FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7.

McKEOUGH SCHOOL.

Very heartily does The Planet congratulate Miss Esther Abram, the principal of McKeeough School, and her energetic staff of assistants, on the success and uniform excellence of the annual commencement exercises of the school held yesterday afternoon. The pleasing character of the program and the splendid order and system which prevailed throughout are a high tribute to those in charge, and the many and varied eulogies passed thereon by the citizens present were well deserved.

The gift and address to ex-Principal James Brackin was an exceedingly pleasing portion of the program. It was a graceful tribute to the long service of that gentleman and the popular esteem in which he was universally held.

But Mr. Brackin's mantle has fallen upon worthy shoulders. Yesterday's proceedings evidenced the fact that no mistake was made in the selection of a successor. In Miss Abram the school possesses an earnest, energetic and accomplished lady principal, whose educational and managerial abilities have been amply proven and whose work is yielding results that are highly satisfactory in every respect.

Miss Abram entered upon her new duties unhindered by a probation rider to the appointment motion, the wisdom of which was very questionable. Notwithstanding the disadvantages to the appointee which must have necessarily resulted, Miss Abram has—in the parlance of the pointed—"more than made good." The trustees themselves passed this verdict at their recent meeting.

This being the case the members of the School Board will only be doing justice to the school, to the principal and to their own judgment by giving practical recognition of Miss Abram's excellent services and public appreciation of them.

Such an action on the part of the trustees—following the commendable encouragement tendered to other deserving members of the teaching staffs recently—would give a wise and well deserved impetus to the opening of the new year's work at McKeeough School.

SIR WILFRID HAS NO POLICY.

The more carefully one analyses Sir Wilfrid Laurier's remarkable letter of acceptance of Hon. J. Israel Tarte's resignation, the more one is convinced of the duplicity of the government. Sir Wilfrid either lost his good judgment in the heat of the moment, or he looks upon Canadians as a pack of dupes. He informed Mr. Tarte that, "to remain a member of the government and at the same time to advocate a policy which had not yet been adopted by the government was an impediment to the proper working of our constitution." And mark you, the publication of the letter of which this reprimand was a part, was intended to reassure the industrial interests of this country.

Was ever letter better calculated to produce the very opposite effect? Sir Wilfrid admits that the policy advocated by Mr. Tarte "had not yet been adopted" by the government, and had one half-scientist object in view, the language of a proclamation which pledges the government to nothing, and at the same time serves as equivalent for inviting bait to Free Traders and Protectionists. Sir Wilfrid, while abroad, evidently lost entire grasp of the feeling in Canada on the tariff question. It has taken six years for the people to awaken to the double-headed policy of the Liberal party, but one thing is certain, they are now fully aware of the hypocrisy practiced in dealing with the tariff, and will demand a clear statement of the government's intentions.

Sir Wilfrid, as yet, has been unwilling to satisfy the general opinion existing in business circles. He has left himself, what he no doubt considered at the time, a useful back door. He states that the opinions of Mr. Tarte have "not yet" been endorsed, and the adoption of free trade or protection would be equally consistent with such an announcement. But the game of "fooling the people" has lost its charm, and Sir Wilfrid insults Canadian intelligence with such childish subterfuge.

That is the view of the political situation entertained by businessmen. If it is incorrect Sir Wilfrid doubtless said more than he intended to. The excitement attending the situation and the differences of opinion in the cabinet may have driven him in his despair to not only publish the letter with undue haste and in a manner highly discourteous to Mr. Tarte, but forced him to show the weakness of the government's treatment of the greatest question before the Canadian public.

As it now stands the Liberal party offers nothing in the way of a fiscal policy. They have broken their free trade pledges and have not yet made amends for that public sin. They have repudiated Mr. Tarte, and by so doing have washed their hands of protection. Neither course is satisfactory to a long-suffering people. And the worst of it is that there appears to be no immediate possibility of improvement. However, the Liberals are at last in a position where they must of necessity formulate a definite policy. That remarkable pronouncement will be eagerly awaited.

TIME TO WAKE UP

Stratford Herald.

So that the haughty Washington authorities, who started out to humiliate Canada by increasing the duty, are preparing to rescind their action, and to eat humble pie themselves! If this does not indicate that bluff is a staple feature of U. S. policy, then it indicates nothing. The Ottawa Citizen speaks sense when it remarks that the sudden recantation in this matter should prove conclusively, if any further proof were necessary, that Canada controls the situation and that our Government should awake to its duty, put on a real export duty and force the manufacture of our raw material in Canada.

Many mineral waters are artificially made, by whatever name sold; none have the health-giving qualities of the MAGI Caledonia. J. J. McLaughlin, Toronto, sole agent.

IT IS UP TO SIFTON.

Belleville Intelligencer.

The Ottawa Citizen very pertinently asks what is to be done with Hon. Mr. Sifton in connection with the tariff controversy. In his letter accepting Mr. Tarte's resignation the premier stated that Tarte's offence did not consist in the doctrine that he had been preaching, but in the fact that he had advocated a policy "which had not yet been adopted by the Government." Now it is well known that during the absence of the premier in Europe, Mr. Sifton in his newspapers and in public addresses has been advocating the further elimination of protection from the tariff, and after Tarte had spoken gave out an interview declaring unequivocally against any further protection to Canadian industry.

NO LAUNDRIES IN CHINA.

Baltimore Sun.

"It's the funniest thing to me," said an old sea captain, who for many years was in the China trade, as he settled himself comfortably back in his chair and blew a few rings of smoke into the air, "that nine out of every ten Chinamen who come to this country open laundries and engage in business which does not exist in their native land. As everyone knows, the Chinese at home wear soft cotton and woolen garments, according to the season, and there is not a pound of starch in all China. Stiffly starched clothes are unknown, and the Chinese man does not do the washing, as they do in this country. Neither is there any regular laundry in the Flowery Kingdom. Therefore it's more than passing strange that Chinamen should all come to America and engage in a trade so foreign to their home industries."

MR. TARTE AFTER MR. SIFTON.

Hon. J. Israel Tarte is after Hon. Clifford Sifton with a big stick. The ex-minister denounces Canada's immigration policy in the strongest terms. This is what Mr. Tarte says of the practice of making Canada a dumping ground for the scum of European countries.

