THESE GAMES MEAN MUCH TO LEADERS

Giants and St. Louis Begin Important Series

Speeding Motorcycle Racers Injured in New Bedford—Tetramer Wins Stewards' Cup at Goodwood—Other Late Sport News.

(Canadian Press) New York, July 25.—New York and St. Louis clubs, leading contenders in the major leagues, today opened each other in the opening games of a series that may have a decisive bearing on the outcome of the pennant race.

The Yankees, who lost the lead the last time they toured the western strongholds of their four most potent rivals, were one and a half games behind the pace setting Browns as they started St. Louis. The Hugmen were strengthened for the crucial test by the acquisition of third baseman Joe Dugan and outfielder Elmer Smith in a trade with the Red Sox.

The Giants and Cardinals were practically even in terms of their seasonal race as they opened a five game series at the Polo Grounds, New York holding first place by the fraction of one point while the westerners had a lead of one and a half in the won and lost table.

The Giants, concluding their tour by dividing a double-header with Pittsburgh yesterday, secured no better than a ten break in twenty games with western rivals. The substantial lead with which they started the invasion was rapidly reduced by the onslaught of the Cardinals, who took fourteen out of eighteen starts against eastern clubs, including three out of four from the champions, and in the sensation of occupying first place for a day by climbing ahead of New York on Saturday.

Tillie Walker knocked out his 24th homer as Philadelphia closed its home stand by beating the Senators 4 to 2, and was robbed of his 28th when a fan fanned the ball out of the bleachers. Walker is now three ahead of Ken Williams, his nearest American League rival, and two behind Rogers Hornsby, National League cloning king.

Coveleskie outpitched Red Faber and Cleveland defeated Chicago, 5 to 2, in the only other game played in the major leagues yesterday.

Speeders Injured. New Bedford, Mass., July 25.—George Seres, motor paced champion of France, was badly injured during a race at the Cyclodrome here last night. He fell while closely pressed by George Chapman and the driver of the motorcycle pacing Chapman had no chance to change his course. The heavy machine passed over Seres' body, bounding into the air and turning over. Chapman's wheel also struck the fallen rider, Chapman doing a somersault and landing on the motorcycle. Seres has four broken ribs, and is feared one of his lungs is punctured. Pasquier, who was pacing Chapman, led two ribs and his left collar bone fractured. Chapman was knocked unconscious, but escaped with minor injuries.

Goodwood, Eng., July 25.—Tetramer, by the Tetrahedron, won the Stewards' cup, a handicap of one thousand sovereigns, for three year old night up, six furlongs, run here today. Light third. Thirty horses ran.

Schoykill Regatta. Philadelphia, July 25.—Oarsmen from parts of the U. S. and Canada will row in the anniversary regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen here on August 8, and 5 to the Schoykill Navy Board announced today. Entries have been received from New York, St. Louis, Duluth, Detroit, Boston, Toronto, Washington, Baltimore and other cities.

New York, July 25.—The Australian Davies cup team, regarded as the most formidable contender for the international tennis trophy, held by the U. S., arrived tonight. Gerald L. Patterson, James O. Anderson, Pat O'Hara Wood and R. C. Wertzlein.

POPE PIUS RECEIVES HENRY MORGANTHAU Rome, July 25.—Pope Pius today received in private audience Henry Morgenthau, former U. S. ambassador to Turkey, and had a long conversation with him about his experiences at Constantinople during the early days of the war.

They also conversed about Mr. Morgenthau's visit to Poland as a member of former President Wilson's mission of investigation, whether the Pope, who at that time was Cardinal Ratti, went as an apostolic representative.

GRAND FALLS HATCHERY. Ottawa, July 25.—(Canadian Press)—The Dominion fish hatchery at Grand Falls, N. B., this season detained 1,285,000 salmon fry and retained 1,229,000. It also retained 4,000 ovaniches. This is an increase of some 375,000 over last year's figures.

Tobique, which is subsidiary to Grand Falls, distributed 1,162,000, the largest distribution from that establishment since it was opened in 1915.

Subject to a formal objection, registered by G. H. Vernon, K. C., counsel for the defence, that the prisoner was not ready for trial, the fourth hearing of the case of the King against John Paris, charged with the murder of Sarah Jane McAuley, a young cripple girl, on August 2, 1921, was commenced this morning before Mr. Justice Chandler in the circuit court. Up to the time of adjournment for lunch the time was entirely taken up with the selection of a jury, which was not accomplished until the entire jury panel of ninety-one names was practically exhausted.

The jury selected was as follows:—Clarence W. Colwell, Walter S. Knowles, G. S. Springer, James P. Quinn, A. W. Fraser, John S. Malcolm, E. Allan Agor, J. E. Emery, C. F. Dodge, J. L. Heans, Richard I. Carlous and Harry Short.

When the names of the jury panel were called at the opening of court it was found that only thirty-seven of the ninety-one called responded. Two of the absentees reported later.

The judge called the attention of the attorney-general, Hon. J. P. Byren, who conducted the case for the crown, to the fact that nearly two-thirds of those summoned had absented themselves. "It looks to me," he said, "like a deliberate intention on the part of some of the jurymen to disobey the summons of the court. You might look into the matter and see if it would not be advisable to proceed against them for contempt."

The judges characterized the situation as a "bad state of affairs" and added that jurymen should realize that they were part of the machinery for the administration of justice.

The attorney-general replied that he would take steps to see if there was a willful disobedience of the summons of the court and would take whatever steps he deemed best to meet the case. He expressed doubt in the advisability of going on with the selection of the jury as the defence was allowed to challenge twenty-one of the crown four, and in addition the crown was permitted to stand aside forty-eight. However, he moved for trial.

At 10 o'clock Mr. Vernon, counsel for Paris, arose and asked permission to enter an objection against the trial proceeding on the grounds that the defence was not ready for trial. He said that he urged it on the same grounds as presented in his application for postponement when the court first sat some three weeks ago, namely that information had come to hand which might affect the case for the prisoner, but which the defence was not able to investigate thoroughly in the limited time at its disposal.

The judge ruled that the case proceed, subject to Mr. Vernon's objection. Again Pleas Not Guilty.

The attorney-general asked that the prisoner be again arraigned. As the clerk of the court commanded, "John Paris, stand up," the defendant arose in a nonchalant manner, and a smile spread across his face, which remained as he listened intently to the reading of the grand jury indictment. To the question, "Are you guilty or not guilty?" he replied in a clear voice, "No guilty," and calmly sat down. As at his last trial, he was neatly dressed in a dark suit of fine material, with white starched collar and deep colored tie and generally presented the appearance of a well-groomed man. His face showed little effects of his long confinement.

The jury selected. After the jurymen present had been called and subjected to the scrutiny of the court and opposing counsel, it was found that ten were acceptable and were sworn in as jurors; twenty were challenged preemptorily by the defence; one was challenged for cause by Mr. Vernon; nine were stood aside by the crown, and one excused on account of physical disability.

Those challenged by the prisoner were: E. L. Jarvis, S. L. Day, Arthur B. Lordley, W. S. Charlton, W. E. A. Laxon, John E. Willett, H. A. Doherty, Frederick Bryden, Bradford Bely, Thomas B. Reynolds, Frank Grierson, James McGrath, Charles P. Hamm, John H. Bond, J. H. Armstrong, H. L. Armstrong, B. M. Cosman, George Stewart, John T. Coffey and H. W. Bloomfield.

The following were stood aside by the crown:—Edward Tait, Richard I. Carlous, Abraham Poyas, Harry Short, T. H. Edwards, D. J. Stockford, E. S. Thurston, H. A. Mance and George G. Kierstead.

James T. Riley, when called, was not objected to by either side, but when he (Continued on page 12, third column.)

The defendant is Mrs. Alice Florence Fitzpatrick, whose house in the Old Black River road was destroyed by fire on December 20, 1921. The information was laid by Charles Robinson, assistant fire marshal of New Brunswick. W. M. Ryan is conducting the prosecution.

