GOVERNMENT MEETING WAS A TAME AFFAIR

Enthusiasm at a Low Ebb and Both - Smith and Fleming Disappoint Their Friends

There is no denying that the government meeting in what the Press describes as "a little picture hall at Hartland" was well attended. Practically the whole town and immediate surrounding country turned out—men, women and children. Government and opposition parties were represented about equally. Curiosity to hear what the man with the most colossal gall on earth could have to say, and the rumor that H. M. Blair was to be at the meeting, did more than anything else to draw the crowd. Just before the hour of opening the atmosphere was tense with suppressed excitement. Speakers made hasty revision of notes, eliminating any reference whatever to certain exposures made by Blair, who was formerly secretary of B. F. Smith's department.

Mr. Blair has published affidavits and made such disclosures as would condemn any government, and no one seemingly can find anything to prove that all he alleges is not true. He came to Carleton county to try and get satisfaction for his personal spite against the government. He attended the meeting last Friday not for the purpose of speaking, yet willing, if given the opportunity, to repeat his story before the audience, and determined, so he stated, to defend himself if he were attacked. But no reference was made to the Blair disclosures. Each speaker made a wide detour around the subject. And so it will be wherever Blair goes—government speakers will not refer to the subject—not while Blair is around.

There was real humor in the situation on Friday evening. There, on the platform, sat J. K. Fleming, a premier who was compelled on the finding of a Royal Commission to resign; there he sat, cool, serene, pious and brazen. At the other end of the hall sat H. M. Blair who made the disclosure alleging Mr. Fleming had in one instance accepted $100,000 from A. R. Gould just previous to his last election, and who multiplied instances of graft and plunder on the part of the man Fleming.

There sat Fleming to be judged of the people; and there sat Blair who made disclosures of most heinous graft, his pockets bulging with documentary evidence to back up his allegations. But Fleming ignored the damaging charges against him. He will never attempt to defend himself from Blair, while Blair is around.

The meeting was quiet and orderly, and each speaker got a good hearing. There was nothing startling. There was not the uproarious applause or the "boundless enthusiasm" customary at Tory meetings. The event lacked ed flavor, like porridge which the cook has neglected to salt.

B. F. Smith made a heroic defence of his patriotic potato business. He told the people that Hartland was a real nice little burg and its people awfully charming. He patted Fleming and the other speakers on the shoulders, and they in turn patted him. And all cajoled the audience with soft soder.

Mr. Smith did not repeat what he said in Westmorland county—that "Fleming did very wrong, but the government has cleaned house." He did not explain why he and not Fleming held the Federal government patronage.

Last Friday's meeting was rather a tame affair. Smith's best friends do not entirely trust him; and Fleming's best friends thought that he should have answered the man Blair—the man who claims to have evidence to prove that Fleming, while Hartland was his home town, did on a certain occasion just previous to his last election, received from A. R. Gould a gift of $100,000 "for election purposes." Fleming's best friends felt that while the man who made such a charge was in his hearing he should have made his slanderer swallow his words. But Fleming didn't mention the matter. His friends are disappointed.

The Blair affidavits and charges against J. K. Fleming still stand—unchallenged.

It Answers Itself

On the editorial page of the Standard this morning it is asserted:—

"That Frank B. Carvell and George W. Kye were responsible for the launching of the most disgraceful set of charges ever made against a public man in Canada."

"That these charges were promoted at Ottawa, at the height of the empire crisis, and their sole purpose was to destroy and undermine public confidence in the minister and in the government whose every effort was directed to making it certain that Canada would bear her full share in the Empire struggle."

"That after the fullest and most wide open inquiry, before a commission of eminent judges, the verdict was reached that as they affected the government or the minister of militia the charges were unfounded."

On the first page of the Standard we find the following:—"Ottawa, Sept. 8—Militia orders today contain the formal notice that the name of Hon. Col. J. Wesley Allison has been removed from the list of officers of the Canadian militia."

Mr. J. Wesley Allison was the "guide, counsellor and friend" of Sir Sam Hughes. Sir Sam declared he had more confidence in Allison than in the auditor-general of Canada. The Standard may try to brazen it out, but the investigation of the Kye charges shattered public confidence in the Borden government. Mr. J. Wesley Allison was not the only sinner.—St. John Times.

