Editorial Efforts

AN APOLOGY

TO produce an editorial for such a widely read journal as the Canadian Hospital News is not an easy task, even for one inured to editorial composition. And unless one is gifted with sudden inspirations, to do it on the spur of the moment, is not any easier. But that is a Scotch way of saying it's much harder. In addition, the writer must apologise for not being a journalist, an author, or one belonging to a verbose profession. And since there will undoubtedly be many errors will the reader kindly take this reason into consideration.

Owing to unforeseen circumstances this week's issue came near being strangled at its birth. Suddenly, from a prospect of only hard work before the staff, came the news that the editor was no longer able to carry on his duties, and chaos reigned. Several pages of copy were rendered useless, and much of the rest was in sore need of rearrangement. But where there's a will there's a way, and although only twelve pages, instead of sixteen pages, can be published this week, the paper still remains virile and progressive. The new editor has still to be appointed. There are names in the wind of men who undoubtedly would do credit to the Granville Hospital, and to the ranks of Canadian army publications.

With the decapitation the simile of the body ceases to exist. For in no walk of life, in no position, in no profession can there be found a man or woman who is not replaceable. We used to think Kitchener was unreplaceable; if he died the war would be lost, but the Allies are now nearer to winning than ever. And although there will always be only "One Kitchener," that one was replaceable. Some people say there is only one Devil, but now-a-days many are inclined to think he, too, has been replaced. And although the News has lost a most energetic and pushing editor, surely somebody will be found to carry on the work so well organised. This weak issue serves to show the readiness with which others take up the work so hastily laid down. Inside of three hours the plans and material for this paper were arranged. And although some of the work is hastily done, the News asks you to bear with it as its smiling face presents itself for your perusal. With the next issue things will be running once more with a new hand at the helm, and the cheering outlook of prosperity awaiting all.

W. C. L.

CHATS FROM CHATHAM

Does Corp. Davidson really own the rank of Corporal? Sometimes we are inclined to think he is a Captain.

Can anyone tell us if Corp. Jay is training for the Heavyweight Championship, or merely indulging in an "Every-morning-before breakfast stunt"?

Hope you had a good time Corp. Shear. When are we to offer our congratulations. But we hear Corp. Clark is going to beat you to it.

Can anyone tell us the name of the Corporal of the Instructional Staff who was seen parading High Street Saturday night with his face calcimined after the fashion of a ballet-girl?

Overheard after Saturday's ball game.

Captain B— (to dainty Masseur) :—
"What did you think of the game?"

"D. M." (Sarcastically) It was great! but I did not see you do much.

For Honour and for Her

Somewhere a woman, thrusting fear away,
Faces the future bravely for your sake,
Toils on from dawn till dark, from day to day
Fights back her tears, nor heeds the bitter ache;
She loves you, trusts you, breathes in prayer your name;
Soil not her faith in you by sin or shame.

Somewhere a woman—Mother, sweetheart, wife,
Waits 'twixt hopes and fears for your return,
Her kiss, her words, will cheer you in the strife,
When death itself confronts you, grim and stern;
But let her image all your reverence claim,
When base temptations scorch you with their flame.

Somewhere a woman watches, thrilled with pride,
Shrined in her heart, you share a place with none,
She toils, she waits, she prays, till side by side
You stand together when the battle's done.
O keep for her dear sake a stainless name,
Bring back to her a manhood free from shame.—J. T. A.

CRICKET

Granville V. Naval Base

On Thursday afternoon, June 7th, the Fragments from France had as their opponents at Chatham House the Lads in Navy Blue from Ramsgate Naval Base. The weather conditions and the pitch were perfect, and an excellent game was witnessed. The Sailors went first to bat, and the excellent bowling and tricky fielding of the Soldiers kept the Salts from running up a big score. They were all out for 33 runs, none of them reaching to double figures. The Granvillians then took the wicket, and the few who batted presented some splendid cricket, piling up 123 runs for four wickets. Corp. Ayres did good work with the bat, being the top-scorer with 29 not out, while Dis.-Rider Sutton run him a close second with 27 runs. Capt. Preston played pretty cricket for his 20 runs before he was caught. Corp. Strutton weilded a dandy bat, and tied with the Captain at 20. Pte. Hesketh was the last man to play, and knocked up 12 then lost his wicket. The scores were:—Sailors, 33 ; Soldiers, 123 for four wickets.

