turn. They have crossed the silent river. They have died for their country. They are numbered among Britain's heroes. We mourn their loss. Their bereaved friends will have the sympathy of all, but that sympathy is weak and a poor recompense for a great sacrifice. All that can be done will be done, and it was to be expected that a man like Premier Ross would remember Canada's young heroes, dead and living, and in some such way as he proposes do his part.

With joy the country will welcome the living—with sorrow they will mourn the dead.

Beware of Roorbachs!

Beware of roorbachs. No more in- sidious election trick has yet been devised by Yankee ingenuity than the roorbach—the campaign lie held back until too late to investigate, and then sprung upon the electors upon the eve of polling day. Beware of roorbachs. Whatever the facts may be and how- ever plausible the story may appear, it is safe betting, ninety-nine times out of every hundred, that it is a lie—or that half-truth, which is worse than a lie—or it would not have stayed untold until the last moment. The honest fighter seeks no mean advantage, the square fighter does not strike below the belt. Refuse to be weakly influenced by insinuations and unproved charges, recklessly bandied from mouth to mouth, by irresponsible slanderers. Be- ware of roorbachs.

The Returning Volunteers Will Keep Their Rifles.

Today's Globe says: "Timely and thoughtful is the resolution of the Dominion Government, announced by Mr. Sifton, to confirm each Canadian volunteer in the possession of the rifle which he has carried with such credit to himself and honor to his country in South Africa. The idea is a singularly happy one. Such an en- doring memento of a remarkable period in each man's life-history as well as in the history of the British Empire, will be proudly handed down from generation to generation as an heirloom fraught with particular mean- ing and value. We congratulate the troops on these commendable decisions of the Federal and Provincial Govern- ments."

The Ontario Government's Recognition of Ontario's Young Heroes.

The announcement that the Ontario Government will grant, free from all taxes except school rates for ten years, 160 acres of land to every one of the soldiers from Ontario who went to the South African war, will be received with great satisfaction by the people of this Province.

The grants will be in Northern On- tario, a part of this Province destined in the near future to be the home of many thousands.

The people of the Province are proud of its young heroes. They have proved that Canadians are the equals of any soldiers in the world—equals of the "Men of England."

"Men of England, who inherit Rights that cost your sires their blood; Men whose undegenerate spirit Has been proved on field and flood."

The young heroes, who about a year ago left their homes to fight the cause of Great Britain, will be joyously wel- comed back by the whole people. It will be no half-hearted welcome that will be given them. It will be a "Highland welcome," and doubtless the boys themselves Canada will look fairer than ever. Their homes, where their chairs have been vacant, will be happier than ever, and their feeling will be never again—save at duty's call—to leave their homes and friends, the homes and friends they have seen in fancy so often during the past year. But there are some who will not re-

Opinions of Prohibitionists.

In view of what is being urged against the Government because it did not deem that the vote on prohibition justified it in passing a prohibition measure, it is well to recall what prohibitionists themselves said immediately after the taking of the vote. The Toronto Star interviewed a number of prominent prohibitionists at that time, and a reproduction of their views will show how they regarded the situation.

Rev. Dr. John Potts said that, in his opinion, the vote polled for prohibition was not large enough to warrant a demand for the enactment of a prohibitory law.

Rev. W. J. Rankin, then pastor of the McCauley Street Methodist Church, said: "I do not suppose the Government will take the vote as an indication that they must pass a prohibitory measure. But whether, under the circumstances, the Government should wait or lead in the matter is a question which they will have to decide. Personally, I think the Government should lead. The Government should lead on all moral and economic questions. This is an economic as well as a moral question."

Mr. J. Robertson, secretary of the Canadian Temperance League, said: "I do not think, in view of the smallness of the majority, that the Government would be justified in legislating on the lines of prohibition. Considering the conditions of the confederation of the Provinces, such legislation at the present time would not be justifiable. Much as I would like to see prohibition, the vote has shown that prohibition at the present time is impossible, especially with a large majority from one of the provinces against it. I doubt whether the Government, even if it attempted to make a prohibitory law, could pass it. Looking at the matter from a Dominion standpoint and as a citizen, I certainly think that the Government should not attempt a prohibitory law."

Rev. William Patterson, then of Cooke's Church, Toronto, said: "I do not think the Government should enact a prohibitory law under the circumstances, the majority in Quebec and in the cities being so great that it would be hard to enforce it."

Mr. A. E. O'Meara regarded the situation in Quebec as likely to present grave questions to the Government if it should introduce a prohibitory law.

Rev. Dr. Deane said that he had always been of the opinion that a prohibitory law, to be effective, must be backed by a strong popular opinion in favor of prohibition, and that it remained to be seen whether the complete returns would show the existence of such a sentiment.

Rev. Dr. Parker said that an adverse verdict would undoubtedly defer prohibition for a long time.

Rev. Principal Grant of Queen's University, although not a prohibitionist, was among those who were interviewed. He said that he did not think the majority given the measure would warrant the Government introducing a bill to establish prohibition.

Rev. Wm. McIntosh, of Ottawa, said he was disappointed with the result. Unless a majority of the votes in the Dominion were polled, and a substantial majority of these were for prohibition he would not expect the Government to enact a prohibitory measure.

Rev. Mr. Kettlewell, of Galt, in a letter to the Globe, dated Oct. 6, recognizes the difficulty which the plebiscite disclosed, but was not without hope that it could be overcome. "I think," he said, "that it goes without saying that it would be unwise to coerce Quebec into the acceptance of legislation obnoxious to so large a proportion of its citizens." He proposed to get over the difficulty by procuring an enactment from the Dominion Parliament prohibiting the importation and manufacture of liquors except by the Government, and also the sale of liquor in the Territories, and allowing the legislature of each province to prohibit or license the retail traffic in its own jurisdiction as it might elect.

These declarations are in perfect consonance with the position taken by the Government prior to the vote. The matter was brought up in the Dominion Senate, when Hon. David Mills, Minister of Justice, and Hon. H. W. Scott, Secretary of State, replied to questions put, declared that it was never contemplated that a prohibition law should be enacted on a bare majority.

In the House of Commons Mr. Craig, a Conservative member, and a temperance advocate of considerable standing, declared that it would be unwise to help the temperance cause if a prohibitory law were enacted on a minority vote. This view was already concluded in, not a member on either side objecting to it, and as but one-fourth of the total electorate voted for a prohibitory law, prohibitionists men have agreed that it would be unwise, and prejudicial to the best interests of temperance to generate a prohibitory law for the Dominion at the present time. It will be found that the large majority of those who object to this view and clamor for immediate prohibition, are political partisans, who are anxious to make a political party out of prohibition to promote their own or party interests.

Old World

More Changes in the British Cabinet.

Mr. Geo. Wyndham to be Chief Secretary for Ireland.

The Carlist Scare in Spain—Gen. Ian Hamilton's Wife Robbed in a Paris Hotel—Grand Trunk Affairs.

THE CARLIST RISING.
Madrid, Nov. 5.—The situation is calmer. Many Carlist notabilities have been exiled, including the curate of a parish in Madrid, charged with the reception of Carlist funds. The closing of Carlist clubs, the arrests of Carlists and the searching of suspected quarters continue in the provinces.

Spanish officers and soldiers on vacations have been ordered to rejoin their regiments immediately. The Carlist forces in the vicinity of the French border have been ordered to retreat upon Puceria at the first warning. A column of infantry and detachments of cavalry have been ordered to Puceria and Sag De Urgel.

Venice, Nov. 5.—Don Carlos, the Spanish pretender, in the course of an interview had with him here, declared that the present rising in Spain is contrary to his orders and will retard instead of promoting his efforts to secure his rights.

BRITISH CABINET CHANGES.

London, Nov. 5.—The Times announces this morning that Mr. George Wyndham, who was parliamentary under secretary of state for war in the last cabinet, will probably be appointed chief secretary for Ireland. It says it is also likely that Mr. Walter Long, who was president of the board of agriculture, will become president of the local government board, and that Mr. Wm. Hanbury, who was financial secretary to the treasury, will be given the postmaster-generalship, with a seat in the cabinet. According to the same authority the Marquis of Londonderry will be appointed president of the board of agriculture, and Mr. Austin Chamberlain will be removed from the post of civil lord of the admiralty, to that of financial secretary to the treasury. For minor posts, Mr. Hugh Oakeley, Arthur Foster, Lord Stanley and Lord Cranborne, eldest son of the premier, are named. It is probable that Earl Cadogan, lord-lieutenant of Ireland, will defer his resignation for some months. The seals of office will be exchanged at a council to be held at Windsor Castle Nov. 12.

CABINET GOSSIP.

London, Nov. 5.—Discussing cabinet developments, I. N. Ford, in his special cable letter, says: "The friends of Mr. Chamberlain are now asserting that he declined the war office before going to the Mediterranean. It is not probable that strong pressure was brought to bear upon him. It is believed that only one office would have tempted him to abandon his present position and that was the foreign office. Lord Salisbury, who was formerly in the foreign office, has declined. Mr. Balfour's friends, however, insist that the foreign office was offered to him and declined, and that he has been in the confidence of Lord Salisbury from the outset. The opinion prevails in diplomatic circles that Lord Cromer really had the chance of entering the foreign office, but decided that he could be more useful in Egypt."

HAS SALISBURY MADE A MISTAKE?

The Conservative press is convinced that Lord Salisbury has made a mistake in the appointment of Lansdowne to the foreign office, but approves the other changes heartily.

ANAEMIA OR POOR BLOOD

The Cause of Many a Broken Down Body—Put New Life Sustaining Richness Into the Blood by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (Pills), the Great Blood Builder.

When the blood gets thin and watery and is lacking in certain elements such as iron, sulphur, phosphorus and various carbonates, it fails to sustain life and vitality and to repair the waste which is always going on in the organs of the body.

