ADVANCE IN MOUNTAINS

Rumanians Continue Gains in Transylvania—Attacks in Macedonia Repulsed.

BERLIN ADMITS DEFEAT.

Berlin, Sept. 26—By Wireless to Sayville.—Rumanian troops have again occupied the heights on both sides of Szurduk and Vulcan passes, in Transylvania, says the German official statement issued today. German troops repulsed all the Rumanian attacks again at the passes, the announcement adds, but were withdrawn according to army orders.

New York, Sept. 26.—A news agency dispatch from Bucharest, published here today says:

Teutonic forces in Dobrudja retreated on the left wing in Sunday's fighting after several lively engagements, the war office reported. The German and Bulgarian losses have been very great. One Rumanian division picked up 5,000 rifles abandoned by the enemy.

In Transylvania the Rumanians have made a further advance in the Caliman mountains.

ON MACEDONIAN FRONT.

Paris, Sept. 26.—12:15 p.m.—On the western end of the Macedonian front, to the east of Florina, the Bulgarians last night made violent counter-attacks. Today's official announcement says these assaults were checked by the French. West of Florina the Russians and French made a combined attack and took fifty prisoners.

Between the Struma and the Vardar there was artillery fighting, together with some skirmishing, and especially on the British front. No infantry actions developed in the sector held by the Serbs.

TURKS CLAIM VICTORY.

Constantinople, Sept. 24. — Via London, 1:45 p.m.—"On our right wing, on the Caucasian front, there were the usual skirmishes, with intermittent artillery fire," says an official announcement issued here today.

"Regular and irregular forces of the enemy landed on September 22, under protection of aerial units, in the neighborhood of Akyol Peninsula. They were pursued and sustained heavy losses.

"According to later information, we inflicted heavy losses on the enemy when we obliged him to retreat east of the Suez Canal. We captured a quantity of booty, which he abandoned during his retreat."

ROUTED FROM CAMP.

London, Sept. 26—12:10 p.m.—The following official account of operations on the Macedonian front was issued here today:

"On our Struma front Karaska was shelled by French artillery, and as a result the enemy was compelled to move some of his camps. Our patrols made successful raids on enemy trenches.

"Hostile artillery aid aircraft displayed considerable havoc. Our aircraft engaged enemy machines on three occasions and drove them off."

'HER ENEMIES ARE BLEEDING HER WHITE AND DIVIDING THE COST AMONG THEIR SUPERIOR FORCES'

Critic of the New York Tribune Declares That Fact That Germany Is Beaten Beyond All Cavil—Summer of 1917 to See the Finish.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Sept. 26.—The Tribune this morning, in its leading editorial under the caption "Defeated Germany," says:

"As we approach the end of the third campaigning period of the great war, one fact stands out clearly beyond all cavil. There is no longer any question in the minds of any but the most pronounced of Germany's sympathizers as to the ultimate outcome of the conflict. It is patent to the least trained military eye that Germany is beaten. What the military men of the world are now debating is the length of time that will be required to make absolute a decision that is no longer a subject of debate.

Now in a Third Phase.

"If one goes back over the history of the tremendous struggle it now becomes perfectly clear that we have lived through two distinct and completed phases, that we are living in the midst of a third, which is marked by very clear and unmistakable circumstances.

The first phase of the war was the supreme effort of a nation of 65,000,000 of people, having as an ally another nation of 50,000,000 to destroy the military establishments of three nations with a combined population of 215,000,000 in Europe alone, and with almost unlimited resources outside, before these nations could prepare as Germany was prepared. Choosing her own moment, choosing her own field of activity, having unrivalled artillery, unsuspected resources in the air and on the battlefield, Germany struck. Her great general staff expected to dispose of France while Britain was still without any really formidable army. It was their view that Austria would hold Russia in check until France was disposed of.

Superior in Men and Arms.

Two years ago, when Germany struck France, Britain had rather less than 150,000 available for service on the continent. Today she had ten times as many on the continent. French and British artillery have now a superiority over Germany and the supply of munitions of the Allies is also superior in the west."

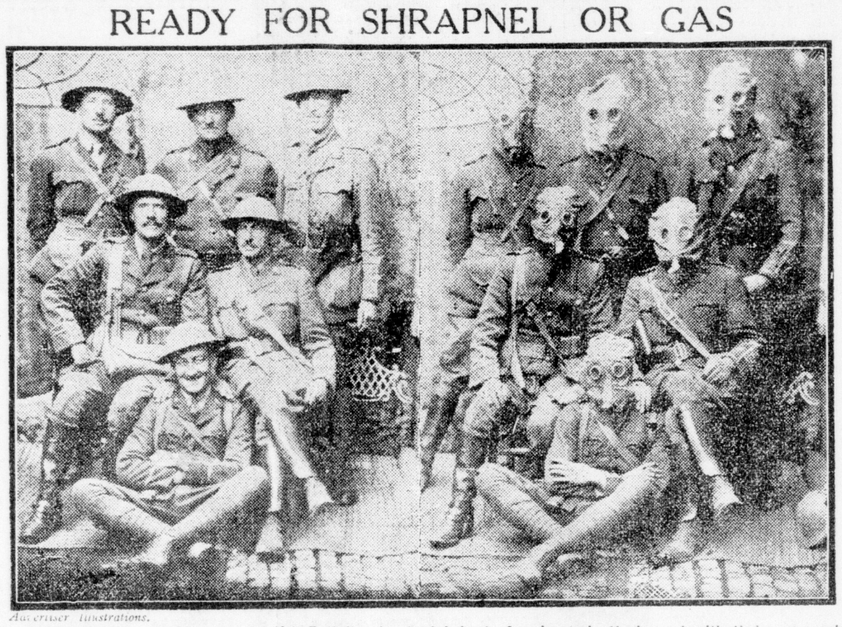

After a lengthy resume of the various campaigns during the two years of the war, the Tribune concludes:

"Germany has had her chance and she has not won. She did not succeed in crushing unprepared enemies possessing inferior numbers of trained troops when she chose to strike. Now numbers, preparation, everything, have turned against her. Her enemies are bleeding her white and dividing the costs amongst superior numbers. These enemies no longer have the smallest doubt as to the outcome of the war. All the allied armies feel themselves to be victorious at the present moment and count no sacrifice too great to contribute to the ultimate collapse of the enemy.

Peace Not Till 1918.

"No one expects to see a material change in the situation before the campaign of next summer. Few people now expect peace till 1918, but the summer campaign now coming to an end has abolished all doubt in London, Paris, Rome, Petrograd. The third phase has only begun, but the end of the third phase is revealed to all. We are looking at Germany in defeat, and the evidences of defeat mount daily."

Allies Enter Combles As Climax of Dashing Sweep Over Positions

Anglo-British Forces Move in Concerted Attack Upon Town, Which Stood Like Rock in Torrent—Large Captures of Men and Supplies Reported by Commander.

London, Sept. 26.—2 p.m.—The British have entered Combles, on the Somme front, the war office announced today, and are overcoming the resistance of the Germans.

More than 1,500 prisoners, taken in the fighting of the last twenty-four hours, have already been counted, and a large amount of war material has been captured. The announcement follows:

"Yesterday's operations were entirely successful. The preparation and execution of the attack by the artillery and infantry and the co-operation between them were in all respects admirable. More than 1,500 prisoners already have passed through the collecting stations, and more are arriving. Much war material has been captured, but the amount cannot yet be estimated."

"Further progress has been made during the night and this morning. A strong redoubt which had held out between Les Boeufs and Gueudecourt, now has been captured, and the garrison made prisoners.

"OUR TROOPS ENTERED COMBLES FROM THE WEST, AND ARE OVERCOMING THE ENEMY'S RESISTANCE. THERE THE ENEMY'S LOSSES WERE VERY SEVERE."

FRENCH MOVE INTO COMBLES CEMERERY

Paris, Sept. 26.—12:15 p.m.—Continuing their offensive north of the Somme, the French last night captured all the village of Fregicourt, and penetrated the Combles cemetery.

A French reconnoitering party reached the southern border of Combles, says today's official announcement. Eight hundred unwounded prisoners were taken in the fighting of yesterday on the Somme front.

Violent counter-attacks were made by the Germans last night on the Verdun front between Thiaumont work and Fleury. These assaults were checked by the French artillery and rifle fire.

Combles, a town of some 2,000 population before the war, had been rendered of small strategic importance to the Allies by their long-continued encircling movement. It has been of notable value to the Germans, however, because as long as they clung to it the Franco-British freedom of action in pushing their offensive movements towards Bapaume and Peronne on either side of it was hampered. Turned into a strongly-fortified position by German defensive ingenuity, it has persistently held fast like a rock in the course of a turbulent stream that has had to be blasted loose before the channel was fully opened.

CAPTURE COSTLY TO THE ALLIES.

This process has only been accomplished by long-continued, severe and costly effort on the part of the Allies. Driving in from the south, the French successively swept by Hardecourt, Maurepas, LeForest and finally reached Fregicourt, a mile to the east of Combles. More slowly, but none the less surely, the British have pushed their advance on the north of the German salient. Their struggles to reach and hold Ginchy and Guillemont were expensive in time and men, but finally the ground north of Combles and some distance to the east was occupied, putting the town in a pocket of which the opening was constantly being narrowed by the drives of the Allies' entente armies.

GREAT ATTACK MADE MONDAY.

Yesterday came the combined effort of the French and British to close the opening, or at least render it so narrow that what could be extracted through it by the Germans would not be worth while. Only two roads remained over which the Germans could withdraw their men and guns. The single-track railroad running through the place had long since been rendered useless.

Attacking from the north, Gen. Haig's forces pushed on to and occupied Morval, cutting the northerly road, running to Le Transloy.

Striking from the south, the French pushed their line to the environ of Fregicourt, severing communication with Combles over the southerly road that stretches towards Sailly. The gap between Morval and Fregicourt, a mile and a half in width, and reaching back toward Combles, was swept from either direction by the combined fire of French and British guns.

It is not thought probable that any considerable force of Germans remained in Combles. During the day yesterday, when it was becoming evident that the allied forces were achieving their object of closing in to the east of the town, the Germans are reported to have begun withdrawing guns from it.

GERMANS MOVED GUNS FROM COMBLES MONDAY

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, Sept. 26.—5:45 a.m.—Fighting continued all night north of the Somme, the Germans making desperate efforts to stem the tide which is engulfing Combles. According to latest advices reaching Paris the Allies have so far succeeded in clinging to their gains and have even improved their positions slightly.

Moving Guns Out.

Early yesterday afternoon the Germans are reported to have begun moving out of Combles a number of guns. This occurred before the British had taken Morval or the French had reached the outskirts of Fregicourt.

The village of Fregicourt is on the road from Combles to Saillisel the only road which, before yesterday's batle, the Germans could use to evacuate Combles. The road is now swept by the fire of the French machine guns.

Worse Than Precarious.

From the south of Morval, held by the British, to the French positions south of Fregicourt, a distance of only about 1,800 yards, was the only part of the loop around Combles which it remained to close. That is now practically accomplished since the fire of the English and French crosses and the situation of the Germans in Combles is worse than precarious, in the view of the allied officers.

Wonders of New War Machine Built Behind Barrier of Heroism

Paris, Sept. 26.—"After the hasty and improvised means of resistance which the necessities of the early months forced on the French commanders, there have come the scientific method and the new disposition of powerful material handled in a new way," says a Paris Journal expert. The great new war machine was built up behind the immovable barrier of the heroism and spirit of sacrifice of the soldiers and of the genius of the chiefs. He described the immense workshops covering many square miles of ground behind the Somme front, the new roads, over which English lines of trucks are constantly moving, the new system of railway lines the artillery and munitions deposits filed to their utmost capacity, and the guns, from the famous 75's to the giant 340-millimetre cannon and the 400-millimetre howitzers.

"But the newest thing of all," he saids, "the most marvellous and most extraordinary in its consequences, is the absolute mastery of the French aviation service, which reigns in uncontested supremacy over all the broad stretch of the Picard sky."

GERMANY SHEDS CROCODILE TEARS ON HER TROOPS

Admitting Losses, Says They Faced All World's War Industry.

CONQUEST IS RECOGNIZED

But First Consideration Is to Think of Heroic Soldiers.

A CRIME TO PREPARE?

Kaiser's Press Agent Sobs Because at Last Allies Struck.

Berlin, Sept. 26.—By Wireless to Sayville.—Successes were achieved by the Anglo-Franco forces on the Somme last night to the east of Eaucourt l'Abbaye, north of Flers, says the official statement issued by the German army headquarters today. The conquest of the villages on the line of Gueurecourt and Bouchavesnes, the statement adds, must be recognized.

The text of the German statement says:

Furious Fighting.

"Western front: Army group of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria: Anglo-French infantry yesterday, which was the fourth day of the artillery bombardment, launched a uniform attack between the Ancre Brook and the River Somme. Fighting which commenced at noon continued during the night with the same fury.

"Between the Ancre and Eaucourt l'Abbaye, the hostile thrust was stifled by our fire or broke down bloodily before our lines.

"Successes were obtained by the enemy to the east of Eaucourt l'Abbaye and the conquest of the villages on the line of Guedrecourt-Bouchavesnes must be recognized.

Faced World's Industry.

But before all we must think of our heroic troops who faced the united Anglo-French principal forces, and the massed employment of material of the whole world's war industry prepared during many months.

"Near Bouchavesnes and further southward as far as the Somme, French charges repeated many times failed under the heaviest sacrifices."

GUERRILLA CLAIMS HE HAS CAPTURED VERA CRUZ

Former Diaz Governor Receives Sensational Message.

New York, Sept. 26.—An Associated Press dispatch from El Paso, Texas, last night, says:

The family of the late Miguel Ahumada, who was governor of Chihuahua during the Diaz regime, received a message from Vera Cruz tonight from Laura Cejuda, a guerrilla fighter connected with many factions, in which Cejuda claimed to have captured Vera Cruz yesterday. The message was sent by cable from Vera Cruz by way of Galveston. Cejuda is a name little known, apparently. He is not known to have had any connection with Villa, and is believed by the Nationalist party leaders here to be operating independently at the present time.

DRY VOTE HELD UP

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 26.—Voting on the question of abolishing Chicago's seven thousand saloons, which dry leaders had planned to bring up at elections next spring has been postponed one year, it was announced today. WOMAN SETS THE TRAP

Victim Found With Her in Hotel by Sham Mann Act Detectives.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Announcing that he had concluded to accept "personal humiliation" to save other men and women from being drawn into the blackmailers' trap, Edward R. West, vice-president of the C. D. Gregg Tea and Coffee Company of New York and Chicago, admitted today that he is the "A. R. Wesley" who was surprised in a New York hotel with "Alice Williams" by representatives of the band of Mann Act blackmailers recently exposed by federal officials. The blackmailers after bringing West and the woman to Chicago talked the man out of $15,000 in return for a promise to keep quiet.

"The woman with me was not Alice Williams, but Buda Godman, a member of the gang," West said.

This woman is under surveillance in a Chicago hotel pending the outcome of the preliminary hearing of John T. French, George Irwin and "Doc" Brady, on charges of blackmailing West. French, who has used "Jack" and "Homer" as aliases, is said to be a son of a wealthy St. Louis widow who believed him to be engaged in the haberdashery business.

No Mad Rush For Sam's "Mug"

Sam Hughes' most generous offer of his portrait at the remarkably low price of $1.50 per, for some unaccountable reason does not seem to meet with the instant response which he doubtless expected.

Unfraternal mankind in the shape of officers has so far completely ignored the "chance of a lifetime." A careful canvass of the camps has so far failed to reveal one who has taken advantage of the wonderful opportunity. Apparently Sir Sam's optimism will suffer a severe strain.

GRAHAM VERDICT AWAITING RETURN OF SIR SAM HUGHES

Minister of Militia Is Personal Friend of London's Own Head.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Sept. 26.—The case of Lieut.-Col. C. M. R. Graham, officer commanding the 142nd Battalion, who has been relieved of his command for strapping a private, has not come before the militia authorities here as yet, according to information received at headquarters. The incident happened some days ago, and the press have been full of the case, so it is hard to understand here why nothing has been done.

It is rumored here that the case has been held up, until the return of Sir Sam Hughes, minister of militia. The impression prevails here that the authorities do not want to deal with it until Sir Sam gets back, hence the delay. There is also a strong opinion here that Col. Graham will be restored. He is a personal friend of Sir Sam's, and it is taken for granted that the minister will pass over the incident. There is much comment here on the delay.

RUSS AND TEUTON LAUNCH ASSAULTS WITH HEAVY LOSS

Both Sides Contend That Attacks Are Repulsed.

AIRCRAFT BROUGHT DOWN

Aviators of Contenders Compelled to Land by Fire.

[Canadian Press.]

Petrograd, Sept. 26—Via London, 2:05 p.m.—German troops, after a fierce artillery preparation, yesterday launched an attack against the Russian trenches north of Lake Kaldytchev, says the Russian official statement issued today. The Germans were repulsed with great losses, the statement adds, leaving a large number of killed and wounded on the field. The text says:

"Western Front: An enemy aeroplane of the Ilya Mouramets type appeared over the Hitzenberg station and threw down seventeen 72-pound bombs without causing any damage.

Aircraft Brought Down.

"In the region south of Dvinsk one of the enemy aeroplanes fired upon by our artillery turned over and was compelled to land. The machine became enveloped in black smoke as it descended towards the enemy's lines.

"In the region north of Lake Kaldytchev, after fierce artillery preparation, the enemy launched an assault with a force of about two battalions. The enemy was repelled with great losses by our energetic fire and left between our lines and his trenches a large number of killed and wounded."

CLAIM RUSSIAN REPULSE.

Berlin, Sept. 26.—Via Sayville.—Russian troops yesterday made six successive attacks in strong force against the Austro-German positions near Manajow, in Galicia, says today's German official statement, but the attacks failed under the heaviest losses for the Russians.

The text of the German official statement reporting operations on the Russian front says:

"Eastern theatre:—Prince Leopold's front—A storm of strong hostile forces repeated six times near Manajow failed completely, and under the heaviest losses. A Russian gigantic aeroplane was brought down by one of our fliers near Borguny. In the same district a Russian monoplane was shot down in an aerial fight.

"Archduke Charles' front: In the Ludova sector there were fresh violent enemy attacks. Further south, separate attacks were repulsed."

HUNDRED MILLION OVERSUBSCRIBED TO CANADA WAR LOAN

Twenty-Seven Millions Received in One Day's Mail.

Ottawa, Sept. 26.—Subscriptions to the Canadian war loan up to today totalled $200,000,000. Yesterday's mails alone brought $27,000,000 and more is expected. Sir Thomas White received a telegram of congratulation from Sir Robert Nivson, the eminent London financier, today.

The loan will be followed by arrangements for further imperial credits in Canada, and to this end the finance minister is to meet the Canadian Bankers' Association for a conference.

By Frederick Palmer.

BRITISH FRONT IN FRANCE, SEPT. 25—Via London, Sept. 26—6:58 a.m.—This has been another great day for Anglo-French forces on the Somme. As a spectacle for ehe observer it was the most splendid of all the attacks made by the allied forces since the commencement of the great offensive. What either army was trying to do, and how they were doing it, the positions they held and sought to conquer in the team play of the blue French legions and the khaki-clad brigades of Britain were comprehensible to the eye in the glorious autumn sunlight for a sweep of ten miles. The scene had the intoxication of war's grandeur—if war can be said to have any grandeur. Tonight the British have taken half of Morval, all of Lesboeufs, and have advanced their line on a front of 8,000 yards for an average depth of 1,000 yards; the French have stormed Rancourt, and have pushed their line to the outskirt of the little village of Fregicourt, a mile east and a little north of Combles. The German stronghold of Combles is virtually isolated.

DOES PATRIOTISM PAY?

BY A. HASBIN.

[Pte. Fred Young, 18th Battalion.]

"Then out spake brave Horatius, the captain of the gate:
To every man upon this earth death cometh soon or late.
And how can man die better than facing fearful odds,
For the ashes of his fathers and the temples of his gods."

You have probably read that thrilling poem that tells with patriotic fervor of "how well Horatius kept the bridge in those brave days of old," and felt its inspiration.

We had received our weekly quota of daily papers from the old home town in Canada, and reading of brave deeds done by comrades on European battlefields, had compared them favorably with the ancient exploits of Horatius and his two companions.

But, turning over the page, we were shocked to learn that in some of the churches in the home town, a controversy had arisen as to whether a German bullet could send a Canadian soldier's soul to hell. Now we are not backing the opinions of Horatius against Bible truths, but we would rise to remark that we regret that the foolkiller was not on "active service" in the vicinity of those pulpits, where men in their zeal for "doctrine," were blind to the fact that they were stabbing afresh to the heart, members of their congregations who had loved ones on the firing-line.

For it must have made the angels in heaven weep with pity at the plight of soldiers' wives and mothers, who had snatched an hour from the ever-grinding affairs of domestic perplexities, in order to get spiritual comfort at the house of God, only to find the preacher doing his best to convince the people, that the eternal welfare of their loved ones on active service, was very problematical. And we can realize their feelings as with bowed head and disquietude of soul, they had emerged from the edifice, anxiously asking themselves the question, "Does patriotism pay?" Truly they had asked for bread and received a stone. But there's a silver lining.

Memory carries us swiftly back to the early spring of 1915, when on the eve of their departure for overseas, the boys of the fighting 18th marched as a battalion to the cathedral, and in the presence of God and their comrades, knelt in squads at the altar rail, and received the holy communion. True, since then, the weight of heavy packs in the quagmire of Deadman's trail, caused them sometimes to temporarily disregard the third commandment, and actual experience has taught us that trench environments are the strongest antidote to Christianity that mortal man was ever called on to endure, but we are fully convinced that deep in each man's soul, the principles of the apostle's creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Golden Rule were firmly implanted to their mutual good.

Our respect and admiration for the "sky pilots," who did their bit in the trenches with the boys, is too well known to readers of the "home town" paper to need comment. But if we ever stack up against a debate that "Resolves, That the Rev. N. G. McFlinch, the Preacher, Has a Better Chance of Receiving the Glad Hand of St. Peter at the Gate Than the Intrepid Tommy Fearless, the Private, Who Fought, Bled and Died in the Trenches," we shall emphatically take sides with the negative.

It may have been "unorthodox" for the soldier who, at the dying request for a "bit of a prayer" from his mortally wounded comrade, crouched down on that blood-soaked trail, and amidst the darkness and the whizz of the death-dealing bullets, reverently repeated the Lord's Prayer for the benefit of his dying "pal." Such scenes are too sacred for even a church debate, but "How can man die better?" Can you mentally visualize that scene?

So, take fresh hope, soldier's wife, mother, sweetheart. Some day, perhaps very soon now, the bells of victory will ring, and the streets of the old home town will resound with cheers for her returned heroes, while men who have shook hands with death with a joke in their teeth will be welcomed to the arms of their loved ones with sobs of joy.

And as you realize that the power of the Hun to violate the sanctity of your hearth and home has been for ever broken, although your eyes may be dim with tears in memory of those brave lads who, true to flag and comrades, were "faithful until death," yet we'll bet dollars to doughnuts that on that day there will not be enough pessimistic parsons on this side of purgatory to cause you one moment's disquietude as to whether patriotism pays.

MANY RECRUITS JOINING CONSTRUCTION CORPS

Men Are Coming in Steadily For Railway Battalion.

The 239th Railway Construction Corps has secured its share of recruits in the last two weeks, over twelve having been sworn in and a number are waiting to pass the medical board. In London itself last week this battalion secured more recruits than any other unit. This corps offers the greatest opportunity to the working man, the man who can handle a team, run a scraper or grader, is good on the business end of a shovel or pick, or can pack his share of a 90-pound rail, they all get a show in the Railway Construction Corps. It takes months to make a soldier. This battalion wants men who can work and it is getting them. No long stay in Canada, no rifle manual or musketry, trench-digging and manoeuvres, but overseas to work in France as soon as possible. Work that requires men, and the rank and file of the battalion are as husky and fine a lot of men as can be found in the Dominion. It is a corps to which any man may be proud to belong, proud of his comrades and his officers, who all know their work. And what does confidence in an officer mean? Ask any returned soldier. The local recruiting office at 237 Dundas street will be closed after this week, but applications will be received by Capt. Irvine at the Armories, or any recruiting office.

WOUNDED WATFORD BOY WELL KNOWN IN CITY

Lieut. Ernest Lawrence, Watford, who was wounded the other day in France, is well-known in London. He took his officers training course here and was attached to the 70th Battalion, under Lieut.-Col. R. I. Towers. Later he transferred to the 76th Battalion at Barrie, and went overseas with that regiment. He later joined another battalion at the front and has been in the trenches four ar five months.

His mother is visiting in Barrie, and was seriously ill when the dispatch came notifying her of Lieut. Lawrence's injury. He condition is precarious at this time.

MAJOR FAIRBANK HAS MADE ACQUAINTANCE OF TRENCH WARFARE

Field Officer of 70th Who Went as Subaltern Writes

FEELS FIT, HE DECLARES

Hardships at Front Easily Overcome by Physical State.

Major C. O. Fairbank of Petrolea, who went overseas as junior major of the 70th Battalion, but who took the lower rank of lieutenant in order to get to the front, is attached to the 18th Battalion, and is now in the trenches. He has been under fire and knows how it feels to endure the inconveniences of the trenches. Major Fairbank, although wealthy, has been connected with military matters for many years. He is a graduate of the R. M. C., and has commanded batteries. However, he could not get a command, but was determined to do his bit. He is doing it well.

In a letter to a friend in this city he gives some account of the work he has been engaged in.

"Just a word to let you know that I am all O. K.," he writes. "I am with the 18th Battalion. I have seen many things since being over, and some day I hope to be able to talk them over with you. For the present the information we give is meagre—for reasons.

