

ALMOST RECORD
CATCH IN 1906

Canada's Fishing Last Year Amount ed To $26,250,000

catch of fish, however, is not the only reason why the fishery is valued by Canadians. Including fish products in meals, often during the season of 1900 is valued at over $232,000.00 which, with the exception of 1936 was the highest value recorded. Nova Scotia is the largest catch area, followed by Prince Edward Island, and then British Columbia. The principal fishery products are salmon, halibut, herring, mackerel, white fish, trout, haddock, pickled fish, and other fish products. The order of production is as follows: Salmon, Oat, Lobster, Herring, Mackerel, white fish, trout, haddock, pickled fish, halibut, rattfish, pollock, smelt, clams, like pick, eel, surströmming, and other fish products. The weather is stormy and the fish are often taken from the Atlantic coast.

There'll be a hot time in your house to-morrow.

Not a green Christmas after all, but it may be rather a blue one for some.

Remember boys and girls, Santa Claus comes down the chimney.
A merry Christmas.

Who wants to run for member of Parliament, anyhow, while hockey salaries continue at the present quotations?

When that Chinese dog with the two-year ancestry reaches London, it will make the old families like nouveau riches.

The Chinese are said to prefer the places on the rivers to the custom offices. There is no accounting for tastes and preferences.

A Toronto family, who kept a servant girl for two years, considers it of enough importance for newspaper mention. And we agree.

REBUKE FROM WITHIN.

We have already pointed out in these columns the evident disgust with which certain more responsible of the recognized journals of the Conservative party have received the attacks upon our financial system made in Parliament by some members of the Opposition. Fair criticism of this Government is a privilege to which any Opposition is entitled, but when representative Conservatives, like Mr. Cockshutt and Dr. Sproule, deliberately set out to injure the country's reputation for the sake of making political capital is small wonder that men of affairs should protest, and protest with vigor.

Such a protest is made by the Insurance and Finance Chronicle of Montreal, which is owned and edited by that sturdy Conservative, Mr. R. Wilson Smith, who has himself been a candidate of the party for the House of Commons. It takes for its text a report of a speech by Dr. Sproule, M.P., in which that gentleman is declared to have said:

"Our financial system is a dismal failure, our banks are responsible for the present stringency in the money market, and the mismanagement of our fiscal affairs is a burning shame."

The Chronicle does not, it admits, regard "the opinions of Dr. Sproule on financial questions as being of any great importance," but still believes it to be its duty to condemn the use of such words as "affording infinite possibilities for mischief."

His Excellency's loyal Opposition has some competent financial cities, like Mr. Osler and Mr. Foster, to whom such questions could surely be left, with the reasonable certainty that they would speak upon them with intelligence and with a sense of responsibility for the possible consequences of their words. That the financial policy of the Government, and the banking system of the country should be fairly discussed by the representatives of the people is obviously desirable, but the subject is not one that every member of Parliament is capable of discussing intelligently; and there are times when discretion in talking about such questions is particularly desirable.

able. We are quite sure that neither Mr. Borden nor any of his lieutenants would desire to bring about in Canada the state of affairs from which the United States has suffered, and for which the indiscreet talk of President Roosevelt is largely blamed.

That is the proper spirit in which to discuss the financial situation. Politics has its part to play in the national life, but there is no occasion to drag politics into the discussion of all the ills of the country. The Canadian banking system has weathered the storm of the past few months with credit to itself and to the men at the head of its administration and to declare that "the financial system of Canada is a dismal failure" is to play the role of demagogue, without even the justification which the demagogue orator usually has.

It is to be hoped that the Conservatives will take to heart this frank criticism from within their own ranks and will stop the demagogic attacks upon the whole country's interests for the sake of mere party advantage.

Many a man is wearing a shabby necktie in the vague hope that Santa Claus is going to do something for him.

THE ONE THING NEEDFUL.

Speaking to the Hamilton Conservative Association, Mr. Foster said that because a party was not in power it was not to be thought that it had not worked to do. It is quite true, observes the Toronto Globe. A party in Opposition has a great deal to do. Its leader has to recommend himself to the country by his policy, his capacity, and his forthrightness. Opposition is subject to fewer temptations than Governments. It is easy for both leaders and followers to keep themselves unopposed from the world. To the degree that they resist the temptations which lie in their path, so will the public confidence in them rise. What is the record of the Federal Opposition in this respect? The leader is a gentleman of good ability and instincts, but some one has unfortunately persuaded him that it is possible for a leader to have a policy for each province, no matter how antagonistic they may be to one another. In his late tour he had to adopt his speech to his locality. The man who was opposing the Government's western school policy three years ago had not one word to say with regard to that policy when he was face to face with the people whose interests he was supposed to be serving. Not one word to justify his action of three years ago. Wherever he went there were those significant silences and equally significant espousals of local grievances to which no reference dare be made in his addresses in other provinces. In the language which the leader has betrayed in his lack of courage in dealing with the tainted members of his own flock. Would not Mr. Borden have stood higher had he boldly and publicly dissociated himself from Foster's policy and Company in that whole series of transactions which are written large on the pages of the Insurance Chronicle? He had reported to his constituents that he was doing so, because of their dragging his name, quite unwarrantably, we believe, into their correspondence—correspondence couched in the language which is appropriate for misrepresentation between cradlemen. It is not difficult to believe that Messrs. Foster and Fowler are antipathetic to Mr. Borden. It is to be hoped, for the sake of his reputation, that they are, but he lost his chance when he failed to make it quite plain that he did not approve of the transactions to which they have been guilty. If he lacks courage in the dry and bracing air of Opposition how could he be relied upon to exercise the high and robust qualities that are needed in the piping times of prosperity? The supporters of Centre York pondered over this.

AN IMMIGRATION POLICY.

