AUSTRALIA PROTEST AGAINST CANAL BILL

Wants Retaliatory Legislation Throughout Empire—Final Action by U. S. Expected Today

London, Aug. 15.—Melbourne telegrams indicate that the British government has announced in Australia over the Panama canal bill. Premier Fisher, of the labor ministry of the commonwealth, has made representations to the imperial government, especially concerning the proposal to grant free tolls to American coasting vessels. Both Australia and New Zealand have declared for a similar preference in favor of the empire as against foreign ships in regard to the American principle, regard as coastwise trade between all ports of the British empire.

Australia is understood to be willing to greatly enlarge the tariff preference on British goods if the British government will remove the provisional import duty of the measure which has already passed the commonwealth parliament restricting the preference to goods carried in British bottoms.

Sir Edward Grey objects, on the ground that foreign treaties stand in the way, but under Australian pressure he is now endeavoring to persuade the foreign nations concerned to exclude the dominions from their old treaties.

Italy refused and negotiations are proceeding with other powers, but what a difference a few more nations would make in the appearance of your hair.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for All Hair Troubles

Who does not know the value of Sage and Sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, Sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than Sage and Sulphur, if properly prepared.

The Weth Chemical Company of New York put out an ideal preparation of this kind, called Weth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for keeping the hair and scalp in clean, healthy condition.

If your hair is losing its color or constantly coming out, or if you are troubled with dandruff or dry, itchy scalp, get a little Weth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy from your druggist, and see according to the simple directions, and see what a difference a few more nations would make in the appearance of your hair.

All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. Agent—Wason's—100 King street.

ANNEX OPENED

The newly erected annex to the Home of the Good Shepherd in Waterloo street was blessed yesterday by His Lordship Bishop Casey. Representatives of the civic authorities and friends of the home in great numbers were present. The ceremony of blessing the annex was begun at 4.30, when all assembled in the children's class room in the second floor of the annex. His lordship was assisted by Rev. B. LeCavallier, pastor of St. Joseph's College, and Rev. D. O'Keefe and Mrs. Lawrence, fathers Walsh, Duke and McMurtry. After the blessing, the guests and the children of the home formed in procession and proceeded to the chapel for benediction. At the conclusion of the service his lordship addressed those present, speaking for about fifteen minutes and pointing out the special work which the order of the Good Shepherd undertakes. He alluded to the fact that the completion of the annex marks an era in the life of the order in St. John and thanked the friends of the order for the assistance they had given to the nuns and expressing the hope that now that the scene of their work had been visited, greater assistance would be forthcoming.

BAPTIST MISSIONS IN INDIA

Letters recently received from the Baptist missionaries in India by Rev. W. E. McIntyre, D. D., secretary of the Baptist Foreign Mission Board, say that conditions in that country are more hopeful than for some time. The rainy season is coming on and the crops are good and the social unrest, which was much in evidence recently, has practically wholly died out. Mrs. Archibald has opened a new section of rescue work in Calcutta with the object of aiding the Hindu women to free themselves from the unhappy circumstances imposed by their surroundings. Aid for this work has been sent from the maritime provinces. Miss Barber, another missionary, who is on furlough, is at present ill at Riley Brook and it is likely that she will spend the winter with her brother in Edmonton (Alta.). The missionaries Mr. and Mrs. Freeman, Miss Clark, Miss Mason, Miss Wood and Miss Corbett will leave here immediately after the convention in Moncton, commencing October 19. They will travel via San Francisco and hope to reach their destinations before Christmas.

A Queer Point of View

by RUTH CAMERON

A GROUP of young girls whose ages ranged from fifteen to eighteen were discussing the kind of a man they wanted to marry.

Four out of the five declared for a man much older than themselves. Three of them wanted him to be five or ten years older; one wanted a man of at least fifty.

The mother of one of the girls was present, and she very heartily applauded this point of view. "Better be an old man's darling than a young man's slave," she quoted tritely.

Now, I can understand the point of view of the young people, but I simply cannot see how the older woman could have encouraged them in it.

I know that to the young girl there is something splendidly romantic in a man much older than herself. I doubt if there was ever a girl of sixteen or eighteen who did not desperately admire any man with iron-gray hair and wavy romances of which the hero was a dignified man of forty-five or fifty with gray hair and an impressive manner.

Undoubtedly there are marriages in which the man is ten or fifteen years older which turn out happily, just as there are successful marriages in which the disparity is in the opposite direction. But to consider a disparity of either kind as an insuperable advantage seems to me very short-sighted.

I wish the woman who is always urging upon her girls the advantage of a much older man as a mate would stop and think and consider. Suppose her girl of twenty meets a man of thirty-two or three, and after a year of courtship, marries him. That means that for ten years before he had even met her he was a grown man, and that while she was still a child he was living a decade of mature life. Consider, is that likely to produce ideal conditions?

Again, a decade of difference means a decade of difference in point of view. She is at the age of enthusiasm, he at the age of disillusionment; she is at the age that loves movement and excitement, he probably wants to settle down. And so, all along the line, their difference in age will probably mean a conflict in desires.

Again a man of thirty-five or forty is likely to be just a little "out of his habit" now, every truly successful marriage is a compromise of tastes and habits. A compromise which comes hard enough even when tastes and habits are pliant. But when they are fixed, well, I know of one couple of which the man was much the older, who inaugurated a life of discord by disagreeing the second night as to how much the bedroom window should be opened.

Perhaps I am a bit prejudiced, but I am sure I could ask nothing better for a daughter of my own than for her to marry a man who is a constantly her mate in age as well as in other respects.

LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY

Another Saub for King Peter—French Women Released Office—Duke of Manchester Blackballed—Member of Illustrious Family, But a Criminal

King Peter, having paid state visits to St. Petersburg, Paris, and to Rome, has been endeavoring for some time past to arrange for the release of French prisoners, and even of his own subjects, upon each occasion it has been postponed for the last minute by the Austrian government. Now, however, both the Austrian and the German envoys at Belgrade have officially intimated to the Serb monarch that his presence at Vienna and Berlin is not desired, and that it would be impossible to accord to him any state welcome there.

The reason for this slight, which is calculated to humiliate him so greatly in the eyes of his people that it may cost him his throne, is due to the fact that he reached the capital over the murdered coronator, King Alexander and Queen Draga, and that his continuance in the deed is shown by his retention of their actual possessions in high office at his court, and in his army, despite the protests of foreign powers, and even of his own children. It is said that he cannot help himself, since were he to anger the republics it would mean the end of his monarchy.