The result of this depleted state of the blood is paleness, weakness, debility, and the failure of the body to withstand the attack of deadly constitutional diseases.

Young women become pale and languid. There are breathlessness, severe indigestion, hysteria and melancholy feelings and deficiency or absence of the periodic discharge.

Young men complain of dyspepsia, pimples on the face, backache, nervousness, nervousness, and have gloomy forebodings or fears of some fearful disease.

This anemic and weakened condition of body prepares the way for consumption, or some other constitutional disease, hence it is that so many thousands of young men and women die annually from the white scourge—consumption.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills) is considered the greatest of all blood purifiers because it supplies in proper proportions the very elements of nature that are lacking in the blood of a person who is weak and run down. It creates new, rich blood and nerve force, and thoroughly and completely restores the body wasted by disease, over-work or lack of proper nourishment.

To young men and young women with weakened and debilitated constitutions Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills) bring hope and courage for future health and happiness. To the pale, weak and emaciated who daily fear consumption it comes as the only certain means whereby they can avoid an early grave.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills) is the greatest of all restoratives, and a preparation of most unusual value. Sold everywhere for 50 cents a box. Limitations do not exist in reproducing the portrait and signature of Dr. A. Chase, which are on every box of the genuine. Edmanon, Bates & Co., Montreal.

A LAW UNTO HIMSELF.

Every Man Must Be That to Retain His Health and Digestion.

There are thousands of people in this world who eat no meat from one year's end to another, and certain savage tribes in Africa and Polynesia are almost exclusively meat eaters; but while there are thousands of these, there are millions who live upon a mixed diet of meat, vegetables and grains, and if numbers is a criterion, it would seem that the mixed diet is the best for the human family.

The fact that you will find many vegetarians who appear healthy and vigorous and meat eaters equally so, and any number of robust specimens who eat both meat and vegetables and anything else that comes in their way all goes to show that the old saw is the true one, that every man must be a law to himself as to what he shall eat and drink.

Every drop of blood in the waste of tissue in brain and muscles as well as to replace the muscle and sinew of the laborer, can only be done through the process of digestion.

Every nerve, muscle, sinew, every drop of blood is extracted from the food we eat and digest.

In these days of haste and worry, and artificial habits of life, scarcely one person in a thousand can lay claim to perfect digestion, and dyspepsia is a national affliction and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a national blessing.

Most cases of poor digestion are caused by failure of the stomach to secrete sufficient gastric juice, or too little hydrochloric acid and lack of pepsin and all of these important essentials to perfect digestion are found in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in convenient palatable form.

One or two of these Tablets taken after meals insure perfect digestion and assimilation of the food.

Cathartic pills and laxative medicines have no effect whatever in digesting food, and to call such remedies a cure for dyspepsia is far fetched and absurd.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain pepsin free from animal matter, dextrin and other digestives, and not only digest all wholesome food but tend to increase the gastric juices and by giving the weak stomach a much needed rest bring about a healthy condition of the digestive organs and a normal appetite.

Nervous, thin-blooded, run-down people should know that drugs and stimulants cannot furnish good blood, strong muscles and steady nerves; these come only from wholesome food, thoroughly digested; a fifty-cent box of Stuart's great cathartic diet pills, a few weeks will do you more real good than drugs, stimulants and dieting combined.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is probably the safest, most popular and successful of all remedies for indigestion, and is sold by druggists everywhere in the United States, Canada and Great Britain.

Mr. Wyndham has a taste for finance and a special knowledge of military questions, but he is a man of versatile talents, who will do brilliant work in any office.

Fleet street was taken aback by the appointment of Lord Lansdowne, although the embargo here and the west end world of fashion have been forecasting it for weeks. Lord Lansdowne is not only Lord Salisbury's personal friend, but also a nobleman of great social distinction. One of his daughters will be the Duchess of Devonshire and another is the Marchioness of Waterford, and the elegance of his manners has made him a great figure in English society.

IN SOUTH AFRICA.

The return of colonial troops from South Africa is not likely to be delayed by the progress of the war against the Boers in South Africa. Regarding this, Mr. Ford says: "While a complete scheme for the demobilization of the army in South Africa has been published and put in partial effect, the public service day by day accounts of hostile operations in almost every quarter of the conquered republics. It is evident that the dangers from guerrilla warfare have been increased since the large commandos were broken up into smaller bands. There is skirmishing everywhere, with no decisive result, as the Boers divide and sub-divide and elude pursuit. The war office will not abandon its policy of recalling surplus troops, but it will be enforced with great deliberation."

HOME-COMING SOLDIERS.

The volunteers and colonials may count with confidence upon eating their Christmas dinner at home, and possibly the Guards may be equally fortunate, but the bulk of the infantry and the mounted force is likely to winter on the veldt. The definite announcement of the Lord has been sent from Cape Town on Nov. 20 is welcomed as a sign of the close of the war.

THE POLICY OF LENIENCY.

There is a good deal of ignorant moralizing over what is called the failure of his mistaken policy of leniency. Those behind the scenes understand that Lord Roberts has not been solely responsible for this policy, but that Sir Alfred Milner in South Africa and the minister in London have insisted that as little resentment as possible should be excited among the Dutch, since the two races were destined to remain side by side in the conquered territories. Lord Roberts, while a noble and practical soldier, and in dealing with the Boers has been acting less upon his own judgment than upon the advice of Sir Alfred Milner, who knows the difficulties of keeping the rival races together in Cape Colony, and forecasts the trend of events during the next decade.

THE CAMPAIGN

Additional Signatures to the Quebec Protest.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Tour—First Members Gazetted at This Election.

Ottawa, Nov. 3.—Messrs. Laverne (Drummond and Arthurs) and Seagram (North Waterloo) have the honor of being the first members of the new parliament gazetted.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER'S TOUR.

It has been arranged that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will speak at Caledonia and Dunnville on Monday, in addition to the list of places announced yesterday. This will make the hour of arrival at Hamilton 45 minutes later than announced, and will also cause a similar delay in the arrival at other points between Dunnville and Hamilton. The premier will be accompanied in this tour by Hon. Wm. Mulock, postmaster-general and minister of labor, and others.

THE PROTEST FROM QUEBEC.
Montreal, Nov. 2.—The following additional signatures have been secured to the protest of the English-speaking electors of Quebec against the campaign of misrepresentation indulged in in Ontario and other English-speaking provinces at the expense of the French-Canadians of this province: Jonathan Hodgson of Hodgson, Sumner & Co.; Hon. George W. Stephens, M.L.C.; Edward Holton, ex-M.P.; Thomas Fyche, general manager Merchant's Bank of Canada; E. J. Redmond and S. T. Greenleaf, of the Redmond-Greenleaf Company, Limited; David S. Walker, managing director James Walker Hardware Company, Limited; Henry Miles, vice-president of the board of trade; W. F. Ritchie, Q.C.; H. A. Hodgson of Hodgson Bros.; John P. Seybold, of J. P. Seybold & Co.; James Redmond, vice-president and managing director of the Ames, Holden Company, Limited, and numerous others.

THE PAMPHLET AT BELLEVILLE.

Belleville, Nov. 3.—Mr. J. H. A. Taylor, who presents his card as being a traveler for the Dominion Tobacco Company of Montreal, industriously worked yesterday circulating pamphlets which were labelled "A Protest Against Tarte and the Clique." He also had several portraits of Hon. Hugh John Macdonald and Sir Charles Tupper, which he spread about the town. This is the fraudulent pamphlet referred to in the Globe.

BOSTONIA SEXTET CLUB.

The concert given at the Auditorium last night by the Bostonia sextet club was one that delighted in the highest degree the appreciative audience present. The personnel of the club was: Mr. C. L. Stannus, clarinet, director; Mr. Walter E. Loud, violin; Mr. Louis Bazzani, violin; Mr. W. A. Hodgson, viola; Mr. F. J. Landman, cello; Mr. Alfred Reinhard, bass. The club was assisted by Miss Edith Viola Ellsbee, a young lady possessed of an attractive presence and a sweet and sympathetic soprano voice. The most pleasing numbers were probably the exquisite "La Vierge de l'Ange Gardien" (Pierne), the selection from Thomas "Mignon" and Mr. Landsman's rendering of Servais' "Fantasie Polonoise" for the cello, with its sprightly movement and charming passages. The latter was so well rendered that Mr. Landsman was obliged to respond with an encore. The "Fantasie" for clarinet, given by Mr. Stannus, and Mr. Loud's violin solo, were also very enjoyable. The programme was: Overture, "Tantalusquien" (Suppe), Sextet Club; (a) "La Vierge de l'Ange Gardien" (Pierne); (b) "Fly Minuet" from opera "Der Bajazzo" (Czibulka), String Quintet; "Fantasie" for clarinet from "Frei Aux Treces" (Paradis), Mr. Stannus; aria from "Les Noces de Jeannette" (Maess), Miss Ellsbee; cello solo, "Fantasie Polonoise" (Servais), Mr. Landsman; selection, "Mignon" (Thomas), Sextet Club; violin solo, "Fantasie Caprice" (Vieuxtemps), encore "The Lost Chord" (Sullivan), Mr. Loud; song, with clarinet obligato, "Alpenlied" op. 167 (Speath), Miss Ellsbee and Mr. Stannus; mandolin, "A Petis Pas" (Sudek), Sextet Club; selection from "The Serenade" (Herbert), Sextet Club.

GRAIN CROP DESTROYED.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 3.—Official reports show the grain has been completely burned up by the drought in portions of Siberia. The fields have not been harvested and are used for pasture.

JOHN ROSS ROBERTSON ON LAURIER.