The Opposition plan of facing both ways was exemplified in the debate at Ottawa on the Government's immigration policy. For several years there has been a torrent of complaint because the Government was not making sufficient expenditures on the immigration of artisans and laborers. The lists of men wanted supplied by the leading manufacturers of the Dominion were paraded by the Conservative press and by Opposition campaign workers as if they were a condemnation of the policy of the Ministry. While the government refused to grant aid except for the bringing of farm laborers, railway laborers and domestic servants, wisely deciding to leave the supply of skilled labor to individual initiative, there was the strongest condemnation of what was called the inactivity and neglect of the department. Down to a few weeks ago this cry for skilled labor in the manufacturing establishments went up, and the Government was condemned as the enemy of the industries in not spending public money to provide a supply. Now that the wisdom of the Government's policy has been demonstrated by experience, there is an equally emphatic condemnation for imaginary liberality in promoting immigration. The Government is condemned, in the one breath, with having done not enough and too much in promoting immigration. And now that there is an apparent surplus of labor, skilled and unskilled, there is an organized attempt to hold the Government responsible for the activity of steamship companies, railway companies, organizations of employers and charitable workers. Such changes of front are now too common on the part of the Opposition to occasion serious comment, but this has been rendered specially ludicrous by the fact that the attacking force, as in the nursery rhyme, was led both up the hill and down again by the same general. Mr. W. P. Cockshutt, M.P., of Brantford, in the opening days of the session, presented a notice of motion declaring that both the physically and morally it should be allowed to enter the Dominion, and that public aid to immigration should be withdrawn, except in the case of domestic servants and farm laborers. And the same gentleman two years ago had written to the Minister of the Interior enclosing and endorsing a proposal to relieve the congestion of British cities and supply workmen for local industries by aiding the immigration of skilled mechanics and factory hands. When the Opposition grows more deft in the policy of attacking on both sides they will choose different spokesmen and not have their forces led both ways at once by the same general. The Opposition, as Hon. Mr. Oliver pointed out, have come over to the policy of the Government, for the order has already been issued to officials and booking agents to confine their operations to domestic servants and farm laborers. The policy of withholding aid from immigration in less immediate demand is so well carried out that out of 5,167 applications only 3,347 were allowed. That the Government was continually denounced for not having made a panicky response to the demands of the leading employers, and, on the other hand, for having too freely encouraged immigration, is proof that the policy has been judicious and carefully weighed.

CUT THIS OUT AND SAVE IT.

There is so much Rheumatism here in our neighborhood now that the following advice by an eminent authority, who writes for readers of a large Eastern daily paper, will be highly appreciated by those who suffer.

Get from any good pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces of Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Shave these well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime; also drink a plenty of good water.

It is claimed that there are few victims of this dread and torturous disease who will fail to find ready relief in this simple home-made mixture, and in most cases a permanent cure is the result.

This simple recipe is said to strengthen and cleanse the eliminative tissues of the kidneys so that they can filter and strain from the blood and system the poison, acid and waste matter, which cause not only Rheumatism, but numerous other diseases. Every man or woman here who feels that their kidneys are not healthy and active, or who suffers from any urinary trouble whatever, should not hesitate to make up this mixture, as it is certain to do much good, and may save you from much misery and suffering after a while.

Our home druggists say they will either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription ready to take if our readers ask them.

PORT ARTHUR HAD A BUSY SEASON

Over 500,000 Tons of Black Diamonds Shipped Last Year.

(Special to the Morning Graphic.)

PORT ARTHUR, Saturday.—Navigation at Port Arthur which closed the other day has been one of the busiest seasons in the history of the port. For years this port has been forging ahead and shipments of freight bound east and west have increased.

The grain business here has been a rush all the season. Port Arthur elevators shipping out millions of bushels. In the freight business the Canadian Northern has surpassed all expectations.

This summer the company had five sheds in commission and even with the increased accommodation at times there was a bunching of steamers. One permanent staff of over 400 men were given employment. A number of steamers also piled here with steel rails, giving employment to a large number of men. The greatest size of business was in coal handling. This season scores of large American liners piled into here with cargoes of fuel for the Northwest. Over 500,000 tons of black diamonds were handled.

This is a new industry for Port Arthur and has resulted in placing the city in the front rank as one of the leading shipping ports of the Great Lakes.

The last steamer to clear from the elevators was the Weston, which left after loading 100,000 bushels of wheat. One more boat will take a cargo. She is at dock now waiting orders for storage. She will winter here whether she gets a cargo or not. The steamer Huron closed the season for passenger steamers. The season has been one of the best experienced by captains for years the weather being ideal, and not one accident happened.

(Boston Herald.)

The spruce lumber market is still very quiet, there being very little lumber offering. The inquiry continues moderate. A few dealers are looking the market over, but as most of the mills in the East are shut down they find little lumber from which to select. Advances from the East report the likelihood of a small cut being made this winter, owing to the difficulty the lumbermen have had in getting the money necessary to pay the men and provide supplies. There is presently no change in the quotations, though, as noted a week ago, a pressure to sell would result in a lower basis of values. Receivers' prices are: Ten to twelve in dimensions, $24 to $25; 9 inch and under, $22 and $23; 2x3, 2x4, 2x5, 2x6, 2x7, 10 feet and upwards, $18 to $19; other sizes, 10 feet and upwards, $20 to $22; spruce boards, planed on one side, $20; turring, $20 to $21; matched boards, $23 to $24.

Hemlock boards are weak at $18 and $20 for random and $20 to $21 for stock lengths, for both eastern and northern.

Shingles are firm. Extra clear, $4.00 to $4.25; clear $3.60 to $3.75; second clear, $2.50 to $2.75; extra No. 1, $1.75 to $2.00.

Clapboards are firm. Extra $4.40 to $4.60; clear, $4.20 to $4.40; second clear, $3.80 to $4.00; extra No. 1, $3.50 to $3.75 and $3.50 to $3.75 for 1 1/2 inch.

Laths are unchanged though trade slumps, $24 to $25; 9 inch and under, $22 and $23; 2x3, 2x4, 2x5, 2x6, 2x7.

A slight fire broke out in the Canadian Express office, at the Campbellton station, Saturday evening, caused by an over-heated stove, but was noticed in time and extinguished without an alarm being sent in.

TWO ARRESTS MADE.
There were two arrests made last evening by I. C. R. Policemen Savoy. One was a man who created a disturbance on 35 train with Conductor Corbett, and the other was a man charged with fighting at the I. C. R. station.

DID NOT COME OFF.
The debate which was to have been held last evening at the Temperance Hall did not come off owing to the bad weather. The next meeting of the "F. W." will be held on Monday next when they will decide on a date for the debate.

