UNITED CHURCHES THIRD OF WHOLE

Three Thousand Congregations Without Formality. (Montreal Gazette) This in three thousand of the nine thousand Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches in Canada today union is already an accomplished fact, even if it is not so in name, and that in five years the Presbyterian churches in the rural districts and in the western towns would of necessity become union, two were asserted made by Rev. Dr. J. Wilson, of Kingston, Ont., who presided at the cause of the pro-unionists before the congregation of Melville Presbyterian Church yesterday.

Dr. Wilson advanced three lines of argument for church union, economic— which in consideration of the important of the three—greater efficiency in church work, and spiritual benefit. Dealing with the last named, he asserted that the day of denominations has gone unless there is something the denomination can do that the united church cannot do. Unless Presbyterianism, Methodist and Congregationalism, as such, can give a reason for continued existence as separate entities within Christianity, can prove that their historical necessity is still a present day fact, not to be potentially or actually found elsewhere, or to the same degree elsewhere, there can ultimately be no basis for a continued dividing of forces.

The move to church union has a religious significance greater than anything else that has happened within the Christian church during the last 100 years," said Dr. Wilson in commending the day of denominations has gone unless there is something the denomination can do that the united church cannot do.

He proceeded to outline the different steps taken towards union. The first move, he claimed, was made by Presbyterians, not Methodists, who in 1859, suggested action to prevent overlapping in mission fields. In 1908 the Presbyterians took the first step towards actual union and worked over a basis of union for five years.

NO UNEMPLOYMENT LEGISLATION FOR PRESENT SESSION

Statement of Premier King in House Yesterday—The Government to Pay One-third of Relief Cost for ex-Servicemen.

Ottawa, Feb. 21.—(Canadian Press)—Premier King stated in the House yesterday that the government did not consider that the present unemployment situation necessitated the bringing down of unemployment legislation this session.

The question was raised by E. J. Murray, (Liberal, Winnipeg North) who brought up the unemployment situation in Winnipeg. He was informed, he said, that there were 6,311 unemployed receiving relief in that city of which 1,500 were being assisted by the Dominion Government.

Hon. James Murdock, Minister of Labor, referred to telegrams sent in December last, in reply to queries from the Premiers of Manitoba and British Columbia, stating that the situation was not comparable to that of the last two years and that the Dominion Government did not feel itself justified in assuming any portion of the obligations of the municipalities and provinces in regard to unemployment.

Aid to Veterans. Within the last thirty years, Mr. Murdock added, deputations had represented to the government that there was a considerable amount of unemployment affecting returned men and that voluntary organizations of returned soldiers and others were providing for them, in some cases with the co-operation of the municipality concerned. As a result of these representations an order-in-council had been adopted providing that, in the case of ex-servicemen who were unemployed and in need of relief the Dominion Government would pay one-third of the cost. The order-in-council provided that payments under it might be retroactive to a first of January.

Redistribution Bill. The redistribution bill was given a second reading without debate. The next procedure is expected to be a motion to refer the bill to a special committee.

Not a medicine— but a fresh corrective food

Vigorous, lasting health—such health as makes everyone envy its fortunate possessor—

Thousands of men and women are enjoying it today who thought they had lost it forever. And they owe it, not to drugs or medicine, but to a simple fresh food which keeps their bodies free from the poisons of constipation.

Every cake of Fleischmann's Yeast consists of millions of tiny living plants, which help to increase the bulk of our concentrated modern diet, and gently stimulate the intestinal muscles to act for themselves.

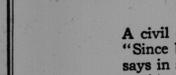

Every such action gives the intestines normal, natural exercise, and so gradually trains them back to a healthy active state. It is only when your intestinal muscles are functioning normally that your body can be kept free from the deadly poisons which otherwise flood your system.

Fleischmann's Yeast is in no sense a purgative, and produces no sudden violent action. It must be eaten regularly to secure results.

Eat two or three cakes a day—plain, or dissolved in water, milk or fruit juices—preferably half an hour before a meal or the last thing at night. If you eat it plain, follow with a glass of water. Get several cakes at a time—they will keep several days in a cool, dry place.

Be sure you get Fleischmann's Yeast! All grocers have it.

"Gained 14 lbs. in 9 weeks" A civil engineer was under weight and run-down. "Since beginning to eat Fleischmann's Yeast," he says in a recent letter, "I have gained 14 lbs. in 9 weeks. I can truly say it has made me feel 100% better than I have felt since I left the farm some 15 years ago."

DID NOT HEED BLOCK SIGNAL

Engineer Himself One of Six Killed When Train Crashes Into Caboose.

Sagre, Pa., Feb. 21.—Failure of the engineer to heed a block signal was declared the cause of a wreck at Hummerfield, Pa., yesterday, in an unofficial investigation from division headquarters of the Lehigh Valley Railroad last night.

Train No. 17 piloted by Engineer W. A. Shellenberger, crashed into a caboose drawn by two engines, demolishing it and killing six trainmen, including Shellenberger.

According to report train No. 17 ran the automatic block signal and a tugman threatening danger. In the front of the window were displayed first aid kits, and emergency supplies, replicas and photographs of first aid trophies and the various awards which are given for passing first aid and home nursing examinations held under the auspices of the St. John Ambulance Association.

LONDON BECOMING KNOWN AS CITY OF DREADFUL CABS. Groaning, Grinding and Rattling of Machinery Called Usual State of Vehicles.

London, Feb. 1.—(By Mail).—According to "The London Daily Express" London is in danger of becoming known as the City of Dreadful Cabs—the city where if a man falls a taxicab he stands an even chance of entering one whose gears grind, whose engine groans, whose windows rattle, whose springs are rusty, and whose only efficient component is the meter, which ticks off the three pence with never a falter.

That is the strange part of it. When a man takes a taxicab he pays neither for comfort, efficiency, nor speed. He pays the meter's three pence whether the cab be good or bad. Usually it is bad. There are probably more obsolete taxicabs to the mile in the streets of London than in those of any other city, except, perhaps, Paris.

A "Daily Express" representative spent an hour or two in carrying out taxicab tests. It was a trying experience. One or two of the cabs were good—comfortable, reasonably fast, and relatively silent. The majority were noisy, uncomfortable, and slow.

MARITIMES OVERLOOKED.

In a recent issue the Border Cities, published in Windsor, Ontario, devoted its first page to a discussion in large type of the relations of Eastern and Western Canada. It begins as follows: "The east needs the west, and the west needs the east. Never in all the history of Canada were truer words uttered. Never were they truer than they are today. Yet slowly, and perceptibly, but surely, the gulf between the east and the west is widening. It is the gulf of misunderstanding, of selfish interests, of refusal to study the needs of each other. Session after session the great drama is played at Ottawa. Always the villain of the piece is tariff; always the drama has an unhappy and inconclusive ending. The players, the politicians, wander about the stage as in a wilderness, with no thought of unity, no impulse toward compromise, no eyes to visualize the supreme importance of co-operative effort."

THE TREE PLANTER.

(Richard Posey Campbell.) I saw a woman, bent and grey, Planting trees by the bleak highway, And seeds of grasses and seeds of flowers. She scattered them through the hours. She looked so fragile and old and worn That I touched, with pity, I spoke to her. "Why toil, kind mother, the livelong day, Planting trees by the bleak highway? You have earned a home and an easy chair. In the parlour of toiling and sweated tears. She answered, "I love the work, my son. And rest comes sweet when the day is done."

THE SPORTSMEN'S SHOW.