Has Been Under Fire.

"Since being over here, I have made the acquaintance of the trenches. I know the feeling of being under fire from trench mortars and artillery. I have slept in a dugout lulled to sleep by artillery and machine gun fire. I have marched in rain and mud and rested by the side of a wet stook of grain; I have billeted on straw in a barn and other various comfortable picnicking places. I am fit, eat and sleep well, and recuperate from fatigue quickly. Well, some day the war will be over and peace and happiness will reign again."

He inclosed two photographs of six officers of the 18th Battalion, all well known in the district. One of the sextette is Major Loughrin, brother-in-law of Dr. S. J. Radcliffe, principal of the Normal School, who was killed the other day. He was alive when the letter was written, as Major Fairbank makes no reference to the casualty.

CO-OPERATION BY AUTO OWNERS WILL AID RETURNED MEN

Means Insurance of Country Trips for Invalided Soldiers

BANQUET AT AILSA CRAIG

Big Reception To Be Tendered Them There During Fair.

Only the assistance of a number of auto-owning Londoners is needed to give the returned men in the city a series of trips around the surrounding district, and at the same time give the residents of the country an opportunity to learn what is being done for the returned soldier, and how they can assist.

About 30 returned soldiers are being taken to Thorndale today, and it is hoped that about the same number can be taken to the Ailsa Craig fair on Wednesday, and the Ilderton fair on Friday. This will not be possible, however, unless a number of the citizens are willing to loan their cars for the purpose of carrying the men. The Soldiers' Aid Commission, which is conducting the trips, does not wish to impose on the generosity of a few citizens by using their automobiles every time, so offers of the loan of as many cars as possible are wanted. Arrangements can be made by telephoning the secretary of the Soldiers' Aid Commission at 965.

Yesterday J. H. McKay, secretary of the Ailsa Craig fair board, telephoned to the local branch of the Soldiers' Aid Commission asking that a party of returned men be allowed to come out to the fair. He stated that a banquet would be prepared for the men, and that a reception for them would be held at a concert in the town hall afterwards.

It is co-operation such as this that the Soldiers' Aid Commission wants, its members state, and they are anxious that other fair boards should make arrangements to have the men.

Many of the returned soldiers who are convalescing in the city at present are from outside points, and it is felt that all parts of the district should have a share in helping them.

It is for the purpose of arousing people who live out of town to the necessity of caring for the returned men that the trips are being held, as well as providing recreation and change for the returned men.

PTE. SIMMONS' DARING SCHEME TO ESCAPE FROM GERMAN PRISON EXPLAINED INSIDE OF ENVELOPE

Long Message to Brother Escaped Eye of German Censor —Asked for Bag of Sugar, But Cream Cheese Proved Quite as Efficacious.

When Pte. M. C. Simmons of Delmer, Oxford County, conceived his clever and daring plan to escape from the German prison camp at Giessen, he asked for a bag of sugar. Instead he got a cream cheese from his brother at Delmer, to whom he wrote. The cheese was of good Canadian make and contained a compass and map. That was all that was needed. On the inside of an envelope he wrote his request, a letter in itself, but it escaped the eye of the German censor. This was the secret message, written in a very small hand:

THE SECRET MESSAGE.

"Last fall another fellow and I escaped and when taken were almost to the Black forest, which stretches up to Switzerland. We were gone five nights and traveling all the hours of darkness and were only taken by an accident. This coming summer I am going to try it again. When taken I lost my compass, maps and German money, having any one of which is a crime here. In the bottom of a bag of sugar send me a compass, as it is essential on cloudy nights and in the forest. You will not likely be able to, but if you can you could send me a map of Northwestern Switzerland, showing the mountain ranges and valleys, also of Germany along the east of the Rhine to Switzerland, showing the hills as here they are all woods and make good cover for the day. Three or four American quarters would buy me bread in Switzerland if I ran out of grub carried with me. I am now through my punishment, part of which was two weeks in dark cells on bread and water and boards to sleep on. During all punishment I was not allowed to write, but could receive letters and cards."

PTE. SIMMONS.

HOW SIMMONS BECAME PRISONER.

The following letter from Pte. Simmons tells of the battle against overpowering odds, in which he was taken prisoner:

GIESSEN, June. 1, 1915.—I came out of hospital on May 20 and am now in Barrack A. My wound is all healed over, but my shoulder is not strong yet. It will be strong as ever when given time, but how long it will take I do not know.

I am not allowed to write a long letter, and I expect you would rather hear of the battle; so that is what I will write about.

About the middle of April most of the Canadian contingent took over a line of trenches just out from Ypres, and which formed part of a large horseshoe, with the toe into the German lines. The left side of the heel of the horseshoe was held by French colonial troops—Algerians and Turcos. Nothing serious happened until the evening of the 22nd, when the Germans attacked them. They fled, leaving the way open for us to be cut off. At the same time the Germans began a furious bombardment of about everything inside the horseshoe.

Try To Stem Foe's Advance.

We took up reserve trenches for most of the night, but towards morning three of our four companies marched to where the Germans had broken through and as quickly as possible made new trenches to prevent them from coming further in.

Nothing of any importance happened to our three companies until the morning of the 24th. The British were supposed to come to our assistance by this time, but as our communications were cut, we were in the dark as to what they were doing. We had scarcely any artillery to support us, but the Germans had all kinds and used their ammunition lavishly. German aeroplanes circled above our trenches in the early morning to give their gunners the exact range. They used shrapnel against our particular part of the trenches.

Dodges the Shrapnel.

One particular battery of guns was used against the part of the trench my company was in, while other batteries paid attention to our rear and the other companies. I soon figured out what battery was shelling us and only crouched when it fired. One shrapnel bullet went through my sleeve, but missed my arm. The man next me got one in the head but was only wounded.

Their artillery did not cease firing, even when the German soldiers made their appearance. To our disappointment, they did not charge, but took advantage of all cover and fired at any of us they could see. We could not tell what was going on about us, but before noon the Germans were on both sides of us and some small guns were by this time shelling us from our rear. We were ordered to retire.

Neighbor Killed.

Just at this point two men came into my part of the trench, one beside me and one one man down. Both were killed, the one next me getting a bullet through the head. He fell back against the back of the trench and slid down on his knees.

As I was a regimental sniper, I was equipped with a sniping rifle, which has a telescopic sight, but no place for a bayonet. On account of being slow to aim and having no bayonet, I discarded it and took the dead man's rifle and bayonet.

Gets Two Bullets.

I was among the last of those to retire to the reserve trench, a distance to the rear. A partially built communication trench went back to it, but by this time a part of it was choked with dead and wounded, and a few men who thought it suicide to venture out. We saw we would be captured if we stayed there, and as we could do no good there the more reckless of us tried to reach the reserve trench across the open. I got two bullets with only seconds between them, the first going through my pocket, but not touching me. The other went in under my shoulder blade, passed through the bone and came out less than an inch from my shoulder joint. It did not bring me down at all, but there happened to be a long hole made by a shell which did not burst, and I fell into it until I recovered from the shock, which took two or three minutes. From there on the holes were more numerous, and taking advantage of them, I managed to reach the reserve trench.

I had retained the rifle, bayonet and ammunition, as I thought they might come in useful, but soon after reaching the reserve trench I discarded them, as I was getting dizzy and my one arm was useless.

Obliged To Surrender.

The Germans were about us on all sides and had brought machine guns up which had made further retreat impossible. About 150 men were left of the 750 in the three companies, and many of us were wounded. The highest officer we had left surrendered, as it was the only alternative to a slaughter of what remained.

FOUR BATTALIONS TO RETURN TO LONDON FOR WINTER, REPORT

Report From Camp Borden Not Confirmed Here.

HIKE FOR SOME UNITS

Toronto and Hamilton Battalions Will March Home in Three Weeks.

CAMP BORDEN, Sept. 25. — All units in camp at the breaking-up will trek to their winter billets, or at least part of the way. This is the plan that Col. H. C. Bickford, G. S. O., outlined today, and the majority of the units will march by way of Toronto, which is about 70 miles distant.

The London and Western Ontario battalions will accompany the Hamilton units as far as that city and then entrain for home.

It is expected that the trek will take four days to Toronto and two more to Hamilton.

Camp may break up about October 16th.

Officers for Greys.

The 201st Toronto Light Infantry Battalion was absorbed by the 170th and 198th Battalions, but there are nine officers who are still supernumerary, and they will be taken into the 248th Grey Battalion.

The 149th Lambton Battalion will go into the trenches tomorrow at 9 o'clock, which is their second time. This time they are going in at night, so that they will have had experience in relieving both by day and night.

133rd and 168th Battalions.

Tomorrow the 133rd Norfolk Battalion and the 168th Kent Battalion will be inspected in musketry by Lieut.-Col. J. S. Campbell, attached general staff.

The 149th Lambtons and the 161st Hurons will display their prowess in bayonet fighting and physical training and the scouts of the 118th Kitchener Battalion will report to the district intelligence officer for inspection.

Order for Women.

Orders today state that all women will in future leave camp on Sunday evening before 6 o'clock, so that in future the practice of mssng the last train may be discontinued.

CHOSEN UNITS OF LATEST RECRUITS WIDELY SCATTERED

Result Does Not Add Much to Individual Records.

HIGHLANDERS GROWING

Men From London and District Eager for Kilted Service.

Active campaigning by the recruiting officers of all the units in the city is beginning to have its effect. Although plenty of recruits are brought in, they are nearly all for different units so that the individual records do not show the progress that the record for the entire city does.

New orders have somewhat stiffened the medical examination and lengthened the time before a recruit who passes as "fit" is sworn in, so that the names of recruits cannot be given out for publication as soon as formerly.

The 241st Scottish Borderers has signed up a number of men during the week and have secured recruits from outside points as well. Sergt. E. H. Tapson, who is carrying on the recruiting for the battalion in the city, reports favorable progress.

More Bantams Sign On.

The 216th "Bantam" Battalion is also getting a good number of recruits, although working from a limited field.

Eighteen more recruits at least will be needed for the Cycle Corps, being recruited from the district by Lieut. J. W. McVean. A nucleus has now been secured and the corps is getting down to work, having spent several days already at preliminary drill. The officer in charge states that all the recruits are of a good type and pick up the work readily. One of the latest to sign on is J. W. Buchanan. He will be one of the motorcyclists of the corps, as he is an expert rider. He was entered for the "Twice-around-the-clock" race at Toledo and remained on his machine for 16 hours without a break during the contest. Two other recruits are F. F. Sampson of Chatham, and F. Dewar of Stratford.

Latest Recruits.

The recruits for other corps are: George Baker, Engineers; Arthur Carlton, 216th Bantam Battalion; Murray Allister Allan, 241st Scottish Borderers: Cecil Wesley David, Engineers; Frederick Arthur Groom, 216th Bantam Battalion; Clarence Hugon, Mounted Rifles; Alfred Leighton, John Lacroix, 239th Construction Battalion; Oulf Rechnitzer, 241st Scottish Borderers; Alfred Douglass, 241st; Edwin Haller, Engineers; Charles A. Harding, 242 Forestry Battalion; Harry Robinson, 242nd Forestry Battalion; Harold Phillips, 64th Battery; Frank Fisher, Cycle Corps.

JAPS BUY MUCH STEEL.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 26. — Watao Mimura, representing one of the largest Japanese importing houses, has just placed contracts with steel mills here for plates, shapes, bars, galvanized sheet and tin plate, the total orders amounting to $5,000,000. It became known today. The finished material will be used for the construction campaign now in progress in Osaka and Tokio, Japan.

WAR BETWEEN BAKERS AND GROCERS WON BY LATTER THEY CLAIM

Statements Made by Association Officers Confirm This.

RETAIN THEIR PROFITS

Demands Made by Big Baking Companies Refused by Retailers.

days between the London Retail Grocers' Association and the local bakers. It has all come about, according to the grocers, through an attempt on the part of the bakers to dictate terms to the grocers by which the profits of the latter on the selling of bread would decrease to the vanishing point and still further.

Some days ago the bakers delivered unwrapped bread to the grocers with the instructions that a certain new schedule of prices was to be asked from the citizens.

The grocers were of the opinion they could run their own business, and at a meeting of the Retail Association decided to send notices to all grocers not present, informing them that circulars were being printed and forwarded to all bakers protesting against the action of the latter.

One Explanation.

Vice-President Harry Ranahan of the Retail Grocers' Association today explained what the row was all about to The Advertiser, as follows: Some days ago the bakers delivered to us unwrapped bread at seven cents a loaf and asked us to sell it at eight cents. This was an impossible demand in view of the fact we would only make twelve and a half per cent, which would not meet our overhead expenses, let alone pay for the wrapping paper and twine. A meeting of the Grocers' Association was called and, following this, we notified the bakers that on and after Friday, September 22, we would only sell wrapped bread at five and ten cents a loaf, which would cost us four and eight cents. The bakers met the following Wednesday night, and the big fellows in the business tried to force the little fellows to keep to the new schedule. The little fellows, in spite of this, broke away, and on Thursday morning announced they would deliver bread to us at fifteen loaves for a dollar, which would mean five cents more profit.

We told the bakers at once they would give us terms, with sufficient profit to wrap the bread, we would give up handling it, as we had been doing for the convenience of the bakers.

President Norman McLeod of the Retail Grocers' Association added to the statement of Mr. Ranahan: "In a newspaper office, you know something about the advance in price of paper and cord. It is a hundred per cent more than some years ago. The bakers were trying to give bread upon us at a rate at which it would make twelve and a half per cent profit, while it would cost us seventeen per cent to sell it. You can figure out our loss. I hear there is some talk of the big fellows crowding out the little fellows among the bakers as a result of the action of the little fellows in making concessions last week."

Followed in Line.

In regard to the "crowding out" process, A. J. Denney of Dundas street east states that three of the largest baking firms in the city yesterday delivered bread to him according to the terms made by the "little fellows" last Thursday—fifteen loaves for a dollar.

Robert Durst says in regard to the trouble: "The handling of bread is such a very minor matter with us that it practically doesn't affect our business. I don't suppose in all we sell more than fifteen loaves a day. We simply keep it for the convenience of our customers. I can understand, though, what it would mean, say, in the case of grocers who sell 50 or 60 loaves a day."

John Diprose, 160 Wortley road, was interviewed as representative of the South London grocers. His view was that held by the officers of the Retail Grocers' Association. "The point is this," he stated: "The grocers want a profit which will pay at least the share of the bread of overhead expenses. I by no means advocate a raise in the price of bread to meet these. I am convinced the bakers could supply the grocers with bread on better terms without loss to themselves."

Seizes Short Weight.

Apropos the controversy waging between the grocers and bakers, it is a matter of interest that Inspector McCallum found time Monday for one of his periodic raids on the bread wagons of the city. As a result, there are to be two prosecutions for supplying underweight bread. In one case he found ten loaves which aggregated 14 lbs. 5 ozs., instead of the standard 15 lbs., and on the same wagon ten loaves weighing 14 lbs. 12 ozs.

A second case of short weight was that of another firm. On this wagon ten loaves were found four ounces short and ten more nine ounces short. Other firms were discovered delivering bread considerably overweight.

"Aren't you going to prosecute them, too?" was asked of the inspector. "It's their own loss," he replied, and wouldn't even consider a proposal to get after the lucky customers who were receiving too much for their money.

BIG CROWDS EXPECTED IF WEATHER IS GOOD

Many From City to Witness Annual Asylum Field Day.

All arrangements are completed for the 29th annual athletic sports of the Hospital for the Insane to be held in front of the amusement hall on the asylum grounds Wednesday, commencing at 1 o'clock.

If the weather proves fine, the sports will doubtless be witnessed, as on previous occasions, by throngs of people from the city. The field day was postponed from last week for the very reason that it would be difficult for visitors to get out, owing to the impassable condition of Dundas street for some blocks and the resulting inadequate car service. The new car tracks have been laid and the street car service is again according to schedule. Some special provision will be made to handle the crowds.

The events will include races and novelty races of every description, such as three-legged races, potato races, wheelbarrow, sack, awkward, etc., boxing in a barrel and a nail-driving contest. Prizes will also be offered for the handiwork made by female patients.

HAS NEW DANCES.

Mr. Jack W. Cortese has just returned from New York where he has been studying dancing at Castle House, Claff School and Maurice Academy. Mr. Cortese has many new dances to introduce to his pupils, including London Taps, a big military craze in England, and New York; also the Too-Too, Fox Trot, old-fashioned waltz, and Hawaiian dances. He will re-open his studio this week. b

LOCAL NEWS

LITTLE BUT ROUTINE.—There will be a meeting of the board of works this evening. Other than routine business, nothing special is to come up.

EXPRESSING GRATITUDE. — The management of the Home of Incurables has expressed its gratitude to the St. Mathew's Church for its kind donations of fruit and vegetables.

MEETS FRIDAY MORNING. — The board of control's next session will be on Friday morning, as the council will meet on the following Monday evening. There will be quite a budget of business to be disposed of.

FOOT CRUSHED.—J. Bedggood, residing at 931 Queen's avenue, was taken to Victoria Hospital last night with a badly-crushed foot. He was at work in a York street warehouse, when a big box fell on his foot.

HOURLY SERVICE RESUMED. — The regular hourly service of the Springbank line has been resumed, and cars will run in future from 6:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. When the weather is fine the cars will run every half-hour to the park.

BUILDING PERMITS.—Permits have been issued by Building Inspector Piper to John Leonard for a story and a half veneer house on Wreay street, to cost $1,400, and to R. Payne for a one-story frame house on Albion street, costing $1,000. The permits for September to date total $30,000.

FAREWELL TO MEMBERS.—A farewell social evening will be held at the Young Women's Christian Association central rooms Thursday evening in honor of two members of the Bible class who are leaving for their homes overseas, Miss Fairweather and Miss Holding.

CORN ROAST.—New St. James' choir had a very enjoyable corn roast at the summer residence of Mr. Guy, Springbank. The crowd gathered around a large bonfire and toasted corn and marshmallows and enjoyed themselves generally. Later in the evening they gathered in the house and enjoyed themselves in songs and speeches.

EXCURSION FRIDAY.—The excursion which was to have been run to Detroit on Thursday to hear Billy Sunday, has been postponed until Friday. It was found that the Thursday meeting is for men only, and as a large number of London women wanted to go, it was decided to run the train Friday. The meeting on Friday will be for both men and women.

CHOIR SOCIAL.—The choir of New St. James' Presbyterian Church held a social time on Friday evening in the basement of the church. Mrs. W. Flowers, nee Miss Mabel Mooney, a former member of the choir, was presented with a cut glass fern bowl and mirror. Mr. Guy acted as toastmaster, and read the address, while Mr. Willgoose made the presentation.

STEADILY IMPROVING. — Mrs. E. E. Braithwaite, wife of President Braithwaite, of the Western University, is gradually recovering strength after an operation she underwent three weeks ago. She is in the Toronto General Hospital, where she was taken from her summer home at Unionville, near Toronto, when it was deemed advisable to operate earlier than had been expected. It will be another month before she returns to London.

MORE LONG-DISTANCE FINING OF AUTOISTS

Four More Send in Fines and Costs Rather Than Come to Court.

High Constable B. F. Watterworth today received remittances from four autoists, all residents outside the county, who were summoned to appear in court, charged with speeding on the county roads during fair week. The charges in each case amounted to $8.40, covering fine and costs, and this amount in each instance was remitted.

Those who paid their long-distance fines were residents of Morpeth, Toronto, Dublin and Mooretown.

This makes five to date who have remitted the fines and costs and more are expected to follow in a few days.

Owing to the names of the owners of some of the cars being procurable only through the provincial department, some time has elapsed from the time numbers were secured by the county constables until the summons have been ready to serve.

The names of the owners of ten additional cars whose numbers were caught by the county constables during fair week were received today by High Constable Watterworth and each will receive a summons by mail within the next few days. Residents of Goderich, Exeter, Belleville, Hensall, Tiverton, Dutton and other places will be summoned to appear in court, or otherwise plead guilty and remit $8.40 each to cover fine and costs.

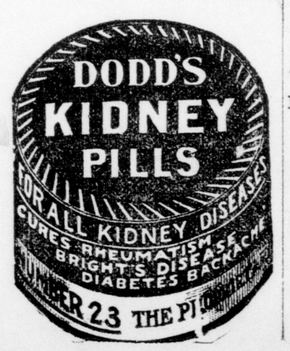

A frequent violation of the motor vehicle act that the county constables in future will see is made punishable under the act is the practice many autoists have of passing funeral processions or failing to stop on meeting one.

Failure of an autoist to stop, and at the same time stop his motor when meeting a funeral procession, is an offence under the act and future infractions of this act will mean that autoists will be summoned to appear in court.

HOME GUARD "PAID" IN GETTING RECRUITS

Fifty Per cent of Hamilton Organization Joined Colors.

Hamilton, Sept. 28.—Few organizations, even the active militia, have proved better recruiting feeders than the Hamilton Home Guard of which Sir John M. Gibson is honorary colonel, according to an announcement made here today. Of the 1,500 members originally enrolled no less than 50 per cent have joined the colors to go overseas.

CASUALTY LISTS OF TODAY INCLUDE MORE LONDON BOYS

Another 1st Contingent Man Reported Wounded.

CHUM WAS KILLED AT SIDE

Sapper Clark's Last Letter Described Death of Sapper Balch.

Sapper Robert Alfred Clark, son of A. J. Clark, 66 Walnut street, West London, was today reported officially as having been wounded in action on September 15. The young soldier has been in service since the declaration of war and was a member of the 7th Field Company, Canadian Engineers, first contingent quota.

The official message to his father says that he was admitted to No. 13 Stationary Hospital at Bologne on September 15 with gunshot wounds in the face and hands.

Sapper Clark was a chum of Sapper William Balch, 1091 Talbot street, who was last week reported as having been killed in action. In a letter home he declared that he was standing beside Sapper Balch when the latter met his death.

Lance Corporal John George Bowen is among the latest London soldiers to be listed as "wounded." An official message to Mrs. Elmer Bowen of 89 Forward avenue today reports him as having been admitted to No. 26 General Hospital at Etaples on September 16. His wounds are described as gunshot ones in the hand.

Another official message has been received by Mrs. Hattie Slater, 265 Horton street, in connection with the wounding of Pte. Benjamin Slater, infantry, a former member of the 70th Battalion. On Saturday he was listed as wounded in the thigh and right arm. Today the message says he is seriously ill in Northampton War Hospital.

Pte. Lawrence Arthur Marsden of the infantry is added to the list too. He is in No. 3 Stationary Hospital at Wimereaux with wounds in the left arm and was admitted on September 17, according to the message received by Mrs. Elizabeth Marsden of 165 Horton street today.

Anxious for Particulars.

A sister of Pte. J. F. Grosvenor, infantry, who was last week listed in the casualty lists as wounded, is anxiously awaiting information as to the seriousness of his injuries. Pte. Grosvenor enlisted and trained in this city with a popular unit of the so-called second contingent, but his next of kin is named as his mother, who resides in England.

Before enlisting here, Pte. Grosvenor was employed at the Vulcan Foundry.

A communication has been sent to the records office at Ottawa for information as to Pte. Grosvenor's condition.

Drilling to Start at Once to Ascertain Redmond Farm Flow.

General Manager E. V. Buchanan, of the utilities commission, has received the report of Dr. J. A. Amyot, provincial analyst, and Dr. H. W. Hill, medical officer of health, on the MacGregor wells.

Dr. Amyot's report shows colon bacilli in 25 cc's in both samples. In Hill's report colon is shown in the sample taken from the open well in 25 cc's, and no colon in the sample taken from the other four wells.

"The reports are more satisfactory," said Mr. Buchanan. "The water we sent to Dr. Amyot was shipped to Toronto, and was not examined under the most favorable conditions. Other samples will be taken by Dr. Hill to determine the purity of the water."

Drilling will be commenced at once on the Redmond farm near Springbank. The drilling rig has been sent there, and it is expected that within a week or ten days it will be known whether or not there is any quantity of water there.

BACK AFTER ALMOST HALF CENTURY ABSENCE

London Old Boy, Now Michigan Banker, Here On Visit.

Dod Abbott, a former Londoner, now manager of the National Bank at Muskegon, Mich., is visiting William Ward of this city, after an absence of nearly half a century.

His father was formerly a collector of customs here. Mr. Abbott left London in 1866, settling in Michigan, where he was most successful.

He has come back to meet some of his school chums, and look up his old haunts as a boy. Mr. Abbott has found London a splendidly progressive city.

LEAGUE SOCIAL

Young People of Wellington Street Have Enjoyable Time.

The Wellington Street Methodist Epworth League held a social evening last night. An opening address was given by Rev. Ashton, the pastor of the church. The following program was rendered: Chairman's address; instrumental, Lombardo Bros.; solo, Miss Layman; instrumental, Lombardo Bros.; address, Rev. Ashton; solo, Mrs. Terry; solo, Mr. King; instrumental, Lombardo Bros.

Games and refreshments made up an enjoyable evening.

DELIRIOUS BOY SHOOTS MOTHER AND HIMSELF

In Fit of Fever Seized Gun to Shoot "Burglars."

Quebec, Que., Sept. 26. — Zephirin Pineau, barber, of Rimouski, in a fit of fever, last night thought burglars were in the house, and seized a shotgun. His aged mother, while struggling to take the gun from him was shot through the breast.

The youth was also struck with the missle and son and mother are in a serious condition.

Why Does Sir Adam Beck Now Hesitate "To Trust the People," Taking $117,000 Without a Vote?

"Trust the people" is the cry of the Beck faction when that cry suits its purpose. When the London and Port Stanley Railway is considered, this heroic plea is forgotten in a trice, and the people are supposed to take the medicine given to them without making a face. On all other projects Sir Adam Beck and his apologists shout: "Trust the people!"

