HOME OF PRIVATE ARCHIE PINEL: HOW THE MONEY WAS SPENT

THE RENOVATED HOME.

The above is a cut of the recently-renovated home of Private Archie Pinel, of Dorinda street, who has been confined to his bed for the last eight years, through an injury received during the South African war. Mr. Pinel's condition was unknown to the majority of the citizens until brought to their notice by The Advertiser in May. The result of the publication of his story was that sufficient funds were subscribed to completely change the surroundings of the bedridden veteran.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS.

In July the committee in charge of the expenditure of the fund had the ouse wired for electric lighting and installed gas and a gas range. About a month ago the repairs to the house were completed at a cost of $500, and as a result Mr. Pinel is enabled to enjoy the fresh air and sunlight all the day, whereas before he had not been out of his bedroom for eight years.

The house, which was previously a frame one, has been brick veneered and a verandah 20 by 10 feet erected on the front. One Lalf of the verandah is constructed as a sun room, and here the invalid is able to enjoy the outside world, which had been denied him previously. A stone foundation was built under the house, and the roof of the house replaced by a new one, from a fund other than that donated by the public.

A HOSPITAL EQUIPMENT.

Besides the alterations and repairs to the house the committee have purhased a complete hospital equipment for such a case, and the veteran is nuch more comfortable than when he had but the common appliances. bedsid ta'les, hospital bed, air pads, back rests, and other articles which will give him more comfort, have been purchased.

Perhaps the greatest comfort to Pinel is that the committee have Belgrade, Nov. 25.—The Servians tained a lease on the house from his brother that will exist curing his life-quette lines here, and run through to aptured Ochrida, in Albania, time, and in case he should wish to leave the house he will be given the Detroit. rent for his own use.

LIVES IN HOPES.

As a result of the work of the committee he is in much better spirits and health, and expects to be able to leave his bed in a year or so. committee expect to be able to secure a nurse soon, so that the invalid will be wiven the proper dieting and attention that such a case deserves

VERDICT OF GUILTY IN TORONTO MURDER CASE

Jury Finds That Joseph Rosenthal Was Killed by Charles Gibson.

Toronto, Nov. 25 .- After sitting for five days in the trial of Charles Gibson for the murder of Joseph Resenthal on the night of April 5, it required a jury in the criminal assizes on Saturday only two hours to find the young prisoner guilty. A motion on the part of Mr. Aubrey Bond asking for a reserve case will be disposed of by Chief

Mr. Bond's request was in connecgiven by Eli Dunkelman, one of the prisoner's companions on the night of the crime, whose declaration that Hibson had attacked and nearly murdered him shortly after he separated from Rosenthal, is maintained by the lefence counsel to be prejudicial. The account of this assault first ruled out by his loruship, but was later admitted as evidence on the ground that the motive for it was conealment of the previous crime.

In making his charge to the jury judge pointed out many of the points on which the evidence was conflicting and expressed the opinion that the case narrowed itself down to the testimony given by the two chief witnesses. Dunkelman and the prisoner "If you believe the evidence of Eli Dunkelman," he said, "your difficulties are largely solved.'

Gibson, who had manifested little emotion during the whole trial, took the announcement of his conviction unmoved. Without changing from the attitude which he had maintained throughout his trial, he remained until the court room was emptied, when he was led away to his cell. broke down for a few moments, but soon recovered his self-control. ASQUITH OUTWITTED HIS TORMENTORS

For First Time In Several Years He Managed to Elude the Suffragettes.

London, Nov. 24. - For the first time in four years Premier Asquith has made a public appearance without being interupted by the suffragettes, but he only succeeded in outwitting them through the elaborate preparations that were made with that end in view. The time of his arrival at Nottingham on Friday night was kept strictly secret, and although bogus arrangements were given out, scores of suffragettes who had been warned from London by telegraph of the time of his departure lay in wait for him. They were disappointed, however. Mr. Asquith, with his wife and daughter travelling for a few minutes by specia train in front of the ordinary express. The special was switched off the main line to the suburban tracks at the sta-tion at Radford, where are mobiles

He remained overnight at the house of Sir Jesse Boot, On Saturday morning he left the house by the back door and entered an automobile containing two detectives. The party motored by a circuitous route to the village of Edwalton, three miles away, where an express bound for London had been ordered to stop specially for the premier. Not even the station staff were aware that the train was to stop. Mr. Asquith is chuckling gleefully over his circumvention of his tor-

LONDON, MONDAY, NOV. 25. COLD WATER ON THE "EMER-GENCY."

