the police brought a machine gun into play in the snipers' zone and many walls in Kent Street were pelted with bullets.

OPPOSITION TO TARIFF BILL.

WASHINGTON, March 5. Opponents of the United States tariff bill assail it on the ground that it is a measure to restrict trade with other countries, and even in some instances to prohibit it, and they maintain it is especially unwise because of the effect it will have in hampering trade with Canada. Strong opposition is certain to develop in the Senate when the Bill comes up.

Produce and Provisions.

(From Saturday's Trade Review.)

Codfish—The export this week was the lowest on record for a long time, and amounted to only 220 quintals from St. John's to Halifax by Sable I. from Messrs. Hickman and Baird. The Oporto consumption fell off from the previous week by about 2,000 quintals, but at 7.75 it is still a satisfactory normal average, being 1,000 quintals a day. The Newfoundland stocks on hand have been reduced to $1,200, and there was never less in sight to back this up during the Lenten season. The price should improve, judging from all the surrounding circumstances.

Cod Oil—None went forward this week to either side of the Atlantic. The market is a little better in New York, and there is confidence that an improvement will set in very soon, as the fisheries in which this product is used are awaking under the influence of general business revival. The latest New York quotation is 44 cents per gallon in barrels. Dealers there are stocked up heavily, and their holdings will have to be cleared off before there is any considerable demand.

Cod Liver Oil—The market continues quiet with very slow demand. Whilst the price for new oil may improve a little, it is not expected that there will be a recurrence of any attractive prices the coming season. Attention of dealers is now centered on the new Norwegian output which will be coming forward soon. If their fishery is large this will be a prime factor in keeping the market down to about the present level for the coming season. A short fishery with them would, on the other hand, boom prices of refined oil.

Flour—Flour to-day in St. John's is sold considerably under what it would cost to sell new importations. Wheat advanced steadily during the week, and there are no circumstances that would make for a decline. The reported damage to the new winter wheat crop in the United States wheat belt is now a recognized certainty, as evidenced by the rush last week by dealers in buying so heavily in Chicago and Winnipeg at the advance of six to seven cents a bushel, and cash wheat at four to five cents. Spring fishery outfit flour here cannot be much under $11.00. The present quotation is $10.50 wholesale for leading brands and $9.00 for under grades. Importations this week were 3,400 barrels.

Pork—The S.S. Canadian Sapper brought in 100 barrels and the Rosalind 105 barrels of Pork this week, making the total since New Year 3,556 barrels, as compared with 3,120 this date last year. The advance is firm and steady. Hogs have gone from $6.50 per 100 lbs. in December to $9.00, and barrelled Pork has moved up in about the same ratio. Mess Pork which was $14 in the United States market at New Year, is now $20 per barrel. The advance in other brands is not so striking. Stocks in Chicago are very short for this time of the year, and the export demand is fairly good. In the local market Mess is $31, Fat Back $29, Ham Butt $32, Spare Hibs $30, Family Mess $45, and Boston Butt $32 per barrel, wholesale.

Beef—By the last S.S. Bornholm from Boston and Halifax 767 barrels were imported, and the Rosalind $12 barrels. Prices of barrelled beef continue comparatively cheap, notwithstanding the advance in pork, but dealers generally predict higher prices in the course of the spring. The British Government has decided to continue the embargo on Canadian cattle to prevent the further spread of disease, and this fact, no doubt, accounts in some degree for the continuance of last year's low prices. The local quotations are the same as quoted last week, viz. Bos. Plank $26.00; Bos. Packet $20.00; Family Special $21.00, Boneless $21.50 per barrel, wholesale.

Molasses—The Maritime Provinces have placed some orders at Barbados for new Molasses at 40 cents per wine gallon F.O.B. The market is firm at this price, which dealers on the island are endeavoring to keep up. The "Czarina" with a load of last year's molasses is expected to have her repairs effected by this time and ready to sail for St. John's. Three other Newfoundland vessels are there waiting cargoes of new crop which is now ready. The local price is still 80 cents per gallon for Fancy in the puncheon and 3 cents additional for tierces and five cents in barrels.

Sugar—The export demand has improved somewhat in the United States, and the market is firmer in consequence. One thing seems to us almost certain, and that is the prices cannot go any lower this season. The quotation in the United States market at the close of February was as low as $6.50 per 100 lbs. for White Granulated, but as the surplus Cuban old stock is being fast depleted, it is reasonable to look for an advance before long. As a matter of fact, the quotation in London increased six pence per cwt. for refined sugar last week. In the fact of all these facts, it is only right to say that there are to-day sugar experts who hold to the opinion that sugar will be lower in April and May. The St. John's quotation is still $10.25 per 100 lbs. for American White Granulated, imports for the week amounted to 1,570 barrels.

Potatoes—There are fair quantities of imported potatoes being offered now at stronger prices, viz. $4.50 to $4.80 per sack of 130 lbs.—an increase of about one-dollar per barrel since January. Local stock was scarce on the market all the past month owing to the frosty weather, and we do not know at this price these will be offered. It is likely to be influenced by the price of imported and should be around $4.00 per barrel. 300 barrels of Nova Scotian ware imported by the Mapledawn.

Feeds—The S.S. Bornholm brought in 500 sacks of oats, 1,200 sacks corn meal, 400 sacks corn, and 320 sacks feed last trip, while in addition to 1,457 sacks of oats by the S.S. Canadian Sapper and 822 sacks by the Mapledawn, also this week, gave a good supply to the market. The quotation for white oats is now $4.00 per sack of 4-bushels wholesale; mixed $3.90; Bran $2.80 to $3.00, Corn $2.70 to $2.80. The prices are likely to hold about these levels all the spring.