"The Government of British Columbia is altogether right. We have imported in the last two or three years, at much expense and with much advertisement, thousands of immigrants who are rather a source of annoyance and peril than of benefit. A man very well versed in immigration matters told us yesterday that in a colony of recently arrived immigrants there were no five absolutely sane persons. We must naturally desire that our country should be peopled as rapidly as possible. On the other hand, it is of the highest importance that we should not admit among our sober, laborious, honorable Canadian population, elements of national dissolution. We do not want here the scum of Europe. Let us develop ourselves, but develop in a reasonable manner along the ordinary lines of prudence."

GRIT PRAISE FOR TARTE.

Simoes Reformer.

The big strike and the coal question have passed into eclipse, and the Hon. J. Israel Tarte has become the center of the country's gaze. He is the subject of comment by the whole press of Canada, for the reason that he has furnished a case without an exact parallel in its political history. One party says he has been dismissed by his chief and the other party declares he resigned his seat. His late friends and colleagues are heaping abuse upon him, and his late foes see in him the energetic and invincible champion of Canadian industries. The way the party press is treating the Tarte incident in Canadian politics is a fine example of the effect of party in clouding the judgment, misjudging motives and ignoring the country's best interests to gain party advantage.

Mr. Tarte has faults. He would be more or less than a man if he hadn't, but with all his faults he is one of the cleverest and most far-seeing men in Canada. He knows the needs of this country, and he rightly suggests public opinion, and he knows that unless the government changes its fiscal policy it will become a wreck. He is a journalist, and his letter in La Patrie, the paper, on Thursday evening, entitled A Word to the Country, indicates that there is no falling off in vigor, tenacity or power in his pen, and there can be no mistake as to the course he is intending to pursue.

KRUGER'S PROCLAMATION VOID.

Pretoria, Nov. 5. — A decision which has been handed down by the Supreme Court, declaring ex-president Kruger's proclamation of October, 1899, abrogating the payment of rent and interest during the South African War, to be invalid, has produced consternation here and in Johannesburg. Although it is expected that many a better class landlord and creditors will accept a compromise, this decision will mean ruin to many who relied upon the proclamation to escape payment of rent, etc.

What Scott's Emulsion Really Is.

The essence of nourishment—a predigested food. A condensed fat made palatable and acceptable to the most delicate stomach. The first food a baby receives, mother's milk, is an emulsion. Scott's Emulsion is the milk or cream of cod liver oil, and contains the elements needed to supply the nourishment that may be lacking in a mother's milk.

If a baby is fat it is comfortable and happy; a thin, scrawny baby is never quite comfortable. Its ordinary food may not contain the right nourishment.

For such a baby Scott's Emulsion is intended. It supplies the needed nourishment as well as heat and fat; it makes babies comfortable. Why? Because Scott's Emulsion contains the elements that possess in the highest degree the principles of nourishment.

Cod liver oil has for years been known as one of the greatest foods in the world. It stands at the head of the list as containing, in a given quantity, the most nourishment of any food. But cod liver oil in its raw state is repulsive. Weak stomachs cannot retain it; delicate tastes rebel against it.

It was to overcome these objections and still retain the full value of the oil that Scott's Emulsion was introduced. But it does more than offer the full strength of cod liver oil in a palatable form. It combines with the oil other splendid ingredients—hypophosphites of lime and soda and glycerine. The proper and perfect combination of these, found only in Scott's Emulsion, represents a most valuable food-medicine.

The mission of the oil is to stop waste, supply the loss of flesh and furnish nourishment; the hypophosphites feed and sustain the nerve tissues and nerve centers besides stimulating the action of the blood; the glycerine furnishes bone material and marrow, upon which latter the blood depends.

How are these results secured? By the easy action and mild progress of Scott's Emulsion through the body. Being partly digested it does not tax the stomach; being perfectly blended it is quickly and easily assimilated, that is, distributed with exact regard for the particular need of each part of the body.

On every package of the genuine Scott's Emulsion there is a trade mark label of a man with a fish on his back.

We will send a sample free to anyone on request.

Buying a Range

There are three essential things to consider when buying a Range—Quality, Consumption of Fuel, and the Price. The price is the least important. A good Range will last many years, and when it saves in fuel it pays for its self, while a cheap Range is constantly adding to its price in extra consumption of fuel. The "Happy Thought" Range is the lightest fuel consumer in the world, and the most perfect Range constructed. It is a perfect cooking apparatus.

TWO BYE-ELECTIONS

London, Nov. 6.—The bye-election in the Twentieth Division of Liverpool for a member of Parliament in succession to Augustus F. Ware, Conservative, who has resigned the Parliamentary representation of the division, resulted in the election of Austin Taylor, Unionist, with a majority of 397 over Herbert R. Rathbone, the Liberal candidate.

The election in the Cleveland Division of Yorkshire yesterday for a member of Parliament to succeed A. E. Pease, Liberal, who recently resigned the seat, resulted as follows:

Herbert Samuel, Liberal, 5,834.
G. Geoffrey Drage, Unionist, 3,798.
Liberal majority, 2,036.

The Government's Education Bill, eight hours' work for miners, and temperance were the principal issues.

At the last election Mr. Pease was elected without opposition.

STILL HESITATES

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 6.—Still there is no official announcement regarding the cabinet changes. It is recognized on all hands that Mr. Sutherland is to go to Public Works, and Mr. Prefontaine to Marine and Fisheries, and yet the Prime Minister hesitates to make the step of giving this arrangement his official imprimatur. It is recognized in liberal circles that the selection of Mr. Prefontaine will be very unpalatable to Mr. Tarte. The two gentlemen have been at daggers for months past. It is related that on one occasion Sir Wilfrid endeavored to bring them together on cordial terms; that Mr. Prefontaine scornfully rejected the peace token, and now it is war to the knife between the prospective Minister and the ex-Minister. The selection of Mr. Prefontaine, it is realized, will widen the gulf between the two gentlemen and Sir Wilfrid is afraid to make the plunge. Whether during the next few days Messrs. Prefontaine and Tarte can be induced to sink their differences remains to be seen. Certainly Mr. Tarte will not now care.

There was a meeting of the cabinet this afternoon, but at the close it was announced that the only business taken up was to deal with Treasury Board matters. Hon. Mr. Wells and Aulay Morrison, M. P., appeared before the ministers on a number of British Columbia matters.