K. C. OUTING. The Knights of Columbus are holding their annual picnic today at Crystal Beach. A large number of members and friends left on the steamer Hampton this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, and more are to leave on the steamer D. J. Purdy at 5 o'clock. As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I was much impressed by your picture in the Imperial last night. It taught a great moral lesson. When a man who had bled his customers and lost their favor and was at last unable to carry on, he first proposed to his successful competitor or that the latter go into partnership with him, and when that failed he wanted the competitor to buy him out. The competitor said: 'You are out now,' and added: 'You are out because you didn't go straight.' That was a great moral lesson."

"Was you applyin' that lesson to anybody in particular?" queried Hiram. "Well," said the reporter, "if you know of any parallel case you might make the application yourself."

"Not mentionin' any names," said Hiram, "I guess you wouldn't be fer of the rails if you applied it right here in St. John—By Hen!"

ESKIMOS IN RAW ALCOHOL BORGIES

Fearful Condition of Things on the Northeast Coast of Siberia Reported.

Nome, July 25.—The northeast Siberian coast, from Anadyr north to the Arctic, is in a state of chaos as a result of the manufacture of raw alcohol by the Eskimos, which they drink as fast as it can be made, according to a despatch to the Nome Nugget.

The whole section is a vast distillery," says the correspondent, who adds that the seventy-five per cent, have died recently from lack of food and medicine and that the older natives are "drinking, fighting and killing each other in their orgies."

The Hudson Bay Company steamer Bay Chlme has left Nome for Anadyr, carrying supplies, including medicines.

COMMONS VOTES FOR REMOVAL OF THE EMBARGO

London, July 25.—(Canadian Press)—Little animation marked the debate in the House of Commons yesterday which resulted in a vote resolving that "this house is of the opinion that the embargo has arrived when the embargo on the importation of Canadian cattle should be removed."

The chief speakers were Hon. Winston Churchill, Sir Arthur Griffith Boscawen, minister of agriculture and Hon. Mr. Asquith.

An amendment was rejected by 247 to 171 and Wm. Shaw's motion was agreed to.

Some Battling Yet. Toronto, July 25.—(Canadian Press).—Publication of the news that the British House of Commons by a big majority has carried the resolution supporting the withdrawal of the embargo against Canadian cattle importations is apt to be construed as tantamount to the actual lifting of the embargo. That seems to be a mistake. The resolution was merely an expression of opinion invited by the government, not even necessarily binding the government to definite action. Undoubtedly, however, a bill carrying into effect the expressed opinion of the house will be introduced and may be expected to pass, though an equally placid passage through the lords is not so certain.

But it is here that the situation still gives rise to a certain amount of apprehension among officials here who have been associated with the fight against the embargo.

Ottawa, July 25.—With the Lloyd George cabinet itself divided and the British minister of agriculture opposed to removal of the embargo, it is felt that the bill may well contain conditions largely neutralizing the effect of removal of the embargo. A suggestion made when the question was discussed in the House of Lords is cited. This was that Canadian store cattle should be admitted, but only after a quarantine on arrival of two weeks. Such a condition, it is said, owing to the cost, would practically have the effect of again barring Canadian cattle.

But it is observed, the definite pronouncement of the British house is the most forward step taken in support of Canada's point of view since the embargo was imposed thirty years ago, and the end of the battle seems to be now on hand.

SILVER WEDDING OF CHIEF JUSTICE SIR LOUIS DAVIS. Charlotteville, P. E. I., July 25.—The silver wedding of P. E. I. Justice Sir Louis Davis was quietly observed at their summer home on Sunday, Sir Louis, then a barrister and leader of the opposition in the provincial legislature, was married on July 23rd, 1897, to Susan Wiggins in the Episcopal church at St. Eleanor's, P. E. I., the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed by her uncle, Canon Townsend of Amherst. Both Sir Louis and Lady Davis are in excellent health. Their daughters, Mrs. McGrath of Chicago, and Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Wiggins of Sackville, are staying with them at Riverside.

Grand Trunk Figures. Montreal, July 25.—Grand Trunk Railway system receipts for week ending July 21 were $2,182,000, as compared with $1,869,098 for the corresponding week last year, an increase of $322,906.

CANADA MAY GET THE IRISH FLAX INDUSTRY

Troubles in the Emerald Isle Send Armagh Manufacturers Here to Look Into Conditions.

Montreal, July 25.—Because the unrest, political and religious, in Ireland has practically brought the whole flax industry there to a standstill, three manufacturers of Armagh—Joseph Marshall, David McClelland and R. R. Louden—have come to Canada, with a view of duplicating Ireland's flax industry here, and they plan an extensive survey of labor conditions and the suitability of the crop to the soils of various sections.

DR. J. I. DILLING TO HOULTON JAIL

Accusations Against Maine Physician—Bodies of Women are Exhumed.

Caribou, Maine, July 25.—Dr. John I. Dilling of Easton was arraigned here yesterday, charged with murder. He entered a plea of not guilty, and the hearing was continued to August 2. He was committed to the Houlton jail without bail.

Dr. Dilling was arrested near Boston on last Friday night of a fugitive warrant and brought back to Aroostook county. He was said to have left Easton on last Wednesday, following the death of a woman who, according to the authorities, made an ante-mortem statement accusing him of performing a criminal operation. Her body and that of another woman were exhumed at Presque Isle on Saturday.

FRASER NOT IN ST. JOHN RIVER?

Impression in Fredericton That He Has "Disappeared," But is Not Drowned.

Fredericton, N. B., July 25.—While grappling operations are going on in the St. John river near where his bicycle was found yesterday with a note telling the finder to notify Herbert Logan, of North Devon, his father-in-law, and also advising that they "search the river," there is a growing impression in police circles that Allison Fraser, who has been missing since Sunday evening, did not throw himself into the river after all, but has just "disappeared."

Last evening the police went to a house in Regent street and there interviewed a young woman from Presque Isle, Maine. She said she had seen the missing man about ten o'clock on Sunday night, but said it was just a casual meeting and that after speaking with her brother he left on his bicycle and said he was going to his home in Devon.

INVENTOR OF UKULELE IS DEAD IN HONOLULU

Honolulu, July 12.—(By mail).—Manuel Nunes, inventor of the ukulele, died at his home here of heart disease after a long illness. Nunes was born in Funchal, Madeira, in 1843, and came to the islands in 1878. The following year he fashioned a rude, guitar-like instrument with a cigar box and a few strings. It was from this that the ukulele of today was evolved.

Railroad Coal Strikes Threaten Industries; Eyes are on Washington

Early Action There Looked for to Guarantee Transportation—Steel Mills Face Possible Shut Down—Cardiff Coal Price Up as U. S. Orders Swell.

New York, July 25.—The wholesale closing of steel plants throughout the country, and especially those in the east, which heretofore have not been affected by fuel shortage, will result if the coal strike is not settled before August 1, so the head of a large steel corporation declared yesterday.

Further falling off of operations among steel plants caused grave concern at their New York corporation headquarters. Officials of Bethlehem Steel announced they had banked fires and discontinued producing at two of their largest furnaces.

Industrial coal was reported by New York distributors yesterday to be practically unobtainable at any price. The shopcrafts strike has tied up cars to such an extent, they said, that products of the few non-union mines still in operation are "tied up at the mine."

Washington, July 25.—A growing impression that the U. S. administration was rapidly approaching a point in its attitude in the rail strike, where a decisive move to arrest the resulting breakdown in transportation might be looked for, raised some expectation of important developments at today's cabinet meeting.

President Harding is understood to have received the opinion from some of his advisers that the government can permit the disruption of transportation to go no further.

Agreement upon a tentative plan for distribution of coal and for restriction of unfair prices is announced.

The railroads. Official Washington still maintained silence on the rail situation but it was expected that President Harding would begin action to end the shipmen's strike during the week.

Further spread of the walkout was considered unlikely since the announcement that 10,000 members of the station agents' union would remain at work.

Existing embargoes on freight have caused a shortage of commodities in several cities and lack of transportation has reduced the supply in a few lines.

