His Excellency Sir Julian Pauncefote: "With regard to your note of Aug. 9, 1893, of which the acknowledgment has been hitherto unavoidably deferred, I have now the pleasure of intorming you that the President will feel great satisfaction in bringing to the knowledge of Congress in his forthcoming annual message the resolution of the House of Commons the the 16th of July last, whereby that high body expressed its cordial sympathy with the action taken by the Senate and House of resentatives in the concurrent resolutions of Feb. 14, April 3, 1890, resolutions of Feb. 14, April 3, 1890, requesting the President to invite, from time to time, as the occasion may arise, suffness soon disappears. SCHOOL BOARD POWERS.

Justice Robertson Holds That Trustees Must Provide Funds Before They Can Build a School House

TORONTO, Dec. 31 .- In the Chancery Division Saturday Mr. Justice Robertson gave judgment in the case of Smith vs. William School Board, being the result of an action tried at Port Arthur. The action is brought against the public school board of the town, certain individual members of the board and Robertson & Ross, contractors, for an injunction to restrain the defendants from proceeding with the erection of a school building in the town, and to compel the repayment to the school corporation of money paid by the individual members of the board to the contractors for the work.

The learned judge holds that the school board of a city or incorporated village have no power to enter into any contract for the building of a school house, until the necessary funds have been provided under section 116 of the act of 1891, and that if a certain sum has been provided under that section for the purpose of building a school house, they cannot be allowed to enter into any contract or undertake any work involving the expenditure of any greater sum, and, therefore, that the contract into which the school board in this case entered was beyond their powers and not binding upon them. Injunction made perpetual, as prayed. If the work done is of some value to the board as the foundation of a smaller building or otherwise, they are to make an allowance for it, to be ascertained by the local judge at Port Arthur, the defendants, other than the school board, to pay back to the school board the whole of the $2,625 paid on account of the contract, with interest from the time of payment, less such sum, if any, as the referee shall find for the allowance as above, the defendants, other than the school board, to pay the plaintiff's cost of the action, the plaintiff to amend the name of the school board in the proceedings.

BEATON VS. GLOBE.

Legal Decision Affecting a Dozen Cana dian Newspapers.

TORONTO, Dec. 31.—The Divisional Court on Saturday gave judgment in the appeal case of Beaton vs. Globe Printing Company, a libel suit in which a dozen Ontario newspapers are concerned, the case against the Globe being first taken. The different papers published an article from the New York World concerning Mrs. Beaton, of Burlington, Ont., in which it was charged that Mrs. Beaton had been connected with the death of one Cicero Harrison. The appeal was by the plaintiff from an order of Galt, C. J., in chambers, affirming an order of the master in chambers requiring the plaintiff to attend before a special examiner for examination for discovery before statement of defense filed in an action for damages for libel. The appeal was dismissed with costs to the defendants in any event. Leave to appeal was refused. Examination stayed till after plaintiff has applied to the court and appeal for leave to appeal.

Cicero Harrison was a Canadian who, after living in various parts of Ontario, in cluding Galt and Toronto, moved a few years ago to Norfolk, Va. A few months ago he left Norfolk for New York on the steamer Wyandotte in company with a woman whom the New York World identifies with Mrs. Beaton, of Burlington, near Hamilton. Harrison was drowned on the trip and the New York Word published a long article, the result of an investigation connecting with his death the woman who accompanied him. Canadian papers republished the story and hence the libel

Death of Sir Samuel Baker.

London, Dec. 31 .- Sir Samuel White Baker, the distinguished African explorer. died yesterday afternoon at his residence at

Newton-Abbot, Devonshire. Samuel White Baker was born in London, June 8, 1821, and was educated at a private school in Germany. In 1847 he established an agricultural settlement and sanitarium at New Era, Ellia, in the mountains of Ceylon. At great personal cost he, together with his brother, conveyed emigrapts from England and the best breeds of cattle and sheep to be found to the mountain colony. In 1854 he retired from Ceylon, and in 1855 proceeded to the Crimea and was subsequently engaged in Turkey in the organization of the first railway. In 1861 he commenced at his own cost an enterprise for the discovery of the Nile sources, in the hope of meeting the Government expedition which had started from Zunzibar for the same object. He was accompanied throughout this arduous journey by his wife. For nearly a year he explored the regions of Abyssinia, whence comes the Blue Nile. Then he organized | concerning the antecedents of one G. W. a party of 96 persons to explore the R. Field, who, Mrs. Tobin says, wishes to course of the White Nile. This party reached Gondokoro in February, 1863, where they met Captains Speke and Grant, who had succeeded in reaching the Lake Victoria Nyanza, which they believed to be the primary source of the Nile. Baker supplied them with the necessary vessels for the voyage to Khartoum, and then started from Gondokoro by land, March 26, 1863, without either interpreter or guide. On March 14, 1864, he discovered and named Lake Albert Nyanza, and started homeward, but did not reach Gondokoro until March 23, 1865. He then claimed for England the discovery of the source of the Nile. The Royal Geographical Society warded to him its Victoria gold mala

In September, 1869, he undertook the command of an expedition to Central Atrica under the auspices of the Khedive, who placed 1,500 Egyptian troops at his disposal and intrusted him for four years with absolute power of life and death. He undertook to subdue the African wilderness and annex it to the civilized world, to destroy the slave trade, establish regular commerce and add the countries which border on the Nile to the kingdom of the Pharaohs. He had the rank of pasha and major-general and was accompanied by Lady Baker when he left Cairo on Dec. 2, 1869. He returned in 1873 and reported the complete success of the expedition.