When the project of electrification was voted on it was stated that $700,000 would build and equip the road, in spite of the fact that experts laughed at such folly, knowing that it could not be done.

Since that time the expenditure has run up to a cool million dollars, with another $117,000 asked for. Neither of these sums include about $55,000 hidden in the expenditure on the hydro sub-station, a clever piece of financing that does justice to the methods of those behind the scheme. Nor do the figures include over $200,000 that Provincial Auditor Clancy declared in the Legislature had been paid over to the London and Port Stanley Railway out of provincial hydro funds. (Sir Adam Beck said this sum was paid back.) The grand total is close to $1,400,000, or double the amount of money voted by the citizens for the electrification of the London and Port Stanley Railway.

Much of this money was voted by the people. If the citizens want to vote that much for such a project, that is their business. They have had the right to do so, and they were at least given an opportunity to say whether or not they were willing to expend that sum of money.

The fact remains, however, that large sums have never been voted on by the people. There was an issue of $35,000 for extensions, on which the people were not "trusted." There was another issue of $60,000, on the merits of which the ratepayers had no chance to express an opinion. Now the London and Port Stanley Railway commissioners are asking the city to give them $117,000 additional for the line. Nearly $200,000 will thus be expended. The people can be trusted on every other subject but the London and Port Stanley. The faction of Sir Adam Beck, whose methods are being constantly demonstrated, tries to force down the throats of the people the grants of money, without giving them the slightest chance to object, or record their feelings in any way.

The citizens were not asked whether or not an expenditure of $35,000 for equipment should be rightly charged up to the London and Port Stanley or to the utilities commission. Sir Adam Beck simply said: "I want it done this way," and the money was expended by the utilities commission, not by the London and Port Stanley, as should have been the case.

What guarantee have the people that the London and Port Stanley is such a financial success as is claimed? Provincial Auditor Clancy called attention to the frenzied financing of the provincial hydro scheme, and called attention to such irregularities that the Government was forced, to protect itself, to curb the power of Sir Adam Beck, and left him nothing but a voice in the matter. The London and Port Stanley may be a gold mine. Who knows? Statements have been made to the effect that the surpluses are enormous. Who has seen them? Who knows? The people do not know, and they should know when their money is at stake. Will an Auditor Clancy, in going over the books of the London and Port Stanley here find such a kind of financing that compelled the Government, sympathetic with Sir Adam Beck, to take the control of the financing of the hydro enterprise out of the hands of this wizard, who made millions of money appear where there actually was none?

Controller Gammage was perfectly right, and did a public service, when he asked for a statement of the affairs of the London and Port Stanley. The city of London, when it dealt with the Pere Marquette, always got a statement of the business done by that railway, and that statement was audited and approved of by the city auditor. There has been no such statement given the public, and until such is given there should be no money handed over to the enterprise. And it should be very clear where every cent of capital expenditure was placed.

When that statement is given, then the people should be consulted as to whether or not they will allow the money to be expended on extensions. They should be asked to give their approval of the debentures to be issued.

These are not ordinary times. We are at war. We need all our resources. The people are feeling the pinch of the high cost of living, and they should at least give their approval of the expenditures.

To trust the people is the alleged gospel of Sir Adam Beck. Why does he hesitate to trust them now? Why does he want to get this money before a statement is made to the public? Why does he not be fair and square?

The people should decide!

OVERSEAS DRAFT OF DENTAL CORPS MEN HAS BEEN PICKED

Two Officers, Two N. C. O.'s and Two Privates Going.

GET STEP UP IN RANK

Captaincy Granted Those of Commissioned Rank on Embarkation.

Two officers, two N. C. O.'s and two privates of the Canadian Army Dental Corps of No. 1 district have been ordered to proceed overseas at once for service in England.

Orders were received last Friday to prepare a draft at once and Lieut. A. O. Hinds, C. A. D. C.; Lieut. J. H. Wiltse, C. A. D. C.; Sergt. H. R. Conway, Sergt. E. Pritchard, Pte. J. A. Chapman and Pte. F. Inett were selected. A medical board yesterday found the men fit for the service, and this morning they were warned to be prepared to leave at an early date.

Lieut. Hinds is a graduate of the R. C. D. S. and the University of Toronto. He is a native of Manitowaning, Manitoulin, and up to the time of joining the C. A. D. C. he practiced in Blind River, Ont. He signed on with the C. A. D. C. on February 25, 1916.

Lieut. Wiltse is also a graduate of the R. A. D. S. and the University of Toronto. Tis home is in Athens, Ont., but he practiced in Walkerville for some time. He entered the C. A. D. C. on January 6, 1916.

Sergt. Conway is also a graduate dentist.

Pte. Inett served with the 5th Cheshires in the territorial forces in England for five years.

The officers on their embarkation for England will assume the rank of captain.

No date has been set for the departure of the men, but it is expected that they will not long remain on this side.

CHOIR REORGANIZES

Askin Street Musicians Elect Officers for Coming Year.

The holiday season past, the choir of Askin Street Methodist Church has reorganized for the coming year with the following officers: Honorary president, Rev. Dr. H. S. Dougall; honorary vice-president, Fred Landon; president, William McFadden; vice-president, Miss Maud Turner; secretary, Miss May Thomas; treasurer, Miss Myrtle Shannon; representatives to the executive committee, Mrs. W. F. Biggs, Miss Florence Peacock, J. McCormick and A. G. McCullouch.

The choir now numbers about fifty members, and the quartet of soloists is probably the finest that has ever led the musical services in Askin Street Church.

Plans for the season's work include at the present the annual choir concert the beginning of next March and a couple of sacred works to be presented at Sunday evening services.

Children's 'Church' Being Established

St. Andrew's Congregation Plans Innovation of Service.

In the near future there will be absolutely no excuse of parents of young children to stay away from the Sunday morning service in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on the grounds that the little people are too small to keep quiet through the service and sermon.

Special arrangements are being made to meet just such cases, to make it possible for the fathers and mothers to attend church together and to inculcate in the children habits of church-going from their very infancy. Rev. D. C. MacGregor strongly emphasizes the importance of this, and, in accordance with his suggestion, provision has been planned whereby the small children will have a service of their very own in the schoolroom at the time the older people are listening to the sermon in the church. The tots are to come with their parents and to be present for the opening devotional exercises, after which they will be taken to their own service, adapted to their understanding and in charge of teachers who have had experience of dealing with small children. When the church service is over the little people will be ready to return home with their parents.

The experiment has been tried elsewhere with much success, and much optimism is expressed in regard to the manner in which it is going to work out in St. Andrew's Church.

MAGISTRATE DISMISSES "AFTER HOURS" CHARGE

Declares Evidence of Soldiers Insufficient to Register Conviction.

Police Magistrate J. C. Judd, in giving judgment today in the case of John Cook, proprietor of the King Edward Hotel, charged with selling liquor after hours on August 30, dismissed the action without costs.

The evidence in the case was taken last Tuesday, the testimony of four soldiers being to the effect that they had procured liquor in the hotel bar after 8 o'clock on the night of August 30.

The proprietor and two bartenders testified that liquor was not served in the bar after 8 o'clock on the night in question.

The proprietor stated that he had been in the bar after 8 o'clock, but was there trying to get the soldiers out of the bar.

Magistrate Judd stated that from the evidence he could not see that Mr. Cook was deliberately attempting to violate the law by having the bar open after 8 o'clock, but had been there because he had been unable to get those in the bar out sooner.

SPECIAL SERVICES.—St. Luke's Day, which falls on October 18, is always marked by special celebration in St. Luke's Church, Broughdale. This year the rector, Archdeacon Richardson, proposes to mark the occasion in a very special way. The preceding Sunday, October 15, services with particular reference to the season, will be held morning and evening, and the succeeding evenings bright, short services will be held, at which addresses will be delivered by city clergymen. The festival on Wednesday, St. Luke's Day, will be of a more elaborate nature.

WILL START AUDIT WHEN FAMILIARIZED WITH CITY'S AFFAIRS

In Meantime New Auditor Is Looking About.

ARRIVES HERE AT NOON

Additional Assistance May Be Necessary to Catch Up With Work.

W. M. Dunlop, Ottawa, the new city auditor, arrived in London at noon today, and met Mayor Stevenson and the city officials. He will start work as soon as he gets the lay of the land, so to speak. Mr. Dunlop is a man about 50 years, of Scotch decent, and a Presbyterian. He has a wide experience in auditing work, and his qualifications are considered first class.

"I have nothing to say," he informed The Advertiser. "I just gotin, and know nothing of local conditons. I am just looking about a little, and I will start work as soon as I can. That's all for the present."

Arch Screaton, who is assistant auditor, has been ill for some days, and it is possible that more assistance will have to be secured for Mr. Dunlop, in order that he can catch up with the work.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY HELD MONDAY NIGHT

St. Andrew's Societies Decide to Have Monthly Khaki Socials.

Monday evening was grand rally night for the young people of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church who gathered at 8 o'clock in th church parlors to reorganize the general society and to plan the winter's work, winding up with a corn roast on the back lawn.

W. A. Casselman presided, Rev. D. C. MacGregor assisting in the devotional exercises. The election of officers resulted in the appointment of Gordon Marr as president and Jean Hutton as secretary-treasurer, the remainder of the executive committee to be made up of the presidents of the club groups into which the society is divided for the purpose of rendering more effective service.

One of the first questions discussed was in regard to the entertainment of soldiers during the coming season. Last year, the general young people's society entertained groups of soldiers every fortnight. It was decided this year to entertain once a month for the men in khaki.

An interesting feature of the program was an account by Miss Margaret Gemmell of the Presbyterian summer school held at Leamington under the auspices of the Synod of Hamilton and London. Miss Genimell strongly urged all who could possibly do so to make a point of attending another year.

At the close of the business and program, the young people adjourned to the lawn at the rear of the church where a big bonfire was already blazing on the cinder tennis court. The supper menu consisted of roast corn, toasted wieners and rolls, the cooking of these creating much amusement. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and singing, concluding with the national anthem.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

DIED IN DETROIT.

William Cartlidge, a former resident of London, died in Detroit Sunday night. He was 48 years of age, and six brothers and four sisters survive him. They are: John of Moose Jaw, Thomas, Robert and James of this city, Fred of Detroit, Mrs. D. Williams of Ilderton, Mrs. Babcock of this city, Mrs. John Eggett of London Township, and Mrs. B. Smith of Seattle, Wash. He was a son of Mrs. D. Tripp of West London and the late George Cartlidge of the 3rd concession, London Township.

The funeral will be held from the undertaking parlors of Smith, Son & Clarke, but complete arrangements have not been made.

MISS MELISSA WELDON.

The death of Miss Melissa Weldon occurred at her residence, lot 55, East Talbot road, Westminster Township, this morning after a short illness. She was the third eldest daughter of the late Thomas Weldon, formerly of Littlewood.

She is survived by four sisters, Mrs. James Kennedy, Mrs. William Baker, Delaware; Mrs. E. Graham, Union; Miss Maud, Glencoe, and four brothers, John at home; Wesley of Winnipeg, Clarence of Detroit, and Russell of Westminster Township.

The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon from her late residence. The services will be conducted by the Rev. R. Wilson of Lambeth at 2 o'clock, and interment will be made at Scottsville Cemetery.

DEATH OF MRS. PRESTON.

Mrs. Mary Preston, widow of John Preston of 514 Philip street died last night at her residence. She was born in Ohio, but had lived here for some time, and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Robert Smith, and two grandchildren.

ILLNESS PREVENTS HIS SPEEDY RETURN OVERSEAS

Bars Lieut. Lawson of 33rd From Active Service.

Lieut. H. J. Lawson of the 33rd Battalion, who, shortly after the arrival of that unit in England, was taken seriously ill and subsequently invalided home to Canada, has been granted a three months extension of leave.

Lieut. Lawson's illness in England necessitated his removal to the Helena Hospital, Shorncliffe. He remained there for two months but it was finally decided to return him to Canada where it was hoped his recovery would be rapid. A recent medical board, however, found that his condition would not permit of his return to duty and his leave has been extended as a result.

Lieut. Lawson hopes for a speedy return to health and to England.

FOOD DICTATORSHIP IN AUSTRIA ALSO

VIENNA, via Berlin, Monday, Sept. 25, via London, Sept. 26.—In consequence of the discovery that something more than mere legislation is necessary to regulate Austria's food supply and conserve her meagre resources it is planned in the near future to change the existing organization into a genuine food dictatorship, adding to the ministerial branch already in existence an enforcing body to carry out the decrees of the former.

Special Paints for Housecleaning

House-cleaning time is house-painting time—the floors, the baseboards, the cupboards, the chairs, the tables and a dozen pieces of furniture need repainting or revarnishing.

For floors, either painted, varnished, stained or waxed, use S.-W. Floor Finishes. Finish floors in the best possible way.

For interior walls, use Flat Tone, an economical flat finish, that will stand washing.

For Cupboards, shelves, tables, etc., use S. & W. Family Paint, a good oil gloss that stands scrubbing.

For staining woodwork and furniture, use S. & W. Varnish Stain, correctly imitates the natural wood.

S. & W. Aluminum Paints or S. & W. Stovepipe Enamel will make those old pipes look like new.

We have Paints, Varnishes and stains for every paintable thing.

WEST LONDON CHURCH EXTENDING CALL TO MINISTER OF ELORA

St. Paul's Congregation Wants Rev. W. S. Wright,

NO CHURCH UNION YET

Nothing Taken Up Officially With Either Church Authorities.

St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, London West, on Monday evening extended a unanimous call to Rev. W. S. Wright, B.A., of Elora, to become pastor to succeed Rev. C. E. Evans, whose resignation took effect the end of June. Rev. Dr. Gustavus Munro, the interim moderator, presided, and all members of the congregation present signed the call before leaving the meeting. Today, Dr. Munro has written to Mr. Wright notifying him of the call.

It is hoped by the congregation that he will see his way clear to accept. For one reason, as short a vacancy as possible is desirable and the members feel that there is every reason for thanksgiving over so unanimous a choice after so short a vacancy.

Regarding rumors of church union discussed in that end of the city, the statement is made that nothing has been taken up officially by the Presbyterian authorities or the Methodist committee.

The work for some time, it is understood, will go on in the same way in the west end, the other Presbyterian churches continuing their assistance. Mr. Evans, the former minister, is supplying the pulpit of Knox Church, St. Thomas, during the absence of Rev. Capt. McGillivray as overseas chaplain.

FAIR STAFF FINISHES MAILING PRIZE CHECKS

Last of Them Out of Way Now—Meeting in October.

The Western Fair office staff is still up to the eyes in work settling the aftermath of business of the biggest and best Western Fair. The last of the checks have just been sent out for the butter and cheese auctioned off the last day of the fair by Secretary A. M. Hunt, and with these have been sent the score cards.

The checks for butter sent to fifteen exhibitors amounted to $300, while $1,300 has been forwarded to 50 exhibitors for cheese sold.

Exhibitors have been especially well pleased this year with the prices obtained.

Another important task is now out of the road with the mailing of the last prize checks. Some checks are still waiting to be called for at the office, made out to exhibition help.

The poultry cups, won according to points, are still to be awarded and checking up the lists in order to make awards will be one of the first tasks undertaken. After the checking of the entry papers and the prize ledgers, Mr. Hunt and his staff will again be able to settle down to routine business.

It is probable a board meeting will be called about the middle of October.

Combing Won't Rid Hair of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.—Advt.

CLEARING WAY FOR SETTLEMENT OF FIGHT

Court of Revision Action Today Starts Garbage Tax Fight on Way to End.

The court of revision will meet this afternoon and close its work, completing Ward 4. This is for the purpose of allowing the appeal of the city churches against the garbage tax to go to the courts at an early date. It is a mere matter of form, of course, but necessary from the standpoint of a court action.

City Solicitor T. G. Meredith has all the matter ready and the case will come up before Judge Macbeth early next week.

This will be a final settlement of a long-disputed matter.

DOES MOTOR RECIPROCITY EXPLAIN THESE FIRES?

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Last Thursday night one of the largest barns, and one containing the most grain and feed in these parts, burned, apparently without a cause. Last night another one followed suit. At 10:30 p.m. the owner stepped out of his house, and the fire was just starting, and he thought it originated in the strawstack. It was a large building and contained a great deal of grain and hay.

Now, there have been so many of these barns burned lately, and mostly not far from the border, that it makes one very suspicious.

Do you not think that it is high time that reciprocity in automobile licenses was cancelled, and that measures for investigation were taken? We saw a large American car go by here in the evening containing four men, in the direction of the fire. The same car was seen in Sarnia just a short time before.

At any rate, Mr. Editor, it would be wise to warn the farmers to be on the lookout. Yours truly, SUBSCRIBER.

Cocoanut Oil Makes a Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition be careful what you wash it with.

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—advt.

GERMAN FLIERS DARE NOT CROSS WESTERN LINES

Army Has Been Blinded by Inability of Foe's Aviators.

LIKE BUNCH OF HARES

Enemy's Officers Furious Over Fate of Men in Trenches.

FOURTEEN HAD "NERVE"

While Thousands of Trips Were Made by Machines of British.

New York, Sept. 26.—The London correspondent of the Herald cables as follows:

The zeppelin raid on London, with its loss to the Prussians of two super-zeppelins and the infliction of no military damage whatever, and the dramatic air battles now proceeding on the western front serve again to call attention to the fact that air fighting, scouting and raiding exploits are of the utmost importance in these decisive days of the war.

The statement contained in cable dispatches several weeks ago that the French and British airmen were systematically blinding the scouting eyes of the Prussian army on the Somme now receives official confirmation. In a British official communication summing up the main features of last week's fighting occurs the statement that during that week "in the battle area only fourteen hostile aeroplanes have been reported as crossing our lines, while our machines have made between two and three thousand flights across the enemy's lines."

Affects Morale of Foe.

This condition of affairs which is recognized by military observers as of the utmost importance to the future of the conflict between the forces of the Allies and of the central powers, is now beginning to affect in a serious manner the morale of the troops of the army group of Prince Rupprecht, who are endeavoring to resist the onslaught of the ...ies of Gen. Foch and Gen. Haig.

An interesting document in this connection is the diary of a Prussian officer captured at the Somme, extracts from which are published and the authenticity of which is vouched for.

The entries regarding aviation are as follows:

"August 1, 1916: Our aviators are like hares; not one of them dares show himself on the other side of the lines.

Prevented From Firing.

"August 2: The French airmen fly over our lines at a height of 600 feet, while not one of ours dares show himself. It is impossible for us to fire, for if we do so we are immediately bombarded with violence. So we have to stand for everything, and to lie down in the trenches in a suffocating heat and to suffer thirst and wait to be cut in pieces by shells or buried alive, or, if it please God, to get off safe and sound.

"August 6: Our aviators are inferior to such a degree that they do not stay in the air even at the distance behind the first line at which we now are. Our aviation is mighty inferior to the French and British. Thus, it is impossible to take a step out of the protecting shelter of the wood. All the enemy aviators are almost constantly scouting around our little wood and sending back signals.

Not "Mistress of the Air."

"In aviation we are distinctly inferior whether we wish to recognize it or not. 'Germany mistress of the air.' That is a statement which is not true at all. This explains the enormous losses which we are making here. There is no one to debarrass us from this scourge of the enemy aviation, which sticks to us without let up all day long and even into the night. This moral defect has had a very bad effect on us. That the superiority thus won is no accidental occurrence but a part of the wonderful scheme of organization which the French military chiefs undertook to bring about during the respite for preparation which the great victory at the Marne won for them is now revealed in the publications of the French experts."

ASKS FOSTER FOR ENFORCED SERVICE

Vancouver Citizens Would Have Proper Selection, However.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 26.—A large delegation of citizens waited upon Sir George Foster last night and presented him with a resolution approving "enforced national service under a proper system of selection."

At the session of the Dominion trade commission Sir George Foster and Dr. Reid promised consideration of a request for the appointment of a Canadian customs officer at New York.

"PREPAREDNESS" DEFEATS POLICE ALLEGATIONS

Fair Booth Owner Charged With Liquor Sale Gets Off—Expert Samples Evidence.

The case against William Steele, charged with selling liquor at Queen's Park during fair week without a license, was heard in police court today by Magistrate Judd and dismissed without costs, owing to insufficient evidence to convict.

Police-Sergt. Balton testified that he had found liquor in a booth operated by James Butts.

James Butts gave evidence that the bottles found in his booth had been left in his charge by Steele.

Steele in his defence swore that he had bought five bottles of liquor on Friday of fair week in order to be prepared for the "dry spell." He had left them at the fair grounds, intending to take them to his home that evening. He operated a ball game and swore he had not sold any of the liquor, as he had procured it only for his own private use. Chief W. T. T. Williams stated that the bottles produced in court contained whisky, and to further confirm the statement of Sergt. Birrell took a "touch" and pronounced it the real thing.

OBLIGATION TO AID BELGIANS EVEN GREATER

Canadians Must Help Support Dependent Millions.

"We have given proof of a spirit of self-sacrifice in permitting the Belgians to live in their own country," says a German newspaper, commenting on the condition of the people in that part of Belgium which is under German rule.

This statement is sufficient to tell the world, if it were not already known, of the lack of sympathy or humaneness on the part of these conquerors of the little nation. Any other enemy would today be generous, but here is a nation that refuses to recognize the bravery of an enemy and would permit the people, whom they admit are noncombatants, to starve. On top of this they pester and persecute them with fines and oppress them in every way possible.

Even if Canada were not vitally interested in this war, if this country were not an ally of the Belgians, it would be the duty of everyone to give toward their support—to give them an opportunity to live as a recognition of their brave stand in August, 1914, and since. And now the obligation is even greater. These are our brothers and sisters in the world's great cause.

The Belgian Relief committee is doing for these people what the Germans should do. It costs $2.50 a month to keep a Belgian family, and there are seven millions of Belgians dependent on this committee for food. Send your money to the committee in your district or to the Central Belgian Relief Committee, 59 St. Peter street, Montreal.

CHIEF OF GREEK STAFF REPORTED TO HAVE RESIGNED

Friend of Entente Made Troops Salute British and French.

London, Sept. 26.—Gen. Constantine Moschopoulos, chief of the staff of the Greek army, has resigned, according to a Reuter's dispatch from Athens.

Gen. Moschopoulos commanded the Greek forces at Saloniki at the time of the landing of the Anglo-French expeditionary force. He ordered the troops under his command to salute French and British officers and was generally reported to be friendly to the cause of the Allies. In August Gen. Moschopoulos was appointed chief of staff and in a statement given to the press expressed the hope that he could strengthen the good relations between Greece and the entente powers. "I think I can be a precious advocate of the entente," he said.

29 WERE KILLED

British Give Out Official Zeppelin Casualties.

London, Sept. 26—12:30 p.m.—Twenty-nine persons were killed in last night's zeppelin raid, it was announced officially today.

The zeppelin raid of last night, the second within the last week, was made by several airships between 10:30 o'clock and midnight. They crossed over the east and northeast coasts and dropped bombs in the northern counties. The official account of the raid issued last night said that probably six zeppelins took part in the attack.

The announcement follows:

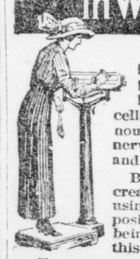

Seven airships raided England last night and in the early hours of this morning. The districts attacked were the south coast, the east coast, the northeast coast and the north Midlands. The principal attack was aimed against the industrial centres in the last mentioned area.

Up to the present time no damage to factories or works of military importance has been reported. It is regretted, however, that a number of small houses and cottages were wrecked or damaged at some places, and 29 deaths have been reported.

"No attempt was made to approach London. The raiders were engaged by our anti-aircraft defences and were successfully driven off from several large industrial centres."

One of the zeppelin airships participating in the raid on England last night took a new course and visited the south coast. No damage resulted from its visit so far has been reported. As the airship crossed the southern district it was soon picked up and heavily fired at, whereupon it quickly ascended.

TRADES CONGRESS WANTS ELECTIONS HELD ON HOLIDAYS

Also Favors Equal Pensions for European Reservists.

TAX ALL LANDS ALIKE

Bartenders' Union Makes Plea for Men Thrown Out of Work.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, Sept. 26.—The Trades and Labor Congress honored the memory of the late Keir Hardie this morning by a standing vote, this being the anniversary of his death. James Simpson and other delegates paid eloquent tributes to the great British labor leader. The report of the resolutions committee was presented, some sixty resolutions being debated. The congress went on record as favoring election days being statutory holidays and failing that having the voting hours extended until 8 p.m.

There was a lengthy discussion over the pensions for reservists called back to the Allied armies. Many of the delegates felt that it was unfair to ask the Dominion Government to implement the pensions paid by the various governments to men called back from Canada for active service, owing to the many burdens which will naturally fall upon the Canadian authorities in looking after returned soldiers who served in the Canadian army.

All on Equal Footing.

The resolution finally carried favoring putting them all on an equality, if the French, Russian, Italian and Belgian governments failed to raise the pension to the Canadian standard.

The question of land grants to returned soldiers and the taxation of unoccupied land precipitated a warm discussion and a resolution was carried favoring the taxation of all lands irrespective of improvements and that no lands be guaranteed to any but bonafide settlers.

Edward Flore, president of the Hotel and Restaurant and Bar-Tenders International Union, put in a strong plea for support for the men who were going to be out of a job owing to the dry wave sweeping over Canada.

Membership Falls Off.

Secretary-Treasurer Draper of Ottawa, in his annual report, showed some decrease in receipts and a material falling off in membership, owing to the war and the defection of the maintenance of ways brotherhood, numbering 5,500 members. The total receipts of the year were $13,646, expenditures $10,888, leaving a balance of $2,757, in addition to the $10,000 reserve fund. The membership today is 66,572, compared with 71,417 last year.