In Chicago a chain grocery firm yesterday announced that sale of sugar would be limited to ten pounds to a customer. Similar action previously has been taken in several small towns.

Curtailed train service continued at various points.

Disorders took a new turn when seven men were arrested in Philadelphia, charged with spreading among the workers at the Baldwin Locomotive shops an agitation demanding that the workers refuse to work on railroad equipment. Non-union workers on their way to Denison, Texas, to fill the places of striking shopmen of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad were halted en route because troops were not there on guard. Seventeen state rangers were sent to Denison by Governor Neff last night, but an official of the road said that no 400 or 500 men were needed to provide protection there.

Three companies of field artillery of the Missouri National Guards arrived at Moberly, Mo., last night for duty in the railroad shops.

An amendment was rejected by 247 to 171 and Wm. Shaw's motion was agreed to.

CLEARING MAYO OF INSURGENTS

Free Staters Occupy Additional Large Areas. De Valera, Pale and Wan, Reported at Tipperary on Last Sunday—Nationals Advance in County Limerick.

(Canadian Press Cable.) Dublin, July 25.—Additional large areas in the west of Ireland have been occupied by the Free State forces, before whom the Republican insurgents are retreating precipitately, according to today's official report.

Claremorris, County Mayo, is the largest town to be freed from the irregulars, who have now retired to Tipperary, on the border between Galway and Mayo. The liberated inhabitants of Claremorris, overjoyed at the arrival of Free State troops, continued their rejoicing through the night.

Eamonn De Valera accompanied the insurgents last Sunday to Tipperary, but, according to reports, left for Cashel, twelve miles distant, the next day. The strain of recent events is said to have left him pale and wan. The irregulars are said to have burned the military barracks at Cashel and Tipperary.

In County Limerick. Intense fighting is in progress in the vicinity of Kilmallock, County Limerick, according to reports here. The Republican irregulars were said to be trying to delay the advance of the National army troops, but while a good many men are said to be engaged, nothing like a pitched battle is apparently possible.

The communications of the National forces are reported to be suffering here from lack of small arms and cartridges. The National troops, however, are reported continuing their advance.

Katherine MacDonald at Best in "Her Social Value."

Katherine MacDonald has hit the bull's-eye once more. The latest production of this remarkable star, "Her Social Value" began a two day engagement at Queen Square theatre yesterday, and proved to be a rare entertainment. It is a First National picture.

It is a delight to watch the performance of this actress on the screen, for she has such a deft touch in delineating character that her work cannot be classified other than as art itself. Each succeeding picture shows an improvement in her histrionic ability, and it is small wonder that no other star outranks her in popularity.

"Her Social Value" is that perfect combination of a good story and good acting, in addition to mastery direction. From the first scene to the unexpected ending the story moves forward smoothly and logically, holding the suspense of the spectator at a white heat until the denouement is reached. It is pictures such as this that increase the ranks of the motion picture fans by the hundred and thousand.

The interest of the spectator is heightened by the inclusion of a number of novel features in the production of this story, and all in all it is one of the most satisfactory features we have beheld in a long time.

An adequate cast supports Miss MacDonald, including such celebrities of the screen as Roy Stuart, Bertram Grassby, Betty Ross Clarke, Winter Hall, Joseph Girard, Lillian Rich, Vincent Hamilton, Helen Raymond and Violet Phillips. Little Arthur Gibson, who is but one year old, is also in the cast and is bound to create a following of his own.

The manager of the Queen Square theatre is to be congratulated for booking pictures such as "Her Social Value" and others in which this talented star appears. Miss MacDonald is a favorite with the patrons of the theatre, judging from the numbers which visited it yesterday.

Shown for the last three times today. 7-26

RAPID GROWTH OF CAMPBELLTON

Much Building, New Hotel, Improved Streets and Active Shipping.

(J. L. Stewart in Chatham World) And this is Campbellton, not the Campbellton visited as a passenger on the first regular train from Moncton November, 1875, nor the Campbellton that was here before the big fire twelve years ago, but the Campbellton of today. There is nothing here that I see in my mind's eye vision of the town of forty-seven years ago but the Sugar Loaf! And that is not all in place, as many tons of rock slid from near the top to the bottom last winter. It is a new town—new businesses, new sidewalks, newly planted trees! And it is imbued with new life and vigor. It is a live town, and it supports two live newspapers—Graphic and Tribune.

The Chatham visitor finds several Miramichi men here, including Alexander and Harry McLennan, H. B. Anslow, John T. Reid, J. Stafford Benson, Harry Eagles and Hugh Marquis. Mr. Reid is Town Clerk, Mr. Eagles is a town assessor and a labor leader, and the McLennans are doing a big foundry and machine shop business, employing thirty-five people and turning out mill and other machinery of many kinds.

J. L. Bourdeau has begun the erection of a new hotel, although the town has the St. Louis and other good houses. It is near the station, and has a frontage of 100 feet, with twin rear extensions, and will have all the equipment of a first-class modern hotel.

This hotel will be needed if the town continues to grow as rapidly as of late years. In 1901 the population was 2,682, and in 1911 it was 3,817, in 1921 it was 5,745, but estimates based on a local census give it 7,000. About 200 men are now at work building concrete walks, digging sewers and improving the streets, a bond issue of $200,000 having been made for street and water improvements. One and a half miles of new concrete sidewalks were laid last year, and three miles this season, and the workmen are still at it. The port has been lively with shipping ever since the ice went out. Twenty-two big ships, and many small vessels, that is necessary for the work to be done. Mr. McLennan, who showed me through the place, didn't escape without being reminded of one or two things that are of course, in X-ray apparatus, operating room, maternity ward, broad balcony for patients, and the best of equipment for cooking and serving food. There is, of course, an elevator. The Ladies Aid raised $10,000 a year for three years—$30,000—for this hospital, and subscriptions supplied the rest, except a mortgage of $40,000. The mortgage will be allowed to rest until a nurses' home has been provided. A little riverside park, where citizens can sit and enjoy the evening air, has been laid out and will be beautified. The rapidity of tree growth here is remarkable. Though all of the trees were burned in the fire, there are many of quite a respectable size in town. The assessment rate is low here, only $17.00, but properties are assessed for their full value. Of this year's assessment, $95,000, the Town Treasurer has collected $60,000, the majority of the citizens having availed themselves of the discount, which speaks volumes for the ability and public spirit of the citizens.

EXPANSION OF NASHWAAK MILL Hugh J. Chisholm, president of the Oxford Paper Company, New York, is expected to arrive in the city this afternoon, accompanied by a party of directors of the company. The visit is for the purpose of inspecting the plant of the Nashwaak Pulp and Paper Company, Ltd., in connection with the new construction work now under way to increase the capacity of the mill at the reversing falls. Those who are expected to accompany Mr. Chisholm are: C. A. Gordon, vice-president of the Oxford Paper Company; P. E. Tufts, treasurer of the Oxford Company; L. S. vice-president, in an interview yesterday, "the plant's output will be eighty tons of pulp per day instead of sixty tons as at present. In order to accomplish this, it was found necessary to alter every department of the mill to provide for the increased capacity." The most modern equipment has been purchased to meet the extra demand and when completed, the mill will be up-to-date in every respect. The wood room is being enlarged and in the power plant, modern equipment is being installed. This part of the programme is nearly complete. Twelve old boilers have been taken out and eight new ones set up while new, automatic stokers are being installed and space is being provided for large coal storage purposes. In line with recent developments in pulp circles, the Jensen system of making acid in the manufacture of pulp has been contracted for, and within two months will be completely installed. It is now in course of installation. This new system will replace completely the former equipment. In the screen room, the equipment is being increased by the installation of additional screens. The drying machine, by which the pulp is made into the finished product, will be equipped with improved devices, which will speed up production to the required mark.

A GOOD RECORD.

The Halifax Board of Health shows by the record that there has been a notable decrease in the number of infectious diseases in that city in the last few years.

"These figures show wonderful improvement in the city in the matter of infectious diseases during the past few years and so far as the present year is concerned the totals for the year to June are a record for six months and seem to indicate the year may be a remarkable one in this respect.

