U.S. WIPES OUT FOE CONTROL OF METALS

Alien Property Custodian Has Taken Over Concerns With Many Millions Capital.

A THIN DISGUISE

Companies Had Endeavored to Cover Up Their German Ownership.

Washington, July 22.—German control of the metal industry in America has been wiped out by Alien Property Custodian Palmer in the seizure of several of the largest metal concerns in the United States with ramifications into South America, Mexico and Canada.

Mr. Palmer announced today that he had taken over the business of L. Vogelstein and Company, Inc., of New York City, with assets of more than $9,000,000, and Beer, Sondheimer and Co., Inc. also of New York, with assets of upward of $5,000,000.

The business of Beer, Sondheimer and Company was founded in America by the German firm of the same name, but the American branch was incorporated in August, 1915, by Bruno Elkan and Otto Frohnekecht, who had operated the branch for the German firm, and who did not make application for naturalization papers until early in last year and Frohnekecht admitted they had bought out the interest of the German firm, but Mr. Garvan unearthed wireless messages passing between the American branch and German company indicating that the latter had planned the incorporation of the firm here and that it had not sold its interests.

GERMANS TO RETREAT TO VESLE RIVER LINE

London, July 22.—The Germans are burning villages inside the Soissons-Rheims salient and are believed to be preparing for a general withdrawal to the Vesle River line, it was learned authoritatively this afternoon.

PRESIDENT WILSON GOES AFTER THE GERMAN METAL TRUST

Our despatches this morning show that the United States has started in after the German Metal Trust and its representatives in that country.

The British metal trade was honoursably combined with it. So was Australia. The report of the United States Commerce Commission linked up the International Nickel Co. (owners of the Sudbury mines in this province) to this great German metal trust at Frankfurt. It published a most graphic chart, showing how the metal trade interlocked, how nearly all the mines in the world finally centred in Germany.

THREE RHINE CITIES RAIDED BY BRITISH

Factories at Mannheim, Zweibrücken, Rottweil Become Targets for Aerial Bombs.

London, July 22.—A supplementary statement issued by the air ministry tonight says: "On the night of July 21-22, many successful bomb attacks were carried out by our squadrons. Over a ton of bombs was dropped on the extensive railway sidings at Lanes, southeast of Metzler.

BRITISH SHIP MARINE DESTROYS SUBMARINE

London, July 22.—The British destroyer Marne has sunk a German submarine, says an official statement issued today by the British admiralty.

STRIKE SPREADS IN UKRAINE

London, July 22.—A Russian wireless despatch received here reports that the Ukrainian Railway strike is extending. The despatch says 200,000 men are out and that all efforts of the German to keep traffic moving have failed. A German service train from Kiev has been held up and the cars turned over.

CARRIERS RESOLUTE

Men Will Meet Again This Morning to Further Discuss Position.

The mass meeting held by the letter carriers last night in the Labor Temple produced no results, and they adjourned until nine o'clock this morning, when they will continue their consideration of the motion placed before them last night.

DESERTING CZECHS RESIST AUSTRIANS

Fighting Proceeds With Genardines in Moravia and Dalmatia—Revolution Spreads.

London, July 22.—Reuter's, Limited, says it learns from a reliable Czech source that many Czech-Slovaks and Jugos-Slavs are deserting from the Austrian army and forming armed bands in the interior called "Green Guards."

THREE TOWNS FALL TO ALLIED ATTACK

Franco-American Troops Cross Chateau Thierry Road Between Ourcq and Clignon.

RHINE TRAFFIC CONFUSED

Geneva, July 22.—Railway traffic between the Rhine towns is greatly disorganized, owing to the number of wounded arriving daily from the French front in hospital trains. Trains from Germany are arriving at the Swiss frontier many hours late. The German express returned to Berlin yesterday in mourning.

British Troops Make Another Advance From Direction of Rheims--French and Americans Break German Counter-Attacks North of Marne.

Paris, July 22.—Heavy German counter-attacks launched for the purpose of checking the progress of the allies between the Marne and the Ourcq today were without avail, according to the war office announce-ment; tonight, the French and British made further advances in the region of La Croix and Grisolles, as well as northeast of Mont St. Pere. The statement says: "During the course of the day the Germans attempted by powerful counter-attacks to check our progress between the Marne and the Ourcq. The Franco-American troops resisted all these assaults and increased their gains, advancing beyond the heights east of La Croix and Grisolles, taking the Village of Epieds and gaining ground northeast of Mont St. Pere.

GERMANS PREPARE TO CLING DESPERATELY TO SOISSONS LINE

With the district south of the Marne cleared of Germans, the allies are busy constructing bridges and getting large bodies of troops and supplies across for pursuit. The Germans will undoubtedly continue to fight in the most stubborn manner for the salient, but if things continue to go well with the allies in their attack, the enemy is likely to be forced back to the line of the River Vesle, which offers great defences and has good communication.

GERMAN FORCE RUSHED TO CURB RUMANIANS

Washington, July 22.—Germany has rushed 300,000 troops into Rumania to put down uprisings in the conquered Balkan country, according to official Rome cables today. Clashes between the Rumanian people and German troops have become so widespread and violent that the Austro-Germans have been compelled to draw upon their reserves in the west to send aid.

have taken several hundred, and the Americans a considerable number.

On the west side of the salient the fighting continued all night with great intensity, as well as this morning, with the allies everywhere on the aggressive.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon, east of Rheims, the enemy gained a little ground. On the whole front between the river there was a heavy German bombardment and several local attacks were delivered by the enemy, but not on a large scale. These were repulsed at all points except at Peronne.

On Heels of Enemy. Paris, July 22.—French troops, says La Liberté, continue to cross the River Marne in strong force, northeast of Chateau Thierry. They are following rapidly on the heels of the enemy, who cannot long hold ground with General Galtier's army coming from the south and Gen. Degoutte coming from the west. The latter army already has reached the region of Chateau wood.

General Degoutte's troops, who have been fighting hard since the beginning of the counter-offensive, last night crushed the enemy's attack on the Germans and took 1,000 prisoners.

Information received in Paris this morning says that French patrols operating beyond Chateau Thierry have learned that the retreat of the Germans extends several miles deep. The German artillery can scarcely be heard, this seeming to indicate that the Germans have been ordered to retire to the rear.

In their rapid advance north of the River Oureq, French infantry captured a battery of French six-inch guns which the French had abandoned on May 27. Since that time the guns had been used by the Germans. The French immediately put them into action against the enemy, as the Germans did not have time to react to the attack.

Continued Advance. With the American Army on the Aisne-Marne Front, July 22.—The Franco-American army is making great progress this morning, along the line on the south and to the west. The Germans gave more ground and are slowly withdrawing. The French are pushing to the north of Chateau Thierry.

Two additional towns have been taken by the Americans on the front north of Chateau Thierry since daylight this morning. The enemy is increasing his resistance along the line south from Soissons where the French are pushing forward further hampers the German lines of supply.

On the front where the Franco-American army is making its main drive to the north of the Marne the enemy is carrying out sullen and stubborn rearward actions, but despite these the allies continue their gains.

Another Town Captured. In the region of Soissons, another town was captured by the Americans, and still another town has fallen into the hands of the French, improving the allied position and likewise covering the enemy's lines of communication.

The Germans left a number of machine gun nests in the path of the allied progress and are guarding the artillery likewise in guarding the slow retreat.

On the whole, the concentrated forces of the French army have materially slowed down the allied progress. There is no indication, however, that the enemy will be able to counter-attack successfully.

Additional prisoners were taken in today's fighting.

STEAMER IN DISTRESS. Nantucket, Mass., July 22.—An airplane which landed at the Village of Waunnet tonight brought word that a steamer was in distress near Great Round Shoals about five miles off the eastern end of the island. The vessel was described as in need of immediate assistance, but the nature of her injuries was not disclosed.

DECLINES NOMINATION. Theodore Roosevelt Refuses to Run For Governorship of New York State.

Oyster Bay, N.Y., July 22.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt issued a statement tonight in which he declared that under no circumstances would he accept the Republican nomination for governor of New York.

It is always a delicate matter for a commander to carry out his orders across the rear of another army, for it does communications and creates endlings which are often very serious.

As the allied pressure continues strong against the German flanks from Soissons and Rheims, the Germans are hastening their preparations for a further retreat, probably to the line of the Vesle River.

There were as many as two hundred and fifty men, women and boys waiting at the wickets at half past two, and nearly as many at four o'clock. At five o'clock the number became less.

All those who desired mail had to procure either cards or telegrams, registration cards or written requests for mail.

At noon the crowd was merry and content. At two o'clock the waiting sprang and rather impatient, and at four o'clock many were scrapped for place. But at no time was any disturbance of the letter carriers made.

MORE ARGUMENT ON HABEAS CORPUS

Urged That Right Still Exist and Must Be Respected by Military Authorities.

IMPORTANT POINT

Government Counsel Holds Second Order Did Not Need Parliament's Sanction.