One would expect an emergency to become more and more urgent the nearer the critical moment approaches. Times goes on and the Borden emergency, strange to say, unlike other emergencies, grows less preoccupying to the people in Great Britain.

The Pall Mall Gazette, edited by Mr. Garvin, one of the leading German war operators, a Unionist journal of deep dye, throws cold water on the whole stupid program of "one fleet." It says that the movement of empire defence union will be ruined if the Dominion's ships are "absorbed into some guard which is kept clamped to the North Sea and the Mediterranean." "Canada and the other dominions are conscious of other clouds no bigger than a man's hand and will expect their own ships to defend their own interests." If Mr. Garvin would not take it from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, he is doubtless willing to learn from Sir Richard McBride. Mr. Borden may also learn, if it will help his aries that the Liberal party is split in majority.

The leading Liberal newspaper England, the Manchester Guardian, shares the view of the Pall Mall Ga-It expresses regret that the Canadian naval contribution should be regarded as an answer to an emergency. "It is foolish and wrong to extend a scare, with which we are overfed, to the dominions," it says. Evidently Mr. Borden is not going to get much thanks from either party in trification and mystification. England for his desertion of a patriotic policy and his dollar dole.

Jevons attributed it to the periodicity of spots on the sun, reacting unfavorably on the harvests, and causing a shrinkage of supply and demand for all commodities, but this theory only brought ridicule on a really great economist. Without entering into interminable discussion over under-consumption and over-production, it is a fact that bad times have followed hard times with something like punctuality, and that only other institution so often ended in the phenomena have been always the prophecy by wise women and mad men same during the era of modern industry. There is a sudden slackening of demand for commodities; then necessarily a slackening of production. Every wage-earner thrown out of work loses some of his purchasing power, and aggravates the evil. Conditions grow from bad to worse, and trade and industry remain in a state of semi-paralysis until the congestion of goods is relieved, often at terrible cost to the workers. This is the course that business has run, at any rate since the factory system was introduced. But the present period of prosperity has been unexampled in its duration. So my loss of sight a judgment upon me, far as Canada is concerned, there has what do you think of your father losing been no deep trough of depression for fifteen or sixteen years. In the United States the only interruption was caused by the financial panic of 1907, and even that was short-lived. Great Britain has had a period of expansion since 1903, only checked once, and that briefly, by the reaction of the American flurry of 1907. Time and again a recession has been predicted; even an official optimist, the former finance minister of Canada, Mr. Fielding, introduced his budget in 1905 by saying that the revenues of Canada had reached the crest of the wave. The volume of trade in every country is today greater than ever before, and there is no sign that the upward tendency is nearly spent. It is an era of unprecedented development of natural riches. Our own Northwest offers a shining example. Both in North and South America there has been a burst of railwa, enterprise, and millions of virgin acres are being opened to settlement. No doubt this has been the mainspring of the prolonged prosperity. And the field has been only

The advocates of electrification should recognize that this is a new factor in the situation which should be weighed. Our local contemporary very childishly and imprudently begins already to pour a tirade of abuse on the Canadian Northern. It accuses the company of threatening the city because one of its agents announces that St. Thomas, not London, will be the centre of the system in Western Ontario, if the company's offer is rejected by this city. The city is fairly entitled to ask Mackenzie & Mann what inducements they hold out in this respect. Prof. Reed's Great History of English Lyrical Poetry

[By Special Arrangement With the Winnipeg Telegram.]

