DIGEST OF LATEST WAR NEWS

Allies Still Gaining Ground. London, Aug 22—The opening of the allied offensive at Saloniki has been the signal for renewed reports that Roumania is at last about to throw in her lot with the entente. These reports are more circumstantial than ever before, and the comments of the German press indicate that they are far from being devoid of foundation. One Berlin newspaper goes so far as to declare that Rumania has already joined the allies, and that plans are being laid for the march of the Russian army through Rumanian territory. Major Morah, the famous German military critic, also believes that Rumania is negotiating with Russia and hints at an ultimatum to Bucharest from Germany and Austria.

The entry of Rumania into the war on the side of the entente would mean the forging of another link in the chain of foes surrounding the central powers. The material aid which Rumania could give would be of a very important character. She has had between 500,000 and 600,000 troops mobilized for nearly a year, and her army is reported to be one of the best equipped and trained in Europe. Apart from possible Russian reinforcements Rumania would be in a position to deal a powerful blow at Bulgaria from the north, in conjunction with the allies drive from the south. It has been generally understood that Russia has been willing to concede the Province of Bessarabia, the population of which is largely Rumanian, in return for Rumanian co-operation in the war. Bessarabia is 18,000 square miles in extent, and has a population of nearly 2,000,000.

The great offensive launched by the allies on Sunday on the Saloniki front, is growing in fury, but so far no decisive action has been fought. The British and French are advancing on the right of the line and have crossed the Struma, pushing forward in a northeasterly direction toward the Bulgarian frontier. At the same time the Serbians have opened a drive for Monastir, and report the capture of first line Bulgarian trenches. On the extreme left, however, the enemy suffered a tacks have been made at several points along the British lines, but according to London, without success. The Germans have also made a powerful effort to re-capture Fleury, in the Verdun sector, but Paris reports their complete repulse. The repeated unofficial reports that Portugal was about to take an active share on the European battlefield are apparently confirmed by an announcement from Paris that a British-French military commission has been sent to Lisbon. News dispatches from Portugal have described military preparations of a very extensive character, but there has been nothing yet to indicate the number of men she has under arms.

Worth its Weight in Gold

Mi-o-na Has Reached a Gold Standard, Says Harry Ellis of Fergus, For Stomach Trouble

Harry Ellis of Fergus, Ont., says I believe that Mi-o-na for the cure of stomach trouble, is worth its weight in gold. It cured me from a stomach difficulty that seemed to puzzle all other prescriptions and remedies. I was unable to eat, the food would ferment and form gas and make a serious pressure on my heart. There were terrible pains in the pit of my stomach I became weak, discouraged and later I got nervous and could not sleep or rest. This disease makes one feel like not wanting to see any human being and produces melancholy and foreboding. I was told to try Mi-o-na and when I commenced on the first box I had hardly any faith in it, but the first two days treatment made the pain in my stomach cease, and to make a long story short, the upset of my using Mi-o-na was that it cured me wholly and I now can eat what I like and when I am hungry. I am an ardent advocate of the use of Mi-o-na.

J. D. Clark sells Mi-o-na Tablets, the dyspepsia remedy that is making such surprising cures throughout Canada for 50 cents a box, guarantees them to cure or money back.

DEVICES FOR SPELLING

Have you ever invented any devices to help you to spell correctly? How do you remember about "ie" and "ei," about "ary" and "ery," and where to use two "s's" or two "e's"? D. E. Yocum, of Pennsylvania and his post-graduate students have been questioning teachers about this, and have collected answers showing devices used by about two hundred persons. The answers are published by the Teacher of Philadelphia. We give a few of them.

- 1.—"Familiar" lost its trouble for me when I noticed the "liar" in it.
2.—I remember "stationary" by the "a" in "stand;" "stationery" by the "e" in "pen;" "beach," a shore, and "beech tree" are remembered by the "ea" in "sea" and the "ee" in "tree."
3.—"Principal" and "principle" are distinguished by associating the latter with its synonym "rule."
4.—"Philippine." Spell "Phillip," then "pine."
5.—"Grammar" has a rhyme: "Two a's, two m's, two r's, one g. Put them together and spell it for me."
6.—"Separate." Remember that the first and second vowels are not alike.
7.—Three persons spell "business" correctly by remembering that it has "sin" in the middle of it.
8.—Four say that "niece" comes to them correctly when they think of "nice niece."
9.—The confusing "ie" and "ei" in words like "believe" and "receive" are simplified for fourteen teachers by the "li" and "ce" in the word "Alice."
10.—The writer used to stumble at "oratorio" until she heard of the child who called it "o-rat-o-ri-o" with stress on the second and fourth syllables.

The best mnemonics are those we invent for ourselves, but simple ones like the foregoing may be successfully borrowed. Give one spelling period early in the year to find out what devices your pupils use in spelling, and stimulate them to find new ones for difficult words.