The Duke of Connaught, who has attained his legal majority, and in the event of the death of his father would be equal to take up the reins of government in his place, without any question of a regency being raised, yet he cannot take the seat in the House of Lords as a Peer of the Realm, or cast his vote among the other hereditary legislators, until he attains his twenty-first birthday. After that, he will be entitled to a vote as Duke of Cornwall. When Prince of Wales, he was named in the will of his grandfather, King Edward, and since his death by Princess Henry of Battenberg, has ever been able to secure for Sir Thomas Lipton election to this club.

Daily Hints For the Cook

BAKING POWDER BISCUITS. Two cups of flour, 2 teaspoons of baking powder, 1/2 cup of lard, 1/2 teaspoon of salt. Sift flour and baking powder together, then rub in the lard with tips of the fingers, or cut in with a knife. Add water or milk to make a soft dough, turn on a well-floured board, roll very lightly with a rolling pin. Bake 15 minutes.

BLUEBERRY BREAD PUDDING. Cook berries (1/2 cup of water to pint of berries), strain and sweeten to taste. Cut stale bread in small squares and put a layer in bowl, moisten well with hot berry juice, then more bread and juice till all is used. Cover dish and set away to cool. Serve with plain or whipped cream or custard sauce. Do not flavor the sauce, as it detracts from the flavor of the pudding.

LEMON RICE PUDDING. One cup of rice boiled soft in water. Add 1/2 cup of cold milk and a piece of butter the size of an egg, yolks of 4 eggs and grated rind of a lemon. Mix and bake in a hot oven for 15 minutes. Bake and cooled, beat the whites of 4 eggs, stir in nearly a pint of sugar and the juice of a lemon, pour this over and brown.

Rumor of Prince's Visit

London, Aug. 15.—The story revived here today that the Prince of Wales and his brother, Prince Albert, will visit the Duke and Duchess of Connaught in Canada next summer. They would be in charge of their tutor, Mr. Hansell, who recently accompanied the prince of Wales to his sojourn in Paris, where he went to perfect his knowledge of the French language. The expected visit to Canada will last about a month.

THE COUNCIL OF STATE

The Council of State has now rendered its decision, which is quite the reverse of that favorable to the women; for it points out that a law re-affirmed as recently as 1908, insists as an indispensable condition for office in the civil service, that the candidate must have fulfilled the requirements of the Compulsory Military Service law. As women, so far at least, are not accepted as soldiers, this seems to dispose effectually of their claims, and a precedent for the French people the spectre of a premier or president in petticoats.

While the Duke of Connaught's black-balling last week at Cowes by the Royal Yacht Squadron created something of a sensation, and has been mentioned by the press, it should not have been mentioned by the press, for the surprise if he had been elected, it is inconceivable, indeed, that his name should have been mentioned by the proposer and seconder before the balloting took place. For his antecedents have not been officially intimated to the Serb monarch that his presence at Vienna and Berlin is not desired, and that it would be impossible to accord to him any state welcome there.

The only comfort which the Duke can take in the "gilding" of his name by others, far better qualified than himself for membership, has assigned a name to the Duke of Connaught, who has ever been able to secure for Sir Thomas Lipton election to this club.

Although the Prince of Wales has attained his legal majority, and in the event of the death of his father would be equal to take up the reins of government in his place, without any question of a regency being raised, yet he cannot take the seat in the House of Lords as a Peer of the Realm, or cast his vote among the other hereditary legislators, until he attains his twenty-first birthday. After that, he will be entitled to a vote as Duke of Cornwall.

When Prince of Wales, he was named in the will of his grandfather, King Edward, and since his death by Princess Henry of Battenberg, has ever been able to secure for Sir Thomas Lipton election to this club.

FOUR YEARS IN ARCTIC

Dawson, Yukon Territory, Aug. 15.—Two men who arrived from the mouth of the Mackenzie River by trail yesterday, reported that Vilhjalmur Stefansson and Dr. S. M. Anderson, of Iowa, who have been in Arctic region more than four years for the American Museum of Natural History, making ethnological studies, have embarked on a whaling vessel for Seattle, by way of Point Barrow. It is presumed that the explorers will land at Nome or some other Alaskan port and take a steamer for the remainder of the voyage. The explorers left New York city in April, 1908, for Hudson Bay and nothing was heard from them since Sept. 1, 1911, when a letter was received in New York saying they would return in 1912 with complete surveys of Langton Bay, Horton River and several other uncharted regions on the south coast of Victoria land. Stefansson found a race of blonde Eskimos.

MEET NEXT YEAR AT CHATHAM

Yarmouth, N. S., Aug. 15.—The Grand Lodge of Oddfellows elected its officers today as follows: Grand master, Duquaine Stewart, Bridgeport; deputy grand master, Charles E. Crankshaw, New Glasgow; grand warden, H. E. Codner, St. John; grand secretary, J. K. McKinnon; grand treasurer, H. H. Batoon; grand representatives, W. S. Hooper, Fredericton, and W. E. Broken-shire, Halifax; grand chaplain, Rev. A. H. Dunson, Antigonish. It was decided that the next place of meeting would be Chatham (N. B.). This evening at the curling rink Diamond Lodge and Opal Rebekah Lodge tendered a reception to the visiting brethren and their friends. Practically all the visiting Oddfellows will return home in the morning. At the meeting this morning the officers' reports were adopted. The treasurer's report shows that the cash on hand July 24 was $6,696.05, as compared with $5,322.90 on the same date last year. The receipts from all sources during the year were $5,287.98 and the expenses were $1,124.92.

The village of Berich, Germany, having been found an insuperable obstacle during the construction of the Eider River dam, it was moved 30 miles up the river. The houses of the villagers were pulled down and new dwellings were erected at the new location, but sentiment compelled the engineers to carefully take down the village church, which had withstood the elements for 300 years, and to reconstruct it at New Berich.

The Place Where the Real Bargains Really Are

VICE-REGAL PROCESSION

The route to be taken by the Duke of Connaught and party next Monday morning when they are to be shown the points of interest about the city was decided by the meeting at the meeting of the city commissioners.

The vice-regal party is to land at Reed's Point about 10 o'clock and will immediately enter the carriage. They will then be driven along Prince William street to Queen, along Queen to Charlotte, through the north side of Queen Square to Sydney street and along Sydney to the court house.

After the ceremony in the county court chamber the party will proceed down Sydney street to Waterloo and down Waterloo to City Road and thence to Wall street, along Wall to Rockland Road and along Rockland Road to Main street, along Main to Douglas avenue. The party will cross the Suspension bridge and drive by the main road to Martello Tower and down St. John street to Ludlow and to Rodney street, across the ferry, Landing at the east side of the city they will drive along Water to the Market Square and up King Street to the Union Club for luncheon.