Hay—The hay situation is quite strong this week, and the local quotation wholesale at $54 per ton. The supply was getting short when the S.S. Canadian Sapper arrived on Tuesday from Halifax with 1,777 bales, which was augmented by 1764 bales by the Mapledawn. We are approaching the time of year when Hay generally reaches its highest point, viz. the spring months, and dealers believe that the market will take on a further increase and keep a high level till next July.

Underpaid Producers

A few days ago in discussing the harsh tariff of the times, and its bearing so severely on the producer, it was ascertained that with increasing duties and declining prices for fish and other products of the fisheries, the fishermen could not make both ends meet, and therefore the high tariff would not bring the amount of revenue up to the sum which could be collected on a low rate of duty. Is it reasonable to suppose that when the price of an article of import soars, and the price of an item of produce slumps, there can be the same amount of purchasing power as when the tariff is balanced and adjusted to suit the circumstances of trade? But it is not so with the present schedule of duties. This has been arranged with a view of getting the very last copper from the men who toil at sea and on shore. With green fish at one dollar per hundred and twelve pounds and flour at nine dollars and fifty cents per barrel, other necessities being in proportion as to price, is it not a painfully difficult matter for fishermen to eke out even an existence? The cost of operating is vastly more than it was in pre-war days, and prices for green fish were much higher than now. With decreased earning power the bulk of the proceeds of the fishing voyage is swallowed up in the cost of outfitting, leaving but a margin for the support of the fisherman and his family. A correspondent in Friday's Telegram who has had considerable experience in local shore fishing, supplies a table of expenses in connection with the operations of two men in a motor boat, the total for a season (no provisions included) amounting to three hundred dollars. The earnings for the same period, on a most liberal basis of estimated catch, with the price at one dollar per hundredweight "from the knife" would not exceed five hundred dollars, leaving a balance, after paying expenses, of two hundred dollars to be divided equally, or one hundred dollars for each man, upon which he has to maintain himself and family. Can he do it? The only answer is that it is impossible. With shore fish at seven to eight dollars per quintal, fishermen reasonably claim that one dollar per hundredweight is neither fair nor equitable remuneration. Assuming that it requires two and a half hundredweight of green fish to make one quintal (112 pounds) of hard dry—on the South Coast the proportion is three hundred and eight pounds to the quintal of dry—the first cost then is two dollar per quintal. Washing out, all the fisherman receives, and it must be remembered that the catchers deliver their fish from the knife, this doing away with the cost of splitting to the purchaser. Washing, bulking, salting and extras cost possibly one dollar per quintal. Washing out, waterhosing and making may be reckoned at the utmost at another dollar, thus bringing the actual cost of one quintal of fish ready for storing to four dollars and fifty cents. And another fifty cents for labor barrowing from the flake to the store and from store to export ship, and the cost of the quintal is five dollars in the hold. At this rate, and the estimate of labor from splitting to shipping not omitting cull, is exceedingly liberal, is not the fisherman being underpaid at the rate of One Dollar per hundredweight?

Slightly Erroneous.

S.S. "ALICE M. JACOBS" LOST NEAR CHANNEL IN 1908.

An article, copied from the "Sunday Leader" in the Evening Telegram of Saturday last, referring to the career of the late Captain Solomon Jacobs, native of Newfoundland, but citizen of the United States by naturalization, and Master Mariner out of the fishing port of Gloucester, Mass., is somewhat in error. There was no schooner named "Alice M. Jacobs." On the contrary this vessel was a steamship, and as the article says was the first steam propelled vessel to engage in the herring fishery at Bay of Islands, being specially equipped and fitted for this industry. Unfortunately she was wrecked at Durand's Island, about four miles west of Channel on the morning of December 16th, 1908, being then bound from North Sydney to Bay of Islands. A most remarkable story may be told of this wreck, which perhaps may be given publicly later; but from that date to the death of the veteran mackerel killer, his fortunes appeared to deteriorate. Previous to his building the "Alice M. Jacobs" he prospected the coast of Labrador in the auxiliary schooner "Helen M. Gendil," but nothing came of the venture, as the fishing prospects from a fester's point of view were nil. After losing the Alice M. Jacobs, Captain Jacobs went in the schooner A. M. Nickerson, and made several trips to Newfoundland in this vessel. Eventually however, he gave up the Newfoundland fishing and went in solely for mackerel fishing, in which industry he was engaged at the time of his death. The late Captain Jacobs was of a most determined disposition and anything he took in hand, whether right or wrong, he carried through to the end. The writer enjoyed the pleasure of his acquaintance for the four weeks subsequent to the loss of his steamer at Channel, and became more at home with him during that period than most of his associates in the Cod, Herring and Mackerel fisheries.

Palace Re-Building Fund

OVER $18,000 SUBSCRIBED. The movement to rebuild the R. C. Episcopal Palace, inaugurated by His Grace, was given a splendid reception yesterday when the collection taken up at the church doors realized $10,610. To this amount must be added the sum of $7,500 contributed by the various Catholic Societies. Last evening, at Vespers in the Cathedral, Rt. Rev. Mr. McDermott, V.G., read the following note of appreciation from the Archbishop: "His Grace the Archbishop, desires to avail of the first opportunity to convey to the Catholic people of St. John's an expression of his cordial gratitude for their magnificent response to his appeal for the creation of a Palace Re-Building Fund as a result of which the sum of over $18,000 was realized at today's collection."

The Archbishop interprets this splendid response to his appeal, in the present depressing times, as a strong evidence of the desire of the Catholic people to have the Palace re-built and also as an earnest of co-operation and support which he may expect in this great undertaking. "The Archbishop wishes to say that the result of the appeal was in excess of any anticipations that had been formed, and will warrant practical measures towards re-building being taken much sooner than would otherwise have been possible. The Archbishop feels that special thanks are due to the various Catholic societies and Associations of the city for their very generous donations, a full list of which, together with that of all contributions, will be published in a few days."

