TWELVE PLEAD NOT GUILTY

Arrest Of Those Named In Buckingham Jury's Verdict

INSURED TO THE LIMIT

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—Twelve men at Buckingham, named in the verdict of the coroner's jury, as being guilty of murder or accessory thereto, in connection with the strike riots, were formally arrested on Saturday afternoon.

Pleas of not guilty were entered in each case, and parole was continued until next Friday, without bail.

A guarantee was given by the lawyers that all would appear next Friday. On that day Judge Choquette will be present and arrange for the preliminary hearings.

Ex-Ald. W. G. Black of Ottawa, inspector for insurance, visited Buckingham Saturday to see that the MacLaren have a sufficient watchmen and detective force guarding the mills and yards. He says the insurance companies are more interested than any one else, as the lumber is insured up to the limit.

Detective Picard, the 18th man indicted, is in a Montreal hospital, or Mills Close on 300 Men.

Quebec, Nov. 5.—More trouble is reported to have arisen at the Pith Mills, at St. Romuald. It appears that four of the men employed were non-unionists, and a demand was made by the other workmen that these be dismissed or they would not work. As an answer to this demand the mill was closed down, throwing some 300 men out of employment.

GETS FOUR YEARS

Justice Britton Not Too Severe On Man Who Killed Wife.

Belleville, Nov. 5.—At the opening of the high court Saturday morning, Ferdinand Kleinbell, who was brought in guilty on the charge of manslaughter, came up for sentence by Mr. Justice Britton.

When asked if he had anything to say, the prisoner replied in a low voice, "No," and then wept bitterly.

His honor said that, owing to his age, and the fact that the jury made a recommendation for mercy, he would sentence the prisoner to four years in the Kingston Penitentiary.

Indian Found Guilty of Murder. Brandon, Man., Nov. 5.—An Indian named Woolly Bear, who shot and killed another Indian named Wombadiska, was Saturday found guilty of murder and sentenced to be hanged Dec. 21.

Killed In Pistol Duel.

New York, Nov. 5.—Salvatore Volax was shot to death in a pistol duel on the east side yesterday. A big crowd watched the fight, but the Italian with whom Volax exchanged shots got away.

DOYLE'S DEFENCE

Evidence That Alleged Murder Victim Reached His Destination.

Morden, Man., Nov. 5.—A sensation was created on Saturday in the trial of Doyle for the murder of Vincent Weller on Nov. 20, 1905, by the production of the register of the Albion Hotel, Battleford, with the name on it of V. Weller on date of Dec. 26.

Battleford, it was claimed by Doyle, was Weller's destination. The defence endeavored to prove that the clothes found on the dead body could not have been exposed to the elements all winter, and also that the body would have been eaten by wolves.

The theory of the defence is a startling one, namely, that a body has been dressed up as Weller and substituted for it to secure the reward offered.

IMPORTANT DEAL EFFECTED IN NATURAL GAS QUESTION

Symmes and Company Enter Into An Agreement to Sell Their Gas to the Chatham Gas Company—The Deal is Generally Looked Upon With Favor—Cheap Gas For The Ratepayers

The agreement between the city and the Symmes Natural Gas Company has fallen through—at least the company has withdrawn from the agreement which had not yet been signed. This means that the proposed franchise is void.

The company's solicitor, Mr. Ward Stanworth, when interviewed by The Planet this morning, said that the reason for the company's withdrawing lay in the fact that the prices specified in the proposed agreement with the city were too low to be considered.

Instead of piping the city, as was the original intention, the Symmes people will now only bring the gas to the city limits, and it will be conveyed to manufacturers and residents through the Chatham Gas Company's mains. It is understood that an agreement is at present under way between the Chatham Gas Company and the Symmes syndicate.

The rates per thousand feet will be struck as follows: 15 cents for manufacturers, 25 cents for heating purposes in winter when the consumption is greater, and 35 cents in summer, and 35 cents for illumination and cooking purposes.

As a result of this action on the part of the Symmes Company the franchises for piping this city with natural gas is now open for any other company which wishes to tender for it. There are a number of other companies who claim to have gas, and were anxious to be considered when the matter came up previously, but it seems unlikely that they will tender for a franchise.