Hon. T. W. Crothers, minister of labor, will address the convention this afternoon, when there is expected to be a spirited debate over the industrial disputes act.

IN POLICE COURT

Bound Over.

David Roat appeared, charged with assaulting David Williamson.

Both were employed at a local hotel, and in an argument, Williamson claimed that Roat struck him several times with his fist.

Roat was bound over in the sum of $50 to keep the peace.

Neighbors' Trouble.

Mrs. Lizzie Hunt was charged by Mrs. Beatrice Skinner with using abusive language.

Failing to find any other solution to the problem, and characterizing it as a neighbors' quarrel, Magistrate Judd bound both women over to keep the peace for the next six months.

SIX DROWN IN LAKE; CAPTAIN TRYING IN VAIN TO SAVE GIRL

Steel Steamer Roberval Founders in Ontario.

FOUR REACH OSWEGO, N. Y.

Skipper and Cook Disappear in Storm After Brave Effort of Former.

[Canadian Press.]

Oswego, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Six members of the crew of the steamer Roberval of Ottawa were drowned when the vessel foundered in Lake Ontario yesterday, nine miles from here, it was learned today when three members of the crew reached here in an exhausted condition in a lifeboat.

Their boat was partly filled with water, and the bow was cut off. They said they had been afloat for nine hours, having rowed to Oswego from the scene of the wreck.

Caught in Heavy Seas.

According to the story the men told their ship encountered a violent storm and was overwhelmed by the seas. She was loaded with lumber for the Diamond Match Company and was caught in the trough of the sea, the survivors said, which caused her deckload to shift, listing her heavily. Broadside to the seas, she was pounded badly, her cabins being stove in by the impact of the waves. The steamer began to sink and then Capt. Peter Ely ordered out a lifeboat.

As the boat was being launched, they said, it was torn away by the storm and Chief Engineer Philip Trotier of Hull, Que., was flung into the water, but managed to grasp a piece of lumber and keep afloat until he reached the lifeboat.

Tries to Save Girl.

Survivors say they saw Capt. Ely attempting to save Miss Parent of Ottawa, the cook, but both were swept into the sea and disappeared. The lifeboat stood by until the occupants were convinced there was no one left aboard the steamer, which was sinking gradually by the stern, with but a few feet of her bow showing above the water.

Second Mate Legault, who was one of the survivors reaching here, had injuries in his chest and left leg. The wreck is said to be the worst on Lake Ontario in twenty years.

Those who are supposed to have been lost are Capt. Peter Ely, owner and master, of Ottawa; First Mate J. Parissien of Alfred, Ont.; Miss Parent, cook, of Ottawa, Ont.; Marcelle Mefiner and Harry Faquin, firemen, of Hull, Que., and Theodore Leroy, deckhand, of Hull.

Search for the Wreck.

The Roberval was 125 feet long and carried 250,000 feet of lumber. She was a steel boat, built in Toronto, and chartered by Hull & Neely of that place. She left Cape Vincent yesterday afternoon, the steamer Glen Allen, a sister ship, clearing about the same time, but the Roberval being the faster boat, was several miles in advance when she foundered. When the boats lost sight of each other about 5 o'clock in the afternoon there was a heavy sea running with wind from the west.

The survivors reached the coastguard station here early today. Capt. Clemons of the guard went out shortly afterward and scoured the lake for sixty miles, but saw no signs of the wreck.

DESERTER FROM 91ST PLEADS GUILTY TODAY

Offers No Explanation of Illgela Absence.

H. Burch, formerly a member of the 91st Battalion, appeared in police court today and pleaded guilty to a charge of desertion.

He stated that his home was at Otterville and gave no explanation for leaving the battalion on May 3, 1916.

He expressed a willingness to return to any unit to which he might be assigned.

He was remanded one week for sentence, during which time inquiries will be made as to his previous record before enlisting and his conduct during the time he was with the 91st Battalion.

MRS. PIPER GRATEFUL.—Mrs. Piper, wife of Lance-Corp. Piper of the 70th Battalion, desires to thank all the friends who were so kind to her in her sad bereavement; also for the beautiful floral tokens from King Street Presbyterian Sunday school, the Rectory Street Mothers' Club, and other friends; also for the kind assistance from the Rectory Street Mothers' Club.

AUSTRIAN BEING HELD FOR WEEK ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Alleged Assailant of Junk Dealer Remanded.

Harris Bady, a junk dealer, of 39 Maitland street, appeared in police court today charged with assault and wounding, the charge being laid by Maurice Gootson, a junk dealer of 34 Maitland street.

Bady was represented by E. M. Flock, who stated that his client was not prepared to elect, and asked that the hearing be laid over for one week.

Bady was consequently remanded for one week, and in the meantime the question of bail will be considered.

Being an Austrian the magistrate declined to accept bail until it was ascertained whether or not Body was an alien enemy.

Body claimed that he had been in Canada seven years, five years of this time being spent in London, but that he had never taken out naturalization papers.

The action grew out of an altercation at the junk yards of Gootson Bros. on Monday afternoon.

Body was coming out of the junk yards and, meeting the Gootson brothers, it is claimed that he was accused of taking some wire that they claimed to be their property.

A fight followed, and during the melee, it is alleged that Body struck Maurice Gootson over the head with an iron bar.

Gootson was afterwards taken to Victoria Hospital and his wounds attended to by Dr. H. A. Stevenson. It is expected he will be able to appear at the trial next Tuesday.

SPAIN SEND NOTE TO KAISER OVER SUB WAR

Nation's Vessels Have Met Fate of Many Other Neutrals.

Madrid, Sept. 26.—Via Paris 10:30 a.m.—The Spanish Government has sent a note to Berlin protesting energetically against the torpedoing of Spanish steamers by German submarines.

Recent dispatches from Spain have stated that indignation was growing throughout the country over the loss of Spanish ships through the operation of German submarines. The Spanish ship owners association recently presented a demand to the Government that some steps should be taken to protect shipping.

AUSTRIAN REPLY RECEIVED.

Washington, Sept. 26.—The reply of Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria-Hungary to the identic personal note sent by President Wilson to heads of belligerent nations appealing for concessions to permit shipment of relief supplies to Poland, was received today at the state department. It was forwarded to the president at Shadow Lawn, N.J., without being opened.

MOST GLORIOUS OF ALL ALLIED ATTACKS

blasts of the great guns, picking his way between the bursts of flame from the crashing batteries, and moving around the rows of cannon as one who seeks a ford in a stream. On the other side of the ridge he saw guns where he had never seen them before—on the promised land of the lower levels which the British had won by persistent siege work. The guns were close up to the British infantry, who listened to their thunderous chorus as they prepared for the charge in today's attack. "The usual artillery preparation," said an artillery officer.

FEEDING GUNS WITH "GRAIN."

In his return the correspondent decided that he would not pass through that wilderness of British guns of all sizes and calibre while he had any hearing left. Every one of them was firing at top speed. He chose a gallery which took him past many batteries, which for two miles were pouring out their share of the raging tempest of gunfire. From the ruins of some old German trenches, whence the battle panorama stretched before him, the correspondent had a near view of the French gunners, who were feeding shells into the gun breeches as grain is fed into a threshing machine, and with the mechanical precision of automatons.

Shortly after noon was the time chosen for the infantry to rush forward under the cover of a final intensive chorus of hell from the artillery. The ridges in front and on either hand were flecked with racing sparks of flame.

50,000 AN HOUR IN ONE AREA.

Within an hour at least 50,000 shells must have been fired within sight of the correspondent. Far to the south was Mont St. Quentin, two miles from Peronne, and commanding that town which, the Allied commanders say, will fall like a ripe plum when the time comes. The hill lay hazy above the green foliage of the river valley in the midst of vast bursts of black smoke from shells of enormous calibre. Directly in front was Combles, another town which has come to mean much to the imagination of the public in England and France, who seem to regard its capture as of vital significance. Combles differed from all the villages in sight, in that the walls of many of its buildings were still standing. It was different, too, in the fact that it formed an oasis in the midst of the storm of battle. Neither artillery nor infantry paid any attention to it. The guage of battle was the high ground around it, the possession of which means the command of the town. Farther north lay the ruins of Ginchy and Guillemont.

PALL HANGS OVER FIELD.

At the appointed time the waves of infantry surged forward to the attack. Then the tremendous fire of the German guns swelled to its utmost volume until the whole field was lost in vast clouds of smoke. The attacking infantry vanished in that grim pall, while high overhead scores of sausage balloons and hundreds of aeroplanes, their wings gleaming like silver in the brilliant sunlight, strove vainly to see what was passing beneath them. Then, across the dead fields arose a signal from Morval, which told that the British infantry had reached another goal, and that another village was taken.

Presently the British wounded began to straggle back, and their bearing as they moved along beside their prisoners was another criterion by which the correspondent knew how the day had gone without making inquiries of the staff.

EVERY POSITION TAKEN.

The German machine guns had stopped them for a while at some points, but generally reports told of every position being taken on the minute set in the program. The British wounded said that, of course, they got there, as they were used to getting there. Their great gratification was that it was becoming an even fight since the Germans had no more prepared lines, but both armies were fighting in the open.

According to the British officers, the Germans on the fighting front have no longer any trenches, except those which are dug under fire.

LONDON'S WAR LOAN SUBSCRIPTIONS UP TO $1,500,000 MARK

May Possibly Reach Total of $2,000,000.

MUCH SENT OUT OF TOWN

Campaign of Brokers and Institutions Drew Local Response.

That London's subscriptions to the war loan will reach $1,500,000, probably $2,000,000, is made evident by the amounts taken by the large financial institutions of the city.

Five of them have subscribed $900,000. The Huron & Erie has taken $350,000; the London Life Insurance Company $350,000; the Ontario Loan and Debenture $100,000; the Northern Life Insurance Company $50,000, and the London & Western Trusts $50,000.

The amount of private subscriptions cannot be learned with any accuracy. The local financial institutions have handled considerable amounts, but large sums have been sent to outside brokers. The latter undertook a big advertising campaign, and by persistently calling the attention of the public to the benefits of the loan succeeded in getting large amounts of money handed over to them, to be invested in these bonds. One financier estimated that possibly $500,000 were sent to these firms.

"London is doing its share," said a prominent financial man to The Advertiser. "Our loan companies and insurance companies took large blocks of the first loan, much more than they were required to do. Now they are subscribing big amounts in this loan. The total will reach $1,500,000, possibly $2,000,000. It is impossible to get a line on the amount of money sent to outside brokers, but it will be a big sum."

BROTHERHOOD'S NEW QUARTERS.

GRAHAM VERDICT

ger by Pte. Renton, under the supervision of Sergt. Gilder and Company Sergt.-Major Colter, it is understood that Lieut.-Col. Graham attended at headquarters to give an explanation, and was requested to forward his resignation for consideration by the authorities.

In the meantime Col. Graham, Pte. Renton and Pte. Belanger were permitted to go on leave, and by airing their views to the press have given the question far more publicity than headquarters desired or than it deserved.

Talking Worst Offence.

That the officer concerned committed a serious offence according to military law there is no question, but in talking so plainly to the press on a closed subject, it is considered that he has again shown a breach of discipline. This last step may mean the acceptance of his resignation, which, from all reports, headquarters was loath to do.

In organizing and commanding the 142nd Battalion, Lieut.-Col. Graham has secured a standard of efficiency that has made the unit one of the best. He has been regarded as a capable officer, and a favorite among the men, and if the matter could have been treated in the trivial way in which it started, it is altogether likely that he would have been reinstated.

The developments of the past day or so have made necessary an early action by headquarters, and it is considered unlikely that he will return. The battalion has been doing splendid work, and was mentioned as one of those from District No. 1 to go overseas this fall. There are several capable officers who may be appointed to the vacancy, and so this incident may not prevent them leaving for the front.

HIS HEART BADLY AFFECTED

"Fruit-a-tives" Soon Relieved This Dangerous Condition

632 Gerrard Street East, Toronto.

"For two years, I was a victim of Acute Indigestion and Gas in the Stomach. It afterwards attacked my Heart and I had pains all over my body, so that I could hardly move around. I tried all kinds of medicine, but none of them did me any good. At last, I decided to try "Fruit-a-tives." I bought the first box last June, and now I am well, after using only three boxes. I recommend "Fruit-a-tives" to anyone suffering from Indigestion."

FRED J. CAVEEN.

Fifty cents a box, 6 for $2.50; trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

PROMINENT MEN EXONERATED.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 28.—(Correspondence).—Practically all the prominent Chinese connected with the gigantic opium smuggling plot discovered in Shanghai two weeks ago, have been exonerated. Chang Yao Tseng, the newly-appointed minister of justice, Gen. Lee Hsing-Zah and other prominent Government officials at first suspected of complicity in the scandal were exonerated by the mixed court. Four obscure Chinese were given light sentences.

A FRIGHTFUL DEATH! Suffocated in Asthma Attack.

Every sufferer from asthma knows the terror, the abject fear that overcomes them when struggling for breath. The old-fashioned remedies may relieve, but never cure. Best results come from Catarrhozone, which cures asthma after hope is abandoned. It's because Catarrhozone kills the asthma germ that it cures. Choking spells and labored breathing are relieved, suffocating sensations and loss of breath are cured. Every trace of asthma is driven from the system, and even old chronics experience immediate relief and lasting cure. Equally good for bronchitis, throat trouble and catarrh. The large, one-dollar outfit includes the inhaler, and lasts two months; sold by all dealers or from The Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Canada.

GIRLS! BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR AND STOP DANDRUFF

Hair becomes charming, wavy, lustrous and thick in few moments.

Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

For 25 cents you can save your hair. In less than ten minutes you can double its beauty. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and charming as a young girl's after applying some Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few week's use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

Clear, Peachy Skin Awaits Anyone Who Drinks Hot Water

Says an inside bath, before breakfast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling and vivacious — merry, bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls, with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

SUNDAY RAGES IN FIERCE DENUNCIATION OF THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Makes Special Address for Sister's Sake.

ACCLAIMED ON ROADWAY

Will Never Give Up Fight Against Traffic Till Body Is Embalmed.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

DETROIT, Sept. 25.—What was probably the most dramatic appeal of his long evangelistic career was made by Rev. William A. Sunday at Sturgis, Mich., this afternoon at the conclusion of his address on "Prohibition" to an audience of 5,000 persons, when, calling a group of the brightest and handsomest boys of town to the platform, he cried out:

"This is the raw material which the whisky gang demands. It turns them out as puking, oath-spewing, dirty, low-down drunkards. Every drunkard was once a sober American boy. If you are men," and he emphasized the word "men"), "you will vote 'dry' on November 7, and your little boys won't be given to the whisky gang."

Sunday made the trip to Sturgis at the request of his daughter, Mrs. Helen Haynes, and of the executive committee of the Sturgis celebration, who desider his presence at the formal opening of the celebration today.

Disappoints Lagrange.

Hundreds of school children, parents and civic delegations of Lagrange, Ind., were disappointed when "Billy" Sunday's special limousine, decorated with flags and bunting, passed through Lagrange, Ind., without stopping. Girls dressed in white and boys in Sunday togs crowded the main street of the town, eager to get a glimpse of the celebrated preacher and give him welcome. Expecting that he would stop, the children, who had been waiting since noon, ran in front of Sunday's car and extended their hands in effort to halt it. The evangelist, however, ordered the chauffeur to drive ahead, despite their pleas and, as the car dashed forward, scores of children followed it with pathetic cries of "Please, Mr. Sunday, please, please stop."

The evangelist, however, said "I'm in a hurry, kids," and a moment later the car was hidden in a cloud of dust, while a murmur of disappointment rose from the crowd.

Sworn Liquor Opponent.

Asserting that he had chosen Sturgis because of his love for the place and the people, who, he had known for years, Sunday declared he was the sworn, eternal, uncompromising opponent of the liquor traffic.

"I never will give up the fight against liquor," he said, "until my body is filled with embalming fluid, and I know that I shall yet live to preach the funeral sermon of that bunch. The liquor traffic has not one argument to recommend it to a decent man," he continued. "Seventy-five per cent of idiots come from liquor. There are more insane persons from liquor than there are inmates of all the colleges in the United States. Eighty per cent of pauppers are whisky paupegs. Ninety per cent of poor in the poorhouses of Michigan are there because of liquor. Ninety per cent of adult criminals in the country are booze-fighters. With the money that men spend for whisky in one year I can run the Government, pay pensions, run schools and hand every American boy and girl a $10 bill, and there are statistics to prove it. Panama Canal cost $400,000,000. With the money men spend on booze in a year I could build six Panama canals. I believe a man who sells liquor is worse than a murderer and a thief. For a murderer kills only the body, but the liquor dealer kills the soul as well."

WOMEN'S VIEWS DIFFER ON CONSCRIPTION ISSUE

Winnipeg Judge's Wife Favors; L. O. D. E. Regent Opposes.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINNIPEG, Sept. 25.—"Would I like to see conscription in Canada?" stated Mrs. L. G. Mathers, wife of chief justice. "Indeed I would. Why should volunteers give their lives while slackers loll at home? The time has come for conscription. The sooner we get it in force, the soon we will end the war. Ask the recruiting sergeants. Why should they have to beg and coax and almost pay men to do their obvious duty?" Mrs. Mathers is chairman of committee of R. S. A., which befriends the widows and orphans of soldiers.

"I do not believe in conscription," was the dictum of Mrs. W. J. Wright, regent of the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E. "Our volunteer army has and is doing splendily. Just now recruiting is dull, for men are needed on farms. It will get a fresh start when the harvest is over. And after all, production is a patriotic service. Our armies must be fed and must be supplied with munitions."

CHOLERA INFANTUM

Cured by Using DR. FOWLER'S Extract of Wild Strawberry

Cholera Infantum is one of the most common, and at the same time one of the most dangerous summer complaints of infants, and many children have died who could have been saved had the proper remedy been used on the first sign of this trouble.

Cholera Infantum begins with a profuse diarrhoea; the stomach becomes, irritated, vomiting and purging set in, and the child rapidly loses flesh, and becomes weak, prostrated and languid.

Mrs. B. A. Cirwell, Rossway, N. S., writes: "I can recommend, most highly, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. A friend of mine whose little daughter was ill with cholera infantum was given up by the doctors. The little one's mother asked me to come in and see the child. I told her I had a bottle of 'Dr. Fowler's,' and asked her if she would try it. When the bottle was half used the child was well. This cure was a miraculous one, for I thought the child was dying at the time.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been on the market for the past seventy years. Anyone who has ever used it will not accept a substitute. See that you don't. When you ask for "Dr. Fowler's" be sure that you get it.

The genuine is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price 35c.

Venizelos Goes to Crete, Then to Saloniki

Thirty Thousands Cretans Are Ready to Follow His Banner.

SEPARATIST GOVERNMENT.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—According to Athens dispatches received here M. Venizelos will issue a manifesto to the Greek people from Canea, Crete, where he probably will direct the formation of a separatist government.

Besides Admiral Condouriotis, the dispatches add, those accompanying M. Venizelos include all the members of his former cabinet, with the exception of M. Raktavin, minister of justice.

The proclamation of M. Venizelos, it is said, will invite King Constantine to put himself at the head of a national defense movement.

ATHENS, Sept. 25, via London.—M. Venizelos, the former premier, left Athens at 5 o'clock this morning. The merchant ship Hesperia picked him up from a boat in the open sea.

It is said that M. Venizelos will first visit Crete and then proceed to Saloniki.

Sixty-nine out of the 80 members of King Constantine's famous Cretan guard who have disbanded the organization, leaving only eleven loyal members, purpose following Premier Venizelos to Saloniki, should he decide to go there to join the revolutionary movement, according to advices from Crete.

Armed Cretans to the number of 30,000 are now said to control the entire island in behalf of Venizelos, the insurgents now having entered Canea, where they took possession of the Government buildings, turning out the Greek authorities.

HIS FAITH IN CANADA IS STRONG AS EVER

Baron Shaughnessy Makes a Cheery Report on Conditions in West.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 25—Baron Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific, returned to this city yesterday from Vancouver, and in his happiest manner gave out a most cheering report on conditions in the four western provinces.

"The directors of the company who accompanied me," he said, "had the pleasure this year of inspecting two important lines which we had not previously seen. These are the Kettle Valley branch, which affords direct communication between what is known as the boundary country and Vancouver, and the Kootenay Central line, running from Golden to Cranbrook.

"The Kettle Valley line serves the area of British Columbia, in which is located the cities of Nelson, Grand Forks, Greenwood and Phoenix. Partly as a result of the war this portion of the Dominion is at the present moment more prosperous than it has ever been, and this prosperity is reflected in Vancouver, where business conditions show material improvement.

Mines Are Busy.

"Mining operations are being carried on with very great activity, and there is also a very marked increase in fruit production. The capacity of the smelter of the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company at Trail has been doubled. It is now the largest on the continent, and it is being operated to its limit. The smelters at Grand Forks and Greenwood are also being operated to their capacity, and I was glad to note that the depression which had existed in this district on the occasion of a visit two years ago has now entirely disappeared.

"The completion of the Kootenay Central railway is also regarded as a most important addition to the system by the directors. This branch opens for settlement the beautiful Windermere valley and the Columbia valley, and affords direct connection between important sections of the country north and south."

Being asked whether he had found the system generally in good condition in the West, his lordship replied smilingly that the superlative must be used to describe it.

"My colleagues and myself," he said, "have never wavered in our abiding faith in the West, and never has that faith been greater than at the present time. There is no doubt of the future of Canada. If we do our duty, if we make up our minds that Canada is going to be the equal of any country in the world—there is no question of our ability—there will be no doubt of our position in the future."

ITALIANS TAKE SUMMIT ON THE TRENTINO FRONT

New and Brilliant Success, Says Official Report.

ROME, Sept. 25, via London.—The war office announced today that Italian troops had taken by storm another mountain top on the Trentino front, inflicting heavy losses on the Austrians. The statement follows:

"On the Trentino front the enemy's artillery was more active. Our batteries replied energetically. A few shells fell on Ala, in the Lagarina valley, without causing any damage.

"Our offensive in the region between the Arniso and the Vanoi Cismon valley has gained for us a new and brilliant success. On Saturday afternoon our Alpine troops took the summit of Garinal, 1,886 feet high, on the northeastern part of Monte Cauriol. The enemy resisted stubbornly, and left many dead on the field. We took several prisoners. Notwithstanding an immediate bombardment of the captured position by heavy artillery, it was consolidated strongly by us.

"Our batteries continue to direct retaliatory fire on the military stations of Toblach and Silliam, as the enemy persists in shelling Fortina D'Ampezzo.

"Last night one of our airships, having eluded the enemy's searchlights, dropped bombs on the railway stations of Dotteglano and Scappo, on the Carso plateau. The airship returned safely.

GERMAN FOREIGN MINISTER THE LATEST TO RESIGN?

Amsterdam Hears Von Jagow Is to Give Up Because of Ill-Health.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company says he learns that the resignation of von Jagow, German foreign minister, is imminent. Ill health is given as the reason.

RUSSIANS CAPTURE HILL; FRENCH OCCUPY VILLAGE; SERBIANS CROSS BORDER

Vigorous Offensive Begun by Allies at Western End of Macedonian Front—Successes Recorded After All Day Fighting—Russians Gain in Dobrudja.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—A Russian success in the Rumanian province of Dobrudja is reported in a semi-official news agency dispatch. The dispatch says the Russians took numerous prisoners.

A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Saloniki dated Sunday says: "The Entente Allies began at 7 o'clock this morning a vigorous offensive on the extreme westward and northward of Florina. There was fighting all day long. The Russians shortly after noon captured an important hill west of Florina, the French advanced, occupying the village of Petorak, while the Serbians succeeded in crossing the frontier north of Krusograd, but encountered fierce opposition at Verbeni."

PARIS, Sept. 25.—Via London, 2:45 p.m.—Russian troops on the western end of the Macedonian front took the offensive last night. The war office announced today that they had caotured Hill 916, west of Florina, which had been fortified strongly by the Bulgarians. A Bulgarian counter-attack was checked by French and Russian artillery and bayonets.

French and Serbs Advance.

French artillery fire caused an outbreak of flames in Doiran, and French troops made progress on their left wing. On the Broda River Serbian troops reached the frontier, and French infantry made a slight advance to the north of Florina.

The text of announcement concerning the Macedonian front reads as follows:

"On the left bank of the River Struma British troops, continuing their raids, were successful in an attack upon Jamiah, to the north of Lake Tahinos. A detachment of French troops operating on the right of the British took a trench at the point of the bayonet and made some prisoners.

Progress On Left Wing.

"From Doiran Lake to the Vardar our artillery has displayed great activity. An energetic bombardment of Doiran resulted in causing a fire in the town. On our left wing progress was continuing along all the line. In the region of the Broda River, Serbian troops have reached the frontier. To the north of Krusograd and to the northeast of Florina French infantrymen have occupied the first houses of Petorak, as a result of spirited fighting, and they also have made a slight advance to the north of Florina. To the west of this town, Russian troops captured by assault Hill 169, which had been strongly organized by the enemy.

"In this same locality a Bulgarian counter-attack was checked by the fire of our artillery, and then repulsed at the point of the bayonet by French and Russian troops acting together. To the southwest of Florina a French reconnoitering detachment has had several spirited engagement, in the country south of Preeba Lake, with Bulgarian detachments from Biklista."

GERMAN REPORT.

BERLIN, Sept. 25.—Via London.—The bombardment by a German airship of Bucharest, capital of Rumania, is reported in the official announcement issued here today. Field Marshal von Mackensen's forces, which are invading eastern Rumania, have won further successes, the statement says: British and Serbian attacks on the Macedonian front were repulsed.

