FRENCH REPULSE FOE ATTACKS IN MOISY FARM REGION

Circulation Last Week
274,820
Daily Average, 45,736

The London Advertiser

LONDON, CANADA—THE HOME OF UNBROKEN PROSPERITY.

HOME EDITION
THE WEATHER—FAIR AND COOL

55TH YEAR. No. 22198 | THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, CANADA. WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 25, 1918. 96 COLUMNS | PRICE TWO CENTS

FRANCO-BRITISH FORCES REPULSE ATTACKS OF ENEMY WITH LOSSES

BULGARS AND GERMANS RETIRING EAST OF VARDAR RIVER

ALLIED TURNING MOVEMENT IN MACEDONIA MAY RESULT IN RETREAT OF FOE FROM ADRIATIC TO THE AEGEAN

Great Bulgarian Stronghold of Strumitza Is Endangered by Advance of the Serbian and French Armies—British and Greek Armies Advance Around Lake Doiran.

New York, Sept. 25.—The Associated Press this morning issued the following:

Allied armies which have smashed the centre of the enemy lines in Macedonia have now begun a turning movement which may bring about a general retreat over the entire front from the Adriatic to the Aegean Sea.

Having captured Prilep and advanced far beyond into the upper valley of the Vardar the allied forces are reported to be spreading out like the ribs of a fan. On the right, the Serbians and French are moving toward the northeast and have reached points which appear to carry a distinct threat to the great Bulgarian stronghold of Strumitza. On the left, the Serbians are moving rapidly toward the mountains that divide Serbia from Albania and seem to have cut off the retreat of the enemy forces which were caught around Monastir by the collapse of the line eastward from that city.

Strumitza stands as the outpost of Bulgaria in Macedonia. It is a veritable fortress, and is advantageously situated in the midst of high hills. The British and Greek armies have advanced around Lake Doiran and are pursuing the Bulgarians along the road toward Strumitza, but that place, it seems probable, will soon be outflanked by the progress of the allied armies to the northwest.

PLIGHT OF BULGARIANS.

The plight of the Bulgarians on the western side of the battle zone appears to be serious. They are forced to pass through the mountains toward Albania, where they may join forces with the Austrians, who have been fighting for weeks against strong Italian and French attacks. But before they can reach even this doubtful haven of safety they must pass over an almost roadless country and must reckon with the hostility of the hill tribes, which are known to be unfriendly to them.

Few details of the situation in Palestine, as it has developed during the past couple of days have been reported. Only brief, formal official statements tell of the capture of Acre and Haifa and the further advance of Gen. Allenby's victorious troops. It appears, however, that the Turkish forces which succeeded in reaching the eastern bank of the Jordan are virtually isolated and in immediate danger of capture. A dispatch sent from Nabulus on Monday by a British correspondent says that two Turkish armies have been destroyed.

ON THE PICARDY FRONT.

While the events along the Picardy front in France lacks the sensational elements which attend the fighting in Macedonia and Palestine, they are, nevertheless, of great importance. St. Quentin is apparently almost within the grasp of the British and French.

Along the front immediately west of the city the Allies smashed their way nearer to their object yesterday, and, in spite of bitter resistance, moved up to positions which seem to dominate the town. They are now forging a steel ring about the city and inclose it on three sides, being all along this arc less than three miles from the centre of St. Quentin.

Northward along the line toward Arras the British have improved their position at Moeuvres, which stands as one of the chief bulwarks of Cambrai. They also have advanced at Pontruet, just north of St. Quentin.

Heavy artillery fire is reported along the lines held by the Americans in Lorraine, but nothing approaching an engagement has been fought there. Allied forces advancing south of Archangel have again been attacked by Lettish forces fighting with the Bolsheviki. This onslaught was repulsed with losses.

AS THE TRUTH DAWNS UPON THE TURK

Advertiser Illustrations

That awful realization.—Chicago Daily News.

ITALIAN SHOT BY ASSAILANT WHO LEAPS ON HIM UNAWARES

Giovanni D'Allessandro Dies From Bullet Wounds.

COUNTRYMAN IS SOUGHT

Suspected Man Was Seen Running From the Scene of Crime.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, Sept. 25.—Shot down at the corner of Elizabeth and Edward streets at 6:30 o'clock this morning, Giovanni D'Allessandro died in the General Hospital at noon today. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Leonard Demo, suspected of the crime.

D'Allessandro's assailant jumped out from behind a fence and fired two shots at his victim, one bullet entering D'Allesantro's mouth. The man who did the shooting made his escape, and with a revolver in his hand, was seen running, by four people, two men and two women, who witnessed the shooting.

Armed with pictures of Demo and a description, Detectives Bart Cronin, Jack McConnell, Charles Young and Levitt, assisted by Michael Basso, Italian interpreter, are searching the city of D'Allesandros' assailant.

LET THE ADVERTISER KNOW YOUR COAL NEEDS FOR THE COMING WINTER

Nine thousand Toronto householders have reported to the Toronto fuel controller that they are without a pound of coal in their cellars with which to cope with the rigors of the coming winter.

How many London people are without coal at the present time? That is what The Advertiser is desirous of finding out at once.

Will you give the information to this newspaper, so that it may be presented to the city council, and the seriousness of the situation brought directly home to that body in such a manner as to force some action through the numerous boards and controllers that exist at Toronto and Ottawa?

The Advertiser has every desire to co-operate with the public, with the coal dealers and with the city council in getting a clear survey of the situation.

When the information has been secured and compiled it will be presented by The Advertiser to the city council.

Thanks to a real effort to meet the fuel situation, other cities in Ontario have arranged coal distribution on a percentage basis, so that today the homes of Kitchener, for instance, have a large share of their supply in their cellars. Every home has been treated equitably, and there is yet time to get a fair distribution in London if citizens, coal dealers and city council will co-operate.

For the reasons above explained, The Advertiser is printing the coupon shown below. It asks Londoners to give their names and addresses and to tell how much coal they have in their cellars. Also it asks them to express a willingness to have their cellars examined by the local fuel controller or other responsible official.

Let us get together. Send in the information and The Advertiser will use it to the very best advantage of all concerned.

London Advertiser's Coal Campaign Coupon

Fill in and send to Coal Campaign Editor, The Advertiser, Dundas street: .....

Name .....

Address .....

Coal consumption last year .....

Coal requirement for coming year .....

Supply at present in your cellar .....

Are you willing to have cellar examined by responsible official? .....

Have you reasonable expectation of securing your supply? .....

Do you believe city authorities should act at once to secure supply for the city? .....

HAIG TAKES PRISONERS IN SUCCESSFUL RAID IN WULVERGHEM DISTRICT ON THE FLANDERS FRONT

Counter-Attacks By the Germans On British Lines Above Gricourt Are Repulsed With Losses to the Foe —Bulgarians Are in Retreat Along the North Shores of Lake Doiran

London, Sept. 25.—In Flanders last night a successful raid was carried out by the British in the neighborhood of Wulverghem. In this, and in other encounters, prisoners were taken, Field Marshal Haig's official report today announces.

German troops last night counter-attacked the British line above Gricourt, northwest of St. Quentin, where advances have recently been scored by Field Marshal Haig's troops. The British commander, in his official report today, announces that these attacks were repulsed.

Heavy losses were inflicted on the enemy, who delivered several attacks.

British posts in the region to the east of Arras, near Sauchy Cauchy, were also attacked, and here likewise the enemy was driven off.

The process of closing in on St. Quentin was continued by the British, who made progress in the Gricourt neighborhood and also in the Selency region, west of St. Quentin.

One thousand prisoners were captured in yesterday's operation, particularly around St. Quentin.

The text of the British official statement reads:

"Our troops made further progress yesterday evening and during the night in the neighborhood of Selency and Gricourt.

"In the course of the day's operations, the enemy made several counter-attacks, two of which were delivered in great strength north of Gricourt. Both counter-attacks were repulsed.

"In one case, two companies of the 2nd Battalion of the Royal Sussex Regiment met the attacking enemy with the bayonet, inflicting heavy casualties upon him and capturing a number of prisoners."

MARSHAL FOCH PRAISES ALL ALLIED ARMIES

Commander-In-Chief Says the British Army Is Better Than Ever.

London, Sept. 25.—Marshal Foch, commander-in-chief of the allied armies on the western front, who dislikes interviews and rarely grants one, received a few newspapermen at his headquarters on Tuesday. Among those received was the correspondent of the Telegraph, who thus records the marshal's brief utterances, made in an ejaculatory manner, with the use of hardly any verbs:

"The British army is better than ever. It fights better than ever. All of its losses have been made good, and it is a more splendid army than it has been before.

"The Americans are splendid and are wonderfully gallant in the field. Ten thousand fresh Americans arrive in France every day.

"The French army is the same good old army that it was in 1914. No more is to be said."

In discussing the general situation the marshal said: "The enemy is shaken up and shaken down, but is still holding out. You must not think that we shall get to the Rhine immediately. We have passed over the crest and are now going down hill. If we gather impetus as we go, like a rolling ball, so much the better."

With a few cordial words, the marshal then dismissed his interviewers, and resumed his work on his maps.

EXPECT ADVANCE OF $5 PER TON ON NEWSPRINT PRICES

Paper Stocks On the Montreal Exchange Take Sudden Rise.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Montreal, Sept. 25.—Expectation that newsprint prices will be advanced five dollars a ton to $62 was the cause of the market advance and considerable activity in paper stocks on Montreal exchange this forenoon. Led by Laurentide, which opened weak, at 179, and gained 5¼ points to 184¼, the entire paper list showed strength. Brompton closed at a new high mark, 61¾, a gain of half a point. Riordon advanced a point and a half, to 122½, and Price Bros., with a 2-point rise, to 149, also created a new high. Spanish River was a point and a half below at 52½, but the common was only fractionally up at 14.

WINNIPEG BANK CLERKS TAKING STEPS TO FORM A UNION

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Winnipeg, Sept. 25.—Clerks employed in the banks have been called to meet in the Labor Temple on Thursday evening to form a union. They have been talking about taking such steps for months past and now is their opportunity says W. H. Hoop, who has promised his assistance to aid in forming a union.

Today a general "round up" was made, and those at the back of the movement are asking the clerks, ledgerkeepers, bookkeepers and all other office help to attend. Higher wages demand is to be made.

FRENCH REPULSE FOE ATTACKS IN THE MOISY FARM REGION

Paris, Sept. 25.—German troops last night made an effort to regain some of the valuable ground recently won from them by the French near the western end of the Chemin-des-Dames. They attacked in the region of the Moisy Farm in this area, but, according to today's war office statement, the effort was an entire failure.

The text of the statement reads:

"In the course of the night, the artillery was active in the region of St. Quentin and between the Ailette and the Aisne.

"German attacks in the region of the Moisy Farm were completely checked.

"On the Vesle front a lively artillery fire was maintained.

"French troops repulsed German raiding parties in the Champagne and in Lorraine, and in the latter region carried out an incursion into the German lines."

AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN STATEMENT.

Vienna, Tuesday, Sept. 24.—(Via London).—Austro-Hungarian general headquarters issued the following statement today on operations on the Italian front:

"On the plateau between Canove and Monte Di Valbella the enemy yesterday (Monday) launched new attacks. At Monte Sisemol, after intense artillery fire, French and Italian storming detachments penetrated our lines, but a counter-thrust drove them back."

Continued on Page Two.

GERMANY READY FOR PEACE, DECLARES ADMIRAL VON HINTZE

Amsterdam, Sept. 25.—Germany maintains her readiness for peace, despite repeated rejections of peace offers from the central powers, declared Admiral von Hintze, the German foreign secretary, in addressing the Reichstag main committee.

Speaking on the recent Austrian peace proposal, Admiral von Hintze said that the German Government's attitude toward peace had been manifested to the whole world in repeated appeals.

"We maintain this appeal for peace, our readiness for peace," he continued. "Despite the partly jeering, partly sneering rejections which we have experienced from our enemies. In this we are in full accord with our allies."

The foreign secretary said that, after the previous failures, it had appeared to the German Government that it should not take any further steps in this direction, and that a moment when the nation's enemies were "suffering from war psychosis and the intoxication of victory was not a suitable time for new appeals for peace.

"The appeal, however, was made," the secretary added.

SCORES ARE KILLED IN AIR RAIDS ON TOWNS IN GERMANY

Amsterdam, Sept. 24.—Forty-seven air raids were made on German towns during the month of August, according to an official statement issued at Berlin. This statement says that 79 persons were killed and 113 injured during the raids.

THE WEATHER

LOCAL TEMPERATURES.

Following were the highest and lowest temperatures recorded in London during the 24 hours previous to 8 o'clock last night: Highest, 67; lowest, 47.

The official temperatures for the 12 hours previous to 8 a.m. today were: Highest, 50; lowest, 39.

TOMORROW—FAIR AND COOL.

Toronto, Sept. 25—8 a.m.

Forecasts.

Light to moderate winds; mostly fair today and Thursday; not much change in temperature.

Temperatures.

The following were the highest and lowest temperatures during the 24 hours previous to 8 a.m. today:

Stations.	High.	Low.	Weather.
Victoria	60	48	Clear
Calgary	54	46	Cloudy
Winnipeg	66	30	Clear
Port Arthur	54	34	Clear
Parry Sound	58	36	Clear
Port Stanley	62	44	Rain
Buffalo	62	50	Cloudy
Toronto	66	42	Cloudy
Kingston	64	42	Fair
Ottawa	62	36	Fair
Montreal	56	42	Fair
Quebec	56	36	Fair
Father Point	48	38	Cloudy

Weather Notes.

The barometer is high and winds are light throughout the Dominion.

Rain is falling this morning in Southwestern Ontario and in parts of Saskatchewan and Alberta. Elsewhere the weather is fine.

CALLS U. S. NOTE MASTERPIECE OF YANKEE PERFIDY

Economic Negotiations Between Netherlands and Entente Govts. To Be Resumed.

Amsterdam, Sept. 24.—It is semi-officially announced that the Dutch Government has decided to resume economic negotiations with the Entente governments.

German papers have seized upon this announcement as an occasion to warn the Dutch that they are in danger of losing the rest of their merchant tonnage to the Entente. The Cologne Gazette says.

"The Netherlands Government will not yield unless it obtains guarantees that its ships, if sent out, will not be seized in America, as were those taken there last March." It is openly asserted by the Volks Zeitung of Cologne that seizure is the object of the Entente governments, and the newspaper speaks of those Governments' efforts to cause trouble between Holland and Germany over Dutch exports of foodstuffs.

The American note to Holland is called by the Rhenish Westphalian Gazette "a masterpiece of American perfidy."

SIR ADAM BECK IS RESTING EASIER

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, Sept. 25.—At the General Hospital at 11 o'clock today it was stated that Sir Adam Beck was resting easier after suffering considerably for several days.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND

Advertiser Illustrations.

St. Paul, Sept. 25.—Archbishop John Ireland of the St. Paul diocese of the Roman Catholic Church died at 3:55 o'clock this morning, after a long illness of heart disease and stomach trouble. He was 80 years of age.

The archbishop was in frail health for a year. Last winter he went to Florida. When he retired early in the spring he suffered a breakdown, and for several days was at the point of death. After his physicians had practically abandoned hope for his recovery he improved rapidly, and almost immediately after he was able to leave his bed he celebrated solemn high mass at the cathedral. Until fall he took a prominent part in patriotic activities, and his physicians at that time attributed his breakdown to over-work.

John Ireland, Archbishop of St. Paul, was born in Ireland in 1838, and came with his parents to America while he was a child. He became bishop in 1875 and archbishop in 1886. He received support from many of his admirers for appointment as the fourth American cardinal. Celebrating his golden jubilee five years ago, the priests of his diocese presented him with a purse of $100,000.

BULGARIANS AND GERMANS ARE RETREATING EAST OF THE VARDAR

London, Sept. 25.—East of the Vardar River in Macedonia the Germans and Bulgarians are falling back on Veles, twenty-five miles southeast of Uskub, according to a Serbian official statement received here. Along the Prelip-Gradsko road the Serbians have captured thirteen guns, and a great number of ammunition wagons and other material.

At Her Command

You have a savings account of a few hundred dollars.

In the event of your death your wife could not disturb this until your Will was probated or letters of administration granted.

Usually this takes three weeks or more.

A joint savings account would place the money at her command without delay.

3½% per annum.

THE Huron & Erie MORTGAGE CORPORATION

"Older than the Dominion of Canada"

LONDON - ST. THOMAS - WINDSOR

T. G. Meredith, K. C., President
Hume Cronyn, General Manager

IT SEEMED AS IF HIGHER HAND WAS PROTECTING US"

London Soldier Tells of Living Through a Hail of Lead.

FIRST CAME GREENISH GAS

German Attempt to Poison Canadians Described by Lance-Corp. Quinton.

A vivid description of a gas attack as experienced by a Canadian soldier, Lance-Corp. Edward Quinton of the 4th Canadian Battalion, brother of Sergt. Quinton, Wharncliffe road, South London, is contained in a letter written after a recent heavy engagement.

Lance-Corp. Quinton has written as follows: "It seems to me as if I had lived a lifetime since last I wrote to you, and it has been just like one long nightmare. I have been through the thick of the battle, of which you have no doubt read, and I am thankful to be here.

The German Poison.

"The Germans tried first to poison us all, then they rained the shells over us. The bad it is a wonder any of us are left. We saw the poison coming that Saturday morning just at daybreak. It looked like a greenish yellow cloud, and seemed to hang a few yards from the ground. As you breathe it your lungs seem to tighten, and as you inhale more of it, you gasps get weaker and shorter. It is an awful thing. Men were on the ground gasping for breath. Some were mad, others crawled away, and those who were not so badly affected were fanning at the nose and eyes and choking. I was pretty bad for about an hour, and then I got well enough to stand up and breathe a little better.

Shells Like Rainstorm.

"By this time, the enemy was simply raining shells over us, and they were coming down in droves. Still, we held them back, and men were dropping on all sides, like ninepins. If they had only known what a small force was holding them, they could have broken through us easily, but they seemed scared to come on. It is marvellous how cool a man feels when men are falling all around and you are facing death every minute. I felt quite cool, and everyone else seemed quite the same. It is an actual fact that we were smoking cigarettes and passing them along to one another.

When the Reaction Comes.

"But, after the reinforcements came up, and we returned back, the reaction came. Men were shaking hands with comrades whom they thought were dead —and what a pitiful few! My nerves were so shattered, I could have sat down and cried. . . It just seemed as if a higher hand were protecting us, for it seemed almost impossible for a man to live in such a hail of lead. I thanked God that I was still alive. We were relieved in the reserve trenches two days after, and now we are quite a long way back from the firing line.

"We are at a farm, about a mile from town, and everything seems so green and peaceful, that it seems hard to believe there is a war on."

Brother a Veteran, Too.

Sergt. Quinton of this city, brother of the writer of the letter, went overseas with the first draft of the 33rd Battalion. He returned to Canada several months ago, incapacitated for further military service, owing to injuries received in action, and is at present studying for civil service examinations.

Goodies Pour In for Soldiers In Hospitals Here

Barrels of Fruit, Pickles and Other Preserves Distributed.

From all over Western Ontario barrels of fruit, pickles, and all manner of preserved goodies have been shipped to Cronyn Hall by chapters of the I. O. D. E., to be distributed by the military hospitals committee, of which Mrs. J. B. McKillop is convener, is having a most interesting time, opening the generously filled barrels and arranging the jars contained for distribution. Many members of the local chapters are visiting Cronyn Hall this afternoon to see the toothsome gifts to the soldiers put up by Daughters of the Empire in outside points.

Mr. Brain-Worker!

It's a Pity That People Should Break Down in Health Just When They Are Ready to Reap the Benefit of a Lifetime of Work.

Teachers, Preachers, Lawyers, Businessmen and All Others who make a living through the use of their mental efforts, are liable to a Nervous Breakdown through the constant "wear and tear" of the Brain.

When you continually "slave drive" your mental faculties, something has to give 'way, unless you nourish and revitalize the Brain. Hacking's Heart and Nerve Remedy is admirable for this purpose; it is a Tonic and a Restorative to the worn-out nerves; it supplies the needed phosphates to the grey matter, strengthens the heart, and rebuilds the entire nervous system. Takes away that feeling of depression and weariness that comes from overwork, because it increases the vitality of the body and makes you more able to "carry on." Better get a few boxes today, but be sure to get Hacking's. Substitutes only disappoint. Price 50c a box, six for $2.50. Sold by all dealers or by mail. C. B. Hacking & Co., Listowel. 95u

LONDON MINISTER IN THE RANKS WRITES A STIRRING PLEA FOR PEACE OF CHURCHES AND UNION

Sergt. (Rev.) Hugh McFarlane Asks Why Canada Should Not Take the Lead—Impressions of an Observer On Leave in Old London.

A most interesting letter from Sergt. (Rev.) Hugh McFarlane, formerly assistant pastor of St. Andrew's Church, has been received by a friend in this city. It is as follows:

Bovington, Dorset,
August 28, 1918.

As I told you in my last letter, we left Frensham Pond Camp early Tuesday morning. By noon our battalion was in Bovington, and by noon on Wednesday I was in London on six days' leave. Five boys from Hamilton, Ont., who are employed in the orderly room and pay office went at the same time. They are all splendid, clean-cut lads, and leave in London appealed to them immensely. They were so excited about it that they could scarce control their feelings. We all got into the same compartment, and then out came guide books and newspapers, with all the theatre announcements. At every stop they were out on the platform buying buns and sandwiches and oranges.

Advertiser Illustrations
SERGT. (REV.) HUGH McFARLANE.

Our train was steaming along through a beautiful country, and I was enjoying it as best I could from the car window, having succeeded for the time in getting my mind away from my rather noisy companions, when all at once I was brought back by hearing this shouted in my ear: "I say, corporal, when we get to London let's jump into a taxi and go like hell!" I have the utmost respect for these young gentlemen, for they are among the finest in the battalion, but I felt that the speed mentioned would be rather too lively for me, so we parted company shortly after our arrival. I really couldn't keep up to them and think, although I know that their way is much the more popular one of seeing London.

The Luxury of a Clean Bed.

I had stayed at the Strand Palace Hotel once before the war, so I knew the merits of the place, and proceeded there. You will never know how much a real clean, comfortable bed meant to me that night and every night during my stay in London. For weeks I had slept on nothing but the hard boards of the tent floor.

I had heard a little French-Canadian tell of some of his exploits while in London, and I was able to appreciate one of them at least. As a civilian he was a businessman, and accustomed to a certain amount of life's comforts. As a soldier he is a batman to a young officer who is reputed to have earned as high as $75 a month before he won his commission by a six months course in Canada. It is the duty of the little batman to call his superior at 6 in the morning, and from that time till bedtime he is subject to his orders. To be honest about it, the little chap is heartily sick of it. He went to a hotel in London and engaged a room. He gave orders—it was his turn now—that he be called at 6 in the morning. When the rap on the door came at the appointed time he was ready for it—had been awake at least two hours waiting for his opportunity—"You go to the devil!" he roared. "I don't have to get up!" Thus he spent his first day on leave and paid off his score with his superior officer.

During my stay in London, reveille was at 9 a.m. instead of 6, and tattoo was at 12 p.m. instead of 10. And there were no orders—bliss for a man in the ranks. My time was my own. I didn't go at the rate suggested by my friend on the train. Indeed, I don't think I hurried once. I think I saw most of the places of interest. I mean those usually frequented by the average visitor in London, but I saw and heard a great deal more. I'm sure you would not be interested in the "sights." You have either read about them all or seen them for yourself. I spent a most helpful Sunday in the great city, and I'm going to tell you about that. Then the most interesting place that I visited was the "Beaver Hut," and I'm going to tell you about that. For any further information I must refer you to my taxi friend from Hamilton.

The Abbey an Empty Show.

Before going to London the only thing that I deliberately planned was the way in which I should spend my Sunday. I had intended going to St. Paul's Cathedral in the morning and to Westminster Abbey in the afternoon. But I changed my mind. On Thursday I went to the Abbey and stayed to the service, which is held there daily. To me it was like an empty show. It may have been due to the mood I was in, or to my inability to appreciate, but I didn't enjoy it. It seemed formal and superficial. As I say, it may have been all my fault, but when Sunday came I had no desire to go again. I resorted to the newspapers and discovered that R. J. Campbell was preaching in Christ Church in the morning, and Rev. F. B. Meyers in his own church in the evening. I resolved to hear these two, and I'm glad I did so, for I believe the day most profitably spent.

You will remember that a few years ago R. J. Campbell was one of the most popular Nonconformist preachers in England. His book, called "The New Theology," caused a great stir in theological circles. He was lauded to the skies by the free-thinkers. His sermons were published every week in the Christian Commonwealth, the chief paper of the progressive thought movement in England. At the same time he was severely criticised by the traditionists. I remember hearing the late Dr. Orr of Glasgow say that he didn't know what Campbell was talking about. It is not for me to pass judgment on him. All I know of him is this: I have read his "New Theology" and scores of his sermons. There is some of his book that appears rather "thin"—not very profound. But there is much of it that, while not traditional, is orthodox in the truest sense. His sermons are, upon the whole, living and virile, even when read. About four years ago he left the City Temple and entered the Established Church of England. Again he was raised at. He was accused of recanting from his former position by the progressives: Nonconformists viewed him with distrust as being unstable in his thought. Personally I have always rather admired him for the step he took. He was made vicar of Christ Church, Westminster, and seems to have disappeared largely from notice.

Keeping the Service Alive.

I was early at Christ Church on my Sunday morning in London. The building was filled; I had difficulty in getting a seat. The service was from first to last most enjoyable. To me it was about ideal. I have always enjoyed the service of the Anglican Church, so long as it doesn't get too "high," and the minister in his zeal for mother church does not thrust her in between the worshiper and God. Even though the clergyman be dull or prone to misinform the Almighty as to how to operate his universe, it is impossible to him to rob the congregation of its right to pray and worship. Every one is able to take part, and so long as it does not become a mere formal thing it is most profitable for all. It seems to me that we need something in the way of a liturgy in our Nonconformist churches in Canada. The minister has things too much his own way, and takes from the layman some of his most valuable privileges. The service, apart from the sermon, that morning in Christ Church was beautiful. There seemed nothing merely formal about it. The congregation, and I imagine many were Nonconformist visitors, took part heartily in all the readings and prayers. A spirit of true worship seemed to pervade the place. Then the sermon was splendid.

It is not my opinion alone that the preaching in the Established Church is not as strong and virile as in the Nonconformist bodies. Perhaps the strength of the former has become her weakness, and clergymen, while emphasizing the liturgy, have neglected the preaching. My friend Killmaster, whose opinion is worth while, to my mind, told me that the sermons which he heard in St. Paul's and Westminster on Sunday were very mediocre. The liturgy was everything. R. J. Campbell preached a living sermon for living men the morning I heard him. It wasn't a number of fine religious and moral platitudes grouped together. No! His message was living; it was inspiring; it provided food for thought; it helped to satisfy one's spiritual craving. I shall never forget the benediction. It was so quiet, so reverent, so impressive, so full of real meaning; it was truly a benediction.

Peace Within the Churches.

I shall not tell you all about the sermon I heard that morning. Only this: He was speaking regarding the great world peace that we all hope will come after the war. To that end he believes that there should be called a council of the churches of Christendom, in order that the Church of Christ should present a united front to the world. He claims that until we can show that peace is possible within the church that professes to stand for peace and goodwill, it is impossible to expect it among the nations of the world. Surely he is right. Only this morning I was reading an article in one of the outstanding papers here by a canon of the Anglican Church, entitled "Wanted—A League of Churches." He claimed that the differences between the churches are such that any scheme of union in a single uniform polity is impossible in the immediate future, even if desirable as a remote ideal. He closes his article thus: "The most formidable obstacle is that the Church of England cannot make up its mind frankly to recognize the fruits of the spirit as a sufficient test and guarantee that non-episcopal bodies are truly branches of the Church of Chirst."

Let Canada Lead.

Why shouldn't Canada take the lead in this matter of union. A good step towards it would be a council of the churches in Canada now. Let us not be held back by the traditions and the prejudices and the sluggishness of the old land. Surely the mind of young Canada is spiritually keen and alert enough to see that the time for union is ripe. A league of churches may be all well enough for the nations of the world, but for Canada nothing short of union, surely. The Church of Rome is so hopelessly undemocratic and ecclesiastically imperialistic in its tendencies that it will doubtless keep out for some centuries yet. But surely it is not true of the Anglican Church in Canada and of one other denomination that they will not recognize the fruits of the spirit. At the present time we are not united, and peace does not dwell among us. We are not in danger of engaging in physical strife. But spiritual or unseen strife does exist. I am a Presbyterian minister; here is an Anglican clergyman. As long as one of us feels that he belongs to some traditional episcopacy, and because the other does not, that his "spirituality," shall we call it, is of a somewhat choicer brand, he is not at peace with me, nor am I with him. Or here is a Baptist minister. He thinks that to be right with God a man must be immersed at baptism. I don't think so, though as a Presbyterian minister I should not hesitate to immerse anyone who wanted it. But when two great religious bodies will keep apart because of such a belief, and when one will refuse to allow a member of the other to sit at the table of the Lord with him, it certainly points to spiritual enmity. We do not come to blows, but we are not at peace. Put the three ministers into the ranks together, or in the trench, and, judged by the standards of true Christian heroism and sacrifice, or true Christian living, and one is as good as the other. It seems to me, sir, that the time has come for a lot of this narrow, superficial, denominational nonsense to be forgotten. The responsibility of keeping on with it is too great. Men who have proved in this war their right to discipleship with Christ in far more valid ways than by an interpretation of a text or a view of ecclesiastical history, will not have much patience with it longer. It is time for us to put away any notion of forcing our particular denominational "culture" upon others, or of keeping at enmity with them until they wish to accept it. Let us get together in Canada and show the world that peace within the church is possible, just as we have shown that for generations we could live side by side with a neighboring nation in a spirit of mutual trust and friendship, with thousands of miles of boundary line between, without once hearing the sentry's challenge, "Who goes there?" Sincerely your friend,

HUGH McFARLANE.

MAWRUSS GOOTSON LIVES IN TWO PLACES AT ONCE AND THAT LETS HIM OUT

Maurice Gootson of 41 Maitland street and 541 Philip street this morning was freed from the charge of having liquor in a place other than a private residence, when Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon dismissed the case. There was no evidence submitted to prove that the house on Philip street, where the bottle of whiskey was found, was used for anything other than a residence, the court held. Thus there was no infraction of section 41 of the O. T. A., under which the information was laid.

The case was the first one where a man was recognized as having two residences under the O. T. A. Section 20, subsection A, of the act was interpreted by Magistrate Graydon to indicate that liquor could be kept in more than one residence by the same person. The Maitland street house and the one on Philip street were considered by the court as being under the control of and used as residences by Maurice Gootson.

During the trial, which was held last week, Gootson testified that the family took all their meals at the Philip street residence, and he slept there, but his wife slept at the Maitland street address. P. H. Bartlett conducted the defence.

A NEW AND ALARMING ASPECT TO

PYORRHEA

Recent investigations indicate that this disease of the gums is often the cause of RHEUMATISM, NEURITIS, etc. "The Pemetine Treatment" is a proven CURE for Pyorrhea. All druggists, 50 cents.

THE PEMETINE LABORATORIES.
London, Ontario.

CAMERON CURRIE IS DOING A FINE WORK FOR U. S. IN FRANCE

Chief of Red Cross in Marne District

HELPING THE REFUGEES

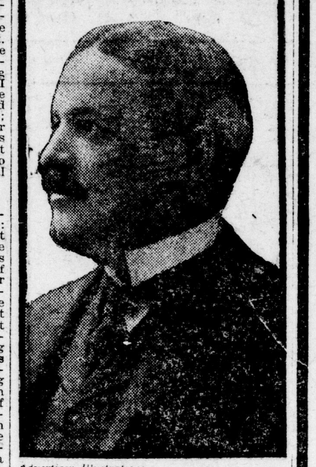

Former Londoner Organized Relief Work While German Drive Was On.

Cameron Currie, a prominent Detroit broker, formerly a Londoner, and a brother of the late Mrs. Francis Love of this city, is at present in France on behalf of the American Red Cross. So effective has his work proved that he has been promoted to Red Cross representative at Chaumont, in the Marne district, where he will act as intermediary between the Red Cross and the military authorities.

Work for Refugees.

Mr. Currie's promotion comes in recognition of his work in Paris, where he organized the relief work for refugees when the Germans began their big drive on March 21. Mr. Currie's many London friends will be interested in a letter which he has written, as follows:

"I have seen much of our wounded soldiers; it was not exactly my business, but I made it so and have been backed up fine. Heard just accidentally that some wounded were to be at Gare Vangigard (railroad station), so, taking a doctor and load of cigarettes, I was most fortunate, for the train with the food had been lost, and instead of carrying the injured off at 10 a.m., it was 3 p.m. before they got away. I commandeered from the Gare de L'Est supply depot (our store depot) 600 lunches put up in packages, got the British canteen opened and hot coffee made, bought 1,000 oranges, and when I purchased a carload of strawberries I got a cheer from these men. I also wrote some letters for them, gave them cigarettes, and when they departed they were happy. Our hospital train is a wonder, marked with Red Cross and big U. S.

Advertiser Illustrations.
CAMERON CURRIE.

Marines Are Wonders.

"This was not my first experience with these boys, and I know it is with them I belong, and where, if I controlled, I would be. They glorify in their spirit and courage, the Stars and Stripe. Half in tears, I almost burst with pride over them. Think of listening to the machine gun nests cleaned out. You read of it. The Marines—wonders—and all kinds of personal hand-to-hand exploits. I saw and talked with the fellow who turned a German machine gun on the enemy. I am convinced we will have the finest, gamest, most military army the world has produced, and we will win the war. My heart aches though at the thought of sacrifices in store for us, because we will push the fight, our fellows can't help it.

"So many wonderful tales and incidents to remember for home. Their letters, mostly to mother, telling her not to worry, only slightly hurt. I have been with over a thousand, and not a whimper. Words cannot tell about them.

Hears German Lies.

"I have been with many French wounded, passed through their trains with cigarettes, and greeted by all 'American Bon Soldah.' I have been with and talked to 150 German wounded prisoners. The French treated them most carefully. They told me the German Government gave out that U-boats were preventing our troops crossing over, and that those here could not and would not fight. They got an awful eye-opener. Our boys say, 'We have got Fritz's number and will eat him up!' Can't you hear them? And the day it dawns definitely on Fritz, then will be the beginning of the end."

Mr. Currie says that at the supply depot established to care for the refugees there was much volunteer help, including countesses, baronesses, Y. M. C. A. and Frenchwomen.

WILL ARRANGE TO FILL PULPIT DURING VISIT OF PASTOR TO FRONT

The elders and board of managers of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church met last evening, with C. R. Somerville in the chair, in order to prepare for the congregational meeting to be held on Wednesday, October 2, made necessary by the fact that the pastor, Rev. D. C. MacGregor, will leave shortly to serve as a chaplain in the army.

At last night's meeting it was decided to submit to the congregation this recommendation: That Mr. MacGregor be given a leave of absence to act as chaplain at the front, and that arrangements be made for pulpit supply during the absence. It is the intention to secure someone who will remain with the congregation during the whole of Mr. MacGregor's absence.

LADIES' AID HONORS WIFE OF THE PASTOR

The Ladies' Aid of the Adelaide Street Baptist Church spent a social hour last evening in the schoolroom of the church for the purpose of saying farewell to Mrs. Boyd, who is shortly to leave for Toronto, where Rev. Mr. Boyd has accepted a call to a church in that city. During the evening Mrs. Boyd was called to the platform and presented with an electric vacuum cleaner and an address, to which Mrs. Boyd made a suitable reply. Refreshments were served and a solo was acceptably rendered by Mrs. Howard White, as was also a reading by Miss Young. Following is the address:

London, September 24.

Dear Mrs. Boyd,—We have gathered tonight for the purpose of bidding you farewell, as you are about to depart for another city.

We felt that we could not let you go without taking this opportunity of expressing our deep regret at your departure and to tell you how much we will miss your presence amongst us, as it has ever been an inspiration to us, for you have always had the interest of the Aid at heart and the aims and principles which it embodies. You have also, in the offices which you have filled, kept us from forgetting the spiritual side of the work which we are carrying on, and your sweet influence will be felt by us in all our future endeavors. Your help and co-operation, given so willingly, have made your services doubly valuable, and we would ask you to accept this gift as a very small token of our love and esteem for you. Therefore, our prayer to God is that He may richly bless you in your new home, and you can rest assured that our prayers will go with you and that you will not be forgotten by the members of the Ladies' Aid, with whom you have been associated for so long a time.

Signed on behalf of the Ladies' Aid of the Adelaide Street Baptist Church.

KATHLEEN MAYNARD,
Secretary.

HUTS CAMPAIGN WILL BE WOUND UP TONIGHT

A grand wind-up meeting of the Knights of Columbus campaign for army huts in France is to be held this evening at 8 o'clock in St. Peter's Hall. All officials of the campaign, captains of teams and canvassers are being urged to be present to report in order that an approximate idea may be obtained tonight of the amount raised.

The subscription list containing the names of several of the larger subscribers, which was lost on Tuesday forenoon on Dundas street east by Lieut.-Col. W. G. Coles, chairman of the campaign, has been found.

Among the larger subscriptions received today are the following: Dr. Wright $10, Controller J. M. Moore $25, Frank Jewell $10, John G. Richter $10, Dominion Savings and Investment Society staff $5, Capt. Asa Minard $10, staff of Bank of Nova Scotia $6, Scott, Chamberlain, Limited, $25, staff of Huron and Erie Mortgage Corporation $10.

IN ETAPLES HOSPITAL.

OTTERVILLE, Sept. 24.—Mrs. Frank Brown received word that her son, Pte. Stanley Brown, has been wounded in severe fighting on September 3. He received a gunshot wound in the right shoulder and is in the 56th General Hospital at Etaples. Pte. Stanley Brown enlisted from Tillsonburg with the 71st Battalion. He also has a brother, Pte. Hugh Brown, who enlisted at the same time with the 71st, but was turned down at the time on account of his eyes, and later went over with the 168th from Tillsonburg.

Pte. Hugh got his thumb split open on August 27 by a piece of shrapnel shell. They were also both gassed some months ago.

SMALLMAN & INGRAM Western Ontario's Mail Order House

Smart But Simple Lines In Suits

Despite the unusual manufacturing conditions existing today, the new autumn suit modes are more engaging than for many seasons past. It is as though the designers, realizing that the materials at hand would not again be obtainable—at least for a long time to come—put forth unusual efforts to develop them.

Gabardine and men's suitings are strongly featured and the velvet suit holds a prominent position this season, fur trimmings are conspicuous and forms distinctive trimming in big collars and deep cuffs. The tailored suit is the utility garment of every woman, and the selection we are displaying includes every beautiful mode for fall and winter. We have selected three models for special mention today.

Suit of gabardine in taupe; coat has collar of Hudson seal; belt across back, furnished with grey novelty buckle; straight fronts; side pockets; cuff button trimmed; satin-lined. Skirt two-piece, gathered under belt. Price $72.00

Suit of brown velvet; coat with shawl collar of sable opossum, all around belt; trimmings of buttons and satin folds; silk-lined. Skirt two-piece, gathered under belt. Price $67.00

Plain tailored model, shown in Oxford grey man's suiting; notched collar; belt across front; seams neatly tailored; pleats from waist; button-trimmed cuff; satin-lined. Skirt two-piece, gathered at back; pockets finishing fronts. Price ... $49.00

Other models in navy, taupe, brown, also bblack, and also new models being added to stock almost every day ..... $35.00 and up

Fifty Coats at About Half Thursday

We would advise paying attention to these. They are just the weight for now and you will be glad if you are able to find such a coat next spring at double the price. These are the coats needed most of the year. Note the price.

Men's Fall Overcoats, $9.95

For a quick clearance on Thursday we have marked about fifty coats at a very low price, in fact about half the regular value. Anyone who can use a good fall overcoat will find this a perfect snap—greys, browns, blues and mixed shades, some lined all through, some shield-lined. Fine tweeds, made up in good smart styles; some plain back, some half belt and others with belt all around; sizes 33 to 42. Sale price $9.95

Men's Caps, 98c

Men's Fall Weight Caps, in assorted patterns, to clear out on Thursday at a very special price. All these Caps are of good quality materials, smart and good shades, in both light and dark; sizes 6¾ to 7¼. Thursday to clear ..... 98c each

Men's Combination Underwear, $2.65 Suit

Extraordinary value are these suits; a good fall and early winter weight; a special purchase of about 200 suits, all closed crotch style, made full and roomy natural shade, elastic ribbed, of good durable quality wool and cotton mixture; sizes 34 to 44. Priced very low at ..... $2.65 suit

Be sure and see this line Thursday.

Watch Your Weight

Your weight is the indicator as to the condition of your health. If your weight fluctuates from day to day, find out the cause.

Free Weighing Machine in the Basement — Conveniently located near the entrance in the basement for the public use will be found a new automatic scale. Step on the platform and your weight is registered on the dial before you. Absolutely correct—inspected and guaranteed. Make a record of your weight each time you are in the store.

A Special in Dress Gingham

Just four pieces only, a balance that was left over in a factory after their orders for ready-made gingham dresses had been completed for the season. The well-known D. J. Anderson gingham.

Comes in rose with white woven stripe only. A beautiful high-grade gingham, fine weave, and a reliable cloth for wear.

A splendid opportunity to secure the material for children's dresses, house dresses, etc., for immediate use or for next season at a big saving. This quality was sold much higher during the past summer.

FOUR PIECES ONLY—D. J. Anderson's Gingham, 32 inches wide. To clear ..... 40c yard

—Wash Goods, Main Floor.—

BOYS' SWEATER COATS, $2.50 EACH.

Thursday you will find here a very good line of Boys' Sweater Coats at an attractive price—brown and maroon shades wool and cotton mixture; extra well made and of quality that will stand hard usage; collar buttons close up to the neck; a good winter weight; the sizes are from 26 to 32. Price Thursday ..... $2.50 each

SALE OF BOYS' SUITS, $2.95

Another lot of small boys' suits for Thursday; 3, 4 and 5 year sizes only; grey mixed tweed; close-fitting neck; belt all around; straight knickers; about 30 suits in this lot to clear Thursday at ..... $2.95 suit

SPECIAL!
Chicken Dinner Tomorrow.
Roast Young Chicken, Course Dinner, Thursday, 50c.

SMALLMAN & INGRAM LIMITED
Restaurant License No. 10-208.

SUPPER—UP TO 5:30.
Cream of Tomato Soup, Fried Lamb Chops, Fried Potatoes, and Cup of Tea or Coffee 50c

HAIG TAKES PRISONERS IN SUCCESSFUL RAID IN WULVERGHEM DISTRICT ON FLANDERS FRONT

(Continued from page one).

BULGARIANS IN FLIGHT ALONG THE ROAD TOWARDS STRUMITZA

London, Sept. 25.—British forces are now advancing along the northern shores of Lake Doiran and their cavalry is pursuing the retreating Bulgarians along the road towards Strumitza. This is the only available line of communication remaining to the enemy, according to advices received here.

Further west and northwest the situation of the enemy is becoming daily more difficult. The Bulgarians are retiring along the road from Velesto Ishtib. There is a railroad running as far as Ishtib, but beyond that point they will depend on wagon roads, against which the Serbians are advancing.

On the western side of the battle zone some of the retreating Bulgarians may escape to Albania, where they will join Austrian detachments, but they must first cross a difficult country, and the Albanians are not friendly to the Bulgarians. Although there are still German officers with the Bulgarians, it is believed there are no definite German units with them.

ALONG THE ST. MIHIEL SECTOR.

With the American Army in Lorraine, Sept. 25.—Airmen of both armies were active early today and increased artillery activity was noted along the lines of the old St. Mihiel sector. Bright skies have replaced the clouds and rains of recent days and aerial observers were sent out by both the Americans and the Germans.

Thirteen Hundred Prisoners Captured By Anglo-French in Advance Close To St. Quentin

LONDON, Sept. 24.—In the region west of St. Quentin the British troops have carried out a successful operation over a front of four miles from the Omignon River south, and taken about 800 prisoners, according to Field Marshal Haig's communication issued tonight.

The text of the communication follows:

"A successful operation was carried out this morning in co-operation with the French in the St. Quentin sector. At dawn English troops attacked over a front of four miles from the neighborhood of Omignon River southward. Good progress was made all along this front. About eight hundred prisoners were taken.

"Vigorous resistance was encountered at a number of places, especially in the neighborhood of Selency, where the fighting is still continuing.

"There was local fighting again today northeast of Epehy, as a result of which we improved our position slightly. On the remainder of the front there is nothing to report."

PARIS, Sept. 24.—West of St. Quentin the French troops in conjunction with the British have captured Frances-Selency, l'Epine-de-Dallon and the village of Dallon, according to the French official communication issued tonight.

More than five hundred prisoners and a large number of machine guns were taken in the operation.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, Sept. 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Another Anglo-French assault was delivered against the German defences before St. Quentin today. Reports received up to 2 o'clock this afternoon indicated that the Allied attack was meeting with great success.

On the right the French appeared to have possession of L'Epine de Dallon, southwest of St. Quentin, a strong position known as Round Hill, to the west of the threatened city, and the hamlet of Francilly-Selency, while to the north the British had seized the high ground west of Fayet and cleared the woods east of Fresnoy of the enemy and had stormed their way through Pontruet.

This place lies only three quarters of a mile from the bend in the St. Quentin canal, which forms a vital part of the Hindenburg bulwarks. It was around Pontruet that the British captured many hundreds of prisoners.

Fighting was proceeding this afternoon along the ridge between Pontruet and Gricourt.