Yate University's professors of English are indefatigable workers. The burden of teaching bears upon them heavily, but they are all busily engaged in research work, and in adding to the store of books which minister to saw a sign in front of an employment the real needs of the student. And the present season seems to be specially productive in scholarly works from these Yale toilers. Professors Lounsbury and Phelps have published pee-ril after all" important books, and now a third brother-in-arms publishes through the Yale University Press a large and valuable volume entitled "English Lyrical And he raved, in despair Poetry." Professor Edward Bliss Reed has not built up this History of English Lyrical Poetry in a day or a year The book represents the labor of many years. It gathers up in part only the material used in a series of sixty lectures delivered annually since 1899 to members of the senior class at Yale College. Professor Reed is to be congood in the Balkans. gratulated not only upon having traversed a very wide field, giving a survev of this tuneful territory, which will be of the greatest value to students of English song, but in having produced a work, which, to use a banal phrase, will fill a long-felt want. It takes a scholar of great discernment now-a-days to discover a task in the department of English which has not been pre-empted by some other industrious worker, German or English. Although we have many fine works which review the whole body of our literaure, and some, such as Courthope's masterly volumes, which deal with the whole vast subject of English poetry, until Professor Reed produced the present work, we had no special treatment of the history of the lyric. He is the first, therefore, to achieve a big task that needed to be done. And the task has been well and faithfully performed. It is enough to make even a voracious reader stand aghast at the mere thought of what reams and reams of verse Professor Reed has studied with diligent care. From the oldest English lyric to the latest song of Alfred Noyes, he has struggled through them all, great and small, harsh and sweet, glad and sad. Scholars will probably derive more benefit from the chapters on the Middle English lyric, the Tudor lyric and the Elizabethan lyric, than from the They are naming Pelletier as the later sections in the book, for in these duced to start housekeeping with it. A newspaper correspondent says leader of the French-Canadians in the earlier fields Professor Reed has drawn ground to nearly all students of Engby bringing obscure poets into light and in rescuing snatches of song rom old plays. Professor Reed accords Shakespeare the supreme place among that tuneful choir which made the England of Queen Bess "a nest of singing birds." He excels both in those lyrics with which the dramatists sprinkled their plays, and in the sonnet which was the fashionable form of verse in the Elizabethan age. Referring to the magic music of such snatches of song

Sigh no more ladies, sigh no more; Men were deceivers ever; One foot in sea and one on shore, To one thing constant never.

Professor Reed says that "Shakespeare gains his effects in such little space; eight lines suffice for the most passionate of all songs, 'Take, O Take Those Lips Away,' and there is the essence of all spring songs and serenades in the single stanza, 'Hark! hark! the larke at heaven's gate sings." Continuing, the Yale professor pays the supreme genius of our race this beautiful tribute, "It is small wonder that The speaker Hugo and the French romanticists imitated his method of introducing lyrics in his plays as they did his mingone hand and fads on the other, both ling of tragedy and comedy; yet no one has been able to imitate his style. As we that line of John Dunne's:

"No Here is Christian and Pagan thought; idyllic description and the fierce denunciation of the reformer; classic shudder and mystery of romance in the thought of the shipwrecked friend washed far away:

Beyond the stormy Hebrides, Where thou perhaps under the whelming tide Visit'st the bottom of the monstrous purpose. world.

"Not only is 'Lycidas' supreme in English pastoral elegy, but what can surpass it in other literatures " author of this history gives equally high praise to Milton's sonnets. They stand alone. "The sonnets on blindness have such nobility and dignity of expression, such restraint their pathos that the laments of our modern romanticists, when compared with them, read like the com, aints querulous children. CUPID vs. THE PROSAIC [Copyright: 1912.] "I am nineteen years of age and in love with a young man aged twentyone. He runs the passenger elevator in the building where I am employed and receives ten dollars a week, while I am a stenographer making eighteen dol-

[BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX.]

That is a letter written to me by K. J.

The cap's the thing.

The day the first man told the first woman that he loved her and wanted her for his wife, there was introduced into this world a disturbing ailment rather pathetically "What sort of a which might be called love's madness. While it prevails its victims are rarely responsible, and in that condition they labor under the hallucination that it always will be moonlight.

