J. K. CORNWALL WAS THE ONLY SPEAKER

Comes Out as Supporter of Railway Policy in the Legislature—Stewart Moves the Adjournment—Cornwall General Mitchell Explains New Municipalities Bill.

James K. Cornwall, member for Peace River, was the sole speaker in the debate on the speech from the throne at the sitting of the legislature yesterday afternoon. Mr. Cornwall gave the government absolute assurance of his support on their policy of railroad construction and the building of good roads.

Routine business was disposed of in half an hour at yesterday's session and the speech from the throne came up for further consideration at half past three o'clock. Mr. Cornwall had the floor for nearly an hour and when he had finished speaking, the adjournment of the debate was moved by Dr. Stewart of Lettbridge.

The House continued and reverted to the order of business taking up government motions and public bills and orders. After considerable discussion, the bill to provide for raising money not exceeding $5,000,000 for the extension of the telephone system and for the establishment and construction of trunk roads and bridges was read a second time.

Mr. Cornwall in opening his address declared that he intended to confine his remarks to those subjects in the speech from the throne which particularly concerned the north country, railways, highways and natural resources. He said that he was particularly anxious to refer to the matter of making personal references though tempted to do so. He wished to take exception to the frequent reference to the A. & G. W. transaction by members of the opposition. He and his friend, the member for Stettin, had been taking a short course in Latin from the member for Ponoka and had decided that the A. & G. W. affair was now "sub judice" and should not be discussed at all at the present time.

Referring to the subject of provincial control of natural resources, Mr. Cornwall expressed the hope that the government would approach such an important undertaking in a way that would insure success. The action should not go precipitate as it was in the arrangement for giving the north transportation facilities. It would be a mistake for the government to undertake to secure the natural resources without knowing what they were going to get. A commission should be appointed to go over the north country, thoroughly and investigate all its resources. A motion to this effect he would introduce later. Without such action, the House would be wasting time in making efforts to gain the natural resources of the province. The Conservative party at Ottawa would be ill advised to be trying to settle with the province without knowing what its natural resources were. Mr. Cornwall gave the government at Ottawa credits for being sincere in stating that it was ready to turn over the natural resources to the province, as he always adhered to the practice of taking a man or a party at his word until he had been proved otherwise.

To Look After North Interests. Politics, Mr. Cornwall averred, was not his particular concern in attending the legislature, but to see that business was done and that the north country was not neglected. Hitherto neither party had paid much attention to the north. He declared himself in accord with the good sense and policy and the railway policy of the government and intended to give it his absolute support. His constituency had said to him when he was elected "go down and get results," and that was the only politics he knew. Public sentiment was behind the railway policy of the government, of that there was no doubt. When asking for the natural resources, Alberta, Mr. Cornwall declared, should call for the extension of her boundaries from the 60th parallel to the Arctic coast. The province with such boundaries would contain the second largest watershed in the North American continent.

Mr. Cornwall expressed his thanks to Mr. Bramley Moore for his efforts in writing and publishing a book on Alberta's natural resources and how they might be provincially controlled. He thanked his friends in the legislature who had stood by him in troublesome times. A good deal of the time of the house had been wasted in the past in political bickering. All this should be a closed chapter from this time on. It was time Alberta learned to believe in itself. It was time the members of the legislature got away from the little troubles which had caused so much discomfort and brought disgrace upon the province.

The speaker here concluded and the adjournment of the debate was moved by Dr. Stewart of Lettbridge, who will have the floor when the speech from the throne comes up for further consideration on Monday.

The House reverted to order of business and Premier Sifton brought up for second reading the bill to provide for the raising of money, not exceeding $5,000,000, for the extension of the telephone system and for the establishment and construction of trunk roads and bridges.

Mr. Mitchell moved the adjournment of the debate with reference to the bill to provide for the raising of money, not exceeding $5,000,000, for the extension of the telephone system and for the establishment and construction of trunk roads and bridges.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS FOR YEAR 1910 ARE BEFORE THE HOUSE

Premier Sifton Tabled Statement of Receipts and Expenditures for Last Year—Total Revenues Were Nearly Six Millions—$1,192,728.66 Received From Federal Government.