The action of the Symmes Company in entering into an agreement to sell their natural gas to the Chatham Gas Company does not come as a surprise to the people thoroughly acquainted with local conditions. It has been felt from the start that no matter which company received the franchise from the city, they would be open for negotiations from the Chatham Gas Company. Under the present arrangement, the whole system is expected to be in operation by the first of the year, but the company has until the first of May to complete the work.

The Chatham Gas Company will now extend their mains through the city, and will erect regulating stations, thus giving economy to a large number of men during the winter months. It is generally conceded that this is the best arrangement of the gas question, and while some will be disappointed at not receiving the franchise, the majority will be satisfied.

MANY FATALITIES TO BET IS ILLEGAL

Magistrate's Conviction of Bookmakers Upheld by Court of Appeal.

Toronto, Nov. 5.—The bookmakers and others interested in the continuance of betting at the Woodbine received a hard jolt on Saturday, when three of the five judges of the Court of Appeal upheld the conviction in the Police Court against J. B. Saunders and others for conducting common gaming houses at the Woodbine racetrack. The decision will, of course, be taken to the Supreme Court, although had the Court of Appeal been unanimous, this resort would have been cut off and betting at the Woodbine would have been declared dead.

The questions submitted by the magistrate should be answered in the affirmative and the conviction affirmed," is the judgment of Chief Justice Macdougall, and is concurred in by Justices Macdougall and O'Leary. Chief Justice Meredith and Justice Garrow dissent.

The questions submitted are: (a) Am I right in holding that a betting booth, as aforesaid, falls within the terms of section 197 of the criminal code as a house, office or other place? (b) Am I right in holding that the provisions of sub-section 2 of section 204 of the criminal code do not apply to the offence of which the defendants are found guilty?

The nature and disposition of the betting booths at the Woodbine have been set forth with much detail and particularity, and the regulations and terms governing them described in connection with the questions submitted.

FIRE CAN'T BE STOPPED

Coal Areas Abandoned In Consequence At Springhill N. S.

IT MAY BURN FOR YEARS

Springhill, N. S., Nov. 5.—The fire in the Springhill coal mines, which was discovered in one of the deeps a few days ago, has turned out to be more serious than was expected. The fire area in No. 3 mine is so great and so far advanced that the management has decided that it can only be completely isolated, and the rest of the mine rendered safe by sealing up the whole of the 2,600 feet level and all the working places on the 3,200 foot level.

The haulage plant, rails, tools, and everything in this part of the mine have had to be abandoned. It means also the loss of a very large body of coal.

The company will replace all lost tools, and announce their intention within a few days, of placing every man at work in other sections of the mine. It will take about two weeks to seal up the fire sections.

Closing down of the section on the 2,600 and the 3,200 feet levels means that 170 men are out of work temporarily, but it will only be a comparatively short time till all hands are again at work.

The total number of employees, men and boys at the Springhill collieries is 1,700, and the pay roll amounts to between $35,000 and $40,000 every fortnight.

It may be years before the fire is extinguished by the sealing-up process. No. 2 mine, where a fire broke out 12 years ago was sealed and while the fire is diminished, it is still in existence in that portion of the mine.

TWO ARE KILLED

Construction Trains Crash Near Montreal—Tramway Victim.

Montreal, Nov. 5.—James Harrigan of Deseronto, who was in charge of a steam shovel attached to a construction train at work on the Grand Trunk operating near St. Bruno, Que., died Saturday morning at the General Hospital as the result of injuries sustained in a rear-end collision with another construction train. Harrigan had both legs cut off. Lorenzo Dansereau of Point St. Charles was so badly injured that he died later.

The two trains were backing into each other, unknown to the engineer of either train, and Harrigan and Dansereau were standing on the platform of the caboose when the trains came together. The impact forced the end of a flat car on to the caboose platform and the two men were terribly crushed.

HITS A HAND CAR

Two Men Instantly Killed and Two Others Badly Mangled.

St. Thomas, Nov. 5.—William Jones, aged 21, Tilbury, and William Butts, Hawtreys, were instantly killed, and Eugene Butts, son of the latter, and Norman Hanson, were badly mangled about a mile east of Sheddens last night.

They and some others were riding on a handcar when they were struck by an eastbound extra freight.

Two other men, George Wynn and George Eurch, jumped off in time to save their lives, but were considerably shaken up. The men had been working on the tracks and were on their way home when the accident occurred.

