CZAR IN COMMAND; GRANDDUKE GOES TO CAUCASUS

Spectacular Leadership of The Russian Commander Brought To Close

Emperor Now Rules Over Whole Forces on Land and Sea—Most Important Change in Command Since War Opened Except For Retirement of Von Moltke by Kaiser Early in Course of Hostilities

Petrograd, Sept. 8.—Grand Duke Nicholas has been transferred to the Caucasus by Emperor Nicholas.

London, Sept. 8.—Emperor Nicholas has assumed command not only of the military but the naval forces of Russia.

London, Sept. 8.—An army order issued by Grand Duke Nicholas, who has been commander-in-chief of the Russian forces, conveys the inference that Emperor Nicholas, in assuming supreme command of his armed forces, has supplanted the grand duke.

Petrograd, Sept. 8.—In transferring the grand duke the Emperor appointed him viceroy of the Caucasus and commander-in-chief of the army on the southern front.

The action of Emperor Nicholas in transferring his cousin, the grand duke, to the Caucasus front, is perhaps the most important change of this nature which has been made by any of the belligerents.

The post to which Grand Duke Nicholas has been transferred is of minor importance as compared with the prestige and vast powers of his former office as commander-in-chief of all Russia's great fighting forces.

Although there was heavy fighting in the Caucasus earlier in the war, hostilities have been conducted in only a perfunctory manner for several months, as both of the actions involved had used of all available forces in other quarters.

THE NATION STIRRED

Petrograd, Sept. 8.—The transference of the grand duke was made in connection with a general re-organization of such importance that it has stirred the nation deeply.

The grand duke replaces the famous viceroy of the Caucasus, Count Von Vorontsov-Dashkoff, Emperor Nicholas addressed to the count a communication acknowledging the value of his labors and stating that he yielded to his request to be permitted to devote his energies to work for which his state of health is more suited.

London, Sept. 8.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company says: "The decision of Emperor Nicholas to take chief command is regarded as the best possible reply to recent talk of peace proposals, and as showing clearly Russia's determination to bring victory to herself and her allies."

GERMANS PLAN TO CONTROL RAILWAYS

London, Sept. 8.—A Petrograd despatch to the Times leads confirmation to the belief that the German scheme of operations is to gain command of the railway systems from Riga to Lemberg, in order to cope effectively with the transport problem.

With this object, says the despatch, the Germans are undertaking two main movements. The first is to capture the Kolkid district on the river Stry, where they captured three officers and 188 soldiers.

On the Serezh the enemy, who generally remains passive, undertook an offensive in the region of Tarnopol, on the 6th, repeated attempts to open an offensive in the region of Tarnopol, these proved futile.

RUSSIAN OFFICIAL REPORT

Petrograd, Sept. 8.—The War Office last night announced: "In the Riga district the situation is unchanged. South of Friedrichstadt the enemy has delivered, since the night of the 6th, energetic attacks on the river front. They were repulsed. Between the Serezh and the Vilya and on the Vilya and the Niemen the situation is stationary."

On the Middle Niemen the enemy continued on the 6th and 7th to develop his operations from Grodno east and southeast. Farther south our rear guards, Phelix and Ferdinand WEATHER BULLETIN

MARITIME PROVINCE WAR NEWS

Capt. Lewis, Formerly of Halifax, Missing at Dardanelles—Prominent Young Halifax Business Men Go Into 64th as Privates

SAYS VON TRITZ MERELY IS TO TAKE A BRIEF VACATION

At the Same Time Kaiser is Reported to Have, For Political Reasons, Stood For Modified Submarine Policy

Amsterdam, Sept. 8.—Reports that Admiral Von Tiritz intends to resign are inventions, although it is true that he plans to take a brief vacation, according to the Berlin correspondent of the Nieuwe Rotterdamse Courant.

A despatch from Amsterdam on September 8 said it was reported in Berlin that Von Tiritz would resign as minister of marine and be succeeded by Admiral Von Pohl, now chief of the admiralty staff and commander of the Baltic fleet.

It has been persistently asserted that Von Tiritz had come into serious conflict with Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg over the submarine campaign, which the admiral instituted in retaliation for the British blockade.

Recruiting for the 64th continues and the regiment will be considerably strengthened this week. Applicants for enlistment include three men, and at the Armentoues eight. This (Tuesday) morning nineteen men left for Sussex and this evening sixteen men will go. In addition, the Halifax Echo says: "Recruiting for the 64th continues and the regiment will be considerably strengthened this week."

RELEASE OF GOODS HELD UP AT NEUTRAL PORTS BY ORDER OF BRITAIN

Washington, Sept. 8.—Ambassador Page cabled from London yesterday that Great Britain is now prepared to accept informal representations by the foreign trade advisers of the state department as a means of releasing American-owned goods of German and Austrian origin now held up at neutral ports by the British order-in-council.