The first week of the session of the legislature has made it evident that the business to be transacted can not, without miraculous despatch, be completed before Christmas. The work has piled up before the House that even with continuous night sessions from Monday next till Christmas eve it could scarcely be disposed of in full. The probability is that at the end of next week, or on Friday, Dec. 18th, the government will move for adjournment until after the New Year.

Members of the legislature are just beginning to realize the extent of the work they have before them. Two of the government bills, that respecting rural municipalities and that respecting townships, are of such length, that each of them will likely occupy the attention of the House in committee of the whole for two hours a day for a week. Judging from the obstructive attitude already adopted by the opposition, the reading of these bills may take up even more time. And these are only two of a number of important bills the government has brought before the House, though by far the longest. There are in addition an unusually large number of private bills.

The statement of revenue received by the treasurer of the province during the year 1910 shows that $1,122,728.66 were received from the Dominion of Canada, $1,023,598.89 being the amount of the annual subsidy, $98,831.86 receipts from the sale of public school lands, $250 paid under the Chinese Immigration Act. The total receipts of the year were $2,246,158.55. The expenditures correspond with receipts, $1,149,218.89 being paid on capital account of public works and $2,096,939.66 on the ordinary account.

Such laws have generally been passed after closing bylaws were effective. The new act will ensure the early closing of shops in all areas in which the bill is made operative on petition for a particular trade. The hours and areas to be affected will rest with the local authority.

The bill to incorporate the Athabasca Valley Railway Company was given its first reading and was brought down by Mr. Cote, Mr. Tweedle presented a petition to introduce a bill to amend the charter of the city of Calgary. Mr. L. Roberts presented a petition for a bill respecting the regulation of the practice of optometry in the province.

Harold Riley gave notice of a number of questions through which he hopes to learn something more of the government's railway policy. He asks to what extent if at all, the government proposes to guarantee the roads of the Canadian Northern and Western Railway Company and on what lines and at what rate of interest.

Mr. Mitchell moved the adjournment of the debate with reference to the bill to provide for the raising of money, not exceeding $5,000,000, for the extension of the telephone system and for the establishment and construction of trunk roads and bridges.

MINISTRY IGNORES EFFORTS FOR SHUSTER

Feeling in England Was Aroused by Belief that Government Had Joined With Russia to Overthrow Government Methods in Persia.

London, Dec. 9.—The Persian imbroglio has apparently settled down in the quietude of a routine policy for the removal of W. Morgan Shuster, the American treasurer general. Persia is endeavoring to effect a compromise and Shuster may be able to retain Mr. Shuster's services as he has offered to curtail his powers if he demanded for his dismissal be ignored by the ministry.

PARLIAMENT HILL HAS BEEN DESERTED

Most of the Members Have Left for Their Homes—Wife of Ex-Election Officer in South Renfrew to be Issued Shortly.

Ottawa, Dec. 8.—Parliament Hill is deserted. Apart from a few members who will remain in the capital over the holidays, practically all have departed for their homes. As Premier Borden went to New York yesterday and several of the cabinet ministers are out of the city, there will be no sitting of the cabinet here Monday or Tuesday. One of the first things to be considered will be doubtless, the issuance of a writ for by-election in South Renfrew, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of T. A. Law. It may be that in order to avoid any contest during the holiday season, the writ will not be issued until after New Year.

There are no decisive developments as to what course events will take, but it is decided to oppose Graham, the Conservative candidate will in all probability be Dr. Maloney of Extonville, who was defeated by Mr. Low on September 21. Dr. Maloney will be in Ottawa tomorrow. It is said, to confer with the Ontario minister and it is possible that a decision will be reached. The probabilities are said to indicate a contest and if there is a fight, it should be a great battle.

This Concrete Root Cellar Costs Less Than Wood and is Much More Durable. Cement is particularly adapted to the construction of Root Cellar floors and walls. Experience proves that for the farmer, concrete is superior to wood in every point of comparison. Concrete permits of a desirable degree of coolness without freezing. There is no question as to its durability. Concrete lasts, not for years, but for ages; and needs no repair. Anyone who has scooped vegetables from the old plank floor will appreciate the fact that concrete offers a smooth, continuous surface with no protruding plank ends or nails to damage the scoop or ruffle the temper of the scooper.