ENGINE DERAILED.
Yesterday morning's maritime express was an hour late on arrival here. The delay was due to the locomotive on freight train number 37 being derailed at Herbert's siding and blocking the main line. The trucks on the locomotive's tender were broken—Saturday's Moncton Times.

TWO DAYS HEAVY RAIN.
Donald McBeath, government scaler has returned home from a trip to the headwaters of the Kedgwick and branches, where he was attending to his government duties. He reports two days' heavy rain while away in that district, making it almost impossible for horses to get along, and says there was a big run of ice out of both the Kedgwick and main river.

WHIST PARTY.
On Wednesday evening, December 18, Mr. and Mrs. Elias I. Le Marquand, of Newport Point, gave an enjoyable progressive whist party in honor of Miss Eva B. Thorburn on the eve of her departure from the coast. Those entertained were Mrs. Brame, Miss Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, of Grand Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Swabey, of England; Mr. Clifford Le Couteur and Miss E. I. Actonson, of Gascons; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Le Marquand, Messrs. Chas. P. Le Marquand and T. C. Manet, of Newport. Prizes were won by Mrs. Swabey, Miss Tuttle and Mr. Andrews, while the booby prize, which was carried off by Mr. Swabey caused a great deal of merriment. Miss Thorburn's departure from the coast is much regretted by her many friends and acquaintances, but she carries away their hearty good wishes for her future happiness.

NO PAPER TO-MORROW.
Tomorrow being Christmas day the Graphic will not be published.

Miss Margaret Fair is spending a couple of days at her home at Point La Garde.

PERSONAL.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. McGreevy will be sorry to hear of the illness of their elder boy Owen who is suffering from an attack of gastric fever.

EXPRESS LATE.
The Maritime Express from Montreal was two hours late Tuesday morning owing to a heavy train and snow storm.

PERSONAL.
John R. Currie who has been living in the Western States for about twenty years is on a visit to his relatives in Campbellton.

A FAMOUS EDITOR.
There is nothing like being famous as the following will show:—A piece of mail matter, directed to "J. L. Stewart, New Brunswick, Canada," reached our office this morning from Boston, without having been delayed on the way. St. John had received it, pencilled "Chatham" on the envelope and sent it on its way.

ALIGHTED ON WRONG SIDE.
One night last week an old man got off the Maritime Express at the Junction. It happened to be the wrong side of the train that he alighted from. Instead of getting on again and crossing over in the usual way, or going around the entire length of the train, he crawled under one of the passenger coaches. Station men and passengers stood breathless—Chatham World.

SPLENDID SCOTCH EVENT.
No more enjoyable entertainment has been given in Campbellton than that put up by "The Imperial Scots" Concert Company at the Opera House last evening. It was a real genuine treat. Miss Mary McLeod possesses a voice of greater flexibility than Jessie McLachlan and her selections last evening were greatly appreciated. Her duet with Mr. Hamilton, "The Crookit Bawbee," an old favorite with Jessie McLachlan was exceptionally fine. Mr. J. M. Hamilton is beyond doubt the peer of Scottish tenors. His rendering of "The Braes o' Balquidder" was something that Scottish Campbelltonians must have delighted in. Elsie Dixon Craig is inimitable as an entertainer. Her recitations were excellent and loudly enjoyed. Mr. George's piano selections were also highly appreciated.

"Some people," remarked the demoralizer, "never seem to be around when wanted."

"Well," rejoined the moralizer, "it is better to be absent when wanted than to be present when you are not wanted."

TWO DAYS HEAVY RAIN.

WHIST PARTY.
On Wednesday evening, December 18, Mr. and Mrs. Elias I. Le Marquand, of Newport Point, gave an enjoyable progressive whist party in honor of Miss Eva B. Thorburn on the eve of her departure from the coast. Those entertained were Mrs. Brame, Miss Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, of Grand Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Swabey, of England; Mr. Clifford Le Couteur and Miss E. I. Actonson, of Gascons; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Le Marquand, Messrs. Chas. P. Le Marquand and T. C. Manet, of Newport. Prizes were won by Mrs. Swabey, Miss Tuttle and Mr. Andrews, while the booby prize, which was carried off by Mr. Swabey caused a great deal of merriment. Miss Thorburn's departure from the coast is much regretted by her many friends and acquaintances, but she carries away their hearty good wishes for her future happiness.

ENGINE DERAILED.
Yesterday morning's maritime express was an hour late on arrival here. The delay was due to the locomotive on freight train number 37 being derailed at Herbert's siding and blocking the main line. The trucks on the locomotive's tender were broken—Saturday's Moncton Times.

TWO DAYS HEAVY RAIN.
Donald McBeath, government scaler has returned home from a trip to the headwaters of the Kedgwick and branches, where he was attending to his government duties. ## SHORTAGE WILL AMOUNT TO 50,000,000

This Is The Estimate of Shortage in Miramichi Shipments.

CHATHAM, Monday.
The shortage in the lumber shipment from the Miramichi this season will be at least 50,000,000, according to an estimate given to the Graphic representative the other day by a lumberman. The shipments last year, the lumberman said, ran up to 150,000,000. This includes shipments from the South West Miramichi, Northwest Miramichi, Barnaby River, Bartibogue River, Church River, River DesCaches, Tabusintac, Bay du Vin and the other branches, and about four millions by rail.

The shortage is said to be due to the rainy weather early in the season and also to some extent to a shortage in labor. Labor in the woods is paid fully as well as ever it was but is not as plentiful. The lure of the west accounts in part for this.

The low price of lumber, due to an overstocked market, has also had an effect in curtailing operations.

LIBERALS WIN THE BYE-ELECTIONS IN ONTARIO

Caron Elected In Ottawa By a Majority of 3,319.

OTTAWA, Monday.—The bye election in North York to fill the vacancy caused by the elevation of Hon. Arch. Campbell to the Senate was won by the Liberal candidate Dr. McLean who was elected by a majority of 62 over his opponent T. G. Wallace, a son of the late Clark Wallace. A blinding snowstorm which lasted all afternoon caused a falling off in the number of votes polled and some uncertainty prevailed till late this evening as to the result.

The bye election in Ottawa today to fill the vacancy in the Commons caused by the elevation of Hon. N. A. Belcourt to the Senate resulted in the election of the Liberal candidate Mr. J. B. T. Caron by a majority of 3,319. The Independent candidate Mr. Norris polled 1151 votes.

