The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▽ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

La bibliothèque des Archives

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▽ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents.
Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

EXTRAORDINARY.

Mercury Office, 5th November. 1838.

We hasten to lay before our readers the important news brought down by "the Canada this afternoon—however alarming they may appear, the number of excellent troops and of volunteers who will show themselves ready to maintain their rights, are sufficient we doubt not to repel any aggression that may be made by our neighbouring sympathisers or to quell any attempt at a rising within the Colony.

We learn from private sources that an incursion of rebels and sympathisers had been made from Fort Covington into Benoarnois, where Mr. E. Ellice and Mr. Brown were carried away prisoners. The Canada on her trip downwards, on Saturday, met at Sorel, Messrs. Debartzch, Dr. Dorion and Guerout, who embarked on board, and she went back to Montreal with these gentlemen who were going to testify to a general rising having taken place at St. Ours, St. Denis and St. Charles.

The accounts go further to state that the whole of the River Champlain had risen as well as the Seigniory of Monnoir, Judge Rolland's which was the theatre of so many operations of the Rebels last year. Three individuals one a Mr. Walker, had been massacred near St. John's, and on Saturday, Platoon firing in the direction of St. John's had been heard during the greater part of the afternoon, the communication from Montreal there, had been interrupted, from the Railroad having been partly broken up by a party of Rebels.

At Montreal great alarm prevailed, double sentries were placed in different directions, at the Banks and elsewhere—the Dragoons were kept in readiness, fears being entertained that a rising would also take place in the Suburbs.

Extract of a Letter dated Montreal, 3d November.

It is very generally believed that the City will be attacked to-night—We cannot think the rebels so foolish, the Volunteers have all been notified by request of the authorities, two sentries are placed on the Montreal Bank, one in front of the house occupied by Thornton, the Hungarians are all at the outskirts of the town; and we expect every precaution has been made that is requisite to keep down the disaffected.

MONTREAL COURIER OFFICE.

SATURDAY, November 3, 1838.

We mentioned the other day, our certain belief of the Canadian Refugees and Frontier scoundrels organising to make forays or plundering incursions into this Province. The news of today from St. Johns, proves that they were very speedily to put this part of their plans into execution.

It was ascertained yesterday that there was to be a preliminary meeting last night of a few of the leading rebels who had escaped, including Mr. Taylor, Col. Gage, and others, at the Pointe à la Mule, at the previous Gagous's residence, Pointe à la Mule, about 6 miles from St. John's. A party of the 10th Regiment, by water, and a few of the Dragon Guards, from Champlain, were secretly despatched with a magistrate to capture the conclave, while in the act of plotting the destruction of the lives and property of loyal subjects in that neighbourhood. We have just learned from Col. Taylor, that seven of them were taken, and among them the son of Gagnon, but the father was not to be found. We also understand that no few arrests were made, and that Mr. Dorion, who lived in a small cabin in the goal of this city, at the public expense, was unmercifully taken out of his bed last night. The汇报者 was, of course, very much astonished at this apparent want of courtesy on the hands of a Government from whom he had previously received such liberal treatment.

The assembly of traitors were armed, and we saw one of their muskets in Col. Taylor's possession, with bayonet, scabbard, cartridge box, complete, and about twenty rounds of ball cartridge. It was a good American piece.

This little affair will, we hope, convince all loyalists and traitors' too that Government is well informed of every thing on foot, and is well armed at all points to meet every emergency.

The very best thing the Government can do to put the Volunteers and Loyalists in good heart and humour, is to proceed at once with the trial of the captured rebels; and, should the ordinary tribunals of the country be deemed insufficient, let Sir John Colborne issue special commissions, or declare Martial Law, without a moment's delay. We feel confident that Lord Durham would have done so, had he remained in the country, as in his reply to an address from the Printers of Quebec, he closed it by saying: "Should they (the rebel leaders) succeed in producing this lamentable result, with them the awfully responsibility will rest—but then the heaviest punishment will be deserved. Let lawless outrage and rebellion be at a discount this winter and not at a premium as it was last, and we shall very soon have nothing more of the kind."

We learn that the house of a Canadian who resides at Pointe à la Mule, was entered two nights since by a party of masked men, who relieved him of all his spare money, amounting to about £200 in hard cash. They told him at the time that it was a contribution to the Patriot cause.
