OFFICES IN RITCHIE BUILDING FORMERLY OCCUPIED BY CLIMO STUDIO LEASED.

Readers of The Times will be interested to learn that the spacious quarters in the Ritchie building, corner Princess and Canterbury street, formerly occupied by the Climo Studio, have been leased to Messrs. Regan and Giesing, who are having them remodeled and equipped preparatory to opening a school of telegraphy.

Mr. Regan, who during the war served as a lieutenant in the R. A. F., was formerly in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph Company and is an operator of several years' experience. The field of commercial, railroad, and wireless telegraphy offers infinite possibilities and the opportunity to receive instruction at a school specializing in the teaching of telegraphy, by men of actual operating experience, should appeal strongly to ambitious young men and women.

The bride wore a sand-colored suit with black fox and hat to match. Following the wedding ceremony a wedding supper was held at the home of the bride's parents, the dining room being decorated in patriotic colors in honor of the groom, a member of the original 26th Battalion.

"PROFITEERING MUST BE STOPPED"

Bishop Farthing Prophecies Revolution if Action Not Taken

(Montreal Star.)

Revolution is foreseen by Bishop Farthing unless profiteering be stopped and the guilty punished irrespective of political or social "pull." The bishop voiced this opinion while preaching at St. Matthias' church, Westmount, yesterday morning, upon the occasion of the dedication of a mural tablet and stained glass window in memory of Gunner Oliver Henry Beckit, 66th Battery, C. F. A., who was killed in action at Cambrai on Sept. 27 last.

High ideals were held as an incentive for recruiting during the war, said Bishop Farthing, but the soldiers had now come back to find an entire absence of those ideals for which they had fought and suffered. They saw the old struggle of selfishness intensified, the promised care for soldiers' welfare in many cases forgotten, and profiteers holding the highest positions in the land with all the honors pertaining thereto. The people did not know upon which group of public men they could rely to remedy matters, and distrust of the administrators was in many quarters a cause of pessimism. The conviction was growing that decisive action must be taken against profiteering, and if such action were not taken speedily there would be a revolution—it was to be hoped a constitutional one—which might be serious.

MARNE ANNIVERSARY.

Paris, Sept. 24.—(Havas Agency)—M. Leygues, minister of marine, speaking today at the Trocadero on the occasion of the fifth anniversary of the battle of the Marne, said the Germans had foresworn everything except that battle of giants. He eulogized Marshal Joffre for the breadth of his conception and the lightning rapidity of execution of his strategy. He added that through the battle of the Marne, France had gained time which permitted the British and Americans to come up, and with the arrival of the Americans the fate of the war was decided.

NO EVIDENCE OF THE ALLEGED CONSPIRACY

(Continued from page 1.) Another report was made on July 5, 1916, by the director of muniskery for Canada with regard to an investigation Sir Sam had ordered him to make as to the size of the chamber of the rifle with respect to ammunition manufactured for it in Canada, because the minister had received a complaint that D C ammunition could be supplied to the other factories in the Ross rifle, trench marks, with which the troops in the trenches were armed. The statement made by the director of muniskery in July, fifteen or twenty per cent of this make of ammunition failing to function properly in the Ross rifle, although it was satisfactory in the Ross rifle mark 2, long, and the Lee Enfield, long and short. This was later confirmed by a test made by Brigadier General Watkin at Rockfield. Further reports made after inspection on order of Sir Sam Hughes provided similar results. The committee is also a copy of the report of the committee appointed by Sir John French giving full details of eleven tests made with various kinds of ammunition at Somers on June 2, 1915.

The unanimous opinion expressed by all present was that the Canadian manufactured ammunition, D. A. C. 1914, mark 7, alone of those tried was suitable for rapid firing with the Ross rifle, and that providing enough of this ammunition for the Ross rifle, the other defects would not be sufficient to condemn the Ross rifle in view of the present shortage of rifles generally. The committee advised unanimously that the rifle should be used on the line of communication, and that Canadian troops, if possible, should be armed with the British-made rifle. It was stated that the British-made cartridge case appeared to be of a slightly thicker gauge than that of the Ross rifle, and that the diameter of the cartridge immediately under the rim appeared to be slightly greater in the British cartridge which might account for the difference in the Ross rifle. It was also stated that the Ross rifle was not so easy to read as on the Lee Enfield and that the loading among the Canadian troops was accomplished twice as quickly. To all the following requests by Sir Sam the government returns a laconic "no information."

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

For a copy of circular, supposed of General Curran, containing ten suggestions, surreptitiously distributed among the Canadian troops about the time of the battle of St. Julien, deprecating the Canadian rifle. Reports of evidence, giving instances where splendid troops of the British service armed with the Lee Enfield rifle suffered from disaster through jamming of the Lee Enfield rifle owing to bad ammunition. Reports showing that ammunition of every nation, both in the Allied and enemy service, at times caused jamming through defects or dirt. Evidence as to the withdrawal from service by order of the British authority of the defective brands of ammunition. Evidence as to the order to withdraw the Canadian troops' armed with the Canadian rifle of thousands of the defective ammunition mixed with the good ammunition, and the order to withdraw the defective ammunition, and the absence of defective ammunition in the Canadian battalions armed with the Lee Enfield rifle.