Montreal, July 22.—Argument was advanced in the supreme court today that the supreme court judgment of Friday last in the Gray case while it upholds the validity of the order-in-council of April 29 last, canceling the exemptions of all men between the ages of twenty and twenty-two, is not applicable to the order-in-council passed on April 30, professing to abolish the rights of habeas corpus in regard to men who are arrested under the military law.

It was insisted that the right of habeas corpus still exists and must be respected by the military authorities, notwithstanding the order-in-council.

Mr. Justice Meiorin, who heard arguments on both sides of the question, remarked that the order-in-council of April 30, referring to the cancellation of exemptions was approved by parliament, the order of April 29 regarding habeas corpus was not so approved, although parliament was in session at the time.

This, to my mind, is very important," remarked the justice, "it raises the whole question of constitutionality again, and may mean that the judgment of the supreme court does not apply to the point as regards habeas corpus."

Mr. F. E. Mignault, K.C., counsel for the minister of justice, replied by saying that the order-in-council of April 29, did not add anything to its legal force as an enactment that it would have been equally valid without parliament's sanction. Therefore, counsel said, the order-in-council of April 30 relative to habeas corpus was equally valid. The same reasoning was applied to the order-in-council of April 30, which was applied to the order as to habeas corpus by Justice Meiorin.

SUCCESS FOR GERMANY. This is Way Germans Profess to Regard Fighting in France.

Berlin, via London, July 22.—The war office claims that the fighting in France on Sunday resulted in a "complete" success for the German army. The official statement issued today describes numerous heavy operations on all parts of the salient between Soissons and Rheims, and declares that all assaults of the allied forces were repulsed by Justice Meiorin.

C. A. Bogert stated that everyone in Canada was trying to win the war. "However," he said, "it is needless for me to tell you that the progress of the war is of such nature as to have a direct effect on the war. I wish to say that if your demands are fair to the citizens, you will be supported by us. I ask you to give assent to the assurance of the government to deal with your demands which will be made within a few weeks if you receive such assurance tonight, and to recommence your duties tomorrow morning."

T. A. Stevenson said that he had enough confidence in the carriers to assure them that they would not be asked to do anything which would be to their disadvantage. He said he was not in a position to give assurances as to what the government would give before the night was ended. The blame for the situation was placed on the shoulders of the cabinet at Ottawa. In the meantime there was no doubt that the business of the country was being paralyzed by the action of the carriers. But assurances of the right sort from the government would settle the trouble. The speaker also declared that he was in favor of the carriers' Association, with the exception of the demands of the carriers.

R. H. Cox, secretary of the Carriers' Association, was of the opinion that the proposition referred to by the speaker, which was to have the government pay for the carriage of the mail, was a good one. He said that the carriers had received from the government only unfilled promises. John Reaves, a former president of the association in Toronto, advocated a resumption of work provided that assurances were forthcoming that the carriers would be represented in any committee appointed by the government to deal with the carriers' demands. T. A. Stevenson returned to the subject and advised the appointment of a committee, which should be the only medium for getting news into the press.

The meeting finally adjourned at a quarter to twelve until 9 o'clock this morning to consider the resolution proposed by the speaker, which was to have the government pay for the carriage of the mail. The resolution was supported by John Reaves, but a Labor representative was appointed to any committee which might be appointed to deal with the carriers' demands.

Waited Two Hours. The letter carriers' strike affected firms and individuals in different ways. A number of firms in the downtown section of the city sent their office boys or young women to the Lombard street wickets. The scenes at these wickets, five in number, proved the genuineness of the general disorganization caused by the strike. In many instances men and girls waited for their packages more than two hours, and in two or three instances left the scene in disgust. Again and again men and women came up to ask Inspector Geddes or one of the other officers where he or she could get the mail.

The suburban offices in some cases did not have their mails. It was stated at the meeting that the clerks were kept exceedingly busy.

In Albania, where the allies have resumed their offensive, French troops have captured Austrian positions on the River Hozits. The stream lies north of the Devoli River. The Italian right wing in co-operation with the French, has also moved forward. The Germans are said to have despatched 200,000 or 300,000 troops to Rumania to suppress uprisings of peasants. It is more probable, however, that they have despatched these troops to the front. They are badly needed for the enemy just now right in France.

LETTER CARRIERS MEET AGAIN TODAY

Government is Severely Blamed by Mayor Church.

PROPOSAL MADE

Men Likely to Give Consideration to Assurances Proffered

Mayor Church, C. A. Bogert, chairman of the board of trade and T. A. Stevenson, secretary of the Trades and Labor Council, addressed the mass meeting of the letter carriers held last night at the Labor Temple. James R. Cuthbertson, the president of the association, opened the meeting, expressing the hope that the men had enjoyed their holiday.

Mayor Church, in his address, stated that he, in collaboration with C. A. Bogert and T. A. Stevenson, had made a proposal to the government at Ottawa. This was to the effect that the government form a committee of the cabinet and immediately take up the demands of the letter carriers. The committee to report its findings within the next two weeks, and the findings to be binding upon the government and upon its employees. He expressed a hope that at any moment, the present situation, he said, was unsatisfactory. The government had failed to consider either the unmarriageable or the temporary married postoffices, bearing great piles of mail which was to go out of town.

Hotels were affected to the extent of not being able to deal with orders by mail, and their guests were embarrassed by the non-receipt of important communications, and with the mail and the telephone at greatly increased expense.

Winnipeg Mail Service WHOLLY DISORGANIZED

Winnipeg, July 22.—Winnipeg's mail service has been totally disorganized by the strike of letter carriers, who quit work this morning at 7 o'clock in an effort to force the government to redress their grievances.

The meeting of the letter carriers' union, which was held last night, was held in the hall of the union. The meeting was held in the hall of the union, which was held last night, was held in the hall of the union.

WORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

HON. GEO. S. HENRY OUTLINES POLICY

Organization Meeting Held in St. Nicholas' Church

Earlscourt

EARLSCOURT HOMES HAVE LITTLE COAL

Member of B.I.A. Suggests Rations in Toronto.

The supply of coal for Earlscourt and the other coal districts of the county was the subject of a long discussion at the meeting of the British Imperial Association at Earlscourt last night.

That out of some 80,000 electors in the two ridings of North Toronto and East York, nearly two-thirds were women, who would for the first time in the history of this province be entitled to cast their votes at the polls in a provincial election, was brought out at the meeting held last night in St. Nicholas' church hall, Birch Cliff.

The minister and the other speakers strongly emphasized the importance of the women's vote and the great necessity for the women to organize and as a result of their appeal a committee of five women was formed in the district where the meeting was held. The women chosen were: Miss Mary Redmond, vice-president; Miss Kinney, secretary; and Mrs. Chadwick, members of the committee.

George Willis was of the opinion that a coal inspector should be employed by the city to investigate the amount of coal in every cellar in the city, and that all families should have an equal quantity of coal. He suggested that the city should take advantage of the fact that every family be put on coal rations.

Was the chairman asked those present to stand who had half supplies of coal, he was informed that many of the old timers had no coal at all.

Serge-Major Gardner suggested the movement for making the city authorities do something for the people before the winter arrived.

Bert Lindo, who had just returned from a northern trip, stated that he had seen large quantities of wood rotting, but that labor was scarce, otherwise Toronto would be able to get a supply.

On the motion of Geo. Willis, seconded by A. Craig, it was resolved to hold a mass meeting in one of the Earlscourt churches, and to invite both the fuel controllers, Chisholm and Harris, to attend.

Reeve Cornell, who occupied the chair, said it was an outrage that there should be a coal shortage in the city, and expressed his regret that there was no deposit required, so as to keep out any one who simply took a notion to be a candidate. He then explained the qualifications required to have the right to vote in the coming election. He stated that the minimum age for voters was 21 years of age, one year's residence in the municipality and one month in the riding. Women born outside of the British Empire must be naturalized in their own right.

W. W. Burgess presented a suggestion for the removal of noxious weeds from the town free if this plan were carried out. This was left over for further consideration.

At the regular meeting of the Weston Council last evening the question of fire protection for the town of Weston was considered. The committee consisting of Mayor Harrison and Councillors Johnston and Bland, was asked to report on the matter.

Col. Williams, representing the Navy League and the Boys' Naval Brigade, appeared before the council for the purpose of a maintenance fund for the brigade. Col. Williams stated that fifty boys in Weston had already joined and were being trained for their service.

W. W. Burgess presented a suggestion for the removal of noxious weeds from the town free if this plan were carried out. This was left over for further consideration.

HAVE FORMED TRUST TO CARE FOR FAMILY

A trust has been formed by a small group of patriotic men who have banded themselves together to help Mrs. Harry Chapman, widow of the late Harry Chapman, stop 22, Yonge street, who was killed in an explosion of a rumper case of the R. A. F. at Willowdale about June 16. By the will of her late husband, Mrs. Chapman is left a small fortune which she has been unable to manage. The trust has been formed to take care of the widow and her four children, all under nine years of age, and a heavily mortgaged home, and the mortgage of the little home which was being paid by the father and husband when he was killed.