COLORED CORPS

Recruiting for No. 2 Construction Corps Now in Progress

It is a well known fact that since the outbreak of hostilities between the entente Allies and Germany, many colored men have endeavored to enlist, a great many without success, mainly owing to the fact that a movement was on foot for the organization of a Colored Battalion.

This Battalion is now in the process of formation, and the recruiting is proceeding at a rapid pace. Any colored men desirous of enlisting in this Corps would do well to make application at once, either to Capt. C. W. Reis, No. 2 Construction Corps, Pictou, N. S., or to Sergeant R. G. Bowser, C.M.S.C., Aldershot Camp.

Five recruits have enlisted from this district in the past week, namely:—John Henry Grant, Omer Harris, Fred LeRoy Lindsay, Kentville, N. S.; Robert Henry Gibson, Centerville, N. S.; Harold Simmons, Kentville, N. S.

Aldershot and Kentville Visited by H. R. Highness Duke of Connaught and Princess Patricia

(From N. S. Highlander)

Field Marshal, H. R. H., The Duke of Connaught and Vice-Regal Party See Nova Scotia's Stalwart Battalions in Ceremonial Review and in the Many Phases of their Work—March Past and Grand Review a Magnificent Spectacle—Thousands of Visitors From All Parts of the Province Present

ALDERSHOT CAMP, August 26—For the first time in the history of this Camp the Royal Standard "broke" from the Headquarters flag staff this morning. Its display tokened the arrival of Field Marshal, H. R. H., the Duke of Connaught, Governor General of Canada, and the Vice-Regal Party within the Camp lines.

The visit of His Royal Highness to Aldershot Camp was for the purpose of inspecting the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade, an event which will be signalized in the annals of the Brigade as the most notable in its history while in training in the homeland. For Field Marshal H. R. H., The Duke of Connaught himself is, in the military phraseology of England, Canada's "Master Soldier," and, as soldier himself who has seen great campaigns, takes a profound interest in the men who serve the King and the Empire in protecting and upbuilding the British Empire.

Adding brilliancy to the general occasion was the presence of Camp of Her Royal Highness Princess Patricia. She was accompanied by her ladies-in-waiting and Mrs. Morres, wife of Commander Morres, naval aide-de-camp, and displayed genuine interest in the Camp and its work.

The day was sunny and inviting, and the Review of the troops in Camp came off splendidly, and was a signal military event for all who took part in it and for those who witnessed it.

His Royal Highness and Vice-Regal Party entrained at Aldershot at 1:30 p.m. Following is a summary account of the morning's proceedings:

A special train, with the Royal Car, bearing aboard Their Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught and Princess Patricia, arrived at an early hour this morning at Aldershot Station, where a special guard from Camp was on duty for the occasion.

By the same train arrived also Colonel Stanton, Military Secretary, Commander Morres, Naval aide-de-camp; Captain Macintosh, Military aide-de-camp; Lieut. Colonel Armstrong, D.A.A. & Q.M.G., Militia District No. 6, and Major A. N. Jones, G.S.O., Militia District No. 6.

All arrangements at Aldershot having been completed for a Review of the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade and other units in camp at 9:30 o'clock this morning by Field Marshal His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, Colonel Thompson, Camp Commandant, accompanied by his staff, reported at 9 o'clock to His Royal Highness, and escorted the Royal party to the Camp Parade Grounds where the troops were drawn up in line of massed battalions under the command of Lt.-Colonel Borden.

Through an insufficiency of trained horses in camp, to mount His Royal Highness and party, automobiles were specially commissioned to carry them to Parade Grounds.

The cars arrived at the Saluting base at 9:30 a.m. sharp in the following order:

In the first car were Field Marshal, His Royal Highness The Duke of Connaught, Colonel Thompson, Camp Commandant, and Commander Morres, naval aide-de-camp.

In the second car were Colonel Stanton, Military Secretary, Captain Macintosh, Military aide-de-camp, and Lt.-Col. Mersereau, Camp G.S.O.

In the third car were Lt.-Col. Armstrong, D.A.A. & Q.M.G., Major A. N. Jones, G.S.O., and Major Bligh, Camp D, A. G.

Grand Review

At the request of His Royal Highness, it is understood, the ceremonial part of the Review was somewhat curtailed, in order that he might have adequate time thoroughly to inspect the Officers and men and to see the camp at work in practical soldiering. Accordingly, having arrived at the saluting base, His Royal Highness alighted from his car, and accompanied by his personal staff and by the Camp Commandant and his staff proceeded to a point about 50 yards in front of the massed battalions where he received their Royal Salute. His Royal Highness next proceeded to inspect the men of the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade, beginning at the right flank. He was frequently seen, as he passed along the line, to pause and converse with men in the ranks who wore service ribbons. It was interesting to note that this is one of the well-known characteristics of His Royal Highness which has endeared him to so many soldiers not only of this Dominion but also of the British Empire as a whole. For a service ribbon in the ranks apparently never escapes his eye and he invariably questions the wearer with regard to his services in the campaigns presented, thus showing a genuine soldierly interest in the part played by the private soldier in the protection and supremacy of the British Empire.