Reports by Colonel Embury, now Brigadier-General Embury, and officers of the 28th Canadian Battalion of the Canadian rifle to the extreme bitterness thus ruining the rifle after these rifles had left Canada in perfect condition. The government gives Sir Sam Redford the Oliver by stating that no unauthorized action was taken, but that from information on the files of the department of militia, Ottawa, it would appear that General Carson, representing in England the then minister of militia, authorized certain alterations of the Ross rifle, included in which was the hardening of the bolts.

LEAGUE MAY GO ON WITHOUT UNITED STATES

(Continued from page 1.) Mr. Pichon declared that he, personally, was satisfied that the United States Senate would ratify the treaty. M. Barthou countered saying that he was far from satisfied and citing the vote of 48 to 40 on Senator Lodge's motion for postponement as "a fair warning of the ultimate fate of the pact."

M. Pichon's reply that "legally speaking" the League could exist without America's participation brought the report from M. Barthou that what France wanted was "political guarantees, not legal guarantees."

He asserted that the government must face the issue immediately. Premier Clemenceau said "Should the United States reject the League of Nations, two treaties of alliance between France and Great Britain and France and the United States would be necessary. It was precisely because we felt that the League of Nations was an insufficient guarantee for some years to come that these treaties were drawn up. The League of Nations for the present has nothing to do with the Franco-British-American treaties, which constitute sufficient guarantee for France."

M. Clemenceau added that the League of Nations would not take up the responsibility and guarantee entered into by the treaties unless it was decided to do so by a two-third majority when the League was completely organized and operating.

"If you are seeking to adjourn the debate until America ratifies the treaty," he said, "you may do so, but you will do so without us."

TROUBLE AHEAD NO MATTER WHAT WAY THEY TURN

Rome, Sept. 25.—Reporting rumors that Captain Gabriele D'Annunzio's partisans are advancing toward Trau, Sebenico and Spalato, the Messaggero severely censures "elements which are thus creating occasion for further conflicts."

The newspaper says a number of deputies have signed a demand for a secret session of the chamber. "Do you want another war?" asks the Messaggero in commenting on reports from Fiume and Dalmatia, showing that the D'Annunzio movement is spreading and that others are trying to repeat at Trau, Sebenico, Spalato, Zara and other chief centres of Italian population along the Adriatic his achievements at Fiume. The immense gravity of the situation is now thoroughly understood by everybody.

Dalmatia a Powder Magazine

Rome, Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press)—Dalmatia is a powder magazine," says the Giornale D'Italia. "Volunteers everywhere are enlisting. They already have reached several thousands, some of whom have arrived in Fiume in small boats, making the journey under the shelter of the numerous Dalmatian islands, while others remain in Dalmatia, ready to face Jugo-Slav aggression."

The newspaper describes an alleged reign of terror as existing in districts like Ragusa and Spalato, which have been entrusted to Serbian troops. The Serbians, it says, are enforcing military service on all men from the ages of twenty to forty, and that whenever they meet with resistance they have recourse in deportations on a large scale to Macedonia and Albania, which are equivalent to condemnation to death, since none return from their forced labor there."

"Many persons," the newspaper adds, "not only Italians, but Slavs, in fear of this treatment have fled the country. The Dalmatians implore the intervention of the Allies."

AMERICANS BUY BIG GERMAN STEEL PLANT

Berlin, Sept. 23.—The Boehler Steel Syndicate plants at Kapfenberg have been bought by Americans, according to the Tages Zeitung. Coupled with this announcement the newspaper prints a report of the plans of the new management.

METAL MARKETS.

In its summary of the iron, steel, brass and machinery markets for week ending Sept. 18, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News, Toronto, makes the following comment:—The talk of a strike in the United States steel industry continues to increase, and if there is no good opening found for rescinding the strike order it looks as though September 22 would mark the beginning of another labor war. The Canadian industrial world is interested, particularly in the matter of plates and tubes. There are large tonnage orders of plate coming across the border now, particularly for boiler and tank contracts. Plate is something that is not stocked extensively, as each job has its own specifications and sizes quite apart from standards, and each is sent to the mills for rolling to size. Some of the large Canadian boiler shops have a splendid amount of work on hand, and it would be a serious matter were they not able to roll to size. HER EFFORTS OF 12 YEARS FAILED

Mrs. Hickman Was Unable to Find Any Relief From Her Trouble Until She Took Tanlac.

"I have been trying for twelve long years to find a medicine or treatment that would relieve me of my suffering, but I never had any success until I commenced taking Tanlac," said Mrs. Edward Hickman...

"When I commenced to read the statements in the papers about Tanlac helping other people who suffered as I did, and I made up my mind to give it a trial. The first two or three bottles didn't seem to do me any good at all, and I decided that I would just take one more bottle and if I didn't notice any change in my condition I would not get any more. Well, I began to get results before I had taken half of that bottle, and from that time on until this day, I have been getting better in every way. My stomach trouble has been completely overcome, and I don't think I ever had better appetite in my life. Everything I eat agrees with me, too, and I never have a sign of indigestion or sour stomach. The swelling has gone from my joints, and I have never had a pain from rheumatism. In fact, the rheumatism has left me almost altogether, and I am sure that a few more bottles of this wonderful medicine will completely overcome this trouble. My nerves have quieted down, and I sleep like a child every night, and am so much improved in every way that I can easily do all my housework. I am certainly grateful to Tanlac for relieving me of so much pain and misery, and will never lose an opportunity to say a good word for it."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—(Adv.)