The Toronto Telegram, an Independent-Conservative paper, owned by John Ross Robertson, M. P., says: "When a Protestant and English-Canadian leader excites as much enthusiasm in Quebec as Wilfrid Laurier arouses in Ontario, the unification of Canada will be complete. The shadows of parliamentary cowardice do not darken the unclouded noon of his power on the platform. When all is said and done, Wilfrid Laurier is a great Canadian, who is stronger in Ontario than any other Liberal leader, and his popularity is the greatest asset of his government."

WORKINGMEN

Command the Government's Labor Legislation and Indorse Its Candidates.

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—At a large meeting of laboring men held here tonight, resolutions were passed commending the Laurier Government for their labor legislation, and indorsing the Government candidates in this city. The meeting was called by the laboring men themselves, and was addressed only by their own members. It was in no sense a party meeting. The resolutions were the carefully considered judgment of the united labor men of Ottawa. Men formerly identified with both political parties attended and addressed the meeting, including Mr. Robert E. Hay, who was until a month ago secretary of the Conservative Association.

EIGHTEEN MONTHS' PAIN.

Ends Effectually and Permanently by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Central Waterville, N. B., Nov. 6.—These dull and damp days of November are terribly hard on the kidneys. Not one person in a hundred escapes backache, pains in the joints, lameness and similar kidney troubles as a result of fallen leaves.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only sure and certain cure for kidney complaints. They never fail to cure.

In proof of this read what Mr. F. W. Francis, of this place, says: "After having suffered for eighteen months with kidney disease, being unable to work most of the time, and having grown worse while taking other medicines, I used three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, which effected a complete and permanent cure."

HAMPERED WITH BACKACHE.

No man can do his best work if hampered with backache or lame back.

When the kidneys quit doing their duty the poisons which they ought to filter out of the blood, stay in, and are carried all through the system. Then the back gives the warning of trouble ahead by aching and paining.

The only way to cure the backache is to set the kidneys acting right. That's what are for—to cure sick kidneys—to relieve and cure aching backs—to make men, and women too, stronger and better able for the battle of life. Here's what one man says:

"For about five years now I have suffered from kidney complaint. I had to get up about six times nearly every night, had much pain in voiding my urine, and the pain in my back was sometimes beyond endurance. I read in the papers about Doan's Kidney Pills and sent for a box. I did not want to say anything about them until I was sure I was cured. Now I can say from personal experience that Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy I know of for kidney trouble. They have given me perfect relief from pain. I now get rest at night without being disturbed and in every way my health is much better and I feel stronger than I have in years."

TURF.

AT NEW YORK.

New York, Oct. 3.—Two fixtures were decided today. The Chappaqua and Wakefield handicaps. Only four faced the starter in the first named, and Chucatanunda and Gold Heels closed equal favorites, at 2 to 1. The former made the running, closed attended by Brandyman to the stretch, but when straightened out Gold Heels closed with a rush and won by three lengths. Chucatanunda was just as easily strong. The Rhymor beat Brandyman a head for show money. James was favorite for the Wakefield handicap, at 1 mile and 1 furlong, and Mitchell took him to the front at flag-fall, led all the way and won cleverly by a length from King Barleycorn. The last race resulted in a dead heat between Tinko and King Bramble. The former made the running to the stretch, where King Bramble joined issue, and after a hard drive to the wire the judges could not separate them. Aistie was a poor third. The other winners were Trumpet, in the first, at 1 to 2; Dan Cupid in the second, at 4 to 1; and Lily Hayman in the fifth, at 5 to 1. O'Connor took the jockey honors with victories on Trumpet and Lady Hayman.

FOOTBALL.

THOSE PETERBORO CHARGES.

London has prepared its reply to the charges of rough play made by the Peterboro club. The three players attacked—Gilmour, Hennessy and Kerrigan—have filed surprise declarations that they were not guilty of the tactics which their opponents charge. These declarations are backed by a score of letters from well-known citizens of London who saw the game, and failed to see the rough-house business which the Peterboro players allege.

PARKHILL WON.

Parkhill, Ont. Nov. 3.—A friendly game of Rugby was played here this afternoon between the St. John's Athletic Club (London) and Parkhill teams, and resulted in a victory for the locals by a score of 5 to 4. The game was fast and exciting throughout, but the Parkhill players were stronger and superior in every point, especially the scrumming. All the scoring was done in the first half, while the play during the second half was all in the vicinity of the London goal.

ARGONAUTS VS. ROUGH RIDERS.

Toronto, Nov. 3.—Toronto Rugby admirers had a pleasant surprise sprung on them at Rosedale this afternoon, when the Argonauts defeated the Rough Riders, of Ottawa, by one point, thus tying them for the senior championship. The score at the finish was 5 to 4.

MEN BLOWN TO FRAGMENTS

Details of the West Virginia Coal Mine Disaster.

Phillippi, W. Va., Nov. 5.—One of the greatest calamities in the history of Harbours county occurred Saturday morning at 1 o'clock at the mines of the Southern Coal Transportation Company, at Berryburg, six miles from this place. As a result these are dead: Ollie Marks, pit boss; Andrew Blackwell, Albert Brown, Lawrence Duncan, Paek Adams, and seven others whose names are not known.

The injured are: Will Marks, James Jackson—both of whom will die.

EFFECT OF THE EXPLOSION.

The explosion was so great that mules were killed at the mouth of the mine and cars were blown forty feet from the track. One man was blown in two at the top, and his body thrown against a pile of lumber at the mouth of the mine.

The night shift went on duty at 7 o'clock. Everything went on smoothly until about midnight, when the explosion occurred. The dead were mutilated beyond description, and the scene was calculated to make the strongest heart faint.

The force of the explosion was so great that two men were found sixty feet from the mouth of the mine.

Confidence is expressed in the press now that regular telegraph connection has been established with Pekin that news from Chinese seats of action, especially about German achievements, will come plentifully.

The opinion is generally held that the military operations are by no means over, and it is surmised that Prince Tuan, whom the Chinese report as having fled, is really quietly reorganizing the Chinese forces for a winter campaign.

CHINESE BARBARITY.

London, Nov. 5.—Dr. Morrison, writing to the Times from Pekin, Nov. 1, says the evidence in the Pao Ting Pu trial to fix the responsibility for the massacres showed that an American, before execution, was led naked through the city, and that her breasts were cut off. The destruction of two temples is not adequate punishment for such inhumanity.

BRITISH OPERATIONS.

Gen. Horne Campbell telegraphs: "Arrived at Renshu, Oct. 31, from Pao Ting Pu took a circuitous route, destroying four large boxes of cartridges and a large amount of arms and ammunition. Captured a large number of transport mules. Col. Retallick, commanding the river column, captured nine armed junk boats on the river."

CHILDREN'S COUGHS.

There's nothing so good for children's coughs and colds, or whooping cough or bronchitis as Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It's so nice to take that youngsters beg for it, and it cures so quickly that mothers are delighted.

Mrs. E. P. Leonard, Parry Sound, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for coughs and colds of myself and baby. I find it cures a cold quicker than any other cough mixture and is nice to take."

STEAMER ST. PAUL DAMAGED.

New York, Nov. 4.—The steamship St. Paul, of the American Line, Capt. Roberts in command, arrived in port today, 24 hours late, with her propeller gone and her engine room badly damaged. The damage sustained by the steamship will probably amount to several hundred thousand dollars. The accident caused a sudden shock, but there was no panic among the 561 passengers aboard.

At the beginning of this century British shipping amounted to only 2,000,000 tons. A maximum of 10,000,000 tons marks the commencement of the decline.

Fighting

Going on Yet in South Africa.

The Queen Thanks Her Canadian Soldiers—Date of Lord Roberts' Departure.

London, Nov. 4.—A Pretoria dispatch says: Ventersburg, southwest of Kroonstad, in the Orange River Colony, has been destroyed. The Boers are very numerous west of Kroonstad and in the vicinity of Lindley, east of the same place.

Lord Roberts, according to dispatches from Cape Town, has taken his sick daughter to Johannesburg, and Lord Kitchener is left in command. It seems likely that he will have plenty of work. Gen. Dewet is reported to have made his appearance near Frankfort, in the north-eastern corner of Orange River Colony, and small bodies of Boers continue harrying tactics.

It is asserted that Lord Kitchener intends to stop the pursuit of commandos and to try to settle the colonies by garrisoning and organizing the towns for rapid raids with mounted troops.

Lord Roberts, in a dispatch from Johannesburg, dated Nov. 2, reports no less than eight fights at different points, all unimportant, but significant of the activity of the Boers.

Gen. Kitchener, after a night's march, surprised Schoeman's laager at Stoenkampsburg, and then pushed on to Schalkburg's laager at Roodkranz. But the British were prevented from following up the Boers, who trekked north.

Prisoners in the hands of the British say the Boer losses in the fight with Gen. Barton on Oct. 25 were 140 killed, wounded or missing.

LORD ROBERTS' DEPARTURE.

It is stated that Lord Roberts will return to Cape Town by way of Durban, and that he will sail from here for England on the cropship Canada about Nov. 20. He will be accompanied by Gen. Pole-Carew and a majority of the members of his staff.

Pretoria, Nov. 3.—The report of the early departure of Gen. Roberts for England is confirmed. A special proclamation has been issued, making Gen. Kitchener chief of the army in Africa.

MESSAGE FROM THE QUEEN.

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—The governor-general, Lord Minto, on Saturday, received the following cable: "Her Majesty the Queen has heard with pleasure of the safe return of the Canadian commander-in-chief and desires to thank most cordially for the services which they have rendered to her empire."

BATTLE WITH THE CHINESE

Germans Defeat a Superior Force—Hot Fight in a Mountain Pass.

Berlin, Nov. 5.—The Chinese question continues to overshadow everything else here. The Tageblatt prints a special dispatch from Pekin, dated Oct. 29, saying: "A detachment of the 2nd German Infantry Regiment, under Major Von Forster, has fought a victorious engagement against a vastly superior Chinese force of regulars in a mountain pass near the Chinese wall, not far from Tsing Kuan. Five guns were taken by assault, and the German flag was hoisted; several other Germans were wounded or killed, and the Chinese lost 50 dead."

