FRONTIER FIGHTING

Between Albanians and Turkish Soldiers—Many Killed.

Vienna, July 25.—Albanian insurgents and Turkish regulars have had several encounters on the Turkish frontier. Many have been killed and wounded on both sides.

It is reported that the Albanians cut off the heads of their prisoners and triumphantly carried them on poles through Albanian towns. It is also reported that the Turks massacred their prisoners.

MOBBED JOCKEY

Cash Sloan Has a Sensational Experience on Moscow Turf.

London, July 24.—Cash Sloan, the American jockey, who has been riding in Russia, had an exciting experience at the Moscow races where he narrowly escaped death at the hands of a furious mob. Sloan had been riding with such continuous success that his mounts were always favorites. On the occasion in question he rode a horse which had no chance of winning. The unsophisticated crowd, however, backed the American's mount as usual, and when he was beaten their indignation boiled over, and a raging mob of males and females savagely attacked the jockey, who was rescued with difficulty by a military contingent and a powerful detachment of police.

KEEP OFF GRASS

Minister of Public Works Had a Stroll Interrupted.

Ottawa, July 24.—That state and station are words unknown to the Dominion police was beautifully illustrated in Major's Hill park a few days ago. Hon. J. Israel Tarte, Minister of Public Works, was taking a stroll along the shady avenues of the capital's favorite breathing spot, and in so doing left the cinder path and started across the velvet sward. A constable on duty in the park noticed the Minister's disregard of the "Keep off the grass" mandate, and promptly ordered him back to the cinder path. "Do you know who I am," queried Mr. Tarte, considerably surprised; "I am the Minister of Public Works." The officer politely replied that the rule made no allowance, or words to that effect. He had his orders to execute, and there was no alternate. Hon. Mr. Tarte resumed his walk along the path.

STOLE PICTURE FROM CHURCH.

Rome, July 24.—A sensation has been caused here by the alleged theft of a painting of the Raphael School from the Church of Santa Sabina. The picture represents the Madonna of the Rosary. It was painted by Sassoferrato. It is rumored that the theft was instigated by an American woman who had vainly offered to buy the picture at any price.

London, July 25.—Play was resumed on the lawns of the London Rowing Club yesterday morning and much interest was manifested as to the result of the Labatt trophy contest. The competition resolved itself down to a contest between Chatham and Mitchell, which was won by the former. This is the first time the trophy has gone to Chatham, it having been held respectively by the Victorias, of Toronto; Thistles, of Hamilton; Thistles, of Toronto; Seaford and Stratford clubs. Blenheim is said to have an excellent chance to capture the second trophy.

ARRIVAL HOME.

Walt Thrasher and Alex. VonGuntzen are two of the happiest men in Chatham to-day. They arrived in the city from London this morning, each wearing a very expensive and bright looking watch chain, which they are proudly exhibiting to their friends and acquaintances.

A Planet reporter met Mr. Thrasher this afternoon on King St.

"What is that you have on your watch chain?" he enquired.

"Why, that is one of the medals we got for winning the Labatt trophy," replied he. "Didn't you hear about it?"

"Tell me all about it," said the scribe.

"Well, I guess I will," replied Mr. Thrasher.

The team was composed of A. H. VonGuntzen, Geo. B. Merritt, W. A. Thrasher, and John Sowerby, skip. They have been in London contesting in the London tournament for the Labatt trophy.

"We played five games," said Mr. Thrasher, "and didn't lose one. Our first was with Harley Brown's team, of London, the score of which was 16-12; the second was with the Laird's, of Brampton, score 21-18; the third with Blenheim, score 18-15; the fourth with Col. Burke's, of St. Thomas, score 25-21, and the fifth and final with Dr. Wood's, of Mitchell, score 17-11. The contest for the trophy closed last night, Chatham victorious. The trophy, which will be possessed by the Chatham club for the next year, will arrive in the city to-morrow evening.

Beside the trophy each of the players of the Chatham rink was presented with the above-mentioned gold medals on which are artistically engraved "London Tournament, First Prize," and also the name of the receiver.

There were about 30 rinks present from all over the Western district, and all members of the Western Bowling Association. From the very outset it was thought that the trophy would fall to either the Chatham or Blenheim rink.

Mr. Sowerby and Mr. Merritt are still in London.

Mr. Thrasher thinks the report that two rinks from Chatham were defeated in Toronto, must have been an error.

SUGAR BEET

Experiments to be Made at Toronto Exhibition.

Different Stages in the Growth of the Vegetable to be Fully Demonstrated—How Saccharine Matter is Produced.

In connection with the establishment in Ontario of the sugar beet industry, which, it is anticipated, will greatly increase the return to the farmers from land sown to be adapted to the cultivation of the beets, Prof. A. E. Shuttleworth, of the Agricultural College, Guelph, is conducting, for the Department of Agriculture, a series of extremely interesting experiments. At the forthcoming Exhibition there will be shown a model beet sugar plot, together with all the necessary implements used in the cultivation of the beet sugar. A third of the plot was planted early in May, and at the Exhibition season the beets in this position will be shown in full growth. Another third will be planted to-day, and the beets will be shown at the Exhibition standing in rows, giving the distance which every beet should occupy. The remaining third, which will be planted in a few days, will be shown at the Exhibition with the beets standing thickly together in rows, and a demonstration will be made as to how the beets should be thinned out to show the best returns in saccharine matter. It is anticipated that hundreds of farmers will attend these demonstrations.

If Ontario is to succeed in growing sugar beets the nature of the vegetable must be understood. Beets growing far apart make starch, and continue their growth far into September. Beets planted to produce sugar must be so thinned out that about the 1st of September they will begin to crowd each other in the patch, thus preventing growth, and insuring a ripening of the vegetable, which in the bright sunshine and cool nights of September makes sugar in these conditions very rapidly.

Another branch of the experiments of the greatest interest is the cultivation in fifteen different sections throughout Ontario of sugar beets, following upon the application of farmers for the holding of the experiments. The fifteen centres are: Alvinston, London, Watford, Simcoe, Duessville, Cayuga, Berlin, Clinton, Mount Forest, Walkerton, Whitby, Port Perry, Lindsay, Peterboro' and Belleville. In each of the centres there are twenty-five plots of one-quarter acre each, representing the various qualities of soil and conditions of culture. In the latter part of August a sample of ten beets is to be taken from each of these 375 plots, and one of the ten will be brought to the Toronto Exhibition. The beets are to be analyzed to discover how they stand before their sugar-making period begins. They have all been cultivated according to the directions sent out when the farmers applied for the seed. Inspectors have seen that they were properly thinned, and at the time of thinning the plots were scored, and marks given for the cleanliness of patches and methods of thinning. On the 20th of August the patches will be again inspected, when they should be at their full growth and the ground should be covered with foliage. Marks will then again be given for their condition. Samples will be taken for chemical analysis three times during the autumn, so that the increase in sugar qualities to the maximum may be ascertained, and exactly in October parties will be sent out by the department with beet pullers and scales to lift and estimate the yield per acre of the experimental plots. In estimating the respective value of the experiments, a maximum of 40 per cent. will be allowed for the cultivation, and 60 for the yield in quantity of sugar contained and purity. It is understood that a silver medal will be presented by the Exhibition to the best plot.