Sir Samuel was the author of numerous works, including "The Rifle and the Hound in Ceylon," "Explorations of the Nile Sources," "Cast Up by the Sea," "Ismailia," "The Nile Tributaries of the Abyssinia," "Eight Years in Ceylon," etc.

One of King Lobengula's indunas describes the maxim fire thus: "I led my men on, and saw them falling like cut corn. We halted, knelt, and fired. Still they fell. We lay down protected by our shields, but most of the remainder were killed, so I crawled away and fled."

Natural Gas Pumping Station at East Chicago Blown Up.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Dec. 31.-Last evening the pumping station of the Indiana Natural Gas Company pipe line, at East Chicago, was blown up, and will probably result in the death of at least eight persons. While workmen were in the station engaged in reparing a leak in the pipe, the escoping gas took fire from a lantern which they knocked over, and in a moment an explosion took place, which tore the iron building to pieces and threw the workmen in every direction, some of whom were hurled 50 feet from the building, and were horribly burned. One of the injured men, after regaining consciousness, put his hands to his face, when the flesh dropped off; also the hair from his head. He then ran a quarter of a mile and shut off the main pipe, then fell in a dead faint. The pipes were torn up, and the escaping gas burned up over 60 feet. It is thought that at least seven of the injured are fatally burned.

Keep on rubbing the old-fashioned liniments as a matter of respect to your grandfather's aunt. Nerviline is a new discovery that in itself ought to condemn it. Therefore cling to the old; suffer pain; avoid the use of Nerviline, the most powerful, penetrating and certain pain remedy in the world. The oldest ruins in the world are probably the rock-cut temples of Ipsambul in Nubia, on the Nile. They are over 4,000 vears old. Washington died on the last day of the your throat or lungs and run the risk of alling a consumptive's grave, when by the timely use of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive syrup the pain can be allayed and the danger avoided? Life Useless to a Great Dancing to Death.

De Bebeyran, Who Taught Marie Jansen and Lillian Russell, Worried

(New York Recorder.) Prof. Mamet de Bebeyran, who for the last thirteen years has been the leading instructor of ballet dancers in this city, died early on Christmas morning at the Post Graduate Hospital, in East Twentieth street. He had a dancing academy at 6 East Fourteenth street for public and private classes, where nearly all the girls who take part in the largest ballet dances given at the different theaters were given lessons by him.

About a month ago, while illustrating the method of doing a high kick slowly and gracefully by muscular action instead of a sudden propelling force in the presence of one of his pupils, De Bebeyran fell and slightly injured his left leg. The skin was scraped off where it came in contact with the floor, but he did not mind and kept on with his lessons as usual. The leg after a few days became very painful, and compelled him to stop dancing. Then he had a severe attach of grip, and was forced to remain at home. The grip weakened his constitution so that it could weakened his constitution so that it could not resist the progress of the gangrene which set in around a sore on his leg. He became very weak, and was taken to the Post Graduate Hospital. The doctors tried to save the leg, but their effort was useless, and last Friday it was amputated close to the thigh. The coctors said De Bebeyran had a tair chance of recovery, but he worried so about not being able to dance again that he could not get able to dance again that he could not get any rest. He talked all the time about his old pupils, including Emma Juch, Amanda Fabris, Isabella Urquhart, Fannie Rice, Marie Jansen and Lillian Russell, all of whom were taught to take the steps which have pleased thousands of admirers under his direction. His death resulted from blood poisoning. Prof. De Bebeyran was 56 years old, and was brought here from Paris fifteen years ago by Eugene Tompkins. He danced under Tompkins' management all over the country and appeared in "Michael Strogoff," "Jalma" and "A Voyage in Southern Seas." He scored a great hit wherever he appeared. He intended to return to Paris next month, where he was a ways very popular. He had entire charge of the ballet of the American Opera Company during its existence, and yesterday Mrs. Thurber, who was greatly pleased with the way he worked to make his part of the show a success, said that she would pay the expenses of his funeral. The funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock this morning at the Church of St. Vincent de Paul, and hundreds of his former pupils have made arrangements to attend.