Rev. S. A. Lawrence of Thornhill, John McLean of Willowdale and William Wallace of Willowdale have offered services as trustees, and a formal agreement has been drawn up and signed, in which it is stated that a trust has been formed to take care of the widow and her four children, all under nine years of age, and a heavily mortgaged home, and the mortgage of the little home which was being paid by the father and husband when he was killed.

Letters were read from the trustees, promising that the association should have an overseeing committee, and that they would be in touch with the widow and her children. A letter was also read from the widow, in which she expressed her appreciation of the association and its members.

Another letter was read from Hon. C. J. Doherty, pointing out the importance of the status of friendly aliens subject to the Military Service Act.

Justice Meiorin, who presided over the meeting, expressed his sympathy for the widow and her children, and assured them that the association would do everything in its power to help them.

OFFICIAL STORY OF WEEK'S BATTLE

Crown Prince Has Thrown Two Armies and Later a Third Into Conflict.

THE TABLES TURNED

French Advanced Further in One Morning Than Germans Did in Three Days.

Ottawa, July 22.—The following review of the week's developments in the military situation has been received here by the director of public information in a cable from the British ministry of information.

The German offensive of July 15 was of most ambitious intentions. Aiming at the greatest results the crown prince threw into the fighting two armies and later a third, also drew on the precious reserves of Prince Rupprecht from where they faced the British in the north. He planned two bold thrusts downward to Chalons, one east of Rheims between Prunay and Massiges, and the other southwest of Rheims on the line between Coulmoyes and Fizey on the Marne, where the river flows south, then east along the valley thru Epernay to Chalons.

Success in what was aimed at would have struck a damaging blow against the French army and brought about the fall of Rheims by out-punching that city. The Rheims has no special military importance its capture would have satisfied the German craving for a high-sounding name as an advertisement. It would also have given them important railway junctions and the possession of such useful heights as Montagne de Rheims, besides crippling the future action of the French army or causing it to heavily draw on its reserves to the weakening of other fronts.

Otherwise this area had no great strategic importance and from the outset the offensive was in difficulties. On the 22-mile front between Prunay and Massiges the Germans were immediately held up at the French battle positions and never succeeded in getting forward, except for local advances at three points.

On the 16th Von Rines' troops launched five attacks on the extreme eastern front. These were not only repulsed but the French were several times able to go forward and re-occupy trenches. The French losses were slight in men and none at all in guns, while the Germans lost heavily in men and in numbers of tanks in the advance. Poor results followed the German crossing of the Marne west of Rheims on a front of twenty miles. They got two to three miles deep as their only result. The Americans on the extreme left countered brilliantly, captured old positions and drove the enemy across the river.

On the 16th the Germans pressed forward to a line drawn from St. Agnan Lachapelle and Monthodon, but the French reattacked at mid-day on a four-mile front south of Domains, advancing 2,000 yards and recovering heights south of the river, besides giving them heavily shelling the Germans, but the enemy, however, still obstinately and slowly crept down the Marne and by night, on the 17th had approached the forest of Rheims. Here they were driven back by the Italians as far as the line at Clagny, which the Italians took. So far the German progress had been trivial compared with the magnitude of the operations and the opening movement must be regarded as a severe failure. He had hoped on the morning after the attack to have advanced to a depth of 12 miles, but by evening of the third day his greatest advance was only six miles.

The great German drive had been stopped and had dwindled into fluctuating local encounters offering very little gain and very high proportionate cost. The attack, in fact, had been fully foreseen and prepared for so that the element of surprise was eliminated and the first impact was by means so much, lost all value by the splendid resistance of the French and Americans. It must be remembered that the enemy still has a considerable number of reserves and can either strengthen his assault here with them or open a big attack elsewhere.

Meanwhile the check must be embarrassing. The time limit for active campaigning is now perilously short and not only are his promises to the anxious German people still unfulfilled but American troops are now present in such numbers as to threaten his numerical superiority besides giving disturbing proof of their quality. Now in the midst of this failure the French brilliantly struck on the west and in six hours, on the morning of July 18 had advanced further than the Germans had been able to go in three days.

FIFTY-SIX GERMAN BEATEN.

Paris, July 22.—Lieut. Rene Fonck, one of the leading French aces, brought down two German airplanes on July 16, two on July 18, and three on July 19. Six of these machines were brought down in flames. Fonck's total is now officially fifty-six machines.

SIX THOUSAND MEN TAKEN BY AMERICANS

Washington, July 22.—Fresh successes for the American forces in their drive between the Aisne and the Marne were reported in General Pershing's communique for yesterday, received today at the war department. The Americans were driving ahead with undiminished vigor and spirit, the statement said.

GET BACK COLONIES IS GERMANY'S DREAM

Cologne Gazette Attempts to Prove That Dominioners Are Full of Discontent.

London, July 22.—The Cologne Gazette ponderously attempts to prove that the Dominioners are filled with discontent and anxiety about their special war aims and to represent the Dominioners' ministers in London as struggling vainly with the imperial ministers against the adoption of a satisfactory imperial policy.

The paper maintains that Germany will find ample opportunity to reap the fruits of these British dissensions and will thereby recover the lost colonies without much difficulty. It says that Australia is beginning to show signs of war weariness and New Zealand is seriously lukewarm. It represents Great Britain as being wholly concerned with the land bridge between Egypt and India, which it admits, is pretty well attained and Great Britain will not be diverted from that by any other war aims of the allies or colonies.

The Cologne Gazette proceeds to urge that the best way to get back the colonies is to bring strong political and military pressure upon the Dominioners themselves. For example, it is from the South African Union that Germany must recover her two principal colonies, therefore Germany must concentrate her political attention upon South Africa.

GERMANS FALL BACK RAPIDLY FROM MARNE

With the French Army in France, July 22.—South of the Marne, under the combined pressure of French and Franco-American forces, who followed the enemy across the river, and who are now pushing him northward, the Germans fell back rapidly during yesterday, and last night the allies were on a line marked by the Villages of Le Croix, Griselles and Epides which means an advance of five miles from the west and three miles from the south.

French troops carried the heights overlooking La Troix and Griselles at the point of the bayonet. In the abandoned Boche positions south of the Marne, the Franco-Americans made a rich haul of material, including 400 machine guns and 20 cannon, including two big guns. The heaviest fighting today on the eastern side of the salient was in the hills and woods west of the mountain of Rheims, where the enemy was fighting tooth and nail to maintain himself. The Germans were attacked on the eastern side of the salient by British troops, including a Highland division, who took from him Courton Wood, Rheims Wood and the Villages of Bouilly and St. Euphrase.

FRENCH FORCES BREAK POWERFUL ATTACKS

Paris, July 22.—The war office reports: "During the night the Germans limited their reaction to artillery bombardments north of the Ourcq and between the Marne and Rheims, notably in the region of the Courton and Roi Woods.

FURTHER GAINS MADE BY BRITISH IN FRANCE

London, July 22.—The war office reports: "Further ground was made by our troops yesterday southeast of Hebuterne, and a hostile bombing attack in this neighborhood was repulsed. We captured a few prisoners.

CROWN PRINCE CALLS ON COUSIN FOR HELP

With the French Army in France, July 22.—Frederick William, the German imperial crown prince, has been obliged to call for help from his cousin, Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria. German divisions from the army in the north have been hurried down to protect the western flank of the defeated army which has been driven back over the Marne and ejected from Chateau Thierry by Franco-American troops.

GERMANS RESIST ALLIES STRONGLY

Violent Counter-Attacks Between Ourcq and Aisne Delay Progress.

London, July 22.—Between the Ourcq and the Aisne, the Germans again are making violent counter-attacks, but the French are maintaining their line.

On every front the Germans are retreating desperately and are making violent counter-attacks. Nevertheless the French troops yesterday made progress along the River Marne to a maximum depth of eight miles.

The object of the enemy counter-attacks probably is to expedite the evacuation of his troops from the pocket between Soissons and Rheims. Meanwhile German troops on the southern end of the pocket must be experiencing great difficulty in getting supplies.

Southwest of Rheims there has been heavy fighting and the French have made progress. Between the Ourcq and the Marne the French yesterday took 400 prisoners.

IDEAL LOG CABIN LIFE.

The log cabin camp hotels, built by the Grand Trunk Railway in picturesque spots in Algonquin Park, have been very popular with those who desire quiet, restful, exclusive accommodation for a summer holiday. These log cabin hotels have a central lodge and cabins are comfortably furnished and have modern conveniences with bath-rooms and hot and cold water.

SWEDEN ADMITS BIG DEFEAT

London, July 22.—A despatch from Stockholm says that, for once, the pro-German press does not attempt to minimize the importance of the allied advance.

ARE VARICOSE VEINS INCURABLE?

"No," Says Inventor of Wonderful New Device

The idea that Varicose Veins are incurable is held by many sufferers from this annoying and dangerous complaint, mainly because they have tried old-fashioned methods of stockings and bandages in a vain search for relief and cure.

That this, however, is a mistake is the contention of Mr. D. M. Cooper, the famous London Surgeon, a Specialist in the treatment of Varicose Veins.

COUNTERED BY GUNS.

Italians Nullify Work of German Batteries on Mountain Front.

