

THE SNOW

GREAT WHITE FOE OF TRAFFIC IN THE NORTHWEST

Railway Lines Blocked by Sweeping Avalanches—An Army of Men Required to Keep the Tracks Clear—The Heavy Snow Has Been a Great Obstacle to the Freighters.

"Canada is the battle ground of the biggest snow fight on earth. There are thousands of men in the northwest who are busy fighting the winter foe. It is a life that involves the greatest hardship and continual risk. One might search the world over for more desperate and dangerous employment."

It was a Canadian Pacific engine which was traveling over the Rocky Mountains at midnight. Through the glass-paneled door at the tail of the train one could see the icy crests of the mountains in the pale moonlight.

The snow was piled up to the level of the sea near Stollberg, in the famous Harz mountains of Germany, which is attracting as much attention from tourists as did the Eiffel tower in Paris, or the Ferris wheel at the World's Fair.

RIVALS EIFFEL TOWER OF PARIS.

A CROSS BUILT ON THE PEAK OF THE HARZ MOUNTAINS.

Where Tourists Gather at All Seasons of the Year—The Kyffhäuser Ruins May Be Seen From Its Top—A View of Rare Scenic Grandeur—Details of Construction.

A month's observation tower has recently been erected on the Josephshöhe, a mountain 1,231 feet above the level of the sea near Stollberg, in the famous Harz mountains of Germany.

The tower is in the form of a cross; it is 120 feet high and weighs about 55,000 pounds. The colossal structure rests on a quadrangle, shaped into an immense hall, which will hold five hundred people.

When the tower is topped up half way, a gallery is reached which holds a hundred persons, but the highest platform, covered with an awning, has room for about thirty visitors.

The magnificent tower just described is not the first one erected on the Josephshöhe. For centuries, it was crowned by a lofty tower, erected by the forefathers of the present ruling house of Stollberg.

In the year 1708 it was noticed that the first tower, made only of wood, had become worn out and shaky, and it was therefore torn down. Nearly a half century after, in 1822, a new tower was erected at a cost of $10,000, considered an enormous sum at that time.

These, like the present structure, was also in the shape of a cross, reaching to a height of a hundred feet, while the tower under construction is made of masonry and stands five hundred blocks of timber used in its construction.

The tower had a very attractive appearance which raised a bauplan on top. In the year 1880, however, it was destroyed. The structure remained in this condition until 1925, when it was pulled down and its wooden parts sold.

It was soon discovered that in consequence of the disappearance of the tower the tourists who had hitherto come to the Josephshöhe remained away. In the year 1925, however, it was decided by the ruling house of Stollberg and the prosperous Harz Tourist Club to erect a tower having the shape of a mammoth.

The structure was erected at a cost of $18,000, to which the family of Stollberg contributed $2,500, the remainder being contributed by the Harz Club from its members.

Thousands of tourists have climbed to the top since its completion. The view from the highest platform is one of rare scenic grandeur. A panorama unfolds which is beyond the scope of any other view of the Harz mountains.

The tower is in the shape of a cross, and is unequalled by that of no other observation tower in Europe. It is a silver tower, which is held by the proud outline of the Kyffhäuser monument, with its stately and massive pillars, and its silver tower, which is held by the proud outline of the Kyffhäuser monument.

Under favorable circumstances, the snow never reaches the top of the tower. At times, however, under the battery to which it is subjected, it may become so heavily compressed, and so solid, more impenetrable as each renewed charge, a solid, unyielding block of snow, which may be broken up only by the use of dynamite.

At such a time it is no unusual thing to see several hundred men at the single drift. Perhaps eight or a dozen platforms are cut in the snow, and thus the snow is removed from the line as it passes through the tunnel, climbing the steep walls in its upward climb, until it finally reaches the top, where a thirty or forty feet above the heads of the workers on the ground level.

The thing that has simplified the task of snow clearing more than anything else, especially in the prairie country, is the rotary plow. The appearance of the rotary plow, which is a familiar sight by railroad men, reminds one of nothing so much as the crew propeller of a steamship. It is a circular blade, about twelve feet in diameter, that bores its way into snowbanks, clearing just enough space to enable the waiting train to pass through.

As the winter goes on, the snow is piled higher and higher on both sides of the railway. FATE OF LADY SYKES

ENGLISH SOCIETY IS BADLY SHAKEN BY THIS LATEST SCANDAL

Baroness's Trial to Come—Verdict in the Note Case Was a Surprise to Everyone—The Baroness's Wife Gets With Money-Lender, Jay and Gets Possession of the Note.