NEW RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE TO PIERCE FOE'S LINES BEFORE WINTER SETS IN

PETROGRAD, Sept. 25—via London, 11:15 p.m.—Although the official communications have shed little light on recent developments in the war situation it is learned from staff officers that after a long lull the battles at all important points on General Brusiloff's front are again assuming the intensity which characterized the first period of his advance.

The principal centres of action are the districts near Vladimir-Volynski and west of Lutsk, the Halicz region and the Carpathians, and in each of these territories there has been a general resumption of the fighting, which has spread to adjacent sectors until the whole southwestern war theatre from the Pripet marshes to the Danube may be said to be again in action.

The nature of this action, however, has undergone a conspicuous change since the first smashing blows in Brusiloff's campaign. Although the Russians still claim the initiative, it is evident that the German counter-attacks are becoming constantly more frequent and more vigorous and in the large numbers of reinforcements sent to these regions from other fronts, as well as the more aggressive character of the German fighting there are signs that Field Marshal von Hindenburg, the new chief of staff is planning a new campaign to recover the old positions before winter sets in.

To meet this, the Russians have already begun a fresh offensive, the details of which have not yet been announced, but which has been undertaken on a large scale with the object of making a desperate effort to pierce the Austro-German fronts before the fall campaign is over.

BELGIUM'S RULERS DEVOTED TO MEN OF THEIR COUNTRY

King Constantly in Trenches, Queen Attends Wounded.

A SAD, AGED MONARCH

Albert Has Aged Under His Great Burden of Sorrow.

Flushing, Netherlands, Sept. 26.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—King Albert of Belgium has aged under the heavy cares and sorrows of the present time, and his hair is beginning to turn grey, according to the latest news from the Belgian front. His Majesty never leaves the small strip of territory over which the Belgian flag still flies, refraining from visits to places in France or to Ste. Adresse, where his government has its seat. If the King of England or President Poincare want to meet the Belgian sovereign, they have to go to this corner by the Yser.

Much in Trenches.

The soldiers deeply appreciate the fact that their sovereign and commander-in-chief shares with them the monotony of this marshy bit of country waiting, like them, for the day when Belgium shall be free once more. His Majesty is frequently seen by his men—in the trenches, in the barracks, on the sands and in the dunes. It is said, indeed, that no one knows better than he the 25 or 30 miles of trenches where the Belgian troops keep vigilant guard day and night. He is particularly fond of visiting the advance posts, and his troops always feel some amount of anxiety when they decry the king's tall figure traversing the footbridges only some hundreds of meters distant from the enemy.

Queen Attends Wounded.

Queen Elizabeth, on the other hand, has with her own hands bound up many badly-wounded men in the Ocean Hospital. Here she is in daily attendance speaking an encouraging word here and there to the patients and distributing tobacco and cigarettes. Instances are related in which she has stood by the dying bed of simple soldiers. Her Majesty is held in great veneration by the entire army.

BERLIN SAYS ATTACKS BY RUSSIANS FAILED

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The official Russian statement issued today says no events of importance have occurred on either the western (Russian) or Caucasus fronts.

Berlin's official report says fruitless attacks were made by the Russians on positions held by Turkish troops between the Zlota Lipa and the Narayuvka. Detachments which penetrated Turkish positions were driven out by a counter-attack, and 142 prisoners were taken, it is claimed.

The German position near Manuajow, captured Saturday in a counter-attack, was maintained.

STEAMER DRESDEN SUNK.

BRISTOL, England, Sept. 25.—4:17 p.m.—The British steamship Dresden, of 807 tons gross, has been sunk. The Dresden was 225 feet long, and was built at Glasgow in 1885. The vessel was owned by the Leith, Hull and Hamburg Steam Packet Company of Leith.

LAKE CARRIERS TO AID IN DREDGING CHANNEL

Considering Plan to Supply Funds to Carry On Work When Government Funds Fail.

DETROIT, Sept. 25.—With the object of expediting the improvement of the lower end of Lake St. Clair channel by dredging out a greater portion of its width to at least a depth of 21 feet, negotiations are in progress between President Livingstone, representing the Lake Carriers' Association, and Major H. Burgess, United States district engineer, in an attempt to effect an agreement under which the dredging work may be continued after an expenditure of the funds the war department now has available for the work.

It is understood the Lake Carriers' Association has under consideration a plan to advance sufficient funds to defray the cost of dredging, the work to be done under supervision of the war department, contingent on acceptance of the plan by the board of engineers, and the recommendation by that board that funds be allowed in the next appropriation bill to repay the lake carriers the sum which may be laid out in keeping the work under way until further money is provided by the Government.

There is at present a channel with 21 feet depth and approximately 274 feet wide, about 1,200 feet long, extending from the first buoy to deep water in Lake St. Clair. This channel has been dredged along the west side of what is to be an 800-foot channel. Owing to its narrow width, freighters have much difficulty following it. President Livingstone's desire to prevent the discontinuance of dredging operations after expenditure of the present papropriation, in order that a wider channel may more speedily be available, prompts the proposal now under consideration.

AILSA CRAIG FAIR PROMISES "BIG SHOW"

[Special to The Advertiser.]

AILSA CRAIG, Sept. 25.—Big preparations are being made for the Northern Fair, to be held here Tuesday and Wednesday this week, and all that is needed for a big show on Wednesday is fine weather.

Special Thanksgiving services were held in the English Church Sunday at 7:30 p.m., when the rector, Rev. J. Whalen, preached on thanksgiving.

Master D'Archy Parsons, boy soprano, sang a solo during the offering. The church was decorated suitably.

Rally day was observed in the Methodist Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, when the Sunday school children took part in the service, with special music, etc.

WADDELL IS ACQUITTED OF BRIBERY CHARGE

Jury Fails to Agree in Case of Clayton Peterson.

REGINA, Sept. 25. — Grant Waddell, charged with conspiring to bribe members of the Saskatchewan Legislature, was acquitted by the jury in a verdict brought in at 8 o'clock this evening. In regard to Clayton Peterson, charged with the same crime, the foreman of the jury, James Wright, announced that the jury was "hopelessly disagreed."

James Dallas and C. E. Wilson, charged with the same offence, did not go before the jury, Chief Justice Sir Frederick Haultain discharging them on the ground that the evidence did not implicate them to more than a very slight extent.

TRADES CONGRESS ASKS ACTION ON PRICES OF FOOD

Wants Government to Take a Hand at Once.

OPPOSES CONSCRIPTION

Demands Nationalization of Railways, Mines and Public Utilities.

TORONTO, Sept. 25.—Two hundred and seventy delegates are attending the 32nd annual convention of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress in this city. Hon. Findlay Macdiarmid, minister of public works, Chairman Wm. Houston, of the board of education, and President Richards, of the Toronto Trades and Labor Council, delivered addresses of welcome.

The important feature of the day was the reading by Secretary Draper of the report of the executive committee.

It recommended: Immediate action by the Government to control food prices under the war measures act; opposition to compulsory service in Canada; participation in the peace conference proposed by the American Federation of Labor for all labor bodies in Europe and America after the war; the appointment of a commission on industrial conditions; the nationalization of railways, mines and public utilities; an extensive system of highways; the adoption of a policy for close land settlement which will provide sufficient aid to guarantee the right kind of settlers and insure social amenities; shortening the work day to provide employment for unemployed persons; a gradual disbanding of enlisted men, covering a period of at least two years; and increase of pensions for soldiers and incapacitated soldiers, with no distinction between the children of officers and men; a vote of $20,000 to buy permanent quarters for the congress in Ottawa.

A new draft act to take the place of the present industrial disputes act, which has been drawn up by the executive's solicitor, will be discussed tomorrow afternoon in the presence of the minister of labor and Mr. O'Donoghue.

NEW PRAYER BOOK READY MIDDLE OF NOVEMBER

Will Be In General Use in Canada by Christmas.

HALIFAX, N.S., Sept. 25.—Archdeacon Armitage of Halifax, custodian of the new prayer book for the Church of England in Canada, announces he had a cable today from Cambridge University Press stating that the new prayer book would be published for use of the church people in general on November 15 in Toronto. This will enable the churches throughout Canada to use the new prayer book on Christmas Day.

WINNIPEG WRITERS SUE JUDGE WHO JAILED THEM

Confidential Adviser to Hon. Robert Rogers Their Counsel.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 25.—Patrick Manning, a well-known lawyer and confidential adviser to Hon. Robert Rogers, has entered civil action against Judge Galt on behalf of Knox Magee, editor of Saturday Post of Winnipeg, Edward Beck, managing editor of the Telegram; Ben Deacon, news editor, in connection with the confinement of these editors in jail Saturday. The amount of damages is not yet stated.

ALL IN READINESS FOR WINGHAM FAIR

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINGHAM, Sept. 25.—Everything is now in readiness for the fair, which will take place on Thursday and Friday of this week. The track is in excellent shape for horse racing, which will be a big feature of the fair.

It is rumored that bread will take a rise to 8c a loaf, and milk is 8c a quart in this town.

Rev. E. G. Dymond of St. Paul's Church here preached a sermon in memory of Pte. Holland, who lost his life in the war. Pte. Holland was a member of the choir here, also a member of the A. Y. P. A.

Rally Day services were conducted in the Methodist Church by Rev. J. W. Hibbert, pastor, and in the Baptist Church by Rev. M. Dingman, assisted by A. T. Cooper, secretary of the Huron County Temperance Branch, who gave an elegant talk in the evening. Mrs. (Rev.) Dingman rendered a solo.

Rain Is Needed.

Farmers have much difficulty in plowing the soil, as rain is badly needed. Corn is now being cut and silos are being filled.

Some farmers who have been busily burning brush and stumps state that the ground being so dry it has burned to the depth of three feet, and still burning.

W. D. Pringle of the Wingham Glove Works here states that, owing to scarcity of help, he is unable to fill his orders and is obliged to ship out as fast as he can make the goods.

Sees Much Development.

Mr. Balfour of St. Louis is visiting here, after thirty-six years' absence from the town. He sees much growth in the place. When he left here the town was a mere hamlet. He has a great grudge against the gophers in the West, as, being a chicken fancier, he resents the loss of many birds. He intends to remain here until spring, and if he finds a suitable place will reside here and go into business.

SAYS U-BOAT BREMEN IN FALMOUTH HABBOR

[Special to The Advertiser.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—Dr. R. Tait McKenzie returned home today after six months in England, and declares he has positive information that the U-boat, Bremen, is lying in Falmouth harbor. Dyestuffs which she carried have been appraised as being worth over $5,000,000.

MRS. A. G. SHORTT DEAD.

PARKHILL, Sept. 25.—Margaret G. Long, wife of A. G. Shortt of town, died at her home on Sunday, September 24. The funeral will take place on Tuesday. The remains will be interred in St. Peter's Cemetery, London.

RECRUITING OFFICERS HAVE WIDE POWER UNDER NEW ORDER

To Take Stock of Available Labor in Canada.

PREMIER HEADS SERVICE

New Department Not Under Jurisdiction of Minister of Militia.

OTTAWA, Sept. 25.—Before his departure for Nova Scotia, Sir Robert Borden took up the question of enlarging the powers of the director-general and the directors of national services. The order-in-council which passed on the 16th of August last had three main purposes:

1. To stimulate recruiting and endeavor to co-operate all organizations, official or otherwise, which have been engaged in recruiting.

2. To constitute authority with power to determine whether the service of any person is of more value to the state in his present employment than in military services.

3. To provide for the issuing of distinguishing marks to persons exempt for physical reasons and persons exempt by reason of their greater service to the state in existing employment.

Provisions Enlarged.

The orders-in-council as now amended continue and enlarge the provisions for more effective recruiting, which is to be carried on in each military district by district recruiting officers, who are charged with special duties in that regard and whose work is to be supervised and co-ordinated by the adjutant-general or by an officer specially appointed for that purpose.

The director-general and the directors of national service are placed under the control of the prime minister and their organization is separate from that of the department of militia and defence. The duties of the director-general and of the directors are somewhat enlarged and provision is made for the appointment of a board or boards of national service in each military district, at the instance of the director-general.

Will Take Stock.

The director-general and the directors are to take stock of the available labor in Canada. They are to arrange so far as possible for the employment of women in work within their capacity where additional labor is necessary. They are to co-operate with and afford all possible information to the recruiting authorities within their districts. They are to consider the character and importance of the employment in which any persons proposed to be recruited are engaged and determine whether they should be recruited.

ARABS CAPTURE MECCA, DEFEATING THE TURKS

LONDON, Sept. 25. — Another success for the Arabian revolutionists is announced in a Reuter dispatch from Cairo today. It states that the sherrif of Mecca, leader of the revolutionary movement, which has resulted in the capture of Turkish garrisons at Mecca and other important points, now reports that the Turkish garrison which has been holding out in the forts at Taif, 65 miles southeast of Mecca, has been forced to surrender.

The troops that surrendered, the dispatch adds, comprised 50 officers and 800 men, with ten guns and a large quantity of military stores.

WHAT SOLDIERS WANT

Capt. Brooks, of No. 4 Company, 7th Battalion, writing from the front, says:

"My men would be very grateful to anyone who will send them Zam-Buk.

It is in great demand for cuts, blistered heels, etc.

Parcels should be addressed to Co. Sergt.-Major, No. 4 Co., 7th Batt., B.E.F."

Be sure to include some Zam-Buk in your next parcel to the front. 50c box, 3 for $1.25, all druggists, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

W. NISSOURI FARMER IS FOUND BY WIFE HANGING FROM BEAM

Sydney Oliver Had Brooded Over Crops.

ST. MARYS, Sept. 25. — Sydney Oliver, aged 52, a well-to-do farmer, living on lot 34, con. 6, West Nissouri, five miles south of this town, was found dead in his hayicft at noon today by his wife. The body was hanging by a rope attached to a beam.

Mrs. Oliver was in town in the morning, returning home about 10 o'clock. Her husband met her, and took the horse which she had used to the stable. That was the last seen of him alive. When he failed to appear at noon his wife went to search for him. A glance was sufficient to show that the unfortunate man had taken his own life. A ladder had been placed against a beam, and he had used this to tie the rope about the support, and then about his neck. He had stepped from the ladder and strangled to death.

Dr. Brown of St. Marys was quickly summoned, and he notified Dr. R. Ferguson of London, who made a visit to the farm in the capacity of coroner. Dr. Ferguson decided that it was a clear case of suicide and deemed an inquest unnecessary.

The tragedy caused a shock through the neighborhood, where Mr. Oliver was widely known. He was a prosperous and apparently contented farmer, but recently had brooded over some money which he feared he had lost through loans, and also over the failure of crops. He had frequently told his wife that he had planted his last crop.

Besides his wife, two daughters, aged about 12 and 14 years, survive.

STEAMER IS RELEASED.

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 25.—The Government hydrographic steamer La Canadienne, which went aground in Black Bay a week ago, has been released and will be put on the Port Arthur drydock for repairs.

TO WED WEDNESDAY.

PARKHILL, Sept. 25.—James D. McRae of West Williams and Miss Mary Morrison, daughter of Mrs. Archibald Morrison, of East Williams, will be married in Columba Church on Wednesday.

What's There?

Whole wheat is sweet, but when you add the zest of malted barley you have a flavor that no food made of wheat alone possesses.

The famous food, Grape-Nuts, has a delightful taste that everybody likes, and it lies in the "magic of the malt"—

Then, too, malted barley contains, besides its great nourishing qualities, a digestive which makes Grape-Nuts food particularly satisfying to weak, as well as strong stomachs.

Ready to eat, easy to digest, delicious—every table should have its daily ration of

WEEK OF PROHIBITION.

ONE WEEK of prohibition has passed, and the records of the local police court, in common with those all over the province, show that the offence of drunkenness has almost disappeared. Of course, the full effects of the statute cannot be judged on one week's operation, but at least there is great encouragement to be derived from the present conditions.

It has been argued that drunkenness would increase, because the milder liquors would be disregarded and bottles of "hard stuff" would be substituted. So far this argument has proved to be false, and, if the change were to be as prophesied, surely this first week was the one to show it most clearly. Hundreds of families who never kept any quantity of liquor in the house before stored some away in anticipation of the dry spell. What more natural than that this reserve should have been drawn upon liberally in the first hours of barless life? Yet London police have not discovered any men staggering down the steps of their homes or behaving in a disorderly manner within their houses. They appear to have simply accepted the situation and cut out the habitual use of intoxicants.

Hotelkeepers are complaining that their bars, dispensing only temperance drinks, no longer pay. This is not surprising when it is remembered how little they catered to the "soft" drink quaffer in the past. This trade has been gathered in by ice cream parlors and other refreshment places, and it will not be dragged away to the hotel bars just through sympathy with the proprietors. All favorite refreshment establishments have comfortable seats and tables, cleanly kept and brightly decorated. To draw their share of the trade, hotelkeepers will have to provide something better than the accommodation they now offer. These things will arrange themselves in time.

The passing of prohibition has brought to the fore a peculiar streak in human nature. Men who regularly patronized the bars and drank lager beer, in many instances paying 15 and 20 cents a bottle for imported goods containing very little more than two and a half per cent of alcohol, now turn up their noses at the "temperance beer," although it contains almost as much intoxicant, is cheaper, and many admit they cannot detect a difference in taste between it and the mild beers which were formerly sold. The very fact of its being labelled "temperance" is enough to condemn it in some eyes.

Perhaps people will become more reasonable in time, and accord to the non-intoxicants some of the affection they had for their more powerful forebears. Surely few drink with the deliberate intent of getting inebriated.

WORTH WATCHING.

ONE OF the first sentences spoken by the commander of the zeppelin brought down near an Essex coast town on Saturday night was a request that he be allowed to telephone to London to someone who would let his wife know he was safe. Dispatches do not state whether he was permitted to do so, but it would seem that he was offering the authorities an excellent opportunity to lay their hands on one person who is managing to live in London and keep up communication with Germany.

This friend of the commander should be hunted out without any delay. It may be that he or she would only have sent the innocent message, but again the intent may have been to send other information to the enemy country. At any rate, the person would bear watching.

JAPANESE POLICY.

CONSIDERABLE speculation and some discussion of Japan's policy and attitude are in the air. Japan has made an alliance with Russia, composing their differences in the east much as Great Britain and Russia have agreed over Persian and Afghan matters. The question is asked, will this Russo-Japanese alliance affect British relations with the island power of the Pacific?

On the one hand it is pointed out that an agreement with Russia must probably tie Japan from any attack on Chinese independence or on equal trade rights there for foreign nations. A jingo party in Japan has been advocating a vigorous use of the present opportunity for pushing claims on China and intervening there even with force. Does not a treaty with Russia carry with it non-intervention and an adherence to the policy of peaceful penetration?

Yet it is argued that along with the rapprochement to Russia there has sprung up in Japan a feeling against the British alliance as unfair to Japan. Not only sensational journals criticize it, but professors, scientists, medical men especially, and army officers show a coolness towards Britain. Many of the professors and all the military men are German-trained and are not very hot for democracy. Moreover there is said to be a party, more or less defined, like the Pan-Germans in Germany, who consider that Japanese Kultur is superior to all others, and ought to be imposed on the world or at least Asia. The alliance with Great Britain binds Japan to support the status quo in India, but the jingoes would like to further Japanese relations with India, commercial and social, some contending that Japan's own genius needs revitalizing and bulwarking against insidious western influence by close contact with the solid weight of Indian orientalism. Hence perhaps the demonstrations recently in honor of the poet Tagore.

However, the loyal attitude of India towards Great Britain in this war must be discouraging to any forward or aggressive party in Japan, and the impending ruin of Germany through her fanatical nationalism and imperialism, must dissuade from ambitious schemes of extension and general Kulturizing. After all, the real root of any dissatisfaction with the Anglo-Japanese alliance is the feeling that it hampers Japan in the pursuit of her ambitions in China. No doubt, now that Japan is all powerful for the time in the China seas, immediate opportunity is very seductive, and as the fundamental purpose of the British alliance is to "preserve the common interests of all Powers in China by insuring the independence and integrity of the Chinese Empire and the principle of equal opportunities for the commerce and industry of all nations in China," the terms of the alliance may seem irksome. Yet it may be repeated that the Russo-Japanese alliance also must probably, to some extent, safeguard China. Russia would be as opposed to Japanese extension there as Japan was to the Russian seizure of Manchuria a decade or more ago. The Government of Japan is probably wiser and more cautious than a certain element of the people.

THEY SAW AHEAD.

"FRANCE and England are for me one single people, as Truth and Liberty are one single light." —Victor Hugo, in letter to Tennyson.

"When the war-drum throbs no longer and the battle-flags are furled,
In the parliament of man, the federation of the world."—Tennyson.

Victor Hugo's saying was subtle and imaginative, as usual with him. Did he mean to suggest that France's truth was liberty and England's liberty was truth? The French mind is unflinching in seeking and facing facts, and the English soul cannot live apart from liberty.

Tennyson's "Locksley Hall" was wonderful in the beauty and finality with which 75 years ago the coming conquest of the air, the coming trade and warfare in the air, and the coming conquest of war were predicted.

SWITZERLAND IS RIGHT.

THE Swiss Government has the right idea when it declares that any action by a neutral towards intervention for peace runs the risk of being considered by the Entente Allies as an inimical gesture. Furthermore, by its statement, it shows which side it looks upon as the future victor.

It will be well for other neutral countries to take a leaf from Switzerland's book and avoid any attempt to introduce peace talk at this juncture. There was a time when the Allies would have welcomed peace talk and action, that was before the invasion of Belgium. But times have changed, and the warlike Teutons are now the only ones who desire an inconclusive peace, not because they have repented of their war mania, but because they would vastly prefer the struggle to stop before they are decisively beaten.

When peace proposals are advanced it will be well if they come from the central powers directly. They, at any rate, have fought and therefore have the right to cry "enough." But for neutrals, who stood aside during the months when Germany was having everything pretty much her own way, and offered no obstruction to the onward march of the bully-invader, to offer their services when the boot is on the other foot and the Allies are regaining the lost ground, would be insufferable impertinence.

No doubt to at least one neutral government it would seem a brilliant achievement if it could make all the profits possible out of the struggle without incurring any of the hardships and then step in as the peacemaker and receive the plaudits. But this cheap fame will be denied it. Only those who have shed their blood and spent their substance in the battle will have a voice in the subsequent peace.

Switzerland is a close onlooker, and sees most of the game. That her Government declares objection to peace projects would come from the Allies shows she looks upon them as having the upper hand. It is gratifying to have this assurance from one so very much behind the scenes.

SIR SAM'S PICTURE.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN SEN., having died and left his place as an art patron vacant, versatile Sir Sam, minister of militia, has apparently decided that he will fill the position. But it would be too imitative to simply go out and collect old masters at high prices, and, besides, the subjects of these dead and gone painters were not sufficiently illustrious, so Sir Sam strikes out a new path, which costs nothing at any rate.

The world at large, and the Canadian army in particular, shall have its aesthetic taste improved by gazing upon the countenance of Sir Sam Hughes, C.B. (reproduced from an oil painting and marked down to $1.50 a copy). To the army this is to be an inspiration to great deeds, no doubt, and to the rest of the world a constant reminder of the strength of friendship. This latter effect would have been enhanced had the portrait of ex-Hon. Col. J. Wesley Allison been inserted in a modest corner of the plate.

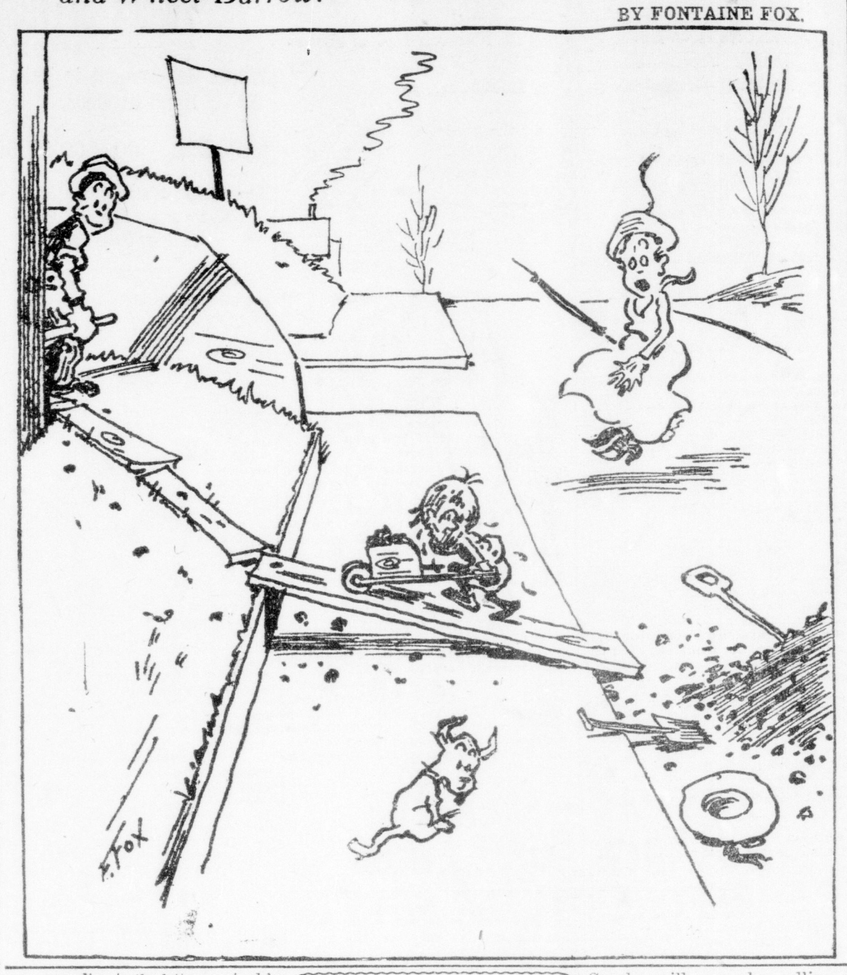

Of course, Sir Sam is not offering to sell these directly, but has intrusted the retailing of them to an Ottawa man, according to the letter received by those whose custom is solicited, and there is every reason to believe this true since the advertising circulars are sent free through the post under a rubber stamp signature of Sir Sam's which "franks" them.