A correspondent of the Times writes an enthusiastic letter regarding the recent Sportsmen's Show. He says truly that it was worth while for the Department of Lands and Mines to stage this show in St. John in Carnival Week. The show should have a good effect in arousing a more general interest in the preservation of our game. If it is true as one gentleman asserted that twenty cow moose were shot in St. John county last fall and one set of antlers used to cover each in turn three are surely worth for game wardens. Our correspondent also censures severely the Sunday hunter who goes abroad with bird shot in one pocket and ball cartridge in the other, without due regard for the close season; as well as the fisherman who carries side arms to kill mating birds. He censures also those who use to give information about violations of the law. He has a word also about the shooting accident, too often fatal, that are due to carelessness, if not a reckless disregard for consequences; and about the hunter who make use of other men's camps and leave them in a disordered condition. All this, of course, is aside from the Sportsmen's Show, but the latter must have set many people thinking about the value of our game preserves and the importance of having the laws observed.

THE MAIN JOHN GLASIER.

(Frederick Gleason.) The Glenier has been asked for the origin of this phrase. Dr. W. O. Raymond in his informative book on the words in the John thus refers to it: "Senator Glasier was the first lumberman to bring a drive over the Grand Falls, and is said to have been the first while man to explore the Squawk lake. The phrase 'The Main John Glasier' originated with an Irishman named Paddy McGarrigle, who was employed as a cook. It was soon universally adopted by the lumbermen and strange to say, has spread over the continent. In the western states today men employed in lumbering apply the words 'the main John Glasier' to the manager of any big lumbering concern. It is said that only a few of those who use the term know of its origin. It was undoubtedly carried to the west by lumbermen who went there from the River St. John."

WHAT'S WHAT

By Helen Doolittle

My watch is slow.

Punctuality is bad manners as well as bad business. Parents should train boys and girls to respect the minute of the engagement. High school principals everywhere are complaining of a general laxity in this respect. Students must get a better watch punctuality at home are late for school so often that class routine is constantly interrupted, to the disadvantage of all concerned. Punctuality, "the virtue of kings," was scrupulously observed by our great first president, General George Washington, whose famously witty rebuke to his habitually tardy secretary (who had made the excuse that his watch was slow) is illustrated today. "My young friend, you must get a good watch—or else I shall have to get a new secretary!"

PEOPLE BROKE THIS STRIKE.

(Boston Herald.) Only in a very general way are the facts known here in the east as to the "stripping of the people" along an entire railroad line to end a railway strike. Now that correspondents are sending out more complete reports, the story proves to be both interesting and important, and we may be a good fifteen years if it has done a good deal to develop the territory traversed by its rails, in spite of almost two years ago. The road was near a complete stoppage of service. The workers gradually changed the attitude of sympathy to antagonism, which deepened slowly but surely into hot hatred. Sabotage and finally riotous outbreaks along the road had to be shut down.

PHARAOH'S MUMMY.

(New York Tribune.) The disposal of Tut-an-kh-amun's mummy, if his tomb contains it, will be to become a museum exhibit. To many there is nothing regrettable in a permanent lying-in-state of the 3,000-year-old remains of a Pharaoh. Others, perhaps abnormally sensible of human dignity, consider this an act of desecration.

MEN FOR SPADE WORK.

(From the Vancouver Sun.) Canada needs strong, healthy men who are acquainted with the business end of a shovel and who are not afraid of callouses. But it should not be necessary to put each immigrant through a shovel drill to examine his hands for blisters before we decide to let him in. The workmen and the funds will, in time, attend to their own extermination.

GRAND FALLS WATER POWER. (Hartland Observer.) The Grand Falls Board of Trade is still receiving communications from towns situated in different parts of the province, endorsing the stand that this board has taken to firmly oppose any further extension being granted to the present holders of the rights controlling the great natural water power at Grand Falls. The fact that such communications are coming from towns as far as Edmundton, inclusive, and from the North Shore district goes to show that the people of the province are aware that their interests in this

AUDIO FREQUENCIES.

All frequencies below 10,000 cycles per second are known as audio-frequencies. The diaphragm of the average human ear is sufficiently sensitive to respond to vibrations of less than 10,000 cycles per second which has therefore been chosen arbitrarily as the dividing line between audio and audible frequencies and radio or inaudible frequencies. Signals radiated from a transmitting station are transmitted through the ether at radio-frequencies, thus necessitating the employment of a detector in the receiving set to convert these high frequencies into frequencies which are rendered audible in the receiving telephones.

CAPACITIVE COUPLING.
The linking of two circuits together or bringing them into mutual electrical relation by utilizing the electrostatic field existing between the plates of a condenser is known as "capacitive" coupling. This type of coupling is used in both transmitting and receiving circuits, for example, in regenerative circuits the "feed back" action may be obtained by "capacitive" or "electrostatic" coupling between the plate and grid circuits. "Capacitive coupling," however, has the disadvantage of not giving as sharp tuning as inductive coupling.

EVACUATION.
With reference to vacuum tubes, the process of "evacuation" consists of removing the air from the inside of the tube. This is accomplished by heating the enclosed metallic elements, namely the grid, plate and filament to a white heat and the glass tube itself to a high temperature for the purpose of driving out the gas contained in the metal and in the glass walls of the tube. Vacuum pumps are then used to remove the air and give the tube a high degree of vacuum.

LOADING COIL.
In order to adjust either transmitting or receiving sets for operation on longer waves, series inductances or "loading coils" are employed. In receiving circuits this series inductance may consist of a coil of fine wire having several hundred turns wound on an insulating cylinder of small diameter and provided with a sliding contact so as to obtain a variable value of inductance. The secondary circuit may also have a variable loading coil connected in circuit in order to conform to the desired wave length. In transmitting apparatus it is often desirable to have connections so arranged as to change from wave length to another, for example, from 300 to 600 meters. This is accomplished by a switching arrangement which adds inductance in the form of a separate series "loading coil" connected in the antenna circuit but not coupled to the primary circuit.

SEPARATE HETERODYNE.
When two sources of undamped electrical oscillations of constant amplitude and having slightly different frequencies are combined, the resultant modulated oscillation has a "beat" frequency equal to the difference between these frequencies. If, for example, the oscillation of an incoming radio signal, having a frequency of 1,000,000 cycles per second, is combined with a locally generated oscillation of 998,000 cycles per second, the resultant beat frequency will be 2,000 cycles per second, a frequency known as heterodyne reception. If the local oscillations are produced by a separate tube, having its own regenerative circuit, and these locally generated oscillations are then impressed upon the receiving circuit by means of a coupling, this is known as the "separate heterodyne" method of reception.

MICROAMPERE.
When an electromotive force of one volt is steadily applied to a conductor having a resistance of one ohm, the current produced is one ampere. In radio circuits, the "microampere" or one millionth part of an ampere is used as a practical unit for the measurements of the minute electrical currents, for example, the amount of current necessary to produce an audible tone in a telephone receiver of standard design is approximately 0.05 microampere.

Y. W. C. A. PLANS KINDERGARTEN

The board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. yesterday afternoon discussed plans in connection with the opening of a private kindergarten as a means of raising additional funds. Mrs. W. H. Luginbill was in the chair. It was reported that the recent Valentine fete had netted nearly $400. The report of the general secretary, Mrs. Percival Foster, was very comprehensive and encouraging. She dealt with the various aspects of the work, giving into detail in each case. The Travellers Aid report was presented by Mrs. James F. Robertson. For the gymnasium committee, Mrs. A. E. Logie reported an average attendance of 305 at classes in the first week of the month. She told of the basketball schedule, the hikes and parties arranged for gymnasium members, and said five new members had been enrolled. For the house and cafeteria committee, Mrs. W. C. Cross told of the remodeling of the dormitory having been begun. She referred with pleasure to the fact that Miss Baird had consented to remain as matron, and spoke also of the credit balance in both cafeteria and house accounts. General appreciation of Miss Canada was expressed at the meeting and there was some pride in recalling that Miss Canada had been a "Y" girl for two years. The members of the board were glad to know that she had carried herself in a manner to reflect highest credit on the association. The secretary was asked to write to Miss Canada, congratulating her and asking her to attend a meeting of the Y. W. C. A. members this week. The resignation of Mrs. H. W. Morrissey was respectfully accepted and Mrs. F. T. Barbour was appointed as a new director.