March Past

The inspection concluded His Royal Highness retired to the saluting base, while the troops formed up on the saluting square for the March Past in columns in the order of seniority.—85th Battalion, 185th Battalion, 193rd Battalion, 219th Battalion and 97th Battalion. The March Past concluded the troops wheeled a gain to the left and assumed their original position, facing the saluting base in massed battalions. The whole line then advanced in review order, and again saluted. On the order of the Brigade Commander, Lt.-Col Borden, the Officers fell out, and formed a semi-circle about the Commander. Thus formed, each officer was presented to His Royal Highness.

Tour of Camp

Following the Review, His Royal Highness and party, reinforced by the camp staff mounted, inspected the Royal School of Infantry and the Field Hospital. From the latter they proceeded to the Service Range where 250 men were seen engaged at work with the machine guns, sniping, and firing from trenches. The Miniature Range was next visited, were 200 men were engaged in the work.

joining the staff lines where Lt. Traquair, Officer in charge of P. T. and B. F., had the men give exhibitions in Bayonet later His Royal Highness and party proceeded to the ridge adjoining the trenches in the hollow in the north boundary were next visited, and the trench work in charge of Major MacKenzie was examined; and a detachment of 50 men were seen in an interesting bombing attack carried out under Lieut. Ladd. The inspection of the camp at work concluded when His Royal Highness and party returned to the parade grounds and witnessed the men being put through all sorts of drill.

It was this practical work of the camp that was the most interesting to His Royal Highness, and he expressed himself as much impressed with it as well as with the general personnel, soldier-like qualities, and efficiency of the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade.

Escorted in the same manner as on arrival, His Royal Highness and party left the camp in time to entrain at 1:30 p.m. aboard the Royal Car. Thus concluded an most memorable "Red Letter" day in the history of Aldershot Camp and of the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade.

Brilliant Forerunner

But it was the climax of a two-day series of military spectacles which began on a splendid scale on the Friday preceding the visit and inspection by His Royal Highness. In the "orders" issued by the Brigade Office it was devoted "Visitors' Day." The railroads had printed posters and newspaper advertisements announcing special excursion rates for the occasion. As a result, men, women, youths, young misses and children, fathers, mothers, brothers, sweethearts, and friends by the thousands, arrived at Aldershot, coming in throngs from east, west, north and south by every train, until, adding the soldiers in camp, the number of human beings in Aldershot on Friday must have totalled, it is estimated, about 15,000 people.

A Happy Morning

The morning was completely given over to visitation by parents and relatives and friends amongst their soldier lads, to inspecting the Camp, seeing all possible sights, getting photographic groups taken, buying souvenirs, and listening to the bands in martial and concert music.

There was entertaining music "gu leor" by the various bands. The 85th Bras Band, under the direction of Lieut. Dan Mooney, played a concert program from 9:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. on the grounds in front of the Brigade tents. The 185th Brass Band, under the direction of Sergeant Williams, played a program from 11 a.m. to 12 a.m., and the 193rd Brass Band under the direction of Lieut. Jas. White, played a program from 12:50 to 1:50 p.m. And everywhere about the parade grounds and in the intervals between these hours the pipe and bugle bands of the various units skirled and trumpeted.

Review and March Past

The thousands of visitors at Camp on Friday witnessed in the afternoon a military spectacle, which was, at least in their own experience, unique—namely, the spectacle of the great body of troops, the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade, the only one of its kind in Canada, drawn up in review order and, later, in the March Past, under command of the Brigadier, Lt.-Col. Borden. For few, if any, of the visitors had seen so many as 6000 or more troops in one body, comprising four battalions, wholly recruited from one province, and designated to proceed overseas to fight for King and Country as a unit.

The battalions were formed up in line of close columns at 20 paces between each, with massed bands to play the music appropriate to the Review and March Past. The "Fall In" was given at 2:00 p.m. and the March Past began at 2:45 p.m. It was splendid throughout, not only as an imposing spectacle of stalwart men moving in thousands to inspiring music, but also as a spectacle of manly, well-drilled, efficient soldiers who gave convincingly the impression that on the battlefield they would more than hold their own against any enemy. The thousands of visiting Nova Scotians saw thousands of native Nova Scotian soldiers of whom they could well be proud, and they thrilled with patriotic fervor at the spectacle. A feature of the March Past was particularly novel to the spectators and drew applause from them was the corps of machine gunners and of stretcher bearers. The former marched with arms slung, except those carrying guns, which, in their case, were sloped. The stretcher bearers carried their stretchers, one to four men, as if going into action with troops. Altogether the Review and March Past on Friday was excellently carried out and thoroughly satisfied all who witnessed them.