Either of law or medicine, who didn't have a pair of rubbers right handy, they've learned to take no chances. Guess every M. D. in town gets his own and his families' rubbers here.

Ours aren't medicated but they do keep out colds, asthma, rheumatism, throat troubles, etc., and besides the prices are a tonic to your pocketbook. Come in and be fitted while the sun shines and the streets are dry. We will send them up to the house for you.

A LIGHT DOCKET RELIGIOUS NEUTRALITY

Thomas Seullard Hands Out Justice In The City Police Court

Acting Mayor Thomas Seullard presided at the Police Court this morning in the absence of Judge Houston, who is in Toronto. There was not a very heavy docket, and Mr. Seullard was not called upon to deliver any severe sentences.

Thomas Walls, the poor unfortunate man who was up a couple of days ago for being drunk, again made his appearance in the dock. He was drunk again. He was run in yesterday, and this morning he was still in a bad condition. As he stood up when being addressed, he caught hold of the rail and his hand trembled so violently that the whole railing shook. He was remanded for a week.

A young man named Wm. Cowan was arrested on Saturday for being drunk and disorderly. He has been hanging around town for some days and was warned that if he did not get to work he would be run in as a vagrant. He comes from London and pleaded hard to be allowed to go home, but Mr. Seullard thought that he should be remanded until next Wednesday.

Three young boys, none of them over 15 years of age, were up for breaking into Zakoor's restaurant and stealing a quantity of candy. They were wandering around yesterday morning and got at the rear of the shop. One little fellow said that he was standing with his hand against the window when one of his companions hit his elbow and broke the glass. The rest was easy and the boys got off with about 50 cents worth of candy. They were remanded until Wednesday.

Attained in France After A Struggle Of 30 Years

CHURCHES REMAIN OPEN

Paris, Nov. 5.—The Minister of Public Instruction and Worship, M. Blandin, announced in an authorized interview that the Government did not regard the Roman Catholic Church as being in revolt against the law providing for the separation of the church and state.

The Roman Catholic Church having simply declined to take advantage of its privilege, under the law, as the other religions did, on Dec. 11 would forfeit its $8,000,000 of property and thereafter would live under the common law. There would be neither persecution of the faithful, nor privileges of the faithful. The churches, as state and communal property, would remain open for Roman Catholic worship.

The object for which the Republican party in France had struggled for thirty years, the Minister said, had been achieved. The concordat was at an end, the state would no longer contribute to the support of any religion, and priests would no longer enjoy privileges. In both their duties and obligations they would be on an equality with all citizens.

In other words, the state was at last neutral toward all religions and would permit the exercise of all of them with special favors to none.

IN OLD LONDON.

Tory Revival, Sweeps Liberals in Elections of Borough Councils—Also in Provincial Municipal Contests.

London, Nov. 3.—The triennial elections of the London Borough Councils have resulted in an overwhelming victory for the municipal reformers, who in some of the boroughs, absolutely wiped out the progressives. The victors were formerly known as Moderates and represent the Unionist party, and the Progressives the Liberal and Labor parties.

Stronghold of Toryism.

After several years of Progressive regime, during which, it is contended, the taxes were increased to abnormal figures in consequence of huge expenditures, including palatial workhouses, Turkish baths for workmen, and other similar municipal luxuries, the borough councils are once again great strongholds of Toryism. The full figures are not yet available, but up to noon yesterday the Municipal Reformers had won 610 seats, the Progressives 222, and the Labor and Independent candidates 77 out of a total of 1,302.

Liberals Routed in Provinces.

The provincial municipal elections have also resulted in a rout for the Liberals. The campaigns in the provinces were mostly conducted on political party lines. The Liberals, who had made the Liberals have sustained a net loss of 33 representatives and that the Conservatives have a net gain of 53. The Labor party has a net gain of 9.

In London the Labor party candidates seemed to have had a favorable showing than the Progressives but they made small gains in the provinces.

DAMAGING EVIDENCE.

Doyle's Brother-in-Law Saw Accused With the Murdered Man.

Morden, Man., Nov. 3.—Gradually the crown drawing tighter a web of evidence about Doyle, charged with the murder of Vincent Weller. Eight witnesses were heard yesterday, all Americans from the dead man's home. The most damaging evidence was given by Matthew Kartes, brother-in-law of the prisoner, who testified to having seen Doyle and Weller together on the day before the alleged murder. Two witnesses testified to seeing Weller and Doyle driving towards the scene of the tragedy on the morning of that date.