RECRUITING CAMPAIGN IN ALBERT AND KENT

Moncton, N. B., Sept. 8.—Preparations are being made for a recruiting campaign next week in Albert and Kent counties. Lieutenant Henry of the 64th is in Moncton today en route to Hillsboro and other points to arrange meetings to be addressed by himself, Lieut. Brooks and Lieutenants O'Leary and Kerwick are in Kent arranging for meetings.

PLANS TO ENLARGE THE AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE

Washington, Sept. 8.—The administration's plans for national defense and for enlarging the merchant marine, it was indicated today, will be co-ordinated in the forthcoming session of congress. A striking argument for increasing the number of merchantmen under the Stars and Stripes, secretary of the treasury, McAdoo, said today, was that such ships were needed as naval auxiliaries.

DEATH OF CHILD

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Courtney of 91 Moore street, will learn with regret of the death of their infant son, David Courtney, this morning, after a lingering illness of meningitis. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

HESPERIAN DEAD NOW 33

Survivors Reach Liverpool—Declared Absolutely That No Warning Was Given—Probably One American Lost Life.

Queenstown, Sept. 8.—It has been established that an American named Wolff was lost on the Hesperian.

Liverpool, Sept. 8.—The passengers from the torpedoed Hesperian arrived in Liverpool last night. It is officially announced that seven passengers and twenty-two members of the crew are missing, making the total death list thirty-three.

No submarine was seen by anyone before the ship was struck, nor was any warning given, says an official statement issued by the Allan line. This seemingly sets at rest the story that a warning was given by lookout just before the vessel was struck.

TWO BIG MEETINGS TONIGHT AND AT 3 P. M. TOMORROW

Things That Should be Known Will be Told in St. Andrew's Rink Tonight—Women's Meeting Opera House Tomorrow

Echoes of last night's wonderful double meeting in the interests of recruiting the 64th Battalion were heard all over the city today. St. John's main population is waking up. It is regarded as certain that the monster gathering in St. Andrew's rink tonight will see a large number of volunteers added to the fast-growing list.

Tonight's meeting will be chiefly of an informing character. Those going to the front and those who are contemplating entering the ranks of the 64th will be told fully and in plain straight language just what the work will be, what they will get from the government in case of sickness, injury or total disability. Col. B. R. Armstrong is to make these announcements in his official capacity as recruiting officer.

Clarence R. Allan, treasurer of the Patriotic Fund for this territory, will go into the details of the disbursements of this money. He will also show how much the families of soldiers are to get, when they get it, and how they get it. Also, the address of Col. Armstrong and Mr. Allan will be of vital interest to men about to take up arms.

In addition to the officials, the speakers of the evening will be: Rev. W. G. Lane, who has a chaplain with the Canadian forces in South Africa; well as Sergt. Knight, whose utterances of late have electrified his hearers. Sergt. Knight is invalided home, having wounded three times in the Flanders campaign. His story is a gripping one and his appeal most convincing. There will be a band, and possibly some vocal selections. Smoking will be allowed.

CELEBRATION OF JEWISH NEW YEAR

Prayers and Financial Aid For Brethren in the War-Stricken Countries

New York, Sept. 8.—The war will give special significance to the celebration of the Jewish New Year, which will begin at six o'clock this evening. Orthodox Jews have been requested to pray for their brethren in the war-stricken countries and special collections will be taken for the relief of European Jews. During the celebration, plans for the relief of Jews in the European war zone will be discussed. For their aid $1,000,000 already has been raised by the American Jewish Relief Commission.

NOW GOES TO PRESIDENT

Washington, Sept. 8.—Ambassador Dumba's explanation of a letter he wrote to the Vienna foreign office on plans for the withdrawal of Austro-Hungarian labor from American factories producing munitions for the allies, was in the hands of Secretary of State Lansing today. The next move will be the submission of the subject to President Wilson for a decision as to whether or not the ambassador's statement was satisfactory.

Bulgaria Said to Have Declined Serbia's Proposals To Will Deal Directly With Allied Powers—British Government Takes Over More Plants

Paris, Sept. 8.—The France De Demain publishes the following from Vienna: "The Austrian authorities summoned all Italian inhabitants of the country around Bologna, either to go into concentration camps or cross the frontier."

The route taken by those who chose to emigrate was lighted searchlights and when the Italians had gone a certain distance towards the frontier a terrific cannonade was opened upon them. "The horrors of the ensuing slaughter are said to be beyond description. Only a few fugitives succeeded in hiding in the ditches and subsequently crawling across the frontier."

Bulgaria's Position. Bulgaria has refused Serbia's territorial proposals, according to a Giornale d'Italia despatch from Sofia. The despatch adds that Premier Radolovitch declared that Bulgaria has decided to treat directly with the Quadruple Entente.