With respect to the commercial value of all this, Prof. Shuttleworth is no longer in doubt. A sugar beet factory is now being built in Wallaceburg. Farmers adjacent to the centre have agreed to supply this season 20,000 tons of beets to Lansing Beet sugar factory of Michigan, and they are to be shipped to Michigan, yielding the farmers three dollars a ton. Next year the Wallaceburg factory is under contract to pay four dollars per ton, and will probably require from 50,000 to 60,000 tons of beets. The location of the other factories, in all probability, will be determined by the results of the experiments now being made in beet culture. Although it is not in the line of his researches, Prof. Shuttleworth believes that in Ontario beet sugar can be produced from beets more cheaply than it can be imported, and that the industry will be second only in importance to dairying.

ELOPERS CAUGHT

Had run Away From Their Home in Ontario—Girl's Parent Pursued, and Finally Found Them at Flint

Flint, Mich., July 24.—Henry S. Buimer, a prominent and well-to-do farmer of Wallenstein, Ont., arrived in this city last evening in search of his eloping daughter Dora, who had fled from home with the man of her choice, George Stump, who has been firing an engine in a mill within a short distance from the home of the Buimers. The couple had arranged, through the pleadings of the young girl, to flee to Port Huron on account of the alleged strict discipline which the parents held over her, she being the youngest of eight children, living with her brother and caring for her father. In order that the disappearance might not be detected they attired themselves in bicycle costumes and rode the same wheel, the girl riding on the step till they reached Port Huron. The wheel was sold and with what little money it brought they came to this city, walking a portion of the distance. They applied to Mayor Dibble, who is landlord of the Dibble House, for work last Monday, the couple taking the name of the young lover. Last night the parent located them and they confessed their guilt. The girl had been employed in the hotel, while the lover had been doing odd jobs about the city. Stump was arrested and cast into jail, but was released to-day, as the parent refused to prosecute. After his release he bought the young lady of his choice and was nearly killed by the father, who was prevented from aiding a chapter to the romance by the mayor. This evening the trio left the city for their Canadian homes.

CONGRATULATIONS.

The Planet heartily congratulates Mr. John Sowerby and the members of his bowling rink upon their splendid success in London.

That in a competition embracing all the best clubs of the Province the Maple City representatives proved themselves the champions, is a fact of which we are all proud and grateful. That so many magnificent rinks fell before them is but a higher tribute to their skill and proficiency. The Maple City is exceedingly proud of your success, gentlemen. Congratulations!

MACHINISTS RETURNING TO WORK.

Early in May the machinists working for the Lehigh Valley Railroad company went out on a strike for shorter hours and the same pay. The company had always dealt liberally with its men, but labor agitators like President Shaffer, who wanted to show the great authority they had with the unions, ordered a strike and out the men went. They have had nearly three months of idleness in which to think over their folly, and many of the men who concluded to think for themselves went back to work. The union has finally declared the strike off, and the men will return to work. These strikers are educators, and the men who have had a few months of enforced idleness, or have lost their jobs altogether, will think twice before obeying the order of any so-called labor president to strike. If the wages paid were poor there might be good cause for revolt, but where a strike is ordered in order to show the power of labor over capital, it is very foolish and works great hardship to men who are satisfied and are willing to let well enough alone.

THE PRO-BOER MOVEMENT.

The disorganization of the Liberal party in Great Britain is another example of the pernicious effects of coquetting with veiled treason in an effort to make political capital, says the Ottawa Citizen. That is one thing the public all over the empire won't tolerate. The Liberal party has allowed itself to be compromised by a handful of irresponsible cranks. Even the Government was deceived into deference to the pro-Boers for a time and the campaign in South Africa has been much prolonged on the one hand by the encouragement given the Boers by these people and on the other by the paralyzing effect of the agitation in preventing the Government taking decisive measures to end the war. The revelations contained in President Steyn's papers will do, and no doubt have done, much to open the eyes of the British people. The prolonged resistance has not been so much a fight to a finish as a waiting game depending for success on some development to be brought about by the pro-Boer treason-mongers at home and political complications on the continent. The British people cannot remove the latter source of hope—it has practically removed itself—but it can remove the former. Repressive measures directed against those who "give aid and comfort to the enemy" at home may be considered a strong remedy, but a vigorous and decisive move in that direction would probably be as effective in removing one of the main props of the Boer resistance as vigorous war measures in the field. Documentary evidence was procured in Pretoria which convicts several of the British leaders in the pro-Boer movement of treasonable communication with the enemy and there is little doubt if the Government had foreseen the prolonged resistance which the movement in England would encourage it would have taken action. But it is not too late. The Liberal party has evidently awakened to the compromising result of playing into the hands of the pro-Boers and the fact should awaken the Government to the realization that public feeling will sustain strong measures in the national interest.

LORD ROSEBERRY'S ATTITUDE.

The London correspondent of the New York Tribune, who, unfortunately, dishes up the editorial synopsis of the week's news which Canadian papers publish, devotes space to a sarcastic attack upon the attitude of Lord Rosebery in connection with the split in the Liberal party at home. As a matter of fact, Lord Rosebery's position, while it may not meet with the approval of American newspapers, is one which will commend itself to every British subject as courageous and patriotic. He believes that when the empire is threatened by an enemy the opposition should support the government in every possible way, reserving criticism on the conduct of the war until the danger is past. This is exactly what the Liberal party in Great Britain and its pro-Boer annex have not been doing. It may be urged that the danger to the empire is past; but war is like a conflagration the danger is never past until it is thoroughly ended. No person knows what moment a European complication might precipitate a first class war on England, in which contingency the chances are more than even that we would lose the whole of South Africa, or, at least have to reconquer it from the sea when the other war was over. Under such conditions, any British subjects who do or say anything calculated to prolong the present resistance of the Boers, are enemies to their country and might easily be responsible under imaginable circumstances for a series of disasters which would seriously affect the prestige of the Empire. Of such Lord Rosebery is not. He desires to remove himself from any suspicion of being connected with any such people or the section of the Liberal party which has allowed itself to be compromised by a home guard of reckless, notoriety-hunting irresponsibles. Free speech is a grand thing. But there is a time for everything, and the time for running down your country and slandering your soldiers is not when that country is still waging a long and difficult war with its army 7,000 miles away, and an armed Europe across the channel, almost any state of which would be only too glad to take advantage of the situation if enough of them could be got to act in concert to dare the experiment. Free speech is all right until it gets too free. Even in the British house of commons "the clutcher" has to be moved occasionally. It is about time the British nation moved the clutcher on the pro-Boers.

