SPEECHES WERE ENTHUSIASTIC

Grand Orange Celebration Was Marked By Splendid Orations

Prominent Speakers Give Their Views On The Aims Of The Orange Order

After the parade was over the crowd, which was one of the largest that has been in this city for some time, gathered around the grand stand in Tecumseh Park to listen to the thrilling and interesting speeches which were delivered.

The chairman, Hugh Gallagher, made several complimentary remarks as regards the enormous turnout of the men and ladies, and first called upon Mayor Stone for an address. The Mayor's address was one of welcome, and upon arising to the platform was greeted with three cheers. He extended a hearty welcome to everyone on behalf of the people of the city, and said that they were glad to have, and felt highly honored in having, such a noble body of men in the city. He spoke of the opportunity it afforded the people of Chatham to demonstrate their city's possibilities and progressive spirit which prevails among the citizens.

"We have the most up-to-date and most progressive city in Western Ontario, we have more paved streets, we have the largest carriage factory, the largest automobile works, the second largest wagon factory, the largest fanning mill works, and will shortly have the largest brass factory in Canada."

He complimented the committee and the association, saying they had done everything in their power to make the celebration a success. "It is the largest crowd of people that has been in the city for thirty years, and the Orangemen of this Order are to be congratulated," was Mayor Stone's concluding remark.

The next speech was delivered by Mr. E. T. Essary, W. G. M. of Ontario West, and was one of particular interest. He started out by saying that people wondered "who we were," "what we did," and "why we did it." Some said we were beggars, but no one dared to say that we ever raised a traitor to the King or Queen in an Orange lodge. We are the people who helped to build the Great Dominion, and when the Union Jack was in danger our men were at the front ready to fight or to die for the flag of the Empire to which we belong.

"It is the right," he continued, "of everyone to have equal protection under the law of our Empire. The worship of God according to the dictates of our own conscience, but the moment a child's religion is interfered with the Grand Master has only to blow his whistle and in 24 hours 250,000 drilled men with Orange colors will be in the field ready to face the foe and fight for our colors. Some object to our uniform, others say that our ribbons were too narrow, and our marching don't suit them, but none dare say, that in the hour of danger we were not in our place to protect our principles and stand by them. Political hacks don't like it, and it is said that the Premier once said that he thanked God that no Orangeman in the Liberal party ever occupied a seat in Parliament. The Premier was wrong when he said it, for at that time John McMillan, a Liberal of the old George Brown school, was sitting on the throne, and a member of the Grand Lodge, Duncan Munro, an honor to Canada, and a true Briton, was in the Liberal party."

"By the Gods Eternal," said the speaker, "whenever a party interferes or infringes on our religious principles we'll rip them up 'the back.' We ask no favors from anyone, and if we are left right alone we won't clash with any man's religion."

"We have marching with us today our brothers from the Indian reserve, and also their wives and children. We have also a splendid detachment from the great United States of America. We have been right loyally received in the Mile City and treated like kings. The decorations are fine, and when we come back, as we surely will, we will come a thousand times stronger than we are to-day."

Albert Tobias, from the Indian reserve, was next asked to make speech. He said he was very glad to be present and thankful to see that there were no lines drawn in preference to any race of people and was glad to know that everyone may become Orangemen. He said, "I am glad to be enrolled in an Orangemen, and especially pleased to notice that we have become more conscious that it is necessary to keep order and quietness in our celebration. We look back on history and see a vast difference. We are more enlightened now to the teachings and principles of the Constitution, and trust that we shall study them more closely in the future. If a man lives up to the principles of the Order he will be considered an honorable citizen."

NO CHANGE TO BE MADE IN KINDERGARTEN STAFFS

Deadlock In The Vote To Reduce Number Of Teachers At The Board Of Education Meeting—Members Talk Economy But Do Not Agree On Question Of How To Apply It

The members of the Board of Education came to a deadlock on the Kindergarten question at their meeting last night, and as a result of a most peculiar vote, the Kindergarten staff, for the present at least, will remain as it is. There was previously much talk of economy, and other reasons for reducing the staff, but apparently some of the members were not as sincere on the economy question as they were anxious that their own pet legislation should pass.

Chairman McArthur, to whose committee the matter was referred at a previous meeting of the Board, reported that the committee had discussed the question at some length, and had decided to reduce the Kindergarten staffs to one director and one assistant in each Kindergarten. This, the committee thought, would be a fair basis on which to make the reductions. Mr. McArthur, seconded by Mr. McCorvie, moved the action of the committee be ratified.

Mr. Brackin objected. He thought that the Kindergarten staffs should be reduced by three instead of two, reducing the Central School staff to three. He held that the same teachers who took the morning classes could also take the afternoon. He made a motion to this effect.

Mr. Somerville—How much of a reduction in salaries will the reduction recommended by the committee mean?

Mr. McArthur—If the committee's report is adopted, it will mean a saving of $600 per year.

Mr. Morley favored Mr. Brackin's scheme that the morning Kindergarten teachers should also take the afternoon classes.

Mr. McArthur could not agree to this. He said that the Kindergarten teacher's work was much different from the other teachers. They had to put in the afternoon preparing for the next day's work. In the best schools throughout the country there were two sets of teachers. "I would much prefer to see the Kindergarten staff left as it is," continued Mr. McArthur, "I believe that any reduction will cripple the usefulness of our Kindergartens."

Mr. Morley at this point arose and seconded Mr. Brackin's motion.

Dr. Duncan was of the opinion that the question was one which should not be viewed from a cold financial point alone. In his belief the Kindergarten is one of the most useful departments in the school. If the proposed legislation were passed, he feared that in a year or so Chatham would be unable to get any Kindergarten teachers. Kindergarten work, the doctor said, was really harder work than common school teaching. Any medical man could vouch for it that there is no work

NOTES FROM ERIEAU

Mrs. J. G. Kerr spent the day in town.

Dr. Battisby has returned to town for Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Dell, of Lansdowne avenue, returned to the city yesterday.

Mr. Walter Elliott, of the Standard Bank, called on Erieau friends yesterday.

Miss Daniela Foreman is the charming guest of Miss Muriel Hoig at Jubilee.

Mr. W. B. Haines, of Akron, Ohio, is at the Bungalow and is enjoying the fishing.

Mr. James Dick, of Akron, Ohio, is holidaying here, and is a guest at the Bungalow.

Another large spike has made its appearance about three inches above the north sidewalk.

Mrs. Hay is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. D. Smith, at Minnewanka cottage.

The Friday evening band concert was most successful and was attended by a large crowd.

The Misses Calmie and Rena Merritt are two very bright visitors at Mr. W. H. Bennett's.

Dr. J. L. and Mrs. Bray and Mrs. Douglas, of Toronto, were guests of Mrs. R. V. Bray yesterday.

Mr. W. Fellows' large gasoline launch the "Togo," is in excellent condition this season for excursion parties.

The pier on the west side of the channel that was damaged some time ago by the large coal boat, is being repaired.

Among the guests at the Bungalow is Mr. H. Didham, of Chagrin Falls, Ohio, who is enjoying a pleasant holiday.

Mr. R. J. Horton, of Chagrin Falls, Ohio, who is stopping at the Bungalow, is one of the most successful fishermen on the bar.

Little Miss Mildred Punchard has returned to Chatham after a two week's visit with her aunt, Mrs. R. V. Bray, at Centerville.

The steam barge "Mt. Clemens" came into port yesterday with a load of stone for the new pier, which is under construction at Government Park.

Don't smile if J. B. Stringer begins to tell you a good fish story to-day. It's true. Early this morning he caught a fine three-foot grass pike.

Mr. J. B. Stringer, Miss Stringer and Miss Etta McLachlan, of Seattle, Wash., are comfortably settled at the Bungalow. Miss McLachlan is quite well known here, having visited Chatham on former occasions.

A party of the cottagers from Government Park came over in Mr. Weir's new gasoline boat to enjoy the band concert. Among those on board were Mrs. Rees of Detroit, and Charlie Locke of Ridgeway.

Mrs. Douglas Stevens, of Winnipeg, who has been paying an extended visit to Chatham friends, spent Friday with her brother, Mr. E. B. Northwood. Mrs. Stevens was accompanied by her sister, Miss Bertha Northwood.

Mrs. Abram is unique in having a fruit garden at the rear of her cottage, which contains one young healthy apple tree about three feet tall, and a strawberry plant. The latter bears one beautiful cluster of berries as large as any on the Chatham market. Mrs. Abram takes much pride in showing this rare specimen to her many friends.

THE ESTIMATES FOR SCHOOLS

SERIOUS COLLISION

Serious Collision at the Mouth of St. Clair River.

Windsor, July 13.—A serious collision which was luckily attended by no loss of life occurred at the mouth of the St. Clair River at daybreak yesterday between the Tuscarora of the Lehigh Valley Line and the Maryland, a coarse package freighter.

Both vessels are of the latest steel type, and when they met head-on the crash could be heard for a long distance. The bow of the Tuscarora was cut wide open, leaving a gash through which the water poured, although her water-tight bulkhead kept the vessel from sinking immediately. The Maryland was badly smashed forward, as well as losing her steering gear and having one of her anchor's torn away. Within half an hour after the collision both boats were on the bottom of the river.

The causes leading up to the accident are not yet known, but the usual misunderstanding of signals is thought to have been responsible.

The Tuscarora was bound up with a cargo of merchandise, while the Maryland was en route to Cleveland. Tugs and lighters have gone to the wreck and will endeavor to save both boats, which can probably be done if the weather continues fine.

"WHITE WINGS"; THE NEW SONG

The Planet is in receipt of a beautiful song, "White Wings," composed by Mrs. Louise McQuillan, of Blenheim. "White Wings" are described in the song as being the sails of a yacht on the waters of Erieau, and the air is particularly appropriate. It has been introduced in New York and other musical centres by the charming favorite Geneva Lawrence. It has made a decided hit wherever it has been sung, and we predict a large sale of this popular sentimental ballad.

TILBURY

Tilbury, July 12.—Miss Mabel Richardson is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Arthur Williams, of St. Paul, Minn. W. K. Magee, of Detroit, is visiting his parents here.

Mrs. Sharp and daughter Helen have returned from a visit with friends at Delaware.

Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald, Young St., are visiting at the former's home in Brussels.

F. S. Malott has returned from a visit to Delmar, Ont. Mr. Malott will remain a couple of weeks longer visiting relatives at her old home.

Miss Ella Tinkley, of Detroit, is spending vacation with her mother in Tilbury East.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Ballard have returned from a few days' treatment at Mount Clemens, Mich., mineral baths.

Alex. Coult has returned from a trip to Cleveland.

The semi-annual installation of officers of Coronation Lodge, I. O. O. F., will take place on Friday evening of next week.

BLENHEIM

Blenheim, July 12.—The Blenheim friends of Messrs. Peter Haggart and Peter Coughlin are pleased that they did not get more than a severe shaking up in the wreck near Kenora which they unfortunately happened to be in.

Owing to the weather not being propitious the Methodists could not carry out the arrangements for their Sunday school picnic at the Government Park and were obliged to postpone it.

A great many of the citizens of Blenheim as well as the local L. O. L., went to Chatham to-day to be present at the Orange celebration being held there.

While Mr. Wm. Snow, of Blenheim, was driving past the "Big Mire" on Wednesday evening with a load of hay an automobile passed him, his horse took fright and ran away, upset the hay and threw him to the ground, hurting him so badly that he was unconscious when they picked him up. Mr. H. W. Edmonds took him to Dr. Haggart's office and then home. Although he had a severe shaking up there will be no serious results it is hoped. The last report is that he is feeling better.

Blenheim, July 13.—Mrs. John Crookshank was a Chatham visitor yesterday.

Mr. Charles Morris is visiting his brother at Erieau.

Quite a number from Blenheim attended the band concert at Erieau last night.

Mrs. W. H. Stephenson has returned from Erieau, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Samson at "Drumcrophy Lodge."

Mr. Wm. Snow, who was thrown from a load of hay last Wednesday, is able to be around on his ice wagon again.

Mr. and Mrs. Bensen and three children, of Chatham, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shillington, Blenheim.

Miss Belle Boush, who has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peters, Blenheim, leaves to-day for Chatham, where she will spend a week before returning to her home at Hamilton.

Owing to the heavy rain, which fell nearly all day on Thursday, the Methodists held their Sunday school picnic to Government Park yesterday. It was well attended and a good time reported.