RELIANCE Garage Ford SERVICE Station

National Cash Registers
STOP ERRORS AND DISPUTES.
JULIUS MADDI, Sales Agent
The N. C. R. Co. of Canada, Limited
350 Dundas St., London, Ont.
zxv

WAIT! WATCH!! WHEN!!!

KEEP YOUR EYE ON THIS SPACE.

INFLUENZA ABSENT, OPINE DOCTORS, BUT MANY ARE SUSPICIOUS

Afflictions of Head General Throughout City.

SOME ARE PROSTRATED

Victims of Form of Grippe Are Suffering in Varying Degree.

Who has woes, redness of the nose, soreness of the throat, aching of the head, chills chasing one another up and down the spine, pains in the limbs, parching of the tongue, sneezes that are multiplied, a nausea at the thought of food, and fever apparently for no cause? Not him (or her) who looketh upon the wine bottle in secret, but him (or her) who endureth an attack of influenza.

The more aggravated these symptoms, so the scientists say, the nearer the victim to Spanish influenza.

Has Spanish influenza broken loose in London? Doctors are inclined to think not. Dr. H. A. McCallum, dean of the medical faculty of the Western University, hasn't seen any Spanish influenza this year—or any other year, for that matter—and, so far as he knows, none of the other doctors here have seen it this year.

A Wide Range of Grippe.

Grippe, however, of varying degrees of severity is unusually prevalent. Severity ranges all the way from sneezing and coughs and colds in the head, which make the sufferers miserable in going about their daily tasks, to cases of acute prostration.

One doctor, who has an exceptionally large number of influenza cases, doesn't know whether he has run across Spanish influenza or not. So far he is inclined to think it is "good" old-fashioned influenza. By this he means the kind attended by chills, temperature, sore throat, pain behind the eyes, and —oh, just a few more inconveniences. One of the chief disadvantages is prostration, so extreme in some cases that the patient can scarcely raise himself or herself up in bed. Of course, there are any number of "walking" cases.

"Is it a matter of will power?" was asked of one physician.

"Not with the grippe which knocks you out completely so you can't stand, let alone navigate," he said.

Spanish and Russian.

"What is the relation of Spanish influenza to Russian?" was another question asked today. Some doctors thought the difference consisted in degrees of severity, with the Russian qualifying for the iron cross.

One prominent young doctor stated that there had been an epidemic of Russian influenza in London and this part of the country about the time he was born. It left a trail of after-effects in the shape of discharging ears, weakness of the heart, kidney affections, mastoids, etc.

Would the Spanish be as dangerous from the standpoint of the aftermath? He didn't know. In the meantime, "Here's hoping it won't come this way," he said.

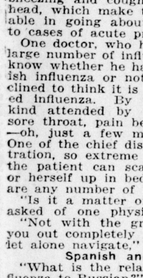

A medical officer, writing to friends in this city from Niagara camp, states that there has been quite an outbreak of Spanish influenza there, especially in the Polish unit, recruited for overseas service, which is in training at Niagara. Some 75 cases were mentioned, as well as a number among Canadians.

Dr. C. J. O. Hastings, M. O. H., Toronto, has given the following rules which, if carefully observed, will be a safeguard against the disease:

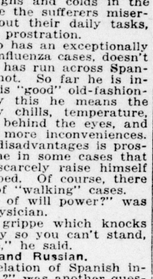

1. Avoid needless crowding; influenza is a crowd disease.
2. Smother your coughs and sneezes; others do not want the germs which you would throw away.
3. Your nose, not your mouth, was made to breathe through. Get the habit.
4. Remember the three C's—A clean mouth, a clean skin and clean clothes.
5. Try to keep cool when you walk and warm when you ride and sleep.
6. Open the windows always at home at night; at the office when practicable.
7. Food will win the war if you give it a chance; help by choosing and chewing your food well.
8. Your fate may be in your own hands; wash your hands before eating.
9. Don't let the waste products of digestion accumulate; drink a glass or two of water on getting up.
10. Don't use a napkin, towel, spoon, fork, glass or cup which has been used by another person and not washed.
11. Avoid tight clothes, tight shoes, tight gloves; seek to make nature your ally and not your prisoner.
12. When the air is pure breathe all of it you can; breathe freely.

IN THE CASUALTIES

Advertiser Illustrations.

Pte. William Murray Cochrane, B. A., killed in action on September 2nd. Pte. Cochrane was a native of Lobo, and spent his last leave in this city. His parents reside in Vancouver.

Pte. Wilfred Hamilton, who has been admitted to No. 11 Stationary Hospital with gunshot wounds in the legs. Pte. Hamilton is the son of Jas. Hamilton, 29 Orchard street.

HAVE YOU TRIED THE NEW TALCUM?

Orange Blossom ?

It's just delightful, and we want you to try it.

25c TWO SIZES 40c

Cairncross' the Chemists

216 Dundas Street. Phone 880.

BLIND JUSTICE DEALS BLOWS UPON LONDON WOMEN AND CHILDREN; LEFT DESTITUTE WHEN HUSBANDS ARE SENT TO PRISON AND FAMILY INCOME STOPS

Advertiser Reporter Finds Mrs. Frank Durrance and Children and Mrs. William Howie Facing Hopeless Outlook For Winter, Practically On Verge of Starvation After Breadwinners Are Sent To Be Punished for Offences—Old, Old Story of Innocent Suffering For the Sins of the Guilty.

Destitute and with absolutely no means of support, two London women, one with three small children, are facing a long winter without any coal and with no prospects of being able to procure any. This is the result of the demands of justice that their husbands be punished for having broken the laws of Canada.

Who is receiving the greater punishment? is the question that has been asked in connection with these two cases. Mrs. William Howie of 471 Elizabeth street has been deprived of her husband for a period of three years, and Mrs. Frank Durrance of 26 Euclid avenue is facing a six months' struggle without the protection of Frank Durrance.

Baby Died a Week Before.

Mrs. Durrance has no friends in the city. Her relatives live in Detroit. She with her husband has been living in London for about two years. He has never been in trouble before. During this time they have had much sickness, and death visited their home on the week preceding the arrest of Durrance. A little child about 17 months old passed away. It had not been well for over a year. There are three other children left, the eldest of whom is only four. The youngest is three months old. The husband made only fifteen dollars per week, and after paying twelve dollars per month rent and buying groceries there was little left for clothes. Consequently the children are in need of good warm clothing.

Mother Is Poorly Clothed.

Mrs. Durrance herself is also badly in need of suitable clothing. On account of the recent death following closely on the expenses in connection with the birth of the youngest child, they are two months behind in their rent. When her husband was arrested there was only fifty cents in the house with which to buy food for the three children and herself. She says that if it had not been for the kindness of the lawyer who defended Durrance she would have gone hungry.

Mrs. Durrance cannot say too much of the kindness extended to her by one of her neighbors, Mrs. W. F. Slann, 21 Euclid avenue, who has done all she could to lighten her burdens. When the child died Mrs. Slann assisted her in every way possible.

Ministers Do Not Call.

While they have been in the city for nearly two years, Mrs. Durrance says that the only time a minister has been near them was when one was called to conduct the funeral services of the kiddie that died. Neither he nor any other one, she says, has been to see her since.

Mrs. Durrance states that if she could secure some clothes for herself and children and some money for her fare, she could go to Detroit, where she has some friends. Once there she could leave her children during the day while she could work. In this way she would be enabled to make a living for herself and family until her husband is restored to her.

The Case of Mrs. Howie.

Mrs. William Howie, who is about 56 years old, has been in delicate health for a number of years, having been in the hospital more than half a dozen times for treatment. It is impossible for her to do anything by which she can make her living during the three years that her husband has been ordered in confinement. She says that he will be taken care of and sheltered from the wintry blasts and protected with warm clothing and given every care necessary, while she is left to take care of herself as best she can. She cannot understand the law that thus punishes her for her husband's misstep. Neighbors who have known the Howies for twelve years give them a good name. They have lived in this one house for this length of time and no one has a word to say against either one of them.

A Distressing Prospect.

Her resources are completely exhausted as she has been sick so much that they could not save any money. What she will do she does not know. There is no place that she can go for shelter for the next three years. While neighbors have been kind to her, they all have all they can do to take care of their own families.

Her two sons, both married, are in khaki and both served in the front line trenches. One is still there, while the other one has been invalided home. He has not been discharged yet, and it takes all the money he receives to keep his wife, who is in delicate health, and his family. Unless something is done for her, she will perish this winter from the cold, she fears.

The Advertiser, which has frequently urged in its editorial columns that some provision be made by means of which men placed behind bars might be paid for their work and their families supported, will be glad to hear from citizens interested in the above cases.

NEPHEW KILLED, TWO SONS WOUNDED

Corp. A. E. Edwards. Pte. J. B. Edwards. S.-M. H. Edwards. Pte. G. Edwards.

Sergt.-Major Harry Edwards, his two sons, Pte. John Bedford Edwards and Corp. A. G. Edwards, and his nephew, Pte. George. Edwards. Pte. George Edwards was killed in action on August 28, according to information received by his brother, Harry Edwards of Florence, Ont. Pte. Edwards was in the trenches with Major Edwards' eldest son, Pte. John Edwards, until the latter was wounded. A happy coincidence occurred when the two brothers with their father united at the home of Sergt.-Major Edwards' father in Brighton, while the boys were in "Blighty" convalescing.

CITY BREVITIES

NOONDAY PRAYER MEETING.—The noonday prayer meeting in Cronyn Hall, between 12:25 and 12:45 o'clock tomorrow, will be conducted by Rev. John Elder of Chelsea Green Presbyterian Church. The public is cordially invited.

CAMPAIGN DEFERRED.—The joint campaign for the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. will be held October 8, 9 and 10. At a meeting of directors last evening this decision was reached. The campaign was to have been held on October 3 and 4, but circumstances made a change desirable. The attention of all workers is directed to this change.

PETER TAFF IS ILL.—Peter Taff, a city employee, was taken seriously ill recently, which prevented him resuming his duties. Mr. Taff is well known about this city and up until recently resided at the Temperance House on King street. Upon taking sick he was removed to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Selby, York street.

NOT ORDAINED MINISTER.—Regarding the report that Rev. Mr. Hersey had been arrested at Windsor and brought here on a charge of being a defaulter under the military service act, Rev. Mr. Holmes, president of the London Conference, states that "Mr. Hersey is not an ordained Methodist minister, and does not claim to be so. He is a probationer and expected to be ordained next June."

DECIDE ON SYNOD FUNDS.—Final decision in regard to the investment of the synod funds it is expected will be made at the quarterly meeting of the executive of the Synod of the Diocese of Huron, which meets in Cronyn Hall on Thursday. Apart from this, the meeting will be devoted to routine business. Sixty clergymen and laymen of the diocese constitute this important committee.

"DONNYBROOK" NEXT WEEK.—Dorchester "Donnybrook" Fair will be held on Wednesday, October 2. The fair this year promises to be every bit as good if not better than former years, and new attractions have been arranged for. One of the bands from this city will attend the fair, and it is thought that many Londoners will also attend, owing to the excellent accommodation offered.

SECOND KHAKI DANCE.—The second khaki dance of the season was held on Tuesday evening in the Masonic Temple under the auspices of the Overseas Chapter, I. O. D. E. Two hundred couples spent a most enjoyable evening, and special music by the Tony Cortese Orchestra was much enjoyed. The sum of $80 was realized, which will be devoted to patriotic purposes. The conveners were Mrs. A. H. Clinger, Mrs. A. H. Croden and Miss Blanche Pigot.

SCOTSMAN IS SIGNED ON. — J. Coutts, a native of Scotland, and forwarded to this city from Detroit, was given category A2 and attached to the Canadian Engineers at the local mobilization centre yesterday. Only two volunteers were examined by the medical board and one was found unfit and allowed to return to his home. Two defaulters were also examined and attached to the W. O. R.

A PUBLIC-SPIRITED ACT.—"Safety first" is the motto recently adopted by Market Clerk Charles Maker, and as a result of this motto London motorists as well as others may approach and turn the dangerous curve at Blackfriars Bridge, Ridout street north, with a feeling of safety, something which formerly did not exist. The curve in the road at this point is very dangerous and was made much more so by the presence of many large trees which obstructed the view of the motorists as well as drivers of other vehicles and made it impossible to see if anything was on the curve until one was actually half way around it. The trees were on Mr. Maker's property, and thinking that some day a serious if not fatal accident might result, Mr. Maker cut down the trees. He stated that they were of no use as they were too high up on the bank to protect the bank from the water, and they were a nuisance. As well as lessening the danger of the curve the absence of the trees also gives the passerby a better and more unobstructed view of the surrounding countryside.

THIRTEEN GIRLS OF UTILITIES STAFF STRUCK YESTERDAY

Objected to Increased Hours Without More Pay.

Thirteen girls employed in the general office of the utilities commission went on strike for a short time yesterday afternoon and temporarily tied up the work of the office.

The trouble arose over an extension by one hour of the working time. When the utilities were located in the old offices the staff worked until 6 o'clock daily. On moving into the new offices, a change of system which had been planned for some time was introduced. It was believed that with this system the hours of the staff might be lessened, and Secretary O. Ellwood made the change accordingly. It has been going for some time. Recently Manager E. V. Buchanan heard of the change, and he ordered that the staff go back to the old hours and work until 6 instead of 5.

Trouble resulted. The girls received the order yesterday afternoon. They rebelled. They would only work until 6 o'clock on condition that they would receive more money. Manager Buchanan proved he could be a peacemaker as well as a strikemaker. He managed to bring about a settlement of the trouble, though the girls did not get the increase they asked for.

"They apologized for their action last evening," stated the manager.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

FUNERAL OF MISS KENNEDY.

The funeral of Miss Margaret Kennedy, 579 Talbot street, took place on Tuesday afternoon from the above address. The services, which were held at 2:30, were conducted by Rev. W. J. Knox of the First Presbyterian Church, after which interment was made in the Mount Pleasant Cemetery at 3 o'clock. The pallbearers were George Gillespie, Edward Reid, Archibald McPherson, R. G. Fisher, C. G. Jarvis and T. R. Allen.

REV. C. A. JEAKINS COMING. — Rev. C. A. Jeakins, president of the provincial headquarters of the Great War Veterans' Association, will speak at the harvest festival of St. James Anglican Church Thursday evening.

G. W. V. A. EXECUTIVE MEETS. A meeting of the executive committee of the Great War Veterans' Association was held in the board room last evening. The accounts were passed and business matters which will be discussed at the next meeting were brought before the executive.

DISCUSS NEW SCHEDULE.—Chas. G. Forrester, superintendent of the G. T. R.; R. E. Newcomer, trainmaster, and H. J. Brown, chief clerk, are in Toronto attending a meeting in connection with the increases granted the office and station staffs of the G. T. R., under the McAdoo award.

INVITE ITALIAN SCRIBES.—At present a large party of Italian journalists is in New York, guests of the United States Government, and a wide-awake Londoner, also visiting in New York, wired Mayor Somerville suggesting that the journalists should be asked to visit Canada and also that the mayor should take the matter up with the Government heads at Ottawa. An effort will be put forth by the mayor to carry out the suggestion.

MRS. GOODERHAM COMING.—Mrs. A. E. Gooderham, regent of the National Chapter, I. O. D. E., will attend the annual rally of the order in No. 1 Military District, to be held at Cronyn Hall on Wednesday, October 2nd. She is being asked to deliver an address, her inspiring messages of last year having been si highly appreciated by the I. O. D. E. workers in Western Ontario. She will be accompanied by Mrs. MacMurtry, head of the order in Toronto. A committee has been appointed to arrange for a luncheon for the out-of-town delegates to the rally, and the regents of the local chapters, the luncheon to be served at the noon-hour in Cronyn Hall. Mrs. J. M. McKillop has been secured as convener of the committee, which will also be responsible for serving afternoon tea at the close of the session.

METHODIST WOMEN WANT EQUAL RIGHTS IN CHURCH COURTS

Resolution Presented to the W. M. S. Meeting in London.

WOULD GIVE BAPTISM

Would Have Missionaries of Opposite Sex Given Added Powers.

Much discussion was brought about this morning at the Dominion Women's Missionary Society meeting at the First Methodist Church, over the reading of memorials and resolutions to be brought before the convention at some time during its session. Two of these were particularly interesting, which, however, have not as yet come before the meeting. One deals with a recommendation to be sent to the Methodist Church convention, asking that women be given equal rights with men in the church courts, and the other asks that women missionaries be permitted to administer the Sacrament of Baptism, as in many districts a male missionary is too far away to allow of his doing so, and as a consequence a Catholic priest must be called in.

Change Constitution.

A resolution which had been previously sent out to the various branches and which dealt with certain changes in branch constitution, which the majority of the branches opposed, was discussed. There was a great deal of uncertainty evidenced regarding the advisability of taking this as a final decision.

Mrs. Ross left the chair to offer her opinion, which was that the branches should be educated in this matter before the question was finally settled. As a result of the discussion it was decided by the meeting that the matter be left to the executive to deal with during the year, but that the decision of the majority of the branches be taken for this year.

It was also carried that the name of district organizer be changed to district superintendent, that an associate superintendent be appointed, and that both of these officers be elected by ballot at the district convention, this convention to consist only of delegated members and the district officers.

Statistical Report.

Several branch reports were read and statistical secretary's report given, showing as follows: Total auxiliaries, 1,310; total auxiliary membership, 46,104; associate members, 2,114; number of mission circles, 435; total circle membership, 11,753; number of mission bands, 641; band membership, 22,057; little light bearers, 5,891.

The receipts from mission circles amounted to $32,130.84; from mission bands, $22,586.25, and Easter thank offering, $37,544.84.

ALLENBY'S VICTORY DEPRIVED TURKS OF VIRTUALLY ALL GUNS

Destruction of Enemy's Seventh and Eight Armies Was Most Complete.

London, Sept. 25.—Detailed reports of operations in Palestine lag considerably behind events there. The latest reports from the accredited British correspondent, sent from Nabulas on Monday, emphasizes the astonishing thoroughness of the destruction of the 7th and 8th Turkish armies.

Remnants of these forces, which succeeded in crossing the Jordan River are isolated and are almost entirely without war material.

"There has been no more complete victory in history," the correspondent says. "Groups of men have been found sitting under white flags awaiting the acceptance of their surrender."

Aside from more than 260 guns captured, vast quantities of ammunition are lying everywhere, some munition depots covering acres of ground. It is reported that if the Turks try to raise new armies to replace those destroyed they must call on Germany to supply every gun and every instrument of war, as the Turks manufacture only small-arm ammunition.

The correspondent describes a remarkable spectacle around Balata. This area was strewn with wreckage of the retreat. Here alone the British captured 87 cannon, thousands of horse-drawn vehicles, hundreds of motor lorries and field kitchens, water carts and a mass of other impedimenta. This material mingled with thousands of bodies of Turks, Germans and horses, blocks the roads. Much of the destruction was wrought by airplanes, which swooped down upon the retreating columns and dropped bombs from a low altitude until whole columns became vast, broken masses of men. Those who escaped from death fled to the hills, abandoning everything. Many of these were captured by cavalry, while others sought refuge in the British lines.

We Make a Specialty of Our Truss Business

The fitting is done by those who understand fitting trusses. Different cases require different trusses. We carry a complete range for all cases.

STRONG'S DRUG STORE

184 Dundas St., London, Ont. x-tf

COMPENSATION ACT

Beneficiaries—Bring your claim papers here for completion. No charge for this service.

THE GEO. H. DAVIS INSURANCE AGENCY

208 Royal Bank Bldg. Phones 776-2922. xx

DANGER Don't let a cough or cold hang on to you. Get a bottle of KUR-A-KOF—the result is quick. Price 25c, at

Anderson & Nelles Drug Store yx

Bargains in Rocking-Horses

$13.00 Horses for $9.00
$9.00 Horses for $7.00
All Rocking-Horses at reduced prices.

AT THE FAIR.

15 Dominion Savings Building. Facing Market Square.

ABSENTEE DEALS COUNTY OFFICER UNKIND THRUST

Beats It To City and Gives Himself Up.

LOSES OUT ON REWARD

Constable Lost This Prisoner Through a Show of Too Much Confidence.

Pte. Wm. Hawkins, a member of the 1st Battalion, W. O. R., and a former resident of one of London's nearby towns, who was being searched for by members of the military police, boldly walked into camp, and gave himself up.

Pte. Hawkins has been in hiding in his own home town, and was arrested by the county constable of that district. The constable, on arresting the man, sent to London for an escort, which was speedily dispatched to bring the deserter back to this city.

When the escort arrived in the town, they were met by the constable, but the man failed to appear on the scene with him. On inquiring where they would find him, the officer commanding the escort was informed that when arrested Pte. Hawkins hadn't his putties on, and had asked leave to go and get them from his hiding place.

Seeing no harm in this the constable allowed him the privilege, and after waiting a considerable length of time the constable then proceeded to the house in which the arrested man had made his home, finding he had returned to the house and left without leaving any intimation as to where he could be found. The escort returned to London, but without the prisoner. On arriving home they were informed the man had returned to camp some few hours previous. The constable who made the arrest is now trying hard to extract the reward offered by the military authorities for the arrest of Pte. Hawkins. In doing this he finds himself confronted with a rather hard proposition, as the authorities are in doubt as to his claim.

SUB-CONTRACTS ON MILITARY HOSPITAL PLACED IN LONDON

Work Will Start Soon, Says Architect.

Already three London firms have secured sub-contracts for the erection of part of the buildings to compose the new "London View" Military Hospital in the southern part of the city.

The Government has so far awarded contracts for eight of the some 30 odd buildings that are to be erected.

A. B. Coleman, Toronto, secured a contract for six of these buildings, and he has sublet the contract for the concrete foundations to John Putherbough of London. "He will start work soon," says H. C. McBride, the architect. "We are waiting word from Ottawa."

Part of the plumbing and heating contracts have also been sublet to Noble and Rich, and Eggett & Co., London.

PROPOSAL MADE TO ERECT LARGE PLANT NEAR MINERAL BATHS

Joint Meeting Gives Option On City Property.

A joint meeting of the board of control and the finance committee was held this morning to consider an offer from a large factory in the city for the purchase of a tract of city property on Thames street, between the Mineral Baths and the King street bridge.

The company wishes to erect a large factory on the site, and will employ a large number of hands. The property in question is 100x200 feet. The company has also an option on a piece of adjoining property. The offer was made to give the city $2,500 for its tract.

After considering the matter, the joint meeting voted to accept the offer, and will give the company an option on it. A special meeting of the city council will be held on Friday morning to ratify the action of today's meeting. The city will have to make quite an expenditure to connect the property in question with sanitary sewers. Pumps will be necessary, because the property lies below the present sewer levels.

SUES TO RECOVER $500—An action to recover $500 damages has been entered in the county court by W. J. Roy against William and Eugene Egleton of St. Marys for injuries received by the plaintiff as a result of the alleged negligence of the defendants.

SMART FOOTWEAR IN CUSTOM EFFECT

Exceptionally handsome; the smartest New York fashions; full of dash and style.

Low heels with snug or straight tipped vamps. High heels with plain toes or imitation tips.

Brown—the deep shades now so popular. We suggest you choose yours while sizes are intact.

Here also are the newest styles in grey and bright and dull black kid. Materials and making the best.

Don't forget we are carrying new Oxfords in stock this fall. They do nicely with a pair of spats.

Ashplant's THE GOOD SHOE STORE

NO NEW PAPERS TO BE ALLOWED DURING THE WAR

Paper Controller To Bring Down Regulations To Conserve Newsprint.

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—The commencement of final argument by counsel, together with announcement by the paper controller, that he would announce his new price at the conclusion of it, featured today's morning session of the Canadian newsprint inquiry.

The paper controller also announces that he will soon bring down new regulations for the conservation of newsprint paper in Canada. It will be on lines similar to those imposed at Washington. No new morning or evening papers will be permitted for the duration of the war.

A new and higher price will likely be announced some time this afternoon.

George H. Montgomery, K. C., chief counsel for the newsprint manufacturers, spoke at great length on the system that should be followed in basing the allowance of capitalization required per ton of output, and at which rate of return should be allowed. He maintained that at least $36,000 per ton ton should be allowed for invested capital.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

FUNERAL OF MRS. FRALEIGH.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Fraleigh took place Tuesday from her late residence, 52 St. George street, at 2:30 o'clock to the St. John's Cemetery, where interment was made at 3 o'clock. Services were conducted at the house at 2:30, after which the body was taken to the St. John's Methodist Church, where services were again conducted. Rev. Archdeacon J. B. Richardson conducted the services. The palibearers were W. Eatlake, F. Bernard, W. Bernard, E. McNabb, J. Hawkins and G. Walker. The funeral was largely attended by many friends and relatives and the floral offerings were many.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING SUPPER AND CONCERT

The Knollwood Park Presbyterian Church held its annual thanksgiving supper and concert on Tuesday evening. The building was packed to the doors. The ladies of the congregation served a well-prepared super from 6:30 to 8 o'clock, and after supper a fine musical program was rendered by the following artists: Misses Forbes, Guy and Metcalfe, and Messrs. McCutcheon, Forbes, Hyslop and Ballantyne. Miss Tanner also gave two readings, which received hearty applause.

F. Linforth Willgoose acted as accompanist. Rev. James MacKay of New St. James' Church presided. The chairman called on Professor Patterson for a few words. Mr. Patterson spoke briefly, informing those present that the proposed new church was to be started immediately. He assured the people that although there had been some delay in getting started that he was in hopes of seeing them in the new building bf Christmas.

Rev. A. F. Webster, the minister, who is leaving shortly, thanked the people for their help and co-operation in his work amongst them, and asked that the same support be given his successor, Rev. Mr. Curtle. Regret that Mr. Webster was leaving was expressed on all sides.

After a pleasant and profitable evening spent, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. James MacKay.

YOUNG AND AGED ARE HARVESTING CROPS OF FRANCE

Crudest Appliances Brought Into Use in Many Cases.

RECORD-BREAKING YIELD

Spirit of Poilus Remains as Firm as Ever Under Difficulties.

With the Canadian Forces, Aug. 22.—(By J. F. B. Livesay, correspondent of the Canadian Press, Limited).—The French people have a wonderful crop, and they garner it in the same spell of fine weather that has enabled us to reap the full fruits of our victory. But they garner it with old men and women and children. They garner with bent backs and stumbling feet, and with the crudest appliances. Here and there is a binder, and more often a mower, but everywhere is the swish of the scythe, and even of the sickle, and women following, binding sheaves with straw plaits, just as did the farmers of Ontario and Quebec a generation ago.

There are no blue-coated soldiers working in the fields of France. They reap silently in other fields.

In these brief weeks villages so recently impregnable strongholds, are stormed every day.

Spirit of the French.

Of greater interest is the spirit of the French soldiers, from whose soul speaks the ardent voice of France. Our guide is explaining the difficulties of the attack up the valley, past hidden machine gun positions of steel and concrete.

"We hardly hoped to succeed here," he says, "but it is a demonstration in aid of our advance further south." He is wrong, for later in the afternoon the good news comes that the village is stormed. "Yes, they have given us a tough corner, but then someone has to have it."

We are standing on top of an observation post, built by the Germans among the trees on the side of the hill. Below in the valley lies a shattered village and its ruined church. "It is horrible to see all this," one says, "and to think that we in Canada have escaped scot free—only the lives of our men." "Ah," says the French officer guide, "but is not sorrow a strength to the character, a completion of experience. Shall not we emerge a strong nation for it all?"

"On to Berlin."

We are in a trench examining a bayonet, a beautiful rapier-like piece of polished steel. "How much more artistic you are," one cannot help saying. This weapon is equally effective as our own, but what a thing of beauty it is. And your camouflage is art, suiting itself perfectly to the changing aspects of soil and country, while ours is a monotony of rule of thumb, which hits or misses the mark indifferently as the case may be."

"That may be so," he replies, "but you have your admirable perseverance. To each nation its own qualities. To the Hun that of the beast."

Of saddened countenance is the French soldier. The tragedy of war has transmuted the once merry fellow. They lack, too, the outward smartness of our infantry. But the spirit is there. "On to Berlin!" we cry to a soldier in passing. He lights up at once. "That is the perfect word, monsieur," he says with a grin.

DUKE'S SECOND GRANDCHILD.

Montreal, Sept. 25.—The second grandchild of the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire was born yesterday at Elmwood, Cartierville, when a daughter was born to Capt. and Lady Maud Mackintosh. Both mother and daughter are reported to be doing well.

GLOVE COMPANY SECURES NEW FACTORY BUILDING ON RICHMOND ST. NORTH

Hall Dent Concern Will Have a New Plant.

The Hall Dent Canada Company, glove manufacturers, will spend $4,000 remodelling the building on the corner of Pall Mall and Richmond streets, formerly occupied by the Belton Lumber Company, into a large factory. A permit to carry on this work was issued by Building Inspector Piper this morning, and will start at once.

Col. W. M. Gartshore took out a permit to remodel a house on Marley Place at a cost of $1,400.

Mrs. R. Webster, Oxford street, will remodel a house on Oxford street, at a cost of $700.

J. A. Stone, 518 Dufferin avenue, will remodel his dwelling and put in new floors, at a cost of $500.

TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE.

[Reported by Edward Cronyn & Co.]

Toronto, Sept. 25.

	Asked.	Bid.		Asked.	Bid.
Am Cy..	40	40	do pfd.	40	..
Ames, c.	27½	25	Spanish.	15	14
do pfd.	71½	..	Ft Chem.	20	17½
Barcel..	12	11	do pfd.	67½	..
Brazilian	44	43¾	Stl Can..	72½	72¼
B C Fish	43¾	..	do pfd.	97	96½
Burt, c..	63½	..	Tooke..	28	25
do pfd.	84¾	..	Tor Ry.	60	59
C Car..	36	34	Tre'wey.	25	..
do pfd.	85	84	Tucketts	22	21
Cement.	68½	68	Tw City.	46	45
do pfd.	94¾	94¼	Wm Ry.	48	..
C S L...	47	46½	Banks—
do pfd.	76¾	75½	Com'rce	185½	185½
CGElec.	102	101	Dom ..	202	..
C Loco..	66	64½	Hamil'n	188	..
C Dairy..	86	86	Imperial.	..	185
do pfd.	..	83¼	NScotia	248	..
ConLife	325	..	Ottawa	201	..
Coniagas	..	250	Royal ..	208	..
Con Gas.	148	146	Stand ..	200	..
Cr Nest.	55	..	Toronto	187	..
Canners.	37	34	Union...	..	154½
do pfd.	71	66	Loans, etc.—
Dome ..	350	910	C Land.	148¾	..
DSteelC.	62¾	62	C Perm.	..	164
Duluth..	41	..	C Invest.	..	64
La Rose.	54	53	H Prov.	..	133
Mackay.	76½	74½	H & E..	204	..
do pfd.	..	64	20% pd.	196	..
M Leaf.	126	..	L Bank.	..	140
do pfd.	98	95¾	L & C ..	126½	..
Monarch ..		45	T Trust.	..	200
do pfd.	80	..	T Mort..	134	..
N S Car ..	8	8	Bonds—
do pfd.	36½	34	C Bread.	90	89½
Nipis'g.	925	900	C Loco..	90	..
NSteel.	67½	66½	D Iron..	..	85
P Burt..	34	..	Elec Dev	85	84½
do pfd.	77¾	..	M L & P	40	30
Penmans	81	80½	Penmans	..	85
do pfd.	89	87	Ontario.	..	76
Petrol.	1400	1350	Rio Jan.	..	83
P Paper.	50	..	Stl Can..	..	93
Quebec..	19	18	Spanish.	80	..
Riordon	121½	120½	War Loan.
Russell..	90	86	1925...	96¾	96½
do pfd.	93	90	1931...	95¾	95½
Sawyer..	25	..	1937...	94⅞	94¾

Toronto, Sept. 25.—Morning sales: Brazilian, 55 at 44; Barcelona, 10 at 11¾; Steel of Canada, pfd., 5 at 97; Canadian Car, pfd., 20 at 85; National Steel Car, 50 at 83¼; Dominion Steel, 30 at 62⅝@62¾; Spanish River, 25 at 14½; Maple Leaf, pfd., 8 at 96@96¾; Cement, pfd., 10 at 94½; Bank of Commerce, 2 at 185; War Loan, 1925, $100 at 96⅜; do, 1937, $10,200 at 94¼@94⅜.

MONTREAL STOCK EXCHANGE.

Montreal, Sept. 25.—Morning sales: Ames, pfd., 35 at 44¼; Steamships, 210 at 76⅜; Dominion Bridge, 125 at 62½; Dominion Steel, 40 at 96¾; Dominion Textile, 2245 at 183@184½; Maple Leaf, 56 at 87; Power, 25 at 66⅞; Nova Scotia Steel, 25 at 106½; Quebec Railway, 410 at 12¼@12½; Riordon, 200 at 117; Shawinigan, 157 at 140@141¼; Spanish River, 100 at 51@52; Wayagamack bonds, $1,000 at 96¼; War Loan, 1925, $18,000 at 95½; do, 1937, $13,000 at 94¼.

STANDARD STOCK AND MINING EXCHANGE.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, Sept. 25.—Morning sales: McIntyre, 500 at 147; Vacuum Gas, 1000 at 6½; Rockwood, 2500 at 32, 1500 at 32; Bailey, 1000 at 4; Gifford, 3000 at 2⅝; Hattie, 500 at 60; Hudson Bay, 10 at 17, 2 at 18; Temiskaming, 500 at 30½; Porcupine Crown, 1000 at 15½; Tretheway, 500 at 23¼.

THE TANK "TORONTO"

Advertiser Illustrations

Canadians advancing with their tank in territory which a few hours before was in possession of the enemy. Note the maple leaf and the name "Toronto" on the tank.—Copyright, Canadian War Records.

THE OPEN FORUM OF THE PEOPLE

Observant Advertiser Readers With a Grievance, a Suggestion For Reform, a Good Word—Yes, and Sometimes a Grouch, State Their Views on Topics of the Hour in City and Nation and All Creation.

PUTS IT UP TO THE G. W. V. A.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

For the purpose of information we would respectfully inquire why it is that the Great War Veterans' Association does not officially criticize or condemn the silly suggestions and statements made by misinformed women re the boys overseas.

For many moons there have been absurd statements made regarding cigarettes, etc., and only last week Mrs. Lawson, of the W. C. T. U., stepped outside the bounds of common-sense to suggest that "sweets" be sent to the boys in the trenches in lieu of cigarettes.

The latest wail from Toronto sent by Mrs. Stevens of the Women's Christian Union, claiming that the boys should not be allowed to take unto themselves blushing English brides, is placing the young womanhood of Canada in a ridiculous position in the eyes of the world, and will undoubtedly be resented by them through the columns of the press.

But it is only natural that returned men should look to the G. W. V. A. to take up the cause of the boys overseas, and expose the folly of those misguided women to the public.

There is a persistent rumor that the local branch of the G. W. V. A. contains a majority of men who have yet to see the front line trenches, and that the remunerative positions inside the association are filled by men not entitled to the Class A button, and who have no real, comradely interest in the boys in the trenches.

A bylaw recently passed which doubles the entrance fee of returned men wishing to join the association in meeting with severe criticism from those who "stuck," and the silence of the G. W. V. A. on vital matters concerning the boys "over there" is being strongly condemned on all sides.

If you will kindly allow space for the G. W. V. A. to explain its attitude in this matter, we feel sure that it could be published under the caption, "Pro bono public." Sincerely yours,

FRED YOUNG.

THE HUN MUST PAY.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

More power to our gallant Canadian army that thus express themselves and declare that the account cannot be liquidated until the enemy has been driven out of France and Belgium and ample reparation made.

Justice calls for punishment adequate to meet the crimes of the barbarians known as Huns. Let there be no let-up until such times as these monsters bite the dust, is the earnest wish of a good English-Canadian.

CONSTANT READER.

SPEAKS UP FOR THE ENGLISH GIRLS.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

In reading your paper on Saturday I noticed a piece in it about the women of Toronto uttering a protest about the Canadian soldiers marrying the English girls when going on leave. I would like to ask these women a question: How many of the so-called Canadian boys are English? Why, 90 per cent of them are, especially the first contingent, who were all English, and I think these women should mind their own business and not butt into the soldiers' affairs, telling them who they should marry and who they should not. If the truth were known, I guess those women have three or four daughters apiece, and they are afraid that if the boys marry all the girls in England their girls will be left without a man, and, therefore, be left on their mothers' hands, and then they will have to keep them. Poor girls, I feel so sorry for them. Yours truly,

A READER OF THE ADVERTISER.

A REPLY TO BISHOP FALLON.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Having read the press reports of Bishop Fallon's sermon delivered at high mass in St. Peter's Cathedral on Sunday last in defence of the pope's neutrality in the war, please allow me space in your widely-circulated paper for a few friendly observations thereon.

It is noticeable that the worthy bishop in his introduction cites once more the hackneyed New Testament texts always relied upon by the Catholic Church to confirm the faithful in the doubtful dogma of the primacy of Peter as the rock upon which Christ's Church was to be established. Does this not seem at least to cast doubts upon the church's honest sincerity? If Catholics are so cocksure of their Scripture ground, why parade these texts at every crisis in their church's life, just as if they would re-examine the foundations of their faith? The master-builder does not uncover the foundation stones of his house now and then to see if they are secure and all in their places. These texts have often been examined from the Protestant standpoint in the light of Catholic claims, and their sweeping claims disproved. They are necessarily based upon a mere mechanical interpretation of the metaphorical and sometimes even ambiguous language of Jesus, and need not be further pursued here.

In seeking to follow the worthy bishop in his defence of the pope we may well overlook the charge often made that his holiness in his attitude to the warring powers was not strictly impartial in his neutrality. We can understand in such a strenuous conflict how each side ever and anon would complain of the friendliness of the pope to their enemies. I am afraid, however, that Bishop Fallon, whether intentionally or otherwise I do not know, is obscuring the real issue from a religious standpoint, at least by emphatic denials and loud bluster regarding the pope's "partial" neutrality. Why, it may be asked, is the pope, who assumes to be the vicar of Jesus Christ and head of his church, and therefore by implication a fearless champion of righteousness and truth, neutral at all, when a great moral issue involving the liberties and lives of millions of men, women and children is at stake? When Germany, after 30 years in war preparation and building up a world-wide commerce as a necessary adjunct thereto in the height of her military pride and insolence, ruthlessly drove her armies deep into neutral Belgium and France, literally crucifying the former by the use of every horror that fiends could devise or armed millions carry out against the weak and helpless—why did this champion of righteousness not smite the cruel invader and ruthless despoiler with the very breath of his mouth, and brand him forever with the red mark of Cain that could never be erased? Why? The bishop does not answer. Was it not because all this orgy of unrestrained lust, murder, pillage and lying political chicanery piled up by this international bully and outcast in the four years of the war was really of secondary importance, in the eyes of the pope, to the task of maintaining the fiction of the political integrity of the Roman Catholic hierarchy? The pope in maintaining his neutrality in face of this world-wide holocaust of crime was merely serving notice on the world that the Vatican was the seat of a sovereign power, and as such it must observe international ethics and etiquette—just like Holland or Switzerland. This, it seems to me, is tacitly admitted by Bishop Fallon when he asserts, "Peter is on the throne of justice," and expresses astonishment that the pope should be asked to give a decision before the different sides of the case were in true judicial fashion brought before him.

When all this orgy of murder and villainy is over; when all the fire-blasted cities and shell-pitted country-sides are recovered; when the victorious Allied armies march with resolute stride to the thunder of the world's acclaim to the very gates of Berlin—who will be the judge and avenger? Will it be the crafty and supine "Peter," still watching for a purposeless judicial investigation, or will it be the great powers who fought to the death the monster who would despoil the world of its liberties, backed up by a long-suffering and enraged humanity?

PROTESTANT.

London, Ont., Sept. 1918.

WOULD CHOCOLATES CHEER THEM UP?

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Have you noticed the little note in the London Free Press from Mrs. Jones, president of the local W. C. T. U., whereby the said society still expresses itself opposed to "smokes" for the boys over there? (Don't it make you laugh?)

Talk about the upkeep of their morale, oh, gosh! I would just like to see this estimable Mrs. J. in the mud and slime with the profile of some Hun (who was killed in 1914) looking at her from a background of bloody sandbanks, and nothing but the talk of going over the top on everyone's lips, big Berthas smashing around, above and below.

And here's where we pass the chocolates! Oh! I guess she would more than prayerfully resolve to try and support the boys over there.

Now, with all due respect to the W. C. T. U. constitution, it is the general idea and firm conviction of nearly all of the boys who have seen service that the members are ignorant of the condition of affairs in the argument zone of Flanders. I know whereof I speak, for I have been over there.

ONE OF THE ORIGINAL 18TH.

London, Sept. 21, 1918.

TOOK REWARD FROM WIDOW.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Mrs. Dust, a war widow, residing on Chesley avenue, lost her widow's badge at the fair, and advertised in the papers, offering a reward. It was found by a returned soldier, and friends of Mrs Dust are anxious to know who he was.

His name was ——. He was a member of the same battalion as Mrs. Dust's husband, and is now on the reserve of the R. F. C.

I was talking to him a few days ago in the National barber shop, and he showed me the badge, and said he was going to take it down to Mrs. Dust's home.

He was given one dollar, and he ACCEPTED it.

I consider him to be the most despicable person, nothing short of an imbecile who considers himself a Great War veteran, and yet would accept the money from a war widow for returning her badge.

I can safely say without fear of contradiction that he is not a war veteran, but one who was discharged as a minor and not even entitled to wear the G. W. V. A. badge.

He is now in the R. F. C., Toronto, having shown me his transportation and order to report to that unit seven or eight days ago.

ORIGINAL 18TH MAN.

THE BOARD OF TRADE AND THE CRAFTSMAN.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I was glad to see the announcement in your valued journal that the London Board of Trade was to make a drive for life and usefulness. While we wish well to all our neighboring towns and cities, it is somewhat discouraging to see them getting so many of the new factories and businesses that are being planted all through this western peninsula, and London, the most-favored location in Ontario, getting so few. It is a good time for a drive, and I hope that it will prove a success and lead to big things for our good city.

We are and have to be an industrial community, and a real get-together board of trade that would make for development and progress would need to include representatives of all branches of our industrial life—the capitalist who puts his money into the different enterprises, the businessman who organizes and manages the industries, and the craftsman who turns out the manufactures of London to compete with any in the markets of the world.

I want to see some of these craftsmen on the new board of trade. While not represented by so many dollars, they are as vitally interested in the progress and welfare of this, our home, as any citizen is. No doubt some of the craftsmen's unions would be pleased to supply membership fees and send worthy representatives to the board. Such getting together would certainly redound to the industrial progress of the city, and give all hands a broader knowledge of and kindlier interest in the "other fellow," and his work.

ONE OF THE WORKERS.

HERE'S A PROBLEM.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

A has 200 colonies of bees, which produced five tons of honey. He takes all their honey away from them intending to replace it with granulated sugar, the only substitute. He is unable to buy a sufficient quantity of sugar, although he has an order from the food controller. He says that he will sell the honey and let the bees starve, because the honey is worth more than the bees. Will the law allow him to do such a cruel thing, or will he be arrested for cruelty to animals? Yours truly,

AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

Glencoe, Sept. 23, 1918.

A RETURNED MAN ON PENSIONS.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I am a returned soldier to this city and on meeting several of my comrades, they have a great grievance with the authorities for unfairness. After spending, some of them two to three years in France, the same as myself, having been badly wounded, coming home here and having treatment and ushered in front of boards, not knowing what conclusions they come to regarding their pensions or discharge, they are put into civil life unfit for work and have to go and fight out things concerning their pensions, etc. Other wars have taught us it is not enough to provide the returned wounded or invalided soldier with an occupation and to leave him there. He requires the sustained assistance of the community obviously. He will need a pension to place him on a level financially with others. It has been found out in the majority of cases that the full effects of wounds and exposure will not develop until some time later, in some cases months, in others years. It is for the people of the Empire to see that measures of assistance are so elastic that they will allow for this. At the present moment, with the evidences of heroism before us, we all feel determined to do the right thing. But hot fits are sometimes followed by cold spells. Let us today put the matter on a permanent footing so that when the cold spell comes the wounded men shall not suffer. This is not a question of generosity; it is a question of justice and the country's honor.

No one to my mind doubts Dr. Belton or the Government, but that Canada's full total disability pension is the highest of the Allies, but is there one in a hundred that ever receives this full pension that he displays. As we are not all so lucky as one man we know in this city who not only got a full pension but a contract for $5,000 a year for ten years as pension commissioner, and supposed to be totally disabled. To my mind the present schedule of pensions is most unfair to men who have seen long service in France, suffering from exposure, nerve strain and wounds, and then come home and the majority of us only receive a very small percentage of that big $600 he boasts of.

The old scale of pensions was more fair to the man than the present named, where a lot of men get the full benefit of $480 for a few months after coming home all battered up. I feel no broad-minded ratepayer would ever begrudge a soldier of a few months on return of a full pension to help him back to health and strength to once again fight for a livelihood. I would like to hear the opinions of a few of our taxpayers on this question.

A RETURNED SOLDIER.

LAMBETH FAIR DRAWS MANY LONDON FOLK

"The biggest and best fair yet," is the story which comes in today from Lambeth, where the annual fair is in progress. The directors were jubilant this morning over the fine weather provided, and so were the crowds who had assembled from the countryside for miles around and gone out from the city for the grand big September day picnic. Before 10 o'clock this morning three cars loaded with people had gone out from London on the London and Lake Erie line. Special cars are being put on this afternoon and evening to bring back the fair day visitors.

A big marquee has been erected to house the exhibits, the "best ever" of fruits and roots, cooking, needlework, war time preserving, etc. Never before has so much money been allocated for prizes.

The races are, as usual at the Lambeth fair, a big feature. Competition is especially keen this year. Two horses which won first and second place at Bothwell last week, owned by I. T. Harris and J. C. Walker are entered in the same race today. Other horses which have made records this year have been brought from Shedden, Middleboro, etc.