Such vulgar and prosaic matters as meat and groceries are forgotten and no lover's vocabulary ever contained these words: "Rent day." This is unfortunate, for they could be just as happy, more sane and suffer less after marriage, if the practical questions were discussed; if he, for instance, in the telling c. his love, gave proof that in addition to that throbbing heart that beats for her he has two hands strong enough to keep the wolf

The girl who writes the above letter gets eighteen dollars a week. I lows like me? I like them, but they take it for granted that she has this money all for herself. Like all sisters and daughters, she undoubtedly buys many luxuries for the home and many Kindly have some fellows answer, and little treats her family would not otherwise enjoy. But the bulk of her in- oblige, come is for herself and, though she helps others, she helps them to just such an extent as she chooses.

A girl who gets eighteen a week and tastes the indepedence that goes with it, will find it a hard test of love to give up that independence and live on ten dollars with a man. If he gave her half, which few men are known to do, this would mean less than a third of her former income, and out of it the would have to help buy for the table. Indeed I doubt if the rent man, the grocer and the butcher would leave enough of that ten for this girl to treat herself to a ten-cent ribbon.

Love is worth any sacrifice. There is nothing in life greater than love. But in this case the girl is asked to make three-fourths of the sacrifice. I contend that if the man loved her as purely and unselfishly as every nice girl deserves, he wouldn't ask her to subject herself to the biting privations, the self-denials, the narrowed outlook that marriage on such a meagre salary

If she loves him, she will wait till he gets more. It is a wait that in the light of after events is often the happiest period of life. Neither is he a man of enough pride. I would like him better if he did not declare his love for the girl until his wage-earning ability, compared with hers, made a better showing MATERIAL THINGS NECESSARY.

My stand on a question like this is not approved by the young and romantic, but it will appeal to those in whom fancy is subdued by fact. One cannot say to one's mate for life, "I love you," and with that declaration satisfy a hunger for such material things as meat and potatoes. There never yet existed two (a man and a woman), who could find peace and satisfaction in the declaration, "We adore each other," while the rent man pounded on the coor.

A little good, hard sense will make love no less sweet. A sane contemplation of the market basket will not rob that little god Cupid of any of his halos. This girl is young. For a girl of eighteen she is doing remarkably well in getting eighteen a week. There are few girls her age who are doing as greatest football games ever played on the local griding, and in many respects one of the cleanest, the Tigers claimed the city championship by defeating the Alerts, last year's O. R. F. U. champions, by a score of 12 to 8. The Alerts put up a great game, and, although defeated, they are by no means disgraced. On the contrary, they have gained hundreds of friends who previous to last Saturday had never seen the Garnet and Gray play, and many of whom had various opinions of the methods used by the Alerts while on the football field. The Tigers put up the greatest game they have played this year, and had they played during the season as they did Saturday, the Interprovincial title might have been theirs. More than 6,000 enthusiastic lovers of the great game turned out, and the excitement was unparalleled in the football history of Hamilton. The fans were evenly divided in their opinion as to the out come of the game, and while there was considerable betting done, the expected eavy wagers were not made. His Great Kicking Scored Very Many of Harvard's Points.

New Haven, Nov. 23.-Harvard wor he football championship by crushing Yale's eleven here today, the score beng 20 to 0.

More than 35,000 spectators were as-ounded by the wonderful showing of the Strimson players, who went through four strenuous periods without making a blunder of any kind. Outclassed, the Blue eleven fought desperately agai overwhelming odds, but that was all. Would Award Game to Alerts
Harvard knew more football, her players displayed the greater stamina and generalship, and nonplussed the hardy sons of Old Eli. The first period was convincing in results. Harvard quickly showed that Coach Haughton had drilled his men into a powerful fighting machine which could not be disjointed. Hardly five minutes had elapsed before the won-RESOLUTION FRAMED derful Brickley came within a foot of kicking a field goal from the 29-yard