A despatch from Salonika says that Bulgaria is fortifying Verna against sea attacks. Mines are being placed at the harbor entrance and numerous long-range cannon are being mounted at Gostivar, which commands the port.

More Factories Taken Over. London, Sept. 8.—David Lloyd George, minister of munitions, announced today that 180 factories, transformed into munition plants, were taken over by the munitions department yesterday. This makes a total of 718.

French Report. Paris, Sept. 8.—The artillery fighting along the battle line through France continues. There has been cannonading from Belgium on the north as far south as the Weverce district.

German aviators have bombarded towns in France, and aviators of the allies have thrown down bombs at Ostend. French Steamer Sunk. Paris, Sept. 8.—The French steamship Gustavina has been torpedoed and sunk about fifty miles off Holland. Her crew escaped in two boats. The men were picked up by a British steamer and taken to St. Nazaire.

The Douro Sunk. London, Sept. 8.—The British steamship Douro has been sunk by gunfire, presumably from a submarine. Her crew was saved. The Douro, 1,600 tons, was owned by the Elderman Lines of London.

Another. La Rochelle, France, Sept. 8.—The British steamship Garony of Liverpool, was fired upon and sunk by a German submarine last night. Her crew was saved.

She was assisted by her niece, little Miss Hattie Bustin as flower girl, and by Master Allison Creighton. Revisors of election lists have pointed out that should an election be held in 1916 those eligible to vote must be residents six months before August 24, and must be twenty-one years of age before September 1. It is also explained that applications to revisors, who provide forms, must be made before October 5 in order to have names added. These are facts that are of interest to the public as all men should have their names on the lists whether there is to be an election or not.

HOSPITAL LIFE IN FRANCE

Nova Scotian Tells of Longing of the Wounded For Home-made Delicacies — Jam a Sure Cure For Homesickness

A glimpse of hospital life in France is given in a letter from Leon Archibald, writing to his mother from No. 3 Canadian General Hospital, France, on July 27. Mr. Archibald is a former Nova Scotian who enlisted in the west, where he had been practising his profession as civil engineer. He has visited St. John frequently and has many friends here. His appeal for comforts for his comrades in the hospital is one which may find response from some of his friends in this province. Extracts from his letter follow:

Crops here are somewhat ahead of Nova Scotia. Haymaking was finished over a month ago. Coming here in the train from LeHarve I could see hay being put up all along the line. It is interestingly called after the fashion that we do it at home; but women are greatly in evidence everywhere, and all the work is really fit and engaged elsewhere, in a harvest of a vastly different nature.

This town is a summer resort. A goodly number of the inhabitants make a living from fishing. Every day a fleet of trawlers can be seen standing on the shore; while others derive the wherewithal from railroading and shipping.

The town is by no means a prairie as one looking as some others I have seen, yet cleanliness, good order, etc., characteristics common to them all, are quite evident here. One notices few fine residences excepting the one in the town. Our Canadian No. 3 General Hospital occupies about thirty acres back of this fitted up with huts and tents, containing 1,000 beds. It is wonderfully organized and the work goes on as smoothly as if it were a well equipped hospital building under the direction of some of Canada's finest doctors and nurses, and judging from the conditions expressed by the patients their treatment in every particular leaves nothing to be desired along these lines.

Jam Wanted.

Miss Strong, who by the way is from Canning, N. S., a nurse, has charge of the Red Cross supplies. Now if you or any other are sending anything from home I would suggest that they be directed here. Every one appreciates Miss Strong's kind care and thoughtfulness. Anything reaching her hands from home will surely find their way to the parties most needing it. Home made preserves, fruit juices, in fact anything with a "home made" flavor, is greatly appreciated by the boys who have been up doing their bit on, principally, "bully" (canned) beef and hardtack day in and day out.

Not because I am one of them do I say this, but, honestly, I am sure you will agree with me that these boys are deserving of the country's very best, and still some more, for they are enduring unimaginable hardships without so much as a grumble.

You, for one, have already done your share, if I know anything, and I certainly am not putting anything back to you, but if anyone has anything tasty that they can spare tell them to box it up and address to No. 3 Canadian General Hospital, Le Treport, France, care of Red Cross, putting the sender's or sender's names inside the box, and as acknowledged. This hospital gets Canadian wounded, and I'll guarantee that there will be no "home made" jam, marmalade, or anything of the kind, but the boys will be glad to receive it in return for a taste of home made jam or preserves, and you will hear about it later.

This sort of thing does more toward a cure than all the doctors and nurses can do. Nothing so helps to cure homesickness as the "home made" jam, marmalade, and feeling as some of mother's jam. Just such as you and all the good Nova Scotian mothers know how to make so well. Just try it on these poor fellows and note the results.

Visit from Premier.