The crown has given up all hope of locating its star witness, Ernest Bailey, who has mysteriously disappeared. It is the general impression here that he has been made away with.

KLEINGEIL CONVICTED.

Belleville Jury Says Old Man Is Guilty of Manslaughter.

Belleville, Nov. 3.—The jury in the Kleingel murder case were nearly five hours in reaching a verdict yesterday. They got the case at 10 a. m. and it was almost 3 when they came into court with a verdict of manslaughter, with a recommendation to mercy. Judge Britton discharged the jury without comment, though he had told them in his charge that a verdict of manslaughter could not be logically rendered. The judge announced that he would reserve sentence.

The prisoner, who is over 70 years of age, flushed deeply when the verdict was announced, but made no other sign. The verdict gives almost universal satisfaction in this city.

HAVE THE WOMAN.

Russ Police Arrest the Jewess, But Didn't Get the Cash.

London, Nov. 3.—A despatch to a news agency from St. Petersburg yesterday says that the woman who escaped with the $188,828 stolen from the Treasury wagon, Oct. 27, has been arrested. She is described as a Jewess belonging to Simpheropol, capital of Taurida Province.

Terrorism in Baltic.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 3.—A state of siege has again been proclaimed in the Baltic provinces on account of the continuance of revolutionary terrorism. The inhabitants have been forbidden to leave their houses after 7 o'clock in the evening, under a penalty of a fine of $75.

ROSS RIFLE DEFECTIVE.

Practical Test of 1,000 Proves Inefficient Workmanship.

Ottawa, Nov. 3.—(Globe Special.)—There will now be a searching investigation into the alleged defects in the Ross rifle, of which weapon 30,000 were some time ago ordered by the Militia Department.

It is stated that the practical test of the one thousand rifles issued to the Mounted Police has demonstrated that the bolts and springs are not, as they should be, of highly tempered steel, while the butt is brittle and liable to break very easily. Repeated tests are said to have demonstrated that the rifle jams very quickly with repeated use.

To Have Street Car Strike.

Hamilton, Nov. 3.—Hamilton will have a street railway strike, commencing Sunday, judging by the talk of the men last night. The company, so the men claim, agreed to put the arbitrators' award into effect 21 days after the award was given. Some 41 days have elapsed and the award has not been put in force yet. The men will have a mass meeting at midnight Saturday, and it seems to be a certainty that they will strike. The Trade Council will give them every assistance.

Sergeant's Dramatic Suicide.

Treves, Rheinland Prussia, Nov. 3.—Yesterday while several squads of the 29th Regiment of infantry were undergoing rifle instruction with blank cartridges a sergeant of one squad fell dead with four bullets through his breast. It developed that he had himself loaded the rifles of the squad with ball cartridges and directed the recruits to aim at his breast and pull the triggers when he exclaimed "His Majesty—Hurrah!" The cause of the sergeant's suicide has not been ascertained.

Nervous Women

Their Sufferings Are Usually Due to Female Disorders Perhaps Unsuspected.

A MEDICINE THAT CURES

Can we dispute the well-known fact that Canadian women are nervous? How often do we hear the expression, "I am so nervous, it seems as if I should fly;" or, "I don't speak to me." Little things annoy you and make you irritable; you can't sleep, you are unable to quietly and calmly perform your daily tasks or care for your children.

The relation of the nerves and generative organs in women is so close that nineteenth-century of the nervous prostration, nervous debility, the blues, sleeplessness and nervous irritability arise from some derangement of the organism which makes her a woman. Fits of depression or restlessness and irritability. Spirits easily affected, so that one minute she laughs, the next minute weeps. Pain in the abdominal region and between the shoulders; loss of voice; nervous dyspepsia; a tendency to cry at the least provocation—all this points to nervous prostration.

Nothing will relieve this distressing condition and prevent months of prostration and suffering so quickly as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Miss Lela Stowell, of 177 Wellington St., Kingston, Ont., writes:

"Your Medicine is indeed a Godsend to suffering women, and I only wish that they all knew what it can do for them and that there be no need of their dragging out miserable lives in agony. I suffered for years with bearing-down pains, nervousness and excruciating headaches, but a few bottles of your Vegetable Compound made life look new and promising to me. I am light and happy and I do not know what sickness is, and I have enjoyed the best of health now for over four years. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has sent sunshine into thousands of homes and hearts."