HARTIN CLEARED ON ONE CHARGE, FOUND GUILTY OF THEFT

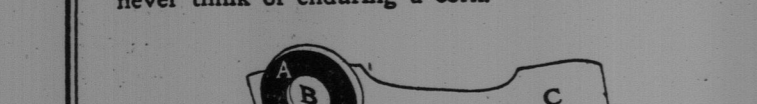

In the case of Stanley Hartin, charged with breaking and entering the premises of Gibb's, the Brussels street tailor, and with stealing several suits of clothes and a handbag therefrom, the jury found the prisoner not guilty on the breaking and entering charge yesterday but guilty of theft, bringing in also a strong recommendation for mercy. He was remanded to jail awaiting sentence.

FOR REGISTRATION OF THE WOMEN VOTERS

This afternoon an important women's meeting will be held in the King's Daughters' Guild in Chipman Hill under the auspices of the St. John local council of women and all women have been invited to attend it in order that some complete scheme of organization for registration may be devised. The shortness of the time which yet remains will necessitate prompt action and as the women's council is an incorporation of the leading women's societies it is best able to take up the matter with success.

THE CONTROVERSY BETWEEN ENGLAND AND THE DOMINIONS

Lord Milner Took View King Could Ratify Without Consent of Parliament, But Upon Advice of Ministers—Borden in Reply Disputed This Prerogative—Day is Made.

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—In reading cable correspondence between Sir Robert Borden and Premier David Lloyd George, as tabled in the last moments of this afternoon's session of parliament, it becomes once again apparent that the controversy as to Canada's status among the dominions began two weeks before the armistice. First, there is a cable from Lloyd George, dated October 27, 1918, saying: "I think that you ought to be prepared to start without delay for Europe if the Germans accept the terms of the armistice which we shall impose before our meeting at Versailles this week, as the Peace Conference will, in that event probably open with a few weeks and this will have to be preceded by an inter-Allied conference of at least equal importance. It is, I think, very important that you should be here in order to participate in the deliberations which will determine the line to be taken at this conference by the British delegates."

In answer to this cablegram, showing that the British premier had at that time sanguine expectations for an early conclusion of peace, and that he did not expect any of the long delays which ultimately came to pass, Sir Robert Borden wired, coming to the contentious point at once: "There is need of serious consideration as to the representation of the dominions in the peace negotiations. The people and press of this country take it for granted that Canada will be represented at the Peace Conference."

To this the British premier replied: "I appreciate the possible difficulties as to representation of the dominions, but I hope that you will keep in mind that certainly a very unfortunate impression would be created, and possibly a dangerous one, if the Canadian people, in fact, the subject today in council and I find among my own colleagues a striking insistence which doubtless is indicative of the general opinion existent in this country. In a word they feel that the new conditions must be met by new precedents. I should be glad to have your views."

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no loss of time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 86 P. Marcellus avenue, Manhattan, N. Y. Better cut out this notice and show it to any other who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

THE BENEFITS OF PROHIBITION

Rev. W. D. Wilson and Rev. W. R. Robinson Tell W. C. T. U. Difference in Conditions

Rev. W. D. Wilson, chief liquor inspector for the province in an able address before the W. C. T. U. of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, now holding its thirteenth annual convention in the Portland Methodist church, told of the many benefits that prohibition and brought to the province and adequately refuted the accusation that the increase of the drug habit was due to prohibitory laws. He also said that criticisms of the quality of liquor sold under prohibition were unwarranted as the same liquor as was sold was supplied to the general public in the same quantities and gave complete satisfaction.

Rev. W. R. Robinson, of the Ludlow Street Baptist church, who also spoke at the evening session gave some startling comparisons of local conditions under the licensed sale of liquor and under prohibition, which, he said, the city is now immeasurably more free from drunkenness.

The afternoon session opened with devotional exercises led by Mrs. M. L. Stephenson, of Fredericton, who spoke of the necessity of knowing Christ intimately in order that lives might be made lives of power. Mrs. Bates and Mrs. MacWha led in prayer.

The financial committee was appointed as follows: Mrs. Larson, Mrs. MacWha, Mrs. MacWha, Mrs. Stephenson, Mrs. Perry. The plan of work committee is as follows: Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. Christie, Mrs. Stephenson, Mrs. Hipwell and Mrs. Humphrey.

The discussion of mothers' meetings, which was deferred from the morning session, was continued in the afternoon and many good points were brought out.

A report on medical temperance prepared by Mrs. Sprague was read by Mrs. MacWha. It deplored the widespread advertising and sale of Tanlac. A discussion followed which was taken part in by Mrs. Larson, Mrs. Bates, Mrs. Seymour and others.

Mrs. MacWha read a paper on the importance of L. T. L. work. She spoke of the necessity of having a branch in every union in order to conserve young boyhood and girlhood.

The report on railway men prepared by Mrs. W. Sligo Woodcock was read by Mrs. R. B. Gerrard. It spoke of much good work being done in visiting the sick among railwaymen in hospital, speaking kind words to them and providing them with good reading matter. In connection with this report a discussion arose on Travelers' work and many instances were brought to light of the good done by this department.

The committee named to revise the corresponding secretary's leaflet was named as follows: Mrs. Gerrard, Mrs. MacWha, Mrs. Stephenson, Mrs. Perry. A paper on Christian citizenship was read by Mrs. Gerrard. It urged the Christian women of the land to use their influence as a sacred trust and to work for clean living and clean voting.

