Town Council Meeting
The regular meeting of the Town Council was held in the Council chamber on Wednesday evening. The Mayor and Councillors Harris, Rand, Sherwood, Regan, Sutherland and Graham were present.
After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, the reports of the various committees were received.
Coun. Sutherland reported for the Streets Committee that the grading of the sidewalks on Linden avenue had been started but the work had to be stopped because the men were needed for other work.

Coun. Sherwood for the Water Committee reported that a small dyke was being built on the south side of the new reservoir to prevent wash into the reservoir. This had been recommended by Engineer Doane when he was here at the time of the water shortage last summer.
For the fire department Mr. Sherwood reported one large fire

Col. J. L. Ralston
To the members of the 85th Canadian Infantry Battalion, (Nova Scotia Highlanders);
The G. W. V. A. is putting on a Membership Drive in order to be sure that every returned man will have brought to his attention the advantages and purposes of the Association.
I believe that the object and aims of the G. W. V. A. are worthy and that such an Association can do much both for returned men themselves, and in supplying a steady influence in Canadian life.
I am writing this because some of you may do me the honor of at least mentally inquiring what I think about the Association. To those may I say that it was because I believed in the possibilities of the G. W. V. A. that I applied for Membership myself, and I would be glad to see every member of the 85th get behind it.
Sincerely yours,
(Signed) J. L. RALSTON.

December Wedding
CLEVELAND—MACNEIL
Melvern Square Baptist church was the scene of a happy occasion Wednesday evening, December 3rd, when Miss Hazel Marie MacNeil, daughter of Col. and Mrs. MacNeil, of Melvern Square, was united in marriage to Lieut. Karl DeW. Cleveland, late of the R. A. F., and eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Cleveland, of Kingston, formerly of Wolfville.
The church, which was beautifully decorated with evergreens and cut flowers, was filled with guests and friends, and at 8 o'clock the bride entered with her father to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Jean MacNeil. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Grace MacNeil, and the groom by his brother, Carmel C. Cleveland.
The bride, who is one of the fairest daughters of the Annapolis Valley, was charmingly gowned in crepe-de-chine with overdress of pearl trimmed silk ninon, bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of chrysanthemums and maiden-hair ferns. The bridesmaid's dress was of pale blue satin with rosebud trimmings and hat of satin with ostrich feathers and she carried pink chrysanthemums and ferns.
Rev. J. H. Hockin, pastor at Melvern Square, officiated, the bride and groom standing beneath an evergreen arch. The impressive double ring service was used. Messrs. Harlie Cleveland and Hibbert MacNeil were the ushers.
At the conclusion of the church ceremony a reception was given for Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland at the home of the bride's parents where the wedding luncheon was served. The gifts were shown on three large tables and included checks and many beautiful pieces of cut glass, silver and china. Girl friends at Bedford and Melvern Square vied with each other in showering the bride with many articles for dining-room and kitchen use. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold wrist watch; to the bride's maid, a brooch of sapphires and pearls; to the best man, an amethyst tie pin; to the organist a silver jewel case.
The happy couple left by auto for Middleton, thence by train for Yarmouth and other points along the south shore. The bride's travelling costume was of fawn serge with coat of seal and mole skin and toque of white feathers.
Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland will make their home in Middleton, in which town Mr. Cleveland is now a leading merchant.

Col. MacDonald's Lecture
Before a large audience in College Hall, last Friday evening, Lt.-Col. MacDonald delivered a splendid lecture on "A Chaplain's Experiences Overseas". In direct, simple language he told of the duties of an overseas chaplain; of some of the discomforts he experienced; of the joy of getting close to the men in intimate converse; of the many ways in which the chaplain worked for the betterment of the men. His remarks were interspersed with amusing stories which drew loud laughter from the audience. In closing his lecture he gave a brief outline of the spirit of France, England and Canada. He said that while we knew very nearly what most of the allied nations had done in the war we would probably never know all that Britain had done. He made every one feel proud to form a part of the glorious British Empire.
An excellent musical program was furnished by four of Mrs. Richmond's pupils. Misses Evelyn Duncanson and Amy Prescott sang a duet entitled, "Hark, hark my Soul." Miss Marie Wilson and Mr. Eldon Henshaw each sang a solo. The most pleasing musical number was a trio, "Twilight," sung by Misses Duncanson, Prescott and Wilson.
The "Ways and Means" committee of the S. & B. Society of the Baptist church, under whose auspices the entertainment was given, are to be congratulated upon giving such a treat to the people of Wolfville.