VICTORY OF FOCH WIDENS IN SCOPE

Germans Desperately Strive to Protect Flanks During Collapse.

Paris, July 22.—In reviewing the military situation as it stood last night on the active front between Soissons and Rheims, the Havas Agency today says: "Gen. Foch's victory increased greatly in scope yesterday. With Chateau Thierry evacuated by the Germans during the previous night, the town was entirely cleared by an allied advance in the region to the north, while from the west Franco-American troops commanded by Gen. De Goutte were crowding on the pocket.

Between the Ourcq and the Marne the enemy was attacked by detachments under General Mby which had crossed the Marne. The general result was that the Germans were thrown back from eight to ten kilometers on the Chateau Thierry front.

"The enemy's uttering desperate resistance further north, endeavoring to maintain his hold on Soissons and Duilly-le-Chateau which form the two pivots of his defensive system, his tenure of those points must be very difficult.

YOUNG MILLIONAIRE JOINS BRITISH ARMY

New York, July 22.—Among the recruits counted by the British recruiting mission Saturday was Gustav Schulman, 21, a young millionaire and grandson of the late Frederick Goldsmith, from whom he has just inherited $3,000,000.

ALL GERMAN RESERVES USED TO SAVE ARMY

Paris, July 22.—Commenting on the German withdrawal on the Soissons-Chateau Thierry line, the Echo de Paris, remarks: "The offensive continues—ours."

PESSIMISTIC VIEW OF GERMAN 'VICTORIES'

London, July 22.—The Amsterdam Vorwarts, referring to the allied counter-offensive, contains the following significant passages: "Victories in attack and defence have hitherto been sufficient justification for the German people continuing to entertain strong hopes."

A PARADISE FOR CANOEISTS.

One of the principal attractions which Algonquin Park has for the holiday maker is its opportunities for the canoeist. You can travel for hundreds of miles by canoe and camp unmolested in a kingdom of your own.

ROME, JULY 22.—The official communique issued by the war office today reads: "In the region of Tonale in the Brenta Valley and on the new Five hostile artillery activity was effectively countered by our guns. Enemy working parties were dispersed in the Monte Cliviale area and motor columns along the Piave. Two hostile machines were downed by us."

Munitions Workers

By two things we rise to the pinnacle of effort: one is love and the other is patriotism, which is love of country.

Experience shows that the keen, enduring munitions workers are those who have been scorched by the flame of war's sacrifice.

Mothers, wives, sweet-hearts and sisters, whose men are "over there" work with tireless energy. Fathers and brothers whose flesh and blood has enriched the fields of battle put eternal spirit and enthusiasm into their labour.

What we need is that same spirit in every worker.

You who have felt the bitterness of sacrifice; you who know the loneliness of waiting for a loved one's return,—you must inspire your fellow-workers by precept and example.

POSTAL STRIKE IS UNWARRANTED

Acting Premier Issues Statement Regarding What Government Has Done.

CANNOT ARBITRATE

Immediate Return of Strikers to Duty is Expected by Administration.

Ottawa, July 22.—Points at issue with the striking mail carriers were discussed at a meeting of the cabinet council this afternoon.

The Industrial Disputes Act makes no provision for the establishment of boards of conciliation between the government and its employees in connection with any matters of dispute.

Parliament at the last session voted a special allowance for the current fiscal year of $150 to permanent employees who are married, widowers or widows with children and in receipt of salaries not in excess of $1,200.

The first quarterly cheques are now being issued. This vote is in addition to salary or allowance paid last year.

The civil service commission is now conducting an enquiry into the matters of the reorganization of all branches of the outside civil service which will involve the matter of fixing for permanent employees minimum and maximum salaries and the report from the commission will be submitted to the government before the next session of parliament.

In view of these facts, which have been set before the men's representatives the government cannot but view the attitude of certain of the employees of the postoffice department in absenting themselves from the public service at this time as unwarranted, and their immediate return to duty is expected.

GERMANS PLANNED TO INVADE CANADA

Conspirators Tried to Use Reservists in U.S. for Attack.

New York, July 22.—That Teuton conspirators planned, even after this country's entrance into the war, to use German reservists to invade Canada and Mexico, is indicated in the seized correspondence of Dr. Frederick August Richard von Strensch.

The objects of the proposed invasions, according to the authorities, were to hamper the dispatch of Canadian troops abroad, and to join armed forces for the purpose of making an attack upon the United States.

Federal officials believe that Alexander Varda, better known as the Countess von Scheele, was the author of the attack upon the United States.

The woman was arrested shortly after von Strensch's apprehension last week. In these letters were sentences indicating that between November, 1915, and April 20, 1917, plots were in existence for 25,000 German reservists to cross from Buffalo, N.Y., to Bridgeburg, Ont., and for 100,000 Germans to enter Mexico at unnamed points along the Rio Grande.

NEWSPRINT SITUATION MARKEDLY IMPROVES

Washington, July 22.—Marked improvement in newsprint paper conditions, but little change in the consumption of book paper, were reported today by the federal trade commission.

The attention of newspaper publishers again was called to the conservation order by the war industries board, recently made public, which the commission estimates will lower paper consumption at least 5 per cent.

There was a decrease in the percentage of returns and free copies of publications using both newsprint and book paper in June. More rigid economies also were practiced, especially by newspaper publishers.

Why Not Try B'Well?

It Makes People Feel Well

B'Well is a medicine that assists nature, made from roots, barks, herbs, leaves, etc.

It does not contain poison in any form, or narcotic that only relieve pain, but the different roots and herbs that regulate the system.

It restores thousands of people to health, and is not going to amerciate the different diseases and complaints that people have been relieved of from the use of B'Well.

It is a blessing to those who feel life is a burden to them, and who are downhearted and unhappy from disease.

On Sunday morning at Ste. Adresse, the temporary seat of the Belgian Government, an impressive ceremony took place when General Leman, the defender of Liege, was given a public reception which was attended by representatives of the Belgian Government.

Prof. Mulveney's world-famous 'Tape Worm Remedy' is saving thousands of valuable lives and B'Well is doing just as much for those requiring this kind of medicine.

The letters from people who have used B'Well are sufficient evidence as to the value of this medicine.

B'Well is put up in powder form for convenience to send to foreign places by mail, which does away with all breakage.

Postage and packing, 20c on each bottle of 'B'Well' or 'Mother's Friend'.

I took the medicine at 9:00 a.m. and at 1 o'clock the worm came, head and tail, and I was free of the parasite.

Expels Stomach and Pin Worms, BUT IS NOT FOR TAPE WORMS.

This valuable medicine expels Stomach and Pin Worms. It is not only valuable as a Worm Medicine, but is an excellent Tonic, Physic and Appetizer.

How People Feel When They Have Tape Worm

Tape Worm is bred from a parasite. This parasite is a creature male and female in one. It is a pear shape, having two, four and six suckers.

It does not contain poison in any form, or narcotic that only relieve pain, but the different roots and herbs that regulate the system.

It restores thousands of people to health, and is not going to amerciate the different diseases and complaints that people have been relieved of from the use of B'Well.

It is a blessing to those who feel life is a burden to them, and who are downhearted and unhappy from disease.

On Sunday morning at Ste. Adresse, the temporary seat of the Belgian Government, an impressive ceremony took place when General Leman, the defender of Liege, was given a public reception which was attended by representatives of the Belgian Government.

Prof. Mulveney has made the discovery to free the victim of this monster without injury to the system, destroying the worm, and remains there to breed another, it is an internal demon, and causes its victim to suffer all the symptoms of disease imaginable.

I took the medicine at 9:00 a.m. and at 1 o'clock the worm came, head and tail, and I was free of the parasite.