-Secretary Gresham, of the United States, has instructed Minister White at St. Petersburg to inform the Russian Government that "assisted" immigrants will not be allowed to land in the United States. In view of the hard times on this continent and the difficulty in getting work, this is a wise resolve. The man who is selfsustaining, who can pay his own way, who is willing to go upon land, and has enough supplies to keep him till he sells a crop, will always be welcome in this country. But is is a positive injury to any poor man, "assisted" to come here by some poor law board, to encourage the idea that he has nothing to do but land and enjoy plenty. It is, moreover, a great wrong to the taxpaying workmen already here, many of whom are either out of work or find it hard to get along.

-W. T. Richards, of Chicago, representing the Russian Government Transcontinental Railroad, has arrived at Tacoma, Washington State. He will designate ports along the coast from San Diego to Vancouver, B. Mr. Richards says five new steamers have been already bought, four of which will leave New York in a few months for the Pacific Ocean, the fifth going to the Baltic Sea for the present. Some of the steamers will be ready for service in six months, but the fleet will not be complete for two years or more, when Russia will have a controlling commercial flect on the Pacific Ocean. This is an exraordinary development. The new transcontinental railway, which will open up Siberia, with its rich mines and agricultural possibilities of a decidedly great nature, may have a powerful influence in the commercial future of the Pacific countries. We live in an age of surprises.

-The World's Columbian Exposition memorial for international arbitration has been presented to Secretary Gresham and President Cleveland. It is a remarkable document, having the authograph signatures of the commissioners from some 40 different nations which participated in the exposition and also the territories of the United States, the directors and officials of the exposition, many of the chairmen and speakers of the congress of the World's Congress Auxiliary, the editors of the principle daily papers, and other leaders of public opinion. It will be a happy day for the world when the sentiments expressed by these representative men are generally accepted and peace is maintained, not by a constantly increasing burden of military expenditures, but by the knowledge that no nation will be so unreasonable as to ask for more than a fair arbitration of a difficulty with a neighbor. The same code of conduct that governs private individuals should be applied to international

WHY SLIPPERY SIDEWALKS ? Several citizens have recently requested information as to the duty of citizens with regard to removing snow and ice from the sidewalks. Complaint is made that stone sidewalks especially are left in a dangerous condition every time there is a thaw and subsequent freezing. There is some truth in this statement. The snow plow is an excellent agency for getting rid of surface snow on the walks, and citizens would not be without it for a good deal; but we all know that it does not completely clear the walk, and that every time there is a thaw and afterwards frost many of the sidewalks are rendered almost impassable. Citizens could remedy this drawback, in large measure, if they would co-operate in promptly clearing the walks as soon as the caked snow is loosened. Little effort is made with this object in view, and the consequence is the most unsatisfactory, not to say dangerous, condition of the majority of the sidewalks every time there is

In the center of the city, where the most danger is, the trouble arises from the general ignoring of the bylaw governing the removal of the snow and ice within the leading thoroughfares. Section 41 of the bylaws regulating streets and sidewalks, enacts that the occupants or owners of all property within the central section shall remove all snow and ice from the sidewalks within four hours after any fall of snow, hail or rain which shall freeze on the side. walks, drains or water courses. If this work is not undertaken by the occupants or owners of property, the street comymous millionaire does credicto his missioner or city engineer is empowered to remove the ice or snow, and charge the cost to the taxes of the property affected. If, however, the snow or ice is so frozen that in the judgment of the officers named its removal would injure the sidewalk, the persons owning property must strew ashes or sand on the sidewalk, and shall not be deemed in default until four hours of daylight after the time when the ice or snow becomes capable of removal. Our readers can judge how far this bylaw has been carried out. It is alleged that it omen able and willing to give their aid to is more honored in the breach than the observance, but very little foresight on the part of those affected would render the sidewalks much safer than they too often That is a sad tale which comes from are both within the prescribed central great lakes. The loss statistics for the limits and in the residential portions of the dosing are as follows: Vessels lost city. The snow plow, useful in removing valued at $1,240,000; lives lost 128-56 the greater portion of the snow, does not by any means make the sidewalks tolerably

THE LASH RECOMMENDED. A recent cablegram says that at the in termediate sessions for the county of Middlesex, the chairman, R. D. M. Littler, in addressing the grand jury, said there was one case of assault upon a woman. He thought that in cases of this kind the magistrates might well be intrusted with power to flog. Subsequently the grand jury made presentment in favor of the lash being administered in cases of assaults on women and children. It seem that brutality of this description can only be effectively combatted by some such severe measure. In former days, garrotting was very common in England, and the magistrates were almost helpless in their endeavors to put down the cowardly crime by ordinary punishment. Then the stop. Legislature gave them power to order the lash, and the measure had the most salutary effect. Though the population of England has vastly increased in the meantime, cases of sandbagging are now very rare. The prisoner who cares not for a long term of "time" thinks many times before he is tempted to commit a crime tha subjects him to a well-beaten back. The lash is none too severe a punishment for criminal attacks on defenceless women and

> THE WORKHOUSE SYSTEM, (Toronto Star.)