The various uses to which concrete may be profitably put, on the farm, are plainly and simply in our 160-page book, "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete," which shows how the following farm buildings and utilities can be constructed of concrete: Barns, Cisterns, Dairies, Dipping Tanks, Foundations, Fence Posts, Feeding Floors, Gutter, Horse Nests, Hitching Posts, Horse Blocks, Houses, Poultry Shelter Walls, Stables, Stalls, Stalls, Steps, Tanks, Troughs, Walks, and so forth. EDMONTON, DECEMBER 9, 1911.

Mr. Kenna, M.P.P., for Fincher Creek, voiced on Thursday the disappointment of the people of his riding that more railways had not been built through their district.

ROAD-MAKING ON A BUSINESS BASIS

The Provincial Government proposes to devote a lump sum of a million dollars to road-making. The sum is a large one, but so is the need, and the advantage to be gained and the proportion to the amount of money that will have to be spent before the roads of the Province are made uniformly and permanently good is not large.

It is significant rather than surprising that the determination to put road-making in this Province on its proper basis, as a permanent improvement, and to assess some part of the cost of it upon those who in after years will share the benefits.

The business of the Legislature during the week would have been facilitated if some one with a moderate amount of information had told the Opposition members and explained to them that the debate on the address was not the last and only opportunity they would have during the session to make speeches.

There is a small district in the eastern portion of the Province in which herd law applies, and in which in consequence the grain farmers have no fences about their farms.

THE GOVERNMENT AND THE "NE TEMERE" DECREE. The discussions which have taken place in the House of Commons since the opening of the Session have cleared up several mysteries connected with the late election. It is universally conceded that the Conservative sweep of Ontario was as great a surprise to the victors as it was to the vanquished.

ally conceded that the Conservative sweep of Ontario was as great a surprise to the victors as it was to the vanquished, and the question "Why?" could not be answered from a consideration of the election campaign, as it appeared in the public press. It was only by the indirect statements of supporters of the present Government made in the course of debate, that the knowledge was conveyed that appeals to religious prejudice based on the "ne temere" decree in regard to mixed marriages, was largely responsible for the defeat of the late Government.

The question of the responsibility of the Government for dealing with the attitude of the Roman Catholic church on the subject of mixed marriages, had been raised in the late Parliament by means of questions asked the Government. In all cases the answer was that the Government had no authority and therefore no responsibility in the matter.

These items are identical with those brought down last session by the Laurier Government, but which owing to the blockade established by the Opposition did not get through in time for use during the past summer. A sum equivalent to five-twelfths of the whole estimate was allowed to pass in order that the current business of the country might go on; and the remainder is now being asked to pass.

Had Mr. Borden and his friends taken a more reasonable attitude at last session, some of the more pressing projects might now be well on toward completion. Other than the fact that the money had not been voted, there was no reason why—

The Opposition have forced the Borden Ministry to take note of the demand for a reduction of the duty on agricultural implements. Accordingly, the first task of the new tariff commission will be to investigate the result of the duty on this line of manufactured goods; in other words, to seek plausible pretenses for not granting the reduction.

It is reported that Hon. F. W. G. Haultain is to be appointed to the Supreme court bench of Saskatchewan. That is perhaps the easiest way of getting rid of a provincial leader who was no longer in the favor of the party at Ottawa and his backers.

THE DIFFERENCE GOES. On December 5th in the House of Commons Mr. Currie, of South Simcoe, said as reported in Hansard:— "Mr. Currie—During the campaign the farmers would come and say to me 'Mr. Currie, can you tell us how it is according to the Liberals we are going to get more of our products if we have reciprocity, and that the people who buy these products will pay less for them?'" whom he appeals for election. The retirement of Mr. Haultain under the circumstances would be as honorable to himself as dishonorable to the party who demanded his head as the price of his honesty and to the party chief who dared not deny the price.