To the Members of the 25th Canadian Infantry Battalion:
Irrespective of politics, religion, and vocation, all returned men should immediately become members of the Great War Veterans' Association. This organization stands for the relief of sorrowing widows and orphans, and also for those who have been maimed. Further more, the Civil Shield demands respect throughout the whole Dominion and insures the members of law, justice, and right thinking.
(Signed) J. Wise.
At the present the G. W. V. A. has a membership of over 300,000 in approximately 600 branches throughout the Dominion. In Nova Scotia there are fifty branches. During the next few days the provincial Command are expecting to raise the membership in the Province to 15,000. In order to throw their weight into the balance at all returned men should see the Secretary of the home branch at once and sign on.

Notes and Comments

In 20 years 7,700,000 automobiles have been produced in the United States, still there are 21-534,000 horses and 4,925,000 mules. There were never before so many horses in the United States and they never before were so valuable.

British children will play with Canadian toys this Christmas. An order for $7,500 worth unbreakable dolls has been placed by Harrods, one of London's largest departmental stores, with a Toronto firm. Other British stores have also been stocking Canadian toys.

The United States newspapers are short of newsprint. They have decided to cut down the size of the papers and they ask Congress to urge the Canadian Government to repeal the order in council prohibiting the export of wood from crown lands. These United States papers are using 200,000 tons of paper yearly more than their own mills are making.

A gold-handled penknife that is so small it could pass through the eye of an ordinary darning needle has been on display in the window of its maker, Solomon L. Baxter, a Wellesley, Massachusetts, jeweller. Baxter claims it is the smallest penknife in the world. The little knife has two steel blades measuring three-thirty-seconds of an inch. Three tiny steel rivets hold the sides and blades in position.

The Royal Commission inquiring into the claims of tank inventors have awarded Sir William Tritton and Major Wilson fifteen thousand pounds jointly. These are the principal awards. There are others but smaller for minor contributors. The Commission express regret that it cannot recommend an award to L. E. de Mole, who, in 1912, reduced to practical shape the brilliant invention which anticipated and, in some respects, surpassed that actually put into use.

In addressing the Canadian Club at Vancouver, Admiral Viscount Jellicoe, referring to his present mission, said it was to advise the people of Canada only on subjects on which his advice is asked. He said that he noticed that questions had been asked as to his presence in Canada. It was probably feared that he was going to suggest too much militarism and the spending of too much money. Such was not the case. He was, only here, he said, in an advisory capacity and it was Canada's right only to suggest how much money was to be spent. He emphasized, however, the necessity of British sea power if the Empire is to live, and the necessity of being prepared for any emergency.

It appears that Oxford undergraduates have been endeavoring, by means of the Profiting Act, to reduce the inflated cost of living at the University. It has increased to such a point that it creates a very serious problem. Before the war it was possible for an unusually able boy to win scholarships almost if not quite maintained him. Now, with a minimum cost of from $1,300 to $1,500 a year, it is no longer possible. That very narrow bridge whereby the poor man might pass into the old Universities has broken down, and an education at Oxford or Cambridge has become the exclusive privilege of the well-to-do. There is no lack of undergraduates; both Universities are fuller than is comfortable.

Christmas at Nova Scotia Sanatorium

Again the Nova Scotia Sanatorium at Kentville sends out its yearly reminder that Christmas has always been made bright for its patients by the kindness of those who send gifts and the wherewithal to buy gifts for the great Christmas Tree and fete held for the men on Christmas night. Some friends have already been making offers for this year, and it is not too early; there are only twenty-three working days for our preparations.

We have this year two hundred and forty ex-soldier patients, and we feel sure that those kindly interested individuals and societies throughout the Province who found pleasure in giving gifts to the men in former years will be glad to join us again in this work of cheer.