The Lambeth Red Cross is reaping a big harvest from fair day. Taking advantage of the occasion to augment their funds, the members have set up a booth on the grounds where they are doing a bumper business in serving lunches, sandwiches, tea, coffee, fruit, the home-made cookery for which the Lambeth women are famed. The hotel has also been taxed to the utmost to meet demands for meals and in addition, numbers of people have solved the problem of eating by bringing along their lunches and combining a picnic with the fair attractions.

Cocoanut Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Advt.

ADVERTISER GRADUATE FIGURES IN PURCHASE OF WINNIPEG PAPER

Charles O. Smith One of Those to Control Telegram.

IS A STRONG LIBERAL

Associated With Davidson of Vancouver World and the Saskatoon Phoenix.

According to a dispatch received from Winnipeg, the Winnipeg Evening Telegram has been sold to "Davidson and Smith" of Port Arthur, Ontario. The Smith of the partnership is a well-known former Londoner, who, early in his newspaper career, was associated with the staff of The Advertiser, Charles O. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith of 418 King street. Negotiations for the sale of the Telegram, which have been under way for the past two weeks, were concluded on Tuesday when the directors of the Telegram ratified the sale. The purchasers are well known in the publishing business, being now owners of the Port Arthur Chronicle, the Vancouver Daily World and Saskatoon Phoenix, leading western newspapers.

Mr. Smith was for a time in advertising work in Winnipeg before becoming associated with the Port Arthur Chronicle. Some years ago, he received the Liberal nomination for Port Arthur for the House of Commons.

Possession of the Phoenix was acquired some six months ago and he has been in Saskatoon in the meantime, directing the policy of the paper.

Since the Winnipeg Telegram resumed publication after a disastrous fire in its plant a couple of months ago, it has remained under the direction of Hon. Robert Rogers, according to the Winnipeg wire.

SERGEANT CAMERON, FORMER LONDONER, KILLED IN ACTION

Son of Lud. K. Cameron, Formerly of Advertiser Staff.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Montreal, Sept. 25.—A well-known Toronto newspaperman who has spent several years in Montreal as eastern representative of the Toronto Saturday Night, was Sergt. W. J. Cameron, familiarly known as "Bill" Cameron, who was killed in action in France on September 2nd. Sergt. Cameron had lived in Toronto for 25 years. The son of Lud K. Cameron, former King's Printer for the province of Ontario, and formerly of The Advertiser, he enlisted in 1916 with the 208th Battalion, known as the Irish Canadians, raised in Toronto, and upon arrival in England reverted from sergeant to private in order to get to France. He was 30 years of age, and was born in London, Ont.

He went to France in March last. His brother, Kenneth Cameron, has twice been mentioned in the casualty list, and his sister Gladys is serving overseas as a nurse.

MEMORY OF SIR GEO. GIBBONS HONORED BY CANADIAN CLUB

Members Pay Tribute to Their First President.

The Canadian Club at its luncheon last night paid tribute to the memory of Sir George Gibbons, the club's first president.

It fell to the lot of C. B. Edwards, a past president, to move the resolution expressing the sincere sorrow of the club at his demise. B. C. McCann, another past president, seconded the motion. Mr. Edwards pointed out that Sir George was present at the last meeting of the club.

On the call of President A. A. Campbell the huge gathering arose as one and paid silent tribute to the first pilot of the club.

The resolution follows:

"That the president and members of the London Canadian Club take this opportunity of expressing their sincere sorrow at the recent decease of Sir George C. Gibbons, the first president of the club.

"The success of the club has been due in no small degree to the desire of its founders, chief among whom was its first president, that its members, irrespective of creed, class or political affiliations, should unite in the promotion of a more kindly public spirit and a better understanding of civic and national ideals.

"His private, social and civic virtues were the natural expression of his innate kindness of heart, and his earnest wish to serve his fellows and his beloved country. His magnetic personality and his great talents were freely devoted to patriotic and national service.

"His memory will always remain as a worthy example of a truly great man and as a precious possession of his fellow members of the Canadian Club.

"And it is hereby resolved that this resolution be entered in the minutes of the club and a copy be forwarded to his family."

CROWN PRINCE OF RUMANIA GIVEN C. B. FOR 75 DAYS

Punishment Claimed To Be For Marrying Without Father's Consent.

Amsterdam, Sept. 24.—Crown Prince Charles of Rumania has been punished by his father, as commander-in-chief of the army, with close confinement for 75 days for "transgression of military regulations," according to an official telegram from Jassy by way of Berlin. The crown prince began his sentence yesterday.

"The validity of the actions which led to his arrest will be investigated, and such measures as are required by the interest of the country and the dynasty will be taken," the dispatch adds.

MARRIED WITHOUT SANCTION.

London, Sept. 25.—Reports have been received here of the arrest of Crown Prince Charles of Rumania. It is believed here that the crown prince is being disciplined because, according to a report which reached London a few days ago, he went to Odessa about September 15, and without the sanction of the king, married Miss Zyzis Lambrino, a Rumanian, who has no claim of royal blood.

INSPECTOR RAIDS MARKET AND FINDS POTATOES TOO LIGHT

Six Bags Alleged To Be Under 90 Pounds.

The first offender under the new law recently enforced at the local market regarding the weights of the different articles offered for sale was discovered Tueday by John W. McCallum, city relief and license inspector. Mr. McCollum seized six bags of potatoes which were being offered for sale by the man, all of which were under weight, ranging from 74½ pounds to 80 pounds. The regulation weight without the bag is 90 pounds.

A charge was laid against the man at the police court, and he will be summoned to court in the near future. The potatoes were confiscated and turned over to a charitable institution.

ANOTHER CHURCH IS BEING REARED IN NORTH SECTION

Contracts Let For Knollwood Park Edifice.

OBJECTIVE IS INCREASED

Presbyterian Congregation Will Endeavor To Secure $5,000 Instead of $3,000.

Excavation begins this week for the new Knollwood Park Presbyterian Church, the building to be proceeded with at once. W. G. Murray is the architect and contracts have been let as follows: For brickwork, to John Moran & Sons; carpentry, L. H. Martin & Co.; plastering, John Fenn; painting, Lewis Bros. The contracts for electrical work and galvanized iron will be awarded later.

A discussion in regard to the advisability of postponing the erection of the new church until spring took place this week at a meeting of the London Presbyterian Council. After the advisability was pointed out of getting the church finished as early as possible for the future interests of the work in that section of the city, it was unanimously decided to go ahead without further delay.

Raise Mark to $5,000.

More than this, the council decided to make an effort to raise $5,000 of the $8,000 estimated as the requirement for the new building, among the Presbyterian congregations of the city, instead of the $3,000 originally set as the objective. The necessity was fully recognized of securing the strongest finance committee obtainable to advise in regard to the canvass. Three of London's leading businessmen were named for the responsible position of advisors, G. M. Reid, Lieut.-Col. W. M. Gartshore and John M. Moore, the council expressing implicit confidence in the soundness of their judgment. Associated with these will be Vivian Reeve, A. S. McGregor and David Ross.

Ready for Christmas.

It is hoped to have the church ready for opening by Christmas time. The idea in planning the present building is to have one which will be adapted to be converted into a church school when the growth of the congregation in years to come necessitates a larger church.

FIVE HUNDRED MEMBERS CANADIAN CLUB'S AIM

President Says Hope is to Double Membership.

The membership of the London Canadian Club is now 250. President A. A. Campbell announced last night that the names of several new members had been handed in and there were many others coming forward. The hope of the officers of the club was that by October 1 the club's membership will reach the 500 mark. Slips were passed around at the luncheon last evening. Members signed the attendance blank and prospective members another blank. This gave the club a good list of prospective members to work on.

FAMOUS MONUMENT IS PRESENTED TO THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT

London, Sept. 25.—Stonehenge, the famous Druid monument, which has always been in the hands of private owners, has been presented to the British nation by C. H. E. Chubb, who purchased it in 1916. The Government has accepted the gift, and henceforth will be responsible for its preservation.

Society Brand Clothes

Made in Canada

© A. D. & C.

YOU won't have to puzzle over picking out the right suit or overcoat if you will ask to try on Society Brand. These clothes fit so well and look so good you'll know right away they are what you want. The label is our pledge to you of unqualified satisfaction.

All the new attractions are shown in our Fall and Winter Style Book. Write for it.

SOCIETY BRAND CLOTHES, LIMITED, CANADA
ALFRED DECKER & COHN, UNITED STATES
CHICAGO NEW YORK MONTREAL

STYLE HEADQUARTERS
Where Society Brand Clothes are sold

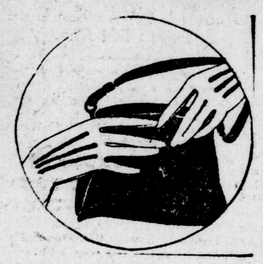

BY looking at clothes you can't tell what is in them, or how they are made. And in these times you are more dependent on the Society Brand label than ever before. It's the maker's pledge of satisfaction and your way of knowing that you are getting style that will last and shape that will hold until the fabric is worn out. In Society Brand the workmanship is carried to a farther degree of excellence than probably in any other clothes.

London St. Thomas R. H. & J. Dowler, Limited Windsor Sarnia

THE STORE WITH THE STOCK

"Style Headquarters"—Where Society Brand Clothes are sold

Why Kayser Gloves Are Recognized As a Standard In Fabric Gloves

When we first opened our London store we searched the market for what we considered the best silk glove—dollar for dollar. We chose Kayser Gloves because of the quality and weight of the silk, which made for endurance, their expert workmanship, which bespoke perfect fitting.

While made in Canada, the scarcity of raw material has necessitated an increase in price—this has been done rather than lower their quality.

In selling KAYSER GLOVES we sell also complete satisfaction.

SILK GLOVES .....85c to $1.50
CHAMOISETTE .....$1.10 and $1.25

BRICK & DUNDAS, LIMITED

JIMMY COON STORIES

By Dr. Warren G. Partridge.
Copyright 1917 by George Matthew Adams.

THE HUNTERS COULDN'T GET TEDDY POSSUM.

The hunters, boys, and big dogs surrounded that beech tree, but Teddy Possum was inside, safe for a time at least. Teddy heard the axe on the outside of that tree, and he said to himself, "Now I must climb to the top of this hollow beech tree, and see how I can fool all these seven enemies of mine."

And soon the two boys yelled out, with great shouts, "See the Possum in the top of the tree! Can we climb the tree and shake him off?"

"Yes," replied the old hunter, "you two boys climb up the tree at once, and shake off that little scamp; and we men and dogs will catch him when he falls to the ground."

And the two boys climbed the tree quickly, and Teddy Possum climbed out on a long branch, near the top of the tree. And the two boy hunters shook that branch on which Teddy was standing; but they couldn't budge Teddy Possum.

Why do you suppose two strong boys couldn't shake off one little Possum? Why, you see, Teddy Possum had five hands really, with which to hold on to that limb of the tree. Each of his four feet, you remember, is much like a boy's hand; and his big toe is much like your thumb. So you see, Teddy Possum has really four hands for his four feet. And then that rope-like tail of his was wound twice around that limb. And you would have laughed to have seen those two strong boys getting red in the face, and puffing for breath, as they shook and shook that limb.

But Teddy was having lots of fun, for he was being swung on that branch, as if in a swing or a hammock! And Teddy Possum grinned from ear to ear, as he watched those hard-working boys. And he said to himself, "My, ain't those two boys kind to give me such a nice swing! It's great fun to have such a nice 'tester' way up in this beech tree!"

The three men did not shoot, because they wanted to take the Possum home alive and keep him for Thanksgiving Day. And the big dogs kept dancing and leaping around that tree; and you would have thought their throats would have been sore from roaring so loudly. The three men and the two dogs were close to the tree. And what do you suppose suddenly happened?

Tomorrow—Teddy Possum Fooled The Hunters.

Teddy Was Having Lots of Fun.

Daily Bible Question Club

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE UNIFORM LESSON FOR SUNDAY.
SEPTEMBER 29, 1918.
ONE GOLDEN TEXT SUGGESTION.
By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.

Review—What It Means To Be a Christian. Selection for reading: I John iii:1-24.

The questions for this week may be used as an original lesson or as a review of the twelve preceding weekly lessons. The date and title of each lesson, where found, golden text, and one question selected from each lesson follow during the present week.

QUESTIONS FOR TODAY.

August 4—GROWING STRONGER. Luke ii., 42-52; II. Peter i., 5-8. Golden Text: The path of the righteous is as a dawning light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.—Proverbs iv., 18.

5.—II. Peter i., 5-8. What is essential in order that a Christian may grow in grace?

August 11—HELPING OTHERS. Luke x., 25-37; Galatians vi., 1-10. Golden Text: Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.—Galatians vi., 2.

6.—Verses 25-28. Why did Jesus say nothing about faith as a condition for inheriting eternal life? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Golden Text: My little children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue, but in deed and truth.—I. John iii., 18.

MEMBERSHIP IN A CHURCH DOES NOT MAKE A CHRISTIAN.

Church history is sufficient evidence to assure us that, when churches have become rich and powerful they have generally gone to the devil. When the religious society gets to be worldly, and is controlled by rich men, and when rich men have become necessary to its continuation, the church itself as an organization has ceased to be Christian. When the few good men in the society have started up a church of their own, a reformed church, in most instances these new organizations have been real Christian churches, but some of these in time have become rich and popular, have lost the simplicity of the gospel and become cold, lifeless and formal, when they have not become worse. Hence the fact that a man belongs to a Christian church is no proof that he is a Christian.

CYNTHIA GREY'S MAIL-BOX

Wants That Yoke.

Dear Miss Grey,—I see in Thursday's paper of September 5 that "Palmyra Chums" have a daisy yoke pattern which they will lend. I would be delighted to get it, and will exchange any patterns with them if they wish. Please find self-addressed envelope inclosed for same and thanks very much for the trouble.

Yes, I too, have been a farm hand in the field this year. My father and I drew in all the grain alone, and I drove the team through haying also. But I certainly do not approve of the name "farmerette," although there are some true-hearted women who are N. S. workers. But my candid opinion is that some did not stop to realize what they were undertaking when they came out on the farms. I mean the town and city girls, for where is there a farm girl who does not know all this work which is done on the farm in "the good old summer-time," to a certain extent ,at least? I remain as before,
UNEAD GUESS.

Ans.—There is another applicant for that yoke pattern, but if it is received from "Palmyra Chums" I shall see that you also get it in turn. What do the city folks think about "U. G.'s" opinion re "farmerettes"?

"Susie's" No Bother.

Dear Miss Grey,—Please find inclosed the words of the "Missouri Waltz" song.

Could you or any of your readers send me some good readings?

Could you give me a cure for pimples? I have had them all summer, and have tried many different things, but in vain.

Hope I have not bothered you too much. May I call again? SUSIE.

Ans.—Obliged to you for the song, "Susie." If any readings are received for you I shall certainly forward them.

For the pimples, a reader recommends this: Put two tablespoonfuls of Epsom salts into a cup of boiling water; let stand until dissolved; then apply to the face, letting it dry in, doing it as often as possible until the eruptions disappear. In addition, of course, see that the bodily organs are in good working order.

Now honestly, "Sue," you have not bothered me the least bit.

Where Is "Uncle Josh"?

Dear Cynthia,—I am one of the many readers of the Mail-Box, and I think it just a good chance for many of us to pass our "pinions" to one another. I miss "Uncle Josh's" letters. We used to see one once in a while some time ago, but he must have gone away on an extended vacation. I also like "Mrs. Homebird's" letters. I am dreading the Ontario winter again, as the climate is so unlike Manitoba's. Although the winter is frosty, it is not damp out there. I would like to fly my kite for Winnipeg about now, but will risk it here another winter. Well, I must get away and give someone else a chance to write. I am, as before,
MANITOBA SNOWDROP.

Ans.—I, too, would love to hear from both "Mrs. Homebird" and "Uncle Josh." We'll have to have a "family reunion" on the Page some day if the readers will all help! We will hope for an easier winter here this year, or more than Manitoba blossoms will be getting frosted. That part of your letter pertaining to "Thoughtful Mother's" boy I am sending to her.

Sweater With Sleeves.

Dear Cynthia Grey,—Could you send me directions for knitting a sweater and how much yarn would I need? I would like one with sleeves, so that I can wear it as a general purpose sweater. I will sign E. A. B.

Ans.—I have no such instruction in my possession, but perhaps some of our faithful friends will come to the rescue with these directions.

Deserves an Allowance.

Dear Miss Grey,—I would like to come in again to the circle, to ask a few questions this time. Do you not think that a widow, 60 years old today, with a crippled arm, that has been broken, and her only son in the war, nearly three years, perhaps more, and working out herself for a very small compensation per month to maintain herself, is entitled to something for her son's service in the war, or something from the Patriotic Fund? If so, I would like to help the poor old lady by way of writing for her to where she may have to apply for the same. Could you kindly give the name of the place and the way to proceed about it? Thanking you for same.

I will ask another question. Will you kindly tell me if gasoline will do to clean white lamb furs, and if so, how shall I proceed? Just take the gasoline on a cloth and top-rub them thoroughly, would you think, for the muff, one could not wash a muff could they?

Oh, by the way, I've watched the column, and I did not see any more name suggestion for names for B. C. Toothpick and did not see either if he liked the name suggested. Thanking you, I am very sincerely,
CARLOTTA.

Ans.—The widowed mother is entitled to a separation allowance of $15 monthly while her son is on active service, and in addition he should assign a portion of his pay to her. The lad should be ashamed not to have provided this for his mother when he enlisted. Write to him and explain matters and have him instruct the paymaster of his unit to provide for the allowance. In addition to it, many men also assign from seven to ten dollars a month to mother or wife, and there is no reason why he should not. She is also probably deserving of a grant from the Patriotic Association. Write the association in this city, care of Dominion Savings Building, giving full particulars as to her financial condition.

For the furs, make a paste of flour and gasoline and rub into the fur well. The paste dries quickly when it may be beaten and brushed out.

I have not heard from B. C. Toothpick since your name suggestion was printed.

RED CROSS AND C. W. C. A. COLUMN

DID YOU LOSE A BALE?

Is there a society in Western Ontario who shipped a bundle of Red Cross work to Hyman Hall last summer and received no acknowledgment of it? If so would you please write to Mrs. Ronald Harris, the corresponding secretary, and tell her what was in it? Because, two consignments arrived here with no name attached, and no clue as to what port they had sailed from.

The first came to Hyman Hall on June 14. It had been shipped through Ingersoll, but bore no name. It contained pyjamas, sheets and socks, but the package was all broken up, and even if the kind hands that did the knitting and sewing had slipped in a card with their society's name it probably fell out by the way.

The other one arrived at Hyman Hall on August 30. It contained thirteen suits of pyjamas and thirteen pairs of socks. Perhaps because of the doubled unlucky number, it too had a mishap by the way, and when it arrived, like Topsy, it had no knowledge as to who made it. Every one of the packers is convinced that somebody made it, however. Such suits and socks never "growed" in Western Ontario. They will be glad to know the names of the two societies who have not been given their proper credit.

In any case the boys overseas have got them long ago. It is quite likely that the socks that arrived in June are all worn out by this time, and the pyjamas and sheets in a bad state of decay, for this big family of ours is a wonder for wearing out its clothes. But what does it matter. Military District No. 1 can knit and sew just as fast as they can rip and tear. Can't we?

Where Is That Basket of Fruit?

And we must not forget that our family has to eat as well as wear clothes. Next winter the boys in our hospitals will be clamoring for fruit. The little public school canners are not getting enough to keep them busy. Everyone who has a garden—and who hasn't—can surely spare a basket for the soldiers. So please send it along to Hyman Hall right away. We have the sugar and we have the jars and we have the cooks. Now please bring in the fruit and the little girlies will do the rest, bless their hearts!

Christmas Is Coming.

The Christmas stockings and the maple sugar are getting packed into boxes just as fast as the money comes in. The stockings are for the boys in the hospitals, the sugar for the boys in the trenches. We can not hope to have a truly blessed Christmas unless we have done our best to give the men who are fighting for us just a little of our Christmas cheer. The other day a president of one of our country branches telephoned in to headquarters:

"We have some money for the maple sugar fund, but we can't send it in just yet, because we are bound to make it ten dollars, so we can send a box with our society's name on it."

All good luck go with the collectors, and may they always have plenty of sugar to sweeten their tea!

Our Prisoners.

Do not let the new regulations regarding the prisoners' parcels lessen your contributions towards the fund. There are so many more prisoners now, and the poor fellows suffer such hardships. We must not let starvation be added to their desperate lot. Writing from Holland a man recently released from Germany says:

"The prisoner's lot, generally speaking, is cruelly hard. I am certain I could write a book full of instances of inhuman treatment. . . . Very few of them would come out of it alive were it not for the food and clothing provided by our friends at home."

MARIAN KEITH, Press Secretary.

Page of Interest to Women

ANNUAL W. M. S. CONVENTION OPENS SESSION IN LONDON

Delegates From All Parts of Canada Present To Hear Missionary Addresses Last Night.

The thirty-seventh annual meeting of the board of managers of the Women's Missionary Society, Methodist Church of Canada, opened session in the First Methodist Church here at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. W. E. Ross, president, in the chair.

The first really public meeting was held last evening when three interesting missionary addresses were given.

Mrs. Fannie Pinsent of Japan spoke of the work in her field, particularly that in connection with the kindergartens, which are her special care, telling not only of the little children who come to the schools, but also dwelling on her visits to the homes, where she comes in contact with the real Japanese life. Her story of the governor who omitted his classic address to open his heart and tell how much he appreciated what the missionaries had done for women's education in Japan, and that of the beautiful Japanese lady, wife of a prominent railroad man, who with the utmost simplicity accepted Christianity, were evidences of the work being done in that missionary field.

Indian and Oriental Work.

An outline of the work going on at Kitamaat, an Indian village near the British Columbia coast, was given by Miss Ida M. Clarke, who explained how the Indian boys and girls are rapidly progressing in their understanding of the Christian spirit, and are quickly comprehending the ways and language of the white man. Miss Annie T. Martin of the "Oriental Home," Victoria, described the work among the Chinese there, laying particular stress on their wonderful faith and anxiety to be good Christians as well as good citizens.

A. D. Jordan with the assistance of Carmen Leain furnished the music, the Rev. R. G. Peever conducting the opening exercises.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session began at 3 o'clock after a period of intercession, when Mrs. W. E. Ross, president, declared the meeting opened. Dr. Anna Henry, of China, was the speaker for the afternoon, and her subject, "A Birdeye-View of the Medical Work in East China."

"Before our work began," declared the speaker, "China was very much in the condition of Western Europe during the dark ages. Now, although that country has taken wonderful strides in the right direction, it is still without hospitals, save those established by missionary effort, has still no boards of health or proper sanitation. In this field of sanitation alone, there is great scope for missionary work. In a country which permits the streets to remain filthy, thus causing plague to break out, and which then tries to appease the god of medicine by a huge procession with its incense pot, great fans, brilliant umbrellas, priests in gorgeous robes and a huge image of Budda, the whole ending in feasting, drinking wine and carousing in the temple, surely there is room for a mighty work to be done along the lines of sanitation.

Death-Rate Enormous.

"The death-rate in tuberculosis and other diseases is enormous. One out of every four babies dies before it reaches the first year, and this is not counting infanticide, and is due to insanitary conditions, underfeeding and lack of care, but most of all to lack of doctors, trained along western lines. The advent of patent medicine in China during the past few years has been responsible for many cases of poisoning, the native doctors not understanding the administration of these medicines. Then, again, the cure-all doctors, quack medicine men, etc., prey on the ignorant people under the cloak of medicine to an appalling extent.

Police Set Medical Examinations.

"What would you think of a country where the police department sets the examinations for those wishing to acquire the degree of doctor? Yet this is the case in China, and often these policemen after asking the most irrevalent questions will pluck two-thirds of the candidates.

"The old teaching in China dies hard and even many of the men holding prominent positions on our medical board, still cling to a few of the old cures. The call of modern medical science is needed greatly in China. Along the lines of preventative medicine absolutely nothing has been done. Flies are on the increase and filth still remains, while the great white plague holds its richest harvest.

Great Advance Made.

"Yet after all, a great advance has been made since the time when preserved cherries in the western doctor's house were recognized as the eyes removed from Chinese children. Today parents of both high and low degree bring their children to the medical missionary with the utmost confidence in her skill. We have a fine up-to-date hospital with 65 beds and a nurses's training home, where bright Chinese girls are learning to care for the sick, and almost all of these nurses are Christians. On fine days, clinics usually run from 50 to 100 and have even reached the 135 mark. It is a motley crowd which comes to us—the blind, lame, dumb, insane and sometimes even the dead. While these wait their turn, Bible women talk to them and give them Bible literature, and so a big work is done toward Christianizing many who otherwise would not come under Christian influence.

Women Will Be Educated.

"In the heathen government, the men have more and more been advocating the education of women. They feel that China's hope lies in her women, and the women are bound to become educated; but this will not be a Christian education unless we give it them. We need a whole army of young women who will come out to China and teach the Chinese women how to become Christian nurses, doctors, teachers, etc., and so bring in a reign of righteousness for that country."

Reports of Branches Read.

An interesting paper on the work of the home field was read by the home secretary, Mrs. James Harrison. This paper pointed out the growth of the work here among Canadian people of foreign races and its successful management. Reports from six of the W. M. S. branches, Toronto, Hamilton, Bay of Quinte, Montreal, Nova Scotia and Newfoundland, were read and adopted that of the Bay of Quinte, read by Mrs. Ashton, showing the biggest increase, which was over $3,000. The Nova Scotia report, filled with difficulties on account of the Halifax disaster, yet which were so splendidly met by the outside auxiliaries and even by Halifax herself, so that an increase was reported instead of a deficit, was received with great enthusiasm. The two branches raising the greatest amount of money were Hamilton and London branches, both nearly reaching the $26,000 mark.

Nominating Committee Reports.

The nominating committee met at 2 o'clock, with Mrs. J. W. Graham presiding, and reported the following committees appointed: Candidate Committee—The general executive, presidents and corresponding secretaries. Courtesy Committee—Mrs. O. E. Marshall, Hamilton, (convener); Mrs. F. E. Sparling, Saskatoon; Mrs. Grose, Montreal; Miss Hargrave, Winnipeg; Mrs. Lawlor, Bay of Quinte. Credential committee—Mrs. McCullock, Mrs. McConnell.

The following missionaries and candidates were introduced to the meeting: The Misses Govenlock, A. M. Hargrave, E. H. Alcorn, H. J. Jost, E. L. Ryan, B.A., and Mrs. Pinsent, all of Japan; the Misses A. Henry, M.D., A. Harrison, I. M. Ellwood and Mrs. Jones, all of China; the Misses Ida M. Clarke, M. W. Powell and Miss Foreman, all of Canada; and the Misses Lola Clarke, Lois E. Russell, Ruth Nelson, Dr. Snider, Miss Brackbill and Miss Cartmail.

The meeting was followed by a motor ride around the city, after which a reception and tea was held in the dining-room of the church, by the ladies of the First Methodist Church.

Patriotic Western Ontario

Address All News for This Column to the Editor of the Women's Page.

CHATHAM.—The I. O. D. E. has already packed 350 boxes for Christmas cheer for soldiers overseas, and another 700 boxes will be finished at once, and the shipment made by the middle of October. This is a semi-annual shipment by the I. O. D. E.

CAYUGA.—The regular monthly meeting of the Red Cross Society was held at the home of Mrs. W. F. Quinsey on Thursday afternoon. It was well attended, and a large box was packed, to be shipped to the headquarters of the Red Cross. It contained 10 dressing gowns, 28 suits of pyjamas, 66 pairs of socks, and a goodly number of general utility bags, washcloths and stretcher caps. The other chief business transacted was the ordering of 100 pounds of wool for knitting and 10 webs of flannelette.

CAYUGA.—A meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. L. Quinsey on Thursday at the close of the Red Cross meeting. It was decided to order 100 pounds of wool for socks, to be knitted by the members of the society for the Cayuga boys overseas. The next meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. W. F. Haygarthe, on Thursday, when the Grand River Institute will be the guests of the Cayuga society, and a good program is expected from the visitors.

Advertiser Patterns

HERE IS A SMART GOWN THAT WILL BE LOVELY FOR HOME OR CALLING.

Blouse—2541. Skirt—2462.

Pattern 2541 a pretty blouse in smock style, and Pattern 2462 a two-piece skirt are here combined. This style is nice for bordered goods, for voile, foulard, taffeta, serge, gabardine, jersey cloth and satin. The blouse is cut in seven sizes, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches, bust measure. The skirt is cut in seven sizes, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34 inches, waist measure. For a medium size it will require about seven yards of 36-inch material for the entire dress. The skirt measures about 1¾ yards at the foot.

This illustration calls for TWO separate patterns, which will be mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents FOR EACH pattern, in silver or stamps.

Please send above-mentioned pattern as per directions given below:

Name .....
Town .....
Province .....
Age (if child's or misses' pattern).....
Measurement: Bust..... Waist.....

Caution: Be careful to inclose the above illustration, and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure, you need only mark 33, 34 or whatever it may be. When in waist measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from date of application.

FOOD BOARD FLASHES FOR FEMININE FOLK

It is only a little more than a hundred years since the fruit jar came into use, and now it would be hard to place one's finger on a spot where it is not in common use. In the olden days the way to keep fruit and vegetables was to dry them or put them away in sugar or salt.

With the canning fever at its height at present it is interesting to note that the invention of canning is credited to Nicholas Appert, a Frenchman, who lived in the time of Napoleon Bonaparte, and was given 12,000 francs by the emperor for his work. His method was to put the food to be preserved in glass jars, set them in boiling water, heat thoroughly, and then seal. England quickly took hold of the idea, and utilized it for her own purposes. About 1815 Ezra Daggert introduced in the United States the process for canning salmon, lobsters and oysters. Gradually this extended to pickles, jellies and sauces.

And now?

Well, everyone knows what canning is now! If Nicholas Appert were to come to life and to visit some of the busy community canning centres or the average kitchen in Canada on an August day he would be surprised to see what he had started.

Fond of Letter-Writing.

Dear Miss Grey,—This is my first letter to your box. I have written a great many letters before, but never found courage enough to post them, but now "the ice is broken" it will be better in the near future.

I am corresponding with forty Americans and Canadians, and one Frenchman, so I will not ask for any "lonelies'" adresses. Would be glad to hear from "A Yankee Girl." Will she write first? SWEET SIXTEEN.

Ans.—You must be about as busy as I am, with all your correspondents, and yet you ask for another! Will "Yankee Girl" correspond?

Your inclosure, "Sweet Sixteen," will be put to a good use, and we'll not blame you for consequences!

WHEN You Want Flowers, Think of WEST FLOAL COMPANY
Phone 2187. 249 Dundas Street.
ZXV

Sale of Manufacturers' Samples

Underwear and Sweaters

Coming at the beginning of the season with prices of this class of goods steadily advancing, this sale offers exceptional opportunities.

LADIES' FALL AND WINTER WEIGHT COMBINATIONS
High neck, long sleeves; sizes 36 to 44. Money-saving price ..... $2.29 suit

LADIES' MEDIUM WEIGHT COTTON COMBINATIONS
High neck, long sleeves, buttoned over back. Special price ..... $1.29 suit

CHILDREN'S UNION COMBINATIONS
Grey or white, long sleeves, high neck, buttoned back, sizes 8 to 18 years; easy to buy at ..... $1.29 suit

LADIES' VESTS
About 5 dozen in the lot, including Penman's cream or natural wool, short sleeves and Dutch neck, all-wool Vests, low neck and elbow sleeves; and Union Vests, o. s. and ex-o. s., high neck and long sleeves. Values up to $3.00. Sale price $1.19

LADIES' FINE KNIT CORSET COVERS
Sleeveless. Sale price 39c
—Main Floor.—

UNION EX. O. S. VESTS.
High neck and long sleeves; values up to $3.00. Sale price $1.19

LADIES' HEAVY UNION VESTS
In regular and Ex. O. S., and heavy fleeced cotton Vests, in grey or white; $1.00 and $1.25 values. Special price 79c

LADIES' VESTS
High neck, long sleeves or low neck, elbow sleeves; drawers to match, open or closed; 50c value. Sale price 39c

LADIES' UNION DRAWERS
Open or closed. Special 79c
—Main Floor.—

Sale of Sample

Sweaters and Sweater Coats

All colors, all sizes, for women and children, warm and snug. The prices speak for themselves ..... 98c, $1.95, $2.49, $2.95 and up to $4.00
—Third Floor.—

SALE TOMORROW (THURSDAY) MORNING
Goods priced for absolute clearance. No approvals. No returning.

CANADA FOOD BOARD
Our soldiers have gone and are going to the front with free minds, because they trust and believe to the uttermost that those at home will do their part.

Gray's Limited

Agents for the Ladies' Home Journal Patterns.
140 DUNDAS STREET.
Phones 115, 116.

Gray's Limited

Little Jack Horner
Stands in the corner
Washing with "Infants-Delight;"
His pie he has finished,
His hunger's diminished,
And now he is all clean and white.

INFANTS-DELIGHT TOILET SOAP

SOOTHES and delights the most sensitive skin because it is BORATED—the original Borated Toilet Soap. Produces a refreshing sensation of cleanliness.

¶Send us three of these ads—all different—for beautiful Mother Goose Book in colors.

JOHN TAYLOR & CO., Limited,
Dept. 4 TORONTO.

KEEP YOUR SHOES NEAT

2 IN 1 SHOE POLISHES

LIQUIDS AND PASTES. FOR BLACK, WHITE, TAN, DARK BROWN OR OX-BLOOD SHOES. PRESERVE THE LEATHER.

The F. F. DALLEY CORPORATIONS, LIMITED, HAMILTON, CAN.

POLLY AND HER PALS.—There's Perfect Safety in Camouflage. By Cliff Sterrett.

London Advertiser

Member Audit Bureau of Circulation.

MORNING EDITION.

ity, Outside City.
c per week, By Mail
.00 per year. $4.00 per year.

NOON EDITION.
$4.00 per year by mail.

EVENING EDITION.

ity, Outside City.
c per week, By Mail
.00 per year. $4.00 per year.

670 TELEPHONE NUMBERS, 3670
Private Branch Exchange.
rom 10.00 p.m. to 9:00 a.m., and holidays, call 3670.
usiness Department; 3671, Editors; 3672, Reporters;
673, News Room.

Toronto Representative—F. W. Thompson, 57 ail Building.

U. S. Representatives—New York: Charles H. ddy Company, Fifth Avenue Building. Chicago: harles H. Eddy Company, People's Gas Building. oston: Charles H. Eddy Company, Old South Build-g.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER COMPANY, LIMITED.

London, Ont., Wednesday, Sept. 25.

BISHOP FALLON'S ADDRESS.

ISHOP FALLON last night delivered the open-ing address of the season to the Canadian Club at the Tecumseh House. It was a mag-ent address, magnificently delivered. He has returned from a four months' visit to the tern front. He comes home with a much her opinion of Canadians when compared with r nationalities than he had before his visit. y are in the front rank as fighters, as railroad ders and as clean living brave boys. Here and e were spots of bright humor and pathos. One hese was when he addressed a regiment of testant soldiers at a Protestant service, con-ling by giving them his blessing, and they re-d by giving him three hearty cheers.

It was the opinion of one high up in the ser- that the Canadians were the best fighters in Allied ranks, and it was the expressed hope of Americans that they would prove to be as d.

Perhaps the strongest points in his exception- strong address was his plea for toleration of gious views and beliefs. Moore's Irish melodies and answer the question much as we caught desire of Bishop Fallon:

hall I ask the brave soldier who fights by my side,
he cause of mankind if our creeds agree?
ll I give up the friend I have valued and tried,
e kneel not before the same altar with me?
m the heretic girl of my soul shall I fly, seek somewhere else a more orthodox kiss?
Perish the hearts and the laws that try th, valor or love by a standard like this."

It is believed that the war will do much to intolerance in both race and religion in Can-and the wide world over. And this note in bishop's address must have been acquiesced h by all those present.

The bishop would not talk peace now. It too soon. The work must be completed and itarism stamped out forever. A patched up ce would not do at all. He abhorred war. He eed apparently with the definition that war "the temporary repeal of all the principles of tue," but he hoped that good would come out the war to all the world.

The bishop evidently agrees with Charles rner, who said "The true grandeur of human-is in moral elevation, unstained, enlightened, d decorated by the intellect of man. The est tokens of this grandeur in a state are the fusion of the greatest happiness among the atest number, and that passionless God-like tice, which controls the relations of the state other states, and to all the people who are mmitted to its charge."

The Canadian Club has made a good begin-g, and such addresses as that delivered at its ening meeting will do much to educate and vate the thought of the community.

BOARD OF TRADE DRIVE.

HE SPIRIT of drive is in the air; the spirit of progress and attainment. It is exemplified in its finest qualities by the boys who fighting "over there." By their valor and rseverance and success against heavy odds y have enthused the people back home and de them ill content to remain in the old ruts.

It is our privilege to be living in a wonder- age that is going to witness more real human vancement than the world has seen for genera-ns. Those who do not catch the new spirit of e times; those who are too lazy or too weak to pand and grow and keep pace with the new der of things will soon fall by the wayside help-s and forgotten. We are living in an age that essentially an age of service and development.

Officers and members of the London Board Trade have sensed this urge of the times and ve decided not to be left in the rear of the pro-ssion. A campaign, or drive, for new members being organized. Men who realize the value of live board of trade and can make other men alize it have taken hold of the campaign, and ey are bound to make a success of it. Why? ecause London needs a bigger and stronger and ore thoroughly representative board of trade.

It is absolutely essential that there should be me central body through which the best thought the community may find expression and rough which thought may crystallize into action. arting out auspiciously, with plenty of snap and nbition to do big things in a big way, the board trade in recent years has lacked the interest, e membership and the income to make it the ree that it should be in the community.

There are many lines of service open to a ide awake board of trade in London, and the esent officers and members realize it. From w on there is going to be real action. The ard has caught the spirit of the times; it is termined to become the real constructive force the city which it can and should be.

But to do this it must have more members. It ust be truly representative of all sections of the ty and of all interests in the city. Any man or oman who has an interest in the welfare and evelopment of London and Western Ontario is igible for membership. The Advertiser believes at there is a splendid opportunity to stir up this ity as it has never been stirred up before; to waken it to its big opportunities and to develop unified, vigorous civic spirit that will carry us pward and onward to greater and better things.

It is true that we are in the midst of a great ar and every effort must be bent to winning it. he more reason for a live board of trade. It can elp mightily in the winning of the war. It is e logical fountainhead from which should spring municipal efforts to help sustain the government in the battle for human freedom, and it is the logical agency to guide the tremendous work of reconstruction that must follow the war.

With a large membership composed of the most alert citizens from all sections of the community—a membership which we are confident the drive will produce—it will be the most representative organization in the city, with the energy and the will to see that things are done right.

This board of trade campaign, therefore, we believe, is a vital thing to the life of the city and its neighbors. It offers splendid possibilities for the creation of a force that will bring out the best there is here and develop a bigger and better London.

PREMATURE NEWS OF CASUALTIES.

CASUALTIES are reaching the newspapers before relatives have been apprised of the fate of their near and dear ones. The newspapers are anxious to secure the news, but not so anxious as to create a desire to carry to any Canadian home the shock of chance discovery to a mother or wife that her son or husband has fallen. In several cases recently The Advertiser has carried news of men "killed in action" to London and Western Ontario homes before the official telegrams had reached the next of kin. These casualties have reached The Advertiser in the press lists. A period of wracking anxiety has resulted.

The adjutant-general's department at once should rectify this condition of affairs. Frequently it may have happened that relatives have not been at home to secure the telegram, and the notification having been sent out, the news is then released to the press. Some closer check upon the delivery of messages is required, and no news should appear in the press until relatives have been notified privately.

ALLENBY'S BIG BLOW.

ALLENBY'S smashing of the Turk forces in Palestine puts a new aspect on the campaign in the Near East. The great decision will undoubtedly be reached on the western front, as when Germany falls her allies tumble with her; but the clearing of the Teuton-Turk armies from the Holy Land opens up immediate and weighty possibilities for continued Allied successes over the Ottomans.

It's a mistake to suppose that the British have opened the road for a blow at the back door of Constantinople. Hundreds of miles of almost impassable country lie between the Allied forces and the Sultan's capital. Allenby would have to fight his way across several mountain ranges, a campaign that would entail heavy losses. But the speed and strength of his drive will probably scare the Turks from any further operations along the Black Sea coasts, if it does not cause a general withdrawal from that sector. This will relieve any pressure on Marshall's force in Mesopotamia due to the Russian collapse, and it may enable the British to strike at the Turkish flank by way of the Black Sea and Armenia. General Maurice has been condemning the campaign in Palestine as useless, urging the concentration of all forces on the western front, but another blow or two such as that of Allenby's and the Turkish resistance will collapse completely. The immediate effect of this would probably be to drive Bulgaria, already hard pressed, to sue for peace. All of which would hasten the death blow of the kaiser's armies in the west. Whatever may be its effect on the main section of the campaign the German menace to the Suez and Egypt and India has been permanently removed, and with it goes the kaiser's dream of a near east empire.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Palestine opines that it can have a quite satisfactory Thanksgiving without Turkey.

At that, there will be a lot of happy harems in Turkey now that the multiplex husbands have been rounded up.

As we follow the war news from the Holy Land a lot of us regret that we were not better Bible students in our youth.

While we are attending to the war loaf couldn't we do something about the war loafer? There is still a lot of him around.

The Boches assure the kaiser the Americans will never pass. The Buddies promise to go through. Put your money on the Buddies.

The crown prince is being sorely tried through many of his servants being sent to the front. For this frightfulness the cruel Allies are to blame.

We shall deem September a sweet month if she continues to show present signs of reformation. (That's if it doesn't rain before this gets into type.)

Another army that Foch, Haig, Pershing & Co. have routed is that great army of glooms that always was trying to convince us that Germany could not be beaten.

Von Falkenhayn's humiliation at Allenby's hands recalls that as German staff chief he congratulated von Tirpitz on the early successes of the ruthless submarine campaign. Our turn to cheer.

WASHINGTON'S DESCENDANTS IN THE WAR.

[W. Lanier Washington to the Editor of the New York Herald.]

What are the descendants of the family of George Washington doing to help win the war? This question has been asked of the writer and through the press several times, and while it is impossible to make a complete answer without making an investigation, a brief statement of the facts, as related to the descendants of General Washington's brother, Colonel John Augustine Washington, will show that they are well represented in the military service of the United States.

Lawrence Washington, who is the son of the late owner of Mount Vernon, has five sons in the army. They all volunteered as privates. Two of them have received promotions, and a third is now in the officers' training camp at Quantico.

Lawrence Washington's sister, who is the wife of Beverly D. Tuckey, Bishop of Southern Virginia, also has five sons in the army, three of whom volunteered, and two were drafted while completing their courses at school.

Irvine Keyser and John Stewart, of Baltimore, who are great-grandsons of Colonel Lewis William Washington, of Virginia, are also in the service, and Lieut. Bushrod C. Washington, of Washington, D. C., and his son, Bushrod, are in the army and are in France.

Lawrence Washington, of Westmoreland County, Virginia, had a son in the army who lost his life in France about three months ago.

Capt. Thomas C. Washington and his brother are making enviable reputations for themselves in the navy, but they are of another branch of the family, and Col. Mervine C. Buckey, now military attache to the American embassy at Rome, is descended from one of General Washington's brothers.

The list could be extended considerably, but it is sufficient to show that members of the Washington family, of whom the writer is one, though many years beyond the revised military age, have responded, as was to be expected of them, to the defence of their country.

SAVE GASOLINE - - - By Fontaine Fox

How do you suppose the Fuel Board's gas saving plan struck the bird who used to act like this?—Copyright.

BITS OF BYPLAY

BY LUKE McLUKE

(Copyright, 1918.)

Used To It.

The lawyer was coaching his client.

"Now," said he, "the attorney for the defence is going to cross-examine you. Have you ever undergone cross-examination?"

"Have I?" said the client. "I'll say I have. I'm a married man."

Any Takers?

Believe me, Bill,
I'm making bets;
That our boys will
Soon be in Metz.
And then, old top,
We'll wear a grin,
For our next stop
Will be Berlin.

Oh!

"Don't you think that 13 is an unlucky number?" asked Smith.

"Well, it is, and it isn't," replied Jones.

"Whaddy ya mean, it is and it isn't?" demanded Smith.

"Well, for instance, I would rather find $13 on the street than find $12," explained Jones.

Practicing.

"It's tough," said young Attorney Daw,
"No clients seem to come to me;
Instead of practicing the law,
I'm practicing economy."

The Wise Fool.

"A man should cultivate patience," observed the Sage.

"Yes," agreed the Fool. "He'll need it when he gets married."

Correct.

The man who eats but one meal a day at home misses two family rows per day.—Luke McLuke

And also misses a lot of indigestion, eh?—North Carolina Citizen.

Tuff!

Headline in Hartford (Conn.) Courant:
SIX WOMEN
TO EVERY MAN IN ENGLAND.
Makes Your Heart Ache
To See Suffering.

Some Tree.

Dan Metz tells us that a walnut tree on the campus of Wabash College, Crawfordville, Ind., has been purchased by the United States Government. The tree is 13 feet in circumference and is 75 feet high. The Government paid $750 for the tree.

Firms Is Firms.

Neer & Farr are in the wood business in Portland, Ore.

Mercy!

W. B. V. claims that he knows a woman who is so tender-hearted that in winter she warms the water before she drowns the kittens.

Names Is Names.

Canna Beans lives at Dalton, Maine.

Our Daily Special.