The Winnipeg Telegram thinks it remarkable that the cement merger should have declared a reduction in the price of cement so soon after the elevation of a Government reputed to be the creature and tool of trusts and mergers. There is nothing remarkable about it. The "reduction" is a sop thrown to the public in hope of checking a movement which threatened the security of the merger government and the cement merger's "protection."

During recent months the cement merger has been subjected to a bombardment of wide-spread and vigorous attacks from the low tariff parties such as few of our glaucous combinations have yet encountered, largely because the devices of the cement merger have been better known than those of other mercenary parties.

These items are identical with those brought down last session by the Laurier Government, but which owing to the blockade established by the Opposition did not get through in time for use during the past summer. GOVERNMENT ANTI-IMPATRIOTIC

Mr. Speaker—It will be an answer to your question. It reads:— MATTHEWS-LAING ISSUE. A public issue of the Matthews-Laing Packing Co.'s 6 per cent bonds will shortly be made by C. Meredith and Co., Ltd., of Montreal, who purchased $1,200,000 worth of these securities. It is understood that most of the bonds have already been placed with financial houses, who are attracted to them by the splendid earnings of the company.

The Hand of Fate. I was glad to hear of the decision in the most emphatic manner on his part of the trusts, mergers and combinations. It is a relief to find that the leading voice in the government which has declared itself in favor of the trusts, mergers and combinations, is now in the hands of a child—the safest and most reliable heater made.

Reciprocity involves, by its nature, an arrangement between two countries. The United States is concerned, which for forty years refused reciprocity. But we have friends who are not so far from the truth as to believe that policy for a moment, expected to accept it as policy of that country. It is surely entitled to be the fact that when the came to Canada to see her material conditions, able to be satisfied. It is assumed in the course of the present time, that the United States is clamoring for reciprocity, that it should be certain time—who, as a Toronto World on February announced their opposition. And I notice in name of the present instance (Mr. White), I note other names—that of Mr. It is, sir, a matter of record that patriotic city which will not truck or Yankee was also a big keep trust.

And, to my mind, the question of what the attitude of Canada is to be in this matter of the naval defense of the white line is even more important than the question as to whether the imperialists should be allowed to control the affairs of this country for the next four years.

INDIAN CHIEF PREACHES PAGANISM AT NIAGARA

Thunder Water, After Christening of Grand-daughter, Declares Child Will Later be Given Chance to Choose Between Christ and Manitow—Derides Christians.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., Dec. 11—With his face turned towards the setting sun, his god, Chief Oshewa Niagara (Thunder Water) spoke the last words which will probably ever be heard here for the pagan faith of the Indians at Table Rock on the Canadian side, after the christening of his grand-daughter, Princess Kag Paw Qua (Morning Beauty) daughter of Louis Kekuk Palmeto of Cleveland, Ohio.

The pagan christening took place in the case of the Winds under the Horseshoe falls. Here in 1848 Chief Thunder Water was named by his pagan people of the Osage and Delaware of Kansas, while they were on their way to pay a visit to Indians near Montreal. The christening yesterday was performed by the Rev. G. E. Harris, of St. Paul, church of this city.

Afterwards, by way of protest, Chief Thunder Water, a handful of his people with him, made an address for the pagan faith. Standing at the western edge of the great fall, he said: "The Christian says the Pagan is a fool. I was raised a Pagan. I have lived a Pagan, and I shall die a Pagan. I have seen the Catholics warring against the Protestants, the Protestants warring among themselves, and each warring against the Jew. The Indians never learned to assist themselves, about religion.

"This child is christened because she lived under a Christian name and will have to obey Christian laws, but she shall later be baptized as a Pagan, and when she is old enough to decide for herself she shall choose between Christ and Manitow.

London, England, Dec. 11—The best news gradually gaining ground in well informed circles in London that whenever a vacancy occurs in the Lord Lieutenancy of Ireland it will be filled by Prince Arthur of Connaught. It has been known among his friends for some time that Prince Arthur has aspirations in this direction, and it is said that the appointment will be by general agreement between the Government and the Opposition and the Irish party in the House of Commons. General agreement in this respect is held that Prince Arthur will not be sent to Dublin until the Home Rule bill has been passed and has become law.