N. Ford telegraphs from London: "A steady drift toward peace is apparent. The rumors that the imperial government has offered a large lump sum as indemnity are still premature, but the powers are clearly preparing to negotiate with the empire without insisting upon her own exile or the punishment of the mandarins who obeyed her orders. The only alternative would have been the suspension of the Manchchu dynasty, with or without a change of the capital. The powers have not been able to find a substitute for the Manchchu dynasty, and Russia was not prepared to assent to the removal of the capital from Peking. It is probable that terms will be made with the only effective government in China, and that the indemnities will be financed by the powers, virtually lending their credit to a large issue of bonds and providing for international control of the customs and taxation. Bankers in European capitals expect some settlement of this kind."

RADWAY'S KIDNEY PILLS

Always Reliable. Purely Vegetable.

Perfectly tasteless, elegantly coated, pure, regulate, purify, cleanse and strengthen. RADWAY'S PILLS for the cure of disorders of the Kidneys, Bladder, Nervous Diseases, Disinfect, Vertigo, Costiveness, Piles.

Sick Headache, Female Complaints, Biliousness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Constipation and All Disorders of the Liver.

Dr. Radway & Co.—As an introduction I must make the following remarks: Had each one of the lawmakers of our country the virtues and power of your pills, America would soon become a paradise. That your pills would conquer the obstinacy of my complaint is more than wonderful. The movement of my bowels is as regular as the works of a good watch. I began with four pills and decreased to two, and for a time took one two hours before dinner, and now take one before going to bed, but now she has gone to Pennsylvania, cured through taking your Pills and Resolvent as you direct in your treatise on tumors. Respectfully,

A. WITMER.

649 E. 19th St., New York.

Messrs. Dr. Radway & Co., New York: Gentlemen—Please send me by return mail one box of your pills, for which you will find 50 cents enclosed. Having had a box before, I would not be without them. They are something every family should have. Yours truly,

T. A. PETERS.

Lancaster, Pa.

ONE TO THREE OF RADWAY'S PILLS, once in twenty-four hours, will secure regular evacuation from the bowels. Persons who for years have not enjoyed a natural stool and have been compelled to use injections, have been cured by a few doses of Radway's Pills.

True Comfort for the Aged and Others afflicted with Constiveness and Paralysis of the Bowels.

Persons advanced in life often suffer from indigestion, and from paralysis or inability to evacuate from the bowels, likewise from great difficulties. We have the evidence of a large number of aged persons from 60 to 80 years of age who had daily been compelled to resort to injections to empty the bowels. Lays been cured by the use of Radway's Pills. Two or three pills every night in all cases insure a natural evacuation from the bowels and the regular flow of urine. In cases where there is irritation of the bladder, Radway's Resolvent should be used with the Pills. If these organs are kept regular, life may be extended to a much longer period. By keeping the Liver, Stomach, Bowels and Kidneys in a healthy condition the blood will continue pure and dissolution checked. If Radway's Pills and Resolvent are used by the aged, life will be prolonged to the full measure of time. Another great end is secured by nourishing the body with these remedies—the faculties will remain in a healthy condition. A weak feeble and decaying body antedates the intellect and clouds the brain.

(Established by JOHN CAMERON, in 1853.)

London, Monday, Nov. 2.

First Blood in New Brunswick.

Hon. John Costigan has been re-elected by acclamation in Victoria, N. B. This was absolutely unexpected by the Tories, and has come as a veritable bolt in their camp. Mr. Costigan held a seat in the cabinets of Sir John Macdonald, Sir J. J. C. Abbott, Sir John Thompson, Sir Mackenzie Bowell and Sir Charles Tupper. A while ago, however, he found himself unable to associate any longer with the party he had served so faithfully since Confederation—"the Conservative party as I find it constructed and led today in this House." He could not stand the cold-blooded treachery of the "nest of traitors," and after remaining on "the cross-benches" for a time, he came out very definitely in opposition to his old colleagues, and from his seat in the House announced in most emphatic terms his change of allegiance. The manner in which Sir Charles received and replied to Mr. Costigan's speech is memorable to this day for its extreme bitterness and personal animus. The old leader's late follower had given him some pretty nasty home-thrusts and he resented it. The resentment had not died down and orders were issued to the local Tory managers to oppose Costigan and beat him at any cost, but local feeling was too strong even for Sir Charles, and after a desperate effort to carry out his instructions, the Tory candidate has recognized the hopelessness of the fight, and left the man who was too honest to associate with the present leaders of the party, in undisputed possession of his seat.

How Is It?

If all the wisdom, honesty and ability in Canadian politics are in the exclusive possession of Sir Charles Tupper's party, as it pretends, how is it, pertinently asks the Montreal Herald:

That in the eighteen years of Conservative rule Canada's trade increased only $3,660,000 per annum, while it increased $36,500,000 per annum under the Laurier Government?

That the Liberals could in four years give Canada two-cent postage all round instead of three cents at home and five to Britain, and yet wipe out the $300,000 deficit in the postoffice department bequeathed them by their Conservative predecessors?

That the Liberals could in a few months organize a system of cold storage which has put some $24,000,000 in the farmers' pockets they would not have received without cold storage?

That the Liberals by reducing the tariff especially on British goods, could save the people about $12,000,000 of customs duties in four years, and yet provide sufficient revenue for the public service?

That notwithstanding these reductions of the people's burdens, the Liberals could hasten the deepening of the canals, and yet find the money to pay for the work without adding nearly so much to the public debt as did their opponents?

That the Liberals could reduce the burdens of the people by tariffs and postoffice changes and yet show a surplus of nearly $8,000,000 for the past year, instead of the deficits shown by their predecessors?

That the Liberal Minister of Agriculture could obtain the removal of the American quarantine against Canadian cattle, when their Conservative predecessors would not even try to do so, in this way opening up a market for Canadian cattle which had formerly been closed?

Mr. McCarthy's Position.

On Feb. 26, 1896, an address was issued "to the people of Canada," signed by Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, president; Mr. E. Douglas Armour, chairman of executive; Mr. Wm. Mortimer Clark, Q.C., honorary treasurer, and Mr. A. T. Hunter, honorary secretary. From that address we take the following extract:

"Just now the great question of justice to Manitoba seems to overshadow all others. But on these material matters, among the principles contended for by the league, is that the tariff should be reduced, and be made less burdensome to the consuming masses; in short, that it should be lowered so far as it can be with a due regard to the financial requirements of the country, and that a preference should be given in Canadian markets to Great Britain, in whose market Canada, in common with the rest of the world, enjoys absolute freedom, while a like privilege should be extended to other countries which are willing to deal with us on the terms of fair trade. This involves what is known as a maximum and a minimum tariff, now common in some of the continental states of Europe—minimum to England and to our colonial brethren who reciprocate with us, and to those foreign countries who are willing to trade on fair terms; maximum to such countries as the United States, who impose an excessive and in some cases almost prohibitive duty against our products, so long as that attitude is maintained."

"Laurier is too British for me." So says Sir Charles Tupper.

Why Young Men Have a Vote.

A feature of this election will be the immense number of young men who will exercise their rights of citizenship at the ballot box for the first time. There are nearly 17,000 registered voters in the Toronto constituencies alone, and probably as many more throughout the balance of the Province. These 25,000 or 40,000 electors have become possessed of an invaluable privilege at absolutely no cost to themselves, and at very small cost to the country. The balance of the voters' lists consist of the municipal assessment rolls, which in nearly every instance have been very recently revised, and at no expense to the country, inasmuch as it is prepared annually under the municipal law. Thus we have a voters' list based on the principle of manhood suffrage, revised to within a month of the election day, and costing a mere bagatelle. This takes the place of the old, partisan, costly, unworkable and terribly inaccurate list which the Tories forced upon the country in the past. The intelligent young men of the Province will not forget this when exercising the franchise which the Liberals have given them.

What About the Cattle?

So the Government has had nothing whatever to do with the increased prosperity? What about the quarantine? When Mr. Fisher, the present Minister of Agriculture, took office, he found the Canadian cattle export trade practically killed, owing to a 90 days' quarantine, which had been enforced by the United States during the previous three years. Canadian cattlemen had tried to get the Government to negotiate for its removal, but if any effort was made it utterly failed. Mr. Fisher took up the matter, and in six months the quarantine was removed. What was the result? During the four and a half years the quarantine was in force, 3,700 cattle, worth $52,000, were exported to the States. During the three and a half years since, ending with June last—a year less than the previous period—301,000 head, valued at $4,378,000, have been exported. Has the Government done nothing for the development of the export cattle trade?

Laurier Stands for Canadian Unity.

"If there is anything to which I have devoted my political life, it is to try to promote unity, harmony and amity between the diverse elements of this country. My friends can desert me, they can remove their confidence from me, they can withdraw the trust they have placed in my hands, but never shall I deviate from that line of policy. Whatever may be the consequence, whether loss of prestige, loss of popularity, or loss of power, I feel that I am in the right, and I know that a time will come when every man will render me full justice on that score."—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in the House of Commons, March 12, 1900.

"I claim this for the Liberal Government, that we have endeavored to carry on the policy of this country so as to make Canada a nation—a nation within the British Empire, a nation great in the eyes of the world. For my part, I want to see her lands occupied, her mines developed, her forests cleared, her fisheries exploited, her cities growing, her population increasing, but above all, I want to see our people united."—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, at Downsview, Ont., Oct. 1899.

A Lower Level Still.