WORLD OF SPORT

FOOTBALL

"SCRUBS" WON.

A football game, which was not without its share of enthusiasm and excitement, was played yesterday afternoon between a team captained by S. A. Mercer, and a team of the Peninsular Leaguers who turned out. D. J. Lamont acted as referee. On the kick-off the Scrubs rushed the ball, and the fact that the city backs were absent enabled them to make things pretty warm around the Leaguers' goal.

After about twenty minutes of playing, Sissons succeeded in working the ball out and passed up to Brackin on the outside right. Brackin made a clever run up the wing and finished with a beautiful centre, the ball dropping right in the mouth of the goal. Grant, the new centre forward, was on top of Taylor, the goal keeper, and after a momentary scrimmage Captain Fetterly kicked the sphere through, drawing first blood for the Leaguers.

This did not discourage the Scrubs and immediately on the kick-off they renewed their aggressive tactics, McNaughton especially being responsible for some pretty playing. By pretty combination Mercer and Ansley worked it down the left and on the latter's pass Walker tied the score.

On renewing the Leaguers took their turn at attacking, and Parrott, Sissons and Piggott, the half-back line, aggressively worked the leather to the city forwards. Several attacks on the Scrubs' citadel were energetically repulsed, culminating in a brilliant shot by Sissons, cleverly punched out by Taylor. The ball then worked to the city right and another centre from Brackin was captured by Grant and passed to Fetterly, who cleverly ran in and scored the second goal on a clean shot.

Once again the Scrubs set out to tie the score and again they succeeded. Ansley sent the ball out to Mercer, who carried it down and dropped it on goal. After a momentary scrimmage at the mouth of the bars, Shupe did the needful. The third and winning goal was scored some ten minutes later. It was the result of a fine combination run, which finished in a clever centre by Mercer, which Shupe met and carried through.

The game demonstrated the fact that there is lots of football material in Chatham, and patrons of the game will be pleased to learn that Captains Fetterly and Mercer have arranged for another match between these teams in the near future.

In consequence of a controversy between President Laurie and the other officers of the Peninsular League in regard to the Wallaceburg defalcations, Secretary William McDonald writes the following letter, received this morning:

Frank D. Laurie, Pres. P. F. L.:
Dear Sir,—I understand that Wallaceburg defaulted to Chatham. This is their second offense, and according to all rules should be dropped from the league, and their game with Darrell for this Saturday cancelled. This would give Darrell an advantage over Chatham, but it would be the only fair way. That way, that would make the game, Nov. 15, in Darrell, and should you defeat them the final game would have to be played on neutral grounds. Wallaceburg have shown such little inclination to play off their own play ground that I don't think they should be favored with a game. They protested their first game, defaulted their second and also their third, and that ought to settle their chances for future games. I think the only fair way, although it places Chatham at a disadvantage, would be to cancel all Wallaceburg games and settle it between the two teams. If you see it in this light send word to Darrell not to go to Wallaceburg this Saturday.

Yours,

W. McDonald.

President Laurie, on receiving the above letter, communicated with the League, taking the ground that he could not expel the Wallaceburg club without giving them an opportunity to present their case at a League meeting.

As a result the scheduled game between Darrell and Wallaceburg will be played at the latter place to-morrow. In the meantime the management of the Wallaceburg club will be communicated with.

THE REASON.

The match that was to have been played at Chatham on Saturday last was unavoidably cancelled, owing to those members of the team who are employees of the Sugar Co. being unable to leave their work. Chatham football enthusiasts were undoubtedly very much put out, who game with out Boulton, Doyle and Stevens would have been a fizzle as they are strong players.

STREET CARS COLLIDE.

Battle Creek, Michigan, Nov. 7.—During the prevalence of the heaviest fog ever known in this city shortly before 7 o'clock this morning, two street cars collided head-on at the corner of East Main and Bennett streets. Mortimer William Rice was so terribly injured that he will die. One woman passenger was slightly injured. The others escaped.

LIKENS THIEF TO THE KING.

Madrid, Nov. 6.—Senor Barroso, Governor of Madrid, was dismissed from office yesterday for having issued a circular to the police authorizing the arrest of a 17-year-old thief whom the statement described as looking exactly like King Alfonso.

TO CHECK DUELING.

Paris, Nov. 6.—M. Lecomte in introducing a bill in the Senate to-day making dueling a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment and fine. The bill provides, if death ensues from the encounter, for the punishment of the surviving duelist with imprisonment from one to three years, and a fine of from $100 to $1,000.

WERE INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL LADS

West Bay City, Mich., Nov. 7.—Two boys were arrested as vagrants this morning, giving their names as Samuel Walker and Thomas Ellery. They were sent to jail for 10 days and turned out to be boys named Williams and Demsey who escaped from the industrial school at Lansing this week. They will be sent back to Lansing at once.

MINE MEN AGREE.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Recorder Wright received a telegram to-day, saying that it is understood that the large part of individual operators in the Lackawanna and Wyoming coal regions have agreed to become parties before the commission and accept its decision.

There are about 70 of these operators working smaller mines in the anthracite region.

MUSIC WITH THEIR MEALS.

London, Nov. 6.—Popular criticism of the restrictions placed by the licensing magistrates upon the music at certain hours in the Liverpool cafes has induced these officials to reconsider their determination not to grant licenses. To-day they granted applications to be allowed to have music from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. The magistrates had announced that they would grant no licenses on the ground that music furnished from noon to 2.30 p. m. tempted clerks and others to neglect their work.

Frank Bell, Delaware Ave., who has been suffering from blood poisoning, is progressing favorably. He ran a silver under his finger and blood poisoning set in.

J. B. Connell, of the local branch of the Standard Bank, has been moved to Colborne. Mr. Connell has been here for eight months. He will be succeeded by O. K. Jackson, of Brighton.

It is getting towards the end of the year and the police are cleaning up on the poll tax collections. They are getting $10 behind the amount collected last year, they expect to make that up.

Money Lost—Yesterday, (Thursday), between Grey St. and William Gray & Sons Co. factory, two Standard Bank five dollar bills. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at Wm. Gray & Sons' office or at The Planet office.

There is very little gossip to be obtained in regard to the names of prospective aldermen. In addition to the present Council it is rumored that the names of Fred F. Quinn, Walter Pigott and John Edmondson will appear in the list of entries for the great democratic handicap of 1903.