Toronto has often been called the most English city on this continent, If the recommendation of the grand jury recently be given effect it will be more English still. They suggest the establishment of a poorhouse for the reception of the homeless men who are now sent to jail.

It has hitherto been Canada's she could do without the "workus" system. Still, her county jails are being used for other than reformatory purposes, namely, as refuges for the destitute. Is not this a distinction with very little difference?

Whatever may be the outcome of the grand jury's recommendation, the fact remains that an honest, homeless man should not be ranked and treated as a criminal. The present system is demoralizing.

PROTECTION TO THE FARMER. (Winnipeg Commercial.)

The great aim, and the dishonest aim, too, of the advocates of high tariff in Canada, has been to try and persuade the farmers of the Dominion that the tariff protected them also, whereas the price of 90 per cent. of products of our agriculturists is raised and lowered, just as the supply and demand of European markets raise and lower them, and the poor farmer has yet to find that the philanthropic lunatic who will pay the buyer to export it. In short, the producer whose product exceeds the home demand, and exporting is necessary, cannot by any tariff, no matter how ingeniously it may be framed, secure protection, he must content himself with the price fixed by the markets of another country for his export surplus.

PUNISHED VERY QUICKLY.

A Burglar's Cigar Ashes Fell in a Keg of Powder, and He Was Killed. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 31.-William Mack paid a peculiar penalty for burglary at Geesbend, Wilcox county, Ala., the other night. About midnight he broke into John Pettway's general merchandise store, and proceeded to ransack the place.

He took a cigar from the showcase and lighted it while he did his work of invoicing the stock and taking what he wanted. As he walked about through the rear of the store, some ashes from his cigar fell into an open keg of powder. The explosion which resulted blew the building to pieces and threw the burglar a hundred feet away. He died this morning.

Do you ever wash your hair brush? This is the one teaspoonful of Pearline into a basin of warm water; wash the brush thoroughly in it; rinse in clean water, and set it aside, bristles down, to dry. This is only one—a small one -of the numberless uses to which you can put Pearline. Once you have it in the house. you will find something new for it to do, every day. It does your washing and cleaning better than soap. Try it on anything for which you've been using soap, and see.

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, do the honest thing—send it back. 387 JAMES PYLE, New York

THE WHEEL.

THE FINISH. NEW YORK, Dec. 31 .- At 4:30 o'clock yesterday the two-mile scratch race in which P. J. Berlo, J. F. Starbuck and Richard Howell were entered resulted in the order named; time 5:251. The fivemile race which followed was won by Berlo, Price second and Starbuck third; time, 14:23 2-5.

As the evening advanced all of the contestants in the six-day match began to stir themselves. Schock wanted to cover 1,600 miles, Martin wanted to reach his record made in 1891, while the others desired to get above the 1,400 mile mark in order to get the $150 guaranteed to men covering that distance. The management has guaranteed $1,200 to the winner, $800 to the second, $500 to the third, $350 to fourth, $250 to fifth and $150 each to men covering 1,400 miles. At 7 o'clock Schock made the lap which placed him 100 miles ahead of the world's record made by Martin in 1891. the Circuit Court decides in favor of the match the Governor cannot interfere. The habeas corpus proceedings will be heard on Wednesday. Betting is in favor of Corbett here now.

A prominent sporting man who stands close to Gov. Mitchell said to a press representative to-day: "The Governor has announced that he has a trump card to play and that he will stop the fight. If the court sustains the Athletic Club and declares there is no law on the statute book of Florida to stop a glove contest, the Governor will probably wait until the time is ripe and declare martial law in Duval county." CRICHET.

Rev. R. S. Holmes, the Yorkshire vicar who writes the "Notches" in Cricket, has had an interview with the oldest living county cricketer in England. This is Tom Adams, who was born at Gravesend in 1809, and has lived there ever since. Adams was a contemporary of such oldtime worthies as Lord Frederick Beauclerk, Beldham and Lambert, and played cricket long before Parr, Caffyn and other heroes of the middle of the century had been heard of. For more than twenty years he played in the famous Kentish eleven, that was able to meet and defeat all England, in company with Mr. Alfred Mynn, Fuller Pilch, Wenman, Hillyer and others. It was Adams who started the bat and ball ground at Gravesend in 1845. The old cricketer is still able to get about and retains all his faculties, so that Mr. Holmes was able to get some very interesting reminiscences .- [Western Mail.

"TRUE TEMPERANCE?"

As Advocated by the Rev. R. F. Dixon, of Hamilton.