Granville V. Government Workers

The Granville Canadians met the Government Workers at the Recreation Ground on Saturday afternoon, when a most interesting game was put up. The weather was on its best behaviour, making it a batters' day. The Workers were without two of their players, but two good substitutes were found in Patient Hinscliffe of Chatham House, and our old friend Sailor Warner whose swift bowling is well known to the Fragments. These two players were of very material help to the Government boys—Warner with the ball, and Hinscliffe with the bat, the latter being credited with 14 runs before Kingston got him leg-before. Capt. Preston has had the luck, or misfortune, to be caught out in all the matches played as yet, and he was top-notch with 37 when he put the ball neatly into Ledridge's hands. Ptes. Hesketh, Kingston, and Corp. Strutton all reached double figures. The whole team showed splendid cricket. Appended are the scores:—

WORKERS	2	CANADIANS	10

GRUNTS FROM GRANVILLE

Did the Treatment Department Staff go to church on Sunday ?

Was it Tar or Lipton's Tea that Sergt. O'C got on his clothes ?

We are glad to learn that our Baseball Team were not trying to trim Chatham last Saturday.

Wanted. Several instructors to teach the Granville N.C.O.'s how to play Lawn Tennis.

We wonder what the "Guy with the Hard Face" does every night up the main drag.

Who is the Medical Officer who bravely parades the streets, in mufti, with golf sticks for weapons.

"It seems the Masseuses have not a very high opinion of your baseball capabilities Cap."

Who is the Vancouver Officer-Patient who posed as a provost-marshal in a Margate bar last Sunday evening ?

Well Corp. C—— have you decided which is to be your bride in July, the young lady from H—— or the one on the Prom. ?

The statue of Sergt. H—— has been removed from the corner of Chatham Street, to the front of the Palace. Why ?

What did you do in the Big War Corporal ?
"Had my photo taken on the "Rhubard Patch" and published in the Mirror my boy ! What !!

It is interesting to note the very large percentage of Granvillites who chanced to be awake at exactly 3 a.m. to hear the 1,000,000 lbs. aminol explosion at Messines.

When declaring the state of his finances on the Demobilization Cards the other day, one patient said "Well if the war finishes within five years you can put me down, debit $25.00 for I have bet that much on it." Have a heart.

Chaplain's Wounded Soldiers' Fund

By Capt. E. Bertram Hooper, (Chaplain)

Much space is not required for additions to my "Fund," but I gratefully acknowledge the following:—

Previously acknowledged ... ..	£38	3	0
A Friend, per Sister MacG., of the Message Dept. ... ..	1	1	0
Sister T., of the Yarrow ... ..	3	0	0
Pte. S., of the Yarrow Staff ... ..	0	10	0
A Poor Woman, from Woodstock, N.B. ... ..	0	10	0

These donations have been received since the acknowledgments in the Hospital News of June 9th.

The char-a-banc drives and teas are keenly enjoyed by all who participate in them. The cost is £3 each. For some weeks I have been able to have three drives each week—one from the Granville, one from the Yarrow, and one from Chatham House and Townley Castle. I hope very earnestly that I may be able to continue these drives throughout the beautiful summer season. These joy-rides are of immense benefit as well as a pleasure to the patients.

By care I am making 50,000 cigarettes (Players) cover six weeks instead of four weeks as formerly. These cost some £27 10/-. It is easy to estimate the monthly expenditures which have been made for more than 12 months.

Besides smokes, drives and teas, there are many other smaller expenditures, all for the good of wounded Canadians. I am hoping for further gifts of money from Canada and elsewhere—all of which will be duly acknowledged, by the kind permission of the Editor in the Hospital News. I find that great interest is being taken, by the patients, in these weekly statements, and I am also certain that no one fund does more definite and practical good to a greater number than this "Wounded Soldiers' Fund," every shilling of which is expended with the greatest care.