The amount of yesterday's collection was made up as follows: Cathedral $3,600 St. Patrick's 1,645 St. Joseph's 265 Kibride 100 Mount Cashel 100 Total Church Collections $10,610 Contributions Catholic Societies 7,500 Grand Total $18,110

R.I.S. ANNUAL PARADE ARRANGED. Yesterday afternoon there was a large attendance at the adjourned annual meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society. The chair was occupied by President W. J. Higgins. Eight new members were admitted to membership. The Society unanimously and very generously voted the magnificent sum of $2,000 towards the Palace Re-Building Fund. Preparations for the annual parade were finalized. The Society will attend Mass at St. Patrick's Church, Riverhead. The C.L.B., C.C.C. and Methodist Guards' Bands have been engaged for the parade which is expected to be the largest in the history of the Society. After discussing some routine matters the meeting adjourned until Sunday next.

Firemen's Work Appreciated.

March 2nd, 1922. (Copy) Inspector General Hutchings, Terra Nova Constabulary, City. Dear Sir—I enclose herewith a cheque for one hundred dollars (100) to be divided, as you deem fit, amongst the members of the Fire Department and the Constabulary, as a slight token of appreciation of their work at the fire in Smyth Building, on the morning of Sunday, February 26th. The prompt and efficient service rendered by the men under your capable supervision, saved me a considerable loss and a very serious inconvenience. With best wishes, believe me, Very truly yours, (Sgd.) GEO. F. KEARNEY.

March 4th, 1922. (Copy) Dear Sir—On behalf of the members of the Constabulary and Fire Departments, I beg to thank you for your very generous recognition of the work performed by them at the fire in the "Smyth Building" on the morning of Sunday, the 26th ult. Yours sincerely, (Sgd.) CHAS. H. HUTCHINGS, Inspector General of Constabulary, Geo. F. Kearney, Esq., 265 Water Street, City.

Sealing Deadlock Unbroken.

SHIPS MAKING READY TO SAIL. So far as the Engineers' Association and the sealing owners are concerned, there is no change to-day in the sealing deadlock. This morning at 10.30 a conference between the engineers and Mr. Harvey, Reid's Superintendent, was held on board of the s.s. Sagona, but as far as could be learned nothing definite was accomplished; negotiations, however, were left open and it is expected that some arrangement will be arrived at this evening. Bowring's fleet with the exception of the Eagle and Viking are signing their crews to-day. The Viking's crew will likely sign tomorrow after the arrival of Capt. Bartlett, and men who are expected in from Frigate to-day. It is expected that the Terra Nova will get away by Wednesday. The Sagona is unloading fish at the dock but the meat of the seal has been put in readiness to sail. With the exception of two ships, it is said that engine room staffs have been secured.

Kyle and Mails.

WHAT IS THE MINISTER OF POSTS DOING? No foreign mail has reached this country since that which arrived on the Kyle on Feb. 26th. None is likely to arrive here until Wednesday night at the earliest, and possibly not until much later. The Kyle arrived at Loughburg yesterday afternoon and is not leaving there until to-morrow morning. There is also a possibility of her being sent to the aid of the "Sisto." There is probably a good reason for delaying the Kyle at Loughburg for 36 hours, but the fact remains that a British Dominion, at a period when modern methods have left very little to be desired, has been completely isolated from the outside world for over a week and will remain so for several days. What the Postal Department which cannot arrange for at least one mail a week at this season of the year should be abolished, lock, stock and barrel, and a new one organized in its place. How is business to be carried on if no mails can either enter or leave the country. What the Minister of Posts should have done at the outset was to organize a regular weekly mail service between Halifax and St. John's. Even if the cost would be greater than the present system, and that is open to doubt, the advantages which would accrue would make the increased expenditure worth while. If the Postal Department engaged the "likers," who were here recently, to walk out to the coast, they would get them here more regularly than they have been doing during the present winter.

Train Notes.

The express from Millertown Junction reached town at 6.30 a.m. yesterday. An express left here yesterday with local mails for Port au Prince. It left Mary March's Brook by 10 o'clock this morning, having passed the Top-sails without any delay. The train was held at Mary March's Brook for some hours. Saturday's Carboner local was delayed by heavy weather and arrived here at 1 a.m., over 30 hours late. The sealers' train from Gambo arrived at 8 a.m. Sunday.

Ships for Dockage.

S. S. FORTUNA SUNK. S. S. Fortuna will likely go on dock during the week. The scho. Armatice and Union Jack have received an overhauling and will come off as soon as the gates are cleared. At present the entrance is jammed off with heavy ice and it is expected that the sea will be used to smash it up. Last week when the Sagona was hauling into the Red Pier the ice rafted and sank the steam launch "Lea" about the dock. The launch is submerged in deep water about 15 yards from the dock gate.

Attended Wedding.

A message was received to-day from Hon. W. J. Ellis, who is at present in Los Angeles, California, stating that he returned last week from Texas and Mexico and that on Tuesday last he was best man at the wedding of Miss Mary Morris, daughter of Judge Morris, to Mr. Burke. Mr. Ellis says that the bride was leaving shortly for St. John's, as he has greatly improved in health.