The Orangemen made it quite lively with their bands in town yesterday when the train was about going out in the morning and again after it came in last evening for a while, otherwise Blenheim was very quiet all day.

SUMMER COMPLAINTS

At the first sign of illness during the hot weather give the little ones Baby's Own Tablets, or in a few hours the trouble may be beyond cure. Baby's Own Tablets is the best medicine in the world to prevent summer complaints if given occasionally to well children, and will as promptly cure these troubles if they come unexpectedly. But the prudent mother will not wait until trouble comes—she will keep her children well by an occasional dose of this medicine. The Tablets ought, therefore, to be kept in the house at all times. Mrs. Chas. Warren, Nevis, Sask., says: "My little boy was greatly troubled with his stomach and bowels, but a few doses of Baby's Own Tablets wrought a great change in him. I would not be without the Tablets in the house." Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

TAGGED FOR KINGSVILLE

Montreal, Quebec, July 12.—Arthur Horne, nine years old, has arrived here from England, consigned to an aunt in Kingsville, and bearing a label attached to his coat, reading "Arthur Horne, care of Mrs. Atkinson, Kingsville, Ont."

He is an orphan and was placed on board by friends at Liverpool. On board the boat he was looked after by the stewards, and since his arrival in Canada has been taken care of by the immigration officials. The boy is very small for his age, appearing about five or six years of age, but is a bright little fellow.

Subscribers who are leaving the city for their vacation will kindly notify us as soon as possible where they wish their papers sent, to avoid any break in the delivery.

A GREAT PILGRIMAGE

The Seventeenth Annual Pilgrimage from the Diocese of Kingston to the Shrine of St. Ann de Beupre, Quebec, will take place this year on the 23rd inst. The pilgrims can go by the C. P. R. or G. T. R. at specially reduced rates. For information see posters at all stations on both lines, or apply directly to Rev. J. P. Kehoe, Gannanque, Director of the Pilgrimage.

AN OLD TIMER

Capt. A. P. Atkins, formerly of Mitchell's Bay, and now residing with his son in Carson City, Mich., was in the city to join in the celebration on Friday. The captain was a resident of this county for forty years, and carried the first mail between this city and Mitchell's Bay. He is in his 89th year, and was discharged from the hospital in Memphis, Tenn., in '67, after the American War, and was then supposed to have contracted an illness that would have proved fatal. He says he never felt better, and is regularly drawing a pension from the American Government. Before returning he will visit friends in this vicinity.

FRUIT CROPS PROSPECT

Ottawa, July 12.—The Dominion fruit crop just reported gives the following is a summary:

June weather favorable on the whole.

Effects of May frost now apparent, but tree fruits have not suffered much, except plums and cherries.

Prospects for apples encouraging. Pear crop a medium to full yield. General outlook for plums hopeful, but Japan plums have deteriorated.

British Columbia and Prince Edward Island crops will suffer.

Cherries a fair crop. Sweet variety very light.

Grapes making good growth everywhere.

The lateness of the season has dislocated the small fruit trade most seriously. Reports indicate:

Raspberries—A very short crop.

Strawberries—General outlook a light crop.

Currents, especially red, yielding well where bushes were protected from worms. There is less risk in growing the current than any other of the small fruits.

Gooseberries—A medium to full crop.

Blackberries—A medium crop.

The late spring has very seriously reduced the aggregate of tomatoes. One correspondent reports the loss of 500,000 plants.

JAILED FOR DEBT.

At One Time the Law Was Severe on Those Who Owe Money.

In nearly every country until comparatively recent times debtors have been subject to imprisonment. After the panic of 1825 101,000 writs for debt were issued in England. In 1830 7,000 persons were sent to London prisons for debt, and on Jan. 1, 1840, 1,700 persons were held for debt in England and Wales, 1,000 in Ireland and less than 100 in Scotland. From time to time modifications in the laws governing the imprisonment of debtors have been made, so that fewer debtors are imprisoned for this crime each year.

In 1829 there were 3,000 debtors in prison in Massachusetts, 10,000 in New York, 7,000 in Pennsylvania, 3,000 in Maryland and a like proportion in other states. Many of these persons were jailed for debts of $1. The law providing for the imprisonment of men who could not pay their debts was shown to be impracticable by statistics taken from Philadelphia, where in 1828 there were 1,065 debtors imprisoned for debts amounting to $25,000. The expense of keeping these persons in confinement was $362,000, which was paid by the city, and the amount recovered by imprisonment for debt was abolished by congress in the United States in 1833, though this measure was not fully enforced until 1839.

WIFE OR CHILD, WHICH?

An Ingenious Problem With Two Interesting Equations.

Some time ago George was bragging about never having told a lie, and he said he never would. An Irishman, hearing the assertion, made a wager with George that he could make him tell a lie in two minutes.

So Pat began: "Supposing you and your little child and her friend were out in a boat for a row; the boat suddenly capsized, and you were all thrown into the water. Now, which child would you save?" asked Pat.

"Well," answered George, "under the circumstances I should save my own in preference to any one else's child."

"Very good," answered Pat. "Now, suppose you and your wife and child were out for a row and the boat again capsized. Now, which of them would you save, your wife or your child?"

After a thoughtful pause, George answered that he would save his wife.

"There you are," cried Pat. "You said at first that you would rather save your child in preference to any one else's, but now you say that you would save your wife, who is somebody else's child."

GOOD METHOD.

What your wife needs is more physical exercise. But, doctor, I can't induce her to go outside the house.

"Oh, yes you can. Mark all the bargain advertisements in the paper and give her $50."

LITERARY

July would be a good time to subscribe for the Women's Home Companion, as a new serial story, Helena's Path, by Anthony Hope, is commenced in this number. For the benefit of the lovers of fiction we might add, there are seven other stories.

In special articles we find A Suburban Cottage House for $3,700. The Progress of Women in the Last Fifty Years; Dishes for the Berry Season; When the Garden Looks Shabby; In the Land of Lads and Lassies.

Seven pages are devoted to fashions and fancy work.

The special departments are up to the usual standard, and there are several pages for juvenile readers.

Published by the Crowell Publishing Co., at $1.00 per annum, or 10 cents per copy.

CELEBRATION FOR 1908

The county of Essex having decided to celebrate the 12th of July, 1908, in the beautiful and progressive town of Leamington, the principal and largest town within the county, the Local Orange Lodge wish to extend an invitation, coupled with that of over 8,000 Leamington citizens, to the Lodges of the County of Kent, State of Michigan, and all members of the Local Orange Association who may wish to attend. All will be made welcome. Large and beautiful park on the lake front for programme, sports and other recreation. The citizens have promised liberal donations, as has also the Town Council, therefore good prizes will await well uniformed lodges, good food and drum bands, old Orangemen, etc. Be at Leamington on 12th of July, 1908, and see how well her good citizens can use a noble order like the Orange Association. Hotel accommodation will be ample for the thousands whom we feel sure will accept our invitation.

Strychnine in the Butte.

Kingston, July 12.—The family of George Lee, living near Yarker, had a narrow escape from death by strychnine poisoning. Mr. Lee had placed in the cellar a pound of butter, well dosed with strychnine, to kill rats. By mistake it was used on the table, and all the family were poisoned.

No Arbitration.

Madrid, July 12.—Premier Maura, in an interview yesterday said the advice received by the Spanish Government from The Hague indicates that it is practically certain that nothing interfering in the direction of arbitration would be accomplished by the peace conference.

The hot weather is now, well advanced and people are looking around to find the most desirable point to spend a holiday where they will derive the benefit of cool breezes as well as a change of air. W. E. Rispin, city passenger and ticket agent, has a number of cheap and short excursion tours to Muskoka Lakes, the famous Temagami country Georgian Bay or Mackinaw and Lake Superior, and a great many other summer places, and would be pleased to give intending tourists full information as to rates, routes, etc., and those desiring to enjoy a nice summer outing would do well to consult him.

Knights Templar Officers.

Saratoga, July 12.—The Knights Templar convocation concluded yesterday with the election of the following officers: Henry W. Rugge, Providence, grand master; William B. Motish, Cincinnati, deputy grand master; John A. Corou, Detroit, grand secretary; George M. Moulton, Chicago, trustee for nine years. The next triennial convocation will be held in Chicago in 1910.

THE PRISONS IN CHINA

Fearful State of the Criminals
Confined In Them.

ALL PRISONERS FETTERED.

Some From Cruelty Become In Appearance as Wild as Beasts of the Forest. Punishment, For Purposes of Extortion, That Kills Many.

The first thing which impresses the European visitor to the Chinese prison is the absolutely filthy character of the structure itself. If one gets permission to visit the prison in Canton, and shoals of globe trotters do wend their way thither after they have seen the execution ground, it will be found to be a ramshackle building of no pretense whatsoever.

The question will be asked, "By what means are the prisoners held in safety if the structures in which they are incarcerated are so filthy and insecure?" The answer, says the East of Asia Magazine, is brief. Without exception the prisoners are fettered. Many have chains on the legs only. These are the less dangerous and have been guilty of the less important crimes. Others, in addition, have fetters on the arms, which make it impossible for them to escape.

Lastly, a few prisoners were not only manacled on the ankles, but wore a chain around their necks, at the dangling end of which was attached a block of granite. The prisoner would walk from place to place within the courtyard, but ere he could move beyond the length of his chain he must stop and lift the stone and, carrying it in his shackled arms, drop it again where he wished to stop.

In addition to the chains worn by day, all the male prisoners are further shackled at night. By means of two heavy beams, in which holes have been made for the ankles of the prisoners, a rude but effective method is discovered for detaining the prisoners in absolute security.

The prisoners, who during the day have been loafing in the courtyard, are in the evening driven into the wards and made to lie side by side on a raised platform. The upper of the two beams is then raised, and each man is compelled to place his ankle in the hole made to receive it, whereupon the upper beam is replaced, and the prisoners are held by the feet in these rude stocks. There is no possibility of escape. They are allowed bricks for pillows, and in this uncomfortable position they pass the hours.

In addition to this, however, special cruelties are perpetrated on certain prisoners who, for some reason or other, are exempted from capital punishment. Prisoners there are whose appearance becomes as wild as the beasts of the forest; who, with heavy canes on their shoulders, are incarcerated in a filthy dungeon for the term of their natural lives. I have seen them moving to and fro like caged hyenas in their dens at a menagerie. Their appearance is revolting.

Night and day, as far as I remember, both asleep and awake, this heavy burden rested on their shoulders, though how it was possible to sleep therein I was unable to understand. On the other hand, in a prison I visited a few weeks ago I was informed that the canes were removed at nights that the prisoners might sleep. A crowd in the prison quadrangle, with their unshaven heads, their unwashed faces, their clanking fetters, their hopeless looks, their diseased bodies and their debilitated souls, can never be forgotten.

But, although under the recognized system of punishment Chinese prisoners must live a life which to us of the west would be unbearable, it would not be so to them if they were fairly treated and were saved from the excruciations and barbarities to which they are exposed at the hands of their rapacious keepers.

When a prisoner first goes into the wards the warders claim his clothes and his money, and he is left with the barest rags to cover his nakedness. He is robbed of all his cash, as a matter of course. Those who are condemned are compelled, under a threat of the whip, to write begging letters to their relatives requesting them to forward money.

If the unfortunate man hesitates to accede to this demand, the warders, assisted by some of the oldest prisoners—for it appears that inmates of more than twenty years' residence have accorded them certain privileges—take the man in hand during the night. The hands of the prisoners are fastened by a rope, and the other end of the rope is then passed through a ring which hangs from the roof of the ward.

The warders then hoist the unhappy wretch, who is left hanging in midair by the hands. Should he attempt to cry out his mouth and throat are filled with ashes. When the breath has almost left his body and he is choking he is lowered, and under the terror of renewal of this torture he is eager to promise almost anything.

Many die under this ordeal. But as it is assumed among the mandarins that mortality must be high and as no official probing is ever dreamed of a general statement as to natural death is sufficient.

The Cashless Engagement.
"I hope you won't insist upon a long engagement, dearest," he said tenderly.
"No, sweetheart, I won't. You have not money enough to make one enjoyable," she answered practically.

The charity that hastens to proclaim its good deeds ceases to be charity and is only pride and ostentation.—Hutton.

PACK YOUR OWN TRUNK.

An Amusing Experience With a Customs House Official.