Mrs. Flewelling spoke on the registration question and urged every woman to see that her name and her friends' names were placed on the voters' list.

The report of the dominion W. C. T. U. minutes prepared by Mrs. A. G. Adams of Campbellton was read by Mrs. Gerrard. It showed that $48.50 had been received by Mrs. Adams.

The report of the hygiene and heredity committee prepared by Mrs. Strong was read by Mrs. MacWha.

On Mrs. MacWha's motion a letter of sympathy was sent to Mrs. Strong of Summerside.

At Evening Session.

There was a very good attendance at the public session in the evening. Rev. Neil MacLaughlan of the Portland Methodist church led the devotional exercises with which the session opened. He read from the third chapter of Acts. According to announcements made by Mr. MacLaughlan, after the session, a justice of the peace received the names of those women who wished to be placed on the voters' list.

Mrs. R. D. Christie, in presenting the greetings of the St. John unions, expressed the hope that the convention would be helpful and strengthening.

His Worship Mayor Hayes, welcoming the convention on behalf of the city of St. John spoke of the unselfish nature of the work of the W. C. T. U. which must, he said, bring a great many compensations for its many sacrifices. He referred to the selfishness that was now everywhere evidenced with the relaxation of the strain of war, saying that it was in such times that organizations like the W. C. T. U. were most productive. Temperance had had many victories through war but the friends of liquor were seeking for return to the free sale of intoxicants. Mayor Hayes urged the convention to put forth every effort to retain prohibitory laws and said that through the church and such organizations as the W. C. T. U. prohibitory laws must be kept. He asked all women to register their names as voters to fight for prohibition.

Mrs. Goodwin presented the greetings from the United Women's Missionary Societies of St. John. She congratulated the W. C. T. U. on its work and said that she was proud of the occasion when the societies which she represented could welcome it. She spoke of the co-operation of both in the future.

When she was five days out from San Domingo fire broke out in No. 2 hatch of the steamer Inca, now unloading sugar here for the Atlantic Sugar Refineries. It was gotten under control in about an hour but damage was done to part of the cargo by fire, smoke and water. The damage will be appraised here.

operation of both in the exercising of the new dignity of women the right to the franchise.

Mrs. W. H. Nice in presenting the greetings of the King's Daughters, spoke of the tremendous power for righteousness exercised by the W. C. T. U. and of its having the same ideals as the King's Daughters in the alleviation of pain and misery.

DENIKINE'S FORCE FORMS JUNCTION WITH POLES

Berne, Sept. 24.—(Havas)—The Polish press bureau here announces that the army of General Denikine operating in South Russia has formed a junction with the Polish forces near Kerostene.

If the above report should be true it would mean that the Poles and the anti-Bolshevik forces under Denikine would be able to co-ordinate their efforts in fighting the Bolsheviki in South Russia.

$50,000 For First Flight of Pacific; Prince Endorses it

Victoria, B.C., Sept. 24.—Last night, following the official dinner at Government House, the Prince of Wales was informed of the $50,000 prize which Norman A. Yarrow, of Victoria, is offering for the first non-stop flight across the Pacific Ocean from Vancouver to Japan. His Royal Highness, on being informed, immediately signified his desire to be associated with the proposal and the offer of Mr. Yarrow and his friends will be known as "The Prince of Wales Prize."

Mr. Yarrow attaches the following conditions to the prize: "That the airship lighter than air shall be manufactured in Canada, including all parts and materials. Any parts and materials that are not being made in Canada at the time the airship is constructed may be imported; the airship shall be navigated and manned by Canadians only, during the trans-Pacific flight, and the flight is to be a non-stop from Vancouver Island, British Columbia, to Japan, and be performed prior to December 31, 1921."

Mr. Yarrow's object in offering the prize is to commemorate the visit of the Prince of Wales.

$48,600,000 Advanced.

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—At the opening of this morning's session of the special committee of the House on soldiers' civil re-establishment, E. Mahon, secretary of the Soldiers' Settlement Board, was questioned regarding costs of administration and the advances made to soldiers. By the end of this year it was expected that the total outlay for the department would be $48,600,000 for loans and administration.

The estimate of $150,000,000 required for 50,000 soldiers who were expected to take loans did not take into account the settlement of British ex-service men. Many enquiries from this class of men were being received. About two-thirds of the 4,218 soldiers taking up grants had also exercised their rights of taking up homesteads.

Had a Very Bad Attack OF Bowel Complaint IT WAS CURED BY DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY

Any one suffering from bowel complaints such as diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps and pains in the stomach, summer complaint, etc., will find that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry will give quicker and more permanent relief than any other remedy on the market today.

This old tried and proven medicine has been on the market for the past seventy-four years. You don't experiment when you buy it. Surely the test of time proves this.

Mrs. Daniel Hartwick, Mountain Grove, Ont., writes—"I used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and have found that it is a good remedy. When my little girl was 2-3 years old she had a very bad attack of bowel complaint. Nothing prescribed by the doctor seemed to do her any good. She got worse, until we thought we would lose her. I got a bottle of 'Dr. Fowler's', and she soon found relief. Every one who has children should not be without it in their home."

Price 35 cents a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Happy Mothers Many mothers who in order to keep the home neat and attractive, the children well fed and dressed, continually overdo. The experience of motherhood alone causes a severe strain upon the system, from which many women recover slowly, and serious feminine disorders may develop unless great care is taken to prevent them.