DR. LEHR, Dentist, 329 Water St. TARTAR. "Tartar" is a lime-like substance that forms on the teeth. It is composed of saliva, phosphate of lime, etc., and becomes attached to the teeth near the salivary duct. It is porous like a sponge and holds particles of food which decompose and emit the breath with an offensive odor. This tartar once formed increases, always in the direction of the gums, first whitening them, then causing them to puff up and recede from the teeth, and finally by absorption of the bony sockets, to cause the teeth to drop out for want of support.

of my dear sister Florence Stone, who died March 5, 1920. "Soberly at night the stars are shining On a lonely, silent grave, Where you 're our dearest loved one Whom we loved and could not save. Dearest sister how we miss you, Never will your memory fade, Sweetest thoughts will always linger Around the grave where you are laid." Your chair stand alone and empty In the home you loved so well; And how much we miss you, darling Only God alone can tell. —Inserted by her sister and mother Mrs. Stone. SALE ATTRACTS CROWDS.—The remnants of goods left over from the fire sale of R. E. HIS DIARY. March 4th.—Up and was trimmed by my barber. So to Water Street and meet Mr. Povey, who tells me how he hears that Mr. A. H. Sailer will be made a member of the Legislative Council, which is news to me. He is a strong follower of Sir R. A. Squires, and this, I think, to be the reward of his service. It is to-day published in the Gazette, that the Parliament will meet on March 14th and is earlier than it was thought by many it would do so. The session like to be mighty hot, but will not, I think be so long as last year. But Mr. Coakley and other members of the Cabal, so that some say it will remain open until they return. Some do say the business of Mr. Coaker abroad to be the raising of a loan to bring about the Humber Project. The strike of the sealing engineers not settled, but the owners will send out their ships, which is a good thing, seeing how otherwise over 1,000 men would have no employment. At night to the Club and to play at Bridge, to my great content, being that I win easily and is the first time of my doing so for some days. March 5th (Lord's Day).—Lay till past 11 of the clock a mild day, which we have not had these many weeks, and raising hard at night, which makes some think that spring is coming, and I very pleased thereof.

Radio Club

HELD WEEKLY MEETING. The St. John's Radio Club held one of its weekly meetings on Friday last in the club rooms Board of Trade Building. A receiving set built by E. Ash was tried out with excellent results. Several high-power transatlantic stations were heard by all present. All young men interested in Radio work are invited to join. There are many amateurs here and it was for the purpose of bringing them together and assisting them that the club was formed. The object of the club is to promote interest and knowledge in Radiography.

The Modern Mind.

AT GEORGE ST. CHURCH.
 The Rev. R. E. Fairbairn, Pastor of George Street Methodist Church, is conducting a series of sermons during the week ending this month on the subject of "Christ and the Man of Today." The first of the series was given in a large congregation last night. The subject "The Modern Mind," as the phrase is interpreted as denoting a method of thought essential to the modern era which was evolved some two hundred years ago, about the time modern Science had its birth. The previous method of thought gave more attention to the things than to the observed phenomena from which it was created. Thus, the theories, grotesque and absurd, which were formulated on hasty observations of the way the illusions of Astrology, Phrenology, and, later, Phrenology, gave distorted impressions to life and thought. The method of thought which is now being reversed is the method of the modern mind. The method of the modern mind, however, does not by any means give place to Astronomy, Phrenology, and so on. Great progress has been made in thought resulting, as a result, for the first time, in a method of thought without prejudice or personal bias. of yourselves judge ye not what is right?" Faith is not merely acquiescence. The spiritual realm challenges courageous thought from those who dispense their minds of platitudinous conventionalities mildly absorbed and are bold enough to face the issue with the energy of the explorer. To such an investigator who will lay prejudice aside and who will be loyal to reality at any cost, rich rewards of clear conviction and solid assurance are attainable. What Christians require is a vigorous dynamic faith born of clear conviction. Much that is called faith is mere acquiescence which fails to grip the mind, and which results in freakish cuts and sentimental rubbish.

MISS BRIDGET (TOSS) MURPHY.
 After twelve months patient suffering, Miss Bridget Murphy, after visiting the last rites of the Catholic Church, passed peacefully away on Sunday evening at her mother's residence, No. 2 Alexander Street, Toss, as she was familiarly known, was of a kind and retiring nature, and was always a general favourite amongst her friends and associates. Up to a year ago she enjoyed the best of good health, but contracted a heavy cold some months ago, and although the best medical skill was called in, death ensued, and has removed from amongst us, a young lady of sterling character and kindly disposition.

There will be a meeting of the T. A. & B. S. Ladies' Auxiliary on Tuesday night, March 7th, immediately after Prayers, LIZZIE O'DEA, Secy.—march 11

RECOGNITION AND TARIFF.
 OTTAWA, March 6.
 Official recognition in Canada of Ireland as a sister dominion in the British Commonwealth of Nations, comes on April 1. Commissioner Farrow of the Department of Customs and Excise has sent out the following circular to officials of his department. "Ireland will be designated separately on all entries of exports or imports to or from that country commencing April 1, 1922."

LITERARY AWARD.
 OTTAWA, March 6.
 The National Geographic Society of United States has awarded the Great Squires prize to Wilhelm Stefanson for his book, "The Friendly Arctic." The announcement characterizes Mr. Stefanson's book as the "outstanding geographic publication of 1921." It adds that the explorer's work shows that Arctic Canada must inevitably be added to the World's area of food production.

The New Earth.

There was a good congregation present at the Adventist Church last evening, and a good interest was manifested. The topic of the evening was, "The Home of the Redeemed." Evangelist Manuel pointed out very clearly from the Scriptures that the earth renewed would be the final abode of all the redeemed.

 BELFAST, March 6.
 Two persons killed and twenty-one wounded completed the casualties list in the disorders in this city, over Saturday and Sunday. The city was quiet this morning.

COMMUNISM VS. CAPITAL.