It was thought by men of principle when the Conservative campaign managers had to adopt a forged Globe as a campaign sheet, to mislead the electors, if possible, that a pretty low level of political morality had been reached. But what will be thought by self-respecting Conservatives in this riding when they learn that their party managers here, or someone on their behalf, has not only accepted the printed forgery, but gone a step further, and personally forged the name of William Gibson and attached it to these imitation Globes when sending them through the mails. It is a fact that copies of these bogus Globes have been mailed at the St. Catharines postoffice to voters in this riding, marked "With the compliments of William Gibson, M.P." What do respectable Conservatives think of men who would do this? Is the party in desperate straits, or is it burdened by men who are allowing their natural tendencies to find expression in this way?—St. Catharines Journal.

Canada is well satisfied with Laurier.

Speaking in the Senate on Feb. 9, 1900, Hon. R. W. Scott said: "I betray no secrets of council, and I say there was not a man in the confidant who did not approve of everything that was done, and after the first contingent was sent I had a conversation with Mr. Tarte, and of his own free motion, he said: 'Why should we not send another contingent?' and we offered our second contingent before the first contingent had left Halifax. THAT OFFER FIRST CAME FROM MR. TARTE. He said: 'Why should we not SEND A SECOND CONTINGENT?' The war is beginning to look serious." In the early part of October it did not look serious.

The proposal for the sending of a second Canadian contingent came from Mr. Tarte, the man who is charged by his opponents with being opposed to the sending of any contingent.

The Truth About Binder Twine.

The Tories are still trying to catch a few unwary votes by asserting that the Government has put up the price of binder twine, making the farmer pay exorbitant prices for this commodity, which is so necessary to the carrying on of his business. The fact is that during the last eight years of Tory administration binder twine averaged 11% cents a pound, going as high as 15% cents, and never below 7% cents. During the four years the Liberal Government has been in control the average price has been 8% cents, in spite of the fact that the Spanish-American war practically stopped the supply of raw material for months. These are the simple unvarnished facts and whole columns of figures will not make the farmer believe that black is white.

Increasing the Wages of the Workingman.

Hon. Mr. Blair, the Minister of Railways, recently increased the wages of laborers on the Intercolonial Railway to $1.20 per diem, a higher rate than is paid by any other road in Canada. The extent of the recent increases cannot yet be estimated in dollars, but it must mean an enormous sum of money. But the increase now given is one following increases to other classes of I. C. R. employees under Liberal rule. Since Mr. Blair came into power he has increased the wage earnings per annum of the employees as follows: Train hands and yardmen, $41,000. Enginemen and firemen, $35,000. Station agents, telegraphers and train dispatchers, $23,000. Trackmasters and trackmen, $13,000. Mechanical department, $25,000. Sleeping car staff, $1,200. Employees at stations, $4,000. Other employees have received increases about $10,000.

The total of increases in wages per annum under Mr. Blair previous to the present increase equal $150,000. The present increase will enormously swell the preceding total.

These increased earnings indirectly benefit every merchant and business man in this city and elsewhere.

Contrast Liberal performance with Tory profession.

The Tories have not yet given up the baby-talk of Liberal disloyalty, because the Premier and a number of his colleagues refused to be dragged into singing the National Anthem in the House of Commons at the behest of Ringmaster Montague. Have they forgotten the scathing condemnation of One who said, "Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you saying, This people draweth nigh to me with their mouth, and honoreth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me."

Position of Catholics.

The Catholic Register, Toronto, Nov. 1, says:

"The Mail and Empire and the World have taken it upon themselves during this political campaign to look after the interests of the Catholic electors and representatives generally. They have been busy creating grievances for us which either do not exist or which an isolated case of disappointment has given rise to. We are running along nicely, and are in no great need of the assistance of these two papers, either to call attention to any of our demands for justice or to create imaginary claims on this or that party. If Catholics as a body have not been receiving their due in Canada, they are quite capable of demanding it, and will do so, with unmistakable sound, in the event of any such contingencies. If Catholics have been discriminated against by the Liberals we are not aware of it, and the raising of such a cry at the present time is anything but fair. It is a peculiar thing that the distinctly Catholic organs of Ontario have not been the first to find this thing out if it exists; it is a peculiar thing that these two papers, that have been so intensely anti-Catholic in past years, should now take up the cudgel in our behalf against the Liberal Government. It rather creates suspicion in our hearts that these two papers should now be so solicitous as to our welfare, which in years gone by was a thorn in their side. Their championing of Catholic grievances will but serve to make Catholics keep a closer watch upon them. The unsolicited and unwarranted defense of Catholic interests arises from imaginary wrongs that are being created for us in the editorial rooms of these two papers. We have no grievances to air, and when we have it will not be to the Mail and Empire or to the World that we need look for support. Catholics must be regarded as a non-thinking, non-reading portion of this great country of ours, that they should be made to have grievances by journalists that have ever been opposed to them and their wants. Catholics are not so easily bulldozed as some people imagine. We are a reading portion of this country, and are not usually looked upon as being incapable of airing our opinions and our grievances when occasion demands the one or requires the other. The Catholic Register does not wish to enter upon this campaign of politics, but when Catholics are dragged into the arena as Catholics, then it is time that we should say something for ourselves and for Catholics generally."

Rebellion Suppression Equipments.

Some of the Opposition papers, with a little judgment as Mr. Beattie, have the temerity to remind the electorate of what the Prime Minister said of the conduct of the late Government, when charging its members with responsibility for the outbreak in the Northwest in 1885. Col. Denison, in his book, thus confirms the impression which Sir Wilfrid Laurier and very many others in Canada entertained with regard to the criminal neglect of the authorities at Ottawa at that time:

"The storm burst on March 20, 1885. A party of police from Fort Carlton went to Duck Lake to remove some Government stores. With them were a volunteer company from Prince Albert consisting of 40 men. They were met by a largely superior force of half-breeds, an altercation took place, firing began, and in a few minutes eleven were killed and three wounded. The police had to retreat. The news was flashed to Ottawa, and the Government found an expensive and troublesome campaign on their hands. The whole dispute was over some 40,000 or 50,000 acres of land, in a wilderness of tens of millions of acres for which the Government were crying for settlers. It cost Canada the lives of 500 of her people, the wounding of many others, the expenditure of about $6,000,000 in cash, and losses of time and business that cannot be estimated. When it was all over the Government offered free to the volunteers 1800,000 acres of the land if they wanted to settle on it, and yet the whole dispute was mainly about some forty or fifty thousand acres of land on which people were already settled. It is not often a country suffers so severely and so unnecessarily."

This explanation is exactly in accord with the views always entertained by Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

There is another matter on which the Opposition has had much to say. They have criticised without stint the conduct of the militia officers who arranged for and sent out the emergency rations to the troops in South Africa. For the sake of argument, let it be admitted that Dr. Neil, the medical expert, who has been in the service of the Dominion for over a quarter of a century, was wrong when he recommended the food, and that more care might have been exercised in this matter. It would be the one mistake in the whole equipment of the army of 4,000 men who were sent to South Africa. In all other respects there has been nothing but praise for the staff of the department, who, working early and late for many months, completed a task of a magnitude such as had never been undertaken in Canada before, and received the commendation not only of the Government of Canada, but of the Imperial authorities. Col. Denison, who was in charge of one regiment in the Northwest expedition in 1885, shows that the severe critics of the department at the present time had in that time far more reason to complain, but they were not heard from. Referring to the supplies handed out to the cavalry, Col. Denison says:

"We were issued blankets that had been condemned, in most of which there were holes, more or less. I insisted on an extra supply, and obtained three for each man, and as the holes were not all opposite each other they were of some use."

Then the water bottles all leaked, and had to be thrown away as useless, and generally speaking, the equipment seems to have been very poor. The shortcomings of 1885 are not mentioned here as a set-off to anything that may have been found deficient in the equipment of the men sent to South Africa; but we give Col. Denison's independent testimony with the object of showing the critics that it becomes them to be modest in their cavillings, for the past record, either in governing the Northwest or in equipping the forces when a rebellion was the direct result of their misgovernment, is not such as to command public respect or make it wise for them to set their friends up as infallible administrators, who would have succeeded where the medical director of the Canadian militia has fallen short.

Who Mr. Tarte Is.

When we want to see any cause defended in a terse, trenchant and finished style, we turn to that master of economics and incisive logic, Mr. Gardiner, of the Hamilton Times. Defending Mr. Tarte against an attack upon him by the Spectator the other day, the Times said:

"And a vote for J. Israel Tarte is a vote for the man who sent Thomas McGreevy, Tory M. P., to jail for bleeding public contractors out of thousands of dollars to form a Tory corruption fund in 1887. It is a vote for the man who got Sir Hector Langevin, a French Tory cabinet minister, turned out of the Macdonald Government for being a party to the McGreevy transactions. It is a vote for the man who has deepened the St. Lawrence canal to 14 feet, and done more in shorter time to boom transportation by the all-Canadian route than any former Minister of Public Works ever did. It is a vote for a man who has spent public money so judiciously and so honestly that no political opponent can point to one dollar misappropriated by him. It is a vote for a man who is as loyal to Queen Victoria as Lord Salisbury, as true to British connection as Sir John Macdonald was, as firm a friend of Canada as ever was born and reared in the land, as honest and capable a minister as ever served in any government. It ill becomes the newspapers which supported Langevin and Caron so many years to try to defame J. Israel Tarte."

What the Montreal Witness Says.