In the afternoon, when proceeding to Rockwood Park, His Royal Highness will pass through King, Dock and Mill streets to Paradise Row and thence via Burpee street to the park and to the playground, Gilbert's Lane entrance.

The work of decorating the interior of the church has been practically completed by the experts from Macaulay Bros. & Co. and the carrying of the decorative scheme reflects much credit on those who did the work.

M. R. A. Stores Closed on Monday. Manchester Robertson Allison, Limited, will observe the public holiday declared by his worship the mayor in honor of the visit of His Royal Highnesses the Duke of Connaught and his party and the stores and warehouses of the firm will be closed all day Monday.

BEFORE AFTER. A silvery summer moon shone sweetly on the likewise silvery sands. The summer sweethearts sat in silence. She was gazing up at the dim blue vault over them, where the little stars twinkled in a million tiny points of flame. He was gazing at her as if he'd like to eat her.

"Deario, what makes the stars shine so dimly tonight?" she queried.

"They are outdone by the glorious light of your eyes, my darling," he whispered foolishly, "and so they pale their splendor, and—"

"He didn't know how to go on, so he kissed her instead. And she was quite satisfied, perfectly content, and glad."

Same moon, same sands, same people—only they are married now.

"I wonder how many telegraph-poles," she murmured thoughtfully, "it would take to reach from here to the moon?"

And a solemn silence enveloped the summer night.

A FRESH ONE. "I believe," said the editor, as he studied the contributions the morning mail had brought into the waste basket, "that the automobile joke has been exhausted. I doubt that human ingenuity could manufacture anything new and original in that line."

"You underestimate our abilities," said the Staff Humorist, "and got off something entirely new on the automobile myself this morning."

"May I inquire what it was?" asked the editor, bracing himself for the shock.

"Certainly I rode in one before the party on the back of the sea was washed."

KNOW HER POWERS. Mother—"Now do be careful how you act about that young man or people will think you are running after him."

Daughter—"I don't have to do that, mother. I can win in a walk."

PERSONALS

H. A. Powell, K. C. who had been attending a meeting of the international waterways commission in Montreal, returned to his summer home at Duck Cove last evening.

Mrs. John MacNeilly, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Edward Tierney, left this morning for Portland, Me., to visit her daughter, Sister Mary deShantal Gertrude, at the convent of Our Lady of Mercy.

Mrs. Mayne and Kathleen McGraith left on the noon train for Halifax to visit their grandmother, Mrs. Fagan. Before returning they will go to New Glasgow to visit Mrs. M. J. Purcell.

Mrs. M. C. Worden has returned from Little River, and is now quite ill at her son's residence, Guilford street, West End.

Miss Pearl Price, of Moncton, is spending a few days with Miss Annie Smith, 22 Peter street.

Mrs. J. S. Maber and little daughter Hortense, left yesterday to visit relatives in Newcastle.

Newcastle Advocate:—Mrs. D. King Hazen, of St. John, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Crogan, Mrs. Charles Robinson, of St. John, is visiting relatives at Tracadie, Mrs. J. Mauns Atkinson and three children, who were visiting Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Atkinson, left Wednesday for Woodstock, N. B., on their way to their home in Leithbridge, Alta.

Charles G. Day, of the post office staff, and bride (nee White), are spending the honeymoon at Smith's Cove, Digby county, N. S.

WHAT SHE PREFERRED

Young Lady: Well, Mrs. Smith, won't you have another piece of cake?

Old Lady (eying the ham sandwich): Well, mum, if it's all the same to you, I'd rather 'ave a taste o' summat as has drawed breath."

HIS ONLY REASON

Raid One—I would give anything for your splendid head of hair.

Woolly One—Would you, really?

Raid One—Yes. I would like to go to the barber shop just once and feel that I am getting my money's worth.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 16, 1912.

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street every evening (Sundays excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

WHY NOT ST. JOHN?

It is not time for St. John's business men to take note of the fact that natural gas is available in this province for light, heat and power? Up to the present time, although Miramichi and Hillsboro have been supplied and the tests made by the Maritime Oil Fields, Ltd., have discovered more and more gas wells yielding a high pressure, the people of St. John appear to have been content to read the news concerning these developments and let it go at that.

Recognize that however wrong or foolish he may regard the views held by others he cannot change the conditions, nor has he a right to expect those who differ to abandon of their own volition the convictions of a lifetime.

A HINT FOR NEW BRUNSWICK

From a publication entitled "Wisconsin, an Experiment in Democracy" we quote the following interesting statement: "The depleted work of the farm-hand has become a lucrative vocation in Wisconsin, more lucrative apparently than the learned professions. When the University of Wisconsin closed in 1911, the agricultural department had orders for graduates, which it could not supply, paying salaries aggregating $400,000. While the graduates in law, medicine, engineering, etc., were competing for such limited opportunities as were offered, all the 'Short Horns' had been engaged before they completed their course, at salaries ranging from $900 to $3,000 a year."

There is food for thought in this statement. We are a long way from such conditions in the province of New Brunswick. We have no agricultural department in our university, and the young man who desires to qualify himself for the vocation of agriculture must leave his own province to take the necessary course. When the time comes when young men can get a good agricultural education in New Brunswick, there will be a much more general desire on the part of farmers' sons to pursue such a course, instead of adopting one of the professions. Indeed agriculture properly conducted is a profession quite as dignified and more independent than those to which so many young men are attracted.

Take your umbrella along, of course. A new armory, a new postoffice, a new theatre and a million dollar hotel. That's going some, in St. John.

The erection of a large automobile factory is assured. Another important industry, capable of great expansion, is thus added to those in St. John and its immediate vicinity.

If the government has decided not to proceed at once with the new post office it might get some revenue out of the building from which the tenants were compelled to remove last spring. Why this delay?

No doubt the government which was defeated in 1908 is responsible for the collapse of the Southwest Miramichi bridge. No one would suspect the Flemming government of designs upon the comfort and convenience of the people using this bridge.

It is evident from the preparations that H. R. H. the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia are to receive a warm welcome in St. John, even if somebody has forgotten some of the titles of his royal highness, and thus marred the joy of the occasion for some ardent souls. We note on titles.

How many more victims of tuberculosis must die, and how many new cases must develop in this city, before the sanitarium and day camp are provided? If those in authority would tell us at what number they have fixed the limit, we might then be able to guess at the probable date of the establishment of those institutions.

There is need in St. John of an institution for old men similar to that provided for old ladies. There is always a considerable number of elderly gentlemen, some without relatives, who would be much more comfortable in such an institution than in an ordinary hotel or boarding house, and who would be able to pay their way. This is a matter which might well be given consideration, perhaps by an organization formed for the purpose.