RIGA, March 6.
 A united front on world problems, affecting capital and labor and meeting of all internationalists, are recommended by executive leaders of the third international, after two weeks discussion in conference. The vote was 46 to 10. Leon Trotsky, and other Russian Chiefs, explained that the move simply was in keeping with new tactics, having as their purpose, a frank attack on capitalism, instead of the old open battle for an immediate world revolution. Some opponents, however, consider that this step means the ultimate destruction of the third international, which would only become the left wing of a united body if a conference were held, and Amsterdam and other groups agreed to general union.

MARTIAL LAW AT HONG KONG.

MANILA, March 6.
 Martial law has been declared at Hong Kong and the port has been closed as the result of a strike of Chinese seamen, according to unofficial advice received here by the British Consul. Press reports state that the Hong Kong strike has been settled.

WARSAW, March 4.
 Cabinet of Premier Ponikowski has resigned, following failure of the negotiations with the Vilna Delegation, on text of the Act of Annexation of region of Vilna to Poland.

TRAIN CRASHES INTO BUS.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, March 6.
 The death of an injured man to-day brought the toll from the collision between a New York Central passenger train and an automobile bus at Painesville, late last night, to fourteen. Five others were seriously injured, three of whom are expected to die.

ANTI-CHINESE SENTIMENT.

KINGSTON, J.A., March 4.
 A proposal has been submitted to the Legislative Council, which would prohibit Chinese and any aliens, who might be considered undesirable, from landing, except they pass a test, providing they are not illiterate, and pay one thousand dollars. Feeling is high here against Chinese immigration.

NEW PARTY IN THE OFFING.

LONDON, March 4.
 What was regarded in political circles here as seemingly plain intimation of the early resignation of Premier Lloyd George, with an endeavor to form a new national centrist party out of moderate conservatives and coalition liberals, was given by Winston Churchill, Secretary for the Colonies, in his address at Loughborough this afternoon. This party, as Mr. Churchill described it, would be "liberal progressive and pacific in its outlook at home and abroad and resolute also to uphold and maintain the traditions of state, and the power and unity of the Empire." Mr. Churchill speaks in support of Prime Minister Lloyd George, and declared there was certain to be a political battle in England in the near future.

ASKS EXTRADITION.

KEY WEST, FLA., March 4.
 Blackhester, first mate of the British schooner Lewis Brothers, in jail here, charged with the murder of Capt. Chute of Nova Scotia, established his United States citizenship on Saturday. The British Government has asked for his extradition.

MISSIONARY MURDERED.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 6.
 Rev. Dr. Albert E. Patton, medical missionary of the Disciples of Christ (Christian Church), who was the first Christian Missionary to be allowed to enter Tibet, and who was kidnapped and held by Chinese brigands for sixty days, two years ago, was murdered by Chinese robbers on February 17 last. It was announced here Saturday.

THE SITUATION IN BRITAIN.

LONDON, March 6.
 Within twenty-four hours, or at most forty-eight hours, the world will know definitely whether Premier Lloyd George has decided to resign or continue as chief of the Coalition Government. This is only a substantial conviction, emerging from a tangle of contradictory rumors, in the crisis which engrossed political observers over Saturday and Sunday. Experts, this morning, were almost unanimously opposed in their opinion as to how the crisis stands. Even if the Premier stays nobody believes that Coalition can last much longer, though it may be prolonged until the Irish Legion and the Genoa Conference are out of the way. It is credited in certain quarters that nothing will be definitely announced until the speech of Sir Arthur Balfour on Tuesday. It is declared that the pre-eminent interest in Sir Arthur's utterance will be a positive declaration as to the Premier's decision. If this expression is for the resignation of Mr. Lloyd George, Sir Arthur will not, in any event, assume the premiership, according to repeated statements made to-day, but will be willing to take office under Austen Chamberlain as premier. Mr. Chamberlain is the Government leader in the House of Commons. Friends of Mr. Lloyd George assert that he is exceedingly anxious to resign and to take the responsibility of his office. If he holds on it will be only because of the recognition that chaos is likely to follow his retirement in the present peculiar circumstances. Whether he goes or stays, he has decided to take an immediate holiday, which he will probably enjoy at his country home. If Mr. Lloyd George does not resign, this vacation will practically fill the entire period until the Genoa Conference.

C. L. B. Cadets.

Withstanding the stormy weather, the C. L. B. Cadet Company are putting lots of energy into their work. Unfortunately the annual inspection arranged to take place this winter by Lt.-Colonel Goodridge, Officer Commanding at St. John's, had to be postponed on account of the railway blockade. The inspection is now going over to do this work at the first opportunity when the railway service is on schedule again. Jack Dawe, Lieut. Chas. Butt, and other officers have been busy with their work. In excellent form this year and Bandmaster Morgan with his musical artists are making magnificent progress in this line. On the following night, the Officers' Mess, gave a musical evening when fifty dollars was added to the fund as a result. On the following night, the Officers' Mess, gave a musical evening when fifty dollars was added to the fund as a result. On the following night, the Officers' Mess, gave a musical evening when fifty dollars was added to the fund as a result.

first "At Home" was such an unequalled success that it will in future be annually repeated. A musical programme in which the youth and beauty of Bay Roberts took a leading part, assisted by Lance-Corporal Jack Parsons and the Band made up a first class entertainment. Mrs. Croble kindly acted as hostess with much acceptance and grace, assisted by the wives of the officers and other lady friends. We hope they will now form a C. L. B. Ladies' Auxiliary and organize for future work.

We were glad to see that the "At Home" in uniform of the officers of the Boys Scouts, who were officially the guests of the Officers' Mess. We congratulate H. Co., Bay Roberts, on their progress and success, particularly all the ladies of the committee and to Bandmaster Morgan and his musical artists.