SMITH DISCHARGES A CLERK

Indignation in Fredericton Over the Case of Miss Hazel Palmer

Miss Hazel Palmer of Fredericton for five years an employee of the Provincial Public Works Department and recently in charge of the registration of automobiles, has been summarily dismissed by order of Hon. B. Frank Smith. On Tuesday Miss Palmer returned after her vacation and, on reporting for duty at the office, was informed that her services were no longer required. She sought out Mr. Smith and asked an explanation, but none was forthcoming. Later she saw Premier Clarke, who described her case as "unfortunate," and intimated that the government might possibly do something for her at its October meeting. He would not even give assurance that her salary for September would be forthcoming in lieu of notice.

Miss Palmer is a daughter of the late John Palmer, who for years conducted a manufacturing industry. He met with financial reverses and since his death Miss Palmer has been the principal support of her widowed mother. Her summary dismissal has caused much indignation and people are at a loss to discover a cause for it. The only reason advanced is that Miss Palmer was kindly treated by Hon. John Morrissey and former Secretary Blair and might be disposed to furnish them with information about the workings of the department under the administration of B. Frank Smith. On one occasion she went motor-ing with Mr. and Mrs. Blair and this is said to have been advanced as a reason why she should be got rid of.

Since Blair's dismissal members of the government have been constantly on the anxious seat. Their first measure of precaution was to change the locks on the doors leading to the public works office and to alter the combination of the vault. The dismissal of Miss Palmer may have been in the nature of a further precautionary measure.

Alfred Flewelling

Alfred Flewelling, who had been ill for some time with tuberculosis, died at Bridgewater, Maine, aged 35 years. He was a son of Rev. J. E. Flewelling, of Canterbury, and is survived by the widow and two children. The interment took place at Centreville, on Tuesday, in the cemetery where his mother was buried some years ago. The services were conducted by Rev. H. F. Rigby. The pall bearers were his three brothers, John M., of St. Stephen; Charles, of Mars Hill; Stirling, of Caribou, and his wife's brother, Mr. Prior, of Bridgewater. His aunt, Mrs. (Dr.) Main and friends from Houlton, who were present at the burial, furnished fragrant flowers.

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life.

Vol. VIII. SEPT. 13, 1916 No. 14

CARLETON COUNTY

The Standard this morning devoted nearly two columns of editorial space to a statement of reasons why the people of Carleton county should endorse the government which has taken J. K. Fleming and his works to its heart of hearts. The reasons, in the order in which they were dealt with by the Standard, were F. B. Carvell and H. M. Blair. And twice as much space was devoted to Mr. Blair as to Mr. Carvell.

The object of the Standard is plain, it desires to divert attention from the real issues in the campaign. It is afraid of the truth. The government's record is too shameful.

P. S. Veniot spread part of the record before a Glassville audience last evening, and when he had finished friends of Hon. Dr. Landry, if there were any in the audience, must have wished that they, too, could get the people to think about Mr. Carvell, or Mr. Blair, or anything else on earth except the record of Dr. Landry, and his associates.

The issue in Carleton county is clear enough. It is a choice between political honor and dishonor—between duty and dollars.

The appeal sent by opposition leaders in the county to all the ministers of the gospel, directing their attention to the offer of an agreement and arrangement with the government party to prevent the use of rum and money, and urging that they use their influence to secure such an agreement does not appear to have to have met with a universal response; but some ministers have been very outspoken, and it cannot be doubted that although Hon. B. Frank Smith has openly flouted the proposition the action taken by the opposition will commend itself to the people. It may further be hoped that the opposition will not fail to secure evidence which will enable the courts to deal promptly and severely with every man who attempts to bribe an elector.

The campaign goes well for the opposition. They ought to win. The people of other constituencies look to the people of Carleton county to declare for better government, and will be keenly disappointed if that fine county should fail to follow the example of Westmorland.—St. John Times.

The Standard gravely asks the people of Carleton county to "manifest their appreciation of the signal honor conferred upon the county in the selection of Hon. B. Frank Smith for the important office of Minister of Public Works, in which he heads the largest spending department in the administration." This appeal was first made to the people of Westmorland county, but they could not be bribed with a portfolio. It was then hawked about the province from St. John to Restigouche, but found no takers until Hon. B. Frank Smith consented to dangle it before the eyes of his constituents. We shall soon know whether they are any less discerning than the people of Westmorland.—Times.