LIVE STOCK SHIPPERS CONFER IN TORONTO

Resolution Unanimously Carried Calling for Amendment of General Merchandise Bill of Lading to Live Stock Shipments.

Toronto, Dec. 10—After an all day meeting and the fullest discussion by representatives from all live stock shipping interests all over Canada, a committee composed of one representative from each of the provinces and one from each interest connected with the shipment of live stock was appointed to meet the representatives of the various companies at 10 o'clock on Monday morning, their line of action being suggested by the following resolution which was carried unanimously: "The committee of the general merchandise bill of lading should apply for the transportation of live stock, and should amend such further conditions as counsel may think proper in regard to the nature of the traffic. Coupled with this it should be made plain that the carriers must exercise due care in the handling of such shipments, or, in other words, counsel to see as far as possible that the railways are not relieved from liability in the case of negligence."

The meeting of men connected with the shipment of live stock on Saturday in Toronto was both unique and epoch-making. For the first time in Canada representatives from nearly all the provinces and from the various interests connected with the movement of live stock from one point to another were gathered in one place and for one purpose. Before the council chamber of the Toronto Board of Trade, loaned for the day, were assembled big ranchmen who ship in train loads of 50 and to cars, and men who ship by the train-loads of from 15 to 30 cars, farmers who ship in cars and even less than car load lots. Members of the various breed associations who ship costly animals from one point to another, members of the Traders' association, the packers, and of the companies which insure live stock in transit.

The western provinces, as might be expected, were very much in evidence. From Alberta there was George Lane, Live Stock Commissioner Stevens and Mr. Hutchins; from Saskatchewan, Commissioner P. M. Brett, H. C. Bell of Winnipeg, and John Mooney of Regina; from Manitoba, Stephen Benson of Neepawa, John Graham of Carleton Place, and J. McKeown of Stepanburg.

Misses Ballo on Officers.

Chattanooga, Dec. 12—The mine workers of the United States and Canada, members of the United Mine Workers of America, today balloted for national officers, and it is stated a heavy vote was polled. The most important contest was over the office of president, John P. White, of Oskaloosa, Iowa, being opposed for re-election by Thos. L. Lewis, of Bridgeport, Ohio, a former president of the organization. Edwin M. Perry, of Iowa, had no opponent for re-election as secretary-treasurer, but there were a large number of candidates for the other offices.

REGINA RE-ELECTED MAYOR PETER MCGARA

Strenuous Majority Contest Ends in Favor of Present Occupant of Office, Who Was Charged With Conducting Tammany Ring at City Hall—Saskatoon Elections.

Regina, Dec. 11—The hottest majority contest for some years ended tonight with the re-election of Mayor McGara for a second term, with a majority of 141 over his opponent. In the course of the campaign Ald. Doerf charged Mayor McGara with conducting a Tammany ring in the city hall and generally misusing his office. Owing to the rearrangement of wards, following the recent enlargement of the city boundaries, an entirely new council had to be elected today.

The following were the full results of the five wards—

Cold Sores and Ulcers are Healed by Zam-Buk

Cold sores, chapped hands, ulcers and winter eczema are common troubles just now and for all these Zam-Buk will be found the surest and quickest remedy. Sometimes cold sores attack from chilblains on the nose or fingers, and in the former case, where "solter" sores are worn, their cure is a matter of blood-poisoning from the dye, Zam-Buk being so powerful an antiseptic that it removes the danger as soon as applied and quickly heals.

Mr. W. J. Halliday, of Ash Grove, Ont., says: "I had my little child, Ernest, who is now 3 years old, with cold sores on his nose and around his eyes. The sores were very bad, and the whole of my nose began to itch and burn. I had heard of Zam-Buk, and I bought some and used it. It was very different to any preparation I had ever tried. In a very short time it healed the sores." Miss Willa May, of Stone Creek, Ont., says: "A few weeks since my husband had a cold sore on his lip, which became much swollen. Seeing my condition a friend advised me to try Zam-Buk and I did, and was much pleased after a few applications of this balm, to see every sore healed."