BELL ISLAND.
News from Wabana, J. Company, is bright and cheery. The island is ice bound but the work of the C. L. B. marches steadily on. The starting of work in the mines is helping to put everybody in better humor, and this is reflected everywhere. The men going into the No. 2 slope and submarine actually cheered for joy starting into work again. Major Lindsay, Officer Commanding, is busy as usual and has had manufactured some gymnastic apparatus and is instructing the lads in these new stunts so that during the spring a big athletic exhibition will be given the public. The Band continue to improve in their musical practices and Bandmaster Martin expects to have all his men in bandmen's official uniform at Easter. We wish our crackerjack company at Bell Island the best of luck. Carry on boys, carry on!—Q.

NOTE OF THANKS.—The family of the late Stephen S. Cramm, Old Perlick, wish to thank all the kind friends in St. John's and outports who sent messages and letters of sympathy on the death of their dear father. They also wish to thank the many neighbours who helped by their kindness to console them in their bereavement.—adv.

Harbor Grace Notes.

Our first mail for upwards of two weeks, with the exception of that brought by the "Martynside" Aeroplane, came along yesterday, Thursday; the train from St. John's arrived about 4 p.m., bringing a very large mail, which was most acceptable after so long time being shut off by the prevailing condition of the railway line caused by the severe storms of snow, and keen frost.

An old and highly respected resident of Bristol's Hope passed away to rest on Sunday, 26th ult. in the person of Mr. Nicholas Peddie. He was well known, and had reached the good old age of 88 years. Many will remember the many fine "poems" which were the product of his mind and pen. The funeral was held on Tuesday, and was attended by a large concourse of people. Interment was made in the Methodist cemetery here, Rev. W. H. Browning performing the last rites. Four sons and three daughters survive him, also a large number of grand children and great grand children.

On Saturday morning last, 28th ult., there passed away, at her home, Water Street, West, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Jordan Sheppard. She had been ill for some time, yet it was not believed that the end was so near, and her death is deeply regretted by her family and large circle of friends. She was a worthy member of the Women's Association of St. Paul's Church and her loss will be much felt by the association. To her husband, four daughters, Mrs. Jas. Sheppard of Boston, Mrs. F. Yetman, and Misses Beatrice and Hettie of this town; and also her son, Robert, residing here, we offer that sympathy, which will in some measure, help to assuage the grief occasioned by the passing of their beloved, wife and mother. Funeral was held on Monday last, and was well attended. Her remains were laid to rest in the Church of England Cemetery, Rev. W. R. J. Heggitt conducting the service at the Church and Graveside.

The death of Mr. Michael Lynch, a resident of the West End, took place there on Sunday last, after a brief period of illness. Funeral was held on Tuesday, interment being made in the R. C. Cemetery. The bereaved family have our sympathy in their loss.

Nurse Nellie Dwyer of the General Hospital, St. John's, is in town on a visit to her parents, Sgt. and Mrs. Dwyer. She will leave for Boston shortly to further her studies in that high calling—the nursing profession.

Parties who had been held up here owing to no trains moving, took advantage of the open Railway line the last couple of days, and made a speedy get-away, are another blockade. We are anticipating, nevertheless, that conditions will improve, now that March has come in.

The result of the Road Board Election of Friday Feb. 24, ult., is that the following nine candidates will comprise the Board:—Robert French, Wm. Carson, Ernest Simmons, William H. Hunt, Henry Hennessey, Thomas Noseworthy, John Dove, William Harris, James Power.

A meeting of the Road Board was held on Monday night and the first above mentioned, via Mr. Robert French was elected Chairman, with Mr. William Carson, Deputy Chairman.

A very fine Concert was held in the Church of England, new School Building, on the South Side, on Monday night last. It consisted of Songs, Recitations and Dialogues. Supper was served at the close of the performance, and dancing kept up until the wee small hours. A number from this side of the harbor, took advantage of the fine bridge of ice which we have had for the last two or three weeks, and went over to the Concert. It was well patronised, and the proceeds were very good.

Hockey Notes.

GIRLS' GAME.
Excitement reigned supreme during the girls' hockey game which was played at the Prince's Rink on Saturday night between teams from Bishop Spencer and the Methodist Colleges. The latter won by 2 goals to all. As referee, Coke Cahill gave still more evidence of his versatile talents. He dealt most impartially with the opposing teams and as he practically ignored off sides and other trifes of this sort, he proved a very popular official. The speed at which the game was played was equal to that of any league game, and the puck was usually sent along the ice in relays. This was made possible by each captain stationing players at intervals along the length of the rink, and the puck would start from one goal and be sent along in relays until it reached the other end. This was only one of the novel features which helped to make the game interesting from the spectator's point of view. One of the others was when the referee fell down.

FIRST TIE-CUP GAME.
The first game in the Tie-Cup series takes place on Wednesday. The contesting teams are the Terra Novas and St. Bon's. Last year the Tie-cup was won by the Terra, who will undoubtedly make a big effort to carry it off again.

INTER-CLUB HOCKEY.
After general skating Saturday night a hockey match was played between teams from the B.L.S. and Knights of Columbus. Despite rather heavy ice, a splendid exhibition was given. The game resulted in a win for the B.L.S. by a score of 10 to 3.

TELLING FORTUNES BY CARDS

(From the Sovereign Magazine)

THE CREOLE METHOD.
You will no doubt remember the fascinating story of how Josephine, the wife of Napoleon I. and Empress of France, had her fortune told when still a girl. She was a Creole—that is, a native of the West Indies and of French descent. Tradition tells us that she went to an old colored witch, who laid out the cards according to the Creole system and from them prophesied, "You will be greater than a queen." Josephine at first had faith in this prediction; but after waiting for a king to propose to her, she married a French soldier named Beauharnais, by whom she had two children. He died during the early part of the French Revolution. Napoleon, who at that time was a poor lieutenant, deeply in debt and without prospects, proposed to her. He did not seem likely to carry out the prophecy and raise her to be more than a queen; so she refused him. At last she was won over by his persistency and married him. In the course of years she became Empress of France.