Personal packages are especially enjoyed, and may include any of the following articles: writing materials, toilet articles (brushes, powder, shaving materials, etc.), knit gloves, mittens, armbands, suspenders, sleeping caps, socks, bedroom slippers, sweaters, books, magazines, smokes, pipes, cake, candy, nuts and fruit. Names will be furnished on request.

Correspondence, parcels and cash contributions may be addressed to the Medical Superintendent, N. S. Sanatorium, Kentville, N. S. All gifts will be acknowledged in the newspapers, and whenever possible by personal letters.

How Exchange Rate Operates

The fact that the rate on exchange with the United States has increased from 4-1-2 to 5 per cent, while not what Canada could wish it to be, is not considered as anything more than normal reflection of the unfavorable trade balance which the monthly trade statement just issued reveals. It can be remedied only in three ways, by selling them more goods, buying less from them, or placing a loan in the United States. As Sir Henry Drayton says: "If the people of Canada will keep on importing expensive goods, you can expect nothing else. The Government can do nothing to remedy it."

The hope that the balance would be altered favorably by a considerable amount of our new loan being placed in the United States was disappointed. Great Britain was placing a loan there at the same time with a rate of interest three quarters of one per cent greater than ours. There does not appear to be any possibility of placing any loans with the United States in the near future to keep right the rate of exchange.

Sir Thomas White stated before the House Committee on Soldiers Civil Re-establishment that the United States was a very limited international market. The 75 million dollars which we had raised there when we last went borrowing this summer was about as heavy a loan as can be raised by Canada in the United States. He doubted if we could have raised a hundred million dollar loan.

The only resource open to Canada, then, to right the exchange is to buy less from the United States or to sell more to her—both, if possible. Our trade for the past six months shows an adverse balance of $135,352,004. How the exchange rate is regulated by the balance of trade is shown by the fact that our rate with Great Britain is about eleven per cent in our favor and with France 37 per cent, in both countries the trade balance being largely in our favor.

Illiteracy

One of the most pitiable individuals to-day is the poor fellow who, through his own fault or on account of circumstances, has grown up unable to read or write. It is a terrible deprivation in this age of the world and it is a disgrace that such things have to be in a civilized country. From an American contemporary we learn that the census of 1910 showed that 5,516,163 persons over ten years of age in the United States could not read or write in any language. The army draft of 1918 showed 700,000 men of draft age registered who could not read or write, and 4,600,000 of the illiterates are 20 years of age or over. This figure equals the population of the far western and southwestern States. Of the illiterates counted in the census 58 per cent are white, and of these 1,500,000 are native born. These very large figures go to show that the illiteracy of the nation cannot be calmly attributed to the Southern negroes and to the immigrants from the outside world, a form of solacement which has been always a favorite with the native white.

What the figures are for Canada we do not exactly know, but without doubt they are larger than Canadian complacency believes them to be. There is no excuse for such a condition in the present generation, whatever excuse may have existed in the past.

Digby is to have an up-to-date Standard Station with all modern improvements, to be completed before next summer. The railway expects to spend between $60,000 and $65,000 on the structure and probably as much more on the Pines Hotel and grounds.

THE JOY OF MOTHERHOOD

Came to this Woman after Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Restore Her Health

Ellensburg, Wash. "After I was married I was not well for a long time and a good deal of the time was not able to go about. My greatest desire was to have a child in our home and one day my husband came back from town with a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and wanted me to try it. It brought relief from my troubles.

I improved in health so I could do my housework; we now have a little one, all of which I owe to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. O. S. JOHNSON, R. No. 2, Ellensburg, Wash. After the Referendum

The men and women of Ontario have given forth their verdict regarding the repeal or amendment of the Ontario Temperance Act, and as we confidently hoped it would be, the verdict is unmistakable and unequivocal. Without any possibility of question, "the Nocs have it." In a most emphatic manner the electors of the Province have shown their detestation of John Barleycorn, and their determination to give him no quarter. For three years they have enjoyed comparative immunity from his frightful ravages, and now, with remarkable unity and accord they have risen up from all parts of the Province to slay and bolt the door against his return. Never again will he be allowed to establish himself in "the lurking-places of the villages" or to murder the innocent in his secret places.