By the way, it would be interesting to know if this lending of a "frank" to those not entitled to one is legal. There is no doubt as to its being in the worst of taste and in opposition to all etiquette, but that causes no surprise when Sir Sam is involved. Is the minister of militia just ignoring laws or seizing upon some loophole to evade their intended restrictions?

The letter says nothing about any division of profits, but urges every officer and non-commissioned officer to purchase either an unframed plate at the bargain price, or one framed in mahogany at $5. The people are left to draw their own conclusions.

The real question between Chancellor Hollweg and his opponents is this: Are the probable results of unrestricted submarine warfare sufficiently valuable to warrant Germany in forcing the United States to break relations with her?

A well-known Clyde shipbuilder tells the following story:

"Whenever I see a toothpick I think of a dinner that was given in Rome in honor of two Turkish noblemen. I sat near the younger of the noblemen. He glittered with gold embroidery and great diamonds, but nevertheless I pitied him sincerely, for he was strange to our table manners and some of his errors were both ludicrous and painful.

"Toward the end of the dinner a servant brought to the young man a plate of toothpicks. He waved the plate away.

"'No, thank you,' he said. 'I have already eaten two of the awful things. I want no more'."

Since I last wrote I've been in the hospital and very ill, a complete nervous collapse and the nerves of my eyes were so affected I could not read. You may guess how I missed The Advertiser. I am still a sufferer, but gaining very slowly.

I see in a copy of August 19 where a correspondent, "Hazel," inquired for me. If she just knew how happy it made me to be remembered, she would feel fully repaid for her kindly thought. Could you or any of the readers give me a recipe for citron preserve with lemon, telling me how to cook the lemon without it getting hard?

Some time ago a correspondent offered a song "Stay in Your Own Back Yard." Could I obtain it now? I wonder if "Alabama" received my letter sent to her Detroit address.

GIRL FROM THE SUNNY SOUTH.

Ans.—Poor girl What a trying time you have been through. Sincerely trust that your strength may improve from day to day and that you have no relapse. Cut the melon into cubes and either steam until clear or cook in boiling water. Drain the fruit thoroughly and drop into boiling syrup; add lemon, cut in slices, and cook ten minutes longer. Seal into jars while hot. Preserved ginger may be used in place of the lemon, and is even more delicious.

Can anybody supply the song for "G. F. S. S."

The Corner Clerk.

Dear Miss Grey,—May I suggest an answer to "Amarilly's" question, re the cutting of Castile soap? If I may, here goes.

First dampen with water and then heat it until it becomes quite warm; when at this stage cut it with a sharp knife, and I think you will have no trouble. Yours,

THE CLERK ON THE CORNER.

Ans.—Anyone coming with helpful suggestions is welcome. Next time you might just state which "corner" and thus appease our curiosity.

Helen's Ambition.

"Helen"—Why not write to the lady superintendent of whatever hospital you wish to train in, and ask for an application form containing requirements of a nursing candidate? Then you would know for sure. Most hospitals ask that a would-be nurse pass her entrance examination, but this is not an un-get-around-able difficulty. Your writing, letter and diction are unusually good—much better than I receive from some high school correspondents. I really advise you to make the application (it may be made through your family), then you'll know better what to study in preparation.

For the knitting instructions, your mother could obtain these from the Red Cross rooms.

Kicks Covers Off.

Dear Miss Grey,—Please may I have those flags which you said the other day were on hand at the Mail-Box for any who wished them. I would like any or all of them, as I am making a novelty cushion; and please could you find me three flannelette gum flags, as I need just three to complete my cover? If you have any Comfort soap coupons, or trade marks rather, I would like a few if you can spare them. Am going to start saving Sweetheart coupons for that kitchen cabinet, so may send some in a few days. Now for a few questions:

1. Do you know if there is a pattern for a child's sleeper (3 years) in the pattern department?

My little boy kicks the covers off and gets his nightie up around his neck, so that I would like to get a sleeper pattern for him.

2. Do you know if it is possible to obtain, and where, a pattern for a Highland suit for a little boy 3 years old—I mean "the kilts, etc."?

Hoping I have not been too lengthy.

CHESTNUT.

Ans.—Some of the yachting club and Canadian history flags remain; you may have them by sending stamps and your address. No Comfort trade marks are on hand, just now, or at least all are spoken for. Might also find three flags if I look closely.

No, I believe not; should be very glad to ask at the stores (and also re the kiltie suit) and let you know.

You write very well.

The Hired Man.

Dear Miss Grey,—When a farmer hires a man in the spring and pays him by the month, is he supposed to keep him till the season runs out, or can he quit him at any time?

2. Can he make the farmer pay for the month when the season has not run out, having only two weeks before the month is out? FANNY.

Ans.—Depends on whether he was hired by the month for the season. If by the month, he would have to give a month's notice in order to quit.

2. No, only for the time he has actually worked, subject to any claim of the farmer for damages or for breach of contract by the workman.

Anxious for Designs.

Dear Miss Grey,—Could anyone supply me with a few patterns for crochet yokes of corset covers and night gowns; also a pattern of a crochet baby's bonnet? Being I have nothing to offer in exchange for these patterns I will return them when I get a copy off them, if they wish. I will sign myself, OCTOBER.

Ans.—A very pretty bonnet design was sent last week by a reader and I'm placing it in your envelope. Will await further response from readers.

Others Are Exchanging.

Dear Miss Grey,—I see the other Cynthians are exchanging coupons, so would like to exchange a few. I will send 8 Quaker oats, 5 Sweetheart, and 1 Robin Hood coupon, and could I please get about 2 dozen Purity Oats coupons?

LOVER OF PINEAPPLE.

Ans.—Who will exchange with "Lover of Pineapple"?

Still Patriotic.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am sending a stamped, addressed envelope for recitations sent by "A. E. I. O. U." I am sending two more for her. Can anybody send me "The Kaiser's Dream"?

Kindly thank "Saucy Kate" for recitations received, also "Amarilly" for sending the words, "Daddy." I was so glad to see them in print. I have a nice piece, called "Mother," which I am sending to you for publication at some time if you can get space to do so. If not, kindly forward them to "Amarilly" for her kindness in sending the words of "Daddy." Best wishes to you and all the readers. Sincerely,

PATRIOTIC.

Ans.—Why don't you and "A. E. I. O. U." exchange addresses? Then you could write direct to one another, and it would be more satisfactory. Pieces on hand are being mailed you.

Corn Canning Method.

Dear Miss Grey,—Here is a very simple recipe for canning corn, and the result is excellent: 8 pints of corn, 1 cup of white sugar, 1 cup of salt. Put in a preserving kettle; cover with water and let it boil 15 minutes. Put in glass jars and seal.

I found that "Mrs. Winnipeg Reader's" cake recipe was just fine, as it takes no shortening whatever, and that is worth considering in these hard times Can anyone tell me of a good substitute for potatoes? I always thought beans and onions made a good substitute, but as they are very expensive this year we scarcely know what to cook.

I inclose a flag; perhaps someone will want it. Have you any Comfort Soap coupons? If so would you please let me have about 15? If any yoke patterns in crochet come in would you please save me one or two. CORONA.

Ans.—Thank you for your help, with recipe, song and flag, "Corona." No Comfort Soap wraps are at hand just now, or yokes, but will try to save some for you if any come in.

Has No Brother.

Dear Miss Grey,—Couldn't stay away any longer. So sorry I missed the questions re movie stars, but was nearly dead with the cold. Hence no answer. I think one asked if Wallace Reid was married. Yes, he married three years ago Dorothy Davenport, a charming actress who probably you have seen playing opposite Lou Tellegren in "Explorer" and "The Unknown." Wallace Reid is with Lasky Company.

The poor soldiers' wives seem to be the subject of much criticism. Poor dears! I pity them their loss, and yet envy them, for are not their partners doing one of the biggest things possible—fighting for his country and the country of others who care not to go! I have no brothers to send, and only one cousin of age, and he is already fighting, and has been severely wounded. Never in my life did I wish for a brother more. Guess I'll have to bestow all my affections ? ? ? on somebody else's soldier brother.

Dear Miss Grey, could you tell me what is good to clean the tops of black shoes? I mean the cloth part. It gets so terribly dirty and dusty, and I just can't keep them clean.

Oh, say! wasn't "Uncle Joshua" good. I have an idea that he or (she) is a writer known to this page by another name. What new name did "Beautiful Doll" take?

Did any of the readers ever try the scheme of putting away raw fruit for the winter? In a magazine it stated that pears would keep till Easter, by putting or rather dipping the stems in paraffin, then put each pear in a bag and tie bag and stem together and let hang from wall in the dark fruit cellar. The same treatment applied to bunches of grapes. It also said tomatoes just turning would keep till Christmas if wrapped in paper and laid away on the shelf of the fruit cellar. I am going to try it and see what the result will be.

"Elspeth Wilson" is anxious to know who I am. Well, I'm going to keep her in suspense a while longer. I saw you not so very long ago "E. W." Ha, Ha!

EXIT, GIRL OF THE LIMBERLOST.

Ans—Should like to know later how your fruit experiments turned out. For the shoes, dust the cloth part well and sponge with potato water. Make this by grating a small raw potato in a scant cup of water; let stand 24 hours then drain off clear liquid and use to sponge with. So far as I know, "Beautiful Doll" is an entire deserter. Speak up, "B. D."

Re the letter, cheer up, you'll hear from that person before long, I hope. No, you'll not find the name in telephone book.

Takes Much Space.

"Farmer's Daughter"—The poem "The Day" requires considerable room to publish, and it has already appeared on our page more than once. But if you send address and stamp I shall send you a copy.

2. The "stamp flirtation" is this:

Left corner, top, upside down—I love you. Left corner, crosswise—I love another. Left corner, top, straight—I wish to be rid of your correspondence. Left corner, top, upside down—I love love me? Left corner, crosswise—I wish to have your friendship. Left side, centre, upside down—I am engaged. Crosswise—Who cares? Right corner, top, straight—Business. Upside down—Friendship. Crosswise — No. Right corner, bottom, upside down—Yes. Right side, centre, straight—Account me as a sweetheart.

3. For cucumber salad simply slice the cucumber, soak for a few minutes in brine and serve with a slice of tomato and salad dressing.

Not Bad Luck.

"Fuzzy and Feefy"—1. Watch the page for a few days and you'll find the verses re marriage omens reprinted

2. Depends on material things—such as your ability to cook and housekeep and his earning capacity, and upon other things—such trifles as disposition, temperament, etc. Being a stranger, I'm no judge.

3 and 4. I'm pretty matter-of-fact as a rule and regard it, as you say, as "just talk," and advise you to do the same.

For "Country Woman."

Dear Miss Grey,—I see where "Old Country Woman" wishes Sunkist wrappers. I will leave 155 at the office for her, also inclose with this five stamps; if these are not sufficient for mailing, she must send you the rest. Also I will inclose 25c for "Aunt Nannie's" fund. I was sorry I did not get a block made. I was so busy, as all women on the farm are in the summer. The quilt was finished before I realized the time was up. As before,

INQUISITIVE.

Ans.—The package was forwarded to "O. C. W." and I am sure she will be surprised and pleased. Please accept thanks, also for the quarter, and coupon inclosures.

"Measure Running Over."

Dear Miss Grey,—I am inclosing stamped addressed envelope for your Sunkist wrappers and I will thank you very much before they are sent. I see where "Old Bird" wants sealer rings, now I have a few rings and glass tops to spare if she or anyone else cares to pay postage they can have them. Best wishes to all,

OLD COUNTRY WOMAN.

Ans.—When you asked for "seven" and got over a hundred, what did you think? The parcel was sent by a reader named "Inquisitive" (you'll see her letter on this page), with stamps for mailing, and so I sent it on to you. It had gone before the arrival of your letter. Weren't you surprised? "Old Bird" dost still need sealer rings? Re the other matter you so kindly speak of, it is dear of you to think of it; others have done so occasionally, but if folks like the page, continue to take an interest in it, and make it helpful,—that is "token" enough for its editor!

Serving the King.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have been a reader of "Mail-Box" for a long time, but have never before written to the "Tizer." I am trying to get enough silk, satin and velvet flags to finish a slumber quilt, any size or color. If any of the readers of the page send any in, may I have them? Will return favor in any way I can. Have some Comfort Soap wrappers; about 75.

My only remaining son is serving his King and country, and I am unspeakably lonely, and an invalid nearly all the time. All I can do is to pray, pray, pray, for ALL the dear boys who have gone so bravely to the front, that they may return to their mothers and wives safe and unharmed.

Dear Miss Grey, would you let me have the white silk braid a reader offered? I wish to trim a dress for a dear little girl. I am asking a good deal, am I not? Am sending stamped envelope for flags, etc. I can send stamped patterns of different flowers suitable for painting or embroidering with silk. If anyone wishes to have them, you can let them have my address. May I come again? Here is a dandy recipe for cookies: 1 cup sugar, 1 cup shortening, 2 eggs, beat together, add ½ cup sweet milk or water, 2 teaspoons baking powder, flour for rolling, 1 teaspoon of vanilla. Cut small and put together with icing. Put cocoanut on top of icing for top of cakes..

I will sign myself

OH SO LONESOME.

Ans.—Some very pretty colored satin flags have been mailed you. The soap coupons would be most acceptable—there are so many demands for them. "Help On a Bit," who offered the silk braid, another reader has asked for it too, so would you send it and I can divide it?

You certainly are very welcome to "come again."

They Said Farewell.

Dear Miss Grey,—Have not been reading the paper very much lately; too busy entertaining company, but happened to glance at it the other day when I noticed "Blue-eyed Betty" wishing to correspond with me. I should be "tickled" to correspond with her, if she will accept these conditions: That she write first, and send her letter with address to you and you forward it to me..

Our soldier boys were home on their last leave for the part week-end, and they left on Monday evening. It certainly was a sad affair to see mother and son part. I couldn't keep the tears back, although the boys bore it bravely and joked all evening. My, what sacrifices to be made all for the sake of war. Must close. Best wishes to the Mail-Boxites and yourself.

JUST EIGHTEEN.

Ans.—"Blue-eyed Betty" are you going to accept "Just Eighteen's" condition? I have her address.

You describe a sad scene, "J. E.," and one that is taking place daily, or perhaps weekly, in many homes of our Dominion. Let us earnestly pray that there may be no more war.

Thunder and Lightning.

Dear Miss Grey,—I see where "Lightning" wanted Magic Baking Powder coupons. I am sending her 45, and would like in exchange the following songs: "Picture Me Back Home in Tennessee," "My Little Girl," "When I Get You Alone Tonight," "My Old Kentucky Home," "The Black Sheep" and "The Letter Edged in Black." Would anybody like some flags? I think I know "Mrs. Home-Bird and the Wee Birdy." Her last name begins with W.

THUNDER.

Ans.—"Lightning" can you send "Thunder" copies of the songs, also a stamp for her coupons? You are mistaken, "Thunder" about "Mrs. Home-bird."

You and "Lightning" are rather dangerous folks, but call again, anyway.

NOTES.

"Busy Bee"—Some flags are being sent you. Hope you don't mind my omitting your letter.

"Poor Man's Wife"—I have mislaid your address; will you please send it for a letter from "Faded Lily"?

"Dominion Maid"—Your recitation has been sent on to "Always Glad to Help."

"Evelyn on the Farm"—I am still holding several recitations sent for you. Please send address and postage.

(All Rights Reserved.)

The six daily studies for this week constitute the International S. S. Lesson for next Sunday. Read the Bible Story on which this study is based, as you ponder the following questions:

"A Plot That Failed." Acts xxiii.

Golden Text—They shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee, saith Jehovah, to deliver thee. (Jer., i., 19).

4. Verses 3-5—When either pope, bishop, priest or parson, acts like a demagogue why should he not receive the treatment due a demagogue?

5. Why should the fact that a bad man is on the bench, at the bar, or in the pulpit, secure for him the respect of good men for the sake of the office, or of "the cloth"?

6. Verses 6-10—When Paul saw the temper of this Jewish council, did he probably change the style of his address, and if so, how, and why, did he do it?

ADVERTISER PATTERNS

A Stylish Gown.

1654.—Costume for Misses and Small Women (with body lining).

Poplin in a new shade of brown was used for this design. The fronts are finished with embroidery in Oriental colors. The sleeve may have the flare and deep cuffs, or be finished with the deep cuff only, as shown in the small view. The skirt shows a new and popular form of drapery over the back. Serge, nun's veiling, gabardine, batiste, challie, plisse taffeta, lawn or gingham could also be used for this style.

The pattern is cut in three sizes—16, 18 and 20 years. It requires 6¾ yards of 44-inch material for an 18-year size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

ADVERTISER PATTERN DEPT.

VERSE--New and Old

OVER THE HILL TO THE POORHOUSE.

What? No! Can it be they've driven
Their father, so helpless and old
(Oh, God! may their crime be forgiven),
To perish out here in the cold.
Oh, heaven! I am saddened and weary,
See the tears how they course down my cheeks!
Oh, this world is lonely and dreary,
And my heart for relief vainly seeks.

CHORUS—
For I'm old and I'm helpless and feeble,
And the days of my youth have gone by,
When over the hill to the poorhouse
I wandered alone there to die.

Ah, me! on that old doorstep yonder
I've sat with my babes on my knee.
No father was happier or fonder
Than I with my little ones three;
The boys both so rosy and chubby,
And Lillie with prattle so sweet!
God knows how their father has loved them,
But they've driven him out in the street.

It's long years since my Mary was taken,
My faithful and affectionate wife.
Since then I'm forlorn and forsaken,
And the light has died out of my life.
The boys grew up to manhood; I gave them
A deed for the farm; aye, and more,
I gave them the house they were born in,
And now I am turned out from the door.

Oh! children, loved children, yet hear me,
I have journeyed along on life's stage,
With hope that you all would be with me
To comfort and cheer my old age;
My life-blood I'd gladly have given
To shield and protect you! but hark!
Though my heart breaks, I'll say it, you've driven
Me out here to die in the dark.

But perhaps they'll live happier without me,
Farewell, dear old home, ah! farewell!
Each pathway and tree here about me
Some memory precious can tell.
Well, the flowers will bloom as bright as ever,
And the birds will sing as sweet as morn
When over the hill to the poorhouse
Next spring the old man shall be borne.

THE SONG MY MOTHER SINGS.

[Sent by "Poor Man's Wife."]

My weary head is nestled down,
The rocker softly swings,
I listen to the tender notes
Of songs my mother sings.

The fire dances in the grate,
The flames now short, now tall,
I like to watch (from mother's arms)
The shadows on the wall.

Hobgoblins, ghosts, fantastic forms,
The flaming fire flings,
They vanish at the cheery sound
Of songs my mother sings.

Her loving face is o'er me bent,
My arm about her clings,
My drowsy thoughts go wandering far
On songs my mother sings.

The sandman's stealthy step draws near,
His bag of dreams he brings;
They mingle sweetly with the sound
Of songs my mother sings.

Oh, brown-haired mother, tender-eyed,
To you fond memories cling.
Come, banish all my woman's care
With songs you used to sing.

SHE MEANT SENSATIONS.

In a primary school examination, over which I once had the pleasure to preside, one of the questions was with regard to the five senses. One of the bright pupils handled the subject thus:

"The five senses are: Sneezing, sobbing, crying, yawning, coughing. By the sixth sense is meant an extra one which some folks have. This is snoring."—Woman's Home Companion.

Coaxing, pleading, arguing, promising of untold wonders alike brought from him nothing but the stubborn ultimatum, "No country for me."

"But why not?" someone asked finally.

"Because," he responded, "they have threshing machines down there, an' it's bad enough here, where it's done by hand."

George Rivet Has Slight Edge on Eddie Brennan

Montreal Boxer Outpoints Husky Cleveland Fighter at the Masonic Temple in Ten-Round Bout — Preliminary Bouts Are Fast and Entertaining.

George Rivet of Montreal once more demonstrated his class over Eddie Brennan of Cleveland in a ten-round mill, staged in the Masonic Temple last night. The lad that hails from the next-door province showed more real class as a boxer than did his huskier opponent from across the lake. It was a pretty scrap and by far the fastest ten rounds that has been pulled off since the manly art of self-defence was revived here by the Sportsman's Patriotic Association.

However, don't run away with the idea that the husky Eddie was trimmed like a coaloil stove. He wasn't. He put up one beautiful scrap and carried the fight to his opponent in practically every round, but did not land the blows that the lanky Frenchman did. Rivet gave ground before the rushes of the muscular Eddie and fought back in a way that gained the plaudits of the large crowd present.

Hard Blows Brought Grins.

Rivet had the longer reach and used it to advantage in practically every round. He got in some terrible blows to the kidneys in the clinches, reaching over Brennan's shoulders to administer the doses which were handed out in bunches during all of the rounds. Both lads were in the pink of condition and took smashes that were good for knockouts had they not been in shape. As it was, the mill was one continual smile, both vying with each other in ear-to-ear grins when a sledge-hammer poke was landed.

Rivet showed some clever footwork and danced around the grim-visaged Eddie like a kid let out of school. Brennan, on the other hand, followed George around, trying to teach him a few of the latest steps and in the eighth round landed some real sassy swings. His rushing was all to the merry, but it didn't get him much. Brennan also covered well and stopped some French swings that had they landed would have made Eddie think that a French bomb had arrived somewhere in the vicinity of his jawbone.

Crowd Well Pleased.

There is no doubt about it, boxing has caught on in London. The crowd was quick to applaud every bit of clever work and it had lots of chances to clap. A return bout between this pair over a longer rout would crowd the Masonic Temple or any other hall in London.

The preliminaries were the best that have yet been offered. "Kid" Seymour and "Mac" Courage fought three rounds that were fairly fast in spots. Burgess and Hicks fought five 2-minute rounds that kept the crowd in good humor. Burgess did some clever blocking and slipped over some nice slaps in between. Hicks did practically all the leading and started the claret flowing from Burgess' nose, but he took some real rockers in exchange.

This Bout a Scream.

Trudell, the West London scrapper who was to have met Earl Wainwright, sparring partner of "Kid" Zoccano, sprained his wrist in training. Dicky Jones, who used to scrap when London was a village, offered to go on with Wainwright, and in the words of the office boy, it was some mill. There was more real fun and burlesque mixed up in the last three rounds of that never-to-be-forgotten five-round fight than Charlie Chaplin ever heard of. It was some scream. Dicky always bobbed up serene and for a forty-five-year-old kid with a grown-up family he put up the scrap of his existence. We would like to see Dicky don the padded pillow again in the near future. Wainwright showed his usual cleverness and has as much fun as the crowd.

FIGHT BY ROUNDS.

Round 1—Rivet danced in front of Brennan, and while the Clevelander was looking for an opening, Rivet jabbed for the face. Brennan rushed, but Rivet covered up, and they clinched. Brennan rushed again, and both missed swings for the body and clinched. Brennan swung for body, but fell on Rivet's guard. Rivet put left and right to body, and shoved Eddie to the ropes. Brennan landed left hook to the head, but Rivet blocked jabs to the body. The men clinched several times when Brennan attempted rushes, and the gong sounded with Brennan rushing Rivet, but failing to land any blows. It was an even round.

Round 2—Brennan rushed Rivet to the ropes, but the latter blocked his swing to the body, and with one arm free played for the kidneys. Brennan again carried the fighting to his opponent, and Rivet was rushed to the ropes, while Eddie got in a couple of swings to the head. Rivet landed frequently on Brennan's body, and as the latter clinched he swung for the kidneys several times. Both men landed body blows that did no damage. Brennan rushed George, but the latter fought him off with swings to the head. The round was even.

Round 3—Brennan got in a left and right to head and a left to the stomach as he rushed Rivet to the ropes. Brennan tried several more rushes that carried Rivet to the ropes, but the latter protected himself, and the Clevelander failed to make any of his blows land. Several clinches occurred, during which Rivet got in some telling blows to the kidneys. Brennan seemed unable to keep one arm free in the clinches, while Rivet nearly always managed to do so. Brennan missed left swing for the head, and Rivet landed left and right jabs to the body. Rivet's footwork was dazzling, and Brennan was bewildered at times. It was Rivet's round.

Round 4—Brennan rushed Rivet a couple of times to the ropes, and both men got in body blows. Rivet's clever blocking prevented Brennan from getting in some sledge-hammer swings. Several rushes and clinches occurred, with Brennan doing most of the rushing, and Rivet cleverly blocking and dodging his opponent's blows. Brennan landed a left hook to the jaw and rushed Rivet to the ropes under a regular shower of lefts and rights just as the gong sounded. It was an even round.

Round 5—Rivet blocked Brennan's swings for the body and the latter clinched. Brennan landed left to the body, but Rivet got in some jabs to the head as Brennan closed in. Rivet landed several taps on the kidneys as Brennan hugged him. Brennan repeatedly turned his back to Rivet as he closed in, the former's footwork being so bewildering. Brennan landed left and right to the body. Several clinches occurred without either of the men landing any hard blows. An even round.

Round 8—Brennan landed left and right to head. They clinched. Brennan again rushed and landed right to body. Brennan did all the leading, his rushes carrying Rivet right across the ring. The Montrealer watched for openings, and he landed a hard uppercut as Brennan came in close. Brennan missed left to head, but Rivet landed right uppercut to jaw. Brennan landed right hook to head, but Rivet again got in a drive to Eddie's jaw. Rivet's round.