Some Men Waste a Dollar's Worth of Time Hunting for a Penny.

Luke McLuke Says

We may be wrong, but we have always believed that when a man is hypnotized into doing a thing, he wanted to do it anyway.

You have often met a married woman who was afraid to open her husband's mail, haven't you? Neither have we.

It is none of our business. But the betting is that a man with a wife and four grown daughters knows all there is to know about Home Rule.

Another thing that makes us sick is to read that some society dame who has divorced four husbands and is living with her fifth, is going to read a paper on "The Evils of Mormonism" at her Woman's Club.

Exercise is exercise. But it makes an awful difference whether the stick you are exercising your arms with is a baseball bat or the handle of a snow shovel.

Another whopper: Once Upon a Time there was a man who had been married ten years, and who came home at 2 o'clock one morning and explained to the satisfaction of his wife that he wasn't anywhere he should not have been.

If a woman looks like 40, guess her age at 28, and she will never get done praising you.

A husband is such a liar that his wife gets up after he goes to sleep and goes down to see if he emptied the pan under the ice box like he said he did.

A pretty girl doesn't need any brains for the same reason that a rich man doesn't have to work.

The Advertiser's Daily Short Story

(Copyright, 1918, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

SUMMERING IN TEXAS.
By Lincoln Rothblum.

When Betty Wilson heard of German atrocities and the appalling casualties, she was shocked in a very perfunctory manner. She felt as if such things ought to horrify her, and accordingly would raise her hands, palms outward, in an attitude of dismay, and with a pretty shudder beg you to desist. It was awful, just awful. It took her mother's unexpected message, "Bobby's enlisted," to make the war a vital thing to her. For, although Bobby himself never knew what place he held in his sweetheart's affections. Betty had no doubts that Bobby ranked ace high.

"Bobby's enlisted?" repeated Betty, incredulously. "In what branch?"

Mrs. Wilson advanced toward her daughter. Betty had not taken her own brother's enlistment so to heart. "In the cavalry," she answered. "Is it not wonderful that he was accepted?"

There was a moment's silence and then Betty began crying. "But, my dear," Mrs. Wilson comforted gently, "whatever is the matter? Are you not proud to hear it?"

"Oh, yes, yes," came in a choked voice, muffled in the folds of a handkerchief hiding eyes already sadly red. "but the cavalry is the most dangerous thing in the world. He can get killed most any time."

A ring at the bell interrupted the tearful grievance. As Mrs. Wilson opened the door she whispered a hasty word to the broad-shouldered visitor.

"Where's Betty?" he called out in a husky voice as he entered the living room and pretended not to see her. Perhaps it was because of the whispered warning that Bobby was not totally unprepared for the onslaught, for with a cry of "Oh, Bobby! Oh, Bobby!" Betty flung the tiny daintiness of her person into his arms.

It required but a short conference between the two, consummated by the approval of Mrs. Wilson, to decide the trip to the leading jeweler in town. And a slightly longer conference placed upon the rosy-tipped finger of Betty's left hand the warning solitaire.

And Betty sent him away smiling. She had always felt that if her mother had not been so foolishly prejudiced she would have made an illustrious actress. Here her heart was crying and breaking, but her eyes were dry and there was a smile on her lips. And the train letter she had given him was a happy, jolly letter, full of good cheer, but she hoped he could see where the tears had fallen on the pages.

At the camp postoffice it was not long before the soldier detailed to sort the mail knew to what troop "Robert Denton" belonged without further reference to the address, for letters and parcels, penned in a very feminine script, came with such regularity and quantity, that he often was compelled to remark to the fortunate lad: "I wished you had to sort your own mail. You get more'n the whole regiment put together." At which Bobby would smile, and, tucking a box of candy under one arm and a box of "smokes" under the other, would stride off reading "a whopper of a letter," as he loved to dub the voluminous manuscripts which Betty spent numberless hours to compose.

It was the middle of July—a very hot and dry July. Formerly Betty had been the first to suggest vacation, and early June, as a rule, found her at the seaside. Mrs. Wilson was nonplussed.

"Where are you planning to go this season?" she asked. "I thought of Nanton Hook, Maine. The breezes are so cool there."

Betty shook her head with a decided negative. "Perhaps you may be going to Nanton Hook, Maine. But I am going to El Paso, Texas."

Mrs. Wilson stared. Texas for a vacation! Texas in the summer! Was her daughter in sober earnest? And then she remembered, and, remembering, she smiled. For close to El Paso was Fort Bliss. And at Fort Bliss—well, at Fort Bliss was Bobby.

As the hours flew by when the train crossed the boundary line into Texas, Betty kept wondering if there were any end to the Lone Star State. Within short periods the scenery changed with unbelievable rapidity. At early morning she was traveling through a mountainous region—huge, stately hills rising majestically from the ground. Noon saw vast stretches of arid desert, and dusk brought acres of cultivated land with its network of irrigation canals and ditches. Now it was a plateau unrelieved save for the stubbles of cactus plants, and then a deep ravine, from which the water had vanished ages ago. The night of the third day brought the travelers to the city of El Paso, picturesque because of its constant competition in architecture, language and population for American or Mexican supremacy.

"Hotel Paso del Norte," Betty directed the taxi driver, and was very proud that he understood her. Perhaps she would have hesitated before complimenting herself upon her skillful use of the Spanish tongue had she known the chauffeur was quite accustomed to understanding the language correctly enunciated.

The following morning found Betty urgently hurrying her mother for early departure for the camp. But long after Mrs. Wilson pronounced her toilet completed, Betty still primped before the mirror. She must look her very best, she thought, and later stolid El Pasoans found a second turn of the head well worth while as the fair-skinned northerner motored by.

At the fort Betty wondered why the soldier on guard assumed such an aggressive position as she smiled her prettiest and asked to be directed to the proper location. "It seemed," she afterward told her mother, "as if he was afraid I wanted to snatch his rifle from him." Bobby's tent necessitated a long climb on foot through a sandy, uphill stretch, and it was a rather breathless Betty who stopped before the tent to which she had been directed. As she saw no one, she motioned to her mother, laboriously making the ascent, to wait below.

Betty walked a few paces off. She could see no one in or about the tent. A bit off she saw a laborer cleaning a saddle, and behind him a soldier with a rifle. She decided that she would make inquiry of him, and advanced.

"Can you tell me——" That man in blue overalls! That man scrubbing a saddle! Betty reeled. It was Bobby! With an armed soldier behind him! He was a prisoner. And he had told her he had won a sergeant's chevrons.

Betty flew down the hill as she heard the soldier say: "Has the skirt gone nuts?" And Mrs. Wilson became fully convinced she had been very unwise to accede to her daughter's plans, as her arm was grabbed and she was violently pulled down the hill by a very agitated Betty.

"Stop, stop, Betty, my slippers are full of sand!" But her appeal brought no response, nor could she on the ride back to the hotel elicit any explanation for the sudden demand that they return immediately home. But Mrs. Wilson was too eager to leave the hot climate to question very minutely her daughter's change of plans.

The bellboy had already carried their valises into the taxi, and Mrs. Wilson was making a final inspection of their room to see that nothing had been left behind. Betty stood disconsolately at the window, gazing at the street below.

"All right, Betty," called her mother, "let's go."

"Yes, let's go," repeated Betty in an unwilling tone. She did not want to leave El Paso, but it was the only alternative.

As the elevator stopped at the main floor and discharged its burden, Betty stood aghast.

There was Bobby!

Her Bobby. But looking surprisingly military in a perfectly fitting uniform. And on his arms were the prescribed three stripes of a sergeancy! He turned and saw her.

"Betty," he cried out joyfully as he made a rush for the girl shrinking behind a huge palm. The hotel guests turned to stare at the unusual commotion. "Betty, my Betty," he called as he caught up to her, "come to me." And as she held off. "What is the matter?"

Betty was choking. She could hardly speak. "But you're a prisoner."

"A prisoner?" Bobby repeated questionably. "I'm no prisoner." His emphatic denial did not convince her.

"Oh, but I saw you this morning at camp. You were in overalls, scrubbing a saddle, and there was a soldier with a rifle behind you."

Bobby laughed loud and long. His voice re-echoed throughout the lobby. "Oh, you dear, dear Betty. Don't you know soldiers wear blue denims so as not to soil their uniforms? And the soldier behind me—that's my bunkie!"

As hotel guests and employees returned to newspapers and duties they pretended not to see the happy kiss of reconciliation.

Mrs. Wilson leaned weakly against a chair, "Imagine," she said, "summering in Texas!"

40TH ANNUAL FALL FAIR AT THORNDALE IS RECORD-BREAKER

Fine Weather and Excellent Prize List Go To Make Splendid Show.

THORNDALE, Sept. 24—About 1,500 persons attended the 40th annual fall show of the Thorndale Agricultural Society held Tuesday. The fair this year was a record-breaker, due to the fine weather, as well as the prize list, which was prepared by the officers of the society. About noon the crowd began to gather at the fair grounds, and before 1 o'clock the fair was going at full swing.

An exhibit of school children's work was held in the Crystal Palace. This exhibit was very attractive and also interesting. The fruit and grain exhibits were above the average mark. The art exhibit was not large, but the pictures which were shown were first-class.

Cattle and Horses Parade.

A procession of cattle and horses was held in the afternoon before the grandstand and around the race track. The 1st Hussars Band was present and supplied the music for the afternoon. Henderson's Kiltie Band held a march past, which was pleasing, and the juvenile dancers also entertained the large crowd with Scotch and Irish dances.

A grand concert was held in the town hall in the evening. Dr. Percy Copeland was chairman for the evening, and gave the opening address. Sam Munroe, Canada's juvenile Harry Lauder, gave many dances and songs which took well with the audience. Miss Jean Walker entertained with reading and comic sketches.

Wins Bankers' Prize.

The Canadian Bankers' competition for boys and girls under 17 years of age, who have fed and cared for a calf for at least six weeks, was won by David Murrell of Belton, Ont., Homer Nevay of Thorndale won the second prize, and the third prize went to Earl Taylor of Thorndale.

Birdie Hal, owned by M. S. Rosser of Denfield, captured the free-for-all race. This horse won the first heat and came in first in the third and last heat of the race. Dick Elcyone, owned by J. Hughes of London, took the 2:50 pace by winning three straight heats. Kentucky Maid entered the first, but fell out in the second heat.

The farmers' trot, open to all residents of West Nissouri whose horses had not won public money before, was won by Billie Sunday, owned by Chester Hobbs of Thorndale.

Others Have No Show.

The other horses did not have a show in this race. The track was slow and the races were not as fast as they have been in former years.

The following are the results:

Free-for-All, Trot or Pace; Purse $75.
Birdie Hal, M. S. Rosser, Denfield 1 2 1 1
Bell J., C. Petitt, Dorchester. 2 1 2 2
Teddy Bars, H. B. Mossip, Thorndale 3 3 3 3

2:50 Trot or Pace; Purse $30.
Kentucky Maid, Chester Hobbs, Thorndale ..... 3 dr
Dick Elcyone, J. Hughes, London 1 1 1
Ruby Mack, R. MacFarland, Dorchester 2 2 2

Farmers' Trot.
Billie Sunday, Chester Hobbs, Thorndale 1 1 1
King George, T. Smibert, Thorndale 3 2 2
Nigger, F. Kennedy, Thorndale. 2 3 3

A school competition for the school children of West Nissouri was held, the prizes given being donated to the section school which the winner attended.

The following are the results:

Writing—1, Section School No. 3; 2, Section School No. 8; 3, Section School No. 2.

Writing Business Forms—1, Section School No. 8; 2, Section School No. 3; 3, Section School No. 2.

Modeling in Clay—1, Section School No. 8; 2, Section School No. 2.

Drawing—1, Section School No. 3; 2, Section School No. 2.

Crayon Work—1, Section School No. 3; 2, Section School No. 2.

Painting in Water Colors—1, Section School No. 3; 2, Section School No. 2.

Drawing Maps of the Province of Ontario—1, Section School No. 3; 2, Section School No. 2; 3, Section School No. 3.

The poultry show was a large success, fifteen different varieties being shown.

The exhibit of cattle and horses was larger and better than ever. The following is a list of the prize-winners:

Durham Cattle.

Aged cow—Murrell Bros., first, second and third prizes.

Two-year-old heifer—1 Murrell Bros., 2 D. R. Palmer, Thorndale.

One-year-old heifer—1 Murrell Bros., 2 Wm. Hueston.

Heifer calf—1 Murrell Bros.; 2 Sam McMurray, Thorndale.

Bull calf—1 Murrell Bros., 2 S. McMurray.

Best Durham bull—Sam McMurray.

Hereford Cattle.

Aged cow—1 Wm. Hueston; 2 John McVay & Sons, Thorndale.

Two-year-old heifer—1 John McVay & Sons, first and second prizes.

One-year-old heifer—John McVay & Sons.

Heifer calf—1 John McVay & Sons; 2 Robert McVay, Thorndale.

Bull calf—1 John McVay & Sons.

Grade Cattle.

Best cow—1 Murrell Bros.; 2 D. R. Palmer, Thorndale.

Two-year-old heifer—1 Murrell Bros.

One-year-old heifer—1 Murrell Bros., 2 D. R. Palmer.

Heifer calf—1 Murrell Bros., 2 John McVay & Sons.

Steer calf—1 Robert McVay, 2 Robert McVay, 3 James D. Palmer.

Best herd of five dairy cows—E. Bedggood, Thamesford.

Holstein Cattle.

Best cow—1 E. Bedggood.

Two-year-old heifer—1 and 2 E. Bedggood; 3 J. Goarley, Thorndale.

Heifer calf—1 E. Bedggood, 2 E. G. Goarley.

Bull calf—1 E. Bedggood.

Jersey Cattle.

Best cow—1, David Mitchell, Thorndale; 2, B. Mossip, Thorndale; 3, J. Bilyea, Thorndale.

Two-year-old heifer—1, B. Mossip; 2, Robert McVay.

Steers.

Best pair, two years old—Robt. McVay.

Best pair, one year old—John McVay & Sons.

Fat cow or heifer—1, Murrell Bros.; 2, D. R. Palmer.

Carriage Horses.

One-year-old filly or gelding—1, C. Bourne, Thorndale; 2, Robert McKenzie, London.

Brood mare—D. McMillian.

Matched span of geldings or mares in harness—1, William Thompson, Wilson Grove.

Single carriage gelding or mare in harness—1, E. W. Kent, Embro; 2, G. Uren, Thorndale; 3, John Logan, Thorndale.

Roadsters.

Span of gelding or mare in harness—1, Gordon Guest, Hyde Park; 2, Sam McMurray, Thorndale.

Single gelding or mare in harness—1, Frank Kennedy, Belton; 2, Roy Lacky, Thamesford; 3, H. Smibert, London.

Three-year-old filly or gelding—1, Lloyd Gunn, Thorndale; 2, L. Budden, Dorchester.

CARDINAL FARLEY IS BURIED IN NEW YORK WITH HIGH HONORS

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—His memory honored by the presence of three surviving North American cardinals, the pope's representative in the United States, Catholic dignitaries from all sections of the country and of the American military and naval forces, Cardinal John M. Farley was buried today beneath the altar of St. Patrick's Cathedral. The great cathedral was crowded to the doors and thousands of persons thronged the streets in the vicinity.

The sermon, delivered by Bishop Hickey of Rochester, reflected the international character of the funeral service. The preacher urged "our nation's need of a solid foundation of victory" in the great war "to assure the rights of free peoples." He declared that "the great agency of the Catholic Church had stood behind the president in the country's patriotic and relief movement," and said that the "foremost among the leaders in this cause was John Farley of New York.

"BEST INVESTMENT I HAVE EVER MADE"

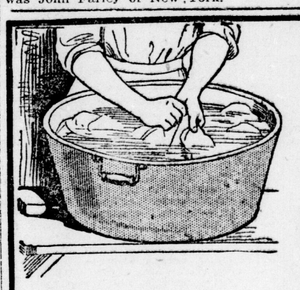

Contractor Wouldn't Take Five Hundred Dollars For Good Tanlac Did Him.

"I just want to say right now that I wouldn't take five hundred dollars for the good that first bottle of Tanlac did me, for I feel like it has given me a new lease on life," said C. E. Nelson, a contracting carpenter, living at 7723 Sixty-third avenue southeast, Portland, Ore., recently.

"About four months ago," he continued, "I lost my appetite, and my stomach got all out of order. What little I did manage to eat would, sour and form gas, which would cramp and pain me until I could hardly stand it. Then my kidneys went back on me, and my back hurt so bad I couldn't find a comfortable position. They said I had rheumatism or 'lumbago,' then my right leg, below the knee, got to hurting me, and at times I couldn't stand on my feet or get up when down. I was constipated all the time and suffered a great deal with headache. Nobody knows how I really did suffer, because I just can't describe it, and as nothing seemed to do me any good, I had become discouraged about my condition.

"I finally sent down and got a bottle of Tanlac, as I had read so much about it, and it was about the best investment I ever made. My appetite came bounding back after my first few doses, and by the time my second bottle was gone, my stomach trouble was almost gone, too. I am now eating any and everything I want and it don't hurt me the least bit, and my kidneys and back are greatly improved. At the time I started on Tanlac I had to use crutches in order to get about, but I don't need them now at all, and have thrown them aside. I have gained several pounds in weight, and can just feel myself getting stronger every day. I have gone back to work already, and I never lose an opportunity to speak a good word for Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

Are your shirts laundered at home?

IF so, you snould wear W. G. & R. shirts—the only shirts with Double Wear Cuffs.

These new cuffs make it possible to wear the shirt twice as long. Every man knows that the cuffs of a shirt get soiled first. And when one side of the Double Wear Cuff gets soiled you don't have to put the shirt in the laundry. Just turn the cuffs, which fold easily and neatly either way, and wear the shirt a day or two longer.

Ask to see the new shirts with

W.G.R.

DOUBLE WEAR CUFFS

Patented 1918

"the cuff that doubles the life of the shirt"

205

DEPOSITED WITH THE GOVERNMENT OVER $100,000.00

The Royal Guardians

INSURANCE MONTREAL

LIFE, SICKNESS, INDUSTRIAL AND ENDOWMENT

Perfect for the Pipe

delicious, handy, economical, keeping its rich moisture and fragrance unimpaired for any length of time, and burning slowly but freely—these are the qualities which you will find in

Master Mason 20 cents

The Perfect Plug Smoking Tobacco

Slice a pipeful, fresh from the plug, just when you want it, fill your pipe not too tight, light up and you will enjoy a smoke of real satisfaction. Try it.

The Rock City Tobacco Co., Limited, Quebec, Que.

THE EFFICIENT WOMAN

The foundation of efficiency lies in a robust, healthy constitution. When ill, weak and suffering from dragging-down pains, inflammatory and ulcerated conditions or displacement with consequent backache, headaches, nervousness and "the blues," no woman can be efficient or hardly a fit companion to live with. If every woman in this condition would only give that most successful of all root and herb remedies, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial, she would soon be restored to health and reach the goal of her ambition for personal efficiency.

WOMEN'S HEALTH

may be protected by keeping the blood pure, the stomach well, the liver active and the bowels regular by using

BEECHAM'S PILLS

In boxes, with full directions, 25c.

CEETEE UNDERCLOTHING

Guaranteed Not To Shrink.

Dermatologist Gives Complexion Secret

"The great secret of keeping the face young is to keep off the dead cuticle," says Dr. J. Mortimer Mitchell. "It is well known that the surface skin is constantly dying, falling off in imperceptible particles, except in some diseased conditions, when the same appear like dandruff. But the particles do not all drop off immediately they die, being held for a while by the live skin.

"To have the dermatological surgeon peel off the entire outer skin at one time is a painful and expensive operation. The same result is obtained by applying ordinary mercolized wax, as you would cold cream, allowing this to remain on over night, then taking it off with warm water. One ounce usually suffices. The process is both painless and inexpensive. The wax, which is procurable at your drug store, hastens the natural shedding process. It gradually absorbs the dead and half-dead skin, revealing the new, healthy, youthful-looking skin underneath."—Advt.

Prince George Hotel

TORONTO

In Centre of Shopping and Business District

250 ROOMS

100 with Private Baths

EUROPEAN PLAN

SAM. H. THOMPSON, PROP.

Your Best Asset —A Skin Cleared By— Cuticura Soap

For free sample Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum address: "Cuticura, Dept. E, Boston." All druggists.

DAILY PAGE FOR EVERYBODY

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Why Digitalis Is Dangerous But Effective Heart Remedy

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG.
A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins University.)

DR. HIRSHBERG

When the average individual with "heart trouble" asks his doctor, "Shall I take the heart medicine, digitalis?" the answer he receives is unexpected and he firmly believes that he "asked for bread and received a stone."

Yet the inquirer's innocence is only surpassed by his ignorance. There are dozens of different heart diseases; even experts cannot always easily decide when "heart trouble" is present. Digitalis is a dangerous poison given in many different ways, in 50 differently sized doses. Only by good medical judges should it be administered, and the patient kept under their watchful eyes.

How can a non-medical person expect a "no" or a "yes" to such a question, so full of so many misapprehensions and false assumptions. It could mean almost sure death perhaps to give any answer to such a foolish question without first having seen the patient.

Digitalis is a dangerous drug in the best hands, yet it will correct the pulse rate, the rhythm of the heart beat and straighten out some heart irregularities. It does so, however, in different sized doses and combinations under different circumstances and in hands practiced to its dangers. It also enhances the elasticity and contractibility of the heart muscle.

Action of the Drug.

The dilated heart decreases in volume under its ministering influences. It sometimes tones up a relaxed valve and assists in the closure of the heart after it fills with blood.

Digitalis is helpful to the blood and other tissues, because it tightens the muscles of the heart. Thus it helps to move the blood on its way to the various tissues.

Investigations into the viscosity of the blood by Dr. Martinet of Paris and others show that small doses of one of the many digitalis solutions tends to thin out its mucilaginous character.

Digitalis may raise, lower or not affect blood pressure at all. Even if the blood pressure of a person is known he cannot be given digitalis too cocksuredly. The victim may have high blood pressure and have it elevated to the danger point by digitalis. Even a heart specialist feels his way in the dark under such circumstances.

With regard to its effect upon the kidneys, which are often directly concerned in heart diseases, it may be said that digitalis often increases the outflow of fluids from these organs.

Digitalis tends to shrink and to contract the arteries of the skin, abdomen and scalp, but to dilate those of the kidneys. This augments the kidney fluids. Digitalis seems to produce this increase of the kidney fluids in several ways, namely, by increased pulse pressure, which enhances the flow of blood through the kidneys; by reduction of pressure in the kidney veins through an increased flow of blood through the kidneys at the expense of other abdominal structures, and at last through absorption of dropsy fluid into the blood stream.

Anyone not trained and practiced in the use of drugs who attempts to administer digitalis or almost any other medicine without the particular directions of a doctor is in a class with the fool who rocks the boat or the boy who kills his brother with the gun that was not loaded.

RECEIVING WAR CROSS

The patriotic spirit and devotion with which Canadian women have so far performed war-service work and made sacrifices has never been equalled in the history of any country. Mothers, wives and sisters support this burden with strength and fortitude. But those who are already miserable from the complaints and weaknesses which are so common to women, should take the right temperance tonic for the womanly system.

If a woman is borne down by pain and sufferings, by nervousness or dizzy spells, by headache or backache, "Favorite Prescription" should be taken. It can now be had in tablet form as well as liquid at most drug stores. Send to Dr. Pierce's Branch at Bridgeburg, Ont., for a 10c trial package of tablets.

For fifty years Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets have been most satisfactory in liver and bowel troubles.

Windsor, Ont.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription made a new woman of me. For about six years I suffered with woman's trouble during which time I became all rundown, weak and nervous. I would have severe backaches and pains in my side. I doctored with the doctor, but did not get cured of my ailment, and was so bad that I could scarcely walk across the floor when I began taking the 'Prescription.' When I had taken two bottles I was much improved and four bottles completely cured me, and I have enjoyed better health than I ever did before taking this medicine. It is truly a wonderful medicine for women."—Mrs. Martha Mulcaster, 4 Albert street.

Answers to Health Questions

S. M. G.: Q.—Please tell me what to do for skin peeling between the toes.

A.—Bathe the feet in hot water, using carbolic soap.

E. S.: Q.—Please give me a remedy for blackheads.

A.—Gentle massage with a sterilized piece of absorbent cotton or chamois, followed by the application of paste made up with the following:

Fullers earth	4 drams
Vinegar	2 drams
Glycerine	3 drams

Good Night Stories

By Uncle Silent

Illustrated by Gruelle

DICKY, SQUEEDEE AND MR. LOCUST.

Dicky raised his arms in the air and with one spring landed over a little bush

"Did it that time!" exclaimed a squeaky voice and Squeedee, Dicky's little elfin friend, peeped at him from the green leaves.

"Oh, hello, Squeedee," laughed Dicky. "See me jump. Before long I'll be able to jump as far as Mr. Grassohpper who holds the record of being the biggest jumper of the meadow."

"Right you are, Mr. Locust," chirped a queer voice and a great, big locust all dressed in pale green and light brown, jumped up beside Dicky and Squeedee. "I can jump farther than Grasshopper any day."

"Right you are, Mr. Locust," laughed Squeedee, introducing his two friends. "And best thing of all Billy Locust has two little rest legs."

"Rest legs!" exclaimed Dicky." What in the world are they?

Billy Locust came up in front of Dicky and held up his legs.

"These long ones are my leaping legs," he explained to the astonished Dicky. "See these spines on the back edge of them? They keep me from slipping when I land. The little legs just behind them are my rest legs. When I get tired I hang on to a leaf or blade of grass with them until I'm rested."

"Aren't they great!" exclaimed Dicky. "It certainly would be nice if we boys had a pair."

"Rest Legs!" Exclaimed Dicky.

Billy Locust and Squeedee both laughed at this.

"And what lovely soft cushions on your feet," continued Dicky, rubbing his finger over the bottoms of Billy Locust's feet. "But what's that funny saddle-looking thing around your neck for?"

"You see, Billy Locust can't always look before he leaps and a sharp blade of grass might cut his head off, if it wasn't for that little saddle-thing," replied Squeedee.

"Sure, it protects my neck all right," laughed Billy Locust. "For, sorry to say, with all my eyes I'm like a great many folks—I don't look before I leap."

"Dear me!" laughed Dicky, who discovered Billy Locust's eyes for the first time, "you sure have plenty of eyes to see with. One on either side of your head and three in the centre of your forehead."

"It does seem with five eyes I should be able to see everything, doesn't it?" he laughed.

"And the two shiny spots—are they eyes too?" asked Dicky.

"Goodness, no!" laughed Billy Locust, "those are my earlaps so I can hear anything that's coming my way. These little holes along my sides are the holes I breathe through."

"Sure enough!" exclaimed Dicky. "You haven't any nose."

"I should say not," laughed Billy Locust. "If I did have I'd be bumping it every time I jumped. Just remember when you hear anyone talking about the greatest jumper of the meadow, it's me and not Grasshopper they're talking about," and muttering something about "wise boys that knew so little," Billy Locust spread his wings and flew away, leaving Dicky and Squeedee alone.

Today's Fashion

By MME. FRANCES

Very Rich Suit of Velvet and Ermine That May Be Duplicated in Less Expensive Materials.

There is something ever-youthful about the short semi-fitted coat even if it be of the heavier materials like satin or velvet. Although the model shown here is elaborately trimmed, it's very youthful in cut. The suit is of wine-colored chiffon embroidered in soutache to match. The coat is semi-fitted and is embroidered at the edges of sleeves and bodice with wine-colored soutache. The sleeves are three-quarter length. A broad ermine collar relieves the otherwise dark color scheme, and this is emphasized by the use of a narrow ermine, vest. The narrow skirt is outlined at each side with a narrow, straight band of wine-colored soutache embroidery, and this stiff line is softened at the left side by the wine-colored satin sash depending from the belt.

To-morrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26.

Under two strong and benefic positions of the two most powerful malefics, Saturn, which is in sextile with the Moon, and Uranus trined by Luna, this should prove to be a day of radical and potent change for the better. There should be a breaking up of old crystallized conditions, the setting aside of long-standing delays and disappointments, these possibly involving journeys, removals and decisive changes. The combined figures encourage the launching forth into new and important projects, seeking the assistance of elderly and well-established persons, whose co-operation may be depended upon. All this with the proviso that due caution be exercised against fraud or trickery through collusion, and that papers, contracts, even letters be signed with the eyes open.

Those whose birthday it is may expect a year of change and benefits, but must beware of deception and should sign all papers with caution. A child born on this day will be advanced in views, original, unconventional, fond of change and travel, but reliable

There is a very interesting orchid in Java, the grammatophyllum, all the flowers of which open at once, and they also all wither together.

In some of the streets of Naples it is quite a usual thing to see the cows and goats being led along and milked at the doors of the house.

INCIDENTS IN THE LIVES OF FAMOUS WOMEN

BY ELOISE FARRINGTON.

How Queen Victoria Was Compelled by Court Etiquette to Propose to Prince Albert.

Being a queen—even in olden days—occasionally had its disadvantages. For in spite of her power as queen of England, and her great personal charm, Queen Victoria didn't have the joy of being wooed by the man she loved that falls to the happy lot of humbler maids.

It is true that she and her cousin, Prince Albert, were deeply in love. In fact, ever since their childhood a kindly, scheming grandmother had planned their eventual alliance.

Prince Albert was a handsome boy of 17 when he first went to England to pay a visit to his young cousin, then Princess Victoria. They were both well pleased with each other, and after he left England they corresponded with considerable interest.

Everything seemed smooth sailing for this distinguished pair of lovers. But on the accession of Victoria to the throne, at the age of 18, something happened. She never explained why she suddenly dropped the correspondence with her handsome cousin, except in a vague way. The responsibilities of her position as queen, she intimated, put all ideas of marriage out of her mind temporarily.

Prince Albert, naturally, was considerably disturbed at her silence. He hadn't the advantage of the more plebeian lover who can press his suit as ardently and forcefully as he desires. Court etiquette with which they were both encircled forbade his taking the initiative. This was the part of the coy girl forced on him willy-nilly, until his royal cousin should see fit to extend encouragement to him.

Three years passed, and then even Prince Albert grew uncontrollably impatient. He determined to settle matters in some fashion, and went to England with his brother. When they arrived at Windsor Castle the queen, herself met them at the top of the staircase.

Apparently, she was again favorably impressed by the handsome bearing and personal charm of young Albert. On the fourth day after his arrival the queen confided to Lord Melbourne, her chief adviser, that she had made up her mind to marry young Albert! On the following day Prince Albert was summoned to the queen's presence.

"He Found Her Alone."

He found her alone. There she confessed to him that he had won her heart and that she would endeavor to make him exceedingly happy if he would make the sacrifice of sharing his life with her.

It is an interesting commentary on the modesty of the queen's character—a trait which she repeatedly exhibited during her lifetime—that she spoke to every one about the great sacrifice which Albert made in becoming Prince Consort. Most young princes would have regarded the sacrifice as coming from the queen. But she was herself too fine and delicate a spirit not to realize that the prince's position would be a difficult one.

At first—being simply Prince Consort and not king—he wasn't present at the interviews between the queen and her ministers unless especially invited, but after a year or two he was always present as a matter of course. The prince's good taste was evidenced by his careful method of adapting himself to his position—counselling the queen in all that she planned, but never obtruding his own personality. When offered the command of the army, he declined, saying that his principle was "to sink his own individual existence in that of his wife, and to aim at no ostentation or power for himself."

It was a difficult courting, but one of the most happy royal marriages of all time.

Ladies! Salute Him!

Discovers drug that loosens sore, touchy corns so they lift out

A noted Cincinnati chemist discovered a new ether compound and called it freezone, and little quarter ounce bottles can now be obtained from any drug store for a few cents.

You simply apply several drops of freezone upon a tender corn or painful callous, and instantly the soreness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callous so loose that you can just lift it off with the fingers.

No pain, not a bit of soreness, either when applying freezone or afterwards, and it doesn't even irritate the skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also toughened callouses just shrivel up and lift off so easily. It is wonderful! Seems magical. It works like a charm. Millions of women will hereafter keep a little bottle of the wonderful freezone handy and never let a corn ache twice.

Workers must have more Soap

The demand for Comfort—the high quality, all-round cleanser is greater than ever. We have made our bar BIGGER by withdrawing the premiums, during war-time anyway.

COMFORT

a bigger bar for the money without premiums

Your grocer can sell you this bigger, money-saving Bar—just insist on it. Comfort Soap has the largest sale in Canada—quality talks—the people know best.

Pugsley, Dingman & Co. Limited, Toronto

19

OVIDO

HABANA

The Utmost in Cigars

Right down to the last puff you can taste the clear Havana and sense the touch of expert makers.

10 CENTS.

Georgina and Onyx Shoes

Showing one of our new models in Black Glove Kid, which is both fashionable and suited to autumn wear.

Georgina and Onyx Shoes are both beautiful and enduring. Great care is taken to select close-grained, flexible leathers that will give substantial service as well as take a very fine, dressy finish.

There's value and wear—as well as supreme style—in every Georgina and Onyx Shoe.

Built Exclusively By

THE ONYX SHOE — GEORGINA

Blachford Shoe Manufacturing Company Limited

92 Sherbourne Street, Toronto

Obtained through Canada's leading boot shops

And in London

GEORGINA Shoes for sale by Hubert ASHPLANT & Sons 8 ONYX Shoes for sale by J. P. COOK Co., Limited

ADELE GARRISON'S NEW

REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

Is Lillian Correct in Her Distrust of Kato?

After the first rapture of reunion with my father was over Lillian looked at me searchingly.

"This isn't a surprise to you, Madge," she said accusingly. "How long have you known this?"

"About two minutes before you came back for me," I returned.

"How did you guess?" my father and Lillian asked together. But Dr. Pettit remained silent.

"I recognized the handwriting upon the piece of paper," I returned.

"But you had seen it upon the other message," my father protested, "and, besides, Pettit wrote it with his left hand."

"I know," I answered, feeling my face flushed with embarrassment, "and I was sure that I knew the handwriting on the other paper, but couldn't place it. And I have seen Dr. Pettit write with his left hand."

Without volition of my own I found my eyes drawn to those of the young physician. There was a look in his, a flush upon his thin cheeks that told me he, too, remembered that heetic luncheon when he had traced the unmeaning characters ambidexterously in his preoccupation and agitation.

I took refuge in feigned surprise.

Two Things Explained.

"So you were the man in the taxi and on horseback!" I exclaimed as if the idea had just occurred to me, but I saw a look of ironical understanding flash into Dr. Pettit's eyes, knew that I hadn't deceived him by my pretence of sudden remembrance.

"Guilty on both counts," he returned with a slight bow, adding with a smile, "I must congraulate you on your get-away that day. You completely fooled me, but you came near paying dearly for it."

I looked my astonishment at his knowledge of my encounter at the inn.

"Oh, we aren't out of touch with things," my father said proudly, "even if for a time we are compelled to hide here like rabbits. There are a faithful one or two who know where we are, and with Kato as our message bearer we are able to keep our fingers upon the pulse of affairs."

"Pardon me," interposed Lillian, "but where did you pick him up?"

There was that in her tone which made us all three look at her intently. It is a trick I've never seen fail with her, the gaining of instant and alert attention any time she chooses to have it by the timbre of her voice.

Lillian Casts Doubts on Kato.

"Kato?" my father said after a minute. "He has been with me off and on for years in South America, was a sort of general factotum at first one consulate and then another before I got hold of him. He is an invaluable man, Kato, and I've always thought him true as steel. He has that reputation. Why do you ask?"

His tone was troubled. I knew that Lillian's question had disturbed him, saw that he anxiously awaited her further opinion upon the subject of his Jap servant.

"I may be wrong," Lillian began hesitatingly, then spoke boldly, confidently. "But I'll bet you anything you like that I'm not wrong. I don't like the looks of that man. I do not trust him. I know it is a case of 'I do not like thee, Dr. Fell, the reason why I cannot tell.' But mark my word, that Jap is distinctly no good business."

I saw my father straighten himself with the offended dignity of an old man of affairs who finds his judgment questioned. Lillian usually doesn't err in that way. I realized that she must be exercised indeed over the question of the servant she distrusted to speak so strongly.

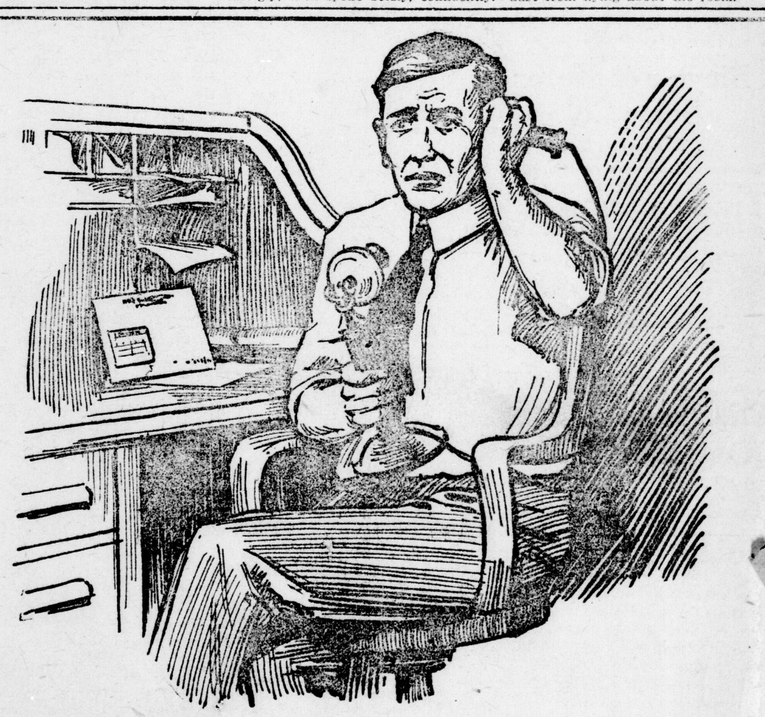

But Lillian's perceptions are of the keenest. She saw my father's choler, and deftly mitigated it.

"Please pardon me, Mr. Gordon," she said in her most ingratiating manner, "for airing my unreasonable feminine prejudices in this manner. That is my worst fault," she added, looking around ingenuously at Dr. Pettit and me, "making snap judgments of people and letting them run away with me. You know the man best, of course, and I had no business to speak as I did."

"Indeed, I am very glad to have the benefit of your opinions," my father returned with a courtly old-school bow, evidently completely mollified. Dr. Pettit and I exchanged a surreptitious, amused glance. The idea of Lillian, of all women, "making snap judgments" and allowing herself to be swayed by "unreasonable feminine prejudices" was intensely ludicrous.

There lingered in my mind, however, a distinctly troubled feeling. I had learned to trust Lillian's intuition absolutely. And there was a premonition of trouble ahead for my father mingled with thoughts of the Asiatic servant.

Before cleaning out a fireplace sprinkle a good handful of tea leaves among the ashes. This makes the ashes set more easily, and prevents the dust from flying about the room.

GOOD HEALTH is as necessary to the winning of the war as good guns, good shells and good airplanes.

And it is not alone the health of the soldier that is important, for this is watched and guarded as never before. But there is the health of the people at home, who are manufacturing and sending forward the supplies which make it possible to continue the fight.

Men and women have never in the world's history carried such mental and physical burdens as they do to-day.

From Ministers of State, Commissioners, Manufacturers, all the way through the enormous staffs of men and women workers, there are problems to be solved and schedules to be lived up to that mean enormous anxiety and strain on the nervous system.

It is under these conditions that many resort to the use of narcotics to produce sleep or stimulants to whip up the tired nerves. In either case the temporary help is obtained at an enormous expense to the nervous system.

The only rational treatment is that which goes to build up new nerve cells and new nerve force, and supreme in this class is Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Most people know about this food cure, but all do not realize that it has revolutionized the treatment of diseases of the nerves by the new idea of supplying to the blood the elements which go to the creation of nervous energy and vigor.

The most common indications of nervous exhaustion are inability to sleep and rest, failure of digestion and loss of appetite, nervousness and irritability. You arise tired in the mornings, and are easily annoyed over little things. You put off the duties of the day because you lack the energy to take hold and clean them up.

It is evident that you must have help to overcome this condition, and there is nothing so sure to befriend you as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

For your protection the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author, are on every box of the genuine Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. 50c a box, 6 for $2.75, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

SEVERAL OLD COLORS BACK ON THE O. A. C. FOOTBALL FOURTEEN

Strong Team Will Represent Guelph Agricultural College.

GUELPH, Sept. 24.—Prospects for a strong football team at the O. A. C. this fall are exceedingly bright, as there are seven of last year's fourteen back at school, with one or two more likely to come. There is sure to be several good candidates from the freshman class, and with such splendid nucleus to start with, Manager Gandies should have no difficulty in rounding up a fine team. It has not yet been decided just what class of football the Aggies will play, as it is known they are all favorable to playing in the O. R. F. U., but the probabilities are that the team will only play exhibition games.

NOTED SOCCER MEN IN BRITISH CASUALTY LIST

LONDON, Sept. 24.—The names of several well-known soccer and rugby footballers appear in the latest casualty list.

Corp. James Shark, the famous Scottish and Fulham fullback, is wounded and a prisoner in Germany. Bernard Pykett, the well-known Notts, Leicester Fosse and Liverpool soccer player, has had his right leg amputated. Sergt. A. Turnbull, who was famous before the war as a member of the Manchester City and Manchester United clubs, is officially reported dead.

Lieut. Ronald G. S. Durward, killed, played in the rugby fifteen at Edinburgh Academy in 1910.

RESULTS AT SAGINAW

SAGINAW, Mich., Sept. 24. — The track was fast and a crowd of 20,000 people witnessed the opening of the Michigan Shortship races this afternoon. The summaries:

2:24 Trot, Purse $400.

Nellie G., g.m., by Tony Bell, (Roenig)	1	1	1
Morgan Warthy, b.g., (Crapentien)	6	2	4
Dorothy L., r.n.m., (Sherman)	4	8	2
Robinwood, b.g., (Cunningham)	2	7	6
Trebelle, br.m., (Grover)	3	3	5
Adastro, b.m., (Janes)	7	4	3
Jay Commodore, b.s., (Colby)	5	6	7
Arthur Coffmna, b.h., (Caris)	8	5	8
Sadie May, b.m., (Sturgeon)	9	9	9
Sadie May, b.m., (Sturgeon)	9	9	9

Time 2:21 1-2; 2:21 1-2; 2:20 1-4.

2:12 Pace, Purse $400.

Eva Abbe, s.m. by the Abbe, E. J. Goble, (Casey)	1	1	1
College Boy, b.g., (Caris)	3	2	3
Double G., b.g., (Sturgeon)	2	3	4
Essie V., b.m., (Colby)	5	6	2
Capt. Mock, br.h., (Jnose)	4	5	6
Grace D., ch.m., (Kain)	6	4	5

Time 2:11 1-4; 2:11 1-4; 2:11 1-2.

STOP and THINK!

$50,000 to $75,000 per ton is the price of the steel used in Safety Razor Blades. Why throw away your old blades when we will sharpen them and make them better than new? Our prices:

Gillette, 35c a dozen.
Duplex, 50c a dozen.
Single edge, 25c a dozen.
Ordinary Razors, 25c each.

Mail us your blades. We'll guarantee our work. Quick service.

Bicycle & Motor Sales Co.
425 Wellington Street.
981 xvzxv

TractionCompany

CHANGE OF TIME, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1918.

Sunday cars are cancelled until further notice.

Cars will leave London as follows:

For St. Thomas only—6:10 a.m. (mixed), 7:50 a.m., 10:00 a.m., 12:30 p.m., 4:20 p.m., 6:30 p.m., 10:30 p.m.

For Port Stanley—6:10 a.m., 12:30 p.m. only.

Lambeth extra, 7:00 a.m. Returning, leaves Lambeth, 7:28 a.m.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM

Time Table Changes

A change of time will be made on SEPTEMBER 29, 1918.

Information now in Agents' hands. Sept.28

London and Port Stanley Railway

Timetable Effective September 9.

To St. Thomas—†5:15, †*6:20, 7:20, *8:20, 9:20, *10:20, 11:20 a.m., 12:20, *1:20, 2:20, *3:20, 4:20, 5:20, 6:20, *7:20, 8:20, 9:20, *10:20, †11:20.

To Port Stanley—†*6:20, *8:20, *10:20 a.m., *1:20, *3:20, *5:20, *7:20, *10:20 p.m.

†Daily except Sunday.

*Limited trains London to St. Thomas.

CANADIAN PACIFIC

Toronto-Galt-London-Chatham-Windsor-Detroit

TRAIN SERVICE

WESTBOUND

	6.29	21	633	19	635
	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.
Lv. TORONTO	7.45	8.40	3.30	7.15	11.40
Lv. GALT	9.45	10.33	5.30	9.05	1.53
Ar. LONDON	11.35	12.05	7.20	10.40	3.40
Lv. LONDON		12.10	7.28	10.50	3.50
Ar. CHATHAM		1.51	9.20	12.40	5.55
AR. WINDSOR (M. C. R.) E. T.		3.05		2.00	7.30
Ar. DETROIT (M. C. R.) C. T.		2.30		1.20	6.50
Ar. WINDSOR (C. P. R.) E. T.			10.45		7.50
Ar. DETROIT (Fort St.) C. T.			10.39
	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.	A.M.	A.M.

Trains 21, 633 and 19 daily. Others daily except Sunday.

EASTBOUND

	20	630	634	632	22
	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.
Lv. DETROIT (Fort St.) C. T.			8.05
Lv. WINDSOR (C.P.R.), E. T.			9.55
Lv. DETROIT (M.C.R.), C. T.	12.40		8.15		1.45
Lv. WINDSOR (M.C.R), E. T.	2.00		10.10		3.05
Lv CHATHAM	3.22		11.40		4.25
Ar. LONDON	5.10		1.32		6.05
Lv. LONDON	5.20	7.40	1.40	4.30	6.15
Lv. GALT	6.55	9.45	3.22	6.45	7.50
Ar. TORONTO	8.40	11.55	5.15	9.00	9.35
	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.