PRICES FOR PRINTING ARE GOING UP

All Paper Stock Has Increased in Price 50 to 150 per cent

Since the beginning of the war all the materials used in paper making have increased 50 to 5000 per cent. No commodity in every day use has advanced in price so much as paper of all kinds, particularly the cheaper grades. The Observer purchases from the largest mills and manufacturers in Canada and we are the heaviest users of job stock north of Fredericton. This fact compels our most careful attention to the markets and the manager is continually studying the situation. Last May he visited the leading manufactures in Montreal and Toronto and in every case was told that no prices could be quoted except for the day and they could guarantee only such quantities as were then in stock. We bought the entire stock of blue-lined envelopes of the largest factory in Canada, the manager of which informed us that we then had a "corner" on that line of goods as he knew not where to get material for making more. It was the same with shipping tags and numerous other lines.

In March The Observer set the type for printing a new edition of its Price List of Stationery and before the work could be completed we were compelled to advance the prices, and since then conditions have so changed that we, like the manufactures, can quote prices only for immediate acceptance.

Here is the way some of the regular lines we use have advanced:

M. F. Book paper from 4½ to 10½c.

S. C. Book paper from 5½ to 11c. Progress bond from 8 to 16c in white and 18c in colors.

Ruled forms, billheads, etc., 30 per cent increase.

Envelopes, 50 per cent increase.

Tags, 50 per cent increase.

Cardboards, 100 per cent increase.

And all through the long list of items used in printing is the increase similar.

Fortunately for our customers we can fill most orders including all kinds of office stationery, at only 10 per cent more than the prices charged two years ago. But prices are steadily advancing. Customers will do well to order now for future needs.

The most modern presses, latest type faces and intimate knowledge of the printing art fits The Observer printing office for turning out the best of work. We handle a greater number of commercial jobs than all other offices in the county combined.

Carleton County Campaign

The government party in Carleton county appears to have grown not only desperate but foolish. Some of the choice spirits broke into the opposition rooms in Woodstock on Saturday night and destroyed some property, paying particular attention to campaign posters setting forth in brief the record of the government and some of its members. The law-abiding people of the constituency will not regard this incident as an evidence that the men in whose behalf the act of vandalism was committed are the men to be elected as lawmakers. Acts of this sort always recoil on the party responsible for them. The campaign is certainly warming up.

H. M. Blair attended a meeting at Debec on Saturday night, and in response to a call from the audience discussed the charges made against himself, and the matter of his dismissal. Then he proceeded to contrast the government's treatment of him with its treatment of Mr. Fleming. That was a striking contrast. Mr. Blair, who says he accepted some stock from a company of which he expected to become manager, has been dismissed in disgrace. Mr. Fleming, who took "by compulsion" $2,000 from a railroad contractor, and was not only aware of but for a time custodian of the fund of $70,000 gathered from the lumber operators, is paraded on the public platform by members of the government as a man who ought to be made premier again. Why should Blair be condemned and Fleming exalted? Every elector in the province is asking that question.

But Mr. Blair made a definite charge which will bear looking into. It is that answers to questions asked in the legislature, after being prepared in the public works department, were altered by another member of the government before being presented to the house. This is a serious charge, and ought to be answered. Mr. Blair is striking back, and striking hard. That is his privilege and his right. The government party cannot answer his charges with mere abuse.

The St. John Standard is doing what its limited capacity will permit to elevate the tone of political discussion. Today, with due gravity and a keen sense of its responsibility as a public journal, it says:—

"Thus it can be seen that despite the yawp and yammer of the Canterbury street journalistic wind-instruments who would have the people believe that the electors of Carleton intended rising up in their might to vote for the Carvellian puppets, Messrs. Upham and McCain, the people of Carleton who have previously been oppositionists are returning from the old party in disgust at the new methods. If Messrs. Carvell and Carter and the Telegraph keep at it long enough there will be no necessity of a contest after all. We may expect to see George Washington Upham and Andy McCain themselves straggling into camp."

No doubt these are weighty words and will carry conviction.—Times.

Brother Killed in Action

Through a clipping from a Scotch paper Mrs. Harry Howells this week learned of the death of her brother in France which doing battle for his King and country. The paper says: "Mr. and Mrs. James Gillies, Rueglass, Arrochar, have just received intimation that one of their sons, Pte. Malcolm Gillies, of the Gordons, has been killed in action."

The deceased, who was a native of Arrochar, was one of four brothers with the colors, all serving in the Gordons. He was nineteen years of age, and prior to enlisting was a postman at Arrochar. He was wounded earlier in the campaign.