Finale

The rest requires only a few words for chronicling. From 4 p.m. to darkness the evening hours were given over to musical concerts by the 85th brass and wood-wind band, the 185th brass and wood-wind band, and the 193 brass and reed band. Needless to say, the concerts were greatly enjoyed, containing, as they did, every kind of musical compositions to please every kind of musical taste.

During the concerts the visitors to Camp were treated to fine games of baseball and soccer between picked teams from the various units. Long before the concerts or the games were ended the visitors in thousands were leaving Camp for home, and the crowds at the railway station were legion. But by nine o'clock, they had all got away, without a mishap. And so ended a glorious day in the history of Aldershot Camp and of the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade.

LLOYD GEORGE LAUDS CANADIANS.

In Public Speech Thanks God For Canadian Soldiers—Sir Sam Hughes Present

(From London Graphic)

Mr. Lloyd George reviewed the Canadian Division at Bramshott on Monday last (August 12th) with General Sir Sam Hughes, and afterwards addressed it. During the course of a thrilling speech he said: "It is a wonderful thing that in the third year of the war, when our forces are beginning to get exhausted, we should be preparing to pour into the field troops of quality. . . I am here as a Britisher, to thank Canada for her contribution to this war."

Wrist Watch

Soldiers from Camp and civilians from Kingsport, Kentville and vicinities joined one another in a reception to Pte. Ebenezer C. Dickie, of the 25th Battalion, who is at home on sick furlough as the result of having received ten wounds in battle, nine of them at the battle of St. Eloi.

The function took place Wednesday evening in the Warehouse, Kingsport. About 160 soldiers and the 193rd band from Camp went down for the occasion. There was a program of speeches, music by the 193rd band, a presentation, and refreshments.

Pte. Dickie was the recipient of a fine model Waltham Wrist Watch, Rev. Mr. Wright making the presentation speech. Other speakers were Rev. T. C. Melior, of Kentville, and Rev. Mr. Roy, of Kingsport. Pte. Dickie is the son of Mr. "Gus" Dickie, Conductor, D.A.R., who has another son, Leander W. Dickie, with "The Fighting 25th" of Nova Scotia. The wounded lad returns to England in September. "Going back for more" is his way of putting it.

CAMP NOTES

August 26th.

Miss Killam, of Yarmouth, was a visitor to Camp this week. She was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Day, wife of Lt.-Col. Day, 185th Battalion.

Miss Christine McLean, of Glace Bay, who was spending some time with friends in Kentville was a visitor at Camp on Tuesday.

C. E. Oulden of the Academy staff, Sydney, accompanied by Mrs. Oulden, Miss O'Brien and Miss Oulden's brother spent Wednesday in Camp visiting friends in the 185th Battalion.

Mrs. McDougall, of Whycomah, who has been visiting her son, Capt. McDougall, Paymaster of the 185th, has returned to her home.

Miss Effie Boye of New York was a visitor to Camp recently, the guest of Lieut. Goode, 193rd Battalion.

The Misses Keith, Stellarton, are guests of Mrs. J. A. MacKenzie, wife of Major J. A. MacKenzie, 85th Battalion.

An innovation in the life of Aldershot, a happy innovation that brought joy to the "Hilean hearts" whose mother tongue was the sonorous Gaelic, was signalized last Sunday morning in the Y. M. C. A. Annex when Capt. Chaplain A. J. MacDonald, 185th Battalion, conducted the first religious service in Gaelic held in the Camp. About 100 were present. Many others were prevented from being present by pressing military duties. Another service in Gaelic will be held in the near future.

WEDDING BELLS

Mosher - DeWolfe.