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all women of its virtues? Surely you cannot wish to remain sick and weak and discouraged, exhausted each day, when you can be as easily cured as other women.

Newfoundland and Canada.

Canadians who desire to be patriotic (and who does not?) can do no more patriotic thing these days than to cultivate a knowledge of Newfoundland. The union of Newfoundland and Canada would be a good thing for both, but it must be a union based on mutual understanding. If Canadians would spend more of their holidays there they would be assisting in the work of reaching a good understanding on both sides. This is a fine opportunity with the question of improved communication. Canada is by all odds Newfoundland's nearest neighbor, and, with good railway and steamship connections, will come increased travel and trade and increased desire for closer union. Newfoundland is as yet a land of extractive industries, and these along with few lines. The development of manufacturing in the Maritime Provinces will thus provide work for the fishermen of Newfoundland in the winter and bring about a closer bond of union than anything else could. In this connection The St. John's (Newfoundland) Herald speaks of the prospects for the coming winter in a way which shows how important the trade between the old colony, and what danger there is of the good work being nullified by the influence of the Eastern States. It says: "Owing to the suspension of some of the northern mines and the intended stoppage of some of the principal saw-mills in the interior this fall, there will be some hundreds of men thrown out of employment, and though the Wabana mines will absorb a goodly number it is doubtful if they will have room for all who are seeking work and the rest may have to migrate to Sydney or the Eastern States for the winter, to procure lucrative occupation. It is feared by careful observers that there will not be as good times in St. John's this fall and winter as in previous years."

For this reason conventions were held, first at Toronto, and afterwards at Winnipeg, with union in view. It took a great deal of time and much consideration to get a basis for union, and the case was the more delicate seeing that the Church was practically setting up for itself, and breaking loose, in so far as the governing body is concerned, from the mother Church, which had devoted so much of effort and of means for the promotion of religious work in Canada. But the measure was successfully carried through. The entire Church became, in effect, a body extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and having complete power in such matters as worship and doctrine. The Church, under the new system, is democratic. In the parishes the people of the parish rule. In each diocese the bishop is elected by the synod, which has charge of the temporalities. There are two "provinces" or collections of dioceses—one east of Lake Superior and the other west—and each has its metropolitan, who becomes an archbishop.

The two provinces form the General Synod of Canada, and the chief bishop is the Primate. The manner of choosing the chief dignitaries is not uninteresting. In the west the metropolitan is always from the mother Church of Rupert's Land. No bishop, other than the Bishop of Rupert's Land, can hold the office. Seeing that the metropolitan has a dual position, that of bishop, to which he is elected by the synod, and that of metropolitan, to which he is elected by the House of Bishops, a special plan of appointment is devised for his particular case. When there is a vacancy in the Diocese of Rupert's Land the synod agrees upon two names, and the House of Bishops selects one of the two as its preference. The clergyman thus chosen becomes bishop of the diocese, and metropolitan, or archbishop, of the ecclesiastical province. While this is the method of appointment in the West, seniority is the principle observed in the East.

The House of Bishops at the provincial synod names the metropolitan

That deep band of color used to edge the coverings of down quilts or the lightweight cotton filled ones so satisfactory for summer weather is there for a purpose quite aside from that of beauty or effectiveness. It is always the edges that soil first, and it was to protect them that the bands of solid color, usually much darker than the material of the quilt, were first used. If your summer quilts haven't been soiled, they are easily applied and are easily ripped off and fresh ones substituted when they finally succumb to soil. Only choose a material that is closely enough woven, so that the design of the foundation may not show through.

THE ANGLICAN PRIMACY

CHURCH IN CANADA AND ITS RULES REGARDING OFFICIALS.

Church Consolidated Into One Body, and New Election of Primate of All Canada Is in Order Through the Death of His Grace Archbishop Bond, a Prelate of Wide-Reach Influence.