One of his brothers was present at the burial in France."

AN OUTSIDE VIEW OF CARLETON COUNTY

(Montreal Herald)

New Brunswick is once more stirred up over a by-election. The government is anxious to get a new minister of public works elected. One attempt has already been made to do so, when the constituency of Westmorland was contested, but on that occasion the government candidate sustained an overwhelming defeat. This time the Hon. B. F. Smith is being presented as the new minister to the electors of Carleton county. Carleton is represented by a Conservative in the provincial legislature, but by a Liberal at Ottawa, namely, F. B. Carvell. The fact that Mr. Carvell was elected by a majority of only 11 votes shows how evenly the forces are divided in the constituency. Mr. Carvell's opponent on that occasion was the gentleman who is now seeking the approbation of the electors as minister of public works for the province.

The two principal features of the Conservative campaign are a venomous attack on Mr. Carvell, who was mainly instrumental in securing the graft exposures that put Mr. Flemming out of the office of premier, and the re-appearance of Mr. Flemming as a force in provincial politics. Thus the real issue which is being tried out in the Carleton by-election is not so much whether Mr. Smith shall be the new minister of public works, but whether the public will consent to Mr. Flemming's being given a place once more in the Conservative forces. Mr. Flemming has already taken to the platform, and that he has the blessing of the provincial government has been made plain by the Hon. James A. Murray, who, speaking at Woodstock a few days ago, said that he rejoiced with thousands of friends throughout the province that Providence had restored in a measure, the health of Hon. J. K. Flemming, one of the brightest minds of the province, a man who has done much for the up-building of New Brunswick. He felt sure that Mr. Flemming would soon be in a position to deal in a proper way with Frank Carvell and the others who had conducted such a miserable campaign against Mr. Flemming while the premier was fighting for his life.

As the Times and Star, of St. John (N. B.), says, Mr. Murray apparently reserved until a later date the expression of any pious wish he may have entertained for the restoration of that $2,000 taken "by compulsion" from a railway contractor, or that $70,000 or more which was gathered in from the lumbermen. Needless to say, Mr. Carvell is not taking things lying down. He realizes that in this election the Conservatives are trying to kill two birds with one stone—to get in a Conservative minister of public works calculated to undermine Mr. Carvell's influence in the constituency, and at the same time to introduce Mr. Flemming as the Conservative candidate who will contest Mr. Carvell's seat at the next federal election. The guilty ex-premier of New Brunswick has already been nominated as the federal candidate.

Indigestion Resulted From Bad Case of Inactive Liver

Experience Proved That Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills Were Exactly What Was Needed.

If every sufferer from indigestion would study this case as did the writer of this letter, the great majority would find singular action of the liver and bowels to be the cause of trouble. It is then an easy step to finding a cure, for there is nothing like Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to awaken the action of the liver, kidneys and bowels. With these organs performing their natural functions the fermenting food matter and the poisonous waste matter and the proptitious waste matter are no longer in the system. I got to using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and was so improved that I began to study the Indigestion. I found that the Indigestion resulted from a bad case of inactive liver, and as soon as I got the liver working right, I didn't have any stomach trouble or indigestion, the nervous spells vanished and the "blues" flew away. I am now a healthy man, but should the old trouble return, I know how to cure it quickly. There is a whole host of diseases which disappear when the liver is set right. Biliousness, indigestion, headache, irritability, constipation, are a few of the more common results of torpid liver action. By the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills you can control all such diseases. One pill a dose, 25 cents a bottle. Dealers or Edmondson, Boston, Mass.

WHY CONSCRIPTION?

Because too many married men are enlisting while the single men are allowed to stay at home.

The expense to the country under this method is enormous, as the married man costs the country about $37.00 per month more than the single man.

It has been stated that as far back as the first of 1916, the Government was spending at the rate of $1,000,000 per month in separation money alone (this to the families of married men).

In addition to this, the Patriotic Fund was paying over a half million per month more, or a total of over $30,000,000 per year for married men, many of whom will of necessity leave dependents on the Pension Fund.

This would all be avoided if the young, single men were enrolled and ready for service when called upon.

The tremendous expense mentioned above is bound to keep on increasing under the present voluntary system, and soon the immense chasm between income and expenditure will be bound to be felt, while much of this could be avoided with reasonable organization of a qualified form of Conscription whereby the right one would go, and the right one remain.