W. T. Goffe, recently connected with the Canadian Trade Review, of Montreal, now a resident of Grimsby, is planning to issue a daily paper for Grimsby and district. He will call it the Peninsular, and intends to have the first number out by July 25th, or August 1st.

The Deutschland, of the Hamburg-American line, has crossed the ocean from New York to Plymouth in five days and a half. It is estimated that the route travelled is seven hours longer than the route from New York to Liverpool. At the same rate of speed, says the Windsor Record, it is estimated that the passage from Sydney to Britain could be made in three and one-third days.

TWO GREAT MEN.

Hamilton Spectator. After discussing Goldwin Smith's vegetarian rot, Brer Adolphe Smith, of the Bobcaygeon Independent, tells his readers that the food of the future will be prepared in chemical laboratories. Brer Smith has been experimenting with chemical food, in the back parlor of Mrs. Lane's hotel, for years, and with satisfying results. The favorite dish is purely vegetable, being made up of lemon, sugar, water, nutmeg and another ingredient the name of which has slipped our memory, but which is understood to be manufactured from corn. Smith is practical, while Smith is only a theorist.

DR. KOCH'S BIG DISCOVERY

Bovine and Human Tuberculosis not the Same—Doubts Mutual Infection.

Cattle Cannot be Infected With Human Tuberculosis and Vice-Versa—Proposition Follows.

London, July 23.—A feature of today's session of the British Congress on tuberculosis was Dr. Robt. Koch's paper, which was listened to with the deepest interest by a big gathering in St. James' Hall. Lord Lister, professor of surgery in the Glasgow and Edinburgh universities and one of the British vice-presidents of the congress, introduced the noted German professor to the assembly.

TWO VARIETIES OF TUBERCULOSIS.

During his address to the congress Dr. Koch said his experiments had satisfied him that human tuberculosis and bovine tuberculosis were radically different diseases, and that he had amply demonstrated that cattle could not be infected with human tuberculosis. The counter-proposition, that human beings were not liable to infection from bovine tuberculosis, was harder to prove, the doctor said, owing to the difficulty of experimenting upon human subjects, but that personally he was satisfied such was the case. He then entered into a lengthy analysis of the best methods of preventing consumption.

NEW YORK SYSTEM ADVOCATED.

Dr. Koch also highly complimented Dr. Hermann M. Biggs, pathologist and director of the bacteriological laboratories of the New York City Health Department, upon the repressive measures concerning tuberculosis taken in New York City, where, he said, the mortality from tuberculosis had been reduced 35 per cent. since 1886, and recommended the system organized by Dr. Biggs in New York to study and imitation of all municipalities. Dr. Koch closed his remarks expressing his belief that the ultimate stamping out of tuberculosis was possible.

DR. KOCH INTERVIEWED.

In an interview Dr. Koch said:—"I arrived at the discovery through what I consider practically indisputable tests. These experiments lead me to believe that human tuberculosis and bovine tuberculosis are two entirely distinct species. I have found the human tubercle incapable of inoculation into the animal system. Proceeding from that premise, I am prepared to show that humanity's far-reaching precautions against infected cattle may once for all be abandoned."

STIRS ALL EXPERTS.

Dr. Koch's new theory has produced an effect like that of a lyddite shell. Dr. Allen F. Haight, of Chicago, official representative of the American Medical Association, said:—"If I had not heard Dr. Koch quietly announce his discovery in course of private conversation it would seem to me absolutely incredible. I can only say that Dr. Koch is too profound a student and has too much reputation at stake to promulgate such a proposition unless convinced of its soundness beyond a shadow of doubt. If he is able practically to demonstrate his claims the sanitary systems of the world will be shaken to the very roots. 'Revolution' but faintly expresses what the discovery will precipitate."

WHAT DR. REYNOLDS SAYS.

English experts talk of the theory with mingled astonishment and contempt. Health Commissioner Reynolds, on being advised of Dr. Koch's discovery, said:—"The discovery is certainly of the highest importance, especially as regards milk. As far as meat is concerned it has not been generally believed that it contained elements of danger when it had been cooled, therefore the announcement is of comparatively less significance to the civilized people of the world. Milk taken in its natural state is a different proposition. While probably nobody is desirous of drinking the milk of tuberculosis infected cows, yet a great boon is assured if it can be consumed with impunity. The discovery will have a practical result in simplifying the work of milk inspection, although not rendering this unnecessary."

OF SPECIAL INTEREST

To Hay Fever Sufferers.

Sufferers from hay fever and summer catarrh will be interested to learn that there is a new, simple, inexpensive but effective home treatment for this obstinate and baffling disease, and that a booklet fully describing the treatment will be mailed free to anyone by addressing the F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. Doubtless this statement of a cure and positive preventive of hay fever will be received with skepticism by the thousands who have found the only relief every year was a change of climate during the summer months.

But whether skeptical or not it will cost nothing to investigate this new treatment. Simply send name and address on a postal card to F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for the booklet which, besides describing the treatment contains a concise treatise on the cause and character of this peculiar disease.

ARSENIC IN BEER.

London, July 24.—The commission appointed to inquire into the use of arsenic in beer, has made a preliminary report, in which the opinion is expressed that the access of arsenic in brewing is unavoidable with the use of certain ingredients. It admits that there is some force in the objection that it is hardly possible to produce beer that is free from arsenic, but the committee will ultimately recommend that a standard test be established, defining the proportion of arsenic that is to be regarded as wholly inadmissible.

Nothing tastes good. Nothing gives pleasure. The mind is dull and sluggish. The will is weak. Little things cause great irritation. What's the matter? The probabilities are that the stomach is deranged and the liver involved.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes a man who is run down and dispirited feel like a new being. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, stirs the sluggish liver into action, and increases the activity of the blood-making glands, so that there is an abundant supply of pure, rich blood.

Mr. Edward Jacobs, of Marengo, Crawford Co., Indiana, writes: "After three years of suffering with liver trouble and malaria I gave up all hopes of ever getting stout again. The last chance was to try your medicine. I had tried all the home doctors and received but little relief. After taking three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and one of his 'Pleasant Pellets' I am stout and hearty. It is due entirely to your wonderful medicines."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing 1008 large pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing and handling only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE MARKETS.