Trains 20, 634 and 22 daily. Others daily except Sunday.

Further particulars from Canadian Pacific Ticket Agents, or H. J. McCALLUM, City Passenger Agent, London.

MUTT AND JEFF—My! But Aren't Those "Snipers" Quick With the Gun! (Copyright, 1918, by H. C. Fisher. Trade mark registered in Canada.) BY "BUD" FISHER

LITTLE CHANGE IN JUNIOR HOCKEY IS LIKELY THIS YEAR

Practically Same Team as Last Season's Will Represent London.

Unless it is found impossible to secure rink accommodation, London is certain to be represented in the O. H. A. the coming season. Practically the same team as last year's will be on deck again, the only absentees being Lightfoot and Lancaster. With an extra year's growth the locals should be able to offer strenuous competition to any team they come up against—that is, in the event of sufficient practice being obtained to whip the boys into shape.

The great drawback to last year's aggregation was the failure of the boys to play together. This was accounted for owing to the poor practice facilities and the difficulty in securing rink accommodation. The Jubilee and Westminster rinks are the only available sheets on which the boys might learn their combination play and teamwork. Several factors lay in the way of daily workouts, however, one being the curlers and the other the skating public. The Jubilee rink will be utilized by the east end curlers during the winter, and unless arrangements are made by which the juniors are able to practice on the ice between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock a repetition of the dissatisfaction of last year will be the order. The Westminster sheet is used for pleasure skating every night and practices on it are therefore out of the question.

With a military sextet in the running this year it is not improbable that the practice dates of the juniors and the soldiers will clash. This occurred last winter on more than one occasion, and interfered materially with the play of both teams. It has been suggested that the military aggregation arrange to practice in the course of the afternoons rather than in the evenings. If this could be brought about junior and military practice hours would not conflict, and the unsatisfactory run of things which characterized local hockey last year will be eliminated.

Owing to pressure of business it is likely that A. T. Taylor, manager of the London juniors last year, will be unable to assume his managerial duties this season. Mr. Taylor was confronted with a difficult task last winter, not the least among them being the poor practice facilities.

EXHIBITS OF GOOD QUALITY AT BLYTH

BLYTH, Sept. 24.—The Blyth fair was held on Monday and today. The first day was not at all promising, and towards evening a very heavy downfall of rain prevented a number of entries arriving. This morning was misty, but when the fog cleared away and the sun came out it was an ideal day for a fair. In consequence there was a large attendance. The receipts amounted to about $600.

The exhibits in the hall were not as numerous as usual, but what was shown was of first-class quality. The cattle and horses were the best that has been shown here for years, the extra prizes given by the association having a tendency to bring out more stock. The sheep and pig exhibit was also good. The poultry class was not as well filled as in former years.

The horse races were as follows:

Free-for-All Trot.

MacDoyle	3	3	3
Bud Kyle	2	1	1
Kathleen	1	2	2

The Three-Minute Trot.

Barney Wilkes	1	1	1
Annie Mac	2	2	2
Starlight	3	dr

The Blyth band furnished some splendid music in the evening. The society had a bumper house at the concert.

MOTOR FIRM TO LOCATE AT WINDSOR

WINDSOR, Sept. 24.—A branch factory of the General Motors, Limited, is an industrial possibility for Windsor, according to a statement made here today by a prominent local man whose name cannot be used. A tentative site of some thirty-five acres in Walkerville is under consideration for the proposed plant.

WAR CLOUD HAS AN EASY TIME IN THE ROSLIN HANDICAP

Three Competitors Became Ill and Macomber Nag Wins.

New York, Sept. 25.—A. K. Macomber's War Cloud, rated early in the season as one of the best colts of his age, dropped into a soft spot at Aqueduct yesterday in the Roslin handicap for three-year-olds. With Sun Briar, Jack Hare Junior and Sunny Slope either absent or ailing, War Cloud had little to oppose him, and he simply galloped over the mile and a sixteenth, to win by five lengths from Kashmir, with the greatly deteriorated Papp in third place.

The Macomber colors were also carried to the front in the high weight handicaps at 6 furlongs, in which Hollister proved that he has a place among the good sprinters by carrying 134 pounds to an easy victory. High Cost cut out the running, but Loftus kept Hollister close up until the stretch, when he went to the front and won with plenty in hand by a length and a half. G. W. Loftus' Wiseman came strong in the stretch and took the place from Arnold, which had been chasing Hollister all the way.

First race, 2 years, claiming, 6 furlongs—His Sister, 107 (Callahan), 11 to 5, even, 2 to 5, 1; Madam Byng, 105 (McAtee), 7 to 1, 5 to 2, 6 to 5, 2; xKarlocker, 116 (Lyke), 18 to 5, 7 to 5, 3 to 5, 3. Time, 1:13 3-5. Bonstelle, Umbala, Clare Booth, xGeorge Elliot and Hindoostan ran. X—Brighton entry.

Second race, steeplechase, 3 years, about 2 miles—Whist II. 132, (Rowan), 2 to 1, 3 to 5, out, 1; Mystian, 132 (Green), 7 to 5, 1 to 3, out 2; Mohoclo, 132 (Keating), 2 to 1, 3 to 5, out, 3. Time, 4:24 4-5. Contender ran.

Third race, handicap, high weight, 6 furlongs—Hollister, 134 (Loftus), 12 to 5, 4 to 5, 1 to 3, 1; Wiseman, 119 (Kelsay), 7 to 1, 5 to 2, 6 to 5, 2; Arnold, 124 (Lyke), 8 to 1, 3 to 1, 7 to 5, 3. Time, 1:12 3-5. Jock Scot, Dulse, High Cost, Teacaddy, Runes and Duettiste ran.

Fourth race, handicap, 1 1-16 miles, —War Cloud, 122 (Loftus), 2 to 5, out, out, 1; Kashmir, 108 (Lyke), 4 to 1, 3 to 5, and out, 2; Papp, 108 (Kelsay), 8 to 1, 8 to 5, out, 3. Time, 1:40. Matinee Idol ran.

Fifth race, 2-year-olds and up, non-winners of two races since September 1, 1918, selling, $605.94, mile—Torchbearer, 112 (Robinson), 11 to 20, out, out, 1; Happy Valley, 98 (Callahan), 7 to 10, 1 to 4, 2; Wild Thyme, 100 (Troise), 7 to 5, 3. Time, 1:38 4-5. Orderly, Ninety Simplex, Landlubber and Blue Thistle ran.

Sixth race, fillies, 2-year-olds, conditions, $605.94, 5 furlongs—Kiss Again, 115 (Fairbrother), 7 to 2, 6 to 5, 1 to 2, 1; Merry Princess, 115 (Callahan), 2 to 1, even, 2; Ballet Dancer II., 115, (Rice), 4 to 5, 3. Time, :59 4-5. Sketchy, Goldvale, Starlight Dance, Jacnetta, Rainbow Girl, Virago ran.

WOODSTOCK COLLEGE ENTERS O. R. F. U.

WOODSTOCK, Sept. 24.—Woodstock College will have a team in the O.R.F.U. this season, and an application for grouping has been made. Last year's team, which made such a good showing against Sarnia and other clubs, has been pretty well "shot to pieces," but such good players as Hoover, Bill Carson, Pugsley and Knox are back at school.

With these players as a foundation the management believes with the splendid new material at hand this term a good team will be built up. A new face on the line-up will be Harry King the hockey player. He played great rugby two years ago, and is expected to repeat this season. The team has not been picked yet, but in a practice game last night with the Collegiate Institute they ran up a score of 45—0.

"We have the material, but it will mean steady training to develop our players," said Manager N. S. McKechnie. "Dune" MacKay of Toronto is this year's captain, while J. W. Russell will coach the team, Gordon Jones is secretary.

CHILDREN ESCAPE DEATH BY FIRE

WINDSOR, Sept. 24.—Left alone in their home on Tecumseh road just beyond the city limits, two young children of John Lane, a farmer, would have been burned to death yesterday but for the fortunate arrival of Craig Johnstone, a young Walkerville man who was driving past the house and heard screams of children who had been left locked inside while their parents were at work some distance away.

Johnstone threw his shoulder against the door and burst it in, clouds of smoke rushing into his face as he forced his way inside and carried the little ones to safety. The house was burned to the ground, entailing loss estimated at $2,000.

HARVEST HOME SERVICE AT MORPETH

MORPETH, Sept. 24.—The harvest home services in the Methodist Church, Morpeth, on Sunday were of unusual interest.

Large congregations, morning and evening, listened with rapt interest to the excellent sermons of the Rev. D. N. McCamus of Blenheim.

The musical part of the services was under the direction of the Palmyra Methodist choir, whose singing was of a very high order and inspirational in character.

Much credit is being given the members of the Ladies' Aid, which so tastefully decorated the church with an abundance of flowers, plants, grains, etc., appropriate to the season.

Instead of the usual supper and entertainment on Monday evening, the officials and pastor, Rev. Dr. A. H. Brown, called for a thank-offering, which was more liberally responded to than at any previous occasion in the history of the church.

The thank-offering, amounting to $200, with more to follow, is considered one that is a practical expression of the liberality of the people and their hearty indorsation of this method for raising the funds of the church.

MARY MAUD TAKES FLORADORA PURSE AT HAVRE DE GRACE

Eight Wad Forced To Be Shot When Shoulder Broken.

Havre de Grace, Sept. 25.—Mary Maud, the imported daughter of Irish Lad and Trizette, galloped off with the Florodora purse at a mile and seventy yards here yesterday. It was a first-class field that the three-year-old was meeting, with the exception perhaps of Miss Filley and Queen of the Sea, but Mary Maud raced into the lead in the first quarter and held her field safe to the finish.

The colors of Walter M. Jeffords were carried to the front for the first time at this meeting, when the two-year-old Routledge beat home Dottie Andiveer and Passing Shower.

One steeplechaser that started in the novice jump will not run any more. Tight Wad went down at the second fence and broke his shoulder and had to be shot. The winner was Turmoil, which went to the front on the last turn and had no trouble beating Dave Campbell. The Glen Riddle Farm's Capital Prize was a contender to the last half-mile, where he retired, and at the last fence he fell, giving Jockey Williams a nasty tumble. Neither horse nor rider was hurt.

First race—Medusa, 102 (Kummer), $5.90, $3, $2.90, 1; Lazy Lou, 112 (Johnson), $2.70, $2.30, 2; Elysian, 102 (Huff), $5.40, 3. Time 1:44 3-5. George Roesch, Galaway, Flying Dart, Queen Blonde, Rake Off, Glomer, O'Malley, Tale Bearer, Machere, Lady Eileen ran.

Second race, steeplechase, maidens, 3 years and up, about 2 miles—Turmoil, 143 (Landry), $4.50, $3.50, $2.90, 1; Dave Campbell, 145 (Bryant), $9, $5.90, 2; Outlaw, 145 (Taylor), $5.30, 3. Time 4:02 3-5. Ed Weiss, Capital Prize, Dandy, Alderberry, Tight Wad, Favorite Article and Mohican ran.

Third race, 2 years, 6 furlongs — Routledge, 116 (Ambrose), $3.90, $2.30, $2.10, 1; Dottie Vandiveer, 101 (Sande), $2.20, $2.10, 2; Passing Shower, 113 (Johnson), $2.50, 3. Time 1:13 2-5. Green Mint, Ormond and Lucky Lady ran.

Fourth race, the Florodora, 3-year-olds and up, 1 mile and 70 yards — Mary Maud, 101 (Rodriguez), $5.60, $2.90, $2.20, 1; Priscilla Mullens, 114 (Sande), $2.70, $2.20, 2; Bayberry Candle, 107 (Mergler), $2.40, 3. Time 1:43 2-5. Queen of the Sea, Celto and Miss Filley ran.

Fifth race, 3-year-olds and up, selling, 6 furlongs—Malvolio, 105 (Collins), $59.60, $14.60, $5.10, 1; Milkman, 112 (Sande), $5, $2.70, 2; Icarus, 100 (Johnson), $3, 3. Time 1:13. Hamilton A., Ballast and Murphy ran.

Sixth race, 3-year-olds and up, claiming, 1 mile and 70 yards — Vocabulary, 101 (Sneideman), $12.10, $6.80, $4.60, 1; Goldcrest Boy, 115 (Parrington), $4.90, $3.60, 2; Wood VIVolet, 101 (Sande), $3.70, 3. Time 1:43 3-5. Helen Atkin, Crumpsall, Wodan, Perigourdine, Candidate II. and All Bright ran.

Seventh race, 3-year-olds and upward, claiming, mile and furlong—Indian Chant, 103 (Stalker), $11, $7.10, $5.20, 1; G. M. Miller, 111 (O'Brien), $8.10, $5.40, 2; Arbitrator, 108 (Jackson), $8.80, 3. Time 1:53 3-5. Bucknail, Star Shooter, Goblin, Thornbloom, Kentucky Boy, Austral and Matoako ran.

LOUISVILLE

First race, maiden colts and geldings, 2-year-olds, five and half furlongs—Iwiniwin, 112, (Barret), $5.10, $3.00, $2.80, won; Bugle Call, 109, (Connelly), $3.70, $3.00, second; Golden Floss, 112, (Murphy), $4.30, third. Time 1:06 4-5. Parking, Hilly Fox, Troben, Twiford, Red William, Texas Special, San Peur II., Royal Gold, Hunter Platt also ran.

Second race, claiming, 3-year-olds and up, six furlongs—Tom Goose, 103, (Barret), $104.60, $30.30, $13.40, won; Sweet Alyssum, 104, (Smith), $4.90, $4.90, second; M .Bert Thurman, 109, (Hanover), $8.90, third. Time 1:13 2-5. Flapper, Leicester, Arthur Middleton, Primero, Verde, Dr. Tuck, Enos, Prince Igor, Jessie Louise also ran.

Third race, purse $900, claiming, 3-year-olds and up, six furlongs—Yorkville, 114, Lunsford, $7.90, $3.30, $3.00, won; Billie B., 115, (Jackson), $4.30, $3.20, second; Green Grass, 103, (Garner), $5.90, third. Ttime 1:13. Stesty, Kildare Boy, Robert L. Owen, Dondodge, New Model, Lucky R., Frank Wilson, Sister Susie and Colle also ran.

Fourth race, claiming, $1,000; fillies, 2-year-olds, five and half furlongs — Madge F., 103, (Lunsford), $5.30, $3.30, $2.60, won; First Pullet, 100, (Smith), $21.40, $7.20, second; Carrie Moore, 103, (Simpson), $3.70, third. Time 1:08. Selma G., Norma T., and Manicurist also ran.

Fifth race, Clermont purse, 3-year-olds and up, $1,200, mile and 70 yards—Herald, 109, (Connelly), $34.40, $4.90, $2.60, won; Night Wind ,107, (Smith), $2.40, $2.20, second; El Rey, 110, (Howard), $2.40, third. Time 1:43 1-5. Sanesyming and Gunpowder also ran.

Sixth race, claiming, $1,000, 3-year-olds, mile and 70 yards—Chick Barkley, 112, (Hanover), $12.80, $6.00, $4.30, won; Clara Martin, 103, (Kederis), $6.90, $6.60, second; Edn. Herrmann, $12.70, third. Time 1:44 4-5. Waldmaster, Paula V., Quito, Aztec, Clairvoyant, American and Mary's Beau also ran.

Seventh race, claiming, purse $1,000, 4-year-olds and up, mile and three-sixteenths—Hocnir, 102, (Lunsford), $8.90, $3.00, $2.70, won; Brynlimah, 107, (Connelly), $4.10, $4.10, second; Baby Lynch, 107, (Murphy), $4.20, third. Time 1:58 4-5. Fit, Col. Marchmont, Perugino, Solid Rock and Repton also ran.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE WELL ATTENDED

WARDSVILLE, Sept. 24.—Rev. Dr. F. L. Barber of Colborne Street Church, London, preached in the Methodist Church here morning and evening, the anniversary services being well attended.

The "Save the Gasoline" slogan has been well observed, very few cars being in evidence on Sunday, except those carrying their owners to church.

The crops have turned out well in this vicinity, Mr. Howard Gardiner threshing seven hundred bushels of oats and barley from nine acres of land.

The heavy rain fall has damaged the bean crop in this vicinity.

ONLY ONE OF FOUR RACES IS ANNEXED IN STRAIGHT HEATS

Directum J. Only Steed To Take Money in Successive Rounds.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 24.—Of the four stakes on the card, for a total distribution of $15,000, at the Grand Circuit meeting today, but one was won in straight heats, even the 3-year-old colts in the Western Horseman's futurity trotting some extra miles before a decision was reached.

Directum J. tripped off three winning heats in the 2:06 Board of Trade pace, equaling his record of 2:03¼ in the last heat, with Little Batice chasing him out.

Ante Guy did an erratic first mile in the 2:12 Buckeye trot, finishing tenth, because of a bad break made at the first turn. She trotted to a new record for her of 2:04¼ in the second heat, and won the third handily. Prince Loree and Heir Reaper set so hot a pace in the fourth mile that Murphy laid up with Ante Guy, while Geers won with Heir Reaper. She came back strong in the fifth and winning heat.

One of the best battles of the day was between The Toddler and Wilkesbrewer, in the Chamber of Commerce 2:08 trot. The Toddler dropped the third heat to the mare. She had him beaten in the second heat, but broke at the wire. The Toddler trotted the last half of the fourth and winning heat in 1:01½ to shake off Wilkesbrewer.

The Western Horseman futurity had David Guy as a strong favorite, but Peter June took the second heat away from him, and David Guy re-entered the betting. Peter June then won the third heat and the race.

Summary:

2:06 pace, the Board of Trade, purse $3,000, 3 in 5:

Directum J. (Murphy)	1	1	1
Little Batice (Cox)	2	3	2
Mary Rosalind Parr (Parrington)	6	2	3
Rascal (Willis)	3	4	4

Alexander the Great and Bar Light also started.

Time—2:05¼, 2:04¼, 2:03¼.

2:08 trot, the Chamber of Commerce, purse $3,000, 3 in 5:

The Todler (Stinson)	1	1	2 1
Wilkesbrewer (Lee)	5	2	1 2
Gentry C. (Geers)	2	3	4 3
Ross B. (Wright)	3	5	6 4

Mack Forbes, Kelly De Forest and Esperanza also started.

Time—2:06½, 2:05¼, 2:05¾, 2:07¼.

2:12 trot, the Buckeye, purse $5,000, 3 in 5:

Ante Guy (Murphy)	10	1	1 4 1
Prince Loree (McDevitt)	1	5	3 2 2
Heir Reaper (Geers)	4	2	9 1 3
Alma Forbes (Ackerman)	2	4	6 3ro

Isworthy McKinney, Dick Watts, Mignotia, Royal Knight, Bonnie Del, Lotto Watts, and Blackburn Watts also started.

Time—2:06¾, 2:04¼ 2:06¾, 2:07¼, 2:08¼.

Western Horseman futurity, 3-year-old trotters, purse $4,000, 2 in 3.

Peter June (Geers)	2	1	1
David Guy (Murphy)	1	3	4
Olive Faul (McCarr)	3	2	2
Easton (White)	4	4	3

Peter Lafayette, Miss Dewey Watts, King Watts and Truxston also started.

Time—2:05½, 2:06½, 2:07¼.

BRANTFORD PROTEST TO BE CONSIDERED

TORONTO, Sept. 24. — The Brantford club's protest against Hamilton in the O. B. A. A. series will be considered at a meeting of the executive here on Friday night. Brantford alleges that they were handicapped by the refusal of the officials in charge of the game to make ground rules, and that the crowd encroached on the field of play, also that they were badly treated after the game by the partisans of the winning club.

BLED TO DEATH.

Tried to trim a wart with a razor and severed an artery. The only wart cure is "Putnam's," which removes warts, corns, callouses, in one day. Insist on getting Putnam's Corn and Wart Extractor; it's the best; 25c at all dealers.

IN FIVE MINUTES NO SICK STOMACH, INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" is the quickest and surest Stomach Relief.

You don't know what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin to neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have dyspepsia. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach sweetened, and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it stops food souring and sets things straight, so gently and easily, that it is really astonishing. Your stomach will digest your meals if you keep acids neutralized.

POOR BALL PLAYERS MILITARY PEN-PUSHERS

Beaten to a Frazzle by W. O. R. Indoor Baseball Team.

The Battalion Orderly Room of the W. O. R. got wiped off the field last night in a fast game of indoor baseball against the Battalion team. Phibbs, the hurler for the Orderly Room, was knocked off the rubber, and was replaced by McGill, who, it is said, did just as bad. In some unaccountable way the Battalion men seemed to connect with the ball every throw, and it was just one continuous run-run-run. When the game was over the score was 24 to 8 in favor of the Battalion team. The bonehead plays made by the Orderly Room were a disgrace, and how they succeeded in getting their eight runs is a mystery.

Batteries: Battalion team, Miller and Eddy; Orderly Room, Phibbs, McGill and Holland.

TEN RINKS IN ST. MARK'S BOWLING TOURNEY TODAY

St. Mark's Bowling Club will hold its initial tournament of the season today, play commencing at 1 o'clock. Three sets of prizes, in addition to a handsome challenge cup, will be presented to the winners. Local rinks and one visiting quartet have entered.

The draw:

Thistles.	Lon. Asylum.
No. 1	R. B. Highway, sk.
All Saints.	St. Marks.
H. Barrows, sk.	W. L. Talbot, sk.
Harrietsville.	London R. C.
S. E. Facey, sk.	No. 2
St. Marks.	St. Matthews.
M. J. Morrison, sk.	A. Whitlow, sk.
London R. C.	Lon. Asylum.
No. 1	A. Thrower, sk.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

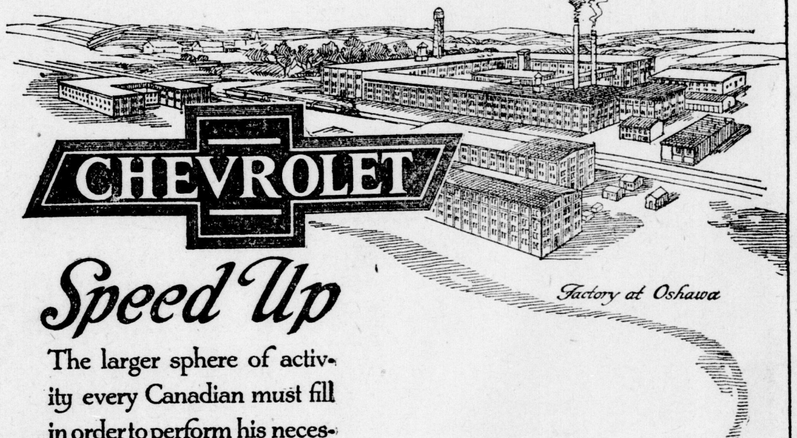

WILSON'S "The National Smoke" BACHELOR

Smokers who appreciate the full, satisfying flavor of carefully-matured Havana leaf will enjoy the Pachelor Cigar.

3 for 25¢

ANDREW WILSON & CO. LIMITED TORONTO AND MONTREAL

CHEVROLET

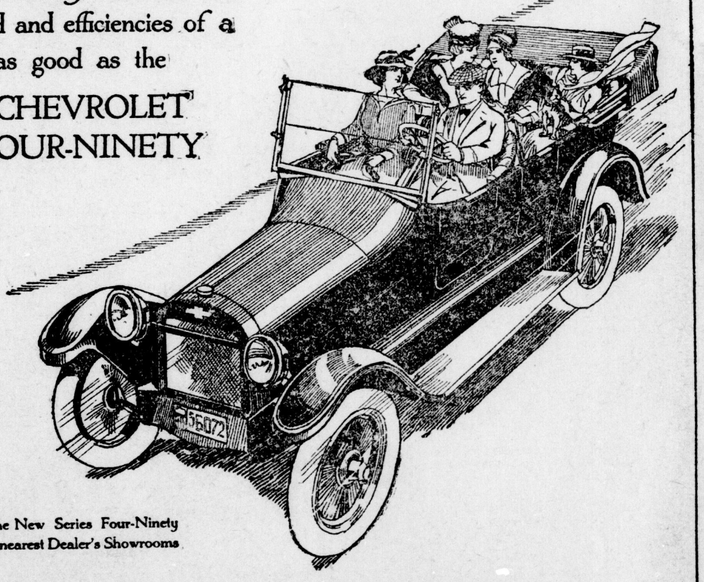

Factory at Oshawa

Speed Up

The larger sphere of activity every Canadian must fill in order to perform his necessary part in the nation's responsibility demands the speed and efficiencies of a car as good as the

CHEVROLET FOUR-NINETY

See the New Series Four-Ninety at the nearest Dealer's Showrooms

Chevrolet Motor Co. of Canada, Limited
OSHAWA, ONT., CANADA

ONTARIO GARAGE & MOTOR SALES, LIMITED

These Bad Results

follow a lazy liver:—Constipation; Disordered Stomach; Headache; Biliousness, and other evil, painful, dangerous things.

This Good Old Remedy comes to the rescue.

Take two or three pills at bedtime—once. After that, one each night; two, now and then, if necessary.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS

Genuine bears Signature

Brentwood

Colorless faces often show the absence of Iron in the blood.

Carter's Iron Pills will help this condition.

HARVEST SERVICES WELL ATTENDED

DORCHESTER, Sept. 24.—The harvest home services held in the Anglican Church on Tuesday were well attended. The church was filled both morning and evening. The Rev. Mr. Lowe from Lucan preached an eloquent sermon, being assisted by the Rev. Mr. Rickard. A surpliced choir rendered choice music and our sweet soloist, Miss Patterson sang both morning and evening. In the evening her rendering of "This Is My Task," was very much appreciated by all. The church was beautifully decorated by flowers, fruit and grain.

$1,000 REWARD!!

For a Case of Incurable Constipation.

To any person who cannot be cured of Constipation by Dr. Hamilton's Pills, the above reward will be paid.

No medicine gives such lasting satisfaction or effects such marvellous cures as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Relief instantly follows their use. That blinding headache goes forever, that feverish feeling in the skin is soothed away, bilious fits and stomach disorders are stopped.

Don't be nervous about using Dr. Hamilton's Pills; they are mild enough for a child to use, yet certain and effective in action in the most chronic cases. Get a 25c box today; they bring and keep robust good health.

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! See if tongue is coated, breath hot or stomach sour.

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fruit Syrup Company."

Miller's WORM Powders

Contain No Narcotics

WHEN your child is restless, feverish, sleepless, or when convulsions threaten, it indicates the ravages of worms and that the little one's strength is being sapped and undermined. Miller's Worm Powders get promptly at the root of the trouble and restore the digestive organs to a healthy condition. Price 25 cents. At your dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price.

Northrop & Lyman Co., Ltd. Dept. E. W., Toronto

DISCONTENT IN GERMANY GIVES HERTLING WORRY

Strives Before Main Committee of Reichstag To Give Encouragement.

ADMITS DEFEAT IN WEST

Says Nation Has Already Had To Pass Through Harder Times.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—By the Associated Press.—Count von Hertling, the German imperial chancellor, addressing the main committee of the Reichstag today, declared that the public discontent 'n Germany was not justified by the military situation on the western front, according to a dispatch from Berl'n.

The chancellor opened with the promise to meet the desires of the Reichstag for information as far as possible. He proceeded to allude to the "deep discontent which has seized wide circles of the population," and said that the principal reason was the pressure of the terrible four years of war, with all the deprivations and sufferings brought in its wake, and the sacrifices imposed on all classes, all families, and more or less, on every individual.

Admits Huge Failure.

"I have no intention of trying to diminish this pressure by words," he continued, "but, gentlemen, if this discontent is influenced by our present military situation, by the events on the western front, I must, without desiring to anticipate a statement which we may expect from a representative of the war ministry, declare most emphatically that it far exceeds justifiable limits."

Count von Hertling admitted that the last German offensive was unsuccessful and that it had been necessary to withdraw to the Siegfried line.

"The situation is grave," he added, "but we have no cause to be faint-hearted. We have already had to pass through harder times."

Cites Past Failures.

The chancellor instanced the failure of the Verdun offensive, the Somme battles and Brussiloff's mass assaults, bringing in their train the well remembered unfavorable reaction on the Austro-Italian front. Then came Rumania's entry into the war.

"We never lost courage," he said, "but showed our enemies what a resolute will to victory could do."

"How do things stand now? We have peace with Russia and Rumania, and even though conditions in Russia are not yet clear and the future appears uncertain, nevertheless, the former menace from two sides has disappeared, and a considerable part of our men of the eastern army can be employed in the west."

Points to Italy.

"The Austro-Hungarian army holds large tracts of Italian territory, and bravely maintain its position. In France our troops repel attacks by the French, English and Americans, who are supported by every kind of modern instrument of war.

"The events of the last few days have proved the old spirit is alive in our troops. The fatherland's true sons are intrepidly preventing the enemy's pertinacious attempts to break through.

"Shall we, then, lose courage, and forget what previously happened? Shall we refuse the old absolute confidence in the men who hitherto have led us to victory because of vicissitudes incident to all wars? No, gentlemen; that would be unmanly timidity and base ingratitude."

The sitting of the main committee of the Reichstag was attended by the imperial chancellor, Admiral von Hintze, the foreign secretary, and other secretaries of state.

Friedrich Ebert, president of the committee, announced that the meeting had been called at an earlier date than expected owing to Austria's peace proposal.

Count von Hertling opened the discussion with a statement on the political situation, internal reforms, Prussian suffrage and the prevention of wars in the future.

GERMAN-BULGARIAN RELATIONS LIKELY TO BECOME STRAINED

General Scholtz Blamed for Disaster in Balkans.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—(Canadian Press dispatch from Reuter's, Limited).—The French newspapers emphasize that it is the German high command which has been beaten in Palestine and Macedonia, since Field Marshal von Sanders commanded the Turks in Palestine, while the Balkan front was under the directions of Gen. Scholtz, and one of the defeated Bulgarian armies was commanded by Gen. von Steinben. Apparently Scholtz ordered the Bulgarian retreat too late. His failure is calculated, the French critics point out, to markedly embitter the German-Bulgarian relations.

ITALIAN IS FINED $1,000 OVER CARGO OF LIQUOR SEIZED

HAMILTON, Sept. 24.—Sebatino Bartolino, an Italian, who was arrested at the point of a revolver last night aboard a motor truck containing 1,500 bottles of liquor, was fined $1,000 in police court today.

The license inspector said most of the bottles contained a mixture of alcohol and water, which had never been distilled. He claim this is the sort of stuff that is peddled out to foreigners, and it brings the bootleggers a profit of $40 a gallon.

TURK OFFICIAL REPORT SKIMS OVER DEFEAT

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 23.—Via London., Sept. 24.—Concerning operations in Palestine, the official statement today from the Turkish war office says:

"On the Palestine front rear-guard fights are being conducted with great skill. They are facilitating and permitting the accomplishment of our measures on both sides of the Jordan."

O. A. C. INITIATION AT GUELPH TAME AFFAIR

GUELPH, Sept. 24.—The annual initiation with the O. A. C. was held this afternoon on the campus, but owing to the small attendance it proved to be a very tame affair. About the only thing to create any excitement was the flag rush, which was won by the sophomores with comparative ease. They succeeded in locking up quite a number of freshmen before the event took place, and this, of course, greatly enhanced their chances of winning.

COMMANDEERING BROKERAGES FOR "VICTORY LOAN"

Investment Houses Must Do No Other Business for Over Two Months.

SAME COMMISSIONS HOLD

Cost of Floating Last Victory Loan Slightly Over Half of One Per Cent.

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.—The minister of finance states that the plan adopted for the campaign for the coming Victory Loan has been discussed exhaustively by representatives of the Victory Loan organization from all parts of Canada, and settled upon as being the most efficient and economical method of handling the loan. A final analysis of the last Victory Loan shows that the actual cost of floating it, including payment of all organizing expenses, advertising, remuneration to bond and stock houses, and commissions to canvassers, was not much over one-half of 1 per cent. or, to be exact, .64.

Folowing the course adopted last year the minister of finance has practically commandeered, for the purposes of the loan, the services of the bond and stock exchange houses of Canada.

Organization Under Way.

Experts from these investment houses have been already engaged for several weeks in the extensive preliminary work of organization, and the preparation of publicity propaganda. From September 7 until early in December all investment houses are precluded from handling new issues, and carrying on their usual business, in order that their full energies may be devoted to the work of the loan.

Such recognized bondholders and stockbrokers as may be employed on the loan under authority of the Dominion executive committee, will be reimbursed on the basis of their operating expenses for the time and to the extent that they are actually engaged in the work. The amounts of such payments will be wholly in the discretion of the minister of finance, whose decision in each case will be final and conclusive.

Canvassers' Commissions.

In regard to official canvassers duly appointed under the authority of the several provincial Victory Loan executive committees, they are to be paid commission at the rate as in the last Victory Loan. This commission does not apply to subscriptions exempted by the special subscriptions committee, comprising amounts of $25,000 and over, in respect of which no commission is to be paid.

Where it is found necessary to engage other paid workers to assist in organization, their remuneration will be on the basis of the remuneration which they would be receiving in their regular occupations. Those who, however, continue to receive their salaries, or whose ordinary business continues as usual, will not be paid.

U.S. ACCEPTS PATENT FOR NEW WAR SHELL INVENTED IN CANADA

Evolved by Man Who Invented Binder-Knotter.

TIME AND MONEY SAVER

Large Contracts May Be Placed With Canadian Firms.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

TORONTO, Sept. 24.—A versatile inventor is J. C. McLachlan of 263 Ossington avenue.

Soon after war broke out Mr. McLachlan, who in his younger days invented the knotting apparatus on the present-day self-binders, a gasoline farm tractor, a marine gasoline engine and several electrical devices which are still in use, created a furore by producing noiseless and smokeless gunpowder. He showed baltastic experts that his new silent explosive gave a missile almost the same penetrative powers as the explosives in use in rifles and guns of heavier calibre, and was to all intents and purposes noiseless. He spent a year without success trying to get the British or any of the Allied war departments to accept the new powder. Then he turned his attention to producing a cheaper, and if possible, a more effective shell, and to improving gas shells. He produced both four years ago and immediately set about interesting the war officers of the Allies in his latest productions.

France Uses His Shells.

The French Government was the first to show signs of real interest and after experimenting with them for some months, finally decided to use them extensively, and they are now being used wherever French artillery operates.

Today Mr. McLachlan received news that the United States war department had accepted his shell and was sending blue prints and specifications to nearly all Canadian and United States shell manufacturers, asking them if they would accept contracts to turn out the new shell in vast quantities.

The new shell's chief virtue is its cheapness of production. Instead of producing the shells as has been done for years from steel forgings, the McLachlan shell will be cast from semi-steel. This semi-steel is thoroughly mixed and uniform and fine in grain and has sufficient strength for Government requirements.

Time and Money Saved.

It can be cast the same as iron and shells can be produced much faster and cheaper. The chief difficulty was to produce uniform weight and true centering of the cores. This has been overcome and the United States Government is evidently satisfied that the new shell will be of effective use in the present war. The acceptance of this shell by the United States Government after four years of close application to its improvement is certainly a satisfactory reward to Mr. McLachlan for his endeavor. They will be manufactured from six to sixteen-inch calibres.

GRAIN DEALERS BUY WINNIPEG TELEGRAM

WINNIPEG, Sept. 25.—The Winnipeg Telegram will announce today a change in proprietorship. "The purchasers are Messrs. Davidson and Smith and their associates," says the announcement. "Davidson and Smith are known throughout Canada as a large firm of grain dealers who of late have acquired important newspaper publishing interests, their enterprises extending from the head of the lakes to the Pacific coast."

EVERYTHING READY.

GODERICH, Sept. 24.—Everything is in readiness for the opening of the Goderich Industrial Fair, which takes place Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. Already the merry-go-round and other midway attractions are at the show grounds. The attractions includes a baseball match, horse races for which prizes of $600 are given and a full program before the grand stand each afternoon and evening.

Saturday Is OPENING DAY

FIRST 25¢ PAYMENT

Pathephone Progressive Club

Twenty-five cents is all you need. Come and let us tell you about it.
THE WORLD'S BEST SEWING MACHINES PLACED WITHIN REACH OF EVERY HOME.
We are making it possible for every home to have the best instrument, and pay under the pleasantest conditions.

BUY PLAY PAY EASY

PREMIUM REFUNDS, 10c

An additional feature of the Pathe Progressive Club is this opportunity to save 10 cents Special Discount on each final payment you make before it is due.

THE SPECIAL CLUB PRICES are permitted by the manufacturers during this sale only.

YOU HAVE YOUR CHOICE OF ANY Pathephone AT SPECIALLY REDUCED PRICES.

SEVEN REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN AT ONCE

1. Because it has the sweetest tone.
2. Because there are no needles to change.
3. Because it plays all makes of records perfectly.
4. Because it gives the most natural sound reproduction.
5. Because the Club Payments are easily made.
6. Because prices will be higher after the Club closes.
7. Because this opportunity may not come again.

The Easy Payment Schedule

FIRST PAYMENT 25c	2nd Paym't 25c	3rd Paym't 25c	4th Paym't 25c
5th Paym't 50c	6th Paym't 50c	7th Paym't 50c	8th Paym't 50c
9th Paym't 75c	10th Paym't 75c	11th Paym't 75c	12th Paym't 75c
13th Paym't $1.00	14th Paym't $1.00	15th Paym't $1.00	16th Paym't $1.00
17th Paym't $1.10	18th Paym't $1.10	19th Paym't $1.10	20th Paym't $1.10
21st Paym't $1.20	22nd Paym't $1.20.	23rd Paym't $1.20	24th Paym't $1.20.
25th Paym't $1.30.	26th Paym't $1.30.	27th Paym't $1.30	28th Paym't $1.30
29th Paym't $1.40	30th Paym't $1.40	31st Paym't $1.40.	32nd Paym't $1.40.
33rd Paym't $1.50.	34th Paym't $1.50	35th Paym't $1.50	36th Paym't $1.50
37th Paym't $1.60	38th Paym't $1.60	39th Paym't $1.60	40th Paym't $1.60
41st Paym't $1.70	42nd Paym't $1.70	Total $49.20	43rd Paym't $1.70
44th Paym't $1.70

Total, $49.20

DON'T DELAY

ONLY 50 MACHINES

Only 50 Memberships Are Open

When this number are enrolled no more will be sold at the Special Club Prices. Remember, the time to take advantage of this offer is limited—ACT NOW.

COME IN—SEE THE Pathephone AND HAVE US EXPLAIN THE PLAN.

THE ONTARIO FURNITURE CO., LIMITED

228, 230 DUNDAS STREET.

23,000 CASES OF NEW INFLUENZA IN U.S. CAMPS

112 Deaths Reported Among Soldiers, Chiefly From Pneumonia.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Nearly 3,000 new cases of Spanish influenza in army camps had been reported to the office of the surgeon-general of the army up to noon today, increasing the total number of cases to nearly 23,000. Deaths reported were 112, due chiefly to pneumosia, which followed influenza. The total of pneumonia cases was 390 for all camps. New cases of influenza are reported today from 21 camps in all. The total number of cases at Camp Devens is now placed at 10,789, and it was announced that Col. Wm. H. Welch, the bacteriologist and organizer of the Rockefeller Institute; Dr. Rufus Cole, an expert on respiratory diseases, from the institute, and Col. Victor Vaughn of the army division of sanitation, have been sent to Camp Devens to study conditions there in an effort to combat the disease.

37 DEATHS IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Thirty-seven deaths and more than two hundred new cases of Spanish influenza and pneumonia were reported today in this city and nearby army camps. All the deaths were those of soldiers, and 110 of the new cases developed among military or naval men.

In this city 59 sailors, eight marines and 83 civilians were taken to hospitals suffering from influenza.

IN ARMY "TECH," TOO.

BOULDER, Colo., Sept. 24.—Twenty new cases of influenza were reported among drafted men in the army technical school at the University of Colorado here today, bringing the total number of cases up to seventy-five.

RECORD CROWD ATTENDS PARKHILL FAIR TUESDAY

PARKHILL, Sept. 24.—An exceptionally large crowd attended Park Hill fair here today. The weather was fine, and the attendance records were broken. Automobiles were here in flocks, the streets of the town being lined with them.

The display of roots in the hall was very good, and the fruit exhibit was extremely large, as was also that of ladies' work. A large exhibit was that of the Ontario Department of Agriculture showing flax products.

In the both of the Women's Institute canning centre tea was served, and it was crowded most of the time. The races were keen contests.

The summary:

2:15 pace or trot, mile heats—1, Queenie Smith, Yearley; 2, Midnight, McKeen; 3, Senator Wilkes, A. Cunningham; 4, Tony Custer, H. Rossenbery. Best time, 2:24.

Green race, half-mile heats—1, Mary Ann, H. Sinker; 2, Nellie Bruce; 3, Tony Mack, J. Eagleson. Best time, 1:17.

Farmers' trot to buggy, half-mile heats—1, Mr. Alderson, Stephen Township; 2, Mr. Reid, McGillivray Township; 3, Mr. Morrissey, Stephen Township. Best time, 1:26.

In a special exhibition race, Charlie Patchen, owned by Sid Hodgins of Lucan, ran to best 2:20, doing it in 2:19½.

In a tug-of-war between West Williams and McGillivray, the former won the first and third pulls and the prize.

Earl Wilson, while exercising a horse on the track, was kicked in the jaw and the bone was fractured. He was taken to Victoria Hospital by Dr. G. Racey.

NEW NEWSPRINT ORDER IS TO BE MADE TODAY

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.—Announcement by the paper controller that he would make his new order for newsprint paper on Wednesday morning, featured this afternoon's session of the Canadian newsprint inquiry. Previous to the official announcement it was generally expected that the new price to be set for paper would not be announced by him until Tuesday next.

NINE THOUSAND TORONTO HOMES WITHOUT COAL

TORONTO, Sept. 24.—Nine thousand homes have reported to the local fuel commissioner that they are absolutely without coal.

Civil Servant Has His Wages Raised To $12 Per Month

Boost From $9.75 Comes Through Civil Service Commission.

Special to The Advertiser.)

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.—Civil service reform has spread its blessings and responsibilities to the far outposts of Canadian Governmental service. This week the civil service commission was called upon to deal with the trying high-cost-of-living problem as it applies to the handy man in the office of the Canada trade commissioner at Yokohama.

This faithful and humble servitor of Canada has accumulated a large family and claims he cannot live now on the salary voted by Parliament, viz., $9.75 per month. The trade commissioner forwarded the facts to Sir George Foster and Sir George, under the civil service act, referred the case to the civil service commissioner. Result, an increase to $12.00 per month has been granted. Merit and not patronage in full guided the commission in its decision.

BOLSHEVIKI BEATEN BY AMERICANS ON ARCHANGEL FRONT

Prisoners Declare That Their Troops Are Kept Ignorant of U. S. Participation.

ARCHANGEL, Wednesday, Sept. 18. —In an attack against American outposts south of Archangel yesterday the Bolsheviki sustained considerable losses. Eight dead were found in one heap in front of an advanced position, and three other bodies were found in a forest. Most of the Bolshevik dead were Letts.

The Bolshevik artillery bombarded the American positions with shrapnel, but did no harm. A wounded Bolshevik soldier declared that a shell from a Russo-Allied armored train had killed twenty men on a Bolshevik train.

The fighting on this area is a combination of trench and Indian warfare. The trenches are along the railroad, but in the forests hemming the tracks trees are the only cover. The Russian railway employees are loyal to the Allies. They are operating trains under shrapnel fire, and even repair tracks in the open, unperturbed by bursting shells.

A Bolsheviki officer, taken prisoner Sunday, declared that his forces were ignorant that Americans were on this front. The Bolsheviki leaders were using every precaution to prevent this from becoming known. The death penalty is imposed on anyone caught reading Allied proclamations.

TRAWLER CAPTURED BY MONSTER SUBMARINE

Prowler Mounts Two Guns and Carries Seventy Germans.

AN ATLANTIC PORT, Sept. 24.—Captain O'Reilly and crew of the Boston trawler Kingfisher, which was captured by a German submarine 90 miles off here on Friday morning, arrived here this morning. They reached this port on a small coastal steamer from a point about a hundred miles from here, where they landed early Saturday morning.

They saved nothing but the clothes they had on. They say that the submarine was about 400 feet long, had two guns mounted, and there were about seventy Germans on her deck.

SPRING BEDS FOR BOYS AT EXHIBITION CAMP

TORONTO, Sept. 24.—Niagara Camp closes on October 31 and Petawawa Camp on October 10, according to orders from Ottawa. Every soldier will have a spring bed at Exhibition Camp here this winter, instead of wooden bunks.

Artillery battery organization here will probably be abolished. Instead of four units there will be one depot, with a strength of 300 at Toronto. Harvest leave will be extended till October 31 to men in A., B. and C. categories actually working on farms.

GERMANS CANDIDLY ADMIT THE MENACE OF CANADIAN WEDGE

Smash South of Scarpe Will Carry to Douai.

OBSERVING NEW TACTICS

Enemy Papers Have Learned That Lies Will No Longer Go Down.

WITH THE CANADIAN FORCES IN FRANCE, Sept. 24.—9 a.m.—By J. F. B. Livesay, Canadian Press Correspondent. The frankness with which the German press admits the seriousness of the breach made in the Hindenburg line by the Canadians is surprising, until one observes that it is in reality a new and desperate attempt to stiffen the morale of the nation. Belittling the successes of the Allies has been tried so long that in these straits different methods must be utilized to spur on a jaded nation. While a few military writers continue the old lines of explanation and reassurances, the majority frankly admit the critical nature of the moment. The Frankfurter Zeitung speaks of the precarious position of Gen. von Below's army owing to the deep wedge driven into the German front south of the Scarpe. The writer goes on to say that the Germans have to reckon with the fact that a blow from the south side of the Scarpe would shake the whole Artois salient, and would throw their infantry right against the gates of Douai.