LAWS AND VIOLATIONS.

Referring to reports that there may be another vote on the liquor question in Manitoba the Montreal Gazette says: "The issue was before the voters of the province in 1920, when by a vote of 68,831 to 55,056 under the amended Canada Temperance Act, it was decided that the importation and bringing of intoxicating liquor into the province should be forbidden.

There is one question every St. John man asks his neighbor when they fall into conversation. It relates to hydro and the New Brunswick Power Company. There is no necessary connection between the two, but the impression has gone abroad that the company has new hopes and new ambitions, and figures on a clean-up. The citizens, however, will not consent to any deal that would deprive them of the full benefits to be derived from civic distribution of the hydro current, or would give the power company something to which it is not entitled.

CAMPING TOURISTS.

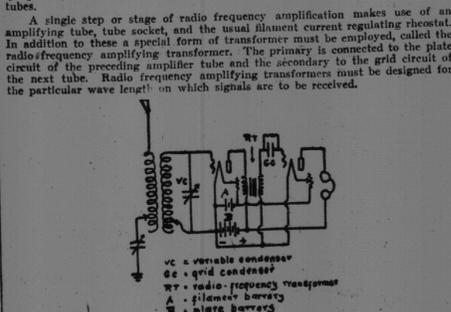

Referring again to the question of providing camps for motorists on main routes of traffic and so reaping a financial benefit, the following from the Toronto Globe is of interest: "The popularity of motor camping as a means of spending a summer holiday is now so great that it is estimated the number of motorists in Canada and the United States taking to the road with their automobiles is somewhere in the millions. This estimate is made conjointly with a survey of the motor camps available in a single state of the U. S. A., the State of Illinois. Where Ontario has fewer than 25 officially designated sites that state already has 104 municipalities which provide free camping sites with all facilities for the comfort of the modern gypsy. The survey was made by the Illinois Journal of Commerce, which discovered that practically all the camp sites were not only offered free, but that many of them were equipped with running water, toilet facilities, and guards in some cases, washing

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

By Edward N. Davis Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

THE RADIO FREQUENCY AMPLIFIER.

In order to obtain signals louder than can be secured with a single detector tube using a regenerative circuit it is necessary to employ an amplifier. The audio frequency amplifier. The radio frequency amplifier derives its name from the fact that it served to increase the strength of the radio frequency of signal in a receiving set before it passes through the detector tube.

One Step Radio Frequency Amplifier with Detector

This is especially so in the case of the shorter wave lengths where a change in wave length of a few meters represents a change in frequency of several thousand cycles. The ratio of primary turns to secondary turns is as low as one to one in radio frequency amplifying transformers for amateur wave lengths.

Radio frequency amplifiers have been but little used up to the present time, due probably to the lack of reliable data for designing them.

Radio frequency amplifiers should be mounted in cabinets which are carefully shielded (lined with sheet metal) and it is desirable to separate each step of amplification from the others by similar shielding walls.

NEW HIGH-POWERED ELECTRIC TUBE.

If predictions are fulfilled regarding the recently developed high-powered electron tube, it will result in rendering obsolete millions of dollars worth of radio equipment.

The tube in its present form is about eighteen inches in length and two inches in diameter and several of these small tubes are powerful enough to replace the noisy and expensive electrical generators used in transmitting stations, for trans-oceanic communications.

An Alexanderson alternator, having a capacity of over two thousand revolutions per minute in height and revolving at its possible victims, and the habit of drinking of water have become acclimated to it by survival and constant use.

LIFE SAVINGS OF BRIDE ARE GONE

Romance Shattered When Young Wife Finds Husband Married Her to Get Money for Betting.

Detroit, July 25.—A marriage only a few days old was swept into shadow of Windsor race-tracks and wrecked, it was revealed when Rose Mahoney filed suit for divorce against Patrick Mahoney, "good loser and known to all the bookies," on grounds of extreme cruelty and non-support. Mahoney, it is charged, spent the greater part of his bride's life-savings on horses, which ran contrary to the tipsters' dope.

Rosa Jirka married Mahoney about two weeks ago. She had known him a year. Two days after their marriage they began their new life in a small apartment.

The next two days, the third and fourth of their married life, Mahoney absented himself from home, telling his wife he was "at work." She remained home, cleaned and prepared meals. It was during this time that she acceded to her husband's suggestion that she deposit $1,000, all her savings, in a joint account in a savings bank.

On the evening of the third day in their apartment Mahoney did not appear for dinner. Twenty-four hours passed without word from him, while his bride waited in nervous dread. Then she conferred with neighbors and discovered that her watch and wedding ring were missing from their hiding place, and with them the bank pass-book.

Inquiry at the bank, she says revealed that Mahoney had called there the previous day—and withdrawn $650, of his wife's money. He told the paying teller that the withdrawal was to "cover losses at the tracks." Investigation at Windsor tracks followed, and it was found that Mahoney was known as a good loser among the racing "talent."

One of the bookies declared that Mahoney had spent two weeks at races in June and July, losing heavily. It was following this, his bride says, that Mahoney married her. She says that he married her, she now finds, to retrieve his fortunes and "cover losses at the tracks."

KILLS DOCTOR; ENDS OWN LIFE

Felix Cook Shoots Dr. R. D. Bentley in Truro Street, Then Puts Bullet Through His Own Brain.

Truro, July 24.—Dr. R. D. Bentley, a well known medical practitioner and medical health officer for the town of Truro, was shot to death at 2 o'clock this afternoon in Prince street, opposite the Y. M. C. A. building, by Felix Cook, a boot and shoe dealer, who fired three revolver shots into the doctor's body.

Cook then ran into his store, which was on the other side of the street, directly opposite the scene of the crime, slammed the door and committed suicide by shooting himself through the temple.

Dr. Bentley died at his home, about 100 feet from the scene of the murder, twenty-five minutes after he was shot. Cook died at the Alnham hospital three hours after shooting himself.

Inquests were held on both bodies this evening. In the case of Dr. Bentley, the verdict was that he came to his death as the result of a pistol shot fired by Felix Cook and that Cook murdered him. In the case of Cook, the verdict was that he came to his death by a pistol shot fired by himself.

At the inquest tonight no motive was established for the crime. H. U. Quinn gave evidence that a young woman who clerked at Cook's store told him "this afternoon that when she returned to the store at about 1:30 o'clock Cook asked her if she wanted a holiday. She said she did not mind if it was all the same to him. He told her she could stay off this afternoon and tomorrow."

It is said that Cook had not been in good health for some time and had consulted Dr. Bentley professionally. Cook came to Truro about four years ago from Sydney and has been engaged in the boot and shoe business. He is said to be originally from Beirut, Palestine, and to be a Syrian. He was about forty-five years old.

Dr. R. D. Bentley was fifty-two years old. He was born at Upper Stewiacke, this country, and was a son of the late Eliakim Bentley, of that place. He had

4,000,000 BEQUEST UPHeld

New York, July 25.—Vice Chancellor Fielder, sitting in Newark upheld the will of Marcus L. Ward, son of New Jersey's war governor, providing for the establishment of a home for aged and respectable bachelors and widowers at a cost of more than $4,000,000.

Members of the Ward family contested the will on the grounds that the clause bequeathing the bulk of the $5,000,000 estate to a home was null and void, vague and uncertain, not legal and against public policy. Ward died on May 27. He left nearly a score of 200,000 legacies to Newark institutions and charities. The proposed home is for widowers and bachelors who "may have through misfortune, lost the means which they once had for support." To benefit, such persons must be at least sixty years old and have been residents of New Jersey for at least ten years.

THREE ATTEMPTS AT SUICIDE

Rejected Lover, Having Failed Twice, Sits in Bath tub and Burns on Gas. New York, July 25.—Rejected love caused John O'Grady, twenty-two years old, of 372 Park avenue, the Bronx, to attempt to end his life three times within two weeks in the home of his sweetheart, according to the police. O'Grady, desperate after begging Miss Gladys Godie, nineteen years old, to marry him, went into the bathroom of the apartment, locked the door, pulled down a chandelier from the ceiling and sat down in the bathtub to die from escaping gas.