ST. JOHN AS IT WAS 80 YEARS AGO

An interesting lecture was given before the members of the Natural History Society last evening. The lecturer, entitled "St. John socially and otherwise eighty years ago" proved highly instructive. It had been prepared by W. C. Milner, of the Dominion Archives, but Mr. Milner could not be present, so Mr. McIntosh read the paper. During the evening many beautiful costumes of the period loaned by Mrs. C. H. L. Johnston, Miss McBeth, Miss Grace Leavitt, Mrs. Percival Foster and the Misses Farmer were shown. These dresses were worn last night by Miss Constance March, Miss Elizabeth MacNab and Miss Katherine Hillman. Miss March sang old-fashioned songs and was accompanied by Mrs. J. Z. Carter. Mrs. Ferris also played Eastern anthems from a book published in St. John in 1844 by the father of James A. Estley, who was present at the meeting.

DRUGS SOLD TO SCHOOL CHILDREN IN EL PASO

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 21.—Scores of school children of El Paso, some as young as twelve years, are being taught the use of narcotics, the Federal grand jury reported in a written statement addressed to the Federal District Court and citizens of El Paso. Seventy-seven indictments were returned, most of them charging violation of the Harrison narcotic law. The jury said that one boy has stated to officers of the law that he has about twenty companions of about his age who are drug users. Another boy discloses that there are forty of his children companions using narcotics, the jury's report said. "Peddlers of drugs are giving them away to some children to create narcotic addiction, thus enlarging the demand for their illicit traffic. Several girls between the ages of seventeen and twenty in El Paso County clinics have been found to be drug addicts."

"WHITE FLAG" MAKING HEAVY GAINS IN GERMANY

Inroads on Population Cause Repeated Calls for Financial Assistance. Berlin, Jan. 17.—(By mail)—Tuberculosis has made such heavy inroads on Germany's population recently that cries for additional financial aid are going up repeatedly from the official and unofficial relief agencies. A short time ago more funds were demanded for the state insurance department which ministers to the tubercular. Its aid extends this winter to 80,000 families. One of the department's regulations requires that, before a family can claim its benefits, at least one member must hold a state insurance policy. Now a plea for further public subscriptions has been raised by a relief agency which confines its activities to members of the middle classes and operates largely through public funds to aid persons not covered by insurance. Among the agency's beneficiaries at present are: 1,884 federal, state and municipal officials; 119 professors, ministers, attorneys, doctors and students; 183 teachers, 88 journalists and actors, 138 widows and orphans, 393 independent hand workers and tradesmen; 1,964 employed salesmen and clerks, and 789 merchants.

A HAPPY BOY SCOUT

A Halifax lad of fourteen, a boy scout, named Stanley Baldwin, sent a picture of himself in scout uniform to his famous namesake, Hon. Stanley Baldwin, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, when the latter was in Washington. He has received the following reply:—

Dear Namesake—It was a kind thought of you to send me a greeting for the New Year and we were all very pleased to get it.

You look the right sort of boy from your photograph and I hope you will grow into the right sort of man. The world needs them. You wouldn't be a Scout if you didn't pull all your weight in the boat; we'll both try and it will help each of us to know that the other is pulling away in all weather, just as hard as he can.

Good luck to you always.

Yours sincerely,

(Sgd.) STANLEY BALDWIN

8-YEAR-OLD LAD KILLED BY TRAIN WHILE COASTING

Samuel Milner, aged eight years, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Milner, 89 Acadia street, was run over and killed by a train while coasting in Acadia street yesterday afternoon. In company with Ronald Livingstone, aged nine, young Milner was going down the hill on a sled. Livingstone was sitting on his back. Just before they reached the railway crossing the latter fell off and under the wheels of a transfer trap and was run over by an engine driven by Engineer Smallin of Fairville. The engine ran over the boy's left leg between the ankle and the knee, practically severing it. Dr. C. M. Frost was summoned and the ambulance sent for but the child died a moment after being placed in it. The body was taken to Brennan's undertaking rooms in Main street. The little Livingstone boy ran to the mother of the Milner child and told her of her son's plight. She rushed to the scene but arrived just as her

New York, Feb. 21.—A bootleg gang kidnapped him, beat him into submission and forced him to fire the engine on the stolen tugboat.

McKenna said that he was accused as he came from a restaurant at 12 South street by a smartly dressed young man, who asked him what he thought of a good job at $90 a month and expenses.

This was done, and when the engines were turning, McKenna said, he went up on deck, with the idea of getting off if the opportunity offered.

A pistol was shoved against the engineer's head, McKenna said, and under this coercion he was forced to the engine-room, where he took charge.

The tug was abandoned at night at the foot of Twelfth street, Hoboken, and the masked men departed as mysteriously as they had come.

New York, Feb. 20.—With only a meager description to go on and unable to depend upon the conflicting and confused stories of eye-witnesses, the police are looking for three bandits who shot and wounded two messengers of the Pacific Bank branch at 122 Hudson street, and got away with $9,400.

It was considered the most daring capture of the police for months. The two messengers, R. Johnson, 596 Bainbridge street, and William H. Buck, 209 Grand street, both of Brooklyn, started across Hudson street to deliver the weekly payroll to Seaman Brothers, wholesale grocers, directly opposite the bank.

The distance from the revolving doors of the bank to the loading platform of the store is not quite eighty feet. Bank officials could look directly out at their progress and so could employees in the grocery warehouse. The street is in the centre of the warehouse district and is heavily traveled.

Two young men, wearing caps, appeared among the wagons on the platform of the store in the middle of the afternoon. They were dressed in the style of the day, and were carrying the black bag, threaded their way through the traffic and weaved in through the wagon backed up to the loading platform.

Patrolman Schreiber declared that the bandits had used silencers on their revolvers, for in spite of the small caliber, he heard no shots until the four who were being held at the same time. Being paid day at the Seaman place, the messengers had been in the habit of leaving the bank about 11 o'clock and crossing the street. Apparently the thought of a hold-up under the nose of the Beach street police station, just around the corner, had not been considered. The two men, both of whom bear reputations for faithful service and bravery, left at their usual time, and at 1:25 o'clock met the bandits.

Johnson, who is fifty-five years old, is a retired policeman. The wound in his neck is slight. Buck is sixty-eight years old, but while the wound in his shoulder is serious, he is expected to recover.

Bank officials refused to discuss the matter in any way after their return from rushing about the street armed with shotguns and pistols. Observers from upstairs windows furnished conflicting stories which served to confuse the search.

Palmer Quits Leadership; Richards To Act Until Permanent Head Chosen

DISSATISFACTION EXPRESSED AT CONVENTION OF OPPOSITION MEMBERS

Richards Denies Allegations Made by Retiring Leader—Warm Passages Mark Meeting—Another Convention to Follow.

The Conservative opposition, in session yesterday in the Seaman's Institute, adjourned without selecting a party leader for the province. J. D. Palmer, who has been provincial leader, offered his resignation, which was accepted after Mr. Palmer had criticized certain elements of the party which he said had tried to put obstacles in the way. He referred particularly to an element in York County, which he claimed had worked "hand and glove" with a "certain yellow sheet" on Fredericton.