To such women Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is invaluable. For many years this root and herb medicine has been recognized as the standard remedy for woman's ills, restoring them to a normal, healthy condition.

Mrs. Walsh's Case Avonport, N.S.—"I have obtained great benefit by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had five children and have taken the Vegetable Compound before each of them was born, except the first one, and if I was pregnant again I would take it. I was always troubled with a bearing down feeling when on my feet but since taking Vegetable Compound I feel a lot better. I hope you will publish this letter if it will help some other suffering women."

MRS. SEYMOUR WALSH, Avonport, Nova Scotia.

A Word to Childless Women There are women everywhere who long for children in their homes yet are denied this happiness on account of some functional disorder which in many cases would readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such women should not give up hope until they have given this wonderful medicine a trial.

Some Results of The Ottawa Conference

Chief Value of Meeting of Employers, Employees and Third Group, Lies in Fact That It Has Paved Way to Better Relations—Action on Disputed Subjects

(Correspondence of The Times.)

Ottawa, Sept. 22.—The National Industrial Conference concluded its sessions Saturday afternoon after a busy week, keeping on with the work of the agenda almost up to the time of closing. At the final session several of the most important matters of the conference were still to be dealt with. The contentious matters before the conference, such as the eight hour day and the right of the workers to organize—items two and four on the agenda—were still in the hands of the joint committees appointed to consider them; and, as a matter of fact, the conference that the closing hours of the conference that a report was brought in. As was anticipated, no agreement was arrived at but something was done, at least, in that the two sides considered their various contentions and troublesome matters calmly and dispassionately and agreed, for the present at least, to disagree.

Just where the conference arrived at regarding them is indicated by the reports brought in. With regard to the eight hour day, as it is loosely called, the resolution brought in by the employers was as follows: "The various government commissions, composed of an equal representation of employers and employees of the various industrial, producing and distributing industries should be appointed to undertake investigations as to the adaptability of the House of Labor principles of the Peace Treaty to the different industries of the country, and to report as early as possible."

The general comment on this will probably be: "Another Commission, but it is hard to see, under the circumstances, what other course could have been followed. The two parties were absolutely opposed in the belief that neither side showed disposition to relent, although some of the members of the conference expressed the belief that if they had had a longer time to discuss and deliberate some agreement might have been reached; and Mr. Shaw, who recognized the principles of the eight hour day as embodied in the Peace Treaty. At all events both sides agreed that no vote should be taken on the question, but that the reports should simply be embodied in the general report of the conference. Mr. Riggs speaking for labor, made the suggestion that it might be the duty of the government to determine as to the value of the respective opinions presented, and prepare legislation dealing with the matter. The chairman agreed that this was the best course of action under the circumstances. Thus the back was passed back to the government, as was fully expected would be the case.

THIN, NERVOUS FOLKS SHOULD TAKE BITRO-PHOSPHATE

Women Need it to Bring Pink Glow of Health to Pale, Careworn, and Thin. Need it to Make Strong, Vigorous Bodies and Steady Nerves.

Weak, thin people—men or women—are nearly always nervous wrecks; thus conclusively proving that thinness, weakness, debility and neurasthenia are almost invariably due to nerve starvation. Feed your nerves and these symptoms due to nerve starvation will disappear.

Eminent specialists state that one of the best things for the nerves is an organic phosphate known among druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, a five-grain tablet of which should be taken with each meal. Being a true nerve builder and not a stimulant or habit-forming drug, Bitro-Phosphate can be safely taken by the weak and most delicate sufferers, and the results following its use are often simply astonishing. By strengthening the nerves, weak, tired people regain energy and vigor; thinness and angularity give way to plumpness and curves; sleep returns to the sleepless; confidence and cheerfulness replace debility and gloom; dull eyes become bright, and pale, sunken cheeks regain the pink glow of health. It is sold by the Ross Drug Co. in St. John and all good druggists.

CAUTION—Bitro-Phosphate, the use of which is inexpensive, also wonderfully promotes the assimilation of food, so much so, that many people report marked gains of weight in a few weeks. Those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh, should use extra care in avoiding fat producing foods.

A Blood-Food Discovered That Entirely Overcomes Anæmic Weakness

This wonderful blood-food supplies nourishment, vim, energy—sends a stream of vigorous, strength-making blood to every nook and corner of the body, makes every muscle and fibre sing with new-found life and health.

The inclination to worry passes away because Ferrone imparts nervousness and bodily strength that prevents depression.

BULGARIA MUST PAY $450,000,000

Paris, Sept. 23.—The Temps has outlined what it says are the principal military and economic stipulations contained in the peace treaty which is to be presented to Bulgaria. These include abolition of obligatory military service and the maintenance of a police force which shall not exceed 20,000 men. The customs officers, gendarmes and police agents will aggregate 10,000.

Arms and munitions exceeding the quantity which Bulgaria may retain under the treaty shall be placed at points indicated by the Allies. An inter-allied commission will supervise the execution of the military, naval and aeronautic provisions of the compact.

Bulgaria must return all valuable objects and documents stolen or produced by the military, naval and aeronautic forces of the Allies previous to the signing of the peace. Bulgaria must pay an indemnity of 2,250,000,000 francs, which may be turned over within a specified number of years.

Regarding the change in the Bulgarian frontiers, the important changes are to the south, where Bulgaria cedes Western Thrace to the principal Allied and Associated Powers and agrees to accept whatever frontier is proposed by the powers ultimately decide; but it is stipulated that in any event Bulgaria's western frontiers shall be modified slightly in four places to Serbia's advantage.