By the death of his Grace Archbishop Bond, of Montreal, the Episcopal Church in Canada has lost a prelate of wide-reaching influence, who was beloved, not alone by his own flock, but by Christians worshipping under many different designations. The sad event also has its effect upon what may be termed the machinery of the Church, for it vacates the high office of Primate, or chief bishop, within Canada, and necessitates another appointment to that important position.

It is of interest to know that the Primacy was instituted in the year 1890, when the Anglican Church in the Dominion was consolidated and made one body. Originally the Canadian Anglican Church was in three geographical divisions. This arose from the fact that the ministrations were introduced at different and very distant points. The first division was planted at Halifax. Here, after the Revolution, loyalists settled, and among them Rev. Charles Inglis, who up to that time had been rector of Trinity parish, New York. Dr. Inglis was soon after his removal to Halifax appointed bishop of all Canada. He had jurisdiction from the Atlantic to as far west as he cared to go. Six years later, however, or in 1793, the Diocese of Quebec was carved out of the Diocese of Halifax, and Dr. Mountain was sent from England to take charge. From the Diocese of Quebec that of Toronto was formed, in 1839, with Dr. Strachan as the first bishop.

The dioceses of old Canada were subsequently sub-divided, and all in time formed what was known as the Province of Canada, with the senior bishop as the metropolitan or principal member of the episcopate. While the Church was gaining strength in Canada proper, the Episcopalian se-ceding a foothold in the North-West, at Winnipeg, and on the Pacific coast at Victoria. The first bishop in the West was consecrated in 1849. Since then the Territories have been divided into dioceses, and the bishop stationed at Winnipeg, and bearing the title of Bishop of Rupert's Land, holds the office of metropolitan. The Church on the Pacific coast had no governing connection with the Church under the Bishop of Rupert's Land, and was thus separate and self-governing. In 1890 there were practically three episcopal bodies in Canada, each, of course, restricted to its own geographical sphere. It was felt that this situation was unwise.

For this reason conventions were held, first at Toronto, and afterwards at Winnipeg, with union in view. It took a great deal of time and much consideration to get a basis for union, and the case was the more delicate seeing that the Church was practically setting up for itself, and breaking loose, in so far as the governing body is concerned, from the mother Church, which had devoted so much of effort and of means for the promotion of religious work in Canada. He began it fifty years ago, "before" as an English journal regretfully remarks "American competition had arisen and when it was still possible for an English collector with money, taste, and knowledge to buy the finest books of all epochs." But it is the increase in prices created by the advent of the American millionaire which will enable Lord Amherst to obtain for his collection many times what its acquisition cost—sufficient to enable him to make good what the rascally lawyer stole from him and leave a handsome margin over for his own pocket—between $400,000 and $500,000 it is estimated.

to archbishop, and it is invariably the case that the prelate who has been longest in the episcopal ranks is chosen for the honor. This principle of action was introduced after much discussion, during which it was claimed that Montreal ought always to be the archiepiscopal see. The metropolitan of a province is named by the House of Bishops of that province. Similarly, the Primate of All Canada is chosen by the assembled bishops of all Canada at the meeting of the General Synod. It would not be reasonable to select as Primate a bishop who is not a metropolitan. To have as Primate a bishop who is subordinate to another bishop would indeed be absurd. One of the two metropolitans, therefore, must hold the Primacy, and the senior is called to it.

The position to-day points to the selection of the Bishop of Toronto as metropolitan of Eastern Canada, and Primate of All Canada.

THE PARIS POST.

Misdirected Letter and Tangle of Red Tape—Why Young Englishwoman Turned Away in Deep Depression.

A young Englishwoman visiting in Paris received a note from a friend saying that tickets had been sent by an earlier post for a concert to take place that afternoon, but by error a wrong street number was written on the envelope. This, said her correspondent, might make a delay in the arrival of the letter, and it would be well to make inquiries at once at the post of the nearest division.

Arriving at the postoffice of our quarter, I made known my errand to three young gentlemen in succession. The last young gentleman took out a long paper and demanded peremptorily my name, age, address and birthplace. He was proceeding to that of my father and mother when I suggested that all this information, although doubtless of thrilling interest to the post-office, could scarcely assist in restoring my lost letter, which contained tickets I must positively have before 1 o'clock that day.

"Ha! It is then of a letter lost!" he cried, as though suddenly illuminated.

"Well, misdirected, as I have already explained to three persons here."