THE LOCAL MARKETS

Planet Office, Tuesday evening, July 25.

The following gossip was given to The Planet by John Waddell, of J. B. Stringer and Co's:

The grain-market can be reported in better form this week for all lines mostly. There is an abundance of receipts at present, it being the between seasons period. In the course of three or four weeks new grain is expected on the market in the usual quantities for the time of year, and prices as good or better than last year's opening are likely to be made. Wheat will be a better sample than last year; also the oats and barley, this being the general opinion. New oats may open at 25c to 26c and barley at 75c for good samples. Wheat at 60c. Demand for wheat, both the export and domestic call, is expected to be very brisk this week, as also for the coarse grains. Market is sympathizing here with the activity and advance on the other side of the line.

The following are the prices:

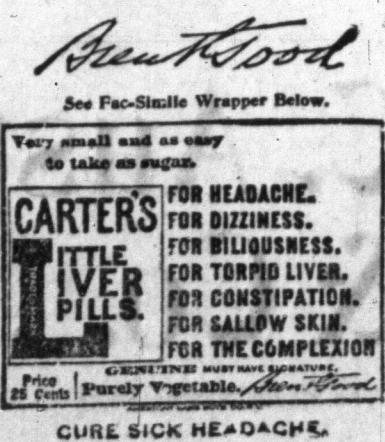

Wheat, 63.

Mixed oats, 30c.

ABSOLUTE SECURITY.

Hay, baled, $9 to $10 per ton.
Hay, loose, $7.50 to $8.

Alfalfa, $5 to $6.

REAL BAD
CHARACTER

Thus Does Accused Woman Describe Herself at Police Court

A Local Disorderly House Raided by The Police Last Night—Many Inmates Secured.

"I'll punch you with my fist if you put my name in the paper. I'm a bad character."

Such was the way that Annie Williams, one of the three women arrested by the police last evening, requested to have her name kept out of the paper.

P. C.'s Groves, Dodson, and Darr raided the house on the corner of Duke and Wellington streets, about 11 o'clock last night. One man was found on guard at the gate.

The inmates blithely enjoying themselves when P. C. Groves strode in at the door. One of the men saw the policeman and he made a break for the back door, only to fall into Dodson's arms. All at the house were gathered in.

The front room was turned into a guard house and as each prisoner was secured he or she was put in the guard room. One of the men was found in bed. When the house had been searched and all corralled, they were removed to the police station, all except Annie Williams, who, according to herself is a bad character. She said she was too sick to go and she was left at the house in charge of Constable Weaver. A doctor was summoned and he said that Annie was able to go to the police station, and go she did.

This morning the police court docket resembled a seat at the circus, with its array of men and women crowded in together.

Annie Jenkins was charged with keeping the house of ill-fame, and Mary Shaw, Annie Williams and several men were indicted as frequenters.

The prisoners were all remanded till Monday. The bail of the men was fixed at $50, and the women at $75, and by noon only two inmates and two frequenters were left in custody.

Mary Shaw told Officer Groves that she had often heard of him but this was the first time she had made his acquaintance. An odd feature is that none of the prisoners can read or write.

Ward Stanworth appeared for the prisoners.

A WRIT

Arch. Park Threatens to Issue One in Connection With Sewer Connection.

Arch. Park, of the firm of Park Bros., says that he will issue a writ against the city in connection with the repairs recently made to the King and William street sewers.

Mr. Park claims that the city have tapped the 20 inch King street sewer into the 18-inch William street sewer. If there should be a heavy rain, the water from the King street sewer would fill the outlet to the William street sewer and the residents on the latter street would be flooded out.

The greatest grievance that the William street property owners have, is that the property owners on King street didn't pay a cent for the William street sewer, and the residents on the last named street are up in arms at their sewer being used by outsiders, and also at the prospect of their sewage outlet being stopped by the people who didn't pay for the William street sewer.

Arch. Park is determined to put a stop to the use of the William street sewer, and his purpose is to issue a writ at once.

A very lively runaway took place near the Merrill House last evening. The horse who caused the excitement belonged to Alex. Jamieson.

Self-expanding.

Your foot spreads when you stand upon it.

Therefore a new shoe which fits it neatly when lifted, must pinch when you bear upon it.

Your foot narrows again, at the ball, when lifted.

Therefore when wear has stretched the leather across the ball of the foot, so that it is comfortable to stand on—the shoe is then too loose when lifted.

This is why it wrinkles, and over runs on the sides.

Now the Resilia Soled Slater Shoe expands when your foot does, and contracts when lifted, making it easy as an old shoe, the first time you wear it. Goodyear Welted—$5.00 grade.

MANITOBA CROPS

George H. Bradbury Commissioned to Come East and Make Known the Date of the Harvest.

George H. Bradbury, of Selkirk, Man., who has been commissioned by the Manitoba Government to come east and make known the facts regarding the Manitoba crops is in the city to-day and called on The Planet.

"The crops," said Mr. Bradbury, "are beyond doubt the greatest ever had in Manitoba. We have two million acres of wheat growing as thick as it can grow. It is estimated that the yield will be from 40 to 60 million bushels. In addition to that we have 700,000 acres of barley all in good condition and promising a very big yield."

For the purpose of harvesting this, the Manitoba Government have commissioned me to come east with a view of assisting to secure the harvest help required, which is estimated at fully 20,000 men.

From despatches I received last night I understand that the wages were going to be higher than they have ever been in Manitoba for harvesting, as offers have been made freely throughout the country by the farmers for men at $30 a month and board. There never was a better time for those wishing to see the possibilities of Manitoba than the present is, for visiting the Province. The Government is taking a very active interest in the matter of securing the necessary help for the farmers, which in itself is a guarantee that there will be an abundance of work for every one wishing to go."

When Mr. Bradbury first started out he intended to call meetings of the farmers throughout the country. This he found it was impossible to do as the farmers are at present very busily engaged in harvesting their crops. He, however, is distributing drogers throughout the country and hanging up bill posters.

QUITS THE REGIMENT.

Lieut. David Cheyne, much to the surprise of the military men of Windsor, dropped out of the Twenty-first Essex Regiment. He sent in his resignation to Lieut.-Col. Galt yesterday.

Very little can be learned as to what led up to Cheyne's resignation, but it is understood that the direct cause was the recent promotion of the regiment. Lieut. Cheyne was first lieutenant of No. 3 Company and had qualified at the military school as captain. When Capt. Laing was promoted, the friends of Cheyne expected he would be given command of No. 1 Company, but Capt. Wigle was offered and accepted the position. Capt. Kent, who commanded No. 3 Company, had the machine selected Lieut. Charles Beer as his first officer in place of Lieut. Cheyne, thus leaving the latter out.

