Miramichi and the North Shore.

The Downer Express is to be organized at Newcastle to-night.

Mr. Leo Brock, son of Walter Brock, Esq., C. E. late of Chatham, is about opening a drug store at Hopewell Corner, Albert Co.

Mr. Bowen, the deservedly popular landlady of the Bower Hotel, received a very handsome and valuable present from her guests on Christmas Day.

The Corporation of Newcastle, Esq., has been returned as councillor for Lower Parish. He was an excellent member of the Board when representing Newcastle.

HIGHLAND SOCIETY.—We understand that the Highland Society's general annual meeting is to be held at the Waverley House, Newcastle, on Monday evening, 14th inst.

M. C. Clark, Dentist, can be found in Newcastle at Mr. McAllister's residence every Friday and Saturday, where he will be prepared to attend to those desiring his services, commencing Friday, Oct. 5th, 77.

ACCIDENT.—We omitted to mention last week that Mr. Wm. Wyse, accompanied by one of his little boys, was driving on the river on Christmas day, his horse broke through the ice and narrowly escaped being drowned.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.—The last Royal Gazette says that His Honor, the Lieutenant Governor in Council, has been pleased to accept the resignation of John Campbell as District Commissioner for the Parish of Andover, in the County of Northumberland.

OBITUARY.—The death of Mr. Wm. Casey of Newcastle is recorded in another column. He was the oldest member of Northumberland Lodge, F. & A. M., who was long well respected in the community.

REPORTING A CANDIDATE.—A Richibucto correspondent writes that "a certain class of Kent politicians are talking of importing a man from Westmorland County as a candidate for the representation of Kent in the Dominion Commons."

CHARITABLE IN DISCRETION.—As an instance of the extreme mildness of the winter we may mention that Mr. James Mowat, who lives in the neighborhood of the Masonic Hall, Chatham, found a brown butterfly caterpillar in his garden on Thursday morning last promending without the least consciousness of being out of season.

MORE BEARS.—On Friday last Mr. John Fitzpatrick brought the carcass of a large bear to town, which he and three others had killed the previous day at the head of Napas River. A similar carcass was brought down the same day by other parties, living in the same direction, we believe.

CHIMNEY CLEANING.—Chimney cleaning has long been one of the lost arts of St. John; though lots of men during hard times might have made a good living by it. All that is required for the work, in most cases, is a long pipe and some brush at the end of it. The same remarks would also apply to Chatham, where letting chimneys burn themselves out, is particularly undesirable.

GRUBBING ACCIDENT.—On Christmas day as a lad of 16, Mr. John Brock of Bay St. Lawrence, and his brother, were out shooting rabbits at Napas, on firing a gun, the muzzle of the gun burst and shattered the lad's left hand taking off part of the third finger. He went to the Hotel Dieu, has since being treated well, and will probably retain the use of the injured hand.

ACCIDENT.—On the afternoon of the 24th ult., a serious accident befell a young son of Mr. Joseph Jackson of Napas, while cutting wood with his brother, behind the door of their father's house. While one was aiming a blow at some wood, he struck his brother with the axe just above the hip bone on the left side, making a wide and deep wound, from which however, no very serious consequences are anticipated.

DEATH FROM A TEAR OF HAY.—On Thursday last, as Mr. John McLaughlin, in the employ of the Hon. Wm. Muirhead, was returning to the lumber camp, on a load of hay, after spending Christmas in town, when in the vicinity of the Northwest Bridge, he suddenly lost his balance and fell from the load. Mr. McLaughlin called out to the driver of the team to stop, but before he could do so, one of the hind wheels of the wagon had passed over the small of his back. The load on the wagon weighed about 22 cwt., it was thought Mr. McLaughlin was seriously hurt, and he was at once brought to town, but on medical aid being sent in it was found that no bones were broken although severe contusions of the spine had been sustained. The patient has since been doing well.

RECOVERY.—By advertisement in another column, it will be seen that J. W. Bengough, Esq., the leading Humorist of Canada, is to deliver one of his very attractive lectures in Masonic Hall, Chatham, on the evening of Thursday 17th inst. The following extracts will convey an idea of the attractiveness of Mr. Bengough's entertainments.

RECOVERY.—The very large audience which assembled in Shaftesbury Hall last night to listen to Canada's cartoonist, and to witness the recitations of his verses, calls them into life, amply testified by the appreciation and delight which they repeatedly expressed. Mr. Bengough is growing in popularity. His recitations are full of delicate and innocent wit, alternated with the most brilliant and pointed popular follies, and choice bits of sound common sense. The caricatures of well-known political and municipal characters as usual afforded material for abundant merriment, as did the lecturer's vocal caricatures of the average operatic singer. Altogether both Mr. Bengough and his audience should feel well satisfied.—Toronto Globe, Dec. 29, 1877.