New Minas, Aug. 24—At the residence of the bride's parents, at 8 o'clock last evening, there took place the marriage of Miss Muriel Jessie DeWolfe, (Acadia, 1910) younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney DeWolfe, to Chesley Garfield Mosher, B. A., (Mt. Allison, 1913), of Kentville, N. S. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Francis Armitage, Wolfville, N. S., former class mate of the groom. After the ceremony Miss Evelyn Bishop sang most beautifully "All Joy Be Thine." The wedding marches also were rendered by Miss Bishop. The house was beautifully decorated with sweet peas and foliage the bridal party standing under a floral arch in the form of a true lovers knot. On either side were formed the initials of the bride and groom. The bride, who was the picture of a girlish beauty, entered the parlors leaning on her father's arm. She was gowned in white Duchesse satin with a gump of tulle on hand embroidered in pearls. The bridal veil was arranged in cap effect and held in place by a bandeau of pearls, and clusters of orange blossoms. Adorned the corsage. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet of sweet peas and maiden hair fern. The bride's mother wore a beautiful gown of lavender silk and the groom's mother a gown of black silk and chiffon. After the ceremony a dainty buffet luncheon was served. The out of town guests were Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Turner, New Glasgow, Mrs. (Dr.) Thomson, Nth. Addams, Mass., Mrs. Fred Forsythe, Greenwich, Miss Ida Mitchell, Wallbrook; Miss Tiny Baleom, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. F. Homer Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Bishop, Lawrenceport, Miss Gladys Turner, New Glasgow; Mr. and Mrs. R. Mosher and Miss Kathleen Mosher, Mrs. G. W. Woodworth, Mrs. W. H. Seaman, Mrs. G. F. Roy, Mrs. (Dr.) Parker, Miss Josephine Seaman, Harold Turner, 219th Battalion, all of Kentville; also many other friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The gifts were many and beautiful including a gold wrist watch from the groom, a handsome check from the bride's father, a beautiful upholstered chair from the groom's parents, many exquisite pieces of cut glass, silver, hand-embroidered linens, cheques, gold and cutlery. The happy couple motored to Wolfville and from there will spend their honeymoon camping at the Aylesford Lakes. After a brief visit to the principal towns they will be at home at Truro after September 7th, where the groom will take up his duties as vice-principal of Colchester Academy.

PRETTY WEDDING
AT GASPEREAU

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Westcott, Gaspereau Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when their daughter Eva Blanche became the bride of Mr. Percy Raymond Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner, New Minas.

The parlors were most artistically decorated, the bridal couple standing under an arch of green and white. Lonengrin's bridal chorus was well rendered by Miss Eva Turner, sister of the groom. Miss Evelyn Coldwell sang the beautiful solo "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden". Mendellsohn's wedding march was rendered at the close of the ceremony.

The bride, given away by her father was most becomingly gowned in white satin with pearl and lace trimmings and wore the conventional veil and orange blossoms. She carried a lovely bouquet of white roses and fern. The double ring service was used. Rev. G. D. Mil-bury officiated.

At the close of the ceremony refreshments were served by Miss Mabel Westcott sister of the bride, Miss Gladys Turner, sister of the groom, Misses Ida Mitchell and Margaret Caldwell after which the bridal party followed by the best wishes of all left by auto for Windsor, thence to Aylesford Lakes, where they will spend some weeks.

The bride's travelling suit was sand shade cloth with hat to correspond.

The presents were numerous and beautiful including cut-glass, silver, and cheques. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold bracelet set with pearls.

Among out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edson Cogswell, Berwick; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Coldwell, Hantsport; Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Dedham, Mass.; Leslie Young, Greenwood, Mass.; Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Turner, New Glasgow and Miss Gladys Turner.

Dainty Marguerite Clark in Unique Film Characterization as "Helene of the North"

Marguerite Clark's latest screen vehicle, "Helene of the North," presents this dainty star in the most unique characterization she has yet assumed since her triumphant debut in motion pictures under the management of the Famous Players Film Co. This latest five part feature combines in a decidedly novel manner the cultured atmosphere of aristocratic society circles with the rugged environment of the trackless wastes of Northwestern Canada.

Between these far extremes the drama sways with uninterupted fascination, and whether in the limitless wilds, or the warm, luxurious drawing room, Marguerite Clark is equally effective and enchanting.

Aside from the extraordinary atmospheric qualities of this dramatic romance, the entire construction of the story is very original, beginning as it does in the fashionable home of an English society lady, and developing from that sheltered spot into the open spaces of the Canadian woods, where a virile melodramatic plot ensues, culminating romantically in the cozy corner where the drama began.

Included in this divergent contrast of scenery is every emotion and element of drama possible to a modern romance. Fine pictorial effects have been obtained in the scenes centreing about the activities of the North western Mounted Police in their attempts to capture the man whom Helene fears as much as she loves the other man whom the former threatens. A special cast, including distinguished himself in support of William Faversham in "The Hawk"; Elliott Dexter, Frank Losee, David Wall, who will be pleasantly remembered for effective work in previous Famous Players productions; Ida Darling, and Brigham Boyce should make the production a memorable one.

This novel five part feature will be seen for the first time in Kentville at Nicklet Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, August 30th and 31st.

Brownell Proves Effective Against 185th Swatmen—Col-leagues Do Their Bit

Baseball during the past week proved to be the greatest fun maker among all the branches of sport for the boys in khaki at Aldershot.

With the exception of the team of the 219th Battalion every battalion team in camp was in action on some evening demonstrating their playing ability with the sole idea of winning out in the ninth, matching brains in an effort to score even one tally, which looms out big on the score board as a prize much to be sought for. The fans had a great week and the class of ball put up by the military boys would look good on any amateur diamond in Nova Scotia.