BRITISH FLEET IN CHINA WATERS

Protects The Interests of The Pekin Syndicate—Wants Concession

PEKIN, Monday.—The officials of Shan Si province, where the Pekin syndicate has its many concessions, have expressed their willingness to buy out the syndicate for 2,500,000 taels, explaining at the same time that this amount is 15 times more than the syndicate has ever invested in the province.

The syndicate values its concessions at 10,000,000 taels, and contends that it should be compensated for the balance.

This claim of the Pekin syndicate, a British corporation, holding the largest concessions China has ever granted, arises from the efforts of the provincial authorities of Shan Si to have these concessions rescinded.

The pressure which is being exerted upon the Chinese government by the presence of a British fleet off Kwang Tung is beneficial to British interests, and at the same time it is increasing the unpopularity of the provincial authorities of Shan Si. These latter have come to expect nothing from the central government.

ST. JOHN, Monday.—Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Minister of Public Works, arrived in the city at noon yesterday with his family in the private car "Ottawa" to spend Christmas. Dr. Pugsley was interviewed by the Graphic representative last night and spoke of matters of general interest which were discussed in the house at Ottawa.

In regard to the Conservative Corruption fund during the election of 1904 he had this to say: "Whenever Mr. Borden is ready to discuss the matter with me either in parliament or anywhere else I am ready to meet him and debate the subject." Thus showing that Mr. Kemp's quarrel not with Mr. Kemp but with Mr. Borden himself.

Sick all the Time with Kidney Trouble

4 BOXES CURED HIM

Mr. Whelan was a mighty ill man this spring. He had been ailing for almost a year. Sharp pains in the back and through the hips. Dull headaches and dizzy spells. Appetite poor—nothing seemed to taste right.

Finally, an old friend told him about a friend who was in just that condition and who was cured by GIN PILLS.

Mr. Whelan tried them. And you would not know him for the same man now. That worried, stained look about the face is gone. His eyes are bright—his complexion rosy. He enjoys what he eats—has gained in weight—and sleeps like a top.

He had kidney trouble. GIN PILLS practically gave new kidneys—healed and strengthened these vital organs—soothed the bladder—and freed the system of uric acid that was poisoning him.

I received a sample of your GIN PILLS last night. They are the best kidney medicine I know. They did him more good than all the Doctors' Medicine he took in three months. Will not forget during my lifetime the benefit your GIN PILLS have been to me. JOHN WHELAN.

Are your kidneys sick? Do you feel just as Mr. Whelan did? Then take GIN PILLS on our positive guarantee that they will cure you. To have you forget during my lifetime the benefit your GIN PILLS have been to me. JOHN WHELAN.

GIN PILLS are sold by dealers everywhere at 50c a box—or 6 boxes for $2.50.

ONE THOUSAND MILES AN HOUR IS THE DREAM OF THIS INVENTOR.

If Jules Verne had only lived he might have seen his wildest flights of imagination eclipsed by accomplished facts. His inventive genius certainly never soared to mightier heights than the dreams of some living electricians and scientists.

There is a man in Montreal today who expects to fly a thousand miles an hour.

He is not in Verden asylum. As a matter of fact he is a sober, serious, studious electrical engineer, who has been engaged for some years experimenting in aerial navigation along with the inventor of an airship which he claims will revolutionize the world.

The airship will be built in Canada. What it will accomplish is a matter of conjecture and credibility, but what might happen if it actually did fly a thousand miles an hour, and was a practicable invention, might well tax the imagination of the greatest thinkers to conceive. Revolution in some form it would certainly accomplish.

Dismissing for the moment the possibility that one could travel a thousand miles an hour and live to tell the tale, the story told by the inventor's colleague is certainly worth attention.

He is a young man, which perhaps accounts for his enthusiasm, but he has travelled the world over, and is well abreast of modern scientific thought.

Names a Secret.
When a "Witness" representative encountered him yesterday and extracted from him details of the great invention, a promise was exacted that the principals should only be mentioned in this article by their initials.

His own is "A." "The actual inventor of this airship," the electrician said, "is of royal blood, related to the reigning family of one of the great powers, and lives directly to the occupants of the throne of Britain and Denmark. I can say no more about him than that the initials by which he is known in scientific circles, are P. A. C. of D."

"He has devoted his life to experimental science, and as I have done the same, when we met in South Africa in 1902 he proposed that I should collaborate with him in the designing of an airship on a purely scientific plan, which he believed would be far superior to Santos-Dumont's or any existing flying machines."

"I agreed, and for two years we travelled through the United Kingdom, France, Germany and Italy seeking designs for the modelling of the small gasoline engine, which was to play the most important part in the driving of the new airship."

Experiments in South Africa.
"Returning to South Africa in 1904, we conducted experiments at Victoria, Cape Colony, which resulted in the building of a small model that in every way fulfilled our expectations."

"The model was fifteen feet long by three and a half feet high. Its outer shell was composed of aluminum, and the propellers were constructed of a mixture of aluminum and light metal, which by union and chemical treatment we reduced to seven-eighths of its ordinary weight, and which we believe we will yet succeed by further treatment in making lighter than gravity—that is able to resist the earth's attraction."

World's Most Powerful Gas.
"The motive power of the gasoline engine was supplied by the most powerful gas in the world extracted by cordite by a process known only to

LIKENS TEDDY TO SAUL OF TARSUS.

Boston Speaker Scores
Roosevelt on the Negro Question

WARNS AMERICA
A Monarchical Govt Is Giving
The Negroes A Square
Show

BOSTON, Thursday.—Turning from glowing tributes to John Greenleaf Whittier, "the poet of freedom," at last night's Greater Boston citizens' Whittier centenary celebration in Faneuil Hall, Henry B. Blackwell and Rev. Reverdy C. Hanson scored conditions under which the negro race is living in the South and compared conditions here with those in Jamaica.

Mr. Blackwell warned America to look to her laurels in the treatment of the negro when methods at Jamaica are taken into consideration. The Rev. Mr. Hanson made an out-and-out attack on President Roosevelt and Secretary of War William H. Taft.

President as a Saul.
"To whom shall we flee?" he cried: "to political robbers who have stripped us of our rights, or to the Taft and Roosevelt who have held us as Saul of Tarsus did while the crime was being committed?"