C. D. Richards will carry on as leader in the Local Legislature. He vigorously denied the accusations of Mr. Palmer.

A resolution was introduced and passed which left the selection of a "permanent leader" with a future convention. The question of leadership therefore drifts along until there is some indication of a general election.

Mr. Richards, after the convention adjourned, said that the meeting was a good one. "There were more than 200 present, and all parts of the province were represented. He adds that a committee would give the public any information.

The resolution adopted at the convention was given out as follows: "Whereas at a convention held in the city of Fredericton about one year ago, J. D. Palmer, of Fredericton, was elected as leader of the Provincial Opposition party; and

"Whereas Mr. Palmer has since that time given much effort and labor to the work of building up and organizing the Opposition party in the province; and

"Whereas Mr. Palmer has placed his resignation in the hands of this convention; therefore

"Resolved, that this convention records its appreciation of the good work and valuable services which Mr. Palmer has rendered the party during his leadership and regretfully accepts the same; and

"Be it further resolved that in the opinion of this convention it is highly desirable that the position of permanent leadership be left for future consideration; and

"Be it further resolved that this convention do place this matter in the hands of the provincial executive, as it now stands, with a view to their representing the respective districts and submitting the names of prospective candidates for the permanent leadership of a convention to be called at a later date."

The convention met at 8 o'clock. J. Bennett Hachez, of Bathurst, was called to the chair and G. Esze Logan was selected as secretary.

In opening the meeting, the chairman referred to the circumstances which had led up to the calling of the convention. He said that a convention of the party had been held last March in Fredericton when J. D. Palmer, of that city, was selected to lead the Conservative party in the province.

At that time it was thought that a provincial general election was not far distant, but things did not turn out as had been expected and a certain element of dissension had been created within the ranks of the Conservative party.

J. D. Palmer, the leader of the party, was the first speaker, and he recounted the events of political importance which had transpired in the province since his election to the position of provincial leader. At the time of the last convention it was believed that there would be an election during the year, but such had not happened and problems had arisen which they had not foreseen.

At the convention which had been held last March, he had received for the leadership the unanimous vote of the delegates and he had promised he would do all in his power in the interests of the party. With A. J. Brooks, the party organizer, he had visited all parts of the province and wherever they went, he said, they were well received by the rank and file of the party.

Mr. Palmer told of the organization work effected in the by-elections and said the party was loyally supported in all of the constituencies.

Although he was expending his efforts to the limit in the interests of the Conservative cause, there were certain elements which seemed to be arousing discord within the ranks and thereby frustrating his efforts.

REV. R. ARMSTRONG URGES ACTION IN HYDRO MATTERS

Delivers Excellent Address on the Duties of Citizenship Before Canadian Club Meeting—Prohibition is Touched Upon.

(Canadian Press)

Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong pleaded a high ideal for citizenship in the development of Canada in an eloquent and stirring address last evening before a meeting of the Canadian Club in Bond's restaurant. He spoke of the many ideals at present relating to the progress of Canada and of St. John particularly and impressed the value of co-operation in the great hydro-electric development, he spoke of as a thing that should be pushed. There was a lot of discussion about this matter, he said, but now that a vote had been taken and the procedure was settled, he thought it was a time for action and a time for every citizen to get behind the movement. The test of experience will show its worth," he said.

He then spoke on the matter of prohibition and stressed the difference in many countries in the ways the laws of the state were recognized. Japan and England were shining examples of high regard for the state, he said, while in China and the United States the viewpoint was different. In these countries he served the state if he could serve himself at the same time. It is harder to punish a rich man for a crime than the United States than in England where the laws were administered more fearlessly.

"Prohibition," he affirmed strongly, "is the law of the land, and I like to think that our attitude toward that law is the British attitude." (Applause.) True, there are difficulties and bootleggers thrive but think of the great gain that has been made. He recalled the fact that Rural Dean Sampson had gone to the police recently and had made the discovery that during the past year 108 days during which no prisoner appeared before the judge. (Applause.)

There was any amount of discussion of the prohibition law. He asked his hearers to think of the bootleggers and their victims. "Think of the good to the remaining 'dry' areas. It is the law and what a terrible thing it is to see this law flouted brazenly before the rising generation."

Civics, he believed, should be taught in the schools. He asked his hearers to think of the bootleggers and their victims. "Think of the good to the remaining 'dry' areas. It is the law and what a terrible thing it is to see this law flouted brazenly before the rising generation."

He expressed himself as being an advocate of vocational training. He recalled the story of the boy's reply to his mother's question, "What will you do when you grow up?" "I will study for the school," he replied. "I will study for the school," he replied.

Canon Armstrong said, his own mother would not know him afterward." Canon Armstrong said, his own mother would not know him afterward.

A good citizen should take a decent pride in his city. When he had come to St. John he had heard much about fog. People here talked about it continually. He recalled, however, that one St. John man who had visited San Francisco recently told him that all along down the coast from Vancouver and right into San Francisco harbor the fog was so thick that it could be cut with a knife. "Think before you tell your boy about fog out there," asked Canon Armstrong, amid laughter. "To believe them, one thinks only of golden sunshine and oranges. (Laughter.) A good citizen should be a booster—not a knocker."

He closed with a stirring appeal for the citizens of St. John to be worthy of their civic heritage. It was the city of the Loyalists and St. John citizens.

COUNCIL PASSES HYDRO BOND ISSUE

Tenders for Equipment and Heating Apparatus Accepted—Unanimous Vote Necessary, Says Solicitor.

(Canadian Press)

The city solicitor, Hon. J. B. Baxter, K. C., M. P., yesterday gave it his opinion that a unanimous vote of the Common Council was necessary to a bond issue for the construction of switching equipment in connection with the erection of a new sub-station. The Council thereupon voted again and made it unanimous in favor of the acceptance by the Civic Power Commission of the tender of the Canadian Westinghouse Company for $16,987. Approval of the acceptance of the tender from the Webb Electric Company for heating amounting to $79,253 also was granted.

Preceding this decision, Commissioner Thornton advised the council that he had approved the acceptance of the Civic Hydro Commission's tender for the purchase of the Westinghouse tender. He explained he had voted against reconsideration of the bid.

Commissioner Thornton, however, differed from Dr. Prink. He was quite clear in his own mind, he said, that the council should not vote against the final resolution, favoring acceptance. He had opposed it because of his objection to the bond issue.

Commissioner Bullock moved, and the council thereupon voted to accept the tender of the Webb Electric Company for heating amounting to $79,253 also was granted.

PARADE OF 1,300 DUBLIN POLICE

Establishment of Body of 4,000 is Celebrated.

(Canadian Press)

A body of 4,000 civic police was celebrated yesterday when 1,300 of the men marched through Dublin, with bands playing, while President Cosgrave and the Dail Cabinet and other Free State ministers took the salute on the steps of the Government building. The men are of fine physique and made a brave display. They were well received by the citizens along the line in route.

Upon their arrival at their depot in Phoenix Park they were addressed by Kevin O'Higgins, Minister of Home Affairs, who congratulated them on their discipline and the high standard which they had set.

"You are going out unarmed," he added, "because we look to a day in Ireland when the police will be a body of men who will assert, and when the law can be held without arms."

The Dublin correspondent of the Times comments on the mystery surrounding the operations in the Arigna Mountains. While it was announced some time ago that the whole area had been completely surrounded, it now seems that the irregulars' leader, Bofin, and his men have managed to squeeze through the lines of the Free State troops in the rear.

Dublin, Feb. 21.—The Republican Bulletin last night published a proclamation signed by De Valera, as "president," and Collier as "enforcer" of the boycott on certain sections of British goods, on the grounds that this unjust and grievous war of aggression is still pursued with increased bitterness by Great Britain through the aid of the Irish Government.