Says that calm and moderate journal, the Montreal Witness:

"Sir Wilfrid Laurier is being fiercely assailed throughout the French constituencies of this Province for having sent the Canadian contingents to South Africa. Wherever there are few or no English-speaking voters, French-Canadians are being appealed to by the Opposition orators to cast their votes against Laurier and the Liberals and turn them out of power on that account. The pamphlet issued by the Premier and his French-Canadian supporters is being used, Sir Charles Tupper's disclaimer in regard to it not being taken seriously. We suppose that this unfair and unpatriotic course on the part of the Opposition is only what has been looked for and has been faced by the Premier and his French-Canadian supporters. But we think that it ought to be taken seriously into account by all English-speaking electors. They will not lay themselves open to the charge of being influenced by race or religious prejudices in supporting a French-Canadian Premier, whose chief aim in political life has obviously been to promote the friendship and union of the races. Sir Wilfrid Laurier is regarded throughout the Empire as the champion of sound imperialism. His defeat would probably chill and surprise people throughout the length and breadth of the Empire. It would certainly imply the triumph of discord and estrangement between the races that inhabit the country. The Imperial Government and British publicists in all parts of the Empire have pointed with pleasure and pride to the spectacle of a loyal and patriotic French-Canadian Premier and people in Canada living in contentment and prosperity as British subjects. We trust and believe that French-Canadians will support the Premier in spite of the bad appeals made to them, and certainly English-speaking Canadians should not allow the French-Canadian Premier to be defeated by the double-faced campaign which is being carried on against him for his loyalty to the Empire."

THAT BOGUS BILL

Not Worth the Paper It Was Printed On, and Never Even Discussed.

Though Kept Dangling Before the People for Two Years!

Mr. Beattie's bogus eight-hour bill is an even greater fake than it was shown to be by Mr. Hyman at the nomination meeting.

On reference to the official records of Parliament, we find that Mr. Beattie introduced the bill last year—that is, more than eighteen months ago—that it was read a first time, when, of course, there is no discussion, and that it never again was touched by Mr. Beattie. Think of the fakery involved in this stage play!

The bill was brought in and read a first time on April 25, 1939. The House sat all through May, June, July and August up to the 12th. Thus almost three months elapsed from the time the bill was read a first time till Parliament adjourned for the year.

But in all those months, though Mr. Beattie had dozens of opportunities to go on with the bill to its second reading, he refused to take that means of securing its discussion, and let Parliament rise without so much as saying a word regarding it.

This year Mr. Beattie pursued identical tactics, as Mr. Hyman showed, when he cornered him at the nomination meeting. He brought in the bill, and had it read a first time early in March. He let that month pass by, also April, May, June and almost one-half of July, and again and again declined to accept the invitation to proceed with the measure to its second reading, and to that discussion which, nowadays, he professes he was so anxious to facilitate.

The public, however, have received no explanation of this extraordinary conduct on the part of the ex-member for the city.

They are forced irresistibly to the conclusion that Mr. Beattie knew full well that the Dominion Parliament, under the imperial law, which is our constitution, has no power to regulate the hours of labor, but that all such matters are relegated to the provincial legislatures. Indeed, we are informed that as soon as Mr. Beattie put the bill before Parliament he was told by one of his leaders that the Dominion Parliament had absolutely no jurisdiction in the matter, and that the law was so clear that anyone not a fool who read it could reach no other conclusion.

The conclusion, then, must be that Mr. Beattie knew that his bill was a fake, but that he was tempted to keep it dangling before the public, in hope that he might deceive the unthinking among the workers in the community, and induce them to believe that he had suddenly been seized with a zeal for their welfare, and would do great things for them if they would only vote for him!

The fake, however, is now thoroughly exposed, and we venture the belief that Mr. Beattie's chances of election have been greatly damaged by the revelations of his attempt to impose upon the credulity of the intelligent people of London. They refuse to be taken in by a bogus bill, be it ever so craftily kept dangling before their eyes.

A Tribute to Youthful Manhood.

Immediately before the present election a number of new voters will be enrolled whose qualification is that they have reached years of discretion and are supposed to be able to take an interest in their country's life. They receive the vote not because they pay taxes or possess property, but simply because they are men. This is certainly a tribute to manhood and should be treated as such. Those who receive the sacred privilege of voting should seek to exercise their franchise in an intelligent manner and in an honorable spirit. It will be well for our young men to remember that the privilege that comes to them today so easily has cost much to those who went before them. The battle for freedom has been a hard-fought battle, and the victory has cost a painful price. In England today it is not as easy for a young man to gain a vote as it is in Ontario. During the last century freedom has been broadened by slow degrees in the old land, and the Liberal party there fought many a hard battle to that end, but even now there is much to be done there to simplify freedom and make the franchise a reality. In this province the franchise is made full and free, and the vote is accessible to those who have a right to it. This is true democracy, and it is too late in the day to discuss whether this is right and expedient; it is here, and we have to show ourselves worthy of it. If democracy fails it will not be because of its logical inconsistency or theoretical defects, but because of the failure of manhood, which is the greatest failure of all. It is important, then, that young men should have real public spirit, that they should take an intelligent interest in public affairs, and be able to register a vote which is the outcome of conviction.

As to the policy of the present Government, we believe that it is one that will appeal to young men who consider it on its merits; there is a largeness about it that appeals to their imagination; it is not lacking ideal elements likely to quicken the enthusiasm of youth. The way in which Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his coadjutors have set Canada in the face of the world as an important part of the British Empire stirs the hearts of our young men. They see that Canada is a nation, an important member of one of the finest families of nations that the world has ever seen. They know that the Queen and the people of the old land have been stirred to feelings of gratitude by the action of Canada. They are now sure the loyalty of Canada has not been mere lip-loyalty; it has shown itself a living principle in peace and war. The Liberal party, then, can make its appeal to the youthful voter and expect a quick and hearty response.

East Middlesex.

John Gilson, who is carrying the Liberal banner in East Middlesex, is a man of brains and energy. He has made a splendid campaign, and has made many friends. We are aware that some people regard East Middlesex as hopelessly Conservative; but any argument of that kind should be left for the Opposition. With a good cause such as is that presented by the Government now in power and an intelligent electorate, it only requires careful and systematic work to get every voter favorable to continuing the present satisfactory condition of affairs to work wonders.

West Middlesex.

No brighter M. P. sat among the younger generation of representatives at Ottawa in the last Parliament than Mr. W. S. Calvert. He is regarded as "a coming man," and in the next Parliament we expect to see him take a leading position. His prospects of election are very bright, as the public are not only well satisfied with the splendid record of the Administration, of which he is an able supporter, but they regard him as being personally, by all odds, the best man of the two running. He clearly outclasses his opponent in point of platform ability and of personal popularity, and he deserves the success at the polls which we believe will be his. Better poll every available vote for him, and strengthen his influence as the representative of the riding.

South Middlesex.

There is a good Liberal majority in South Middlesex, the infamous gerrymander of the late Government having been so arranged that the "Grits" of Middlesex were "hived" in this constituency, so as to help the Conservatives to a most unfair advantage in other ridings. One of the these days, however, the Liberal Administration, to be again returned to power on Wednesday next, will undo the gerrymander, and do justice to all parties. This will be the last occasion, therefore, upon which the Liberals of South Middlesex will have an opportunity to poll their full strength, and whether in South London or in the townships making up the riding it is highly desirable that every Liberal should go to the polls and aid in rolling up such a majority for good government as has not previously been polled.

In Mr. McGugan, the people of South Middlesex have had a faithful representative, who has been most careful to promote the interests of his constituents, and as he supports a government whose career has falsified all the doleful prophecies of their opponents, no vote that can be taken to the polls should fail to be polled on Wednesday.

Don't minimize the strength of the Opposition candidate, but roll up the majority.

What Laurier Government Has Done for Labor.

Briefly stated, the Laurier Government has accomplished the following reforms in the interest of the workmen of Canada:

Abolition of "sweat shops" in the making of militia clothing and post-office supplies, which existed before 1896.

Creation of a Bureau of Labor. Establishment of the Labor Gazette. Fair wages conditions imposed on all contracts for public works.

An act of an Alien Labor Law. Provision for settlement of labor disputes by conciliation and arbitration.

Legalization of trades unions. Regulations providing for proper medical attendance, hospital accommodation and inspection and general sanitary condition on all public works. Doubling of the tax on imported Chinamen.

An amendment to the Railway Act.

Workingmen should vote for the Government which has stood by them.

The Opposition organ the other day reproduced part of a speech by Sir Michael Hicks Beach, intended to make it appear that the chancellor viewed with favor Sir Charles Tupper's preference scheme. The way the Mail did it was to cut out of the middle of the speech this sentence:

"He said with regard to the former, that it was impossible for Great Britain to be other than a free trade country, and that he sympathized with Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Dominion premier, that an imperial Zollverein was unattainable without free trade within the empire."

The Toronto World omitted the words after "free trade country," and the London Free Press followed suit. It's a poor cause that has to be so supported.

A Great Manufacturer Speaks.

Mr. W. E. H. Massey has taken pains to let it be known that he is heartily in accord with the present Government.

He says: "As is generally known, politics are not in my line. I am, however, an independent supporter of the present Government. While not subscribing to their policy in its entirety, I believe the Laurier Government have rendered the country magnificent service, and should undoubtedly be returned; and I have confidence that, with the experience gained during the present term, they will be prepared to administer the affairs of state in a thoroughly satisfactory manner. I shall therefore support the Government."

The manufacturer knows how to appreciate a party that has brought prosperity to the country.

The Mail on Sir Charles Tupper.

The appointment of such a man as the head of the state would be not merely the inauguration of violence and corruption, unredeemed by any true wisdom or statesmanship; it would be the signal for the disruption of the community and for a moral civil war.—The Mail, June 9, 1891.

It will be well for Liberals in every constituency to remain on guard till the polls are closed.

Why Do We Bat?

First, we must build up the tissues in the growing body and reconstruct them worn out by use; second, we must supply nervous, muscular and digestive force to the different parts of the body. Scott's Emulsion plays a very important part as regards both objects. All delicate and rapidly growing children need it.

CAN RECOMMEND IT.—Mr. Enos Bonberry, Tuscarora, writes: "I am pleased to say that Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is all that you claim it to be, as we have been using it for years, both internally and externally and have always received benefit from its use. It is our family medicine, and I take great pleasure in recommending it."