"I never will let any one else pack my trunks for me again," said the girl who had just recovered from her ordeal with the customs house officers and was eating her first luncheon on land for seven days. "You see, we left London a week earlier than we expected to, and although I managed to half pack the trunk that was to go in the hold, my cousin finished it and put every blessed thing into my steamer trunk. It seemed quite a charming plan at the time, and I was only too glad to have a few last looks at some pictures and a few last cups of tea with the charming English friends I had made; but, oh, how changed my ideas on the subject were by the second day out! I had pulled my jolly round cape from the trunk, gone on deck, and immediately up came my brother with two English friends of his, men I had never before met and whom I at once thought most impressive.

"Well, just as my spirits were rising and my heart and tongue were going faster every minute my brother advised me with the usual brotherly practicality to put on my cape. I held it out to one of the men. He took it, gave it a shake, then a little fling, and out of the hood fell two pairs of stockings and a bath sponge. I can't speak of it now with any real calm. Of course the men chased the silly blown things, and of course my brother looked—he had the decency not to say it—as though no one but a sister would ever have allowed such an awkward thing to happen, and of course I stood there getting more scarlet every minute and murmuring such brilliant remarks as 'Oh, never mind; they're nothing really.' And as a last straw the maddening things didn't even have the sense to go overboard. I mean the stockings and the sponge—of course not the men. They were just handed back to me, and I accepted them—no, not the men this time either; the stockings, you know."

VERANDA COMFORTS.

Novel and Luxurious Hammocks
For Warm Days to Come.

SOME LIKE INDIAN CANOES.

Equal to a Bed in Comfort—Having an Elastic Cushion Supported by Laced Webbing—Pillows Filled With Cotton Felt to Match Hammock.

"What's new in up to date hammocks?" I asked the makers of the finest hammocks in the land.

They showed me a sample. It was something like an Indian canoe, white, though with dainty criss cross work along either side. There were the cushion and footrest—everything but the trees or the piazza on which to swing it.

"You remember the old style double up hammock," he remarked, "that gave one aches instead of rest? Then, didn't you, like the rest of us, wish for a hammock in which you might lie out straight on a soft, elastic cushion? There you are! Even the cushion has creature comforts. It is supported by a laced webbing of exceptional elasticity, creating the most comfortable bed hammock ever devised. Then, too, it has exceptional beauty and is very ornamental. There is, in addition, a canvas and corded bottom, so that any stretching can be taken up."

The manufacturer hailed from Michigan, where people preferred their hammocks on their porches. Consequently it didn't take the wisdom of a Solomon to guess that the next thing he'd show would be porch hammocks.

"Now, then, here's a beauty for porch use. It occupies only the length of itself—I didn't suppose it could do more—six feet two inches long, thirty inches wide. None of the ungainly ends of the old styles, which take up more room than the part you use."

He paused for a moment.

"For a little higher price, say up to $20, there are hammocks from the finest grade of green denim—both the casings and cushions, that is. The casings are double thickness and four ply at the corners. The ends of these hammocks form a most comfortable back rest, against which sofa pillows can be arranged with artistic effect. Four persons can sit comfortably at one time, leaning against the ends. A lady, too, may pose in most charming attitude in these hammocks. There are pillows to match the hammock at $2 apiece—and the whole hammock for $20."

But he had not finished. There were hammocks warranted to outwear ten of the ordinary hammocks—good, in fact, for a lifetime. There were cushions filled with layer cotton felt, so that they could not get lumpy, hard or misshapen. All were thoroughly tufted, most of them decidedly handsome. The higher priced ones, we learned, were filled with curled hair.

Turning to Buttermilk Drinking. Food is bound to be a topic for discussion when women get together. It is said. They talk of the favorite dishes and drinks of each; of the merits and demerits of various restaurants and so on. They boast of their knowledge of the art of cooking and of their joy in eating. So it must be a dreadful blow to housekeepers to hear they must feed their families on buttermilk if they wish to be fashionable. The Roosevelt have taken up the idea. In the White House, frapped buttermilk with tiny cubes of pineapple, bits of orange and berries is served. Out at Friendship, the summer home of John R. McLean, the president, on a ride, stops at the farmhouse for a glass of buttermilk. Frozen buttermilk, long appreciated by the epicures of New Orleans, has been introduced in the north. It is sweetened only slightly and the tart flavor is not lost.

A Simple Bib.
Attractive bibs for the baby may be easily and quickly made from heavy white linen or pique, finished with a buttonhole edge and worked with a simple design in eyelet embroidery.

A pretty scallop may be drawn by using the edge of a small spool of cotton, about No. 100, for a guide. It may either be plain, traced both on under and outer edge, or the latter can be subdivided into three tiny scallops to make a slightly more elaborate edge. Pad this with darning cotton and buttonhole in a fine mercerized cotton.

The tourist's season is now on and we are advised by W. E. Risplan, general passenger and ticket agent, that he has some especially attractive tours for the present summer season, reading to all the summer resorts of Canada, including Muskoka Lakes, the Temagami District, Georgian Bay, Lake Superior, River St. Lawrence, and Gulf and Atlantic Coast points, and would be very pleased to furnish information to any intending passengers.

SUNSHINE FURNACE

The Sunshine way of placing coal in the furnace.

THE LARGE DOUBLE FEED DOORS

on the Sunshine furnace provide an opening deep and wide enough to admit great rough chunks of wood that would either have to be wasted, or chopped up for an ordinary furnace.

As for putting coal in the Sunshine, why, it's the easiest thing imaginable!

Such a generous opening would be next to impossible to miss. And you can easily deposit the coal in any spot you desire.

After you have experimented with small feed doors, and hit the edge of the door frame a few times, you will recognize more completely the ease and advantage of the Sunshine method. The illustrations hint at the difference.

If you will examine the fire-pot of the Sunshine you will notice that the sides are straight up and down.

On many furnaces the fire-pots slope, forming a rest on which the ashes accumulate.

As ashes are non-conductors of heat they prevent the fire-pot from radiating as much heat as it should; they clog up the draft and deaden the fire.

But the Sunshine fire-pot is a wonderful radiator of heat. No ashes can cling to the straight, sheer sides of its fire-pot. The live, red-hot coals are always snug up to them. There is nothing to prevent the radiation of every unit of heat produced by the fuel.

The Sunshine is the most scientifically and perfectly constructed furnace. It radiates most heat with less consumption of fuel.

It is the easiest-managed, cleanest, greatest labor and fuel economizer you can buy.

If your local dealer does not handle the Sunshine, write direct to us for Free Booklet.

UNIVERSITY APPOINTMENTS.

Dr. A. G. Huntsman Chosen as Biological Instructor.

Toronto, July 12.—At a meeting of the board of governors of the University of Toronto yesterday afternoon, Graham Campbell, son of A. H. Campbell, Toronto, was appointed superintendent of buildings and grounds. Mr. Campbell is a graduate of the university. There were over 80 applicants for the position.

Dr. A. G. Huntsman was appointed instructor in biology for the next session.

It was announced that Keith Graham Felling, B.A., fellow of All Souls' College, Oxford, had accepted appointment as lecturer in the department of modern history for one year. Mr. Felling made an unusually brilliant record at Oxford.

HELPS MEN TO WORK HARD.

That's what Ferrozone does; it supplies the additional strength that enables a man to maintain health under difficulties. "Last spring I was so completely fagged out that I could not work," writes J. W. McNicol, of Turnbull, Man. "In the morning I was tired—limbs ached all over. Had no appetite, was sleepless, nervous and unhappy. Ferrozone put new life into me. Now I eat heartily, nerves are strong, I sleep well. I know the joy of real health." It's by supplying nourishment and good blood that Ferrozone builds up; try it—50c. per box at all dealers.

BINDER TWINE SHIPMENT.

Biggest Consignment Ever Sold Goes Westward.

Kingsport, July 12.—The largest shipment of binder twine ever sent out from any factory in Ontario was loaded on the steamer Advance yesterday, to be taken westward. The consignment consists of eight carloads, the output of the penitentiary plant. The twine goes to the Farmers' Association in Alberta. The prices paid are: For 550 feet, mixed, 10c per lb.; 600 feet, mixed, 11c per lb.; 600 feet, pure, 11-12c. Seventeen carloads are carried westward by the steamers Ames, Nevada and Advance.

A GAME OF POKER.

It Was an Object Lesson on Playing Cards With Strangers.

A card sharp well known to the stewards of the great ocean liners was a passenger on a recent trip across. He received a line at Queenstown, which had the effect of keeping him out of the large games in the smoking room. He contented himself with peniculate and bridge at 25 cents a hundred points. On the evening before landing one of his bridge party, none of whom knew that he was a professional with a bad record, proposed changing the game to poker. "It's bad practice," said the card sharp, "to play poker with strangers. There's too much risk, but it's all right in this case." The others said there was no risk if a man had good sense and kept his eyes open. The deal fell to the professional, and when cards had been drawn by each man he said: "Now I'll show you how much you know. Mr. A, you have the winning hand. Mr. B, your three queens look good, but what show have they against Mr. C's four aces? And what good are they against A's four kings? Does it tally?"

It did, and A said, "Well, it's my pot."

"I was afraid that might happen, so I dealt myself a straight flush." He showed it, arose from his chair and said: "Give the steward what I put in. This was an object lesson—don't play poker with strangers."

The Habit of Daintiness.

It is surprising how many young business girls there are who give very little attention to their personal appearances. If a girl has long hours or other duties in the evenings, she can still keep herself and her clothes neat and tidy by giving fifteen minutes to the process every night regularly.

Take the stitch in time. Look over the hem of your skirt and see to the tiny rip in your glove before it reaches the stage where it cannot be mended.

A few drops of ammonia added to a bowl of soapsuds and a good whisk broom will work wonders with the skirt that has grown dingy and gray from dust. Take fifteen minutes a night for any of the little things that will tend to better your appearance, and you may be sure you will be gratified with the result at the week's end.

Daintiness and cleanliness are things within the reach of all.

Diplomacy consists largely in not giving advice unless you know exactly the kind that is wanted.

RAISING THE FLAG.

Within the past few weeks two formal flag raisings have taken place at two of the foremost Public schools in East Kent, and it is confidently hoped that many more will follow now the Ontario Government has decided to present each school in the Province with a Union Jack. We have witnessed few more hopeful or inspiring sights than the raising of the flag in the presence of the pupils, trustees and parents of the two sections referred to, Palmyra and No. 2 Harwich, says P. H. Bowyer, M. P., P., in his paper, the Ridgeway Dominion. The ceremonial observed was simple but it was all the more impressive for that. Patriotic songs by the children, and brief, appropriate addresses by a few speakers comprised the program, but the lesson imparted will remain with the children throughout their lives.

There have been flag raisings in other parts of the Province, and the Dundas Banner asks, "What does it all mean or is it but a meaningless formality?" and thus continues to answer:

"It means that in these momentous days there are many who love their country and wish their children to love it too. The flag exalted means that we delight to dwell under it as the banner of the young country's fondest hopes. It means that Great Britain beyond the seas is as loyal as Great Britain at home. It means that the Union Jack is composed of the best elements of English, Scotch and Irish citizenship, as represented in the flags of St. George, St. Andrew's and St. Patrick, blending together in happy combination, and that in Canada we desire to perpetuate this relationship in an enduring covenant of blissful harmony."

"The flag speaks to us of the stability of monarchy, where the best traditions of the throne are concerned, and of a democracy where the freedom of self-government is most delightfully exemplified. The flag speaks of conflict, and of victory with consequent extension of territory, of power, and of prestige, but more powerfully does it speak of conquest by gracious sympathy, and the cultivation of the humanitarian forces, which convert cruel enemies into happy and willing subjects, who can forget the animosities of other days in the presence of a new relationship of peace with honor. In a very special sense the flag speaks to us of our King who reigns in the splendor of almost absolute power, not by honoring traditions that enslave, but by the power of cultivated discretion and whole-hearted sympathy with his subjects in every part of his almost unlimited domains. It speaks of him as the most potent factor in the councils of the nations for the world's peace and for the conquests of advancing civilization. May the sentiment arising in loyal choruses, in every city, town and village, over every broad acre, in every school section, by more than thirty different tongues, from ocean unto ocean, sung loud and long, and clear, be God Save Our King and bless our Canada more and more!"