The first match of the season is to come off on Monday next, between the firming 15 and 16 challenge affair for "beef and greens" between five native Scotchmen and five Canadians. Play is to commence at two o'clock p. m. and last until half past four.

The New Year in the Churches. ST. MARY'S CHURCH.—A special service was held in St. Mary's Church on New Year's Eve, when a sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. McKewen. A day service was held in the morning at 11 o'clock, when the Rev. Mr. McKewen preached and celebrated Holy Communion.

THE METHODIST CHURCH.—On New Year's Eve a night service was held in the Methodist Church, commencing at 10.30 a good congregation being present. The Rev. Mr. McKewen opened the meeting with prayer after which the Rev. Mr. Smith of the Presbyterian Episcopal Church, read the lesson and afterwards delivered an appropriate address from Matthew 26th chap., 45th verse, "Sleep on now and take your rest" and was followed on the same subject by the Rev. Mr. McKewen.

After silent prayer, the meeting closed after mid-night with singing and benediction. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.—At the Roman Catholic Church the usual early morning service was held, and at 10.30 a supplementary discourse by the Rev. Mr. McLean. There was a good congregation present.

NEW YEAR'S DAY AT BLACK RIVER.—New Year's Day at Black River passed off in a sober and pleasant manner. A service was held in the Presbyterian Church at New Year's Eve by the Rev. John Fitzpatrick. The first masquerade to arrive were numbers of children, many of whom were very well got up, and after they had been on the ice some time the older masqueraders began to appear. All the dresses were, necessarily, got up without any help from costumers, but some of them were really handsome and showed a great deal of work in their composition. It would perhaps be invidious to particularise when there were many deserving of praise, therefore we leave criticism to those more particularly interested. The list of masqueraders is as follows:—

LADIES. Miss Jessie Johnston, Gipsy Countess. Annie Shirreff. Annie Thomson, Weawaka. Loggie, Gipsy Countess. Mary Johnston, Goddess of Liberty. McLean, Old Woman. Jennie Shirreff, Gipsy Fortune-teller. Ada Johnson, Night. Lala Smith, Italian Flower Girl. Nina Benson, Red Riding Hood. Nellie Benson, Old Woman. Ethel Benson, Fishwoman. Fanny Gillespie, Snowflake. Sadie Gillespie, Grandmother Small-weed. Fanny Blair, Red Riding Hood.

GENTLEMEN. Donald Loggie, Parakey Swell. Peter Loggie, Clown. A. A. Bartlett, Sitting Bull. A. G. Ridling, Winter. Ed. Johnson, Devil. A. J. Loggie, Sailor. Alex. Loggie, Chairman. H. A. Allison, Gipsy Woman. Dr. Clark, Night and Day. J. W. Fraser. A. S. Ullock, Joe Jonathan. Thos. Ullock, Jockey. Jas. Johnston. R. Fairry, Neatitan Brigand. Wm. Johnston. Miller, Snow Shoe Costume. Geo. Johnston, Cricketer. W. T. Carman, Sailor. Geo. Letson, Darkey. Jas. Patterson. Geo. Johnston. Thos. Griffin, Man of War Sailor. Willie Shirreff, Sailor. Ernest Blair, Cricketer. Ernest McKay, Book Agent. Chas. Kelly, Santa Claus. Ernest Murray, Highlander. Chas. Blair, Sailor. Stafford Benson, Night and Day. Willie Gillespie, Mishipimian Easy.

On the evening of New Year's day the Datcher Reformers gave their special entertainment as announced. The band of the 73rd Batt. under Mr. John Templeton had kindly volunteered their services, and the Rev. Presbiter took his seat entertained the audience with a variety of airs.

The President, D. Davidson Esq., occupied the chair and was supported by the Vice President, L. J. Tweedie, Esq. M. P.

After prayer by the Chaplain, Mr. R. Gordon, the Choir gave the "Carnival" which was received with applause.

An address was next given by the Rev. Mr. McKewen in which he dwelt upon the being truly a Happy New Year to many, and stated that even the leading instrumental music in Chatham acknowledged the benefit which had resulted from the Datcher movement.