Naming the Aegean Sea.

The Aegean sea is remarkable among the seas of the world for the obscurity in which the origin of its name is involved. Even the ancients could not give a certain answer on the point. A popular view was that it was named after Aegeus, the father of Theseus, who threw himself into it when his son forgot to hoist the white sail upon his return from Crete as a signal that he had slain the Minotaur. But others derived the name from Aegae, a queen of the Amazons, who also perished in this sea; others from the town of Aegae, in Euboea (Negropont), and a fourth theory traced it to the word "aigae," goats, which the islands of the archipelago were fancifully thought to resemble.

First Test of the Air Pump. The first public test of the air pump was in 1854, by its inventor, Otto von Guericke, in the presence of Emperor Ferdinand of Germany.

Guericke applied the carefully ground edges of metallic hemispheres, two feet in diameter, to each other. After exhausting the air by his apparatus he attached fifteen horses to each hemisphere. In vain did they attempt to separate them because of the enormous pressure of the atmosphere. The experiment was a great success.

Turn About. She—I don't see why you are always telling me of the blaisuits your mother used to make. He—Well, so far as that goes, I don't see why you are always telling me about the dollars your father used to make.

Contradictory. "Brevity is the soul of wit," observed the sage. "Maybe," replied the fool, "but I never feel very witty when I am short."

Helping Nature. "You can't improve on nature." "That may be," said the druggist, "but you'd be surprised at the amount of complexion dope we sell."

A JOYFUL RECONCILIATION

There is always joy in reconciliation, and the glad embrace in which the Fredericton Gleaner has now clasped the Hon. B. Frank Smith thrills us all with sympathetic fervor. Everybody felt that they would never be estranged, they had so much in common in their views of public responsibility, public duty and private thrift. It was therefore a cause for profound regret when the Gleaner one day rather roughly told Mr. Smith that he had caused the party trouble enough. Later, after Mr. Smith had gone to Westmorland county to perform a great task, and he had failed, the Gleaner icily observed that the government party required the services of "bigger and broader men." The rupture appeared to be complete, and a perturbed people shivered at what might befall the province if the two insisted on smashing each other's windows.

There can be no doubt we owe it to J. K. Fleming, whose persuasive powers are so well known, that the reconciliation has come about. It is, moreover, a striking illustration of the peacemaker's fine spirit of forgiveness, after what Mr. Smith said about him in Westmorland county. Give him credit for that. We can only surmise, of course, what Mr. Fleming said to Mr. Smith, and what he said to the Gleaner, but it is safe to assume that he reminded both of the joyous days when the three of them labored together for the moral uplift of the legislators of the province; and how others outside of the legislature rose to the bait and were also lifted up as with a peavie—sometimes also known as a cant-dog. Cant is a very good word in this connection. At all events Mr. Fleming prevailed, and the dauntless three are once more confronting the cohorts of evil, resolved to carry the standard of purity down the Houlton road and through the potato fields to the Indian Reserve, and the haunts of railroad contractors and the lumber operators. It is a moving spectacle.—St. John Times.

Distribution of Seed Grain and Potatoes from the Dominion Experimental Farms, 1916-17

By instructions of the Hon. Minister of Agriculture a distribution of superior sorts of grain and potatoes will be made during the coming winter and spring to Canadian farmers. The samples for general distribution will consist of spring wheat (about 5 lbs.), and wild oats (about 4 lbs.), barley (about 5 lbs.), and field peas about 5 lbs.). These will be sent out from Ottawa. A distribution of potatoes in samples of about 3 lbs. will be carried on from several of the experimental farms, the Central Farm at Ottawa supplying only the provinces of Ontario and Quebec. All samples will be sent free by mail.

Only one sample of grain and one of potatoes can be sent to each farm. As the supply of seed is limited, farmers are advised to apply early. Requests received after the end of December will probably be too late.

Anyone desiring a sample should write (post free) to the Dominion Cerealists, Experimental Farm, Ottawa, for an application blank.

CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS

Defies the Frost King

King Winter is armed with countless millions of ice-hard snow-crystals, driven by the full force of winter winds; his destructive work is aided by rapid changes in temperature, which freeze tiny particles of water in the pores of unprotected woodwork, tearing the wood fibres apart as freezing water splits a wrought-iron pipe. In the course of a long Canadian winter he can cause irreparable damage to an unprotected silo, barn or home. He attacks in vain, however, the building protected with

B-H "ENGLISH" PAINT

The pure white lead (70%) and pure white zinc (30%) which it contains, serve as a thin but effective metallic armor-plate, defying all the forces of natural decay for many years.