"The Padre."

Note.—I crave the indulgence of the person who said that "Rams-gate is full of Soldiers, Sailors, and Canadians," for applying the term "Wounded Soldiers" to our wounded Canadian lads. This is intended for a joke.—E.B.H.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES

Dominion Day Games

Arrangements have been going on apace for the sports to be held in the Chatham House Grounds on July 2nd. The committee have held before them a grand celebration of Canada's Birthday. A list of events has been announced by posters scattered over Ramsgate and vicinity, a list that aims to give everybody a chance to enjoy himself and herself. The campus will be open to everybody. Fifty years ago our Fathers met to bind together portions of the vast country on which the Lord smiles. The demi-centennial of confederation should be the rejoicings of people from those portions who have made good our ancestors' hopes.

To recapitulate the posters would be tiresome; yet it would not be amiss to point out one or two features. The Canadian Hospital News has generously offered a prize of 10/- for the best clown on the field. Here's a chance for ingenuity in make ups—a chance to get your name in the papers. The mystery event is open to all, and everybody is assured of a good laugh. There is no doubt but that a large number of competitors will be secured from other units, naval and military. Canadians are naturally urged to uphold their end. There is yet two weeks in which to train for the events.

The staff, personnel and patients are grateful for the generous subscription of the Nursing Sisters of the Granville Hospital. It totalled £15, 5s.

R.N.A.S Sports

At Westgate, on June 9th, the Royal Naval Air Service held their sports. Under the most ideal conditions and surroundings the clean cut athletes had a most successful meet. The sun smiled in all its splendour. The grounds were tastefully decorated with flags and bunting; and all the apparatus was placed handy for the events. The onlookers, warmed by the cheering radiance of the sun and good company, enjoyed themselves to the full.

A long and complete list of sports was provided. There were comic races, track events, and childrens' races. Each one with a good quota of competitors, who rejoiced to run their races.

Tilting the bucket provided endless amusement for the crowd. A hearty laugh or a congratulatory clap was sure to follow the result of the rider's lance point, as his charger rolled under the swinging bucket.

The prizes were many and useful. Mantle clocks, cups, writing cases, silver match boxes, etc., were awaiting the winners of the numerous events. The naval airmen are to be congratulated on the success of their meet.

DOINGS AT THE RANGE

By Pte. H. W. H. Smith

This week the Team shot two Post Matches. The first with Thetford which they won by 13 pts. and the second with Maidenhead which was a tighter match still. The "Maidens" winning by the narrow margin of 8 pts. Both were the 500 yds 1st. class decimal figure targets.

Sergt. Vigne secured the Silver Spoon for the shoot against Thetford and Lc.-Corp. Graham the Silver Spoon against Maidenhead

This week the shoot for The Canadian Hospital News Prize winds up on Saturday 16th. This competition has become a most popular contest and we expect to witness some very keen shooting. The boys have already put in some good practice grouping which is to be the conditions this time. Next week, starting with Monday June 18th, we commence a competition in which the Canadian Rifle Club contributes four prizes. These prizes will consist of 400, 300, 200 and 100 cigarettes. The conditions for this competition will be posted up in due course. Leading Seaman Page and A. B. Cameron of H.M.T.B. 15 won Rifleman Certificates, also Lc.-Corp. Larman. For the benefit and information of new arrivals at the Granville and Annexes we should like to state that the rifle range is situated in the basement at bottom of steps leading from the recreation room and the price of ammunition is only 8 rounds for the small sum of one penny. All are invited to try their skill and any good shots will make a welcome addition to our first team which has a high reputation to maintain. So come along boys and uphold Canadian prestige for all you are worth.

Scout Nichols was presented with a silver spoon on the occasion when he topped the score with 96 out of a possible 100, with the Kent Mounted Constabulary. He has developed into a rattling good shot and the Rifle Club extend to him all good wishes on his departure from the Granville.