Speaking of the Allied plans, he says the English have started other tactics. The actual attack is made by good storming divisions; other divisions then go through to continue the attack, the earlier divisions being in the meantime refilled from the ample reserves possessed by the Allies. It is not to be denied, he continues, that a short time ago "a wave of doubt passed over many of our troops on the western front," and he tried to show that this doubt is passing with the last rapid advance toward the French frontier.

A significant and probably inspired article by a well-known German military writer describes the damage done to Douai by British guns, the inference by experience being that the Germans plan to destroy the place themselves. He speaks of the shelling and bombing of Douai as "in reality a domestic war between the envious mining industry in competition with the collieries of Northern France," a clumsy and ludicrous attempt to split the Allies by the old method of placing the interests of the British against those of the French. The latter know only too well that what is not injured by the guns of the Allies will be left in ruins by the retreating Germans.

HEAVY RAINS CAUSE BIG LOSS TO BEAN CROP

GODERICH, Sept. 24.—The continual rains during the past two or three weeks makes it very difficult for the farmers to save their crop of beans. There are several fine fields of beans around here and down the lake towards Bayfield and Grand Bend and it is too bad not to be able to save them.

H. C. THOMAS IS INTERRED.

GODERICH, Sept. 24.—The funeral of Henry Charles Thomas, who died at his late residence, Elgin avenue, on Sunday in his 73rd year, was held from here this afternoon to Maitland Cemetery, Rev. A. L. G. Clarke officiating.

The late Mr. Thomas was an old railwayman and was pensioned by the railway some time ago. He is survived by his wife and two daughters and one son Charles, who is serving his country in the army in France. The funeral was largely attended. The Foresters, of which Mr. Thomas was a member, attended in a body and took part in the services at the grave.

TOO WET FOR BEANS.

WHALEN, Sept. 24.—The wet weather still hangs on in this district, and it is a little too much for some things, such as beans, potatoes and clover seed. All those who have threshed their entire crop are jubilant over the large yield of grain there is this year.

The root crop and potato crop is looking fine, and silo corn will be a good crop. Silo-filling starts this week. There has been a lot of fall wheat sown this year, as the rain put the ground in splendid shape.

CAUGHT IN RAPIDLY REVOLVING WHEEL, WHIRLED TO DEATH

Henry Grigg Meets Horrible Death Near Thedford.

THEDFORD, Sept. 24. — Henry Grigg, concession 4, Bosanquet Township, was instantly killed near here about noon today while trying to put a belt on a threshing engine.

Both his arms and most of his clothes were torn off, and one of his legs was broken. He was working on the farm of John Way, concession 6, Bosanquet, and was trying to put the belt on with the back of his arm. The engine was the property of himself and his father.

He was about 35 years old, and is survived by his parents, one brother overseas, and another brother at home.

CHINAMEN AT PARIS IMPLICATED IN WORK OF DETROIT SMUGGLER

DETROIT, Sept. 24.—The arrest here a week ago Sunday of James Richards by Government agents on a charge of systematically smuggling opium into the United States from Canada has brought about the apprehension of two Chinese laundrymen at Paris, Ont., by Canadian secret service men; it was learned tonight, working in connection with the authorities on this side and armed with some strong circumstantial evidence found in Richards' room here the Canadian officers traced one of the opium shipments from Windsor to Paris. They also found some twenty cans of prepared opium as well as a quantity of raw opium in the Paris resort. The Celestials were arrested.

DAVID SMITH TO GET HEARING WEDNESDAY ON SHOOTING CHARGE

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 24.—David Smith, charged with attempting to murder Mrs. Taylor, wife of the proprietor of the Argyle Hotel, West Lorne, will be given a hearing Wednesday morning before County Magistrate Hunt. There is considerable evidence to be heard, but it is stated today that only a few of the witnesses will be examined, for Smith will elect trial by a judge and jury.

The crown attorney made investigations, which disclosed the fact that while in a drunken condition Smith attempted murder, which he almost succeeded in carrying to a finish, with a revolver, which he had borrowed from a friend. Some of the witnesses who will be called will, it is stated, prove that Smith had been endeavoring all through the day of the shooting to locate a revolver. In consequence the charge which he will face tomorrow is that of attempted murder.

Both Smith and Mrs. Taylor are well known all through Elgin County, both of them having made their home in this city for many years. A large crowd is expected at the preliminary hearing, which will be held at West Lorne at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Taylor is now on the road to recovery, but the scar in her neck, where the bullet struck her will remain as long as she lives. Smith is also recovering, but the wounds which he inflicted on his wrists and throat require the constant care of a physician. Smith is now in the county jail, where he is being carefully watched by special guards. He seems quite indifferent, and apparently either does not realize the serious predicament in which he has placed himself, or does not care.

FUND FOR ARMY HUTS STILL GROWING

STRATFORD, Sept. 24.—The latest returns from the county for the Catholic army hut fund have come from Hesson and Seaforth, both of which have done splendidly. At Hesson $173.75 was raised, as against $59.10 last year. At Seaforth last year's total of $114.75 has been increased to $235.75. Subscriptions in the city continue to come in as well.

DISTRICT CASUALTIES

KILLED IN ACTION

PORT LAMBTON.
3131553 W. R. Browning.
LONDON.
123248 E. Merkley, 520 Piccadilly street.
WIARTON.
651804 C. Mitchell.
WHALEN.
Pte. Lorne Gunning.
BLENHEIM.
880740 J. F. Withaford.
CLINTON.
645853 O. Hannen.
WIARTON.
651332 L. I. McCartney.
COURTRIGHT.
3131667 A. A. McDonald.
BRIDGEBURG.
3314548 C. J. Fickel.
CHATHAM.
189631 L. Lague.
MILTON.
3446 C. H. Fay.
HARRISTON.
335031 C. M. Harrion.
BELGRAVE.
Charles A. Campbell.
OWEN SOUND.
Pte. William Mundle.

DIED OF WOUNDS

BRANTFORD.
183895 T. Pearson.
NOT STATED.
45104 A. E. Gregory.
MILLIKEN CORNERS.
681806 C. Vradenburg.
PETROLEA.
845261 T. Scott.
WOODSTOCK.
J. C. LeRuez.
ARTHUR.
Capt. Stanley M. Brocklebank.

ILL

LORNE.
3310724 J. H. Lewis.
PARKHILL.
3131596 A. Gilchrist.
CALEDONIA.
739547 W. Halpenny.

GASSED

WALKERTON.
651793 A. Huber.
GUELPH.
334890 W. P. Steffler.
J. J. Kennedy.
LONDON.
84219 G. Brill, 737 Princess avenue, London.
603113 A. Clue, 189 Bathurst street.
ST. CATHARINES.
318004 K. F. C. Hannan.
BARRIE.
513317 T. J. H. Rogers.
HARTFORD.
739030 W. Staats.
BLENHEIM.
Capt. C. Hornby.

WOUNDED

AYLMER.
3131132 K. A. Wall.
RIPLEY.
238200 E. Brown.
LONDON.
651413 T. G. Young, 11 Hayman Court.
802643 A. Thorday.
CHATHAM.
3106584 H. Scott.
BRANTFORD.
772900 E. G. Foster.
ALLANDALE.
853242 C. Ferguson.
HAGERSVILLE.
739690 W. King.
FENELLA.
814098 G. Montgomery.
NOT STATED.
467250 N. Hunter.
GEORGETOWN.
663236 R. Cain.
PUSLINCH.
M. E. C. Carter.
STRATFORD.
127213 W. Crann.
WATERFORD.
976684 T. Charter.
MILTON.
274162 H. M. Meghon.
GRASSIE CORNER.
302227 R. L. Merritt.
MELBOURNE.
257220 D. KaKin.
STRATFORD.
727823 C. Green.
Pte. Percy Patrick.
Pte. Leo Dahm.
GALT.
730474 George Merchant.
SAINTSBURG.
Pte. Robert Carl.
CENTRALIA.
Pte. John Culbert.
BLANSHARD.
Pte. Oliver McNaughton.
WOODHAM.
Pte. Warner Hopkins.
BURGESSVILLE.
Allen Cosier.

DR. BELAND'S DAUGHTER WEDS.

Quebec, Sept. 24.—After a separation of over three years, during which time she was interned in Belgium, Miss Jeannette Beland, daughter of Dr. Beland, ex-postmaster-general of Canada, was this morning married to Victor Mathieu. The bride was given away by her father. After an extended tour Mr. and Mrs. Mathieu will reside in Quebec city.

AMUSEMENTS, LECTURES. AMUSEMENTS, LECTURES

Today at 2:15 PATRICIA Tonight at 7 and 9

TODAY.

FRANK KEENAN IN THE DIVERTING COMEDY "MORE TROUBLE"

The Lightning Comedy Bolt That Hit Broadway.

STRAND COMEDY, MUTT AND JEFF CARTOON. WEEKLY EVENTS

Vaudeville—ROMAIN AND MORAN—Italian Street Singers.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY.—Big All Feature Program.

NAZIMOVA, in "TOYS OF FATE" IN 7 ACTS.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN, in "Triple Trouble"

NOT A REHASH—IT'S A NEW ONE.

Vaudeville—ROBINSON AND CLAY—Swell Singing Act.

Special Big V Comedy—"MISFITS AND MATRIMONY" IN TWO PARTS.

MAJESTIC
·THE THEATRE·
·THE SHOW·THE ORCHESTRA·

TODAY AND THURSDAY

JOHN BARRYMORE in "ON THE QUIET"

And a funny Lonesome Luke Comedy.

VAUDEVILLE HEADLINER

BERT CALLWEL

Special numbers by the Majestic Concert Orchestra and the latest news weekly.

NEXT WEEK

SEPT. 30, OCT. 1, 2, AND 3
4—BIG DAYS—4

D·W·GRIFFITH'S
INITIAL ARTCRAFT PRODUCTION
"The GREAT LOVE"
A Story of The Regeneration of Woman By War

LAMBETH FAIR

Wednesday, September 25. Special attractions: Trials of speed, a good half-mile track, music by 1st Hussars' Band, fancy work by returned soldiers, in Masonic Hall. Don't miss seeing this exhibit. *96c

VICTORY BONDS

Best place to sell and the best place to buy Victory Bonds.

F. B. CLARKE

Recognized Broker, London Stock Exchange, 416 Richmond Street, Next Bank of Commerce, London, Ontario.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

TONIGHT — WEDNESDAY NIGHT dance, Palace Academy. Big opening week. The best ever. New York's latest music for you by London's best orchestra. Join us. Dayton & McCormick.

HENDERSON'S JUVENILE PIPE Bands and entertainers have the following engagements booked this week: Windsor, Mitchell, Thorndale, Norwich, Forest, Aylmer, Waterford. Henderson Amusement Exchange, 91 Wellington street. Phone.

ROBERT HANNAH, ELOCUTIONIST, entertainer, concert engagements, 367 Princess avenue. Telephone 3735.

PHONE 2198 REGARDING MINERAL baths and massage treatments for various ailments. Experienced attendants.

JEAN WALKER, TEACHER OF ELOCUTION—Concert engagements accepted. Address 411 King. Phone 4219.

MUSIC FURNISHED FOR PARTIES, balls, banquets. Phone 1265. Tony Vita's Italian Harpers, 122 Queen's avenue.

BRUNSWICK TRIO, "THE HARMONY Boys"—Fall fair program, songs, violin specialties, comic. Other artists supplied. W. Spence, 2 Erie avenue. Phone.

GLADYS COMBER, PIPER AND dancer. Leader of Henderson's Kiltie Band, 431 Ottaway. Phone 4397.

MACDONALD LONDON JUVENILE Pipe Band, dancers and entertainers, specialty Red Cross and patriotic. Whole or part program. Booker, G. W. Stark, 41 Ridout, London. Phone 2130.

SAM MUNRO, JUVENILE HARRY Lauder, featured with Henderson's Juvenile Pipe Band. 101 Waterloo street. Phone 3199.

GEORGE A. STEER, ELOCUTIONIST and soloist—Concert engagements accepted. Care the Purdom Hardware Company, London.

WANTED.

WANTED — FAMILY WASHING taken home by reliable woman weekly. Apply Box 270, Advertiser. 97c

SITUATIONS WANTED.

POSITION AS HOUSEKEEPER, BY widow, of middle-age; comfortable home considered in preference to high wages. Apply Box 70, Advertiser. *98c

YOUNG MAN OF ABILITY AND good business training (exempt) desires position of advancement with reliable firm. Would consider position as traveling salesman. Box 232, Advertiser. *98c

POSITION WANTED AS HOUSEKEEPER. Box 65, Advertiser. 98c

BY ALL-ROUND CHEF, AS STEWARD of hotel or club. Box 63, Advertiser. 98k

BY GENTLEMAN, AS BOOKKEEPER or office assistant; fully qualified; unexceptional reference. Box 58, Advertiser. 98k

WANTED — POSITION AS HOUSEKEEPER, with small family. Best of references. Box 271, Advertiser. 97c

BY YOUNG MAN, 16 YEARS' EXPERIENCE in cheese and butter factory. Box 261, Advertiser. *96c

ADVERTISING RATES.

Amusements—Fifteen cents per line each insertion.

Meetings—One cent per word each insertion.

Births, Marriages and Deaths—One insertion, 50 cents. Memoriam notices, $1 each insertion. Cards of Thanks, 50 cents each insertion.

Articles For Sale, To Let, Help Wanted, Situations Vacant, Board and Lodging, Lost and Found, Rooms To Let, and all similar condensed advertisements—First insertion, one cent per word; each subsequent insertion, one-half cent per word for consecutive insertions. Advertisements ordered for special days, one cent per word, each insertion. No advertisement less than fifteen cents.

An extra charge of ten cents is made for all transient advertisements that are charged.

BORN, MARRIED, DIED.

BORN.

CLEMENT—At Victoria Hospital, on Friday last, Sept. 20, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Clement of 659 Princess avenue, city. b

MARRIED.

TOWERS—DURWARD—On Tuesday, Sept. 17, at the manse of Hamilton Road Presbyterian Church, by the Rev. J. R. Laverie, pastor, Elsie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Durward of St. Marys, to John Towers of this city. b

DIED.

MURRAY—On September 24, 1918, at his late residence, Wilton Grove, Peter Murray, postmaster in his 82nd year. Funeral on Thursday at 3 o'clock. Services at 2:30. Interment at Pond Mills Cemetery. Kindly omit flowers. *97c

MEETINGS.

HOT CORN AFTER SESSION

Dominion Lodge, No. 48,

meets in its hall, Richmond street, at 8 o'clock this (Wednesday) evening. General business and first degree. Visitors welcome. G. W. Richman, N. G. b

MEETING OF TECUMSEH MOTHERS' Club, Thursday, 26. All welcome. *b

ST. JOHN'S CHAPTER, ROYAL Arch Masons—Regular convocation this (Wednesday) evening. Visitors welcome. W. R. Kennedy, Z.; O. Ellwood, S. E. b

REGULAR COMMUNICATION FOREST City Chapter, No. 13, Order Eastern Star, Alma Block, Richmond street, tomorrow (Thursday), 8 p.m. Visitors welcome. Mrs. Ida Mills, W. M.; Vida Stewart, secretary. P

FOREST CITY, L. O. L., NO. 762, meets fourth Thursday of each month at the corner of Market Lane and Dundas streets. W. M., Bro. John Ward; R. S., Bro. Jock Brooks; F. S., Bro. F. S. Neely. Soldier brethren welcome. Visiting brethren welcome. G. A. Shaw, treasurer. P

LOST AND FOUND.

STRAYED OR STOLEN FROM NO. 9 Southgate street, Tuesday, Boston bulldog, dark brindle, white face, chest and collar, weight 22 pounds, name "Don," city tag No. 71. Phone 6206. Reward. *b

LOST—SUNDAY, SILVER THISTLE brooch, with yellow stone; valued as keepsake. Reward at this office. *98c

LOST — DOG COLLAR — TAG NO. 436. Reward if returned to 856 Wellington street. b

LOST — BOY'S AUTO COASTER, NO. 1 wagon, with license No. 4313. Liberal reward. 218 Tecumseh avenue, east of Ridout, after 6 p.m. b

GENTLEMAN'S INDIAN BICYCLE—No. 45250. Reward. 477 Richmond. *97u

STRAYED—A RED MILKING COW, with horns. Kindly notify George Culver, Kilworth, or phone ring 12—181. *97c

LOST—SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, tie pin, set with pearls. Reward. Advertiser Office. *96c

LOST—BLACK WALLET, CONTAINING passport and registration card. Reward. Mason & Risch. *96c

LOST—SATURDAY EVENING, SILVER bar brooch, with California pearl setting. Reward. Barnard's jewelery store. *96c

LOST — SMALL (FEMALE) FOX-TERRIER, named Trab; body white, head black and tan with white marking down between the eyes; collar and tag No. 922. Kindly apply 42 Askin street or phone 5731. 96c

STRAYED — FOUR SMALL WHITE pigs. Reward at Baker's fruit farm and nursery. 96c

HORSES, CATTLE, ETC. For Sale or Wanted.

DEAD HORSES AND CATTLE taken away promptly. Will pay cash for live animals. Phone 4740. London Fertilizer Company.

SITUATIONS VACANT

RAILWAYS WILL NOW EMPLOY women, and the radio act permits women in wireless. Telegraphers and clerks in demand. Write Dominion School Railroading, Toronto. tf-x

MAKE MONEY AT HOME, WRITING show cards. Quickly and easily learned; new, simple method. No canvassing; we sell your work. Big demand. Write today. American Show Card School, Ryrie Building, Yonge and Shuter, Toronto. Mention paper. Oct.18

BUSINESS CHANCES.

TO EXCHANGE—MODERN HOUSE, London, for stock of goods; equity $4,000. Sydney Smythe, Talbot street.

MOLDING SHOP—A SMALL MOLDING shop for rent or sale, cheap; or would consider an exchange. Box 84, Paris. 89bu

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED — COMPETENT GENERAL maid; small family. Apply Mrs. Jack Barnard, 427 King street. *98-tf

LADY CLERK FOR GROCERY WANTED—One with experience preferred. Apply Ed Noel, 474 Dundas. *98c

STENOGRAPHER - BOOKKEEPER—For small office. State experience and salary. Box 536, London Postoffice. b

CAPABLE, EXPERIENCED GIRL — For soda fountain. Steady employment, summer and winter. Apply Box 62, Advertiser. 98c

SMART SALESLADIES WANTED — At once. Apply F. W. Woolworth Company, Limited, 5c, 10c, and 15c store. 98c

BOOK BINDERY GIRLS — GOOD wages to capable, experienced girls. The A. A. Langford Company, Limited. 98u

GENERAL SERVANT — NO WASHING—Small family. Good wages. 516 Ridout. 96c

GIRL OR WOMAN WANTED TO DO housework, in family of five, no small children, good home to right party. Send reply, stating salary, to No. 19 Elm avenue, Windsor, Ontario. b

A GENERAL HOUSEMAID—NO CHILDREN nor washing; good wages. Mrs. W. H. Smith, 864 Waterloo street. *97c

YOUNG GIRL WANTED, TO HELP with housework and care of two children; good home for right girl. 419 Grosvenor street. *97c

NURSEMAID WANTED AT ONCE—Apply Mrs. E. S. Little, Postoffice Box 529, London. *97c

A MIDDLE-AGED WOMAN, TO ASSIST with housework. 128 Horton street. *97c

WANTED—EXPERIENCED DRESSMAKER, with references, to go out by the day. Apply Box 57, Advertiser. *97u

GIRL WANTED—GOOD WRITER, quick at figures; some experience in shipping or receiving an advantage; good prospects. Box 56, Advertiser. *97c

GIRL WANTED—APPLY METROPOLE Cafe. *97c

HOUSEMAID WANTED, WHERE other help is kept. Apply Miss McNee, 370 Queen's avenue. *97c

CLERK — BUSINESS OFFICE, EXPERIENCED — Position permanent. Apply in writing, C. H. Beard, manager, Bell Telephone Company. 97c

A GENERAL HOUSEMAID — NO children nor washing, good wages. Apply Mrs. W. H. Smith, 864 Waterloo street. 97c

MAID WANTED FOR GENERAL housework—Family of four; no washing. Apply Box 265. *96tf

COOK-GENERAL — FOUR IN FAMILY; laundry sent out; highest wages. Apply Mrs. John Weld, 50 Ridout south. 96c

More flax-pickers, apple-pickers, canners, stenographers, glove operators, practical nurse, house tablemaid for Windsor, waitresses and chambermaids, outside hotels; housemaids, laundress, domestics by day or to live in city, town and country; nursemaids.

ONTARIO GOVERNMENT EMPLOYMENT BUREAU.
108 Dundas Street.

STENOGRAPHER, WITH GENERAL office experience, wanted at once; steady job, with opportunity to advance. Apply 100 Dundas street. 96c

STENOGRAPHER AND GENERAL office assistant, with experience, preferred, although not necessary. Give references and wages required. Box 249, this office. 96c

WANTED — COMPETENT COOK-GENERAL, references required. Apply Box 244, Advertiser. 96n

TOBACCO STRIPPERS WANTED—John McNee & Sons, 381 Clarence street. 75tf

Big Money Made —BY—

Chocolate Dippers
Bon Bon Dippers
Paper Box Makers
Soda and Biscuit Packers.

GOOD PAY WHILE LEARNING.

See Timekeeper, D. S. Perrin & Co., Limited, before going elsewhere. *95-tf

COOK GENERAL WANTED—SMALL family; highest wages. Apply 251 Sydenham street. 81tf

COMPETENT GENERAL WANTED—Two in family; high wages. Address Mrs. J. J. Dickinson, Port Colborne, Ont. *951

EXPERIENCED HOUSEMAID — APPLY 362 Dufferin avenue. 95g

EXPERIENCED COOK-GENERAL — Small family; other help kept. Apply 362 Dufferin avenue. 95g

EXPERIENCED COOK, GENERAL, for small family; references required. Apply Mrs. T. P. McCormick, 651 Talbot street. *93-tf

WANTED—MARRIED OR SINGLE ladies to take orders from neighbors for private Christmas greeting cards to send the soldiers and friends. $5 sample book free. Big profits. Make one hundred dollars by Christmas. Linscott Company, Brantford, Ont. Oct.5

WANTED—ONE DINING-ROOM GIRL and one kitchen girl. Hotel Dupont, Wallaceburg. *91bu

HELP WANTED

AMAZING SELLER—TABLETS THAT wash clothes spotlessly clean without rubbing; promise to solicit orders with ten cents will bring samples for four washings; make dollar an hour. Washing Tablet Distributors, Brantford, Ont. Oct.5

PATRIOTIC, STEADY, WELL-PAID employment at home, in war or peace time—Knit socks for us on the fast, simple Auto Knitter. Particulars, today, 3c stamp. Auto Knitter Company, Dept. C29, 607 College, Toronto, Ont. Dec.13-zxv

MAKE MONEY AT HOME WRITING show cards. Quickly and easily learned; new, simple method. No canvassing; we sell your work. Big demand. Write today. American Show Card School, Ryrie Building, Yonge and Shuter streets, Toronto, Ont. Sept. 30.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED BY W. G. R. Bartram, 59 Dundas.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED BY H. J. Childs, druggist, 632 Dundas.

AGENTS WANTED.

AGENTS—"MY FOUR YEARS IN Germany," by the American ambassador to Germany; greatest seller ever. Make big money. Full copy sent free to canvassers. Bradley Company, Brantford, Ont. Oct.5

MALE HELP WANTED

MAN FOR EXTRACTOR WANTED—Steady work; experienced preferred. Apply Parisian Laundry. *98c

BUTCHER BOY WANTED—APPLY 231 Wellington street. *98c

TEAMSTER WANTED—APPLY 306 Grey. *98c

WELL DRILLER, AT ONCE—APPLY Box 66, Advertiser. *b

BOY, WITH BICYCLE WANTED TO deliver small parcels, 4 to 6 p.m. Apply 181 Dundas street. *b

GOOD STEADY MAN WANTED — The Battle Creek Toasted Corn Flakes Company. b

WANTED AT ONCE — BOY TO learn hardware business. Apply Purdom Hardware. 98tf

WANTED—SMART, RELIABLE DELIVERY boy, one who knows city; good references. Apply in person only to George F. Morris & Co., market. 98u

BRIGHT BOY WANTED AT ONCE — Apply The Northern Life Assurance Company. 98c

SMART BOY ABOUT 16 TO LEARN Bookbinding. The A. A. Langford Company, Limited. 98u

WANTED — LINOTYPE OPERATOR —Highest wages. Steady position. Apply Canadian Observer, Sarnia. 98c

JANITOR WANTED—APPLY Y. M. C. A. *97c

EXPERIENCED TRAVELER, COVERING western provinces, is open to take line on a commission basis. Apply Box 275, Advertiser. *97i

STRONG BOY, AS ASSISTANT SHIPPER; one with experience preferred. Apply Box No. 76, Advertiser. *97c

ASSISTANT SHIPPER WANTED—Experience preferred, but not necessary. Apply P. O. Box 588. *97c

BOYS WANTED FOR THE FACTORY —Apply D. S. Perrin & Co., Limited. *97n

TEAMSTER WANTED—APPLY LONDON Box Company, 309 Bathurst street. *97c

YARDMAN AND TEAMSTER WANTED—Apply Heaman Coal Yard. *97c

BOY WANTED, TO DRIVE WAGON—Apply 336 Ridout street. *97u

WILL PAY EXTRA GOOD WAGES for experienced planer hand; also require cabinetmakers and trimmers. Apply Hespeler Furniture Company, Limited, Hespeler, Ont. 97n

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHERS WANTED—Train in a recognized licensed school. Special equipment and first-class service. Write Cassan's Wireless School, Toronto. tf-xt

SMART LAD, GOOD WRITER, WITH shipping or receiving experience preferred, but not essential; good prospects for willing worker. Box 56, Advertiser. *97c

BOY WANTED—APPLY MODERN Shoe Repair, 505 Richmond street. *97c

CARPENTERS WANTED AT INGERSOLL

Fare paid. Sixty cents per hour.
FRID CONSTRUCTION COMPANY. 97c

WANTED — A FIRST-CLASS GARDENER and florist, good wages; state experience; steady employment. C. F. Guthrie, Stratford, Ont. 97c

WANTED AT ONCE—A YOUNG MAN, to learn the drug business; one with matriculation preferred. Apply Standard Drug, Limited. *96c

GOOD-SIZED HIGH SCHOOL BOY, AS salesman on Saturday. Andersons, the big pure food store. 96c

GOOD-SIZED BOY WANTED FOR mailing-room; good chance for advancement. Apply Circulation Department, Advertiser. *96tf

MAN WANTED FOR DELIVERY wagon—Apply Dean & Co., 579 Richmond street. *96c

TIRE BUILDERS — $2.75 PER DAY while learning; steady work guaranteed. Apply at Dominion Tire Factory, or 127 King street w., Kitchener, Canada. 87tf

MAN WANTED, TO DRIVE DELIVERY and work inside, at once. Apply 727 Richmond street. *95c

Carpenters, city; two men for two months, Pelee Island farm, $60 a month; coal and wood yard foreman.
ONTARIO GOVERNMENT EMPLOYMENT BUREAU.
108 DUNDAS STREET.

BOY WANTED—PASSED ENTRANCE preferred; $7 a week. T. Woolley, 352 Clarence street. *92-tf

Linotype Operator Wanted

For position on Morning Advertiser; steady work.
Apply to Foreman Composing Room. 91-tf

WANTED AT ONCE

250 MEN

LABORERS AND CARPENTERS

Apply

Superintendent Palmer

Quebec street gate, Carling Heights.

89-tf

SIGNS.

GLEN BROS., SIGN PAINTERS—Designs and estimates furnished free. 420 Talbot street. Phone 1842.

OSTEOPATHIC CLINICS

FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS — 444 Waterloo. Clinics closed during summer months.

FOR CHILDREN—CATHOLIC CLUB, 520 Richmond. Clinics closed during summer months.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

50 ACRES — SOIL SAND AND CLAY loam, bank barn on stone foundation, frame house with good cellar, in Blandford, county of Oxford. Price $3,300. Will take house in London in exchange. W. B. Reid, real estate, 419 Talbot street. 98c

100 ACRES, EXCELLENT LEVEL land, good house, barn, gas engine and group oil wells, delightfully situated near Petrolea, schools and churches. If purchaser able to work can clear over $100 monthly from wells alone; absolutely safe investment; easy work for man with about $1,500; it's certainly chance of life-time; profit from oil will pay balance; every acre can be tilled; farm alone worth price asked, $7,900. Best of reasons for selling. Box 76, Advertiser. 98c

$7,500—100 ACRES, EAST NISSOURI, near Thamesford, brick house, basement barn, clay loam soil, well watered; exchange for London property. Patterson, Imperial Bank Chambers.

SPECIAL BARGAINS — SALE AND rent. Charming north home on couple acres, worth $18,000, for $15,000. 1½ acres and modern home, south, only $4,700. From $8,000 to $250,000, central property, revenue paying 10 per cent, and I will sell separately. Good brick six-room cottage, fine location, $1,800; one week. And another at $2,100, snap. Charming 7-roomed bungalow, north, modern, fruit; snap, and fuel-saver. Eight-roomed very fine brick house and lot, an ideal location, bargain to buyer. Rents are high. Bargains are sold every day. I have buyers. List your properties now. Special attention to owners and buyers. Agent for C. P. R. and western lands. All kinds of insurance. Five good homes for rent. Sam D. Campbell, Bank of Nova Scotia Chambers, 420 Richmond. 96c

CHOICE HOME, MODERN, RESIDENTIAL section, Ottawa, Ont. Sell or exchange for a good London home. Special opportunity. Owner will buy good, central, London home. Call for particulars. Sam D. Campbell, Bank of Nova Scotia Chambers, 420 Richmond street. 97c

ON MONTHLY PAYMENTS, FRAME house, 3 bedrooms, bath, toilet, central. Phone 5365. *96c

10 ACRES FOR SALE, ABOUT 4½ miles from market. Box 237, Advertiser. 95n

200 acres, brick house, slate roof, furnace, 3-piece bathroom, large bank barn and other outbuildings, 5 acres of orchard, 15 acres hardwood timber, 10 acres new land ready to be broken, running water, clay loam, drained by tile; near cheese factory, powder factory, store, church, school, village. $15,000. Anderson & Co., 12 Market Lane. zxwv

SPLENDID 100-ACRE FARM, WITH buildings; at least $1,000 down. Box 213, Advertiser. 92g

COTTAGE FOR SALE—CENTRALLY located. 508 Maitland. *94n

GENERAL STORE FOR SALE, WITH or without stock or fixtures; dwelling above, all conveniences, hard and soft water, piped upstairs, garage, oil-house and public shed; in lively village, only two stores. Apply to Box 1, Camlachie. Snap, if sold at once. 49tf

City Property.

LARGE RED BRICK HOUSE ON Wortley road, corner of Normal School grounds, two stories and large attic, vestibule, with plate glass door, fireplace in hall, large double living-room, dining-room and kitchen, three bedrooms and den, complete bathroom, full basement with hot air furnace, all modern conveniences. This is a fine home, beautifully situated; one block from car line; reasonably priced. Apply 3 Bellevue avenue. 98c

FOR SALE — SIX-ROOMED MODERN cottage, full-sized basement, furnace, north end. Price reasonable. Apply 1073 Richmond street. 98c xvt

TWO BRICK HOUSES ON TALBOT street, all modern, less furnace. Price $3,850, $1,800 down. Call and see this property if you are looking to get a real bargain for your money. W. B. Reid, 419 Talbot street. 98c

GOOD HOUSE ON ADELAIDE street, northeast end, 7 rooms, large cellar. Immediate possession. Will exchange for small farm near city. A bargain. The Western Real Estate Exchange, Limited, 78 Dundas street, London. 97c

NEW RED MILTON BRICK HOUSE—Seven rooms, gas, electric light, oak floors, all modern. Phone 4670. 97c

$500 DOWN, $3,150—PRINCESS AVENUE, red pressed brick, story and half house, 3 bedrooms, den, 3-piece bath, furnace, full-sized basement, fine large veranda, hot water connections. Bert Weir, 493 Adelaide. 95k

$500 DOWN, $4,000—PRINCESS AVENUE east, front and back stairs, fully modern, beautifully decorated, large lot. Bert Weir, 493 Adelaide. 95k are almost impossible to get. Why not buy a home on easy payments. Call and we will be pleased to give you a list of the houses we have either to rent or to buy.

HOUSES TO RENT

Thos. C. Knott Real Estate Agency.
117 Dominion Savings Building.
zxwv

$100 DOWN, $1,400—YORK STREET, story and half frame, central, 3 bedrooms. Bert Weir, 493 Adelaide. 95k

Special for Quick Sale

9 Maryboro Place

Brick house, extra good double garage, all electric lighted, gas also for cooking and lighting, electric stove, hot water heating, coal in cellar, hot water to bath, everything most modern; fine grassed yard and flowers. Come and see it if you want a comfortable and non-expensive home. Will sell furniture also. Phone owner, 2410. 93tf

$100 DOWN, $1,600 — ST. JAMES street—Frame cottage, 2 bedrooms, lot 50x150, land worth $1,800. Bert Weir, 493 Adelaide. 95k

FOR SALE OR TO LET IN THE north end, 7-roomed, 1½-story brick; modern. Apply Mrs. J. P. Brimacombe, 10 Christie. Sept.28

ARCHITECTS

WATT & BLACKWELL, MEMBERS Ontario Association of Architects—Bank of Toronto Building, London; Lister Chambers, Hamilton.

JOHN M. MOORE, Architect and Civil Engineer, 415 RICHMOND STREET.

WILLIAM G. MURRAY, ARCHITECT —Dominion Savings Building, top floor. Phones: Office 1557, house 1584.

H. C. McBRIDE, MEMBER ONTARIO Association of Architects, etc. Molsons Bank Building. Phone 262.

ARTHUR E. NUTTER, ARCHITECT—Rooms 15, 16, Dominion Bank Chambers, Dundas and Richmond. Telephone 656.

REAL ESTATE WANTED.

WANTED TO PURCHASE—COTTAGE, South London, price $1,800 to $2,500; must be in good repair. Apply Box No. 68, Advertiser. *98k

WAREHOUSE, ON RAILWAY SIDING, centrally located; state full particulars. London Soap Company. *97c

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

City Property.

$2,000 — SMALL CASH PAYMENT; story and half frame, Elias street, 3 bedrooms, large lot; this house is in excellent condition. Bert Weir, 493 Adelaide. 95k

$300 DOWN, BALANCE MONTHLY—1½-story frame, all modern except furnace; garage; $2,200. 39 Garfield avenue.

BRICK COTTAGE, 18 SURREY AVENUE—Electric light, gas, water inside, large rooms. For quick sale, $1,850. 80tf

FOR SALE—MODERN FRAME COTTAGE, household furniture, chickens. 22 Orchard street, evenings.

TO LET.

1083 YORK — KEY EAST — SMALL family; partly furnished if required; hydro, garden. 98c

HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS OVER 247 Dundas street. The London and Western Trusts Company, Limited. 98k

STORE, 71 DUNDAS STREET—MODERATE rent. The London and Western Trusts Company, Limited. 98k

TWO HOUSES—$8 AND $17; MODERN conveniences. Apply 131 Wharncliffe south. 98c

279 PICCADILLY—MODERN HOUSE, rent $30. Phone 5494. *97c

BEAUCAIRE APARTMENTS — 87 Dundas. These small, new, modern apartments, semi-furnished apartments and suites for two, to let; finished hardwood floors, modern plumbing, electric fixtures, blinds, gas stove, kitchen cabinets. Immediate possession. Apply Frank Glass. 97c

TO RENT — COTTAGE, 152 JOHN street. Apply B. C. McCann. 97c

TINSMITH'S TOOLS, STORE AND dwelling. Apply 430 Rectory street. 97c

TO RENT ON SHARES—100-ACRE dairy farm, all stock and implements supplied except horses: 20 cows, silo, alfalfa; first-class proposition; work done under superintendence; references required. Box 262, Advertiser. *96n SPLENDID COTTAGE TO LET—APPLY 61 Clarence street.

WANTED TO RENT

FURNISHED ROOM WANTED BY OFFICER; breakfast also; use of phone; centrally located. Box 59, Advertiser. *97c

SMALL FURNISHED HOUSE OR heated flat wanted at once. Box 268, Advertiser. 97c

FURNISHED HOUSE — CAREFUL tenants. Phone 4816 day, or Box 245, Advertiser. 96n

WANTED — TWO OR THREE FURNISHED or unfurnished heated rooms for light housekeeping, for woman and two children. Send terms to Mrs. Vass, Postal Station C., Toronto. 94a

ROOMS TO LET.

ONE BRIGHT FRONT ROOM, UNFURNISHED—Apply 493 Dundas street. 98c

TWO OR THREE NICELY-FURNISHED rooms, for light housekeeping. Apply 80, Stanley. *97c

NICELY FURNISHED FRONT BEDROOM, modern. Phone 6062. 98c

FURNISHED HOUSEKEEPING rooms, modern, central. Apply 419 King street. 97c

BED-SITTING-ROOM — SINGLE OR double, nicely furnished, electric lights, heated, bathroom. Box 274, Advertiser. 97n

TWO FRONT, UPSTAIR, COMPLETELY furnished, for light housekeeping. Phone 1700. *96n

FURNISHED ROOMS, WITH LIGHT housekeeping privileges. Phone 6062. 453 Horton street. 82tf

BOARD AND ROOMS.

TWO UNFURNISHED HOUSEKEEPING rooms, at 348 Dufferin. Apply 547 Colborne street. Phone 3541. *96c

MOVING AND STORAGE.

S. J. HENDERSON'S LARGEST moving vans and storage. Phone 1254. Residence, 573 Adelaide.

BROUGHTON, THE MOVER—SPECIALTY, crating and shipping. Phone 1444.

ON MOVING DAY, REMEMBER "DAY, the Mover." Motor vans. Fireproof storage at reasonable rates. Residence, 480 Maitland. Phone 2887. H. F. Day.

FURNITURE AND PIANOS CAREFULLY moved at $2 per van load. Phone 2839.

BIGGS' FURNITURE STORAGE.—Clean and dry. Prices reasonable. The Forest City Moving Vans. Phone 1162. 97 Carling street. zxv

UP-TO-DATE MOVING VANS—FURNITURE and pianos carefully handled. W. R. Flowers, 863½ Colborne street. Phone 2636.

BARTER AND EXCHANGE.

FINE MODERN HOME, IN EAST end, large lot. Will exchange for a smaller home in north or south end. Box 61, Advertiser. 98c

GOOD COUNTRY STORE — ABOUT 16 miles from London; first-class district; property consists of store building, dwelling, barn, etc., 5 acres of land; value, including stock and fixtures, about $5,000; clear of incumbrance; will exchange for good 50-acre farm. The Western Real Estate Exchange, Limited, 78 Dundas street, London. 97c

CHOICE FRUIT FARM IN LAMBTON County fruit belt, one mile from town; 50 acres more or less. Would consider good house in London. Easy terms on balance. Apply Box 269, Advertiser. 97c

FIVE ACRES, MOSTLY UNDER fruit, with thoroughly modern house and barn, on car line, adjoining city; will sell or exchange for modern house in city. Apply Currie & Tull, 418 Talbot street. 91tf

SURVEYORS.

F. W. FARNCOMB, CIVIL ENGINEER, surveyor. Room 307, Dominion Savings. Phone 552.

ARTICLES FOR SALE

RUMMAGE SALE, FRIDAY, 3 o'clock, in aid of prisoner of war, by Wortley Road Mothers' Club, 145 Wortley road, between Askin and Bruce, west side. Home-made cooking and vegetables also. *98u

TWO THOUSAND SHARES PREMIER Langmuir, 28c per share. Apply Box 67, Advertiser. *98c

BELL OAK HEATER, WITH FEEDER, for sale. 35 Pipe Line road. *98c

THE BEST TELLICHERRY GROUND black pepper, 50c pound. Tyler's, 355½ Clarence. b

ONE GENTLEMAN'S MUSKRAT lined coat, also one white wicker baby carriage. Apply 160 Oxford street. 98k

COON DOGS, FOXHOUNDS, DEERHOUNDS and rabbit-hounds for sale. Fred W. Probst, Box 60, Linwood, Ont. 98bu

HOME-MADE BOOKCASE—WOULD make splendid clothes press or cupboard. 287 Hill street. b

DAVENPORT COUCH, DINING-ROOM table and other articles. Apply 183½ Dundas. *97k

MODERN JEWEL BASEBURNER FOR sale—Medium size, practically new. Apply 30 St. Andrew street. *97c

TOP BUGGY FOR SALE — 140 CLARENCE street. 97c

FOR SALE — APPLE BARRELS — Reid Bros., Bothwell, Ont. 97n

SIX EWE LAMBS FOR SALE—Shropshire. Wool from flock sold for 76¼. Wm. McIvor, No. 4, Komoka. 97c

SMALL HORSE, 14 HANDS, IN EXCELLENT condition, accustomed to ladies and children, can be ridden or driven, cheap for quick sale. Phone 291 or apply at Hueston's livery, Wellington street. *96n

LINCOLN EWE SHEEP FOR SALE—Also Partridge Wyandotte chicks. B. D. Sells, Komoka, No. 3. 96bu

ONE IRON BED, BRASS TRIMMINGS, one oak bed, springs and mattresses, one dresser. 258 Regent street. 96c

SIX REGISTERED LINCOLN RAM lambs for sale. M. McNaughton, lot 15, con. 10, London Township. 96c

McKIM'S AUCTION ROOM—SOME splendid heaters and ranges, coal oil heaters, 2 beautiful brass beds with new mattresses and other goods. Phone 4820. 357 Talbot.

LADIES' DARK BROWN WINTER coat for sale, cheap. Box 221, this office. *92-tf

FEATHER PILLOWS, MATTRESSES, renovated. Hunt & Sons, 593 Richmond street. Phone 997.

STOVE PARTS NICKELPLATED—National Brass, Limited. *91-tf

FOR SALE — A GOOD PAYING cartage business in Glencoe; business includes mail contract. Apply William Ross, Glencoe. 91bu

WHY PAY 7 OR 8 DOLLARS FOR shoes when you can save from 3 to 5 dollars at Siskind's, 375 Clarence and 338 Richmond? *32tf

BUY YOUR CLOTHING ON CONVENIENT terms—Ladies' suits, skirts, dresses, waists, silk sweaters, men's boys' suits. See me before buying. Terms to suit. This is also the cheapest place to buy ladies' hats. Call, write or phone 1987. W. Goldenberg, 761 Dundas, next Wood's Fair.

BLANCHARD'S NEW FISH MARKET, 529 Richmond street. Fresh fish every day. Phone 1510.

ONE UPRIGHT PIANO, IN FIRST-class condition, at a bargain for cash, $160. Apply 613 Wellington street. 84tf

EAVESTROUGHING, ROOFING, stacks, general tinsmithing repairs. Phone 4911. W. G. Arnold, 220 Clarence. x

WE DO POLISHING AND UPHOLSTERING—Chas. M. Quick, 725 Richmond street. Phone 1479. x

YOUR SPRING SUITS AND SUMMER apparel for ladies, gentlemen and boys will be at your request for $1 per week. Also furniture and house-furnishings. Call, write or phone 1267. M. Lerner, 502 Hill street. Business confidential.

NOISELESS TYPEWRITER, NEARLY new. Bargain price. E. O. Graves, 110 Dundas street.

THE JOY-FUL SMOKE — SMITH'S "Joy" 10-cent cigar. S. Smith, manufacturer, London.

NEW WOOD YARD, 241 OTTAWAY avenue. Phone 2208. $2.75 to $5.50 per load.

LADIES' SUITS, DRESSES, WAISTS and skirts on credit; newest styles and fashions; also men's and boys' clothing. Drop me a line and I will bring down what you require. Lewis Wolf, 769 Dundas street, in grocery store. Phone 6112. tf

THOUSANDS OF EVERGREEN trees, many sizes, from 25c up. Shade and ornamental trees, flowering shrubs, many kinds. Rose bushes, Christmas roses. Rhubarb, peonies, 25c each or 5 for $1. Three varieties maple trees, basswood, mountain ash, horse chestnut. Charles Baker, nurseryman, Ridout south. Phone 2222.

BELTING, REPAIRING AND LEATHER supplies. Phone 1061. Mills, belt manufacturer, 152 Carling.

ONE HANDSOME MAHOGANY NORDHEIMER piano, rich tone, in first-class condition. Will be sold very cheap for cash. Apply Box 148, Advertiser. tf

THE WONDER COAL OIL BURNER fits any stove; cheaper than gas or coal. See it at Lewis', 101½ King.

WINDOW AND DOOR SCREENS made to order. Chamberlain weather strip. Phone 1504.

GO TO ROBERTSON'S, RICHMOND and Kent streets, for school books and school supplies.

SEE ME ABOUT YOUR NEW SUIT, coat, dress or anything in wearing apparel for ladies, men and boys. Terms arranged to suit your convenience. I am also selling furniture and house furnishings. My patronage is the largest in the city. I guarantee satisfaction. Call, write or phone 3208. J. Wolf, 821 Lorne avenue.

ONN'S FISH MARKET—FISH, OYSTERS, poultry, twice daily. 143 King street, opposite market. Phone 1206.

FANNING MILL FOR SALE—WM. Gray & Sons, 351 Talbot.