He was unconscious when the girl, detecting gas, called Patrolman John Fournier of the Morrisania station, who broke down the door.

O'Grady tried to kill himself twice before within two weeks, the police said. Last Wednesday night he cut his right wrist with a bread knife in his sweetheart's home because she refused to marry him. About a week before that, according to the police, he cut himself in the arm with a penknife for the same reason.

RECENT DEATHS

Edgar Nelson. Taunton, Mass., July 25.—Edgar Nelson, a veteran of the World War, who served with the army of occupation, returned to his wife here after three years' absence, to find she had married a second time. Mrs. Leonard, having not heard from her husband in the space of time he was in service, concluded he was dead, and swept from her feet by the persistent wooing of Victor F. Charter, of Jewett City, Ct., another World War veteran, married him in Taunton, and in the street saw his wife with another man. Her love for her first husband had not waned, and when she saw him she burst into tears and kissed him, greeting him as one returned from the dead.

Charter demanded an explanation from Leonard and the latter replied: "Why, she is my wife." Charter then told Leonard of her marriage.

Mrs. Charter told Leonard she had married him only on the belief that he was dead and declared she did not wish to live with Charter.

Charter left them and Leonard and his wife went to her mother's home apparently contented, and made arrangements for their future home. Husband No. 2 then consulted a lawyer and went with him to the clerk of the First Bristol District Court, where a complaint was sworn out which charged Mrs. Leonard with bigamy.

Later she was arraigned in District Court before Judge Frederick E. Austin, on the charge of bigamy, but Charter did not appear and his counsel informed the court he did not know of his whereabouts. Bail was furnished in $500 and the case continued.

RECENT DEATHS

Margaret Young. New York, July 25.—Margaret Young, eight months old, of 60 Allen street, was scalded to death at the Metropolitan Hospital, Welfare Island, when she fell into a tub of hot water. Her father, according to the police, is a Chinaman and her mother is white.

Dr. Nelson Thompson, deputy superintendent at the hospital, said the baby was brought to the hospital on June 9 suffering from a skin disease. With six other children, the oldest of whom was five, Margaret was taken into the bathroom in the children's division by Ruth Larsen, a nurse, early yesterday. Miss Larsen left the baby on a board next to the tub and left the room. Although she insisted she did not turn on the water, she found the baby immersed in the tub of boiling water when she returned a few minutes later. The child was dead in a few minutes.

Dr. Thompson questioned doctors, nurses and the oldest child in the bathroom at the time, but he did not learn who turned the faucet. Assistant Medical Examiner Vance is investigating.

A fall from his mother's arms while she was bathing him killed Albert Johnson, six weeks old, of 383 East Fortieth street. Slipping out of his mother's grasp, the child grazed the edge of the tub and struck the floor. Internal injuries caused death before Dr. McDevitt of Bellevue Hospital arrived.

CHILDREN AS GAMBLERS. London, July 4.—(By mail.)—Thomas Sidney Albert Powers, an ex-police officer carrying on business as a boot repairer at Stanley road, Teddington, was fined £25 and five guineas costs at Feltham yesterday for keeping a betting shop, and his assistant in the shop, Florence Smith, was fined forty shillings. Eight persons who came with betting slips were bound over. It was stated that during eleven days on which observation was kept on the shop the number of people who went into the shop was nine hundred, and of these 256 were children, whose ages ranged from eight upwards.

VETERAN AND HIS SON BRING YACHT TO PORT

Captain U. H. Lyons, Aged 78, and His Son, an Amateur Mariner, Sail the Hayseed IV. from New York to Halifax.

(Halifax Chronicle.) A long, low, narrow craft, with a tall, tapering, crooked mast that sports two cross-trees and a jib-headed mainsail, sailed quietly up Halifax Harbor yesterday morning. It was the Hayseed IV., New York yacht recently purchased by Clifford M. Jack of Halifax for racing and pleasure sailing in Nova Scotia waters, and which has been approximately thirty-five days coasting on the voyage.

Two Nova Scotians, one a veteran deep-sea skipper, aged seventy-three years, the other his son, an amateur mariner, brought the big boat here, and it was quite an achievement. The yacht's scant freeboard, lofty spar and large spread of canvas—she made the trip under her regular racing rig—quite that she be handled by expert hands in a seaway, and a crew of six men would find plenty to do when the stormy winds do blow and watches are the order of the day and night.

Capt. U. H. Lyons of Barrington Passage and D. M. Lyons, his son, take a natural pride in their slow but safe trip.

Put one on-- the pain is gone!

and from all accounts they greatly enjoyed their experience. The white-haired skipper has been going to sea since he was ten years of age in all sorts of craft, coastal packets, deep sea cargo steamers and sailing vessels of various descriptions, but this is his first experience with a racing yacht.

"There was one day when we were off Wood Island, Maine," said his son, "when father was up forward tying up the jib. With every sea she'd dip right into it, and half the time I couldn't see him for spray and green water. I couldn't leave the tiller and was quite worried about him."

A Strenuous Trip. "Shucks," retorted Captain Lyons, "you can't lose me. I've been to sea a good many years, and I'm good for more yet." This with a merry little twinkle in his eye.

"We had easterly wind or no wind all the way," said the veteran. "I do believe that we had no more than two hours of westerly on the trip. It was dead to wind almost the whole time. Most always we had fog, and often a flat calm. Of course, with more men on board we could have made better time and would not have been forced to put in along the shore so often. But as it was, we had our share of night-sailing. When we were at sea we both had to be on deck practically all the time and had some pretty long stretches without sleep."

The Hayseed IV. sailed from New York early in June. The binnacle glass in the cockpit floor was clouded and the compass was barely visible, so the skipper rigged a jury binnacle near the companionway and provided a light for it at night time with an electric flashlight. The big mainsail had but one set of reef-points in it, so he sewed in a second series of eyes on his own account.

"It was too big a sail for two men to handle comfortably without the help of a bit," he remarked yesterday. From New York the yacht proceeded to Fairhaven, thence to Gloucester. From that port she sailed for Portland, but a stizler came out of the sea and the storm drove her into Wood Island. Before she made that port her mainsail was torn. The venerable skipper and his son reefed the sail until all the rips were tucked safely along the boom and there was only a handkerchief of sail left.

The yacht then called at Portland, Booth Bay and Mount Desert. She sailed from the latter port on Sunday, July 9th, passing Yarmouth Cape next morning at five o'clock, and put into Barrington Passage, where she remained for a week, waiting for the fog to lift and a fair wind to wait her along the coast to Halifax. Last Monday morning the Hayseed sailed for Halifax.

That night she put into Liverpool and left Tuesday morning for this port, making the run to Meagher's Beach in ten hours with a single-reefed mainsail. Yesterday morning she glided into port, docking at A. N. Whitman's wharf. A bit of a sea kicked up there in the afternoon, so the yacht moved over to an anchorage in Dartmouth Cove, where she spent the night. She will probably sail early this morning for Chester, where Mr. Jack, her new owner, has a summer residence. The yacht came to Halifax to enter at the Customs House for duty purposes on account of her former American registry. The yacht towed her tender all the way to Halifax.

Larger Than Windward.

The Hayseed IV. will provide first-class racing for the champion Windward class of the Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Squadron, Halifax, which is designed by the same man, William Gardner of New York, and which is also of the "spoon" class. Hayseed's dimensions are: 44 feet over all; 83.6 water line; 10.6 beam; 6.10 draft. Her Marconi mast measures 62 feet above deck. Her keel is about twelve tons of lead. Like the Windward, the yacht has considerable overhang; in fact, her bow is even more pointed than the Windward's, with a more gradual curve to her greatest beam. She is somewhat larger than the Windward and is said to carry more sail.

For a racing craft, she has excellent cabin accommodation, two broad berths in the main-cabin, galley and pipe-berth forward and berths in the after run.