Ontario has put the licensed saloon forever out of bounds. She has relieved herself of an intolerable burden, and has no intention of ever assuming it again. Not only have the electors of the Province declared against the sale of liquor in the bar-room, but they have given their vote with almost equal volume and vehemence to the Government for the dispensing of intoxicants. And the proposal to allow the sale of so-called "light beer" has provoked a unanimous "No" from nearly all parts of the Province. The people have made it very clear that they are determined upon the utter elimination and extinction of the liquor traffic. Root and branch it must go. They will not tolerate the evil in any shape or form.

The credit for the splendid victory which has been won is due in a very large measure to the heroic action of the women of the Province. They had been waiting long and patiently for the opportunity to strike back at the merciless foe that has broken the hearts and desolated the homes of tens of thousands of wives and mothers, and when the moment finally came they struck with all the concentrated energy of generations of suffering womanhood. Throughout the entire campaign the women acquitted themselves with great credit. As canvassers, scrutineers, runners-up, they worked with the most untiring energy, and displayed superior intelligence and alertness. From the time the first ballot was cast till the last one was counted they stood to their guns. - The Canadian Baptist.

Editing A Newspaper

Editing a newspaper is a pleasant business if you can stand it. If it contains any advertisements the subscribers claim they take too much space. If there is a scarcity of advertising it is unpopular and the people won't have it. If we attend church regularly, they say we do it for effect. If we stay away from church they say we are monstrously heathenish. If we accept an invitation to a wedding they say we are invited to "write it up." If we are on the streets much, they say we neglect our business. If we avoid going on the street, they say we don't hustle around after news. If we reject a long winded communication, its author becomes furiously enraged and discontinues his paper. If we publish lengthy communications, our subscribers say we lack discretion, and put it in to fill up. If we omit to decorate our office window on King's birthday, they say we lack enterprise, and that there isn't a drop of patriotic blood in our degenerated carcass.

If we omit jokes, they say we are poor miserable fossils. If we are single they say we are too helpless to get married. If we are married, they say it's a pity for our wives. If we publish a man who has brought disgrace upon his family, the friends of the family never forgive us. If we, out of goodness of heart decline to say anything on the subject the man's enemies are disappointed and we are branded as white livered cowards. We are liable to receive these raps and many more, and we are always ready to receive visitors, whether accompanied by dogs or not. Of course we do not claim there is any work in running a newspaper. Everybody knows it's a snap.

"More Bees, More Fruit"

Without an exception experts on orchard fruits are recommending the keeping of bees in or near an orchard to assist in pollination. This course is recommended in addition to the planting of a certain number of trees of other varieties that are known to be pollinators in large orchard blocks of one particular variety. It has come to be recognized that bees are one of the most valuable assets that the orchardist can have and that the bee-keeping industry should be stimulated and protected in orchard districts in every way possible. In fact, it will pay the orchardist to make a study of the bee-keeping industry and to place as many hives as he believes will secure the necessary food in or near his orchard, regardless of the income he may secure from the honey.

This course has been advised by many prominent fruit growers in the Northwest. In Washington a campaign is being conducted to raise more bees and to protect them. In California the same action is being urged, while the matter is also receiving the endorsement and approval of a large number of growers in Oregon.

A good slogan in waging this campaign for increasing the number of these valuable insects would be "More Bees, More Fruit," and every orchardist should bear this in mind.

Provincial Forester

With new industrial growth in forest industries assured to Nova Scotia, it seems a fitting time for the Province to apply a restrictive policy to the source of wood supplies in the natural forest. Nova Scotia has paid an extremely high price for the lack of fire protection and a semblance of forest management. Over seventy per cent. of the land area is adapted only to growing rich crops of timber, but only 100,000 acres to-day are actually under commercial sized trees. In Dr. B. E. Fernow's estimate, the forests of Nova Scotia represent a potential capital of $300,000,000 and yet "it is now in poor condition and is being annually further deteriorated by abuse and injudicious use."

It is understood that Hon. Mr. Daniels has completed a plan for the appointment of a well-known experienced Provincial Forester, and the adoption of such public measures as will prevent the total extinction of Nova Scotia's forests, her lumber and pulp mills and the towns and population depending on them. Mr. Daniels' illness has resulted in the appointment being side tracked for consideration by other members of the Cabinet. The need of a Forester has been recognized for years and the Provincial Government can do no more popular service than to proceed with the appointment. This is the only forested province in Canada without a Forest Service.