"But it is not here where one brings the letters which find themselves badly directed. Those letters are united in another department of the great post. This document here"—he pointed to my biography—"the chief of my department will dispatch to the great post. One will make a communication to you as soon as traces of the letter are discovered."

At 11:30 when I reached the great post, and I was sent to five different departments before arriving at the one for misdirected letters. Feeling both snubbed and ill used, I inquired whether before we proceeded to fill in more forms this monsieur would kindly tell me whether there was the remotest chance of recovering the letter that day before 2 o'clock.

"To-day! This day itself!" he cried in shrill indignation. "Parbleu, but you imagine to yourself, then, madam, that the post conducts itself like an automobile!"

"I hoped that since my letter is here—actually here in this department—that one could place the hand on it in the course of two hours, in England."

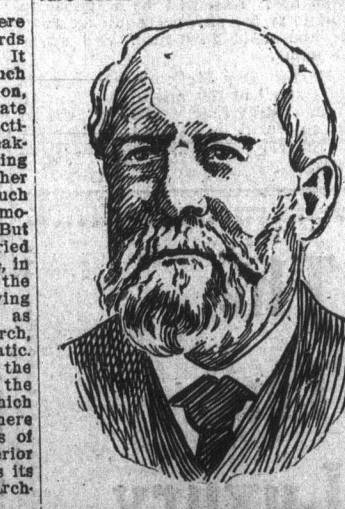

I continued with a fine outburst of patriotism, "We have such a perfectly organized system that I should have the letter I required in ten minutes."

"Remind yourself that England is, after all, but an island. Here we are in France and—throw back his head proudly—"and here things march not so quickly. It will perhaps be fifteen days before your case comes up. Each must proceed in turn."

"Then it is useless to go into the matter," I answered, and in deep depression turned away.

TURRET STEAMER STRANDS.

But Her Crew Will Be Able to Get Ashore—A Score of Fishing Boats Wrecked.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Nov. 3.—A fierce gale has caused more or less damage on Prince Edward Island, and has driven schooners to seek shelter in Charlottetown harbor.

On the north side of the island some score of fishing boats are reported wrecked and destroyed. No loss of life is reported.

The most important incident is the stranding of the steamer Turret Belle of the Turret Line between Montreal and Liverpool. She went ashore at the north shore of this island. She is not considered to be in a dangerous position and no fears are entertained for the safety of her crew, who will be able to get ashore to-day when the weather moderates and the sea goes down.

At Kensington, in Prince County, the smoke-stack of Schurman's lumber factory was blown down, but no one was hurt.

The schooner Lillian was driven ashore at the entrance to Rustico harbor, coal laden, for Rustico. The crew were saved. The schooner is a total loss.

CAUGHT IN A WRECK.

G. T. R. Workmen May Die as Result of Injuries.

Montreal, Nov. 3.—A serious collision occurred on the Grand Trunk near St. Bruno last night. Two construction trains crashed together and several of the men were caught in the wreck.

James Morrison of Deseronto, and Lorenzo Daneseau of Montreal were severely and probably fatally injured, having their legs cut off.

Angus Gillan Killed.

St. Thomas, Nov. 3.—Angus Gillan, formerly of the Dominion Express Co. at St. Thomas, met with sudden death in Detroit while driving J. P. Walker's automobile down Woodward avenue. Foreman Fatally Injured.

St. Thomas, Nov. 3.—Thomas Stone, foreman Pere Marquette repair gang, received probably fatal injuries yesterday morning. He, with a gang of men, was engaged in pulling one of the flat cars detached Thursday night, on the track. A rope attached to the car broke and a piece of casting to which it was attached struck Mr. Stone on the head. Killed by a Train.

Orillia, Nov. 3.—William Fenn, an old resident of Orillia, was killed in the Grand Trunk yards here. He was working on a siding, packing ties, when an engine pushing a box car backed down upon him. He fell under the car, and the body was carried about 200 feet before the car stopped. The man was dead when taken out. His face and body were horribly mangled.

Injured By Sewer Gas Explosion.

Brantford, Nov. 3.—Robert McNeill, a foreman over a gang of men engaged in sewer work, was seriously injured yesterday morning by an explosion of sewer gas. The man was descending into a manhole and lit his pipe before going down. The sewer gas instantly ignited. The result severely injured McNeill, scorching him badly on his face and arms. His clothes were almost completely burned. His condition is reported to be serious.