No wills have been probated so far this month and matters in this line are at a standstill and cause an unwanted quietness about the office of County Court Clerk James Holmes. Under the new regulations, just issued by the Government, new forms have to be used and, as none have yet been printed, the work of probating wills has been blocked for several days.

John A. Thomas, whose family residence on Harvey St., met with a misfortune Monday in Detroit. He had the envelope containing his month's salary, all but $15, in his pants pocket. He was riding on a street car, when a sneak thief slit his pocket and took the envelope, which contained $15.

Mr. Thomas gives a vivid description of the crime in a letter to his family, and regrets that he was unable to send any money this month.

Thomas Bagnall visited William De Quindre and during the visit, teased the latter's grown up son. The father resented and with the assistance of the son drove Bagnall from the property. Bagnall didn't like being forced to retire and said things. The result was that De Quindre laid a charge of insulting language. The case was tried yesterday morning and Bagnall was fined $2 and costs, $7 in all. W. G. Richards appeared for the defendant and John Reed, for the plaintiff.

Mrs. Weeks, of the 5th concession, Chatham township, is to-day bidding by auction all of her farm stock and implements. McCole & Harrington are the auctioneers.

N. H. Stevens proposed the following conundrum: "When does a bird-headed man have the greatest influence on his life? In his hand? In his head? In his foot?"

The Young People's Literary, of the First Presbyterian Church, will give a reception to the students of the city in the Sunday school room of the church, this evening. Every student in the city is invited to be present.

Dunn & Merrill have sold the house and lot on the south side of Selkirk street, formerly occupied by Richard Pritchard, to John E. Burgess. They have also sold the house and lot on the east side of St. Clair street to Geo. Connibear.

The Maple Leaf Pleasure Club gave a very pleasant hop last evening in the auditorium. There were about fifty couples present, who danced to the sweet strains of Pritchard's orchestra. The dance broke up early in the morning.

James Davidson, of St. Clair, Mich., is in the city settling the estate of the late James Davidson, Sr., who died recently at his daughter's, Mrs. Thos. Stevenson, home.

Davidson wishes to thank the kind friends who sent flowers and sympathized with him in his late bereavement.

Chief Pritchard, at the request of Pritchard Pheas, is making extensive arrangements for fire protection in the latter's house during the Central School concert this evening. A line of hose will be laid to the nearest hydrant with a man detailed to turn on the water should anything happen in the way of a fire. Firemen will be stationed in the house with extinguishers, one on each side of the stage. The back doors also will be kept open.

Robt. Broad, son of J. H. Broad, recently returned from Colorado. He brought with him a very fine specimen of the "different" ores found in the great mining state. Amongst the collection of specimens of ore are some fine pieces of gold as found in the native state.

Captain Sam Smith was over at the police station interviewing the chief. He said that Tilly Wilkins had taken up her abode in the double house beyond the G. T. R. The other tenants said they would move unless Tilly vacated. It looks as if the other tenants would have to move as Tilly has purchased the house from the captain's daughter.

Provincial Auditor Living is engaged on a general examination of Mr. Shambles's system of book-keeping before beginning the audit. He says that Mr. Shambles's system was a very good one, and the books show evidence of having been carefully kept. The Land tax register hasn't as yet been reached.

GREAT TEA DRINKERS.
The Maritime Province people use about six pounds of tea per head, or say about thirty pounds per year to an average family. They are also said to be good judges of tea, and this must be a strong recommendation for Red Rose, which is the principal tea used.

PUBLIC NOTICE
Chatham, Nov. 7, 1902.

In view of the fact that the coal strike is now settled and our dealers are receiving an ample coal and are in a position to supply wood, the civic fuel yard will cease to do business after Nov. 30. ## WATER COMS.

A Businesslike Session of This Board Held Last Evening—Accounts Passed.

The Water Commissioners held a short but busy meeting last evening in the secretary's office, with the Mayor the only absentee.

A petition was received from the ratepayers on Forsyth street, asking for a water main. It will be acted upon.

L. E. Tilson, upon the request of Secretary Weir, who was there some time ago to Mr. Woodlatt, of the Lake Erie, asking him to extend the siding at the waterworks. Mr. Woodlatt replied that the company found it impossible to go on with the work at present.

The Northway Company asked for a rebate on the water rental in their old store. It was granted.

Mike O'Mara was given a couple of weeks' holiday. There is not a more faithful workman in the employ of the corporation and the commissioners were of the opinion that his holidays are well deserved.

Secretary Weir, who was recently married, was presented with a $10 cheque, the gift of the Board, for which he tendered his sincere thanks.

The following were the accounts—Bell Telephone Company, $10.00; Chas. Simmons, $5.35; Jas. Morrison, Brass Mfg Co., $53.70; McKeough & Trotter, $24.27; Central Foundry Co., $65.35; Garlock Packing Co., $22.57; Neptune Mfg Co., $18.75; Thomson Mfg Co., $25.20; L. E. & D. R. ### ABOUT NEW ZEALAND

WELL-PUT CONCLUSIONS OF AMERICAN BUSINESS MAN.

Range of Taxes in England's Twentieth Century Colony—Progressive Cities—Political Life Pure—Its Glorious Climate—Ideal Hotel Life—As Brief of Speech as Spartan—The People Are Agreeable.

Mr. C. V. McFarlan, a well-known Chicago business man, presently living in Auckland, New Zealand, writes from that city as follows:

City taxes in all towns and cities throughout this colony are raised by assessing the annual rentals, less 20 per cent, which deduction is made in order to get at the net value the owner receives. There is no poll tax on the voters, but a Chinaman has to pay £500 before he can land in New Zealand. There is no tax upon personal property, but one on all incomes which exceed $1,500 per year. Unimproved real estate is assessed at 5 per cent, on the actual value. Auckland has about 70,000 people, including its suburbs. Its imports for 1900 were valued at $13,300,000, and its exports $13,400,000, with an inward tonnage aggregating 324,000 tons during the year. The amount of deposits in the savings banks of Auckland totalled $9,500,000 last year. It is a beautiful and thrifty city. The mineral output of the Auckland district was $6,000,000 last year.

Wellington, the capital, has spent $1,500,000 on its drainage, which is taken four miles out in the ocean, through the hills, leaving the harbor unpolluted. The schools in Wellington are the finest in New Zealand. Wellington College has students from all parts of New Zealand, Australia and England.