He instanced the case of a prominent St. John man who had attended a lecture at Oxford University. "The very first slide thrown on the screen—what was it? A picture of Dr. George F. Matthews of this city, who was proclaimed by the lecturer as the greatest living scientist of his time in his own line," said Canon Armstrong.

He paid a warm tribute to the immensely valuable services rendered to this community by Venere Archdeacon W. O. Raymond in preserving for posterity the story of the past and concluded by exhorting all to make themselves worthy of the heritage placed in their care.

ROTARIANS IN A WORLD CAMPAIGN

President Harding Contributes Message Upon the Responsibility of the Individual Citizen.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—With presidents, prime ministers, chief justices and heads of national legislative bodies throughout the world contributing brief statements of their ideas of the responsibilities of the individual citizen for the kind of government he gets, ninety thousand members of Rotary International began a world wide campaign last week for thorough understanding of these responsibilities as part of the celebration of the eighteenth anniversary of the founding of the first Rotary Club.

President Harding, Speaker Gillett of the House of Representatives and Attorney General Daugherty are the authors of the texts of the citizenship messages. President Harding's text is his statement of the responsibilities of the individual citizen for the execution of the laws and declares no citizen can consider himself a good citizen who does not do all in his power to make careful selection from among the candidates for office and then vote for the person he has deliberately selected, which, the President remarks, represents several millions of the citizens of the United States regularly do to by failing to vote at all.

Speaker Gillett also pleads for careful selection of the candidates for legislative office and states that the quick and demagogic belong in the same category, in that they arouse sympathy by telling the victim of his real troubles and then offer their own remedy as the only panacea for the trouble.

Attorney General Daugherty declares that constitutional government is not possible unless the individual citizen first acquaints himself with and obeys the law himself.

The three basic statements of the principles of citizenship being used in the United States are duplicated in similar messages from the heads of the main branches of government in most of the twenty-two countries in which Rotary Clubs have been organized.

The educational work the Rotarians are doing has nothing to do with partisan politics nor are the statements from the three distinguished government officials partisan. They are devoted entirely to the broad principles of the responsibilities of citizenship.

The text messages are being used in addresses to schools, industrial plants, organizations, etc., wherever the Rotarians think they can find a good audience. They are being broadcast from thousands of radio stations and will form the subject of talks at every Rotary meeting during the year.

The first Rotary Club was organized in Chicago, February 23, 1908. There are now 1222 Rotary Clubs, with a membership of approximately 90,000 in twenty-seven countries. The clubs are organized for the purpose of practicing and spreading the principles of service through the adoption of codes of ethical practices in all lines of business and professions, through work among boys to prepare them for citizenship and through utilizing the service idea in aiding and abetting all worthy causes for the general good of the communities in which the clubs are established.

OUTLOOK IN BRITISH TRADE THIS YEAR GOOD, SAYS EXPERT

VERY IRREGULAR AT THE OPENING

Continuation of Profit Taking in Some Quarters—Fresh Buying in Some Stocks.

New York, Feb. 21.—Continuation of profit taking sales in some quarters, coincident with fresh buying operations in the copper, steel and low priced oils, resulted in marked irregularity at the opening of today's stock market. Louisville and Nashville was pushed up 1 1/2 points and American Woolen 1 1/2, while gains of a point each were scored by United Metall and Houston Oil. Studebaker was reactionary at the start.

PROFITS OF FRASER COMPANIES IN 1922

Montreal, Feb. 21.—The annual report of the Fraser Paper Companies of Edmonton, N. B., shows a net profit of $2,000,000 for 1922, as compared with $1,000,000 for 1921. With deductions for bond interest, depreciation, and other charges, a balance of $2,750,000 at credit of surplus is shown.

The president of the company, Archibald Fraser, in his report to shareholders, says in part:

"The past year has been one of the most satisfactory in the history of the company. It has been marked by the year's most successful market conditions prevailing, but for the last three months it has steadily improved. The lumber and bleached and easy bleaching sulphite pulp was experienced throughout the year, resulting in reduction of inventories of company and cancelled $200,000 par value of its first mortgage six per cent bonds, $1,750,000 in value. Since the date of your last balance sheet, market values have been reduced by more than $1,000,000."

"The improvement in market conditions during the last year, the most favorable since the first of this year, if it had not been for the depression throughout 1922, it is felt that this year's operation should be satisfactory."

It is interesting to note that during the last four years, Fraser companies have written off of profits $1,500,000 for depreciation of mills and properties, and $750,000 for depletion of timber limits, indicating the conservative manner in which the company's business is conducted.

Directors of the company remain as follows: Archibald Fraser, president; Donald Fraser, vice-president; A. W. Brebner, treasurer; W. Matheson, secretary; Thomas Matheson, Edmundson, N. B., and W. C. Pitfield, of Montreal, directors.

LOOK IN BRITISH TRADE THIS YEAR GOOD, SAYS EXPERT

VERY IRREGULAR AT THE OPENING

Continuation of Profit Taking in Some Quarters—Fresh Buying in Some Stocks.

London, Jan. 24.—(By Mail)—An encouraging forecast for improved British trade in 1923 is made by Felix J. Blakemore, president of the National Chamber of Commerce.

"I am convinced that our industrial conditions will improve," Mr. Blakemore writes, "and while paying due regard to the importance of our pre-war European markets and their present stagnant condition, the prospects of a greatly increased trade with our overseas dominions, crown colonies and dependencies are distinctly reassuring. It will be remembered that early this year our overseas dominions floated large loans for purposes of development. These were mostly over-subscribed, and now that the schemes are maturing, large orders for plant and machinery are being placed in Great Britain which will gradually expand as the work proceeds."

The foreign markets of the world—other than the United States—are increasingly active in their inquiries for British goods, due, in the main, to the failure of Germany to execute orders, and also somewhat to the raising of the United States tariff wall by the passing of the Fordney tariff bill. If only we can reduce our costs of production we will be able to convert those inquiries into orders."

Mr. Blakemore predicts that cost of production will be reduced by a fall of 5 points in the living price about 1923, and that further considerable reduction will be effected in 1924. This is based on the appreciation of the value of the pound sterling in America, which will enable American producers to be reduced in price to the consumer, and America is so important a factor in the supply of food goods to this country, that American prices of food rapidly became world prices.

"The increased food supplies, together with appreciation of sterling values, will undoubtedly bring cheaper goods to the consumer, and if, by reducing the cost of living, it does not immediately reduce production cost of manufactured goods, it will at once increase the purchasing power of the British public and so stimulate the home demand for the goods we make."

COURSE IN HOME-MAKING IS URGED FOR SCHOOLS.

When the bride and groom, who are the home-making world, have acquired the master mind which is necessary to unite their past education with the demands of the simple home life, the nation will need no other plan of Americanization, Mrs. T. Verette Morse, founder of the Homemakers' Guild, told the Chicago Women's Club, says an Associated Press dispatch from Chicago.

"Every specialized profession is taken care of except that of the home as a whole," Mrs. Morse said. "It is no wonder these brides and grooms eventually have brain fog and nervous prostration. How can they be expected to unite and put into practice in the home, the education which has fitted them only for a business life."

"What these men and women need is a thorough training in the principals of professional home-making, art and science of the arts and sciences that are needed therein. There are more would-be home-makers than anything else."

"When the schools have learned that home-making is based on the very first principles of physiology, art and science, they doubtless will unite the home and activities into professional courses. When that time comes the human family will not be permitted to go to waste. Reformers and juvenile courts will be out of a job, for humanity will then have an opportunity to give of its best to the world."