The Standard says that the Times ignores Mr. Borden's unconditional offer to the British Government of an immediate contribution to the naval programme of the Mother Country, and fails to remember that not only was this offer gladly accepted, but that Mr. Borden's prompt action has been endorsed by every respectable newspaper in both countries.

The Standard knows perfectly well that Mr. Borden made no unconditional offer of an immediate or any other contribution to the navy. He talked, and talked again, and again, but not even Mr. Borden himself knows today what he will offer. He must consult Bourassa.

THE LURE OF THE WEST. Charlottetown Patriot:—The first harvest excursion to Western Canada from Prince Edward Island took place on Monday with the result that 637 persons, including a number of women, left this province, 183 left Charlottetown, and the station was thronged with people to witness their departure. It is feared that many who went on this excursion will take up their permanent abode in the west, and under such circumstances the scene at the station, has its sad aspect when the west-

THE TONE OF THE VOICE

It is not so much what you say, As the manner in which you say it. It is not so much the language you use, As the tone in which you convey it.

The words may be mild and fair, And the tone may pierce like a dart; The words may be soft as the summer air, And the tone may break the heart.

For words but once come from the mind, And grow by study and art; But the tone is leapt forth from the inner self, And reveals the state of the heart.

Whether we know it or not, Whether you mean it or care, Gentleness, kindness, love and hate, A right to expect those who differ to abandon of their own volition the convictions of a lifetime.

Then would you quarrel avoid, And in peace and love rejoice? Keep anger not only out of your words, But keep it out of your voice.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

COULDN'T SAY. "There is a rumor afloat that old Goldron is dead," said the reporter. "I was just down to the house," "Well, his wife said that her husband would neither confirm nor deny the rumor. Is it so?"—Yonkers Statesman.

HAD RATHER EXPECTED IT. "When you shocked when you heard that Mrs. Middleton had secured a divorce?" "No, I can't say that I was. You see, her husband and I were already engaged."—Chicago Record-Herald.

THE REASON WHY. "I swear to you I cannot live without my wife." "Yes, but so?" "Well, not exactly that. You see, she has the money."

HER JOB. "Sam, you have a good job now?" "Oh, yes, ah." "What are you doing, Sam?" "Why, I'm getting my wife washin' down."—Yonkers Statesman.

UNFORSEEN. "Before we were married," John, you said you'd go through fire and water for me." "Yes, dear; but I never said anything about bankruptcy."

TACTFUL. Mildred—Why do you marry the Count? He only wants you for your money. Isabel—But he has such a delightful way of putting it. He says he is only marrying my money for me.

DIFFERENT. He (boastfully)—Oh, I've broken several records. She—Oh, have you? On the track, I suppose? He—No, on our phonograph.

QUITE ANOTHER THING. An enterprising tool dealer landed in the following to the city editor of an esteemed contemporary the other day: "A large crowd assembled before Mr. Schlow's fancy good store this morning, and watched him while he was engaged in the interesting occupation of drawing four large handsome French windows that make his display so attractive. The display was much enjoyed."

But the commentators were in a hurry and neglected to put any "in" in the "windows."

GAMBLERS STICK TO THEIR STORIES BEFORE GRAND JURY

New York, Aug. 15.—At the request of District Attorney Whitman the grand jury today returned indictments against the defendants in the murder of Herman Rosenthal in order to hear the testimony of Sam Scheppe now on his trial here for the murder of Rosenthal, who was in the custody of Assistant District Attorney Ruben. While the county prosecutor believes that the evidence against the defendants is sufficient for the purpose of indictment he advised the jury today that it would be best to hear the testimony of Scheppe in order to further strengthen the evidence.

Reports were also current that Webber who with Rose and Vallon were witnesses before the jury today, had given testimony which conflicted with his previous story but it was learned that Webber steadfastly stood by all that he had said regarding Lieutenant Becker and the other defendants in the murder.

Impatient over what he regards as the "peculiarly unprecedented" failure of any city authority to offer a reward for the capture of "Opp the Blood" and "Lefty" Louis, who tomorrow will have been at large one month since Rosenthal was slain, District Attorney Whitman declared tonight that he himself would offer a reward of $5,000 for the capture of the two men dead or alive.

Detective Wm. J. Burns saw the district attorney today, but has thus far, it was learned, turned up no evidence which might aid in the capture of the two men.

He told the prosecutor, however, that he was on a trail which he predicted would lead to a high city official in connection with police corruption. He also said that he expected to "get" three men known as "The disorderly house triumvirate," one a lawyer, one a police inspector and the other a hotel keeper. The detective also gave assurance to the district attorney, it was learned, that he would find "Opp the Blood."

Nat Goodwin Fatally Hurt

Los Angeles, Ca., Aug. 15.—Nat C. Goodwin, was seriously and probably fatally injured about noon today at Rocky Point, twelve miles south of Huonema, by first being thrown from a skiff on the rocks by the breakers and then being struck by the boat itself as it was dashed ashore.

Goodwin and a woman of his company engaged a launch to make a trip up the coast. The woman had a note which she said was for an Indian. She espied an Indian's hut, and demanded that the captain take her note ashore. He refused because of the stormy tide and rough breakers, but Goodwin, taking off his coat and vest grabbed the note and jumped into a rowboat. As the boat reached the breakers' line it was overturned. Goodwin was thrown up on shore and stunned. With the next roll of breakers the boat was thrown upon Goodwin.

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION

Cleveland, O., Aug. 15—A bold but unsuccessful attack was made by the "Progressives" in the International Typographical Union's convention today upon the alleged authority of the administration. President James M. Lynch himself took the floor in opposition to the "Progressives" proposal to appoint a board of eighteen directors who would be given much of the power now wielded by the president and the executive council of three. For fifteen minutes a demonstration by Lynch continued on the conclusion of his speech and shortly after the convention defeated the board proposition overwhelmingly.

The ladies auxiliary of the union is still in turmoil. Tonight the main body is awaiting the return of the books by Mrs. Frank W. Long, secretary and treasurer, who walked out of the convention followed by a small cortege, because her choice for stenographer was not of the auxiliary.

A large bullfrog, alive and well, was unearthed 39 feet underground by workmen employed in excavating for a building at Springfield, Mo. The frog was uncovered in a small cavity of an old well that had been filled for 27 years. There was no outlet from its place of refuge.