IF YOU WANT HELP, SITUATIONS, want to buy or sell real estate, etc., insert an advertisement in the Hamilton Herald, the recognized want medium of the city. Rate, 1c a word, or three consecutive insertions for 2c a word, with cash order. Subscriptions: Daily, 25c a month, $2 yearly. Saturday edition, 50c yearly. Sample copy sent on application.

WE BUY AND SELL SECOND-HAND clothes and shoes. We pay the highest price. 341 Dundas.

Campbell's Soup 16c
Snider's Tomato Soup 17c
Lifebuoy, Surprise, Naptha, Gold, Sunlight and Comfort Soaps, per bar 8c
Seedless Raisins, 5-oz. pkg 14c
Dromedary Dates, per package 24c
St. Charles Evaporated Milk, 7c, 14c
FRANK SMITH, MARKET LANE.
Canada Food Board License 8-6165. zx

BEAVER BOARD

Fine thing for walls and ceilings. Let us quote you.

Geo. H. Belton Lumber Co.

Rectory Street and G. T. Railway. xt

STEWART & MORKIN

134 FULLARTON STREET,
Electric Power Contractors.

All classes electric power repairs, installations, windings, etc. Prompt attention, quick service. When you have trouble with your motor telephone 3165. xt

Indian Motorcycle Parts

We carry a complete stock. Send in your orders. Prices going up.

BICYCLE AND MOTOR SALES CO.
425 Wellington Street.

ARTICLES FOR SALE

THURSDAY ONLY.

Spare Ribs, per lb. 20c
Shouler Pork Chops, per lb. 37c
Veal Chops, choice, per lb. 35c
Small Breakfast Sausage, per lb. .. 25c

ANDERSONS THE BIG PURE FOOD STORE.
Phones 1643 and 1644.

LADIES' SILK BRUSHED WOOL sweater coats, suits, dresses, coats, men's and boys' suits and sweater coats, house furnishings, shaker flannel and woolen blankets and comforters, at $1 per week. J. Holiff, 463 Dundas. Phone 3595.

Mammoth Purchase of

1,000 FUR FELT HATS

Worth Up to $2.50 Value, for $1.23

These Hats Escaped the Submarine.
SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

WEGNER CLOTHING CO.

THE HEART OF LONDON.
371 Talbot Street. Open Evenings.

Carney's Cash and Carry

69 WILSON AVENUE.

PEANUT BUTTER 28c
OLEO 35c
CLARK'S SOUPS, 2 for 25c
MATCHES, 13; 2 for 25c

Canada Food Board Licenses 8-9205 and 10-0550.

PHONE 4266. xv

Living-Room Tables

Quarter-Cut Oak $9.75
Sewing Tables (Reed) $5.50

COLLETT FURNITURE CO.

97 King St., Between Talbot and Ridout. zxv

Men's Shoes ... $3.00 to $8.00
Ladies' Shoes .. $2.75 to $9.00
Boys' Shoes, 1 to 5, $2.50 to $5.
Boys' Shoes, 11 to 13 ..... $2.25 to $3.50
Boys' Shoes, 8 to 10½, $2.00 up
Girls' Shoes, 11 to 2, $2.25 to $4.
Girls' Shoes, 8 to 10½, $2 to $3.
Babies' Shoes, 4 to 7½ .... $1.10 to $2.25

PAXMAN'S

156 KING STREET. zxv

U.S.L Storage Battery Service Station

BATTERIES TO FIT ANY CAR.

Any make of storage battery overhauled and put in good condition. All work guaranteed.

BATTERIES TO RENT.

Free inspection and distilled water.

GURD'S, 185 DUNDAS ST. zxv

ELECTROPLATING

In Nickel, Brass, Copper and Bronze, Polishing and Lacquering. Automobile, motorcycle and bicycle parts made like new. Church brass work, lighting fixtures, etc., refinished.

THE DENNIS WIRE AND IRON WORKS COMPANY, LIMITED, LONDON, CANADA. zxt

HARD AND SOFT SLABS

Mixed, Per Load, $4.50.

Anderson's Coal and Wood

495 YORK STREET. PHONE 1391. zxv

SPECIAL!

6 OR 7-INCH STOVEPIPE, 20c each. Slightly damaged.

J. A. BROWNLEE
Opposite Market. zxv

CLIFF ROBINSON

Spare Ribs, Calves Livers, Tripe, Oxtails, Calves Hearts

FRESH TODAY.

MAKE THIS BRIGHT SANITARY STORE YOUR STORE.

Phone 6186. 206 Dundas St.

Canada Food Board License No. 9-6364. zx

HAVE YOU Considered Hydraulic Water System for farm, house and barn? If not, why not consult us about the L. E. S. Waterworks System? Write today. LONDON ENGINE SUPPLY CO., 83-85 Dundas Street, London, Ontario. zxt

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIANS.

DRS. MARIE H. HARKINS, REBECCA Harkins, St. George Apartments, Wellington. Phone 1560. Rebecca Harkins, specialty catarrhal deafness.

E. S. DETWILER, D. O., HAS REMOVED to 444 Waterloo, corner Queen's. Phone 3373.

PERSONAL.

GENTLEMAN, SINGLE, MIDDLE-AGED, educated, wishes to meet a lady as personal friend; strictly confidential. Box 267, Advertiser. 97c

SWITCHES MADE. PHONE 6062. 453 Horton street.

CANCERS CURED BY PLASTER method—Established 40 years. Henry Edwards' Cancer Hospital, 388½ Ridout street. Phone 3666.

SCIENTIFIC PALMISTRY AND Phrenology—Accurate, scientific and reliable advice on business, health, love, marriage, travel, investments, changes, choice of occupation, etc. When in doubt consult Mrs. Morris, 910 Dundas street, opposite Fair Grounds gates. Hours of consultation 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Saturday to 5 p.m.

MRS. LANE, CLAIRVOYANT, 362 York street, London, Ont.

CHIROPRACTIC.

DR. B. KNIGHT, DRUGLESS PHYSICIAN—Chiropractic, electro-therapy, X-rays, etc., 267 Piccadilly. Phone 4009.

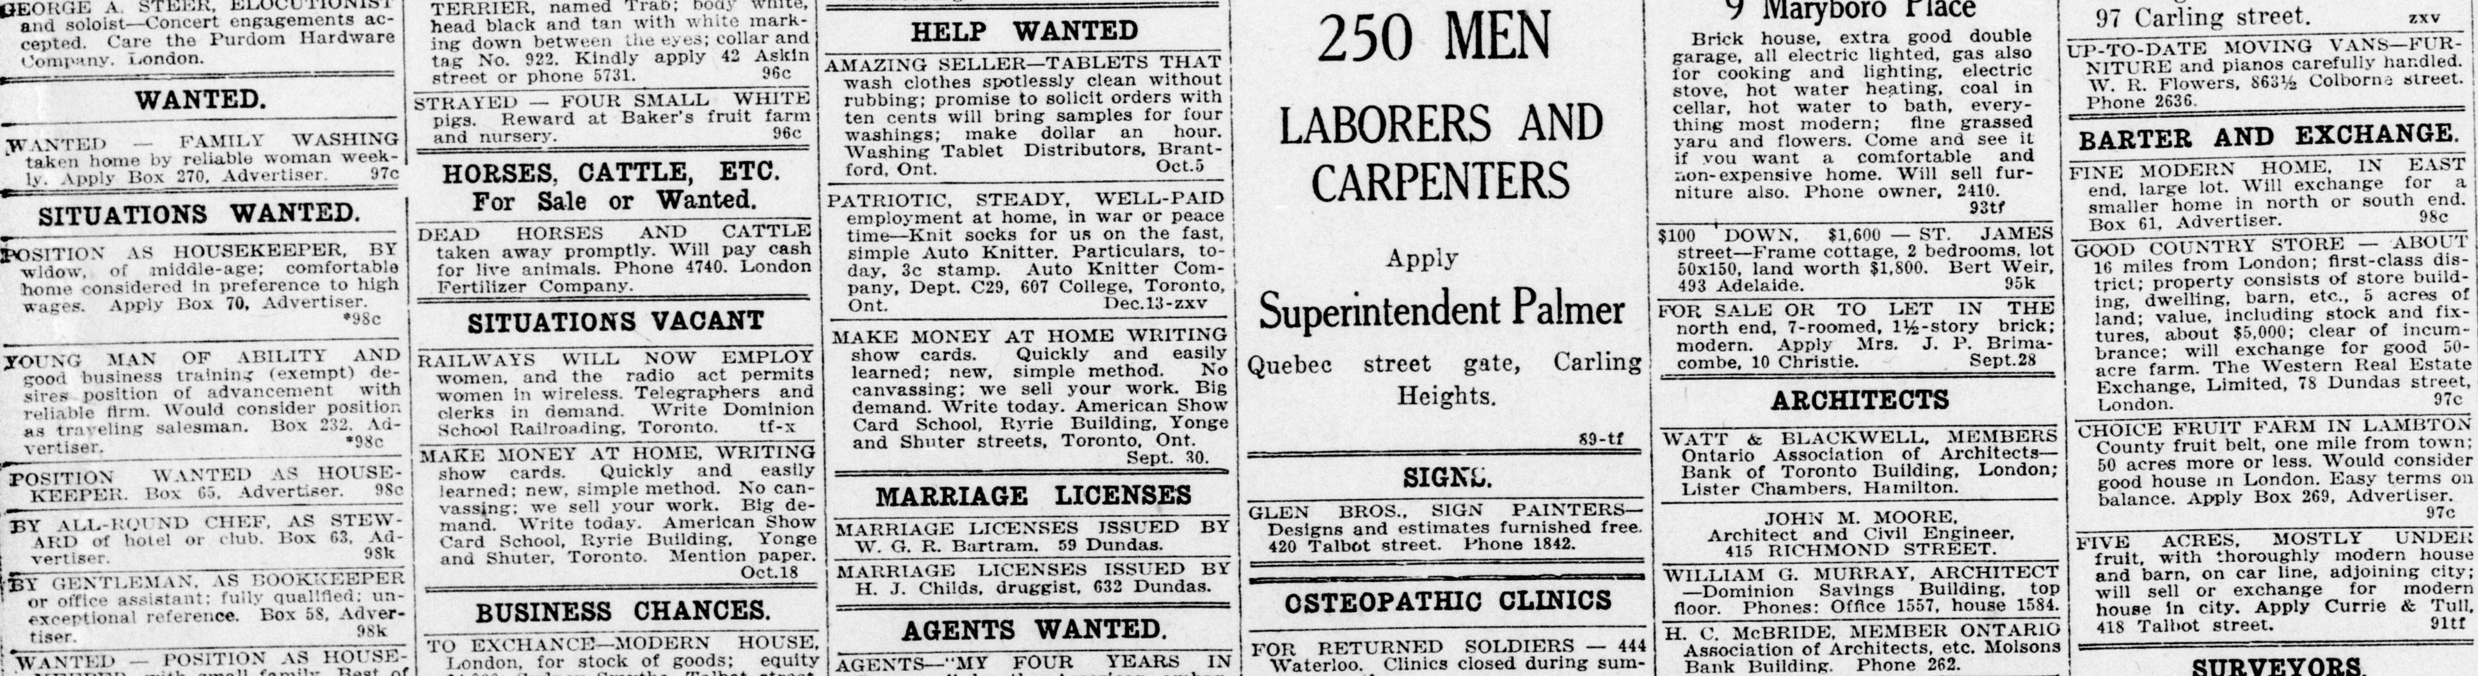

CLARA KILBOURNE, UNIVERSAL College of Chiropractic graduate. Office, 321 Queen's avenue. Telephone 3353.

A. W. MACFIE, DOMINION SAVINGS Building, corner King and Richmond streets. Chiropractic, electrical treatments, etc. Strictly drugless. Phone 4710. Residence 5710.

RUPTURE APPLIANCES

NEW INVENTION IS GUARANTEED — T. Y. Egan, specialist, 36 Yonge street, Toronto. zxv

THAT SON-IN-LAW OF PA'S.—Maybe Pa Wasn't As Sore As a Bear. By Wellington.

SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the undersigned, and indorsed "Tender for Main Sewer, Military Hospital, London, Ont.," will be received until 12 o'clock (noon), Tuesday, October 1, 1918, for the construction of a main sewer, Military Hospital, London, Ont.

Plans and Specifications can be seen and forms of tender obtained at the offices of the Chief Architect, Department of Public Works, Ottawa, the Clerk of Works, Postal Station "F," Toronto, Ont., and the Caretaker of the Public Building, London, Ont.

Tenders will not be considered unless made on the forms supplied by the Department and in accordance with the conditions set forth therein.

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted check on a chartered bank payable to the order of the Minister of Public Works, equal to 10 per cent of the amount of the tender. War Loan bonds of the Dominion will also be accepted as security or war bonds and checks if required to make up an odd amount.

By order,

R. C. DESROCHERS, Secretary.

Department of Public Works, Ottawa, September 21, 1918. 97c

Unreserved Auction Sale

Saturday, Sept. 28, at 1:30 p.m. Property, King street west, Dundas, Ont., 60 feet frontage, stone building 41x56, 2-story-and-attic, concrete block addition 16x36, 1-story, two sheds in rear over 60 feet each; buildings in good shape. Could be used as factory, garage or apartment-house. Also woodworking machinery and tools, a quantity of Ideal block machinery, type "A" power tamper, and over 2,000 iron pallettes, carloads of artificial stone windowsills 5½x7, and a lot of other similar products. No reserve. 98u-xv

COOPER'S AUCTION

TOMORROW MORNING. 1078 RICHMOND STREET.

Remember this sale of choice house furnishings. List in last Saturday's papers. A sale you should attend. Come.

SALE AT 10 A.M.

C. N. COOPER, Auctioneer and Valuator, 374-8 Dundas Stret. Phone 1332. b

AUCTION SALE.

Thomas Clark has received instructions from A. G. Wyatt to sell farm stock and implements, lots 15 and 16, concession 4, London Township, on Wednesday, September 25, sale commencing at 1 o'clock, sharp. Twelve months' credit on approved joint note. *b

Auction Sale

Having received instructions from Mrs. E. Griffiths, I will offer for sale at 509 Talbot street, on Thursday, Sept. 26, at the hour of 2 o'clock sharp, the entire contents of above house, including Bell organ, parlor suites, rockers, rugs, couch, centre tables, china buffet, sideboard, silverware, baseburner (Souvenir), range, brass and iron bedsteads, mattresses, feather bed, bureaus, kitchen articles, etc., etc. Terms cash.

95u-tx. D. H. PORTER, Auctioneer.

AUCTION SALE

Of Standard-bred Horses, Pure-Bred and Grade Shorthorn Cattle, Hogs and Implements—Thomas Smith, auctioneer, has been favored with instructions from the undersigned proprietor to sell by public auction at Lot 36, concession 3, South Easthope, on at 1 o'clock p.m., the following valuable property: Horses—Standard-bred black stallion, 4 years old, good gaited horse, can show a mile better than 2:30, full brother to The Eel, a good horse; standard-bred trotting stallion Lucien McKinney, can show a mile in 2:20, by McKinney, 2:11¼ (the service fee of his sire was $500); standard-bred stallion by Gambolin, 2 years old; La Points, bay mare, mark 2:09¼; standard-bred filly, by Medio McKinney, dam La Points, 2 years; 2-year-old grey filly, full sister to The Eel, standard-bred and marked exactly like The Eel; standard-bred filly, 3 years, by Gambolier, dam Lady Fear-Not; chestnut mare, 4 years old, sired by half-brother of The Eel, dam a thoroughbred mare; brown filly, 4 years old, by a half-brother of The Eel, dam an imported thoroughbred mare, Wodden; Wodden, imported thoroughbred mare; Kentucky-bred brood mare, won first at New York Horse Show and first at Lexington, Kentucky; standard-bred trotting gelding, 4 years old, sired by Barongale, dam the Kentucky-bred mare; 2-year-old grey gelding, cob type; one yearling filly, by standard-bred horse; good driving chestnut mare, 5 years old, quiet and reliable; good driver, 5 years old, sired by Gordon G.; standard-bred team wagon horses, 6 years old, about 1,300 pounds; pair Clyde fillies, 2 years old, good ones; draft yearling colt; good work team; pair brown mares, good workers. Cattle—4 pure-bred Shorthorn cows, with calf at foot or in calf; 1 pure-bred Shorthorn heifer; 1 pure-bred Shorthorn bull calf, 5 months old; 1 Grade Durham heifer, with calf at foot; 2 Grade Durham cows, due to freshen in fall; 1 Jersey cow, with calf at foot; 2 Grade Holstein milch cows; 4 steers, Grade Durham, 2 years old; 1 heifer, Grade Durham, 2 years old; 4 steers, Grade Durham, 1 year-old, 4 heifers, Grade Durham, 1 year old; fat heifer, 3 years old; 1 farrow cow. Hogs—13 store hogs, 2½ months old; 3 brood sows, one will farrow about time of sale, 1 brood sow with 11 pigs at her side, 4 weeks old. Implements—Standard top buggy, auto-seat top buggy, new cultivator (Frost & Wood), Wilkinson corn blower, wagon, one-bore dray wagon, 2 walking plows, disc harrow, gangplow, 2-furrow riding plow, road grader and cultivator combined, hayrack, 2 wood-racks, 2 sets bobsleighs, cutter, slings, ropes, etc., and numerous other articles. Also a quantity of hay and grain (if not sold before).

Thursday, September 26

Anyone wishing to procure some good stock should attend this sale. You can buy at your own price, as the farm is sold and everything goes without reserve.

This sale will start sharp on time. Come early. Terms: Hay, grain and all sums of $10 and under, cash; over that amount 12 months' credit will be given by giving satisfactory approved joint notes with bona fide property-owners as security. Discount of 5 per cent will be allowed on purchases entitled to credit terms.

FRANK ENTRICKEN, Proprietor.
THOS. H. SMITH, Auctioneer. 98u

OSTEOPATHY.

DR. CATON, OSTEOPATH, 171 KENT street—General practice. Lady attendant. Phone 1573.

DR. BARKLIE, OSTEOPATH AND chiropractor. Magnificent electro-therapeutic equipment; fourteenth year drugless practice. 226 Central avenue. Phone 2565.

EDUCATIONAL.

CANADA BUSINESS COLLEGE, Chatham, graduates are in demand. Practical methods thoroughly prepare them, and forty-two years' acceptable service to the business public readily finds them paying positions. Get handsome catalogue D, and be convinced. For home training, get catalogue I. 93n

MEDICAL CARDS.

DR. JOHN S. SCHRAM, CORNER Kent and Talbot streets. Specialty, midwifery, diseases of women and children.

DR. PINGEL, LONDON—ELECTRICAL treatment of diseases a specialty.

DR. GEORGE McNEIL—OFFICE AND residence, 244 Queen's avenue. Specialty, diseases of women and surgery.

J. B. CAMPBELL, M.A., M.D.—SPECIALTY, diseases stomach and surgery. Hours, 1-4, 7-8, and appointment.

DR. J. E. KIDD, OFFICE AND residence, corner Dundas and Maitland. Phone 889.

DR. NORMAN R. HENDERSON, CORNER Dufferin and Clarence (formerly Park avenue)—Eye, ear, nose and throat.

DR. KARN, SPECIALIST, GENITO-URINARY and rectal diseases of men and women. 426 Richmond street, London

DRS. FERGUSON & FERGUSON, South London. Phone 753. Dr. R. Ferguson, specialty midwifery and diseases of women. Dr. J. I. Ferguson, specialty children's diseases.

DR. HOLMES, 344 RICHMOND—SPECIALTY, skin diseases, electro-therapy and X-ray.

DR. WEEKES, 436 WATERLOO—Hours, 1 to 3, and 7 to 8.

DR. W. F. BABB, 305 QUEEN'S avenue. Eye, ear, nose and throat.

DR. SEPTIMUS THOMPSON, PARK avenue, corner Queen's. Eye, ear, nose and throat.

DR. A. A. McLEAN, CORNER DUNDAS and William—Specialty, diseases of stomach and children, and non-surgical treatment of women.

DR. G. L. CLARKE—EYE, EAR, NOSE and throat. 395 Dundas street.

R. W. SHAW, M.D., L.R.C.P. AND M.R.C.S. (England), 287 King street. Phone 839.

DR. W. M. SHOEBOTHAM, 620 RICHMOND, corner of Hyman. Specialty, surgery, diseases of women.

DR. J. E. HETT, SPECIALIST—CANCER, tumors, etc. King street east, Kitchener, Ont.

DR. D. H. ARNOTT, 226 QUEEN'S avenue, in addition to regular practice, will give special treatment for cure of liquor and drug habits.

DR. BROWN — EYE, EAR, NOSE, throat. 472 Clarence street. Appointments preferable.

F. L. BURDON, M.D., L.R.C.P. and S. (Edinburgh) — Diseases of women, children. 461 Waterloo. Phone 258.

DR. W. J. STEVENSON, 389 DUNDAS street—Specialty, diseases of women and surgery. Phone 510.

DR. HUGH A. STEVENSON, 391 DUNDAS street—Special attention X-rays.

JOHN G. HUNT—EYE, EAR, NOSE, throat Hayman Court, Queen's avenue-Wellington.

MECHANO-THERAPY.

CHARLES SIDNEY IRELAND — Mechano-therapist and chiropractor. Chronic and nervous diseases. Office of late Dr. Drake. Phone 186.

BUSINESS CARDS.

SAVE ALL JUNK FOR S. LEFF—Phone 4626. Very best prices paid.

FRESH APPLE CIDER MADE EVERY day on orders of 2½-gallon quantities, delivered next day, $1. Box 4, Tamblings P. O. 95k tzxw

FOR GENUINE PLUMBING REPAIRS phone 5778. S. H. Hammond, 765 King street.

WASH DAYS AND ACHES AND pains go hand in hand. Excellent work and complete satisfaction go hand in hand, if you let the Forest City Laundry take care of wash day. Phone 3881.

McLEOD & GREY, REAR ADVERTISER—First-class livery and boarding. Bus parties our specialty. Phone 1277.

The Peoples Shoe Store

REPAIR DEPARTMENT

Joseph Holland, Repair Manager.

Expert work guaranteed at reasonable prices. Whether you bought your shoes here or not we repair them. 131 Dundas street, 12 Market Square. zxt

National Brass, Limited

Nickel-Plated Bumpers

NOTHING LIKE A GOOD FRONT. zxv

INSURANCE.

G. M GUNN & SON (GEORGE C. Gunn)—Established 1859. Fire, life, accident and automobile insurance.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF YOU were to take sick today, and your wages ceased? How would your family live? I can protect you against such a crisis with our health policy. It will be a pleasure to quote you rates. Donald D. Lethbridge, Insurance, 117 Dominion Savings Building. Phone 650.

J. A. NELLES & SON

Fire, Life, Accident, Marine, Plate Glass, Rent and Automobile Insurance. xt

LEGAL CARDS.

U. A. BUCHNER, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, corner Talbot and Carling. Phone 99. Money to loan.

W. G. R. BARTRAM, BARRISTER, notary, etc., 59 Dundas street.

CRONYN & BETTS & COLERIDGE—Frederick P. Betts, K.C.; Thomas Coleridge.

J. M. McEVOY, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Robinson Hall Chambers. Money to loan.

GIBBONS, HARPER & GIBBONS—Barristers, etc., Imperial Bank Building. Sir George Gibbons, K.C.; Fred Harper; George S. Gibbons.

T. W. SCANDRETT, BARRISTER, solicitor, notary. Money to loan. 98 Dundas street.

McKILLOP, MURPHY & GUNN—OAK HALL BUILDING

PURDOM & PURDOM—DOMINION SAVINGS BUILDING. First Floor, corner of Richmond and King streets.

MACPHERSON & PERRIN, BARRISTERS, solicitors. Money to loan. Robinson Hall Chambers.

TENNENT & TENNENT, BARRISTERS, solicitors, notaries public. Money to loan. 78 Dundas. D. H. Tennent, Gordon H. Tennent.

GRAYDON & GRAYDON, BARRISTERS, Bank British North America, 2 Market Square.

HOTELS.

LONDON HOUSE—PHONE 4905—Remodeled. Modern rooms by the day or month.

ACCOUNTANTS.

WM. H. WILLIS, PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT—Audits, investigations and systems, 384 Burwell street. Phone 2720.

EDUCATIONAL

EVENING CLASSES—SEPTEMBER 30

Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Rapid Calculation, Typewriting, etc., are taught by expert instructors at the

Westervelt School

RICHMOND AND FULLARTON STREETS.

Individual and class instruction, Monday and Thursday evenings, beginning September 30. Thirty-fourth term.

J. W. WESTERVELT, JUN., Chartered Accountant, Vice-Principal. J. W. WESTERVELT, Principal. 95i-tzyxt

MONEY TO LOAN.

PRIVATE FUNDS TO LOAN—LOWEST rates. U. A. Buchner, corner Talbot and Carling.

MONEY TO LOAN AT LOWEST rates—Thomas C. Knott, real estate agency, 117 Dominion Savings Building (first floor up).

$80,000 LEND—6—CITY, FARMS—Reynolds, 77 Victoria, Toronto.

PRIVATE AND TRUST MONEY TO loan on farm and city property; lowest rates, terms to suit. T. W. Scandrett, 98 Dundas street.

DENTAL CARDS.

DR. JARVIS, SPECIALIST—EXTRACTION and pyorrhea. Painless method. 213 Dundas street.

DR. HOCKIN, DENTIST—SPECIALIST, pyorrhea and bleeding or receding gums. 606 Dundas, corner of Adelaide, Bank of Toronto Chambers. Phone 2463.

DR. M. J. FREZELL, DENTIST—Over McLachlan's drug store, opposite old city hall.

DR. S. M. THOMAS—NEW ADDRESS, 212 Dundas street. Phone 2085.

DR. FRED L. WOOD

Artificial Teeth, $6.00.

No charge for extraction. Open evenings, 8 to 9:30.

201½ DUNDAS STREET—OVER BELTZ & CO. PHONE 1077. zxv

VETERINARY SURGEONS.

W. McDONALD, VETERINARY SURGEON, 2 Riverview avenue. Phone 688. Phone 1786.

WILLIAM J. WILSON, VETERINARY—Horse and dog hospital. 84 King street. Phone 788.

ROOFING

SLATE ROOFING—OUR SPECIALTY is slate blackboards. J. Whttiaker, 551 King street.

SLATE, GRAVEL AND CEMENT roofer. Paint for iron roofs. Walter Scott. 506 York street.

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION.

MRS. G. PENHALE HARRISON, teacher piano, voice, theory. Studio, 166 John street. Phone. Pupils prepared for university exams. New term, September 1.

JAMES CRESSWELL, TEACHER OF violin, mandolin, band and orchestral instruments. Studio, 498 King. Phone.

THOMAS G. SHUTER, TEACHER OF banjo, mandolin, guitar and all fretted instruments. Studio, London Conservatory of Music.

TWO PLAYS

have been assigned for this session's work of the new dramatic class now being formed. Will intending members leave names as early as possible? Nominal fee.

London Conservatory of Music

356 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 1101. zxv

NORA LITTLE, TEACHER OF SINGING, resumed teaching Sept. 9. Studio, 265 Dundas. Phone 2364.

Popular and Ragtime Piano Playing

TAUGHT IN 10 TO 20 LESSONS.

Success guaranteed or money refunded. Quick, easy system of bass. Get our free booklet or call for free demonstration.

The Marks-Winn School

OF POPULAR MUSIC.

169¼ DUNDAS PHONE 6244.

Studio hours, 12 noon to 10 p.m. zxv

GEORGE C. LETHBRIDGE, ORGANIST First Presbyterian; pupil of C. M. Widor, Paris, France, French School. Organ, piano, vocal, theory. 290 Princess. Phone 5214. Engagements accepted. zxv

MISS M. RAYMOND RESUMED teaching Sept. 4, at her studio, 556 Richmond street. Phone 2686. 78tf

FRANCES CULLIS, CONTRALTO SOLOIST Askin Street Church, teaches singing. Studio, 177 Wortley road. Phone.

CHARLES E. WHEELER, F.C.G.O.—Classes in vocal, piano, organ, harmony and counterpoint resumed September 3. Studio, 429 Waterloo. 77tf

BERT WEIR, ORGANIST CENTENNIAL Methodist Church, teaches piano, organ, theory and vocal. 493 Adelaide street.

USED CARS FOR SALE.

FOR SALE — HUDSON SUPER-SIX, 1918 model, run only 4,300 miles, equipped with cord tires, extra vacuum cup tire. Apply Mr. Milligan, Heintzman piano store. 98c

FORD TOURING CAR, 1917 MODEL, in first-class condition. Will sell at bargain. Box 247, Advertiser. 97c

1918 FORD TOURING; 1917 FORD touring; 1917 Ford coupe, fully equipped; 1917 Ford roadster; 1917 Chevrolet roadster; 1916 6-cylinder Studebaker; 1916 Crow touring; Colby touring car. Universal Motor Sales, Pall Mall street. *96c

FOR SALE—1917 MODEL FORD touring car, in first-class condition. Apply 471 Dundas street. *95c

MARK, THE TIRELESS TIRE MAN. EXHIBITION SPECIALS IN 30x3½.

PLAIN (Guaranteed) $18.45
NON-SKID (Guaranteed) $19.85
GREY TUBE (Guaranteed) $3.15

MARK CUT-RATE TIRE COMPANY, 126 Carling St. Phone 6182. London. zxv

CHALMERS TOURING, 1917, FIVE-PASSENGER; Chalmers, touring, 1916, 5-passenger; Gray-Dort, 5-passenger; Overland, 5-passenger; Ford Coupelet; Cadillac-Smith Form-a-Truck (new). Beemer & Co., Limited.

FULL OF LIFE AND PEP

That's the kind of Tires you get here. The prices are right, too. Come in and see for yourself.

MARK CUT-RATE TIRE COMPANY, 126 Carling Street. Phone 6182. x

CANADIAN NEWSPAPERS WILL PRACTICE WHAT THEY PREACH

Amount of Paper Used Will Be Reduced to Minimum in Keeping With Big Thrift Urge.

The Canadian press is well to the fore in the campaign to promote the saving, both of materials and money Mr. John M. Imrie, manager of the Canadian Press Association, mentions it as an interesting coincidence that on the very day that the Thrift Campaign was launched in the newspapers of Canada the news print paper committee of the Canadian Press Association sent out to all papers a long list of suggestions by which paper may be saved, and a resulting saving effected in labor, materials and transportation.

Canada uses a large quantity of news print, but much less per capita than does the United States. In this country the consumption is 12,000 tons per year per million of the population; whereas in the United States the consumption is 18,000 tons per million people. In the United States the War Industries Board recently issued an order reducing the consumption of news print in that country. No such action has been taken in Canada as yet; but the news print paper committee felt that every economy possible in the use of paper should be effected, notwithstanding the fact that, even after the new regulations have gone into effect in the United States, the per capita consumption of paper in that country will be much higher than it is in Canada.

Eliminate Unnecessary Copies.

The ideas for economy suggested to publishers are of two kinds. First, the discontinuance of wasteful practices in building up circulation that have manifested themselves through the keen competition of certain dailies to get circulation at any cost. Along this line many suggestions have been made with a view to eliminating wasteful circulation, without crippling the newspaper.

Another line of policy relates to the size of newspaper. Recommendations have been made for reductions in size ranging from five per cent in the case of small papers, to 60 per cent in the case of large Sunday editions using over 350 columns of reading matter, comic features, etc. This would mean the eliminating, or reducing, of many comic and other features and the condensing of news reports into shorter form. In other words, the competition between papers would then be one of quality rather than of quantity of matter printed.

The Canadian press in adopting these suggestions is following up its campaign to promote saving by practicing it.

WANTED TO PURCHASE.

Ford Touring Car

FIRST-CLASS RUNNING ORDER.

State model and price for cash to BOX 64, ADVERTISER. b

WANTED TO PURCHASE—SMALL touring car. Apply Box 60, Advertiser. 98c

ONE PAIR PORTIERE CURTAINS — For parlor archway; for cash. Send particulars to Box 264, Advertiser. b

SECOND-HAND SHOTGUN — PREFERABLY a pump-gun. Apply Box 266, Advertiser. 97c

WE BUY, SELL AND EXCHANGE foreign stamps. Success Stamp Company, 272 Ridout street. *96n

WANTED TO PURCHASE taoiutataoia MODERN HOUSE OR COTTAGE, ON monthly payments. Apply Box 263, Advertiser. *96c

TOURING CAR WANTED, WITH self-starter, must be in good running order, for cash. Box 250, Advertiser. *96n

GRAMAPHONE — MUST BE IN A1 shape and cheap. State full particulars in letter. Apply Box 1, Advertiser. 96c

MELODEONS WANTED — KEENE'S Antique Store. 342 Talbot street.

AUCTIONEERS.

AUGER, AUCTIONEER, VALUATOR, 141 King. Boots, shoes, clothing. Private sale daily. See my shoes. You save.

McDONALD, FARMERS' AUCTIONEER. Sales conducted in any locality. Write or phone R. A. McDonald, Kintore.

SEE H. VAN LOON, 261 DUNDAS street, if you need an auctioneer. Telephone 120.

DERMATOLOGY

MARINELLA SYSTEM FOR FACE, scalp, chiropody. Removal of superfluous hair permanently. Miss Beattie, corner Talbot and Fullarton. Phone 3027.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Farmers, Attention!

Cider Apples bought at the Lambeth Cider Mill any day that suits you, but the mill will run for custom work only Wednesdays and Fridays.

98c. E. & G. H. ROUTLEDGE.

DEBTS DUE MERCHANTS AND others collected anywhere. No collection, no charges, Rates and references on application. Canadian Bureau of Credits. Dominion Bank Chambers.

MORREN — REMOVED FROM 423 Wellington to 231 Queen's avenue. Phone 2698.

AUTOMOBILES AND TAXIS

HUNTER'S LIVERY AND TAXICABS —Formerly South London—164 Maple. Phone 157.

WHEN IN NEED OF A CAR PHONE 2859, Marley & Hexter, taxi garage. Day and night.

HOP TAXIS—CALL 3911. ON TIME—never late. Closed cars. Service at all hours. 381 Wellington street.

AUTO AND TRUCK REPAIRING AND painting by experts; prices right. John R. Munro & Son, corner Albert and Richmond streets.

SERVES YOU RIGHT—24 HOURS A day, Blue Bonnet Motor Service. Phone 6262. Baggage truck in connection.

AUTOMOBILE OWNERS — SPRINGS made and repaired. Carriage and wagon painting. Cook's Repair Shop, 347 Ridout street. Phone 5143.

LONDON BATTERY AND TIRE REPAIR

339 Talbot St. Phone 6151.

BATTERIES repaired and recharged.

TIRES vulcanized, retreaded and rebuilt. zx

USED CARS FOR SALE

USED CARS FOR SALE

Packard Landaulet.
Chalmers 5-Passenger Touring, 1916.
Chalmers 5-Passenger Touring, 1917.
Gray-Dort 5-Passenger Touring, 1918.
Gray-Dort 5-Passenger Touring, 1916.
Ford Coupelet, electric starter, 1917.
1,000-Pound Light Delivery.

BEEMER & CO., Limited

131-133 QUEEN'S AVE. PHONE 5670.

Distributors for Cadillac, Chalmers and Gray-Dort Motor Cars. White Truck and Smith Form-a-Truck. zxv

UNUSUAL USED CAR BARGAINS

TWO LIGHT SIX McLAUGHLIN DEMONSTRATORS Only in use a short time. Are absolutely as good as new.

CHEVROLET ROADSTER, newly painted.

MAXWELL TOURING CAR, only gone 2,600 miles.

FORD ROADSTER, recently overhauled.

McLAUGHLIN CARRIAGE CO., LTD.

Corner Richmond and Bathurst Streets, City.

DRAWS HEAVY FINE FOR FORGING WEIGHT SCALE CERTIFICATES

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 24.—Peter Johnson of West Lorne, a farmer who was committed for trial last December by County Magistrate Hunt on a charge of forging weigh scale certificates at that place, today appeared before His Honor Judge Colter for trial.

Johnson changed his plea from "Not guilty" to that of "Guilty," and a plea for leniency was made by C. St. Clair Leitch, his counsel, on the grounds of possible insanity. Mr. Leitch claimed that his client had witnessed two horrible sights some time ago when his father and brother were both killed by a Michigan Central train, and he himself was carried some distance on the pilot of the engine, sustaining terrible injuries. Dr. Webster, the man whose name he forged on the certificate, testified to having attended the accused at the time of the accident.

Judge Colter, however, decided that some punishment should be imposed, and he fined the accused $200 and costs. The costs will run into a large sum for the case has been adjourned on numerous occasions since last December, when the preliminary hearing was held.

The case was one of the most peculiar in the history of the county. The offence was committed during the absence of Dr. Webster, the authorized scale clerk, who was in Northern Ontario on a hunting expedition. In some manner the accused obtained possession of the certificates and signed the doctor's name to them as the certified weight of the hay he had sold.

In passing sentence, his honor stated that a prison term would not serve the same purpose in this case as a fine. "The penalty, therefore, is $200 and costs," he declared, "those who would get rich quick on money they have not legitimately earned must be made to pay for their greed."

SHORTAGE OF COAL MAKES ITSELF FELT NOW AT ST. THOMAS

Fuel Controller Shaw Says Present Outlook Is Far From Promising.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 24.—Although only a few days of cold weather have been experienced here this fall, Fuel Controller Shaw announces that the coal shortage is being keenly felt, and that the present outlook is by no means a pleasant one. He declares it is very doubtful if this city will even be able to obtain the 70 per cent allotted to it this winter. At the present time, he says, almost every dealer in the city is without any anthracite coal, and customers calling at the office every hour of the day. Several local men who placed their orders as far back as the beginning of June, as yet have not received a ton of coal.

Mr. Shaw will recommend to the members of the finance committee of the city council on Monday evening that they make new regulations in the distribution of coke. He feels that it is necessary to place some restriction on the amount of coke allowed in each family so that there may be no famine.

PUPILS WIN BIBLES ON SUNDAY RALLY DAY

TEESWATER, Sept. 24.—Sunday was rally day in Knox Church Sabbath School. The Bible presented by the session to each pupil correctly reciting the questions of the shorter catechism was won by fourteen candidates, eight girls and six boys. These also received the general assembly's diploma. Two candidates who won the Bible last year, received the silver seal on their Scripture memorizing diplomas, and several others received diplomas for reciting the Scripture memory verses.

The school fair of the Township of Culross was a decided success this year, so far as exhibits of the pupils was concerned, but a failure so far as the weather was concerned. However, the rain did not keep the crowd from being present.

School Section No. 8 won first prize in the procession held, all the girls of the school wearing Red Cross caps, and the boys, boy scout hats. The second prize was won by S. S. No. 7. In the oratorial contest the first and second prizes were won by S. S. No. 11. Inspector Bald, who was present, was so pleased with quality of the oratory that he added two extra prizes to the contestants, making five prizes in this department. The display of Barred Rock chickens, the laying strain recommended by the agricultural department, would have done justice to any agricultural fair.

$45,000 INCREASE IN BRANTFORD REVENUE

BRANTFORD, Sept. 24.—According to an announcement made here today by Assessment Commissioner Ludlow, Brantford's assessment this year as a result of all-round increases in every ward will be boosted by over $1,500,000, with revenue increased on the 30-mill rate by $45,000. The population of the city will show an increase this year, from incomplete returns made, but not a decided one.

The publication of the assessment rolls of the city along with the voters' lists as part of the latter has been decided upon here. The new move will, it is thought, satisfy a long-standing demand for the widest information concerning the local assessment of properties, and will result in a more equalized assessment generally.

LOSE TWO MEN IN WAR.

OWEN SOUND, Sept. 24.—To be twice bereaved in a week is the sad experience of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mundle, who live near here. Last week their son, Pte. Wm. Mundle, was reported killed, and yesterday another son, Pte. Robert Mundle, was also reported killed. The Mundle brothers enlisted in the 248th Battalion and had been in some very heavy fighting. These younk men were well known here, and were great chums and had a high standard of living.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

THE LOCAL MARKET

The local market was quiet this morning, and no produce was offered to any great extent, the cause of the small attendance being laid to the fall fairs which are being held throughout the country.

Oats remained firm in price and scarce in quantity.

Hay is being offered in larger quantities, and over 12 loads were brought to the market yesterday. The price, nevertheless, went up considerably, and they brought from $14@16, according to the quality.

Very few plums were offered, but peaches were plentiful, both remaining firm in price.

Grain, Cwt.—
Oats, per cwt	$2 05	to	$2 15
Oats, new, cwt	2 10	to	2 12
Grain, Bushel—
Wheat, per bu	2 12	to	2 15
Oats, per bu	71	to	73
Vegetables—
Cabbage, per doz., wholesale	30	to	40
Cabbage, each, retail	5	to	10
New potatoes, bu	1 50	to	1 65
New potatoes, retail, per peck	50	to	50
Celery, per doz	45	to	60
Rhubarb, per doz	40	to	45
Peppers, doz., wholesale	10	to	10
Peppers, doz., retail	15	to	15
Green onions, doz	30	to	40
Tomatoes, per basket, retail	60	to	60
Tomatoes, per basket, wholesale	50	to	50
Beans, 11-qt. basket	50	to	50
Radishes, 2 bunches	5	to	5
Beets, per doz	20	to	25
Cauliflowers, per doz., wholesale	50	to	1 50
Cauliflowers, retail, each	10	to	15
Green corn, per doz.	10	to	15
Green corn, doz	10	to	15
Green corn, doz	12	to	15
Hubbard squash, each	15	to	25
Hubbard squash, doz.	1 50	to	2 00
Sage, savory, per doz.	40	to	40
Green peppers, doz., retail	15	to	15
Green peppers, doz., wholesale	10	to	10
Sweet peppers, 6-qt. basket	1 50	to	1 50
Dry onions, bu	1 60	to	1 80
Pickling onions, 10-qt. basket	1 80	to	1 80
Pickling cucumbers, per 100	25	to	25
Pickling cucumbers, 100, retail	40	to	40
Onions, per qt	18	to	20
Parsley, per doz	40	to	40
Vegetable marrow	5	to	15
Carrots, per doz	25	to	30
Fruits—
Apples, per bu	50	to	80
Citrons, each	15	to	20
Grapes, 6-qt. basket, home grown	60	to	65
Pears, basket	75	to	90
Pears, bu.	2 25	to	2 25
Plums, 11-qt. bkt	80	to	1 00
Plums, 11-qt. basket, wholesale	75	to	90
Harvest pears, basket	50	to	75
Peaches, 11-qt. basket, wholesale	75	to	1 10
Peaches, 11-qt. basket, retail	1 00	to	1 25
Crab apples, small basket	25	to	25
Crab apples, large basket	40	to	40
Hay and Straw—
New hay, ton	14 00	to	17 00
Straw, per ton	7 00	to	8 00
Dairy Produce, Retail—
Butter, creamery, lb.	47	to	48
Butter, dairy, lb	45	to	46
Butter, crocks, lb	46	to	46
Eggs, per doz	48	to	50
Dairy Produce, wholesale—
Butter, creamery, lb.	44	to	44
Butter, dairy lb rolls	43	to	43
Butter, crocks, lb	43	to	43
Eggs, crate lots, doz.	45	to	46
Eggs, basket lots, doz	47	to	47
Poultry, Dressed, Retail—
Spring chickens, each	80	to	1 10
Chickens, per lb	33	to	35
Spring ducks, dressed	1 10	to	1 40
Ducks, per lb	25	to	28
Geese, per lb	24	to	28
Turkeys, per lb	30	to	35
Live Stock—
Hogs, per cwt	19 00	to	19 50
Fat sows, cwt	15 50	to	16 50
Small pigs, pair	18 00	to	20 00
Butchers' Meats—
Dressed hogs, cwt	26 00	to	26 50
Beef, per cwt	16 00	to	20 00
Veal, per cwt	21 00	to	23 00
Heifer beef, cwt	19 00	to	20 00
Lambs, per cwt	32 00	to	34 00
Hides and Wool—
Wool, washed, lb	70	to	85
Wool, unwashed, lb	60	to	60
Calfskins, per lb	35	to	40
Country hides, lb	11	to	11
City hides, lb	13	to	13
Lamb and sheep skins	2 25	to	2 50

GRAIN.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Opening: Corn—November, $1 45½.

Oats—September, 73¼c; October, 73⅜c.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 25.—Corn developed considerable strength today as a result of noticeable falling off in the number of arrivals. Besides, pit offerings were light, and shorts and commission houses were buyers. Opening quotations, which ranged from ⅛c to 1c higher, with October $1.48@1.48¼, and November $1.45⅜@1.45⅝, were followed by further gains, and then something of a reaction.

Government buying gave strength to oats. Other trading, though, was light. After opening a shade to a quarter higher, the market continued to ascend.

Provisions responded to advances in the value of grain and hogs. Most of the business was in ribs and pork.

LIVE STOCK.

Montreal, Sept. 25.—There was good, active trading at the Canadian Pacific stockyards this morning, and the market was well cleaned up of stock. There was a heavy run of cattle during the week, but as has been the experience of other yards throughout the country, most of it was of inferior quality. Quotations:

Choice steers, $11@12; butcher bulls, $7 50@8; butcher cows, $7.

Sheep, $12 50; lambs, $16 50@17.

Toronto, Sept. 25.—Receipts at the Union stockyards this morning were 1,155 cattle, 102 calves, 1,048 hogs and 1,260 sheep and lambs.

The market was about steady in all lines, although the trade was inclined to be rather slow. Hogs were unchanged, the best bringing $19 75. Calves firmer. Good demand for heavy sheep.