"The technical training of the public schools and universities in domestic science, physics, psychology, physiology, art, science, music and other kindred subjects which help mankind to live, is well nigh perfect but it is directed almost wholly toward the business world. Every specialized profession is taken care of except that of the home as a whole."

MORNING STOCK LETTER.

(McDougall & Cowans, Private Wire)

New York, Feb. 21.—The industrial average broke through the October high level yesterday. This would indicate that trends of prices is still upward, that we are still in a bull market. This does not mean that prices are going higher immediately nor does it mean that we are not going to have a technical reaction. Since we have had such a large advance in the industrials and since offerings of stock have undoubtedly increased in the past few days it still seems wise to sell most of the industrials on strong spots, planning to get them back cheaper for still higher prices later in the spring.

Since a serious reaction does not appear likely in the near future, we would not sell stocks on weak spots.

The Ruhr situation is likely to return as a market factor in the next month or so, this time probably as a bullish factor. It certainly looks now as though some steps would be taken towards compromise before the first of April. With the coal which France is receiving from the Ruhr cutting her, according to reports, 84,500 a ton, and with chances of the cost increasing, it hardly seems reasonable to suppose that France can continue her present methods for long.

Confesses How He Got $16,000 in Defrauding Banks

New York, Feb. 20.—Lassarus Shenfield, attorney at 120 Broadway, living at 1197 Grand Concourse, the Bronx, pleaded guilty last week before Judge Cornelius F. Collins in General Sessions to the six counts in an indictment for forgery which was returned against him last week. At the same time he made a complete confession. The plea means automatic disbarment. He will be sentenced February 28.

Shenfield's scheme was to forge letters of administration from persons supposed to be dead and to present them to banks for collection. By his confession he obtained about $16,000 in this way. The extent of his fraudulent practices, however, might have been much more than that if circumstances had not hindered him carrying certain frauds to conclusion.

Gorman Regains Hold On 440-Yard Skating Record

Goes Distance in 37 1-5 at Moncton Meet

Joe Moore Wins Jubilee Series With 145 Points; Gorman Second, with 60—Jewitrow Sets New Mark for 150 Yards.

Two world's amateur skating records were discarded yesterday and new ones made in their places at the Jubilee meet in Moncton, when Charles Gorman of St. John skated the 440 yards in 37 1-5 seconds, and Charles Jewitrow of Lake Placid, 150-yard distance in 10 4-5. The former acknowledged record for the 440 was made by Gorman in 1921 and was 37 8-5 seconds. This was beaten by Joe Moore this season in 37 2-5. In the 150-yard event the former record of 10 1-5 was held by Gee of New York and was made in 1886.

Joe Moore won the meet and the Jubilee trophy with a point score of 145, easily leading Gorman, who was second with 60, and Roy McWhitner of Chicago, who had 55. Moore and McWhitner tied for first place in the three-quarter mile race.

The crowd of spectators numbered between 1200 and 1400. The ice was perfect, and the weather mild and ideal for skating.

In the senior 440 Joe Moore came second to Gorman, while Julian Steinmetz, of Chicago, was third, the time being 37 1-5 seconds, breaking the world's record.

In the three-quarter-mile Moore and McWhitner tied and divided first and second place points, Valentine Bliall taking third. The time was 206 3-5. Joe Moore captured the three-mile event in 9:07 8-5 with H. Perleberg, of Cleveland, second, and McWhitner third.

The Juniors.

Among the juniors J. Sheffield, Lake Placid, won the quarter-mile for boys of sixteen and also the half-mile in the sixteen-year-old class. A. Belyea, of St. John, was second in the quarter-mile and C. McKeanie and A. Belyea, of St. John, were second in the half-mile. J. Shea, of Lake Placid, won the quarter-mile for boys of fourteen with C. H. Smyth, Moncton, second, and George Fowler, St. John, third.

In the fourteen-year-old class C. Parody, of Lake Placid, took first, C. H. Smyth, Moncton, second, and Anthony Dean, of St. John, third.

E. Shea, Lake Placid, captured the ten-year-old boys' event. William Lee, of St. John, was second and Henry Conneau, Moncton, third.

J. Shea won the twelve-year-old boys' event with E. Shea second and C. H. Smyth, Moncton, third.

Only two competitors appeared in the 440 race for ladies. In the ladies' half-mile Rose Johnson won the course alone in 1:48 4-5.

During the afternoon Jewitrow skated an exhibition sixth of a mile in 25 4-5 seconds.

NIPPON VISCOUNT DEPICTED AS RICHEST IN JAPAN

Tokio, Jan. 20.—(By Mail)—Viscount Shibusawa has contributed 1,000 yen to a German charity body in Berlin for the relief of the poor, through the German Ambassador. The viscount had been receiving letters from unknown Germans applying for help, and during the last month these numbered more than a hundred. Investigations brought the fact to light that the picture of the viscount was published in a German paper as the richest Japanese banker and financial magnate. The poor Germans accordingly did not miss the opportunity of obtaining help from the viscount.

ST. JOHN TO SEE
NONE OF COLLEGE
PLAY-OFF GAMES

Only Traveling Expenses Offered by Local Rink Management—Tentative Series Between U. N. B., Mt. A. and Acadia Arranged. (By Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. S., Feb. 21.—Word was received here early last night by Captain Patsy Jewett of the U. N. B. hockey team that U. N. B. claims that there must be a play-off in the western section of the Maritime Intercollegiate Hockey League in view of the summer trophy competition had been upheld at the intercollegiate conference at Truro last night. Information received here was that Rubeo Hawkins, president of the Students Council at U. N. B., who was the delegate at Truro, had told the conference that U. N. B. would claim the sectional championship and the right to meet King's College for the Summer trophy. The play-off for the maritime intercollegiate championship has yet to be arranged. A tentative schedule was then arranged as follows: U. N. B. vs. Mt. Allison at Moncton on Friday, Feb. 23. Winners vs. Acadia at Amherst on Saturday, Feb. 24. Winners vs. King's College at Amherst on Tuesday, Feb. 27. The play-off for the maritime intercollegiate championship has yet to be arranged. Neil Wilkie and Joe Crockett, both of Halifax, were agreed upon as referees. St. John was eliminated from consideration as location for the play-off because the management of the rink there offered only traveling expenses and board for the squads competing, while in St. John, instead of a specified guarantee or percentage of the gross gate receipts. "Bricky" Dunn, of Dalhousie University, was ruled ineligible, in accordance with the protest of St. F. X. University, and Emil Fuchs, both of New York. The first act of the new owners was to organize the rink interest was not made the president of the club. The price involved in the transfer of the rink interest was not made known, but Mr. Grant said he "got his price to the last penny." This was confirmed by the new owners.

CONCERNING F. JAMES CARROLL

Mr. F. James Carroll is a protégé of the well known late H. R. Jacobs. His life has been wholly devoted to management and production. He was for a long term of years the successful manager of Poli Stocks at Scanton, Wilkesbarre, Haverhill, Lawrence, Lowell (the million dollar Strand Theatre) and other cities of prominence. During the war he entertained officers, privates and civilians at the Poli Theatre, Washington, D. C., the leading theatre of the city. For three seasons he successfully managed the 26th Street New York playhouse, the Warburton (Yonkers). The past season he managed the Poli at Bangor, Maine, for a protracted run, and a little later at that "playground of America," Asbury Park, he produced a series of plays for ten weeks at the Poli Theatre, Atlantic City, N. J., which was a notable coup for players at the Majestic, Madison Square and other theatres. He is the "greatest business of stock in fourteen years"—the record breaker of his Majesty's Theatre, which he managed for a year. His company of artists is especially engaged exclusively for St. John audiences. Manager Carroll holds the record for the number of appearances in print later from Klubs, Rotary Clubs, Chamber of Commerce, and other organizations of Trade and Civic Clubs of the various cities of his sojourns.