Another case: "I found a sore cure for eczema, blood-poison, various sores, piles, scalp sores, ringworm, inflamed neck, bad eruptions and chapped sores, cuts, burns, scalds and skin irritations. It is all druggists and stores sell at 5c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, receipt of price. Beware of harmful imitations and substitutes. The also Zam-Buk Soap, 25c. tablet. # NEW ACT TO GOVERN MOTORS IN ALBERTA

Synopsis of the New Bill Introduced in the Legislature which Will Come Up for Consideration This Week.

Attorney General Mitchell has introduced in the Legislative Assembly a new Motor Vehicle Act, which is designed to regulate the speed and operation of motor vehicles on all highways in the province, whether within or outside of any city, town or village and to come into force January 31st, 1912. The act is presented as a government bill which was given its first reading on Monday of last week. The bill has since been printed and will come up for a second reading during the present week. It has many interesting features and when passed into law will stringently regulate the speed and operation of automobiles. Every automobile owner, driver and citizen of the province should become familiar with the provisions of the act as the rights of all who use the public highways are affected. While the speed regulations, rates of speed and penalties for infraction of the law set out in the bill may be changed to suit the circumstances, the bill as drafted by the attorney general embodies the most approved legislation of the day regarding the speed and operation of motor vehicles on public highways.

The Motor Vehicle Act, as is properly designated, applies to automobiles, locomotives, and all other vehicles propelled by any power other than muscular power, excluding traction engines and such motor vehicles as run only upon rails or tracks. The regulations respecting speed are fairly elastic, governed by the general provision that no person shall operate a motor vehicle upon a public highway at a rate of speed greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the traffic and use of the highway, so as to endanger or be likely to endanger the life or limb of any person or the safety of any property. Public highway means and includes any public highway or road, street, lane, alley, park, driving or public place within or outside of any city, town or village.

Maximum Speed. The maximum speed on streets running through closely built up portions of cities, towns or villages is placed at 10 miles an hour. The maximum speed on streets through residential districts of cities, towns and villages is made 15 miles an hour, and the maximum speed on streets in other portions than those specified, 20 miles per hour. In turning or approaching a corner of an intersecting street, motor vehicles may not be operated at a speed greater than 5 miles an hour, the rate of speed being adjustable within the boundaries of a city thus varied from 6 to 20 miles per hour according to locality. It is provided in the act that the municipal council of any city, town or village may by by-law determine what portions of such city, town or village shall for the purpose of the act be considered as densely built up portions or residential portions respectively.

No speed limit is set for country roads. Upon approaching a bridge, dam, culvert, or steep descent, however, and also intraverging the same, a person operating a motor vehicle is required to have the machine under control and operate it at a speed not exceeding six miles an hour and upon approaching a crossing or intersecting highway at a speed not greater than is reasonable and proper having regard to the traffic then on the highway and the safety of the same.

Must Stop on Signal. On country roads a person operating a motor vehicle is required at the request or on signal by putting up the hand from a person operating a motor vehicle to stop the machine, or upon a sign which is in the nature of a signal, to stop the machine, or upon a sign which is in the nature of a signal, to stop the machine, or upon a sign which is in the nature of a signal, to stop the machine.

Drivers Must Turn Out. Drivers of vehicles drawn by horses are required to turn to the right as soon as practicable when overtaken by a motor vehicle, the driver of which desires to pass.

Thick Swollen Glands. This is a common ailment, especially in the winter months, and is often the result of a cold or influenza. It is characterized by a swelling of the lymphatic glands, particularly in the neck and chest. The glands are thickened and swollen, and often discharge a thick, yellowish fluid. It is a very annoying condition, and often leads to more serious complications if not treated promptly.

TYPHOID EPIDEMIC RECURRENTLY FEARED

Medical Health Officer Without Doubt Expresses Opinion That There are at Present no Cases in the City Eight Deaths Occurred Here in November.