The chairman called for signatures to the pledge, which was numerously received, to both the choir and the band occupying the interval with vocal and instrumental music. "Friends the heart cannot forget," was next given by Mrs. Nicol and received an encore, after which Master Alexander Templeton gave a recitation "The practical Joker," and responded to an encore with "Love and the Lions."

Wm. Smith sang a comic song "Think of your head in the morning" and responded to an encore with "Whiskey John, My Jo John."

Mr. Tait of Black Brook gave a reading, "The Cotten's Saturday Night," which though well read, proved somewhat tedious for the audience.

J. H. Coggin, Esq., delivered an address in which he spoke of his own past experience, and exhorted those who had signed the pledge to persevere. He was followed by a song, "The Streets of the City" by Miss Bonnie McKewen, who responded to an encore with "Dash it down."

Master Ernest Murray then gave a recitation, "The two ways," which elicited much applause, after which Miss Jessie Templeton sang "Then you'll remember me," and responded to an encore with "Lock O' Hazeldean."

John Shirreff, Esq., then delivered a short address, speaking as a moderate drinker in the past, and urging that had been done by the society, viewed that delegates should be appointed to visit different localities and extend the movement.

Five young ladies, Misses Barbara Wood, Jennie Shirreff, Gerrie Haviland, Elsie Loudon and Annie Davidson, next gave a humorous song, entitled, "The Fox," which received an encore; this was followed by a temperance reading "A document found in a garret," by Miss Marion Thompson.

Signers to the pledge were again invited to come forward, the Band and Choir occupying the interval.

Vice President, L. J. Tweedie Esq., gave the closing address, reading "A document found in a garret," by Miss Marion Thompson.

Signers to the pledge were again invited to come forward, the Band and Choir occupying the interval.

cause from conscientious motives, and if the choice was between temperance and politics, he was ready to throw the next election aside, if it were required. He had been honestly convinced and changed his mind accordingly, and he exhorted all to join hands and hands in promoting the cause. He then requested all the pledges to stand up and afterwards those who had not, the latter shewing a very small minority.

An address was now delivered by Mr. W. S. Loggie on the importance of keeping the pledge, which was followed by a song by Mr. L. Deabrisay and Mr. H. Patterson. "The Contraband," the former gentleman responding to the encore with "My Native Home."

"A cheap dinner" was given by Master A. Patterson, and well received.

Mr. John Galloway, of Napas, next delivered an address, showing the safety there was in the temperance cause, and urging that the present prosperous movement should take along with it that pioneer of the cause, the old Northumberland Division, and the Young Men's Christian Association of Chatham.

Signers of the Pledge were again called for, the Band playing in the interval. A Duet, "The Lark and the Wren" was next given by Messrs. Jas. Nicol and H. Patterson.

The Vice President said he had been requested by the Executive Committee to state that a communication had been received from the Rev. Mr. Foggo of Tabasco, asking that a deputation be sent to visit that place for the purpose of promoting the cause of the Young Men's Christian Association (Messrs. William Johnston and John McLaughlin were subsequently appointed to respond to the call). He would also remind them that next week, being the Week of Prayer, there would be no further public meetings of the Datcher Reformers of Chatham, till Tuesday the 15th. He would also ask the Officers and members to attend on Thursday evening at Newcastle, as far as possible, for the purpose of forming an association there, and in conclusion returned thanks to the audience, and the band for their attendance.

During the evening some 50 persons signed the pledge. After the Doroxy had been sung by the choir, the proceedings concluded with the National Anthem by the band.

THE OFFICE BEARERS ESTABLISHED.—After the meeting Mr. William Johnston of the Canada House, entertained the office-bearers of the Association and some others, to the number of 30, at supper.

Others having been said by the Rev. Mr. McKewen, an excellent supper was enjoyed, after which short speeches were made by various gentlemen present, expressive of their sense of the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, which they had all so much enjoyed, and of good wishes for their future prosperity.

WE SAY.—We say that the hall is a very fine one, reflecting great credit upon the building committee, and especially upon Messrs. Brander and Nicholson, to whose taste and perseverance, its architectural success and timely completion are largely due.

DEATH OF POLICE CONSTABLE BULLOCK.—Mr. John Bulluck, Police Constable, who has been connected with the Chatham Police for some time, died about noon on Friday evening, of a fever which he had contracted on his duty. He was 40 years of age, and was married, and had a family of five children.