At the celebration, honor was done not so much to Whittier as a universal poet as in the capacity of "Poet Laureate of Abolition." Two sessions were held, first afternoon at Parker Memorial, and in the evening at the "Cradle of Liberty" itself, Faneuil Hall.

Mr. Blackwell, who was one of the principal speakers of the evening, was introduced by William Monroe Trotter, president of the New England Constitution and Suffrage League, as one of the "old war horses" of the cause of suffrage. He told of his participation in the struggle for freedom. Whittier in the struggle for freedom.

From this commendation of Whittier Mr. Blackwell went on, as did most of the speakers, to tell of the progress of the race for which this man did so much. He deplored that the lessons of years "have not brought the leading educators of the South to realize that the colored man should be the equal of the white."

Warning to America.
He told of the conditions that prevail in Jamaica, where he had recently visited and where he found the colored races in positions of the highest responsibility, and "let America, democratic America," he warned, "look to her laurels and remember that a monarchical government is giving to the colored race all they ask for and do not obtain here."

OTTAWA, Friday.—The November bank statement, issued to-day, shows a large decrease in current and call loans in Canada and elsewhere. There is a shrinkage of deposits payable on demand and a heavy withdrawal of savings deposits. There is a decrease of $1,000,000 on the money market, short loans in Canada, and of $4,748,000 in call and short loans abroad. In October, about fifteen millions were called in on loans abroad. Current loans in Canada were shortened last month by nearly nine millions. Current loans abroad were decreased by over a million and three quarters. There is a shrinkage of $13,848,000 in total assets. Deposits on demand show a decrease of $2,968,000 and savings a shrinkage of $7,885,000. Total liabilities show a net decrease of $20,828,000.

MONCTON'S SCOTT ACT.
One Hotel Keeper Doesn't Pay His Fine So Goes to Jail.

MONCTON, Friday.—Dominic Melanson, of the Pulpit hotel, who a few days ago was sentenced to pay $10 Scott Act fine, was arrested to-day in default of payment and will probably be taken to jail at Dorchester. A local restaurant keeper came up this afternoon for violation of the Scott Act, and was fined $50.

Three boys, accused of stealing hay from the J. B. McManus Co., were to-day sentenced to two months in jail.

CHATHAM, Friday.—The pulp mill had an output of over sixty tons last week. This is the largest output it has ever had. The usual output has been fifty tons. The men are working on a bonus system, receiving 10 per cent. increase in their pay when the output reaches 60 tons, and the system is evidently a success.

The Canadian Pulp Co. has been handicapped in its shipments lately because of the impossibility of conveying the pulp across the river which is impassable to either boats or teams. The Canadian Co. has an output of twenty tons per day, and has a large accumulation now.

The first team to cross the river on the ice came over to-day. John Munroe was the driver.

A meeting for the purpose of forming a social club was called for yesterday afternoon, but on account of the slim attendance nothing was done.

Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect. Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physician can but find Nature's way to health. And this strikingly true with regard to Constipation.

The lack of a certain tree in California—Carya sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to the constipated. It is a native of the West, and is found in the mountains of California. It is a powerful laxative, and its use is recommended by all the leading medical authorities. Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

More Japanese Arrive.

VICTORIA, Friday.—Supplied with passports to enter the Dominion, fifty-six Japanese arrived here this evening on board the R. M. S. Moana from Honolulu. Among other arrivals on the vessel were the Earl and Countess of Lovelace, coming from Australia. They will pass through Canada and engage on a grand tour of the world.

IT RINGS IN YOUR EARS.

That same cough is everywhere you go, deep and hollow because consumptive. First it was catarrh which could have been cured by Catarrhine. Moral, never neglect a cold, never trifle with catarrh, go to your druggist and get Catarrhine. It is instant death to colds, cures them in a few minutes. Throat trouble and catarrh disappear as by magic. Catarrhine is the great throat, nose and bronchial remedy to-day. Thousands use it, doctors prescribe it—why, because it does relieve quickly and cure thoroughly. Two sizes, 25c. and $1.00 at all dealers.

MADE NIGHT HIDEOUTS.

The reign miners who escaped the disaster made the night hideouts in their village. They had suspended work because of the holiday, and most of them followed the holiday custom of drinking to excess. Many were intoxicated before the catastrophe and afterwards they put themselves in a worse condition, some drinking in celebration of their escape and others drinking to drown their grief over the death of relatives or friends. All night there was carousing and disorderly conduct, at times bordering on rioting. The calling to the mine of a troop of the state constabulary as well as steps to stop the further sale of intoxicants are being seriously considered.

THE CHRISTMAS GIFT DEPENDS UPON THE SPIRIT PROMPTING.

"What shall I give for Christmas presents?" This is a question which at this season of the year comes to the mind of the gift-giving element of the country. The plutocrat thinks less on the subject than the newsboy with his papers under his arm on cold nights, as he rubs a few coppers or nickels together and wonders what little gift he can purchase which will bring some cheer to a little sister or hard-working mother in the place he calls his home. No matter how little has been laid aside during the year, or how insistent are the calls of necessity, there is something in the heart which longs to assist or to remember another when it comes the message of Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men.

There can be no greater joy to those who have been blessed with means than to be the agent by which a gleam of happiness is brought to some person or family where the wolf has been hovering near the door. Such an act requires little, but accomplishes much. Again, where there is not the necessity the Christmas season gives splendid opportunities of reconciling old friends and school mates. A suitable card of greeting is much appreciated after possibly a silence of years and a wide separation.

Choose Wisely.
The chief thing about presents is to choose them wisely and suitably to the recipients so that they will be appreciated. It is not the quantity but the quality that counts. There is an art in making a thoroughly acceptable Christmas gift. It requires no brains, if much money is to order a gift at random and have it done with it regardless of whether it is suitable and acceptable or not. On the contrary, it requires some brains and but little money to make a Christmas present that will please. All depends upon the spirit prompting the gift and the tactfulness in its presentation—who gives it and how it is given.

GET WHAT YOU WANT.

The "Just as Good Kind" Never Pays. If there is one thing more than another that should aggravate a self-respecting person, it is to be told that the article they ask for at their drugist's is not to be had, but that they can have something just as good or better. The principal reason for such attempts at substitution is either the desire of the storekeeper to sell something on which he can make more money, or he hasn't the goods asked for, and wants to make a sale of something in his place.