Effective pitching by Brownell for the 85th Battalion enabled his team to win a decisive victory over the speedy aggregation of the 185th boys last Saturday afternoon on the latter's diamond by the score of 11-3. Heavy hitting in the second along with Brownell's pitching proved to strong a combination and the home players took the small end of the score. Snappy fielding on the part of the 85th who accepted all chances provided a ring of steel around their mound artist through which their opponents except in two cases could not break.

It was a splendid game right to the finish and the enthusiastic khaki audience witnessed a gilt edge match full of thrills and sensations as well as errors and fumbles. However a baseball match is never free from its little bingle good for three and its error, somebody fumbled, and besides it gives the other fellow encouragement.

Each team scored two in the first and the game looked good at first with an even break. In the second, the green feather men took a balloon ride in the air, allowing the 85th players eight runs the result of a few well directed hits and a couple of costly errors. Every man but one on the 85th team scored. One more tally in the third raised the winners count to eleven. Then, but too late, Fowler, small but mighty, tightened up and blanked his opponents with no further scoring, retiring the side successively in one, two, three order. The red feather men seemed mystified towards the end by the benders of the little man and "batter-r-r out" was not to the liking of the visitors. Brownell in his twin pitched winning ball but could not prevent the 185th from squeezing in one in the seventh making three in all. Gillis, hitting a single, stealing second and third and coming home on a sacrifice was responsible for the third tally.

Those who played:
185th—C. Fowler, 2nd; McFadgen, r.f.; Batterson, 3rd; Borden, c.; Carrol, c.f.; Colwell, 1st; Gillis, s.s.; J. Fowler, p.; Nicholson, l.f.
85th—Fraser, r.f.; Boyd, l.f.; McNeil, s.s.; Brooks, 2nd; Brownell, p.; Snow, c.; Doucet, 3rd; Dermier, 1st; Donaldson, c.f.

Score by innings:
85th.....2 8 1 0 0 0 0 0—10
185th.....2 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—3

"Do not believe we ever show our real bent when we are children?" asked Binks of the genial philosopher.

"Yes," replied the genial philosopher. "I know a barber in this town who at the age of five was the most disagreeable little shaver you ever saw, and mixed up in some sort of bad scrape."

Cape Breton Lady Has Son and Grandson in Highland Brigade—Others Overseas

Many stories of brave mothers who have given more than one son or grandson to the Great Cause of England and the Entente Allies have appeared in the newspapers. Some of them have been stories of Nova Scotia mothers who have made the noble and patriotic sacrifice.

This week a Cape Breton lady, now some years over the allotted three score ten, but still vigorous and stout of heart spent a few days visiting a son in the 85th Battalion and a grandson in the 185th Battalion. She is Mrs. Sarah MacDonald, of Sydney Mines, C.B., and here is how her descendants have espoused the Great Cause—

2 sons. One son, Allan MacDonald, now in the trenches. Enlisted in British Columbia and walked 500 miles to enlist. Another son, Charles ("Chud"), whom she is now visiting. Chud is a bass player in the 85th Band.

2 grandsons. Colin Howie, Sydney Forks, 25th Battalion, "Somewhere in France", and Burns MacDonald, Sydney Mines, drummer in the 185th Battalion Band (Aldershot).

2 nephews, D. H. MacDonald, Sydney Mines, 17th Battalion, and Rod MacKinnon, Sydney Forks, 25th Battalion.

Two sons, two grandsons and two nephews—making a total of six close blood relations—Cape Breton, Nova Scotia and Canada, are proud of her. For what would Canada, and England and the Empire, and even the world, have done but for such patriotic and self-sacrificing mothers as Mrs. MacDonald.

Mrs. MacDonald is accompanied by Miss E. McCuish. They are stopping with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hiltz, Kentville.

246th Battalion

Piquant Brevities Relating to the Lads Who are Fast Recruiting

Col. Borden, the Brigadier of the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade, inspected the 246th on Wednesday and gave the men a short address.

Recruiting for the 246th is being carried on over the whole Province and men are continually coming in. On Friday and Saturday the different Battalions of the Brigade recruited on the grounds for their respective companies.

The camp arrangements for the Battalion are complete and a very business-like and, settled air prevades the lines. Marques, bell tents, kitchens, tables, and all requirements are in place and the men are drilling regularly.

Altogether about 500 men have been transferred from the battalion of the Brigade but some of these men are on command in Halifax, Trenton and Windsor.

Lt.-Col. Parsons has made three trips to arrange for recruiting, to Halifax, Amherst and Digby and others are anticipated.

The peculiar interest which all the Battalions of the Brigade have in the 246th has encouraged them to lend a helping hand whenever needed, and progress has been more rapid on that account.