Sir R. L. Borden visited us, as well as the other two hospitals, on Sunday last; he was here but a few minutes. However, it was good to see someone from home, and incidentally hear from such a man that our country thought well of us.

Am keeping well in body. My arm after the thorough examination was termed a "green stick fracture," and although a trifle painful at times, when fully knit, will, I trust, be as good as new. I am glad to be able to give some assistance even here. Patients are allowed access to the beach and I can assure you that a dip in the briny by those who are able is a treat. This is certainly a change from Salisbury Plain experiences, the three months in the trenches and their dramatic three days' ending.

Perhaps I have not, in the past, been accused of being sentimental or emotional—this life is not conducive to such; but when I think of the 8th Battalion, or in fact, our whole contingent, well—words fail me. Of the Corps of Guides with whom I left Regina (the finest band of men of whom it has been my privilege to associate) but three remain. Some died of their wounds, some are prisoners, some missing. Hardly left us in England to join "Kitchener's new army" regiments. This indicated that the position of Battalion Scout which I was ours, was far from being considered a healthy organization.

Considering the casualties, in the main all that is now left of us is to trust that what is ultimately gained may be worthy of the price paid. The preservation of a species looks expensive to you now, but I am sure that other generations if not our own will benefit by this great sacrifice.

The favor in tea is composed of an essential oil with a delightful aroma when released. This oil quickly deteriorates with age, and tea to be good must be fresh. "SALADA" is all whole, fresh leaves, and is noted for its perfect aroma.

A railway carriage was crowded by the window sat a very old gentleman. A boy selling buns poked his head in at the door and inquired "Buns, sir?" The old gentleman was slightly deaf, and, not noticing the buns. Thought the boy wanted a seat in the already packed carriage, so he remarked: "Pull up, my boy, no more room inside."

SOLDIER KNOWS OF 26TH SENDS HOME LETTER OF INTEREST

A Visit to London Told of—Air Battle Between Zeppelins and British Guns

Private R. E. Knowles, of the 26th, writes to his mother, Mrs. Joseph S. Knowles, from East Sandling Camp, as follows:

Aug. 22, 1915.

Dear Mother—

I suppose you will think that your member of the "crack 26th" (that is what we are known as over here) has forgotten that there is such a place as home. I have not had a chance to write for about two weeks. Tim Leary and I were "up to mighty London" for six days, and you can imagine what little sleep I had for writing when I was there. For three or four days before we went to London I was in the battalion orderly room working day and night, so you can see why I have not written sooner.

But before I tell you about London there is some exciting news which I do not think I mentioned in my last letter. Just a few days before I went to London, the 26th had their first night of search-lights. We were on a high hill about six miles from camp, about 1 a. m. we were lying in a field waiting for the order to attack the 22nd Battalion, who were supposed to be the enemy. A number of search-lights were shining around the sky from the harbor of Dover, a few miles away, and they seemed to be looking for something. Suddenly three of the lights shone on an enormous object in the sky, larger than any British airship by far. It was nothing less than a German "baby killer," a Zeppelin.

The next thing we knew shells were bursting all around it, and then the thing disappeared from the light. We found out later that this machine made a raid on Dover, doing considerable damage and killing several people. The part of the performance we saw was when the thing was trying to get away from old England's bulwarks, in the shape of anti-aircraft guns. But our German friends tried in vain; their machine was captured after being damaged by one of the shells.

A few days after this Tim and I managed to get six days' leave, and we went up to London on Friday night, a little over a week ago. It was late when we got there, but we knew just where to go for a room. McPhee had been up there the week before and he gave us the address of the apartment house he stayed at in Waterloo road. We left our luggage at the house and then went out to get something to eat. We had our first meal in London in a French restaurant in the Strand, and it sure tasted good. At the place we stayed, Mrs. Barton's, we had a nice double room with breakfast for six shillings a night for the two of us. Saturday morning we took a walk through St. James' Park to Buckingham Palace, and then we went to St. James' courtyard to see the guards changed. The Grenadier Guards were on guard, and the guard was taken over by the Scots Guards. I saw you could have heard that band of the Scots Guards play the Treador song. It was worth going to London just to hear that.

In the afternoon we took a walk around Piccadilly, The Strand, Leicester Square and some more of the principal streets and in the evening we went to the Alhambra Theatre and saw a musical comedy called "6064 Gerard." Sunday we went to see the Tower Bridge and Tower of London. We were not allowed in the Tower on Sunday, but went through it the next day. I am sending you a booklet about the Tower, so I will not attempt to describe it.

While we were in London we went through the National Portrait Gallery, The British Museum, The British Natural History Museum, the Zoological Gardens, Westminster Abbey, and a dozen other famous places. I'm afraid you will have to wait till I get home for a description of all we saw, for it is beyond me to write a description of it.