General elections for both the Commons and the Legislature may still be far distant. Nevertheless few constituencies will be found unprepared, as candidates are being nominated daily, and county organizations are making every preparation for the events. According to Mr. Tarte a contest in the Dominion may be announced any moment, and from present appearances Laurier will have his hands full in Quebec with Bourassa and Lavergne organizing fifteen or twenty solid Liberal ridings in the interests of the Nationalists, or in other words, the French Independent party.

A HUGE STEAL.

At the Conservative convention in Sarnia the other day Mr. W. H. Bennett, M. P., made a stirring and convincing address. In reply to Mr. Aylesworth's statement that the North Atlantic Company was legitimate, Mr. Bennett pointedly asked why it had been dissolved under a cloud, instead of at present continuing its legitimate business. Mr. Bennett asked:

"If the secrecy of which the Conservatives complained was an ordinary matter of business policy, why were the people informed that a further probing of the matter would be followed by suicide and other terrible visitations? The plain truth was that the North Atlantic Trading Company was a huge and costly device for taking money from the public treasury, and incidentally colonizing parts of the Northwest with foreigners who could be voted in droves."

A nice ethical point has been raised in connection with a Chicago hold-up, which promises to rival the question, How old was Ann? A daylight robber entered the office of a large industrial firm in Chicago and took what he wanted at the point of a pistol. One of the firm questioned him as to why he was a criminal instead of earning an honest living. The young man said that he could not get work and was therefore driven to crime. He was told that if he put down his pistol he could have immediate employment with the firm. Acting on this promise he put down his pistol and was immediately overpowered and handed over to the police. The question is whether the action of the manufacturer was right or wrong, bearing in mind that it would have been an offence on his part to compound a felony.

HE CARETH FOR YOU.

Know you how many notes
Float in the passing breeze?
Know you how many birds
Sing in the shady trees?
Know you how many leaves
Whirl in the winds that blow?
Know you how many flakes
Fall in the downy snow?
Know you how many drops
The heavens downward pour?
Know you how many waves
Beat on the ocean shore?
Know you how many souls
Roll in the boundless sky?
Know you how many souls
Aspiring soar on high?
God knows them all, and marks
The course of every one,
The plan of each man's thought
As of the stars and sun.
Then can you doubt the care
Of Him who reigns above?
He numbers every hair
Of those who trust His love.

He never turns away
His eyes from world or soul,
However vast His works,
He careth for the whole.
—Epher Whitaker.

Objections to Prize Court.
The Hague, July 12.—A discussion of the Anglo-German proposition regarding the establishment of a proposed international prize court yesterday, developed considerable opposition.

Stolen Portrait Returned.
Berlin, July 12.—The portrait of Emperor Nicholas of Russia, which was mysteriously stolen from the National Gallery of this city, has been returned to the gallery by mail.

STEEL KNIFE IN THE FLESH.
That's the sensation experienced by Robert Price, of Hecaton, Ont. He knew it was scolding and of course used "Nerviline." As usual, it cured and he says, "No Nerve, no excol. Poison's Nerviline. Severe pains made my side lame. It was like a steel knife running through the flesh. I rubbed in lots of Nerviline, and was completely cured." A regular snap for Nerviline to ease Sciatica and rheumatism. It sinks into the core of the pain, cures it in short order. Large 25c. bottles at all dealers.

Says He Shot His Wife.
Frederick, July 12.—Thomas David, Assyrion, was arraigned in the Police Court here yesterday on a charge of murdering his wife, and remanded to jail until Monday next to await report of coroner's inquest. When the charge was read over and interpreted to him he admitted having shot his wife. He told the court that he had no money with which to employ counsel.

FROM PLANET FILES OF HALF A CENTURY AGO

From The Planet files from Nov. 28, 1867, to Dec. 5, 1867.

In compliance with the recommendation of the Moderator of the Synod of the Canada Presbyterian church, last Thursday was observed as a thanksgiving day by the members of that body of this city. Divine services were held in the Rev. Wm. Walker's and Rev. Mr. McColl's churches.

Charles Dickens arrived safely at Boston on the 19th inst. by the Cunard steamship Cuba, and was received by his agent, Mr. Dolby, and many literary celebrities. His readings will be commenced in Boston immediately, all the tickets for the course having been already disposed of.

There lives at Whiting Bay, Island of Arran, a centenarian, who was a companion of Robert Burns. His name is Ebenezer Bullard, and he is a native of Dalrymple, near Ayr. He was born May 7th, 1767, thus making him a 105 years old.

Two women have been sent to prison for a month by a Manchester magistrate for telling fortunes.

A malt whiskey distillery has been discovered and seized in a cedar swamp in the Township of Kitley.

A few days ago a young man named Lloyd, of York County, stole from his father $210 in money and mortgages to the value of $1,400 and ran away.

A lad of 15 years of age has been arrested for sacrilege in robbing two sacred vases from the church at Kymarouska.

In consequence of the remarkable fine weather of the present fall, clover daisies and butter cups may be seen growing in some spots in South Quebec.

A few weeks ago a man of the name of Anthony Ford was deliberately shot near Owen Sound, and Mr. S. A. Jones, a farmer of that neighborhood, is in custody on suspicion, the verdict of the coroner's jury implying that Jones had conspired and procured the perpetrator to commit the murder. Jealousy on the part of Jones in respect of his wife and Ford is attributed as the cause of the sad affair.

Charles Dickens will deliver a lecture before the York Press Club on the "Life of a Reporter."

Household Hints For Women

COOKIES WITHOUT EGGS.

Cream a half cup of butter with a cup of sugar, add one cup of sweet milk, a teaspoonful of vanilla and a scant teaspoonful of baking soda dissolved in a little boiling water. Work in enough flour to make a soft dough. Drop from a teaspoon on buttered tins, and bake to a good brown.

GRAPE FRUIT SHERBERT.

Boil one quart of water and one pint of sugar twenty minutes; let cool, then add one pint of grapefruit juice and the juice of one lemon. Two medium-sized grapefruits will supply a pint of juice. Freeze as usual. Serve in glasses, sprinkling the top with cherries chopped fine.

COCOA MACAROONS.

Pass through a sieve together one cup of sifted flour, half a cup of granulated sugar, two level tablespoons of cocoa, half a teaspoonful of baking powder, one-fourth a teaspoonful each of salt and cinnamon, and one-eighth a teaspoonful of orange and one-fourth a cup of fine-chopped citron. Break one egg and the yolk or white of another into the mixture, add also a teaspoonful of vanilla extract and mix the whole to a stiff dough. With buttered hands roll the mixture into balls about the size of hickory nuts, dip one side in granulated sugar and set some distance apart in buttered pans, the sugared side up. Bake in a quick oven. The recipe makes eighteen macaroons.

ONIONS.

Are at their best estate in the "rich midsummer prime." In winter they are pebbles. Useful they may be, and they may be rendered almost delicate by cooking in two waters and then treated to a final boil in milk. In summer a parboil of ten minutes in slightly salted water and a second ten minutes in half milk, half water converts them into patricians.

STUFFED ONIONS.

Arrange six or eight large Bermuda onions peeled and washed, in a bake dish, cover with boiling water slightly salted and cook for half an hour, or until a wire will pierce them easily. Transfer the dish to a table, turn off all the water, and with a sharp thin blade, extract the hearts of the onions without breaking the outer walls. Fill the cavity with a forcemeat of minced cold chicken and fine crumbs, seasoned with pepper and salt and moistened with melted butter. It should be very soft. Strew buttered crumbs over the top, pour a rich white sauce in the dish until it almost touches

Four thousand five hundred and fifty-four persons have been sentenced to death in England in 33 years—only 688 for murder.

A melancholy and fatal accident occurred in the Township of Dover on Friday last, whereby an interesting little girl of about three years of age, the daughter of a farmer in that Township named Snook, was burnt to death. The accident was attended by the most heart rending circumstances. It appears that the parents were in Chatham on business and left the child with a neighbor woman. At noon the neighbor lady went out to gather chips, and left the child playing in the house, when in a short time she heard shrieks from the house she met the child in the door, her clothes all in a blaze. To tear the clothes off the child was the work of a moment, but too late to avert fatal consequences, as the child was already badly burned about the legs and abdomen. Everything was done to save her life by the distracted parents and neighbors, but without effect, and after lingering in excruciating agony until Saturday morning, death relieved her of her pain.

James King, residing on the Middle Road, Raleigh Township, met with a serious accident last evening as he was returning from Tilbury. The night was very dark and Mr. King had difficulty in making his way. As he proceeded out at a slow pace his horse took fright at some object on the road and, becoming unmanageable, ran away. Mr. King at last was thrown out of his wagon against the fence, by which he was cut severely about the face and head. Dr. Bray was immediately called, and dressed the wound.

Six hours was all the time a Nevada man found necessary to get drunk, kill a friend, and be hanged to a convenient tree.

A disastrous fire broke out in the grocery store of J. Henderson on King street Friday night, in which a very heavy loss was the result. People who sustained heavy losses were: D. Smith, grocery loss, $2,000; W. Payne, grocery loss, $1,500; H. and M. Lamont, dry goods loss, $7,000; N. Hawkins, grocery loss, $1,500; L. Blackburn, grocery loss, $900 and several other merchants received minor losses.

CANADIANS AT BISLEY

Small Score Put Them Out of Mackinnon Cup Contest.

Showing of Our Men at First Two Ranges of Big Bisley Feature Is Not Promising—Totals In the Association Cup Not Up to Standard—Australians Will Return Home With the Canadians.

Bisley, July 12.—(C.A.P.)—The Australian team of eight men have arranged to return home by way of Canada.

In the "Armourers' Company" seven shots at 900 yards, Capt. Tom Mitchell of the 13th York Rangers yesterday morning made 32 of a possible 35. In the same match, Staff-Sergt. Graham of the 48th Highlanders also scored 32. Last year there were 17 32s, the first taking 9th prize of £1 10s.

In the "Association Cup, S.E.," Pte. George Milligan of the 48th, Toronto, scored 32 out of 35 at 200 yards, and 34 out of a possible 35 at 600 yards, giving him a total of 66 over two ranges. Last year the first prize was won with a score of 63, though four times since its origin, in 1884, these took the 21st prize of £3. The match has twice been won by Canadians; by Pte. Heaven in 1893, score 69, and by Staff-Sergt. Bayles in 1903, with a possible.

In the "Kynoch," seven shots at 1,000 yards, Capt. Tom Mitchell scored 30 out of a possible 35. The first prize in this match is a man's bicycle, and the second a woman's bicycle. It is an unlimited entries competition, so Capt. Mitchell will be able to have another try for a better score. Last year the winning score was 33, and 30 took the 14th prize of £1.

Compl. F. B. Fisher, Victoria, B.C., scored 33 and 32 at the two ranges of the "Association Cup, S.E." Shooting for the Mackinnon Cup today, the Canadians scored at the 800 yards range thus: Sergt.-Major Caven, Victoria, 41; Sergt. Carr, Victoria, 43; Staff-Sergt. Graham, Toronto, 40; Staff-Sergt. Kerr, Toronto, 45; Capt. McHarg, Vancouver, 43; Lieut. McVittie, Toronto, 38; Pte. Milligan, Toronto, 35; Pte. Mitchell, Toronto, 47; Capt. Mitchell, Winnipeg, 45; Col.-Sergt. Moscor, Vancouver, 43; Sergt. Morris, Bowmanville, 47; Pte. Smith, Ottawa, 45. The totals were: Canada 623, Australia 516, England 534, Ireland 509, Scotland 540. At the 300 yards range the scores were: Caven 41, Carr 40, Graham 41, Kerr 32, McHarg 45, Mitchell 36; Milligan 45, Mitchell 40, Mitchell 36, Moscor 32, Morris 45, Smith 37. The total scores at the 300 yards range were: Canada 470, Australia 508, England 513, Ireland 472, Scotland 489. The result at the end of the second stage was: England 1,047, Scotland 1,038, Australia 1,024, Canada 992, Ireland 981.

LOGIE AT LINDSAY.

Curious Crowd Awaited Arrival of Alleged Counterfeiter.

Lindsay, July 12.—Robert Logie, charged with being a confederate of Charles Burke and others in the making of counterfeit money, arrived at 10.15 last night in charge of Government Detectives Rogers and Parkinson. There was a crowd of 300 people at the station, although the train was an hour late. Logie was taken immediately to the jail in a hack. On the way up from Toronto, where he was arrested Logie smoked incessantly. He had little to say and did not mention the crime with which he is charged.

Coal For U.S. Fleet?