The feathers and cap badges of the Battalion of the Brigade will be retained as follows: A Coy., red; B Coy., green; C Coy., blue; D Coy., purple.

This will identify the companies and keep them in touch with their battalions.

The Sons of Canada.

The Sons of Canada, and who are they? The Challenged to a deadly fray, With heart of steel, to dare, to do, To play the game, in God's own way, Through

Their gallant best—in soul array, And these are they!

The Sons of Canada, and who are they? The men who feel the forward sway, Till blood-red hand of Iron Will Has spent its mightfulness, its ill; So note them; mark them; they obey— Well, these are they!

The Sons of Canada, and who are they? No pretense at a vain display, The men who make the battle strong, For right, for honor,—with a song! The men who smile on hope's dim day, And these are they!

The Sons of Canada, and who are they? They struggle for a later day, When world of pain and strife forgot, The stars still shine,—forget them not! And mark their splendor while you may, For these are they!

The Sons of Canada, and who are they? The marshalled hosts on Death's high-way,

Who grapple with the hour's despair; And smite the evil lurking there, Then pass, with glory, from the day, And these are they!

Writing to her husband, who is "Somewhere in France," a young wife said: "The doings of those horrible Germans make me feel as though I want to knock somebody's head against a brick wall. I do wish you could come home, dear."

Six Brothers From Nova Scotia

Now in Khaki

Campbell Boys from Weymouth—Two in Nova Scotia Highland Brigade

Six brothers in the service of the empire is the enviable record of the Campbell family of Weymouth. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Campbell. Two of the boys are in the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade. Here is the list of heroes.

Colin, lieutenant in a regiment at the front.

Kenneth, lieutenant of the 219th Highland battalion.

Thomas, in the 2nd-battalion at the front.

Glidden, machine gun officer with the 85th Nova Scotia Highlanders.

Albert, with the 58th Howitzer battery of Fredricton, now at Petawawa.

Duncan, sergeant in the 106th battalion, now in England.

This is one of the finest records of any family in Nova Scotia, or, for that matter, in Canada.

Eleven Commandments of the Trenches

Written by a Canadian who went to the front with the Queen's University Engineering Corps, and is now an officer in a Scottish regiment.

The 1st Commandment is—Thou shalt challenge all persons approaching.

The 2nd Commandment is—Thou shalt not send any engraving or likeness of an airship in the heavens above, or any post-card of the earth beneath, or any drawing of any submarine in the waters under the earth, for I, the Censor, am a jealous censor, visiting the iniquities of the offenders with three months C. B., but showing mercy upon thousands by letting their letters go free, who keep my commandments.

The 3rd Commandment is—Thou shalt not use profane language, unless under extraordinary circumstances, such as seeing your comrade shot, or getting petrol in your tea.

The 4th Commandment is—Remember the soldiers' week consists of seven days. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work and on the seventh do all thy odd jobs.

The 5th Commandment is—Keep thy rifle well oiled, shoot straight, so that thy days may be long upon the land which the enemy giveth thee.

The 6th Commandment is—Thou shalt not kill—

The 7th Commandment is—Thou shalt not adulterate thy mess tin by using it as a shaving jug.

The 8th Commandment is—Thou shalt not steal thy neighbor's kit.

The 9th Commandment is—Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy comrade, but preserve discreet silence as to his goings on and comings in.

The 10th Commandment is—Thou shalt not covet thy sergeant's post nor thy corporal's, nor thy staff-major's, but by dint of perseverance rise to the high position of field-marshal.

The 11th Commandment is—Thou shalt love thy comrades of whatever race or color they be, but thou shalt hate the Germans as thou dost hate hell.

MEDICAL STAFF NOTES

L. Corp. Collins has been promoted to Corporal, and Pte. McKenzie has received one stripe.

The whole battalion, at least one thousand men, was vaccinated in two days last week. To date very few have had to be excused from parade owing to its effects.

Capt. Munro, medical officer, has recently been on leave, after five months untiring work on behalf of the men of the battalion. He visited Pughwash and River Hebert and was accompanied by Mrs. Munro.

Boy Wanted—For work in restaurant, 45 or 15 years of age. Apply to Jas. Rooney, Kentville.

NEW HIGHLAND BATTALION FUND IS GROWING

Proof that the new Highland Battalion, the 246th Reserve, is meeting with popular approval from the people is found in the splendid response to the call for funds for the battalion. The amount is now nearly a thousand dollars. The Recruiting Committee is greatly pleased with the response from the general public in aid of the regimental and pipe band fund. It will encourage Lieut.-Col. Parsons and his officers in their arduous work and will also stimulate recruiting. There are many who have not yet contributed.

It would be a very fine thing if it could be announced that the amount already subscribed for the new battalion had doubled.