The Bulgarians are required to recognize the independence of the Serb, Croat and Slovene states, and to consent to change the nationality of the inhabitants of the territory formerly Bulgarian and transferred to other states. Provisions are made for the minorities of race, language, nationality and religion.

Bulgaria is given thirty-seven years to pay the indemnity.

A COMMITTEE TO PROBE ELECTION SCANDAL DENIED

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—Stormy scenes attended the refusal of the Government to appoint a parliamentary committee to investigate the grave charge of the opposition in the house of commons this afternoon that the premier and one of his ministers conspired at the last general election to manipulate the ballots of thousands of overseas soldiers.

And intense excitement and disorder, floor leader McKenzie accused Hon. Arthur Meighen of sending a telegram in code from Winnipeg to Sir Robert Borden at Ottawa asking for one thousand floating votes for four Manitoba constituencies in which the Unionist forces feared they might be defeated. The Liberal house leader held that the honor of the ministers was involved. He said the code message indicated the existence of a widespread system of manipulation of votes for the purpose of defeating the will of the Canadian people.

Hon. Mr. Meighen made a heated reply. He said he would not agree to the appointment of a parliamentary committee to probe the charges because Mr. McKenzie was not sincere in asking for an investigation. All that he wanted was newspaper publicity.

PROTEST PROPOSED INCREASE IN TELEGRAPHIC RATES.

At the annual meeting of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association held in Winnipeg, a resolution was passed in connection with the application made by the Canadian telegraph companies for an increase of rates. It read as follows: "Whereas the Canadian telegraph companies are asking for an approximate increase of 25 per cent in their rates, and whereas the members of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association, in connection with the largest users of the telegraph service, and whereas no satisfactory evidence has been submitted to warrant such an increase."

"Now therefore be it resolved that the Railway Commission be memorialized before granting any such increase, to institute a thorough and searching investigation with a view to deciding whether such increase is justified."

"And, further, that when the matter is under investigation the question of discrimination in telegraph rates (claiming to be in force against Winnipeg) be considered, and if found that such discrimination exists, that satisfactory adjustments be made in the existing rates."

MILK PRODUCERS MUST SHOW CAUSE FOR ANY INCREASE

Montreal, Sept. 24.—The milk producers and distributors of Montreal have been ordered by the board of commerce to appear at the city hall tomorrow afternoon to show cause why they propose to raise the price of milk. The order was issued at the request of Dr. W. A. L. Styles, of the Baby Welfare League, who demanded an order restraining the producers and distributors from raising the price of milk. No other complaints were laid before the board this morning.

John T. Hawke, managing editor of the Montreal Transcript, will address the meeting of the local Board of Trade in October on "The Land of the Rising Sun and Its Claim."

Cathedral Dedicated.

Charlottetown, Sept. 24.—This is an auspicious week for the Roman Catholics of Prince Edward Island. Today their new St. Dunstan's Cathedral which has risen from the ashes of the fire of March, 1918, more magnificent and more beautiful than ever, was solemnly dedicated to divine worship by a direct representative of the pope, the apostolic delegate, Pietro Dimaria.

The feature of the dedication service this forenoon was the celebration of pontifical high mass by the delegate, Cardinal McCarthy, of Halifax; Bishop Morrison, of Antigonish (a former rector of St. Dunstan's); Bishop O'Leary, of Chatham; Bishop LeBlanc, of St. John; Bishop Emard, of Valleyfield (Que.); Bishop McNally, of Calgary; Bishop O'Brien, of Peterboro (Ont.), and about a hundred priests from the island and other provinces.

The annual meeting of the C. G. R. employs Insurance Association, Salisbury-St. John district, was held last night and the following were elected to compose the executive for the coming year: Thomas Donovan, H. J. Hennessy, F. T. Yeomans, J. J. Chandler, electrical delegate to the annual meeting to be held in Moncton.

FORMER ARMY OFFICERS CANNOT FIND POSITIONS

London, Sept. 24.—From all parts of the country come reports of the difficulty demobilized officers are having to find jobs. These former officers with wives and families to support are in many cases living on meagre pensions.

One of the most remarkable cases of unemployment is that of a Cambridge University graduate, who for the greater part of the war held an important command in the army and subsequently a temporary post of great responsibility in a government department. He is armed with a letter from the War Office thanking him for his services, and adding: "There are few people with greater organizing ability, more charming manners, greater tact and drive than yourself."

Another letter to him from Sir Alexander Geddes, president of the Board of Trade, expresses "warm thanks for your loyal and devoted co-operation in very difficult work." King George bestowed on him the order of Commander of the British Empire.

But these credentials have been of no avail in his quest for suitable employment in this country, and in despair he says that he is going to America next month.

Ex-officers have discovered that the business world regards long military service as a disadvantage rather than an asset. An infantry captain, forty-three years old, with a wife and three children, said: "I have farmed in South Africa, served with the Natal Mounted Police, and prospecting for gold. I want an outdoor job connected with agriculture, with a minimum salary of $1,250. I cannot get one and I have applied for a small holding but am told I may have to wait twelve months."

Another former officer reported that his firm would take him back at half his pre-war salary, saying that was the best they could do as trade was so bad. "Some companies don't know there is a war on," commented a job-seeking ex-officer, who before he went into the army was the head clerk in an insurance office. "My people have offered me $450 a year, and I am twenty-six."