Just what the Creole method of divination was has been forgotten for many years. The following system, however, has recently been declared by an old gray of Martinique to be the exact method used by the fortune-teller of Josephine. It will not be found in any other book. It will be interesting principally because it differs materially from all the methods given in other books on cartomancy. Begin by shuffling all the 52 cards thoroughly. The inquirer then cuts them and takes the pack in his left hand, first holding it on his forehead and saying, "Que le cressus parle!" which means, "Let the brain speak!"—then holding it over the heart, saying "Que le coeur decide!" or in English, "Let the heart decide!" The operator then takes the cards and spreads them fanwise before her on the table, with the backs up. The inquirer then draws out at random the mystic number of 9 cards, arranging as follows, face up:

The first is called the "Key Card," for it decides the interpretation to be put on the rest. If it is a Heart, it foretells the height of success; if a Diamond, it foretells wealth; if a Spade, it brings misfortune; if a Club, it denotes hard work. The next two cards decide the time in which the fortune will be determined. The low spots indicate a short space; the higher spots, a longer space of time. The court cards indicate a remote fortune, but a happy one. The next three cards indicate the rank or station to which Fortune will elevate the inquirer. If court cards, the Fates will be kind; if ordinary or low cards, the inquirer will have to be content with mediocrity. The Ace means disgrace or, at best, a very low station.

The next two cards denote the course of married life. If court cards, the marital relations will be happy; if low cards, there will be trouble and friction. The Ace means unhappiness at home. The last card is devoted to health. A court card means the best of health; the lower, more or less serious illness, according to the degree indicated by their spots. The Ace means an early death. The cards that were drawn by Josephine were (so we are informed):
King of Hearts.
Ten of Diamonds.
Nine of Diamonds.
Queen of Hearts.
Queen of Diamonds.
Queen of Clubs.
King of Clubs.
Ten of Hearts.

It will be seen that every card denotes the height of fortune—a combination that is rarely met with. After reading the mystic nine, the remaining cards are again shuffled and the inquirer draws out thirteen cards at random from the pack. These are arranged in the form of a cross, as shown in the diagram elsewhere.

Put the first card in the center and the remaining cards to left, right, top and bottom as indicated by the numbers. The reading of the cards is as follows:
Hearts denote love; Diamonds, wealth; Clubs, hard work; and Spades, misfortune.
Of the court cards, Kings are lucky for women inquirers and Queens for men; Knave is lucky if real and unlucky if black.
The Ace is always a sign of coming evil.
The odd numbers are lucky for men and unlucky for women, and the even numbers are the reverse. A 2-spot means a gift; a 3-spot, a letter; a 4-spot, news; a 5-spot, an accident; a 6-spot, a change; a 7-spot, friendship; an 8-spot, assistance; a 9-spot, home conditions; a 10-spot, business conditions.

12
10 6 5 1 3 7 11
13

Let us suppose the cards just laid out in a cross are the following:
Knave of Hearts.
Ten of Clubs.
Ace of Spades.
Three of Diamonds King of Spades.
Eight of Hearts Six of Hearts.
Queen of Spades.
Ten of Hearts Four of Hearts.
Seven of Diamonds.
Knave of Spades.
Two of Clubs.

This we would read as follows, the inquirer being a lady:
The Knave of Hearts denotes lack in love; probably a suitor if the inquirer be unmarried, or a loving husband if the inquirer be married.
The Ten of Clubs indicates that business conditions will soon improve, for an even number is lucky for ladies. The Ace of Spades shows a very dark and pressing trouble that threatens. Three of Diamonds shows that money will be lost by a foolish transaction. Eight of Hearts shows that fortunate assistance will be at hand. Ten of Hearts means that through friendship the business conditions will have greatly improved. Six of Hearts indicates a change of residence.

The King of Spades means that a dark man will have a disagreeable effect upon the inquirer, and the Queen of Spades, the man's wife, will be instrumental in making things unpleasant. Be careful not to get into their bad graces.
The Four of Hearts indicates welcome news from a dear friend. The

EAST AND WEST AGREE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Helping Sick Women to Health

The two letters which follow "east" mean the inquirer. Women from every section—you know some in your own neighborhood—praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a wonderful medicine for troubles women often have.

From Prince Edward's Island—East

Miscouche, P. E. I.—"I had female troubles for two years. I always had a headache and a pain in my side and sometimes I felt so weak that I could not do my work. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have taken six bottles of it. It has done me a lot of good and I am still taking it. I will tell my friends of your medicine and hope they will try it."—Mrs. Catherine Des Roches, Miscouche, P. E. I.

From Saskatchewan—West

Wadena, Saskatchewan—"A friend in Ross Valley recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and it has been a great help to me. I recommend it and you can see this letter as a testimonial if you wish."—Mrs. Ferna Nozsis, Wadena, Saskatchewan.

ALEX SCOTT, 18 New Gower St.

seven of Diamonds shows that this friendship will bring gain of money as well. Knave of Spades means, "Beware of a treacherous man who is disposed to do you harm!" The Two of Clubs means an unexpected gift from a business man, or possibly a gain through hard luck. Other interpretations may be put on these cards according to the temperament of the fortune-teller.

A modification of this method is to draw 21 cards instead of 13. Arrange 12 of these in the form of a semicircle, and the other 9 in the form of a triangle within the circle. To discover the past, read the circle first from left to right. Then to predict the future, read the triangle beginning at the left-hand angle, going up to the apex, down on the right-hand side, and across the base.