With the above heading an extraordinary "communication" has just appeared. It was written by "a minister of Christ and a priest of the Church of God," by one who would not consider it "worth telling a lie to save 10,000 drunkards." Well, it is not worth while just now to deal with this remarkable document in detail, but if Mr. Dixon can find any satisfaction in the use that is being made of his "communication" by the liquor men of this city in the interest of their iniquitous business, he is welcome to it. How different are the earnest words of the Bishop of Huron (who has at least this advantage over Mr. Dixon, namely, that he is well and favorably known from one end of the Province to the other), uttered about a year ago:

"I don't wish to speak about men, but about realities," said the Bishop of Huron, who was given a rousing welcome. "I will begin by saying that whenever evil is discovered it becomes the duty of the community, if possible, to remove it. (Cheers.) I am a Canadian, born in Toronto, and I feel that I can wish my country no better happiness than that the whole liquor traffic should be swept away from the Atlantic to the Pacific. (Cheers.) No one can doubt that the liquor traffic is the prolific awful source of ruin, crime and misery in our country. The question presents itself as we walk through our fair streets and pass the saloon. Of what utility is that in the city? I can answer what it is good for. It is good to separate husband from wife and wife from husband; it is good to separate fathers from children and children from fathers; it is good for the jail; it is good for the gallows; it is good for the evil power of darkness: it is good for Satan and it is good for hell. (Hear, hear.) I have been by the side of criminals, I have seen the saddest cases that injured justice has tried to punish, but I say here, as a Christian minister, it is not fair that the courts of law should bring to justice with the one hand and punish with the most relentless energy that crime, and with the other hand license the very evils which it so earnestly condemns. (Cheers.) I don't say the courts of justice are not perfectly right. They are. But I say is it right at the same time to feed the power to strengthen the means by which all those people are enveloped in the meshes of the law and crushed under the power of its offended justice ?" (Cheers.)

Good Showing Made by the North American Life Assurance

Company. TORONTO, Dec. 31.-As Canadian financial institutions close up their year's work their reports will no doubt be closely scrutinized to ascertain how they have been affected by the stringency and financial disturbance that have prevailed throughout most of the year.

The North American Life Assurance Company last night dispatched to the Dominion Government their report of the year, and it shows that in the amount of new insurances received, the interest earned, the addition to assets and reserve funds and surplus accumulated in 1893 has been their most prosperous year. They also report the mortality of the year to have been moderate, all claims being more than provided for by interest receipts.

Interest is reported to have been met with gratifying promptness. They have added $71,000 to their surplus fund, which now aggregates over $297,000. The putby for the year is over 58 per cent. of the total income.

CONCISE CULLINGS

It is reported that the city of Chicago has been robbed of $1,200,000 by means of fraudulent pay-rolls and in other ways. Frank Howard, a desperate crook from Chicago, and one of the most notorious safe blowers in the country, has been arrested in Cincinnati. Atchison, Kan., is overrun with tramps.

Every train brings in swarms, and a small army of about 50 are encamped in the southern portion of the city. Charles A. Mack, of Detroit, assumes control of the money order department of the Detroit postoffice to-day. He succeeds John L. Watkins, who has been superintendent for fifteen years. Adam Herold, at one time State treasurer of California, has committed suicide by hanging. He became despondent over the United States mint in San Francisco. At Omaha, Neb., Saturday, Judge Scott sentenced John McDonald and Jas. Collins to four years each in the penitentiary for breaking into and robbing the Jewish Church of its silver altar service and the cash box of the currency on hand.

We, the Liberal party of Canada, in convention assembled declare: That the customs tariff of the Dominion should be based, not as it now is, upon the protective principle, but upon the requirenents of the public service. That the existing tariff, founded upon an unsound principle and used as it has been by the Government as a corrupting agency, wherewith to keep themselves in office, has

In these, and in many other ways, it has occasioned great public and private injury. all of which evils must continue to grow in intensity so long as the present tariff system remains in force.

That the highest interests of Canada demand a removal of this obstacle to our country's progress, by the adoption of a sound fiscal policy, which, while not doing injustice to any class, will promote do-mestic and foreign trade and hasten the re turn of prosperity to our people.

That to that end, the tariff should be reduced to the needs of honest, economical and efficient government. That it should be so adjusted as to make free, or to bear as lightly as possible upon the necessaries of life and should be so arranged as to promote freer trade with the whole world, more particularly Great Britain and the United States. We believe that the results of the protective system have grievously disappointed thousands of ersons who honestly supperted it, and nat the country in the light of experience is now prepared to declare for a sound fiscal policy.