To The Ladies Who Buy For The Men

We would remind you that it's getting more like Christmas every

The best way to wish a man a Merry Christmas is to do something to make him merry-to please him. There is no better way of expressing your good wishes than by offering him most attractive holiday goods, selected for wise wearers by wise buyers. There's no doubt that the man you want to make happy this Christmas is wise to what men wear and want. Now, ladies, you cannot all say as much, so it behooves most of you to buy these articles from a man's store, where there are experienced men to aid you in your selections. Note the word "AID." We repeat this, to impress on you, that our smiling, pleasant hustles, are here to make your buying easy, as well as to take your money. If you need a woman's idea of it, our clever salesladies in the Boys

Clothing Department are at your service. If they're not good we'll make them good, for nothing. The Live Oak Hall

There is a lot of talk about changes the line of the grand circuit, but no in the line of the grand circuit, particular reason for any of it. Margaret Direct, 2:23½, is mentioned as one of the star slow class pacers of 1913. She is a Direct Hal and out of Carthage Girl, 2:08%.

Iowa Todd, 2:071/4, pacing, and rated as one of the best of his gait in the West this year, has shifted and is to be tried at the trot in 1913. Lafe Shafer will spend the winter at Colorado Springs, and then will take a trip to the Orient with Dr. Book, after whom the famous trotter was named. There is more talk about harness racing in New York State than since the reformers got in their work. A lot of racing is in sight in the Empire State for 1913.

Baden brought about $25,000 or $30,000 to his owner when sold to the Russians, which is a smaller amount than paid by the foreigners for either Siliko or Alen Winter.

The greatness of the sport of harness racing is told in figures. During the year $5,000,000 was distributed among 5,000 trotters and pacers in 1,300 meeting on about 1,000 tracks.

Chimes Hal, 2:06%, for which Murphy paid $4,000 because the horse looked like a stake pacer, is headed for the auctions. The roan is a handsome brute, but too playful with his heels.

Storm, the Michigan pacer that got into trouble at Rockport, started 19 times this year and won 12 races. His owner says he never received as good as even money against the horse in any of his races.

"NA-DRU-CO DYSPEPSIA TABLETS

Proved of Great Value to Me"

There is only one explanation for the numbers of enthusiastic letters that we receive praising Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, and that is that these tablets certainly do cure any kind of stomach

Here is a typical letter from Miss Eliza Armsworthy, Canso, N.S.: "It is with pleasure I write to inform you that your Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets have proved of great value to me. I tried remedy after remedy but without any lasting good. Having heard of your tablets curing such cases as mine I decided to give them a fair trial. They proved satisfactory in my case." The remarkable success of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets is such a success as can only come to an honest remedy, compounded according to an exceptionally good formula, from pure ingredients, by expert chemists. If you are troubled with your stomach just ask your Druggist about Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, compounded by the National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, and sold throughout the Dominion at 5oc. a box.

LATE PERCY TRACY BURIED IN LONDON

Deceased Died of Injuries Sustained on Railway at Cayuga.

The remains of Percy Tracy, of Windsor, who died from injuries sustained while railroading at Cayuga, were interred at St. Peter's Cemetery here this morning, the funeral being very largely attended by members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Loyal Order of Moose from Windsor, to both of which he belonged.

Mr. Tracy was injured at Cayuga, and died while being taken to Amasa. Wood Hospital at St. Thomas. The remains were sent to the home of his mother, Mrs. Annie Tracy at Windsor, and were later forwarded to London about seventy-five friends accompanying the body in a special Pullman car. The pallbearers at Windsor were W Payne, H. Belcher, H. Dumockiee, of the Loyal Order of Moose, No. 160, Windsor; J. V. Addison, J. W. Logan and R. G. Wellman, of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen

The cortege was conducted from the home of his uncle, Charles Brennan, 27 Picton street, London, this morning, to St. Peter's Cathedral, where requiem high mass was solemnized by Rev. Father Tierney. The pallbearers were Messrs, H. Dumocklee, L. Dumarrias, W. Payne, A. Turner, J. McAuliffe and Rev. Mons. Aylward performed the services at St. Peter's Cemetery.