The superiority of B-H "English" Paint is due both to the purity of its ingredients and to our special methods of manufacture. These produce a paint, which on account of its smoothness and marvellous fineness, spreads easily and penetrates far into the fibres of the wood.

Mr. Flemming's sympathy play to the gallery may fool some people, but let us hope their number is small. He is still the man who took the money "by compulsion" from a contractor and knew all about the hold-up of the lumbermen, being at the same time premier of New Brunswick.

Rev. S. A. Baker, pastor of the Reformed Baptist church at Fredericton and a former pastor of the Hartland church, has accepted a call to the Moncton church, and has accepted. Hon. Dr. Landry is in Carleton county vigorously assailing "Pugsley and Tweedie." What have they to do with the case? They are not members of the legislature. They are not candidates. If, as the Standard says, they have "perpetrated gigantic steals," why are they not prosecuted? The opposition is certainly not trying to shield them. The truth is that Dr. Landry and his friends are seeking to divert public attention from their own exploits, by attacking a government which was defeated eight years ago. Why does not Dr. Landry explain his remarks at Menramcook, when he admitted that Mr. Fleming had been guilty of wrong-doing and the government forced him to resign? He is now lauding Mr. Fleming to the skies. What is the explanation?

Had the Victoria County News any subscribers on this part of the map they would have been surprised to read in its last issue that "Mr. Franchette, since his appointment to Hartland parish has by his unflagging exertions succeeded in having a neat church edifice erected on the main street of that village, the congregation having previously worshipped in a hall." That work has really not yet commenced on the proposed church is surely not the fault of the rector, who has been fully as zealous as The News gives him credit for.

CHINESE PRINTING.

Queer Old Ancient Methods Are Still Used by Many Natives.

Chinese hold that the art of printing was discovered in China about fifty years before the Christian era. Until the discovery of the art of paper making, A. D. 95, they printed on silk or cloth cut in the form of leaves. The method employed to this day by many native Chinese printers is substantially as follows:

No printing press is used. The delicate nature of the Chinese paper will not admit of it. When the blocks are engraved, the paper is cut and the ink is ready one man with his brush prints a large number of sheets in a day. The block to be printed must be placed perfectly level and secured firmly. The printer has two brushes, one of them stiffer than the other, which he can hold in his hand and use at either end. He dips it into the ink and rubs the block with it, taking care not to moisten it too much or leave it too dry. If it were wetted too much the characters would be blurred; if too little they would not print.

When once the block is got into the proper condition he can print three or four impressions without dipping the brush into the ink again.

The second brush is used to rub over the paper with a small degree of pressure that it may take the impression. This it does easily, for, not being sized with alum, it receives the ink instantly it comes in contact with it.

It is only necessary that the brush should be passed over every part of the sheet with a greater or smaller degree of pressure and repeated in proportion as the printer finds there is more or less ink upon the block.

THREE RACIAL INSTINCTS.

One Reason, Perhaps, For the Interest Taken in Baseball.

How shall we explain the absorbing interest in baseball and football? In baseball we have a game combining three of the most deep seated racial instincts—the instinct to throw, to run and to strike. During untold periods of the life history of our race survival has come to him who could throw the straightest, run the swiftest and strike the hardest. To throw something at something is almost as natural for a boy as to breathe.

Throwing, batting, running, are no longer of any service in the conditions of mind, but they were the conditions of survival in the distant past. Baseball reinstates those ancient attitudes and brings a thrill of cherished memories. Any one who has ever held a bat in hand and assumed the expectant attitude of the batter knows the peculiar thrill which is explained only by recalling that his distant ancestors in just that attitude beat down with a real club many an opposing foe, whether man or beast, and those who held clubs in this position and struck hard quickly survived and transmitted this instinct.

The awkward throw of girls, like the left arm throw of boys, is widely known. The plays of girls reveal their own set of instincts recalling the habits of primitive. "We are the descendants of those men who could throw and those women who loved children."—From "The Psychology of Relaxation," by G. T. W. Patrick.

Luck. Luck is that which has made your successful neighbor what he is and has conspired to prevent you from becoming what you would like to be.

Luck is good or bad, according to whether you are contemplating your neighbor's success or accounting on your own failures.