CHATHAM'S SHOWING.

Under the heading, "Toronto's Poor Showing," the Toronto Telegram says: "The London exhibition at some days of their candidates for the collegiate institutes in an examination which was successfully taken by only 56 per cent of the candidates from the Toronto schools! The success of a pupil in an examination is not always the test of efficiency in the school which educates him, but why should there be a difference of 28 per cent in favor of the London schools, according to the test of this year's entrance examinations?"—London Free Press.

And while the discussion is going on it might be mentioned that 98 per cent of the Chatham candidates were successful.

Angry Detroit Woman Chastised Motor-man and Conductor.

Detroit, July 25.—When a street car motor-man grins at you instead of stopping his car, get a horsewhip and not only use it upon the motor-man but upon the conductor!

An excited woman, who refused to divulge her identity, gave this advice in an infernal manner about 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. And, just to show she meant what she said, the woman illustrated her remarks with a whip.

So, when that "plug line" car reached the corner of Mt. Elliott avenue and the boulevard on its return trip, the mother was in waiting. She boarded the car and attacked the conductor. The motor-man hurried to the conductor's assistance and he also received blows from the whip in the hands of the infuriated little woman.

The woman was finally disarmed and ejected from the car. She seemed satisfied with herself and with the work of her whip.

What does it profit a woman if she gain the whole world of knowledge and lose her own health? Young women students, and school teachers, eager, ambitious, and full of energy, very often neglect their health in the struggle to gain education. They eat insufficient food, and at irregular hours, they allow irregularity of the womanly functions to be established, and the result is that they become chronic invalids with all their education practically worthless.

There is a plain road back to health for such as these, marked by the feet of thousands. It is the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for diseases of the stomach and digestive and nutritive organs, and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for diseases of the delicate organs of womanhood. A cure so certainly follows the use of these remedies that out of hundreds of thousands who have tried the treatment, ninety-eight in every hundred have been perfectly and permanently cured. Constipation, which is a common ailment of students, can be entirely cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

CONVICTS DRUNK

Saved Methylated Spirits From Shellac—one of Them Died

Montreal, July 24.—The death of Gideon Deguire, reported from St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary occurred under peculiar circumstances. Deguire was serving a seven-years' sentence for manslaughter. The doctor who performed an autopsy reported that death was caused by poisoning from methylated spirits. By the evidence of the guards and other convicts, the method in which this was obtained was shown. The convicts are frequently served with small quantities of white shellac, made up with methylated spirits for their work. Each time they save up a little of what is served to them, and gradually collect enough to get drunk on. They let the shellac settle to the bottom of it as much as possible, and drink the spirits off the top. In this way Deguire had collected quite a quantity of the poisonous stuff. Being a man of convivial temperament, he shared his dose with a fellow convict, Delphis Brunau. Shortly after drinking it, both went to sleep, and had to be taken to their cells. Later on when they did not wake up, the doctor of the institution was called and did what he could. Brunau recovered, but Deguire, having drunk more heavily, died.

Watch Chains Are Not Fashionable When the J. & C. Should Be Worn.

As fashions are so frequently changing, gentlemen who are required to appear anywhere in evening dress are not quite sure whether it is correct to wear a watch and chain. "Strictly speaking," said an expert in talking to one who wishes to be absolutely correct in his dress when the Royal party reaches Toronto, "it is now considered not quite correct to wear waistcoat jewelry with evening dress."

"It is all, however, a question of taste. I am sometimes requested by gentlemen giving me their orders for an evening-dress suit to put in a watch-chain button-hole in the vest, but in the majority of cases I have strict orders to leave it out. Personally I advocate the absence of jewelry when a gentleman is wearing evening dress. A more chain stretched across the waistcoat cannot alone establish his claim to the title of gentleman."

"On the other hand, it seems to me to be an effective declaration something to this effect: 'I have gold and I wear it.'"

"One may be guided in the assumption that it is considered by gentlemen vulgar to wear a watch and chain by the fact that gentlemen's fashion plates dispense now with the watch and chain in evening dress. That is quite a new feature so far as these plates are concerned, and they emanate from the highest authorities in the matter of dress."

"White evening vest? You can wear this at a theatre when you have been out dining, but to appear at any ordinary social function in a white vest would show bad taste."

"Evening-dress jacket? It is correct to wear this at any function except at a dance. You should wear full evening dress at a dance—black suit throughout and the coat with tails."

"It is also incorrect to wear a silk hat with evening dress. You should wear an opera hat and long, black coat with silk revers for the street."

Lady Smith Siege Stories.
One of the correspondents who went through the siege of Lady Smith, Mr. Donald Macdonald, described his experiences the other evening to a highly interested audience at the Polytechnic Hall, Regent street. His lecture bristled with good stories, and there was not a touch of malice in any of them. One of the best was that of a young officer, who, on a critical occasion, volunteered to cut some wire fences, as he was the only man who possessed a wire cutter. It was a perilous operation, conducted under a galling fire, yet the officer escaped. Some time afterward Mr. Macdonald met him, and said, "I suppose you always carry wire cutters now?" "No fear," was the reply. "I carry a corkscrew and a tin-opener; they are more useful."

Another story was the discovery of a Boer who had received a terrible layonet wound through his ribs. As the man was being carried into the British lines, a London "Tommy" who was watching him asked if he was badly hurt. "Yes," said the doctor. "Do you know him?" "Course I do," said the soldier. "He's one o' mine. I giv' it 'im, but I did it as gentle as I could. It wasn't the shovin' in; it was the pullin' out. Lucky for 'im he met me!"—London Chronicle.

Lee In's Dancing.
Mrs. Lincoln was almost as ready to laugh as her husband, and it sometimes happened that he was the point of her joke.
One evening, sometime before she married Abraham Lincoln, Miss Todd was at a little evening party, surrounded by a bevy of young women. When the music struck up, her tall and gawky admirer approached, and much to her amusement, said, in his peculiar idiom:
"Miss Todd, I want to dance with you the worst way."

Miss Todd accepted the invitation, and casting a look full of meaning at her friends, she did her best to keep clear of Lincoln's great boots. Finally she returned to her seat, quite out of breath from her exertions.
"Well Mary," said one of the girls, "did he dance with you the worst way?"
"Yes," she answered, "the very worst."

Spraying Potatoes.
Spray potatoes with Bordeaux mixture and paris green, using copper sulphate six pounds, lime four pounds, water one barrel and paris green one-half pound. Use paris green only during June, but the above formula during July and August. Spray two or three times a month. At the Vermont Experiment Station spraying during ten years in succession resulted in a yield of 296 bushels of potatoes per acre. Where unsprayed the yield was 173 bushels.