The principal cities throughout New Zealand have their out-of-town recreation grounds, tennis courts, bowling greens and cricket grounds, equal to any in America. Prominent business men are as keen athletes as college students. There are eleven public holidays each year. All women 21 years of age have the same voting power as the men in parliamentary elections, but they cannot stand for a seat in the House of Representatives. There are grammar schools, industrial schools, colleges, universities, institutions for the blind, mission houses, training schools, homes for the aged and infirm, children's homes, and every comfort for the sick and feeble known to modern progress. The colony's art societies, and technical schools, art galleries, public libraries and social clubs compare favorably with any in America.

The policemen in all the cities number but 650, and are appointed and controlled by the Government of New Zealand, and reside in line station-houses. They carry no clubs or shooting-irons, but are neatly uniformed and wear gloves. When an arrest is made there is no dragging the prisoner through the streets to a patrol box, followed by a mob. The policemen here summon a cab at once and take their charge to the police station.

Here is a land where the people are happy, prosperous, ambitious, and yet not given to money grasping, nor narrow. They value the true man and his character above riches. Political life here is far purer and more honest in regard to measures. It is a government for the people, where the laboring man has so much to say, that it is, to a great extent, a working man's paradise.

There are no snakes or poisonous reptiles in the colony. The Government will not permit any circus to import or bring any snakes into the land.

New Zealand's greatest attraction is the marvelous climate, the temperature rarely being warmer than 85 degrees, and its beautiful scenery and hot mineral baths. Snow is unknown in the Northern Island. The flowers flourish equally as luxuriously as those of California. Calla lilies grow out of doors in abundance all the year round.

The people travel hundreds of miles to make holiday. Extensive yachting cruises are planned and thousands of yachtsmen go out with their families, taking tents and camping paraphernalia, for a cruise extending from one to two weeks. Even the young boys go in their little sailing boats, and on the beautiful evergreen mountain sides, down close by the water, you can see their snow-white tents, always surmounted with a Union Jack, while put in the innumerable bays are great fleets of yachts riding at anchor.

Cricket matches, golf and tennis championships, and howling tournaments on the greens are the chief sports, all heartily entered into, while trade and friendly societies and church organizations have their regular outings and picnics in the public domains and parks and the country. The Auckland Acclimatization Society's trout hatchery turns out 500,000 trout annually, and 200,000 strong 3-month-old fish and 10,000 yearlings are liberated in the streams within the Auckland and Okoroa districts every year.

The acclimatization societies, under Government regulations, impose a fisherman's license of 10 shillings ($2.50) per year on all who fish with rod and reel. The restrictions the acclimatization societies have been able to institute are making New Zealand the fisherman's paradise. Red deer, ducks, pheasants, rabbits and wild boar pigs are very plentiful in the ranges.

Hotel life throughout New Zealand would be highly pleasing to all who enjoy comfort and security. Coats, wraps, umbrellas and personal effects may be left anywhere, and no one disturbs them. In the hotels your room door need never be locked. The price in the best hotels per day is from $2.50 to $3. This tariff includes not only board and room, but also tea served in rooms before breakfast, tea at 11 o'clock in the morning and in the afternoon at 4 o'clock, and at night a substantial supper from 9 o'clock to 12. Your shoes are polished morning and evening if desired, newspapers and bathing privileges are supplied free, and you have excellent food and dining service, with no tipping ever asked for or expected.

In New Zealand on Sundays and holidays every fifth man wears a navy blue suit of clothes. Soft caps are worn by men in full evening dress going to the opera. The cut of one's trousers is not allowed to disturb a man's devotion toward sports and out-door fetes; it is not a country where there are four styles in a year. The people seem to be above the fad-epidemic of fashion. They are more of a hospitable, generous, old-fashioned stamp. They all dress well and live well, and believe in full enjoyment of sun and sea air as the best tonic. It cannot be said that drink is New Zealand's vice. Few dissipated faces are to be seen.

New Zealanders always want to make matters as brief as possible, and use the shortest terms or words expressive of what they mean. For instance, "re" is used in writing letters with regard to your favor, and "Memo" is invariably used instead of "Memorandum." It takes a little more time to say twenty-five cents than one "bob," as a shilling is termed here. A pound is called a "quid."

They are a kind-hearted, good-natured, and, above all, a considerate people. They are not a bit conceited, though they have achieved success commensurate in the highest degree and have built up a government within the past fifty years. Many men are living here now who have helped change the original settlements to cities and great commercial centres, doing business with the entire world. They have built railways and established great commercial industries, making their country a recognized factor among the nations.

The Wanganui River is the Rhine of New Zealand. It is a grand river of rare grace and beauty as it sweeps along on its way to the sea. The Maori houses are dotted about on the mountain sides, while cattle graze on the hillside, and the lowing white clouds kiss the high mountain peaks in view and float on toward the ocean.

Dining cars are attached to all express trains, and a full meal, with hot meats, can be had at what seems a ridiculously low price.

The New Irish Vicar.
The Earl of Dudley, the new Vicar of Ireland, who was sworn in on Saturday, is a young man for the post, only 36 years of age. He was Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Trade from 1895 to 1900. The Marquis de Fontenay, ex-bishop of London, after a tour of the colonies, he has settled down into a most respectable and hard-working Vicar, most domestic in his tastes. He served in the Yeomanry cavalry in South Africa, is extremely rich, and has large territorial and mineral interests in Worcestershire and Staffordshire, and estates in Jamaica. His transformation may be ascribed to the sympathy and interest of the Duchess of Bedford, who virtually adopted her and removed her from the shop and took her into society. Indeed, Rachel Gurney was married to Lord Dudley from the Duke of Bedford, and even went so far as to cause herself to be inscribed in those pages of the various "Peersages" devoted to the Earl of Dudley as the Duke and Duchess of Bedford, no mention at all being made of her real parentage. This created such an unpleasant amount of comment that in the later editions of the "Peersages" issued in the year following her marriage a printed slip was inserted opposite the page bearing her name intimating that she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gurney.