The issue between the two political parties on this great question is now clearly defined. The Government themselves admit the failure of their fiscal pollow, and now proprotection. We denounce the principle of protection as radically unsound and unjust to the masses of the people, and we declare our conviction that any tariff changes based on that principle must fail to afford any substantial relief from the burdens under which the country labors. This issue we unhesitatingly accept and up a it we await with the fullest condence the verdict of the electors of Canada. One of the best remedies for a Sore Throat is to gargle the throat several times a day, if practicable, with Pond's Extract, and on retiring to wrap the neck in a woolen bandage saturated with Pond's Extract and cold water. If the swelling

The "boom" in the apple trade in Englard referred to by us last week, has received a sudden set-back, prices there having declined considerably, owing, no doubt, to the Christmas demand having been supplied, and an increase in receipts induced by the high prices cabled over. A dealer to-day stated that he are hyprised at nothing in connection with thigh apple market, as he knew of money ying been lost on a 49s cable. In November

miscuous Slaughter Fast Wiping Them Out. More than 30 years ago the ornithologists first began to fear the ultimate extinction of the birds of America. Their fears found words, but their warnings were laughed at because no one could be brought to believe that prolific creatures, harmless | wife's solemn statement that there were struction. It is known now that the ex- were groping your way nervously across termination which was feared 30 years ago is soon to be an accomplished fact unless light the gas, you have none of you ever means are taken at once to check the set your bare foot suddenly on the baby's slaughter of our useful birds for purposes of personal adornment.

There are at least 50 species of feathered those whose brilliant markings make them a prey to the millinery trade, which has men employed everywhere to kill the innocents. The number of birds annually sacrificed to the vanity of the women of America is placed as high as 8,000,000 by paint, every color of which will stand the the testimony of those who have investigated the matter.

One of the worst features of the slaughterer of birds for women's hat ornaments is that those employed by the wholemost profitable season. Then the adult birds are easily found and rapidly ap-proached. It is far from exaggeration to say that one bird out of every four worn as a bit of feathered finery represents a nestful of fledgelings doomed to slow starvation by the death of the parent.

A few years ago the wooded banks of Lake Michigan north of Chicago were the breeding grounds of hundreds of scarlet tanagers, possibly the most beautiful bird known to American ornithology. Now they are so rare that one must search a whole summer day to find a single specimen. The red-winged blackbird is fast disappearing. The Baltimore oriole, which is nest at the end of the droom ing boughs of the elms in the very heart of large eastern cities, now is seen rarely save in remote country districts, and there it is now as shy as it once was friendly The numerous family known as the warblers, whose diminutive size would be a protection did not their surpassing beauty make them objects of cupidity, are going the way of the others. Many varieties of this family nest north of the latitude of Chicago, but great numbers of the little creatures are killed during the vernal migration. The woodpeckers are rapidly decreasing in numbers. The red-headed woodpecker, whose poll was dyed by Hiawatha for timely service, was once a common resident of Chicago. It is seen still occasionally in Kenwood and other southern city districts, but the hunter for the millinery market and the small boy with his noiseless air gun are fast depleting its

The slaughter of the birds is far more than a mere matter of sentiment. It is a question of importance from an economic point of view. Nearly all the birds of bright plumage are insectivorous. A statement of the number of noxious insects that a single songster will kill in a day would tax the credulity could it not readily be proven.

There are about 800 varieties of American birds, and of this number those whose conduct forms no excuse for their living can be counted on the fingers of one hand. Husbandmen have been apt to let a cherry bruised by the beak of a robin outweigh the death by the same beak of 100 insects whose killing made the ripe cherries possible. The tiny bird named by ortnithologists the creeper is called the sap-sucker by farmers because of its supposed habits. So far from sapping the life of a tree this misunderstood little bird picks from beneath the bark the insect that has been slowly working the tree's destruction. If the farmers will consult their own interests and protect bird life they will reap the benefit with the wheat and pluck it with their cherries. The continuance of the birds with us rests, however, mainly with woman. If she will permanently substitute ribbons and flowers for feathers as articles of bonnet decoration the trill of the song sparrow and the liquid note of the hermit thrush may be heard in our meadows and woods for the years to come.

Ricked the Wrong Man. A young Poughkeepsian a few days since picked up a friend on Market street and took him home to lunch without notice to the former's wife. She called him one side and explained that there were only a dozen raw oysters, and when their friend had eaten his quota of four he must not be asked to take more. All this the husband promised to remember. When their guest had eaten his four oysters the host asked him to take some more. The wife looked distressed and the guest declined. The husband insisted that his friend should have more. The wife looked as if she were in great agony and the guest firmly refused to allow the rest of the oysters to be brought from the kitchen. Later the wife said to the husband: "How could you urge him to have more oysters when I explained to you that there weren't any more?" "I am very sorry," said the penitent husband, "but I forgot all about it." "What do you suppose I was kicking you under the table for?" retorted the wife. "Butyou didn't kick me." said the husband, - Poughkeepsie News Press.

MOST TERRIFYING OF ALL.

Hairbreadth Escapes of Lite and Limb Are Nothing Compared to It.