ONE OF THE BEST MUSICAL COMEDIES EVER SEEN HERE

"The Red Rose" Everything That Was Expected of it and More — Large Audience Waxed Enthusiastic Over Splendid Production

"One of the very best musical comedies that has visited St. John for a long time" was the almost unanimous opinion of the large and fashionable audience that attended the opening performance of "The Red Rose" in the Opera House last night. The play is truly a Broadway success, and it won instant favor with the local audience. From the rise of the curtain until it fell on the last act the audience was kept in a constant state of uproar by the work of the four comedians in the piece. The songs introduced during the action of the piece were very catchy and the stage settings were of the highest order.

Special mention should be made of the costumes worn by members of the company, and the stage settings. The chorus, composed of about twenty good-looking young ladies, was gowned in some very exquisite costumes, including the hobble-skirt, the harem skirt and several other 20th century gowns. The principals also wore costumes that were exceedingly pretty, the harem skirt and being the most noticeable. The gowns blended well with the stage settings and lights and made a very charming spectacle. As to the stage settings, it would not be exaggerating to say that they were the best that have been carried by any musical comedy company that has travelled in this direction. The settings last night were excellent, even the minutest details being attended to. The first act, the Art School in Paris, shows the Eiffel tower in the distance, its architectural decorations and its general magnificence. The second act represents the ball-room of the Four Arts, and is especially artistically arranged, and reflects great credit on the stage manager. Every scene in the production is of the highest standard and called forth much applause from the audience when the curtain rose on each act.

Miss Zoe Barnett, the prima donna, as Lola, the artist's model did excellent work, and showed herself to be a very clever actress and singer. Besides being the possessor of a very pleasing voice she is an exceptionally clever dancer and was heartily applauded for her work last night. Her heaviest acting is at the end of the second act, and last night she was forced to respond to three or four calls. Her chief solos are:—"I Want to be the Queen of Vanity Fair," "Come Along My Cherie," "Love and Beauty," "Men, Men, Men."

The most of the comedy work was attended to by Walter H. Catlett as Raphael Spiegel, a German picture dealer. His German dialect was perfect and his every movement and saying was greeted with bursts of laughter. He reminds one of Jack Henderson, when he played "The Six in 'The Telephone Girl.'" Mr. Catlett has not much solo work to do, but what he lacks as a singer he makes up for in his acting. He was "absolutely and positively" the principal fun maker. His several dances with his partner were very fancy. He was ably assisted in his work by Miss Charlotte Pulbrick in the role of Miss Joyant. "The Queen on a Honeymoon with You," "The Queen on a Honeymoon with Me," "Men, Men, Men," "The latter piece was especially pretty, being sung by Miss Barnett and the male members of the company. Taken all in all the production was a big success and reflects great credit on the management. Great praise is also due to Howard A. Cook, the Musical Director, and Herbert S. Burns, the Stage Manager. The play will be repeated tonight and tomorrow night with a Saturday matinee. It is safe to say that all three performances will be largely attended.

MORNING LOCALS

The directors of the Y. M. C. A. met last evening at Hilldale where they were the guests of E. E. Church. The party went up the river in motor boats. Matters of a routine nature were taken up but no decision has yet been made in regard to a successor to Mr. Bandlow, the physical instructor, who resigned recently. The party returned to the city early in the evening.

Dukes ward, in which it is proposed to erect the new million dollar hotel, is at present under the local option law which prohibits the sale of liquor. This remains in effect until cancelled by ballot and no vote can be taken before 1913. If at that time the regulation is upheld it is possible that the hotel will not be built.

A meeting of the creditors of the Universal Chimney Cleaning Company was held yesterday afternoon. T. V. Williams was appointed assignee and W. E. Harrison inspector. The assets of the company are $1,500, and the liabilities amount to about the same. The recent heavy rains have occasioned fresher conditions about harbor and in the river. The river has risen five feet at South Bay. The Board of Health has distributed about a gross of sputum bottles such as are used by the Board of Health of Boston. These bottles have been given to the nurses in charge of the anti-tuberculosis dispensary in Wentworth street. They are disinfected with carbolic acid, thus preventing the distribution of the sputum by foreign germs before analysis can be made. F. Neil Boudin, architect, announced yesterday that the contracts for the new automobile factory at Coldbrook had been awarded. Robert Thomas Stone has been awarded the contract for driving about 1,000 piles for the foundation, and A. H. C. Clark & Son the remainder of the work. The contract calls for the completion of Mr. Sharpe belongs to St. John and has for the last nine years been manager of the branch in Fredericton. He will be succeeded by Mr. Kirk, now manager of the St. Martin's branch.

Capt. Alfred Cole, of Lower Rockport, died on Tuesday last week at the age of seventy-seven years. He was widely known as one of the captains in the coastwise business, and figured also in many deep water voyages. Capt. Cole was a member of the Rockport Baptist church for many years.

SACKVILLE LADIES FOR CALGARY (Sackville Tribune)

The many friends of the Misses Elaine and Gladys Borden will learn with great pleasure of their success in their chosen profession. Miss Elaine has been appointed head of the Fine Arts Department of Mount Royal College of Calgary, and Miss Gladys has been employed by the School Board to organize the Household Science work in the schools of the same city. The young ladies, who have been spending the summer with their parents here and in Nova Scotia, will leave next Monday for Calgary to take up their duties.

These young ladies are twin daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Borden, and have endeared themselves to a circle of friends that is as broad as the fame and influence of Mount Allison University, of which their father is the esteemed president. Both took the B. A. degree at Mt. Allison in the class of 1909. Miss Elaine Allison Borden is also a graduate of the Queen's Art School, of Mt. Allison; while Miss Gladys Allison Borden graduated in Household Science from the Massy-Treble School from the Massy-Treble School here. Both subsequently took the B. Sc. degree at the Teachers' College at Columbia University, New York, Miss Elaine in Fine Arts and Miss Gladys in Household Science.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Chief Rideout of Moncton has notified the police of St. John and Halifax to be on the look-out for a man who has been passing bogus cheques in Moncton and Amherst. The press and public of the west are openly hostile to the issuing of $100,000 of new stock by the C. P. R. until negotiations have been made in the freight rates. They are trying to prevent the Dominion government from granting the application until the rates conform with those in the western states. The Dominion Railway department has extended for a month, the time for receiving tenders for the Prince Edward Island ferry which were to have been in by yesterday. Several British and American firms are figuring on the work. Quebec, Aug. 15—The steamer Florida of the French line, arrived at Quebec this morning from Havre, France, remaining the Havre-Quebec service, which was inaugurated last spring with the steamer Niagara and which was interrupted by the recent strike in Quebec. EXPECT TO CONQUER DEFORMITY

New Treatment for Eradication of "H n h" back

PROMISE RAPID CURE

Methods, Discovered at John Hopkins, Based on Surgery—All Effects Eliminated

Baltimore, Aug. 15.—The physicians of the Johns Hopkins Hospital are planning a series of interesting experiments during the coming term of the medical school for perfecting a new treatment for Potts disease, commonly known as lausback, a successful new treatment, which will consist of surgical operations, will eliminate the use of mechanical appliances, such as plaster of paris, jackets, braces, etc., and effect cures with the knife in which the grafting of bone figures conspicuously. It is believed that a method of treatment which would absolutely eliminate motion of the diseased vertebrae or spinal joints, of which there are nine pairs, and entirely relieve pressure on the affected bodies, would promise a rapid cure of the disease and prevent deformity.