We came back to camp when our leave was up, absolutely broke, and perfectly happy. Your letter of July 28 was at the camp when I got back, and I slightly received the scrap-book, which certainly is a good idea. I have not finished reading it yet. When I want to read it I generally find some of the other boys up to their eyes in it. Tell Dad to keep up the good work, and he will be doing a great favor to all the boys, besides myself. I received a letter from Kay just before I went on leave and will answer that. If you get a chance send some. I have some postcards and booklets of London I am going to send you. I have not got enough dough to send them now. When Tim and I were in London we were around one day with Elmer Belding from St. John and Douglas Holman, who lives just below us in Pitt street. I think you know Holman, don't you? He and Belding are in the 6th Canadian Mounted Rifles. We also saw the famous (or infamous?) Jack Johnson in his ninety horse-power auto. Well the bugler has just blown "Come to the cook house door, boys," so I will call this off.

All yours,
BOB.

Hints for the Cook

Popovers

Two cups of flour, 1 teaspoon of salt, 1/2 teaspoon of soda, 1 teaspoon of cream tartar sifted together. Beat separately the whites and yolks of 2 eggs. To a cup of sweet milk add the yolks, then slowly sift in the flour so as to make a smooth batter. Just before putting into the pans fold in lightly the beaten whites. Bake in a hot oven 30 minutes. Serve immediately.

Apple Pie

Peel and slice enough tart apples to fill a custard pie plate even full; put them in a saucepan with just enough water to show from beneath the top layer. Cook rapidly till tender, but do not cook to pieces. While hot add 3 heaping tablespoons of sugar, a little cinnamon, a pinch of salt, 1 tablespoon of melted butter and 3-4 cup dry bread crumbs. Let stand till bread is well soaked. Have crust ready baked and pour the mixture in. Frost with the white of an egg and sugar, and set in oven a minute to brown.

Ham Salad

Moisten with cooked salad dressing 1 cup of finely cut cooked ham, 1 cup of chopped celery and 1 cup of diced cooked potatoes. Turn into a salad bowl which has been rubbed with a clove of garlic and garnish with celery leaves and small stars cut from pickled beets.

Have you tried Ingersoll Pimento Cheese? It's like cream cheese, with a delicious spicy flavoring.

It is estimated that over 100,000 members of the Manchester Unity of the Independent Order of Oddfellows are serving with the colors.

When raising children's clothes it is a good plan to add a little alum to the water, as this renders them less liable to catch fire.

LITTLE CHANCE OF GOVERNMENT BUYING THE WHEAT CROP

Hon. Martin Burrell at Toronto Says It is Not Probable—Says War Has Stimulated Canadian Agriculture.

Toronto, Sept. 7.—Hon. Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture, the chief speaker of the Farmer's Day luncheon at the exhibition today, congratulated the farmers of the country on the way they had fulfilled their part in the war by supplying food for the men actively engaged at the front. He said: "This year we should be thankful that there will be plenty of fodder, and that there is a tremendous stimulus to the raising of all forms of live stock. There are more cattle, and the healthy, stimulating effect of the war on the improvement of this industry is very apparent.

"Never was there a day when so broad and sincere an effort has been made to put agriculture in its proper place. The government has done what it could to assist in the marketing of live stock, by securing information about foreign markets, and by stimulating co-operation among the farmers as to shipping.

"Another message I have to give you is that the prime minister, while abroad, consulted with the British Admiralty and arranged for safe transportation across the Atlantic for the Canadian troops."

Hon. Mr. Burrell was frank in intimating the present intention of the government regarding the situation. "I do not say it is impossible, but I do say it is not at all probable that the government will seriously consider buying the wheat crop," was his statement.

"I dreamed last night that I owned the earth."

"That was a pleasant dream."

"Quite the contrary. When the first of the month came around 8,000,000 people threatened to move."

SAYS STEWART GOT THE $300

Manager of Royal Bank at Bathurst Swears Bank Received Only $1,200 of $1,500 Farm Settlement Check

Bathurst, Sept. 7.—With his time book lost in a lobster pot and his memory vacant of any facts concerning the expenditure of over $4,000 on less than a mile of highway road on Shipigan Island, Foreman Doctine Chalson made a very unsatisfactory witness before Mr. Chandler today with regard to the money spent in this public work.

Bank Manager Eaton gave evidence in connection with the farm settlement board purchase of the check for $1,500, and his sworn statements are the connecting links in the story told previously, which proved that the Royal Bank $1,200 for a farm that the bank only got $1,200 for, and that the $300 was not in the credit of the bank account of A. J. H. Stewart, member of the legislature.

Mr. Chandler called attention to the circumstances that the words "Royal Bank" had evidently been written in the body of the check as the party to whom it should be payable when Mr. Gilchrist, secretary of the board, had made the check out.