The Root of the Strike.
In the incoherence and annoyance caused by the strike of the postmen it is to be hoped that the fundamental causes of the strike will not be forgotten by the public. Had any private concern treated its employees as the postmen have been treated there would have been such a hue-and-cry raised that the grievance would have been speedily settled. A settlement had been arrived at and accepted long ago, but owing to red tape, the terms of it were never carried out by the government, and in the interval caused by the long delay the men's needs have become so urgent that they ask today for a permanent increase in their wages commensurate with the increased cost of living. The delay, it is alleged, is due to the impossibility of changing the Civil Service Act. The postmen's agitation has been going on since last winter, and if the act was not changed so as to permit the promised bonuses to be given, this is merely an added reason why parliament should be in more or less continuous session and transacting the business of the country.
But the real reason for the strike lies behind all this. The government issued a return from the Ottawa bureau which calculates such matters, to the effect that it now takes $12 to buy what could be had for $7 before the war. The postmen are trying to make their seven dollars do the work of twelve, and as they never had any margin in their seven dollars for what they needed it can be imagined what they have been enduring for months past. The country, the people, the government which represents us all, have been sweating the postmen most unmercifully. And yet this is not the fundamental reason of the strike.
The cost of living has been going up steadily since the war began four years ago, until now, as the government report says, twelve dollars are only worth seven dollars. Why is this? Simply because the government refused to take steps to control prices. They did control the price of what when it had doubled in value, and there has been a slight attempt to regulate the price of coal, the in this respect we are more indebted to the United States Government than our own. But there has been no attempt whatever to control the cost of the ordinary materials of food and clothing, and prices have been allowed to run riot for the benefit of the middleman. The food controller and his bureau have busied themselves circulating articles pointing out the great advantages of high prices and the impossibility of the undesirability of controlling them, and we have been told that the law of supply and demand, which is nothing more or less than the rapacious middleman, regulates the whole situation. If we accept this theory, then the law of supply and demand has produced a beautiful series of strikes, and will produce more if it is allowed to pander further to the greed and the heartlessness of the middlemen profiteers.
We are not inclined to lay these calamities at the door of the law of supply and demand, but rather at the door of the dunder-headed bureaucrats that have refused to grasp the facts and conditions of our social economy. Price control was possible in Great Britain. There was nothing to prevent it here. But the government advisers and the bureaucrats and the controllers refused to control, and prices and the cost of living have crept up and up until the situation for the postmen and many others is intolerable. The government has sown the wind in its food control policy, and is reaping a whirlwind harvest in the strikes that are being organized in every part of the country.
If it is now too late to control food prices downwards, it is at least possible to control them to stability at their present level. Then wages must be adapted to the cost of living as it now stands. There is no other way of remedying the situation whether by commissions or boards of conciliation or orders-in-council or acts of parliament. Radical action should be taken, and at once.
The public, meanwhile, should understand and sympathize with the men who cannot get food for their hungry children, and try to make the best of the strike situation.

Canada Must Prepare for After the War.
That Canada in wartime should prepare for peace and be ready for the great economic shock and readjustment that must accompany the period of reconstruction is the burden of a notable speech delivered at Gall last day ago by Sir John Willison, and given wide publicity by the Canadian Industrial Reconstruction Association.

NO GENERAL STRIKE OF RAILWAY SHOPMEN
East Wants to Retain Relations With Federation; West is for Defying It.
BOMBHELL IN CAMP
Committee Was Notified That Strike Would Mean Cancellation of Union Charters.
Montreal, July 22.—(Sub bulletin, first wire)—There will be no general strike of railway shopmen in Canada, at least for the present time. The intervention of the railway department of the American Federation of Labor, following the action of the adoption by the railways of the McCadeo schedule with amendments last week, was sufficient to prevent the sending out of a strike call to railway shopmen's unions throughout Canada. It also had the effect of causing a decided split in the shopmen's committee that had been in Montreal for several weeks negotiating with the railway war board. East and west called the east for retaining good relations with the A. F. of L. and the west for taking drastic action and that at once. Western representatives strongly supported by their membership, declare that a strike will yet be called, and that the American Federation will be defied.
At four o'clock Saturday afternoon the shopmen's committee, which has been in conference at the Alexandra Hotel, adjourned indefinitely, and at 10:15 Saturday night the western members of the committee who had come to be called "the left wing," boarded the train for Winnipeg. This action followed the receipt of returns from the latest ballot submitted to the membership as to whether they were willing to strike in defiance of the railway employees' department executive council, of the American Federation of Labor.
East and West Clash.
These returns clearly showed that it would be impossible to tie up the railways effectively, especially in the east. For instance, in Montreal itself, only one local lodge cast a majority to strike and hand back its international charter, the penalty of such action.
On the other hand, the west came out strong with a determined strike vote. It is said that 2,800 out of 3,000 shopmen in Winnipeg alone voted for the walkout. The conflict of opinion is thus sharply defined, the east holding to the international fealty, and the west out for independence.
The next move in the long game may thus be expected to come from Winnipeg.
On Tuesday afternoon last as soon as the time of the ultimatum had expired, the shopmen's committee met and decided to issue a strike call throughout the Dominion, to affect some 30,000 railway employees. Then a bomb fell in the camp; it was in the shape of a wire from the executive council of the railway employees' department of the A. F. of L., Washington, advising that a strike would entail cancellation of all the railway union charters in Canada. It was the big stick, and it gave the committee pause, and that deemed necessary once more to take the opinion of the membership, and this was done. The result, as has been stated, was a vote of 2,800 in favor of the dissolution of the committee.
Before the final adjournment, an endeavor was made to have the committee meet again, but the members to the McCadeo award are promised. However, the western members would not accede to this request, declaring that the war was on, and that they were going home to prepare for eventualities.

Other People's Opinions
A School System Dominion Wide.
Editor World: The Dominion of Canada is one large nation. Within her borders many things are done for the Dominion wide—instead of provincial. The government proposes to nationalize our railway systems in coming years, while, let us assume, it continues to continue business as in the past. There is a bigger thing, and something that is of vital interest to all citizens of Canada, and that is the question of a school system who he or she is, or where they live in this vast Dominion, it is a prime issue to or with them, if they will only stop and think a while. Let us all do some thinking. It is time we did some. Let us join shoulder to shoulder in this great scheme, or theme, whichever you choose to call it. It is time it was done, and it can be done if the people of Canada only wake up to the necessity of such. All that is necessary is to formulate a national or Dominion act of parliament governing all within the Dominion of Canada. True, it will and may take some thought, but why have we had without a price? There are men in Canada capable to solve the problem. What we want, and what we need to make Canada what she should be, and what she ought to be, and what she must be, before we as Canadians become a united nation, let us have it. It is a national, Dominion-wide school system. A school system extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean and from the United States boundary to the north pole. There can be a provincial board, or head, but let us have one system teaching all children the same subjects; one language as far as our public schools are concerned. Why have we provincial school systems, dividing our people and ideas? Let our school system be a Canadian national school system.

PRISONERS MARCHING IN LONG COLUMNS
With the French Army in France, July 22.—The region immediately south of Soissons forms the key to the German position, and here the enemy has concentrated heavy forces for the purpose of holding back the advancing tide of the allies. The allies, however, continue their progress, although the fighting is becoming heavier each hour. They have taken a large number of prisoners, the number being more than has been announced, and new batches of captives are arriving. The number of unwounded prisoners alone far exceeds the total casualties of the allied troops since the victorious advance began.
The correspondent has seen a large column of these prisoners coming in, and from their appearance they were certainly picked men.
The number of undamaged cannon which has been taken by the allies is very large, and is constantly increasing, while at the same time large quantities of ammunition have been captured.

When making such application persons should give all the information possible as to the number of the lost certificate, the name and address of the registrar who issued it, etc. Communications of this nature addressed to the Central Registrar may be sent free, and there is no charge for the new certificate.

CHAPTER CXL.
The next morning, after George and Mr. Babcock had left for the office, Mrs. Babcock remarked:
"I know you are going to be busy this morning so please do not think of me. Just let me take care of myself."
I was wondering how I should entertain her, and also attend to my plans for my dinner party. Her thoughtfulness left me free. And yet, I did not exactly like to feel that she had nothing to do all the morning.
"I have some things to attend to," I admitted, "but, instead of remaining in, wouldn't you like to have the car and take a ride?"
"Yes, thank you, I should enjoy it very much. Do you suppose Mrs. Reeves would lend me your little marmoset for an hour?"
"Indeed she would!" I replied, pleased that Mrs. Babcock should propose it. "Perhaps Evelyn would go, too, if you would care to have her?"
"That would be delightful." I immediately telephoned Evelyn, and she gladly accepted Mrs. Babcock's invitation.
"She is so lovely, and I haven't a thing to keep me at home, this morning," Evelyn replied.
After Mrs. Babcock had gone, I went into the kitchen and Mary and I discussed the dinner. Of course everything was practically ready, but I was leaving nothing to chance. It must be as perfect as possible.
George Telephones.
Just as the flowers came, George telephoned.
"Julia Collins is back! Hadn't you better ask her?"
"But, George—my plans are all made—the table is laid."
"I think you had better ask her! The table can easily be extended. If it makes an odd number, get Gray too."
"Very well, I will call her up." I turned from the telephone rebelliously. I didn't want Julia Collins. My list was very complete, with just the people I thought Mr. and Mrs. Babcock would enjoy meeting, or those whom, for business reasons, we were inviting.
"It's a pity she couldn't have stayed away until after it was over." I said to myself, as I gave central her number.
"I am giving a dinner tonight, Mrs. Collins. I just heard you had returned. If you will accept this seventeenth-hour invitation, I should like you to come."
"Indeed I will! and thank you. It was good of you to ask me."
"With the feeling of a distasteful duty done, I then called up Merton Gray:
"Oh, Merton, will you be real good to me, again, and come to dinner to-night. I am sure you will have to; I have invited an entirely different set—older people, most of them. But Julia Collins has come back; tell her Mrs. Babcock, as I want you to come to make an even number."
"I am at your disposal, fair lady. I feel that I should like to be there for coming home, and so securing me the invitation."
A Perfect Dinner.
The day flew by on wings, so busy was I. My dinner was to be at eight o'clock, and I was to dine in the room for the last time, before I went up to dress, it looked so lovely that I did not repress an exclamation of delight.
"It is charming," George said. I had not known he was behind me, and so I turned to him, and said, "I am growing very proud of you."
"Wait until you see the bills!" I said gaily. I felt happy, thru and thru. His praise meant so much to me.
My guests all arrived on time, and my dinner was a perfect success. Not a hitch anywhere. I had enlisted Mary's best efforts by telling her that I would react on me, if everything was not just as it should be; and had put James on his mettle by praising the service at Mrs. Babcock's home.
George fairly beamed, all thru the meal. I never had seen him more gleeful, more entertaining. He was a perfect host, at all times; yet tonight I thought I detected something a little different in him, and it puzzled me—until it came to me all suddenly, that it was a something in his attitude toward me, the hostess. A new deference, a pride he never had shown so plainly before. Everyone else was so gay as well, that I forgot my animosity toward Julia Collins and laughed at her witty remarks as heartily as the rest.
"You certainly are a wonderful hostess," she whispered as we rose from the table, leaving the men to smoke and talk so busily as they wished, "I am quite jealous of you."
I thought it only fair; I had always been jealous of her. But I only smiled and assured her that I should never usurp her place.
The dinner guests all left about midnight. When we were at last alone, George and I said:
"Your dinner, everything, went off perfectly. I can see that you are going to shine as a hostess. I was delighted with you and all that you did."