It is on this theory that the methods of treating Potts disease will be based in the clinic. It is thought that in the spine the careful removal of the periosteum of the lower vertebrae and the operation of bridging the gap between the vertebrae, and with gaps between the thin shield, called laminae, also bridged by bone, will lead to the extensive formation of bone, fusing the vertebrae.

Observations have shown that in the case of the spine the gap to be bridged by the laminae is not between the vertebrae, but any two adjacent vertebrae is very narrow.

A number of these operations of this character have already proved successful to a degree. A boy nine years old, suffering from Potts disease, was operated on. The laminae, become a subject for the experiments some time ago. It was necessary to use the knife in the case of the subject's youth, to graft bone from the lower vertebrae into the narrow gap between the two adjacent vertebrae. The operation was made directly over the spinous processes, through skin, periosteum and muscle, and was a simple one. The periosteum was split over both the upper and lower borders of the spinous processes and the laminae and carried back from them to the base of the transverse processes. The spinous processes were then joined by a partial fracture so that they came in contact with fresh bone, the base of each with its own base. In time the periosteum becoming grafted, between the gaps of the vertebrae generated a new formation of bone and united the two gaps between the vertebrae. In the course of a few weeks the substituted spinal cord, a few weeks the spinal cord, was sufficiently healed to enable the patient to leave the hospital cured.

C. P. R. ORDERS
$6,000,000 WORTH OF ROLLING STOCK

(By J. M. Robinson & Sons' private wire.)

Montreal, Aug. 16.—The Canadian C. P. R. has received from the U. S. C. P. R. six million dollars order for freight cars, probably the largest order ever given out by the government for rolling stock by any railroad company. The order is for seven thousand cars to be delivered during the first half of next year. The great increase of traffic along the line and branches of the C. P. R. has necessitated the purchase of the present stock and the expected extension of area under cultivation next year all conduce to the giving out of this immense order. The officials of the C. P. R. state that they will have no trouble whatever in filling at their turret works the order within the time specified in the contract.

NO TRACE YET OF MISSING GIRL

The police have had no further trace of Sarah Corbett, the fourteen year old Jew-ess, who disappeared from her home in North Gorey, yesterday afternoon. The little girl was seen playing about the house at five o'clock yesterday afternoon, but suddenly disappeared and according to the police had not been found up till noon today. When she left home she was dressed in a brown dress and did not wear any hat or coat. She could not speak English and had only been in St. John for about two months.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Andrew K. Dwyer occurred at his home in Coogee, Kent county, N. B., on Tuesday. He was about seventy-five years of age, and is survived by six sons and five daughters.

Word was received by Miss Wortman, of Salisbury, N. B., of the death, at Barry's Mills, N. B., of his uncle, Timothy Horgan. He was 87 years of age and the last of a remarkable family, all of whom were heavyweights. The united weight of the twelve members of the family was said to be 2,000 pounds.

His Honor Judge Forbes has received word of the death of Frimond R. Dr. John Morton, a distinguished divine, who, for more than fifty years, has been engaged in missionary work in the Presbyterian church in the West Indies. He was born in Pictou county, N. S. His wife was Miss Stairs, of Halifax, and she leaves two sons, Arthur St. who was formerly in charge of the Presbyterian church at Fairville, and Rev. H. H., who was for some years engaged in the ministry in Trinidad, and whose wife was Miss Jessie Forbes.

RESULTS OF PURE FOOD WAR ARE GRATIFYING

Marked Improvements Since Department of Internal Revenue Took a Hand—Ginger, Marmalade and Vinegar

There was a time when a large proportion of the apples sold in Canada, as well as of the coffee and jam, were grossly adulterated. "Jam" was sold in heavy turpentine, grass seeds and chemicals took the place of fruit. Coffee was mixed with chicory and rotten wood. Ground spices were weakened by admixtures of flour, starch and other ingredients which reduced their strength and their value to the consuming purchaser.

In regard to ginger, a report was set out in a recently issued bulletin, the fifth in the record of the Department of Internal Revenue that dealt with analysis of the article. In the first, issued in 1896, about a third of the samples analyzed were declared to be adulterated or doubtful. In that of the present year, according to Consular and Trade Reports, barely a sixth came under condemnation.

In regard to ginger the adulterations detected are not dangerous so far as the public health is concerned, but they are none the less to be condemned. They sometimes consist of the mixture with the ground ginger of starch or flour to add weight, and as both are much cheaper than ginger the fraud is apparent. There are apparently some who follow the more scientific practice of extracting some of the essential strength of the article by steeping it in water or other fluid and then grinding the weakened stuff.

The adulterations are also in public favor in recent years. Its manufacture is largely in the hands of firms which seek to conserve their good reputations as producers of good articles and to keep business by maintaining the quality of their goods. Of 122 samples that were subjected to analysis 138 were declared to be genuine and only fourteen were classed as adulterated. The adulteration in the case of marmalades was not harmful, nor may it be called fraudulent. The standard of purity for marmalades was adopted before the production of glucose of corn syrup had been perfected, and sticking to the old rule, the analysis set down as adulterated has been technically, samples in which glucose has been used instead of or in combination with sugar.

The bulletin declares that under modern methods of manufacture glucose is a perfectly wholesome article of food. It is described as consisting mainly of dextrose (grape sugar) with varying quantities of dextrin (a product of starch). In ordinary processes of digestion cane sugar (sucrose) is changed into glucose and dextrin is produced by the action of saliva on starch foods. Both articles are equally nutritious and it is admitted that there can be no reason, on the ground of wholesomeness, for objecting to the use of glucose as a component of marmalade or jam. It would be well, therefore, if some word other than "adulterated" were applied to articles of food containing glucose, so that if they are inferior in any way to similar products made with cane sugar they are not so condemned even by inference.

