Poetry.

'Twas only yesterday evening, As in the dark we sat, My mother ask'd me sharply-" Pray, Mary, who is that ? " Who's that, indeed !--you're certain How much she made me start ;

Men seem to lose their wisdom Whene'er they lose their heart !

Yes-there he is-I see him ; The lamp his shadow throws Across the curtain'd window ; He's stepping on his toes ! He'll never think of tapping,

Or making any din ; A knock, though e'en the slightest, Is worse than looking in !

Tap ! tap !-- would any think it ! He never learns to mind; "Tis surely most surprising-He thinks my mother blind !

'Tis plain I must go to him ; It's no use now to cough ;-I'll open the door just softly,

If but to send him off ! 'Tis well if from the door-step He be not shortly hurled-Oh, men, there ne'er was trouble Till ye came in the world ! Tapping at the window, And peeping o'er the blind & Oh, man, but you are trouble,

Our late townsman, Mr John Dodd, now of Flamborough, has invented a model of a steam engine, of immense power and simple construction, which it is supposed may ultimately supersede the pre-sent engines. Mr Dodd will carry it to the-great exhibition in London in the Spring. At the next criminal sessions of Oct. 2d, two men were tried and condemned for ed question. murder; one was hanged, the other was reprieved on the evening preceding his in-tended execution. They had entered the house of a kept mistress, by connivance of a female friend, tied up her head with a sarree, and secured sufficiation by sitting on her bosom. The wretches seem to have been from ten to fifteen minutes employed in their murderous work, while rica.' the woman who admitted them lay, by her own account, bound on the floor. The robbery desired to be perpetrated was then committed. While the sessions were sitting, another murder, equally cold-blooded and atrocious, occurred. A poor old wo-man, an oil-seller, possessed some jewels; she was enticed into a dwelling-house, and while measuring out oil, she was attacked by two Parsees and strangled with a bucket-rope. These three last murders--all of women-occurred within a fortnight of each other. We find since, a Chinaman put to death by two European sailors. We have next a horse-keeper poisoned; then four men butchered at Mahim in a fit of fury by members of another religious sect; next a courtezan poisoned, three couple of men for the sake of plunder ; in all, in four months, 9 human lives cruelly destroyed by murderers, and nearly forty individuals charged with murder, directly or as accomplices. The death of the Chinaman and slaughter at Mahim were perpetrated in passion, the others were cold-blooded atrocities, perpetrated by the most cruel means fer the most paltry motives. While recent acts of blood such as impulsive, that do what his lawyer may,

THE CLEAR GRITS AND THE MINISTE-RIALISTS .- These two sections of Canadian politicians have carried on a wordy warfare, of no ordinary extent, for more than twelve months ; but what effect their depunciations of each other will have on the approaching general election, remains at present a matter of conjecture. The former, party have all the advantages arising from truth and patriotism, but these, weighed in the balance, against power, patronage and fat livings, are often found not to principles, and looking up to those men as if they were the ne plus ultra of the Hamilton Spectator, British Colonist, wanting. The mass, wedded to men and disinterested politicians are too apt to impute selfishness and interested otives to those who would interfere, even in the slightest degree, with their previously established opinions ; hence the reasons why the retrenchment principles of the Clear Grit and the Conservative have found so little favor with the Ministerialists. The events of the last session of Parliament are an evidence that Messrs. Baldwin, Hincks and Co. will not submit to a retrenchment of the government expenses, and if the Country support them in this, at the next general election, and return them again to place and power, retrenchment will become a dead letter, and the people will still have to bear their present burdens. The present is the time for reflection and organization. In a few months it will be too late, and the men who have ruined the commerce of the country and mpoverished its revenues will be placed in a position to continue their bungling and deceptive system of Legislation for four years longer. Mr Fergusson the member for the County of Waterloo, whose conduct is so graphically described in the subjoined extract is a fair sample of the supporters of the Ministry. DO NOT NEGLECT IT.

CONSUMPTION can be and has been cured in housands of cases by this only certain remedy, JUDSON'S CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF CHERRY AND LUNGWORT.