POLITICAL POINTS

A Dishonest Trick Brought to Light.

Money Sent Anonymously to Liberal Voters in Guelph to Prevent Their Voting.

Guelph, Nov. 2.—The charge is being openly made here that a deliberate attempt is being worked up to disfranchise some 200 of the known Liberal supporters of Mr. Hugh Guthrie. The scheme is similar to that which was tried recently in Montreal, and exposed by the Liberal organizations there.

Envelopes have been addressed by parties at present unknown to some 200 Liberals. These envelopes contain sums ranging from $1 to $5 and a slip stating "for your vote." The Guelph Mercury, the local Liberal paper, thus exposes the scheme:

"The Mercury has been informed on what it believes to be thoroughly reliable authority that today envelopes were addressed to somewhere in the neighborhood of 200 supposed Liberal voters in the riding. In these are enclosed from $1 to $5. There is no signature to show from whom the money has been sent by. The purpose is explained by the unsigned statement that this 'is for your vote.' The intention is to swear the voters at the polls. No man can help taking such a missive from the postoffice. The hope of the transmitters, of course, is that the receipt of this money will lead timid voters to refuse the oath. But he will be a foolish man who will be intimidated by the clumsy scheme. No man should hesitate for a moment to be sworn who goes to the polls honestly intending to vote for Mr. Guthrie, simply because the Opposition in this despicable fashion attempts to cast upon him the odium of receiving a bribe. The scheme shows the desperate straits of the Opposition in this riding, and their readiness to resort to any means to win. Their action should be resented by the honest electorate on Wednesday next."

The publication of this article has caused a sensation, and at the Tory gathering here last evening the chairman, Col. Macdonald, personally denied all knowledge of any such thing. The Mercury replies as follows: "Lieut.-Col. Macdonald's cloak is not large enough to cover all the transactions of the Conservative management. No one thinks that the colonel is a party to any corrupt business. The statement made in the Mercury last night regarding the sending out of money to Liberal voters was given to it on what still believes to be good authority. The statement was voluntarily and freely made; it did not come through the usual channels, and the Mercury has every reason to believe that such a scheme had been resolved on and was in process of being carried out."

Later developments today are said to have brought out some startling facts, but the Liberal investigation committee will not divulge any information until the evidence is thorough and complete, as it doubtless will be.

SOUND MONEY
MEN PARADE

Final Rally of Republicans in New York City.

Nearly Seven Hours Consumed in Marching Through the Streets—About 38,000 Men and Over 100 Bands in the Procession.

New York, Nov. 3.—Through streets made alms by a continuing fall of rain, which, though not a downpour, was sufficient to dampen the clothes, though not the spirits of the marchers the parade of the Business Men's Republican and Sound Money Association, passed from Bowling Green to Fortieth street, on Saturday. A count of the men in line was made at the reviewing stand near the Fifth Avenue Hotel. This count shows that there were 37,615 IN THE PARADE. The cold rain which most of the time drove directly into the faces of the marchers did not seem to dampen the enthusiasm one whit, or lessen the number in line. Flags flew just as gaily, and cheers were as readily given as if the sun were shining.

The police were in perfect command of the great throngs in all parts of the line of march, and at no time was there the slightest crowding or trouble of any kind.

The head of the parade reached the reviewing stand at 10:35 o'clock, and the last man passed there at 5:45 o'clock.

SIX HOURS OF MARCHING. The parade, was led by a squad of mounted policemen, which reached the reviewing point at Fortieth street and Fifth Avenue at 11:13 o'clock. Two minutes later the first platoon or division of the Dry Goods Republic Club, which had the honor of heading the parade proper, reached Fortieth street, swung west into that thoroughfare, and disbanded at Seventy Avenue. Nearly seven hours later the last division of the parade reached the point of disbandment, and at six minutes after six o'clock the big demonstration was officially said to be over.

The crowds in the lower part of the city began to gather early, and along Broadway, clear up to Worth street, from where the parade was to move, thousands massed on the sidewalks, and waited in the drizzling rain and cold, raw wind, for the formation to move.

Shortly after 10 o'clock the head of the parade, at which rode Governor Roosevelt, moved up the line of march. When the reviewing stand was reached at the Worth Monument, the governor's carriage was halted, and he took his place on the stand, where he reviewed the ranks of the marchers.

REVIEWED BY GOV. ROOSEVELT. For several hours Gov. Roosevelt stood on the stand with head uncovered for nearly all the time, and greeted the marchers as they filed past by the thousands. For each division or organization Gov. Roosevelt had a word of praise or acknowledgment; from each he was given a cheer and greetings both formal and impromptu. There was no shelter over the reviewing stand, and the steady drizzle of rain made the seven hours a terrible strain upon anyone through it all. Gov. Roosevelt's smile never left his face, and although his clothing was wet, and his hair glistened with water, as he stood, hat in hand, he showed no ill-effects of the arduous task at the end.

There were 38 organizations or divisions of the parade, each organization being commanded by a marshal, who had under him marshals of subdivisions and captains of companies. There were over 100 bands in the parade, the 22nd Regiment Band leading. Nearly all the prominent bands in the city were in line, and there were innumerable drum corps. A score of bands was needed to furnish the music for the Wholesale Dry Goods Republican Club alone, which consisted of 16 sections of about 1,000 men each, marching in companies of 16-file front, 100 companies to the division.

THE POISONED SPRING.—As in nature so in man, pollute the spring and disease and waste are bound to follow—the stomach and nerves out of kilter means poison in the spring. South American Nervine is a great purifier, cures indigestion, dyspepsia and tones the nerves. The best evidence of its efficacy is the unsolicited testimony of thousands of cured ones. MILD IN THEIR ACTION.—Parma's Vegetable Pills are very mild in their action. They do not cause griping in the stomach or cause disturbances there as so many pills do. Cartwright's
CommentaryInteresting Notes on Sir Mackenzie
Bowell's Speech.

Explanatory and Historical—A Divided House—Conservative Leaders Do Not Command Respect.

Brimpton, Nov. 2.—At a magnificent meeting here today in the interest of Mr. Joseph Featherston, who will undoubtedly be re-elected for Peel, Sir Richard Cartwright paid his devoirs to the Conservative leaders, confessed and unconfessed. At an early stage in his address he said: Now the time for words has nearly passed; nevertheless it may not be altogether out of place to address a few words to you as to the policy of the government, the charges preferred against the government, and just perhaps a word as to the parties who are likely to replace us should the impossible occur and Sir Charles Tupper be returned to power. I would like you to reflect, even my Conservative friends to reflect, who are the men who are likely in such an event to replace the Laurier Administration, notably and particularly in the Province of Ontario.

THAT LITTLE LIST. Who are they? Sir, who are the prominent members of the Conservative party in the Province of Ontario at this present time? Sir, first in place and in size is, no doubt, my old acquaintance, Sir Mackenzie Bowell; next in seniority to him comes Mr. John Haggart; closely following them are Mr. Clarke Wallace and Dr. Montague. Now, Sir, far be it from me—and it is quite unnecessary for me to say anything in derogation of these honorable gentlemen, but I may be pardoned for saying what they say about themselves. What do they say about themselves?

The other day there was a nomination at Carleton Place, where two Conservatives were running. The agent and venerable ex-premier, Sir Mackenzie Bowell, thought fit to take the stand, and it was a natural thing he should do so. When there are only two Conservatives in the field, a venerable Conservative like himself might, perhaps, give good advice as to which they shall choose. And what had Sir Mackenzie Bowell to say on that occasion? What had Sir Mackenzie Bowell to tell the electors of Lanark? He had to tell the electors of the county of Lanark that with his consent neither Mr. Haggart nor his confederates, the surviving members of the nest of traitors, should ever have a seat in a Canadian cabinet. Now, ladies and gentlemen, these four gentlemen whom I have named are not men to be ignored by the Conservative party. Sir Mackenzie Bowell may be—mind, these are not my words—he may be, as Mr. Foster declared on the floor of parliament, a vicious old impostor, do not hesitate to say that; but, whatever he may be, he is the leader of the Conservative party in the senate; he is a man who has, for the time being, at any rate, a very prominent place, and a very considerable amount of power, for mischief, at any rate, if not for good, as we have had experience.

CANNOT SUPPRESS HAGGART. John Haggart is by no means the sort of person to be passed over. I take no stock in the sneers some Conservative journals have launched against Mr. Haggart. I have known him a long time, and have come to understand he is a man of very considerable natural parts and force of character. It may not be known to this audience, but it is well it should be known, that John Haggart was the only man at the time of the conspiracy made with the Canadian Pacific Railway who had the hardihood and the pluck to stand up in caucus and on the floor of parliament to oppose Sir John A. Macdonald. I heard him and saw him, and know that Sir John tried very hard to discipline Mr. John Haggart, and I was also present in parliament some half dozen years later when the aforesaid John Haggart forced his way, as we say, into the cabinet, and I took upon myself, which perhaps I should not have done, when the Ministerial changes were announced, to call attention to the fact that John Haggart, at any rate did not get in by any back stairs means, but that his Cabinet position was the spoils of his own bow and gear. Since that time he has been a very important factor in their councils.

IN RE MONTAGUE VS. WALLACE. Mr. Clarke Wallace is not a man to be lightly passed over. He is perhaps the most powerful member of the Conservative party in the Province of Ontario, individually speaking, and they know that very well.

Dr. Montague is a man who is being thrust forward by them, and he, I feel, at these present meetings is the only Ontario member of parliament whom Sir Charles Tupper thinks fit to associate with himself on the platform, because it is a rather remarkable circumstance that Sir Charles Tupper has been stumping Ontario, and until the other day, although he had several gentlemen with him, he never had one single member of parliament from Ontario associated with his troupe until Dr. Montague joined him at London.