Luck is a handy little thing to have around, for if it does not benefit you it at least affords you an objective kicking point. Also, the mere mention of its name relieves you of the necessity of making many embarrassing excuses. Luck is a barb which may prevent disaster from poaching on your domains, but if it does not do this it at least have the satisfaction of impaling upon it all reasons for your defeat.

Luck is perhaps more unlucky than you are.

East Indian Monkeys. A naturalist who has traveled in the East Indies says: "The effect on the monkeys of man's appearance is most interesting. The expression of their emotions is certainly almost human as they sit and stare at him, coughing and snarling with anger and contempt, drawing back their heads and throwing the hand before the face with a gesture of abhorrence and other movements indicative of shocked and outraged feelings. But predominant is the expression of absolute horror, which, coming from those we consider our still degraded cousins, is to our superiority very aggravating."

Wonderful! "Just think of it! A whole splendid dinner—soup, fish, entree, joint, with two vegetables, dessert and cheese—for a dime!"

"Wonderful! Where can you get such a dinner at such a price?"

"Nowhere; but just think of it!"—Exchange.

No Help. "Few actors are satisfied with their newspaper notices."

"Nor can they ever be. Of necessity the name of the actor must be printed in smaller type than the name of the newspaper."

In every part and corner of our life to lose oneself is to be a failure; to forget oneself is to be happy.—Stevenson.

THE STANDING OF BLAIR

The St. John Globe says:

The government party is giving place and prominence in the Carleton county campaign to Hon. J. K. Fleming, driven from office because of his connection with the timber limits and Valley Railroad scandals. The opposition party is giving place and prominence in campaign to H. M. Blair, formerly chief clerk in the Public Works department, dismissed from the public service for cause and on his own admissions before a Royal Commissioner. How can either party hope to win credit by the proceedings?

The matter is not so bad as the Globe, misinformed, sees it. Truly the putting forward of Mr. Fleming is a raw piece of effrontery, but the Opposition party is emphatically not "giving place and prominence to H. M. Blair." That gentleman never was invited to Carleton county and he has never been asked to address an Opposition meeting. There is no doubt that, given the opportunity, he could seriously embarrass the government speakers, and it is evident that the government party is greatly perturbed at his presence. But both opposition candidates declare that they have no alliance with Blair, no do they desire any. In this they are backed up by the Opposition organization as a whole. If Mr. Blair was dismissed from office for proved crooked work, the Opposition party has no place where he could fit in.

From Mr. Blair's own standpoint his presence here is quite justifiable. He has made charges of the most serious kind against the government and against J. K. Fleming in particular. Knowing his allegations would be used in this election, he has come here to defend them. Who but those against whom the charges were directed can find any fault with that course?

"God Knows," Says Flemming

"God knows I did my best," piously affirmed J. K. Flemming at Hartland last evening, concluding a speech in which he said he would accept the verdict of the people on Sept. 21 as their verdict on himself.

Since Mr. Flemming thus invokes the Deity, one is tempted to wonder if he had a word of silent prayer before he took that $2,000 "by compulsion" from a railroad contractor, and whether he and Bill Berry and Mr. Teed asked for the Divine blessing on the $70,000 taken from the lumber operators.

Will the people of Carleton county stand for this sort of thing?

Mr. Flemming should be taken at his word. The verdict on the 21st should leave him no possible chance to misunderstand its meaning. He and his methods have been embraced by the government and its candidates, as if their own record was not enough to bring upon them the utter condemnation of right-thinking people.

If the people really knew all that God knows about the political crookedness that is now being championed by the government party in the Carleton county campaign, the tide of popular indignation would sweep them out of office as if they had been struck by a tornado.

The people of other counties are waiting with an unusual degree of interest to learn what the people of Carleton county will say to the hypocrites and grafters on Sept. 21.—Times.

Brought the Trouble Upon Himself

J. Kidd Fleming, in his "come back" speech at Woodstock whined because the Opposition newspapers had criticized him. It is true that Mr. Fleming and his record have been a subject for adverse criticism from the Opposition and independent newspapers of the province, but for months past very little attention has been paid to him. His friends have been going about the country telling the people that he was a sick man, was out of politics for good, and beseeched the newspapers to let up on him. The newspapers have let him go by for months past with scarcely a word of criticism, but their kindness seems to be completely lost upon him. Misinterpreting their silence he has once more butted into the limelight, and once more the Opposition newspapers have turned their anti-hot-aircraft guns upon him. Poor Fleming! he has undoubtedly had his troubles, but he brought them upon himself and is not deserving of much sympathy.—Mail.