Every reader of this paper should be in mind when asked for what the modern cod liver oil preparation that it is for sale in Campbellton at our store, only, and that it can always be had when asked for.

The reason Vinol is so far superior to old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions is because it is made by a scientific, extractive and concentrating process from fresh cods' livers, combining with peptonate of iron all the medicinal, healing and body building elements of cod liver oil, but none.

As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, after sickness, and for Chronic Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles, Vinol is unequalled.

No one wants an old-fashioned cod liver oil preparation or emulsion after once tasting delicious Vinol. Try it if it falls to benefit we will return your money. McLeod, McDonald, Druggist, Campbellton, N. B.

Bad Accident Yesterday Near North Bay Ont.

NORTH BAY, Ont., Friday.—At eight o'clock last night C. P. R. No. 8 was derailed at Yellick, eight miles west of North Bay by an axle on the engine breaking. Although the entire train left the rails and ploughed along the ties for a considerable distance none was injured. The engine and two passenger coaches were derailed and were injured beyond the extent of a few bruises. The damage to rolling stock was also light. Three east bound passenger trains and a west bound freight train were stalled on either side of the wreck for twelve hours, the only west bound train having on board upwards of two thousand passengers coming east to Christmas.

THE THREE WISE MEN.

One Christmas mystery remains unsolved. Who were the wise men of the east—the magi who followed the star of Bethlehem from afar to do homage to the newborn Saviour?

The simple story as told in the bible is one of the most familiar in Christmas lore. Any child could recite it in detail. Painters and sculptors have made it the theme of the most inspired products of their brushes and chisels, but to this day the identity of these wise men remains a mystery. A search of the great paintings in which the subject is treated produces a bewildering. There are a half a hundred different ideas presented. The varying versions of the books of the ages are as many.

It is fair to assume that the fact that the visitors were received at court by King Herod and that they carried gifts of value that they were in their own country men of royalty or close to it. Herod evidently deemed it well to treat them with deference, for disquieted though he was by their news of a comet that was to lead them to the birthplace of the Redeemer he dissembled and told them that when they had found the newborn he would return to worship with them.

Much of our information about the early days of the Christian era comes from the monks of the fourteenth century, who delved deeply into historical sources since lost to the world. Their story of the three wise men has received wide credence. According to these monks, the wise men were three great kings called Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar. Caspar was the oldest and from the north. At the time of the birth of Christ he was sixty years old, and for more than two-thirds of that time he had ruled in Arabia. Balthasar was black, a native of Saba, from the east, and forty years old. The youngest was Melchior from the south whose country was Tarshish. He was twenty years old.

Impelled by some mysterious power, they dropped all the cares of state and followed a single star thirteen days and nights without eating or sleeping till it led them to Jerusalem.

Then the story follows that of the Bible until they return to their own countries.

The story does not stop here. It tells circumstantially the after life of the three wise men. The good Apostle St. Thomas journeyed to their country and baptized them, and all three went out to preach the doctrine of the Christ.

They were slain by barbarous gentiles, and later the Empress Helena, mother of Constantine, recovered their sacred bones and took them to Constantinople. Thence they were carried to Milan and finally found an ultimate resting place in Cologne, where they now are—New York Post.

A car reached here Saturday evening attached to 157 train with eight passengers from Causapical who were supposed to have come from a camp where snail-pox existed.

When they boarded the train at Causapical, Dr. Smith of that place, notified Conductor Aulet. The conductor locked the doors and wired Operator Wilson at Campbellton, who at once notified the secretary of the Board of Health here.

Members of the board were at the station when the train reached here. They ordered the car to be sent out of the town limits. Policemen Savoy and Jones were put on guard at the car.

The camp where the men came from was not learned here but it was said that the foreman of one of the camps was afflicted with snail-pox. The men were sent back to Causapical.

A telegram received here last evening from the mayor of Matane stated that the men had not been exposed to the disease and that he had liberated them from the car.

LATEST GOSSIP OF LONDON TOWN.

(Special Correspondence Graphic.)
LONDON, December 14.—It seems likely that next year England is to have a succession of royal visits. There is a report that the King of Italy has announced his intention of coming to England in May or June, 1908, and that the invitation to do so was extended to the Italian monarch by King Edward when the two Kings met at Gaeta at the commencement of the present year. At one time it was thought probable that the visit might have taken place in 1907, but it was found impossible. Most likely King Victor Emmanuel will be accompanied by Queen Helena. English people have now become accustomed to these visits of foreign royalties, and no doubt they will accord a hearty welcome to the King and Queen of Italy, when they land on the English shores. It would touch the popular sympathies if their Majesties were to bring with them the royal and hearty welcome accorded to the sons and daughters of the Prince and Princess of Wales. Another noteworthy personage who is likely to come to London next year is Monsieur Fallières, President of the French Republic.

Appropos of royal visits, the private visit paid by the King and Queen of Spain to Magdalen College, Cambridge, on their way back from Sandringham, may be of interest. The younger brother of Queen Victoria Eugenie is at present a student of the university, and he entertained the Spanish monarchs at luncheon in his rooms. There was no state ceremonial, but the royal pair were much interested in going over the college and inspecting the library. They also saw the chapel, and King Alfonso remarked that a christening was about to take place, so the master replied that it was for the christening of his son and heir. Thereupon King Alfonso insisted that the baby should be presented, and he and the Queen were much pleased when he was brought down; they remarked on his healthy appearance and said many cordial things to the baby's father, Emperor Vague.