London, July 12.—The American Government has placed large orders for Welsh steam coal in this country, according to a news agency report. It is said that the coal will be despatched in specially chartered steamers to the Philippine Islands and certain rendezvous on the west coast of South America.

Has Nothing to Report.

London, July 12.—(C.A.P.)—In the House of Commons Sir Edward Grey stated he had nothing yet to report regarding negotiations with the United States on the Newfoundland fisheries. Nearly three hundred Barnardo boys left London for Canada.

Got Seven Years.

Napanee, July 12.—Clinton A. Jenkins was sentenced to seven years in Kingston Penitentiary yesterday by Police Magistrate Rankin for a serious offence. Jenkins is over sixty years of age.

To Re-Occupy Esquimaux.

Victoria, B.C., July 12.—It is reported here that Great Britain is to re-establish Esquimaux as a naval station, maintaining a big fleet there.

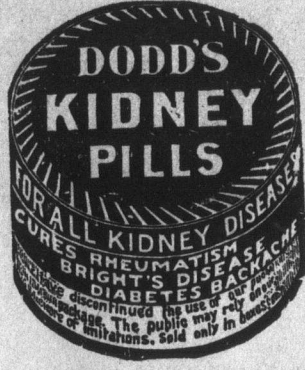

Not Always.

"Remember, my boy," said Uncle James as he gave Bobby a coin, "that if you take care of the pennies the shillings will take care of themselves." Bobby looked a trifle dubious. "I do take care of the pennies," he replied, "but as soon as they get to be shillings pa takes care of 'em."—London Tit-Bits.

Sheridan's Double Marriage.

It was in 1857 that the Gretna Green marriages were made illegal. A glance at its registers may yet inspire the novelist of the future. One entry will be sure to puzzle. Twice within a few days occurs the record of the marriage of Richard Brinsley Sheridan to Miss Grant. There was only one R. B. S., only one bride for the same gentleman. The double entries are not the result of any blunder on the part of the Rev. Mr. Vulcan. The parties were really twice married at Gretna Green. Arriving on a Sunday they were duly wedded, and sped away to Edinburgh. There, however, Sheridan chanced to appear at a newspaper in which appeared the incubations of a lawyer. In those plainly stated was the fact that no contract executed on a Sunday is binding. Clearly, then, their wedding was not legal. Back to Gretna Green they scurried, to be remarried on a week day and leave the dual record to perplex later generations of sympathetic searchers of the records.—St. James' Gazette.

EDUCATIONALS IN SESSION.

Caustic Criticism of Condition of Rural School.

Toronto, July 12.—At the Dominion Educational Association, in convocation hall, the speakers were Principal Robertson of Macdonald College, St. Anne de Bellevue and Rev. J. A. Macdonald. Principal Robertson of Macdonald College, Guelph, delivered a strong address on "The Training for Rural Schools." He dealt with education as the development of life. Life was the motto. The school system was so totally inadequate for rural sections. There were special problems in Canada to be met—problems due to our youth; problems due to our size; problems due to our wealth; for Canada is a wealthy country; problems due to the foreign immigrants being poured into our citizenship—new blood and ideals. The duty of the people to the rural youth was to increase the body of education and to make the availability by education easier.

Principal Robertson touched on the disgraceful manner in which rural schools were kept. The outbuildings were fearful and should be remedied. Deputy Minister of Education, A. H. N. Colquhoun in a speech advised changing the name of the university to "Ontario" instead of Toronto, and urged that the chairs be kept free from politics.

High Standards.

The high standard of workmanship demanded by the makers of the New Scale Williams Plans has attracted to them the very best of skilled labor. Every workman in their large factory at Oshawa is an artist in his particular line, and the pride they all take in the product of their united labor "The New Williams" is one of its best guarantees of excellence.

Does The Luscious Strawberry Produce Headaches And Irritability?

A London cable despatch says:—Hygienists who delight in raising alarms against popular foods are now tilting against strawberries. These are accused of having a bad effect upon the tempers of their eaters, who, it is alleged, become sulky and irritable after eating them. A hygienist is quoted as saying that ladies are particularly susceptible in this respect. Some of them will eat a pound or more of strawberries at a time, and then become so morose that people are glad to avoid them. The fact is, they are physically ill without knowing it. They are suffering from the strawberry disease, the symptoms of which are slight dizziness, a desire to be alone, and intolerance of being questioned. The strawberries which have the worst effect are the large ones. The small kinds are usually harmless. The trouble is ascribed to the strawberry acids. Indeed, the fruit is more wholesome without cream or sugar, and nobody should eat more than a dozen at a time. Eustace Miles, the tennis player, as a vegetarian dietist, confirms the danger to some persons from strawberries. He says they contain three acids, phosphoric, sulphuric and silicic. He believes that the last named causes the trouble. In addition to irritability the sufferers have strawberry rash and strawberry headache.

BRING HIM ALONG.

If I lend you the money, how do I know that I shall ever see it again? Is the word of an honest man worth anything? Certainly—bring him along.

THY NEIGHBOR.
Who is thy neighbor? He whom thou
Hast power to aid or bless;
Whose aching head or burning brow
Thy soothing hand may ease.
Thy neighbor? 'Tis the fainting poor,
Whose eye with want is dim;
O enter thro' his humble door,
With aid and peace for him.
Thy neighbor? He who drinks the cup,
When sorrow drowns the brim;
With words of high sustaining hope,
Go thou and comfort him.
Thy neighbor? Pass no mourner by;
Perhaps thou canst redeem.
A breaking heart from misery;
Go, share thy lot with him.

What Ails You?
Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, and you need Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing remedy for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Barlow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensary; Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Honorary Degree on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authors and many others endorsing. In the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if bowels are much constipated. They're tiny and sugar-coated.

Christian Endeavor Officers.
Seattle, Wash., July 12.—Dr. Francis E. Clark of Boston, was unanimously re-elected president of the United States Society of Christian Endeavor.

Other officers elected were: Hiram T. Lathrop of Boston, treasurer; George B. Graft of Boston, clerk of the corporation, and Fred H. Kidder of Boston, auditor, a position newly created.

Two-Cent Fare.
Des Moines, Iowa, July 12.—Judge McPherson of the federal court yesterday denied the application of two stockholders of the Iowa Central and the Minneapolis and St. Louis for an order restraining the directors of the roads from putting into effect the two-cent passenger rate enacted by the Iowa Legislature.

Crow's Nest Coal Control.
Vancouver, B.C., July 12.—According to Spokane despatches, President Graves of the Inland Empire Railway system will by recent purchase of additional stock now have control of the coke supply for Granby smelters and steam coal for Spokane. Graves will neither confirm nor deny the story.

Six Miners Killed.
Hazelton, Pa., July 12.—It is reported that six miners were killed yesterday by an explosion of black damp in the Andeney mine, three miles from here.

Did You Ever?
If you'd thread the lace of embroidery beading quickly after it comes from the laundry, tack a narrow tape to the ribbon before it is drawn out and then pull the ribbon out and the tape in. When the garment returns from the laundry, tack the ribbon to the tape and pull it in as the tape goes.

Reminded Him.
I met a fellow to-day who was simply crazy about a buried treasure, couldn't talk of anything else. That just reminds me of my wife. Oh, does she really talk about one?

Yes; her first husband.

PAGEANT IN OLD TOWN

BURY ST. EDMUNDS SCENE OF HISTORIC EVENTS.

Two Thousand Actors Extend Aid—Will Cost Half Million Dollars—Where Magna Charta Was Conceived—Richard Coeur de Lion Set Out For Crusades From This Ancient City.

Bury St. Edmunds, a town near London, that hitherto has failed to win the attention to which an extraordinary interesting history and majestic ruins entitle it, proposes to have a pageant from July 8 to 13 that should astonish the world.

Some of the most interesting events in the developing of the Anglo-Saxon race have taken place in this East Anglian town.

There the barons took their vows before laying the foundation of English and American liberty by compelling John to sign Magna Charta. There Sir Edmund the Martyr died for his people and Richard Coeur de Lion prayed before setting out for the Holy Land.

Big Pageant Is Planned.
The people of the whole County of Suffolk under the guidance of Louis N. Parker, a dramatist, are proposing to put Bury St. Edmunds into the front rank of European show places.

Two thousand actors will take part in the seven episodes of the pageant. They are East Anglians, and every one is giving services and costumes free. If this mighty cast were to be paid the pageant would cost half a million dollars.

Parts are to be played by 200 peers and personages and many other members of the county families. A chorus of monks (all clergymen) will chant melodies specially composed by C. G. Harold Shann, a local musician.

The suits of armor and all the beautiful dresses are being made in the neighborhood. The leatherwork is fabricated from the tanned hides of the famous wild Chillingham cattle—the only herd of wild cattle now in Great Britain—which were introduced into Suffolk at the time of the Reformation.

Artist Paints the Scenes.
To boom Bury there has been enlisted the genius of a great English artist, Dore Adams. This distinguished academician has painted designs for the costumes from ancient manuscripts, and everything will be historically accurate in the smallest particular.

The poster designed by Byam Shaw (whose picture of "Our Lord" fetched $6,000 at last year's academy) has made a sensation in artistic and advertising circles. It is pronounced the most effective poster ever done by an Englishman.

KING SURPRISES PEOPLE.
Plan For Irish Trip Causes Anxious Comment In London.

Considering the state of unrest in Ireland and the present ugly temper of the peasantry, the announcement of King Edward's intention to visit Ireland next month has not only taken a great many people by surprise, but has given rise to much anxious comment.

At the same time it is some months now since this visit was projected, and it is nearly two months since the Earl of Shaftesbury, speaking in Belfast, assured his hearers that His Majesty would be in their midst during the course of the summer.

Loved by Irish Subjects.
There is not the slightest doubt about the King's popularity among the rank and file of the Irish people. Everywhere he went during his last tour in 1900 and 1904 he was received with the wildest enthusiasm, and the cheers that greeted him were as sincere as any that ever came from the most patriotic Englishmen.

There is one aspect of the King's career that has always appealed to the Irish people, and that is his sporting proclivities. In Ireland love of the horse is one of the strongest bonds of sympathy between man and man. The fact that for some years King Edward has kept a few horses in training at Curragh has strengthened him immensely in the affections of the Irish people, who will never forget that Ambassador II. won the Grand National in the royal colors after having been bred and trained in Ireland.

May Have Special Race.
King Edward's horses in Ireland are under the charge of a popular amateur rider, G. W. Lushington. It is possible that the royal colors may be seen at a special meeting at Leopardstown on July 14, arranged at the request of His Majesty.

The enormous popularity of the King is one of the most difficult things with which professional agitators in Ireland have to contend, and they have some to find that an attack on the Government is a far better card than personalities about the equipment of the throne.

Remembering It In.
Thomas Beecham, the famous pill man, was a witty old gentleman. They tell a story about him and a grocer.

The grocer was guilty of some rather sharp practice on Mr. Beecham one day, and the latter stamped out of the shop roaring:

"You're a swindler, and I'll never enter your doors again."

Next day, though, he came back and bought two pounds of sugar.

"Dear me," said the grocer, smiling in a forgiving way, "I thought you were never going to enter my doors again."

"Well, I didn't mean to," said Mr. Beecham, "but you're the only shop in the place where I can get what I want. You see, I am going to put some bulls, and I need sand."

Gypsies.
Gypsies are usually supposed to be of Egyptian origin, but as a matter of fact they probably came originally from India.

ROBBERS GOT THE MONEY

The Volcanic Oil and Gas Company Was Touched

Several Offices Have Been Entered Lately—Small Amounts Taken

Yesterday morning just before noon, while Office Manager J. L. Campbell was up town on business, sneak thieves gained an entrance to the offices of the Volcanic Oil & Gas Company on Wellington street, and touched the till for $14.40.

Seen by a Planet reporter this morning, Mr. Campbell said that he did not become aware of the theft till late in the afternoon, when he happened to look in the safe and noticed that the lock on the cash-box had been pried open. Two copers were all that remained in the box.

Mr. Campbell has come to the conclusion that the only time at which the theft could have been committed was in the morning shortly after eleven o'clock, when he locked up the office and went up to the post office for the mail. He did not lock the safe, on account of some of the bolts working too tightly, but he thought all would be safe with the office locked up. He says that he felt sure that all the windows in the office were securely fastened in the morning, but someone acquainted with the place must have got inside during the morning, and released one of the fasteners, as it was afterwards discovered that it was through a back window that the thieves gained an entrance. Mr. Campbell this morning notified the police of the theft.