New York, Nov. 24. - A cable from London to the Tribune says: "A prehistoric discovery, which is likely to call forth even more discussion than the alleged primeval paintings in Bacon's Hole has been made. Up to this time, what is known as the Ipsemich skull was believed to be the oldest, but if all the finder claims be true, the Sussex skull will prove the senior by about a thousand years. The bones are very much thicker than in the skulls of modern men, and though found in fragments, it is believed that the discovery forms part of the bones of a man who lived in an antiquity so remote that no expert

FRENCH-CANADIANS IN SCHOOL PROTEST

A Resolution Passed at Ottawa Against Whitney's Bilingual Regulations.

Ottawa, Nov. 24. - About 1,000 young French-Canadians, the majority from the city, but a number from outside places, met in the Monument Nationale yesterday afternoon, listened to addresses and passed resolutions expressive of their protest against the new regulations of that Ontario Government in regard to biingual schools.

The meeting was in connection with a movement known as L'Association Catholique de la Jeunesse Canadienne Francaise, a new society of young men formed mainly to repre-sent the feeling of French-Canadian youth in regard to Ontario educational matters. The speakers were in the main young men, members of the

That diseases of the Fidneys cause the greatest suffering is well known, and when stone or gravel is formed in the bladder the torture is almost beyond human endurance.

The disease should never be allowed to reach this dangerous stage. Pains in the small of the back, pain or smarting when passing water, frequent urination, loss of flesh and weight tell of the need of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to regulate and invigorate the kidneys and restore these organs to health.

Mr. W. Smith, Port Dalhousie, Opt. writes:- For some years I was af-flicted with kidney disease and gravel in its most severe form, having often a stoppage of water, accompanied by the most dreadful agony. As the disease wore on me I became reduced in flesh and passed sleepless nights. No doctor was able to do much for me.

ADRIANOPLE TURKS MAKE FINAL SORTIE

Whole Garrison Engaged in a Desperate Attempt to Pierce Besiegers' Lines.

London, Nov. 24.—Out in Adrianople ast night the whole garrison was making a desperate attempt to pierce the besiegers' lines. In front of them now are mostly Serb troops, who took up the slege when the Bulgars concentrated in front of Tchataldja. The Turkish gunners in the fort set up a furious fire over the heads of their charging infantry. The invaders soon concentrated, however, and for three hours the fighting was furious.

The Last Sortie. The Bulgars are confident in their predictions that this is the last sortie that will be made from Adrianople. They say that the fact that the whole garrison took part in it shows into what desperate straits the besieged much longer against famine and disease is regarded as improbable by the confident Bulgar and Serb commanders. They began foretelling the fall of Adrianople a few days after its investment, however, and military men, astonished at the stubborn resistance put up by the Turks there, do not place all the confidence in the world in such predictions. After the Turkish sortie the Bulgarlans began a bombardment of the fortress which lasted through the night.

The Servians at Monastir now report that they have found the body of Fethi The deceased financier was the son Pasha, who was first said to have been of S. J. Stewart Clouston, chief Cholera Ceasing.

The Turkish Government reports that the deaths from cholera are daily decreasing, though this statement is discredited by foreigners at the Sultan's capital. At the cholera camp at San Stefano wooden huts are being put up on the open plains, where a few days ago the victims of the disease were dying by hundreds, and some attempt is being made to shelter and segregate the plague-stricken.

BOLTON REMAINS LIBERAL

London, Nov. 24.—In the by-election in Bolton to fill the va-cancy caused by the death of George Harwood, the previous member, S. Taylor (Liberal), was returned, with 10,011 votes, compared with 8,835 polled for A. Brooks, the Unionist candidate.

The politics of the riding is therefore unchanged, though the Liberal majority was reduced by about five hundred. The Liberals attribute their success to industrial Lancashire's aversion to the Unionist tariff policy, declaring also that hostility to the insurance act is dying out. The Labor vote was cast for the Liberal candidate.

The late member, though a Liberal, was wholly against his party on the disestablishment issue.

Fifty Little Ones Trampled to Death in a Theatre at Bilbao.

FILM IGNITED, OPERATOR "RATTLED"

Hysterical Stampede Followed Sudden Blazing Up, Which Did Little Damage.