From Paris come whisperings that the style is still in vogue, marked by the skirts still have a pronounced tendency to Empire, and will probably continue to be made rather tight round the hips with a short train. With such close-fitting skirts, petticoats are impossible if not de trop, and we shall replace them by knickerbockers made in satin, short and adapted to feminine tastes. Bodices will be made of some different material to suit these skirts and generally of a different color harmonizing with that of the skirt. With a black or brown cloth, a blue, dull green or Chinese pink might be worn. Then vests and jackets will also have the peculiar cut worn by marshals of the Empire period. And a new revival of that period will be astrakhan "passepoils" or piping on scalloped jackets, or of chinchilla on black velvet, and so on. An attempt is being made to revive the tunic, though few models are shown draped. One I saw was of a dull green cloth undershirt over which fell a shorter skirt in soft satin of exactly the same shade, edged with fringe nine inches deep. Then guimpes seem to be first favorites again, and never were they prettier, some of the specimens being gathered, of gold tulle, embroidered with flowers of various hues. This species of embroidery, though not strictly beautiful to my ideal with beauty, still will gather, be much worn this season, and one beautiful evening cloak which I saw shown lately was of gold tulle embroidered at intervals with huge blue poppies with their leaves. This note of splendor is repeated in most of the evening cloaks this year, sometimes the effect being rather bizarre. Why do women like to make themselves appear so remarkable now-a-days, remarkable not for the good taste displayed in choice of their clothes, but chiefly for the splashing of colors and the ugly models they favor.

King as Frenchman.
It has often been discussed why King Edward VII. is so fond of Paris, and the French people. Now an ingenious answer has been found to the question. The answer is that King Edward is, in point of fact, a Bourbon, and naturally a typical Frenchman. It is necessary, however, to give a little genealogical table to explain this astounding fact. King Edward's ancestor, George I. was a son of the Elector of Hanover and of Sophia, granddaughter of James I. of England, who was the son of Mary, Queen of Scots, who was herself granddaughter of Antoinette de Vendôme, who in turn was descended from Robert, Comte de Clermont, sixth son of Louis IX. of France. It takes some thinking to get through all this, but all the "vans" the fact is established that King Edward can trace a Bourbon ancestry, and that jovial and diplomatic monarch Henri Quatre. Thus despite the fact that he is the reigning King of England, the forgoing would show that in real-reality he is verily "un bon Français."

Honoring Lord Strathcona.
It is now seven years since Lord Strathcona was appointed high commissioner for Canada, and a project is on foot by Canadians in London to mark their appreciation of the services he has rendered to the Dominion. A committee has been appointed who have taken the arrangements in hand most vigorously, and it is now decided that the presentation shall take place on November 21st at Lord Strathcona's residence in Grosvenor Square. The Duke of Argyll, who has been Governor-General of Canada, will make the presentation, and it is probable that Lord Lansdowne and Lord Aberdeen, the popular viceroys of Ireland, will also be present, besides many other prominent people who are either Canadians or identified in some way with Canada, or having sympathies with her.

Ocean "Coasters."
The latest shipping scheme is a company to promote ocean "coasters." It is proposed to equip a clipper ship of 3000 tons, and fill her up in London with an assorted cargo of merchandise and then sail on a cruise, starting with the Mediterranean, and proceeding to South African and probably American and Canadian ports. It is expected that the goods will have been sold out within 12 months, and then the ship will return to England. But it is not intended that the "coaster" will be a trading vessel only, as she is to combine passenger traffic and a college for cadets on her programme. The arrangements for passengers will be very complete, and the cuisine, it is said, will be equal to that of the best line of steamers, and, moreover, cabins will be large and airy. A doctor and a stewardess will be carried, and the inclusive charge is to be ten shillings and sixpence per day. Then there will be a doctor and a master on to look after the boys, whose parents can afford to ship them for a year's voyage for sixty guineas, exclusive of outfit. The cadets will be instructed in bookkeeping and accounts, learn all about coaling and exchange and possibly pick up a knowledge of foreign languages. If the scheme is realized, then the fortunes of the clipper in its capacity of "coaster," sanatorium or college will be interesting to follow. To those to whom time is not money, the cadets will be a sight to see on sea voyage on an up-to-date sailing vessel without the noise of machinery, and surrounded with peaceful quietude should be fraught with most health-giving qualities.

GROWING CHILDREN.
Advice to Mothers of Campbellton. Perhaps the most important principle involved in the care of a child is proper nourishment.

How many delicate children do we meet on the streets with thin cheeks and thin little legs and arms. It is very plain to be seen that rapid growth takes all their strength and their little bodies are not receiving sufficient nourishment to make them well, strong and robust.

We want to say to the parents of all such children in Campbellton that our delicious cod liver and iron preparation, Vinol, will build up delicate children, fill out hollow cheeks and make them strong robust and rosy.

Vinol makes new vitality, sound flesh and muscle tissue and pure, rich red blood, and children love it. This is because Vinol is a delicious tasting cod liver preparation without oil, made by a scientific, extractive and concentrating process from fresh cod livers, thus combining with potent body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil.

As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, after sickness, and for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles, Vinol is unexcelled. Try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails to give satisfaction. A. McG. McDonald, Druggist, Campbellton, N. B.

GRUESOME FIND IN A VICTORIA PARK

C. Waller was a Victim of the Late Financial Panic.

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of C. Waller, a wealthy Englishman who came here four weeks ago from San Diego, Cal., was cleared up yesterday morning when his body was discovered by William Dennison lying in a clump of bushes at Beacon Hill park with a 22-calibre revolver in the right hand and bullet wounds in the abdomen and head, says a recent issue of the Victoria Times.

Dennison's gruesome find revealed the sixth local suicide of the past month and the first tragedy in this city that can be traced to the far-reaching effects of the recent financial panic in the United States.

Waller disappeared on Saturday last and the city police were at once notified by his sister, Mrs. Bell, who lives at 529 Menzies street. It was known that Waller had been affected by the currency situation and that he had been unable to negotiate cheques on his San Diego bank and, although his loss had been slight, the fact that he had never been much perturbed during the last couple of weeks caused his sister some apprehension. All efforts failed to trace him during the week and the solution of his disappearance resulted through a mere chance.

William Dennison, an employe of the Prior & Co., while taking a walk in the park yesterday morning, strayed along an unfrequented path leading into the bushes near the bear pits. He came upon Waller lying over a mound of earth with a bullet wound in his forehead and another in his abdomen, while his right thumb was stuck through the guard of a small revolver. The police were at once notified and the body was brought into the city.

From all appearances Waller must have killed himself a week ago, probably on Saturday last, the day that he was reported to be missing. The man was wearing two vests and was dressed in a Norfolk suit. He had evidently unbuttoned his jacket, raised his vests and deliberately shot himself in the abdomen, as there were no holes in his clothing. Failing to end his life by this act, he had raised the revolver to his head and fired between his eyes. Four empty cartridges were found in the weapon.