Local No. 919, Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, held its annual meeting in Oddfellows' Hall, last evening. Matters of routine business were transacted and a fine address given by W. F. Hatheway on women's registration for voting. Manford Price was elected vice-president. No other officers were elected.

O-Cedar Polish

Keeps new furniture looking "new"

THAT first finish which so delights you when a fine new piece of furniture is installed in your home—would you retain it?

You can—easily—by the simple O-Cedar treatment. A few drops of O-Cedar Polish on a cloth dampened with water, forms a soft soapy lather which cleans, polishes and beautifies—bringing out the blended beauty of the grain. After polishing with a dry cloth, rub your dry hand across the wood, and note how dry the surface is. That is the O-Cedar result—a hard lustre that will neither become gummy or sticky, nor collect the dust.

What O-Cedar Polish does for furniture, O-Cedar Polish Mop accomplishes on floors. The Polish 50c. to $1.00. The Mop, round or triangle, $1.50. Both at any Grocery or Hardware Shop.

(By Joe Page.)

Will the Chicago White Sox or Cincinnati Reds win the coming world's series? Let's do it out with the readers of the baseball columns.

With only six games to go the White Sox have a team batting average eight-eighths better than their rivals, the Cincinnati Reds, .286 as against .264. Yet both teams lead their respective leagues in batting. In fielding, the team average of the White Sox aggregation again is to the front almost five points, while in one particular only do the National Leaguers practically stand off their American rivals, that is in the stolen base record. Even here Kid Gleason's bunch top Pat Moran's men, the former having 140 to 137 sack thefts for the latter. But again in this case, while the figures show almost even, the dope again shows that in order to count a run throughout the season the White Sox have had to make less than two hits per run, to be exact 1.76, while Cincinnati have had to go over two hits per run, or again to be exact, 2.14. Both teams stand within three stolen bases of each other for the season's play up to the last week.

These figures must show one of two things. Either the work of the National League as a whole is not up to the American League standard or else the White Sox are so fast on their feet that they are capable of getting four runs for about every seven hits, while it takes the Reds almost eight and two-thirds hits to get the same number of runs. (The latter the finding of the American press.) However, in playing the same number of games, 127, I find myself it takes the Reds over and the White Sox less than two hits to score a run. Having lightly touched on the essential points of the team work of both ball clubs, let us frame the pitching staff of both teams as they are and then as we think they would perform if used in relation in the first four games of the series.

JOE PAGE

White Sox—Clyde, Williams, Kerr, James, Loudermilk, Wilkinson, Faber, Mayer.

Cincinnati—Sallee, Ruether, Eller, Fisher, Ring, Laque, Gerner.

This is the regular list of pitchers who have a chance to get into a game.

With a series of nine games, the logical choice of both managers for the first game would be Sallee and Sallee, both tried, true and dependable previous world's series opponents of the 1917 clash between the White Sox and New York Giants.

Williams and Eller in the third game, with James pitching the fourth game for the White Sox in the event of their winning the first two.

Otherwise Clyde and Sallee, both of whom would be the choice for the fourth game, with Fisher, another previous world's series performer on the Reds' slab with Williams opposing Sallee or Ring in the fifth contest.

The only thing to bar Ring from pitching one or more of the games would be on account of inexperience, although Ruether and Eller must be classed in the same category.

Should the White Sox win straight away or even the first two of each three games played, which in the latter event would necessitate at least seven games, I look for James or Loudermilk to get into one of the contests. As for Wilkinson, while he is the latter event he hardly think Kid Gleason will start him. As for Faber, past world series hero, other than for sentimental reasons, such as giving him a chance to pitch in this year's baseball classic, nothing doing. He is not in condition. If he was he would be there in his turn pitching two.

The fact that he has not been in the game to any extent this season is enough proof of what I have said. Mayor has not a chance to see them worked with the exception of Gerner, one after the other as above outlined.

Now, readers of baseball statistics, you see the pitching staff of both teams. The long distance pitchers of both teams (by those I mean those who have participated in the greatest number of league games throughout the regular season) are Clyde, Williams and Kerr, sixty-two games won and twenty-three games lost; while Sallee, Ruether and Eller are the three long distance pitchers of Cincinnati. They have won fifty-four games and lost twenty. Figuring the percentage you will find both are a fraction over .500 in games won. Now, while the Reds have three more pitchers whose records are just as great in a lesser number of games during the season, the point I desire to make is that with three star pitchers in condition and pitching up to their form in a nine game series, would it be asking too much of them to go into the firing line of the regular teams, as follows:

Chicago White Sox—Schalk, Lynn, catchers; Gandil, 1b.; E. Collins, 2b.; Weaver, 3b.; Risberg, s.s.; Jackson, I.F.; Felsch, c.f.; Liebald, r.f.; McMullen, utility infield; Murphy, Shano Collins, utility outfield.

Cincinnati Red Sox—Rariden, Wingo, catchers; Daubert, 1b.; Rath, 2b.; Groh, 3b.; Kopt's.s.; Magee, I.F.; Rousch, c.f.; Neale, r.f.; Schriber, utility infield; Duncan, Sec, utility outfield.

Here is the universal opinion of both teams, as given to the writer, at various times this last month or so, by base ball writers and others who have watched the teams for the most of the season.