There have been a series of small thefts lately. The offices of the Canada Flour Mills, McKeough & Trotter's and Blonde's are reported as having been entered during the past few nights and small sums of money taken.

PRETTY ROMANCE

First Distinctively Christian Endeavor Marriage On Record.

Vancouver, B.C., July 13.—Miss Beattie McIntosh, from Toronto as delegate to the C. E. convention at Seattle, is attending convention at Mrs. Robert Thompson of Oroville, Washington. The change was sudden, as the little international romance is interesting, the marriage having been solemnized under C. E. auspices in the auditorium of the United Presbyterian church, Seattle, on Monday, and was the first distinctively C. E. ceremony on record.

The couple met in Detroit ten years ago, and parted, Miss McIntosh going to Toronto. She has been for the past six years Bible teacher in Toronto Union Mission, while Thompson came to Oroville, where he acquired large interests as a stock raiser. The couple met in the Hotel Seattle rotunda on Monday for the first time in ten years, Thompson being a delegate to the convention as superintendent of the Sunday school at Oroville.

LOVE'S LESSONS.

Canadian Girl's Flirtation Land Her In Jail.

Detroit, July 13.—Mary Campan, aged 17, of Bell River, Ont., while visiting relatives on the Canadian side of the river here, crossed to Detroit last Sunday. On Belle Isle bridge she engaged in a flirtation with William Berney, aged 19. It was love at sight and they decided to get married as soon as William could reach Flint, Mich., where he had a job in view. They walked the 70 miles and on reaching Flint they were arrested as vagrants. Berney was sent to jail for five days, the girl is held for examination on Saturday.

Chinese Tea Merchant and Hamilton Girl Arrested.

Toronto, July 13.—Juanita Pease, a pretty creole of 32 North John street, Hamilton, with Yuen Toy, a Chinese tea merchant, with premises at 154 Spadina avenue here, were arrested upon alighting from a Hamilton train yesterday morning. They are much in love with one another, but the girl's parents cannot see it that way. The girl will be sent back this morning. The Celestial Romeo was released.

ATTENDANCE WAS LARGE

Mr. Hugh Gallagher Did Much to Make Celebration A Success

Few Facts About The Procession—Good Showing Of Ladies

A conservative estimate places the number of those who attended the celebration in Chatham yesterday at 14,000. The parade was the largest of its kind ever held in Chatham. One notable feature of the turnout was the large number of ladies who marched. There were fully 300 Orange ladies in the parade, and their presence in the line of march added greatly to the success of the day. This is a new idea in Orange parades as they are known here.

Too much praise cannot be given to Mr. Hugh Gallagher, the Master of the local lodge, who superintended the arrangements for the demonstration. Mr. Gallagher is a prominent Orangeman, not only in Chatham, but also throughout the province. He has shown himself to be particularly adapted to conducting affairs of this nature, and the many visitors are indebted to him for his numerous attentions and courteous approval so universally extended.

There have been some interesting guesses made as to the number of visiting Orangemen in the city yesterday. The surmises run all the way from 10,000 to 20,000. From figures gathered by The Planet the most accurate estimate as to the number of visiting Orangemen stands at 14,000. This is considered to be quite a conservative estimate, and has been arrived at from the number of excursions coming in on the various railways. The Pere Marquette and the C. P. R. brought in 8,000, the Grand Trunk 2,000 and the C. W. & L. E. 2,000. This makes a total of 12,000, to which is added the 2,000 who drove and wheeled to the city from nearby places. When shown this estimate this morning, Hugh Gallagher said that it was nearly correct as possible.

The number of people taking part in the two mile procession yesterday at noon was 3,000. There were between fifty and sixty bands. In yesterday's issue it was erroneously stated that there were twenty-five bands. The error occurred through the fact that many of the five and drum bands were bunched together.

The Wonderland theatre got its share of the business going yesterday. Proprietor Ralph says that he had 2,000 paid admissions during the day. The Milne Hotel alone catered to 825 people, making a new record. The ice cream parlors, the confectionary stores and the hotels did a land office business. For such a large crowd very good order prevailed, and there were no arrests for disorderly conduct.

"It was a most orderly celebration," said Mayor Stone to-day. Chief of Police John Holmes also remarked on the good order prevailing. He says that the crowd were good-natured and gave the police little trouble. They were given the freedom of the city, and they did not abuse the privilege.

Local Lodge, No. 1041 and the local Orange Young Britons were kept on the jump all day, and too much praise cannot be given them for the excellent manner in which they handled their hosts of visitors. The local lodge and the Young Britons endeavored to meet all the trains as fast as they came in, but at times this was impossible, on account of several of the excursions arriving simultaneously.

Owing to the persistency with which some persons crowded the band-stand before the speakers arrived, it was impossible for the committee to carry out their intended arrangements, which were to have the Mayor, aldermen, the speakers of the day and the representatives from each of the ladies' lodges seated on the stand. The locals hope that this apparent neglect will be overlooked, especially by the ladies.

No. 1041 pride itself on having the best drummer in the procession. He was a bird. The biggest man in the procession was Drum Major who came with William McKinley Lodge from Detroit.

HAMILTON MURDER

Man and Wife Shot by Boarder—Jealousy the Cause.

Hamilton, July 13.—Andrew Rodzyk was fatally shot, and his wife very seriously wounded by revolver bullets yesterday afternoon. Jake Sunfield, a boarder, was arrested on the charge of doing the shooting. The double tragedy occurred about three o'clock yesterday afternoon. All concerned are Poles.

When the officers arrived at the Rodzyk cottage, they found a wild scene of disorder. In the front bedroom they discovered Rodzyk covered from head to foot with blood, lying on the floor. It was evident that he had been shot some time before. The bed was overturned, and there traces of a terrible struggle.

The murdered man was about 50 years of age, and his wife was about 31 years of age. Sunfield was taken to jail.

Jealousy is said to have been the cause. The police searched the house and found a couple of bottles of whiskey sitting on the dining-room table, and the neighbors said that the trio had been drinking all day. Mrs. Rodzyk had a bullet wound in the left breast. She will recover.

MURDERER CAUGHT

Capt. Klengenberg Who Killed His Mate Has Been Captured.

Ottawa, July 13.—The police department of San Francisco have telegraphed to Lieut.-Col. Sherwood of the Dominion police, stating that work has been received there from Alaska to the effect that Capt. Klengenberg, who brutally murdered the chief officer of his whaling ship about four years ago in Canadian Arctic waters, has been captured and is being brought to San Francisco by American officers.

The murder was committed on an American vessel, and both the Canadian and United States authorities have been looking for Klengenberg ever since.

The murder was an unusually brutal one. Klengenberg seems to rank with the pirates of Elizabethan fiction in cruelty and blood-thirstiness. For months he ill-treated his crew and officers, finally shooting the first officer in cold blood. He then terrorized the crew into making false affidavits in the log book as to the manner in which the victim met his death.

The story leaked out afterwards in San Francisco from some of the crew while drunk. It is not yet known whether the Canadian or the American authorities will try Klengenberg. Both Governments have jurisdiction.

In days gone by the blood of the red man flowed side by side with that of the British soldiers. We defended the flag, and now the flag and country defend us. There is annually $300,000 in salaries paid out to men to take care of the Indian. The finger of scorn has been unjustly pointed upon this red man. The red man has always been honorable, and to-day, in the goals of this country, there are behind the bars 100 whites to one red. We have been living in Christianity for 90 years. He was pleased to see so many Indian women in the parade.

Mr. Lumby, of Detroit, was next called upon, and, after expressing his feeling of pleasure in celebrating in Canada, he extended a kind and cordial invitation to the Orangemen to attend their celebration to be held in Flint, Mich., next July 13th.

Drum Major Tr'tts of Detroit, was also glad to be celebrating in the great Dominion, as he was born here. He made a few remarks about the Orangemen, and ended up by the words, "We shall fight for King William of Orange."

Mr. Searf, of Port Huron, made a short address, after which Mr. Haylock, of Essex, addressed the large audience. He complimented Tobias on his excellent address, and made very complimentary remarks about the Order.

Marshall Thompson, of Windsor, gave an address, after which Mr. Kane, of Lambton, was called upon.

The speeches being over, the cry of "Three cheers" was raised for the Great Orangemen's Association.

TOWNSHIP COUNCIL

HOWARD TOWNSHIP COUNCIL.

The municipal council of the Township of Howard met at Township Hall Saturday, June 1, 1907. All members present.

Minutes of previous meeting and Court of Revision on the assessment roll were read and confirmed.

Communications.

From Stephen Ellis, tile manufacturer, St. Mary's, wishing to know if he would manufacture tile at lake shore. Would the council draw them or would he be required to locate them in Ridgeway.

From F. Littlejohn, Clerk of Orford, stating that he had been instructed to prepare a by-law for the South Marsh drain.

From R. S. Code, C. E., stating that his fees are $6 and expenses from Chatham.

Reports.

From Charles Seale, pound keeper, stating that there were no animals impounded in his pound in 1906.

From Geo. R. West, inspector McGregor Creek drain, stating that he had found several obstructions. Had notified the parties interested and had same removed.

From Geo. A. McCubbin, C. E., stating that he had inspected the Rushton drain outlet and find that same is complete with the exception from stake 0 to stake 23, where the side slopes and top widths are insufficient, also from stake 0 to stake 30, and from stake 35 to stake 39 the earth has not been spread the average distance from the banks of the drain. Had also inspected the Harrison drain and the outlet of the east branch, Bill and Crawford drain and found both drains in need of repair and have prepared plans and assessments for same—Harrison drain costing $1,744, and Bill and Crawford drain costing $142.30.

From Jas. S. McBrayne, commissioner on the Rushton drain, stating that said drain is now completed, entitling Philip Green, contractor, to the sum of $125, being the balance due.

From W. A. Walters, commissioner on South Marsh drain, stating that he and the Clerk had last the Orford council in reference to the sale of said drain, Orford agreeing to contribute their amount and wished to have said drain sold as soon as possible. I have complied with their request and have since sold the drain to Campbell land Cook for the sum of $1800, which is still in excess of estimate.

From H. McLarty, Reeve, stating that he had met on the Waterworth drain. The engineer has agreed to file his award in a few days. Also met on the Turner drain, but came to no agreement. Have purchased twelve loads of gravel from W. Shaw, delivered at the Pangburn drain, at $2.75 per load. Notified the Reeve of Harwich to meet me on town-line to inspect culverts complained of, but he failed to appear. Met on the Whitman drain, Erie street, and would recommend that the township pay for the tile required, which is 112 five-inch and 160 four-inch tile. Also met Mrs. Martin in reference to drain on concession 5; would recommend digging a ditch along the front of her place and put in 200 three-inch tile, same to be left with commissioner or pathmaster. Met Wm. Weight re tile across concession 5 to the McDowell drain. Recommend that he be given 50 four-inch tile, to be drawn and put same in. Met on the Gladstone drain; consider that the sewer pipe crossing the road is too small and would recommend that the township put in a two-foot sewer pipe and should dig drain in road and twelve rods on Mr. Gladstone's for an outlet.

The following contracts were given for concrete culverts: Concession 1, W. Graham, $410; concession 12, W. Graham, $260; concession 12, Ollie Ellis, $248; concession 5, A. McKernacher, $175; concession 7, A. McKernacher, $334.

A number of accounts were ordered to be paid.

T. Fritz addressed the Council in reference to Anderson drain culvert, it being too small.

ECZEMA 15 YEARS WITHOUT RELIEF

Friend Recommended Cuticura—Miss Five Cakes Cuticura Soap and Two Boxes of Cuticura Ointment and is Entirely Cured—Feels Like New Man.

GLADLY RECOMMENDS CUTICURA TO ALL

"I have had eczema for over fifteen years, and have tried all sorts of remedies to relieve me, but without avail. I started my case to one of my friends and he recommended the Cuticura Remedies. I thought them with the thought that they would be successful, as with the others. But after using them for a few weeks I noticed to my surprise that the irritation and peeling of the skin gradually decreased, and finally, after using five cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment it disappeared entirely. I feel now like a new man, and I would gladly recommend these remedies to all who are afflicted with skin diseases. David Blum, Box A, Bedford Station, N. Y., Nov. 6, 1905."