Grave danger of a recurrence of the typhoid fever epidemic that prevailed in Edmonton during the fall months is pointed out in the monthly report of Dr. H. H. Whitaker, city health officer. He says that the seriousness of the disease is indicated by the fact that six deaths occurred in November. An equal number of smallpox cases in the city, he declares, would cause almost a panic, though it is now rare to hear of a death from smallpox. Under the head of infectious disease, Dr. Whitaker refers to typhoid fever in the following terms: "Apart from typhoid fever, which is at present remarkably free from infectious disease. Of a total of 68, the city cases numbered 48, and 20 were from the outside. There were 27 typhoid fever cases, or more than half of the total. Of these 24 are cases which were contracted outside the city, 24 cases being under 13 years of age, and the fact that a great many of the cases occurred in families as a result of contact with a previous case in the same house. Personal contact, therefore, may be given as the direct cause of infection in many of the cases."

Seriousness of the Disease. The seriousness of the disease is indicated by the fact that six deaths have occurred during the month. The presence of an equal number of smallpox cases in our city would cause almost a panic, though it is now rare to hear of a death from smallpox. The indifference of the public, therefore, to the presence of typhoid fever, which kills at least one in ten, is lamentable, and to the indifference and carelessness is attributable to a large extent the prevalence of this preventable disease. The health department gives every assistance in its power to support the health department given from intelligent people, in endeavoring to limit the spread of conditions of our city, by insisting on a rigid enforcement of the water and sewer installation. A large percentage of the houses in our city have had their water and sewer installation done. As a consequence, many of them derive their drinking water from the city springs, all of which are doubtful and liable to be contaminated.

GOVERNMENT WILL NOT MAKE GRANT TO CITY

Premier Sifton Informs Deputation Seeking Annual Grant for City Beautification That It Cannot Be Considered at the Present Session.

Mayor Armstrong and a committee of the city council, who waited on Premier Sifton Tuesday 9, urge that the government make an annual grant of $100,000 for the beautification of the city. The city council, however, were informed that their petition, which was presented to the government at the present time, would not be considered by the government at the present time. The action of the council was taken after receipt of a copy of a resolution passed at the recent annual convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities, urging the provincial government to increase the proportion of grants to the municipalities. The council decided to ask the provincial government to increase the proportion of grants to the municipalities. A committee was accordingly appointed, composed of Mayor Armstrong, Aldermen McInnis, Lindsay and Bellamy, to bring this matter to the attention of the premier.

THICK SWOLLEN GLANDS. This is a common ailment, especially in the winter months, and is often the result of a cold or influenza. It is characterized by a swelling of the lymphatic glands, particularly in the neck and chest. The glands are thickened and swollen, and often discharge a thick, yellowish fluid. It is a very annoying condition, and often leads to more serious complications if not treated promptly.

At 5:30 yesterday amid the cheers of several hundreds of their friends who had gathered upon the platform to give them a hearty send-off a party of eight-hundred drifters left by the G.T.P. special through excursion train to spend the Christmas holidays with their friends and relatives in the old land. The excursion was arranged by the G.T.P. and will be the first special through train to run over this company's line from Edmonton to the coast. No pains have been spared by the company to provide for the comfort of the passengers, no change of cars will be made and all unnecessary stops will be avoided.

Mostly Young People. The greater number of the members of the party are young people, many of whom have been in Canada for a few years only, but all of whom have succeeded under the new conditions and without losing their attachment for the land of their birth, have learned to regard Western Canada as their permanent home.

Among those making the Journey are several who are in the employ of the various city departments, including A. Russell of the secretary-treasurer's department, who is accompanied by his wife and child, Edith, English, secretary to the city commissioner, whose wife is now in England, and who will return with him, Geo. Huntbach, plumbing inspector, accompanied by his wife, Frank McMahon of the city engineer's department, and Jack Ballans of the waterworks department.

Will Make Record Trip. It is not unlikely that the trip will be made in record time. Originally it was proposed to make the Journey by way of Winnipeg but owing to the refusal of the C.N.R. to handle the through equipment out of Winnipeg the route had to be changed via Portage la Prairie and the Great Northern Railway. No time, however, will be lost by the change.

Advertising City. Advantage was taken of the excursion by Secretary Fisher of the board of trade to advertise the city and district and steamers extending the full length of the coast. He had in mind to visit in every city, town and village through which it passes.