The Windward and the Hayseed probably will not meet until Chester Regatta Week, commencing Monday, July 31, when they will be the chief competitors for the Chester Bay Challenge Cup. They will meet again in Halifax during Carnival Week, racing for the Coronation Cup, now held by the Windward.

A Fast Craft.

"Sail?" said Captain Lyons to an inquirer yesterday afternoon. "Sure she can sail. This little boat has some speed and should keep the other yachts around here quite busy."

"Why, they told us at New York that she won thirty races down that way last season," chimed in his son.

The Hayseed IV. was built by Wood & McClure of City Island, New York, in 1912. She was known as the Mink when she raced in the Great Lakes. She raced in the Great Lakes, then at Marblehead, Mass., and then in Long Island Sound. When she left Marblehead she was purchased by the Corinthian Yacht Club's Sir Thomas Lipton's Cup for thirty-one raters. Mr. Jack, in bringing this craft to Nova Scotia, has furnished a valuable addition to the yachting fleet of this province and will do much to further the sport in these waters.

URGES CAUTION IN PULPWOOD CUTTING

Demand from United States will be Small, States Quebec Forester.

Quebec, July 25.—That the demand for pulpwood from this province by the United States would not be sufficient to re-establish normal conditions contrary to expectations, and that even the bottom had not been reached unless the lumber people were very conservative in cutting timber, is the gist of a declaration made by Gustave Piche, chief of the provincial forestry service. "Expectations had been that after the fall in the pulpwood business conditions would improve very soon. This would have been logical had it not been for the devastation of some of the forests in the United States by the spruce bud worm," stated Mr. Piche. "This plague spread in the majority of the United States forest reserves. In some cases 30 and even 50 per cent of the trees have been attacked. The result is that there are now being cut and will be sufficient to meet the huge demand for pulpwood which had been expected. By reducing this waste, it will tell the lumber people not to overflow the market, because another crisis may arise. The only way of meeting the situation is to conserve the wood in the timber cutting and reduce it to a minimum."

These declarations of Mr. Piche, who is an expert in the matter, are surprising in view of reports that the depression in pulpwood prices was over.

CLUBS IN AMERICA BANE OF THE HOME

Swedish Countess Amazed at Domestic Freedom in United States.

Chicago, July 25.—In Sweden a man cannot telephone home to his wife, telling her he will not be home to dinner, as he plans to remain downtown at the club. First, there are no clubs, and second, the wife would not stand for it. Countess Sirhaard of Segerstad, on a visit to Chicago, expressed the opinion that there is much more home life in Sweden than in the United States. She was amazed when she heard a boy tell his mother he would prefer to take his Sunday dinner at the club rather than at home.

CANADA NEAR MONTREAL?

Question Asked of Rev. W. Bowman Tucker.

(By John MacCormack, Special Cable from The Gazette's Resident Staff Correspondent.)

London, July 25.—"Where is Canada? Is it near Montreal?" Rev. W. Bowman Tucker, of the Montreal City Mission, says that he was asked the question in Liverpool, during his present visit to Great Britain to raise funds for his mission. This almost eclipses the experience of Miss Cora Hind, western journalist and authority on agricultural subjects, who was compelled to register as an alien in an English province, hotted, although she explained that she was a Canadian.

Mr. Enright, the police commissioner of New York, was bothered one morning by a critic who pointed out that big thefts are today commoner than ever before. Quoth Mr. Enright, "Please remember that there is a great deal more to steal now than there used to be."

WAR ON FOREST WASTE U. S. Government Says only Thirty Per Cent of Wood Goes into Lumber. "Only thirty per cent of the wood in a forest now gets into the form of seasoned, unplanned lumber. Of this an additional ten per cent is lost in the process of manufacture. In extreme cases as little as three per cent of the wood in the forest may reach the finished product." This statement is made in a booklet just out by the United States Department of Agriculture, entitled Forest Products Laboratory, describing the work and aims of the experimental laboratory maintained by the Forest Service, in co-operation with the University of Wisconsin, at Madison, Wis. The booklet outlines how, through investigation and experiment, the laboratory is devising and broadcasting practical commercial methods by which the enormous waste of the country's lumber supply can be reduced. By reducing this waste, it is pointed out, the life of the present forests will be prolonged and the problem of growing new forests made simpler. Through such treatment an annual saving of 1,000,000,000 board feet is estimated to be possible in the case of railroad ties alone, and the preservation of other classes of timber would, in all aggregate, greatly relieve the drain on our forests. The Forest Laboratory is a government institution; its advice and suggestions are to be had for the asking, the department says. It presents, according to the booklet, an opportunity for manufacturers, wood users and timber growers to supplement the information obtained by experience and hard knock with technical data obtained through scientific research. STRIKES REGARDING BUSINESS REVIVAL (Ottawa Journal) All reliable reports about business are encouraging. The trade of the world shows signs of steady improvement. Great Britain exported 302,295,200 square yards of textile fabric in April, as against 186,760,700 for the corresponding month of last year. Unemployment has decreased everywhere. More building was done in Greater New York during the past twelve months than during any preceding two years. On this continent, at least, a great revival is surely gathering headway. Railway traffic returns prove that much beyond doubt. Canada and the United States are fast recovering from the awful shock of war and its equally awful aftermath. All would be well, but for one thing. Human perversity or distrust, probably a combination of both, with other similar factors thrown in, stands in the way. The coal miner's strike and the strike of railway shompen indicate a fierce de-

Meeting of Creditors of L. A. Gareau, Doing Business as English and Scotch Woolen Co.

Montreal, July 25.—At a meeting of creditors here yesterday, an offer of $190,000 for the assets and business of L. A. Gareau, doing business as the English and Scotch Woolen Co., now in bankruptcy, was rejected.

A result of the meeting is that the business is still for sale and that, in the meantime, the trustee, Gordon W. Scott, is ready to receive further offers for purchase. Proven claims to the value of $1,100,000 have been registered against the business.

CLOSE CALL FOR LINER.
Hoboken, N. J., July 25.—The Scandinavian-American liner Frederick VIII, from Copenhagen and Christiania, narrowly escaped destruction in a storm, 190 miles at sea on Sunday night. She carried 433 passengers.

At the height of the storm, Captain Mecklenburg said the seas washed over the boat decks. Rain fell in torrents and the vessel was carried far out of her course. At one time the bow of the ship narrowly missed a sixty foot whale.

CLAIMS EXEMPTION FROM INCOME TAX

London, July 25.—The judicial committee of the privy council today granted a petition of Hon. J. E. Caron, member of the Quebec legislature, vs. the Attorney General of the Dominion, concerning the paying of income tax under the federal war tax act. The petition, which was not seriously opposed, raised the question of the validity of the measure and Their Lordships, considering the matter of constitutional importance, granted the right to appeal.

Hon. Mr. Caron contended that, as a minister of the crown, he was not liable to income tax on his salary.

U. S. Strikes Show 2,000,000 Voluntarily Idle—Pessimistic Business Situation.

New York, July 25.—A pessimistic picture of business conditions resulting from the strikes in the railroad, coal and textile industries of the country is painted with figures included in the weekly review of industrial conditions made public yesterday by the national industrial conference board.

"Altogether, more than two million persons are voluntarily idle through strikes, and since the beginning of July 100,000,000 man hours of work have been lost each week. Of the average wage of labor taken at fifty cents an hour, the wage loss alone has been in excess of $150,000,000 and is proceeding at the rate of more than $8,000,000 a day.

"This, in effect, means a serious contraction in purchasing power, which, in turn, may have its effect on future employment and general business conditions."

The conference board reports a slight increase in the cost of living since May 16, with a twenty-four per cent recession from the peak reached in July, 1920.

"Reports of wage changes gathered by the board," the review says, "shows that while last month there were more increases than decreases between June 16 and July 15, the number of decreases slightly exceeded the number of increases."

ODD ACCIDENT KILLS TWO.

German Couple Shocked to Death by Bath-tub, Pipe and Lamp Circuit.

Frankfurt, Germany, July 25.—Electrocution snuffed out the lives of a young married couple in one of the most unusual accidents on the local records. Both bodies were found in a bathtub.