Bilbao, Nov. 24 .- Fifty children and one woman were trampled to death in a fire in a moving picture show here today. The place was packed with spectators, who consisted for the most part of women and children. A film suddenly blazed up, and instantly there was a wild panic. The exits became jammed half a moment after the first sight of the flames by shricking women and children struggling to keep their feet in the wild rush.

When the police got there and tried to help the attendants quiet the crowd they found that they could do nothing with the hysterical, helpless stampede. They had to stand aside and watch the children be trampled to death.

Many women and children were injured, and there were 51 bodies in the place when the police finally cleared deplorable condition of children of it. BETTER FEELING

London, Nov. 25 .- The political situation between Servia and Austria has undergone no material change, but or the whole a rather better feeling preveterate enemies, who are prevented vails here, says the correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at Belgrade.
"The general opinion is," continues the correspondent, "that the questions at issue can be settled without fighting. The Servians naturally are anxious to secure an outlet to the sea through their own territories, and if Austria meets their wishes in a reasonable spirit, the risk of war will be easily averted. It is declared that Servia the foreign warships is surely illwishes to live in a spirit of amity with Austria, but that no nation after a successful war can submit to remain in ondition of absolute tutelage other power, however friendly. "For trade reasons alone, Servia desires access to the sea, and not from any desire to hamper Austria."

SCUTARI HOLDS OUT London, Nov. 25 .- King Nicholas of Montenegro, says a dispatch from Antivari to the Daily Telegraph, has arrived there from Rieka with the gen-eral staff, joining General Martino-vich and four Servian officers from San Giovanni di Medua. A long conference was held and the vital interests of Montenegro discussed, but no conclusions have been made public. Probably the chief subject of discussion was the occupation of San Giovanni di Medua and Allesio. The latter is now the headquarters of the Servian general staff, while the former is the headquarters of one Servian and wo Montenegrin battalions.

It is understood that it has been decided to take strong action at Scutari, which still holds out after a terrible bombardment.

The generals assembled here will shortly return to their posts. King Nicholas will probably go to San Giovanni di Medua and take formal possession of the town.

"SOCIAL PROBLEMS AMONG THE YOUNG"

Address by Sheriff Cameron at St. Andrew's Church on Sunday.

An address by Sheriff Cameron on "Social Problems Among the Young" was the feature of the opening meeting of the St. Andrew's Church Brotherhood on Sunday morning. The sheriff's address was from ex-perience as an official of the county and in Children's Aid work. He stated that it was a revelation to hear of the

The speaker claimed that it was his belief that 98 per cent. of juvenile prisoners are born under normal conditions, but that their immediate encircus which had been converted into vironment is largely responsible for their downfall. From his own obser-vation he asserted that prisoners were capable and efficient when under proper control, and if conditions were improved and more interest taken in the weak members of society, the socalled undesirable boys and girls would become worthy citizens. When the improvements were made at the courtouse he stated that the prisoners

Rev. Dr. Griffith Thomas, of Wycliffe ollege, Toronto, spoke to a large mass seeting of mean in the auditorium on unday afternoon. Previous to Dr.

Sunday afternoon. Previous to Dr. Thomas' address some musical numbers were rendered by the Royal Balalalka Orchestra and two solos by Charles Mosher, a tenor soloist from Milwaukee.

"Personal experience is the truest, safest and most satisfying test for Christianity." said Dr. Thomas. "In all the 1,900 years in which there has been Christianity in the world there have been men living in every age who have professed to be Christians, and have been converted by evangelists. It would not be correct to say that all these men were Christ's Christians, though. If they would apply their Christian spirit to aid others, then we could count on them to be true Christians. Only by personal experience can the surest results be obtained."

A WEAK, ACHING BACK Caused Hor Much Misery. Kept Her From Sleeping Nights.

Weak back is caused by weak kidneys, and on the first approach or evidence of kidney trouble Doan's Kidney Pills should be used, and serious trouble avoided.

Doan's Kidney Pills go right to the seat of the trouble, cure the weak aching back, and prevent any further complications arising.