Among the many stories told of Mr. Balfour's golfing is one, perhaps so well known as some others. There used to be a famous old worthy on the golf links at North Berwick who invariably carried for the present Premier. One day, when playing in a foursome, Mr. Balfour was followed round the links by a small knot of people. Among the spectators was an individual with what was afterwards described as "an irritating rattle of a cough." He always coughed at a critical moment, and contrived to do it just as Mr. Balfour was about to take a long, critical put. The old caddy, who had longed for the caddy's position, put out his hand and stopped the player. Then, turning to the little group of onlookers, asked, with a great excess of politeness, "Can any of you gentlemen oblige this man with a lube?"

Kitchener's Way.
British public opinion is strongly in favor of keeping Lord Kitchener at home instead of sending him to India. His lordship does not stand so well with the aristocracy, to many members of which he has given offence by refusal to meet their wishes. For instance, says the London correspondent of The Detroit Tribune, there is one great nobleman who desired that his favorite son be sent home from South Africa. So he telegraphed to Kitchener: "Please send my son home at once, urgent family affairs." Kitchener replied: "Your son cannot return at all; urgent military affairs."

SEWAGE DISPOSAL.

Provincial Health Officers Visit Bedlin's Farm—Dr. Anyot's Paper on the Subject and Illustration Thereof.

Just before the close of the annual meeting of the Association of Executive Health Officers of Ontario the members were driven to the Berin sewage farm, which they examined with the utmost thoroughness. Upon returning to the Court House a paper was read to the Association by Dr. Anyot on "Sewage Disposal." Dr. Anyot has been conducting a series of investigations at the Berin farm during the past summer on behalf of the Provincial Board of Health. The experiments have been watched closely by Bedlin's people, as owing to the peculiar situation of the town the question of sewage disposal there is unusually difficult. The rapid growth of the last few years has increased the quantity of sewage, until there is now some half-million gallons a year. This is much stronger than ordinary domestic sewage, as the waste of four large tanneries is included. Some years ago a sewage farm was acquired and it has been in operation since. A septic tank has been installed, but the plant has been found insufficient to meet the situation, and the effluent to the small stream is not pure. Dr. Anyot not only described the experiments being conducted there, but also dealt with the general question of sewage disposal and the process of purification. Dr. Anyot said finally that the reason for the Berlin septic tank has been ineffective in disposing of more than 50 per cent. of the organic matter is that the tank is altogether too small, that, in fact, one tank is being used to do the work of seven or eight, according to the results obtained with septic tanks in other sewage disposal plants.

Mr. Thomas Macfarlane of Ottawa read a paper on the treatment of sewage with lime. He said that he had described a moss closet that, he said, completely dries, disinfects and decomposes organic matter, and at the same time preserves its full fertilizing value. The experiment he claimed, required little attention, and is very inexpensive.

The discussion of sewage disposal was opened by Mr. Willis Chapman, E.C., who suggested that perhaps after experimenting with many forms of sewage disposal municipalities might return to the broad system which had never been abandoned in favor of septic tanks, etc. To this Mr. Macfarlane replied that in old country plants he deprecated the parsimony of the average Councilman who feared to lay out enough money to procure a proper plant. To this Mr. Chapman replied that the expectations of some people in connection with septic tanks, he said that an Alderman looked into a septic tank and said: "I don't believe this tank any good. I can't see a blasted 'twat' thing in it."

How Chamberlain Met Miss Endicott.

When Joseph Chamberlain came over to the United States, one of the objects of his visit was to find out what kind of a girl Miss Mary Endicott's present wife was. His son, Austin Chamberlain, had met her in Europe, and very much in love with her and asked his father's consent to address her. The old gentleman was somewhat chary of American wives for English gentlemen.

Before giving his consent he concluded to meet the lady in person and investigate herself and family. A night or two after his arrival in this country there was a ball at the British Embassy.

Mr. Endicott, then Mr. Cleveland, Secretary of War, and his daughter were among the guests. Mr. Chamberlain particularly noticed a state and beautiful girl whose undoubted dignity greatly pleased him. The evening he paid her assiduous attention. The next day he called at her father's residence. He soon became satisfied as to the social status of the Endicotts. He finally succumbed to the charm of the fair girl and instead of sanctioning Austin's address of her himself and person of a handsome young stepmother to a prospective future to the waiting young love. Austin Chamberlain accepted the inevitable and said to be respected by devoted to his stepmother—Miss Endicott.

A Glimpse of Carlyle.

Professor Goldies describing his first sight of Thomas Carlyle in a favorite walk as follows: "There was no mistaking the figure already familiar from photograph and engraving with its still vigorous and steady stride, the shoulders only slightly bowed, the long overcoat, the broad-brimmed hat, the hair and beard only grizzled, not white. A vigorous, well preserved, healthy old man, a good touch of color still on each cheek-bone, the teeth (apparently genuine) white and well preserved, in short, by no means the worn dyspeptic I had expected from his own and other accounts, and not by any means looking his years—then eighty-three or thereabouts. Here then, at length was the great teacher before me, yet to take off one's hat, reverently as becomes the student to his most venerated teacher, was instinctive. One did not think of never having been introduced. The salutation was courteously yet absent-minded. He turned with eyes that only looked half into, half beyond my own, and so this liberty of salutation was never repeated. And though meetings in the body frequently took place I never dared to see in any way for the introduction for which I notwithstanding stood alone. Old Age and Thought must ever be. Only two or three times have I seen him in company."

Cost of Ocean Speeding.

Much has been said of late regarding the speed of the German Atlantic greyhounds. Not enough, perhaps, has been said regarding the cost of this speed. The latest creation of the North German Lloyd, Kaiser Wilhelm II., is designed to do twenty-four knots an hour at an expenditure of 40,000 indicated horsepower. Four Star Line Condor, the largest ship in the world, will give seventeen knots with 11,000 horsepower. But, says The Shipping World, the Kaiser Wilhelm will burn 750 tons of coal a day, which is 150 per cent. more than the Condor and she will need 250 men hands to work her. Curiously enough, at her crew of 600 only 600 tons of coal will be ordinary sailing ship, and the mechanics of various orders—London Telegraph.

Carriage's London Palace.

Andrew Carnegie is to become one of the gables of Park Lane, the most fashionable and best priced street in London. He has purchased from the young Duke of Devonshire a plot of ground in South Street, leading into Park Lane, just beyond the handsome house of J. P. Morgan, Jr. It is said the house will be as much like Fifth Avenue, New York, as it is possible for a London house to be and that the cost will be something like $5,000,000. Mr. Carnegie will have for his immediate neighbors Lord Brassey, the Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of Devonshire, Alfred Beit, the richest man in England, and Mr. Eckstein and J. B. Robinson, two other South African millionaires.