G. W. V. A. Referendum

The Great War Veterans Association is taking a referendum on the following questions:

- (1) Are you in favor of amending the Constitution so as to permit political action?
(2) Are you in favor of amending the Constitution to permit any person who has served honorably in the forces of Great Britain and her Allies to become members of the G. W. V. A.?

The man whose life moves in a different orbit from that of his fellows is regarded as an eccentric man. It is the central idea which animates his life that determines what its orbit shall be. If his life is self-centred, his activities and aims will revolve upon the centre of his own interest and advancement, and his whole outlook will be determined thereby. If, on the other hand, he has learned the great lesson of altruism; that no man liveth unto himself, and that he is here not for the enrichment of himself at the expense of others, but for the service he can render to others, his whole life will stand in marked contrast to that of the man whose central governing thought is self.

With the taking over of the Grand Trunk Railway the Government has acquired an extensive telegraph system, the Great North Western, which also includes that formerly belonging to the Canadian Northern Railway. Though run by a company, this system is as much the property of the people as the railway lines that are in national control.

Money Well Spent

In these days of expensive living the question with most people is to get the most value for one's money. In the case of newspapers or magazines there can be no doubt The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal giving the greatest value for the money on the continent. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is a wonderful combination of newspaper, magazine and agricultural paper. It costs only $1.25 a year and each subscriber receives a handsome souvenir portrait of the Prince of Wales, 16x22 inches. We learn the subscription price will be $1.50 after December 31st. No better value can be had than a year's trial of the big Montreal Weekly. It consists of 64 pages each week and every page interesting and instructive.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proved.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic, and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. We beg to call the attention of those who owe for subscriptions to kindly pay up, and to remind them that in these days of high prices the home paper is about the only thing that still remains within easy reach of all. For three cents a week we send the paper with all the news of the week and with many articles of good literature and information. Remit today. $1.50 in advance.

We have received a copy of the "March of the Nova Scotia Highlanders", words by Mary E. Fletcher, music by M. M. Sterns. This is a decidedly fine military March, and is published by M. M. Sterns, Amherst, N. S. The price has been reduced from 50c. to 17c. postpaid. All not having copies should write at once to the composer, M. M. Sterns, Amherst, as the supply is limited.

A confereuce to discuss the matter of an Old Home Summer in Nova Scotia was held at Halifax on Wednesday and Thursday. About seventy-five delegates from all parts of the province were in attendance. The representatives from Wolfville were Dr. M. R. Elliott, president of the Civic Club, H. E. Calkin, president of the Board of Trade, and Dr. Cutten, president of Acadia University.

A Veteran Journalist

The death of a veteran newspaperman, Mr. J. J. Anslow, occurred at his home on Grey Street, Windsor, N. S., on Friday afternoon, November 28th, at the age of seventy-nine. Although not in robust health, Mr. Anslow's illness did not take on a serious nature until about three weeks ago. Since then he has gradually failed. Throughout his trying illness he evidenced great patience and was very appreciative of any kindness shown. He was a member of the Methodist church, also of Welsford Lodge, A. F. and A. M., and of the I. O. O. F. (Pesaquid Lodge).

In the work of temperance he took special interest and delight, and in the work of Avon Division, S. of T., he manifested a steadfast regard, as he also did in the Grand and National Divisions. In the former he held the office of Past Grand Worthy Associate.

He was a man of fine literary ability, clear and concise in his thought, even to the last. He was a loyal and true friend and his memory will ever be cherished and honored. In all that appertained to the welfare of the community, he took a keen interest, and his death will be a distinct loss to Windsor.

Mr. Anslow was twice married. There were eight children by this union, three of whom are living, Belle and Florence at home, and Mrs. Harris Smith of Windsor. The deceased married for his second wife Kate S. Sutherland. The son is Harold S., who took over the Hants Journal in 1914 on his father's retirement from active business.