Rariden and Wingo are a cracking good pair of catchers, and along with Moran, have done much to bring the pennant to Cincinnati by their handling of the pitching staff. Schalk, however, is without doubt the brains; a most fearless and peppery catcher the game has yet produced. Without Schalk Chicago would have been lucky to finish in the series.

With the latter out of the series by reason of sickness you could make your own ticket on Cincinnati to win.

Lynn is a good catcher, not in a class with the Cincinnati's two only from want of experience, but that is enough in a world's series contest. There is one place where experience and grit are essential.

Yundt and Daubert at first base, both fine fielders and heavy hitters; in the season they have hit so far: Gandil, 804; Daubert, 279.

In the world series of 1915 with Brooklyn Daubert, who played first was practically the heavy hitter of the league that season. In the world series where he was expected to do great things with the stick, he was an utter failure. On the other hand, Gandil in the series of 1911 against the Giants was even greater in his fielding and hitting than during the regular season, showing himself to be one of the games best money hitting players. The loss of Gandil would easily mean twenty-five per cent of the efficiency of the White Sox gone.

Eddie Collins or Rath at second base. Short and sweet. There is only one Eddie Collins. Just now he is hitting .316, leading the league in stolen bases in fielding and is accepted as the peer of all second sackers and greater than ever in the world series contests. Rath is a good ball player, hitting around .250. He may surprise the baseball world, but with Collins opposite him he will have to travel.

Risberg and Kopf at the short stop position are probably about the most evenly matched pair in both teams when it comes to percentage figures. Both hitting around the 340 mark and both considered dangerous hitters because they have the faculty of hitting when hits mean runs and both are considered fine fielders.

As for third we have Buck Weaver and Heine Groh. The latter is hitting at a .311 gait with 24 stolen bases to his credit, while Weaver is hitting at a .294 clip with 22 stolen bases. There is another position where figures give a slight percentage in favor of Groh. Both are considered the stars of their respective teams.

Buck, however, has been through world series fire and showed the world what a real game player he is which Groh has yet to do and may.

The outfield, with Jackson, Felsch and Liebald alongside of Magee, Rousch and Neale of Cincinnati, seem on the whole to outclass the Red outfield in general all round base ball efficiency, which includes brains, batting, fielding, throwing and base running.

And with experienced utility men who have all been in previous world series contests such as Shano Collins, Murphy and Neale, the Cincinnati team, Schriber and Sec, all new recruits, the former world's champions seem to have the best of the argument in all but three positions.

What about Pat Moran? He is the real miracle man in the base ball game. In 1916 he took the discredited Phillies and brought them under the wire first and when it was all over in the world's series that year, he said the better team won and he said it in just such a manner that we know it was from the heart and brains of a base ball strategist who had looked the field over after the battle to find the cause of his defeat.

Should he win the classic this year, the rank and file will be with him to a man about all of whom are now wishing him success. However, figures as a rule do not lie. They may get twisted at times, and while Moran and his Red Hose tribe may put up a good fight and figure they will win with the help of the fifty year which always went to the Nationals in the past.

If they do they will deserve the best that can be given them at the hands of the Cincinnati base ball fans who have not seen a real pennant in the major league since its formation in 1876. They may do the Braves set of 1914. It is a far better team than the world's champions of that year, to my mind. But notwithstanding, I look to see President Charles A. Comiskey, Manager Kid Gleason, and the White Sox team returning the world's champions for 1919-20 in seven games.

The Corporation President was on the lookout for a young man as head of a certain department. As he walked down the street toward his club for lunch one day he met young Smith. "Come to the Noonday Club and have lunch with me," said the Corporation President. For Smith was one of the men he had in mind for the responsible position. "Thank you, sir," Smith started to accept, when suddenly he remembered that the cuffs of his shirt were badly frayed; so he finished lamely, "I'd like to accept but—I have an engagement this noon." "Sorry—we'll make it another day," and the Corporation President walked on. On the way up on the elevator the Corporation President met young Brown, whom he had in mind for the position also. "Come to lunch with me," suggested the big man. "Delighted!" replied Brown, thinking that here was a chance to show his new shirt in ideal surroundings. Brown got the job—it was a Scovil Bros.' A NOBLE RECORD TO LOOK BACK ON

What East End Improvement League Has Accomplished This Year NOW FOR FOOTBALL

Big Skating Rink Will Be Made as Soon as Frost and Snow Come—The Children Have Their Share of Attention

With the best playground in St. John, a record of an unbroken season of good baseball since July 2; a four team soccer league ready to play early in October; a fine grandstand seating 800, and material to enlarge it for another 300 or 400; with eight swings and some teeters for children; and with a big outdoor skating rink in prospect for the winter, the East End Improvement League, organized last spring, is now easily first among the three leagues in the matter of work accomplished.

The East End Improvement League was organized at a small meeting held in Thorne Lodge Hall, Rev. R. I. McKim was elected president; Rev. A. L. Telford, treasurer, and Henry McEwen, secretary.

But the midst of the credit goes to the men who formed the grounds committee and those who aided them night after night. It was a long job, and many long hours, but a faithful few remained. Superintendent Nichols, of the cotton mill, was a staunch helper.

This league took thought for the children at the very outset, and provided swings and teeters. The children, too, will have the benefit of the skating rink. Harry Scott, caretaker of the Boys' Club, had three or four teams of these boys playing ball all season, thus holding them together, and the Playgrounds Association stood behind his efforts.
