"A sumptuous volume; marks the culmination of a tendency which has for some time been observable in the production of books of travel. It is not only from the pen, but from the pencil and brush, of its accomplished author. It is the story of a journey through the Holy Land, told mainly by the help of pictures. Whatever faults may be found with the 32 chromo-lithographs on which the 284 pages of luxurious texts attend, want of brilliancy and depth will certainly not be one."—STANDARD.