We were discussing moments of supreme terror, says a writer in Truth, and each of us had given his most thrilling experience, when his heart had come the nearest to standing still-getting off its beat, as it were-and it had got to be Cooper's turn. Almy had told of the time he fell over the precipice, and was only saved from being dashed to pieces by clutching a dandelion which grew on the brink, and Bowen had related how he drank from a bottle, the gift of a New Jersey friend, in the dark, and for a moment thought that he had taken nitric acid through mistake. Acer had given a graphic description of the cold chills which had run over him and the sudden awful faintness when hel went out to dinner in full dress and discovered as he entered the diningroom that it was only 5:29; and I had lived over for their benefit my experience of jumping from a locomotive just as it crashed into the side of a swiftly-moving mained for some time apparently deep in thought. At length he said: "Gentlemen, I have no doubt that each of you has given, thoughtlessly, perhaps, what he considers his supreme moment of terror: but, knowing all of you as I do, the joys of your home lives and the trials of the head of a family, you will pardon me if I say that I think that you have made a mistake. Is it possible that none of you have ever been aroused at 2 o'clock in the morning by your by nature, could be in danger of total de- burglars in the house, and that while you the room through the horrible darkness to little hollow rubber doil, which whistled when compressed?" For a moment there was solemn silence, life once common in all parts of the United and then we guilty wretches, bound to-States east of the Mississippi River that gether by the common tie of fatherhood, are now seen only rarely. The birds that arose, shook hands sympathetically with are being exterminated most rapidly are each other, and took Cooper out and bought him something.

Cooper had sat silently smoking until

I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine. and when the third bottle was finished I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. Emperor William, it is Said, Wants it for His New Crown-Worth $5,000,000.

BERLIN, Dec. 29 .- Emperor William is said to be trying to buy the new Cape diamond, believed to be the largest in the world and more valuable than the Kohinoor, weighing 971 carats. If he gets it he will have it set, rumor says, in the new crown being made tor him here.

The diamond referred to is called the Exceisior, and is deposited in one of the Bank of England safes. It was found last June in the mines of Jagersfontein, Cape Colony, by Capt. Edward Jorganson, the mine inspector. In his opinion, corroborated by that of the director, Mr. Gifford, the Excelsior is a stone of the purest water and worth about $5,000,000. man was eloquently conveyed in his lowered Exceptional precautions were taken to have it conveyed from the mine to the coast. A squadron of Lancers guarded the carriage to Cape Town, from which point it was shipped to London to the gunboat Antelope. It is fully three inches high, nearly three inches broad and weighs 971 carats, a little more than seven ounces (Troy.) The color is white, with a very slight bluish tint, and its luster is pronounced matchless. At the center is a very small black spot, which experts say will be removed easily in the cutting. The British Government is reported to have offered $2,500,000 for this diamond, but the offer was refused.

ing. The case mystifies oculists.

Half an hour after Miss Knapp's sight was taken from her a messenger arrived with a diamond ring from her fiancee. It was her engagement ring. When it was given her Miss Knapp was prostrated at the thought that she could no longer see the giver.

WOMEN IN CONGRESS.

Not Improbable that Colorado May Send a Female Representative or Twe.

[From the Washington Star.] A woman in Congress is one of the easy and not-far-distant probabilities. By the laws of the State of Colorado women residents of that sub-division of the United States may vote in all elections, and, that | being the case, what would be more natural than that women should, as soon as they can, organize, nominate and elect one of their own sex to represent one of the two districts of the State in Congress? There is nothing unreasonable in the prospect, nothing at which poor oppressed man needs to be affrighted. Woman has competed with him quite successfully in many lines of business and has given irrefragable testimony as to her worldly wisdom. In literature and art she has achieved much, while her title to place in the pulpit and on the lecture platform may not be disputed. Argument will probably be made to show that lack of intimacy with great commercial and financial interests would unfit woman for dealing with such ponderous subjects as the tariff and internal revenue, but a civil service examination of the House and Senate on those topics would reveal vast quantities of unadulterated ignorance and a far greater amount of exteremely superficial knowledge. Woman will undoubtedly be the reformer of the future; she is dauntless of spirit and can endure without a murmur sufferings such as entitle her to the crown of martyrdom. Sarcastic man may and will fire his shafts at the ideas which womankind champions, but although satire often wounds even a good cause it never strikes a vital spot in the logic of living principle. The first woman to take the legislator's oath should be on the sunny side of 40-bright, well-informed, and, if possible, beautiful. There are too many "old women" in Congress now.

Cotton Business Improved.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 30. - Secretary Hester's weekly cotton statement shows a marked increase in the movement of cotton into sight over both last year and the year before, the increase being 35 or 49 per cent. over the seven days ending Dec. 29 last year, and 14 per cent. over the same seven days of 1891. The total takings of American mills, north and south and Canada, thus far for the season have been 1,247,-262 against 1,255,178 last year. These include 907,183 by northern spinners against BIDDEFORD, Me., Dec. 29.-A farmer named Knight came to town to-day from Scarboro, and seeing the curtains of the police station tightly drawn, saloon fashion, walked in and asked City Marshal Harmon for a glass of beer. The big marshal, saying he thought he could accommodate him, led the way to a cell and locked him up.

Knew the Theologians.