CONCERNING MISS LILLIAN FOSTER

In the little leading woman of the F. James Carroll Players, Miss Lillian Foster, the people of St. John will find an artist whose work, as well as herself, will immediately admire. Miss Foster is an unusual actress; that is to say, far beyond the ordinary. Small in stature, pretty of face, lithe and graceful, tones in voice that instantly compel either tears or laughter, equally capable by her mere pose or movement of bringing from you just the response she wishes, or that which the character she is playing compels. Miss Foster's methods are wholly her own. In the life of part in which she will appear she will be seen in stellar roles which are particularly adapted to her versatile talents. Miss Foster has been a feature of Mr. Carroll's companies for a period of three years, having only recently been released by him to Vaughn Glaser, Toronto Stock, to be especially engaged for the St. John cast. She has repeatedly appeared in "Polly" in "Ming Toy" and in the various characters she will be seen in here, and everywhere has been valued for the rare intelligence and personality which she has injected into her every portrayal. See her on the opening night! You will find yourself attracted to the theatre every week thereafter.

James Carroll Players, Miss Lillian Foster, the people of St. John will find an artist whose work, as well as herself, will immediately admire. Miss Foster is an unusual actress; that is to say, far beyond the ordinary. Small in stature, pretty of face, lithe and graceful, tones in voice that instantly compel either tears or laughter, equally capable by her mere pose or movement of bringing from you just the response she wishes, or that which the character she is playing compels. Miss Foster's methods are wholly her own. In the life of part in which she will appear she will be seen in stellar roles which are particularly adapted to her versatile talents. Miss Foster has been a feature of Mr. Carroll's companies for a period of three years, having only recently been released by him to Vaughn Glaser, Toronto Stock, to be especially engaged for the St. John cast. She has repeatedly appeared in "Polly" in "Ming Toy" and in the various characters she will be seen in here, and everywhere has been valued for the rare intelligence and personality which she has injected into her every portrayal. See her on the opening night! You will find yourself attracted to the theatre every week thereafter.

CONCERNING F. JAMES CARROLL. Mr. F. James Carroll is a protégé of the well known late H. R. Jacobs. His life has been wholly devoted to management and production. He was for a long term of years the successful manager of Poli Stocks at Scanton, Wilkesbarre, Haverhill, Lawrence, Lowell (the million dollar Strand Theatre) and other cities of prominence. During the war he entertained officers, privates and civilians at the Poli Theatre, Washington, D. C., the leading theatre of the city. For three seasons he successfully managed the 26th Street New York playhouse, the Warburton (Yonkers). The past season he managed the Poli at Bangor, Maine, for a protracted run, and a little later at that "playground of America," Asbury Park, he produced a series of plays for ten weeks at the Poli Theatre, Atlantic City, N. J., which was a notable coup for players at the Majestic, Madison Square and other theatres. He is the "greatest business of stock in fourteen years"—the record breaker of his Majesty's Theatre, which he managed for a year. His company of artists is especially engaged exclusively for St. John audiences. Manager Carroll holds the record for the number of appearances in print later from Klubs, Rotary Clubs, Chamber of Commerce, and other organizations of Trade and Civic Clubs of the various cities of his sojourns.

Annual Report of Miss Lillian Hazen a Strong Plea for the Suffering and in Interest of Public Health
—Some Cases Retold to.

The report of Miss Lillian Hazen, secretary of the Animal Rescue League, telling of the work of the society for the last year, which was prepared for the annual meeting of the S. P. C. A. is as follows—

It seems only right to begin this year's report of humane work with a mention of Richard Martin, the "Humanity Dick" as he was called in derision, the kindly Irishman of generous impulses who introduced into the English Parliament the first bill for the prevention of cruelty to animals. April 1822 was the date of the passage of this act. Jeered and scoffed at in the House of Commons, misunderstood for his charity to the poor dumb beasts, no mockery, no failure, could move him from his purpose, and in 1824 "Martin's Act" became law of the land. Until that time there had been no protection for animals by statute in any country in the world and the world was said to be—"not only novel, but grotesque and destructive of the rights of man." Now, Martin's name is honored by humanitarians the world over. How strange it seems to read a contemptuous allusion to his tenderness for animals by Charles Dickens, the warm-hearted.

Big Work in Boston.

It has been a pleasure to me during the last few months to see something of the activities of the great humane societies of Boston. The efforts of the Massachusetts S. P. C. A. and the American Humane Society to ameliorate the sufferings of the animal world are truly wonderful. The headquarters of both associations are at the Angel Memorial Animal Hospital, an enormous and splendid place for an enormous and splendid work. Operating rooms and tables, baths, and every appliance for the help and comfort of sick and injured creatures, are of the most modern. Two motor ambulances for horses, as well as ambulances for smaller animals, run continually; veterinarians and the assistants are always on hand, many, many thousands of patients being treated yearly at the hospital and free dispensaries. One thousand a week, I think, a beautiful estate of 400 acres, the great gift of a lifelong friend and supporter of the S. P. C. A., as a home of rest for horses.

On Christmas Eve a horse's Christmas tree is given in Post Office Square, Boston. At the base of the monument to the great George Angell the tall tree stands, and below it are suspended barrels of sliced apples, carrots, oats and corn in enormous quantities, free all day long to every horse that comes. The drivers being regaled with hot coffee and doughnuts. Many spectators watch the scene with kindly interest and pleasure, and often love to help. Last, but far from least of the three great humane associations is the famous Animal Rescue League of which our own society is an offshoot. Its work in Boston is stupendous, and with the new quarters in course of construction, to make room for which three houses have been torn down. It is thought the association possess the best and most convenient premises for this work in all the world. Eight receiving stations have been established in Boston and its environs, and every week day four motor vans, and eight agents, go far and wide collecting animals. The enormous number of 56,000 was taken in during the last season. For twenty-one years a free clinic has been maintained, where suffering creatures may be brought for advice. The league also supports a farm of twenty-one acres at Dedham where poor men's horses are given a holiday of from two to six weeks, and if not restored to health, are humanely destroyed. The pleasure of visiting this charity and of seeing many thin, worn-out beasts actually gambolling in the fields of a horse's paradise, or resting in comfortable barns. All this and other work means enormous expenses. A very beautiful fair, held annually, in one of the large hotels brought in this year the sum of $8,000, but more, much more, is required, and will no doubt be forthcoming.

In St. John.
After all this wide and splendid work one comes back to poor old St. John, one day of very small things. Not that the work itself is small, for our very efficient cartaker has done splendidly during the last year, but our premises are small, the public interest and information are small—even our city fathers, with rare exception, know nothing whatever of the sanitary humane and decent work which is done, and decline to help it in the least—and, our funds are small.

With regard to the charge that there is "overlapping" in the work of the two humane societies, I beg to repeat once more that the Animal Rescue League was formed ten years ago because the condition of the smaller domestic animals was not only a misery to see, but a menace to the health of the community, especially to the children, whose instinct is to pick up sick, maimed and helpless creatures.
The present association of the S. P. C. A. with its wider work of inquiry into cases of cruelty to human beings, to horses and the other farm animals of the province had, and has, little time or opportunity for disposing of these pitiful strays, and little was done, or seemingly could be, until a handful of busy women, members of the Women's Auxiliary, stepped into the breach, and organized a special League of Mercy.
We have now a record of over 6,900 animals received, the great majority having been put to sleep, an astonishing list. When one considers the natural rate of increase of these poor creatures, it is easy to realize the enormous additional number which would exist at the present time, many to die of disease and starvation in yards and alleys, were it not for the persistent work of the league. Scores of diseased creatures have been taken from shops and other places where food was exposed for sale. Can more sanitary work be done? It

LOCAL NEWS

"NOT LIQUOR, BUT DOPE"

Three drunkenness charges were dealt with by Magistrate Ritchie this morning. In answer to a question from the court as to where he got his liquor, one man replied: "It was not liquor, Your Honor; it was dope." The three were sent into jail, being told they were liable to a fine of $200.