The Kind of Man He Is.
Last night two men were speaking of a Toronto business man who is interested in a great many ventures. "He's an enterprising man," said one.
"Enterprising!" exclaimed the other; "why, if he had gas on the stomach he'd organize a company to bore for it—yes, and he would make money out of it and cure himself of the affliction!"—Star.

Epitaph.
The natural antipathy between rhyme and grammar is exemplified in this inscription upon a grave in Dumfriesshire, Scotland:
"Here lies Andrew McPherson, who was a peccoliar person; He stood six feet two Without his shoes, And was slain At Waterloo."

Milk Crosswise.
Milk crosswise, that is to say, one foot on the left and vice versa; the milk thus flows more copiously than by parallel milking.

A MERCHANT TAILOR

Robert Custer, 64 York St. Hamilton, heartily endorses Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Another witness to the many thousands already enrolled on the side of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, is Robert Custer, the well known merchant tailor, of 64 York Street, Hamilton. All over Canada Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have a reputation unequalled by any other dyspepsia remedy. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are the most successful treatment for Dyspepsia before the public at the present day, and have been since their first coming on the market several years ago.

It is remarkable how many people in this country seem to have troubles of digestion, and it is no less remarkable to note the astonishing number who have ended their stomach troubles by the use of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are absolutely harmless compound of pepsin, diastase and other natural digestants mixed in sugar. But they act so perfectly on the food in the stomach, they do their work so thoroughly, that the actual process of digestion is gone through, utterly independent of the stomach.

The rational, sensible way of treating dyspepsia insures the nourishment of the body and all the blessings of well-digested food, while it at the same time allows the tired-over-worked stomach the rest it must have to grow strong and healthy once more. People who have used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are the people who have the warmest praise for them.

"I was troubled for three years," writes Mr. Robert Custer, of Hamilton, "with Dyspepsia and Heartburn, and could get no relief. I was persuaded to try Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, and as I occupied by an officer of high rank, and creep silently toward it. Arrived at the tent, their sharp knife makes them a door in the canvas, and they glide undiscovered into the interior. Indeed, so wonderfully adroit are they that even the very watch-dogs do not discover them, and a thief has been known to actually step over the body of a dog without disturbing the animal."

TORONTO PRODUCE.
Toronto, July 23.—Butter—All kinds of dairy are coming forward rather freely with the exception of pound rolls which are scarce and in good demand, selling at 17 to 18c. Eggs, per doz. are steady at 16c to 17c for the gilt edged lots, and the common to good is selling at 12c to 15c. Creamery is firm at 20 to 21c for prints and boxes.
Eggs—Selects are firm at 12-12c, but fresh gathered are plentiful at 11 to 11-12c. Seconds are slow at 8c to 9c.
Potatoes—Quotations for old are nominal at 30 cents per bag, car lots on track here, and at 40 cents out of store. New are coming in a little more freely and are selling well. Jobbers quote $1.10 per bushel for large lots and $1.20 to $1.25 out of store.
Cheese—Market remains steady, with good demand for finest goods for export. We quote finest, old, 9-1-2 to 9-3-4; new, choice, 9-1-2 to 9-3-4; twins, 9-3-4 to 10c.

THIEVES UP BOMBAY.

They Are Said to Be the Most Adroit in the World.

To enter a zenana, or the women's apartment in a native house, where all the family treasures are kept, is the ambition of every native thief. This, however, is no easy matter, for the zenana is in the centre of the house, surrounded by other apartments occupied by ever watchful sentinels. In order to reach it the thief burrows under the house until the tunnel reaches a point beneath the floor of the room to which access does not at once enter. Full well he knows that the inmates of the house sometimes detect the miner at work and stand over the hole armed with deadly weapons, silently awaiting his appearance. He has with him a piece of bamboo, at the end of which a bunch of grass represents a human head, and this he thrusts up through the completed breach. If the watchmen head does not come to grief the real one takes its place, and the thief, entering the zenana, secretes himself, or, finding everything already favorable for his purpose, proceeds to attempt what seems an impossible undertaking.

This, indeed, is no less a task than to remove from the ears and arms and nose the earrings, bracelets, armlets, bangles, and noserings of the sleepers without awakening them, and to get safely away with his plunder.

Who but a dacoit would be equal to so delicate, dangerous, and difficult a piece of work? But the dacoit seldom fails.

"These adroit burglars," says my authority, "commit the most daring robberies in the midst of the English army. Knowing the position of the tents, they mark out one which is occupied by an officer of high rank, and creep silently toward it. Arrived at the tent, their sharp knife makes them a door in the canvas, and they glide undiscovered into the interior. Indeed, so wonderfully adroit are they that even the very watch-dogs do not discover them, and a thief has been known to actually step over the body of a dog without disturbing the animal."

Called Down the Corporal.
With great trouble a small body of men were busy hoisting a heavy log to the top of the blockhouse that was being repaired after an assault in one of the campaigns of the War of American Independence.
As the log swung to and fro, the voice of the little man was heard encouraging the workers with Heaven away! There she goes! Heave, ho!

By-and-by there rode past an officer in plain clothes, who asked the little man why he did not help the others.
"Sir," was the pompous reply, "I am a corporal!"
"Indeed," said the other, "I did not know that. I ask your pardon, Mr. Corporal."

Dismounting without further ado, the officer lent a willing hand until the job was done. Then, wiping the honest sweat off his brow, he turned to the little man and remarked:
"The next time, Mr. Corporal, you have a bit of work like that in hand, and too few men to do it, send for the Commander-in-chief, and I'll come and assist you."

With which offer and rebuke General Washington left the astonished corporal to his own reflections.

His Personal Schedule.
"Marse William," wrote the old colored citizen, "if you thinkin' or anything ter gimme in de Christmas time hit mout be you'd lak ter know jes what I needs. Marse William, hey you got an overcoat what you don't want, or a better hat than seen some service; or a pair er britches what don't fit you; or a weskit, speckled or unspeckled, or a undercoat wid de sleeves frazzled; or a pair er shoes what run down at de heel, on ten cents to git my dram wid? Ef you hez, Marse William, dese tings is what de ol' man needs, en needs dem bad."

Annual Loss of Fertility.
The loss of fertilizer from rains cannot be estimated. The water courses carry millions of tons of plant foods to the sea. The Nile alone pours more than 1,000 tons into the Mediterranean every 24 hours. The annual loss from the earth's soil is greater than the entire deposits of guano, even before they were exhausted. Unless a large portion of the fertilizer is reclaimed from the sea a time may come when the world's average yield of crops will be exceedingly low.

They Used Clean Ones.
The head master of a boarding school in Sheffield is very particular about the behavior of his scholars during meal times. A short time ago the master observed one of the boys cleaning his knife on the table cloth and immediately pounced on him.