While no message has yet been found among the dead man's belongings which would indicate premeditation of his rash deed, there is little doubt that Waller took his own life. He had been somewhat troubled through the failure of a bank in which he was a depositor, but it is said that he was a comparatively small loser in this instance and was more concerned about other financial affairs, none of which, however, had resulted disastrously up to the time of his disappearance.

Waller was a middle-aged Englishman and had spent several years in California, living on his means. He came to this city about a month ago and was negotiating for the purchase of Mrs. Dunnsmuir's property at the corner of Menzies and Quebec streets, where he resided with his sister, Mrs. Bell. Mrs. Bell came from Australia a short time ago to join him here.

BIG ICE JAM HERE YESTERDAY

One Man Chases His Smelt Nets In Open Boat to Point La Garde.

There was a big run of ice in the river late yesterday morning and as a result more or less damage was done.

The smelt nets of Robt. St. Onge were carried from Richard's Cove to Point La Garde. Shortly after the disappearance of the nets Mr. St. Onge and others got a boat and rowed to Point La Garde where the nets and rigging were picked up. The shanty however, was lost.

The ice piled up over the piers at Tide Head. It was stated yesterday that there was a solid jam of ice fourteen feet high at that point. Water was flowing freely at the far end of the boom. It was probably seven feet in depth here. In summer there is scarcely any water.

On Sunday night No. 76 train was

PROSPERITY IS QUITE EVIDENT

Monetary Hurricane Has Not Been Felt So Far in The West.

WINNIPEG, Monday.—It is indeed hard to believe that any actual financial stringency exists throughout the West, when one is brought face to face with undeniable figures as to the amount of money in circulation. There are many who believe that there never was any reason to complain and that the apparent feeling of depression came from the East and South, which caused a hoarding of money on all hands.

The confidence of many people in the situation was, it must be admitted, shaken by the Canadian banks when they sent out word that all overdrafts must be curtailed, and that paper would no longer be negotiable except on the best of grounds, and best securities. The bank managers protested against the attitude taken by the people when this news was made known, and said that they were aiming at restoring affairs to a normal and healthy condition, the blow being aimed at over-speculation in real estate, which would have in the end resulted disastrously only for the wise course taken by the banks.

That there never was any reason to fear will be demonstrated by the figures quoted below, and no doubt when the actual condition of affairs becomes known, the progress of the West, which has been temporarily impeded through a misunderstanding of conditions as they actually exist, will resume the proportions of the past few years.

According to a despatch from Fort William, published Saturday, 20,093,362 bushels of wheat had been shipped. These figures do not include the amount in elevators throughout the country, and one of the most prominent grain dealers in the West estimates that at least 24,000,000 bushels have been marketed.

This year the farmers are receiving an average of 80 cents per bushel, cash on the street and this represents an amount of $19,200,000 placed in the hands of western farmers up to the present date. Last year the number of bushels shipped up to the present date was 25,000,000, but the price paid to the farmers averaged only 65 cents per bushel, totalling $16,250,000. Therefore it will be readily seen that the country is better off this year by $2,950,000, and this represents wheat alone.

Oats to-day are bringing 50 cents per bushel to the farmer, while last year the price paid was only 27 cents. The figures for 1906 were 2,228,769 bushels, and 2,046,620 bushels for 1907, showing a decrease of 182,149 bushels. But no allowance is here made except for oats already graded. Taking these figures into consideration, it will be found that the increased price of oats, despite the small amount presented 000 in favor of this year over the amount received by the farmers last year.

Barley has remained at about the same price namely 40 cents per bushel on the street. But the crop this year was valued at $578,332, as against $379,548 for 1906, which shows an increase of $198,784. This, bringing about an average of $110 per bushel this year, which shows a decided increase, the figures being $317,439 for 1907, compared with $207,266 in 1906, an increase of $110,173.

It will readily be seen by the above figures that the amount of money put into the pockets of the western farmers up to the present time this year represents an increase of over $2,200,000, as compared with the same date last year. But the above figures, so far as barley, oats and flax are concerned, only take into consideration the grain that has been graded. Allowing for the amount that may be in the elevators and on the railways at the present time, the increase of currency in circulation this year over last will easily total $3,500,000, and perhaps considerably over this figure.

In the face of the above figures, there cannot be any reason for any serious depression, and one is inclined to believe that the optimistic view is the correct one, that no depression actually exists, but that people have become frightened and are hoarding the money at a time when there is more actual money on hand than at any previous time.

The sales of live stock this year are fully equal to if not greater than those of a year ago, and the market is in a healthy condition.

When to go Home.

From the Burlington, Ind., Banner: "When you are tired out, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have fun, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy go home and light up the whole household." To which we would add when you have a bad cold go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and a quick cure is certain. For sale by all druggists.

SASKATOON MURDER TRIAL.

"Not Guilty Was the Verdict in Case of Sharpe Charged With Killing"

SASKATOON, Sask., Monday.—The trial of Metro Sharpe charged with the murder of John Metchechuk, was concluded Saturday, a verdict of not guilty being returned by the jury. In the afternoon the prisoner and his wife were on the stand. All the testimony showed the wife was found by her husband with Metchechuk. After the evidence was all in, Jas. McKay, K. C. for the defence spoke for ninety minutes. Jas. Stramon, for the crown, was less lengthy. The judge's charge was favorable to the prisoner. After twenty minutes' deliberation the jury found Sharpe innocent. The verdict is a popular one about town.

Conclusive Proof.

TURKEYS ARE VERY PLentiful NOW

Worth Twenty Cents a Pound in Chatham, But Price is Falling.

CHATHAM, Monday. Turkeys are becoming plentiful in this market and are falling in price. Twenty cents per pound was asked a few days ago but they can now be bought for 17c, and a lower price is expected. Geese are also coming to lower and can be bought at $1.00 and less each.

It was a snowshoe club, not a social club, as stated on Saturday by telephone error, that it is proposed to form here.

A number of lumbermen came in from the woods for the holiday season during the past couple of days. The majority of them will return in a week or two.

Reports from ten miles down the river near Napan are to the effect that ducks are falling in price, some nets getting 1,300 pounds. The price remains steady at two and a half cents per pound. Some bass are being taken in the smelt nets here and are fetching a fair price.