And no remedy has ever before been discovered that will certainly CURE CONSUMPTION.

The most strongly marked and developed cases of Pulmonary Consumption, where the lungs have become diseased and ulcerated, and the case so utterly hopeless as to have been pronounced by physicians and friends to be past all possibility of been cured by this wonderful remedy, and are now as well and hearty as ever. It is a compound of medications which are peculiarly adapted to and essentially necessary for the cure of

EAST INDIA HAIR DYE. COLORS THE HAIR, AND WILL NOT THE SKIN.

This dye may be applied to the hair over night the first night turning the lightest RED or GREY HAIR to a dark brown, and by repeating a se-cond night, to a bright jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble, keep his hair any dark shade or perfect black; with a posi-tive assurance that the dye, if applied to the skin, will not color it. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will never be known to have a grey hair. Directions complete with the article. There is no coloring in this statement, as one can easily test.

IF These facts are warrant"d by the gentle man who manufactures it, who is the celebrated Chemist, Dr. Constock, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and other works, and School Books, well known and widely celebrated by the public.

Dr. Spohn's Sick Headache Remedy.

Why will you suffer with that distressing com plaint, when a remedy is at hand that will not fail to cure you? This remedy will effectually de-wtrov any attack of headache, either norvous or bilious. It has cured cases of 20 years standing.

TO THE LADIES.

The Genuine Balm of Columbia for Restoring the Hair.

"Long hair is a glory to woman," says Paul, And all feel the truth of the pious quotation Preserve it then, ladies, your glory may fall, Unless you protect it with this preparation.

If you wish a rich, luxuriant head of hair, free from dandruff and scurf, do not fail to procure the genuine Balm of Columbia. In cases of baldness, i. will more than exceed your expectations. Many who have lost their hair for twenty years, have hat it restored to its original perfection by the use of this Balm. Age, state, or condition, appears turbe no obstacle whatever i talso causes the fluid to flow with which the delicate hair tubes are filled, by which means thousands (whose hair was as gray as the Asiatic eagle) have had their hair restored to its matural color by this invaluable re-inedy. In all cases of fever, it will be found the most pleasant wash that can be used. A few applications only are necessary to keep the hair from falling out. It strengthens the roots, it never fails to impart a rich glossy appearance, and as a per-fume for the toilet it is unequalled. It holds three times as much as other miscalled hair restoratives, hereby notified to do so before the next and is more effective.

TIS BETTER NOT TO KNOW. BY SAMUEL LOVER

You say you love me-can I trust That she, by many woo'd, By one, at length, has had her heart To constancy subdued ? Perchance some other love is there-But do not tell me so :---Since knowledge would but bring me grief, 'Tis better not to know.

Perchance that eye has beam'd with loye In days I knew not thee-That ruby lip hath bent in smiles For others than for me; But let that lip still silence keep, I'll trust its love-like show : Since knowledge would but bring me grief,

'Tis better not to know. Oh ! what a simple fondness mine, Whose wishes make its creed ! But let me think you love me still, And I'll be blest indeed ! 'Tis better that the eye ne'er see, "Fhan that its tears should flow-When knowledge would but bring us grief,

From " Travels in the East." ARMENIAN BURIAL GROUNDS.

At Smyrna, the burial ground of the Armenians, like that of the Moslem, is removed a short distance from the town, sprinkled with green trees, and is a favorite resort, not only with the bereaved, but with those whose sorrowful feelings are thus deeply overcast. I met one morning a little girl with a half playful countenance, beaming blue eyes, and sumny locks, bearing in one hand a small N E W S T A G E LINE. cup of china, and in the other a wreath of flowers. Feeling a very natural curiosity to know what she could do with these bright things in a place that seemed to partake of so much sadness. I watched her light motions. Reaching a retired grave, covered with a plain marble slab, she emptied the seeds-which is appeared the cup contained—into the slight cavities p that had been scooped out in the corners of the level tablet, and laid the wreaths on "my sweet little girl, do you put the seeds pal Hotels in both places. in those little bowls there ?