Round 9—Rivet jabbed to face as Brennan rushed. Rivet played for the kidneys as Brennan clinched. Rivet again jabbed to the face. As Brennan closed in, Rivet landed left and right to head. Both exchanged blows to body and head. Brennan seemed to be tiring fast, while Rivet appeared very fresh. He had no trouble evading Brennan's rushes. It was Rivet's round.

Round 10—They shook hands. Both landed blows to the body. Brennan missed a left to the head, but Rivet landed a right to his opponent's face. Rivet blocked Brennan's rushes. The latter pushed the Montreal man around the ring without landing any telling punches. Rivet seemed content to keep his man away, and he did not do any leading. The fight ended with the men in a clinch.

GRIST FROM THE MILL

Rivet lived up to his name. He just naturally got in a few good rivets in the neighborhood of Brennan's kidneys.

George sure had the boarding-house reach. The way he reached over and pitter-pattered on Eddie's kidneys reminded one of the raindrops pattering on the roof tra-la-la.

"Red" Allen of New York sent a telegram challenging the winner. Promoter "Tony" Zoccano announced at the conclusion of the bout that the famous "Red" would meet Rivet in London on Thanksgiving night. However, it has been arranged to have Frankie Brennan, Eddie's brother, meet the New Yorker here on that date.

Where was Sergt. Birrell? We missed his choir bass booming forth, "Most brootal." A scrap without the Gibraltar of the police force present is in the same class as a circus without pink lemonade.

The fire chief was among those present. He would no more miss a fight than he would a fire.

Dicky Jones should draw down a millyun a month with the movies. The expressions on Dicky's face reminded one of that well-known old-timer, "It's a picture no artist can paint."

There was almost as much fun as fighting.

Old Dicky Jones would have won in a real mix-up, at that.

Frankie Brennan, the Michigan middleweight champion, has posted a forfeit of $100 with Promoter Tony Zoccano that he will make 150 pounds at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of October 9 for his bout here with "Red" Allen of New York on that night. Allen is a welterweight, but is not heavily built as Brennan. Both men fight at 150 pounds. Allen and Rivet have met a couple of times. The Montreal boxer says Allen is a scrapper, and a man who has a punch and can take one.

SIX ELMWOOD RINKS TO PLAY ROWING CLUB

Phillies May Yet Spoil All Those Brooklyn Plans

Pat Moran's Club Is Tearing Along at Such a Rate That It May Beat Out the Dodgers for National League Honors.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Are those Pherocious, Phearless Phillies going to phoil the plan of one C. Hercules Ebbets to give a world's series party over in the teeming wilds of Brooklyn? Just when everybody—including C. Hercules—had decided that the Dodgers would be certain performers in the blue ribbon baseball skit of 1916, a cable or something slipped. And now the Dodgers have been dragged to within one and one-half games of the never-say-die Phillies.

Are Hard Fighters.

Can you blame the Dodgers and their owners for feeling a bit shivery in the region of their spinal column today? Or can you do anything but approve the reawakening enthusiasm over in Quakertown? The Brooklynites have "the edge"—but they aren't quite "in." They are game fighters over there in Phila; they don't know what it is to be beaten. Time and again this year they have seemed to be out of the race, yet always in their plodding but steady work they have come on again, and crept to within striking distance of the flag.

It is such a team that the Dodgers now must beat in this final rush towards the finish line—the toughest kind of foe extant. The Ebbets crowd has a job carved out for it from now on, because the Phillies are fielding beautifully and their sluggers have returned to form.

The Pitcher Question.

If Rixey can come back or if Demaree or Mayer jump into the pitching breach in those final days and help Alexander throw back the onrushing hordes, victory yet may go to the Quakers. The elongated southpaw pitched wonderfully well up to three weeks ago. Since then he has been floundering. If he can get back into stride again immediately—the Phillies, not the Dodgers, will be the defenders of the honor and glory of the well-known National League.

Alexander's Task.

Pat Moran's stunt Saturday of permitting Alexander to work in a doubleheader seems to prove that at last he is going to play his trump card; that he will work "Alex" every other day, if necessary, from now until the flag is cinched, or hopelessly lost. But he must have at least one more pitcher to work on those alternate days; one more heaver who can go in—and win. Can Rixey do it? Or Demaree? or will it be Mayer, the erratic, or Benbrainy, Indian?

Take Your Choice.

Will that three-game series which the Phillies are to play in Brooklyn on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week decide the pennant, or will the issue remain in doubt until the last game of the season has been played?

The schedule for both clubs follows: Dodgers (to play, 11). At home vs. Chicago, four; vs. Philadelphia, three; vs. New York, four; abroad, none.

Phillies (to play, 11). At home vs. Cincinnati, two; vs. Boston, six; abroad, at Brooklyn, three.

Which is the tougher assignment? For the Phillies to play the wobbling Braves, or for the Dodgers to tackle the "twenty-one straight" Giants? The answer may decide the pennant.

Clark Griffith Says Sox Will Repeat in World Series

Washington Club Manager Thinks Carrigan's Team Will Win From Brooklyn if They Meet in Post-Season Event.

Clark Griffith, manager of Washington's Nationals, picks Boston to win the world's series over Brooklyn; that is providing these are the major leagues' representatives.

"It looks now as though the Red Sox are certain to cop in our circuit, and Brooklyn is so far out in front in the National League that only a decidedly unexpected reversal in form is my opinion that the Red Sox are too strong for any team in the old league.

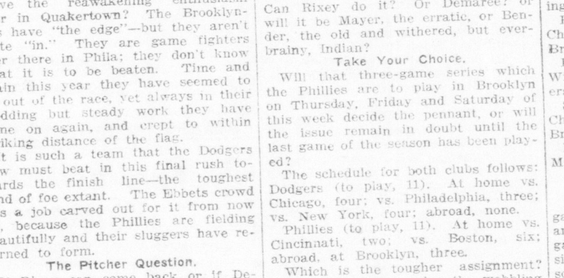

"Carrigan has pitching; he has hitting; he has fielding; he has base-running. Brooklyn has a good ball team, but not a good enough one, in my belief, to down the world's champions. Carrigan has two left-handers in Leonard and Ruth, and these are the pitchers who will bother the National League winners. Daubert, Wheat and Stengel all bat from the off-side of the plate; this hurts Brooklyn's chances, as these men form the base of its attack."

Brooklyn's Best Twirlers.

Griffith picks Pfeffer and Marquard as the pitchers Brooklyn will likely depend upon.

"Pfeffer is a fine hurler, while Marquard has been doing good work," he said. "The big right-hander may bother the Red Sox, but Carrigan has hurlers who will puzzle the Dodgers. The Red Sox beat Walter Johnson, and I am pretty certain that Pfeffer is not in Johnson's class.

"The Boston team is also a great money club. It plays its best ball when jammed in a corner. It's pretty hard to say how far the series will go, but I don't think it will be a long one."

A MILD SCANDAL HAS DEVELOPED at Sydney over the startling reversal of form exhibited by Buck Crouse, the American middleweight, in his second encounter with Dave Smith, the much-battered person who once held the middleweight title of Kangarooland. The last match took place August 5 and Smith won by a knockout in four rounds. The first match between the same pair was won by Crouse when the police stopped the fight after Smith had been badly punished. In the second match things went just the other way. Smith started to rush and Crouse left himself wide open to attack, taking everything that was coming his way. According to the papers, some of the bettors were so suspicious they were considering the advisability of refusing to pay wagers in order to bring about an investigation.

DUNDEE HAS BECOME A PRONOUNCED favorite in New Orleans and the patrons of boxing there evidently like his style of milling. Here is what one critic says of the Italian: "Every man who saw Dundee box will go back and pay the full price of admission without a murmur if he is booked here again. No fighter has made such a decided hit with the people of this city as the jumping Italian. He's a great lightweight and the fans fully appreciate his fine work."

JOHNNY KILBANE IS NOW A vaudevillian, and has been touring Maryland, explaining how he licked the daylights out of George Chaney in three rounds. Johnny is now inquiring for further dates. Not fight dates, but vaudy dates.

KID WILLIAMS, THE BANTAM champion, admits that Dick Loadman, the Buffalo bantam, gave him the hardest battle he has had in a number of years. They met at Buffalo recently, and while the champion was the victor he had his troubles.

PAT MORAN HAS ABSOLUTELY barred all talk of world series among any of his players. If you want to start anything just claim that the Phillies are going to walk away with the big flag. Pat isn't a bit superstitious, or anything like that, but he does not want that old jinx to work overtime, and perhaps spill the beans altogether.

GIANTS SET NEW RECORD

Win 21 Straight by Taking Two From St. Louis—Braves Win Two.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 25.—Brooklyn managed to hold the lead in the National League pennant race today by dividing a double-header with Chicago. The Cubs won the first by 7 to 4 in ten innings. Brooklyn had the game apparently safe up to the seventh, when Cheney became wild. Brooklyn took the second contest 4 to 2, through Marquard's effective pitching. Scores:

GIANTS' GREAT STRING.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25. — By winning another double-header from St. Louis here today, 1 to 0 and 6 to 2, the New York Giants won their 21st straight victory, and created a new record for successive victories in major league baseball. Schupp and Perritt twirled in fine fashion, and had the St. Louis batters at their mercy at all times. Scores:

PHILLIES BLANK REDS.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25. — Philadelphia easily defeated Cincinnati 4 to 0 here today. Rixey had his opponents almost at his mercy, and while they made seven hits off him, they were scattered through six innings. Philadelphia hit Schneider's delivery hard in the early innings. Score:

BENNY LEONARD WINS FROM JOHNNY TILLMAN

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25. — Benny Leonard of New York outfought Johnny Tillman of St. Paul in a warmly-contested six-round bout here tonight. Tillman gave Leonard the hardest fight he has ever had in this city, but the New Yorker's greater generalship enabled him to win the popular verdict. Leonard weighed 136 and Tillman 133½ pounds.

RED SOX PLAYERS WILL WATCH DODGERS

BOSTON, Sept. 25. — Reservations to the world series, if the Red Sox succeed in capturing the American League pennant, will be made in the order of receipt.

Heine Wagner and Jack Barry, who, with Manager Bill Carrigan, have formed the team's "board of strategy," have been assigned to observe the Brooklyn Nationals in coming games, with a view to learning the style of play of the possible rival contenders. Barry is understood to be ready to leave his home in Worcester, where he has been under treatment for a broken hand. Splints have been removed, and the hand is healing well, but the question whether the Red Sox shortstop can take his place at second base in the world's series is still an open one.

Boston Can Lose Three Out of Seven and Still Win Title

Tigers Are Out of It and White Sox Nearly So — Brooklyn's Lead Cut Down.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—All Boston has to do to count Detroit out of the American League pennant race is to win two out of the remaining seven games. Should the White Sox win their remaining four games, all of which are with Cleveland, Boston would have to win four of its seven games, four of which are with New York and three with Philadelphia. The standing:

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Boston	87	60	.59177
Chicago	86	64	.57333
Detroit	85	66	.56358

In the National League both Philadelphia and Boston gained a little on the leading Brooklyn team, the champions winning from Cincinnati, while Boston scored a double victory over Pittsburg. Brooklyn could do no better than break even with Chicago, hence is only one game ahead of Philadelphia and four in front of Boston. The standing:

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Brooklyn	88	57	.60689
Philadelphia	86	57	.60274
Boston	81	58	.58333

St. Louis at New York, clear, 3 p.m.
Cincinnati at Philadelphia, clear, 3 p.m.
Chicago at Brooklyn, clear, 3 p.m.

9 Points of Superiority

The only way you can get a true idea of the quality and luxury of Mercury Made-in-Canada Underwear is to compare it with the highest grade imported. Mercury has nine distinct points of superiority over ordinary underwear.

1. Highest grade wool used. Soft, yet durable. Guaranteed unshrinkable.
2. Exceptional elasticity. Will stand greater strain than ordinary underwear.
3. Mercury style neck. Fits snugly and comfortably. Doesn't crease or bulge like ordinary round style.
4. Shaped to the arm. Ample space provided under the arm for free movement.
5. Special system of knitting to prevent cuffs from pulling loose.
6. Inserted shoulder straps to give greater freedom to shoulder movements.
7. Crotch closed so cannot spread open unless unbuttoned. Only one button used here, and that so placed you cannot sit on it.
8. Ribbed gusset in crotch that relieves all tension, and makes garment remarkably easy and elastic.
9. Seams all covered, so that they present a perfectly smooth surface.

COMFORT, QUALITY, LUXURY, are all united in Mercury Underwear, and at prices you will admit very reasonable, when you see the garments at the dealer's. Choice of natural wool; fine ribbed pure wool in exclusive color mixtures; silk and wool.

Mercury Underwear and Hosiery are equal to highest-grade imported.

Line Pushed Back From Martinpuich to Peronne; Strong Positions Captured

British Penetrate More Than a Mile and Take Two Strongly-Fortified Villages and Several Lines of Trenches—French Extend Gains Beyond Road Leading to Peronne.

LONDON, Sept. 26, 1 a.m.—The British troops have captured the villages of Morval and Lesboeufs, together with several lines of trences, on a six-mile front between Combles and Martinpuch, south of the Ancre river, says the official report from British headquarters issued about midnight. This front was penetrated to a depth of more than a mile. Many prisoners were taken and heavy losses were inflicted on the Germans.

Lines of Trenches Taken.

The text reads:

"South of the Ancre our troops attacked Monday, and have been everywhere successful. Enemy positions were stormed on a front of about six miles, between Combles and Martinpuich, to a depth of more than a mile. The strongly-fortified villages of Morval and Lesboeufs, together with several lines of trenches, have fallen into our hands.

"The village of Morval stands on the heights north of Combles, and with its subterranean quarries, trenches and wire entanglements constituted a formidable fortress. The possession of these two villages is of considerable military importance, and practically severs the enemy's communication with Combles.

Heavy German Losses.

"A large number of prisoners, machine guns and other war material were taken. Heavy losses were inflicted on the enemy. In comparison with the results achieved, our losses have been so far comparatively small.

"On Sunday six enemy aeroplanes were destroyed in air fights, and at least three others were driven to the earth damaged. Three of our machines are missing."

PARIS, Sept. 25—via London, Sept. 26, 12:30 a.m.—In a violent attack launched against German positions extending from Combles to the Somme the French troops today made noteworthy gains, according to the official communication issued tonight. The town of Rancourt was captured and German positions were taken in the region of Fregicourt, between the Combles road to Bouchavesnes and in the vicinity of the Canal du Nord.

The communication says:

From Combles to Somme.

"North of the Somme the battle was renewed Monday with violence along the Anglo-French front. The French infantry assuming the offensive about noon simultaneously attacked the German positions at Combles and Rancourt and captured defences of the enemy from that village as far as the Somme.

"North of Combles we carried our lines as far as Fregicourt, and captured all the high ground between that hamlet and Hill 149. The village of Rancourt also fell into our power.

"East of the Bethune road we extended our positions to a depth of about one kilometre, from the Combles road to as far as Bouchavesnes, carried by assault a hill northeast of that village and reached to the southeast of Hill 130.

At Doors of Peronne.

"Farther south we carried several systems of trenches in the vicinity of the Canal du Nord, from the Bethune road as far as the Somme.

"The number of unwounded prisoners taken by us and counted up to the present exceeds 400.

"There was no event of importance on the remainder of the front, apart from a somewhat lively artillery duel on the right bank of the Meuse in the region of Vaux-Chapitre and Le Chenois.

"Aviation—Sunday night a group of our aeroplanes dropped 150 bombs on stations at Ham, Hombleux and Mancancourt, and the aviation ground at Vraignes."

CHARGE OF MURDER TO BE TRIED IN SIMCOE

SIMCOE, Sept. 25.—High court will open here tomorrow, when Justice Clute will preside. Robert Beecher, the 16-year-old lad, charged with the murder of John Simmons, will be tried.

GUELPH FREE OF DRUNKS.

GUELPH, Sept. 25. — There has not been an arrest made for drunkenness, nor has there been any sign of intoxication on the streets for a week. A week ago this morning eleven drunks faced the magistrate.

Chest Colds and Hoarseness Quickly Rubbed Away

"Nerviline" Gives Speedy Relief and Cures Over Night.

Got a cold?

Is your voice raspy—is your chest congested or sore?

If so, you are the very person that Nerviline will cure in a jiffy.

Nerviline is strong and penetrating. It sinks right into the tissues, takes out inflammation and soreness, destroys colds in a truly wonderful way. Rub Nerviline over the chest—rub on lots of it, and watch that tightness disappear. Nerviline won't blister, it sinks in too fast—doesn't simply stay on the surface like a thick oily liniment would. If the throat is raspy and sore, rub it well outside with Nerviline, and use Nerviline as a gargle diluted with warm water. Just one or two treatments like this and your voice and throat will be quite normal again.

Just think of it—for forty years the largest-used family medicine in this country—Nerviline must be good, must quickly relieve and cure a hundred ills that befall every family. Try it for earache, toothache, coughs, colds, sore chest, hoarseness and muscular pains in every part of the body. Large, family-size bottle, 50 cents; trial size, 25 cents; at all dealers.

Kitchener Women Organize a League in Three Attempts

Are Going to Assist Berlin Citizens' League in Aims.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

KITCHENER, Sept. 25.—A ladies' citizens' league will in all probability be organized here in the near future. A preliminary meeting was held tonight at the Borden Club rooms, where the Berlin Citizens' League holds its meetings. Miss Glick and Mrs. G. Aldrich are behind the scheme and a good many women are falling in line. The object of the meeting is to assist the men folk to launch the municipal election campaign for "better civic government" and elections promise to be a real live affair before January 1.

The women tonight first met in Glick's hall, but finding too much opposition they decided to adjourn, and left the hall and went across the street to the Borden Club rooms and had their little meeting in the executive room without fear of opposition.

There were in attendance at the women's meeting, Aug. R. Lang, president of the Berlin Citizens' League, and W. H. Smalz and H. M. Bowman of the executive committee of the same league, who lent their aid with the preliminary work of organizing. The meeting hurriedly adjourned at 9:15 to Miss Glick's residence on South Queen.

STILL A FEW DAYS FOR PLANTING WHEAT

Prof. Zavitz Says Fair Results May Come—September the Limit.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

GUELPH, Sept. 25. — The winter wheat has all been put in at the Agricultural College. In fact, it was in some days ago, and so received the full benefit of all the rains.

Prof. Zavitz says that there are still a few days left to get in fall wheat. The season has been so unusually dry that farmers in many sections, according to college reports, have been unable to plow, and on this account fall wheat has not been seeded.

"As a general rule," said Prof. Zavitz, "we regard round August 26 as the proper time to start with winter wheat. From then on to the first week in September it has been found, according to records covering a great many years, that the best results are obtained. After the 7th or 9th of September we find that there is a gradual falling off in the yield from winter wheat planted after that date, although good yields do sometimes come from a later planting. Winter wheat can be put in for a few days yet, but not after the end of September. I wouldn't like to advise seeding in October."

YOUNG GERMAN SHOOTS HIMSELF WHEN PARENTS RESENT HIS ENLISTMENT

Had Joined King's Forces in Windsor—His Home in Michigan.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINDSOR, Sept. 25. — Clarence Machtrieb, 21 years old, a local citizen of German descent, will not serve with the Canadian Ambulance Corps in which he enlisted in Windsor last week. He shot and killed himself at his home in Hudson, Mich., Sunday afternoon.

Machtrieb enlisted against the strenuous objections of his parents, and a family quarrel followed his return from here Saturday. He took a firm stand, however, and would have sailed for England within a couple of weeks to serve with the forces of the Allies.

He shot himself after returning from a hunting trip in the morning. He was believed to be cleaning his gun when his family heard a report, and went to the kitchen and found him lying on the floor dead.

PTOMAINE POISONING CAUSE OF TWO DEATHS?

[Special to The Advertiser.]

CHATHAM, Sept. 25—Mary Margaret Ryan, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Ryan, 35 McKeough avenue, died yesterday.

William, the 4-year-old son, died a week ago. Ptomaine poisoning is said to have been the cause of death in both cases.

Two Injured in Upset.

The 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Piper of this city was seriously injured when the Piper car, which was being driven by D. Althorpe on concession 12, Dover Township, turned turtle into a deep ditch last evening.

Mrs. Piper sustained bad bruises about the body. Mr. Piper and Althorpe escaped unhurt.

ZEPPELINS AGAIN ATTACK ENGLAND ON THE NORTHWEST

Bombs Dropped in Northern and Midland Counties.

LOSS OF CRAFT IS FELT

Berlin Public Said To Be Stunned by Success of British Guns.

BRITISH RAID SUCCEEDS.

AMSTERDAM, via London, Sept. 25.—The Telegraaf says that forty Germans were killed or injured in the British air raid on St. Denis—Westrem, Belgium, on Friday. Two sheds and three aeroplanes were burned.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—12:20 a.m.—"Several hostile airships crossed the east and northeast coasts of England between 10:30 o'clock and midnight last (Monday) night," says an official communication issued shortly after midnight.

"Bombs are reported to have been dropped at several points in northern and north midland counties.

"An airship is also reported off the south coast.

"No reports of casualties or damage have been received."

Later the official statement concerning the air raid was made public:

"Several hostile airships—probably six—visited the northeastern and southern counties during the night. Bombs were dropped in the northern counties and some casualties and damage are reported.

"Full reports have not been received."

LOSSES DEPRESS GERMANS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—A news agency dispatch from Geneva today says.

"Loss of the two zeppelins in Saturday night's air raid on England has stunned the Berlin public," Swiss correspondents in the German capital telegraphed today.

No recent reverse on the battlefield has had such a depressing effect on the German people, the correspondents reported.

The two zeppelins are understood to have been among the new aircraft turned out recently at the Friedrichshafen factory.

THIRD ONE DAMAGED.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Danish fishermen report having observed four zeppelin airships yesterday traveling in a southeasterly directions, says a dispatch from Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph Company. One of the zeppelins was in a damaged condition and was being accompanied by torpedoboat destroyers.

BERLIN'S REPORT.

BERLIN, via Sayville, Sept. 25.—The official statement regarding the air raid on England issued today reads:

"On the night of Sept. 23-24 several squadrons of naval airships extensively bombed London and places of military importance on the Humber and the middle counties of England, among which were Nottingham and Sheffield. Success everywhere was visible from the heavy conflagrations which could be seen for a long while. The airships when approaching England and before crossing the English coast were skelled by patrol boats and during the attack by defensive batteries, which used incendiary projectiles. The airships silenced some batteries by well-directed volleys.

"Two airships fell victims to the defensive fire around London. All the others returned undamaged."

BERLIN, Sept. 25—via London, Sept. 26.—The Berlin newspapers and public appear to accept philosophically the loss of two zeppelins in the raid on England.

The Kreuzzeitung, discusses briefly the possibilities that the British might be able to copy the zeppelin from the airship they brought down which was not completely destroyed. It dismisses this, however, in view of the fact that France, which has long had possession of a captured zeppelin has never been able to duplicate it.

GERMAN REPORT ON ESSEN RAID.

BERLIN, Sept. 25.—via London.—No fires were caused at Essen by the hostile air raid yesterday, and most of the bombs dropped inflicted no damage, according to an official report made today, as follows:

"The general in command at Munster reports that on Sept. 24, at 3 p.m., several enemy airmen appeared over the suburbs of Essen, and for a minute over the town. They dropped several bombs, the most of which caused no damage. No fires occurred."

FRAUD MASQUERADES AT COLLINGWOOD FAIR

[Special to The Advertiser.]

COLLINGWOOD, Sept. 25.—A person was found at Collingwood exhibition selling exhibition badges at 10 cents each claiming the proceeds were to be used to purchase yarn for soldiers' socks.

This was investigated and proven to be a fraud. The executive advise that all fall fair officials should be on their guard.

PTE. ED DEMPSEY, ST. MARYS, WOUNDED

ST. MARYS, Sept. 25.—A telegraph message on Sunday stated that Pte. Ed Dempsey of St. Marys was wounded.

Pte. Dempsey formerly lived in the east of the town before enlisting for overseas.

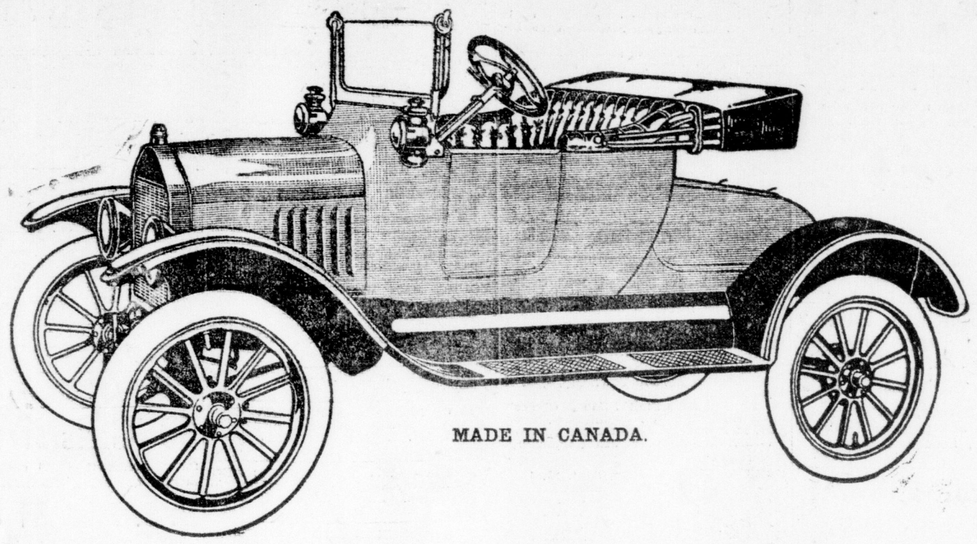

WONDERFUL FOR THE BLOOD!

Cures Sallow Skin, Headache, Languor and Tiredness.