"That what you generally do at home, sir?" he asked sternly.
"Oh, no," replied the boy quietly. "We generally use clean knives at home."

Proud of His Profession.
A Chinese newspaper contains the announcement that a certain dancing master will hold a religious service in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of his ancestor, who was the first of the family to take up dancing as a profession.

Deep Coal Mining.
Four thousand feet below the surface is considered to be the lowest depth for profitable coal mining. The average depth of British coal mines is 750 to 850 feet, but some of them are worked at a depth of 2,500 feet.

An Aged Cupid.
A statue of Cupid, dating from the Roman period, has been discovered at the village of Montegut, in the Canton of Fribourg, Switzerland. The remnants of a Roman wall and some pottery were also discovered.

REVIEWS IN THREE CITIES

Montreal Will Have to Arrange its own Affair in General O'Grady-Haly's Idea.

Concentration of Provincial Troops at Quebec, Toronto and Winnipeg Decided on.

Montreal, July 2.—It is practically settled that the different units of the Montreal brigade, with the possible exception of the Duke of York Hussars and the Second Regiment Canadian Artillery, will go to Quebec in September, for the purpose of taking part in the big review to be held on the Plains of Abraham, during the visit of the Duke of Cornwall and York to that city.

It is understood that the department of militia has finally decided that Montreal reviews shall only be held in Quebec, Toronto and Winnipeg, and that if cities like Montreal and Ottawa and Halifax wish to honor the Duke with military pageants, they will have to limit the troops that are to take part in the review to those having headquarters in those cities. That would mean that in the event of the militia authorities of Montreal deciding to hold a review here the troops that would take part therein would simply consist of the regiments forming the Montreal garrison. The review there, would not be very large.

It is known that Major-General O'Grady-Haly is strongly in favor of concentrating the Quebec regiments at Quebec, the Ontario regiments at Toronto, and the Manitoba regiments at Winnipeg, in order that big military demonstrations may take place at the points mentioned.

GENERAL BACK IN OTTAWA.

Ottawa, July 23.—General O'Grady-Haly has returned from Montreal, where he was in connection with the arrangements for the military display which is to be made on the occasion of the Duke of Cornwall and York's visit.

Colonel Cotton, quartermaster-general, is having plans prepared of the suggested review grounds in Toronto, and as soon as the government has determined how many troops shall be concentrated there, the department will proceed to make the necessary arrangements.

CLARKE WALLACE

Elected Grand Sovereign of the Grand Orange Lodge—Liquor Dealers May Stay in the Order.

Toronto, July 24.—The Grand Orange Lodge of British America devoted a considerable part of the day's session to a discussion of the position of saloon-keepers and others engaged in the liquor trade in relation to the order. At the last meeting of the Grand Lodge there was a vigorous agitation for their exclusion, and the necessary two-thirds vote to exclude was almost secured. The tide has run the other way now. The committee of the Grand Lodge on constitution reported to-day against their exclusion, supporting their views with statements that many hotel-keepers in the order were abstemious and of great value to the ranks, and not at all supporting the views of the committee. The question was very warmly debated in the Grand Lodge, and it was announced that the motion to exclude all persons in the liquor trade had been defeated by a fifty to thirty-seven vote.

The chief officers of the lodge were elected last night. Major Armstrong, of New Brunswick, Deputy Grand Master, contested the office of Grand Sovereign with the Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, and was beaten by 90 to 31. He was then nominated for deputy again, but declined, saying he was not good enough for the office. Following are the leading officers: N. Clarke Wallace, Grand Sovereign; Dr. Sproule, M. P., Deputy Grand; Rev. Wm. Walsh, Brampton, Grand Chaplain; Wm. Lockhart, Alliston, Grand Secretary; W. J. Parkhill, Midland, Grand Treasurer; Wm. Cooke, Midland, Grand Lecturer; H. H. Watson, Toronto, representative of Grand D. of C. The Deputy Grand Chaplains are Rev. C. E. Perry, Toronto; Rev. W. W. Leach, Parkhill, and Rev. H. C. Dickson, Wm. Murray, Dauphin, Lake, Man., Deputy Grand Lecturer.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than in any other. It is a disease that has been put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

STRUCK CITY HALL

Shell From the Kearsarge Causes Consternation in Newport.

Newport, July 24.—The screeching of a shell that proved to have come from the U. S. S. Kearsarge and its explosion into fragments that broke a small piece of stone out of the new City Hall building on Broadway, caused great consternation among Newport citizens shortly after 5 o'clock this evening. Half an hour later two officers came ashore from the Kearsarge, traced the shell to the City Hall and obtained information as to its passage over the city. They examined some of the pieces and pronounced the shell a one-pounder from the Kearsarge, after which they retired.

From the flagship it was learned that the crew was called to quarters at 5 o'clock. The gun crews took their positions, pointed the guns and went through the work of firing. A Nordenfeldt-Maxim automatic gun in the after fighting post went off when the crank was turned. Immediately all on board were alert and the officers were making hurried inquiries. The crews in the top declared that a shot had been fired, but that it had struck in the water just short of the wharves. The officers were thereupon dispatched to the shore in order to assure Rear Admiral Higginson that such was the fact. On the wharf a sacred party of fishermen were found who declared that something had passed over their heads screeching loudly.

How the shot happened to be fired has not been explained. The ship has been engaged since the breaking up of the camp at Nantuxet in target practice at sea. The matter will be thoroughly investigated.

High Class Ready Made

Our factory turns out many classes of garments, but its great business is fine, ready made clothes for men.

That is what it came into existence for. There were plenty of factories before it. The needed thing was a workshop that would put custom quality into ready made work. Ready made used to be the Cinderella of the tailoring world, and we helped transform it into the glass slipper stage.

T. & D. fine work still leads. The average of ready made tailoring has improved in the last ten years or so, but it has not improved up to the progressive standard of our factory. Take any of our fine, worsted suits—$10, $12 or $15 styles and put it side by side with any that you find in the market wearing the same price tag.

Cloth first. Compare the texture, thread for thread, the weight ounce for ounce. Hunt out the inner linings that stay the garment and keep it in shape. Note the seams and the pockets—you can never tell a T. & D. ready made pocket from a custom pocket.

The more thoroughly you compare, the more you'll realize the uniqueness of T. & D. standard.

FORGERY

Six Buffalo, N. Y., Ticket Brokers are Under Arrest on the Charge.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 25.—The railroad companies whose lines enter Buffalo to-night caused the arrest of six local ticket brokers on the charge of forgery. The six men—Abel Feigenbaum, Jacob Rosenthal, Albert Reed, J. P. Kurtz, Harry Young and Louis Callahan—were taken to police headquarters early this evening and locked up. They are charged with having duplicated joint agency stamps. All the accused brokers have offices on Exchange street. At one of these offices to-night it was said that the arrests were a move in the fight of the railroads to drive the ticket brokers out of the business.