The two nights engagement at the Opera House of the Klark-Urban Co. was much appreciated by theatre-goers and good houses greeted the players. On Monday evening "Nothing but the Truth," with many funny situations and clever acting, was heartily enjoyed. The play on Tuesday evening was "The 14th Chair," and was cleverly put on. Mr. Klark announced, much to the satisfaction of all present, that he hoped to be able to return on Dec. 20th for a one night engagement before leaving for the West Indies.

Monument For Sir Wilfrid

To the people of Nova Scotia:

A movement has been inaugurated by friends of the late Right Honorable Sir Wilfrid Laurier to raise a Fund by popular subscription for the purpose of erecting a suitable monument at the grave of this great Canadian.

It is desired that as many as possible should share in this movement, and to this end subscriptions will be received for the smallest possible amounts, but in no case will an individual subscription be permitted larger than Five Dollars ($5.00). It has been estimated that the sum of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000) will be sufficient for the purpose in view. On this basis I think that the Province of Nova Scotia should contribute not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000).

A strong Central Committee has been formed under the Chairmanship of Honorable Sidney Fisher of Ottawa. This Committee will see that all the funds are properly expended. If more than the amount necessary for the monument is subscribed, the surplus will be devoted to some public purpose in harmony with the life and ideals of the late illustrious statesman.

I am sure that there are very many in this Province of all shades of political opinion who will welcome the opportunity of sharing in this Memorial. Sir Wilfrid Laurier occupied an absolutely unique position in the Dominion of Canada. His long and eminent public service and his life-long zeal for a united Canada made him one of the outstanding figures of the Empire. At the same time, his charm of manner and his high standard of personal integrity won the intense devotion of his followers and the approbation of those who differed from his political views and aspirations. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's name and record belong now to every part of Canada and to every portion of our population.

Subscriptions from this Province may be sent to Ald. John B. Douglas, 234 Hollis Street, Halifax, who has kindly consented to act as Treasurer for Nova Scotia. It is hoped that all collections will be in the hands of the Central Committee by February 17th next, the anniversary of Sir Wilfrid's death.

I can add nothing more except to urge an immediate response on the part of all those who wish to do honor to the name and memory of one who was so justly honored and loved by his fellow-countrymen.

The Romance of the Okanagan

"The Cecil Rhodes of the Okanagan" has been the title given Mr. J. M. Robinson of Naramata, Okanagan Valley, B. C.

It is due to his energy and vision that the valley is now covered with smiling orchards and is one of the assets of the Dominion.

From his newspaper office in Portage La Prairie, Manitoba, in 1894, Mr. Robinson observed a family of eight, with their savings of ten thousand dollars, leaving for California. That they were seeking a milder climate led him to remark that it was to be regretted that Canada should lose such citizens and that there was not a Canadian California.

Two years later Mr. Robinson and his party went to Roseland, at the time of the mining-boom and formed a prospecting party who went into the Okanagan valley and located claims near Peachland and established Camp Hewitt. The hills refused to uncover their store house of metals. With courage they faced the conviction that their hopes were blighted. However, if the hills of Peachland revealed that the richest wealth lay in the surface soil which, when cultivated and planted, produced fruit and vegetables, unsurpassed.

At the ranch of Mr. Lambly, gold commissioner, Mr. Robinson was given peaches and was amazed to learn that they had been grown on the ranch. He at once realized that he had found that for which he had been searching, the Canadian California. Boundless possibilities lay in the great reaches of upland, covered with scattered pines and sage brush. A tract purchased on the beach was called Peachland, the name carrying the advertisement with it. Eastern people then inquired if "peaches grew in Peachland," so there truly was much in a name. To have one hundred families occupying the land that one parched hills the homes of thousands of Easterners was the dream of the "Father of the Okanagan." Promoting this colonization scheme, a pair of settlers was brought from Manitoba in 1896, a preacher and a teacher included, as there were twenty-one children in the party. The Peachland townsite company was formed and the land was divided into small holdings of ten acres. An irrigation system was installed, the water being brought from the mountain streams flowing into the lake and, with assured irrigation, the land sold at nominal cost. Orchards were planted and homes erected. It was all an experiment as irrigation was a new thing in Canada. A school was built, a store was opened, a union church was established. The first service was held on the veranda of Mr. Robinson's home and this union church continued for some years. The late Mr. J. B. Somerset, former business manager of the "Winnipeg Free Press" joined the colony and attended the fruit farm part of the enterprise. It required five years for the trees to come into full bearing and during that time there were many cries of "fake" but the staunch-hearted men continued their transformation plans. Over twenty miles of good roads were constructed and gave access to every tract. Electric and domestic water systems were installed. In due time, one hundred thousand fruit trees were bearing and the land and valleys back of the lake were planted to the very mountains. So the slopes were freed of their burden of pine trees. Woodlands gave place to orchards of apples, pears, peaches, apricots, plums and cherries.