Hayward—MacKendy

A wedding of much local interest was solemnized in the Church of the Immaculate Conception at Edmundston at the early hour of 5 o'clock on Thursday, Sept. 7. The bride was Miss Dora Hayward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hayward of Coldstream, while the groom was John MacKendy, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Cape Inverness, C. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Connelly in the presence of immediate relatives and a few intimate friends. After the wedding breakfast and congratulations the young couple took the N. T. R. for Moncton, and will visit Chatham and Bathurst before finally settling at Cape Inverness.

The bride was gowned in a travelling suit of blue.

For some time Miss Hayward was a stenographer in M. L. Hayward's office, and during the past six years had been working in the same capacity in the office of Stevens & Lawson at Edmundston. Her numerous friends here will wish her much happiness.

Mrs. C. E. Hayward and Miss Mabel Hayward, mother and sister of the bride, went to Edmundston to be present at the wedding.

Lund-Greer

An interesting wedding was solemnized at East Coldstream on Wednesday afternoon Sept. 6, at 3 o'clock when Miss Viola J. Greer eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Greer, became the bride of Arthur C. Lund of East Coldstream. Pastor I. E. VanWart performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends. The ceremony took place on the lawn in front of the house where an arch of flowers was made for the bride and groom to stand under during ceremony. The bride, unattended, was given away by her father. She was attired in a dress of white net embroidered with silk over white tulle and silk, trimmed with folds of silk and an embroidered veil caught up with orange blossoms. The many beautiful and costly presents received testified to the popularity of bride and groom.

Whooping Cough

Mr. Arthur Hainge, Ashton Farm, Perley, Sask., writes:—"Two years ago whooping cough was very bad in this part of the country, our eight months old boy caught it and had a very severe attack. A neighbor advised the use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine and we gave it and nothing else with splendid results. When the older brother took the whooping cough we used this medicine promptly and prevented serious trouble as the cough passed off in two or three days."

Canada would Believe that Carleton Co. People have their Swords Sharpened for the Enemy at Home

One hears sometimes an expression of belief that because some people hate F. B. Carvell; and because some other people can be bought, and the government party has the money with which to buy them; that therefore the opposition can hardly hope to wipe out Smith's majority in Carleton county and elect the opposition candidates.

To accept this belief would be to assert that the men who remain in Carleton county are utterly unworthy of their sons who have crossed the ocean to offer their lives in Canada's defence.

For the enemies of Canada are not merely those against whom these lads are fighting in Europe. They include also the grafters at home, who seek to fatten themselves at the expense of the nation's agony.

And this class of enemy is represented by the men who are in power in New Brunswick today. They whitewashed the man who took money from a contractor and held money taken from the lumberman; they did all in their power to cover up the shameful patriotic potato deal; they visited no punishment on men caught with the goods by their own royal commissions; they refused to investigate the notorious hold up of the liquor dealers. At a time when appeals were being made to young men to enlist and fight for the honor of Canada they were dragging the honor of Canada in the dust.

It is not easy to believe that the people of Carleton county are ignorant of these facts; or that they propose to set up one standard of honor and patriotism for the soldier who fights and another for those who remain at home. Rather would the people of the rest of the province and of Canada believe that Carleton county electors have their swords sharpened for the enemy at home as well as for the enemy abroad; and that they will teach the triflers with public honor and public funds such a lesson as will have its effect upon the people of all Canada, from coast to coast.

It is this government and this record the people of Carleton county are asked to endorse. To do so would be to dishonor themselves. They are asked to make a choice between a government which accepts the grafter as a necessary part of the governmental machinery, and the opposition party which is pledged to cut out graft and give the province honest government. If they choose the former, how can they look their own sons in the face when the latter come home from the accomplishment of their great task? The record is there. It cannot be hidden. It is for the people to choose.—St. John Times.

Eczema on Baby's Ear

Mrs. F. Clarke, Belmont, Man., writes:—"My baby had eczema on her ear. The sore was very bad and nothing seemed to do her much good. Hearing of the remarkable cure Dr. Chase's Ointment was making, we sent for some, and after the third application the sore began to heal. I am glad to say that it is quite well now and we give the credit to Dr. Chase's Ointment. We cannot recommend this preparation too highly."