BY BIG VOTE

British House of Lords Favors Revision of Royal Declaration.

New York, July 24.—In the British House of Lords last night, the second reading of the bill altering the terms of the royal declaration was carried by an overwhelming majority, says a despatch to the Tribune from London. The Roman Catholic peers did not, however, vote for the bill, and as the extreme Protestants will be alarmed lest security for the maintenance of Protestant succession should be diminished, it is impossible to expect that the measure will be passed into law without a prolonged and acrimonious debate.

Day's Doings At Rondeau, Maple City's Summer Resort.

How Cottagers and Campers are spending The Season of Recreation on the Shores of Lake Erie.

The Shenango came in this morning with a cargo of coal.

Miss Sadie Nellis, of Blenheim, is visiting at Outlaw Inn.

Miss Bertie Harmon, of Cleveland, is a guest at Drumtochty Lodge.

Justice Baude and family, Cleveland, are guests at the Bungalow.

W. N. Greenwood, Blenheim, has taken a cottage at Erieau and moved out yesterday.

Urania ran into the Eau yesterday on her regular trip. She had 125 passengers on board.

Theo. Pickering, proprietor of the Blenheim News, is rusticated at the Eau with his family.

Dr. Norman Maclean, of Southbridge, Mass., is visiting his sister, Mrs. John Kerr, Glenville.

John Oldershaw, Chatham, has rented one of the cottages in the Erieau Terrace. He moved out to-day.

Miss Levis Vickers and Miss Lena Thompson, of Chatham, are spending a couple of weeks at the Eau.

Miss Leake and a number of the other employees of the dressmaking establishment of Thos. Stone & Son have taken a cottage at the Eau for a couple of weeks.

The yacht Nancy, of Port Stanley, with her owner, Dr. Hutchinson, of London, on board, ran into the Eau last night. The Nancy is cruising to Buffalo.

The tent pitched on the lake shore and occupied by some Chatham youths has been dubbed the Byog, which, being interpreted, is "Bring your own grub."

The bathers from Drumtochty Lodge and from Outlaw Inn were photographed in a group yesterday by Arthur Kipp, the grocer and Planet agent.

The families of W. E. Hall, George Bonnsall and Mr. Vester, all residents of the Blenheim section of Erieau, took their lunches to the pavilion and picniced there yesterday afternoon.

Dr. King, the president of the L. E. & D. R. R. Co., was the guest of Matthew Wilson, K. C., at Chicopee Cottage, Erieau, this week. He is much pleased with the improvements among the cottagers, and says that so soon as the company can build storehouses and provide for the increased demands upon the carrying powers of the company they will turn their attention to the keeping up of their end of the improvements.

John Shillington, Blenheim, is staying at Erieau.

Miss Bertie Harmon caught four fish yesterday.

Robt. Griffith spent yesterday with Arthur Kipp.

W. Haye, Cleveland, was an expected visitor at the Eau yesterday.

Miss Irene Rutley is visiting her uncle, T. J. Rutley, at Thursaville.

Mrs. Edwin Jones, of Dangollyn Lodge, is spending a few days in town.

Miss McCullough, of Cedar Springs, was the guest of Miss Houston on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. McVicar, of Windsor, are visiting the latter's brother, Jno. McCorvie, Glenville.

To-day is civic holiday in Blenheim and a large number from there are spending the day at the Eau.

The date of the Scotch picnic has not been definitely fixed yet, but it will be held about the 15th of August.

The directors of the Peat Fuel Co. held a meeting at Drumtochty Lodge Tuesday night. Mrs. Samson entertained them at luncheon after the meeting.

The unique design in flower beds in front of Drumtochty cottage is suggestive of the Eau and also is much admired by all who see it. The flowers are blooming beautifully. They are planted in a row-boat previously filled with earth, and the picture formed is suggestive of city life and is also very pretty.

No longer can that freebooting craft, so long the terror of the Eau, continue her piratical pursuits. For many years has that good yacht, the Pirate, with her romantic crew of brigands, been the cause of quaking fear shivering the law-abiding residents of the bar. Owing to her speed the Pirate was always able to get away after every depredation, but even this prestige has been taken away. Yesterday that buccaner, bold, Bill Brackin, swooped down unexpectedly on the unsuspecting residents of the bar and, with fell design, seized Mrs. McCorvie, Miss Minnie Samson, James Brackin and Wilfred McCorvie. The Government sloop Osirus, in command of Admiral Garnet Beresford Brackin and Rear-Admiral Will Sampson Houston, heard of the outrage and set out in pursuit of the Pirate. The Osirus is the fine modern sloop with a flat bottom and antique design. She was built for speed and easily overtook the pirate craft in a long race for glory and the ice cream. The race was highly exciting and that pirate bold, Bill B., used every artifice known to the robbers of the seas to get away, but without success. The Pirate was overhauled and forced to strike her colors to the Osirus.

Elda Gould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gould, met with a peculiar accident yesterday. The little girl was in bathing when a wave struck her on the neck, dislocating it. She was sent to the city on the next train and taken to a doctor. Mrs. Gould and daughter are visiting at John McCorvie's residence, Glenville.

The merry residents of Rytoryhby had a monster taffy-pull last evening and some thirty-five persons gathered round the bon-fire on the beach to tell stories, laugh, be merry and eat taffy. The sugar was converted into candy at Happy Days, the residence of Jas. Brackin, and the taffy-makers excelled themselves, for the sweet material was delicious. While the happy taffy-eaters were lying around the camp-fire pulling the sticky substance and eating it, Will H. and Robert Livingston Brackin sang as a duet, "Swanee River." Afterwards the younger members of the party danced in the light furnished by the fire. Then all, happy and light-hearted, wandered to their various homes, the fire died out, the moon hid its face, and darkness reigned supreme in the village of Rytoryhby, except when the lanterns in the light-houses threw their fitful light across the bar. Only one accident marred the pleasure of the evening. Miss Bessie Brackin put her taffy and eight peanuts in her pocket. The taffy melted and stuck the peanuts to the cloth of the pocket. The pocket had to be removed from the dress before Miss Bessie could recover her taffy. The pocket, however, was spoiled. Those present were: Clearview Cottage—Mrs. G. T. McKeough, Miss McKeough, Misses Mary and Bessie McKeough and Marguerite Douglas.

Thursaville—Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Rutley, Miss Lulu Rutley, Mrs. Howard, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. William Rutley and son Frederick, Miss Irene Rutley.