(1) Fruit Orchards, Summerland, B.C.
(2) View of the Okanagan Lake, Penticton, B.C.

This was one of the first small fruit farm enterprises in Canada where the irrigation system was installed by the company. The early days of development had to break down a prejudice against irrigation and when once a grower has learned to be his own rain-maker, he prefers the certainty of that to any other method. Having found Peachland, Mr. Robinson determined to exploit a new district and to the south of his last enterprise, purchased ten thousand acres in 1903. No title could be more fitting than Summerland, applied to the new district which is the sunny centre of the Okanagan. Summerland has an unusually picturesque environment. In the centre of the district rises the peak known as Giants Head. The last venture in pioneering was at Naramata on the opposite shore of the lake. Over the hills that were parched and gray, vine-covered homes and prolific orchards now greet the eye. From the Lake front, at night, the twinkling lights of hundreds of homes shine far and clear and a vision has become a splendid reality. Mr. Robinson, the benefactor, to whom both the Okanagan and the Dominion owe much, rests content. C. G.

Retail Men In Conference

HELPFUL ADDRESS BY SUCCESSFUL SMALL TOWN MERCHANT.

Retail store men in conference recently heard one of their number who had built up a big business in a small western town tell in a most convincing way of the secrets of his success.

His name was Mann—just a plain, common-sense, hard-headed business man and merchant. He told how he started in a grocery business as a boy with $1,600 capital, and the first week he opened up he had a fair sized advertisement in a local paper; "and I believe there has never been an issue of the paper from that time to this that our firm's name has not been advertised in," he said. Now the store he heads does a business of half a million dollars a year at a retail and he advertises more than ever, and says that with advertising he believes they can make the Business run a million. Some of the advice he gave the assembled business men was: "First have something in the newspaper all the time. You say it is too much trouble to write the advertisements? yes; but if you spend a little time, even till midnight, to prepare some good advertising you will find it the biggest money maker you ever had. Have your salesmen talk advertising, study it, and back it up. Have your jobbers help you prepare advertisements. Take some jobbers' finely written and displayed advertising and apply it to your own business. Get them to print extra copies of their circulars and folders with your name on and send these out." And then he went on to impress those business men with the danger of not advertising, saying that the big mail order houses have lists of names by the millions; they know exactly in what communities they have the competition, and they go after the business in those places where the business men do not advertise. And mark this further statement: "Eight-four per cent. of the business failures are of non-advertisers. I beg of you to spend at least two per cent. of your gross sales in advertising, and back up this advertising properly and you will see wonderful results."

Is there not a business sermon in this man's observations, since he is not connected in any way with newspapering, but has grown rich as he has grown gray in the mercantile business, and is counted one of the greatest business successes in the Northland.

Facts of the World's Greatest Tragedy

Sixty million men went to war, and of that number 7,200,000 were killed—a number equal to the population of New York City.

There were almost three times as many men wounded as killed; 21,000,000 men were wounded. Not that many different men, however, some have been hit several times.

Out of the 21,000,000 wounded, 17,850,000 recovered, so as to be able to return to the front.

At St. Mihiel 1,000,000 rounds of artillery were used in four hours—the greatest amount of ammunition used in one day's battle during the war.

The war in money cost all nations the astounding sum of $185,000,000,000.

It took about 7600 bullets to kill a man. Eight billion four hundred and four million is the estimated number of bullets fired during the war.

and forty-six thousand gross tons of shipping were destroyed by mines and submarines.

The enemy employed 371 submarines; 190 of these were destroyed.