Housecleaning by Air.

The first stationary compressed air cleaning apparatus to be placed in a hotel in the United States, if not in the world, was put in operation in Milwaukee recently, says The Milwaukee Sentinel. The compressor is located in the basement, and from it pipes led to every floor of the building, with places therefor for attaching hose. It is an automatic piece of mechanism, and when in use the air pressure is kept at eighty pounds to the square inch. The air current is sent through the carpets, furniture and bedsteads, driving out all dirt and rendering them sweet and clean.

The Earl of Dudley.

The Earl of Dudley, the new Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, is an ardent sportsman, a keen golfer, and a great yachtsman and traveler. He takes much interest in polo, and is president of the Hanelagh Club. He has excellent links at Witley, and it is said that he gave the Duchess of Connaught—who is now a good player—her first lesson in the royal and ancient game.

Big Loaves of Bread.

The largest loaves of bread baked in the world are those of France and Italy. The "pope" bread of Italy is baked in loaves two feet or three feet long, while in France the loaves are made in the shape of very long rolls, four or five feet in length, and in many cases 6 feet.

That's all we are showing now in one of our large Display Windows.

Young Men, if they'll take the time, can see for themselves how thoroughly we are prepared to SUIT or OVERCOAT them this fall. The varieties were never better—never larger, and size lines couldn't be more complete.

Here are garments built as thoroughly as any you could have made to measure—cost less though—more than a third and better still, you get the full value of your money.

Styles are correct, fit of every garment perfect, and to see them is to want them.

If you'll take a look you will see single and double breasted Sack Suits, made in plain colors and smart mixtures, in distinct stripe and plaids, in wool and worsted fabrics, all distinctly different patterns than those for men.

And there are Overcoats of roughish Cheviot and Vicunas, in black, plaid, Oxford and novel colorings—long, loose garments which will be worn a great deal this winter. The new full back Overcoat is there—one built from a Hants-burn mixed Cheviot—it's the newest of all.

DISTRICT DOINGS.

DRESDEN

Nov. 7.—George Cunningham, of New York, is visiting his parents here.

Mrs. Russell Aikin, of Washington, is the guest of her father and brothers, North Dresden. Mrs. Aikin will remain several weeks, after which she leaves for Windsor, where she and Mr. Aikin will reside in future.

Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth have returned from a visit to relatives in Florence.

W. Draper has purchased the house he occupies, recently owned by Mrs. O. Wells.

Mr. Lawson, manager for the new Dresden branch of A. I. McColl & Co.'s drug stores, arrived yesterday to take charge. The store is being handsomely fitted up and will be opened up for business very shortly.

BLENHEIM

Nov. 6.—The home of Mrs. McGreggor, Talbot street west, was the scene of a very pretty event last evening when her youngest daughter, Maggie, was married to J. Mercer Denholm, son of Mr. Andrew Denholm, editor of the Blenheim News. The Rev. George Gilmour performed the ceremony. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. The young couple are two of Blenheim's most popular young people and we wish them much joy and happiness in their new life.

Dr. Samson, of Windsor, was in town yesterday on professional business.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McPherson returned to Dresden last evening. Carrier boys are not authorized to collect subscriptions. Our collector calls in each town once a month; if a subscriber wishes to pay his account before the collector calls, he must remit direct to The Planet Office, Chatham, as we will not be responsible for monies paid to carriers.

WALLACEBURG

Nov. 7.—Rev. A. C. Baker and Miss Lucy have left for their new home in Sarnia. Previous to their departure the young people of the Baptist church presented them with a handsome reception chair, showing the esteem in which they were held.

The first number of the Lyceum Course appears at the Opera House on Tuesday, Nov. 11.

Miss Leah Taylor has returned from a visit to Detroit and other places.

The first sugar was put in barrels at the factory yesterday. The crowd who witnessed the same say it was very interesting.

Miss Forbes, of Chatham, is the guest of her uncle, Mr. A. Fisher.

Rev. Mr. Russell, who has been holding evangelistic services for the past few weeks, will hold the farewell meeting to-night. The meetings have been very successful. Mr. Russell is a very interesting and clever speaker. We are pleased to report that Mrs. R. Yule, who was ill with pneumonia, is improving.

TILBURY

Nov. 7.—Mrs. Peter St. Denis, of Tilbury West, died on Wednesday, and was buried yesterday in the St. Francis cemetery.

Mrs. James Waddell, of the Middle Road, left yesterday for Woodstock, having received word of the death of her brother there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wilson, Mrs. (Dr.) Ferguson, and Miss McKenzie were in Detroit on Wednesday evening to hear Richard Mansfield, as Brutus in Julius Caesar.

Geo. Lemire, late of D. L. Chauvin's store, Comber, has accepted a position in the Big Store.

Misses Gertrude and Minnie Stevenson entertained a number of their friends last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Linn, of Windsor, are the guests of the Misses Stewart, Carlyle avenue, during their visit here.

Books for Children

"I saw in The Planet an article in regard to libraries in public schools in which it stated that teachers were selecting the books," said S. B. Arnold this morning. "I believe in libraries for children, but the objectionable feature is in allowing the teacher to select the books. I don't think that is right. I think the Government should take hold of this matter and prepare a list of books for the use of public school pupils, the selections being made from the standard authors. The great trouble is in choosing proper books for children. For my own children, I have found the greatest difficulty in selecting the books they should read. I haven't the time, and the majority of parents have neither the time nor the ability."

"All parents should be provided with a list of books suitable for children. Let the Government take hold of this matter and make a selection and have a catalogue prepared. The best way to do this would be to have a children's catalogue prepared and let the children study this catalogue in selecting books from the Free Library."

"Any man who hasn't a good opinion of himself is inwardly deformed."

PRETTY POEM

It Appears in New York News in Reference to the Young Son of a Chatham Lady.

The baby son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Macdonald, New York City, is getting quite famous. Already the little fellow has had a poem written about him. The poetry was the work of poet Smith, of the New York News, a fellow worker with Mr. Macdonald. Mr. Smith's and Mr. Macdonald's flats adjoin. The poem is exceptionally bright and pleasing. The Planet clips it from the News of Monday last, as follows:—

THE BABY.