Little Son Had Eczema

"My son when four years of age had eczema on his body and limbs and suffered badly. Cuticura Remedies were recommended to me and I gave the complete treatment. After a few days I cannot say too much in praise of Cuticura Remedies and am always ready to recommend them to others. Mrs. G. H. Constant, Box 811, Rockland, Mass., Dec. 24, 1905."

Helpless Infants cured of Torturing, Disfiguring Humors, Eczemas, Tetter, Rash, Itchings and Irritations, owe more to Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment than to all other remedies combined. No others so pure, so sweet, so speedily effective. May be used from birth.

"STRAWBERRY DELICACIES."

Two Seasonable and Delicious Desserts For the June Dinner.

Strawberry Custard Pie.—Line a deep dish with good paste. Fill it with uncooked rice or pieces of stale bread, and put on a top cover of the paste. But do not press the edges down. Bake it in a hot oven, and when done let get perfectly cold. Lift off the top carefully, pour out the rice and fill the pastry shell with fine, ripe strawberries, sprinkled with powdered sugar, then pour gently over the berries a large cupful of very cold rich boiled custard. Put on the pastry top, dust it with powdered sugar and serve. Do not put the berries and custard in the pie until time to serve.

Strawberries in Custard.—Make a rich boiled custard with six beaten eggs (omitting the whites of two), one small cupful of granulated sugar, a pinch of salt, one quart of rich milk and half a cupful of chopped blanched almonds. When done, remove at once from the fire and flavor with one teaspoonful of lemon extract. Put a layer of fine, ripe strawberries in a deep glass dish, sprinkle liberally with sugar and pour over a layer of the custard; add more strawberries and sugar and pour over the remainder of the custard. Whip the whites of the eggs to a very stiff snow, beat in two tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar and heap over the custard.

GOD'S GOODNESS BRIGHTENS LIFE'S DARKEST HOURS.

VISITS OF WEEPING JEREMIAHS

Silver Lining is Always There—Sometimes Hard to Realize—Dawn Must Follow the Longest Night—Trouble Often Blessing in Disguise—Pervailing Power of Prayer—God a

Entered according to Act of Parliament of Canada, in the year 1907, by Frederick Dyer, Toronto, at the Dept. of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 7.—To all who are burdened with a sense of despondency on account of sickness, loss of friends or fortunes, or of worldly prospects, this sermon comes as a message of consolation and encouragement. The text is Psalm xxx, 5, "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning."

The Bible declares that it is better to go to the house of mourning than to join in the frolics of the merry-makers. But that does not mean that we should talk to those in trouble with lugubrious and sepulchral countenance of an undertaker officiating at a funeral. If there is any time in life when we need the curtain up and the sunlight flooding every room in the house, it is when the dark clouds of bereavement have shrouded the hearthstone of the home with bitter, scalding tears. If there is ever a time when a visitor should enter a room with a smile upon the lip and with a ringing note of joy in his salutation and with hope and peace and comfort radiating from every feature of his countenance, that time is when he is standing by a sick bed or is extending the warm clasp of affection to one who is bowed under the heavy burdens of grief. Yet the strange fact is that one in fifty knows how to enter the house of mourning. Instead of going there with a message of comfort and peace and hope, the average man entering the house of suffering and makes the gloomy days of trouble still more gloomy.

Almost all of us hold in memory the recollection of the agonizing visits which some weeping Jeremiahs made to us when our cup of anguish was filled to the brim and we were crying out to us with long tales of woe to tell us that if we had only gone to their physician and used his medicines our baby would not have died. Or they came to tell us that they had taken away our baby because we were not living close enough to him and had not fully consecrated our lives to his service. Or they came to us and said, "My dear friend, you should thank God that he has taken away your baby, for your child might have lived to grow up a very bad man, to be some day executed for the crime of murder, or he might have become a drunkard, a libertine or a thief."

Or they came to our sick rooms and homes of death as the miserable comforters of Job came to the patriarch after he had lost money, children and health. Those men had the idea that heavy trouble was the result of heinous crime. They believed that they had punished a man in this way when he had done wrong. So when they saw Job suffering the loss of property and children and health they concluded that he had committed some serious crime. They visited him to pity him and urged him to repent and confess, and when the poor harassed man insisted that he was innocent they warned him not to make his case worse by hypocrisy. Thus they aggravated Job's trouble, and he exclaimed, "Miserable comforters are ye all!"

But though the world may have its Eliphazes and Zophars and Bildads, thank God that the human race also has its Davids. It has the noble men and women who, in times of great trouble, can come into our lives and speak the sympathetic word in just the right way. These men may have a tear in the eye, but they always have a smile beaming on the lip. They come to us in our distress and say: "Brother, it may be dark for you now, but believe me, God is good. From my own personal experience I can testify that all things will come out right. If we only trust him and live for him, 'Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.' Thank God, the sunrise of gospel truth can always follow the darkest nights of despair."

David could speak from experience about nights of weeping. He was no novice in sorrow. He had tasted the bitter cup of woe and had drunk its contents to the dregs. And as I portray the sufferings of the shepherd boy who afterward became the King of Israel, I want his experience to help you to find the peace that passeth all understanding which the sweet singer of Israel enjoyed.

David, in the first place, knew all about the mental sufferings of an unhappy child. He knew what it was to have a little boy's heart beat and throb with anguish. He knew what it was to go sobbing night after night to bed. He may have known what it was to crave for parental love and receive it not. And of all a child's troubles I believe there is not one greater than to feel that a father or a mother loves the rest of the children better than they love him. Oh, the awful sufferings that come from parental favoritism! God pity the boys or the girls who have to bear that heavy trial in their youth.

Where do I find the intimation that David had an unhappy childhood? I think we have it in the story of Samuel's visit. Have you ever carefully studied that incident? Why, parental favoritism is sticking out all over it. When Samuel came to Bethlehem to find a new king of Israel among Jesse's sons, what did the father do? He brought every son he has before the prophet, except one. He seemed to say, "Samuel, here are my seven boys. Did you ever see a finer lot of young men? Any one of them is fit to be a king." And as the father speaks thus a look of loving pride spreads over his features. But the prophet is still not satisfied. He keeps looking and looking. He is looking for some one else. Then he says to Jesse, "Are here all thy children?" With that a look of disdain comes into the father's face as he answers, "Ah, yes; there is still another; but he is a puny, undersized stripling. He does not amount to much. You surely do not want him. There yet remaineth the youngest, and behold he keepeth the sheep." Thus as Jesse pushed David his son into the background on account of parental favoritism for the other children, some of us have lived through a bitter childhood. We have angrily felt that our father or mother did not care for us as they cared for the rest. David well knew what it was to weep during the long nights of his childhood. He did not yet to-day he comes to all boys and says, "My young friends, do not worry. God will yet scatter your gloom. There is a bright dawn coming for you. Let God lead you out of the night of your childhood. Weep and endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." Boys and girls! Young men and young women, with your fresh young cheeks wet with a shower of tears, will you believe it? But David had more dark nights than those found in his childhood days. He knew what it was to work for years to perfect himself for an important task and then to be laughed and sneered at and denied opportunity to do what he knew he was fitted to do. He was just like hundreds and thousands of young people adrift in our large cities, struggling to get a foothold in life when the world will not recognize their physical and mental capabilities. They are young men of brain and force and power. By the injustices and jealousies of their fellow men they are kept in the background, and younger men will half their capabilities are pushed to the front. Was this not young David's experience?

Read the story of his offer to fight the giant. What do you now find? Young David is in the camp of King Saul. Before him stalks the great Goliath defying the armies of Israel. What did David do? Why he said, "If no one else will go forth to meet this giant I will go." Had he not earned the right to go? Was he not the one of the keenest if not the most perfect marksmen with the sling in all the Hebrew nation? Had not his bravery been tested again and again? Alone with the sheep, "way off among the foothills, had he not defied the wild beasts and the Bedouin robbers? And yet when young David said, "I will go and fight the mighty Goliath," what happened? His elder brothers, who were honored soldiers of Saul's army, began to sneer and to laugh. "Ah," they said, "you had better go home and hang on to your mother's apron strings! You are a pretty-faced baby to come here and talk like a braggart!" Listen; let me read you the literal words: "And Eliab's anger was kindled against David, because he had said, 'Why earnest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride and the naughtiness of thy heart; for thou art come down thither to battle.'" The battle was on. Young David had to struggle to get his foothold in life. Has not King David a right to come to our young folks, battling and struggling to get a foothold in life, and say: "Young people, I know your trials. I know how hard it is to make the world recognize your powers. But struggle on. God will see you through. The darkness and despair are sure to be followed by the sunrise of triumph. 'Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.' Yes, young folks, keep on in your struggles; all will yet be well."

But to-day David comes to bring us gospel comfort which he has found in the crises of his perplexed and troubled life. He has found the peace and the struggles of his early life. When David was a mature, well developed man, with the kingly crown upon his head and the royal purple robes about his shoulders, he had a Goliath to fight more formidable than the one he encountered when he was a rugged fawn shepherd boy. And when David met this second Goliath he became not the conqueror, but the conquered. And yet to-day, as a repentant libertine and murderer, he comes to us and says: "Friend, your earthly success may have been the means of destroying your spiritual life. But Christ can save you yet; for he has saved me, the chief of sinners. Has your experience, successful men, been like that of King David? With a kingly crown upon your head and with royal purple about your shoulders, have you never been compelled to shed repentant tears over some spiritual fall, some mean, disgraceful thing you have done under strong temptation?"

The material conflicts of a noble youth cannot be compared to the spiritual struggles of the human heart when facing some terrible sin of middle life. Some time ago I saw a picture of one of my elders' most suggestive picture. Its subject was "Darkness and Light." In the foreground of that picture is the bright sunshine of the noonday. A young woman, with a baby in her arms, is standing holding out her hands to the baby from her mother's arms. Life may be a struggle, but if triumphant joy was ever pictured in a man's face and in a woman's bearing and in her child's smile it is to be found in the foreground of that picture.

But hardly has your eye studied the four happy figures in the foreground than you look into the background of the picture. There under the trees' shadow in a beautiful garden stands a young woman in widow's weeds. She has been walking, but her feet are far away with the dead. Suddenly she turns and catches a glimpse of that happy family group. If her sad, mournful eyes and pathetic face mean anything, they seem to say: "Oh, if I could only give up my money and my home and my diamonds and my wealth and have my dear ones to love like that! O God, can I ever be as I once was?" Some of us seem to be walking amid the gains of our temporal prosperities. But we are not studying the pictures upon our walls or the grandeur of our homes. We are looking at the spiritual wrecks of our past lives rising up before us. We are saying, "O God, that I might live my life over again and be as I once was!" But no sooner do our repentant tears begin to fall than David the libertine, the murderer, comes to us and says: "Friend, Christ will forgive you your sins as he has forgiven me my sins if you will only throw yourself upon his mercy. 'Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.' Will you believe it, sinners? Amid the complete destruction of your spiritual life will you believe it and throw yourself upon the mercy of a pardoning Christ?"

But David comes in his old age, as a broken hearted father to bring us gospel comfort, just as he once came as a young man and as a middle aged man. He comes with his gray hairs and with tottering feet and leaning upon a staff, and says: "Fathers and mothers, I know you too feel that you are worrying and agonizing over that wayward boy. I have drunk out of the same chalice of woe. I know what it is to sit up night after night, waiting for him to come home while you listen for his footsteps in the hall. Ah, no night is so dark as that night when a loving parent is listening for the step of a returning prodigal. I have been through it all. God will comfort you, even as he comforted me enough to pray Absalom with me. Trust him, father. Trust him, mother. He is the Jesus who alone can bring you comfort at a time like this. Will you trust him, who who have dear ones who are doing wrong? Will you trust this Christ even now? Will you just trust Jesus and cling to him for help?" If you cannot get help from Christ at this time, you can get help from no other source.