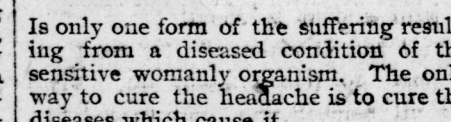

Under these circumstances you cannot say that what these gentlemen say of each other is to be lightly regarded. I have observed to you what Mr. Foster, though he is not an Ontario man, has said of Sir Mackenzie Bowell; I have told you what Sir Mackenzie Bowell had to say of Mr. Haggart, and by implication of Dr. Montague, of Mr. Foster and of Sir Charles Tupper. And, Sir, there is more than that. I have heard Mr. Foster a very poor opinion of Mr. Haggart, but, Sir, Mr. Clarke Wallace has his own views as to the worthiness and as to the fitness to hold office of Dr. Montague. I was in parliament—and the thing is recorded in Hansard—when Mr. Wallace, rising in his place, denounced Dr. Montague, then Secretary of State, as having been the author of certain anonymous slanders directed against his brother minister, Sir Adolphe Caron. Mr. Clarke Wallace gave the proof, gave the evidence, made the assertions with all possible emphasis and with the greatest possible detail.

A STAY OF PROCEEDINGS. Dr. Montague rose in his place, denied the charges, declared publicly that he would forthwith prosecute Mr. Clarke Wallace for slander because these things had been repeated outside of parliament—and ladies and gentlemen, within four and twenty hours after this valiant declaration the said Dr. Montague took the first ship for England, and he stayed there until the session was over or until the dissolution was so close that there was no chance of action in parliament to investigate these charges. Since then four years and more have passed, during which these two ornaments of the Conservative party have met, one in the front bench and the other directly behind him. I say this for Mr. Clarke Wallace, what he has never resented one jot or tittle of the charges he made or appeared in the slightest degree to shrink from. But, Sir, though more than four years ago, well, since five I think, have passed since Dr. Montague, then Secretary of State, pledged himself to prosecute Mr. Clarke Wallace, and he has never done so. He has never taken a step to have him investigated, never a step has been taken, never the slightest attempt has been made on the part of Dr. Montague to repeat and explain the charges which Mr. Wallace had brought against him.

A HAPPY FAMILY. Now, ladies and gentlemen, these are the four present principal men of the Conservative party in this grand Province of Ontario, and I would ask you whether you think that gentlemen who entertain these opinions of each other, gentlemen who have done what these men have done to each other, who have brought on the floor of parliament charges as these gentlemen have done, I ask you whether they, in your judgment—and, mind, I am speaking to Conservatives rather than Reformers—are the proper men to lead the Conservative party in Ontario, or if the Conservative party did attain to victory that they are the men to whom you would like to trust the management of great affairs involving issues that may affect the welfare of your children and grandchildren for many a generation to come. Now, Sir, I will just say this: some of these people have been talking a good deal about the extraordinary importance to the people of Canada of maintaining the honor of their public men, but I am jealous of maintaining the honor of Canadian public men, and here I may say that, although I have not generally been accused of over-tenderness in dealing with my political opponents, I may say this, that during the whole of my political career I have carefully attended to these two things—I have refused on all occasions to use private information, no matter how obtained, to the detriment of my political opponents, and I have also carefully abstained from attacking them on matters connected with their private life.

Sir, I may have erred, because unduly, but I have done it, and I am not sorry I have erred, because these gentlemen have done for themselves all I could have done for them, and I am not sorry I have done it, because of exposing to the people of Canada the means and methods by which they obtained and kept power. One thing is certain, and that is that if my Conservative friends desire to win they

Is only one form of the suffering resulting from a diseased condition of the sensitive womanly organism. The only way to cure the headache is to cure the diseases which cause it.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been the means of curing thousands of women of headache, backache, female weakness and other forms of disease peculiar to women. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures bearing-down pains.

"I think if it were not for your 'Favorite Prescription' I would have been in my grave," writes Mrs. Edwin H. Gardner, of Egypt, Plymouth Co., Mass., Box 14. "I had pain all over me, and such a dragging feeling it seemed I could not do my house work. I had to sit down to wash the dishes, even in the year I was so sick I did not care to live and prayed many times that God would take me. One day I thought I would write to Dr. Pierce. A few days I received an answer. I decided to try his medicine, and today I am a well woman. I have no headache, no pain, and I feel strong. I have had headaches previous to the monthly period, and such pain that I would roll on the floor in agony. This sometimes would occur every two weeks, and I would be very weak afterward. I was in pain all over. My feet would slip from under me. I would try to go across the room, and I could not walk any distance without being in pain. I took three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and three vials of Doctor Pierce's Pellets, and was completely cured."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets stimulate the liver.

must first and foremost bring before the people of Canada men whom the people of Canada can honor and trust, and on this point I think that gentlemen who at this present moment must of necessity form a portion of any government that is to be formed on the Conservative side can scarcely expect to command either the respect of the country or the loyalty of the confidence of their own supporters. (Cheers.)

BRIGIT PROSPECTS. Sir Richard informed the meeting that the reports from all over the country indicated that the Liberal prospects were brighter than at any previous election, especially in Nova Scotia, where Sir Charles had his home. He made scathing reference to the circulation of the forged Globe. The balance of his address was a comprehensive and eloquent exposition of the Liberal policy and its results.

STRONG FOR SIR WILFRID

Magnificent Testimonial From Mr. E. W. Rathbun.

A Signed Pamphlet to His Business Associates and Friends Concerning the Present Election.

Mr. Rathbun's testimonial to the wise statesmanship of Sir Wilfrid Laurier has already been noted in these columns. The Toronto Globe has the following more extended dispatch:

Mr. E. W. Rathbun, head of the big Rathbun Company, of Deseronto, who supported Sir John Macdonald, has issued a signed pamphlet to his business associates and friends on the present election contest. Mr. Rathbun comes out as a strong supporter of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and in commenting on the great growth of our trade, says: "Of this vast increase, the greatest growth has taken place during the premiership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Under his regime the great public works in the vast programme of internal development, upon the wisdom of which all are now agreed, have been carried forward with an energy and progress never before equaled, thereby contributing to these prosperous times, which all our citizens and homes enjoy today. . . . The character of the men selected by Sir Wilfrid for his ministries, the vast amount of important and difficult work carried on, the financial standing of Canada, with an excess of income over expenditure, even with lessened duties, South Africa and Yukon expenditures, the marvelous growth of trade and commerce, Canada's relations to the motherland and the great nation to the south of us, the cordial manner, vigorous prosecution of the work in hand, and the taking up and putting through of great undertakings long promised, all put forth and accomplished during the first term of premiership, give Sir Wilfrid, in far-seeing, prudent and wise statesmanship, first place in all the colonies of Britain. We have no one who can do better."

"We are entering upon a new century, a new era, indeed, to us, as a nation. Immigration will vastly exceed our greatest past record. How necessary to have at the head of our country a man of irreproachable character, broad in statesmanship, honorable in debate, of unquestioned loyalty, and who stands for peace, fraternity and progress throughout the land. We all share in our country's honor. We all profit by her progress. We should all unite to endeavor to remove every vestige of racial feeling, religious intolerance and discord, in which we are engaged long, and which we have an excellent example. I feel it my duty and a privilege to place before you my views upon these important matters."

WEST LAMBTON

Enthusiastic Meeting in the Interest of Dr. Johnston.

Addressed by Chairman Cowan, the Candidate, Mr. F. P. Betts and Mr. F. F. Pardee, M.P.P.

A rousing meeting in the interests of Dr. Johnston, the popular candidate in West Lambton, was held in Sarnia on Friday evening, the large hall of the Boys' Brigade being filled to overflowing. Mr. Hector Cowan occupied the chair.

The meeting was addressed by the chairman, the candidate, Mr. F. P. Betts, of London, and Mr. F. F. Pardee, M.P.P.

In the course of his remarks Mr. Betts took occasion to contrast the peculiar character of Sir Charles Tupper's mental organization with that of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Without meaning any disrespect to the former, many of whose qualities, such as his courage and tenacity of purpose he admired, he believed that the peculiar constitution of Sir Charles Tupper's mind was not that best fitted for one placed in control of the destinies of a great Dominion such as ours. Sir Charles' mind was essentially of the exaggerative type. Everything presented itself to him magnified to ten or twenty-fold its natural proportions. He was utterly incapable of assigning to questions their proper magnitude. His judgment was, therefore, faulty and fallacious. Even in respect to his own capacity, the honorable gentleman was apt to be misled. He was too much inclined to arrogate to himself all the desirable qualities of a statesman. He was rather the stamp of a man who believes that the ability he possesses is subtracted from the general stock of ability in the world, leaving the balance available for distribution among the remainder of mankind infinitely small.

The speaker contrasted with this disposition the well-balanced mind of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, always calm and prepared to deal wisely with whatever questions might arise. He pointed out the hollowiness of the opposition charges in regard thereto.

Mr. Pardee, the popular young member of the local house, met with a perfect ovation and closed the meeting with a rattling half-hour address that elicited unbounded applause.

Dr. Johnston has a very strong hold of the affections of the electors of the riding, and his election by a sweeping majority is assured.

First, the Opposition issued the infamous No. 6 pamphlet.

Then came the forged Toronto

Globe.

Now, at the eleventh hour, we have an anonymous letter, telegraphed all over the country from Montreal, alleging that some unnamed Conservative manufacturer will pay the pay-of his men—if the Tupper-Haggart-

Montague combination wins!

It is the old story of the spider's address to the fly, but the fly on this occasion will give the web a wide berth.

Contrast this empty promise with the results under Liberal rule and under the old regime in the dark and dull days prior to 1894.

Look at London manufacturers, for example, with their steady work and good pay for 67 per cent more workmen today than found employment under Conservative rule four years ago.