Mrs. W. R. Hodge, Fielding, Sask. A few lines highly recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. For this last year I have been troubled very much with nasty sick headaches, and a weak aching back which caused me much misery, for I could not work and had no ambition for anything. My kidneys were very badly out of order, and kept me from sleeping at nights. I tried many kinds of pills and medicines, but it seemed almost in vain. I began to give up in despair of ever being well and strong again, when a kind neighbor advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, which did, and am thankful for the relief obtained from them, for now I am never troubled with a sore back or sick headaches. I will always say Doan's Kidney Pills for mine and can highly recommend them to any sufferer.' Price, 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. When ordering direct, specify "Doan's."

of the market with interest today, owing to the publication since the suspension of business on Saturday of the award of the arbitration board to the eastern railroad engineers. Some indication of the probable trend of prices was furnished by the sharp decline of American railroad stock in the foreign markets, which were influenced by disquieting political news. Initial prices here ranged from ½ point to a point lower. After some moderate recoveries stocks fell abruptly again, on publication of an unconfirmed report that hostilities had broken out between Austria and Servia. The secondary fall carried the list well under the opening figures, with especial under the opening figures, with especial heaviness in Reading, and the transcon-

> The scrutiny of the petitions for annexation from Pottersburg and Ealing will be finished in a few days, City Clerk Baker being engaged at the work at the present time

It is claimed at the city hall that undoubtedly the petitions will be sufficiently signed, and that annexation will be ordered shortly.

A man who owned property there or over three years, and signed the petition, found that his name was not on the rolls. He took an amdavit to that effect, and if his name is neces sary to carry annexation, the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board will be asked to pass on it.

There is a rumor in circulation that the Government will object to the annexation of the asylum. The names of several connected with the institution are on the petitions, but Hon. Adam Beck is said to have informed parties in London that the Government would object to the annexation of the Asylum grounds.

However, no information has been received at the city hall regarding this matter, and it is taken for granted that the Government has decided not to make further objections.

With the possibility of an appeal o the people to decide upon a mater of such epochal importance to the nation in itself, and as a part of the empire, it is ominously significant that Mr. Borden should have neglected to provide for the constitutional redisribution. The reason is not hard to ee. The general result of last elecion was naturaaly pleasing to him. If for any cause he is obliged to appeal to the people he wishes to meet as few constituencies and groups as ossible. Meanwhile he is apparenty ready to sacrifice the people to erve his own party ends.

Senators, Not Members. Even a more sinister corollary to his avoidance of redistribution is the innouncement of the Government's intention to increase the senatorial representation in the west, by giving Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta wo more senators apiece. Apparent y while the Premier is afraid to trust he people there to elect their own epresentatives he is willing to give hem more representation-provided he can do the choosing. This is Mr. Borden's fulfilment of the Senate reform plank in his Halifax platform. The west is to be as long as possible deprived of its share in the work of the Commons, but a sop is to thrown out in the appointment of half a dozen "discredited politicians" to the Senate. The Premier is evidently anxious to assist the hands of time by appointing more of his political friends to the Senate. This was adding insult to injury and glaring as a During his pre-election western defiance of the rights of the people tour Mr. Borden everywhere promised and the popular will, to omit all reference to any intention of giving the representation the House of Commons to which, by could be taken care of. annual meeting. The meeting decided that the associaion would render all the assistance possible in regard to this question, and the secretary was instructed to request the member for East Middlesex, Mr. Peter Elson, to give the deputation as much assistance as possible. In regard to the tomato test which is eing held by the association, all competitors will be requested to hand in heir reports to the chairman, Mr. Byroft, who will in turn hand them to the udges for the awarding of the prizes. The judges in this competition are Messrs, G. Poad, F. Fuller and J. Davis. The lack of interest in the various field ompetitions was considered, and it is kely that steps will be taken at the annual meeting to bring these competitions efore the members in a clearer light. The financial statement of the Ontario Vegetable Growers' Association was read y the secretary and accepted. A comunication from the Forest Basket Com-