APPLICATION REFUSED.
Alberta Chief Justice Says Supreme Court Judgment Must Be Upheld.
Calgary, July 22.—Before Chief Justice Harvey in chambers today, the application of J. E. Varley, asking for a stay of proceedings pending the hearing of the Lewis appeal, was refused by his lordship, stating that the judgment of the Supreme Court of Canada must be upheld. Notice of appeal was then given by Mr. Varley, and it was suggested that the matter could be formally re-opened by the military under order given and they could at once be taken under the Military Service Act. The court made the previous statement made by Mr. Justice Stuart could only be enforced by order of the court or a fiat from the judge.

MORE U.S. PRISONERS.
Washington, July 22.—Names of three additional prisoners of war in Germany were received today by the war department. They are Lieut. Aviator Henry Joseph Leavitt, Royal Flying Corps, address unknown; and Privates Albert Brook, Princeton, N.J., and Harry K. James, Bristol, Rhode Island. The camps in which the men are were not named.

CURVE OF FRENCH LINE.
London, July 22.—It is learned that the French line now runs from Breny along the main Chateau Thierry road to Recourt and Epieds to the Marais at Chartreves. The capture of Barbillon Wood by the Americans means that the overseas men have advanced between three and four miles from their old positions on the Marne.

STEFANSSON TO LECTURE.
Nome, Alaska, July 22.—Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Canadian Arctic explorer, now at Fort Yukon, is planning to go on a lecture tour this fall for the benefit of the Red Cross, according to a telegram received here. Stefansson is in a Port Yukon hospital recovering from illness contracted at Horseshell Island early this year.

BRITISH NEUTRALIZE AID OF BAVARIANS
Transport to Champagne Proceeds in Skillful Manner—All Picked Troops.
Paris, July 22.—Pushing in south of Soissons, the French have crossed the Soissons-Chateau Thierry road north of Villeneuve, opposite Bucancy. The Temps announced today in describing the situation in the Soissons area.
It is interesting to note that the British divisions on the front south-west of Rheims have again taken the same place in the battle order which the British occupied when driven back in the May offensive. Their transport from the British front to the Champagne front was executed in a most skillful manner.
When the Bavarian crown prince answered the German crown prince's appeal for help and sent some of his divisions from the Picardy front to aid the Germans in the Marne salient an equal number of British divisions was detached from the northern front and moved to the battle sector south-west of Rheims. The British divisions are composed of picked troops.

NO RECONSTRUCTION OF EASTERN FRONT
Washington, July 22.—Plans for the military expedition to be conducted jointly by the United States and Japan, with Great Britain and France, it is understood, do not at this time contemplate the reconstruction of the eastern front as a battle line to draw German troops from the west.
The objects of the expedition, as they will be outlined in detail in President Wilson's statement which he personally is preparing, will be to protect American interests, the interests of the Russian people themselves in their fight for democracy, and for the safeguarding of vast supplies which will be sent to Russia as part of the program of economic aid.

French Gain Further Ground South of Soissons Along Ourcq.

ON GERMAN HEELS

Advance Continues Towards Fere-en-Tardenois, Despite Strong Resistance.

The drive of the French and American forces into the Soissons-Rheims salient between Soissons and the region of the Marne continues. The Germans at some points are counter-attacking desperately, but their efforts thus far have proved futile in more than impeding the advance.

ADVANCE NEAR RHEIMS

Severe fighting is in progress between the British, French and Italian troops and the enemy southwest of Rheims, where the British have made a further advance, while in Champagne to the east of Rheims the French are reported to have regained all their old front line positions between the River Sempis and the Town of Metz.

JOHNNY MOKAN HERO OF LAST WITH BIRDS

Two Singles and Two Triples Drove in Four and Scored One Himself.

S. LEWIS WINNING PITCHER

None of Leaf Players Spoke of Quitting Team to Work or Fight.

Special to The Toronto World. Baltimore, July 22.—Johnny Moka's bet played the leading role in this afternoon's game between Baltimore and Toronto, which the Leafs won, 7 to 6, making it four in a row from Baltimore and eight straight since the Howieskes started out on their present road trip. Moka's bat drove in four of the Leafs' counters and he scored one himself. It was a see-saw battle from start to finish, with Toronto having the edge most of the way. There was little good baseball at any time, and with umpire Pittman again performing in miserable style throughout, teams were constantly wrangling, and the game was the longest in point of time this season, where only the regulation number of rounds were played.

DOROTHY DIX'S TALKS

FOREWARNED IS FOREARMED

BY DOROTHY DIX.
The World's Highest Paid Woman Writer.

Little Mary Thompson has married the handsome, easy, no-account, dissipated Smith boy, in spite of the prayers, tears and entreaties of her father and mother, and in face of all their warnings that she was wrecking her life by choosing such a man for a husband.

Arthur Jones, has eloped with his mother's pretty housemaid, and his family, who had built all their hopes and ambitions on him, are heartbroken. These are familiar bits of gossip that we all thresh over every day of our lives. And we always say what idiots Mary and Arthur are, and pity their poor parents and wonder how such fool marriages ever come about.

The parents say they don't know that they never dreamed of such a thing as Mary and Arthur marrying, and that heaven is their witness that they did, and said, everything on earth that they could to prevent their poor, misguided children from making such a marriage that any sane person could see was bound to end in disaster, but what can you do with a headstrong girl and boy who think they are in love?

And the parents are sincere in their protestations of guiltlessness. They never suspect that they had any hand in making the matches that bring misery and probably divorce upon their children. They would be horrified if you would charge them with being accomplices in the fact of almost every unsuitable marriage. Yet this is nothing more nor less than the solemn truth.

There is nothing in life more curious than the attitude that parents take towards their children's marriage. Theoretically, everybody knows that every boy and girl is cut off of the same bolt of humanity, and are of the same warp and woof. Also that certain basic principles govern the relationship between the sexes.

There has been no change in the things that attract men and women to each other since the law of nature was first laid down. A pretty face, an eye with a come-hither look in it, a winning way and a gilt tongue, the strange and mysterious way of a man with a maid have always been—and always will be—the material out of which matches are made.

Proximity has also never failed to get in its fatal work since Great-grandfather Adam popped the question to Great-grandmother Eve because they were thrown so much together in a lonely garden where they were the only two young people.

There is nothing in these bromide facts. More, they have experienced them in their own person, and yet they act as if their own children were entirely different from all the other children of men, and therefore not subject to the temptation to which any other girl and boy might yield.

They take the position that while other young people's hearts may be made of highly inflammable tinder, their children's hearts are cooled in asbestos, and that while other young people may be foolishly ignorant of the world, credulous and credulous, their own children are wise and understanding, and of ripe and mature judgment. Furthermore, they are convinced that their own children are entirely too young to think of marriage, and that other young children of the same age are already married.

Therefore, a father and mother see no harm in letting their children play around with all sorts of girls and boys whom they would never let them think of marrying.

There is Billy Smith. Such a lovable kind of a scapegrace, but absolutely not worth the powder and lead it would take to kill him. Never sticks to a job two consecutive months at a time. Sits around home and strums a ukulele while his poor old mother takes in boarders to support him. No particular harm in him, but just worthless, the kind of a man who will be a worse curse to his wife than an energetic porch climber would be. But handsome as a picture, and with a fascination about him that "pokes everybody's eye a surface liking for him, no matter how much they inwardly despise him. Father and mother give up the run of their house. He sits there, reading, noon and night, and he and Arthur read together and dance together, and he helps her drive her car, for he is handy in all sorts of non-essential ways. Father and mother raise no objection because it seems to them that no girl could be fool enough to want to marry him, and then comes a day when he and Mary appear before them hand in hand and tell them that they have decided to get married.

Father and mother have fits all over the place, but it avails them nothing. Mary goes on and marries the man she has fallen in love with, but whom she never would have fallen in love with, if her parents had kept her from association with such an undesirable partner.