Rev. W. J. Clark delivered a sermon to children yesterday morning in Victoria Hall. The young folks were gathered in the central portion of the auditorium, and throughout the discourse displayed uninterruped appreciation. Mr. Clark is in one of his happiest veins when addressing the youthful element. He asked a number of questions and generally received ap-propriate answers. At one juncture he wanted to see whether anyone knew the name of a certain theologian who lived since the time of Christ-it was that of St. Augustine. As a prompter he said: "The name begins with A." "Isaiah," promptly exclaimed a budding scholar, amid the audible amusement of the whole congregation.

World's Fair Views To-Day.

This afternoon and evening and Tuesday night a World's Fair entertainment appears in the Grand. Identified with it is the popular artist, Mr. W. E. Ramsay, whose interesting and humorous lecture is highly spoken of by both press and public, and the several songs introduced by him are very amusing. The views, too, are said to be most elaborate, being colored, which adds greatly to the beauty of the picture. They are the only colored views in Canada of the World's Fair, and therefore much more attractive than those shown at similar entertainments. The fact, too, that this comes under the management of O. B. Sheppard, of the Grand Opera House, Toronto, should warrant a perfect entertainment in every detail. All the places of interest in the White City, including the Irish village, streets in Cairo, electric fountain, the Forris wheel, old Vienna, Esquimaux village and the search light will be reproduced in all their grandeur and beauty.

No Christmas and New Year's table should be without a bottle of Dr. Siergert's Angostura Bitters, the renowned appetizer of exquisite flavor. Beware of counterfeits. The Georgia moonshiner is convinced that the tax on whisky will not be raised. The amateur photographer shouldn't mind being refused by a girl. He is used to developing negatives.

The overcoats were fished out afterward.

with the choir, sang several choruses. Mr. Peter Rijnhart, the Tibetian missionary, addressed the children, and told them an interesting story of a heathen custom that he had witnessed a year ago on the borders of Mongolia, near the great wall of China. When the heathen children fell sick their parents took them to a priest, who, by burning paper around the head of the child three times, and with various incantations, almost scared the young ones to death. Then they were carried home, supposedly cured, and with the evil spirit, who was supposed to have caused the trouble, cast out. His remarks were listened to with great attention.

Baptist Year Book. Toronto Mail: The Baptist Year-book for 1893-94, which has just been issued, contains a vast amount of information. Among other things a list of churches, with their pastors; reports of societies, colleges and associations, and reports of home and foreign missions. It contains over 200 pages, every one of which is full of matter interesting to Baptists. This is the 38th year of publication, and the book bears testimony to the earnest work of the compiler, the Rev. D. M. Mihell, M.A., B.Th. "Ring Out the Old."

Watch night services were held in three of the Methodist Churches in the city last evening. They were, in almost every instance, well attended. That at the Dundas Center was addressed by Rev. E. Holmes, C. B. Keenleyside, B.A., and Dr. Antiiff. Those at the Askin Street and Colborne Street Churches were also interesting. The remarks by those who spoke at each were short, timely and interesting. "Ring out the old, ring in the new." Rice & Barton on Thursday.

Rice & Barton's comedians will be seen at the Grand Thursday evening. The Boston Journal has the following to say about this clever Company. "Rice & Barton began a week's engagement at the Palace Theater yesterday to a crowded house both afternoon and evening. The piece kept the audience fairly convulsed from beginning to end. Its lines are very funny, while plenty of specialties are introduced to keep the audience laughing all through the actions of the piece. It is well staged and is presented by a capable company."

Ingenuity and Patience Illustrated. During the progress of the World's Fair there was to be seen among the many attractive displays in the liberal arts buil . ing a table exhibited by Mr. James Macknight, of Milwaukee, son of Mr. James Macknight, York street, city. This table is one which could not be made in a short time, and illustrates the patience of the maker. It is composed of over 8,000 pieces, and in it almost every variety, including some of the rarest foreign woods, are represented. On account of the various tints and polished state of the table, it has the appearance of being painted in Japanese style. The pieces are fitted with minute preciseness, and it took

Mr. Birks' Last Sunday. The congregation of the Dundas Center Methodist Church enjoyed the abilities of Mr. J. W. Birks for the last time yesterday, That of the evening marking this event, was pre-eminently a musical service. The choruses displayed in a marked degree the high state of efficiency to which Mr. Birks has brought his splendid choir, Gounod's "Unfold Ye Portals" might be specially mentioned. Mrs. Wigmore, who as Miss Ella Cole was the soprano soloist in the church formerly, sang Adams' magnificent composition, "The Holy City."
Mr. William Skinner contributed "Nazareth." "Lead Me Gently Home, Father," was sung with sympathetic sweetness by Miss Ziegler. Mr. Birks has been at the Dundas Center for ten years. During this long period his services have been uniformly acceptable. To him the residents of this city are indebted for many of the best musical treats which have fallen to their lot during the past decade. He will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends. Mr. Birks leaves for England shortly. After studying his profession for a year in Germany he will enter upon his duties in connection with St. James' Church, Montreal.