You don't need to be told how you feel—blue, sort of sickish, poor appetite, vague pains, tired in the morning. This condition is common at this season.

Fortunately there is prompt relief in Dr. Hamilton's Pills which immediately relieve the system of all poisons and disease-producing matter.

Thousands have been so utterly depressed, so worn out as to be despondent, but Dr. Hamilton's Pills always cured them. "I can speak feelingly on the power of Dr. Hamilton's Pills," writes C. T. Fearman, of Kingston. "Last spring my blood was thin and weak, I was terribly run down, had awful headaches and a gnawing, empty feeling about my stomach, I couldn't sleep or work until I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills—they did me a world of good." At all dealers in 25-cent boxes.

ONE SON KILLED; FOUR ARE FIGHTING

GODERICH, Sept. 25. — O. A. Carey received word today that his fifth son, Pte. Conrad Carey, had been killed in action September 18. The young man was well known in town and was only 22 years of age. He enlisted at Moose Jaw with the 43rd Battalion. He leaves a young widow. Mr. Carey has four more sons at the front.

MAJOR GEO. MACLEOD KNOWN IN PARKHILL

[Special to The Advertiser.]

PARKHILL, Sept. 25. — The name of Major George W. MacLeod, of Edmonton, Alta., appeared in last Thursday's list of wounded in France. Major MacLeod is a son of D. N. MacLeod, a former merchant in this town, but now of Edmonton. He is also the grandson of the late John Waters, former registrar, London. A brother, Capt. Douglas D. MacLeod, died while undergoing an operation at Bonogne, France, after a severe engagement last June.

RAYSIDE PRIVATE SERIOURLY WOUNDED

[Special to The Advertiser.]

INGERSOLL, Sept. 25.—The name of another soldier of this district, Pte. F. T. Brown, has been added to the casualty list of those wounded on the west front. Pte. Brown formerly resided at Rayside, three miles north of here.

Word has been received that he was seriously wounded in the head in recent fighting. Pte. Brown enlisted with and went overseas with the 71st Battalion.

MAGNESIA FOR DYSPEPTICS

Why Physicians Prefer It To Drugs.

"Only those in constant touch with sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia can fully realize the harm done by the improper use of drugs and artificial digestants," remarked a well-known New York physician recently. "Personally I rarely advocate the use of drugs in the treatment of digestive or stomach troubles, for in practically every instance I have proved the underlying cause to be excessive acidity of the stomach and consequent fermentation or souring of the food contents.

"Therefore in place of the once widely-used drugs I invariably recommend the use of bisurated magnesia to neutralize the stomach acidity and stop the food fermenting, and the wonderful results I have obtained during the past three years convince me there is no finer treatment for indigestion, dyspepsia, etc. It must, of course, be clearly understood that I do not employ or advise the use of such forms of magnesia as citrates, acetates, carbonates, sulphates, etc. These might often do more harm than good; nothing but pure bisurated magnesia should be used to neutralize an acid stomach. This is not at all difficult to obtain—in fact, I find that most druggists now keep the genuine bisurated magnesia in tablet form in addition to the ordinary bisurated powder. A teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets taken with a little water after meals will usually be found quite sufficient to instantly neutralize the acidity and prevent food fermentation, thereby insuring painless natural digestion for even chronic sufferers.—Advt.

ASK SPECIAL SESSION TO DEAL WITH STRIKE

Gotham Members of Legislature Appeal to Gov. Whitman.

New York, Sept. 26.—Disorder again broke out during the early hours today in connection with the car strike. According to police a dozen elevated trains were bombarded with sticks and stones thrown from roof tops by strikers and sympathizers. Three persons were injured by flying glass when the windows of a Third avenue elevated train were shattered by missiles. Two arrests were made. One of the men in custody is charged with having a revolver in his possession.

Governor Whitman has promised to meet here this afternoon a committee representing members of the stalte legislature from Manhattan and the Bronx to hear their request for a special session of the Legislature to "deal with the situation" resulting from the threat of a general suspension of work Wednesday morning in sympathy with the striking carmen.

Hugh Fragne, an officer of the American Federation of Labor, and one of the directors of the strike movement, claimed today that assurances had been received by the labor leaders that 260,000 organized workers will quit work tomorrow morning.

A convention of the general officers of the national and international unions having headquarters here, and representatives of the central labor unions, trade councils and local unions, will be held Wednesday morning to organize and extend the suspension of work. Means of supplying financial support to strikers and plans for holding demonstrations will be considered.

JAPAN DEMANDS LAND TAX AS SECURITY FOR LOAN

Troops Would Be Sent in and Chinese Premier May Refuse.

Shanghai, Sept. 26.—The Chinese land tax, to be collected under the supervision of Japanese inspectors is to be offered as security for Japan's share of the 50,000,000 loan sought by China, according to a report received here.

The Peking correspondent of the China Press says that this is most serious to China because it means the penetration of the interior by the Japanese financial representatives who will be followed by Japanese troops. The manager of the Yokohama Specie Bank, who represents the Japanese financiers interested in the loan propositions has demanded the security of the land tax and, according to reports here, Premier Tuan Chi-Jui prefers to sacrifice the loan rather than accept what he considers an unreasonable demand. Premier Tuan Chi-Jui considers the surplus of the salt revenue sufficient security.

FRENCH REBUILDING SALONIKI FOR GREEKS

Sarrail Set Troops to Work on Roads, Sewers and Buildings.

Saloniki, Sept. 26.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—The French are busily engaged in building permanent improvements of every sort in the Macedonian capital. At present they have in hand the project of a $50,000 cold storage plant, and permanent marine and naval barracks are also planned. From the first landing of the troops they began building roads such as were never known here before, and since then sanitation, lighting, water supply, and even street car service have been improved under the direction of Gen. Sarrail.

The general himself takes the keenest interest in all such work. Seeing some English troops at brigade drill one day, he reined in his horse and watched them for a moment.

"They ought to have finished all of that before leaving England," was his comment. "Here the business is to build roads and dig sewers."

Naturally, the inhabitants of Greece's second city, who have been citizens of Greece for three years with no advantages save of the payment of heavier taxes than ever the Turks had exacted, are delighted with the civic activities of the French.

TRADER AND CHILDREN VICTIMS OF CANNIBALS

Bodies Horribly Mutilated and One Carried Off and Feasted Upon.

Sydney, Australia, Sept. 26.—A steamer arriving from the New Hebrides group, about 900 miles off the northeastern coast of Australia, has brought news of the murder of six persons by cannibals. The victims were a British trader named R. J. Bridges, and at least five children, whose bodies were found fearfully mutilated with axes and knives, and another child, who is missing, is believed to have been carried off by the cannibals and feasted upon. The murderers were thought to have come from a village on Malekula Island, where there are tribes of cannibals who are bound by native custom to kill and eat a human being in order to keep up their rank.

The failure of the French and British punitive expeditions just before the outbreak of the European war to capture any of the perpetrators of similar crimes, and their immunity from punishment for two years past on account of the war, is thought recently to have emboldened the cannibals.

128 PIECES OF BONE TAKEN FROM HIS LEG

Capt. Jas. Ross, of Embro, Has Troublesome Wound.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

EMBRO, Sept. 25. — Capt. James M. Ross, a returned wounded soldier, who is now working in Montreal at mining engineering, recently took two small bones from his leg, that was wounded. This makes in all 128 small pieces of bone he has taken from his wounded limb. He was one of the first of Embro's boys to enlist. He went overseas with the 13th Battalion.

LOCAL HAY MARKET REMAINS VERY SLOW

Tomatoes Somewhat Cheaper Today, But Potatoes Firm.

The local market was slow this morning, owing to the early rain, which prevented a large number of buyers from attending. Later in the day sales improved a little.

Hay, which was slow Monday, was even more so today and brought only from $11 to $13 a ton. Straw was unchanged, being scarce at $7.50 to $8.50 a ton. There were practically no oats offered, and the price was firm at $1.85 to $1.92 a cwt. for old and $1.55 to $1.62 for new. Barley by the bushel brought $1.35. Old wheat was sold at $1.12 a bushel and new wheat at $1.25.

Potatoes, in most cases, were firm, selling at 40c to 50c a peck and $1.30 to $1.75 a bushel. Tomatoes were slow and slightly cheaper at 45c to 50c a basket. Cabbage, too, were cheaper at 60c to $1.50 a dozen. Beets were unchanged at 30c a dozen, and green onions were steady at 40c. Green corn was sold for 13c to 15c a dozen.

Apples were plentiful, but the market for them was rather slow at 50c to 80c a bushel. Plums were less plentiful than formerly, as the season for them is drawing to a close. They were sold for 30c to 70c a basket. Pears were steady at $1 to $1.25 a bushel and peaches were unchanged at 50c to 80c a basket. Canteloupes brought from $1 to $2.25 a dozen, and grapes 25c to 30c a basket.

Little butter and few eggs were offered. The prices were unchanged. Chickens, alive, wholesale, were sold for 16c a pound and old fowl for 14c and 15c.

Live hogs were steady at $11.25 to $11.40, and in some cases $11.50. Fat sows were unchanged at $8.75 to $8.90. Small pigs brought from $12 to $16 a pair. Sales of dressed hogs were made at $15.50 to $15.75 a cwt. Wool was steady at 30c to 40c a pound and hides and skins were unchanged.

GRAIN.

Winnipeg, Sept. 25.—Wheat was 1⅜c @ 2¼c higher at the close today, with October at $1.60, November at $1.59, December at $1.55⅛ and May at $1.56⅝. Oats were ⅛c higher, with October at 53½c, December at 51c and May at 53½c. Flax was ⅛c @ 1c lower, with October at $1.97½, November at $1.97½ and December at $1.97⅜.

Export trade was good, inquiry was active, but the trade was hampered by the smallness of offerings. Attempts to buy No. 1 northern wheat quickly sent the premium from 6c to 6½c, and it was claimed that even over that was paid, but this could not be confirmed.

There was plenty of inquiry for oats, but few cash oats.

Trading in futures was mainly speculative. Barley was in good demand and hard to get, and cash barley touched 90c during the morning. Flax, after a fair demand, dropped at the close.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Wheat prices developed fresh strength today after an uncertain start. The new incentives to buy were the resumption of work by British mills and the fact that the Argentine drought appeared to be growing more serious. In addition, gossip was current that yesterday's export sales were larger than had been announced. Opening prices, which ranged from ½c decline to ⅝c advance, with December at $1.54¾ to $1.55⅝, and May at $1.54¾ to $1.55⅛, were followed by substantial gains all around.

WORLD'S CROP OF CEREALS 70 PER CENT OF LAST YEAR

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—A cable telegram received today from the International Institute of Agriculture gives the following estimates of this year's crop production:

The total production of wheat in Spain, England and Wales, Ireland, Italy, Switzerland, Canada, United States, India, Japan and Tunis, is estimated as 1,526,041,000 bushels, or 69.8 per cent of the production in the same countries last year, and 92.6 per cent of their average production in the five years, 1909-14.

The production of rye in Spain, Italy, Switzerland, Canada and the United States amounts to 93,202,000 bushels, being 98.7 per cent of last year's crop, and 115.4 per cent of the five years' average.

The production of barley in the same countries as for wheat, less Indian, is 476,583,000 bushels, 88 per cent of last year's crop, and 100.6 per cent of the five years' average.

The production of oats in the same countries as for wheat, less India and Japan, is 1,723,566,000 bushels, 78.2 per cent of last year's production, and 106.8 per cent of the five years' average.

WALL STREET.

Wall Street, 10:30 a.m. — Stocks rebounded sharply at today's opening from the severe reaction which marked yesterday's late dealings. Rallies of 1 to almost 2 points were made by the leading coppers, United States Steel, allied industrials and several of the prominent equipment issues, while rails were active at material gains, Reading and Union Pacific leading. Motors also recovered substantially and temporary heaviness in Utah Copper was soon overcome. Trading lacked the sensational features of recent sessions, but steel continued to be absorbed in many large individual lots.

ST. MARYS FIREMEN OVERCOME BAD BLAZE

[Special to The Advertiser.]

ST. MARYS, Sept. 25.—About 1 o'clock this morning the firemen were called to a fire on Queen street, in the Greek "Kandy Kitchen," situated in the three-story stone block, with the St. Marys Journal office on the east side and the Bank of Montreal on the west corner adjoining.

The fire was discovered under the stairway that leads from the front entrance to the upstairs. It must have been smoldering for some time, as when the firemen arrived on the scene the whole block was filled with smoke. The proprietors of the "Kandy Kitchen" were awakened by smoke and the fire alarm, and were almost suffocated by the dense smoke. They were rescued and brought down on the outside of the building by the firemen's ladder from the third story.

The fire had worked its way through an opening of the stone wall and got into the joists of the back portion of the building, which made it difficult for the firemen to fight the fire, but they stopped its further progress. The loss on the building is $500 and on the contents $1,000 to $2,000, which is fully covered by insurance. The Journal office, adjoining, suffered slightly from water. The Bank of Montreal, although filled with smoke, was not damaged.

Chief Moyes was handed a check for $25 by J. W. Eedy of the Journal, and also received a check of $25 from John Leslie of the Bank of Montreal, in recognition of the valuable services rendered by the brigade.

ENLARGE TILLSONBURG THEATRE

TILLSONBURG, Sept. 25.—Manager Dundee is making improvements to the White Star Theatre, which will not only enlarge the seating capacity, but give better facilities for showing the pictures. The stage is being removed and the curtain extended back, which will give an additional seating capacity of 120.

ELLICE FARMER FINED FOR HAVING BEER KEGS ON TAP AT "RAISING"

Test Case Made Under C. T. A.—Defense May Appeal.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

STRATFORD, Sept. 25.—For having liquor on his premises for other than personal use, Joseph Taylor, an Ellice farmer, was fined the minimum of $50 and costs in police court today.

The case was brought by Inspector Kemp as a test under the C. T. A., and was the first since the new act became effective last November. The maximum fine is $100.

The case was a sequel to a barn raising held by Taylor, at which several kegs of beer were on tap. This the inspector claimed to be contrary to the act.

The defence held that those attending the raising were Taylor's guests, and as such it was within his rights to serve the beer. Crown Attorney McPherson in moving for a conviction, said that if the beer had been purchased before the raising was contemplated Taylor would have been within the law.

The usual ten days stay for appeal was granted, and an appeal is likely.

WAR LOAN RESPONSE IN STRATHROY $80,000

Local Bankers Report Many Farmers' Subscriptions.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

STRATHROY, Sept. 25. — Local bank managers affirm Canadian war loan shares have been well taken up by the people of this district. Loans ranging from $100 to $2,000 and over have been subscribed for.

The farmers of the district have subscribed freely, which bespeaks the confidence of the farmers in the country.

One of the bank managers expressed the belief that about $75,000 to $80,000 had been subscribed for through the several banks of the town.

Another manager declared he had received five times the amount of applications for loans for this war loan that he did for the former one.

FLORENCE YOUNG LADY IS RUN OVER BY CAR

[Special to The Advertiser.]

FLORENCE, Sept. 25. — The only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grose had a narrow escape from being killed on Friday night. Miss Grose and some girl friends were on their way to practise for Rally Day service, and, being early, went for a little walk on the road. Seeing an auto coming, they were getting out of its way, her friends stepping to the right side, but Miss Grose unfortunately got in the path of the car, which was driven by Clancy Butler, who was taking a party to the church. Mr. Butler's car passed over Miss Grose, and when she was picked up she was unconscious.

Mr. Butler immediately took the injured lady to her home, and the doctor was called, who discovered no internal injuries and no broken bones, but Miss Grose's back and limbs were much bruised and she was suffering from a nervous shock.

Next morning it was discovered by Mr. Butler that his car axle was badly bent. Mr. Butler was not driving his auto fast at the time of the accident.

Today Miss Grose's condition is much improved.

NO VOTE OF PEOPLE ON BIG EXPENDITURE FOR PT. STANLEY LINE

Debentures for $75,000 If Ontario Board Passes Bill.

CONTROLLERS IN DARK

Audit Into Railway Finances Will Be Made at Once.

The board of control recommended at the meeting yesterday afternoon that an expenditure of $117,000 on the London and Port Stanley Railway be authorized, and that debentures be issued for $75,000 of this amount, provided the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board approve. The balance, $42,000, will be paid out of revenue covering the years 1915—17. There will be no vote of the people on this expenditure.

"I understand that $100,000 more will be asked," said Controller Gammage.

"There may for an elevator at Port Stanley," answered his worship. "We will vote on that project. We need this other money for equipment, extensions, etc., and we need it right away."

"What is the surplus?" asked Controller Rose.

"It will be that much by the end of the fiscal year, next July," answered the mayor.

"I think there should be a statement of affairs before this money is voted," commented Controller Gammage. "We are completely in the dark and we have nothing except the word of the commissioners. What will be done if the money is not there?"

"We will have the money," was the mayor's reply.

However, the board passed the recommendation, and it is expected that the provincial board will make inquiries into the financial condition of the road.

The London Railway Commission requested an immediate audit of the books of the L. and P. S., and W. M. Dunlop, the new city auditor, who will arrive here today, will be instructed to proceed at once with the work.

The board of control will see Mr. Dunlop to arrange terms for this work, as it ante-dates his appointment as auditor. It is expected that the matter will be arranged satisfactorily.

FRENCH FLAG DAY ROUSES MUCH LOCAL SYMPATHY

Generous Answer to Appeal for War Sufferers Is Expected.

Probably no tag day of the past has aroused a more general sympathy and interest than the flag day for French relief, which will take place on Saturday next, September 30. In the majority of the city pulpits on Sunday the clergymen made an exception in regard to the tag day, and not only announced it to their congregations, but also made an earnest plea for support of so worthy a cause. In St. Paul's Cathedral, the rector, Rev. Dr. Tucker, devoted a large part of his morning sermon to the subject of the gallantry of the French allies, declaring they had saved the situation during the entire first year of war.

In St. Andrew's Church, Rev. D. C. MacGregor referred to objections which might possibly be made, on the ground that the public was tired of continual calls to give.

"Just think what the French people have sacrificed," he reminded. "Think of the devastation, of the sorrow, of the heroism, of the men and women. Think what our soldiers at the front are giving up, then will you dare to say that you have been called upon to do too much? I venture to say not one person here has given until it has hurt, and that is what must be done to have a great part in this great fight for liberty and humanity. Just think a few minutes on what has been endured at Verdun and the Somme, and then, I feel sure, you won't be able to say there are too many calls."

TERM BEGINS THURSDAY

Wednesday will be registration day for the arts department of the Western University, and lectures will start on Thursday morning. In final preparation for the opening of the term, the first faculty meeting of the season is being held this afternoon. Registration will begin at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, Dr. W. F. Tamblyn taking charge. Last year's timetable will be used for the present, adjustment subsequently to be made according to the registrations. Supplementary examinations have been in progress for some days, and will be concluded this afternoon.

GIVEN UNTIL OCT. 2 TO FILL W. NISSOURI VACANCIES ON BOARD

Justice Sutherland Hands Down That Judgment.

MAKING DECISION TODAY

Township Councilors Will Decide Next Step in Famous School Litigation.

Under a judgment handed down at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, by Justice Sutherland on Monday, the West Nissouri township council has until October 2 to fill the vacancies in the West Nissouri school board or a mandamus will be issued by the justice to compel an election of trustees. A decision will be made by the township councillors today, it is stated, and there is a possibility that a further appeal may be made in the case that has been dragging through the courts for years and which was directly responsible for the defeat of John McFarlan, present M. L. A. for East Middlesex, when he was running for re-election as reeve of the township a few years ago.

A somewhat sensational turn was given to the case a few weeks since when W. R. Meredith, appearing as counsel for the supporters of the Continuation School, moved for the committment of the township councillors for contempt of court. No action was taken on this motion.

Before Justice Latchford in judges' chambers on Monday Mr. Meredith, for the applicants, moved for a mandamus compelling the township council to fill existing vacancies in the West Nissouri school board. George S. Gibbons of this city appeared for the school board.

Justice Sutherland handed down the following judgment:

I am compelled to the conclusion that the township council should forthwith appoint new trustees of the school board in question, so as to enable that board, when thus completed, to deal with the present urgent situation existing as to the Continuation School in question. Unless, therefore, by Monday next, the 2nd October, the said township council for the Township of West Nissouri so fill the vacancies in the said board by the election of new trustees, the order will go as asked. I will make no disposition the costs of the motion until aft the date named.

British Red Cross Campaign Here To Be Held Oct. 19

Committee Hopes to Reach Total of 1915 When $71,000 Was Contributed.

Another appeal for funds will be made by the British Red Cross on October 19.

The board of control was informed of this fact yesterday afternoon by Sir John S. Hendrie, chairman of the general committee, and asked that the city of London co-operate.

It was pointed out the urgency of the case, and the citizens were asked to be generous. Last year $71,000 was raised for this purpose. The same amount, or more, would be acceptable.

The communication was referred to Gordon Philip, commissioner of industries, and the board of trade, in order to see whether or not a campaign can be put in force.

BRITISH LANCET SOUNDS PRAISE OF DR. HILL'S BOOK

Prints Sympathetic Review of "The New Public Health."

The British Lancet, September 6, one of the leading, if not the leading medical journal of Great Britain, has printed a very sympathetic review of Dr. Hill's new book, on "The New Public Health."

The statement is as follows:

"The New Public Health." By Hibbert Winslow Hill, M.D., D.P.H., director: Institute of Public Health, London, Canada.

Dr. Hill's book consists of the revision and expansion of a series of articles contributed in 1912 to the Journal-Lancet of Minneapolis. The articles, we learn from the preface were furnished by the proprietor of this newspaper to 1,100 newspapers in the United States and to 50 newspapers in Canada, so that the teaching of the book has already received wide publicity. The probability is that a great deal of good has been done thereby. A deliberately colloquial style has been adopted, and the lessons laid down lose nothing of their solid value from the author's raciness. Medical men could recommend to their patients no better book from which to get sound instruction on the dangers incurred by the community through disease and on the proper directions in which defence should be organized.

NO MOTOR TRACTOR TO BE PURCHASED DURING THIS YEAR

Fire Chief Advises Against Bids Already In.

MORE LIQUOR TROUBLE

Under New Act City Loses Fines, But Has to Pay All Police Costs.

The board of control yesterday afternoon decided not to award contracts for a motor tractor this year. Fire Chief Aitken reported that the estimates were too high and he did not favor rebuilding the old motor truck into a tractor. This means that the old junk will remain on the city's hands, although an allowance of $1,200 on a new truck was offered by the Seagrave Company, Walkerville.

Mayor Stevenson, Controller Rose and Ald. Ashplant were named a deputation to go to Toronto to have the Government straighten out the matter of fines. It has been pointed out that the city, which maintains the police force and pays the magistrates, is allowed only the fines that come from violation of city bylaws. Most of the money for liquor fines will be diverted to the Government, and the municipalities do not think this fair. There will be a large deputation interview the Government.

The Webster Construction Company was given permission to use concrete tile in the Adelaide street sewer, owing to the fact that vitrified tile cannot be secured in Canada.

It was decided to pave Grant avenue, the Ridgeway, Wellington street north, Rectory street and Beaconsfield avenue at once.

Fraser & Moore, on behalf of the township of Westminster, informed the board that the township would hold the city liable for a part of the damages, in case any are awarded, in the suit of Kilbourne vs. the township for injuries received, due to a defective sidewalk.

J. Hemsworth asked the board to expend $700 on a breakwater for Ridout street this year. The matter was referred to City Solicitor Meredith to see if the council had the power to do so.

Some minor matters were disposed of.

FAVOR REINSTATEMENT OF THOMAS BENNETT

Board of Control Is To Make Final Decision.

A recommendation to the board of control that Thomas Bennett, former assistant engineer at the incinerator, be reinstated, was made by No. 3 committee at its meeting last night.

This motion was made following an investigation by the members of the committee, who were given an opportunity of hearing both sides of the question.

The board of control is expected to deal with the matter at its next meeting.

The inquiry grew out of the dismissal of Assistant Engineer Bennett by Supt. Walker, who stated to the committee that considerable friction had arisen from time to time, due to Bennett's refusal to obey instructions given by Chief Engineer Kerr.

Supt. Walker stated that in dismissing Bennett he had not done so on the impulse of the moment, but had taken action after due consideration.

Chief Engineer Kerr stated that he had experienced considerable trouble with Bennett and did not think that they could get along even if he was reinstated.

Bennett explained that he had not deliberately acted contrary to instructions and regretted the incidents that led to his dismissal, and assumed his share of the blame for the trouble.

After considerable discussion Ald. Dyer made a motion, which was seconded by Ald. Burdick, that the matter be sent on to the board of control with a recommendation to reinstate Bennett.

Controller Rose objected to the motion and said that to go over the heads of departments would establish a precedent that he believed would be detrimental to efficiency.

A MEDICINE OF MERIT
The great sale of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound all over this land is the result of genuine merit. The reason is that this good old-fashioned root and herb medicine actually helps those suffering from the ailments peculiar to women. If it did not would not the women of America have found it out in forty years, so that few of them would buy?

FELL DEAD ON MARKET

Clemendo Lavinelli, an Italian residing at 59 King street, fell over dead while talking to a friend on the Market Square last evening shortly after 5 o'clock. Coroner Ferguson, who investigated the case, found that death had resulted instantly from heart-failure. Lavinelli was employed as a section foreman by the street railway. He is survived by his wife. The funeral will be held on Wednesday morning from Smith, Son & Clarke's undertaking parlors to Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Doctor Tells How to Strengthen Eyesight 50 Per Cent in One Week's Time in Many Instances
A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.
Philadelphia, Pa.—Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eyestrain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses, and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time, and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start, and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.
Note.—Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist, and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." Standard Drug and W. T. Strong sell it.