Wood Alcohol Kills.

The number of passengers and employees killed in train accidents was 194, as against 274 reported in the preceding three months. The total number of collisions and derailments was 3,102, of which 173 collisions and 153 derailments affected passenger trains. The damage to cars, engines and roadway by these accidents amounted to $2,373,924.

COLORED GOODS.

Maybe you've found it hard to bring your colored clothes out of the wash clean and bright, without fading or running or looking messy.

If you try "SURPRISE" soap you will see the difference in results. You know, "SURPRISE" is a pure soap, and there's nothing in it to hurt either the color or the fabric. And then no hard rubbing or boiling is necessary, so the colors don't get weakened and smudged.

The Alys Bateman-Parlovitz Concert, which appears at the Brisco tonight.

There is no hyperbole nor literary hysocry in asserting that the Bateman-Parlovitz concert in the Grand Opera House last night was, everything considered, the most exquisite, enjoyable and perfectly artistic concert presentation made in Peterborough in many years. It was in every way worthy of the largest possible patronage. Of course, Miss Alys Bateman, the great English soprano, was the central element of the program, and the triumph of finished and flawless vocalism she achieved was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by her hearers. To a voice of exquisitely beautiful, natural quality, clear, resonant, unalterably sweet and musical in every note of its wide range, are added perfection of method, an opulent warmth of sympathetic temperament, musicianly intelligence, and ease of execution, which leave nothing to be desired. Last night, on more than one occasion, she took high "c" with an effortless ease which brought no impairment of charming clarity of tone and melodious quality. At this altitude, her sustained tones were as even and smooth as the level flow of a crystal stream. Her singing of the valse song from Gounod's "Roméo and Juliette" was a musical canon, clear cut, and a type of perfect vocalism. Her success was instantaneous. She held her hearers spell-bound for the time, and was enthusiastically recalled, re-appearing with a dainty production of "Spring is Coming." Miss Bateman's second appearance in Arne's "The Lass with the Delicate Air," stamped her as a peerless soprano balladist, and Bishop's "Should He U-braid?" was another triumph, and another recall was richly rewarded with a beautiful morceau, "Lovers in the Lane." Ardit's sprightly "Il Bacio" was this is the highest praise—sung as only Miss Bateman sings it. Her singing was an unalloyed delight. With her fresh, sweet voice, and captivating singing, she has a graceful and alluring presence, and a personality of great charm. She was splendidly supported by the pianist-accompanist of the party, Mr. Edward Parlovitz, an artist who, in former appearances here, made himself a great favorite. He played last night quite up to his reputation. With his facile technique, broad tones, crisp diction and correct taste, he did splendid justice to his numbers, a Chopin polonaise, Liszt's "Love Dream"—deliciously dainty in treatment—Chopin's valse in A flat, and Rostropovich's Irish Rhapsody. He is not only a solo artist of premier rank, but an incomparable accompanist—an infrequent conjunction of artistic qualities. Miss Grace Merry, the eloquent artist of the party, is in her sphere, quite in keeping with her company. Her dialect—Irish and Scotch—selections were quite perfect, and her serious and mimetic numbers were skillfully read. Altogether, the "Edward Parlovitz Concert Party," starring Miss Alys Bateman, the English soprano, is at least, one of the best, if not the best, and altogether most satisfying musical organizations that has ever appeared in Peterborough. — From Peterborough Examiner, October 23, 1905.

ment is strenuous. There is a degree of novelty in the play and, all in all, it is one of the best melodramas that will be seen at the Brisco Opera House this season, Friday evening, Nov. 9th.

An elaborate revival of the best farcical comedy seen in this country in twenty years, "Charley's Aunt," with the jolly mirth inciter, Etienne Girardot, in his original role, will be the offering at the Brisco Opera House Saturday, Nov. 10th, and both the merry farce and jolly comedian will doubtless be received with shouts of approval and uproarious laughter, for both are big favorites everywhere, and Mr. Girardot's facilities for creating laughter are potent. The advance sale is very large and laugh-lovers will doubtless crowd the theatre during the engagement. An unusually strong company has been engaged to support Mr. Girardot, and the same artistic stage settings seen in the phenomenally successful revival in New York last spring will be used in the presentation here.