(Special Correspondent.) London, Feb. 23.—What is to become of Lady Sykes? This is the question which is agitating London clubland, and through the country, and which is being asked by the public at large.

The trial was a notable affair, for it was not every day that a noble relative of the Duke of Portland, the wealthiest aristocrat of the most aristocratic nobles of England, is a defendant in a case involving £50,000.

A SUCCESSFUL EVANGELIST.

REV. W. A. DUNNETT, A MAN WHOSE GOOD WORK IS WIDELY KNOWN.

He Relates Events in His Career of General Interest—For years he Suffered from Heart Trouble, and Frequently from Collapse—On One Occasion Five Doctors Were in Attendance—He is Now Freed from His Old Enemy, and Enjoys the Blessing of Good Health.

Throughout Canada, from the western boundary of Ontario to the Atlantic Ocean, there is no name more widely known in temperance and evangelistic work than that of Rev. W. A. Dunnett.

Mr. Dunnett has been the Grand Vice-Councillor of the Royal Templars, and so popular is he among the members of the order that in Montreal there is a Royal Templars council named "Dunnett Council" in his honor.

At that time, at Mr. Dunnett's request, his statement was only published locally, but now writing under the date of Jan. 21st, from Fitchburg, Mass., where he has been conducting a very successful series of evangelistic meetings, he says:—"I had held back from writing in regard to my health, not because I had forgotten, but because it seemed too good to be true that the old time patient will ever return to his former state of health."

LENENT PASTORAL, 1898.

To the Faithful in Christ Jesus of the Parish of Lansdowne.

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN,— Lent, with all its privileges and possibilities, is here once more.

The Church calls us to use this holy season as a means of spiritual growth and strength.

A faithful children, shall we not gladly obey her call, and enter upon this season of Lent?

Some would criticize the necessity of Lent in this day of our civilization.

Let us, as good soldiers of the Cross, follow our Lord's example, and indeed, apart from Lent, we may be drilled in all spiritual graces and become better fitted to continue our warfare against the world, the flesh and the devil.

It is impossible to touch on the various public questions of the day in this brief notice, but I shall take occasion to meet as many of the electors as possible before the election will explain my views in greater length.

Trust me to have your liberal support. I have the honor to be, Your obedient servant, W. J. WEBSTER.

MALLOREY TOWN

MONDAY, Feb. 21.—A sleigh load of young people of the village drove down to Stewart McMillan's at Riverside on Thursday night. They report a fine time.

Quite a number of Oddfellows and their wives spent a very pleasant evening at the Oddfellows' hall last week.

Mr. Wm. Ferguson purchased a fine Jersey cow from Mr. Percy Gardner a few days ago.

There was not a very large attendance at the quarterly service, which was held Sunday in the Methodist church on account of the storm.

The second year of Mr. Campbell, the road instructor, has taken root. The township council has taken the necessary steps to make good roads in this township.

Miss Hattie Judd is visiting friends in Gananoque.

Miss Catherine Trickey is on the sick list.

Missionary Life in China.

A former Franklinville boy, Dr. O. L. Kilborn, now a missionary in China writes from Chentu as follows:—"The city has been free from frost for several months now there has been no snow since the first of the year."

Last year about one or two months, the city was thrown into a ferment about children stolen for the foreigner's kitchen; and a man was apprehended on his way to sell a child to a man on one occasion, a report spread like wildfire that a foreigner had been caught red handed stealing a child!

At that time we were menaced by an expected distribution of rice which meant that on a certain date a mob would gather in our street, demand the rice which was announced would give, and failing in their demands would immediately begin the process of smashing at in 1895.

We are thankful for peace and quietness for our own comfort and for the work's sake.

Best of Unmarried.

The woman who proudly declares that she cannot even be a pocket handkerchief, never made up a bed in her life, and adds with a simper that she's "been in society ever since she was fifteen," should not marry. And that's the end.

The woman who would rather nurse a pug dog than a baby.

The woman who thinks she can get $5,000 worth of style out of a $1,000 salary.

The woman who wants to furnish her house every spring.

The woman who buys for the mere pleasure of buying.

The woman who thinks she is an ornament to her sex if she wins a progressive euchre prize.

The woman who thinks that men are angels and demigods.

The woman who would rather die than be a woman two seasons old.

The woman who thinks that the cook and nurse can keep house.