Perhaps father and mother are conscientiously opposed to the marriage of cousins, but they invite a beautiful and alluring young girl to come and make her home with them. Their son is thrown continually in her society in a dangerous intimacy that gives her all the right to the tenderness and familiarity a man bestows on his sister, yet with the added element of sex attraction in it.

Son and cousin go about unchaperoned. Cousin pours son's coffee for him of a morning and dandles at him across the breakfast table. Cousin notices when son comes home tired at night, fetches a pillow for his head and says "poor things, son, begins to think how dreadful it would be if he didn't have cousin always across the breakfast table, and cousin feels that life would be empty without him to do things for, so they announce to the scandalized parents that they are going to be married.

And the scandalized parents say they never thought of such a thing when they brought the girl to live there. Why didn't they think of bringing two young people together in the most favorable situation for love-making that human ingenuity can suggest. Practically any woman who is not a hunchback can win any man if she can get him at close range. Certainly any woman can manage herself in love with any man whose physical comfort she looks out for. Put two people of opposite sex together in the same house, and you inevitably set them to thinking of having a home of their own. They become a habit and a necessity to each other, and that is the strongest bond that nature can forge.

If parents wish to prevent unsuitable marriages of their children they will have to learn to lock the stable door before the horse is stolen, not wait until after the horse is gone. Then it is too late. The only way to break up an undesirable match is to keep young people from falling in love with the wrong people.

Fathers and mothers should look upon every young man who comes to their house as a possible husband for their daughter, and every young woman their sons know as a potential wife. Parents should let a young man visit regularly at their house, whom they would not be willing to see Mary or Sallie marry, if Mary or Sallie should desire. When ever a young man begins to hang around Mary or Sallie with any degree of steadiness, it is father's bounden duty to hunt up his record and find out whether he would make a welcome son-in-law or not, not to wait until Mary or Sallie has fallen in love with him before he ascertains what sort of a chap he is.

It is not so easy to safeguard a boy's matrimonial happiness as it is a girl's, but no woman who has a grain of sense in her head should ever have a pretty servant girl, or a pretty nursery governess, or a pretty relative to stay in her house without she is willing to welcome that pretty girl into the family circle. For it is on the cards that she will have to do it, whether she desires to or not.

Nowhere else in the world is there so much truth in the old adage that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure as there is in matrimony.

HELPLESS WOMEN AND BABES SAVED

Secours National Receives Interesting Letter of Gratitude for Help Given.

A letter has recently been received from Mdlle. Le Clerc, to whom the Secours National paid $200, after the last bombardment of Paris. The letter was written on June 18. According to Mdlle. Le Clerc, "refugees are arriving by the hundred, and in a destitute condition, having had to abandon everything in their hurried flight from the invaded regions.

The money sent has been of great assistance, in helping the poor women who have arrived in a precarious condition. "Many of these future mothers come to us in hysterics, and often insanity," writes Mdlle. "One woman carried a child in her arms for miles, and when we took it from her it was dead, probably from exposure and shock. Next day the woman gave birth to another child, which we are endeavoring to save."

Families living outside Paris are adopting as many of these helpless women and children as they can accommodate, and where their private

GEN. GOURAUD PRAISES CONDUCT OF TROOPS

Paris, July 22.—Gen. Gouraud, the commander on the front east of Rheims, where the Germans in their offensive last week were stopped by a stonewall defence, issued the following to his army the day after the German offensive was checked:

"To the soldiers of the fourth army: On July 14, you crushed the effort of fifteen German divisions, supported by ten more. Their orders were to reach the Marne that evening. You stopped them just where we decided to engage them and win the battle. You have the right to be proud, you heroic infantry machine gunners of advanced positions, who gave the signal that the attack had been begun and broke it up; you aviators who flew overhead; you battalions and batteries who crushed it; you of the staffs who so carefully prepared the battlefield. It was a hard blow for the enemy, and it is a splendid day for France. I count upon you for the same result whenever the enemy dares attack you, and with all my heart, as a soldier, I thank you."

FINNS SAID TO AGREE WITH GERMAN POLICY

Washington, July 22.—A report that Germany and Finland had come to definite conclusions, reached the state department today, but the information was not regarded as authentic. Officials doubt that Finland has agreed to stand by Germany inasmuch as it has heretofore been very careful to avoid taking sides with either the central or the allied powers. The report said the Germans had 80,000 troops in Finland and hope to have 40,000 white guards acting with them, giving them a total force of 120,000. The Germans are making strong efforts to get control of the railroad south from Kola at Kemi. The road is being used by the allied forces which recently were reported moving south.

PLAN OF NEW CASUALTY CLEARING STATION IN NORTH ROSEDALE WITH ACCOMMODATION FOR 2000 MEN AND FACILITIES FOR EXPANSION.

PROPOSED SCHEME FOR CASUALTY CLEARING STATION TORONTO, SCALE 200 FT. TO 1 IN. JUNE 18/18 OFFICE C.R.C.E. M.D.2.

The World is able this morning to publish the plans of the new Casualty Clearing Station to be built on the heights overlooking Rosedale, and immediately north of the new military hospital. They supplement the description of them published exclusively in this paper on July 5, and give a good idea of what is going on in that part of the city.

The station, which can accommodate over 2000 soldiers at any one time, is being built with an eye to the future, and the buildings are being constructed so as to permit of expansion to accommodate any number of men.

It might be explained that a casualty clearing station is an important link in the system of returned soldiers to civil life. Here they come after a medical board has pronounced them unfit for active service. They are given medical treatment, and are practically under the same discipline as they would be were they in barracks.

Roughly the new camp will occupy nearly 40 acres. As the plan shows, it will extend from the east bank of the Reservoir ravine, along the C.P.R. right-of-way to a point 300 feet east of MacLennan Avenue, and running northwards to Rosedale Heights drive, forming a parallelogram immediately to the north of Rosedale Military Hospital, and separated from it by the C. P. R. tracks. This 40 acres added to the 23 purchased from St. Andrew's College, and the old Lacrosse Grounds of seven acres, which the city will located on the east side of Light Hill turn over any time, will give the government a total area of almost 70 acres, with plenty of available land adjoining should it be required later.

The plans prepared call for nineteen distinct buildings. More will be built later as they are required. They will be of wood and plaster construction. Provision is also made for the extension of Light Hill Avenue across the C. P. Railway tracks to Summerhill Avenue, which with MacLennan Avenue will give the station an entrance to Rosedale by way of two thoroughfares.

The men will be housed in barracks located to the west of the camp. There are eight of them, each about 240 feet long by 60 feet wide and giving accommodation to 2,000 men. Four separate buildings containing shower baths and lavatories are to be erected close by. To the south of these and close to the C. P. tracks will be two immense mess rooms for the men. They will be about 360 feet long by 50 feet wide.

The recreation mess is to be built on the west side of Light Hill Avenue at the south end. From Light Hill Avenue to MacLennan Avenue, a distance of about 550 feet, and paralleling the railway tracks the parade ground will be laid out. It will extend northwards to the foot of the hill, a distance of about 200 feet, thus giving plenty of room for drill purposes.

The largest building on the site will be the recreation hall. It is lo-located at the corner of Ridge Drive and will command a splendid view of Rosedale and the city to the south. The building will be fitted up with lounge rooms, reading rooms and one assembly hall and will be nearly 200 feet long by 100 feet wide. To the east of this again will be located the officers' mess, a building 50 by 150 feet.

All the details in connection with the management of the station will be conducted from the administration building which will be built east of Light Hill Avenue and south of Rosedale Heights drive. Its dimensions will be 100 by 75 feet and adjoining it will be the guard house, about 60 by 40 feet.

The size of the various buildings gives one an idea of the extent of the whole station, which, it is understood, is to be the largest in Canada.

To the east of MacLennan Avenue and extending from the railway tracks on the south to Rosedale Heights drive continued, eastwards, on the north, is a beautiful stretch of wooded country about seven acres in extent, and this will be used as a recreation ground.

Every possible requirement of the station has been anticipated, but the question of transportation has still to be solved. The military authorities, however, in a beautiful stretch of wooded country about seven acres in extent, and this will be used as a recreation ground.

street cars, and a plan for the improvement of the roads leading to and from the station. The government, it is understood, has already a plan mapped out, and will take the first opportunity of conferring regarding it with the Canadian Pacific Railway, the city authorities and other interested parties. It will necessarily be of a comprehensive nature as any system of good roads and street car lines must have regard to the demands, not only of the casualty clearing station and the new Rosedale military hospital, but also of the munition works, aviation camp and government railway yards at Leaside and the Davisville military hospital.

PUBLIC IS ADVISED TO CALL FOR MAIL
City is Divided by Postal Authorities Into Most Convenient Districts.

The following statement of instruction has been issued by Postmaster Lemon:

Patrons of the postal service at Toronto, who have hitherto been served by letter carrier delivery, are requested, until regular delivery by letter carrier service is restored, to call for their incoming mail, both registered and ordinary, at the General Postoffice, or at the postal stations from whence their district is served.