240,080 airplanes were used by all nations; 75,000 were destroyed. 1,000,000 miles of barbed wire, enough to go 40 times around the world, were used by the nations engaged in the struggle.

16,000,000 horses belonging to all nations were engaged; of these 8,000,000 were killed.

The Blue Cross organization cared for the wounded horses as the Red Cross cared for their masters.

220,000 carrier pigeons were used by all nations. Some of these won honors because of their wonderful service. Not a few now bear decorations.

Canary birds saved thousands of lives. These delicate songsters were very sensitive to the approach of gas. When a bird dropped and died the soldiers knew that a gas attack was in preparation.

One million fewer children were born in France than there would have been had there been no war. The figures are comparatively the same for the other nations engaged.

The war was really won in 115 days; four years less 10 days, according to the maps, the central powers were victorious. Then came the decisive 115 days.

The percentage of casualties was highest in the infantry.

More deaths occurred in the past war than in all the wars of the world for the last 100 years.

ASBESTONE

40 YEAR ROOFING

No rags or tar in this roofing. Pure Asbestos and Asphalt, cannot rot or dry out.

Costs but little more than the ordinary kind.

It is far more durable as well as fire resisting, and just as easy put on. Any other roofing would be totally destroyed by fire. Not so with Asbestone.

It is not what is on a roofing, but what is in it, that counts. Write for information and sample. If you can't get it through your dealer we will send it to you direct. We want dealers to handle it.

Port Williams

Many enjoyable and profitable good times have taken place in our village recently, such as pie-sales, bean suppers, and a candy pull, enjoyed as a private social affair by a number of the young people, in Citizen's Hall. Also, the last several weeks the young people of the place have been enjoying the good times, oft "before the war," three evenings of the week at Citizen's Hall. We understand "the eats" are occasionally enjoyed.

The Sons of Temperance, "Good Will Division," and the Loyal Orange Lodge, have again opened their societies for the winter. All success to both. We have been told the members of L. O. Lodge will enjoy a supper this (Friday) evening.

The Ladies Institute recently held an afternoon session at Citizens Hall, a profitable time.

We welcome as residents to our village, Mr. and Mrs. Hocken. The former is manager of our Bank, which has for three months been open daily and is of great use. Another up-to-date and useful thing is the barber shop, which has been conducted all summer by Mr. Parnell Gates, first-class work being done for our gentlemen; also shampooing for the ladies.

Two very successful pie sales have been recently held. The first was a masquerade social and one hundred and twenty dollars were cleared; the other was last Wednesday evening, (a dark rainy night) and the proceeds were seventy-five dollars. Both amounts go towards making a skating rink. Much credit is given to the committee in charge—Everett Fraser, Harry Palmeter and our school teachers, Miss Davies and Miss Gladys Newcombe. The rink will be enjoyed.

News has been received of the wedding of Miss Josephine Eaton, daughter of a former well known resident of this village. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Eaton, of Brockton, Mass., who some years ago sold their property here—the well known Eaton Homestead—and purchased a home in Brockton. The wedding took place at the bride's home, Mr. Charles Burgess being the lucky man. The bride looked very fair and girlish in a dress of silk crepe-de-chine, beautifully embroidered, with trimmings of silk fringe. She wore a wedding veil with wreath of orange blossoms. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Terry, charmingly gowned in white over rose satin. The groom was attended by the bride's brother, Lawrence. The wedding march was skilfully rendered. Dainty refreshments were served to the guests, among whom were Mrs. Harry Randolph—nee Minnie Fullerton—and Miss Millicent Frazer, cousin of the bride. Congratulations to the former daughter of our village.

J. C. MITCHELL MAIN STREET

Continued from Page 1. during the month, that which occurred at the evaporator. It had been found that some new equipment was necessary and the chief had been authorized to procure same. The fire hose was in bad condition, he said, and the chief wanted 500 feet of new hose. Mr. Sherwood thought the matter should be discussed by the Council before the hose was ordered. Coun. Harris reported for the Finance Committee that the receipts for the month of November were $598.97, and the disbursements, $4383.72. The debit bank balance on December 1st was $5017.27. A number of bills were read and ordered paid.