"Those who have relatives and friends in either of the four battalions of the brigade should take the most earnest interest in this reserve battalion," said one of the Recruiting Committee yesterday, "for this battalion is to provide men to fill the gaps in the original battalions of the brigade, so that your boy's place will not be filled by a man from any other Province, but he will have a fellow Nova Scotian to step up and fill the gap. Perhaps it may be his brother, his cousin or his chum that will take his place. Every man who has a friend in the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade should, if it be possible, get into the Reserve Battalion. If he cannot go himself, send somebody else. If he cannot do that, give something toward its Regimental Fund."

Writing to his friend, Sgt. F. J. Glabais of the 193rd Battalion, a young French chap, with the French General Staff, gives some intimate glimpses of the front and the war generally from the French viewpoint.

The underquoted remarkable coincidence in figures, he says, is "just the latest" among the French troops Sgt. Glabais gives us the literal translation:

Emperor Francis—Joseph: Born..... 1830 Crowned Emperor..... 1848 Aged..... 86yrs. Period reigned..... 68yrs.

Emperor William II Born..... 1859 Crowned Emperor..... 1888 Aged..... 57yrs. Period reigned..... 28yrs.

SUNDAY SERVICE AT CAMP Y. M. C. A.

Helpful Meeting—Special Music By Three Lady Vocalists

(From N. S. Highlander)

The Y. M. C. A. was filled again on Sunday night. A special feature of the service was the presence of three lady singers who very kindly motored from Wolfville to sing to "the boys." Miss Lorinda Brown, and Miss Kathryn Brown are both sisters of Mrs. Cutten, wife of Captain Cutten of the 219th.

Their home is in the United States, but at present they are enjoying a brief holiday in Nova Scotia. Miss Marie Wilson is the well-known singer of Wolfville. They rendered solos, duets and trios and the hearty response they received from the audience showed how much this rare treat was being appreciated. Echoes of their sweet and helpful songs will follow the men over the seas.

Prof. C. C. McKee, director of the Conservatory of Music in Acadia Seminary, acted as accompanist. He also gave a delightful little pianoforte composition that brightened the face of everybody. Capt. Cutten presided, and Capt. Mackinnon gave an address on "The True Test of a Christian."

NEWS FROM THE 112TH BATTALION

The following letter has been received by Mrs. Hennigar from her son, Earl, a member of the 112th Battalion:

Dear Mother: Arrived in Halifax safe at noon.

We ate some lunch and then they marched back and then they marched on the transport, didn't have time to write as they would not let us, so you see I couldn't write and they don't stop at any ports coming over for fear the Germans would find it out.

Well this is Thursday and haven't been sick yet, we are having a good time on the boat we will get in England about Saturday, then I will mail you this letter, we have had a dandy trip so far not a bit rough; but it has been awful foggy most of the time.

The cake you sent was awful good, have got some of it yet, I put half of it in my mess tin.

We had plenty of good food on the boat, had oranges and apples twice they were quite a treat. I think I will close for tonight as we have to go to bed at nine o'clock, then the lights are turned out.

Here it is Friday night, five whole days on the watch and haven't seen a single girl, nothing but water and one small tug. I see Eddy Hennigar every day he is orderly for Colonel Tremain he has a good job; but does not know how long it will last. There is a heavy sea today but the ship does not mind it, is so large, we are in dangerous waters now but we will get there safe.

Will be glad when we reach land you soon get tired of the sea, we don't have anything to do but just lie around, they are having some sports on deck and the Band played a little while ago. There is six or seven Battalions on the ship. Well I think that is all. Will write when I get to headquarters so will say good by.

Love to all,
EARL HENNIGAR

Annapolis Spectator—Lieut. Farish Owen having passed his examination into the Royal Flying Corps has been attached to a squadron near York. He writes: "The day before yesterday I was up with the instructor two thousand feet above the clouds—an absolutely wonderful sight. The clouds were white fleecy and wavy underneath the clouds the air was full of bumps, just like driving an auto over a bumpy field. Going thru the clouds it was very cold, but the minute I got through the sun was shining and it was just like a balmy warm day and no bumps I practised turning at five thousand feet and did O.K. Yesterday I had full control of machine for twenty minutes. Today I took the machine off ground, tonight I start at landing. In about a week I will have to go on my first solo, that is take a machine up above. I will be glad when it is over."

Lachute, Que., 25th Sept. '08 Minard's Liniment Co., Ltd., Gentlemen,—Ever since coming home from the Boer war I have been bothered with running fever sores on my legs. I tried many salves and liniment; also doctored continuously for the blood, but got no permanent relief, till last winter when my mother got me to try MINARD'S LINIMENT. The effect of which was almost magical. Two bottles completely cured me and I have worked every working day since.

Yours gratefully,
JOHN WALSH.