The investigation revealed that the zinc bath-tub, a water pipe and a lamp stand figured in completing the electrical circuit that caused their deaths.

The wife had grasped the lamp, which was of defective construction, with her wet hands as she was about to leave the tub and was immediately electrocuted, since the pipe leading from the tub completed the circuit to the ground. The husband was killed when he took hold of the lamp in trying to assist his wife.

Burns on the woman's hand and body and on the man's fingers provided the means for determining the cause of the fatalities.

Ottawa, July 25.—The Canadian Government will soon appoint a trade commissioner and an assistant trade commissioner to report upon and investigate openings for Canadian trade in Mexico.

The order-in-council says that "Mexico offers a field for organizing and extending healthy trade relations between that country and Canada."

"RULING PASSION" FOUND TO BE WORK

George Arliss in New Screen Feature at Imperial Pictures Joys of Labor Well-Directed.

George Arliss' third screen appearance, this time in "The Ruling Passion" at the Imperial theatre last night, resulted in the distinguished actor scoring another marked success, which we make note of as "another Arliss triumph."

"The Ruling Passion" is a far cry from anything Mr. Arliss has done before on the screen or the stage. We have become accustomed to his excellent work in characterizations that have not won our applause because of any sweet or kindly act or thought, but rather the opposite. We have come to associate Mr. Arliss with satire, cunning, devilishness.

The ruling passion is—work. In this photoplay Mr. Arliss has a role in which as a retired millionaire, he is enabled to do ever so many little acts of kindness. It is a comedy drama, with a quite a few strong, straight and true. The millionaire has worked all his life. He can't stay retired. He invests a small sum in a little garage, and finds his partner is a clean-cut chap, poor as a church mouse, but with a fine fellow, strong, straight and true. The millionaire has a beautiful daughter, and she falls in love with the young partner (and he with her) with the result that the father is deeply interested, and naturally steps in. The picture must be seen to be wholly appreciated.

In addition to the fine Arliss feature the Imperial thrilled its patrons with a real aeroplane flight not only over smoking and angry Mount Vesuvius, but what's much more, right down into the bubbling core of the crater, inside a scalding teacup, as it were. This was a tremendous bit of movie "stunting" and is being shown as a real feature everywhere. There was also the interesting Pathé News and laughable topics of the day. The same bill tomorrow.

EXCELLENT AT THE UNIQUE

One comes out of the Unique Theatre, where the Universal comedy drama, "The Dangerous Little Demon," opened yesterday, feeling pretty well vamped. To be fair, "the demon" didn't have much of a chance to be like the other girls. She had no mother to bring her up and her father she couldn't trust. He had a habit of not coming home to dinner and still wanting to appear perfect in his children's eyes. Fathers who have something on their consciences better not go to see the picture. They will feel foolish.

She had too much money; too much liberty to do as she pleased and too many mental lightweights to do it with. Her authors assayed about one half per cent brains. Her father's cellar assayed about ninety-eight per cent. A-1 and 110 proof.

Marie Prevost contributes a charming characterization as "The Dangerous Little Demon." To be sure, she is disturbing at times, but that is what one must expect from a beautiful girl in dangerous situations.

SALT WATER AS A FERTILIZER

H. H. Warman has an idea that he believes will be of great value to farmers living along the river. Mr. Warman points out that when the marshes along the river become exhausted, it is necessary to let in the tide and this restores AQUATIC. Belyea in Toronto. (Toronto Globe) Hilton Belyea, Canadian champion single sculler, arrived in town last night at half-past six from St. John, N. B. He is en route to the Canadian Henley at St. Catharines Friday and Saturday of next week.

Baseball

Belyea's frail shell was jealously guarded by his owner. He was in the express car long before the train reached the Union Station, ready to superintend the unloading of the boat. The latter was swathed in factory cotton and strapped to the ceiling of the car. The champion is in excellent condition and needs only a little light work on the Port Dalhousie course to fit him to defend his title. He has very little to say, but it is not difficult to see that he is quite confident of repeating his victory of last year. From St. Catharines he will go to Philadelphia to row in the U. S. national regatta on the Schuylkill, where he was beaten by Walter Hoover of Duluth in the Philadelphia Gold Cup race. The St. John sculler feels that he did not show at his best on that occasion, and is eager to redeem his reputation there. Hoover afterward won the Diamond Sculls at Henley, England. The champion is accompanied by his brother who trails him and builds and rigs his boats. Belyea weighs 170 lbs. in street clothes. When he commenced training in the spring he weighed 210.

Baseball

Johnny Duran, professional sculler, will leave for Port Dalhousie next Thursday afternoon. Duran who is doing his training on the bay, is stronger and better this year than ever before.

TWO FAMOUS ROSES CAME FROM JAPAN. Crimson Rambler and White Wichuriana Imported from the Far East. Arthur Herrington, of Madison, N. J., who for the last forty years has made a study of roses in the outdoor garden, in a recent lecture in the museum building of the New York Botanical Garden on "The New Roses, Their Origin and Development," reviewed the ancient history and distinguished lineage of the rose, quoting some lines of a sonnet by Sappho written two years before the Christian era: Would Jove appoint some flower to reign In matchless beauty on the plain The Rose mankind will all agree, The Rose, the Queen of Flowers should be. Its present day popularity, however, its irresistible and universal appeal to flower lovers, is not based on sentiment and traditions, but is a natural consequence of the development of the flower itself. After centuries of culture, said the lecturer, it may now be asserted that in richness, variety and beauty the rose today is at its highest peak of perfection.

Baseball

The lecturer cited several important epochs which marked the recent amazing development of the rose and which have widely enhanced its value and adaptability for open air garden growing. The introduction of the Crimson Rambler from Japan was an important factor, and of great importance he considered the bringing of the Rosa Wichuriana, a wild single white rose, which also came from Japan about thirty years ago. The introduction of the roses of the great group of Rambler roses which now give such a wealth of beauty and profusion of bloom on houses, pergolas, arches and other structures. Another quite recent occurrence was the originating and development of the roses called Hybrid Teas. Heretofore hardy and dependable outdoor dwarf roses were a group commonly known as June roses because, while they were a joy and wonder in their season, it was all too brief, and the plants were flowerless for the balance of the year.

TONIGHT'S BOUTS. That Johnny McIntyre must step lively to defeat Howard McRae is evident from the manner in which McRae spears in his workouts. Yesterday afternoon, McRae displayed plenty of pep in his training. He is the best rope skipper seen here. The nearest he has boxed to St. John was at Waterford, a year ago when he stopped Red Cap Wilson, a crack New York lightweight, in the seventh round. His brother, Jim McRae, has boxed for Frankie Britt, Benny Valger, Phil Logan, Tommy Shea, Al Belmont, Harry Carlson, South Boston Johnny Bowen, Eddie Murphy, Willie Jackson, Johnny Dundee, Walter Burke, Gilbert Gallant, Sammy Walters, Jimmy Frusetti, Johnny Clinton, Walter Mack, and others. He gave Johnny Dundee and Willie Jackson each one of the hardest bouts in their careers.

Baseball

McRae started in boxing as an amateur and seven years ago was the national amateur lightweight champion, winning that honor in Boston. His brother, Jim McRae, came with him from Boston, arriving at noon on Saturday. Howard is already matched with Cleveland Johnny Dwyer for heavyweight colosseum boxing here tonight. McIntyre is in excellent condition. Since leaving St. John he has drawn his last fast fat in going at top speed "just now."

Baseball

Tommy Willis and Young Dempsey should present an interesting bout in the semi-final. It will be their third meeting. Miss Audrey Ester has been chosen to ring against Earl Penny. Young O'Neil will meet Battling Martin in another preliminary and Kansas Jackson, Australian heavyweight colosseum boxer, will make his St. John debut. Sailor Ritchie formerly of the U. S. N. and now on a steamer here or Kid Paris will be the opponent for Jackson.