(Dedicated to A. T. Macdonald.)
Sh-h! Tread softly. Close the door gently—So;
It's hard to be so quiet when your heart is all aglow.
Just turn the cover down a bit—
Careful now—like that—
There—I knew you'd think so—He's the sweetest little tyrant
That ever ruled a flat.
How old? Fourteen hours by the angel clock;
Not old; but stronger, brighter baby never wore a frock.
Looks like papa! We think so. Ah,
Pearls brought down from Paradise, and on the way
Blue tinted by the skies.
Pshaw! My hand is trembling; eyes are wet;
Yes, child, your daddy's crying, but it isn't from regret;
Some day, my little man, God grant you'll taste the joy,
The pride and sacred love that fill a man
Who kisses his first boy. F. A. S.

AN UNPLEASANT EXPERIENCE

Has it ever been your unhappy lot to be told by your physician that you must go to a hospital and submit to an operation? If so, you remember with what dread and shrinking you awaited the day when you must endure the knife. The present day surgeon appears to be possessed by a mania for operating, especially in cases of hemorrhoids or piles, and while the greater number of the profession do not recommend this "last resort" unless they honestly believe it necessary, the fact remains that much needless operating is done, and the patient put to much expense and suffering for what?

To obtain a possible temporary relief, these words are used advisedly, because in nine cases out of ten the affliction returns and the patient is just where he started from. Oftentimes he could be cured much more simply and easily by the use of such a remedy as the Pyramid Pile Cure; this has come to be recognized as the best remedy on the market for the painful disease named, and the druggists now sell more of it than all other pile remedies combined. The writer personally knows people who have been afflicted with the worst form of bleeding and protruding piles and who were permanently cured by the use of Pyramid Pile Cure. In every one of these cases the attending physician has assured the sufferer that only by an operation could he rid himself of the disease; so much for the infallibility of the doctors.

This remedy, which is sold by all druggists at the low price of fifty cents, is in suppository form, is applied directly to the parts affected, and performs its work quickly and painlessly. The Pyramid Drug Co., Montreal, Mich., will mail free to any address a book telling all about piles or hemorrhoids, their cause and cure.

A suggestion is offered that if the reader is afflicted, or knows anyone who is, this book be sent for, as it will be found invaluable.

The Author's Power.

Everybody knows that in a novel a commonplace person may be made interesting by a deliberate, patient exposition of his various traits precisely as we can learn to like very uninteresting persons in real life if circumstances place them day after day at our elbows. Who of us would not grow impatient with the early chapters of "The Newcomes" for instance, or "The Antiquary" if it were not for our faith that Thackeray and Scott know their business and that every one of these commonplace people will contribute something in the end to the total effect? And even where the gradual development of character rather than the mere portrayal of character is the theme of a novelist, as so frequent with George Eliot, how colorless may be the personality at the outset, how narrow the range of thought and experience portrayed. Yet in George Eliot's own words "these commonplace people have a conscience and have felt the sublime promptings to do the painful right." They take on dignity from their moral struggle, whether the struggle ends in victory or defeat. By an infinite number of subtle touches they are made to grow and change before our eyes like living, fascinating things—Atlantic.

How Glaciers Are Formed.

The joint cause of glaciers is precipitation and cold. A low temperature alone can do nothing without moisture, and this fact quickly disposes of the popular notion that glaciers invariably exist in cold countries. Tibet, for instance, and some parts of North America are destitute of ice springs, though eternal cold may be said to reign supreme in those parts. Imagine for a moment the higher mountains clear of snow and ice and then watch the formation of a glacier. Snow falls and fills up all the valleys and gullies, avalanches descend from the higher parts and a great accumulation gathers in all hollows. By constant repetition of snowfalls (always provided a greater quantity is deposited than can be melted by the sun's rays and by the natural warmth of the earth's crust) great pressure is put upon the lower portions by the superincumbent accumulation, and aided by the infiltration of water and refreezing, a large body of ice is formed, which at once begins to move down the valleys containing it.

Whistler at West Point.

Among the famous men who were for a brief term cadets at West Point were Edgar A. Poe, the poet; Matt H. Carpenter, the eminent lawyer and statesman of Wisconsin, and James McNeill Whistler, the celebrated painter. Whistler remained three years at the academy. The Army and Navy Journal gives the following curious story which he did not pass his examinations.

"The subject given him in chemistry to discuss before the academic board was 'silica,' which constitutes 80 per cent of the solid matter of our earth. Whistler, it was said, in perfect innocence of the subject, but with his characteristically charming manner, described silica as an elastic gas, or a 'saponifiable fat.' The young ladies in the audience smiled approval, but the stern academic board dispensed with Whistler's further valuable services at the Military academy."

Fifth Century Authors.

Herophilus, one of the Alexandrian school, wrote a treatise on the practice of medicine, on ophthalmics, on the eye and on the pulse, which he correctly referred to the movements of the heart. He was aware of the existence of the lacteals and of their anatomical relations to the mesenteric glands. Erasistratus—his colleague and a pupil of Theophrastus and Chrysippus—was aware of the nature of the heart and its connection with the veins and arteries, but he fell into the error that the veins were for the conveyance of air and the arteries for that of blood. Otherwise he anticipated Harvey's great discovery. He knew also that there were two kinds of nerves—those of motion and those of sensation.

The Flag at Half Mast.

The custom of showing the flag at half mast originated from the way at sea of showing the pre-eminence one ship had over the other in time of warfare. The vanquished always had to lower its flag, while the victor's would be raised as high as possible in exultation. To lower a flag is an act of submission or betokens respect to a superior or is a signal of distress. The hoisting of a flag half mast high came to be used, therefore, as a sign of mourning and respect.

Quite Romantic.

Miss Gaygit—Did you say you have lived in New Mexico all your life?
Mrs. Hanson—Yes.
Miss G.—And been married five times?
Mrs. H.—Yes.
Miss G.—Ever divorced?
Mrs. H.—No; husbands all shot.
Miss G. (gushing)—How romantic!

A Genealogical Tree.

Brittman—What do you know about your genealogical tree?
Groucher—Genealogical tree be hanged! The only ancestor I know about is the aboriginal forest, where, according to Darwin, my remote progenitors used to swing by their tails.