BRIG.-GEN. C. H. HOARE RETURNS FROM ENGLAND

Brig.-General C. H. Hoare, general officer commanding the Royal Air Force in Canada, arrived in Toronto yesterday after a visit to England. His visit to England had as one of its main objects an enquiry regarding the latest methods of training aviators. It is probable that as a result some changes will be made in the Dominion. It is understood that another important matter discussed during the general's stay in England was the establishment of a Canadian Air Force. No announcement on this point, however, is yet ready.

Extensions in building are being planned or are in process of construction in the Toronto district by the R. A. F., the work being co-operated in by the department of militia. The buildings will afford accommodation for several thousand cadets, this being in line with the new scheme of retaining the cadets in Toronto district this coming winter instead of sending them for training to the southern United States. It is stated that the winter instructional work will be carried on at Camp Borden, Leaside, Armour Heights, Deseronto, Hamilton and Beamsville.

Peasants have said that fishing was dead in Muskoka, but visitors at the Wawa Hotel, Lake of Bays, know that this is not a fact.

Last week Mr. F. W. Leach of Toronto, and a party of friends, armed with fishing tackle and bait, paid a flying visit to Hollow Lake, a small lake five miles from the Wawa Hotel and there made a record catch of mountain lake trout. Isaac Walton, at his best, had nothing on these fishermen.

Arriving at the fishing camp at noon, they unpacked their tackle and started in to business. The following day at the same hour, they decided it was time to pull in their lines and like Arabs "steal away back" to the hotel. There to show other guests their remarkable catch, for truly remarkable it was—eight of the finest fish averaging three pounds each—was the reward these fishermen received for making the trip to little Hollow Lake.

The one hundred and fifty guests at the hotel were treated to a delicious breakfast, many were the inquiries made as to where the delicious fish came from, and on discovering the donors, a hearty vote of thanks was extended to the fishermen.

MAYOR IS ANXIOUS FOR A SETTLEMENT

Keeps in Touch With Ottawa Officials, Asking for Decision.

HOLDS A CONFERENCE
Telegram Sent Asking for Appointment of Committee.

As a result of the letter carriers' strike Mayor Church has kept in continual touch with Ottawa with a view to effecting a speedy settlement of the points in dispute. In a telegram to Hon. C. J. Doherty yesterday, the mayor said:

Your telegram received re postal office officials' wages. Serious sleep of business here. Condition of affairs absolutely intolerable. Strike at busiest season of year. Your government urged us to appoint board of conciliation in strike of civic employes recently. Could not government do likewise in this matter? Please answer.

Says Act is Responsible.

When interviewed yesterday, the mayor said: "The Civil Service Act is responsible for the whole difficulty." He hoped that the strike would be over before the day was out. When the mayor visited the postoffice yesterday he witnessed the efforts of the remaining staff to cope with the situation.

"The government's offer is unsatisfactory to the men, who demand a straight salary increase and a sub-committee to deal with the dispute here in Toronto," he said.

As a result of the conference held in the mayor's office yesterday with Postmaster Lemon and the men's committee the following telegram was sent to Ottawa:

"Conference my office this afternoon between President Cuthbertson and Secretary Cox of the men's committee; Postmaster William Lemon, President Bogart of Board of Trade, Thomas A. Stevenson secretary Trades and Labour Council. Men meeting tonight. Please let me have answer to my telegram of this morning on behalf of the government, consenting to appointment of sub-committee of cabinet taking up dispute. Decision to be given not less than two weeks, and to final. Men to return to work at once. Sub-committee to have full power to settle all matters in dispute. Please answer in time for tonight's meeting of men."

MORE "B" MEN REQUIRED TO FILL UP BATTALION

It has been found by the military authorities that there is now a shortage of medical category "B" men for service with the 2nd Battalion, Canadian Garrison Regiment, in Toronto military district. The total of men the unit is now short of is stated to be several hundred.

The lack of category "B" men in the garrison regiment will result in a general combing out, it is understood, in the other Canadian expeditionary force units in the district in order to meet the deficiency. If the number needed is not obtained by this method, there is a likelihood of the authorities asking Ottawa to call to the colors some more of the "B" men in class one. No action has, however, been taken in this regard yet.

CHEMISTRY EXPERT IN FIRE BRIGADE

Claim is Made That He Could Instruct Others in Antidotes.

If Engineer Copeland of Brockton fire hall had received his just dues then the death of Lieut. Ough of Portland station from the effects of inhaling nitric acid fumes would never have happened. This was the claim made by A. E. Caldwell, 274 St. Clarens Avenue, himself an engineer, who has worked around chemicals for a good many years. Mr. Caldwell says: "I have known Engineer Copeland for ten years and became acquainted with him thru a write-up in the local papers describing the man and his work. He is a graduate from the Technical School in chemistry and is justified both by experience and education to handle the work of fighting escaping chemical fumes, of which in the light of the recent death of Lieut. Ough the department is woefully ignorant. Mr. Copeland offered himself during Chief Thompson's time as specialist in this line of work. He intended, if appointed, to institute a course of lectures to the men on fighting chemical fumes and other innovations relative to the problem. He received little consideration at the hands of the fire chief. Soon after Chief Thompson went into retirement, on the appointment of his successor, Chief Smith, Mr. Copeland once again applied and again received scant attention from the authorities.

MONTREAL PRODUCE

Montreal, July 22.—There was little demand in the local market today for grain. Expectations of a large harvest are causing buyers to do a hand to mouth trade, and as the supplies are adequate, and following declines in the Chicago and Winnipeg markets, prices here were generally down about 2 cents. A few car lots of No. 3 yellow corn were worked at $1.85 and of No. 4 at $1.75 per bushel.

There was no change to note in the local market for flour.

The tone of the mill feed market remains firm with a good demand for all grades and little offering.

The hay market is steady and unchanged with little business passing.

In the local potato market supplies of new American potatoes are about cleaned up, and the arrivals of local news are beginning to accumulate with a consequent easier feeling in the market. Receipts of eggs locally are large, but the demand is very active and prices show a tendency to go higher.

Cheese—Canadian western, No. 2, $1; extra No. 1 feed, 70c.

Flour—New, standard grade, $10.95 to $11.00.

Rolled oats—Bays, 90 lbs., $5.20 to $5.30. Bran, $25; shorts, $40; mouille, 65c.

Hay—No. 2, per ton, car lots, $14.50 to $15.

Cheese—Finest eastern, 22 1/2c to 23c. Butter—Selected, 51c to 52c; No. 1 stock, 47c to 48c.

Lard—Pure, wood pallets, 20 lbs., net, 32c to 33c.

GLEN ROAD BRIDGE NOW BEING BUILT

The temporary bridge over Glen road, to carry the traffic to and from the Bloor-Danforth viaduct, was commenced yesterday by the city works department. By the time the concrete supports are finished, the steel, which is already ordered, will be on the job.

THREE MORE APPLICATIONS.

Three more applications for writs of habeas corpus have been made at Osgoode Hall. They are: H. L. Scott and John Leap of Markham Township, now in camp at Aldershot, N.S., and H. N. Wauchoppe of King Township, now at Niagara. They will come up with the others due on Thursday.

As far back as 1904 Mr. Copeland made a suggestion to then Deputy Chief Noble to have certain chemicals to act as antidotes in case of a chemical outbreak. This was also refused.

In view of these facts, Mr. Caldwell thinks there should be some appointment made, if not Engineer Copeland then someone else, who is capable of handling the question.

DECLINE IN GRAIN CARRIED FURTHER

Field Conditions for Corn Are Almost Ideal, and Receipts Heavy.

Chicago, July 22.—Pronounced weakness developed in the corn market today owing principally to bearish crop reports and to big receipts. The close was unsettled, 1 1/2c to 2 1/2c net lower, with August $1.45 1/2 to $1.45 1/2, and September $1.45 to $1.50. Oats finished 3/4c to 3/4c off. Provisions, the outcome ranged from 2 1/2c decline to 1 1/2c advance.

Field conditions for corn were almost ideal, and arrivals of about 62 carloads here were far above the average for this time of the season. The market accordingly began to decline at the outset, but an unexpected scarcity of selling orders made shorts uneasy, and led to covering which lasted until mid-session and brought about material upturn. Means while some talk was current as to chances of damage from hot winds, after the demand from shorts had become exhausted, however, the market weakened rapidly. Beneficial rains were said to be imminent in Kansas, and it was generally accepted opinion that barring some exceptional contingency, the supply of moisture throughout the belt would prove ample.

Oats reflected the action of corn. Rural offerings were larger, and threshing advances favorable.

Announcement of the placing of big orders to provisions, and so, too, did higher prices on hogs.

THE SORT OF VACATION BOOKS YOU'LL ENJOY AT 30c

Priced Fully 50 Per Cent. Less Than Market Value—Phone Main 7841

Months ago we made a great special purchase of holiday reading, anticipating your present requirements. Since then the English publishers have been forced to make two very substantial advances in prices, owing to the scarcity of paper and labor. Hence the books that we offer you at 30c could not be duplicated to sell under 50 per cent. increase. Seize the opportunity today to lay in a liberal supply at the old price. Cloth bound. Each 30c.