At seven o'clock the same morning Dr. Joseph Benson was called in, and found him vomiting with considerable violence, and in a dangerous condition. He remained in bed until one o'clock on Sunday morning, when he commenced to vomit blood, which in spite of all the remedies that could be applied continued until his death at the time stated. The funeral took place on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, and was very largely attended, and was solemnly and respectfully conducted. The body was interred in the Roman Catholic Cemetery. The deceased was about 45 years of age and leaves a wife and five children.

THE DUTCH REFORMERS IN HARDWICK. Bay du Vin, Christmas Day, 1877. To the Editor of the Miramichi Advance. Dear Sir.—A meeting to organize a Datcher Reform Temperance Society was held at Hardwick, in the Village School House—as stated in a previous issue of your paper—on Saturday, the 15th of December. Mr. Daniel Lewis acted as chairman, and songs were given by Misses Maggie Weston, William Johnston, Miss Hanson, of Fredericton, and Mr. Thomas McMaster. The Chairman read the Rules of the Society and the Pledge, and he called upon all who had the cause at heart to step to the front and sign the pledge. After this was done the election of officers was gone into, and part of the officers were chosen, the rest to be elected at the next meeting. The choir then sang "All people that on earth do dwell," and the meeting adjourned.

THE MEETING ON CHRISTMAS EVE. At seven o'clock the Chairman, Alexander Mills, Esq., called the meeting to order, the choir sang an opening ode, "Friends of Temperance welcome here," and the chaplain said the Lord's Prayer.

The Rev. Mr. Thomas then delivered an able and spirited address. I am not Mr. Editor, going to detract in any way from your able temperance lectures of Chatham, but I have attended two of the Datcher meetings at Chatham, and have not heard there, any speech that could come up to that of Mr. Thomas in Hardwick on Christmas Eve.

The Rev. Mr. Williams then addressed the meeting. Mr. Williams and others then sang "The Home-Coming," Miss Maggie Noble then sang "Dare to be a Datcher."

The Chaplain, Mr. Anthony, addressed the meeting, and was followed by a song by Thomas McMaster and Maggie Noble.

Dear Sir.—On behalf of the teachers and scholars of St. Andrew's Church School, we wish to thank you sincerely for the many courtesies you have taken in promoting our welfare.

By your sympathy with every thing connected with our Church, and your Christian zeal in carrying on its work, you have endeared yourself to every member, and have worked for us so carefully and anxiously, in stirring us up to our duties as St. S. Scholars.

We trust you will accept the accompanying New Year's Greetings, though thinking in itself we hope it will ever serve to remind you of our regard and esteem. Chatham, New Year's Day 1878.

The Rev. gentlemen briefly replied, saying he was much touched by the manner in which they had evinced their sympathy with him. For himself he felt almost guilty, that they should have presented him with such a testimonial, seeing how short his connection with them had been, and how undeserving he was of such a token, for which he felt very grateful. He trusted that the coming year, would be even a more pleasant one to them than the past. They had tried to make that a happy New Year for him, and he cordially wished it might prove the same to them.

The election of those officers not previously chosen, was then proceeded with, and the complete list was as follows: President, Alex. Mills, Esq. Vice Presidents, James Grogan, J. B. Williston, and James McLean. Secretary, A. G. Williston. Assistant Secretary, Daniel Lewis. Treasurer, Jonathan Noble. Chaplain, Charles Anthony. Marshall, Alexander Wilson. Executive Committee, Mrs. Daniel Lewis, the Misses Maggie and Mary Jane Noble, Grace W., and Mary Weston Mills, Maggie Weston, Williston, Maggie McLean, Barbara Sargent and Mary Jane Carroll, Mr. Thos. McMaster, John Lewis Senr., and John Williston. Visiting Committee, Mrs. Stephen White, the Misses Maggie Weston Williston, Mary Jane Carroll, Janet McLean, Ellen T. Lewis, and Eliza McLean, Mr. John James, and Jonathan Noble, Charles Anthony, Thos. McMaster, Daniel Lewis, Senr., and A. G. Williston.

After all the officers were elected, or as they may be thought sufficient to keep the Society in good working order, Thos. McMaster and Maggie W. Williston sang "The little log cabin in the winter," and the choir sang "Rescue the perishing." Mr. David Sailer of Chatham, then addressed the meeting, followed by A. G. Williston. The choir then sang "Hold Fast." And J. A. Williston, in his address, addressed the meeting in the audience called for "God Save the Queen," which was sung by all present. The Rev. Mr. Thomas pronounced the benediction, and the meeting adjourned to meet again on Friday, Jan. 11, at 6 o'clock, when the friends of the cause are respectively invited to attend.