BASEBALL

Chatham House v. Naval Airmen

On Friday evening, the 9th, the Chatham House pill-slingers had as guests the R.N.A.S. from Westgate. The Lads in Navy Blue showed that they sure did know something of baseball, and as the result of their bat-swinging gave the Chathamites some pill-hunting, which caused them to look to their laurels. A very pleasant game ended in favour of the airmen by 11 runs to 10.

Grunters v. Chatters

On Saturday afternoon a most unique League game was pulled off, in-as-much-as the Granville team consisted of players from all the annexes. The game had already started when the immaculately groomed Captain of the Grunters arrived on the scene, dressed in "snowy white," even "Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like unto this one." The play throughout the entire game was fairly good, almost approaching to fast, in spots (which were marked by bag). Pridham seemed get a bit rattled, and the Chatters swatted him all over the field, and appeared bent on running up a cricket score. In Pte. Sangell Chatham has a "twirler" of some size, and with plenty smoke on the ball; in fact, Crusty Crosby thought the ball must have been "Haley's Comet," so fast did it pass him. The Chatham House guys were returned winners by 14 runs to 4. Teams in order of going in:—

GRANVILLE		CHATHAM HOUSE
Corp. Billingsley	- - First Base.	Sergt. Heatherington	- - Centre Field.
Crosby	- - Second Base.	Simonson	- - First Base.
Private Forbes	- - Catcher.	James	- - Second Base.
Bond	- - Right Field.	Howe	- - Catcher.
Lemieux	- - Centre Field.	Northcote	- - Third Base.
Hayes	- - Left Field.	Davis	- - Right Field.
Miller	- - Third Base.	Private Murray	- - Short Stop.
Capt. Bedford	- - Short Stop.	Sangell	- - Pitcher.

Chatham House v. Yarrow Home

On Thursday evening, the 14th, the Yarrow team came over to Chatham House and engaged in a League match, which they just succeeded in snatching out of the fire in the last innings. At the close of the fifth the Yarrovians were leading by 4—1. This gave the Yappers something to Yap about, and they didn't forget to either. Starting on the sixth innings, the Chats got three men home, while the Yappers only got one as far as first when Sangell "outed" his third man—score, 4 all. The seventh session was entered upon amidst a scene of the wildest enthusiasm. The Chats failed to score. Despite Sangell's splendid pitching, the Yarrow Lads scored the winning run. Then they trekked to Broadstairs quite jubilant over their 5 place 4 victory.

ENTERTAINMENTS

Arranged by Capt. Armour, Y.M.C.A.

The course of Sacred Illustrated Lectures was continued last Sunday evening. This was the second of the series of lectures on "Our Favourite Hymns," and the hymn for the night was "Rock of Ages." Capt. Withrow read the lecture which was illustrated by beautifully coloured slides. To assist at these already attractive services a small orchestra has been organised, and every Sunday night renders splendid service in providing the music. There are vacancies for a few more instruments and Captain Armour will be pleased to hear from players. Instruments will be provided as far as possible.

On Monday, June 4th, Mr. Thomas Cox Meech delighted everyone present with his wonderful lecture on "Men of the Hour" Mr. Meech has been rightly called "The Human Camera." His impersonations of the leading men of to-day and of bygone days were marvellous. He presents men as they are. Voice, manner, style, Statesmen, Actors, and public men are reviewed by him at close quarters and he impersonates them to his audience to perfection.

On Tuesday evening, "Movies" formed the attraction, and the pictures were exceptionally attractive and humorous.

One of the most delightful concerts given at the Granville, was given on Wednesday evening, June 6th., when the pupils of Miss Colliass and Miss Morgan, gave a dancing display. Tiny little tots of four years' of age, dressed as soldiers and red-cross nurses took part in the dances, and were greeted almost uproariously. The Scenas, "Nursery Noises," and "Jack and Jill," "The Lilliputian Parade," and "The Ballet of the Seasons," were perhaps the most spectacular numbers. Little Myrtle Cash, Phyllis Burden and M. Pratt, were great favourites. We all wish to see our little dancer friends back again.

The "Khakians" from Margate renewed acquaintanceship with Granville boys on Thursday evening after a long absence, and put on a splendid programme. All the artists were in good form, and delighted the large audience that assembled.