Perhaps King David's sorrow over Absalom may not have been free from self reproach. Could it be that he neglected to pray for his Absalom until it was too late? Should we not trust Christ for our children? You have tried your own strength long enough to find it a failure, so now will you not ask for the divine help? Some years ago a poor wife and mother entered the study of the great London preacher, Charles H. Spurgeon. She told the minister her sad story. It was the old story of a disappointed husband and a heart broken wife and mother. "There is nothing we can do," said Mr. Spurgeon, "but to kneel down and cry to the Lord for the immediate conversion of your husband. We do not need a human aid, but divine rescue." "We kneel," said the great preacher, "and I prayed that God would bring the erring one back and convert his soul and make him a loving husband and a true Christian. We have prayed for him, but I turned to the poor woman and said: 'My dear woman, do not fret and worry about this matter. Trust God. I feel sure God will bring your erring husband home. The praying woman went away. Some time after she came back with a radiant face. 'He has come back home to me and the children. He has come a converted man. He is now a true Christian.' It was found that that husband in faraway lands was convicted of his sins and brought to Christ at the very time his wife and Mr. Spurgeon were on their knees praying for his conversion. In scores and thousands of homes, if we could only get into the inner hearts of men and women. Wives have prayed their husbands into the kingdom. Mothers and fathers have prayed their children into the kingdom. Friends have prayed their friends into the kingdom. Can you not pray your dear ones to Christ? Can you not get this peace of the gospel for the joy of your own soul and also for the salvation of your dear ones? Will you not turn the darkness of the night into the joy of morning?"

"But," says some one, "when is this gospel morning to break? Oh, the night has been so long for some of us. Why, I have been praying for my wayward child for twenty years. In the night never going to end? And this awful sin of my youth—I have prayed and prayed to God to forgive me. I believe he has, I know he has. But that forgiveness does me no good. It is awful results. When shall I see the breaking day? When is my eastern horizon to be covered by the golden light of the rising sun?" When? Why, the brothers the gospel is rising now. The dawn has been illuminating your eastern hills from the time you first gave your heart to Christ. It is not as bright now as it will be a few years hence; but if you only trust Christ and live for Christ your very year, from day to day, until the eternal morning breaks, and God shall wipe all tears from your eyes.

Valuable English Coin.

During the reign of Charles II. the second most valuable English coin was issued, the famous "Petition Crown" of 1663, a specimen of which has been realized £500. The proposition having been made that dies for a new coinage should be struck, a foreigner named John Roettier was appointed to execute them, much to the chagrin of Thomas Simon, the most famous coin designer of his day. As a protest he executed this crown, round the edge of which runs the legend: "Thomas Simon most humbly prays your Majesty to compare this his travail piece with the Dutch, and if more truly drawn and embossed, more gracefully ordered and more accurately engraved, to relieve him." This petition, however, met with no response. In the same year Simon executed another crown, known as the "Reddie" or "Reddie" crown, using the same dies, but bearing the inscription "Reddie Quae Caesaris," for an example of which £215 has been given.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidneys. The kidneys, like the heart and the stomach, find their weakness, not in the organs itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine is scanty, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell.

Grant Union's Demand.

Cobalt, July 12.—The management of the Temiskaming mine has adopted the union scale and agreed to the eight-hour shift underground. As a result the men return to work there to-day. Fifty men were employed last week, and this number will start again.

Dobson Released.

Toronto, July 12.—John W. Dobson, the piano manufacturer who was convicted last October on the charge of setting fire to a store at 563 West Queen street, was released on parole from the Central Prison yesterday.

A STOREHOUSE FOR POISONS.

You may not think so, but that's what you become when the kidneys are affected. These organs cleanse the body; they are the filters that remove from the blood the waste matter that acts like deadly poison on the vitality and health of the system. Dr. Hamilton's Pills stimulate the kidneys, expel fermenting matter from the bowels, restore the liver and stimulate all excretory and secretory organs. This enables the blood to quickly replenish itself and establish a perfect health. No medicine does such lasting good as Dr. Hamilton's Mandrake and Butternut Pills, at all dealers.

Conductor Killed.

Ottawa, July 12.—Conductor Emphy, of an east-bound Grand Trunk express Wednesday in the vicinity of Eastman Springs, found John Kennedy, of Fessie Fern, Glengarry, lying in a ditch in an unconscious condition. Kennedy was brought to an Ottawa hospital, where he died. It is believed that the deceased, who was 36 years of age, fell off a west-bound train.

In all the various weaknesses, displacements, prolapsus, inflammation and debilitating, catarrhal drains and aches of nervousness and debility, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most efficient remedy that can possibly be used. It has its credit hundreds of thousands of cures—more in fact than any other remedy put up for sale through druggists, especially for woman's use. The ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is composed have received the most positive endorsement from the leading medical writers on Materia Medica of all the several schools of practice. All the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper enclosing the bottle, so that any woman making use of this famous medicine may know exactly what she is taking. Dr. Pierce takes his patients into his full confidence, and can afford to do so, as the formula after which the "Favorite Prescription" is made will bear the most careful examination.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best and safest laxative for women.

Big Jumps by Rabbits.

How fast do hares and rabbits run? Perhaps you have wondered while out gunning and watched the elusive animal speeding away. According to J. G. Mills, the length of a hare's stride is about four feet, while that of a rabbit is about two feet. Under conditions of fear the hare is said to leap to twelve feet, some authorities claiming that it can jump distances to twenty-five feet in width. A hare can jump upward perpendicularly five feet. Rabbits can make leaps of six or seven feet horizontally, but cannot jump higher than three feet. When compelled to do so, it is said, rabbits can swim as well as dogs.

C. P. R.'S NEW CROSS-CONTINENT FLYER.

"Trans-Canada" Makes Fastest Time Across America.

The business of the country is growing so fast that an extra train, the C. P. R. finds it necessary to run an additional train between Montreal and Vancouver, making three trips a week during July and August. This train, which will be known as the "Trans-Canada Limited," will make the fastest time of any time across the American continent. It will carry baggage cars, dining car and sleeping cars only, of the very latest design and with most modern appointments, and only first-class passengers will be carried. She will leave Montreal on the first trip July 2nd. Berths can be reserved in Toronto for passage from North Bay to points west of Winnipeg at which the "Trans-Canada Limited" stops. No passengers will be carried from Toronto to Winnipeg or points east thereof, as Winnipeg passengers arrive only one hour later by taking the "Imperial Limited." List of stops, full particulars and berth reservations can be obtained at C. P. R. local ticket offices, from C. H. Foster, D. P. A., C. P. R., Toronto.

ABYSSES OF OCEAN.

Extent of the Deep Waters and Their Tremendous Pressure.

More than half the surface of the globe is hidden under water two miles deep. Seven million square miles lie at a depth of 18,000 feet or more. Many places have been found five miles and more in depth. The greatest depth yet sounded is 31,200 feet, near the island of Guam.

If Mount Everest, the world's highest mountain, were plucked from its seat and dropped into this spot the waves would still roll 2,000 feet above its crest.

Into this terrific abyss the waters press down with a force more than 10,000 pounds to the square inch. The stanchest ship ever built would be crumpled under this awful pressure like an eggshell under a steam roller.

A pine beam fifteen feet long which held open the mouth of a trawl when making a cast at a depth of more than 18,000 feet was crushed flat as if it had been passed between rollers.

The body of the man who should attempt to venture to such depths would be compressed until the flesh was forced into the interstices of the bone and his trunk was no larger than a rolling pin. Still the body would reach in a tub of water will sink to the uttermost depths of the ocean.—Exchange.

The head was no bigger than an orange, the black bearded head, perfectly preserved, of a man of forty or so. "The Dyaks alone," said the ethnologist, "have the secret of taking an adult human head and reducing it, like this, to less than half its size. Their houses are ornamented profusely with these reduced heads of enemies slain in battle. No one knows how the reduction is accomplished. It is a marvelous secret that the Dyaks refuse to give up."

"Savages, degraded as they are beside us, possess a number of marvelous and unfathomable secrets. One is the making of fire by the rubbing of dry twigs. Only a savage can do that. Another is the construction of fish-skin suits. The natives of the Siberian coast make suits of fishskin that are softer, finer and far more waterproof than any fabric known to us. What could be waterproof as fishskin? A fox and a number of swans. The fox, after hiding for awhile among some reeds, boldly swam toward a number of swans. The latter were on the alert, however, and when within a yard the biggest bird attacked him with wing and beak, entirely submerging him for two or three seconds. Nothing daunted, the fox made a final attack, but ignominiously defeated himself, as all the swans arrayed themselves in single file and made a desperate attack on their assailant, which eventually landed at the south side of the lake, his blood covering the felt of leather at the far end. The swans appeared to have sustained no injury whatever."

Swans Defeat a Fox.

A correspondent of the Colwyn Bay Herald describes a fierce fight between a fox and a number of swans. The fox, after hiding for awhile among some reeds, boldly swam toward a number of swans. The latter were on the alert, however, and when within a yard the biggest bird attacked him with wing and beak, entirely submerging him for two or three seconds. Nothing daunted, the fox made a final attack, but ignominiously defeated himself, as all the swans arrayed themselves in single file and made a desperate attack on their assailant, which eventually landed at the south side of the lake, his blood covering the felt of leather at the far end. The swans appeared to have sustained no injury whatever.

Where They Were Not Bad.

A visitor who was going through the penitentiary one day turned to the warden and said: "I suppose you have a good many bad people here?" "Bad? Bad people here?" ejaculated the gray haired warden, with an air of comic surprise. "What put that into your head? There are no bad people here. Why, if they wanted to be bad, we wouldn't let 'em."

The warden smiled grimly, and the visitor awakened to the fact that the "pen" was not the place where people could afford to be bad, even if they wished.

Cosmopolitan Dinners.

"You can pay your money in New York and get any sort of dinner you like and of every possible nationality," declared the man about town. "You can get an Italian dinner with spaghetti, a French dinner with frogs' legs, an Irish dinner with some sort of stew, a Hungarian dinner with goulash, a Russian dinner with caviare, a Spanish dinner with frijoles and a southern dinner with corn pone."

Accounts Squared.

Hicks—I owe you an apology. The fact is, it was raining, and I saw your umbrella, and, supposing you had gone home for good, I took it.

Wicks—Don't mention it. I owe you an apology. You left your new hat, you know, and wore your old one. As I had no umbrella and as I didn't want to wet my hat, I put on yours. Hope you don't mind.

The Dust.

They were celebrating their engagement by dining at a swell cafe.

"Do you believe," she queried as the conversation lagged, "that man is really made of dust?"

"Well," he rejoined, glancing at the dinner check, "he wouldn't be able to travel far in your company if he wasn't."

The man of grit carries in his presence a power which spurs him the necessity of resenting insult.—Success.

MUST LOWER THE RATES

Railway Commission Issues New Order To Canadian Roads

Toronto, July 13.—The findings of the Railway Commission with respect to the discrimination in rates from United States points to Canadian points as against those from contiguous Canadian territory to the same destination has been announced, and as a result of the efforts and representations of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association a general readjustment of rates throughout eastern Canada has been brought about. An order of rates must be issued without unnecessary delay.
The new proposition means a general decrease in class freight rates in the territory east of the Detroit River and Sudbury to and including the Maritime Provinces; the same basis of rates from and between all large centres; the same rates in winter as in summer; overcome complaints as to the violation of the long and short haul clause of the Railway Act, except as authorized; the removal of the discrimination which now exists at frontier points in favor of the United States manufacturer; the rates between all points to be based on short line mileage, and as nearly as practicable, uniformly in rates between various distributing centres in Ontario.

Railways may continue to apply from recognized water points, such as Toronto, Hamilton, St. Catharines, etc., a basis in competition with water during the summer slightly lower than the general basis adopted, but there is to be no increase from those prevailing at the present time.
As an illustration as to how the new basis will work out, the present first-class rate, Windsor to Montreal, is 70 cents in the winter and 60 cents in the summer. The new basis will be 58 cents all the year round.
Owner's risk conditions has been so amended and defined that the carriers are liable for loss through negligence on the part of themselves, their agents or employees.
There is to be no disturbance of any special commodity tariffs or commodity rates now in effect where these rates are lower than the new class rates.

ABSURD, SAYS WHITNEY.

Ridicules the Idea of War Between Japan and the U. S.
Buffalo, N.Y., July 13.—Hon. J. P. Whitney, Premier of Ontario, spent several hours in Buffalo yesterday on route to England, where he is going for the summer.

Premier Whitney, when seen by a reporter, was asked what he thought of the war between the United States and Japan, and he replied: "I should hope there was nothing to this war talk. In fact, I don't consider there is anything to it. I can hardly talk seriously on anything so uncalculated for. Surely the Japs are not anxious to go to war with the United States, and I don't believe there is any desire on the part of the United States to go to war with Japan. 'What would they have to fight about, anyway? To me the whole thing seems absurd, and the late advice we are receiving prove how silly it all is.'"