The woman who thinks it is cheaper to buy bread than to make it.

The woman who buys bric-a-brac for the parlor and borrows kitchen utensils from her neighbors.

The woman who wants things just because "other women" have them.

The woman who thinks she is an ornament to her sex if she wins a progressive euchre prize.

The woman who thinks that men are angels and demigods.

Two Ounces of Blood Daily

The Secret of Perfect Health is to Have Pure Blood. Thousands of diseases which the human flesh is heir to have their origin in the blood. The object of Dr. Campbell's Red Blood Forming Capsuloids is to keep the Blood Pure, thereby taking one three times daily they increase the supply of oxygen and Purify the Blood.

Anemia is caused by bankruptcy of the Blood. The Blood fails to take up the oxygen breathed into the lungs, the germs of disease multiply, the weakest part of the system is attacked, and sickness is the result.

THE FOOD We eat does not supply the blood with sufficient iron to meet the demands of Nature.

RESULT: The blood is thin and watery and you become pale and weak.

Capsuloids are the Natural Iron and when taken into the stomach dissolve immediately and the iron is absorbed by the blood and in this way strength is created, vitality restored, and are what you need to make you robust, healthy and strong.

are sold at 50c a box or 6 boxes for $2.50, by J. P. Lamb & Son, Athens, or sent on receipt of price from The Canadian Branch.

Wonders of the Law. The wonders of the law are illuminated by a suit which has just been adjudicated upon by Judge Morgan at Toronto.

The session Orders it. Whig. The choir of one of the Presbyterian churches was notified to discontinue chanting the "Amen" at the close of hymns. The practice was commenced in the church with the adoption of the new Presbyterian hymnal which makes provision for the usual closing prayer. The session, which had charge of the musical service in the church, adopted the new hymnal and has now issued an order to drop the "Amen." The injunction was a surprise to both the choir and the congregation, who fail yet to discern the difference between an "Amen" at the end of the minister's prayer or the "Amen" at the close of their prayer, or phrases, even if offered with a variation of vocal notes.

A Boy's Competition on Hens. The other day a teacher of one of the juvenile classes in the public school was handed the following composition on hens by one of her pupils. "Hens is curious animals. They have no nose, nor no teeth nor no ears. They swallow their vittles whole, and chew it up in their crops inside of 'em. The outside of hens is generally put into pillars and feather dusters. The inside of a hen is sometimes filled up with marbles and shirt buttons and such. A hen is very much smaller than a good many other animals but they'll dig up more tomato plants than anything that aint a hen. Hens is very useful to lay eggs for a plum pudding. Bet your life I like plum pudding. Hens has got wings and can fly when they are scart. I cut my uncle William's hen's neck off with a hatchet and it scart her to death. Hens sometimes make very fine spring chickens.

FRONT OF YONGE. MONDAY, FEB. 20.—Arthur Leader has opened up a fine general store in the premises formerly occupied by the late G. Tennant.

Old Mr. Bulger of McIntosh Mills is still attached to his home. Mr. Ormond Gibson of Summerside is making great improvements on his mountain, such as trimming pine trees and thinning them out.

Mr. Eli Tennant of Caintown is doing diving elms at Negro rock, Yonge Mills, for an American firm. Mrs. Nowlan's picture in the Athens Reporter was an excellent one.

Mr. James Cain of Whitehorse Rapids is on his annual tour bottoning chairs.

A hard winter was evident from the fact that the muskrats on Fly marsh built such large houses. They are made of wald hay.

Greater New York will be the site of a World's Fair in 1901, which, it is promised, will eclipse all previous efforts.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as seen by Our Editor of the Front.—Local news items. Billed Right Down. This is Ash Wednesday.

Work is progressing on the new shaft at Chesterton Lake. Bails, fence stakes, and posts for sale. Appl. to S. Y. Bullis.

Bar. Dr. Nimmo, rector of Trinity church, Brockville, is going to Dakota to practise medicine.

We are pleased to state that Mr. Thos. Berney is now making satisfactory progress towards recovery.

An even half-hundred of the poor of the united counties are now enjoying the warmth and protection of the industrial home.

A wealthy young lawyer of Chicago spent two days and nights over one case and at the end of that time could not tell which side he was on. It was a case of champagne.

Missionary services will be conducted in the Methodist church on Sunday, March 6th, by Rev. Mr. Reynolds of Mallorytown, morning and evening.

Dr. J. Patterson of Nebraska gave his friends here a pleasant surprise on Saturday evening by his arrival home. His visit at this time is owing to the illness of his brother, Howard.