CARD ORACLES.
Answering questions by means of cards is a popular pastime. If the inquirer wishes to know:
"When will my wedding be?" she draws four cards and lays them face up on the table. The spots must be counted to get the number of weeks. A Queen or King means a speedy marriage with prosperity. A Knave means a delay. An Ace signifies trouble and bids the inquirer consider well before taking the important step.
"Will my lover be true to me?" Lay the top 15 cards on the table face up. If the Ten, Nine or Eight of Hearts is among them, the chances are favorable. If the Ace of Spades is among them, the omen is bad. If the King of Hearts turns up, you can trust him for life.
"Have I cause for jealousy?" Count off the top cards. If the Ace of any suit is among them, beware, for there is someone he loves better than you!
"Shall we ever part?" Lay out 4 cards from the top in the form of a cross. Count the spots. If odd then you will never part; if even, be prepared for a short parting in the future. If an Ace is among them, the parting will be a long one. "Is it advisable for me to change my residence?" Lay 9 cards in a circle face up. If the middle card is a picture card, remain where you are. If a small card, the number of spots indicates how many months you should move.

If an Ace, it indicates the need of great care.
"What fortune is there in store for me?" Take off 3 cards and lay them face up. If red cards, they foretell a good fortune; if black, trouble. If a King or Queen appears it means that influential friends will help. If a Knave, beware of an enemy. If an Ace, you will have a struggle to achieve success.

Hearts.
In days of youth, life's golden spring. When throbs of love begin;
Then hearts are trumps, and fate will bring
A hand that's sure to win.

Diamonds.
In summer-time of joyous life,
When gifts of wealth expand;
Then diamonds are trumps, and the happy wife
Finds them a winning hand.

Clubs.
In the autumn days of life's decline,
When friends are choice but few;
Then clubs are trumps, and club-life fine
Holds winning hands for you.

Spades.
When winter comes with hoary age,
Then spades are trumps, my boy,
The Sexton's spade will close life's page,
With its sorrow and its joy.
(Concluded.)

Won By a Plough.

At first sight a certain Sussex church seems to stand rather strangely isolated amid some ploughed fields, though a pretty legend of true love tells us it was once situated in a corner of a beautiful park, writes a correspondent. Many years ago a Squire of Plumpton wooed a nobleman's daughter, whose father refused his consent to her marriage. After a long time, worn out by the would-be bridegroom's importunities, and never dreaming that the young man would sacrifice one of the brief beauties of his extensive estate, the nobleman gave consent on the seemingly impossible condition that the wedding pair should walk over ploughed fields to the church. Full of joy, the delighted young Squire at once gave orders the stately trees should be belled and the greenward turned up, and, when the church stood in a wide belt of upon acres of freshly-turned gaily led to it the happy bride a plough.

Hundreds of STUNNING SPRING HATS

From the foremost millinery houses of the United States have been procured for this sale, which will attract new customers to our Millinery Dept. It would be impossible to begin to describe these hats, which are priced right. In the first place the selections are extensive and embrace styles that show every whim and fancy of dame fashion--Street Hats, Sports Hats, Dress Hats and Evening Hats in a rainbow of colorings and in the staple shades; also, some blacks. A remarkable millinery exhibit and millinery sale in one that you cannot afford to miss. NO APPROBATION.

Household Notes.

Use a large quantity of water when cooking cabbage or onions as they are improved as the flavor is lessened. For a change use pineapple juice to replace one-half amount of vinegar required in your French dressing.

If your cottage cheese is a bit too hard, add cream; if you wish to increase the quantity add the white of an egg. Fish omelet is an excellent dish for using a small amount of leftover fish.

To remove all fat globules from soup stock, the ones too small for skimming, lay a small piece of tissue paper as possible on top of soup, then lift off quickly before paper becomes soft.

Serve with a border of hot, diced, buttered beets. Stuff the goose with a peanut stuffing (fine chopped peanuts are added to the breadcrumbs) and serve with a grapefruit sauce.

Cover a thin layer of dough with stewed raisins, thickened and sweetened. Roll like a jelly roll, and bake. Serve with lemon sauce.

To prevent your cake from sticking to the pan set pan directly on a cloth wrung out of hot water, as soon as you remove cake from oven.

Spray a little linseed oil over the linoleum, then wipe with your dust mop. If this is done the linoleum will not have to be washed so often.

Cook beets without removing the skins or breaking off the fine roots; in this way the flavor, juice and color are not withdrawn in cooking.

If your potatoes are very small scrub them thoroughly and boil without paring. Press through a potato ricer, and not a bit of potato will be wasted.

Add lye to your stove polish and a fine luster will result. If you add a little vinegar or a pinch of granulated sugar the polish will be more permanent.

When making chocolate or banana pie, sprinkle a little sugar over beaten whites of eggs before the goes into the oven. This will make it brown more quickly.

Can't help thinking day by day / Skies are dear with you away. / Need your presence and your smile / Near me to make life worth while; / Roses bloom and skies are blue / But my little world needs you.

Fame is but an empty thing / If you are not here to sing. / Gold and all men struggle for / When the day of toll is o'er. / Have no charm unless at night / You can share in their delight.

Praise is but a stranger's voice / Save it makes your heart rejoice. / Victory would seem despair / If in it you could not share. / All I am and all I do, / Needs the gentle smile of you.

A good way in which to serve baked eggs is to fill a deep baking dish with hot, mashed potatoes. Make dents in the potatoes with a spoon, and into nests break the egg. Bake in moderate oven until eggs are done.

MARKET STRENGTH.

Inability to judge existing conditions has caused many investors to hold off, with the result that they have missed many nice profits.

There are many favorable factors just now, including low exchange, easy call money, short coverings and higher dividend rates.

We recommend that the very active issues should be purchased on all recessions.

Our Weekly Market Letter will keep you fully posted on New York Activities, and there's a copy for you without obligation.