The Datcher Society is working wonders in Hardwick. The whole people have taken hold of the movement. The meeting on Christmas Eve was the largest that I have ever seen in Hardwick, either publicly or for other objects. I am thinking the candidate will have to decline in favor of prohibition at the next election, or he will not poll a large vote in Hardwick, if the temperance cause goes on increasing in popularity as it has done lately. I am late, Mr. Editor, in wishing you a happy New Year, but I am sure that you will be able to get along in time for your next issue. Whether it does or not allow me to express a wish that the new year will be a pleasant one for them all.

Before another year passes it is most likely that our County will have to go through the turmoil and the annoyances of two General Elections. It is to be hoped that those who interest themselves in the subject will guard well their words, and treat those they have to differ with in a gentlemanly manner. This year, however, making forecasts of the weather has been wonderful, an erroneous prognostication being rare indeed. We find that for the early winter he says—"The second cold snap will arrive towards the latter part of November or the early portion of December and water will be open for some time, but it will be of short duration, giving place to heavy rains and snow falls with open weather. A third cold spell will probably enter with or close upon the entry of February and this I am inclined to sketch as more protracted than the preceding one. It will moderate to some heavy snow falls rather than rain."

Besides the weather predictions, there are explanations of phenomena by which the weather may pretty accurately be predicted for short periods in advance, and these, with a large quantity of useful information, are given in the "Weather Almanac" for 1877-1878 by the Publisher. The success of the author, heretofore, in making forecasts of the weather has been wonderful, an erroneous prognostication being rare indeed. We find that for the early winter he says—"The second cold snap will arrive towards the latter part of November or the early portion of December and water will be open for some time, but it will be of short duration, giving place to heavy rains and snow falls with open weather. Six to eight applications cure ANY CASE OF EXCORIATED NIPPLES OR EXPOSED BREASTS. One bottle has cured LAMB BACK of eight years' standing. Daniel Plank, of Brookfield, Toga County, Pa., says: "I went thirty miles for a bottle of your Oil, which effected a WONDERFUL CURE of a CROOKED NECK known to me for years. I have had ASHTONIA for years, says: 'I have half of a 50 cent bottle left, and 100 would not buy it if I could get no more.' Rufus Robinson, of Nunda, N. Y., writes: 'One small bottle of your Electric Oil cured me of BRONCHITIS in one week.' It is composed of SIX OF THE BEST OILS THAT ARE KNOWN. It is as good for internal as for external use, and is believed to be immeasurably superior to anything ever made. It will save you much suffering and many dollars of expense. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. See that the signature of Dr. J. C. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the names of Northrop & Lyman are blown in the bottle, and take no other. ried at St. N. 1. and then answers it himself to suit his own purpose. I consider it would be a difficult question for him to answer correctly. I do not deny that there are a great many people on Hudson doing business with me whom I accommodate by ferrying. I make no difference, however, with those who let themselves deal with whom they will. There are a great many persons ferried here who are dealing with "John L. Scofield" and living on the north side of Renous. They often come for a passage over in order to carry by the Hogan Road, instead of crossing on St. N. 1, and going across by the road to Fairley's, which he says is possible and untripped.

He says my arguments are flimsy, but I state they are facts, and for his benefit I append Mr. Wheelan's statement. I remain yours truly, DANIEL McLAUGHLIN.

STATEMENT OF MR. WM. WHELAN. Renous River, Dec. 31, 1877. I hereby certify to you my name in John L. Scofield's permit to use my name in any manner concerning the two bridge sites on Renous River, or ever having had any conversation with him concerning the bridge. I further assert I never asked him to sign a petition to bring No. 1. I never had any conversation with him concerning the length of the Renous River Settlement. I pronounce the statements of John L. Scofield concerning this matter absolute falsehoods, and I am willing to attest to the truth of what I say.

I would also certify to Mr. Scofield when writing to the Advocate or any other paper (although he may do his own writing) not to use my name without my authority. WILLIAM WHELAN.

Another Heavy Fire. There was another very heavy fire in St. John on Friday night last. Its location was among the business places on the south east side of Waterloo Street. Among the concerns wholly or partially burnt out were Crothers, Henderson, and Wilson, Carriage Manufacturers; Samuel Myers, Machinist; Wisdom and Fish, Mill Supplies; J. H. Valpey, Butch and Shoe Manufacturer; James Guthrie, Livery Stable; Robt. McAndrews, Jr., Groceries; John Wilson, Soap Manufacturer. A dozen or more besides the above suffered more or less loss.