Cattle—Exporters, choice, per cwt, $15 00@16; do, medium, $13 25@14; do, bulls, $7 50@10 50; butchers, choice, $11 @12; do, medium, $9 50@10 50; do, common, $7@7 75; do, cows, choice, $9 50@ 10 50; do, medium, 7 25@8 25; do, canners, $5 25@6; do, bulls, $7 75@8 50; feeding steers, $8 75@10 50; stockers, choice, $8 25@8 75; do, light, $6 50@7; milkers, choice, each, $75@120; springers, choice, each, $85@130; calves, $17 @18 25.

Sheep—Ewes, cwt, $14 25@15 25; bucks and culls, $8@10; lambs, $16 75@17 50.

Hogs—Fed and watered, cwt, $19 50@ 19 75; f. o. b., $18 75.

Chicago, Sept. 23.—Hogs—Receipts, 12,000; market fully steady to strong with yesterday's average; butchers, $19 40@20; light, $19 50@19 95; packing, $18 35@19 25; rough, $17 75@18 25; pigs, goood to choice, $18@18 50.

Cattle—Receipts, 19,000; market slow, bids unevenly lower on all killing cattle except best native steers; calves 25c lower.

Sheep—Receipts, 35,000; sheep steady, lambs slow and tendency lower.

East Buffalo, Sept. 25.—Cattle—Receipts, 450; slow.

Calves—Receipts, 200; slow and steady; $7@19.50.

Hogs—Receipts, $12; steady and unchanged.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 600; steady and unchanged.

OIL.

London, Sept. 25.—Calcutta Linseed—£29 15c; linseed oil, 58c; sperm oil, £54; petroleum, unchanged.

Turpentine—Spirits, 105s.

Rosin—Type G., 55s.

COTTON.

Liverpool, Sept. 25.—Cotton—Futures closed easy. September 23.37d; October, 23.06d; November, 22.82d; December, 22.66d; January, 22.56d.

WALL STREET.

New York, Sept. 25—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Reluctance to increase commitments on the long side on the face of persistent selling of influential shares caused a lower tendency in the stock market today, after a confused opening in which railroad issues were higher. United States Steel was unloaded freely, the initial offerings amounting to 4,500 shares at 110¾ to 110½, as compared with 111¼ at yesterday's final. American Sumatra Tobacco, United States Alcohol, People's Gas and the oils and coppers also were depressed ½ to 1½ points.

Noon—Expectations that further retrenchment in money supplies would be necessary in connection with the new Liberty loan was the dominant influence. Speculators who had been operating on the long side threw over their stocks, and the supplies were further increased by aggressive professional selling. These offerings told on the market's capacity for absorption, and prices were forced down steadily. U. S. Steel yielded 1½ and Texas Company, General Motors, U. S. Alcohol and American Sumatra Tobacco 1¾c to 2¾c. Liberty bonds were lower.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

Thomson & McKinnon, brokers, Royal Bank Building, report fluctuations in New York stocks for The Advertiser as follows:

New York, Sept. 25.

Trunk Lines and Grangers—	Open.	High.	Low.	1:30
Baltimore & Ohio	53⅞	53⅞	53⅝	53¾
Erie, com	15¼	..	..	..
Erie, 1st pfd	31	31	30¾	30¾
New Haven	39¾	39¾	39⅛	39⅛
New York Central	73½	73½	73	73
Rock Island	24⅞	24⅞	24¾	24¾
St. Paul	48⅝	49⅜	48⅛	49¼
Wabash, com	9½	..	..	..
Pacifics and Southerns—
Atchison, com	85¾	85¾	85⅝	85⅝
Canadian Pacific	162¼	162¼	161⅝	161⅝
Kansas & Texas	5⅝	5⅝	5¼	5¼
Missouri Pacific	23¾	23¾	23½	23⅝
Northern Pacific	87⅛	..	..	..
Southern Pacific	86⅞	86⅞	86½	86⅝
Southern Railway	26⅝	26⅝	26¼	26½
Southern Ry., pfd	66¾	..	..	..
Union Pacific	124¾	124¾	123⅞	123⅞
Coalers—
Reading Railway	88½	88½	87¾	87¾
Industrials—
Allis-Chalmers	29½	29⅝	29½	29⅝
American Can	45	45	44⅜	44⅜
American Car	86	86	85¼	85¼
Am. Locomotive	66⅜	66⅜	66	66
American Sugar	107½	..	..	..
Am. Smelters	76¾	77	76	76⅝
Am. Tel. & Tel.	98	..	..	..
American Wool	55¼	55¾	55¼	55¾
Central Leather	70½	70⅝	69¾	69⅞
Corn Products	43¼	43⅞	43¼	43¾
Distillers	52½	52½	51½	51¾
General Motors	119	119	118½	118½
Goodrich Rubber	46¼	46¾	46⅛	46¾
G. Northern Ore	31⅜	31⅜	31¼	31¼
Inter. Nickel	30	30	29⅞	29⅞
Ice Securities	29½	30⅜	29½	30⅜
Maxwell Motor	28¼	..	..	..
Marine, com	26⅞	..	..	..
Marine, pfd	102½	102¾	101¾	102⅛
Pacific Mail	32	..	..	..
Studebaker	48⅞	49⅜	48½	49¼
U. S. Rubber	60	..	..	..
Virginia Chemical	55⅝	55⅝	54	54
Westinghouse	43⅝	..	..	..
Coppers—
Anaconda Copper	68	68¼	68	68
Inspiration	54⅛	54⅛	53½	53½
Nevada Con	20¼	20¼	20	20
Ray Consolidated	23⅜	..	..	..
Utah Copper	82¼	82¼	82	82
Oils—
New Mexican	106⅝	106⅞	105⅝	106
Texas Oil	163½	163½	162	162
Steels—
Bethlehem Steel	81⅝	81¾	81	81⅝
Crucible Steel	64⅞	64⅞	63¾	64⅞
Pressed Steel Car	70½	..	..	..
Republic Iron	91⅝	91⅝	91¼	91¼
U. S. Steel	110¾	110¾	109¾	110⅜
U. S. Steel, pfd	110½	..	..	..

Sales to noon, 155,550 shares.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

London, Sept. 25.—Closing prices today were:

Consols. for money	58⅝
Atchison, com.	89
Baltimore & Ohio	57
Canadian Pacific	172
Chesapeake & Ohio	60
Chicago Great Western	8
Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul	53
De Beers	16½
Denver & Rio Grande	8
Erie, com.	22
Erie, 1st pfd.	34
Grand Trunk	12⅜
Illinois Central	100
Louisville & Nashville	120
Bissouri, Kansas & Texas	7½
New York Central	77
Norfolk & Western	108½
Ontario & Western	23
Pennsylvania Railway	46
Rand Mines	3¼
Reading Railway	93
Southern Railway	28
Southern Pacific	91
Union Pacific	130
United States Steel	117

MONEY.

New York, Sept. 25.—Bar silver, 1.01⅛.

London, Sept. 25.—Bar silver, 49¼.

London, Sept. 25.—Money, 3 per cent. Discount rates, short and three-months bills, 3 17-32 per cent.

G. T. R. EARNINGS.

Montreal, Sept. 25.—Grand Trunk earnings, September 15 to 21, $1,458,-812; last year, $1,037,721; increase, $421,091.

MARKET STILL DULL AT WINNIPEG, WITH OFFERINGS LIGHT

Winnipeg, Sept. 24.—The market was dull today. There was a good demand for all coarse grains offered, but receipts are still light. Oats closed ¼c lower for both months. Barley closed 4½c lower for October. Flax closed 1c lower for October, 2½c down for November, and unchanged for December.

Futures:	Open.	Close.
Oats—
Oct.	$ 85¼	$ 84¾
Dec.	83¼	82⅝
Barley—
Oct.	1 13	1 13½
Flax—
Oct.	3 91	3 90
Nov.	3 85	3 81½
Dec.	3 77	3 76

Cash grain:

Oats—No. 2 C.W., 87¾c; No. 3 C.W., 84¼c; extra No. 1 feed, 84¼c; No. 1 feed, 82¾c; No. 2 feed, 79¼c.

Barley—No. 3 C.W., $1.10; No. 4 C.W., $1.08½; rejected, $1; feed, 99c.

Flax—No. 1 N.W.C., $3.95.

TORONTO.

Toronto, Sept. 24.—Grain quotations are as follows:

Oats—Canada western, No. 2, 84¾c; No. 3 Canada western, 84¼c, at lake ports for immediate shipment; do., extra No. 1 feed, 84¼c; do., No. 1 feed, 82¾c.

MONTREAL.

Montreal, Sept. 24.—The trade in oats today was rather quiet, but the tone of the market was very firm on account of the small offerings continuing from the west. Prices were unchanged. No. 3 C. W. quoted at 98c; extra No. 1 feed, 95c; No. 1 feed, 95c; No. 2 feed, 90c; Ontario oN. 3 white, 90c per bushel, ex-store.

EVERY WAGE-EARNER MAY "DO HIS BIT" TO HELP NEW WAR LOAN

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 24.—Henry Grills of Toronto was in the city today and made arrangements for the use of the old Bank of Commerce building as headquarters in the new war loan campaign. No definite information has been given out here as yet, but it was learned tonight that several local employers have received information that the loan which will be launched shortly will be so arranged as to give every man a chance. The wage-earner will be reached through his employer, a scheme which was only employed in some few instances during the last loan.

There is not the slightest doubt but what St. Thomas will exceed its objective by a far greater amount than it did during the last campaign, for, owing to the McAdoo award, it is said there are more bank accounts of wage-earners in local banking institutions than ever before in the history of St. Thomas. The reason is that many laboring men who formerly received from 18 to 25 cents an hour in the local railway shops are now receiving as high as 50 cents, while skilled men reach an average of 60 or 70 cents an hour.

In addition to this many thousands of dollars were circulated among the employees of the three railway companies situated here in back time, which dated from April last, consequently men who had never before visited a banking institution now have neat sums to their credit.

RILED CITIZENS OUT TO SETTLE BUGABOO OF INFERIOR GAS

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 24.—The meeting of the gas committee which tomorrow evening will take the form of an indignation gathering of citizens, promises to be a lively one, and many matters of importance will be discussed in addition to the question of poor gas. The trades and labor council for some time past has been discussing a civic fuel yard, for which the city council some months ago voted $25,000 and representatives from not only the executive of the trades and labor, but from all the lodges combined in that organization, will be present and will demand that the mayor and aldermen take action at once.

One trades and labor man speaking of the gas question today stated that it had become nothing better than a joke and instead of giving the ratepayers a product that they could use in their homes, the council had been trying to make as much money as possible out of the plant. The visitors from the trades and labor council will also bring up some other interesting questions at this meeting.

The aldermen, it is said, in an effort to "make their light shine" are endeavoring to learn what complaints there are in their respective districts, and each one will have a voice at the meeting tomorrow.

"We will not take any more of the bosh that they have been handing us about the Government standard either," declared a man today. "We are going to let them know that we want something for our money."

MESSAGE WENT TO WRONG WOMAN

WABASH, Sept. 24.—Mrs. Ida Norton of Oil Springs received official announcement that her husband, Pte. W. E. Norton, was killed in action.

In re-reading the telegram she noticed that the number in the address did not correspond with that of her husband.

As another W. E. Norton, whose home is in Oil Springs, had enlisted about the same time, and from the same place in the West as her husband had, she made an investigation and found that it was the other who was killed. Mrs. Norton's husband, who is wounded, is a brother of Alfred Norton of Wabash.

Rally day services were observed on Sunday afternoon in the Wabash Methodist Church, which was decorated with flags and flowers.

A number of Sabbath school pupils took part in the services, and an excellent chalk-talk was given by the pastor on the subject, "Eight Golden Thoughts."

A patriotic recital entitled "Our Canadian Prayer," and composed by the pastor, was given by one of the Sabbath school girls. Near the close of the services, "Keep the Home Fires Burning" was heartily sung by the congregation to the accompaniment of violin and guitar. A special collection was taken up for the Sabbath school fund.

IS SURVIVOR OF GUN CREW.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 24.—Barrister W. K. Cameron, St. George street, has received a letter from his son, Lieut. Hugh Cameron, stating that he is now fast recovering from the wounds he suffered recently in the Canadian drive. He was in a party which came suddenly on a machine gun crew, and most of the other men in the party were cleaned out. Lieut. Cameron received a bullet wound through the shoulder.

RUSH TO PAY POLL TAX.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 24.—As a result of police court cases during the past few days, J. P. Freek, assessment commissioner, has received a large number of unpaid taxes from young men who would otherwise have let the matter lie forgotten. Almost every day sees a large number who have not paid their poll tax for some two and even three years rush into the city hall and pay up, rather than appear in police court.

HAY

Montreal, Sept. 24.—Hay—No. 2, per ton, car lots, $17.

New York, Sept. 24.—Hay—Strong; No. 1, $2.10; No. 2, $2; No. 3, $1.90.

FLOUR

Toronto, Sept. 24.—Flour quotations unchanged.

Montreal, Sept. 24.—Flour—Manitoba spring wheat, war grade, $11.50@11.65.

Rolled Oats—Bags, 90 lbs., $5.25@5.30.
Bran—$37.25.
Shorts—$42.25.
Moullie—$68.

Minneapolis, Sept. 24.—Flour closed unchanged.

Bran—$28.77.

EDWARD CRONYN & CO.

Members Toronto Stock Exchange.

INVESTMENTS

Cronyn Building, 71 Bay St., Toronto.

The Dominion Savings and Investment Society

Interest on Debentures ....5 per cent
Interest on Deposits ....3½ tc 4 per cent
Total assets, 31st December, 1917, amount to $2,334,803.86 as seourity.

OFFICE: DOMINION SAVINGS BUILDING. CORNER RICHMOND AND KING STREETS. zxv

See our windows for a life size portrait of President Woodrow Wilson

President Wilson
The Man of the Hour

—whose clear vision is our protection and safeguard.

Our glasses will give you the perfect vision and efficient eyesight needed for these strenuous times.

See Us NOW!

BROWN OPTICAL CO.
VISION SPECIALISTS.
Phone 1877. 223 Dundas Street. LONDON, ONT. tf

DIAMONDS

Diamond Rings from $5 to $350, including single diamond rings, three and five diamonds, and many fancy settings in newest designs.

C. H. WARD & CO.
DIAMOND MERCHANTS.
386 Richmond Street.

SHOPPING for SHOES

If it's shoes, you should see our shoes. Our stock of shoes meets the requirements of every foot, of every taste, of every purse. When you purchase shoes here you purchase Shoe Satisfaction, with the guarantee of

Cook's Shoe Store
THE STORE WITH THE STOCK.

PIES

Like Mother Never Could Bake At

RUDDY'S

THERE'S A STORE NEAR YOU:
733 RICHMOND STREET.
308½ DUNDAS STREET.
874 DUNDAS STREET. x

SPEAKING OF AUTO TIRES
PARTRIDGE PERFORMANCE EXACT TO SPECIFICATIONS
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL
THE CANADA AUTO DEVICES CO.
330 DUNDAS ST. PHONE 6670
OPPOSITE ADELAIDE
J. A. McLAREN MANAGER x

PURE VINEGARS
for pickling. Extra quality. Delivered in clean jars. Gallon 50c
JOHN DIPROSE
266 Dundas Street. Phone 2262.
160 Wortley Road. Phone 1397.
zxv

Mr. Man--

We are showing a range of smart styles in many shades of Brown, Tan and Mahogany, with Neolin and Leather soles. Shoes that the well-dressed man will appreciate, and at prices you can afford. See us for that next "pair."

KAUFMAN'S 226 DUNDAS
"GOOD SHOES CHEAP."
zxv

If You Want Something New, Try An AMERICAN BEAUTY SUNDAE
AT ANNIS CANDY SHOP
398 RICHMOND STREET.
Food Board License No. 10-8253.
zxv

The better offices know where to get their Ruling and Printing done. Are you among them?
HAY'S Stationery
173 Dundas St. 486 Richmond St.
Phones 150, 53 or 229.

YOU WILL ALWAYS FIND FRESHLY-MADE AND FRESH-LY-PACKED Chocolates
IN PETERS DOLLAR BOX.
Peters .. Shops
Canada Food Board License 11-878.

CANADIANS WILL STAMP ON BIGOTRY WHEN THEY RETURN, SAYS PRELATE

Men Overseas Have Learned That Worship of God Is Matter For Own Conscience—Will Put Foot Down On Religious Intolerance When Home, Declares Rev. M. F. Fallon.

Bishop M. F. Fallon last night treated an audience of Canadian Club members that overflowed the large dining-room of the Tecumseh House, to a vivid word-picture of what Canada and Canada's sons are doing in Europe today.

In a one-hour-and-thirty-five-minute address he brought his hearers to realize as never before just what it means to say, "Canada is at war." It was a simple, graphic, but unembellished, story of his four months' tour of England and France. It contained a wonderful wealth of interesting information and detail.

Old Canards Laid Away.

Several old canards relative to the conduct of the Canadian boys were laid at rest. Pathos was not absent. His lordship took his hearers through the wonderful and interesting places where Canadians abound in France. He also took them to the sad places, the cross-marked graves that dot the glowing red poppy fields of France. He abstained from touching heavily on the grimness of the struggle, but he drove home fact upon fact to show that the ruthlessness of the Hun is not at an end.

He cast a shroud of sadness over his audience as he denounced German barbarity and frightfulness, which led to the killing of many Western Ontario nurses and doctors as they labored for humanity. This occurred when Lieut.-Col. Clifford Reason's hospital was bombed. He was applauded to the echo when he vehemently declared that the present was no time to talk of peace, and was as strongly applauded when he declared that Canada must continue to stand firm as the leader of Britain's overseas dominions that the great Empire may be held together to continue its work for humanity and right.

An Eloquent Address.

Time and again Bishop Fallon was interrupted by rounds of applause, and cries of "Hear, hear." It was an eloquent address. At one time he remarked that he was detaining his hearers too long, only to be greeted with a cry from all parts of the dining-room, "No! No! Go on!"

In his opening remarks Bishop Fallon referred to a warning he had sounded some seven or eight years ago, while addressing the Canadian Club, when he said that the present war would come, and within the life of the oldest man present. His idea then was that the one great plan of the German was the wiping out of the British Empire. The bishop declared that what he had learned in the last five months had not changed his original conviction. The one great thing to overcome, in the German opinion, was Great Britain and her overseas dominions.

In response to a remark of President Campbell that the bishop would tell his audience what would become of the Hun after the war, the speaker said the German would be a "chastened, humble, law-abiding and God-fearing citizen of the world."

Didn't Want Pleasure Jaunt.

His lordship told of the invitation which reached him from the Canadian Government to visit France. His reply was that if it was a pleasure jaunt he did not want to go. If it was thought he would do good he would gladly go. He went. He said he did so with his eyes open, his ears unplugged. No one controlled his feet nor his tongue. He went where he wanted to and he got what information he wanted. His only regret was that more Canadians could not enjoy the privilege he had to realize the effort Canada was putting forth for the freedom of mankind and for protection from the greatest enemy ever let loose on the universe."

His lordship started his journey with a few words on what he termed his "marvelous trip across." It was with a tribute to the British navy that he concluded this phase of his trip, remarking that "this silent power has contributed more than any other single element to the winning of the war."

Tribute to the Doctors.

As to Canada's services, the speaker opened with the Medical Corps. He said Canada's doctors have done wonderful things. Right under the fire of shells, he declared, "there is a perfection of detail that will give attention to the wounded equal to the best in any hospital I have ever seen." He referred to the striking absence of disease, and to the difficulties with which the corps have to contend. These had been mastered, however, and the work of the Medical Corps was one of Canada's triumphs and was so recognized by British and American leaders.

"Men in previous wars were disfigured and made hideous for life, men remained a pathetic sight for their relatives to gaze upon, but thank God it is no longer so," declared the bishop. "They build up broken-down bodies, and men when they leave the Canadian corps look almost as good as new."

His lordship in passing to the Dental Corps touched on the Ontario Hospital at Orpington. "If there is any pleasure in being ill it is at Orpington," he said. To the work of the Canadian dentists he paid fine praise, stating that no effort was left undone that might restore and build up those who have suffered in defence of the Canadian cause.

His lordship's introduction to his next pilgrimage was amusing. He posed as a son of democracy, armed with his inherent right to criticize, breaking down the barriers and invading the Canadian pay and records office. He also mentioned the fact that he had sometime in the past heard the word "graft." He even went so far as to admit to his hearers that he knew how to spell it.

Emulated by Americans.

It might be said that his lordship here interrupted himself to give a few impressions of what others thought of Canada's effort. He quoted Americans striving to achieve the high pinnacle which Canada had attained. He quoted British officers' tributes to the dominion.

"I was awakened from that dream, however, when the Canadian newspapers reached me. Then I wanted to return home. Everything was going to the bow-wows." Bishop Fallon said he explained that this was due to the fact that the Canadian people were, without exception, in this fight, giving their resources and their wealth. But he declared: "I cannot help thinking that a little less criticism and carping would have been better for a Canadian abroad."

On entering the pay office, his lordship declared that he knew there were 100,000 people making a hundred million in graft, and he was determined he would find it. He did. He described the wonderful system of Gen. Ross in charge. He pointed out that a huge balance sheet of one hundred million dollars which he was shown allowed 72 per cent to pay wages "that your sons offer up man's most precious thing to save your skin and mine." He added that the other 28 per cent went to pay for transportation, equipment, etc., while over in one corner he found a little thing, the size of a pea. "It was graft." He concluded with a declaration that no graver danger could fall upon democracy than unsafe criticism, and there was nothing safer for democracy than reasonable criticism.

Not Paying Too Much.

"I came away a well-satisfied democrat after spending a whole day in the office," declared the bishop amid applause, "and while there may be some leakage and some graft I felt that it could not be much when we pay 72 per cent in wages, as this does not leave a great margin, and I felt that we are not paying these men too much to save me."

The adjutant-general's headquarters in France, where mail is re-sorted and re-addressed and parcels forwarded, was next viewed. Perhaps the feature of this was the touching story of how the trinkets of Canada's 40,000 fallen sons are cared for. "These," said his lordship, "are the things that touch the mother's heart. These are the things that you who have sent sons over there will preserve. These are things that will replace the light that has gone out in Canadian homes. It was a marvelous organization."

The Canadian Engineers, the Canadian Forestersand the Army Service Corps were not slighted a mite by the bishop. His views on the work of the Canadian Railway Corps he has told before. He more vividly pictured it last night. He pictured the disheartening task transportation behind the lines was before Canadian ingenuity solved this with the Canadian light railways, laughed at and branded "a toy" when first proposed.

Saved the Situation.

"It is recognized today," declared his lordship amid much applause and cries of "Hear, hear," that the war would have long ago been lost had there not been a competent corps building railways between sunset and sunrise.

"The fighting men could not last an hour without these forces," said the bishop of the Forestry Corps and its wonderful efforts to supply lumber for roads, trenches, etc. Sixty thousand tons were cut from the woods of France in July," he said.

His lordship did not attempt to deal with the fighting force in the same wealth of detail as he used on the less-heard-of corps. He, however, paid a great tribute to the leaders of Canada's four army corps, with each of whom he was well acquainted. He quoted his own words to them, when he was leaving them to show his opinion of them. He said: "It appealed to my heart to meet this lovely company of gentlemen." A great Canadian nation is being built up by cementing the bonds of comradeship, blood and effort of these men gathered from all parts of our Dominion.

He left the fighting forces with a tribute to their leader, Lieut.-Gen. Sir Arthur Currie.

The Biggest Man He Met.

"The biggest man I met in Europe excluding nobody," was one of his tributes that brought forth vociferous applause. He continued by saying that Sir Arthur was the finest union of ability, simplicity, true greatness and real humility he had ever come across. He is the great discovery of the war. As Canadians we should be extremely proud of what he has done to establish Canada among the leaders of the world."

The bishop quoted a British general as stating that the best corps not only on the western front but in Europe today were the four Canadians.

"I heard much about the roughnecks, the bunch, the drunkards, that we had sent overseas," remarked the speaker, "and so in the four months I was in France I kept my eyes open and in all that time I did not see a soldier or officer in a Canadian uniform under the influence of liquor. How they could have been such terrific drunkards and then scared into such intense sobriety is beyond my comprehension."

He was almost drowned by the applause as he declared: "I know this was never true."

"In regard to certain aspects of their moral life, the less said the better," was the declaration. "Such a home. Don't throw stones at the boys at the front. I will say that they are equally as clean as an equal number of men in any part of Canada or the United States."

A Question of Conscience.

The bishop said that "They are teaching the lesson over there that a man's religious convictions are his own personal affair. That the worship of his God is a question for his own conscience.

"Hear! Hear," interrupted the bishop's hearers.

"The question over there," said the speaker, "is 'What are you worth out here?' Not 'Are you a Catholic or a Protestant.'" The bishop said he never got such a cheer in his life as he did after addressing a Protestant church parade of 5,000 men. The men when they come home are going to stamp out this bigotry and religious prejudice, the bishop predicted.

His lordship's pathetic tales dealt first with the innumerable cross-marked graves that he had visited. He touched on devastated France and declared that his conclusions in this regard were that this war would never be fittingly ended until the barbarians had a taste of this on their own native soil. He was loudly cheered.

It was a vivid and heartrending tale which the bishop told of the bombing of the hospital commanded by Lieut.-Col. Reason. He told how the Hun lighted the whole hospital with a flare. It was then a test of whether the Hun respected or whether he found the Red Cross a foe. He found it a foe, and this barbarity, this atrocity took a toll of 30 lives for no military purpose. Only hate and frightfulness actuated him.

"I stood at these open graves and in the prayer I offered up, said: 'This is the last word in human depravity. There is a God that will avenge this crime.'"

No Time For Peace Talk.

Approaching the end of his address, the bishop declared the present no time to talk peace. Those who believe that this fight of ours is for liberty must raise their voice against such talk. Any peace now would be a German victory. It would leave Belgium, part of France and Russia at the mercy of the Huns, and when he would start on the warpath once again we would not be able to hold him.

"This war must go on if justice is to be triumphant," declared the speaker amid cries of approval. "Wrong and wickedness must be cast into the dust forever. It will cost us something to follow this principle. It will cost us infinitely more if we do not. Are we not big enough to rise above our selfish interest and narrow view? If we are big enough out of the evil and bloodshed shall come good and roses of a national beauty."

His final thought was what he termed a political one. It was nothing more or less than a beautiful plea that Canada, the greatest of the overseas dominions stand fast by the mother country and the Empire. Her steadying influence is needed. She had a wonderful opportunity to become a power for good upon which the eyes of the world would be centred.

QUERIES REGARDING MILITARY SERVICE

Address Your Problems to the Military Editor of The Advertiser and They Will Be Answered From Official Information.

INQUIRER: Q.—Will a young man who was 20 years of age in July, 1918, be called this fall?
2. If so do you know when?
3. As he registered with the 19-year-old class, will he be called if he is a medical student?
A.—It is most likely that he will be called this fall with the 19-year-old class.
2. No. There is no definite information regarding the date when this class will be called up.
3. Yes, but he will receive leave of absence with pay according to present regulations if he has completed at least one year in medicine at any recognized Canadian university.

SUBSCRIBER: Q.—1. Can a man claim his discharge after attaining a certain age?
2. Can a man get his discharge after serving a certain time in the active militia?
3. Will the 19-year-old class be called up in the order as they registered on attaining 19 years of age?
4. What is the age limit for enlisting at the present time?
A.—1. Yes, if he certified his correct age on enlistment and has since become over military age.
2. He could on attaining the age of 45 years, or if his commanding officer permitted it, he could be discharged before attaining that age.
3. It is likely that they will be called collectively, each county in the district contributing its full quota of 19-year-olds, although the nature of the procedure will depend on the need for men.
4. Twenty to 45 years.

FARMER'S SON: Q.—Is there a Canadian Air Force being organized at present?
2. Where is the headquarters of this branch of the service?
3. Could a farmer's son, in the 19-year-old class, sign up, and then obtain leave of absence until the fall work is over?
A.—1. Yes. The Royal Canadian Air Service was formed recently.
2. Ottawa. If you desire information on this branch of the service write to Capt. Walter Smith, Edge Block, Dundas and Richmond streets, London, Ont.
3. He could sign up and then obtain harvest leave expiring on October 31st. It would be advisable for him to finish the fall work before signing up.

READER: Q.—Can an exempted married man who is engaged at farm work, engage in another capacity during the winter months without having his exemption cancelled?
A.—In order to save unnecessary trouble he should first obtain permission from the deputy registrar to take this winter work.

BRANTFORD: Q.—I have three sons. One is married, has been in France, where he was wounded, and is now discharged as medically unfit. A second son is in the Royal Air Force, and the other son is 28 years of age and in Category B. He has been exempted until November 1 by Justice Clute. What procedure is necessary to obtain total exemption for him, and can his exemption be cancelled while he is in Class B, when that category has not been called?
A.—Make application to the deputy registrar, with full facts of the case as stated, substantiated by proof, and the case will come before the central appeal judge for consideration. It is not likely that a Class B man would be ordered to report for service at present, although the military authorities have the power to call him out at the expiration of his exemption, if they deem it necessary. However, if he is ordered to report on the strength of the above facts he would receive indefinite leave of absence, and would not be required to serve unless it became absolutely essential to call up every available man.

HALE, STRATFORD: If you will forward to this office necessary postage and cost of papers required, the editions of The London Advertiser, which you request will be sent you.

ANXIOUS MOTHER: Q.—My son enlisted some time ago and has been my sole support for the last five years. My husband is living, but I have not heard from him for five years, and during this time he has not contributed to my support. Am I entitled to the Government allowance?
2. If so, to whom should I apply for same?
A.—1. If the facts are as you state you are entitled to $25 per month separation allowance on your son's account, provided that he assigns to you at least $15 per month of his pay.
2. Write to the Paymaster, Military District No. 1, if your son enlisted in this district, and a special form will be sent to you to fill in full facts of the case, after which you will receive the separation allowance upon returning the affidavit properly filled in, to the district paymaster.

X. Y. Z.: Q.—I was 19 years of age last October, and enlisted in the W. O. R. on May 31, 1918, for the purpose of being transferred to the Royal Air Force. My transfer went through on August 22, but the Royal Air Force told me to return to the W. O. R., as I could not transfer to that branch of the service. Could I get leave from the W. O. R. until the 19-year-old class is called, as I fully intended to get into the Royal Air Force?
2. If I could get such leave would I then be classed as a draftee or volunteer?
3. Could I get transferred to some other unit, such as the Tank Battalion?
A.—No. You should have enlisted directly into the Royal Air Force. Your transfer was, no doubt, rejected at Toronto because at that time the Royal Air Force was at full strength. You should apply to your officer commanding again now, and perhaps your transfer to the Air Force can be arranged.
2. If such leave were granted you might be considered a draftee, as you are waiting until it is compulsory for you to serve before doing so, although on the other hand, you might be classed as a volunteer on leave of absence. There is good material for an argument here.
3. Yes, if your officer commanding favored it you could transfer to any branch of the service accepting men in your category. Apply to him for a transfer.

INCAPACITATED BUT STILL SERVING

SERGT. NATE BEBINGTON, son of William Bebington, Concession 2, Camden Township, near Wabash, who enlisted in the 70th Battalion, has had a rather unusual career in the war.

Going over to France as a private, he was first with a machine gun section. Later he was given his three chevrons. He took part in the battles of the Somme and Vimy Ridge and was so severely wounded in the knee that he is practically totally incapacitated for service.

After many months in hospital, he is now able to go about with the aid of a silver knee-cap. While receiving treatment, the hospital was bombed in a Hun air raid, and he was severely scalded on the left hand and forearm. His hand is still slow in healing after several minor operations.

Sergt. Bebington is now book-keeper in a mess-room of a hospital in England, and has been commended highly for efficiency in his work.

CHAPLIN MAKES HUNS WALK THE GOOSE-STEP

Charlie Chaplin makes a band of German spies walk the goose-step in "Triple Trouble," the new Chaplin two-part comedy, showing at the Patricia on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. They try to buy the formula for a "wireless explosive" from Col. Nutt. When he refuses to sell they threaten him. Chaplin, the janitor, forces them to goose-step their way out of the office, and finally lands them in a heap on the sidewalk with a kick from the famous Chaplin foot.

PATRICIA

Nazimova in "Toys of Fate," Showing at the Patricia on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

An exquisite wedding gown of real Russian lace is worn by Nazimova in "Toys of Fate," a story of gypsy life, which will be shown at the Patricia on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. In this Screen Classics picture, the celebrated star wears lace which she has had in her possession ever since she came from Russia. The dress is made princess fashion, not close-fitting, however, but graceful and lose in the medieval manner now so much in vogue. This wedding gown is worn by Nazimova in the scenes in which, as a gypsy girl, Azah, she returns from school and marries her elderly benefactor. With the gown the star wears a long tulle veil, caught on the brow with orange blossoms, and a long string of matched pearls.

FIERCE BLAZE WIPES OUT PERRIN COOPERAGE PLANT ON QUEEN'S AVE

A mysterious fire broke out last night about 9 o'clock, which totally destroyed the Perrin Cooperage, located on Queen's avenue, near Talbot street. Several adjoining buildings were imperilled, as the fire burned at such a terrific rate the heat thrown out could be felt on Carling street. The blaze could be seen from almost any point in the city, and in appearance looked to be of tremendous volume. Many persons said they first thought it to be D. S. Perrin & Co. or the National Brass Company. The barn of the Perrin Cooperage, situated a few yards away, held the company's horses and automobiles, the latter being pushed out of danger by members of the police force, who were the first to arrive on the scene.

The fire department soon had the flames under control.

Lumber piles near the building caught fire, also the window sills of the Canada Overall Company, the damage to these being very slight. An estimate on the loss could not be obtained, owing to lack of knowledge as to what the building contained.

How the fire started is a mystery. The night watchman had just completed his rounds, and had started on his way home, when the fire seemed to shoot out from the roof, as if an explosion had taken place. Five minutes after the outbreak the whole building was blazing, and being a frame structure, burnt very rapidly. As far as can be learned tin cans and the cooperage were the only things of value destroyed. The property is covered by insurance, and the loss is considered slight.

CUBAN SUGAR CROP IS 10 PER CENT BELOW 1917

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Sept. 24.—The Government today announced that the sugar crop for 1918 is 453,796 short tons, as compared with 503,081 in 1917, a decrease of slightly over 10 per cent.

The prospect for the 1919 crop indicates that there will be a further reduction in the amount of sugar raised next year.

TAX RATE ADVANCED.

OWEN SOUND, Sept. 24.—The tax rate for 1918 for Owen Sound was struck at 34 mills on the dollar at the regular meeting of the council. Separate school supporters will pay slightly less than 31.5 mills on the dollar. This is an advance over last year, and while it is not a great one, each year sees the rate somewhat higher than formerly.

SWEDISH GUNBOAT IS SUNK.

Copenhagen, Sept. 25.—The Swedish gunboat Geinhuild has been sunk by striking a German mine in the Skaggerack, with the loss of the chief officer and eighteen men, reports the correspondent of the Politiken at the Skaw.

CHANGE IN TIME OF CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1918.

The following changes will take place in Canadian Pacific train service in and out of London, September 29, 1918.

Train No. 22, now leaving Detroit M. C. depot at 2:45 p.m., central time, arriving London at 6:05 p.m., will leave Detroit at 3:00 p.m., arriving London at 6:20 p.m.

Train No. 22, now leaving London at 6:15 p.m. for Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa, will leave at 6:30 p.m.

For further particulars apply at ticket offices, or H. J. McCallum, city passenger agent, corner Dundas and Richmond streets. 9.2

JOHN BARRYMORE in "On the Quiet"
A Paramount Picture

A great comedy success, showing at the Majestic today and Thursday. Also a Lonesome Luke Comedy, the latest News Weekly, and Bert Colwell, the musical comedy star, in popular songs.

Beware the Flat Tire In Business

Sometimes business enterprises suffer from a flat tire.

The best of tires gets a puncture, and the air oozes out, and if one rides on, it is a journey of jolts.

It is then the time to send for the repair man, and to fill the tire with the compressed air of advertising. The tire may be likened to the business structure. But the tire isn't capable of bearing a load when it is deflated. The weight must be held up by high compression.

Advertising is the air in the tires of business.

Don't let your business tires get soft. Keep them firm, yet resilient, by means of the strong force of advertising.

Punctures do not matter so much. They may be mended. But you must keep your tires full of air that is not vitiated, and with the valves made leak-proof, the road ahead is smooth and full of promise.

CENTRAL EUROPE NATIONALITIES WILL SOON HOLD CONGRESS AND SHED LIGHT ON AUSTRIAN NOTE

PARIS, Sept. 24.—Havas Agency.—The Petit Journal announces that a congress of the allied nations of Central Europe is to convene October 15 in Paris. It is to be an outgrowth of the congress of Austrian-oppressed nationalities held in Rome last April.

"This congress," says the newspaper, "will enlighten us further on the Austrian reasons for peace offers. All the national councils to be convoked are recogniezd as belligerents. The matters to be taken under consideration are the reconstruction of Central Europe on the basis of the different nationalities, to study together future relations and common political interests of the freed nations, and finally to settle upon a political agreement with the Allies, and with the free nations, which will succeed the Austrian regime."

TORONTO POLICEMEN STAND BY AND LET VETERANS ROB PLACE

Inspector Afraid to Make Arrests in Fear of Bloodshed.

TORONTO, Sept. 24.—Evidence that a staff of police, approximately twenty-five strong, was on hand at the Sunnyside Lunch on the night of Friday, August 2, during the last few minutes of its looting that at the time the crowd of citizens and soldiers did not amount to more than a hundred, and that this staff of police took no action while two returned soldiers were inside the cafe "scooping the money out of the cash register into their pockets," was given at today's session of the riot inquiry, which resumed at the city hall.

This statement was made by Police Constable Parker, who was one of a patrol-wagon load of police to arrive at the scene after the most of the damage was done. Inspector Mulhall, who was on the scene, admitted that returned men had looted the place. He had taken no action, he said, because the men were crippled soldiers and also on account of the violent humor of the crowd. Had any attempts been made to arrest the men, Inspector Mulhall believed bloodshed would have resulted.

BIG SKUNK VISITS C. I. GYMNASIUM

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 24.—There was an unusual visitor at the gymnasium of the Collegiate Institute on Tuesday morning and although it is several hours since his departure there still remains a faint odor that will long remind the pupils of this visitor's sojourn here. Caretaker Young went to the building and seeing what he thought at first was a large cat, he put out his hands to pick "pussy" up and carry her outside. He suddenly decided not to do so. Several older boys of the school were outside and they rushed into the building to find carefully lodged in the corner a large skunk. Robert Johnson, son of Trustee Johnson obtained a gun, and after two shots had been fired Mr. Skunk departed this life, but while gone he is not forgotten and even tonight the school windows are tightly closed.

DOMINION FISH CO. TO MOVE PLANT

OWEN SOUND, Sept. 24.—The Dominion Fish Company, a subsidiary of the Booth Fish Company of Chicago, will move its plant to Owen Sound this coming winter. The headquarters were formerly at Wiarton, also a refrigerating plant. The change of location means that a refrigerating plant will have to be erected here and also offices, and will cause the large fishing fleet of the company to run in here instead of Wiarton.

LARGE MILLING FIRM TAKES OVER GOLDIE PLANT AT GUELPH

GUELPH, Sept. 24. — A business change of widespread interest went into effect today when the Morrow Cereal Company of Toronto, headed by F. K. Morrow and his associates, formally took over the entire business and property formerly owned and operated by the James Goldie Company, Limited.

This deal has been under way for several months, but the negotiations were only completed yesterday, and the money paid over. There will be no change in the name, and the management will remain in the hands of Linden Goldie, his two brothers, Rosewell and James Goldie, retiring altogether from the business. The Morrow Cereal Company owns and operates the S. J. Charry & Sons' flour mill at Preston, and also a large flour mill at Blyth.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL IS APPOINTED FOR ARCHANGEL REGION

Man Chosen Formerly Fought Huns on Saloniki Front.

ARCHANGEL, Friday, Sept. 20.—By the Associated Press.—Col. Boris Durnoff today became governor-general of the region of the north, succeeding the Tschaikovsky Government. The new governor-general is responsible to the new central government formed at Samara, and which is under the leadership of General Alexieff, former Russian commander-in-chief; M. Avikientiff, minister of agriculture in the Kerensky cabinet, and M. Setepanoff.

The Tschaikovsky Government decided to abdicate when it learned of the formation of the central government, and in view of the fact that the northern region is small, and could be administered better by a governor-general.

Col. Duroff formerly commanded the Russian forces at Saloniki. He is to be charged with the care of all civil and Russian military affairs in the northern region.

MONTENEGRIN MONARCH HAS DECORATED FOCH

PARIS, Sept. 24.—The king of Montenegro has decorated Marshal Foch and Gen. Pershing with the Grand Cross of the Order of Danilo. A gold medal has been awarded to Marshal Foch for bravery in the fighting at Verdun.

WESTERN ONTARIO COUPLE ARE MARRIED IN WINNIPEG

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINNIPEG, Sept. 24.—An interesting wedding took place this week at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. James Jolly, Warsaw avenue, when Miss Agnes E. Nisbet, daughter of Thomas Nisbet of Wyoming, Ont., was married to Isaac (Dick) Miller of Daysland, Alta., son of Wm. Miller of Sarnia, Ont.

Rev. Leslie Pidgeon officiated. Following the service a buffet luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Miller left for their future home at Daysland, Alta.

TO OPEN INDIVIDUAL CLASSES AT STRATFORD

STRATFORD, Sept. 24.—For the purpose of inspecting the collegiate and securing data relative to the establishment here of the industrial evening classes, W. B. Burgoyne, editor of the St. Catharines Standard, and F. Cushing of the Ontario Paper Company, Thorold, were in the city today. St. Catharines plans to establish industrial classes, and Mr. Burgoyne and Mr. Cushing are visiting different points in Western Ontario where such classes are established.

At Knox Church this evening an organ recital and concert was given by Henry Easun, who lately came from Woodstock as organist of Knox Church. He was assisted by Mrs. Trevor Maunder Smith and Mrs. G. Hornsby Parker, both of Woodstock, soloists.

CHARGE OF NEGLECT IS DISMISSED

BRANTFORD, Sept. 24.—In the police court here today Minnie Church charged her stepmother, Jane Reading, with neglect to provide proper attention to her father, who died recently. The parties belonged to St. George, and many witnesses were examined, including doctors. It was shown that medical attention had been secured up to the time it was of any avail, and the magistrate dismissed the charge.

ROWAT'S COFFEE
The best procurable. Pleases particular people.
55c PER POUND
250 Dundas St. Phones 3051-3052.
Canada Food Board License No. 8-3422.

American People Are Asked to Subscribe Six Billions to Loan

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Six billion dollars is the minimum amount which the people of the United States are asked to subscribe to the fourth Liberty loan, according to William G. McAdoo, in a stirring address here tonight, outlining the Government's plan for the campaign, which starts Saturday.

The loan, which will be at 4½ per cent interest, will run for 20 years, maturing October 15, 1938, unless the Government should exercise its reserved right to redeem the bonds on or before October 15, 1933.

PREMIER OF ITALY GIVES HIGH PRAISE TO CZECHO-SLOVAKS

Attack German and Magyar Troops With Daggers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—German and Magyar troops have been defeated by a Czecho-Slovak unit on the Italian front in a fierce battle which was concluded by the Czechs in a desperate attack with daggers, says an official dispatch from Rome. The valor displayed by the Czecho-Slovaks was such that it brought from Premier Orlando of Italy this telegram of congratulations to the Czecho-Slovak national council at Paris:

"Cordially express my admiration at the intrepid fitness of valor of the Czecho-Slovak division on the Alps, Dosso Alto, where bravely a people fighting for its liberty conquered the aggrbssive fury fed by hate. May this be a good omen for the final battle and victory."

British Air Pilot Captures 60 Huns and Brings Them In LONDON, Sept. 24.—Two British aviators, flying low in one machine, brought about the surrender of 55 Germans, and without leaving their plane shepherded the enemy across "No Man's Land" to the British lines, according to a story from the battlefront made public today. The pilot and his observer had been attacked from a trench and sunken road. The pilot dived and replied to the enemy fire with his machine gun, killing one and wounding three. The Germans in a panic ceased firing and hoisted a white handkerchief.

As there were no British infantry in that vicinity the pilot descended to within 50 feet of the ground and ordered the Germans out of the trenches, circling around them to insure that none escaped. All were safely brought in and handed over to the nearest British troops. The aviators then resumed their patrol.

GROWING DEAF WITH HEAD NOISES? TRY THIS

If you are growing hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness or if you have roaring, rumbling, hissing noises in your ears go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who is threatened with Catarrhal Deafness or who has head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Advt.

DOUBLE YOUR PLEASURES

by owning a Victrola. You can have no idea of the entertainment awaiting you, until you have owned your own instrument. It will bring into your presence Galli-Curci, Caruso, Heifetz, and all the other great operatic stars and artists to sing and play for you at your command.

$49 Buys This Victrola VI.

Visit our wideawake Victrola Department and hear these Victor Records—
No. 18473—Victor Orchestra, with quartet, Smiles, Rose Room.
No. 64785—McCormack, Dear Old Pal of Mine.
18482—Billy Murry, Story Book Ball, There's a Lump of Sugar Down in Dixie.
No. 18477—Waldorf-Astoria Dance Orchestra, Oh, Lady, Lady; Sinbad.

Mason & Risch
248 DUNDAS ST., LONDON.
119 ONTARIO ST., STRATFORD.

CONSULT US
before you purchase your electrical goods. Prices given on wiring contracts.
Western Ontario Electric Co.
237 Dundas Street. Phone 4071.

JOHN A. NASH
My Jeweler
does not keep PERFECT DIAMONDS—he sells them, $20 up to $ 206 DUNDAS STREET.
"Where You Will Eventually Buy."
zxv

Taylor's Throat and Lung Balm
Is Guaranteed To Stop That Cough.
35c a Bottle at
Taylor's 6 Cut-Rate Drug Stores