Manager Eaton of the Royal Bank was very emphatic in his evidence. He had no dealings with the farm settlement board. He knew nobody but A. J. H. Stewart in the transaction. He sold the property to Stewart with the consent of his head office.

MORNING WAR SUMMARY

London, Sept. 7.—The news that Emperor Nicholas had placed himself at the head of his army, which he announced in a telegram to Raymond Poincaré, president of France, and the visit paid by the French commander-in-chief, General Joffre, to the Italian army, forebadow, it is believed, in military circles here, stirring events on both the eastern and western fronts in which the armies of all the Allies will co-operate.

It is declared that the Russians already are nearly, if not quite, holding their own against the Austrians and Germans, whose advance at most points has been brought to a stop, and in places are carrying on active counter-offensives.

Riga remains the danger point, but the fact that the Russians continue to occupy the town after the Germans have advanced to the Dvina, southeast of Riga, leads the military writers to the conclusion that the Russians feel pretty sure of their ability to defend the river and in time to push sufficiently far westward to relieve the pressure on their forces on the shores of the Gulf of Riga.

Westward of Dvinsk and Vilna the Russian offensive has now held up the Germans for more than a week, and to the military observers those two towns seem fairly safe, unless the invaders are able to bring up strong reinforcements.

East and southwest of Grodno the Russians have taken up new positions across the River Sticha and its numerous tributaries, and are protecting the network of railways which run eastward and northward to the interior of the country.

To the southeast again, among the forests and swamps to the northeastern edge of the Pripiet marshes, a great battle is in progress between the army of Prince Leopold of Bavaria and the troops of the Russian centre, the latter having at last elected to make a stand.

In this fighting the Germans are not taking part, and success rests first with one side and then the other.

Similar activity is noticed on the part of the Austro-German army along the northern frontier of Serbia, where the Teutons are strengthening their positions on the rivers Sava and Danube, presumably preparatory to a new offensive movement.

but dropped out in mid-season. Pawtucket has been playing its games away from home for a number of weeks.

Feds. Losing Popularity. (Bangor Commercial.) In the last two years the Federal baseball league has been very short-lived in the sides of the two long-established major leagues and has furnished brisk competition in a number of cities.

The Federals have also made themselves obnoxious to their rivals by enticing many star players by offers of large salaries. The players who went to the Federals protected themselves by what they regarded as ironclad contracts and felt themselves safe in whatever contingency might arise as it has been generally understood that there is a large amount of money behind the organization.

But now, according to some of the players, there is a change in sentiment in regard to the Federals as the contracts do not seem to be so ironclad as they were thought. The Federal managements are said to be releasing players who fall below the degree of efficiency expected and doing this without regard to contracts, holding the contracts broken if the Federals will fight such cases to the limit and do not feel particularly hopeful of the result. All of which does not tend to increase the popularity of the new league with the playing fraternity.

WRESTLING. Today's Plans Big Tourney. Boston, Sept. 7.—George V. Tuohy, has been busy outlining his campaign for what promises to be the biggest mat season ever witnessed in America.

Tuohy has secured the Braves Field for his new wrestling plant and with new electric lights installed, work on which starts tomorrow, he is assured of perfect accommodations. It is planned to have the first bout take place Sept. 16. Bids for the match that Tuohy is after will be opened for the first time in Chicago next Tuesday.

The match that Tuohy is after is one between Charley Cutler and "Hussane" and he has made an offer of $5,000 for the bout.

Last year they wrestled three hours and forty-five minutes without rest at Louisville, the bout being characterized as one of the hardest mat grapples ever witnessed in the south. Tuohy's bid has been in for some time and he holds out the best of hopes of securing the wrestling rights for his own promotion.

Other big matches will follow and if by chance Gutch decides to take up mat work again he may be seen here at the Braves new field.

"ARE YOU ONE OF THOSE PATRIOTIC AUCTIONEERS?"

One of the Patriotic Auctioneers' committee in St. John is King's Bay yesterday by one of the most prominent local fur dealers. The merchant in question has been holding a series of public auctions for patriotic purposes to be held in St. Andrew's rink during the week of October 4, 9, and 16, and hundreds of others were becoming interested and deciding just where he was going to fit in. The committee man was delighted to receive as a donation a very handsome set of furs, which will go to the highest bidder at the "Patriotic Auctioneers' Sale." If there are any who as yet do not understand exactly what this $50,000 patriotic auctioneers' sale is all about, a descriptive and practical demonstration.

DRURY COVE NOTES

A fine programme of sports was held on Labor Day at Drury Cove including a tennis tournament, baseball match and a list of field sports. They proved to be most interesting and were watched by a large gathering of spectators. In the evening a grand pull was conducted on Sandall's beach gave pleasure. There was a huge bonfire, and more than 100 people were present and all enjoyed themselves heartily. In the baseball match the single men ousted the benefits by a score of 66 to 46, or something resembling that score. The battery for the winners was made up of Sandall and Ryan, and for the losers Stewart and Drummond.