THE TRUE AIM OF SPORT. (Toronto Globe) There is a good deal of discussion over the alleged loss by Great Britain of leadership in sport. At a recent British amateur athletic meeting, it is said that eleven out of seventeen championships were won by foreigners. Among the winners of first, second and third places were Norwegians, Swiss, Ethiopians, Swedes, a Frenchman and an Italian. The result may be due in part to the ravages of war, although by this time there would be a good many competitors who were too young to take part in the war. But, however that may be, it is not necessary to take a gloomy view of the loss of championship records. The true test of sport is the average of all the amateurs. The main benefit of sport is the habit of exercise for body and mind which it affords to a great number of men and women. The Ottawa Journal says that the British leader is not so anxious to win as some of his neighbors. If men and women are fond of exercise, and take plenty of it, and if they cultivate the spirit of fair play, we need not be unduly anxious about the prizes.

BOGUS AFRICAN CHIEF

Was Nearly Killed When Exposed by Montmartre Crowd. Paris, July 25.—In the small hours of the morning Montmartre was the scene of something near a riot when people returning home late and others going to work early saw a huge coal black African, garbed in a gorgeous turban and flowing burnous, come flying out of the door of a cabaret in the Place Pigalle, pursued by angry guests. The guests in the cabaret were earlier in the evening amused by the arrival of a big African, who said he was one of the great chiefs from the Central French African colonies who are just now visiting Paris as the guests of the French Republic. He was, he said, out to see Montmartre night life. After much champagne had flowed, the chief announced he was collecting funds in order to erect a monument in Central Africa to the black troops who fell in the great war. Funds immediately were forthcoming and the collection was going on successfully when the manager of the cabaret, who long had been closely scrutinizing the chief with great interest, finally recognized him. The chief was nothing more than a negro chasseur belonging to a boulevard. A timely disclosure led to an angry scene, the disguised chasseur finally seeking safety in flight and abandoning the funds for the monument. And now the real African chiefs are wandering about the boulevards trying to find the compatriot who disgraced their name—in order to have five minutes' conversation with him.

was ordered sworn declared that he was opposed to capital punishment and therefore thought that he should not serve. He was asked by the crown to stand aside. Daniel J. Barrett, to whom there was no objection raised, pleaded that he could not conscientiously take the oath as he had his mind made up on the case. He was thereupon challenged for cause by Mr. Vernon. J. E. Emery and C. F. Dodge, who had already been sworn as jurors, were named by the judge as triers of Mr. Barrett's case and were sworn as such. Mr. Barrett was also sworn and under examination by Mr. Vernon and cross-examination by the attorney-general declared that, after reading the evidence of the last three trials, he had made up his mind as to the prisoner's guilt or innocence and was therefore not unbiased. The triers returned a verdict for the challenge and Mr. Barrett was not sworn. Francis O'Neill was excused from service by the judge, who informed the attorney-general that he knew Mr. O'Neill was suffering from a physical ailment. As but ten jurors had been selected after the names of all those present had been called, the members of the panel who had been stood aside were again called. Edward Tait and Abraham Poyas were challenged respectively by the crown and I. Carloss and Harry Short were sworn in to complete the twelve. Adjournment was made till two o'clock to allow some of the jurors to communicate with their families before the taking of evidence was commenced, and the prisoner was remanded. Constables McElriary and Gibbons were sworn in to look after the jury. Many people gathered at the jail when the prisoner was brought out and placed in the police patrol and there was no unusual number awaiting his arrival outside the court rooms. On account of the limited accommodation, only witnesses and the members of the jury panel were admitted to the court room.

IMPORTANT JUDGMENT RE BANKRUPTCY

Chief Justice McKeown Decides Point Relative to a Claim Filed After Trustee Statement Completed.

In the Bankruptcy Court Chief Justice McKeown today handed down a very important decision effecting general practice in bankruptcy proceedings when in the matter of the estate of Barney J. Baker of Grand Falls, he allowed the claim of a creditor to be filed after the trustee had completed his statement of affairs and was declaring a dividend. The matter came before the court at Woodstock but judgment was delivered here. His honor at the same time delivered judgment in the matter of Howard R. Keith of Havelock, N. B. R. Foster authorized assignment, with liabilities to $6,300. The American Agricultural Chemical Co. of New York was a creditor in the amount of $8,897.70, a creditor in the company sent the claim to a solicitor in Grand Falls to be filed with the authorized trustee. This was not done in the proper way although the trustee received notice. The trustee allowed the proper time to elapse before proceeding with the winding up, and then declared a dividend. Application for a stay was granted and on the hearing His Honor found that, whereas the trustee had notice of the claim of the creditor, the latter had a right to share in the dividend. The court held that the trustee should not have declared a dividend until he had notified the creditor that he must give all creditors a right to share. The trustee was directed to alter the dividend sheet. Costs were ordered to be borne by the applicant.

In the matter of the Keith estate, the court found against the claim of Laura Keith, daughter of the assignee, on a claim for nursing but allowed the claim of his wife, Agnes, for $483.74 and that of his son, Gordon, for $229.30 on a claim for partnership existing between father and son because of the trade name successful. The wife's claim was for cash advanced and for money due on commission. No costs were allowed. B. St. J. Fresse of Sussex, appeared for the Keith diamonds and J. D. P. Lewin for the trustee.

SOME BY BOAT; SOME BY TRAIN

Dokeys Arrived in City from Boston for Visit and Ceremonial.

Boston Dokeys and their ladies from Abou Ben Adhem Temple, D. O. K. K., arrived in the city today. The local committee of reception had expected all to come by the water route, but were not disappointed entirely, as ten traveled that way. They were escorted to the Victoria Hotel. The cars were decorated with flags and the colors of the order, purple and gold, and the Dokeys were out in style with their fezes. There were twenty-three of the visiting members expected in the party.

This visit is a precursor of a "pill-grinace" to Fredericton tomorrow by the Abou Ben Adhem delegates and members of the local lodge Adlia Temple, No. 167, for a grand ceremonial and a good time generally. The Fredericton Knights of Pythias band will provide music for a parade tomorrow night.

To see that the visitors were properly cared for, Grand Visitor J. S. Lord of St. Stephen, went to Eastport and boarded the Dingley there, returning with the party. The committee for the entertainment of the Boston delegates is composed of—
James S. Lord, general chairman; reception and automobiles, E. A. Egan, chairman, C. T. Green, H. F. Black, H. Keyes, J. F. Kelly, W. H. Golding, W. A. Simonds.
Claim bake and sports: W. H. Golding, chairman, H. C. Youngclass, Alex. Lester, J. G. Henderson, G. E. Speight.
Transportation, H. M. Akerley.
Music, H. F. Black.
Fredericton entertainment, Geo. A. Tennant of Fredericton, chairman.

The visitors were taken to their hotels in automobiles under escort of the committee from Adlia Temple. This evening there will be an informal dance and reception in the Pythian Castle Hall in Union street. Tomorrow the Boston Dokeys and their companions will take the D. J. Purdy for Fredericton, where they will be met by the Dokeys of the capital and escorted to the Castle Hill for a banquet in their honor at five o'clock. In the evening a grand ceremonial will be held in the hall.

Thursday will be spent in sightseeing in Fredericton, and the visitors will leave about 8:16 o'clock for St. John. On Friday afternoon they will go by automobiles to Gondola Point for a clam bake and programme of sports. On Saturday evening the local Dokeys will be on hand at the Eastern Steamships Company dock to give a royal send-off to the Boston party as they leave for their homes.

The Shrine of Loveliness

There are places in this world even for gems, flowers and birds whose only use is beauty.

Somewhere in every home, no matter how modest, there should be at least one object of rare loveliness.

Whilst there is hardly a piece of furniture which does not combine beauty and utility, we claim there is a need for things which err on the side of beauty.

This thought comes to us now, when new homes are being outfitted and occupied for the first time. Why not set up in the new house a shrine of loveliness?

Look at your home critically and discern where a decorative piece would lift the tone of the whole house.

After that it will be a simple matter to find just what you want in our large stock of quaint and decorative pieces.

Always pleased to have you look around.

Our immense stock is always at your disposal for information or price comparisons.