In the case of vinegar the analysis are apparently somewhat at sea in regard to what should be the standard. There are three recognized varieties—wine, malt and cider—each having some peculiarities. The case of whiskey, vinegar seemingly gets its qualities from the chemical impurities it contains. The legal definition of the article is "a more or less colored liquid, consisting essentially of impure distillate obtained by the oxidation of wine, beer, cider or other alcoholic liquid." Acetic acid is also made commercially as a product of the destructive distillation of wood, and it is admitted in the bulletin that there may be no good reason for condemning such refined acid as a basis of vinegar. Such vinegar, however, is more for use in the arts than as a food preservative or relish.

The table article, according to accepted authorities, contains in addition to acetic acid small quantities of alcohol, tartaric or succinic acids, various esters, aluminum substances, etc. It is added that it is well known that much of the vinegar on the market is actually made in whole or in part from acetic acid and that it is difficult or even impossible by chemical analysis to detect small additions of acetic acid to fermentation vinegars.

WEDDINGS

A quiet wedding took place last evening at the home of the bride, Princess street, when Rev. A. Gordon Dickie united in marriage Miss Annie Thomson Miller and William J. Bingham, son of the late Colonel Bingham, of Cape Breton. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bingham have a great number of relatives here who wish them every happiness. They left on a trip through Nova Scotia and Cape Breton.

W. J. Bingham, a Western Union Telegraph operator, was last evening married to Miss Annie T. Miller at the rectory of the St. John's Presbyterian church by Rev. J. H. A. Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Bingham were married yesterday morning to Miss Mary A. Daly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Daly, of Jamaica Plains. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Edward Connelly, of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament.

TOO HUMBLE.

"I shall discharge our butler," said Mr. Cumrox.

"What's the trouble?"

"He doesn't show me proper deference. When I am paying a man liberally, I consider it his duty to laugh at my jokes."

"And he won't?"

"I don't think he can. He's an Englishman. When in a spirit of gentleness and condescending badinage, I said to him: 'Hawkins, can you tell me which came first, the chicken or the egg?'"

"Which did you order first, sir?"—Washington Star.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Mrs. Eliza Miller took place at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of S. H. Hawker, 40 Summer street. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. A. Gordon Dickie. Interment was at Cedar Hill Cemetery.

The body of Mrs. Sarah McLaughlin was taken to Annapolis on the 8:45 train this morning. The body will be buried there.

It isn't work that wears men so much as a needless waste of energy. There is a ceaseless tax on the nerve force which comes through a needless strain.

It is ended at once by an O-P-C suspensory.

To men on their feet an O-P-C is a necessity. Golfers and athletes wear the O-P-C and they are compelled to wear suspensories.

But every man who values his health to conserve it with an O-P-C. It multiplies capacity for work or play.

Comfort and relief are immediate. The first day shows results. One month may show you twice the man you are.

No one who tries one will ever go without.

The O-P-C is the scientific suspensory, famous for 20 years. Our book tells why you need it. Write us for it.

300TH ANNIVERSARY

Corner Stone of Memorial Laid in Southampton, England, to Mark Puritans' Departure 300 Years Ago

Southampton, Aug. 15.—The second annual observance of Pilgrims day was celebrated today by the laying of the foundation stone of a memorial to be erected to the little band which set forth from this port 300 years ago in search of religious liberty.

The function opened with a luncheon presided over by the mayor and speeches were made by Sir Edward Drabrock, John Morgan Richards, formerly of Boston, and others.

Afterward a visit was paid to the West Gate through which the pilgrim fathers passed on the Mayflower on Aug. 18, 1620. Then the buttress stones of the memorial tower were laid by the mayor and representatives of various American and English societies.

SUB-CONTRACTS WILL BE AWARDED SHORTLY

W. Burton Stewart, Vice-President and General Manager for Norton Griffiths & Co., who is in the city today said that there was no announcement to be made as yet in the matters of the sub-contract for the dredging in Courtenay Bay. It would, he said, be some few days yet before the awards are given out.

Asked regarding the steel works proposition at East St. John, Mr. Stewart said that he could not at this time add anything to what has already been said.

Life Saving Roles

The merchants' shipping advisory committee of the board of trade in London, England to which was referred the question raised by the recent Titanic disaster as to what changes should be made in the existing life-saving appliances to make ocean travel more safe, has made a report to the effect that it was of much more importance to look to the buoyancy of the vessel than the gross tonnage of the vessel. It was the opinion of the committee that the gross tonnage of vessels should still regulate the number of boats carried under the davits, it being impracticable to make the number of passenger lifeboats to correspond to the gross tonnage of the vessel. It was recommended that the life saving accommodation should be varied to make the apparatus sufficient to accommodate all the passengers and crew aboard. The committee also recommended that the regulation made for undue speed should be extended so as to prevent over speed at night and in ice regions.

GOT $18,000 FOR THREE FOKES.

North Sydney Herald.—What is believed to be the biggest deal in the fox industry ever consummated in Cape Breton, was put through last week, when Dr. Donald McNeil, a native of Whybrooch, but now a prominent physician in New Brunswick, has purchased three female black ranch for $18,000 cash. The purchasers were a company which only started lately in the upper provinces, and were taken away by their owners last Wednesday.

WOODSTOCK AND FLIGHT RATES.

Sentinel.—It is a pleasure to note that the town is waking up to the fact that the issue is facing a serious situation with regard to the matter of transportation facilities. At a meeting Friday night a resolution was moved that an expert be engaged to look into the matter of freight rates with a view of preparing a report on existing conditions to be placed before the railway commission.

PETITION FOR TRIAL TO BE HELD IN ST. JOHN

In the Courts Today—Jones vs. Burgess. Application for Sale—A. E. Hamilton Co.—Suit for Rent

In the case of Robert Jones & Co., of Liverpool, Eng., vs. James and Matthew Burgess of Grand Falls, Daniel Mullin, K. C., this morning applied to Mr. Justice McKeown for a summons for directions. The point in dispute is the fixing of the place for trial. Fred R. Taylor, who is appearing for the defendants, contends that the trial should take place in Victoria county. Mr. Mullin, K. C., who with Dr. R. J. Quigley, K. C., is appearing for the plaintiffs, read affidavits this morning showing why the trial should take place here. The hearing was adjourned until next Wednesday to enable Mr. Taylor to file a reply.

This is an action for breach of contract to recover about $2,000 for the non delivery of certain wooden goods. Before Mr. Justice McLeod in Chancery this morning, A. B. Copp made application for an order for the sale of certain lands in Sackville, belonging to the late Hiawatha Dixon and Silas Copp, for distribution for the benefit of the children of the late Mr. Dixon, and the estate generally. The application was made on the petition of the widow of Hiawatha Dixon and Silas Copp. The order was granted.