In the tennis tournament the singles were won by R. Thorne, the doubles by R. Thorne and W. R. Stewart, and the mixed doubles by Miss H. Diharad and T. F. Drummond. The other events with their winners were: Potato race, W. Bagnall, 1st; E. Thomas, second; three-legged race, A. C. Clark, 1st; L. Sandall, second; 100 yards dash, R. Thorne; relay race, A. C. Clark, R. Thorne, T. Drake and H. Drummond.

Two men were standing outside a show window where a vacuum cleaner was being demonstrated. Suddenly one of them burst out with enthusiasm: "These inventions are the things that clean up the money! Just think of the millions that follow Vacuum must have made out of that thing!"—Stryker's Magazine.

HEADACHES

Thousands of men and women suffer from headaches every day, other thousands have headaches occasionally, but not at regular intervals. The best doctor is unable to find the cause of many of these headaches, and so they are left to their own devices. It is a common mistake to think that a headache is a sign of a serious disease, and so to give a permanent cure. A Horse Meet of 1887

The following is an interesting account of a race meeting, which took place in Halifax in 1887. It was written by a well known sporting writer of that time and gives particulars of famous races, which will make interesting reading to present day followers of the turf.

Let me recall the race meeting that clings most to my memory. The one when Satan, the greatest of colts, won two races when Sambo ridden by Mr. Alderson, of the 97th, shot past the judges stand neck and neck with Bull's Eye, whose jockey (now Major Groves) piloted the St. John horse to victory on the following Saturday amid screams of excitement even from the occupants of the grand stand. What a meeting that was!

"Well, anyone treasuring memories of the meeting referred to must admit that the race of yesterday fairly eclipsed the best efforts of the stewards of the old riding ground, and yet the success of the jubilee meeting was to be traced to the pleasant recollections of previous stewards and of that sporting regiment and of their pluck and enterprise that paved the way for such undoubted improvements as those observable on the new grounds."

"I am informed that to Messrs. Duffus and Anderson belong all the praise, glory and profit earned and to be earned at the race meetings of 1887 and afterwards. If that is so they deserve reward for pluck and enterprise displayed in lavish expenditure of money as caterers to our pleasure seekers and holiday makers."

About 2.30 the weather was warm and the sky blue as the waters of Bermuda. But later, after sundown, brought with them tidings of a cold fog rolling in from seaward. I do not recollect the statement that the John Lass horseman brought the mist along with their jockey race Yorktown, although the New Brunswickers were to be seen in the stable, before the last lot of fractional odds were sent away for the Grand Prix, almost obscured the distant corners of the course. But let me get away from the course.

"About 3.10 Mr. Duffus made an effort to muster the ponies for the first race and simultaneously to the disappointment of not a few, the blackboard announced the setting of Colonel Lass' horse for the Grand Prix. The running of "Strabismus" for the jubilee purse."

Value $800. A fast race for maiden ponies, half a mile, Gentlemen riders. The first pony to receive $85, 2nd $15. The following ponies were sent away to a rather start.

1. City Club's b. m. "Nefar-ari" 2. Wm. Duffus' b. m. "The Tramp" 3. G. Morrow's b. m. "The Parson" 4. Capt. Rawson's b. g. "Hunchback" 5. A. J. Karney's c. g. "General Babcock" 6. Mr. Duffus' b. m. GIFTS COME IN WELL ON THE FIRST DAY

Patriotic Auction Promoters Well Pleased With Quick and Generous Response
The donation slips which are to be used in acknowledging contributions to the Patriotic Auction were scarcely out of the hands of the printers this morning before they were being readily signed by well-wishers, contributing cash or goods representing a generous amount. There was much variety to the class of goods donated, depending largely upon what kind of store or business was conducted by the donor, but every gift was appreciated. They can all be used for conversion into money, and the same is true with respect to the contributions of home-cooking, preserves, pickles, and other commodities which will be given by many housewives.
The committees from the Daughters of the Empire this morning started out upon a systematized canvass of the districts allotted them. The city has been divided into seven districts and each will be covered by an energetic committee. The gifts received are for the Patriotic Fund, and it is hoped to raise $20,000 in one week; will you give the canvassers a hearty reception and a generous contribution?

SOME POSTAL MATTERS

Further Word About the Writing on the Picture Card—Why Not a Three Cent Stamp?