All parties indebted to Charles Botham, blacksmith, Unionville, are hereby notified that their accounts must be settled at once, either by cash or note.

S. Y. Bullis will pay the highest price for ash, elm, and basswood logs. Must be free from knots and defects and cut 12 feet long, to be delivered at his sawmill near the station.

Farmers in the vicinity of Stouffville, Ont. have organized a farmers' pack-packing industry. It ought to be feasible for farmers to cooperate in the manufacture of bacon, etc., as well as butter and cheese.

Rideau Record: Arrangements had been made for a hockey match here tomorrow between the young hockey players of Athens and Smith's Falls, but owing to the bad roads it has been postponed until next week.

On Thursday last Mr. Geo. P. Graham, Liberal candidate in the Brockville riding, was elected to the office of Grand Master of the Ontario Order of United Workmen, the highest position in this well-known insurance organization.

Mr. Knapp, of roller lost fame, is busy at work at his home in Prescott on the model of another boat, the construction of which will be commenced shortly by the late Wm. Broder, a famous craft will be launched in July and the inventor claims that as a defensive power it will eclipse anything yet invented.

That it pays to advertise was fully demonstrated last week, when W. G. McLaughlin, Athens, and the other latest letters of enquiry about his Perfection Cement Roofing from parties in Carleton Place, Smith's Falls and Ottawa, who had seen his bills. He has secured a large order for roofing as the result of the correspondence.

The weather for the past few days has been anything but favorable for skating rinks, but Mr. Geo. Pickett, manager of the Athens rink, has successfully combated all the storms and still has a sheet of excellent ice. At the request of a large number of patrons and friends of his rink, he has announced a fancy dress carnival for Friday evening next. He says the success of the event is assured.

Toronto Globe: Local and foreign buyers report that they are paying invariably from twenty-five to fifty per cent more for all classes of goods than they did a year ago, and that they are scarce and hard to get at that. There seems little doubt that this spring horses will cost the consumer more than at any time during the last fifty years. Parties expecting to require horses will save money by buying this month.

Messrs. Wm. and J. M. Westlake of Glen Bell started last week for the Klondyke. They will outfit at Vancouver and proceed by steamer to Wrangell. The Recorder says that they are "the first actual gold seekers to leave this section." What's the matter with Athens' representative in the new Eldorado? It's "actual gold" that "Bones" is seeking and he's about as likely to find it, above or below, as anyone else.

As a proof of the popularity of the Reporter job department, we may mention that last week we printed 1050 auction bills besides the usual amount of miscellaneous job work. The auction bills were ordered from Laidlaw, Caintown, Chantry, Glen Bell, Toronto, and McIntosh Mills. That free notice in the column under the "Champion" auctioneer's plucky catches the public every time.

We would be pleased to send to any one requiring bill heads, letter heads, business cards, or envelopes, samples of our new style of Lithographic work, which is equal in looks and finish to the best styles of Lithographic work, at but a trifle more cost than the ordinary black and white style work. We have done a large amount of this work for a number of the best firms in Brockville, Delta, Athens, and elsewhere. Call and see them.

Lady Henry Somerset has written a letter to Lord George Hamilton, the Secretary of State for India, to the effect that the letter which she wrote him early in 1897 in connection with the repeal of the Indian Contaminants Acts was widely misused, and she therefore desires to see the original endorsement of any form or principle of state regulation of vice. The latter of the W. C. T. U. are correspondingly elated.

The Directors of Unionville will meet on Tuesday, March 3rd, to revise the prize list for 1906. Any member or intending exhibitor is requested to send to the secretary or any member of the board, any suggestions as to changes or additions that they think might be beneficial. The directors earnestly request that every one entering an interest in Unionville fair for the coming season will assist them in making the prize list as near perfection as possible.

A hearer of Mr. Moody at Montreal, was so touched by the evangelist's discourse on Monday, that he sent Mr. Moody a letter enclosing $395, out of which he had had defrauded the Customs.

Why

Do people buy Hood's Sarsaparilla in preference to any other?—In fact almost all of them do.

They know from actual use that Hood's is the best, i. e., it cures when others fail. Hood's Sarsaparilla is still made under the personal supervision of the educated pharmacist who originated it.

The question of best is just as positively decided in favor of Hood's as the question of comparative sales.

Another thing: Every advertisement of Hood's Sarsaparilla is true, is honest, is reliable.