The matter of the winding up of the A. E. Hamilton Co., Limited, came up again before Mr. Justice McLeod this morning, and was further adjourned until Tuesday. His Honor stated that he would look into the bill submitted by the liquidators, and the final order for distribution. J. H. A. L. Fairweather appeared for the liquidators, and A. A. Wilson, K. C., Fred R. Taylor and C. F. Inches for creditors.

County Court Chambers

The case of Capt. Wason vs. S. W. McBeath was heard on review from the city court by Judge McKee this morning. The action was to recover $50 for rent. The magistrate decided in favor of the plaintiff, and the decision was affirmed on appeal. The parties to settle the matter out of court, failing which he would give his decision next Friday. The review was argued by the plaintiff and J. A. Barry for the defendant.

ANOTHER PRISONER STROLLS AWAY

Yesterday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock two jail prisoners, Frank Daley and Samuel McCavour took French leave and escaped from custody, while the gang was working in the court house. This morning another prisoner named William Marshall, also escaped from custody and has not been heard of. Marshall was working in the jail yard. When the gate was open for a few minutes, strolled out and away. He was arrested on July 22 and only had a few days to serve before being released. The police have had no trace of any of the escaped prisoners.

WHERE ARE THE DEAD?

A group of St. John bible students have arranged with Hon. J. E. Rutherford, of the New York City Bar, to deliver a free lecture in the Opera House on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock on the subject—"Where Are the Dead?" The committee in charge of the lecture have given out the following for publication:—"This noted lecturer comes to this city upon the condition that the theatre be opened to the public free, and that no collections of any kind be taken. Believing that thousands of people are anxious to know the true answer to the question—"Where Are the Dead?" who have not the time to devote to a personal study of this question, he is giving the people the benefit of his long and thorough search of the Scriptures. He has travelled extensively throughout America, Europe and the Orient, including the Holy Lands and Egypt, and has been giving the public the benefits without cost to them. His philanthropic spirit is commendable, and the people are showing an appreciation thereof by turning out in large numbers to hear him. The press, both in America and Europe, speak in highly commendatory terms of both the lecturer and the lecture. "Where Are the Dead?" is a vital one to all. Much out of the ordinary, it will be presented from the lawyer's viewpoint and not along the line usually pursued by the clergy. There are three distinct and unique features about this lecture, viz.—It is a Bible lecture; it is delivered by a lawyer, and it is free. The lecture is said to be a great defense of the Scriptures, and will show something that the preachers have not told us! Hear him and judge. A special invitation has been issued to the lawyers of the city. All are welcome."

AMBULANCE SHOULD BE ALLOWED SAME SPEED AS FIRE DEPT.

Case Against Driver Dismissed—No Arrests Yesterday—Long Term for John McDougall

The police court sheet was blank this morning, the police not having made any arrests last night. Several prisoners who were in jail on remand were brought in and dealt with, however.

John W. Allan, charged with obtaining money under false pretences from Patrick Mooney, the contractor, was before the court and was again remanded. Mr. Mooney was on the stand and swore that Allan approached him last week and asked him for one dollar, saying that he wanted to get back to Spoon Island to go to work. He was given the money, but shortly after Mr. Mooney found out that he had not worked at Spoon Island since last year. He consequently had him arrested.

John McDougall, who was arrested on Wednesday for being drunk in the L. C. R. depot, assaulting passengers and resisting the police, pleaded guilty to the drunkenness, but said that he did not remember anything about the fighting or resisting. He was fined $8 or 20 days in jail for the drunkenness, $20 or two months for the assault and $20 or two months for resisting.

John Flynn, who pleaded guilty in court yesterday morning to stealing a coat valued at $3 from the schooner Wandrian, was sentenced to spend two months in jail without a fine.

Two prisoners, charged with drunkenness, were fined $8 or two months in jail. An Indian, who was also charged with drunkenness, was fined $8 or thirty days in jail.

Albert Delong, charged with keeping a ferocious dog which bit Benjamin Jackson, was before the court. Mr. Jackson swore that he was walking along Kimball street when the dog ran up to him and bit him on the leg. Delong was told to arrange with Mr. Johnson in regard to paying the doctor's bill.

Percy Evans, driver of the ambulance, was before the court charged with driving the wagon over the Suspension Bridge at a fast rate, and was fined $5 or 10 days in jail. He pleaded guilty but was allowed to go as he explained to the court that he was going to a man that had been injured in an accident. Mr. Stackhouse, who has charge of the ambulance, was in court and asked His Honor if, when the ambulance was being called out for a serious accident that it would not be allowed to be driven at a fast rate of speed. His Honor told him that he would have to use his own discretion as to the rate of speed, but that he was of the opinion that the ambulance should be allowed to go through the streets when on a hurry call as fast as the fire teams, for, he said, "it is a question of life and death in your case, and only a question of loss of property with the others."

HOLIDAY WILL BE GENERALLY OBSERVED

Business Houses Unanimous This Time—Decorations Appearing on Business Streets

The business houses of the city seem to be very enthusiastic over the observance of the holiday on Monday. When asked by a Times reporter whether they had decided to observe the holiday a great many of the business men seemed surprised at the question. One wholesale merchant when asked said, "What? Why certainly we will observe the holiday. What do you suppose we have the mayor for if we do not intend to go according to his decision in civic matters?" It had never entered my mind, since the holiday was proclaimed, not to observe the day, and I think that to keep a business house open on that day, no matter how small or how large, would be a disgrace, after what has been decided."

It is apparent that all the up town stores, all the wholesale houses and offices will observe the holiday.

The St. Andrew Rink has been finely decorated with red, white and blue bunting. The ceiling is arched with the same bunting, which is in place interwoven with purple and orange. The large platform at the head of the auditorium is backed with an elaborate screen of purple and black and is trimmed with spruce boughs. Electric lighting effects have been introduced throughout the display, being particularly prominent in the large "Welcome" sign suspended from the ceiling. The floor has been laid with a rich covering.

SCOVIL BROS. LIMITED, St. John, N. B.

AFTERWARDS

After our great clearance Sale, we find ourselves left with 156 Men's Suits. This lot is very much broken in sizes, but there are plenty of all sizes in the lot. To make a final clearance of these we have decided to divide them into 3 lots. We quote only 3 Prices.

- Lot No. 1 All $20 to $25 Suits for $15.00
- Lot No. 2 All $15 to $18 Suits for $10.00
- Lot No. 3 All $8 to $10 Suits for $5.00

If at all interested in real value or economy come now.

C. B. PIDGEON, COR. MAIN AND BRIDGE STREETS