Yes, it is still permissible to send a picture post card through the mails for the modest postage rate of one cent. But this rate will allow the writer to add only his name and address and no other writing. The government thinks it worth another copper to carry the card if it is burdened with the usual written messages such as "Wish you were here," "Having a great time," "will be home next week," or any of the other effusions such as most picture post cards bear.
Several weeks ago the Times pointed out that the postal regulations permitted a five word message to be written on cards otherwise classed as printed matter and that postmasters were interpreting this to mean that any picture post card would pass at one cent if the message written on it was limited to five words. Soon afterwards the postal department in Ottawa issued a circular instructing the postmasters that this five word limit was permitted only on printed visiting cards, Christmas and New Year's cards, which pass at the one cent rate without the need of a war stamp. This information was duly passed along to its readers by the Times.

Today the postoffice inspector received a communication from the secretary of the department in Ottawa referring to an inquiry from Montreal based on the first article in the Times, and replies to it in the terms of the circular, already published in this paper. The letter from the department says:
"Although it is permissible to write good wishes, congratulations, etc., expressed in five words at most, or by means of conventional initials on printed visiting cards and on Christmas and New Year's cards, classed as printed matter, this must, on no account, be construed as a general permission allowing any five words to be written on any kind of a card mailed as printed matter."
Another matter which is still worrying many of the postmasters, particularly in the rural districts where a knowledge of the printed regulations does not seem to be a necessary qualification for the job, is the question whether the war tax stamp should be used on printed post cards addressed to customers of the time when a commercial traveler will call, the card having the name of the traveler and the date of his visit filled in by hand.
This is specifically provided for in the regulations which permit such cards to be classed as printed matter and therefore not subject to the war tax. Only today the local post office received an inquiry from an outside office on this subject and travelers report having difficulty in getting some of the postmasters to accept these cards at the one cent rate.
In the meantime there is another matter which business men and other patrons of the mails complain of, that is, regulated by the post office department to issue a three cent stamp. Under the present regulations they feel that the department has not the excuse that they wish to keep the war tax and the postal revenues separate, as the stamps are practically interchangeable and this is not possible in any way. In a business house where a large amount of mail is handled the extra labor required to stick two stamps on a letter, where one three cent stamp would do as well, is regarded as a needless nuisance.

Her brother, Frederick Herrington, has been employed on a naval collier since the war began. His home is in Goolie, Yorkshire, and the house was struck by a bomb which exploded, killing the two children. His wife and two other children slept in an adjoining room and he has not received word whether they were injured.

MAY NANNARY AND GENEVIEVE BLINN HELP IN BENEFIT

Formerly of St. John, Now Noted Actresses on Pacific Coast
The San Francisco Call in a recent edition gave considerable space to an article dealing with a proposed benefit concert for one of the local churches. Among the artists who kindly offered their services were May Nannary and Genevieve Blinn, two of the best known actresses on the Pacific Coast. W. R. Dalley, theatrical manager, also promised to furnish several high class vaudeville attractions. The picture of both actresses appeared in the publication.
May Nannary and Genevieve Blinn are daughters of William Nannary, formerly of St. John. They have appeared behind the footlights in this city. A few years ago May Nannary created a mild sensation throughout the theatrical world by her brilliant acting, and her sister also starred a few years later in the leading role in one of the Broadway successes.
W. R. Dalley is well known here having managed one of the best stock companies that visited St. John in recent years.

THE SLACKER

Private Archie F. Smith, one of the first Fredericton men wounded on the battlefields of Flanders, has returned to the front and is now in the trenches again with the 14th Battalion. In a letter to his wife he says—
"Here is a little bit of poetry you can give to The Fredericton Gleaser. It looks good to me and it will hit the slackers. I think there are a lot of them at home. I don't mean Fredericton alone, but in that part of the country."

The Man Who Stayed at Home.
"He'd go when he was fetched," he told Recruiters who attacked.
He was the slackest slacker of 'em all slackers who have slacked!
The shirkiest of shirkers, too,
He saw no need to roam,
The man whose sack is safest is
"The Man Who Stays at Home."

So home he stayed, and used to smile
At soldiers trooping by,
For he was mother's boy, and it
Would hurt him so to die.
He creased his pants, and shot his cuffs,
His pretty hair he'd comb,
Let fools go forth to fight for him—
"The Man Who Stayed at Home."

Unto the city day by day
He made his peaceful trot,
Until he slipped into a lift—
Just where the lift was not!
For him they chant no requiem
Beneath cathedral domes,
Yet Death came forty times as quick
To the Man Who Stayed at Home!
—Richard Morton.

Seed on Fertile Ground
Seeds of themselves will not grow—they must have the aid of soil and climate.
Soil study is now a science and experts can tell the farmer just what will thrive best in a given area.
A manufactured product is like seed. It does not grow into sales and profits by itself.
It takes soil and climate in the way of introduction and advertisement.
Manufacturers who use newspapers can call in the aid of science. They can skip the barren soil and plant only where conditions are right.
Manufacturers anxious to pursue the modern way are invited to write to the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Association, World Building, New York.