BURIED TODAY.

The funeral of Mrs. Bridget Downing was held this morning from her late residence, 54 Victoria street, to St. Peter's church, where high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. James Wood, C. S. S. R. Interment was in the new Catholic cemetery. Relatives were pall-bearers and large number of spiritual and floral offerings were received.

CITY HALL CONFERENCE.

The city solicitor, Hon. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., P., was in conference with Mayor Fisher this morning for some time over matters connected with the legal interests of the city.

LAST POST FUND.

The Mayor had a call this morning from Arthur H. D. Hair, organizing secretary of the Dominion Executive of the Last Post Fund, Ltd. His message said afterwards that there was nothing for publication in this connection.

AT ST. PHILLIPS.

A large audience enjoyed a musical programme rendered by local colored men in St. Philip's church last evening. Several choruses were received in an enthusiastic manner. Vocal solos were given by Mrs. Thomas Jordan, Miss Isabella Naines and Mrs. Annie Graham; readings by Mrs. Thomas Jordan and Professor McCullum. The latter also played a delightful organ solo. Several excellent numbers were sung by the Stewart melody choir. Rev. C. A. Stewart, elder of the A. M. E. of the Maritime Conference, presided.

ARCHBISHOP CASEY.

Frederick A. Casey, Rector of St. Timothy Casey, Archbishop of Vancouver, is celebrating his 61st birthday in St. Philip's church last evening. Several choruses were received in an enthusiastic manner. Vocal solos were given by Mrs. Thomas Jordan, Miss Isabella Naines and Mrs. Annie Graham; readings by Mrs. Thomas Jordan and Professor McCullum. The latter also played a delightful organ solo. Several excellent numbers were sung by the Stewart melody choir. Rev. C. A. Stewart, elder of the A. M. E. of the Maritime Conference, presided.

is almost laughable in these days to hear it called a "fad." And, in this connection, I may say that about two years ago I received a kind letter from the Hon. W. F. Robson, Minister of Health, speaking in terms of appreciation of this work and its importance. It is other people's business to express our gratitude. Some instances.

During the last year more than 400 animals have been received, seven during one month. Sometimes they were the victims of cruelty. The law of a dog for a dog, for example, had been nearly cut off with a knife. Pitiful creatures with legs and feet were brought in during the present severe weather. One of our most faithful members arrived one day, carrying a dog wrapped in a cloth, which had been thrown into some city mixture and was dying. Hobbling behind was a dog with a broken leg, almost blind with distemper. Fortunately, a place of merciful release stands ready to receive any creature like these. Animals suffer terribly in such an Arctic winter. A fine, handsome dog was made the pupil of a telegraph pole. Finally, after twenty-four hours of bitter cold, a policeman caught up and—out, I think, with intentional cruelty—threw it down. The poor, half-frozen creature was killed by the fall.

Once more I must say, as it never seems understood, that we do not keep a hospital and endeavor to prolong the lives of suffering animals. Far from it, our object being to lessen their numbers and their misery. It is something to have saved an enormous number of helpless creatures from unnecessary suffering, to have been instrumental in clearing away to an important extent a disease-breeding element from the community. New and less restricted premises with more convenience for carrying on the work are greatly required at the present time, but, small as our equipment and our means still are, we feel with pride we are doing our best.

We are glad to know of Mr. Wetmore's generous offer, a second year, of prizes to the pupils of the Albert School for the best essay on Kindness to Animals. This must result in good. We wish to express our gratitude to thoughtful friends who have sent generous donations during the year, especially Mrs. James McAvity, Miss Steaton and the members of the Kennel Club. This aid in carrying on our work for the lowly, helpless creature which have no speech we do appreciate.

Kindness is a language the deaf can hear, and the dumb can understand."
LILLIAN HAZEN,
Secretary.

A child stood waiting before the gate. Poorly clad, and of humble mien; Worse than orphaned, a waif of fate, She asked from hands unseen. The lady paused in the busy whirl Of the life of ease, from the book she read; "I cannot care for the little girl; She is not mine," she said.
A homeless puppy lay in the street, Tired and famished, and asked to live; A starving kitten was dropped at her feet. Because she had health to give. "I have no room for the speechless thing. No time to see if they're warm and fed; My life is crowded with joy and song; They are not mine," she said.
Death came; the lady was called away From her beautiful home and jewels rare; Thousands of voices bade her stay; "Too lovely she is, too fair." She stood where we all will stand at last. When the record of life is closely read; The angel paused as he scanned her past; "She is not mine," he said.

MONCTON TO

"GET MORE HYDRO"

C. N. R. Use to Add to Load
—Sussex This Week and
Hampton and Fair Vale
Soon.

A load of some 1,200 kilowatts is being taken at present by Moncton from the Musquash hydro development and about 1,000 kilowatts more will be added some time next week when the shops of the Canadian National Railways are connected up, as Gordon Krieb, consulting engineer of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, told a Times reporter this morning.

The present outlook, he said, was that Moncton would use more than the minimum of 4,000,000 kilowatt hours during the present year and an increase in the consumption of more than fifty per cent. was anticipated by the end of 1923. For the last ten days Moncton has been lighted and its street car service and electric power plants have been operated by hydro, which is said to be giving complete satisfaction. Moncton's contract with the power commission calls for from five to seven million kilowatt hours.

By the end of this week it is expected that the town of Sussex will be connected with the main transmission line and will be using hydro. Hampton is waiting only for the arrival of three secondary transformers when the system in that vicinity will be in operation, and the Fair Vale district will receive the current in a week or ten days.

Word was received in the city today that W. A. Christie, who has been superintendent of construction for the Canadian General Electric Co. in New Brunswick, had been appointed district engineer of the Montreal office and will leave to take up his new duties in a few days. His position here will be taken by Mr. Adams, who is expected to arrive before Mr. Christie's departure.

JURORS NAMED, VIEW SCENE OF DEATH OF BOY

A coroner's jury was appointed today to hold an inquest on the death of Samuel Miller, an eight-year-old boy, who was killed yesterday afternoon by a transfer train at the Acadia station. The jurors viewed the body this morning, and inspected the scene of the accident. The inquest will be held in the court room in Germain street on Friday evening at eight o'clock.
The jury consists of: A. T. Westhead, foreman; William Crabb, George H. McLaughlin, R. Wilmut, Seelye, Benjamin A. Dennison, William Wheaton and Walter J. Lawson. They viewed the body at Brunan's undertaking rooms at eleven o'clock, and then went to the scene of the accident. There were traces of blood found on the track, as well as pieces of bone from the unfortunate lad's foot, where the engine wheels had passed over it.

The survey this morning led to the impression with some of the jurors that the young fellow had caught his foot or some part of him as the train passed over him and had been dragged under it for more than twenty feet until a switch was reached, where the crossing tracks had forced him into the frog. It was thought that he was caught there and rolled off the sled, his left foot going under the wheels and being practically crushed off. His sled was found practically undamaged under the front part of the train.

ICE TROUBLE.
Laurentian arrived this morning from Black's Harbor, where she had been attempting to break a passage through the heavy ice blocking the harbor. She was forced to give up the attempt for the present, when about a quarter of a mile away from the wharf. The ice was said to be about ten inches thick. The captain reported a great deal of difficulty in landing supplies along the coast but said that some had been put ashore.
